County Tax Office Is To Stay Within Courthouse

The office of the Mitchell County Tax Assessor-Collector will remain in the County Courthouse, at least for the time being, as a result of a decision made by the County Commissioners Court Monday during regular session.

Chief Tax Appraiser for Mitchell County Tax Appraisal District, Mike Burt, met with the court to discuss the possibility of relocating the county tax office to the same location as the Appraisal District offices at some point in the future.

The Appraisal District had previously met with the court to request office space in the courthouse and had been informed no space is currently available.

Burt, who holds both the office of County Tax Assessor-Collector and Chief Appraiser for the Appraisal District, suggested it is the ultimate aim of the legislature to combine all tax collecting into one office under the Appraisal District. This would be accomplished by each entity contracting with the district to collect their taxes, although each entity would continue to set the rate of taxes to be collected.

Commissioner Paul Hunter indicated traditionally persons have come to the courthouse to register the purchase of property and it is necessary to have information from the county clerk's office and the tax office to accomplish this. Other functions such as auto and voter registration also require information from both offices, he said, therefore the county tax office should remain in the courthouse.

Commissioners voted unanimously to leave the office in the courthouse.

Bids were opened during the meeting for nine used county vehicles.

Bids were awarded to the highest bidder in each case with J. O. Dockrey purchasing a 1974 GMC Pickup for $775; a 1974 GMC Pickup for $725; a 1974 GMC Pickup for $851; a 1971 Chevrolet Pickup for $776; a 1967 Ford Pickup for $451 and a 1969 Ford Pickup for $576.

A. J. Mitchell purchased a 1971 Ford Truck for $1,600 and the City of Loraine purchased a 1973 GMC Pickup for $1,000 and a 1967 Ford Truck for $1,550.

A total of 16 persons or companies bid on the nine vehicles.

Newly appointed Sheriff Wendell Bryant appeared before the court and requested bids be advertised for, on the purchase of two new cars for the department.

He indicated due to mileage and condition of

Local Historian Honored By Peers For "Rowdy" Article

J. Lee Jones, Jr., 341 Elm St., walked away with one of the most prestigious honors awarded to historians by the Permian Historical Society Saturday.

Jones was named as co-recipient of the 1980 Dunagan - Linebury prize for his efforts in preparing a paper published in the "Permian Historical Annal XX," entitled, "Colorado City During The Roaring 1880's."

This was the first award of a yearly prize for the best article published in the "Annal."

This prize, in the amount of $200, will be awarded each year for articles which are first, presently orally to Society members, and then selected by a five member committee for the quality of writing; extent of research and documentation; significance of subject and relationship of the subject to the Permian Basin.

In his prize-winning article, Jones depicted the earliest years of Colorado (City) with both words and authentic photographs. He tells of a time when it was an important trade center and railroad shipping point.

He wrote of the "now-vanished aspect of its rowdy past" which should not be forgotten in relation to "its essential function as purveyor of needed amusement and recreation to ranchers, railroad men,

OUTDOOR ENTHUSIASTS filled the Colorado City Lake State Park to overflowing Friday, Saturday and Sunday. One group of traveling campers which enjoyed the weekend in the park was the Western Drifters, a chapter of the "Good Sam" Club. This group consists of 40,000 members across the nation who spend every possible hour in fellowship in the out-of-doors.

Travelers Spend Weekend In Lake Colorado City Park

Warm sunny weather brought vacationers and weekend travelers to Lake Colorado City State Park by the thousands this past weekend.

Park Superintendent Bill Griffin reported 5,051 persons visited the park over the three day period, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, with 562 persons using camp sites on Saturday alone.

Over the Easter Holiday weekend, visitation is anticipated to be even greater, if the weather conditions are good.

By Tuesday afternoon, reservations had been made for 68 of the 73 electrical camp sites available at the park.

Visiting the park during Saturday's pleasant weather were a group known as the Western Drifters, members of the "Good Sam" Club.

This is a nationally recognized group with the 112 chapters across the United States consisting of about 40,000 members, according to Evelyn Vigar, spokeswoman for the group.

This particular group was from Big Spring and their travels include trips to Cloud Croft, N.M.; Old Mexico and Colorado.

The insignia of the "Good Sam" Club is a smiley face and this was displayed prominently on the recreation vehicles which filled the park.

Youths Will Compete In Oratorical Contest

The annual Optimist sponsored oratorical contest will take place Monday at 7:30 p.m., in the C. C. Thompson Room.

Nine students under the age of 16 have applied to appear during the contest from which one boy and one girl will finish victorious and advance to zone competition.

Last year's winners, Pam Ehret, Eighth Grader and Malcom Upton, Junior, competed and won in zone competition and went on to district contest.

The topic for speeches this year is "A Commitment To Share." Speeches will be between four and five minutes in length.

Optimist Gary Harkins explained this is a nation-wide contest sponsored by Optimist International and approved by the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

He noted the purpose and design of the competition is not to recognize the best speaker, but to offer training, encouragement and experience that will aid participants as they become active citizens of the community.

All expenses to out-of-town competition will be paid by Optimist Club.

The first Optimist oratorical contest was held in 1928 and has always been limited to youths under 16 years of age in order to offer them the opportunity to apply the

Jay Adams Chevrolet Burglarized

Jay Adams Chevrolet on east Highway 80 was the scene of an apparent burglary April 9. The burglary was reported to Colorado City Police Friday at 8:17 a.m. when employees arrived for work.

Chief of Police Jimmy Roundtree investigated the incident and reported burglars apparently entered the building by breaking a southeast rear window. The thieves then broke into the parts department and removed an AM-FM Eight-Track Stereo and two speakers valued at about $339, plus numerous spark plugs.

Burglars apparently left through a back door on the south side of the building.

The incident apparently occurred at some time between 6:30 p.m. April 9 and 7:45 a.m. Friday.

Marker Unveiling To Honor W.A. Crowder

Dedication of a historical marker, denoting the sites of Texas and Pacific Railway depots at Colorado City, will be made today (Thursday) at 3 p.m., hosted by the Mitchell County Historical Commission.

Ceremonies will take place on the south side of First Street, between Oak and Walnut Streets, under the direction of Master of Ceremonies J. Lee Jones, Jr.

The thrust of this dedicatory ceremony is to pay homage to the late W. A. Crowder, long time T&P Railway stationmaster in Mitchell County.

Crowder first came to Mitchell County in 1885 as the agent for the T&P Railway. During his 35 years of service, local rail traffic flourished, according to information gathered by J. Lee Jones, Jr., and Mattie C. Hines, who researched information to obtain the Texas marker.

Research revealed that trains brought the necessary manufactured products for local ranches, including barbed wire and windmills. Goods shipped from here to Eastern markets included cattle, hides, salt, ice, wool and buffalo bones.

The original depot, constructed in 1881, was destroyed by fire and replaced by a new freight station in 1896. Another depot was built at the foot of Walnut Street in 1907, according to Jones' research.

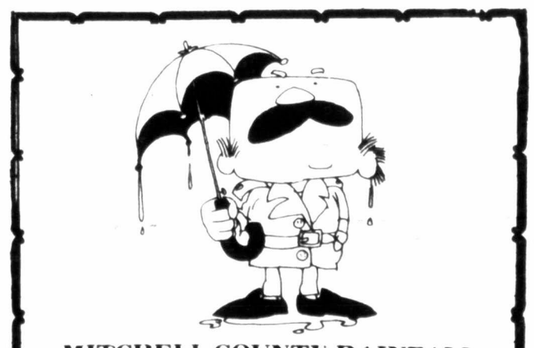

Jones will preside at the unveiling. C. Virgil Fox, Minister of the First Christian Church, will give the invocation.

County Judge Bill Carter will address the gathering, as will Mrs. Hines.

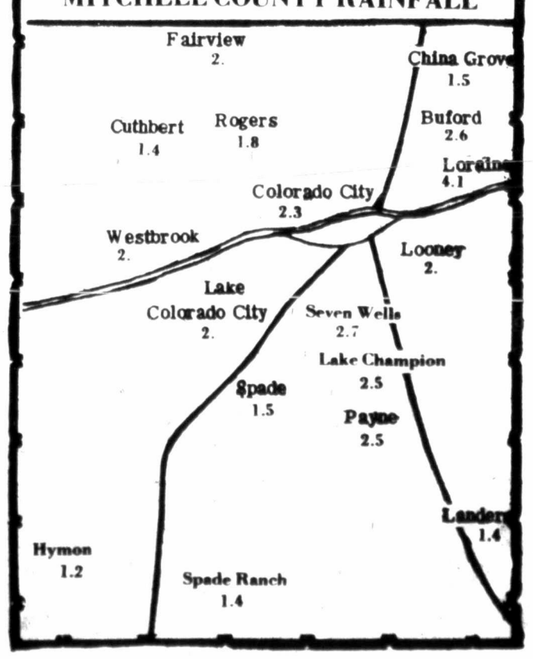

The great-great-great grandchildren of W. A. Crowder will unveil the marker, which will be read by Mayor Elmer Martin.

"This is an X-rated presentation despite the fact that every reasonable effort has been made, by innuendo or otherwise, to make it palatable to the prudish, sedate, shy, squeamish or those devoid of a sense of humor," Jones writes.

No newcomer to the art of written publications, Jones, a native of Colorado City, born Sept. 18, 1904, graduated from Tarleton State College in 1925 and received the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence from The University of Texas at Austin in 1934. He served as visiting professor of Oil and Gas Law at the same school in 1952-1953 and presented papers on oil and gas law at meetings of the State Bar of Texas, The American Bar Association, The First and Sixth Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Institutes and the Second and Fifteenth SWLF Institutes on Oil and Gas Law and Taxation, all of which appear in the printed proceedings of the associations and institutes involved.

Numerous other articles on oil and gas law have been published in various law journals and law reviews.

Jones served as chairman of the Mineral Law Section, state Bar of Texas from 1959-60.

He is the compiler of "Lore And Legend," a compilation of documents depicting the history of Colorado City and Mitchell County.

He is also the author of "Red Raiders Retaliate," the story of Lone Wolf, the Elder (Guipagho), famous Kiowa Indian chief.

He is also the author of "The Fabulous Foster No. 1" and "Early Day Colorado City Hotels," which appeared in Volumes XIII and XVI, respectively of the Permian Historical Annual.

A Naval veteran, Jones served in the United States and Pacific during 1942-46.

At the conclusion of the meeting of Permian Historical Society of Texas held at Midland Saturday, Mattie C. Hines, J. Lee Jones, Jr. and Mrs. A. W. (Gene) Rowe, all of Colorado City, were elected members of the Board of Directors of the society.

He suggested the two used cars be put up for sale or traded in.

Bryant also requested uniforms for himself and two deputies.

Hunter noted that the uniforms previously purchased had not been considered property of the county and suggested a policy be instituted so that deputies either be paid a $25 a month uniform allowance or, if the uniforms are purchased at county expense, they be turned in to the sheriff if the deputy quits.

They voted to purchase up to $900 worth of uniforms for the sheriff and two deputies at this time.

Bryant also requested funds be placed in an emergency travel account for the sheriff's office. These funds will be used on emergency short travel and any long trips made by the department are to be approved by the court prior to taking place.

Commissioners voted to place $300 in the emergency travel account.

Ed York, tax attorney from Corsicana, submitted his resignation as delinquent tax collector for the county.

County Attorney Pat Barber suggested to the court that any new contract include a clause stating that sheriff's sales will be held by the new collector at least once a year.

Commissioners are considering several attornies for the position.

Retreat Center Is Being Constructed

The Catholic Diocese of San Angelo has begun a campaign to fund the construction of a retreat house renewal center.

Though barely underway, the drive has already received more than $386,000, in pledges, according to Pat Bunnell, lay chairman of the appeal and Omer Dreiling, co-chairman of the major gift committee. They reported that these gifts were given from fewer than 40 families.

They say they are pleased with the initial results of this year's drive and that this will be the first of an Annual Diocesan Appeal.

Bunnell said plans call for every Catholic household to receive a visit from parish representatives over the next few weeks, soliciting support for the Appeal.

The retreat house renewal center will have a chapel as its focus and will feature meeting rooms, administrative offices, a cafeteria, courtyards and two dormitory wings.

Upwards of 100 people could make use of the retreat house at the same time, participating in such programs as Family Retreats, Youth Retreats, Engaged and Marriage Encounters, Search For Christian Maturity and other educational and spiritual-renewal programs for men and women, young people and the elderly, according to Dreiling.

Studies Prove Teenage Alcoholic Rate Is High

Recent studies conducted by Research Triangle Park have shown that most American teenagers drink and that one-third of these are problem drinkers.

This nation-wide survey showed that three out of 10 high school students are moderate to heavy drinkers.

The survey also impressed that drinking among girls is also increasing.

Furthermore, the study showed that the South continues to have the highest proportion of abstainers in the nation.

Despite laws against minors purchasing alcohol, studies showed that seven out of 10 "usually" or "always" obtain the substance.

"It's very clear that a large proportion of adolescents have some experience with alcohol," stated J. Valley Rachal Study Director.

By the 10th grade about seven of 10 can no longer be called abstainers. But it doesn't really matter whether it's 70 per cent or 80 per cent. The fact is that a large portion of adolescents have at least some experience with alcohol and a large percentage drink fairly regularly."

The RTL studies have shown that ease of availability is related to heavier drinking areas.

The Research Triangle Institute, a private organization, conducts research under contract for government agencies, foundations or private industry.

"National FHA Week" Is Recognized By Loraine Girls

The Loraine Chapter of Future Homemakers of America are celebrating Future Homemakers of America Week in Texas by sponsoring some activity each day for the week.

The group started the week by attending church together on Sunday. This year the First Baptist Church of Loraine was the choice of the executive group who planned the activities. Each year, the club alternates among the different denominations, choosing different ones each year.

Monday was set aside as "Color Day;" Tuesday, the group sold FHA pencils; Wednesday, the girls manned the beauty shop in the Loraine Nursing Home in answer to their plight of having lost their regular beautician: Thursday is designated as radio day at which time, the three delegates to the state convention this month will be interviewed and Friday, the club will dress in the official colors of red and white and push "Spirit," both to the FHA organization and to their school. Cleaning up the campus is a part of this day.

The members taking shifts at the Nursing Home were: Diana Calderon, Mitzie Hallmark, Sharon Meza, Janie Barrera, Hortensia DeLoera, Julie Wells, Kathy Wright, Melissa Clifton, Kristi Moreno, Shelly Martin, Jana Britton, Debbie Brown, Stephanie McAdams, Margaret Alvarez, Carla Banks, Jennifer Hackfeld and Teresa Clifton.

The delegates to the state convention in San Antonio later this month will be Carla Banks, president; Stephanie McAdams, in-coming president, Sheila Martin, in-coming vice president. Margaret Latimer will accompany the trio to San Antonio and is the sponsor of the organization.

Screwworm Update

By Bob Benson

Two cases of screwworms have now been confirmed in West Texas during 1981 with several more suspected.

The time for us to take action is now. The full cooperation of every livestock producer is urgently needed.

Producers are encouraged to inspect their animals frequently for worm-infested wounds, collect worm samples and immediately treat the wounds with an approved insecticide.

Samples should be sent to the Mission screwworm plant for positive identification. Sample containers and mailing tubes are available at the county extension office. Several maggots from deep within the wound should be collected.

Only with the full cooperation of producers, can screwworm infestations be identified and sterile fly released be made so that infestations do not increase and spread to other locations.

The relatively mild and wet winter in Mitchell County have provided ideal situations for screwworm populations. Let's not let the screwworm get the jump on us.

"What I Consider My Greatest Garden Problem" Was Discussed

The Baumann T.E.H.A. Club met with Mrs. Willis Cornutt at 2:30 p.m. April 7.

President, Mrs. Charlie Harris, presided and Mrs. Cornutt led the club prayer. Mrs. Vada Preston directed a short recreation period. A visitor, Mrs. Leroy Cornutt was welcomed.

Roll call was answered with "What I Consider My Greatest Garden Problem."

Bernice Hallmark read minutes and Pauline Smiley gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. Harris read a letter from Radio KVMC saying it would be glad to make any announcement, etc., for the club without charge. Mrs. Harris also gave the council report.

During the business, the club voted to plant a tree or rose bush at the Loraine Nursing Home.

Mrs. Lynne Compton told the true story of Jean Starnes, a cousin of Mrs. Shep Compton. Jean was a cripple from birth. She had good use of her arms and she was strong and a very brilliant girl, she said. Her parents put her in a special school in Florida where she finished high school, went on to get a degree from college, a master's degree and a doctor's degree, Mrs. Compton added. She set up a school in Midland for people who were afflicted as she was and fromt there went to Austin where she is working in the state school. She had, in the mean time, adopted a boy and later married. Her life showed what one can do with their life if they have determination and spunk, which Jean did, Mrs. Compton concluded.

During the social period, members were asked to tell something good they admired about Lady Bird Johnson.

The next meeting will be on April 20 with Mrs. Floyd Griffin.

Refreshments were served to the one visitor, Mrs. Cornutt and members, Mmes. Lester Webb, Floyd Griffin, Bernice Hallmark, Mable Givens, Harris, Preston, Smiley and Cullen Payne and the hostess.

Directors Attend Stockholders Meeting In Houston

Michael W. Smith, manager of Federal Land Bank Association, has just returned from Houston where he represented the Federal Land Bank Association of Colorado City at the 26th Annual Stockholders Meeting of the Federal Land Bank of Texas.

The meeting, held at the Houston Oaks Hotel, was attended by members of 70 Federal Land Bank Associations in Texas with about 750 persons attending.

Thomas H. Benson, president, in his report to the stockholders, stated that there was an increasing demand for new loans in 1980. This was the second largest year of loans closed in the bank's history, with 3,774 loans closed for a total of $322.3 million. This compares to 1979 figures of 3,960 loans closed for a total of $337.8 million.

"In this period of historic high interest rate, the advantages of the variable rate were apparent with our members paying rates somewhat below the prevailing rate," Benson explained.

The Federal Land Bank Association of Colorado City makes and services loans in this area.

Members of the board of directors are Martin Murphy, George Dawson, C. C. Thompson, Dwayne Harris, Audry Head and A. Kenneth Smith.

Attending the meeting from this area were Directors, Thompson, Harris, Murphy, Head and Smith along with the manager.

Aggie Muster Slated

Former students of Texas A&M University will gather at the Country Club in Colorado City on April 21 for the Annual Mitchell County Aggie Muster, according to chairman, David Stubblefield.

The Muster activities will begin at 7 p.m. and is open to all former students and their families, parents of students and friends of Texas A&M.

Texas A&M is in its "Second Century of Greatness" and during the past 100 years, Texas A&M has grown from a small Land Grant college to one of the leading research and educational institutions in the nation, added Stubblefield.

He said that the Aggie Muster dates back to the mid-1880's and has been held annually since.

A program given by Gayle Wood, from the registrar's office at A&M, is planned for this year's Muster.

Moore Receives Honor

Leslie L. Moore, daughter of Mrs. Pat Moore of Colorado City, was among six Texas Tech University students that were recently inducted into Gamma XI chapter of Pi Omega Pi, the national business teacher education honorary society.

Pledges must have a cumulative grade average in the top 25 percent of their classes. Activities, in addition to that, must have been completed at least six semester hours of education courses.

The Pi Omega Pi honorary society aims to create a fellowship among teachers of business subjects and to encourage interest and promote scholarship in business education.

Mrs. Jess Small hosted the Self Culture Club when they met recently in her home.

Mrs. Lil Brown led the club collect and the pledge of allegiance and a desired goal in life was discussed by each attending.

Mrs. L. B. Elliott discussed traveling in China stating that the Chinese expected the visitor to know something of the Chinese history.

She said that one would find that the honesty of the Chinese is unbelievable and one could allow them to take the right amount of money from the pile of fens, jiaos and yuans.

Mrs. Elliott stated that the Chinese are unaccustomed to the habit of Americans of discarding unwanted items and they may chase one down to return them to you.

Mrs. Small told of the Ming Dynasty and of the Forbidden City, so called because subservient masses and foreigners were not allowed. She said that it was the Imperial Palace with some 9,000 rooms.

She added that the Russian language was no longer popular in China since the relationship with Russia was strained and as a result, the English language was being studied in the schools.

At the end of Mrs. Small's talk, she touched on the education noting that students entered a university at the age of 16 to serve the politics of the People's Republic.

Mrs. Small, the hostess, served refreshments to Mmes. Earl Brown, John Brown, Elliott. Paul Logsdon, R. M. Reed, E. J. Stockton, E. L. Tiller and Les Watson.

This past Wednesday was a real red letter day in our home. Coming in groups all during the day was Mrs. Margaret Latimer's class of F.H.A. girls. Our beautician, who was coming from Snyder, was unable to continue to come after getting married and we have missed not only her but the good work she did.

The F.H.A. girls took turns coming in and managed to wash, curl, blow dry and comb out everyone wanting their hair groomed. Some new styles were seen and lots of smiles and "thank you's" given. We are most appreciative to these girls and Mrs. Latimer and invite them to return anytime.

Loraine Baptist Church Ruth Sunday School Class donated some much enjoyed bingo prizes and we are grateful for them thinking of us and filling a need here.

Piano music once again was enjoyed by many as Ann Rowell Gregory of Loraine dropped in and played "Star Spangle Banner." Then two tunes from the 20's called "Forgotten" and "Intermezzo." An open invitation is extended to anyone who would like to come and play our piano. Not many of us have the talent to play and we do enjoy it so much.

Employee of the month for April is Jean Bagwell, one of our 7-3 LVNs. As I have said before, the employee of the month is voted by staff of the home. Congratulations to Jean.

We would like to welcome Mrs. Frances Crutcher as a new resident to our home. Mrs. Crutcher is a long-time resident of Loraine and invites everyone to come visit with her. She is roommate to a friend of hers, Mrs. Zella Hamilton.

Also new in our group is Mrs. Grady (Angie) Furlow, Sr., another long time resident of Loraine. She is in room 18 and welcomes all visitors. We welcome both new ladies to our group and hope they enjoy our activities.

Monday night at the Lions Club here in Loraine, I attended a meeting held by Mr. Harmon head of the National Weather Service in Abilene. His subject was tornados. He had two good films which were enlighting, telling about how tornados are formed, general direction they come from, how to spot them and safety precautions. I really enjoyed it and am proud of the people in our community who observe severe weather and sound the alarm to protect our community. I realized that it's very dangerous at times for our spotters who are out in the weather due to hail, tornados and high winds.

T. J. Green and Ethel Duncan donated items for bingo. Bea Lee furnished us with some magazines. Jean Bagwell and Inez Thomas also made donations. We thank these people for remembering us.

Seen around visiting were Jack and Elgena Bean from Snyder," A. B. Patrick also of Snyder, Vivian Jacobs from Arlington, Lola Faye Bennett, local; Mrs. Charley Land, Lorene Mills and Bessie Holliday from Sweetwater; Ellis Phillips, Rev. and Mrs. Jason Fry, Blondie Hamilton, Sybie Walker, J. M. Templeton and wife, Ham Hamilton, Calvin Forbus, Mildred Little, Mattie Neely and Katie Dorn from Colorado City; also Mr. and Mrs. Bob James from Wichita Falls, Mary Coffee, Vida Alsobrook and Mr. and Mrs. Nuster Harris from Stanton; Mrs. Cullen Payne, Inez Webb, Camille Alford and Selwyn Smith from Iraan; Mr. and Mrs. George Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Richburg of Roscoe and Atwood Sheffield, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Green Jr. and Mrs. Joy Cheek from Abilene.

All these people and many more were around to visit many of our residents and we were glad to have each one and welcome their company anytime.

Taylors Host The Game Club Meet

Those present were Dr. Bruce Johnson, Messrs. and Mmes. C. A. Matejowsky, J. M. Templeton, Floyd Coffee, Jack Linam, Leonard Coldewey, Doyle Hester and Mmes. Sybie Walker and Ida Baird.

Our Bank Has Learned A Lot About Farming!

You can't serve a community such as ours for years and not learn a lot about agriculture. Farmers have helped First State Bank grow and we have made a real effort to return the favor with loans and savings services of all types.

When misfortune arrives in the way of drought, flooding, early frost and insects, we suffer right along with our friends. So if you need the help of a bank that is experienced in farming, doesn't it make good sense to choose one that is sympathetic with your problems. Take to us.

To become more energy-independent...

let's use what we've got.

We Americans learn early to be independent and self-reliant, and to use the resources we have. But today we're importing oil for nearly a fourth of our energy needs. This is dangerous because it undermines our economy and threatens our national security. And it shouldn't be necessary, because we have the world's largest known energy reserves right here in the United States.

We can help make America self-sufficient by using alternative fuels like coal and uranium. We can stretch our supplies of oil and natural gas by conserving. We'll develop nuclear fusion, while making more use of other sources such as solar, biomass and wind.

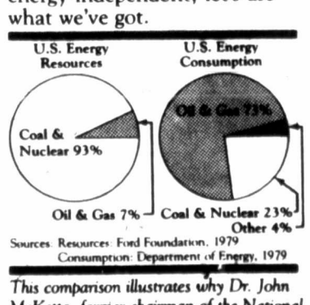

But not today. For the next 25 years or more, the energy we need must come from the resources and the know-how we have now.

At your electric company, we're building plants to use the energy and technology we have now. At the same time we're supporting development of other sources of energy, so we'll have them as soon as possible.

This comparison illustrates why Dr. John McKetta, former chairman of the National Energy Policy Committee, insists we must develop the domestic energy we have.
