Possibility Seen For New Record In Attendance

With the Ringling Brothers-Barnum & Bailey circus the chief attraction, one of the biggest crowds in Panhandle-South Plains fair history thronged the fairgrounds this afternoon.

Circus performances were scheduled at 2:15 and 8:15 p. m., with doors opening at 1 and 7 p. m. The big tops have been set up in the race track area of the fairgrounds.

Rush Starts Early

The rush to the fairgrounds started early, as expected, and gained steadily in volume as afternoon circus time approached.

7 p. m.—Doors open for night performance of Ringling Brothers-Barnum & Bailey circus.
8:15 p. m.—Circus performance starts.

10 a. m. until midnight—Forsythe and Dowis Carnival midway in operation.

5 p. m.—Concert by the Whiteface High school band on the midway at the Seldon Stratosphere act site.
5:30 and 11 p. m.—Seldon, the Stratosphere Man, on the midway.

Helping materially to swell the early turnout by those wanting to watch the circus set up was the fact that Lubbock public schools have been recessed for the day. School children are being admitted to the fairgrounds today upon payment of the federal amusement tax of 5 cents for those under 12 years old and 10 cents for those over that age.

The Forsythe & Dowis carnival midway was ready for the early arrivals and swung into full operation before noon. Concession stands also were open to supply the rush demand for early coffee.

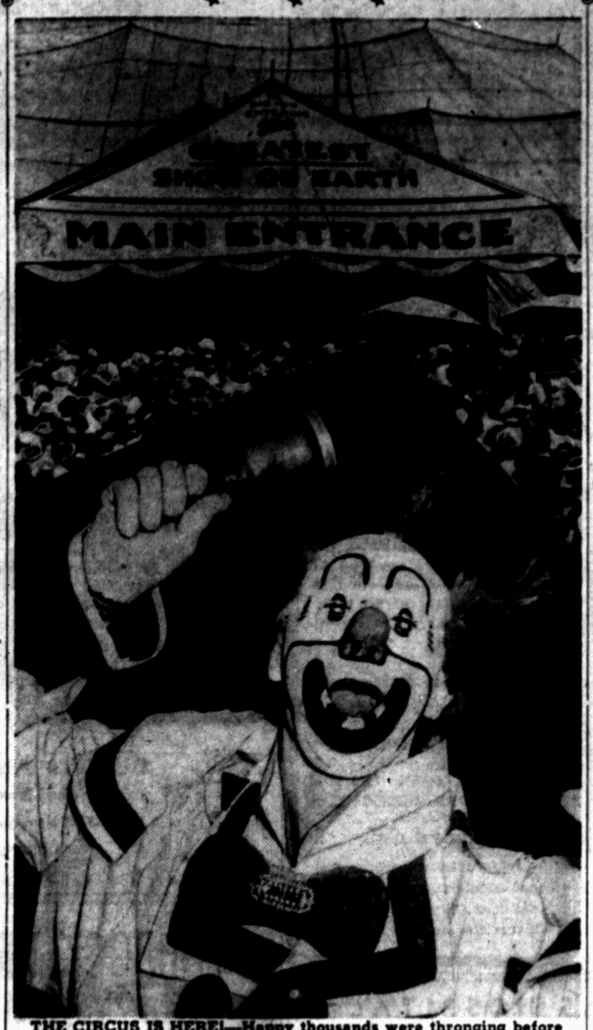

The presence of the circus did not interfere with the third and final presentation of the "Queen for a Day" broadcast at the grandstand between noon and 1:30 p. m.

No "Water Follies" Today

However, afternoon and night performances of the "Water Follies of 1948" have been cancelled today. These presentations will be resumed at 2:15 and 8:15 p. m. daily the remainder of the week.

The carnival midway and exhibit buildings will be open as usual during the circus performances. The Seldon stratosphere act

"Big Top" Goes Up In Lubbock Today

By C. W. RATLIFF
Journal Staff Writer

The famed Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey circus, traveling in four long railroad trains carrying 1,450 people and hundreds of wild animals and horses, arrived in Lubbock from Childress this morning more than three hours late, but by 1 p. m. the big top was already up and everything was set to go for the opening performance at 2:15 o'clock.

The circus is the feature attraction today of the Panhandle-South Plains fair and thousands of persons were flocking through the gates to jam the big show's tent for this afternoon's performance. Another performance is scheduled for 8:15 p. m. tonight.

Ticket Sale Heavy

All day long Tuesday and throughout this morning more than a block-long line of people stood outside the entrance to Wylie's Drug store purchasing tickets for the big show.

First section of the four circus trains arrived in Lubbock nearly on time but trouble along the line between here and Childress where the show played last night delayed the other sections of the trains. The unloading started the moment the wheels of the trains stopped rolling at the Ave. A crossing of the Santa Fe as hundreds of circus fans looked on. The street from there to the fairgrounds was like a beehive as circus trucks made their way to the lot where the big flame-proof tent soon blossomed in the area in front of the fair grandstand.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 29 (U.P.) — The American Legion warned members today to stay within the bounds of reason when they stage their hi-pinks at the national convention in Miami next month.

National Commander James F. O'Neil said Legionnaires who engage in "hoodlumism" will be subject to prosecution and expulsion from membership.

Jet Fighters Are Grounded

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29. (AP)—All F-84 jet fighters have been grounded temporarily "pending investigation of recent accidents," it was announced today.

The Air Force made the announcement jointly with Republic Aviation corporation which is producing 974 of the high speed fighters under current contracts.

Air Force officials declined to say what they think the trouble might be, pointing out that is the purpose of the inquiry. However, they noted there had been at least four crashes of F-84's recently, the latest Sept. 18 at Dallas, Texas.

Radius 600 Miles

The Air Force has two or three groups already equipped with F-84's. It had planned to have at least 360 in operation by the end of this year.

The F-84 is rated in the 600-mile-an-hour class. Powered with a single jet engine, the fighter has a radius of more than 600 miles and climbs to about 40,000 feet.

It is equipped with six 50-calibre machine guns and rockets. It weights 13,400 pounds, has a wing span of 36 feet 5 inches and carries only the pilot.

Negro Woman Is Shot Here

A negro woman, Thelma Silas, was being administered a blood transfusion at 1:30 p. m., less than two hours after she was shot in the abdomen to conclude what investigators termed a "rather general fight" in the Queen City negro addition.

Louis Pearl Clark, 17, a mother, was giving a statement to officials at the sheriff's department.

A revolver that fires .32-.20 ammunition was held by investigators. It contained one exploded shell and several live ones, it was said.

Fight Is Described

W. E. Renfrow of the Texas Ranagaers, Dept. Sheriff Earl Horton and Police Patrolmen Doyle Clark and V. P. Stephens said they were informed the trouble resulted from a quarrel and a fight between the Louis Pearl Clark and a daughter of Luke Silas, Thelma Silas' husband.

The two fought it out with sticks, officials said. Thelma Silas and then Luke Silas took a hand, with the result that Louis Pearl Clark was knocked down in a mudhole, investigators said. The victim went into her apartment. Her cousin Alma Gene Mason knocked at her door for admittance and Louis Pearl Clark, seeing Thelma Silas standing a few yards off, fired one shot, it was related.

Other statements will be taken this afternoon, the sheriff's department said. No charge had been filed pending possible

Red Menace Aired To World

UN Told That Blockade Is A Peace Threat

Early Action By Security Council Asked By Allies

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Sept. 29.—The United States, Britain and France accused Russia before the bar of the United Nations today of menacing world peace with a blockade of Berlin which has brought Germany's first city to the brink of economic ruin.

On the tenth anniversary of the Munich pact which ignited the fuse of World War II, the three western powers told the U. N. in identical notes that the Soviet union is bent upon driving them out of Berlin and bringing the city solely under Russian rule.

Every Effort Made

"It is clear from the protracted exchange of notes and the conversations which have taken place on the initiative of the three governments between them and the Soviet government that the three governments . . . have made every effort to resolve their differences directly with the Soviet government," the notes said.

The notes were delivered to U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie in the Palais Chaillot, scene of the U. N. assembly session, shortly after 4 p. m.

From Moscow came an indication of what the Russian position may be. The authoritative New Times said the western powers, through violations of four-power agreements, have "exploded the legal basis which assured them the right of participation in the Berlin administration." It declared the appeal to the security council would fail.

Paper Blames West

The paper blamed the West for the breakdown of the Moscow negitiations over Berlin.

"It is not a matter of chance that this was the chosen moment when the assembly of the United Nations began work," New Times said. "Indeed, all this narrow-minded plan of Marshall-Bevin was timed ahead for this."

British sources said they did not believe the 11-nation Security council will take action on the western charges before Monday. It was noted that the western notes did not request "urgent" action. The three governments were said to wish to avoid an appearance of trying to stampede the U. N. into hurried disposition of the case.

Tried Without Success

The documents will not reach the members of the security council until tomorrow. Three days

Amarillo Man Named To Board By Jester

AUSTIN, Sept. 29 (U.P.) — Gov. Beauford Jester announced today the resignation of Fred H. Minor of Denton as a member of the Texas Liquor Control board and the appointment of G. H. Little of Amarillo to succeed him.

Little's appointment covers Minor's unexpired term to end Nov. 15, 1949. Minor was chairman of the board.

Jester said Minor listed pressure of private business as the reason for his resignation.

Strike Threat Hangs Over Gulf Shipping

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (AP)—A threatened work stoppage Thursday midnight by 12,000 AFL ship officers would tie up east and Gulf coasts shipping, a union official said last night.

Capt. Charles F. May, president of the AFL Masters, Mates and Pilots association, said 100,000 seamen and dockworkers would be left idle if contract negotiations of his union are not settled by that time.

"If nothing comes of these negotiations," May said, "it will be no-contract-no-work."

Truman Asks "Real Evidence" Of Communist Danger In U.S.

(By The Associated Press)

President Truman challenged the Republicans last night to furnish "real evidence" instead of "speeches" on Communist dangers in this country.

On a different theme, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey served notice that there will be no compromise of American principles and unity in the dispute with Russia over Berlin.

Mr. Truman, striking back at GOP atacks on his administration's handling of subversive activities, charged in an Oklahoma City campaign address that as "the unwitting ally of Communists" the Republican party has hurt national security.

The President added that the Communists want the Republicans to win the November elections because they think confusion and strife will follow.

Called Ridiculous

"Utterly ridculous," retored Republican Senator Ferguson of Michigan who heads an investigating committee looking into the government's loyalty program. Ferguson said it is his party that has been "leading the fight against Communism in America."

Dewey, the GOP presidential nominee, previously had promised to rout Communists who "have risen to positions of trust in our government."

The New York governor laid heavy stress on world affairs in his speeches yesterday in Spokane, Wash., and Missoula, Mont.

"As a united people," he said, "we stand shoulder to shoulder" with American representatives at the United Nations meeting in Paris "laboring mightily against great odds to bring about a peaceful settlement even at this late hour."

One Kind of America

"Peace today would be on firmer ground," Dewey said, "if those who may be recklessly planning war knew that—when there's a big job to be done—there is only one kind of American.

Mr. Truman told his Oklahoma listeners that "this country is strong enough to resist and overcome all the forces of Communism."

But he said Republicans "ought to realize that their reckless tatics are not helping national security; they are hurting national security." He declared GOP congressional spy investigators have "impaired our nation's atomic energy program by their intemperate and unjustified attacks on our atomic scientists."

"So long as the FBI and other

Man Drowns Sweetheart After She Refuses Marriage Offer

(By The Associated Press)

CUMBERLAND, R. I., Sept. 29—A 22-year-old unemployed knickknack peddler was held today without bail on a charge of murder in the drowning of his former sweetheart, the daughter of a state representative.

Police Chief William J. Boyle quoted Francis J. Kelley as saying he pushed the girl, Mary J. Burns, 26, into a pond "and held her head under water until she stopped kicking" because she spurned his offer of marriage.

Kelley pleaded innocent at a special court session last night and was held for a hearing Oct. 19.

Boyle said Kelley told him that "she fought back when I first grabbed her—that's how I got these scratches on my face."

The police chief quoted the youth as telling this story:

He and the girl had been keeping company for some time. Recently she returned an engagement ring and class pin and broke their engagement.

They went to a movie Monday night and then took a bus

ACTION TAKEN AGAINST REDS

Two Unions Barred In A-Bomb Areas

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29—The government today barred its A-bomb plants to unions whose officers refuse to disavow Communism.

This action — on the heels of congressional charges that a network of Soviet spy rings tried during the war to feed atomic secrets to Moscow—stemmed from a double-barreled Atomic Energy commission order.

It (a) posted "keep out" signs for two specific CIO unions and (b) opened the way for official recognition of others only if they can qualify for certification by the National Labor Relations board.

Union Activity Curtailed

Except at Oak Ridge, union activity in all atomic plants has been sharply curtailed since the A-bomb project was launched. But a number of unions have been active in the hope that these curbs would be eased.

Today's new policy decision, however, ruled out any hope of those whose officers have failed to submit non-Communist oaths. These are required by the Taft-Hartley act for NLRB certification.

The unions singled out in the commission announcement are the CIO United Electrical workers and the CIO United Public workers.

A congressional committee heard testimony only yesterday from a self-described former Communist that the U. E. is "the largest Communist-dominated organization in the United States."

Court Rejects Negro Plea To Enter TU

AUSTIN, Sept. 29 (AP) — The supreme court today in effect rejected the plea of a Houston negro that he be admitted to the University of Texas law school.

It refused Heman Marion Sweatt's appeal from lower court rulings that had denied his effort to force admission to the University of Texas.

The high court's refusal to gran. Sweatt a writ of error left standing the judgment of the third court of civil appeals which held that the state has provided and made available to Sweatt a course of instruction in first-year law equivalent or substantially equivalent to that provided at the university's law school.

Airline Plans Cheaper Rates

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29—Plans for new, low-cost "sky-coach" night flights between New York, Pittsburgh and Chicago were announced today by Capital Airlines.

Free meals aloft, reservation service, and other luxury accomodations were cut out to make rates comparable with railroad coach fares, J. H. Carmichael, president of the lines said.

Open Up Mass Travel

Carmichael said he believes the experiment starting October 15 will open up "a mas travel potential that is not possible under present first-class rates."

The new fare, based on a four-cent a mile rate, will be $29.60 between New York and Chicago, compared with the $44.10 present air rate. The railroad coach fare for the same trip is $27.30, and the pulman rate is $44.10.

Westbound flights will leave New York at 1 a. m., land at Pittsburgh at 3:15 a. m., and arrive at Chicago at 5:05 a. m. Eastbound flights will leave Chicago at 1 a. m., land at Pittsburgh 4:15 a. m., and at New York at 6:15 a. m.

Reservations Explained

Carmichael said this will shave 12 hours and 35 minutes off rail travel time.

No advance reservations may be made on the 59-passenger planes To obtain a seat, a traveler must buy a ticket at an airline ticket

Among the rules, she said, were the following:

"Loo to wear bathrobes at meals with Bob."

"Do not talk in the house after we see a show on Sundays or holidays.

"If Bob asks Loo for money give it to him, but write it down."

"Loo not to say, 'you're not in good humor', or anything to hurt Bob's feelings.

Investigation Continues

This development came while an investigation of charges of fraud and election irregularities in three South Texar counties, made by Johnson's opponent Coke Stevenson, continued.

At Zapata, in Zapata county, the chairman of the Zapata county Democratic executive committee testified at a hearing before a special federal investigator that returns from one of the county's four precincts are missing.

Mrs. Josefa M. Gutierrez, the county chairman, said she had been unable to find returns from precinct 3.

One Box Is Empty

She testified before J. M. Burnett, appointed by Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson, to investigate runoff returns in the Senate race.

At Alice, in Jim Wells county, another federal investigator, W. R. Smith, summoned a locksmith to open nine locked election ballots after the keys were declared "unavailable." Ten boxes had been opened. Of eight opened today, one was empty.

Still missing at Alice were the poll lists and tally sheets missing from precinct 13, where Stevenson charges fraud occurred.

Tech Elections Are Conducted

Importance of student cooperation and participation in campus activities was emphasized before approximately 2,000 students of Texas Technological college at a convocation this morning in the gymnasium, prior to division of the group by classes and election of officers for the year.

Dr. E. N. Jones, vice president of the college who was making his first appearance before the student body, said students can put campus activities over and that what they carry home later as ex-students will take the gospel of Texas Tech into business. Potentialities here make Tech stand out in terms of possibilities as a leading university in the nation, he said. He has served at two colleges before coming to Texas Tech. He described himself as a freshman along with members of the freshman class, in terms of length of time he has been on the campus.

Matador Band Plays

Dean of Men James G. Allen, chairman of the convocation committee, opened the convocation and introduced Clint Formby from McAdoo, president of the student body, who stressed that the student council is attempting to give students government they want and they should let their wishes be known.

Curtis Sterling from Snyder, president of the Saddle Tramps, spoke on school spirit and traditions.

The Matador band played.

Glenna Winston of Brownfield was introduced as head girl cheer leader. She was elected by the student council Monday night to succeed Lila Hedrick of Clovis, who did not return to college this fall. Daina McIlroy of Brownfield was presented as assistant cheer leader, chosen by the head girl cheer leader.

Flash Fire Wrecks Plane In New York

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (AP)—A flash fire wrecked a trans-Atlantic plane yesterday as a service crew readied it for flight at La Guardia field.

The fire broke out suddenly as servicemen filled the oxygen tank inside the DC-4. Flames shot through the interior of the ship and huge clouds of smoke rolled over the field.

No passengers were aboard and no one was injured.

The plane, belonging to Trans World airlines, was scheduled for a flight to Egypt. A TWA spokesman said the craft was valued at about $400,000 and that it was three-quarters destroyed.

Cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

Military Potential Of Europe Said To Be Near All Time Low

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29. (AP)—Gen. J. Lawton Collins, deputy army chief of staff, said today western Europe's military potential "is near an all time low."

In an address prepared for the National Guard association meeting here, Collins said that "as a result of World War II, and the subsequent changes in the balance of power . . . the United States finds itself in the position of being one of the primary military targets in any new conflict." He added:

Small Military Power

"With this new balance of power, we now find a paucity of military power among the western European nations that were our allies.

"Don't misunderstand me. The manpower potential and the industrial potential of these nations is still great. And with world-wide cooperation, there is a daily increase in their strength to defend themselves. At the moment, however, their domestic problems are so great that their military potential is near an all time low."

Pointing to the three years which the United States had for military preparations after the outbreak of World War II, Collins said "today the B-29, the jet fighter, the atomic bomb and the guided missiles have changed the picture."

"D-Day (the outbreak of hostilities) and M-Day (the day set for U. S. mobilization) could happen within the same hour," he said.

Germans Consigned To Forced Labor By Communists Escape

BERLIN, Sept. 29 (AP) — Berlin police said today about 25 Germans allegedly consigned to forced labor in Russian-operated uranium mines in Saxony made a daring escape last night.

The prisoners made their dash for freedom while the train in which they were riding was passing through the British sector of Berlin, the police said.

Details Not Disclosed

Full details of the escape were not disclosed. A British spokesman said the Germans who fled now are in the custody of west Berlin police and are being interrogated.

British authorities also are investigating the case, and it was indicated a statement may be released.

Germany police sources, confirmed by the British, said 52 Germans were bound for the uranium mines aboard a train which halted last night near the zoological garden in the British sector. About half succeeded in breaking away and fleeing through the station. Although railroad police closed off the area, none was reported recaptured.

From West Of Berlin

The alleged conscripts were presumably en route from points west of Berlin in the Soviet zone to the mines near the Saxon-Czech border.

There have been reports recently in western-licensed German newspapers that labor drafts for the uranium mines have been increased by the Russians. Anti-Communists also have claimed persons under political persecution, especially Socialists, have been sent to the mines in increasing numbers. Thousands of Germans—men and women — have been working the mines for the past three years.

New Inquiry Pushed In Reduced Term For Nazi War Criminal

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (AP)—Senate and army investigators pushed a new inquiry today into the reduction of Ilse Koch's life term sentence as a Nazi war criminal.

Unless further action is taken, the widow of the Buchenwald prison camp commandant may be released next year. Her term was cut to four years by a trial review board in Germany.

Secretary of the Army Royal ordered General Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor for Germany, to see if new charges can be filed against Mrs. Koch without putting her in double jeopardy—that is, making her undergo a second trial for the same offense. Among other things, she was charged originally with making lampshades from the tattoed skins of slain prisoners.

Secretary Powerless

Royal acted after a closed-door session with members of a senate investigating committee headed by Senator Ferguson (R-Mich). The army secretary told reporters he is powerless to revoke the commutation but that "General Clay has been asked to look into the whole case."

Ferguson opened the preliminary inquiry yesterday after receiving numerous protests from congress members and others. He said open hearings may be held at a future date.

"There is much more work to do," he said. "We want to see what the record shows. Based on what we know, it merits a thorough investigation."

Prosecutor Questioned

Before leaving on a campaign trip to Michigan, Ferguson instructed his staff to obtain from Germany the official record of the army's review of the case on which the commutation was based.

In addition to Royall, the Ferguson committee questioned William Denson, chief prosecutor at Mrs. Koch's trial.

Denson told reporters he questioned the right of the review officers in apparently substituting their judgment for that of the trial court in weighing the evidence. But Denson said the review procedure is perfectly in order.

Ferguson said the committee probably will want to question Gen. Emil Kiel, the presiding judge at Mrs. Koch's war crimes trial. Kiel is now stationed at Scott Field, Ill.

Most Of Nation To Have Fair Weather

CHICAGO, Sept. 29 (AP)—Another day of fair weather with temperatures in the 70's appeared likely for most of the country today.

Rain clouds which hovered over the southeastern states for a few days moved into parts of the midwest. Showers were reported today over parts of Ohio, Missouri, Indiana and Illinois. Light rain also fell in the southern Rockies.

The mercury climbed above 80 in the plains states yesterday but across the country readings generally were in the 70's.

Bright Future Forecast For Talented Young Film Actress

BY BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 29—"In two or three years," said Wallace Beery, "that little gal is going to be the biggest star in the movies.

"If MGM is smart, it'll pay her what she's worth," continued the usually unenthusiastic Beery. "She is really exotic. They call a lot of those old babes exotic, but this gal really fits the word. By the way, what's her name?"

I supplied it—Elizabeth Taylor. Beery is not sharp at remembering names, even with those (such as Liz) with whom he has appeared in films. But an old show business eye like his couldn't mistake the talent of the dark-haired young beauty.

News With Elizabeth

There's news with Elizabeth these days, both concerning her skyrocketing career and her romance with an army officer, Glenn Davis. So I deserted Beery and hastened to a stage where the actress was testing for her role in "Conspirators," in which she'll play Robert Taylor's wife.

In case you haven't seen the gal since she played the kid in "National Velvet," you'll be interested to know that she was testing in a dress originally worn by Marie McDonald. "The Body, ya.." You might call her. In fact, Marie's dress proved too large in the waist, but not big enough elsewhere.

Careful styling aided by her natural attributes made Elizabeth seem more mature than her 16 years. In the picture she plays a 17-year-old to Bob Taylor's 35. She walked onto the set with a Sadie Thompson strut, evoking patronizing whistles from the crew.

Stays In Line

I asked Mrs. Taylor if her daughter ever gave her any trouble. "No, she always stays in line," was the answer. "If she doesn't, she's still young enough to take a hair brush to."

After years of waiting, things are finally breaking for Elizabeth's career. Following "Velvet," she was relegated to a Lassie picture, then months of inactivity. Then she blossomed out, and MGM has been putting her into one picture after another.

Goldwyn wanted her for "Roseanna McCoy" and other producers sought to borrow her, but MGM has other plans. After "Conspirators" in England, there's talk that she'll do a repeat with Bob Taylor in "Quo Vadis," to be filmed in Rome.

CONVICT CAPTURED

HUNTSVILLE, Sept. 29. (AP)—Prison officials announced that George Nance Beal, who escaped in May, 1945 after serving part of a 50-year term for robbery from Marion county, had been picked up by Garland police last night.

When you buy Barocentrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet nor for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barocentrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe to take off ugly fat.

Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of Hepaid Barocentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take just two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 30 Pounds

"I wish to state that I lost 30 pounds taking Barocentrate. I didn't starve myself and I feel better than I have in years. I am sure that the easy, safe way to lose weight is by taking Barocentrate."—Mrs. Florence Chadwell, Route 1, Box 450, San Antonio, Texas.

25 Pounds Lost

"When I started taking Barocentrate, I weighed 195 pounds. I now weigh 170. I certainly praise Barocentrate."—G. W. Miller, Weatherford, Texas.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Man Who Greatly Loves His Wife Asks Help In Curbing Jealousy Of Her Premarital Affair

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: My wife Janice is a wonderful homemaker, has a marvelous personality and is so attractive that she evokes a second glance even from women. I have a very deep love for her and yet at times I harbor bitter resentment towards her. Can you help me stop torturing both of us mentally.

Before our marriage she told me of a previous marriage—the culmination of a high school romance—that lasted a day. This didn't bother me, but what I did resent was her friendship with a very prominent sportsman; and I resented it mainly because he was married and known for his promiscuous escapades.

Preceding our marriage there were many violent quarrels and more than once I was on the verge of leaving, but her pleadings, and at times her scenes of indignation that I could be so low as to suggest such a thing, caused me to feel, self reproachfully, that I was wrong to think ill of her.

WIFE SEEMS NOT TO FEEL CONTRITE

ONLY DURING our honeymoon, in a very confidential mood, did she tell me of her affair with this "friend," which continued over a period of five years. Whenever he was away from home they had clandestine meetings; and I can easily see how expensive trips might turn a young woman's head, but five years seems a rather protracted post-adolescence. Why she told me I can't say, unless her vain ego wanted me to know how famous she had been.

Since that day I've had periods of melancholic despair. My soul seems in constant torment, but I do love her, even though there seems to be no contrition on her part. She says the few people who know can forget, that they really don't matter, anyway; but can I forget? A glance at her expensive wardrobe, even being in our house where he visited so often, seems to stifle me.

She is young and beautiful and if I were to leave she would find someone sensible enough to see all the good in her and make her happy. I realize my attitude is unhealthy and I try hard to fight against it, and we are very happy at times; but when I sink into these morbid moods, I destroy all the good kind things I've done. Will time and grim determination help? Please give me some hope, and answer soon. I do love her!

Signed E. D.

DEAR E. D.: It seems to me that basically your problem has to do with self detestation, and in your case, the two most conspicuous offshoots of this affliction are: 1. Inability to feel comfortable or secure or accepted in love relationship. 2. Actively hostile jealous envy (masked as righteous scorn) of mainfestly magnetic, sexually self confident men and women.

Being that type of problem-personality, your ailing ego asserts urgent need to be coupled socially, as sweetheart and husband, with a sensationally attractive female such as Janice: not with reference to her simple essence or natural lovability, but because she is young, beautiful, eye-catching, highly desirable from the male viewpoint, and the one-time favorite of a famous playboy.

The business of intimacy with so much fabulous femininity is to give the sick ego a build-up and bulwark, in terms that say to society and self, "See, I won and I hold the prize so generally admired." Love doesn't figure in the union, on your part at least; for as Dr. Edmund Bergler writes: "Neurotics can't love." (See his book, "Divorce Won't Help").

PERNICIOUS ANXIETY FINALLY FINDS FOCUS

YOUR SICK personality was the seeding ground of those violent quarrels with Janice's preceding marriage. In agitating discord and threatening to leave, you were acting compulsively to "test" her devotion, bidding for vehement evidence that she didn't want to go, couldn't bear to live without you, etc., and you valued her stormy pleading as salve to your constant tormented conviction of being detestable, or not loveworthy.

Also your pernicious neurosis along this line accounts for your fierce resentment of the storied playboy's patronage of Janice, a destructive emotion that got up steam at the first hint he had figured in her life, long before she confessed their affair—a confession that you seized on instantly as excuse for bringing your free-floating jealous anxiety into vindictive focus.

You resent the fellow and all that he stands for, quite apart from his relations with Janice, which just happened to bring him into the spotlight of your conscious wrath; and you resent him mostly because you don't feel "equal" to him on the score of enjoying life; and this is somewhat the nub of your grudge against Janice also.

Thus you see how muddled your values and emotions are. You despise yourself, subjectively, for being a dud, as it were, in comparison to persons you profess to hate, for their follies and vices. And in my opinion, psychoanalytic therapy is the only help for so much confusion of mind and feeling.—M. H.

Airline Move Is Protested

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (AP)—A government move to reduce the number of domestic airlines brought a sharp protest today from the first carrier marked for possible discard.

G. T. Baker, president of National Airlines, Inc., said the Civil Aeronautics board had taken an "unprecedented" action in ordering a hearing on whether his firm's routes and equipment should be turned over to other air transport companies.

Routes Division Proposed

The CAB announced plans yesterday to hold hearings about December 1. It said it wants to determine whether transfer of National routes along the east coast will: (a) foster "sound economic conditions in the industry and (b) encourage development of an air transportation system "adapted to the present and future needs" of the country.

Up to now the CAB had not taken any initiative toward bringing about such an air line consolidation. The civil aeronautics act, however, gives the board such authority, empowering it to fix "just and reasonable" terms and conditions.

Here is how the CAB proposed dividing up the nation's routes:

New York-Miami to Pan American airways; New Orleans-Jacksonville and New Orleans-Miami to Delta Air lines; Miami-Havana to Delta or Eastern Air lines; Miami-Jacksonville to "an appropriate air carrier."

Huge Loss Noted

Board sources said that 'if the final decision takes National off the air map it might be the forerunner of similar actions involving other airlines, many of which are in financial trouble.

National Airlines, according to CAB records, had a net operating loss of over $2,000,000 in the 12-month period ending last March 31. Since February its union pilots have been on strike, but the airline has continued operations with non-union fliers.

Prisoner Is Just Homesick, He Says

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 29. (AP)—Members of the Pennsylvania board of pardons said today they are considering the commutation plea of a prisoner who wrote "frankly, gentlemen, I am homesick."

The board identified the prisoner as Percy Reid Miller, 24, of Lancaster, Pa., serving a three-to-six year sentence at Eastern State penitentiary, Philadelphia, on robbery charges.

The board, in a letter to District Attorney John M. Ranch of Lancaster county, quoted Miller as writing:

"Frankly, gentlemen, I am homesick. . . . Give me a crack at the outside world again, and if I fail you, I will be more surprised than anybody."

The board members said Miller's petition will be heard at the October meeting.

Negroes Win Court Ruling

ATLANTA, Sept. 29 (AP)—Atlanta's negro school teachers have been paid less than white teachers because of racial discrimination, a federal judge held yesterday.

Ruling on a five-year-old suit against the Atlanta school board, Federal Judge E. Marvin Underwood said negro teachers were "entitled to the relief sought."

Judge Underwood said a declaratory judgment and an injunction in accordance with his ruling will be issued.

Average Salaries Given

"The court disclaims any power to fix the salaries of the teachers," Judge Underwood said. "That is the right within the province of the defendants. The court only decrees that the salaries may not, when so fixed, be discriminatory of color or race.

School board Chairman Ed S. Cook declined comment until he could study the opinion and confer with other board members.

The following average monthly salaries were listed:

High school principals, white, $340; negro, $240.

Elementary prinicipals, white, $254.15; negro, $167.53.

High school teachers, white, $198.45; negro, 145.65.

Elementary teachers, white, $160.19; negro, $112.38.

The judge said white teachers had an average of 17.5 years of education while the negro teachers had 17.67 years.

World Flier's Wife Is Granted Divorce

RENO, Sept. 29. (INS) — Mrs. Dorothy W. Odom was granted a Reno divorce today from Capt. Bill Odom, who piloted the "Reynolds Bombshell" on its 'round-the-world flight.

Mrs. Odom, now staying at a dude ranch near Reno, said that her suit was brought on the grounds of mental cruelty.

She added:

"Bill is a fine fellow, but we just had too many disagreements to live happily together. We parted on friendly terms."

Mrs. Odom said she was planning to leave by train for her home on Long Island within a day or two. Her son Ronnie, 4, is with her. Another child, Rochelle, 7, remained in the east. Mrs. Odom was awarded custody of the two children.

Mrs. Odom said she had made no immediate plans for the future.

The Odoms were married in Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 3, 1939.

Dancer May Receive Pardon In Slaying

HAVANA, Cuba, Sept. 29. (AP)—A new legal turn in the case of Patricia (Satira) Schmidt indicated today the Toledo, Ohio, dancer may receive a pardon.

She is serving a 15-year prison term for the pistol slaying of Jack Lester Mee, Chicago attorney and former naval officer, on board Mee's yacht in April, 1947.

Patricia's lawyer, Carlos Mencio, removed the last legal obstacle to a pardon yesterday when he withdrew his appeal to the Cuban supreme court against the sentence imposed by the Havana criminal court. She was convicted on a homicide charge.

A pardon could not be granted while the appeal was pending.

Legal circles said Mencio's action indicated he has received assurance the pardon will be granted. It was held unlikely that he otherwise would have thrown away all chances of obtaining a reduction or possibly a reversal of the sentence.

The pardon would come from the president of Cuba. There was no hint, however, whether Patricia's pardon would come from president Ramon Grau San Martin or Dr. Carlos Prio Socarjas, who takes office Oct. 10.

Brownwood Mayor, Wife Are Threatened

BROWNWOOD, Sept. 29. (AP)—Mayor A. N. Thomason and his wife today received at least nine anonymous, telephoned threats to run them out of town, they told police.

Police said they believe the threats were a result of a fight over restoring 1947 tax valuations on city property. Petitions demanding that the 1947 tax valuations be restored were filed last night at a session of the city council.

Husband Uses Shotgun Hidden In Cardboard Box To Kill Wife

DETROIT, Sept. 29. (AP)—The unhappy marriage of Uris and Patricia Flowers ended in a blast of gunfire before stunned pedestrians on a busy west side street yesterday.

Uris, 37, a machinist, firing a shotgun concealed in a cardboard box, killed blonde Patricia, 33, a moment after escorting her from her place of employment, police said.

Then he fled down an alley and shot himself fatally before officers could seize him.

One gunshot from a pursuing policeman cracked through a window of a house, nearly striking an invalid woman.

Relatives said the Flowers couple, married two years, had been estranged. Mrs. Flowers, mother of a 10-year-old girl by a previous marriage, complained of mistreatment.

According to a statement from Mrs. Flowers on file in the domestic relations department of recorder's court, Flowers had been married five times before. A native of Little Rock, Ark., he was an honorably discharged marine.

Texarkana Observes Its Diamond Jubilee

TEXARKANA, Sept. 29. (AP)—Texarkana whooped it up today in a week-long celebration of the city's diamond jubilee.

The city's 50,000 population was almost doubled yesterday as visitors from Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma jammed Texarkana for opening day festivities.

Although not officially 75 years old until Dec. 8, the city planned its diamond jubilee to coincide with the fourth annual four states fair.

George Holland, manager of the chamber of commerce, and J. A. Whyte, president of the four states fair, estimated the crowd yesterday at "more than 75,000."

A historical pageant, "The Texarkana Story," featured the celebration last night. More than 1,000 Texarkanians took part.

The pageant was written by Lucille Holland, night city editor of the Texarkana Gazette.

Cleveland Jumps Into 2-Game Lead Over Yankees, Red Sox

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Indians may be a vanishing race but you couldn't tell it to the baseball world today.

Led by Manager Lou Boudreau, the Cleveland war party appears a leadpipe cinch to clash with another species, the Boston Braves, for the 1948 World Series wampum.

Two-Game Lead

Boudreau's Tribe enjoys a commanding two-game lead over the runner-up Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees in the American league pennant fight with all of the contenders having only four games left to play.

The Indians gained this almost insurmountable lead last night by massacring the Chicago White Sox, 11-0, after the Red Sox and Yanks were ambushed in the afternoon, 4-2, and 5-2, respectively, by the Washington Senators and Philadelphia Athletics.

The Indians can nail down their first flag since 1920 by winning three out of their remaining four games. Should they divide the four games the Red Sox or Yanks by winning all of their four could only tie the Indians for the pennant. The fact that two of the runnerups' remaining games are against each other lessens the possibility of one them sweeping four games.

Allows Four Hits

Lefty Gene Bearden turned in one of the best performances of his career in blanking the White Sox. The rookie held the Chicagoans to four scattered singles, fanned five and walked two in hanging up his 18th victory against seven defeats.

The Indians supported Bearden's classy job with a 13 hit attack that included homers by Dale Mitchell and Allie Clark. Mitchell opened the game with a homer off southpaw Bill Wight.

Cleveland tallied three times in the first, added another run in the second, one in the fourth and completed its scoring with a six run outburst in the fifth.

A crowd of 60,405 fans turned out for the game and "Joe Early night" in honor of the war veteran, selected as the typical Cleveland baseball fan. Before the game, Early received a new car and a truckload of household appliances, animals, clothes, luggage and books.

Put Crimp Into Hopes

Rae Scarborough and Carl Scheib were the boys who put a crimp into the flag hopes of the Red Sox and Yankees.

Scarborough chilled the Sox on six hits in picking up his 14th victory for the seventh place Senators. The Senators hammered starter and loser Joe Dobson for four runs in the second inning and Scarborough coasted the rest of the way.

Schieb had a more difficult time stopping the Yanks. He allowed 11 hits but three doubleplays got him out of holes. Scheib shut out the Yanks until the ninth when a single, walk and pinchhitter Joe Collins' two run double had him on the ropes. Tommy Henrich then poled a terrific liner to right field but Elmer Valo made a spectacular backhand catch to end the game.

Raschi Is Routed

The A's scored a run in the first inning and routed starter Vic Raschi with three more in the third on two singles, a double and triple. Raschi, seeking his 20th victory, previously had beaten the A's eight times without suffering a loss in his career.

In the only other American league game the St. Louis Browns clipped the Detroit Tigers, 5-3, on Rookie Hank Arft's two-run eighth inning homer.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, engaged in a three-way battle for second place with the St. Louis Cardinals and Pittsburgh Pirates, downed the pennant winning Braves, 9-8, in 13 innings on a home run by Jackie Robinson, Pee Wee Reese and Ed Miksis also homered for Brooklyn while Jeff Heath and Frank McCormick homered for Boston. The win pushed the Dodgers a game ahead of the Cards. The Cards, in front of Pittsburgh by a half game, had their scheduled night game with the Pirates rained out.

New York and Philadelphia divided a doubleheader. The Giants won the opener, 6-5, and the Phils the nightcap, 6-3, in a game that was called because of darkness at the end of six innings.

The Chicago Cubs beat the Cincinnati Reds 6-2 to tie the Reds for seventh place in the other National league game.

VALLEY QUESTION

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29 (U.P.)—Artie Eilers, commissioner of the Missouri Valley Conference, announced today that the football performances of Bradley and Detroit university would not count in the 1948 valley championship standings. Eilers said that the question, raised by newsmen, was decided by faculty representatives of the two colleges, both making their debut in valley competition.

The Old Boy Really Believes In Himself

Major Hoople Comes Out Of Seclusion To Pick Winners

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
Fast Man With The Buck

Egad, and halloo again, millions of gentle readers!

I have been in seclusion, more or less, since scoring an average of .999 on last season's forecasts. So many people sought me at once for autographs, that I deemed it advisable to retire, and only now am dring to emerge from seclusion.

Of course, har-rumph! let it be said in extenuation that in the compilation of my astounding record of prognostication, several games were left out, but these were the unimportant contests.

This year I am going out on a limb and predicting that Notre Dame will win a majority of its games. I am ready to say the same for Purdue, Alabama, Penn and Southern California. Um! Let me see, do any of these teams mee—drat! It's terribly easy to become confused in football where more upsets occur than befall a canoe shooting the rapids.

But look out for Yale, where Herman Hickmn is coching this year! The old Eli is likely to be beaten by Connecticut, but after this minor loss probably will rally to nose out Princeton and Harvard.

Here is a perfect forecast for the games of Oct. 2:

Army 13, Lafayette 6
Brown 21, Princeton 6
Colgate 19, Rutgers 7
Harvard 13, Columbia 6
Navy 20, Cornell 12
Penn 81, Dartmouth 6
Holy Cross 19, Syracuse 12
Notre Dame 66, Pitt 6
Illinois 20, Wisconsin 19
Iowa 14, Indiana 7
Colorado 7, Kansas 6
Michigan 21, Oregon 12
Minnesota 28, Nebraska 13
Purdue 20, Northwestern 12
Oklahoma 20, Texas A. & M. 7
Tulsa 20, Florida 0
Alabama 21, Vanderbilt 7
Arkansas 13, Texas Christian 7
Mississippi State 12, Baylor 6
Tennessee 20, North Carolina 7
Georgia Tech 20, Tulane 12
Mississippi 20, Kentucky 12

Tech Freshmen To Meet WTSTC Frosh In First Season Game

Potential Texas Tech football players will be seen in action this week end, normally an open date for football this year in Lubbock, when the first year Red Raiders open their five-game schedule.

One of the best looking grid groups in recent years at Tech, the freshmen will get their season underway Friday afternoon at 3 in Jones Stadium, playing host to the WTST freshmen. Both teams will be making their first game starts of the year and it should be a good tilt.

Tech has come up with several players of top caliber, one of whom is touted as a second Doak Walker, Right Halfback Judson Brawner of Atmore, Alabama. Brawner is a big boy with speed and size who played four years of high school ball in Alabama, making all-state two years. He also enlisted in the Marines while in high school and spent about 10 months in the service.

Rex Pinson of Falfurrias, right guard, is another prize in the Raider freshmen line. The big boy is 224 pounds of guard and turns in a good performance. He will team with Jackie Cockburn of Denison, a six foot, 185-pound guard.

Dick Pirtle of Lubbock's Westerners will draw the starting left end assignment, along with Jack Davis of Littlefield, a six foot, 165-pound right end.

Jerrell Price of Brownfield, all-state selection and voted the outstanding lineman in the annual high school all-star game, will be at left tackle, teaming with Bobby Gene Dobbs of Breckenridge, a six foot, 205-pound lad.

At center will be Clint Gregory of Bowie, a six foot, 185-pound man.

Bob Close of Shamrock will be a left half, teaming with Brawner, while Ralph May of Sudan's Hornets, one of the strongest teams on the South Plains last year, will be at fullback.

The second string, practically as strong as the first eleven, will have either Gene Capps of Higgins or Gene McCanlies of Littlefield at left end, with Lewis Crosley of Eastland at right end. Tackles will be Robert Greene of Burkburnett and Dick Andrews of McLean. Don Anthony of Amarillo will be at one guard and Jimmy Martin of Wichita Falls will be at the other. Pat Crawford of Eastland has won the center spot on the second string.

The reserve backfield will have several "rabbits" in it, including Eural Ramsey of Shamrock at quarter, Jack Young of Andrews and Jack Haynes of Roscoe at the halves and Aubrey "Red" Phillips of Fort Worth Tech at fullback.

McMurry Will Play In Corpus Saturday

ABILENE, Sept. 29 (Special)—After blanking the East Texas Baptist Tigers 35-0 last Saturday night in Abilene, the McMurry Indians are shaping up for their Corpus Christi tussle scheduled for Saturday, October 2, at Corpus Christi.

The McMurry squad has rolled up 49 points to their opponents 33 thus far this season. Brad Rowland, the Indian backfield speedster and trick runner, chugged 88 yards in the Tribe-Bengal clash, making a total of 205 yards gained rushing, with an average of 10 yards per try, this season.

Raiders Drill For SMU Tilt

There was no end of possibility for a spectator to enjoy himself yesterday afternoon at Texas Tech, where three football squads went through a long, grinding afternoon's work.

The average spectator could stop on his way to the main practice field and watch the Red Raide freshmen for a while. Then he could go to the old stadium and watch a vicious scrimmage session between the reserves. And to top it off, he could go to Jones Stadium to watch the varsity work dummy scrimmage against SMU plays.

And all three might have been worthy of a spectator's interest all afternoon. The varsity was being trained against Coach Polk Robison's Mustang plays, while learning defense assignments, calling for versatility, were designed to break up the potent Mustang aerial attack, as well as their running game.

Break Up Plays

The Red Raiders, with no way of knowing what the dummy SMU team would try next, broke up the majority of plays. Occasional defensive lapses allowed the Mustang eleven to gain, but none of the plays would have gone for the distance. It was a reassuring performance.

As for the scrimmage session between the reserves, there was plenty of fury in the tackling and blocking, with some good running by the backs. J. W. Thompson, Bill White and Walter Maloney all showed to good advantage, while the defensive also looked sharp at times.

But Coach Dell Morgan wasn't happy about the blocking, nor the way the backs were running much of the time. He was in a rampant mood, criticizing mistakes and driving the team hard, trying to iron out the faults. More than anyone else, Morgan realizes that the Aggies were a breather in comparison to what SMU will throw at the Raiders. And he drove the players through a rough scrimmage in an effort to develop offensive power.

Offensive Drill Held

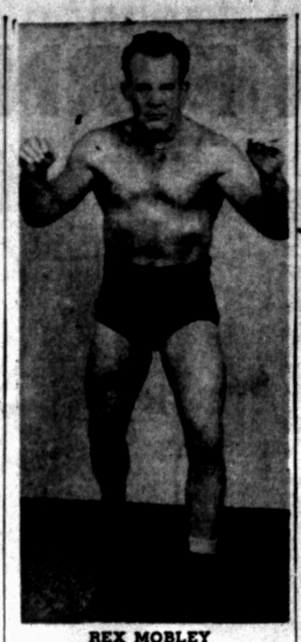

The varsity, preceding their intensive work on SMU plays, were sent through a long offensive session, stressing plays that Tech will use Saturday. No one at the Raider institution is thinking of defeat and the emphasis is on scoring a victory.

Tech is faced with one of the nation's top teams and the finest array of backs to be seen so far. There has been a lot of talk about the weak Mustang line, but against Pitt, the line showed up well. Tech is capable of playing over its head and if the Mustangs are not up enough, Tech might upset them. But the probability of a Raider victory is offset by the uncertain possibility.

Despite this, the Raiders have only one thought in mind this week; to play their best and beat SMU.

JOHNSON SCORES TKO

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29 (AP)—Unbeated light-heavyweight Harold Johnson of Philadelphia unleashed rights and lefts with murderous fury last night to score a technical knockout over Agostino Guedes, Palmerton, Pa., in 2.16 of the third round in the featured 10-rounder at Convention hall. Johnson weighed 176, Fuedes 186.

REX MOBLEY

Marvel Meets Getz Tonight

Tough Al Getz of Pittsburgh will tangle with the undefeated Masked Marvel in the spotlight bout of a triple main event mat card tonight at Sled Allen's arena.

Getz and the Marvel battled in the local arena last week, with the Mask gaining a disputed decision. Both grapplers participated in an out-of-the-ring altercation that resulted in a deep cut over Getz' eye, and the durable Dutchman was unable to return to the ring in time to beat the referee's count. Getz protested the decision, but the official—as usual—refused to reverse the verdict.

The match will be a two out of three falls, one-hour time limit setto.

Rex Mobley of Borger and Boston Billy Weidner are slated to meet in the first main event. Mobley has not lost a match since his return to the local arena, but he faces a tough test in Weidner, who recently won the Southwestern junior heavyweight crown from Wayne Martin of Tulsa.

Sammy Kohen of New York City and Bennie Trudell of Montreal, Canada, will clash in the second tussle.

Tickets went on sale at 9 o'clock this morning at Wylie's drug. Matches start at 8:15 p. m.

Quantity, Quality For Aggies' Frosh

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 29 (AP)—Quantity plus quality are to be found in the freshman football squad at Texas A. and M.

The initial practice session attracted 110 grid warriors fresh out of high schools from all over the state and a sprinkling of out-of-staters.

The Aggie fish, who this year are guided by Barlow (Bones) Irvin—a former Maroon and White gridder himself—and Bob Gary, varsity co-captain last season, open their 1948 schedule Thursday night at Stephenville against John Tarleton.

Fort Worth Is Texas Champ

FORT WORTH, Sept. 29. (AP)—Fort Worth was "in" today as Texas league champion.

The regular season winner sacked up the playoff title last night with a 4-0 victory over Tulsa.

The victory gave the Cats, who eliminated Shreveport in the first round of the playoff, the final series, four games to two.

Dwain Sloat scattered six Tulsa hits and his mates backed him up by bunching seven blows, including home runs by Manager Bobby Bragan and George Schmees.

All Were Shutouts

Bragan's circuit clout came in the second with one man on base and Schmees hit one over the fence in the third.

All of Fort Worth's victories over Tulsa, second in the regular season race, were shutouts.

Harry Perkowski pitched both of Tulsa's victories in the series and Mike Schultz worked a fourteen inning, 3-3 tie between the two teams.

Fort Worth will await the outcome of the Southern association before leaving for either Nashville or Birmingham for the Dixie series.

Dyer Will Manage Cards Two Years

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29 (AP) — Eddie Dyer, tabbed by many persons a couple of months ago as on the way out, will manage the St. Louis Cardinals two more years.

Robert E. Hannegan, president of the Cards, announced that he had come to terms with Dyer after a five-minute talk last night.

Offensive Battle Is Forecast At Austin

Offensive play will hold the spotlight at House Park stadium at Austin Friday night when the Lubbock High Westerners of 1-AA match their powerful single wing attack against Austin's speedy "T" formation and modified box scoring machine in a non-conference tussle.

The Westerners, who will meet their fourth tough foe in four weeks of play, have attracted attention over the state with their rapidly-improving offense. The Hub city schoolboys started slowly, tallying one touchdown to tie Odessa at 7-7, then crossed the double stripe twice while absorbing a 21-13 drubbing by San Angelo.

But last week the Westerners overcame a 14-0 halftime North Side lead to stage a three-touchdown assault and defeat the Fort Worth crew, 21-14, in an upset triumph. The Lubbock gridders chalked up 266 yards rushing against the Steers, including a 73-yard touchdown gallop by Tailback Bobby Brown, and the downstate grid experts were favorably impressed by the smooth precision of the Westerners' center traps and off-tackle slants.

The Maroons, who have also met some of the top teams in the state, have shown rapid improvement in their offense department. The Maroons, using the quick-breaking "T" and a modified box on the attack, took a 27-7 drubbing from Brackenridge of San Antonio in their first tilt, then held powerful Waco to a 27-14 win in their second setto. Last week the Austin schoolboys entered the win column with a 7-6 victory over City conference Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio.

The Austin team is paced by a top group of speedsters in the secondary, including several of the boys who set a new Interscholastic league sprint relay record this spring. The Maroon gridders, like the Lubbock representatives, are inexperienced, but have gained valuable experience against top-bracket opposition.

The non-conference tilt, one of the feature games of the state schedule, is rated an even 50-50 choice by most of the schoolboy grid experts. The Lubbock eleven has shown a slightly better offense than Austin, but the Maroons' speed and home field advantage are slated to balance the scales. The Westerners will also be handicapped by making their second lengthy journey in two weeks.

Coach Pat Pattison, head Lubbock mentor, said last night that the Westerner squad will leave Thursday morning by chartered bus for Brownwood and Austin. The group is expected to spend Thursday night in Brownwood, moving on to Austin early Friday morning.

Hoenig is his predictions last March 29 picked Oakland to win the Pacific Coast league baseball title and listed the order in which he thought the other seven teams would finish.

Blaik System Moves Faster

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 — Hot football tip hereabouts is to keep your eyes on little Muhlenberg . . . Observers say the Mules hit the supposedly strong Boston U. team so hard last Saturday that they knocked the fight clear out of the New Englanders. Muhlenberg also gave Rutgers quite a going-over in a scrimmage . . . While Earl Blaik's 1948 Army team was romping over Villanova, two "Blaik school" graduates, Stu Holcomb at Purdue and Herman Hickman at Yale, also were going surprisingly well. Now if Andy Gustafson can spring something at Miami this week . . . The Blaik system apparently is just moving ing faster and hitting harder than the other guys, running every play with precision and endless attention to details by the coaches . . . The Phillies have just signed a full-blooded Winnebago Indian for a farm club . . . The guy who can refrain from gagging about the Indian sign is entitled to give the first war whoop.

Just The Right Word

Manager Billy Southworth of the Braves made a shrewd prediction last spring when he said Bill Voiselle would win 15 games this season, although Billy missed out on his forecast of 25 victories for Warren Spahn . . . But it remained for Shorty Young, the clubhouse attendant, to hit the nail right on the head . . . Serving as announcer at an intra-squad tilt in Bradenton, Fla., Shorty told the crowd: "The next game will be Sunday—and there will be no omission." . . . There hasn't been an omission all season as far as we can see.

One-Minute Sports Page

If Cleveland meets the Braves in the World Series, they could put on quite a sideshow between Al Dark and Jim Hegan. (Bill Veeck might even try it if they don't sell out the park.) Dark was a high school star at Lake Charles, La., in baseball, football, basketball and track and is a better than fair golfer. Hegan starred in the same four sports at Lynn, Mass., Classical high . . . The only time Coy McGee, Notre Dame's speedy 146-pound halfback, ever was hurt on a college football field was when he stepper into a hole walking back to a huddle and sprained his ankle . . . The U. of Texas has one of the best freshman football squads in a decade —and may need it after what happened in North Carolina last Saturday . . . The Iowa State freshman grid squad boasts a lineman named Homer D. Fieldhouse — a 165-pounder. Frosh Coach Herb Cormack probably would prefer a boy built like a brick house.

Between The Lines. . .

By Joe Kelly

We liked Dell Morgan's saying that the Red Raiders weren't going to Dallas Saturday to be beaten. The genial Texas Tech coach made the statement at the Quarterback club meeting Monday night and he meant it. His coaches believe in him and they echo his remark. As Polk Robinson said, they're not invincible, they're human and they can be beaten. And the squad itself feels that they are a team of destiny, capable of getting the job done.

We wouldn't have much respect for Mssrs. Morgan, Robinson, G. B. Morris, Tip Mooney and Maxey McKnight if they said they expected to get licked. We wouldn't take it quite so heavily if the squad said so, but we have more respect for their saying they are going to win. Coaches and players who do not believe in themselves will not have others believing in them. And coaches and players who enter a team thinking they are going to be beaten, usually are. That's why we're glad this year's Red Raider eleven is different. They KNOW they are going to win and it is the only way for them to look at it.

But others of us, hopeful and sympathetic as we are, look at the cold facts and wonder. You can't get around the fact that the Mustangs aren't rated as one of the top teams in the nation through politics. They have a powerful line and a brilliant backfield. In Doak Walker, Paul Page, Kyle Rote, Dick McKissick and Gil Johnson they have a dream backfield. The players are so versatile that they can shift positions and still give the Mustangs an offense that is no weaker. And no one ever considered the Mustang offense weak. The Ponies can go on the ground or through the air. Against Pitt they scored mainly through aerials, but they might do it this week on the land.

They have a husky squad and they have depth at every position. Last year they had plenty of strength to beat Texas by one point, even though Steer followers said that Texas would win six days out of seven. Be that as it may, they played once and SMU won. They must have had strength to take an early lead and hold it. This year's squad is almost the same and, although they lost several key linemen, they show strength in line replacements.

Tech has beaten SMU on other occasions, when they were the underdogs and they never have been beaten by more than two touchdowns. In fact, the Raiders hold a three-two edge over the Ponies. Tech won 6-0 in 1932; lost 14-0 in 1933; won 7-6 in 1943; lost by the same margin in 1944; and won 7-0 in 1946. Actually, following this pattern of win, lose, win, lose, this is SMU's year to win, but gridiron rivalries don't always follow patterns. For that reason, anyone who presumes to go by the above might be wrong. It's no secret that the Mustangs, with each succeeding win, are under more pressure. We can hope that it overflows this week and an alert Tech team capitalizes on the mistakes that a tense team makes.

Despite the outlook that just off cold facts alone SMU should be at least a 21 point favorite, we feel that this year's Raider eleven will go far in holding the Ponies in check. There isn't a better defensive coach in the nation than Dell Morgan. And we doubt if there is a team with more sheer fight and determination than the 1948 Raiders. This happy combination may lose games, but they'll also win a lot. We'll be entirely satisfied if they play as well, or better, against the Mustangs as they did against the Aggies.

A. L. Ferguson returned from Wyoming the other day with a moose weighing 900 pounds. The antlers had a 44½-inch spread and the racks, 28½ inches. That's a lot of moose and a challenge to other hunters. Incidentally, A. J. Farmer of Farmer's Taxidermy studio, 3702 Avenue Q, reports that antelope brought back from Wyoming by local hunters are fat and in excellent condition. Farmer says that they all have had nice heads and estimates about 20 have been brought back by local nimrods.

Texas Tech's future opponents, in order, fared this way over the week end: SMU 33, Pitt 14; Tulsa 19, Baylor 41; Arizona-San Diego State (no score available); Rice 40, Sam Houston 0; Texas Mines, open date; New Mexico 9, Colorado 6; and Hardin-Simmons 7, Cincinnati 7.

THE ROUNDUP: The Tech-SMU game in Dallas is the only home game on the Mustang schedule that is completely sold out . . . Persons with spare time ought to take in that Tech freshman game Friday. It ought to be an eye-opener . . . Reports at Santone are that Byron "Santone" Townsend of Odessa is far from popular with his fish teammates . . . Dr. D. M. Wiggins ably took over Dr. W. M. Whyburn's place. He was in the stands at Santone to bring Tech to victory . . . Paul Campbell, Texas' Q-back, got his first instruction in the T formation from New Mexico Coach Berl Huffman, whose Lobos he will face Saturday . . . Our thanks to the Smallin Insurance Agency of Seminole for the Indian schedule on those nice blotters . . . Tipp Mooney says beware of Baylor, they're rough this year.

Kilgore Wins First Game From Amarillo

KILGORE, Sept. 29 (AP) — Kilgore won its first game from Amarillo in the post season series between the two class C champions in convincing fashion last night, 18-3.

The victory left Amarillo, champion of the West Texas-New Mexico league, leading the Lone Star league titlist, three games to one.

Manager Joe Kracher led the fourteen hit assault against two Gold Sox hurlers with five hits in six times at bat.

The Drillers sewed up the game with an eight-run outburst in the second inning off six hits and two walks.

The teams meet in the fifth game of the series here tonight.

Freshmen Of Baylor, TCU Battle Tonight

FORT WORTH, Sept. 29 (U.P.) — Baylor and Texas Christian freshman football teams will play the first game under TCU stadium's new lighting system tonight.

The game, featuring a host of former all-state and all-district players on each team, will be televised by station WBAP-TV.

There is only one senior on the North Carolina State football squad—Wingback Oscar Bozeman.

Citation Gets Back In Action

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 (AP) —Citation returns to action in the $25,000 added Sysonby mile at Belmont park today, his first eastern appearance since June 12 when he swept racing's triple crown honors by winning the Belmont stakes.

Teaming up with a stablemater, Coaltown, the sensational Calumet three-year-old champion with a victory can boost his 1948 earnings over the $500,000 mark—a one-year figure unprecedented n turf history.

Scratches Expected

Eight were entered for the race, but paddock talk suggested the powerful Calumet farm one-two punch would result in several scratches before post time. With eight starters the race would gross $29,700 The winner hitting $20,700.

Citation has been taking it easy since he won the American derby at Washington park Aug. 28. This afternoon's race will serve as Citation's tuneup for Saturday's $100,000 Jockey Club gold cup at Belmont.

Coaltown showed Belmont fans he was in top form Sept. 15 when he merely galloped to a five-length verdict in the Jerome handicap, also at one mile.

Trainer Jimmy Jones said both colts were in top condition, and although Coaltown also was named for the two-mile Jockey club classic, it seemed likely only Citation would run back again Saturday.

Citation, to be ridden today by Eddie Arcaro for the tenth time this year, has won $49,070 in capturing 13 of 14 races this season. He took eight of nine starts as a two-year-old, and with total earnings of $651,750 is in third place behind Stymie and Armed in the all-time money winning list.

All Space At Series Might Be Reserved

CLEVELAND, Sept. 29 (U.P.) — Cleveland Indian officials, buried under an avalanche of 1,020,000 requests for world series' tickets, said today that they might sell standing room ducats and place bleacher seats on a reserved basis in order to accommodate as many applicants as possible.

Closing down the sale of reserved seats for the world series 10 hours after the first applications were accepted yesterday, Tribe President Bill Veeck estimated that at least 80,000 persons and possibly 85,000 would be able to see each game which may be played here. The previous world series record of 64,065 fans crammed Yankee stadium Oct. 5 to watch the Yankees battle the Brooklyn Dodgers.

BOWLING SCORES

Holsum Bakery retained the other spot in the top post by sweeping a three-game series from the "No-Name" team.

Lea Williams of the Holsum team chalked up the high series total of 227-539, while Arlis Womble copped high single gamehonors with a 233.

Interest Picks Up In Class A Races

(By The United Press)

Statewide interest in the state class A schoolboy football picture has picked up this season as the 32-district bracket of the Texas Interscholastic league athletic program moved toward its first official state championship.

Class A teams have never played further than regional before.

Since the smaller schools have a longer playoff round than their bigger class AA neighbors, who are packed into 14 districts, class A district champions have to be determined a week earlier than the Thanksgiving day weekend.

Some Already Played

Some district games already have been played, while most of the districts move into their title play in full power as October rolls around.

Briefly, here's a picture of the situation in the class A race:

1-A—Phillips, top heavy winner in three games over Panhandle, Wellington and Floydada, takes on a good Shamrock team from 2-A this Saturday before launching into conference campaign. Tulia appears the most likely challenger, having lost only one warmup game.

2-A—Shamrock, victor in four straight, and McLean, which has won three including a 19-0 title tilt over Clarendon, remain unbeaten and loom as the top clubs. They do not meet until Nov. 5.

Probable Title Game

3-A—Abernathy and Lockney, both unbeaten, clash this week in a probable title game, although Crosbyton—with a tie against its record—still may have a look-in.

4-A—Friday night's Tahoka-Slaton battle may decide the 4-A south half title. In the north half, Muleshoe, the favorite, tackles Sudan in the only conference game.

5-A—Unsettled as yet, but three games this week should narrow the field that has Monahans as the favorite. Monahans plays Fort Stockton, Denver City meets McCamey and Kermit plays Pecos.

6-A — Albany and Haskell are undefeated in the eastern half of the district and they clash this week in what may be the deciding game.

9-A — Holliday, Seymour and Iowa Park remain with unblemished records, with each meeting conference foes for the first time this week. Holliday meets Olney, Seymour plays Archer City and Iowa Park plays Crowell.

Bowie Again Tops

10-A—Bowie again tops with two straight wins, including one over class AA Electra, and meets Arlington in an inter-district game this week.

19-A—McGregor undefeated in three starts is favored, but La Vega and Gatesville also are unbeaten to date. McGregor and Gatesville take on Itasca and Mart in district games this week.

20-A—West half race muddled with no unbeaten teams, but Mexia appears strongest.

21-A—Taylor unbeaten but tied; Georgetown has won its district opener over Killeen and meets another district foe in Cameron this week.

22-A—Three district games this week should narrow the field down, Burnet playing Goldthwaite, Lampasas at Llano and Mason at Marble Falls.

23-A — Navasota with three straight wins is the team to beat, but is idle this week as Brenham plays Caldwell and Giddings tackles LaGrange.

Three Rate Nods

24-A — Gonzales, San Marcos and New Braunfels rate the nods with none scheduled to meet each other this week.

25-A—Aldine looks good here.

26-A—Jasper on top with Livingston and possibly Kirbyville as contenders.

27-A—El Campo looms as the main threat here.

28-A—Cuero best bet with this week's game with Three Rivers as a test.

29-A — Falfurrias and Aransas Pass strong. Falfurrias meets Freer in a good test game this week.

30-A—Mission looms as best bet.

31-A—All weak with this week's Hot Wells-Devine game possibly furnishing the winner.

32-A — No standouts, but big schedule pitting Eagle Pass against Cotulla, Crystal City at Uvalde, Del Rio at Carrizo Springs and Hondo at Pearsall due to unscramble it partly.

The Texas Longhorns' 1948 football schedule includes games with universities from all states bordering Texas—New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana State.

Russian Aircraft Dangerously Buzz American Supply Planes

BERLIN, Sept. 29 (AP)—Nine Soviet fighter planes dangerously buzzed two American supply planes in a Soviet zone air corridor today, U. S. authorities announced.

The planes were flying supplies in to Soviet-blockaded Berlin from the western zones.

American air officials said they were transmitting a written protest to the Russians, charging violation of air safety regulations and demanding remedial action.

Regulations Violated

These were the latest of several recent Soviet-perpetrated incidents in the air corridors which the Americans asserted violated four-power flying regulations and were designed to harass the blockade-busting air lift to Berlin.

Last week a Soviet fighter flew dangerously close to an American passenger transport. Last week the Americans also protested a Soviet announcement of close formation flying by Russian aircraft, which violates air corridor rules, and a Soviet announcement of anti-aircraft firing practice in the corridors to a height of 10,000 feet.

Capt. Vincent H. Gookin of Quincy, Mass., U. S. representative at the four-power Berlin air safety center, filed the protest against the air corridor incidents. He said the protest was based upon accounts by the pilots of two C-54 Skymasters.

Yaks Came Close

The pilots reported they were buzzed (dived upon) by Soviet Yaks as they were carrying cargoes to Berlin through the Hamburg-Berlin corridor. They were in-bound from Fassburg, coal base for the air lift.

They said the buzzing occurred at about 11:45 a. m. (3:45 a. m. CST). One pilot said his ship was buzzed by five Yaks and the other by four.

Gookin said the pilots asserted the Yaks dived down at the supply transports and around them coming within 100 feet.

After discussing their problems for several hours, they started for home along the edge of a pond. When they came to a spot where the water was about four feet deep he pushed her in and, losing his balance, tumbled after her.

"She fought desperately to get out of the water and nearly drowned me," the police chief quoted him as saying. "She scratched my face and tore out a bit of my hair in her frantic efforts to escape.

"But I succeeded in breaking away and grabbing hold of her head. I forced it down into the water and held it there for several minutes until I was sure she was dead.

STOCKS IN RECOVERY

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 (AP)—A slow recovery took the stock market into higher ground today in restrained trading. The volume was around 800,000 shares.

Rails and oils again led with steels and motors following.

The rubber group advanced but with moderate activity. Utilities and air-lines remained mixed.

Trading quickened on the brief intermediate rallies and slowed when prices were cut by small fractions.

Rails gained fractions to around a point, Santa Fe, however, lost more than a point after declaration of a $2 extra dividend. Some were disappointed that directors took no action on a rumored stock split.

Airlines remained mixed with American Airlines and National Airlines reaching new lows for 1948. National, off nearly a point at one time, faces a civil Aeronautics Board hearing on whether its scheduled routes will be transferred to other lines.

UN Session

generally elapse before the council meets on a non-urgent matter.

The three powers said they had tried without success to find a peaceful solution to the Berlin crisis. They called the situation serious and blamed "the unilateral imposition by the government of the U. S. S. R. of restrictions on transport and communications" between Berlin and the western zones.

Yugoslavia lined up solidly behind the Soviet union.

Allies Blamed For Woes

Yugoslav Foreign Minister Edvard Kardelj said during debate in the general assembly that the world's woes are due to the anti-Soviet policies of the western nations. Premier-Marshall Tito of Yugoslavia and his lieutenants recently were denounced by the Cominform for departing from Moscow's Communist line.

Kardelj listed the differences between the Russians and the West, point by point, and put his country on the side of the "people's democracies."

As Kardelj spoke, western informants said the United States, Britain and France will send identical notes to the U. N. by 3 p. m. today, calling for security council action in the Berlin crisis.

Decision Is Explained

A British spokesman said the western powers decided yesterday not to call for urgent United Nations consideration of the East-West dispute. This decision was made for these reasons, he said:

1. There is no actual fighting in progress in Berlin.

2. There is no desire to stampede or high pressure the United Nations.

On the basis of this decision, the council is not likely to be summoned for the next three days. A British spokesman said Monday appears the likeliest day for the next council meeting—especially as some time will be needed by the delegates to study the documentation accompanying the western complaints.

A French spokesman said the western powers will ask the security council to impose provisional measures to settle the Berlin dispute.

Proposal Is Suggested

Kardelj supported the Soviet proposal for big power reduction of armaments and armed forces by one-third and the prohibition of atomic weapons.

He attacked the U. N. special commission on the Balkans and said the United States was pursuing an "expansionist policy" in Greece, accompanied by "a rising wave of mass terror," which he said was inspired by American representatives there.

The American expansionist policy, Kardelj said, "is manifesting itself in the creation and development of western Europe, in the keeping of armies in the territories of Allied and other countries, in the machinations in the Middle East, in the re-establishment of Japan as an anti-Soviet base, in the non-fulfillment of peace treaties, in the organization of a vast system of military bases, in the refusal to consider disarmament and the prohibition of atomic energy as a means of waging war."

U. S. Is Accused

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky paid little attention to the short, stocky Yugoslav's speech, busying himself with a mass of papers. U. S. Secretary of State George C. Marshall listened attentively to a translation. Kardelj spoke in Russian.

Dimitri S. Manuilsky, Urkanian foreign minister, accused the United States of "incitment to war" and trying to "split Europe in order to conquer Europe."

In one part of the world, he said, "reaction is raising its ugly head . . . new wars are being commenced. "In the Communist world, however," Democracy and peace are being strengthened . . . people are busy at the constructive work of rebuilding their homes after the war damage, despite the economic blockade of the United States of America."

Manuilsky said "we do not seek dollars. We will not sacrifice our national honor for American goods or war surplus."

The United States, he said, has set up 489 military bases throughout the world. These bases are "keeping under control the Mediterranean basin, central African, Latin America, the Middle East, the Far East and the Pacific.

"The people of those areas cannot fail to realize that their independence is threatened."

Man Is Burned While Lighting Gas Boiler

R. L. Taylor, 48, of 209 Thirtieth was taken to West Texas hospital this morning after he suffered burns when he started to light a burner under a gas boiler at Plains Cooperative Oil mill.

He had first and second degree burns on his face and both hands and a burn on his ankle. His condition was not considered serious, an attending physician said early this afternoon.

Taylor had lighted newspapers and thrust them into the burner. Gas apparently had escaped and flames flashed out.

SUPPORT INDICATED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (U.P.)—The Agriculture department indicated today it will support the price of this year's record corn crop at about $1.44 a bushel at the farm.

Superintendent Of Experiment Station Discusses Agriculture At Rotary Meet

Discussing agriculture from the standpoint of capital investment, efficiency of operation, and as the basis of economy, particularly in this area, Don L. Jones, superintendent of the agricultural experiment station here, today urged Rotay club members at the club's luncheon at the Hilton hotel to "extend the welcome mat" for those who will attend the mechanization conference here next month.

The conference, to be attended by top flight industrial leaders and agriculture specialists, is scheduled for Oct. 14 to 16. It was set here, Jones said, by the sponsoring National Cotton council, because this area is the most highly mechanized agricultural territory in the world, and efforts will be made to show equipment manufacturers and others that machinery suitable for one part of the nation will not give maximum efficiency in another.

Investmen tGreater

Jones told the club that in Texas the average capital structure investment by the farmers is greater than that in business, and that in the last 15 years, efficiency of the farmers in production has increased more than industrial efficiency.

The speaker was introduced by D. . Sherrill, program chairman, who cited the interdependence of agriculture and business, particularly in this area.

James Block of Fort Neches, commercial art student, was introduced as junior Rotarian for the month from Texas Tech college. Three new members were introduced. They were Dr. E. N. Jones, vice president of Texas Tech; Ishmael Hill, who has returned to the public school system here; and Paul Branom, band instructor at the high school.

Visitors Are Named

Visiting Rotarians included James F. Potts of Floydada, Morris Gottlieb of Perry, Okla., Clements Von Roeder of Snyder, Henry W. Taylor of Birmingham, Sol R. Gayle of Fort Worth, W. L. Pratt of Fort Worth, Olen P. Davis of Sweetwater, M. W. Waldron of Mercedes, Bill Blakney of Abilene, Mabry Beard of Taft, Nat D. Heaton and Louis Hollingsworth of Slaton.

Club President Irving Jones announced that the film "My Home Town, Lubbock" will be shown at next week's luncheon. Invocation was by Floyd Honey.

employes, also has been under scrutiny in Congress. The commission itself said, as it did of the U. E.: "information is available concerning alleged Communist affiliation or association of certain officers of this union."

The commission's move to erect new safeguards against possible leaks of atomic secrets, was only one in a series of tumbling developments bearing on the issue of Reds-in-government. Among them:

1. The disclosure by William W. Remington that he has appealed a regional loyalty board's ruling of "reasonable grounds to believe" he was disloyal.

Remington is the suspended $10,000 a year Commerce department official named by Elizabeth graduate and cross-examine her.

During the period covered by her testimony, Remington was an T. Bentley as a source of the wartime secrets she told of collecting while serving as a spy ring messenger.

Truman Slaps GOP

Remington announced through his attorney that he has asked the president's loyalty review board to let him confront the Vassar employe of the War Production board. His job at the Commerce department was to preside over a board which passed on what exports could be made to Russia.

2. A campaign speech charge by President Truman that "the Republicans have impeded and made more difficult our efforts to cope with Communism in this country."

Thomas Probe Considered

3. A retort from Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) that Mr. Truman's remarks were "utterly ridiculous." Ferguson said the Republicans have been leading the fight against Communism.

4. Word from the Justice department that it has taken "under advisement" a request for an investigation of the way Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ) has run his office.

Thomas is chairman of the House un-American activities committee. On Monday the committee charged the Truman administration with "inexcusable" failure to move against a "Soviet espionage conspiracy in the United States during World War II."

Thomas said of the Justice department disclosure: "I refuse to be intimidated."

sembled by and on long, steel trucks, which spotted at exact intervals under the perimeter of the big top, unfold into properly inclined decks. When these were swiftly adjusted and joined and the folding upholstered chairs bolted thereon snapped upright, vast oval of blue and red cushioned chairs and seats, broken only by exits and entrances—the first circus bowl. It is acclaimed as the greatest forward step in the circus field since Barnum put the show on railroads in 1871.

Among the pre-eminent attractions of first-time-in-America distinction, engaged in Europe last winter by John Ringling North, are: Francis Brunn, the greatest juggler of all time; Unus, the wonder equilibrist who walks on his forefinger; the Zoeppes, Italy's famous bareback riding stars; with Cucciola, midget clown; Alberty, dome-high perch-top daredevil; Trisco, flying trapeze sensation; the Mandos Sisters, aerial novelty surprise; the Zavattas, comedy cyclones on wheels; the Ming Sing Chinese troupe of acrobatic equilibrists, and scores more of equal excellence, including the renowned Christian Dogs' parade from Norway.

Top Feature Of Show

However, the very top feature of the 1948 performance is the super-spectacle, "'Twas the Night Before Christmas," huge, humorous, holiday extravaganza, with nearly 2000 people and animals, all in fantastic and dazzling array. Santa Claus' Arctic work-shop lends its jolly artisans and fabulous output of toys that live interspersed with the Yuletide revelers of all nations and the merry Noel wedding celebrations of fairy tale folk, in this never to be forgotten tidal wave of Christmas spirits, love, laughter and fantasy.

It was produced by John Ringling North and staged by John Murray Anderson, as were the other exciting spectacles of the Big Show program—The Monte Carlo Aerial Ballet, 0 pretty girls in mid-air, color-wheel revolves; "Dixie," blooded horses, stately equipages and beautiful women in a gala equestrian rendezvous of the Old South in Stephen Foster melody mood, and The Circus Ball, glittering, swirling finale by high-hatted elephants, gorgeous girls and the full corps of clowns.

Out of the sensational importations of last Spring are featured lovely Rose Gould, Europe's renowned queen of the air, the smash-hit aerial thriller; the breath-taking Alzanas, England's challenge to the universe in high wire achievements; Mathies' Royal Bengal tigers; Orlando's Polar bears; Damoo Dhotre's leapards. and a host of other topflight troupes.

Fair

will be presented on the midway at 5:30 and 11 p. m.

While fair association officials acknowledged the possibility that one-day attendance records for the Panhandle-South Plains fair may be broken today, they regard it as unlikely. They will be surprised if the turnout exceeds the 45,737 set on Children's day at the 1938 fair. Since that time, two children's days have been provided—on Thursday and Friday of the present fair.

14,832 Attend Tuesday

Tuesday's Lubbock day turnout of 14,832 was far short of the 25,076 last year. But the total exceeded expectations, considering that a great many people have planned to visit the circus and the fair in one trip and the further fact that city schools, which have been dismissed today, were in session Tuesday. Last year, Lubbock day and city school day were combined into one.

Yesterday's crowd was large enough to keep the midway thronged during both afternoon and night. The "Water Follies of 1948," after playing to slender grandstand audiences Monday night and Tuesday matinee, drew an estimated 4,000 spectators Tuesday night.

While fair association officials attempted to take care of today's throngs, they completed preparations for another big day Thursday.

Children's Day Thursday

Thursday will be the first of the two annual Children's days, and scores of school buses are expected to bring students from dozens of towns and communities to take in the fair. The first Children's day attendance usually has been the largest of the week at fairs since 1939, and fair association officials will not be particularly surprised if this record is maintained this year. However, the fact that Second Children's day falls on Friday is expected to bolster the attendance on that occasion.

A special feature scheduled Thursday is a visit by the Whiteface High school band. It will play on the midway in advance of Seldon's afternoon stratosphere performance.

The carnival operators have announced that all rides will be half price for the kids on Children's days. Kid rides will be 5 cents and the merry-go-round 6 cents.

Another feature Thursday will be the start of the three-day second annual South Plains Rabbit and Cavy show in the Livestock Judging arena. Kenneth Smith, superintendent, said several hundred entries are expected—a substantial increase over last year's highly satisfactory record.

Judging in cattle and swine departments was to be completed today.

Six Houston Firms Are Swept By Fire

HOUSTON, Sept. 29 (AP)—A fire which swept six business places and destroyed the two-story brick building in the 500-block of Preston caused an estimated $224,500 damage, blanketed the downtown district with smoke and attracted a large crowd of spectators at 8:41 last night. Origin has not been determined.

Four firemen were injured and 100 occupants of the Buffalo hotel adjoining were routed out of their rooms as smoke and threatening flames raged around it.

The fire apparently started in the basement, and fanned by suction from several freight elevator shafts, leaped upward, spreading quickly.

Johnson Victory

court signed a formal order which has the effect of putting Lyndon Johnson's name on the ballot. Black had agreed yesterday to stay an injunction issued by Judge Davidson in Fort Worth blocking Johnson's name from the ballot.

Notice Not Received

Judge Davidson said in Dallas at noon today he still had not received notification of Justice Black's action. Davidson said it appeared from press reports that Black held that he (Davidson) was without jurisdiction in granting the injunction.

If that be true, Judge Davidson said, then it would follow the investigators in South Texas would cease their activities. However, he added, if the stay order merely related to that phase of the injunction which kept Johnson's name off the ballot, investigating commissioners can and will continue.

The Texas Supreme court today set a hearig on a mandamus forcing the secretary of state to put Johnson's name on the ballot for 9 a. m. Thursday.

Attorneys for Johnson filed a motion for permission to bring the mandamus suit last night. The hearing tomorrow is on the motion for leave to file the mandamus. The petition Johnson's attorneys asked the court to consider demanded immediate certification of Johnson as the Democratic nominee for the U. S. Senate.

The petition also requested that the county election boards be directed to print Johnson's name on the ballot and be prohibited from distributing any official ballots without his name on it.

Action Against Coke

It requested, also, that Coke Stevenson, Johnson's opponent in the bitterly-fought senatorial contest, be restrained from interferring with the secretary of state in performing his duties, "or from prosecuting any action in any court" attempting to prevent certification of Johnson's name.

The petition was filed last night a few minutes after 7 o'clock.

Stevenson, loser to Johnson by 87 votes in the official tabulation by the state Democratic executive committee, said at Alice "we'll figure out something, of course. I'm not going to let anyone steal anything from me as long as there is any remedy anywhere." He was commenting on Justice Black's ruling.

Stevenson contested the results of the second primary, charging fraud in the three South Texas counties.

Committee Backs Johnson

Johnson said at Austin "so far as governmental principles are concerned, Justice Black's decision is reassurance not only to Texas but to the nation that we will not return to the days of the carpetbaggers and to control of our elections by the federal government . . . I am very happy to note that the state's rights to run its own elections has been vindicated by the Supreme court."

On this afternoon's program, Weyne Henley, president of the Lions club which sponsored the show's appearance at the fair, spoke briefly expressing his thanks of the program sponsors and the crowd attending.

Mrs. Brown told Bailey, she "couldn't possibly leave" to take the Caribbean cruise on the Standard Fruit and Steamship liner. Bailey replied, "We can take care of everything. We've handled lots of problems worse than this."

changes in condition of the Silas woman.

A suspect was sought by Abernathy and Lubbock officials today in connection with charges of Mrs. Roxie Robinson of Idalou that someone had burglarized her residence and taken a .38-.40 pistol and $1.50.

Levelland authorities also enlisted aid of officials here in search for a youth, perhaps, 16, who allegedly fled after his arrest for speeding in an automobile that subsequently was found to have two pistols in it.

Missing Car Described

The youth, believed en route toward Lubbock when officials called from Levelland early today, also will be questioned, it was indicated, into whether he stole an automobile in Levelland after abandoning his own.

The missing car was described as a dark green 1940 Ford coach with license AM 3446.

License number of the youth's abandoned car was traced to another Texas town, and officials indicated belief the suspect sought had given them a fictitious name.

Negro Returned Here

D. S Spriggs, 27, an Amarillo negro who had been convicted of burglary in Potter county, was returned to Lubbock county jail from Lynn county, which assessed two years for burglary. He will face a burglary indictment here, officials said.

A red two-wheel push cart owned by the Coca-Cola Bottling Co., was stolen from the alley in 900-block Broadway, after cases of "empties" had been removed from it, it was reported by G. W. Brusnon of 2622 Twenty-third. It was valued at $18.

Trailer Just Borrowed

County court officials said Cecil Alton Trammel had pleaded guilty of a drunk driving charge recently filed and had been fined $50 and court costs.

Mrs. A. C. Webb told the sheriff's department that a two-wheel trailer said stolen three days ago, in a report of J. H. Webb of Lubbock route 4, had been found. It had not been stolen, but a friend had borrowed it, it was learned.

security agencies can do their job without having the ground cut from under them by committees of Congress, we have little to fear from spies and subversives," the President said.

Lash At Program

Gov. J. Strom Thurmond and his States Rights party running mate lashed out in the South at Mr. Truman's civil rights program which stirred the Dixie Democratic rebellion.

The South Carolina governor said in a statement he was disappointed that Mr. Truman "has seen fit not to accept" an invitation to speak in the state and "explain to our people why he saw fit . . . to abandon the historic position of the Democratic party on States Rights by sending his so-called civil rights message to Congress."

Gov. Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi said in a speech at Winona, Miss., that "president Truman has no regard for the safety of the country. Otherwise, he would not have issued his non-segregation order in the armed forces over the protest of his top military leaders."

The States' Rights vice presidential candidate said the President's actions were taken "to please pressure groups."

The No. 2 Republican candidate, Gov. Earl Warren, carried his "unity" theme into New Jersey today. He told a Hartford, Conn., rally last night that Americans could stave off a "formidable" threat of economic disaster by returning to the fundamentals of industry, thrift and unity.

Senator Alben W. Barkley, the Democratic vice presidential nominee, pressed his "get-out-the-vote" drive in New York state with two speeches scheduled today.

Drop In Food Prices Noted

(By The United Press)

Heads of two big food store chains said today that food prices are coming down.

Franklin Lunding, Chicago, president of Jewel Tea Co., said that other things being equal, "we have seen the peak in food prices, and a downward trend is obvious."

He added, however, that there are many factors and many different trends in various food items.

Lunding was asked to comment on the decline in wholesale food prices, which according to Dun & Bradstreet have dropped to their lowest level since March 9.

The Dun & Bradstreet Weekly Index, made up from prices of 31 basic foods, declined 12 cents during the past week.

At Milwaukee, H. V. McNamara, president of National Tea stores, said that "food prices are going down and there's nothing to stop them." He said that this year's record grain crops are sending prices down in a steady decline which probably will last until the end of the year.

McNamara spoke at the opening of a new store at Milwaukee.

The sharp drop in wholesale butter prices at both Chicago and New York seemed to have been checked, temporarily at least. Top grade butter at Chicago sold for 65 cents a pound, ½ cent higher than yesterday's price. At New York, butter prices staged a partial recovery, rising 1 to 1½ cents a pound.

Hog prices at many cornbelt markets continued to drop despite the fact farmers had reduced their shipments of hogs to market. Opening prices were steady to 25 cents per hundred pounds lower.

At New York, fresh meat supplies were more than ample for the wholesale demand, and prices were weak to as much as 3 cents per pound lower on beef.

personal conduct, Mrs. Nathan said her husband also prepared one governing her household duties. For a while, she said, she had to enter in the work chart the number of minutes it took her to do each task.

"I kept that one for one month," she told Judge Theresa Meikle. "Then I wrote across it, 'finish!'"

Nathan told the judge he still loved his wife and asked Judge Meikle to deny the divorce. He had nothing to say about the rules.

Mississippian Fined In Labor Case Here

A Mississippian was fined $25 and county court costs this morning in connection with his alleged attempts to recruit South Plains cotton pickers and remove them to Mississippi, where $3 a hundred pounds is said to be paid for picking, County Attorney John Steele said.

W. M. Thompson, about 60, was charged under oath of T. L. Barnes, a labor commissioner, with soliciting labor without first having obtained a license as an agent from the labor commission.

The assessment was made by County Judge Walter Davies.

UN Faces Its Greatest Crisis In East-West Berlin Conflict

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

The United Nations faces its greatest crisis today as America, Britain and France throw the bitter Berlin conflict into the lap of the Security council, charging that the Red blockade is a threat to international peace.

Indeed the situation is to grave that the three-year-old peace organization is in danger of splitting, with the Democracies and the Soviet bloc going separate ways. British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin was voicing the thoughts of many statesmen when he warned the General assembly in Paris that the U. N. might fall apart.

Press Tells Russians

The Soviet press in Moscow also told the Russian public yesterday that the two camps in the U. N. might go their separate ways —this despite the fact that Deputy Soviet Foreign Minister Vishinsky was quoted by a London paper as saying in an interview: "We shall not abandon the United Nations."

Well, supposing the U. N. does split; what follows? Bevin answered that in a horse-sense way by saying if it's impossible to work on a world-basis "we must proceed on a regional basis." That is, the Russian bloc would have its own organization and the Democracies would have theirs.

Never "United" Nations

As a matter of cold fact there never has been a "united" nations. The organization has been split wide open since the start, with the Communists using it for purposes of obstruction and as a grand soundingboard for Red propaganda. Thus actually the U. N. has been used by the Bolshevists as a weapon of aggression against the Democracies.

So if the Muscovites want to desert the U. N. there need be no tears shed, although there will be regrets that there couldn't be collaboration. It will be rather reminiscent of Japan's action in 1932 when she walked out of the League of Nations in anger over the Lytton report charging her with aggression against Manchuria. Also, in passing, one might note that Russia was expelled from the league in 1939 for aggression against Finland.

Ideas Will Not Mix

But, says somebody, a split in the U. N. gets us further away from the ideal of "one world." I'm not so sure about that. We certainly are kidding ourselves if we think we are going to get one world through trying to make Democracy and Communism mix.

They can't be made to mix under any circumstances. The Reds keep on telling us that our economy and form of government must be destroyed. Do they have to knock us down and drag us out before we recognize the situation?

Would-be mixers of oil and water might consider a statement by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt in an address at the Sorbonne in Paris last night. She charged Russia with ruthless suppression of human rights at home and with interference in other countries' affairs. She urged the U. N. not to compromise with the Soviet bloc on the issue of human freedom, which she termed the "basic problem confronting the world today."

Spaak Makes Speech

The oil and water mixers also might lend ear to Belgian Premier Paul Henri Spaak, former president of the U. N. assembly, who told the Russians in a speech before that body:

"By your conduct you have prevented this organization from working. We fear you because in every country represented here you maintain a fifth column, the like of which even Hitler did not know."

A few hours earlier William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, declared in a broadcast (Mutual): "There is no longer any doubt that a powerful Communist fifth column is operating in this country today."

Of course there are fifth columns everywhere — part and parcel of the world revolution for the spread of Communism. It's a fight to a finish between Bolshevism and Democracy. So, as Bevin says, if we can't work on a world basis we must proceed on a regional basis.

A United Nations comprising the Democracies alone would serve a very useful purpose. Half a loaf, et cetera.

Moscow Papers Claim Belgian Premier Agent Of Western Bloc

MOSCOW, Sept. 29 (AP)—Moscow newspapers today called Belgian Premier Paul-Henri Spaak a "well known agent of the Anglo-American bloc."

A Tass dispatch from Paris on Spaak's attack on Russian policies before the United Nations general assembly yesterday said he took upon himself the "difficult mission of trying to justify refusal of Soviet disarmament proposals." The dispatch, published in all morning newspapers here, added:

"Following (British Foreign Secretary Ernest) Bevin's example, he spoke with provocatory fancies inimical to the Soviet Union."

Western Powers Blamed

It described Spaak's delivery as frequently "hysterical and theatrical."

Commenting on French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman's speech to the U. N. earlier yesterday, Tass said "everyone knows that in reality the conversations on the Berlin question, which lasted two months in Moscow, came to no result because representatives of the western powers stubbornly stood pat on their schismatic positions."

The morning papers carried two separate articles on British War Minister Emanuel Shinwell's favorable remarks on Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky's proposals before U. N. for disarmament.

(A London dispatch said Prime Minister Attlee had hauled Shinwell over the coals for adopting a friendly attitude toward the proposals.)

The papers said Shinwell was called into conference by Attlee at Bevin's urgent request that he "be brought to heel" for his remarks.

Pravda, Communist party newspaper, published a Tass Paris dispatch saying Canadian Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King in his U. N. address was "openly preaching schism of the United Nations into blocs of the type of western (European) union." The dispatch said King "subversively praised the Marshall plan . . . although it is well known to everyone that the authors of the Marshall plan are conducting a policy of discrimination against countries of eastern Europe by all means."

Ike Says Students Ought To Have Fun

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 (AP)—College students should have fun, says Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Columbia university president.

He told more than 1,200 students at an assembly yesterday:

"The day that goes by that you don't have some fun is not only unnecessary, but un-Christian. If you don't have it, you are not being true to yourself."

The students cheered when Eisenhower told them he considers expansion of recreational facilities to be one of his first duties.

MONTEREY PARK, Cal. Sept. 29 (INS)—His hands may not be too steady but boy, oh boy, oh boy, at composing love letters 21-year-old George W. Sears is a definite success.

The former hay baler and deputy sheriff explained that he read in a pensioners' paper about Mrs. Williams wanting a pen friend and because he was lonely since his wife died five years ago he decided to write to her. He also sent her a picture of himself—a young one.

Mrs. Williams wrote back, telling him:

"I've outlived two husbands—a sports writer and a railway conductor—and I've been waiting for another good man since 1929."

Last week they met for the first time. Thursday they'll get their license and on Sunday they'll be wed.

Return Of Mexicans To Mexico Is Urged

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 29. (AP)—The Association For The Defense Of Mexicans outside the country, appealed Monday to the senate to return thousands of Mexicans living in Texas to their native country.

Three members of the association discussed with senators alleged discrimination against Mexicans in Texas. They urged the senate to investigate and facilitate repatriation of nationals living in the United States.

New Teachers Are Selected

Appointments of fourteen teachers and other personnel in Lubbock Independent school district, an additional school nurse, and retirement of a teacher employed here since 1922 were approved by the board of education at a regular meeting in the school business office, 1007 Texas avenue, Tuesday night.

The board turned down a request by a number of parents of high school band members and others to send the organization to the Lubbock Westerners-Austin Maroons football game at Austin this weekend, but approved purchase of new band instruments.

The instruments will be used as replacements in the Senior high school band, for use in the O. L. Slaton and J. T. Hutchinson junior high schools, and in some elementary school bands.

Appointments Approved

The board faced with a shortage in band funds, chose the instruments as being of greater value to the school system as a whole than the trip to Austin, it was explained.

Retirement of Mrs. Ella R. Iles, negro teacher in Dunbar school, and an employe of the school system since 1922, was approved effective Sept. 30.

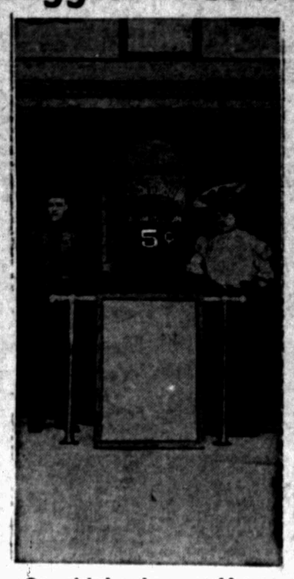

Appointments included: Mrs. Ruby G. Williams, Mrs. Lillian B. Davis, Mrs. Ruth L. Norton, and Mrs. Jo Anne Hunt, for McWhorter school; Mrs. Mildred K. Rogers, and Mrs. Jessie A. Skinner, East Broadway school; Mrs. Faye Woods and Mrs. Fay Westmore-

Wallace In Houston To Renew Anti-Jim Crow Campaign Ignored By Authorities In Dallas

By RAYMOND LAHR
United Press Staff Writer

EN ROUTE WITH WALLACE, Sept. 29. (U.P.)—Henry A. Wallace, Progressive party presidential candidate, flew to Houston today to renew his anti-Jim Crow campaign which was ignored by Dallas authorities.

Houston was Wallace's second Texas stop in his campaign swing around the country by chartered airplane.

If his Dallas experience could be regarded as typical, the Lone Star state was giving much less attention to Wallace's views on racial conflicts than the southeastern states which gave him hostile reception a month ago.

Made Four Appearances

Wallace made four public appearances without incident in or near Dallas yesterday. The final meeting was held with an unsegregated audience of some 900 last night in a dance hall, known both as the Yacht club and Bob's barn.

Texas law calls for segregation of white and negro races at public meetings, but the law is not always enforced. Three deputy sheriffs stood by at last night's meeting but did nothing to enforce segregation. Wallace has refused to address segregated audiences.

The confidence that there would be no disturbance contrasted with the attitude shown last week in northern cities. There was, perhaps, less reason to expect hostile demonstrations there but large police details were assigned to guard Wallace.

Attacks Truman Stand

At Dallas, Wallace continued to attack President Truman's stand on racial problems. He charged that the President was insincere in his moves to abolish racial discrimination.

Campaigning in Dallas a day behind Mr. Truman, Wallace noted that the President had praised House Democratic Leader Sam Rayburn.

"And Sam Rayburn is a man who has boasted of his consistent record in opposing anti-poll tax, anti-lynching and FEPC legislation," he said.

Wallace also accused the President of soft-pedaling social issues during his tour of Texas.

Addresses Three Groups

Prior to last night's meeting, Wallace addressed three small groups. He first appeared before about 35 white collar supporters at a breakfast meeting and three hours later he met with about 25 women at the Y.W.C.A. He spoke to an audience of about 75, most of them negroes, at a luncheon meeting at a negro Y.M.C.A.

He told the luncheon group that the new party would keep going "If I get only a thousand votes." But he hastily predicted that he would get many more than that.

In his evening speech, Wallace again attacked administration foreign policy with particular atten-

LAMESA, Sept. 29 (Special) — Main event of the Dawson county fair yesterday was judging of dairy cattle and swine, with results announced by the fair's general superintendent, T. A. Barfield. The fair opened here Monday.

The grand champion Jersey in the open division was exhibited by W. C. Taylor, the grand champion short-horn by L. O. Deatherage, and the grand champion female short-horn by Darrell Hanks.

Mickey Peterson exhibited the junior champion Jersey heifer in the junior division. No bulls were entered in the junior division, Barfield said.

Tech Man Is Judge

Swine show honors went to Royce Meyers, with the champion Poland China gilt; to Herschel, Raines with the champion boar, a 1000-pounder, in the Duroc-Jersey division; and to R. D. Spruiell, who exhibited the champion Duroc-Jersey female.

Carl Dyer of Texas Tech college, Lubbock, judged both events. Superintendent for the dairy cattle show was George Sealey, and for the swine show, Noel Cooper.

No judging is scheduled for today, Barfield said, but large crowds are expected to see the exhibits, all of which will remain on display. The grounds will

CONSERVATION PLANS DISCUSSED

Tahoka Is Host To WTCC Clinic Meet

TAHOKA, Sept. 29—The first in a series of project clinics to be held in behalf of water and soil conservation, sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, was held Tuesday with WTCC officials meeting with secretary-managers and local directors from 19 of the 23 towns in district No. 2.

Judge Tom Garrard of Tahoka, district No. 2 director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, presided at the meeting, which convened at 2 p. m. in the new Lyntegar building here. An address of welcome was given by Mayor K. R. Durham of Tahoka.

Max Bentley of Abilene, organizational director of the WTCC, was first speaker. He presented an overall picture of the proposed program of the WTCC for the forthcoming year.

Bentley was followed by Joe James, also of Abilene, research director of the WTCC, who spoke on state affairs. He explained the eight proposed constitutional amendments and recommended their adoption by voters Nov. 2.

He also presented the state budget policy as worked out by the executive board of the Texas Commerce association and representatives of the WTCC. The policy includes the following points. (1) No increase in the current tax rate (2) no new sources of revenue, (3) no new types of expenditures, (4) No increase in recurring expenditures except to meet emergencies as to existing services, and (5) Use of surplus only for non-recurrent and necessary capital expenditures.

Water Program Discussed

D. A. Bandeen, secretary and general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, who spoke on West Texas water, laid stress on the fact that the WTCC has set up an advisory board of water engineers for the purpose of helping without charge any and all West Texas towns and cities to make surveys of their water resources with an eye toward possible future developments.

The service directors of the WTCC, L. A. Wilke of Abilene, spoke briefly on soil conservation, farm-to-market roads, and municipal water supplies.

Two other brief talks were made by Herbert Hilburn, editor of the Plainview Herald, and Hamlin Overstreet of Farwell, past president of the WTCC.

Present at the meeting were 75

South Plains Chapter Of TMA To Hold Two-Day Clinic Here

A two-day clinic for members of the South Plains chapter of the Texas Manufacturers association will be conducted at Hotel Lubbock Thursday and Friday, James E. Taylor, public relations director for the association, announced here today.

Two outstanding representatives of the National Asociation of Manufacturers, Dr. Neal Bowman and Alfred W. McQuillan, jr., both of New York, will conduct the sessions which will open at 10 a. m. and continue until 3 p. m. each day. Approximately 20 manufacturers of this area are expected to attend the clinic, Taylor said.

Edgar G. Lewis, owner of the Lubbock Steel Works, chairman of the South Plains chapter, is to preside at the clinic. A luncheon will be held each day at noon. Sessions will be in the Pine room of the hotel.

W. C. Saffrrans, regional manager of the Texas Manufacturers association, accompanied Taylor here and made arrangements for the clinic.

Current economic problems, employer-employe relations, public relations techniques, sales problems and other subjects will be covered in the series of talks to be given by Taylor and the New Yorkers.

Dr. Bowman is author of three books on advertising and selling and was professor of marketing at Temple university for 17 years. McQuillan, an economist, author, and lecturer, has just published a study "Composition of Markets." Since the war he has served as director of postwar planning for Sylvania Electric Products company, and other manufacturing concerns.

"Dr. Williams is one of our ablest Baptist speakers in the state and we hope a good crowd will be on hand to hear him," Dr. Grant said.

Judge Doing Some Biblical Research

D. W. Robertson, justice of peace, will have to do a bit of Biblical research to make out the full import of a friendly letter that enclosed a $20 bill in payment of two traffic fines.

A Plainview man, about 27, wrote in part:

"Thank you for being so kind and understanding. II Corinthians 8:12-13-14. Have you been born again? John 3:3; I Peter 1:23."

Robertson, waiting for the library to open so he could find a Bible, explained that the man, clean-cut and honest in appearance, recently asked permission to go back home and mail the fine and costs later. He said he was "hard-up."

His letter apologised for not sending the money last week.

Greeks Report Firing From Inside Bulgaria

ATHENS, Sept. 29 (AP) — The Greek army reported today gunfire from inside Bulgaria for the third straight day along the border north of Drama.

A communique said artillery and small arms fire, aimed at national troops who drove back Communist guerrillas in a week-end victory, continued.

In scattered clashes throughout Macedonia troops killed 4 guerrillas and captured 36 others.

Ten convicted Communists were executed at Lamia. Military tribunals convicted 11 others at Salonika and six more at Edessa.

Russia Asked To Settle Up

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29. (AP)—The United States has prodded Russia anew to settle up its $11,000,000,000 lend lease account, but with little success.

State department officials disclosed yesterday that a new note was sent to Moscow earlier this month urging new face-to-face negotiations for the overdue agreement.

Russian and American negotiators have talked about lend-lease off and on without much success since April 30, 1947. The last meeting was in March.

Government officials said the two sides are still pretty far apart. But to hasten a settlement the American government has:

1. Declared its readiness to talk over the latest Russian counter-proposal.

2. Called for a meeting of the negotiators in Washington as soon as possible.

These officials said the note was sent to the Russian embassy about two weeks ago. But news of its dispatch was kept secret lest publicity jar the touchy four-power negotiations then in progress in Berlin and Moscow.

Russians Silent On Note

Top State department officials feared the Russians might interpret any announcement about the note as an American propaganda move to embarrass them before the world.

Russian Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin has not replied to the American note.

MEETING CALLED OFF

CORSICANA, Sept. 29 (AP)—A scheduled meeting of the Texas state Democratic executive committee in Dallas Saturday has been called off, John C. Calhoun, chairman, said today.

Police Figure Slain In Gangland Fashion

CLEVELAND, Sept. 29 (AP) — A 31-year-old police figure was killed in gangland fashion early today by a gunman.

The victim was Sam J. Monachino, who fell in the gutter before his home with wounds in his back, army, hip and cheek.

His wife, Margaret, 25, told police she heard him scream "honey" as the first shots were fired in front of their home. She ran outside, she said, and saw a man pursuing her husband and firing as he ran.

The man drove away in a black sedan, she added.

Monachino, a former cafe operator, had been questioned by police in numerous cases and once was acquitted of murder charges.

Fireman Injured In Weatherford Fire

WEATHERFORD, Sept. 29 (AP)—A fireman was seriously injured last night in fighting a fire which did an estimated $10,000 damage to a warehouse of the Sinclair Oil Co. refinery here.

I. W. Wyche was hit in the eyes with a stream of water and physicians at a Mineral Wells hospital said they feared he would lose the sight of at least one eye.

The warehouse was filled with drums of oil and tires. The fire was discovered about 7:45 p. m. and brought under control three hours later.

Fire Chief Fred Potter estimated the damage.

STRIKE IS ENDED

TOKYO, Sept. 29 (U.P.)—An estimated 500 hunger strikers ended their demonstration today after government officials assured them everything possible would be done to speed repatriation of Japanese from Soviet prison camps.

Idalou Area Cotton Farmers Will Meet

Seeking primarily to standardize cotton harvest costs, along with improving ginning methods and better handling of cotton to improve staple and grade, a meeting of all cotton farmers in the Idalou vicinity has been called for Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the club house.

The meeting is sponsored by the Idalou class of the Lubbock County Vocational school, and all farmers in the area were urged to attend. E. C. St. Clair is instructor of the class, one of seven being conducted in the county under supervision of Earl L. Fine, county coordinator.

ALAMOGORDO, N. M., Sept. 29 (U.P.) — Ground personnel today probed wreckage of an F-47 Thunderbolt fighter plane near here which crashed late yesterday and claimed the life of Lieut. Richard B. Dixson, jr., 27, of Fort Worth.

Dixson was a veteran of 51 combat missions as pilot of an A-20 twin-engined bomber over Tunisia, Sicily, and Italy. He was based at Holloman air force base here and was on a routine flight at the time of his death.

Speed Of Mechanization In Cotton Farming To Be Discussed At Conference Oct. 14-16

At least a partial answer to the question of how rapidly cotton production in the United States is being mechanized is expected to come out of the second annual Beltwide Cotton Mechanization conference here Oct. 14 to 16, according to announcement from the Memphis office of the National Cotton council, primary sponsor of the conference.

Officials of the council, in close touch with the cotton research and production situation, estimate that approximately five per cent, or one-twentieth of the anticipated bumper crop of the year will be produced mechanically from planting to harvesting.

Partial Mechanization Noted

This, however, is only a part of the mechanization picture, council officials hastened to add, because millions of additional bales will be produced this year under conditions of partial mechanization.

The council, looking to further and more rapid advances, anticipates that the conference here, which will bring many of the nation's industrial leaders and agricultural specialists, will reveal a great deal of previously unannounced progress in lifting the production burden from human hands to machinery.

"On the basis of production of harvesting equipment during the year, we estimate that about five per cent of the crop will be gathered by the spindle type picker or by ripper type harvesters," a cotton council spokesman said.

"It is impossible to estimate accurately the portion of the crop which was tractor planted and cultivated, but undoubtedly greater acreages were tilled by machine this year than ever before."

Tractors To Increase

Semi-official estimates reveal that from 1945 to 1948, the number of farm tractors in the eleven cotton producing states increased from 420,000 to 589,000, an increase of forty per cent in the past three years. Census figures show that tractors on cotton farms increased from 29,000 to 420,000 in 1945. At present, there is approximately one tractor for every three farms.

Number of tractors likely will increase on small farms as well as on large operations, the council believed. The small farmer especially will benefit from the recent development and commercial production of the new small tractors, economically suited to use on the two-mule farm.

With the increase in tractors, the amount of tractor powered equipment on cotton farms is increasing by leaps and bounds. In 1947, 214,124 tractor mounted or drawn corn and cotton cultivators were sold. Estimates are that the number of spindle type pickers will increase from about 285 in 1947 to as many as 1,200 in 1948. Strippers jumped from 1,500 in 1945 to 5,000 in 1947. Though stripper production figures are not available for 1948, it is known that considerable gains are being registered.

Weed Controls Sought

Back of the actual machine production and sales figures are long hours, months and years of research and development work. Research projects now in operation point the way to greater efficiencies in cotton production.

At the Missisippi agricultural experiment stations intensive efforts are being made to determine chemical weed sprays which will eliminate the necessity for chopping out weed and grass growths by hand. Both pre-emergence and post-emergence tests are being conducted.

Perfection of a chemical weed killer which will do away with weeds without injuring the cotton will cut to a bare fraction one of the peak labor periods of the cotton production cycle.

Other experiments look to a combination of chemical control with flame cultivation. The flame cultivator can be used safely after cotton has reached a height of about seven inches. Tests made at a time when human choppers received $5 per acre for weeding cotton showed the same control was achieved with flame cultivators for 50 cents and acre.

Defoliants Are Project

Agricultural scientists also are seeking improvements in cotton defoliants. Plant physiologists at the University of Arkansas are conducting lengthy experiments on better defoliants. In arid and semi-arid areas, tests are being run with sodium cyanamid, a chemical which can be applied to cotton plants in spray form—a necessity where dewfall is extremely light or almost non-existent.

Calcium cyanamid is being used widely in the more moist sections of the belt. Applied by airplane or tractor duster as soon as all bolls are fully set, the material speeds up the leaf growth cycle, causing it to drop from the plant earlier than usual. Thus sunlight is allowed to strike all bolls evenly, resulting in even ripening and lessened boll rot. Defoliation, too, cuts to a minimum the amount of leaf and pin trash in mechanically harvested cotton.

Progress is being made in development of improved fertilizer placement methods and better application equipment. In many sections of the belt, it has been shown that fertilizers should be placed about 2 to 2½ inches to the side or both sides of the seed and about 2 inches below the seed.

To secure better and more even distribution of fertilizers, Texas Experiment station engineers are conducting experiments with a new tractor-mounted distributor. In this device a set of hoppers allows for the mixing of several types of plant foods, with even distribution being accomplished.

Seed bed preparation has been found to exert an influence on the cotton crop. At the Alabama agricultural experiment stations, engineers are encouraged with results achieved from sub-soiling type plows.

The mechanical harvesting field apparently is wide open. During 1948, several new manufacturers scattered from one side of the cotton belt to the other have begun production of new harvesters, some commercially, but most on an experimental scale. Most of the new harvesters are variations of the stripper, but at least one new spindle type machine has been announced.

Throughout the entire belt, the cotton council reports, progress is being made in use of new insecticides to control the boll weevil and other cotton pests. Benezene hexachloride, chlorinated camphene, DDT, and othe pesticides, applied by aircraft or ground machines are having telling effects. The new insecticides combined with favorable weather conditions probably will result in a near all-time low in cotton pest damage in 1948.

Doctor Calls For Less Stress On Sex In Field Of Psychiatry

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (AP) — A Connecticut doctor called today for a "housecleaning" in psychiatry, with less emphasis on sex.

"I disagree most heartily," declared Dr C. Charles Burlingame, himself a psychiatrist, "with those who would interpret sex as the whole of life and expand the definition accordingly."

In a paper prepared for the District of Columbia Medical society, Burlingame said:

"In psychiatry, more than in any other specialty there is a demand for a housecleaning and a hard-headed differentiation between hypotheses and scientific facts."

"Love School" Attacked

Among other things, he attacked the "'Love' starvation' school, which propounds the theory that most, if not all, emotional troubles stem from the fact that the child's craving for love has never been satisfied."

"Proponents of this school," he said, "would have us running along dripping love all over the place until the child slips and fractures his future."

The medical group also heard a note of warning against too much exercise after the age of 40. It came from Dr Wingate Johnson of Wake Forest college, who said:

"During the first world war, Walter Camp, Yale's most famous athlete, boasted that he kept the members of Woodrow Wilson's cabinet in prime condition by his famous 'daily dozen' exercises.

Exercised As Pallbearer

"The only member of the cabinet who declined to take the daily drill was Josephus Daniels, who recently died just short of his eighty-sixth birthday—having outlived all other members of the cabinet and having been active and useful until his last brief illness.

"Walter Camp himself failed by several years to reach the psalmist's limit (70).

"Chauncey Depew, who lacked eighteen days of living to 94, was quoted as saying that he got his exercise by acting as pallbearer for his friends who took exercise.

"These stories are not intended to discourage exercise within reason, but, like other good things, it may be overdone." Johnson, 63, added:

"Recreation is needed more than exercise in the second forty years."

SMU Maps Ambitious Basketball Schedule

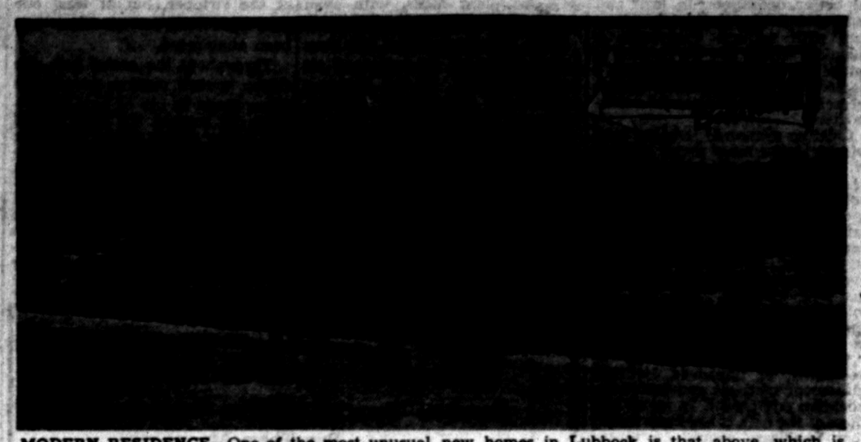

DALLAS, Sept. 29 (AP)—An ambitious intersectional swing that will include an appearance in Madison Square Garden was mapped out today for the Southern Methodist university basketball team by Coach E. O. (Doc) Hayes.

Nine lettermen from last year's club which won 13 and lost 10 will be on hand for the opening of practice. But Hayes' hopes will be pinned upon a trio of sophomore flashes—all-staters Charlie Lutz, a guard, and Kyle Rote, a forward, both of San Antonio, and forward Jack Brown, of Dallas.

After an opening game against Texas Weselyan here Nov. 30, SMU meets Texas Tech at Dallas in a pair, then plays CCNY in the Garden Dec. 9, Niagara at Buffalo Dec. 11, St. Louis in St. Louis Dec. 18 and Missouri in Columbia Dec. 20-21.

THIRD-FINGER BRACELETS

New bangle wedding rings come in sets of three. A central wide band of either plain or diamond set palladium, is flanked by two tiny outer guard rings to give the effect of bangle bracelets.

MODERN RESIDENCE—One of the most unusual new homes in Lubbock is that above, which is being constructed by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rowland on Eighteenth street off the Levelland highway. Making effective use of stone and horizontal redwood siding with stained finish, the home has such features as a wood-burning fire place in the center of a room. It was designed by their son, Hugh Rowland, an architect. (Staff Photo).

Orchestra Dispute Weighed By Union

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29. (AP)—Members of local 77, AFL-American Federation of musicians, held a nine-hour meeting yesterday in an attempt to find a solution to the wage dispute which Philadelphia orchestra officials said resulted in cancellation of the 1948-49 season.

Frank R. Liuzzi, president of the local, would make no comment after the meeting. Orville H. Bullitt, president of the orchestra association, said he met with Luizzi yesterday but added nothing had ben said or done "to change the picture."

Last Monday, the orchestra—due to open its season Friday—announced cancellation of this winter's concerts. Orchestra officials said the action was decided on because of the union's demands that the minimum wage rate for orchestra players be raised from $110 a week to $125.

When informed of the cancellation, Liuzzi said he had received "no counter proposals from the orchestra association. The union, he said, had made contract concessions on rehearsal time and radio and concert time.

Inactive Yoakum Wildcat To Be Drilled Deeper For Devonian

Fikes & Murchison No. 17-C Elliott, inactive wildcat in southwest Yoakum county, on the west side of the Wasson—5,000 field, and five miles northwest of Denver City, is to be drilled deeper to 12,500 feet to try to find and test the Devonian.

This prospector, located 1,070 feet from east and 1,312 feet from south lines of section 832, block D, John H. Gibson survey, has been shutin since April 26, 1948, on a bottom of 7,510 feet in lower Permian lime.

Deepening To Start

The venture had logged no shows of oil or gas down to that level.

A rotary rig is now being moved in and deepening operations are to start immediately.

John M. Drilling company, of Fort Worth is to drill its No. 1 University as a 5,500-foot wildcat in central-southwest Andrews county, to explore into the San Andres-Permian.

Andrews Well Completed

The venture will be about 12 miles southwest of the town of Andrews, and 660 feet from south and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 42, block 9, University survey. Operations are to begin by October 15.

Esperado Mining company No. 1 J. E. Parker, central Andrews county wildcat, two and one-half miles west of the town of Andrews, and 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 2, block A-43, psl survey, has been officially completed for a 24-hour pumping potential of 66 barrels of 31.6 gravity oil, and no water.

This new discovery from the San Andres-Permian, is two miles northwest of the nearest of the two small producers from the same zone, in the Parker field.

The pay section between 4,680 feet and the plugged back total depth of 4,705 feet, had been treated with 5,000 gallons of acid, in one stage.

The well does not show any appreciable amount of gas.

This new field opener is on a block of acreage worked up by Don M. Oliver and Fred F. Kotyza, both of Midland. They turned a part of the acreage to Esperado to drill and kept some of the leases and an oil payment on the well.

$30,000 In Jewels Stolen In Chicago

CHICAGO, Sept. 29. (AP)—Jewelry valued at $30,000 was stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Rose Movius Palmer, socially prominent in Chicago and Boston, she reported to police yesterday.

Mrs. Palmer, former wife of the late Potter Palmer 3rd, member of a wealthy Chicago family, said the burglary occurred Friday night while she was visiting friends near Land O'Lakes, Wis.

She said her maid noticed a jewel box had been broken open but the articles stolen were not known until Mrs. Palmer's return to her eight-room apartment at six East Scott street on the city's Gold coast.

The jewels included a string of 49 pearls valued at $10,000.

Mrs. Palmer, mother of two children, divorced Palmer, grandson of the builder of Chicago's Palmer house, in 1943, on grounds of desertion. He died at the age of 37 in Sarasota, Fla., in 1945.

Shooting Of Plane Protested By Arabs

PARIS, Sept. 29. (AP) — Trans-Jordan protested to the United Nations today the shooting down of an Arab air line transport last week by an Isreali fighter plane.

The Trans-Jordan government said in a note to Secretary-General Trygve Lie that the air incident was a serious breach of the Arab-Jewish truce in Palestine.

The Arab plane, en route from Beirut, Lebanon, to Amman, Trans-Jordan, "was chased by the Jewish fighter which pursued it 30 kilometers (19 miles) within Trans-Jordan territory, opening fire at it until it was set afire and finally dropped," the note said.

Three passengers were killed, including two British newsmen.

Jewish officials have said the Arab plane was over Isreal territory and that warning shots first were fired.

LIVE AND LEARN, live and learn, we always say—and the other day at the Panhandle-South Plains fair we learned that there's such a thing as "cotton flavored honey"—and that the chances are, most of the honey we've eaten was "cotton honey."

Maybe farm folks, in general, know all about honey. But we'll wager that most town folks are like us: they know very little about it, except that it's mighty good on biscuits.

Anyhow, we were looking over the exhibit of the South Plains Beekeepers association in the Agriculture building and Jack Creel, KFYO's agricultural expert, got to telling us about honey.

"This honey on display," Jack remarked, "is representative of all flavors available around here. There's cotton, alfalfa, clover and orange."

"Gosh," we said, "we thought honey was honey; never had no idea there were different flavors—and wotinell does 'cotton honey' taste like?"

Jack looked at us a little sorrowfully. "Nine-tenths of the honey you've eaten has been 'cotton honey,' on account of most of our honey out here is that flavor."

THEN MR CREEL dug up a cotton leaf and showed us.

It seems that the bees are resourceful little fellers and when they run out of flowers to chaw on and flavor their honey, they dig up something else. In this country, it's always cotton, or alfalfa, or clover—all of which have a nectar all their own.

Incidentally, the nectar from the cotton leaf comes from the little veins which shoot off from where the branch connects the leaf with the stalk.

The beekeepers' exhibit at the fair this year is the first of its kind in the 30-year history of the exposition. There was a small apiary exhibit with the Tech layout last year, but this year is the first time beekeepers have an exhibit all their own.

This country must be getting to be quite a bee country. Or, perhaps better stated, the honey business in these parts must be getting to be a honey!

B. T. Rucker, the former Shallowater schoolmaster, now raises bees with his left hand and surveys land with his right. Anyhow, during the year 1947, Mr. Rucker had a hive, gob, herd, flock, collection, or stand of bees that produced him 248 pounds of the sweet stuff.

Mr. Kreel tells us that the number of Mr. Rucker's bees last year probably fluctuated between 30,000 and 50,000.

Now you know where "busy as a bee" came from!

THIS IS NOT chamber of commerce hooey. It's plain facts. The fair this year is by a great margin the best ever. We'll risk whatever reputation we may have for veracity with that statement.

The Agriculture exhibits are simply wonderful.

Every agriculture class at Texas Tech and in every school on the South Plains and in Eastern New Mexico should be taken to the fair to see the agriculture exhibits and the livestock, too.

In addition to 14 county agricultural exhibits, there are many other farm exhibits of an educational nature. Townfolks can learn a lot about what this country grows—and how—by spending an hour or a half-hour in the agriculture building.

At the risk of making somebody mad, we're going to say that the exhibit of Roosevelt county, New Mexico, is the most outstanding of its kind in all the history of the fair.

Not only are our New Mexico cousins of the Portales area showing what they raise. They're also showing some of the finished products which come from the soil, like their peanut butter, canned vegetables, flour, etc.

This doesn't mean that the Roosevelt county exhibit is the only good one in the agriculture department. Far from it. The whole building is swell. But it is to say that the Roosevelt county exhibit is very, very striking—including a summation of the millions of dollars worth of farm products raised in that county every year.

WE ARE almost hilariously happy to be able to report that the Herefords are back in the Livestock barn, too.

There haven't been any Herefords at the Panhandle-South Plains fair for some time—an incongruity, if there ever was one.

There have been all sorts of alibis about why there have been no Herefords, but none of them have been very good, from where we sit.

This year there are 44 Herefords out there and we hope there are 444 before many years.

The Hereford is too important to leave out of any fair in this country.

Lynn County Judge Tom Garrard, former Lubbock lawyer, is out at the fair with a Hereford herd and he points out that most of the Herefords aren't really show cattle. The Arledge herd, from Seymour, is a show herd. But, as Tom Garrard says, most of the Herefords at the fair were pulled in off the range a few weeks ago "as wild as a bunch of deer," and gotten ready, just so the fair could have some Herefords.

Show herds, or not, they're good looking animals and they are of very good quality.

To us, a Panhandle-South Plains fair without Herefords is like a circus without an elephant.

WE HOPE the many fine exhibits of dairy stock will encourage a lot of our people to go into milk, cream and butterfat prouction again. If they don't, we're sure going to have a lot of trouble—and unnecessary expense—getting dairy products, especially milk, on our tables here on the South Plains.

There are some dandy Holsteins, Jerseys, Guernseys and Milking Shorthorns out there and if they don't encourage more dairy stock on South Plains and Eastern New Mexico farms, nothing will.

Some day, conditions will change and cotton and grain acreage will be cut of economic necessity. When that day comes, dairying will come back into its own.

For the benefit of the town kids who like to look at the livestock, let us report that there is a Poland China sow in the swine department which has eight suckling pigs.

If you kids want to see something cute, look up the old sow and her pigs when you go out to the fair.

There isn't anything much cuter in the farm line than a suckling pig—before it gets big and smelly and dirty.

JUST AS "there is something about a soldier that is fine, fine, fine," there's something about a fair that sort of gets under our hide.

We like the hurdy-gurdy music, the multi-toned noise, even the occasional puffs of dust; the crowds, the kids, the hawkers and the smell of frying hamburgers.

But more than anything, we like the smell of the cowbarns.

There is just something about the odor of the cattle, mixed with the damp hay that gives us a big bang. We'd rather smell the cows than all the Channel No. 17 that ever was barreled in France.

If you want to get down to taw in this country, go out to the fair.

There's nothing like it to make you realize what this country is; what it has; what it can produce and, what is more, how much it is worth to us all as a self-sustaining place to live

President Truman Hunts New Job For Adm. Leahy

WASHINGTON.—President Truman has been privately turning on the heat to ease out as chief of staff, 73-year-old elder statesman Adm. William D. Leahy.

PEARSON

Mr. Truman, who hates to fire anyone himself, recently called in Leahy's close friend, Adm. Louis Denfeld, chief of naval operations and the man who really runs the Navy. Addressing Denfeld as he usually calls him "admiral," Truman said:

"Lou, I want you to do something for me. I want you to ask Leahy to retire.

"I like the old man," the President continued, "but he's outgrown his usefulness. I just hate to do this, but you can find a way of suggesting it to him. When I first came here, he offered to resign and I said no. Then last year he offered to resign again, and I asked him to stay. So it's very embarrassing to me and I can't very well ask him myself."

Admiral Denfeld, who has known Leahy all his life, demurred.

"I suppose Secretary Forrestal has been telling you that I have two votes in the joint chiefs of staff—mine and Leahy's," he said. "But just look at the record. You'll find Leahy voted against me most of the time."

"He's gotten too reactionary," countered the President. "He and George Marshall are hardly on speaking terms. Everything Marshall proposes, Leahy tears to pieces. Clark Clifford tells me the public reaction to him is bad."

Denfeld replied that he didn't see how he could possibly ask Admiral Leahy to retire.

"He's my superior," he said, "and I can't go to him with a proposal like that."

"Well, figure out some big job we can give him," continued the President. "I want him to retire in a blaze of glory. After his career he deserves it. Think up some important mission we can send him on—something really important."

Admiral Denfeld promised to look into the matter, came back a few days later with the idea that Admiral Leahy be appointed U. S. ambassador to Spain. Leahy had already served as ambassador to France and governor to Puerto Rico, has something of a diplomatic background and Truman was delighted with the idea. However, he overlooked the fact that we have no diplomatic relations with Spain, and have agreed not to appoint an ambassador until the Franco government is recognized by the United Nations.

This fact was promptly brought to Mr. Truman's attention when he suggested that Leahy become ambassador to Spain. The State department was emphatic and adamant. No ambassador, it said — not even Admiral Leahy—would be sent to Madrid.

Mr. Truman is still looking for a job for Admiral Leahy.

FOR WEEKS the House un-American activities committee has been trying to make contact with Igor Gouzenko, the Soviet code clerk who jarred the world with his sensational revelations on Russia's atomic spy ring in Canada.

Gouzenko, however, is living under another name on a Canadian farm closely guarded by the Canadian government which does not trust headline-hunting American congressmen to keep his identity secret.

Once the committee almost got to Gouzenko, but upset its own applecart. Arrangements had been made with Prime Minister Mackenzie King who agreed to meet committee members secretly in Ottawa for further discussions.

Congressmen John McDowell of Pennsylvania, Richard Nixon of California and Ed Hebert of Louisiana set out in strictest secrecy. They even left separately and took different routes to the railroad station to throw off suspicion.

But when the three congressmen reached New York they were greeted with glaring headlines revealing their plans. A member of the committee had leaked the whole story to the press.

Since then the committee has got the royal brush-off from the Canadian government.

Note — What the committee wants to question Gouzenko about is Soviet spies in the United States. It had a tip that Gouzenko knows about two spies in America who were not mentioned in the Canadian royal commission's report.

Ex-Ghostwriter

Sagacious Judge Sam Rosenman of New York, who used to write speeches for both Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry Truman, gave a private diagnosis of Truman's campaign talks the other day that would have delighted the ears of Dewey forces.

Chatting with a close friend, Rosenman declared: "I don't know who is writing this stuff the President has been delivering from the platform, but it will lose him more votes than he will win.

"In my opinion, the President is harping on that Wall Street-against-the-farmer and capital-against-labor theme too heavy. That type of appeal doesn't register any more, except maybe with the Wallaceites. The farmers are too well off this year to be frightened by Wall Street."

Judge Rosenman said he would have been glad to have offered his advice on Truman's speeches, "for whatever it was worth," but added that "some people around the President apparently think I am a bad influence."

Rosenman didn't name names, but it was jealous Secretary of the Treasury John Snyder who euchred Rosenman from riding on the President's train.

"I helped prepare the President's convention acceptance speech and his message to the special session of Congress," Judge Rosenman told a friend, "but I haven't been called in since."

HERE IS A paraphrase of a recent intelligence report which throws light on Russian secret designs regarding Germany:

Russia will ask withdrawal of all troops from Germany, secretly plans to send her troops back into Germany a year later. It will be easy to find a pretext.

Reason: Russia has stripped all she can get out of her zone of Germany, which was an agricultural area in the beginning and lacked the machinery Russia wants.

Part of Russia's plan to move back into Germany a year after withdrawal, includes a series of wildcat strikes in America to harass troop movements and discourage the U. S. from sending troops to assist in "restoring order"—or helping along whatever the Russians use as an excuse to march back into Germany.

Rita Hayworth Allowed Only Pictures Of Face On Return

STAGE Entrance: When Rita Hayworth returned from the Riviera you preb'ly wondered why you didn't see her picture in the papers. The lens-lads gathered around Rita for the customary leg art—but she waved her best finger in their faces and insisted on "only face shots." Not a single shutter snapped... Then there's the Duchess of Bankhead, who complained to the press about "those thittir-pahtays," which she has banned ... Because "as audiences—they are so cold"... Not as cold as empty thittirs, dear-ree...

WINCHELL

Ethel Barrymore apparently forgets last year's interviews. She said she was through with the stage—forevah—because the cinemahs offered a quick, easy buck ... Then Variety reports she may co-star with the Lunts (on Broadway, of course) in "Speak to Me of Love" ... Playwright Moss Hart is so rich that he forgot a bank account placed decades ago with Mfr's Trust ... Eric Victor of "Inside USA" is directing the ballet laughs for T. Farrells new review now rehearsing ... Billings Brown, listed in the "Small Wonder" playbill as co-author of the lyrics (with Phyliss McGinley), is actually the new hit's director, Burt Shevelove ... Leonora Corbett hopes to star in a play from her own portable. She titles it: "Love in a Looking Glass" ... Dolores Gray, such a walloping hit in the London "Oklahoma," is in love with a big British star ... But you cahn't mention the chep's name—he's meddeed!

The First Nights: The first of the seasons graceful attractions is "Small Wonder," which came to the Coronet Theater. The same critics who gushed over the previous tenant ("Angel in the Wings") gave it less of a welcome, with the Trib's Mr. Barnes calling it "Slightly Wonderful.' It is a vastly superior show than "Angel," which had a good run. The new revue has its arid moments, but there is such an abundance of entertainment in it, we recommend it over all the current musicals. Mary McCartys zip and zing, Marilyn Day's way with a song, Tom Ewell's nonsense, and the dancing of the entire cast are only some of the high spots ... "Heaven on Earth," another musical, arrived at the Century the following evening. "If this is 'Heaven on Earth'," queried the Times Brooks Atkinson, "where do the sinners go?" ... And Mr. Chapman of the News observed: "I much prefer the artless charms of the show which opened the night before, 'Small Wonder'."

THE Cinemagicians: The Roxy offers 20th Century-Fox's "Luck of the Irish," a fantasy up to its dimples in whimsy. Ann Baxter is Ty Power's Colleen ... "Good Sam" is a sentimental thing carved out of marshmallow—more often sticky than sweet. Cooper and Sheridan toil hard to rescue it from hokum ... "The Golden Eyes" has C. Chan in a routine gum-shoer with chop suey trimmings ... "Marriage in the Shadows" arrived from Germany to tap the tear ducts with a taut yarn—movingly told and beautifully played by Ilse Steppat.

The Airistocrats: Bob Hope returned to the networks with a slightly revised format. His familiar fooling, however, gave it pace. Doris Day's caroling is good ... "Child's World" had children (age 5 and 6) using Death as a discussion—one of the fastest tuner-outters in a long spell ... Robert Montgomery in "A Bell for Adano" (via Theatre Guild) was drama at its tip-top ... Another good program was Evelyn Knight and Gordon MacRae's dueting ... For deluxe scripting try "The Greatest Story Ever Told" on ABC ... "C-21," Bob Monroe's new offering (Mutual), belongs on the air ... The Mcdermaires were just about to inherit a sugary report with their easy-on-the-ear rhythms when they went into "The Woody Woodpecker Song," a dial-turner if ever there was one.

THE Press Box: Headlines in the Sept. 15th gazettes: "Bevin Says Britain Will Fight" ... "Britain Orders Partial Mobilization" ... "Fighter Plane Production To Be Doubled" ... New York Women Enlist as Waves" ... "State Dept Asks Newspapers to Accredit War Correspondents" ... "Marshall's Grave View on World Affairs" ... But Gen. Clay says "War Isn't Near" ... Headline: "Fritz Thyssen Found Guilty of Being Minor Nazi." You know, like a Little Garlic. Or a Little Pregnant ... A Washington writer says no President in our history "suffered such grievious wounds to his personal reputation" as FDR ... "And this," he adds, "includes both Grant and Harding" ... Any American history book proves that the President who took the worst beating—before and after—was Lincoln ... The same President whose picture is in every classroom ... As one wit put it: How unfortunate it is that the only people who know how the public business should be handled choose to be mere writers.

The Intelligentsia: Photoplay mag yanked the issue to kill a Bob Mitchum piece. Worked all night on a substiture yarn ... Harry Fox, one of the 2-a-day favorites, will be a movie story titled "Chasing Rainbows," the song he made famous in "Oh, Look," a Broadway hit ... British Re-Armament Program Threat To Economic Balance

WASHINGTON—A visitor is in Washington who comes from a people under siege. Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the exchequer in Britain's labor government, lean, austere, self-disciplined, is a symbol of the struggle going forward in England.

CHILDS

That the siege is against the forces of economic catastrophe makes it no less rigorous. The end of the shooting war three years ago brought very few differences to the beleaguered population of the tight little island.

Speaking not long ago in Parliament, Cripps reported definite and substantial gains against the threatening enemy. His report of progress got very little attention in the news here. It seemed almost as though the siege of Britain had already been discounted as lost.

What Cripps said in his report was that Britain's annual trade deficit with the rest of the world had been reduced by 55 per cent. This must be measured against the gravity of Britain's plight since the end of World War II to understand its significance.

Resources Used In War

From the outbreak of War in 1939 through 1945, the British threw into the battle most of the resources that had made it possible in other years to balance their budget with the world. Through various intangibles — investments, shipping and so on—they could pay for the imports essential to feed a population that cannot sustain itself on England's limited acres of tillable land. At the same time, colonies and dependencies severed ancient ties.

This meant the kind of belt-tightening that many looking on from the outside thought impossible, and it may still prove impossible. Yet the progress reported by Cripps was extraordinary. Between December, 1947 and June of '48, the volume of British exports rose from 120 per cent to 138 per cent of the volume for 1938. It is now believed to be well above the target figure of 140 per cent of prewar.

Marshall plan aid definitely helped in this recovery. But, as Cripps pointed out, the British net contribution of $282,000,000 in grants this year to other European countries is not insignificant.

Anyone who has been in England since the war knows what sacrifices are back of this record. It means a monotonous level of living with almost nothing left over for even little luxuries.

A LETTER from a friend in England recently says that, in the face of a meat shortage more acute than at any time, "Norwegian beaver" is being sold. The suspicion is prevalent that this is nothing more than rat. There is siege fare for you.

On the sporadic black market horse meat sells for 50 to 60 cents a pound. A broken-down cart horse will bring $200 to $225 from a black market slaughterer.

Officially, Cripps is here for the annual meeting of the governing board of the world bank of which he is vice-chairman. But he will talk with American policy-makers about Britain's most pressing problem today.

That problem can be summarized this way: What will happen to the program to increase exports, and thereby correct the unbalance in world trade, in view of Britain's beginning re-armament and re-mobilization program?

A solemn parliament has heard in recent days the steps the government in London is taking because of the deadly seriousness of the crisis between east and west. The cost of taking those steps was not included in a budget cut to an austerity pattern.

Statement Likely

What Cripps is likely to say while he is here is that Britain cannot afford to pay for re-armament without risking the wreck of carefully laid plans aimed at bringing the precarious British economy back into balance once more. Already broad hints have come from London that some new form of lend-lease will be necessary if Britain is really to rearm to meet the threat of new aggression.

In recent months, many Americans have felt critical and even bitter toward Britain. British policy on Palestine has seemed to some to be hopelessly anchored in a past that will never come again. Others have been skeptical of the British experiment in democratic Socialism.

But in spite of all disagreements, the partnership of Great Britain at this moment of terrible peril and uncertainty is of paramount importance. Ignoring the strategic considerations, which loom ever larger we must say that here are a people who believe in the things we believe in and who will stand up for them.

Today's Thought

From God derived, to God by nature joined,
We act the dictates of His mighty mind:
And though the priests are mute and temples still,
God never wants a voice to speak His will.

SHE'S a typical wife if—

She is more anxious to go out in the evenings than you are.

MILLETT

She is quicker to notice that you need a haircut than that you have had one.

She thinks your job is a snap compared with hers, although she may only hint about it.

No matter how little encouragement you give her, she always insists on rehashing a party after it is over.

She always acts a little surprised and hurt when you mention some small happening in a crowd that you haven't told her previously.

SHE CAN, YOU CAN'T

SHE doesn't want you to criticize her friends, even though she always lets you in on all their faults.

When you comment on what a good-looking dress another woman is wearing, she says: "It ought to be. Do you know how much that dress cost? It cost such-and-such if it cost a cent!"

Though she frequently asks your advice, you notice that when a matter is really important to her, she decides it for herself and merely tells you what she is going to do.

She is never so amiable as when she has just come home from a shopping trip with an extravagant purchase and the secret knowledge that she really shouldn't have bought it.

Methuselah lived to be a ripe old age and that was before they ever heard of dietitians.

TEXAS TECH AND TEXAS A. & M.

Nothing in higher education in Texas is more logical, more practical or more obvious as to need than the closest sort of cooperation and coordination by Texas Technological college and Texas A. & M. college in all matters of mutual concern and interest.

Much of the work done in the two schools is similar. They have identical objectives of service to state and country. Neither is large enough to do by itself the job that needs to be done. Each serves an enormous territorial area inhabited by a huge population. Both are needed. Each has much to gain from cooperation with the other.

The Tech directors took a long step in the right direction at their special meeting in San Antonio last Saturday by appointing a special committee to strive for harmony of effort.

It is to be hoped, and expected, that those who guide the destinies of A. & M. will meet this gesture a full half-way

Widowed Mother Who Advertised For Mate Hears Telephone, But Doorbell Is Silent

CHICAGO, Sept. 29 (INS)—The telephone continues to jingle but the doorbell remains disappointedly silent for Mrs. Marie Kerwin, 34-year-old widowed mother of five.

Mrs. Kerwin recently announced she would marry a man "I could like a little and respect, and who would provide a home for my five children and myself."

There had been phone calls by the score since she first advertised and Mrs. Kerwin observed there are many eligible men eager to marry. But she added:

"After you hang up on the foolish ones and decline to meet others in taverns where are the others?"

Widow "Stood Up"

Monday she thought she knew. She had made—by telephone—appointments with two men to call at separate hours at the Chicago home where she is staying with friends.

She was dressed in a white, grey and aqua print dress with a belt of gold metal links, and gold kid ankle-strap slippers awaiting her callers. She waited all Monday evening.

Neither showed up.

Mrs. Kerwin, who is willing to marry a week after her initial meeting with the right man—provided she sees him enough to get acquainted—sighed disappointedly and said:

"I though I might run into somebody who was nice, who'd find me congenial and would like the children. I thought the world of my husband who was killed in an automobile crash last year, but I can't make it alone."

Evicted From Apartment

Her financial situation has been increasingly difficult since she was evicted from her own apartment. Three of her children are in boarding homes, which costs her $45 a week.

She also lost her job as switchboard operator in a Chicago hotel, after she ran the advertisement for a husband.

In addition to good character, Mrs. Kerwin said she would demand of a man a home large enough for her family. She hopes to quit working and keep house, so prefers a husband who can support her children.

Three of her children, Diane, 15, Eugene, 16, and James, 14, were born of her first marriage which ended in divorce. The others are "Revvy," 2½ and Carol, 1½.

Crude Notes Studied In Mystery Slaying

COFFEYVILLE, Kas., Sept. 29 (AP)—Police studied a crudely written note today in an effort to solve the slaying of a 48-year-old water plant employe.

The body of Melvin Howell was found near his automobile yesterday in an isolated area. He had been shot to death. A nonsensical note was tied to a tree near the body.

Police Chief Pete Billups said Mark Pfister, Coffeyville, was being held for investigation. No charges have been filed.

The note contained such unrelated phrases as: "We have inventions." "we killed Roosevelt," "print this in the press" and "we did it for Truman."

Mistreating Army Prisoners Probed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (U.P.)—A pre-court martial investigation of charges that four U. S. officers, including a retired San Antonio man, had mistreated inmates of a rehabilitation center in Germany is underway, the Army said today.

The Army announcement, which said the alleged offense occurred at the U.S. Army rehabilitation center at Wurzburg, Germany, in the winter of 1947, revealed that an investigation had shown that "some inmates may have been maltreated."

"The inmates are alleged to have been imprisoned in an unheated cell in cold weather," the announcement said. "The treatment is alleged to have resulted in the freezing of one inmate's feet.

"If investigation indicates that a case exists against any or all of the officers in question, they will be brought to trial."

Among those charged was Col. Harold H. McClune (retired), 715 Shook Ave., San Antonio, Tex., commanding officer of the rehabilitation center at the time in question.

14-Year-Old Slayer Begins Prison Term

JOLIET, Ill., Sept. 29. (INS) — Roy Adams, 14-year-old convicted slayer of his playmate Nancy Schuler, 8, of Chicago, entered Joliet prison today to begin a 14-year-term.

Contrite, and proclaiming his return to religion Adams said:

"I'm reconciled because I've gone back to God. For my change I credit what I learned from my old friend, the Rev. Raymond J. O'Brien of Blessed Sacrament church.

"No more comic books for me; they put bad notions in a kid's head. If I could do it all over I'd go in more for sports and play with boys my own age."

Officials expect to transfer Roy to Pontiac prison.

One Killed In Car Collision

MATADOR, Sept. 29 (Special)—Funeral services were to be held here for Norman R. Martin, 34, of Flomot, who was killed yesterday in the collision of an automobile and pickup truck at a rural road intersection near Lockney.

The body was brought to McDonald Funeral Home here. There others were injured, none believed seriously. Probably most seriously hurt was Wade Martin, 50, cousin of the dead man, who was a pasenger in the pickup.

The collision occurred about 2:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at a country road intersection one mile east and four miles north of Lockney. The body was taken to the Carter Funeral Home at Lockney and was brought here last night.

Lockney Youths Hurt

Ira W. Graves, 18, of Lockney, driver of the passenger car, was treated at the hospital for a cut on the leg which required sutures, and was released. His 16-year-old brother, Winifred Graves, also of Lockney, was not seriously injured, but was receiving x-ray examination for a possible fractured rib.

The pickup truck was going east and the car south, both toward the intersection. Graves, driver of the car, told highway patrolmen that he had just passed a parked car and trailer, and looked back to see if it were needing assistance. When he turned to the front again, he said his car was already within the intersection, where it struck the left side of the truck a few moments later.

Deputy Sheriff Earl Cooper of Lockney was assisting the Texas Highway patrol in the investigation.

Survivors include Martin's wife; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Martin, Flomot; three brothers, Lewis and J. C. Martin of Lubbock, and Quinn Martin, Matador; and two sisters, Mrs. Madelle Woods of Bakersfield, Calif., and Mrs. Katherine Russell, Flomot.

The death of Martin brought the number of traffic fatalities in the South Plains area to 23 in the past 31 days.
