Casualties Climb To New Record

SAIGON (AP) — More American and Communist troops were killed last week than ever before in the Vietnam war, U.S. military headquarters announced today.

The United States lost 274 dead and the Communists 2,774, the American command said.

While the Communist death toll set a record for the second straight week, the U.S. total exceeded a record of 240 that had stood since the battle of the Ia Drang Valley in November 1965.

Although the ground war has been relatively quiet for the past few days, the casualty summary for last week emphasized the growing intensity of the struggle in Vietnam. Many of the casualties were suffered in one of the war's deadliest one-day battles, on March 21, in which a crack Viet Cong regiment lost more than 600 dead in the jungles of Tay Ninh Province.

The deadly pace of the war continued Wednesday with 50 Viet Cong reported killed by South Korean soldiers sweeping the central coast and scattered actions dotting the countryside.

U.S. pilots smashed at targets in North Vietnam with 108 missions, including strikes on a storage complex 27 miles northeast of Hanoi. In the south, rockets from a U.S. Army helicopter on a firing mission fell short, killed three civilians, wounded 20 others and destroyed 31 huts in a government-controlled village 35 miles southeast of Quang Ngai.

The weekly casualty summary reported 1,320 Americans were wounded last week, the third highest total of the war, and 12 were missing.

The casualty figures also reflect the increasing use by the Communists of mortars rockets and recoilless rifles — relatively long-range weapons which they now generally favor in an attempt to escape the massive and growing U.S. firepower. U.S. officers say the Communists have apparently decided to wage a war of attrition for the time being.

Despite record losses for two weeks, the U.S. estimate of total Communist troop strength increased by 1,000 men last week and 4,000 the week before, to a total of 287,000. This indicated continued heavy infiltration from North Vietnam despite the U.S. bombing and successful local recruiting of guerrillas.

American troop strength dropped for the first time in the war, being reported at 425,000.

This was 2,000 less than the total force reported the week before, but the U.S. command said it was the result of an "administrative shuffle" and had no significance.

Antipoverty Funds Vanish

NEW YORK (AP) — A city report said today that hundreds of thousands of dollars had vanished and could not be traced in the nation's largest antipoverty program, a two-year, $13.4-million effort in Harlem.

The report was issued without comment today by New York City's top fiscal officer, Comptroller Mario A. Procaccino. It covers operations of HARYOU-Act, the Harlem antipoverty agency, from July 1, 1964, through June 30, 1966.

Some highlights of the report:

HARYOU-Act still owes commercial creditors at least $600,000 but finished the period with less than $39,000 in unspent cash.

More than $700,000 went for "miscellaneous and unclassified" expenses, much of this difficult to trace.

Equipment purchased for the controversial Black Arts Theater, which preached a hate-white theme to youth in the streets, has not been recovered. The cash value could not be determined. This entire program was carried out despite failure to get federal approval.

Stanton Eyes Water Pact

BIG SPRING — The Stanton city council is due to talk over a contract with the Colorado River Municipal Water District at its Tuesday meeting.

Representatives of the council, headed by Mayor S. W. Wheeler, conferred in Big Spring Wednesday with O. H. Ivie, general manager of the CRMWD. There appeared to be general agreement over the form of contract, which will come back to the district board for final action should it be approved by Stanton. Even if the council concurs Stanton voters would have to authorize the contract.

Stanton officials have been in contact with fiscal agents concerning means of financing the cost of a pipeline to the CRMWD main supply line, plus a filter plant to handle the water from Lake J. B. Thomas.

Both parties have talked in terms of a maximum of 2,000,000 gallons per day, which exceeds the projectsion on Stanton's requirements for the next 20 years.

Senators Approve Weekend Closing

AUSTIN (AP) — Sen. A. R. Schwartz, Galveston, insisted he could still be talking today against a bill changing the weekend closing law but he wasn't, and the bill was ready for Gov. John Connally to sign.

Schwartz was apparently in his prime on a filibuster Wednesday night when he loosed a final furious blast at Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, snuffed out one last cigarette and sat down, finished for the day at 8:33 p.m.

Senators quickly and overwhelmingly defeated, 23-6, the amendment on which Schwartz had tied up the Senate and, on voice vote, finally approved the House-passed bill which removes the emergency provision from the Saturday-Sunday closing law.

That provision has enabled customers to buy certain articles on either day if they sign a certificate saying the sale is an emergency.

Voting against the bill were Schwartz and Sens. Jack Strong, Longview; Oscar Mauzy, Dallas; J. P. Word, Meridian, Ralph Hall, Rockwall, and Jim Bates, Edinburg.

Staring at the press table, Schwartz shouted: "I want to be absolutely certain Mr. President, the honorable lieutenant governor, Preston Smith, gets full credit for this bill...for denying 11,000 Seventh Day Adventists and 200,000-300,000 Texans a chance to be heard, for being able not to abide by their religions and the God-given right to buy on Sunday, to go to church on Sunday or go to hell on Sunday if they want to."

Schwartz charged last week, when he first delayed a vote on the bill, and Wednesday that Smith had headed off possible amendments to the bill and cut off debate.

WAGE-HOUR LAW

Court To Issue Restraint Order

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — A three-judge federal court said today it would extend a temporary restraining order prohibiting the federal government from enforcing some provisions of the wage and hour law until a decision is rendered on their constitutionality.

The court, asked to limit federal power over states, took the case under advisement Wednesday.

At issue is whether the 1966 amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act are permitted under the federal-state system.

The judges acted after hearing Charles Donahue, U.S. solicitor for labor, warn against trying to "fashion a new law out of whole cloth."

"It may not be the path of wisdom," Donahue said, "to issue a blanket rule on a variety of structures existing in so many states."

Donahue said it is a case for the U.S. Supreme Court to decide.

Atty. Gen. Francis B. Burch of Maryland initiated the suit against the law, which requires minimum wages for employes of schools, hospitals, nursing homes and institutions for the mentally or physically handicapped. The facilities may be public or private.

The law, effective Feb. 1, 1967, required a minimum hourly wage for those employes of $1.15 in the first year, $1.30 in the second, $1.45 in the third and $1.60 in the fourth. It would affect some 1.4 million public employes.

Maryland obtained on Jan. 27 the temporary restraining order delaying its enforcement.

Maryland and Texas, arguing Wednesday in behalf of 26 states which are parties to the suit, asked the court to draw a line against federal encroachment on states' rights.

Little Lass Takes Unscheduled Ride

NEWBERG, Ore. (AP) — Sixteen-month-old Nancy Pederson knocked the emergency brake loose on her family's car while it was parked on their inclined driveway but she turned the steering wheel so it rolled into the front lawn instead of a busy street.

"See the car go,!" said Nancy who emerged unhurt.

Nineteen Killed By Cartwheeling Liner

NEW ORLEANS, La., (AP) — A cartwheeling Delta Air Lines DC8 jet exploded into the rear of a luxury motel opposite New Orleans International Airport early today, killing 19 persons including 10 high school students from Juda, Wis.

The big jet was on a training flight. It carried five pilots and a federal inspector. All died in the flaming crash at the Hilton Inn.

The students were on a senior class outing, part of a group of 32 from Juda High School who had been at the motel since Monday and were scheduled to leave today.

The bodies of nine of the students — all girls — were found huddled together in charred bathrooms of the motel. They had turned on the showers in a futile attempt to escape the holocaust.

The body of a boy student was found outside the building.

The jet fell as it was banking sharply to return to the landing strip. It struck two houses, peeled off the top of a truck and began cartwheeling, spewing fuel and blistering the area.

It blew apart when it smashed into a rear corner of the rectangular shaped multimillion-dollar motel. Wreckage was scattered for a hundred yards. The nose of the craft was imbedded in the structure.

The motel erupted in fierce flames after the jet struck. Numerous rooms were destroyed or damaged. At least 10 persons were treated for injuries at a New Orleans hospital.

The surviving students, many hysterical or in a daze, were placed under sedation by doctors. Some wore bermuda shorts, others were dressed in blankets. Tour leaders were busy informing relatives in Juda, a village of 300 persons in Wisconsin's dairy country of the tragedy.

Police Capt. Marvin Leonard said the plane "spewed a sea of fuel right to those rooms where those eight kids were staying. That's what killed them. Not the impact from the wreckage.

"There were eight girls in four rooms. You could see where they took refuge in the shower stalls. One girl even took her purse with her.

"They turned on the water, but it didn't do them any good."

Most guests fled the fiery scene in panic, many in their nightclothes. Some charred rooms were inaccessible for hours because of the heat.

"We saw a real bright light," said Doug Baer, 16, of Park Forest, Ill. "I opened the door and saw all those flames. We just ran. There was a series of explosions and breaking glass. The girls were hysterical, screaming and some throwing up."

The plane — the oldest DC8 in use by the airline — had been airborne only nine minutes before the crash occurred. It had arrived shortly before with passengers from Chicago. The night was balmy with a nearly full moon.

"It sounded like a giant whoof," said one witness. "The plane was covered in flames like a ball of fire."

The jet smashed two houses before striking the motel. Wreckage of the plane was scattered in small pieces over a wide area. The largest single part visible was an engine cowling resting on the railroad track.

Rockies Get Cold Rain, Heavy Snow

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Strong winds slashed much of the western half of the nation today as cold rain and heavy wet snow fell in the Rocky Mountains.

Wet snow piled up to 8 inches in parts of Utah and Arizona Wednesday and falls of 1 to 3 inches were common as far north as Montana.

Stockmen's warnings were in effect today for western Colorado, western and northern Wyoming and northwestern North Dakota. Cattlemen were warned the wet snow and rain would spread to all of North Dakota and most of South Dakota by tonight. Livestock warnings also were up for north central Nebraska. Locally heavy snow still fell in the mountains from western Colorado to western Montana.

Hazardous drivers' warnings continued for the mountains of western Wyoming and travelers' warnings were posted for the mountains of western Colorado and eastern Utah.

The Weather Bureau forecast frost or freezing temperatures for north central and northeast Arizona for today and for northeast and north central New Mexico tonight.

In advance of the wintry weather, southerly winds carried unseasonably warm air northward from the Gulf states across the midwest and the great plains. Temperatures soared to the record - breaking 80s as far north as the Black Hills of South Dakota Wednesday.

In the Great Plains, south winds kicked up dust from West Texas to the Dakotas. Gusts up to 61 miles an hour were clocked at Salinta, Kan.

Skies were clear across the Southland and the eastern states from the Gulf Coast to New England.

Son Helps Daddy Out Of Doghouse

OSAKIS, Minn. (AP) — When Ted Lano built a doghouse for his family's pet, Sporty, he discovered he had forgotten to cut an outer entrance. Lano then cramped into the tight space to cut it and got wedged into the doghouse. His family had to help him out. Lano's 13-year-old son, Jerry, finished the cutting job.

Labor Disputes Effect Wide Area

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Labor disputes throughout the country came to a head today as a strike against national television and radio networks continued and walkouts affecting New York newspapers and several dozen railroads were threatened.

Meanwhile in the fight of the National Farmers Organization to force milk prices up — technically not a strike but having much the same impact as a strike — interest centered today on Des Moines, Iowa, site of a hearing today on a government antitrust action against the NFO.

And with a trucking industry money offer of undisclosed size reported on the bargaining table, a meeting of several hundred officials of the Teamsters Union was set up in Washington to decide whether to authorize a strike when their national contract expires at midnight Friday.

The union has said key lines would be the target of any walkout, with no plans for a nationwide stoppage.

There were these developments:

Most members of the 18,000-member American Federation of Television and Radio Artists were in the second day of a strike against the networks — first national walkout in AFTRA's 30-year-old history. Directly affected were only about 100 newscasters, but most of the rest of AFTRA's members, including some of the biggest news and entertainment names in TV and radio, multiplied the impact by staying off the job also.

Contracts between five New York papers and 10 unions expire at midnight tonight. Though the unions varied in their willingness to strike, a spokesman for a union "unity council" said a strike is "as likely as not." If it came, the strike would be the city's fifth in less than four years.

The Order of Railroad Conductors and Brakemen with 18,500 members set 12:01 a.m. Saturday for a strike deadline in their dispute over health and welfare benefits with 60 or 70 railroads.

Patrolman Makes Unexpected Catch

VICTORIA, Tex. (AP)—Highway patrolmen set up a roadblock for routine checking of drivers' licenses—and snared a car packing five pounds of heroin, estimated to be worth up to $5 million in the underworld market.

Officers said they found the heroin Wednesday night in a vehicle driven by Roman Samaniego, about 30, from San Diego, Tex., and Houston.

They charged him with illegal possession of narcotics and Justice of the Peace Alfred C. Baass set Samaniego's bond at $10,000. He remained in custody today.

Mrs. Samaniego was in the car with her husband. She was released after being questioned.

Write-In Candidate Seeks Position On School Board

There will be one name on the ballot who is not a candidate any more, and one avowed candidate whose name will be missing from the ballot in the Snyder School Board election Saturday.

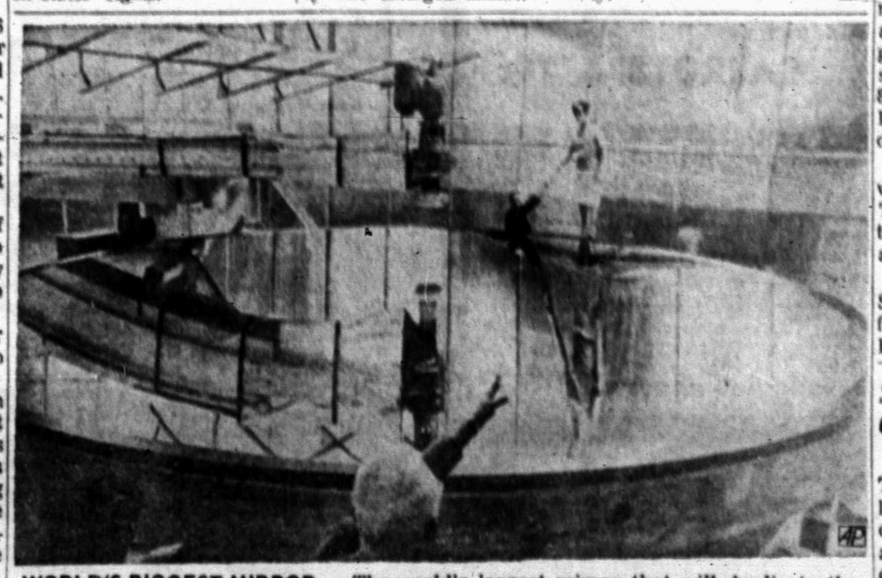

Darrell Sims announced this morning that he had decided to seek support as a write-in candidate for the board. Sims, who lives at 3111 Thirty - eighth Place, farms and works in the ASCS office here. A former teacher, he also served on the school board at Fluvanna in 1961-62.

The name of Wesley Graves will appear on the ballot, but he announced several days ago that he was withdrawing from the race. His decision to withdraw came after ballots had been printed. Sims said he had been encouraged to become a write - in candidate following Graves' withdrawal.

Other candidates in the race to fill two positions on the board are O. K. Fletcher, Curtis C. Grant, Eugene Glasscock, Harold Lacik and Max von Roeder.

Von Roeder, now serving by appointment in one of the posts up for election this year, is seeking his first full term on the board. All others in the race are running for the first time.

Clifford C. Terry, who now holds the other post up for election, is not a candidate.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I would like to volunteer for jury duty as I have lots of time on my hands and I think I have as much sense as the next person.

I wouldn't care to sit thru anything boring, but I would be willing to give my time for something worthwhile, like a murder, rape or kidnapping trial.

How can I get on such a jury?

"PATRIOTIC"

DEAR "PATRIOTIC": Sorry, but as far as I know there is no way to get on a jury with assurance that the cases will be "worthwhile" according to your yardstick.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: A couple of years ago you had a letter in your column from a girl who signed herself "TOO NICE." Then you ran another letter right after it, signed "NOT SORRY," from a girl who said she was "nice" and it paid off.

If you can locate those two letters, please run them again as they would be perfect for discussion period in our Teen Girls Club. Thank you.

DOTTY D. IN WATERLOO, IA.

DEAR DOTTY: I have "located" them — and here they are:

DEAR ABBY: No offense to you, personally, but you're nuts! I agree with that girl who signed herself, "TOO NICE." She's right. If a girl is too nice she sits home. It's the fast girls who are popular. I am only 16 and I know from experience that the only reason a boy asks you out is for one thing, and if he doesn't get it, you don't see him again. That's no lie, either.

When you said, "If a girl has to fight with a boy to keep his hands off her, she must have led him on," you were wrong. She can be sitting next to him, doing nothing, and he will almost attack her. Since January I have had to break up with three boys because they all tried to go to far. But I'll stay nice because I have my self-respect. But so far it hasn't got me anywhere.

"TOO NICE," TOO

DEAR TOO NICE: Another "nice" girl had this to say on the subject:

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I am 28 and have just completed my freshman year at college. I want to tell all those girls who wonder if boys really like a sweet, old fashioned girl what I learned from experience: Don't be shocked if even the best boys try. After I painstakingly explained my views on the matter of morals, many more dates and fine friendships resulted.

Some jokingly called me prudish and mid-Victorian, but I was elected to a position of high honor by the student body. There were times when I actually pitied the girls who allowed boys liberties, thinking it would increase their popularity. (I have a brother, and boys talk.) The girls who parked with boys on dark roads at night were ignored by the same boys in broad daylight. Keep telling young girls that it pays to be nice, Abby. I am, and I am—

NOT SORRY

Brenham Fire Brings Probe For Arson

BRENHAM, Tex. (AP) — The possibility of arson was being investigated today in a fire that destroyed the business of a member of the Washington County Grand Jury which is investigating an alleged bawdy house.

The Chappell Hill Electric Co. of Chappell Hill, 10 miles east of here, was destroyed by fire Tuesday night. Damages were estimated at near $15,000.

The firm is owned by C. M. Hurst who said he had received two telephone calls threatening harm to him and members of his family unless the grand jury ended its investigation.

Late Wednesday, County Judge Otis Thomachefsky signed an order committing the 32-year-old Hurst to a state mental hospital. The 90-day commitment order also was signed by two physicians, one of whom said Hurst suffered from "depressive psychosis."

Hurst said Texas Rangers had advised him not to discuss the fire with newsmen.

The cause of the fire was not immediately determined. Citizens who moved a truck from in front of the building said the fire had a strong odor of gasoline. Marvin Haviescher, Washington County fireman, said a back door of the building was open.

An arson investigator from the state fire marshal's office in Austin arrived in Chappell Hill and sifted through the smoldering remains of the fire late Wednesday.

The grand jury met Tuesday despite telephone threats to school officials that the schools would be blown up. However, there were no incidents.

Attendance at the schools Tuesday were about 50 per cent but attendance Wednesday was 78 per cent. School officials said 96 per cent is the normal attendance.

The schools are under 24 hour police guard.

Fires Are Put Out

City Firemen put out two grass fires Wednesday.

The first call was out on the Lubbock Highway about 6 p.m., and the second one was on the Lamesa Highway about 30 minutes later.

Haskins Says No To Pros

DALLAS (AP) — The coach the Dallas Chaparrals wanted to inaugurate their start in professional basketball has turned them down.

Chaparrals operational manager Max Williams said Wednesday night that Don Haskins decided to remain at the University of Texas-El Paso, where his team won the national collegiate title last year.

Williams said the Chaparrals offered Haskins a two to three-year contract at an annual salary of more than $20,000.

Haskins told Williams that with a salary increase at the El Paso school and a television program he did not feel he could leave, the Dallas manager said.

Coaches Cone Gibson of Texas Tech and Abe Lemons of Oklahoma City also were being considered for the Dallas job. Gibson met with club officials last week and said he could not reach an agreement with them. Williams said the Chaparrals would be in touch with Gibson again.

FOR ANOTHER TOURNAMENT

Baseball Nine Goes To Eunice

For the second week in a row, the Snyder High School baseball team will be entered in a tournament. Last week, the Bengals of Coach Speedy Moffett reached the finals of the Andrews tournament. This week, they will be at Eunice, New Mexico.

The action begins today with Hobbs tangling with Lamesa at 6 p.m. and Eunice taking on Lovington at 8 p.m.

Carlsbad, N. M. clashes with Andrews at 8 p.m. Friday, and Snyder tests Monahans at 8 p. m. Friday.

Games in the winner's bracket are on tap for 12 o'clock noon, and 2 p.m. Saturday with the battle for third place set for 6:15 p.m. and the finals on the agenda for [illegible].

Loser's bracket clashes are slated for 8 a.m., 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Saturday. These three tilts will be five-inning affairs.

Coach Moffett said he was pleased with the performance of the team last Friday night when they waxed Dumas. He said they played faultless ball and hit their peak for the season. Later performances Saturday didn't quite measure up to the sterling tilt Friday.

Coach Moffett said Roy Hunter would take the hill for the Tigers in the opener Friday night against Monahans.

He listed probable starters, according to batting order, as follows: Richey Thompson or Larry Wadzeck 3b, Max Moreland rf, Mickey Almond 1b, David Cadena lf, Buddy Powell cf, Dink Foree c, Steve Moffett 2b, Terry Holt ss, and Roy Hunter p.

Owls, 'Horns Sock Midwest

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rice and Texas posted identical scores of 7-0 in beating a pair of usually strong Midwest baseball teams Wednesday. At the same time Baylor and Texas A&M lost in other non-conference games.

Rice made the most of seven hits while righthander Mickey Holder tossed a three-hitter as the Owls defeated Oklahoma State, last year's Big Eight Conference champion.

The Longhorns broke open a scoreless pitching duel between Gary Gressett of Texas and Lance Primis of Wisconsin with four runs in the seventh inning and three more in the eighth.

Texas A&M, with only one of its runs earned, lost 8-5 to Missouri, also of the Big Eight Conference, and Abilene Christian ralled for six runs in the sixth inning and defeated Baylor 8-1.

Doug Nicholson and Frank Mandola, who are participating in both baseball and spring football drills, hit two-run homers for Rice, which won its 13th game in 15 starts.

Holder struck out eight Oklahoma State batters and walked none.

Gressett, a lefthander, yielded doubles in the first and third innings and singles in the sixth and ninth to the Big Ten Conference team as Texas brought its record to 8-6.

Back-to-back home runs by Missouri's Larry Ryan and Rudy Stroupe in the eighth frame overcame Texas A&M's 5-2 lead. Ryan's blow came with two runners on base. Stroupe, who committed four errors leading to Aggie runs, scored the winning run although the Tigers added two more in the ninth.

Snyder was timed at 42.8 in the sprint relay while Abilene High was recorded at 42.4. San Angelo has toured the oval in 42.9 while Abilene Woodson has a 43.5 to its credit.

You can cook a steak in a Gas Infra-Red broiler before the ice melts.

Put an ice cube on a steak and put the steak in a gas infra-red broiler. The steak will be done before the ice cube melts. That's because gas infra-red broiling is so fast...up to 30% faster than ordinary broiling! And it's smokeless, just like all gas broiling. The flame inside eats up the smoke. And you broil with the broiler door closed with gas. Your kitchen stays cooler and cleaner. See the modern, automatic, economical gas ranges now on sale at gas appliance dealers and LONE STAR GAS.

GOING THROUGH A ROUGH NEIGHBORHOOD!

South Viet's Moves Show Solid Step To Democracy

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — "There wasn't a dry eye in the place."

Those are the words of one of President Johnson's aides. The place was Guam where the President, surrounded by his top advisors, met with South Vietnam's Premier Nguyen Cao Ky.

And this was the occasion: Ky handed the President an embossed copy of South Vietnam's new constitution which Saigon's constituent assembly, after working on it since September, had just approved so Ky could take it to Guam.

If the Americans were moved to tears it was because this constitution was the first solid step toward a democratic society by a people who had endured endless centuries of domination by Chinese, mandarins, emperors, and the colonialist rench.

The same Johnson aide said that before Ky left Saigon he had worked four days and nights to get the constitution through the assembly. Election of a president and a new assembly will follow in a few months.

"The Americans were fatigued by their long journey to Guam," the aide said, "but Ky should have been exhausted. He wasn't. He was very self-confident." Newsmen who watched and heard him at Guam can testify to that.

Ky asserted himself at Guam — to such an extent that he took the headlines away from Johnson — and has continued to do so since, which may have a significant effect on the war and American relations with South Vietnam.

In the past week some prominent South Vietnamese have expressed great hope for the future, believing a popularly-supported, established government will take the starch out of the Viet Cong and induce North Vietnam to talk peace.

They were realistic enough to believe that just achieving a democratic government is not enough — to prove it can endure will take a little time and until then American help will continue to be needed.

At a news conference in Guam Ky called for broadening and intensifying the war against North Vietnam. He blasted those American critics of Johnson and the war who call for an end to bombing the North and for a coalition government in South Vietnam to include the present enemy, the Viet Cong.

Ky said: "It's now our turn to say something. We are not going to accept communism in South Vietnam and nobody is going to be able to impose communism on us. We will never accept a coalition with Communists."

But the self-confidence didn't first show itself at Guam. When Johnson last February ordered a bombing pause over the Vietnamese lunar new year, hoping this might persuade North Vietnam to make a peace move, nothing happened.

It will probably go down as a futile American gesture. But one significant thing, perhaps overlooked, did happen in connection with the lunar pause.

Ky's South Vietnamese government by then had reached a point of such self-confidence that in a surprise move it offered to discuss with North Vietnam a much longer pause in the bombing. North Vietnam did not accept.

Still later, immediately after the Guam meeting, South Vietnam's chief of state, Nguyen Van Thieu, announced his government had proposed a peace meeting with the North, saying that if they were ready, "We are ready."

This apparently was part of South Vietnam's reply — which wasn't made public until this week — to the three-step peace proposal made by U Thant, secretary-general of the United Nations.

Thant had suggested, in this order a stand-by truce in Vietnam, then preliminary talks before an international conference, then the conference. South Vietnam's foreign minister, Tran Van Do said his country had agreed "in principle" with Thant's suggestion.

Now You Can Rent A Moustache

By NADEANE WALKER

LONDON (AP) — False moustaches for men may soon be as common as false eyelashes for women if the sell-out success of a Chelsea shop is any indication.

You'll have to get up early in the morning if you want to buy one, though. Every day Simon Shop gets a fresh supply they're sold out in about two hours.

Admittedly, the shop can only get about 20 at a time, for the wig men who make moustaches of real hair (no joke shop stuff, this) weren't geared for the unexpected demand. They only turned out a few for film stars and actors, and never dreamed that a wider market existed.

Then Simon Boyle, 26, got the bright idea of putting a few on sale along with his mod gear for men.

The idea was a sleeper, according to Simon. "It first occurred to me two years ago, after I made a false moustache for George Harrison." His beatle friend has since grown his own lip adornment, but at that time he just wanted to disguise himself so he could have a quiet holiday in France without the screaming fans and thickets of autograph books.

Simon made the moustache, George wore it, and nobody knew one of the Beatles was in Paris.

Simon didn't do anything about it until two weeks ago, when he brought a few to his shop as a gimmick. They sold, a Sunday paper mentioned it, and the rush was on. Along with eager customers, stacks of mail orders poured in.

"It's fantastic" says Simon, still looking a bit dazed. "I reckon it may not last more than a few months though."

He could be wrong, according to the barbers. The big attraction, aside from the faddy one, is that the stick-on moustaches don't need the daily trim and grooming the real thing requires. A lot of men who had a secret yen to adorn their upper lip found it too much bother.

The mod moustache of the moment is the "Viva Zapata," a droopy Mexican villian style that a lot of young fashionables affect. But there are 34 other styles available, including everything from the Hitler toothbrush to the Clark Gable hairline, the Salvadore Dali twister and the RAF bristler.

They cost from $4.20, for timid mini-models, to $7 for flourishing "Viva Zapatas," and come on a transparent nylon net backing that is glued to the lip with spirit gum. They are far more convincing then false eyelashes, too.

"Some fellows buy them just to wear for parties," Simon says, "just for a laugh, like."

But the pretty young lady assistant in his shop says that her best customers are not the long-haired youths.

"You'd be surprised, but mostly it's conventional middle-aged men who come in to ask for false moustaches. We cut a lock of their hair to get an exact color match."

There seems little hope that moustaches are about to oust the long-hair fad. However, long hair, beard and moustache are considered too much. When fashionable hairdresser Michael decided to wear a "Viva Zapata," he sacrificed his beard.

Junior Editors Quiz on ICEBERGS

QUESTION: How are Atlantic Icebergs formed?

• • •

ANSWER: Glaciers, which are slow moving rivers of ice, work their way down to sea on the west coast of Greenland (look up this location in an atlas). As they reach the water, enormous chunks of ice break off with a mighty, thundering sound (upper left). These splash into the water and float away with only one-seventh of their mass above the surface. Our artist has shown us what they look like as they float down with the Arctic Current, which runs between Greenland and the coast of Labrador. He drew this picture from sketches he himself made while cruising along the Labrador coast in a small sailing vessel. Here are three bergs, looking dazzling white against the immense black cliffs of Labrador. Hollows in the ice may appear brilliantly blue or green. Thousands of sea birds often settle on them. The pounding of the surf has worn the berg in front into the fantastic mushroom shape. The icebergs finally float out to sea and are melted by the warmer water of the Atlantic Ocean.

American Sales Gain

DALLAS — The Dallas Zone of American Motors today reported that its retail sales in the second 10 days of March were 48.5 percent higher than in the comparable period of February.

Wm. F. Dunlop, Zone Manager, also said that sales in the first 20 days of the month almost matched those of a year ago — 404 compared with 409 — in the face of an industry decline.

Dunlop said that Rambler American sales have almost doubled since its new prices and market position were announced in February.

He said that the Company's national sales also were higher, rising to 6,125 in the second 10 days of March, compared with 5,469 in the preceding period.

The Dallas Zone serves American Motors - Rambler dealers in Northern Texas, Southern Oklahoma and Southern New Mexico.

Other specialized training included small unit tactics, map reading, land mine, warfare, communications, and firing the M-14 rifle, M-60 machine gun and 3.5-inch rocket launcher.

His wife Ovida, lives at 108 N. Twenty-fourth Street., Lamesa.

Illness Linked To Emotions

NEW YORK (AP) — Can problems of living in the 1960s really cause an acute surgical emergency such as a perforated duodenal ulcer?

Can guilt feelings produce sore throats?

Can warts be removed by psychotherapy?

Dr. Heinz E. Lehmann professor of psychiatry at McGill University, posed these questions Wednesday at a symposium on the emotional basis of illness. He then presented samplings of controlled research studies that added up to "yes" to all his questions.

"In view of the mounting evidence inside and outside the pute that erearedemon-t dis i dispute that there are demonstrable links between human emotions and physiological illness," Lehmann said. He added that the mechanisms involved in this link are not yet clearly understood.

At the symposium some bleak statistics were presented by Dr. Augustus Gibson:

Two-thirds of all Americans go to their family doctors today for ailments that have emotional rather than physical basis.

One-third of the hospital beds in the United States are devoted to the care of the mentally ill.

At any one time about one person in twenty in this country is suffering from some serious mental or nervous disorder; one in ten will at some time be hospitalized for mental illness.

Co-Op Sets New Rates

According to James Hull, Manager of Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative in Colorado City a new all electric home rate will go into effect April 1, 1967.

The new all electric rate, approved by the rate division of Rural Electrification Administration and the Board of Directors of Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative, will lower the old rate from a low step of 1.75 cents to 1.25 cents for all KWH used over 700 KWH.

This all electric rate was designed especially for homes on Lone Wolf Electric system that are totally dependent on electricity for energy. Homes that are not all electric will not qualify for the new rate.

According to Hull, this is a big step forward for Lone Wold Electric Cooperative because it offers a greater opportunity to its members to save money on their continuous usage of electricity.

All existing homes on Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative system that are all electric will be automatically transferred to the new rate on April 1.

Persons wishing to convert to all electric living can receive special help in planning and also receive special wiring allowances from Lone Wolf Electric.

Also, for those persons who are almost totally electric, this new rate along with special incentives could very well make it worthwhile to consider all electric living.

TV Strike Talks Begin Saturday

NEW YORK (AP) — "Good night, David. Good night, Chet," is a casualty of the television-radio strike as Huntley talked but Brinkley didn't.

The familiar coast to coast television signoff was conspicuously absent Wednesday night as Chet Huntley, defying a strike by the 3,000-member American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, went it alone on his evening news report for the National Broadcasting Co.

David Brinkley, the other half of the NBC news team, stayed away from his microphone in Washington. He refused to cross a picket line.

There appeared to be little likelihood of a settlement before Saturday when union officials and executives of NBC, CBS, ABC and the Mutual Broadcasting System meet in Washington at the offices of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

The strike over wages and commercial fees, the first national one in AFTRA's 30-year history, was called at 5 a.m. Wednesday in behalf of about 100 local on-the-air newscasters whose minimums currently exceed $11,000 a year. Most network stars, some of whose salaries range upward from the $100,000 level, supported the strike, as members of AFTRA even though they had reached an agreement last January.

Frank McGee, another NBC television and radio newsman well-known for his description of U.S. space shots, also defied the picket lines and broadcast his regular 4 p.m. radio newscast Wednesday.

But missing from the TV screens were other well-known newscasters such as Walter Cronkite of the Columbia Broadcasting System and Peter Jennings of the American Broadcasting Co.

Cronkite was replaced by Arnold Zenker, CBS program administration manager. Jennings was replaced by David Griffin, an ABC producer in the special events unit.

NBC newscaster Bill Ryan used his picket sign for support to sign autographs outside the RCA building in Rockefeller Plaza where he marched with strikers.

With executives and supervisors filling in for television personalities, the strike did not appear to have significantly affected programs on the first day Wednesday.

Huntley apparently changed his mind about going on the air. Earlier in the day, NBC had said that the Huntley-Brinkley show would not go on. The news report is divided between Huntley in New York and Brinkley in Washington. They havee been a team for more than 10 years.

In the early Southwest, all wagon tracks led to Santa Fe, founded in 1609 by the Spanish as the capital of New Mexico.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Dr. Eric Barham says the preadult, a 9-inch fish he photographed at a depth of 400 feet off the Baja California peninsula, "is the largest post-larval flatfish that anyone knows about." He added, "it is a biological curiosity. It points out that there are organisms now living in the ocean that we haven't seen or caught in our nets."

Suit Is Filed In Milk Controversy

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National Farmers Organization, faced with a federal antitrust suit, has accused the Johnson administration of trying to stop farmers from bargaining for fair prices for their products.

The Justice Department filed a civil suit Wednesday in U.S. District Court in Des Moines, Iowa, charging the NFO with using coercion in attempting to monopolize the interstate sale of milk in 19 states.

Judge Roy L. Stephenson said he would hear arguments today on the possibility of issuing a restraining order against the NFO, which since March 15 has sought to withhold milk from market in the hope of forcing the price paid to farmers up by 2 cents a quart. Most farmers now receive 8 to 10 cents a quart.

While federal suit did not challenge the milk withholding by NFO members, it did accuse the farm group of forcing nonmember farmers, truckers and processors to cooperate with them.

The court action seeks an order forbidding the NFO from trying to monopolize the sale of milk by illegal means and from threatening nonNFO members.

The response from NFO President Oren Lee Staley was an attack on the Johnson administration for what Staley called a campaign to deny farmers the right to bargain for fair prices.

He added that his group has no intention of ceasing its milk withholding, but would obey a court order.

It was the first time since the holdout started that Staley has openly brought politics into the dispue.

The suit was filed at about the same time the NFO was announcing a switch in its tactics.

Until now, the NFO has attempted to keep milk off the market in 25 states by dumping it. The new plan, called phase two, will put grade A and grade B milk into storage in the form of cheese, butter and powdered milk.

Staley did not say how many processing plants were cooperating in the plan.

NFO activity in the 25-state holding area was spotty.

The farm group in Nashville, Tenn., acting in concert with two labor unions, has signed a contract with milk processors ending a six-day ban on deliveries. The contract, affecting the Middle Tennessee marketing area, ties any potential price increase to price movement in the Louisville, Ky., area.

Nashville NFO leaders Wednesday night appealed to Kentucky farmers to seek the help of organized labor in stopping the flow of milk to market.

Elsewhere, picketing continued at many processing plants and there were a few reports of violence, including rock throwing in Nashville.

A 17-year-old boy working at a dairy near Falmouth, Ky., was wounded in the arm by shots fired at a milk truck.

Ruby Family Won't Contest Old Will

DALLAS (AP) — Lawyers for the family of Jack Ruby have dropped attempts to probate an unsigned will Wednesday and agreed not to contest a 1950 Ruby will.

A third will filed by a former deputy sheriff remained under contest by the Ruby family. Attorneys for the man, Norman Hooten, indicated they will attempt to have the will probated as a second will or codicil to the 1950 will.

Probate Court Judge Ted Z. Robertson scheduled a hearing on the wills to begin at 9 a.m. June 6.

Heads Administrators

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — James A. Norton, president of the greater Cleveland (Ohio) Association Foundation, has been named president-elect for 1968 of the American Society of Public Administrators.

Connally To Tell Story

AUSTIN (AP(— Gov. John Connally says he has had a "great number" of offers from publishers who want to print his account of the assassination of President Kennedy, an event in which he was deeply involved.

But he said it would be inappropriate to say now which publishing houses have shown interest in the work.

"I don't know yet what form the account will take. I don't know if it will be a book, a pamphlet, a thesis or just what... To everyone who has asked I have told them I don't have the time now to make those judgments," he told a news conference.

He said he has "spent a lot of time on preparatory work," which he later said meant "research."

The governor was seriously wounded riding in the same car with Kennedy when the president was shot to death. He said several months ago he planned to write his own account because of what he called distortions in William Manchester's report of the assassination.
