SCHOOL BOARD ADOPTS POLICY ON INITIATIONS

The Aransas County Independent School Board, at its regular meeting, adopted a policy on initiations to various organizations within the school system.

Supt. J. D. Gray recommended that the Board prohibit any type of initiation where bodily harm could result to students initiated.

He further recommended that the school administration implement this policy by reviewing and approving recommended forms of initiations as presented the various clubs and organizations.

The Board approved both recommendations unanimously.

In the meantime, letters continue to arrive in Rockport concerning the unfortunate hazing incident that made such action necessary. The latest came from Miami, enclosing a newspaper clipping from the Miami Herald, which carried the story. Thus, the story has spread from Korea to Miami, east and west.

Local Firm Offers To Pay Fireman's School Expenses

A local firm, the Aransas Natural Gas Company, has offered to pay expenses of a representative of the fire department who will take part in the 33rd Annual Fireman's Training School, sponsored by the State Firemen's and Fire Marshall's Association of Texas, which will be held at Texas A&M College, July 22-27.

The company's letter, signed by George K. Taggart, Jr., says, in part:

"The City of Rockport has a capable and efficient fire department, and deserves the full support of all the citizens in this area. We believe the Rockport Fire Department would benefit from having one of its members in attendance.

"To this end, we would be glad to underwrite the expenses of any person the fire department would delegate to make the trip."

Marineland Opening Very Successful One

Marineland's grand opening on the same day that Rockport's first Sea-O-Rama began was a very successful one, according to Homer Faber.

During both Saturday and Sunday there were a great number of people who stopped by to see the new building and boats, and to register for the door prizes, after a drawing Sunday, conducted by Miss Sue Johnson, the local Rotary Club's entry in the Mermaid Beauty Parade.

Winners were as follows: The pop tent was won by Mark Truesdale, Robstown; Mike Cornwell, of Corpus Christi was winner of the ski set. Paddle boats were won by Bill Connally, Victoria; Nora Heimbuch, Fulton; and Marvin Scott, Corpus Christi.

Mrs. R. G. Gray, of Winters, Texas, won the deep fat fryer; Marilee Lipscomb, Victoria, was winner of the electric fry pan; Buddy Montgomery, Corpus Christi, won the camera; Roy W. Hunsinger, Rockport, received the fishing set; and George Bushow, Dallas, was recipient of the camping set.

The $150 marine radio was won by Margaret Weaver, of San Antonio.

Among the visitors were top officials of the Lone Star Boat Works at Plano, and a number of Corpus Christi business men and bankers, friends and business associates of Faber.

Sandra Tenison Wins Title In Beauty Contest

Sandra Tenison, 18, of Port Lavaca was crowned Miss Sea-O-Rama Saturday night when winners of the Mermaid beauty contest were announced.

Sandra, a May graduate of Calhoun County High School, won the title over 20 other contestants. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tenison of Port Lavaca and was sponsored by the Port Lavaca Lions Club and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Second place went to Lora Slovack, 17, of Corpus Christi, a May graduate of Tuloso-Midway High School. Third place went to Joyce Findley, 19, of Corpus Christi. Joyce is an instructor at Jeanne's Modeling School.

Suzanne Keith, 15, of Rockport won the junior contest for girls between the ages of 13 and 15 and was named Miss Mermaid of 1962. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Keith of Rockport and was sponsored by the Rockport Fire Department.

Second place went to Fay Snyder, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Snyder of Fulton, and third place went to Phyllis Johnson, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry S. Johnson, Jr., of Port Lavaca.

The Sea-O-Rama was sponsored by all civic clubs of Rockport and Fulton and the committee was made up of a representative from each club.

James Kautz, chairman of the planning committee, and Mrs. Mary Juergens, manager of the chamber of commerce, said the celebration has exceeded their fondest hopes as they began making plans for next year's event.

Saturday's program opened with a street parade through Rockport and Fulton before 6,000 spectators. Featured in the parade were the 37 contestants in the junior and senior beauty contests.

Other events included a fish fry at Fulton Harbor from 11:30 a.m. until 2 p.m., a boat parade at 2 a.m. at Rockport, five shows of the Can Can Girls from Jeanne's Studio in Corpus Christi, the beauty contest and a street dance Saturday night.

Sunday's events were a barbecue dinner at the Lions Club pit in Rockport, sponsored by the Rockport Lions and the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and boat races in the Rockport Ski Basin at 2:30 p.m., sponsored by the South Texas Boat Association.

Everyone concerned is due a vote of thanks for the hard work and long hours they put in to make the Sea-O-Rama a success.

Key Allegro Dredging Started Monday

The Garrett Construction Company dredge "Melvin" was setting up Monday morning, preparatory to dredging fill from Little Bay to raise Frandolig Island, as part of the Key Allegro development planned by Carl C. Krueger, Jr., and a group of San Antonio financiers.

The Vermillion Construction Company bulldozers and draglines completed construction of dikes to contain fill and moved off approximately three weeks ago.

The fill will be taken from an area extending south from the mainland approximately 1750 feet, and from the west shore of the island to a minimum distance of 425 feet from the Rockport-Fulton road, which will be dredged to a depth of six feet at mean low tide.

A similar area, extending southward approximately 1200 feet, and a channel, 25 feet wide by 1900 feet long, to connect with an existing channel dredged by the Navigation several years ago, will be dredged to a seven foot depth. Moreover, a channel, 25 feet wide by 1500 feet long, extending from the south end of the island, and the channel existing, will be dredged south to the minus eight foot contour in Aransas Bay.

The fill from these excavations will be used to up grade the island making it fit for homesites.

BIDS SOUGHT ON SMALL JOBS AT HIGH SCHOOL

The Aransas County Independent School Board, at its regular meeting, authorized Supt. J. D. Gray to advertise for bids on a number of small jobs around the schools, mostly connected with summer maintenance problems.

Among these were an irrigation system for the football, baseball and band practice fields; tile work in connection with alterations of the ticket office in the high school gymnasium; a number of refrigerated drinking fountains; revision of the heating and cooling system in the school administration building; and revision of track curbing.

PONY LEAGUE GAMES

Pony League games will be played every Monday and Thursday at the baseball field at Aransas County High School. Game time is 5:30 o'clock.

MOTHERLY LOVE—Blondie, a two-year-old dachshund in Little Rock, Ark., couldn't resist "having kittens." She adopted them after their mother was run over by a car.

Coaching Staff Re-Organized Says Dave Segler

The coaching staff of Aransas County High School has been re-organized, according to Athletic Director Dave Segler, in order to strengthen the overall athletic program and to be better able to compete in the school's new AA classification.

In addition, it has been completed with the employment of John Outlaw Barker III, who will take the place of Marvin W. Rice, last year's assistant junior high coach, who is giving up his coaching job, although remaining with the school system as a teacher.

Under the reorganization, Segler, who is school director of athletics and physical education, remains head football and basketball coach. However, other coaching assignments have been shifted, with the result that the line-up is now as follows:

Pat Smith is head football coach in the junior high school; Gene Wilkins is head basketball coach and assistant football coach under Smith. These two men will also handle track coaching assignments, Segler said.

Post Office Box Rents to Increase

Effective with collections beginning June 21, 1962 for the new fiscal year, Post Office box rents will be increased as follows: The small or No. 1 box will increase from 90c to $1.20 per quarter, the medium or No. 2 box will be increased from $1.10 to $1.40 per quarter and the large or No. 3 box will be increased from $1.50 to $2.25 per quarter. Payment for the entire fiscal year may be made by multiplying the above amounts by 4.

The increases in box rent are made according to Postal Regulations, because of the new City Delivery Service, and the related size of this office.

At this time, would again like to urge all Patrons who are not using the City Delivery, to take advantage of this service. It is a free service, with all costs being paid by the Post Office Department.

Many of the patrons, who feel the necessity of keeping a box, may like to consider receiving mail, both through the box and by city delivery. It may be desirable to have personal correspondence delivered to your door, much like your morning paper, and to have business mail delivered to the box.

It is interesting to note that city delivery is furnished to our patrons, at a cost to the Post Office Department of about $9,000 per year. It is a very convenient service and should be utilized by the people of Rockport to the greatest possible extent, in order that maximum service can be obtained for the money that is spent.

For anyone not using the service, or who would like to retain a post office box and also have city delivery, please inquire at the Post Office. Clerks will be happy to give a full explanation of the city delivery system to anyone making an inquiry.

This is your city delivery, paid for by your tax dollar, for your comfort and convenience. Every effort should be made to use the service to its maximum.

School Bonds Bring Good Price Tuesday Night

A de-glamorized stock market, plus investment firms looking for a good safe buy in securities, were responsible for an excellent price when the Aransas County Independent School Board sold $650,000 in bonds recently voted for expansion of the school system here.

Eight bidders were present, and the local bonds actually sold at a considerably better rate of interest than did Victoria street and drainage bonds, which were sold last night by that city.

The First Southwest Company and Rauscher, Pierce and Company, both of San Antonio, entered a joint bid with an effective interest rate of 2.89378 per cent, to win the award. This is .29506 per cent better than the Victoria bonds brought.

The second bidder here was Moroney, Beissner and Company of Houston, and Ira Haupt, of New York, who bid jointly 2.9109 per cent. Underwood, Neuhaus and Company of Houston and the Texas Bank and Trust Company of Dallas, were third, with a tender of 2.9219816 per cent.

The net interest cost to the district, over the twelve years during which the bonds will run, will be $150,042.50, on the winning bid. With Moroney, et al, it would have been $150,934, and with Underwood, Neuhaus and associates it would have been $151,505.

Premium offered by the winners was $57.50; by the second group, $221; by the third group, none.

Other bids, their net interest cost, premium and effective interest rates were as follows:

Rotan, Mosle and Company of Houston, and the First National Bank of Dallas, $152,124.50; premium, $13; effective interest rate, 2.93393 per cent.

Funk, Hobbs and Hart, San Antonio, and the Fort Worth National Bank, $155,074.50; premium, $175.50; interest rate 2.990 per cent.

Dewar, Robertson and Panocest, San Antonio; M. E. Allison, San Antonio; McClung and Knickerbocker, Houston; and A. C. Edwards, Houston, $155,456.25; premium, none; effective interest, 2.99819 per cent.

Russ and Company, San Antonio; First of Texas, Dallas; and Columbia Securities, San Antonio, $154,946; premium, $274; effective interest rate, 2.9883 per cent.

Rocoles, Winston and Company, Houston; Dittmar and Company, San Antonio; and Mercantile Bank of Dallas, $154,345; premium, $275; effective interest rate, 2.97675 per cent.

HARRY CARTER ON ENGLISH TRIP

Harry Carter, lay minister of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, is on a vacation trip to England. The main purpose of this trip is to visit his brother in London who is sick, and some other relatives he missed in 1959, when he spent 18 days on a freighter, thus curtailing his time in England.

During his month's absence from St. Peter's Church, the church schedule is in the hands of Paul Cochran, assisting lay reader.

On Sunday, June 17, Robert Sigler, M.S., lay reader of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Corpus Christi, will share with Cochran the direction of the morning prayer service at 9 a.m.

Boat Racing Fans See Spills and Thrills Sunday

Boat racing fans were treated to thrills and spills Sunday afternoon, when the South Texas Boat Racing Association sponsored races in Little Bay as part of the Sea-O-Rama. Charlie Blackwood, of San Antonio, lost control of his boat in heat two of the D Hydro class, and barreled ashore at the south end of the basin, luckily without hurting anyone. And, although he was hurried overboard himself, came back later in the day and won several races.

One of these was heat two for Class D runabouts, where he and Dean Schmidt battled it out almost neck and neck throughout the race. And the first heat of the C runabout races was another thriller, with Joe Wilt slipping by Blackwood just before he hit the finish line to take the race.

Winners in the various races were as follows:

A Hydroplanes, heat one: Mike Michalczak, San Antonio; Joe Wilt, Austin; Louis Raatz, Corpus Christi. Heat two: Mike Michalczak, Louis Raatz, Marlin Petty, San Antonio.

D Hydroplanes, heat one: Dean Schmidt, San Antonio, Petty and Raymond Jeffries, San Antonio. Heat two: Curtis Michalczak, San Antonio, and Raymond Jeffries.

B Hydroplanes, heat one: Curtis Michalczak, C. L. Thornton, Corpus Christi, and Raatz. Heat two: Curtis Michalczak, Petty Thornton.

C Hydroplanes, heat one: Schmidt, Charlie Blackwood, San Antonio, and Lee Turney, San Antonio. Heat two: Blackwood, Turney, Schmidt.

A Class Runabouts, heat one: Raatz, M. L. White, Houston, and Dean Waggoner, of Corpus Christi. Heat two: Raatz, Waggoner, and Petty.

D Runabouts, heat one: Blackwood, Heat two: Blackwood, Schmidt, Jeffries.

Fishing Contest Winners Named

Biggest fish in the fishing tournament, held in connection with the Sea-O-Rama was a four pound trout, which won the division prize for Elton Euton, of Sinton. The fish measured 24 inches. Second place in the trout class went to Mrs. Estelle Dodson, of Frederick, Okla., who checked in with a 2 1/2 pound fish that measured 19 inches.

Top winner in the redfish class was Thomas D. Brown, Houston, who entered a three-pounder, nineteen inches long; Harvey Wehman, Fort Worth, was second, with a red that weighed two pounds and 12 ounces, and measured the same as Brown's fish.

Danny Adams, of Linden, took the flounder first prize, with a fish that weighed two pounds and 14 ounces, measuring 16 1/2 inches long; second place went to C. L. Hale, of Sinton, for a two pound nine ounce flounder.

In the sheepshead division, the winner was decided by the length of the two fish entered, which both weighed two pounds and a half. Jeff Watters of Duncan, Okla., was first with one that measured 16 1/2 inches; Mrs. Wanda Calloway, LaMarque, had one that was 15 1/2 inches.

Mrs. Geneva Lollier, of Houston, was first in the drum division, with a 17 1/2 inch fish, weighing 2 1/4 pounds; second went to Mrs. Ernest Nesloney, San Antonio, with a two-pounder, 17 inches long.

In the juvenile division, Peter L. McCloskey, of San Antonio, won the $5 prize with 87 fish; Flora Gonzales, also of the Alamo City, caught 69, to win $4; and the Nesloney family walked off with the rest of the prizes. Donald Nesloney caught 56 for the $3 prize; Mike Nesloney registered 54, for the $2 award, and Randy Nesloney checked in with 52 to win $1.

The fishing contest was handled by the Outdoor Sportsmen's Conservation Association, to whom much credit is due.

Auditor Discusses Ad Valorem Tax

Ad Valorem Tax Levy Would Actually Lower Cost to Homestead Owners By Approximately $6 Every Year

Tentative budget figures for next year show that, if the 30-cent ad valorem tax proposed as a means of financing fire department and library needs is voted in, a man owning a $10,000 homestead could save as much as $6 in county and state taxes in 1963, and needed fire and library facilities provided with no raise in taxes.

This would come about through

SITE SELECTED FOR BAND SHELL

The Project Committee of the Whooping Crane Junior Odd Fellows announced today that a site has been selected for the Band Shell and Starlight Stage, which they are sponsoring as a community project.

This structure will consist of an open air stage with a background shaped like a shell, about 28 feet high and 30 feet wide, illuminated with colored lights. The stage area will consist of a concrete platform of 990 square feet, large enough to accommodate a band of 100 pieces.

The spot chosen for the structure is between the ski basin and the beach drive, about 2 tenths of a mile east of the Harbor Master's office. This site will have an unobstructed view from the highway and most of the beach area.

Although only a small per cent of the business houses have been contacted, about ten percent of the amount necessary amount has already been subscribed. The committee will attempt to visit all business people in this area, but will be unable to contact all individuals.

It is hoped that since this is a community project, and all will benefit in some way from it, all persons interested in helping with this addition to the Rockport beach attractions, will send their contributions to the project treasurer, Eugene Johnson, Box 132, Fulton, Texas.

Ann Cassel And Robert Reed To Go On Youth Pilgrimage

"United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth," Ann Cassel daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cassel of Rockport, is leaving June 16 on a chartered bus from Irving, Texas, to New York, to participate in the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth.

The Pilgrimage is sponsored by the Oddfellows and Rebekahs of America and is an annual Pilgrimage.

The Rebekahs and Oddfellows at Irving, Texas will be hosts to the delegates at a supper June 15, followed by an Ice Breaker Party. The delegates will visit Rebekahs and Oddfellow Lodges and homes in the states they travel through, and will visit historic points of interest along the way.

The delegates will visit and sit in on the U.N. Conferences and get to meet and talk to different members of the U.N.

The trip will take three weeks. On Ann's return home, she will be presented with an award certificate of 1962, and a U.N. Pilgrimage Pin. This will be presented to her by her lodge, The Sea Breeze Theta Rho Girls' Club No. 42 of Rockport.

Four sponsors will include Mrs. Howard Kempf of Corpus Christi, and Mr. Gil Naylor of Ingleside.

Robert Reed has been chosen as a delegate from the Whooping Crane Lodge, Junior Oddfellows, and Ann Cassel is of the Sea Breeze Theta Rho Girls' Club No. 42 of Rockport.

Robert and Ann will have cameras and will bring back many notes of interest to our youth.

ARANSAS REWORK HAS 1.1 MILLION

Placid Oil Co. No. 1 Airport Unit 1, Aransas County rework in the East Fulton Beach Field in D. Lockhard Survey, A-97, has been completed for a daily open flow of 1.1 million cubic feet of gas plus one barrel of 54 gravity condensate to 126,000 cubic feet of gas.

Production was through perforations from 7,152-58 feet in 5 1/2 inch casing at 7,844 feet. Flowing pressure on 14-64 inch choke was 427 pounds and shutin pressure was 765 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Freeman and children of Littleton, Col., are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Smith, for two weeks.

a reallocation of the tax moneys collected, and figures have been prepared by County Auditor James Millikin to show why this is so.

At present, road and bridge and special road and bridge funds call for 22 cents a year, out of the money collected by the county under its constitutional 80-cent level, and the special road and bridge tax voted a number of years ago. If the ad valorem tax is voted, funds from it can be used to release these two. The seven cent levy would go to the general fund, and the special road and bridge fund would not be collected.

The 1961 tax rate was $1.50, of which the county received 95 cents per $100 assessed valuation, and the navigation district 55 cents.

The county share of this was allocated as follows: Road and bridge, 7 cents; special road and bridge, 15 cents; general fund, 52 cents; permanent improvement fund, 2 cents; mosquito control, 1 cent; courthouse and jail interest and sinking fund to retire bonds, 18 cents. Forty-five cents of the navigation district funds went for bond retirement; the other ten cents is for navigation district maintenance.

Under the budget plan proposed for next year, if the ad valorem tax passes, the total levy would still remain at $1.50 per $100 of assessed value, and would bring in the same amount of money, but would be allocated in this manner:

Farm to market roads and flood control, 30 cents; general fund, 57 cents; mosquito control 5 cents; courthouse and jail interest and (continued on page 8)

Rockport Lumber Company Low Bidder On New Band Hall

The Rockport Lumber Company was low bidder on a new band hall, and a two-car bus garage at the high school Monday evening. This is the first construction to be undertaken since the bond issue for school expansion was approved, and letting of the contract came immediately after the school trustees had sold the $650,000 in bonds to The First Southwest Company and Rauscher, Pierce and Company, of San Antonio, for an extremely good price.

There were three bidders on the band hall, Rockport Lumber, which was awarded the contract on a low bid of $20,464; Fulton Lumber Company, which bid $20,900; and Picton and Steele Construction Company, who were high with a bid of $22,700.

A separate contract was let on the bus garage, and here again, Rockport Lumber was low, with a bid of $2470. Picton and Steele bid $2550, and Fulton Lumber Company's bid for this was $2883.89.

Plans for the new band hall show that the central portion of the old Fulton school building is to be moved from that campus to the present high school grounds, where it will be placed on a foundation near Pirate Stadium grandstands, and completely rehabilitated.

Upon completion, the building will handle a 100-piece band easily, and will furnish a number of auxiliary facilities that will make it easier both for director and band members.

There will be an office and an instrument storage room, and the building will have its own restrooms. In addition, there will be a place for uniform storage, and a number of individual practice rooms available.

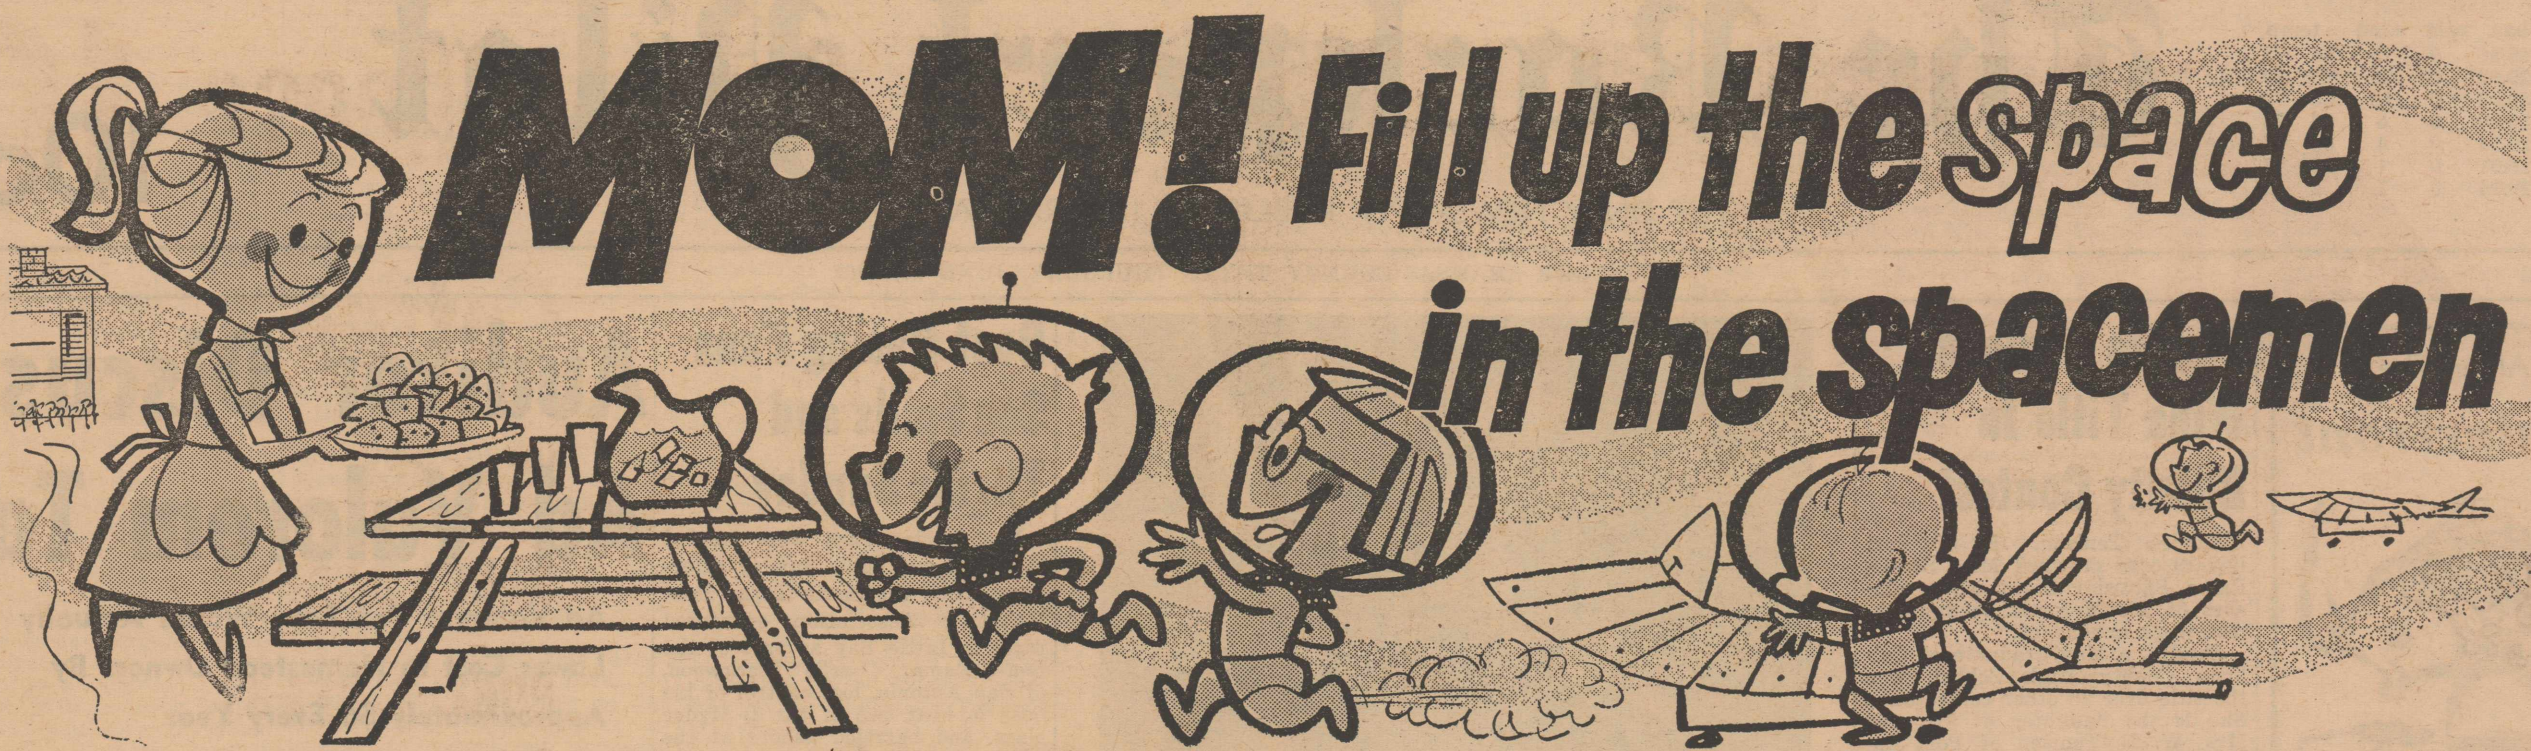

The interior of the hall will be covered with wood paneling to improve acoustics of the building, while the exterior of the structure will be veneered with brick matching those used in construction of the high school, so that the hall will match the other buildings on the high school campus.

Construction on the garage will start immediately, and on the band hall within the next few days. In the specifications for bids, completion date is set for August 25, after which time there is a contractor's penalty of $25 a day.

CHINESE JUNK NOW IN HARBOR

Interesting and unusual boats and ships of all kinds find their way into the harbors of Aransas County Navigation District at Rockport, The Cove, Fulton and Harbor Island, the latest being a Chinese Junk.

The boat came in this week. Its owner, Robert M. Ayers, Jr., of San Antonio, bought it in Hongkong and shipped it to this country on a Lykes Brothers steamer that called at Galveston. From there, Ayers and a crew of seven sailed it south to its present berth in Rockport Harbor.

Not a large boat, its blunt bow and squat lines are more reminiscent of a bateau of the early French vagues and fur traders than they are of the craft with which most of us are familiar. Much of the timber of which it is built is apparently teak, and it is decorated with carving which makes an exotic note among the more prosaic boats in the harbor.

SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS MUST BE APPLIED FOR

More than 16,500,000 people are now receiving over one billion dollars a month in social security benefits, says H. M. Cleveland, district manager of the Social Security Administration in Corpus Christi.

"Changes in the law in 1960 and 1961 make several thousand people in the United States eligible for benefits who are not receiving the payments now," according to Cleveland. "Unless these people apply for their old-age insurance, they will never receive it. Since we don't know who they are individually, it is up to them to get in touch with us to file a claim."

If you are over age 65, still working, and have never applied for your social security benefits, you may be one of the people described here.

To find out for sure about your social security insurance, Cleveland advises you to get in touch with the Social Security Administration, 530 South Water Street, Corpus Christi. Some social security benefits may be payable to you even though you continue to work.

WANTED BY THE FBI

Eugene Francis Newman

Newman is the alleged machine gun-carrying leader of a gang that attempted the robbery of an armored car carrying $498,500 in American and Canadian currency in Buffalo, New York, on August 3, 1955. He and his associates, wearing silk stocking masks, engaged in a running gun battle with the truck's guards and Buffalo Police, and a machine gun bullet, allegedly fired by Newman, seriously wounded a guard. Two bandits were quickly apprehended but Newman remains at large.

A complaint, filed before a U.S. Commissioner at Buffalo, New York, on August 5, 1955, charges Newman with fleeing the State of New York to avoid prosecution for robbery.

Heavily armed, with a violent temper, Newman has previously been convicted for theft of Government property, interstate transportation of a stolen motor vehicle, petty larceny, and burglary.

He is a white American, reportedly born on October 3, 1928, at Brooklyn, New York, who is 5'8" tall, weighs 170 to 180 pounds, has blond hair, blue eyes, a medium build, and medium complexion.

He has scars near his right eye, on the back of his right hand and on the center of his left cheek. A birthmark appears on his upper left arm and a mole on his left index finger. Tattoos include the name "Danny" and a heart on the outside of his right forearm, and the number "13" within a dotted circle on the back of his left hand. He has worked as a bricklayer, clerk, construction worker, counterman, and laborer.

Consider extremely dangerous. Please immediately notify the nearest FBI Office of any information concerning his whereabouts. ope 682408-m

Mr. and Mrs. Max Keller and daughters of Falfurrias, spent the weekend in Rockport with Mr. and Mrs. George Keller and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sparks.

It happened 100 YEARS ago

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862... the same year that

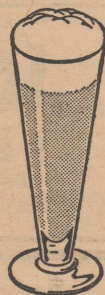

IN TEXAS... near Galveston, Confederate General J. B. Magruder piled cotton bales on the decks of little river boats. These famous "cotton clads," manned by the 26th Texas Cavalry, trounced the Federal war fleet then holding Texas' largest port. As the war ships hastily departed, the event was toasted in good Texas-brewed beer.

For then, as now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation—light, sparkling refreshment that adds a touch of Southwestern hospitality to any occasion. Texans have always enjoyed the good fellowship that goes with every glass.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

Sheriff Shivers Uncovers
Old Law Records on Colt

Sheriff A. C. Shivers says that the first civil suit tried here after the county was split off from Refugio County was one in which J. W. Byrnes sued Samuel Colt, inventor of the six-shooter for breach of contract. This dragged on for over ten years.

The suit was originally brought in 1861, three years after Colt had bought half the townsite of Lamar from Byrnes, Ebenezer Allen and William C. Hale, and in the same year that he bought, from Byrnes and Hale, another "three undivided sixteenths of 14,000 acres." Later other transfers are recorded by Colt and Byrnes for lots in Lamar, the latest dated 1870. One of those registered is the record of a judgment against Colt, ten years later, in which the land was sold to satisfy the judgment.

The last notation in the suit, before the judgment was entered, says: "Continued every term until date," on May 27, 1872, and in the same hand are the words: "Death of defendant suggested and heirs ordered to be cited when known."

All these were apparently the aftermath of a grandiose colonization scheme conceived by General Randolph Marcy, who interested Eastern friends, only to have the whole thing go to pieces with the advent of the Civil War.

Other civil suits showing on the old district court docket include suits by various people to recover money lent on notes; a trespass to try title suit; others are to collect bills due various merchants of the town.

Lawyers names that appear are Lovenkiold and McCampbell, Talbot, Moses and Carroll, Liesering and Carpenters, and Finley and Proctor, the Proctor being presumably the father the present Victoria attorney of the same name.

Case No. 29, Harrison vs. Harrison, was a suit for divorce, and as the book is explored further, there are a number of these, although there is no record of the action finally taken.

A Mrs. S. Ives sued one of the town's leading citizens, James M. Doughty, for $25,000 damages for slander and libel. Attorney Corpenier represented Mrs. Ives, W. W. Dunlap was Doughty's lawyer.

A notation says "Dismissed by plaintiff, costs settled."

The next suit is another in which Mr. Doughty appears this time as a plaintiff. He is asking a restraining order against Sheriff R. A. Upton to keep him from collecting taxes. This was on April 19, 1872. The case was disposed of by the Honorable T. C. Barden, Judge of the 16th District Court, who refused to grant the injunction.

The American Meat Packing Company was sued by W. A. Cushman, on what grounds the book doesn't say; J. W. Nelson sued the American Meat Packing Company on a protested draft. J. S. Holaway vs. R. Andrews, et al, was a suit to recover one-third of the schooner "Clara", and of course the divorces keep appearing regularly, along with some forfeited bonds.

Sheriff A. C. Shivers, who uncovered the old records in a store room at the court house, said "It doesn't look like people were much different then than they are now."

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Littleton and children, Houston, spent the weekend in Fulton with Mr. and Mrs. Zeph Rouquette. Connie and Kathleen Littleton stayed for a two week's visit with their grandparents.

AD VALOREM TAX—

sinking funds, 18 cents; navigation district maintenance, 10 cents; and navigation bond retirement, 30 cents.

The 30 cents for farm to market roads and flood control would be furnished by the 30-cent ad valorem tax, which may legally be used for the same purposes as the road and bridge and special road and bridge. The special road and bridge at 15 cents off the navigation district levy would be replaced by the 30 cents ad valorem tax.

On the face of it, there is no apparent saving, yet, Auditor Millikin's figures show that a man possessing a homestead with an actual value of $10,000 would actually pay less taxes than under the present set up.

Now, the homestead owner pays $30 a year in taxes on a property of this value. This money is divided as follows:

Road and bridge gets $1.40; special road and bridge funds get $3.00; $10.40 cents goes to the general fund; forty cents is allocated to permanent improvements; mosquito control gets 20 cents; the courthouse and jail interest and sinking funds get $3.60; the navigation district maintenance fund gets $2; and $9 of the money is used to retire navigation district bonds.

Under the proposed budget, using the 30-cent ad valorem tax, if it passes, the same homestead owner would pay only $24 per year. This would be divided in the following manner:

Farm to market roads and flood control, nothing; general fund, $11.40; mosquito control, $1; courthouse and jail interest and sinking funds, $3.60; navigation district maintenance, $2; and retirement of navigation district bonds, $6.

The difference lies in the fact that the farm to market and flood control levy does not receive any money from a man with a homestead with an actual value of $10,000, for there is a $3,000 homestead exemption for the ad valorem tax.

It will be noted that under the ad valorem tax set up the general fund of the county would gain 5 cents per hundred of assessed valuation, and this is the money that would be used to buy the fire equipment and build the library.

Under the plan of financing worked by County Judge John D. Wendell and County Auditor James Millikin, time warrants would be issued and the money borrowed from the airport fund, to be repaid over a period of years from this five cent levy, which it is perfectly legal to use for such a purpose.

The program is built around the theme of improving instructional leadership in secondary school principals, and will deal with the following divisions: Curriculum improvement and changes in accreditation standards; teaching machines and programmed instruction; ways the principal can aid the instructional program; ways the library can be used to aid the instructional program; adequate physical education programs; practices in Texas public schools; place of athletics; and techniques of supervision.

DANNELLY INVESTIGATING
NDEA FUNDS FOR PROGRAM

Tom Dannelly, of the Aransas County Independent School System, is investigating the possibility of securing NDEA funds for equipment in the school's building program.

According to Supt. J. D. Gray, it may be possible to obtain funds under the National Defense Education Act for purchase of equipment relating to science, mathematics, and foreign languages. On the equipment eligible, he said, funds are available for paying 50 per cent of the cost.

Dannelly is seeking preliminary information for presentation to the School Board.

Longley Close is in the Veterans Administration Hospital in Houston.

Flag Day Is Celebrated Today By VFW

Today, June 14, the local Veterans of Foreign Wars join those of the rest of the nation in observance of Flag Day, and the following summary of some of the important events in the life of our flag should be of interest to every American, whether a Veteran of the Foreign Wars or not.

The flag of our country provides one of the most dramatic chapters in United States history. The Stars and Stripes emblem has always been a colorful reflection of American progress—yesterday, today and tomorrow.

June 14th, 1777, the Continental Congress adopted the red, white and blue stars and stripes design as the official flag of the United States.

Although the flag is older than any of us, it is actually ageless. Consider these interesting historical facts:

The Stars and Stripes flag was flying four years before the United States Constitution was ratified.

We had our flag twelve years before George Washington was inaugurated the first President of the United States.

The flag was the emblem of our country 37 years before Francis Scott Key composed the opening stanza of the song—"Star Spangled Banner." And the flag was 154 years old before Congress finally adopted that song as our national anthem in 1931—as result of an intensive nationwide campaign conducted by the organization I represent—the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Furthermore, our flag was flying 30 years before Robert Fulton sailed the first steamboat up the Hudson from New York and Albany.

The flag was 54 years old when the first American steam locomotive was put on its tracks for a run between Albany and Schenectady, New York.

And the flag was 126 years old when the Wright Brothers flew the first airplane at Kill Devil Hill, North Carolina, in 1903.

We literally grew up with the flag. It is part of our lives from the cradle to the grave. One of the first things every American school child learns is how to respect the Stars and Stripes. Most children are better versed than their parents in flag etiquette and the pledge of allegiance and the National Anthem.

Old Glory means everything to us because it represents our constitution, our government, our laws and ideals and it speaks for all of our people.

Furthermore, the flag is the symbol of our faith in God. That is why the Stars and Stripes emblem is given the place of honor in American churches. Without the flag—and all that it represents—there might be no churches. The flag symbolizes religious freedom guaranteed by the Constitution. Consequently all of us—whether we be Protestants, Catholics or Jews—may worship without fear of persecution, each in accord with his personal religious belief. No other banner on earth assures that security.

COPANO REAL ESTATE
CONTINUES TO MOVE

Lot sales and home building in Copano Cove and Copano Ridge Subdivisions continue at a good pace. These are adjoining Florida-type subdivisions between Copano Bay and Salt Lake, with all lots fronting either on the bay or on a channel with access to the bay.

Unit 1 of Copano Ridge was first opened in December, 1959 and the first unit of Copano Cove was placed on the market in April, 1960. Unit 7 of Copano Cove has recently been completed with new channels dredged and 114 new lots landscaped and surveyed. Mrs. R. B. Sipe, real estate agent for these two subdivisions, reports the sale of 37 of these new lots in Unit 7 of Copano Cove since March.

Thirty-six houses have either been completed or are under construction, with foundations down for three additional. Most of the houses are either brick or concrete block, with a few of frame construction. Most are 2 or 3-bedroom and several are centrally heated and air conditioned.

FIRST SEA-O-RAMA
TERMED BIG SUCCESS

Rockport's first Sea-O-Rama was a big success, inasmuch as all events went off with little trouble, crowds were satisfactory, and the Sea-O-Rama Committee, composed of one member from every civic club in Aransas County, ended up in the black, with a sizable nest egg against which they can draw to get next year's festival underway.

At a meeting of the Sea-O-Rama Committee this week, members were told that enough money had been taken in from the fish fry given by the Fulton Lions, the barbecue given by the Rockport Lions and Jaycees, and from the various other events to pay all bills and to leave some over.

The rest of the evening was taken up with a very factual appraisal of the first two-day event, to see which of them had been worth the time and trouble expended upon them, and which had not.

They were appraised from several angles, crowd appeal, ability to finance themselves, and use as a basis for publicity.

It was the consensus that while most of the contests, parades, races, and shows were assets to the Sea-O-Rama, there were few which had not been.

Plans have already been set going for next year's fiesta, however, and under leadership of Jimmy Kautz, this year's president, a regular meeting date has been set, and committees will soon be appointed.
