Golden Tornadoes To Go To Plainview Friday Nite For First Conference Tilt

Interest Mounts As The Game Time Nears

Backers of the Lamesa high, Golden Tornadoes, are awaiting Friday night's game with Plainview with keen interest. This game is the first District Championship game for Conference A, District Number One. Plainview hopes are based on the two victories over Kerrville and Bowie high of El Paso and the long training season for the members of the Plainview squad and their coach, who reached the State finals with the Kerrville team before going to Plainview.

Lamesa's hopes are based on past achievement, sturdy offense and defense in the line and some fleet backs who have done well in previous games and then the Golden Tornadoes have a coach, with a record for successful coaching. Lamesa teams have reached tops on more than one occasion for Conference B competition and Mr. McCollum was their leader on each of these occasions. The record of the Golden Tornadoes against Conference A teams lists more victories than defeats. The boys are paying attention to coaching and appear to be taking excellent care of themselves physically in order to be ready for any occasion which may arise during the game.

Scouts report that again Lamesa players will be smaller in size than the competition and that this difference will have to be made up in superior blocking, faster running, and smart play.

The game with Plainview is not only the first district game for the competing schools, it is the first district championship game within the district and the winner will be listed at the top of the competitors for championship until defeated and thus reduced in rank.

Local fans desire that their favorites, "The Golden Tornadoes" occupy top honors and many will travel to Plainview on Friday night to witness the first Conference "A" game for championship for Lamesa as a new-comer to the conference and to lend what aid backers can give through support by vocal effort.

Dal-Paso Hotel Is Being Completely Modernized Here

The Dal-Paso hotel of this city is undergoing a complete remodeling and modernization program, as a large crew of workmen are busily engaged in this work.

Every guest room in the hotel will be completely refurnished, with new drapes, new light fixtures and new floor coverings. All woodwork is to be refinished and walls repapered. The upstairs halls are to be refinished with the lower walls finished in a dark color, with a wainscoting of lighter hue. All woodwork will be refinished while the hall runways will be carpeted.

The lobby is being completely changed and remodeled. The lobby office has been moved from the north side of the lobby to the east side and nearer the entrance, which will make it more convenient for registering guests. Two offices have been provided in the southeast and southwest corners. The walls are being finished with orchid bottom, with light blue above. The ceiling is finished in ivory with an aluminum trim between walls and the ceiling. All lobby furniture is being refurnished and will have the appearance of new when completed.

The old awning which formerly covered the entrance has been removed, and this adds much to the outside appearance of the building.

It is expected to have this work completed within the next few weeks and when complete this hotel will be as modern as will be found anywhere.

Thomas C. Hall, of Temple, owner of the property is having the work done. Bill Wallace, is the general and well liked manager of this popular hotel.

Tornadoes Winner 13 To 6 Over Big Spring Last Week

Tornadoes Outplay Much Heavier Steers

The Golden Tornadoes took the measure of the Big Spring Steers by a score of thirteen to six last Friday night. The Steers yielded to the hard playing Lamesa boys for two touchdowns in the first half of the game and then scored one touchdown themselves in the third quarter, after a fumble recovery and a successful forward pass. The crowd at the game was one of the largest ever within the local field. It is stated that some "inebriated" fans staged some ear plugging exhibitions which attracted attention for a few moments but without casualties.

Great Interest Is Shown With Ideas Advanced To Body

System Is Used To Set Up Program For New Year

The Lamesa Chamber of Commerce this week has engaged in a series of conference meetings with the citizens of Lamesa and Dawson county participating.

As has been previously explained, group chairmen were selected by the board of directors and the citizenship divided into groups of twenty-five. These groups were called into meetings Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

The purpose of these meetings, were for the purpose of discussing those things which the organization might undertake and sponsor for the coming year. Each group met with their chairman and the secretary of the body, A. G. Bearden, for one hour, which was devoted largely to discussions and suggestions.

Each man present was presented with a card to be filled out with his idea or suggestion of what the chamber of commerce could and should do.

Five meetings were held Wednesday and five more Thursday and it is roughly estimated that something over two hundred citizens attended the gatherings. All meetings were held in the county court room of the court house.

Many worthwhile suggestions were offered. The plan further calls for a grouping of these ideas, and those which received the largest number of suggestions will be deemed of greater importance and consequently will receive the attention of the body first.

With this method it is hoped by those in charge to gather together a series of worthwhile ideas which may be consolidated into a worthwhile as well as constructive program for the organization to pursue for this coming year.

Complete Details On FHA Are Explained

Lumber Dealers Of Lamesa Cooperate In Explaining Act

Below is given an outline of the amendments to the National Housing Act, under the new FHA program.

There has been much interest manifested in Lamesa and Dawson County along the remodeling and building line under this program, but there are many who are not familiar with the act and this information is given to better acquaint all with the program.

All of the lumber dealers of Lamesa are cooperating in an effort to acquaint the people with FHA and are this week running the first of a series of large ads in the Courier. You will find these ads very interesting and educational. Ad number one appears on this page and will be followed each week with a new one.

These dealers have acquainted themselves with every phase of the FHA plan and are willing and anxious to explain it to all who are interested. You will note from the information below that it is possible to secure a long-time loan, either for remodeling, repairing, or new construction.

OUTLINE OF AMENDMENTS TO THE NATIONAL HOUSING ACT UNDER THE NEW FHA PROGRAM.

1. Reinstatement of Title 1 (Repair Program) three classes of loans:

Class 1. Any property owner with good credit rating may borrow from 100 up to $10,000 with which to repair, remodel or modernize any existing structure of any type property, such as farm, business, home, apartment houses, hotels, hospitals, schools, colleges and churches.

Money borrowed at 5 per cent discount, or carrying charge of $5.00 per $100 per year, to be paid back in equal monthly installments over a period of from one (1) to five (5) years.

All money borrowed under class 1 must be for improvements to existing structures. Moveable equipment, such as gas and electric appliances, are not eligible, but equipment which is permanently installed, such as plumbing, heating, air conditioning which becomes a permanent part of the real property is eligible.

Applications for loans of over $2,500 must be submitted to Washington for prior approval.

Class 2. New construction of business and service buildings. Maximum of $2,500 may be borrowed with which to build a new business or service building, used wholly or in part for commercial purposes, such as, barns, silos, garages, service buildings, various types of wayside stands, gasoline stations, tourist cabins and various industrial or commercial buildings. No part of structure can be used for dwelling purposes. (See Class 3) This money is also loaned on a 5 per cent discount basis to be paid back in equal monthly installments over a period of from one (1) to five (5) years.

Class 3. New construction of dwellings (used wholly or in part as residence) Under this plan, an individual with a lot or building site in a location which is not eligible for financing under the FHA Insured Mortgage Plan, such as acreage, tracts, farms, rural communities, on oil leases. Structure may be used, wholly or in part, for residential purposes. Total amount to be borrowed cannot exceed $2,500. Interest of 3 1/2 per cent discount, $3.50 per $100 per year carrying charges. Maximum term is seven (7) years and thirty-two (32) days.

Money may be paid back in monthly quarterly, semi-annual or annual payments. Residences do not necessarily have to be modern if facilities are not available. If all utilities are available property must be modern and must conform with local laws, codes or health requirements.

None of the money can be used for purchase of land or re-financing; all must be used for new construction.

All applications under class 3, title 1, must be submitted to local FHA office for approval as to conformity to neighborhood, before loan is made and before construction begins.

Do not confuse with Title 2—if location of proposed dwelling meets requirements of Insured Mortgage Plan, submit regular application for a title 2 FHA loan.

II. Insured Mortgage Plan Title 2, Section 203. Insurance of Mortgage on Individual, single family dwellings, duplexes and apartments, not to exceed four family units.

(A) Ninety (90%) Percent Loans. Principal obligation must not exceed $5,400.

Construction must have started prior to February 3, 1938 and after 1-1-37, or if construction is started after February 3, 1938, plans and specifications must be submitted and approved prior to starting construction in order to qualify.

Property must be single-family dwelling and owner occupied.

Property must never have been occupied or sold.

Will carry 1-4 of 1 per cent Mutual Mortgage Insurance Premium computed on the declining balance.

Must have one of the following terms 5, 8, 10, 12, 15, 19, 20, 24 and 25 years.

(B) Combination loans.

On property having a value of over $6,000 and a mortgage obligation of not more than $8,600, an FHA commitment may be issued for 90 per cent of the first $6,000 value and 80 per cent of the value above $6,000.

This applies to properties constructed after January 1, 1937, and before February 3, 1938, which properties have never been lived in or sold. If construction is started after February 3, 1938, plans and specifications must be submitted for FHA approval prior to starting of construction in order to qualify.

These commitments will carry an initial mortgage insurance premium of 1-2 of 1 per cent and the term may be 5, 8, 10, 12, 15, 17, 19 and 20 years.

(C) Existing Construction Loans.

Commitments covering these properties shall be on old properties, and properties constructed even after January 1, 1937, and before February 3, 1938 but which have been lived in or sold. These commitments will carry an initial mortgage insurance premium of 1-2 of 1 per cent and may be for a term of 5, 8, 10, 12, 15, 17, 19 and 20 years. Commitments can not be issued for over 80 per cent of the value of the property.

(D) Loans for: From $10,000 to $16,000.

The initial mortgage insurance premium on these will be 1-2 of 1 per cent. Eighty (80) per cent of the value will be the maximum allowed. The terms may be 5, 8, 10, 12, 15, 17, 19 and 20 years. This applies to existing construction or to new construction.

Clean as a Kitten

AS IF IT HAD NINE LIVES, a clean, correctly lubricated motor keeps going mile after mile, and year after year... with less fuss and noise, and fewer costly visits to the repair shop.

The dictionary says that refine means "to purify, to cleanse"—which gives you an idea of what we do to produce Phillips 66 Motor Oil. Out go destructive impurities and harmful elements. Out goes wax, to insure free, fast flow in winter. Out goes gum which might make piston rings stick.

What remains is a great lubricant... 100% Paraffin base... 100% Phillips value, with rich body and high-degree oiliness to provide a tough, friction-reducing film...resistant to high speed, high pressure, high heat. And the big plus is the Phillips name. This makes for peace of mind, because you know that you are getting all the lubrication you pay for, when you drain and refill with Phillips 66 Motor Oil... at the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

reserving several hundred seats on the visitors side of the playing field for Lamesa fans, pep squad members and the Lamesa high school band, who make the trip.

Those going are warned to get there early.

The Pampa High School Harvesters one of the powerful football teams of Texas will be the visitors here on Friday night, September 30th. Word has been received here that they will be accompanied by two or three trainloads of followers and that Lamesa can expect the largest crowd of backers ever to visit this place. The Pampa boosters followed their team to Port Arthur last year, and it is stated that they make all the games regardless of distance or time involved. Lamesa and Dawson county football followers will witness a fine team in action, a large pep squad and splendid high school band backing the Harvesters. The Pampa game is also a championship game, the first for the Harvesters and the second for the Golden Tornadoes.

Enrollment Up To
1451 In City Schools

Enrollment at the Lamesa high school continues to increase. Fifteen new pupils had their names added to the elementary school roll this week and two names were added at the high school.

The totals now are for elementary school, 942, high school 509, and the grand total for white pupils has reached 1451.

With the admission of the finishing class from the elementary school into high school at mid-term the enrollment in Lamesa high school will likely break all previous records. The school is definitely a member of the highest athletic conference in the University Interscholastic League as indicated by the present enrollment. The newspapers have carried news to the effect that a new system of school classifications into the conferences will be effective next year with a conference known as "AA" based on 500 or more pupils with membership compulsory if the school population is reached for minimum membership.

Additional text books were made necessary by the heavy enrollment and these have been received much to the pleasure of pupils and teachers, who found the supply had been exhausted before they had been supplied.

Mr. and Mrs. Winifred Booker of Colorado spent Sunday here visiting with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Edward Jackson of Spur spent the weekend here visiting with friends and relatives.

A MODERN SOLUTION

To Old Age Problems

For a considerable period of time I have watched with interest the research work carried on by the W. A. Armour Clinical Institute in Kansas City, Missouri, in their treatment and diagnosis of chronic disorders. I have been overawed by the miraculous results obtained in this Institute and more overwhelming is the accuracy of their diagnosis. Their system of diagnosis has been the most scientific one step made in all the healing sciences of all time. After an intensive study of their work I have been fully convinced of its merit. I am therefore installing this system of diagnosis as well as one of their colon therapy units in my office, so that the people of this community may avail themselves of the privileges of this marvelous system. In keeping with this decision, I have secured the services of the chief of the research clinical staff of the W. A. Armour Clinical Institute to assist me for one week in presenting this system to my friends in this community. The services of this outstanding doctor are available to you without cost not only in consultation with me, but if your case should be one which requires the services of this unit a demonstrational treatment will be given without cost or obligation.

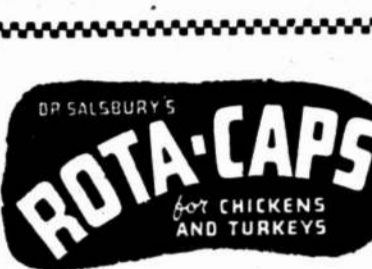

According to Dr. John Cabot Lodge, one of the most eminent diagnosticians of the medical profession, ninety-eight per cent of all diagnosis is wrong. The reason being that virtually in all cases they diagnose symptoms and effects and not causes. According to the Armour system of diagnosis which is determined by an X-ray of the colon the causes of diseases manifest themselves through reflex pathology in specific areas of the colon. Every patient who is examined and diagnosed by this method is over-awed and over-whelmed by the accuracy of this system in not only giving them their symptoms and effects but the pouring out to them recognizable facts preliminary to the causes of their trouble.

Most eminent authorities contend that more than ninety per cent of all chronic diseases are directly traceable to the improper function of the colon. Improper colon function is the most frequent contributing cause of hyperacidity, high and low blood pressure, ulcers of the stomach, appendicitis, skin troubles, female disorders, prostatic disorders, rectal diseases, asthma, hay fever, sciatica, rheumatism, lumbago, arthritis, as well as all heart involvements

If you are suffering at this time from any ailment you should avail yourself of the services of my health clinic while I have this doctor with me to assist in conducting the examination and diagnosis so that I can give you the greatest possible assistance one may secure. This clinic is being held during the week of September 26th. As we can handle only a limited number of consultations and treatments per day, we must insist that appointments be made in advance, and suggest that you make them early as our time is being well-filled.

May I again call your attention to the fact that these services are without cost to you as a courtesy of this office and that the services of Dr. Daly will be available only during the week of September 26th.

Motorists Urged To Drive Carefully

With the opening of the schools in Lamesa the chances of accidents are increased many fold. Motorists are urged to use every precaution when driving in the vicinity of the school grounds.

Lamesa has been very fortunate in past years in the small number of accidents to school children resulting from automobile accidents. This is largely attributed to the fact that local officers and motorists have used every precaution possible to prevent such accidents.

The thought behind this article is, that it may cause some one to think, who otherwise might drive a little too fast or a little too recklessly around the schools and either cripple some little boy or girl, or kill them. There is no one who drives an automobile, who are intentionally reckless, but so many motorists are prone to drive at an unoccupied with their thoughts to the extent that they do not seriously think. Just give the matter a little thought and you will readily agree that the matter is well worth while.

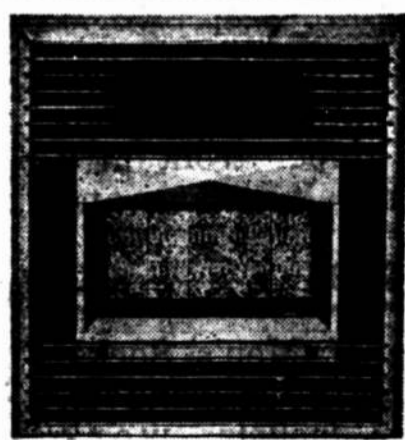

With the cooperation of the motorists and the students in this safety campaign, it will be possible for Lamesa to go through another school term without a single accident.

To the students of both grade and high schools, a warning is also issued that they be as careful as possible in their going to and from school. There has been a tendency on the part of high school students during past years to spread out across the street when they started home to the extent that at times it has been almost impossible for the motorists to get through. For their own safety, the students are urged to use the sidewalks and if they do walk in the streets, to walk near the curb and leave the center of the street open for motor traffic.

FARM NOTES

Trench silo filling continues to be a popular program for some of the farmers of the county who are building up a reserve feed supply against a short crop. As one man made this statement about his silo recently filled, it is sure protection against fire, sand, weevil damage and rotting. Joe Snellgrove of O. K. filled one with about one hundred ninety tons of mixture of Milo, Hegari and cane off the surplus of rented acres. W. J. Beckham completed filling his one hundred and sixty ton silo with Milo and Hegari. H. L. and L. J. Hohn have each filled silos with one hundred and fifty tons of mixtures of Hegari and Milo.

J. E. Towns and Joe Green have completed filling their silo with Milo and Hegari. The tonnage has not been announced. Curtis White, A. D. Brown of Ackery have completed their silos and they will probably have them filled by the time this article is printed. Cecil Cole and J. E. Caudle of Fairview are planning to cut the cane off the retired land and put in stacks or ricks after being cut with an ensilage cutter. This will come within the regulations of the farm program so long as the cane is not actually put in an upright or an under growing silo. This will give them a reserve feed supply that will be much better than the cane placed in stacks after binding. It seems that these men are looking forward to a dry year and they will be protected against damage by weevils, sand, fire, and rotting due to wet weather in case it should be a rainy winter or Spring.

THE SPOTLESS TABLECLOTH
GLADYS WRIGHT
FSA Home Supervisor

Just as foods have their seasons, so do food stains on tablecloths and the napkins.

Early September is an especially trying season for the homemaker, who has managed to squeeze washday in between the back-to-school rush and the now-or-never end of the canning season—only to find daubs of peach stain and splatterings of ginger ale, grape juice punch on her best linen table cloth.

So in consideration for hundreds of home makers faced with similar hectic washdays throughout the country, we're going to give a few hints on how to keep table linen spotless by simple, home methods. These hints are for white washable napers, including that made from cotton and rayon as well as from fibers of the flax plant.

Foods now causing the most trouble as a result of accidents at table drinks including ginger ale and whole array of popular carbonated beverages, grape juice, iced tea, coffee and chocolate; ice cream and frozen desserts of all kinds; and salad oil and salad dressing.

Chances of completely removing a stain are at their best if you begin work immediately, before the spot has had time to dry. By all means do the spotting before laundering. Merely smoothing the surface with a hot iron, often sets a stain so it is difficult to budge.

Brush or scrape off as much of the spilled food as possible. Use the simplest methods first. Sponging with clear, cool, water often looses the stain, and it practically never does any harm. Work with patience and care. Often the way in which the cleaning is done is as important in final results as the cleaning materials used.

For quick and efficient removal of spots on napers you will need three types of cleaning agents, in addition to the usual laundry supplies. You should have a good bleach, and materials for absorbing and dissolving various stains.

A bleach is the substance which comes nearest to guaranteeing final spotlessness in removing stains from white, washable materials. Sodium perborate is one of the best of bleaches because it works slowly and gently. It will not injure white cotton, linen, rayon, or even silk. Other good bleaches which are quicker and more vigorous in their action are oxalic acid and Javelle water. Oxalic acid has the disadvantages of being harmful to some materials and poison to human beings. Javelle water, and other similar chlorine bleaches commonly sold under trade names, are potent and very rapid in their action, and must be used with caution. Read and follow directions when using bleaches—or your table linen may age before its time.

Good absorbents to use on stains are chalk, white talcum powder, cornstarch, and corn meal. Absorbents act like blotting paper in taking up much of the staining material, and are especially useful for stains of a fatty nature.

A solvent of some kind, to dissolve the staining material, is almost indispensable in cleaning. Plain water will do the trick with sugars and starches. Carbon tetrachloride is invaluable for taking out grease and oil stains. It's the only common grease solvent which is non-inflammable. Glycerine is best for dissolving tannin, which causes so much of the trouble with fruit stains.

To use a solvent, place the cloth, stain side down, against folds of soft clean cloth or clean white blotting paper. Apply the solvent with a piece of cheesecloth or a sponge. Thus the soil is forced down from the surface instead of being drawn up through the material.

Here are some hints for removing certain stains:
Peach, Pear or Plum Stain. These stains are tricky because of the high tannin content of these fruits. Tannin seems to develop color where no color was and to darken and change it if hot, soapy water or a hot iron strikes it. Heat and alkali change the colorless tannin to a rusty brown substance which clings tenaciously to the fabric.

Once thoroughly set it is almost impossible to eradicate the rusty brown of a tannin stain.
Soak the peach, pear or plum stain in warm glycerine. Alcohol may be used but it is inflammable. Rinse out the glycerine and if some of the stain still remains, follow the schoolboy motto of "try again", with a second application of glycerine. If traces still persist, use a sodium perborate bleach. Dissolve two or three teaspoons of the bleach in a cup of water and soak the stained spot in the solution. With sodium perborate it's not in the least dangerous to allow plenty of time for the brown to dissolve. Rinse again, before laundering in plenty of hot water and soap.

Ginger Ale and Beer, Tea and Coffee Stains (if not without cream) can be removed in the same manner as peach stain.

Grape Juice and Fresh Berry Stains. Stretch the stained area over a bowl and hold in place with a rubber band. Pour boiling water onto the spot from a height of three or four feet. If any of the stain remains, try rubbing the spot and pouring on boiling water alternately. If there are still traces, use sodium perborate or Javelle water.

Raspberry or Fresh Berry Ice. Follow the same steps as for fresh berry juice stains.

Tea and Coffee Stains, if very fresh and without cream, may be removed like berry stains. This method should be applied only while the stain is still moist.

Coffee or Tea with Cream. Sponge with carbon tetrachloride. Dry, carbon "tet" dries very quickly. Sponge lightly with cold water. Then pour boiling water from a height as for grape or berry stains.

Chocolate Milkshakes and Cocoa. Chocolate Ice Cream. Milk contains albumin, which is dissolved by cool water and set by heat. In addition both chocolate and ice cream contain fat. First sponge with carbon tetrachloride. Dry, and apply a little cool water. Then use a generous dose of soap suds over the stained area, before laundering.

French Salad Dressing. Soak up as much oil as possible with white talcum powder, cornstarch, or corn meal. It may be helpful to loosen the stain with carbon tetrachloride or some other fat solvent. Take care, if you're using one that's inflammable.

For very small grease spots on very large, otherwise spotless tablecloths, try applying a paste made of carbon tetrachloride and cornstarch or some other absorbent. Allow paste to stand on the grease spot several hours or overnight. The carbon "tet" will dissolve the fat and the cornstarch will soak it up. When the paste has dried the cornstarch can be brushed off easily and the spot had disappeared as if by magic. Better still, laundering of this tablecloth can be postponed until it has seen more service—or until some cooler day.

For very large oil stains, such as an upset jug or French dressing, souse the stained area in carbon tetrachloride before laundering. Rub plenty of soap suds into the spot before it goes into the tub.

Mayonnaise. For mayonnaise and cooked salad dressings containing egg, first sponge out the protein or albumin of the egg in cold water. Dry. Sponge with carbon tetrachloride. Dry, and sponge again with cold water.

Egg. Scrape off as much as possible and rub between the hands to loosen and shake out more particles. Sponge with cold water before laundering. For a fried egg, it may be necessary to use carbon tetrachloride also.

Here are a few don'ts for removing spots:

Don't delay action. Start now. See the job through.

Don't press tablecloth that may have food stains. Remove spots before laundering.

Don't start with a strong, concentrated bleach.

Don't tackle egg, milk, meat, gravy or other albumin stains with hot water.

Don't forget to use glycerine to remove tannin.

Don't give up too soon. Impatience never took out a spot.

MIDWAY H. D. CLUB REPORT

Learn to do by doing, said Miss Mattie Phenix, when the Midway Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. A. S. Riddle in a flower arrangement, August 15. Avoid mixing too many kinds of flowers unless they harmonize in color. Your flowers should be 1-2 times the height of container uneven lengths and odd numbers are more pleasing to look at. Small containers of flowers for dining table, a taller one for living room most always. The foliage on flowers is much prettier than other foliage. Cut flowers should be put in fresh water and the end of the stem cut every day.

Never put a big flower in a small container. Cut a few with long stems and arrange them so they will be pleasing to look at in side the house. Mrs. A. S. Riddle and Mrs. C. W. Shafer entertained the club with a flower party. Refreshments of salad, potato chips and smacks and punch were served to the members and visitors.

MIDWAY H. D. CLUB NOTICE

S.C.S Notes

One of the big factors in the control of insects is the preservation of wildlife. The wildlife in this section is limited due to food and shelter. During certain seasons of the year, food and shelter is very limited and the extent of wildlife is governed by these adverse seasons. Practically the only shelter available for such wildlife as the quail and dove is the mesquite and sage brush. As these are not present on the agricultural area there is very little offered by way of wildlife shelter.

A varied cropping system provides a variety of food and shelter. The close growing crops provide nesting places, while corn and sorghum are used for concealment. A good cropping system provides a diversity of cover and a greater range for wildlife.

Strip-cropping is a measure which provides more interspersed of food and shelter than any other farming practices. This practice tends to make an even dispersal of field nesting birds and allows them to range over the entire field.

Border planting offer considerable possibilities for wildlife. This provides a marginal habitat for the species that prefer to nest near the outer margins of fields. The bob white quail and pheasant are especially benefited by this practice as about 80 per cent of the pheasants nest within fifty feet of the field edge. Sorghum border plantings are especially fine when few rows are left unharvested, since they provide shelter, concealment and an adequate food supply for winter months.

Water conservation on ranges result in good grass which furnishes nesting sites for insect and weed eating birds; while sock ponds and reservoirs provide nesting sites for waterfowl and are used by many species for resting and feeding. Herba ceons and woody plants provide a wide variety of food and shelter. Wildlife often concentrates around these watering places and range along brush gullies.

The practice of supplemental feeding of livestock furnish an important source for winter feed for wildlife. Large covies of blue quails concentrate around feed lots and together with the mourning dove and many other small birds bather scattered grain. The development of emergency shelter adjacent to these areas is an excellent practice.

Due to the dry weather it is evident that the crops will be a little short of our first estimate. This will also result in an early harvest which will give the farmer more time to terrace in preparation for a better yield next year. As the equipment and personnel of the SCS is limited those who plan to terrace or contour should get in touch with the service at an early date.

While contour tillage is sufficient to handle the normal rainfall on the sandy type of soil, most of the land in this section needs terraces to support the contour system. Terraces will greatly increase the control of run off during summer and fall when the surface of the fields are smoother.

CCC Enrollees Are Taught Safety Ways

Perhaps everyone is familiar with the actual work accomplished by CCC enrollees under the supervision of the SCS, both from observation and news items on different phases of the work, but two important factors in the program are the Safety of the Enrollees and Education and Job Instruction that they receive while in the service.

As a result of the Safety measures used the Lamesa Camp has used Enrollees 72,520 man days without any serious accidents. The Enrollees as well as the SCS personell are kept Safety conscious by a safety meeting every week. They are taught first aid and safety measures and every precaution is taken to prevent injuries or accidents of any nature. In addition to the safety measures every truck is equipped with a complete first aid kit, which is available at all times in case of an accident. There is also a pocket first aid kit and a snake bit kit with every crew. These kits are checked daily and any unit that has been used is replaced making it 100 per cent efficient at all times. The Enrollees are required to wear leggings in the field as a precaution against snake and insect bite. Any injury of any nature is given immediate first aid and the injury is reported to both the SCS and army officials and is checked by the army doctor or assistant daily.

The trucks are operated by competent drivers which are selected from the Enrollees after they have taken a safety driving course, a written test and actual driving tests under supervision of some of the SCS personell. All traffic regulations are closely followed as well as many other regulations that pertain to safety. Trucks carrying enrollees are never driven over 25 miles per hour and are inspected by the driver, mechanic and mechanic helpers daily. They are inspected weekly by the entire SCS personell and at intervals by a regional inspector.

WELCH H. D. CLUB REPORT

"Milk houses at the windmill and milk coolers aren't only good for keeping milk and butter, but they will also keep vegetables for a while," said Miss Mattie Phenix, home demonstration agent, to the Welch Home Demonstration club Wednesday, Sept. 7, in the home of Mrs. Fannie Martin, with Mrs. Johnnie Martin being hostess. Milk houses are about the cheapest way of refrigerating food and next to that are the milk coolers. Examine the ice box good before you buy. First see that the shelves are at least five inches apart and that it has good strong shelves. The coolest part of the refrigerator is where the air comes first after it leaves the ice, and that is where your meats, milk and butter should be kept, then next vegetables, and fruits. Glass containers are the ideal for storing food in the ice box.

Eleven members and two visitors, Mrs. Fannie Martin and Mrs. Bill Meeks attended this meeting.
