Eagles Get Tough, Win Playoff Spot vs. Iraan

The O'Donnell Eagles soundly beat favored Seagraves 27-0 last Friday night and in the process managed to get into position to continue the football season into the playoffs.

O'Donnell will play in the first round of the playoffs in Division II against Iraan, who, like O'Donnell, is 5-5 for the season. The game will start at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at Grande Communications Stadium in Midland.

Unbeaten Sundown won the district, and Seagraves had lost only to Sundown all year, but with Justin Ramirez rushing for 200 yards and scoring all four touchdowns, the Eagles of O'Donnell dominated the Eagles of Seagraves, throwing the second place in district into a three-way tie, as O'Donnell, Morton and Seagraves then had 3-2 district marks.

Second and third place teams get into the playoffs, and a coin flip left Morton out and the two teams of Eagles in the playoffs.

Martinez scored on runs of 22, 11 and 17 yards, after taking an 8-yard scoring pass in the first quarter. Trevor Halfmann kicked three extra points.

Coach Kevin Sherrill's Eagles held Seagraves to just four first downs and 83 total yards.

O'Donnell Raid Nets Drugs, Two Suspects

Law enforcement officers from several jurisdictions aided O'Donnell Police Dept. Saturday night in a raid of a home on Loop 76, arresting two persons inside the home on drug charges and seizing a quantity of drugs.

Arrested at the home in the 1300-block of Loop 76 were Rogelio Perales, 28, and Stefanie Torres, 27. Both were charged with possession of marijuana and manufacture and delivery of a controlled substance over 4 grams and less than 200 grams, and with endangerment of a child.

Taking part in the raid were O'Donnell Police, Tahoka Police, Tahoka ISD Police, Lynn County Sheriff's Department, and the Dept. of Public Safety.

Sheriff's officers last week also investigated an aggravated assault charge reported by a 25-year-old Wilson man who was taken by Lynn County EMS ambulance to Lynn County Hospital, where he was treated for a facial cut. The investigation is continuing.

Three persons indicted by recent 106th District grand jury have been arrested. They are Lenis Ann Vasquez, 36, of Odessa, charged with possession of marijuana; Jessica Mendez, 26, of Tye, indicted for failure to appear; and Jose Sergio Amador-Nunez, 21, of Amarillo, charged with tampering with a government record.

Tahoka Police arrested a 23-year-old Tahoka man for assault/family violence, a 55-year-old Hereford woman on a theft warrant, and a 21-year-old Tahoka man on six outstanding municipal warrants.

Police also were advised by Max (See POLICE, page 4)

ON OCT. 8, 1871, what later became known as "The Great Chicago Fire" leveled three and a half square miles, left 98,500 persons homeless and 250 dead. However, there was a greater tragedy that same day in the U.S., with many more people killed, and most people probably never even heard of it.

I never heard of it, either, until I read last week that on that very day, a fire in Peshtigo, Wisconsin, destroyed the town and killed 1,100 people.

This just goes to show how the public back then (and now, too) put more emphasis on property than on human life.

I remember seeing a post-WW II cartoon by Bill Mauldin showing a car smashed up against a tree and in the background, ambulances were loading bodies. The onlookers were all standing around looking at the car instead of at the ambulances, and one person was saying to another, "What a shame! A brand new model!"

Anyway, the loss of 98,000 Chicago homes (admittedly a tragedy) obviously was a bigger story than 1,100 people getting killed in Wisconsin.

I hope Nancy Pelosi doesn't read this. She will try to figure out a way to blame both events on George Bush.

I READ RECENTLY about a woman somewhere in the country who was fined because she was cursing her toilet so loud that it bothered the neighbors. The woman with the potty mouth problem was very upset because her toilet was overflowing.

I felt prompted to write my periodic column complaining about toilets which won't work properly, just because some pea-brain somewhere about a quarter of a century ago managed to get a law passed which restricts the capacity of the water closets in residences so that you have to flush them at least twice, and often more than that. The idiot who got a law passed which is supposed to conserve water just fixed it so that a lot more water has to be used.

There is one toilet at my office, installed more than 25 years ago, which flushes every time because it holds more water. But most toilets I am familiar with don't work that well.

I remember the toilet on a cruise ship we were on about 10 years ago. It had some kind of vacuum pump on it, and it worked great. You just didn't want to be standing too close when you pulled the lever, or you might never be seen again.

TV winner ... Joan Gardner (left) won the TV from Higginbotham Lumber Co., represented here by E'Lise Vest, in the Lynn County News annual football contest. Her name was drawn from among all football contest entries in the 10-week contest period.

County Holidays, Sales Tax, Courthouse Project Discussed

Lynn County Commissioners met Monday morning, approving a list of county holidays for 2008 and discussing the possibility of placing a one-half cent sales tax referendum in the November 2008 general election. A teleconference with the architecture firm for the courthouse restoration/renovation project was also held.

Commissioners approved placing the referendum on the ballot, for a County Assistance District Sales Tax of one-half cent, which could be used only in funding economic development programs, including the construction, maintenance or improvement of roads or highways, the provision of law enforcement and detention services, the maintenance of improvement of libraries, museums, parks, or other recreational facilities, the provision of services that benefit the public welfare, or the promotion of economic development and tourism. The county must hold an election to confirm the creation of the district and imposition of the sales tax.

The county already imposes a one-half cent sales tax that supplements county property tax rates, that was implemented in 2006. The County Assistance District sales tax would be separate from the one-half cent sales tax already in place.

County holidays were approved for 2008, including Jan. 1, New Year's Day; Feb. 18, President's Day; March 21, Good Friday; May 26, Memorial Day; July 4, Independence Day; Sept. 1, Labor Day; Oct. 13, Columbus Day; Nov. 11, Veteran's Day; Nov. 27-28, Thanksgiving; and Dec. 24-26, Christmas.

Approval was given for Precinct 4 to purchase a new motor grader, trading in an older model for a difference of $44,000. Charles Smith presented a plat for The Palms at Kitty Hawk subdivision in Lynn County, which commissioners approved upon the county attorney's approval of the plat. A new county employee handbook was also approved.

Commissioners Don Blair, Brad Hammonds, Mike Braddock and the recently-sworn in Pct. 1 commissioner Keith Wied, and County Judge H.G. Franklin, had a teleconference with the architecture firm Komatsu, the firm the county has engaged for the courthouse renovation/restoration grant project. Komatsu had submitted an optional emergency funding request for the electrical wiring at the courthouse, which has been causing some problems in recent months. After much discussion the consensus of the court was to not submit for the emergency funding and to go ahead as previously decided and submit for the Texas Historic Courthouse Preservation Program Round V Estimated Project Budget.

Also discussed at the teleconference was the demolition of the old jail in the southeast corner of the square, which can be done by the county to count as an in-kind contribution toward the county's matching funds for the courthouse renovation grant. The closure of the road separating the square from the Memorial triangle was also discussed, involving closing the road, and demolishing the street, curbs, and gutters, which would also count toward an in-kind contribution for the county match.

The court also discussed the possibility of using grant monies from the Homeland Securities Grant toward the security of the courthouse. Komatsu stated the request would be sent on Nov. 14 and would send a receipt to the county when the Texas Historic Courthouse Preservation received the request.

Monthly bills were approved, and the meeting adjourned at 12:15 p.m.

Band Sweetheart and Beau ... Marissa Villegas and Ernest Gomez were named Band Sweetheart and Band Beau for the Tahoka High School 3-D Band. They are both seniors.

Britt Wuensche (#34) and Brandon Tomlinson are caught in action here, but by half-time Tomlinson was also sidelined with an injury, leaving Wuensche the only senior playing in the final game.

They also were advised by Billy Barnett of Tahoka that some tools had been stolen from toolboxes in a garage on Ave. J. And on Saturday a clerk at Allsup's turned over to police a plastic baggie of white substance found behind a trash can in the store. It tested positive for cocaine.

There were no injuries in a collision on a parking lot Tuesday in Tahoka. Involved in the minor collision were a United Parcel Service truck driven by Pedro Maldonado, 54, of Lubbock, and a 2005 Nissan Altima driven by Pedro Antonio DeLeon, 22, of Tahoka.

In October dispatchers at the sheriff's department answered 281 calls, including 94 for Tahoka Police, 134 for the sheriff's office, 21 fire calls, 21 ambulance calls and 11 calls for O'Donnell Police Dept.

Delci Willis Named AASP&RC Queen

Delci Willis, 19, was named the 2008 Queen of the American Association of Sheriff's Poses & Riding Clubs (AASP&RC) on Oct. 20 at the association's state convention in Abilene. The daughter of Doyle and Donna Willis of Tahoka, she is a 2006 graduate of Tahoka High School. Currently she is attending South Plains College-Reese Center, studying for a degree in education.

As the state queen, Delci will represent AASP&RC in 70-90 appearances throughout the state of Texas in 2008. She won a $500 scholarship, a Coriente barrel racing saddle, a crown, belt buckle and sash, as well as the use of a two-horse slant-load trailer for a year. She will also be eligible to compete for Miss Rodeo Texas.

Delci is a lifelong member of riding clubs, becoming a member of the Lubbock Saddle Club at three months old along with her family, and has remained an active member. She won her first belt buckle at three years of age. She is an associate member of West Texas Raiders Riding Club, also of Lubbock. Both of these clubs belong in District 2 of Region I of the AASP&RC.

She competes in six Lubbock Saddle Club play days, six West Texas Raiders play days, and six District 2 play days each year.

DELCI WILLIS

Competitors who qualify in all eight events at the district level are then eligible to compete at the state level, called Play Day Finals - an event held every year during the second week of June in Bowie with approximately 250 riders and their families in attendance.

The Queen's contest began in May with contestants submitting applications. Candidates are chosen from among the applicants, and they participate in several events during Play Day Finals, including horsemanship competitions. During a dinner and dance event, each candidate is asked questions on the history, rules and general knowledge of the Association, as well as impromptu questions. Candidates are also judged by secret judges throughout the competition, judged on their sportsmanship, citizenship, overall attitude, public appearances and ability to follow directions/requests. They compete for a spot in the top ten in the 16-25 year age bracket for an award in the eight speed events.

At the annual convention in October, queen candidates are judged on appearance, personality and poise, and each presents a speech about the AASP&RC and answers impromptu questions. The Queen's Coronation and Installation of Officers concludes the event.

LEAH QUISENBERRY

Leah Quisenberry Wins Award For Poster Presentation

The Southwest Regional Meeting of the American Chemical Society was held in Lubbock on Tuesday, Nov. 6. Leah Quisenberry, daughter of David and Tammie Quisenberry of Post, was one of three students awarded the Outstanding Undergraduate Poster Award at the meeting.

Leah's presentation was entitled "Photocatalytic Inactivation of Bacteria in Water Using Titanium Dioxide," and displayed the results of her ongoing research for the Wayland Baptist University Chemistry Department. There were over 30 undergraduate posters presented from colleges and universities in the Southwest US. This award reflects on her experimental design, the quality of the results she generated, the clarity and aesthetics of her poster, and the professionalism with which she orally presented the poster to the judges during the two-hour poster session.

Leah's poster was one of four that were presented by the Wayland Chemistry Department. A senior at WBU, Leah's poster dealt with a research project she completed during a summer research program, dealing primarily with the process of using light to kill bacteria in water. Specifically, she used trial and error methods to determine which metals improve the reaction time of the purification process when used with titanium dioxide.

Leah is a member of the Student Affiliates Chapter of the American Chemical Society at Wayland Baptist University. She, along with fellow members of the society, will be presenting a Chemistry Magic Show to the fifth grade science students at Post Elementary School later this month.

She is the granddaughter of Mary Beth McKibben of Tahoka, and Jerry and Connie McKibben of Lubbock.

HEALTH NEWS FROM LYNN COUNTY HOSPITAL DISTRICT
by Joey Quintana, RN, DON • Jeanie Stone, EMT-I, EMS Director

Automated External Defibrillation

Sudden cardiac arrest, which occurs when the heart suddenly and unexpectedly stops working, kills approximately 250,000 Americans each year. During this emergency, the heart stops pumping blood effectively and instead flutters chaotically in the victim's chest. While cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) can keep oxygenated blood flowing to the body's vital organs, only an electric shock can help reset the heart to its normal rhythm and save the person's life. This electric shock is delivered by an Automated External Defibrillator, often referred to as an AED. Victims of sudden cardiac arrest die almost 95% of the time (in and out-of-hospital settings) because this life-saving electric shock must occur within the first few minutes of the event.

Automated External Defibrillators are available in places other than hospitals and ambulances and people are taught to use them when taking a CPR course. The American Heart Association (AHA) believes that as many as 50,000 lives could be saved each year if defibrillation were more widely performed as part of the "Chain of Survival," which represents the four crucial links of the emergency treatment of sudden cardiac arrest. The links are:

- Early recognition and access to care
- Early CPR
- Early Defibrillation
- Early Advanced Care (EMS)

The chains of survival are only as strong as its most critical link, which in most cases of cardiac arrest is early CPR and defibrillation. It is very important that more citizens be trained in CPR and that AEDs are made more accessible to the public. Airports, The United Spirit Arena, and The Science Spectrum are a few places in Lubbock where AEDs are available. Locally, there are AEDs at the LCHD Fitness Center, Tahoka ISD campuses, Lyntegar Business Office and Warehouse and Poka-Lambro Offices, north of Tahoka. All of these businesses are to be commended for taking steps to equip and train their employees with this life-saving device and LCHD encourages any other businesses or any other place in which a high volume of people visit such as churches, to consider adding an AED to your facility. The very life it saves may be your own.

In next week's column, we'll discuss how the AED is used and how anyone can use it with minimal training.

Sign Up For New Disaster Programs

Agriculture producers who suffered losses caused by natural disasters in 2005-2007 are reminded to sign up for three new ad hoc disaster programs, announced Rodney Schoppa, Executive Director for the Lynn County Farm Service Agency (FSA). Currently, applications are being accepted for the Livestock Compensation Program (LCP), Livestock Indemnity Program (LIP) and Crop Disaster Program (CDP).

Eligible ranchers and other livestock producers can apply to receive benefits through the Livestock Compensation Program (LCP) and Livestock Indemnity Program (LIP) - sign-up began Sept. 10, 2007. Sign-up for the Crop Disaster Program (CDP) began Oct. 15, 2007, and applies to farmers who suffered quantity losses to their crops. Sign-up end dates for these programs will be announced at a future date. USDA will also announce a sign-up for quality losses soon.

"Although ending dates for the sign-up periods have not yet been announced, it is important for producers to apply for benefits as soon as possible. Timely applications will ensure that producers receive timely payments," said Schoppa.

For more information on applying for FSA disaster assistance and to schedule an appointment, please call the Lynn County FSA at 806-998-4501.

Three Signup Dates Remain For Christmas Gifts

Only three signup dates remain for Lynn County parents who need help providing Christmas gifts for their children through the Lynn County "Christmas For Kids" program. All signups will be conducted in the basement courtroom of the Lynn County Courthouse.

Signup dates are: Saturday, Nov. 17, 10-11:30 a.m.; Tuesday, Nov. 20, 5-7 p.m.; and the final signup date is Saturday, Dec. 4, 10-11:30 a.m.

Wilson ISD Trustees Meet

The Wilson ISD School Board held their regular monthly meeting on Thursday, Nov. 8, at 7:00 p.m. in the Wilson school library. Trustee Casey Donald was not in attendance.

Trustees approved extending the business services contract with the Education Service Center-Region 17 to level 3 due to the retirement of long time business manager, Maxine Nolte; and approved a resolution for the ad valorem taxation of warehoused goods in transit, though none currently exist within the district boundaries. The board also discussed employee compensation, but took no action.

Routine action items were approved as presented. A public hearing was held to discuss the Ad Valorem Taxation of Goods in Transit. No one spoke during the public hearing. Superintendent Mike Jones presented the enrollment report showing the district enrollment above 150 students.

The following students were recognized as the students of the month for November. Skyler Clark-4th grade, son of Christy Clark, Sally Balderas-Junior High, daughter of Veronica Balderas, Ruben Balderas-High School, son of Adriana Balderas. Ms. Amber Sutton, Junior High math teacher, was selected as the employee of the month.

The next regular board meeting is scheduled for Thursday, December 13, at 7:00 p.m. in the Wilson school library.

Varsity Football

By Britt Wuensche

The football season is over for the Bulldogs, and the rounded up the season with a 35-6 loss to the Roosevelt Eagles on Nov. 9.

Big plays again haunted Tahoka. The Bulldogs defense struggled at times but did a pretty good job executing few long plays.

Britt Wuensche, starting at quarterback for the first time, threw for 83 yards on just two passes, one of which went to Antonio Baker for 65 yards and six points.

Britt Wuensche had two sacks, one tackle for a loss, and 7 solo tackles.

The Tahoka 7th grade football team ended the season with a bang, winning the last game 16-0 against Roosevelt.

This was the Bulldogs' first win of the season.

To start the game, the Bulldogs received the kickoff and returned it to Roosevelt territory. With a few good runs made by their newest player, Rudy Navarette, and some strong blocking they scored easily. By halftime the Bulldogs had a lead of 8-0.

With the defense playing well throughout the game the Bulldogs scored once again ending the game 16-0.

"We tackled better, blocked better, and basically played better," said Coach Harris. "We were really glad that the seventh grade could go out with a win."

"As a coach, it makes you proud to see these kids work so hard and have that hard work finally pay off. We were hoping for more wins this year, but that is the way the season sometimes goes. Coach Whitefield and I are proud of these kid's efforts and determination for the whole year. We kept telling them that if you work hard and have fun, it will eventually pay off. It did pay off this Thursday night," he said.

Lynn County FSA Reminds Voters Of County Committee Election

Rodney Schoppa, Executive Director for the Lynn County Farm Service Agency (FSA), reminds eligible voters that County Committee elections are underway. On Nov. 2, FSA mailed ballots to all eligible voters. Completed ballots must be postmarked by midnight on Dec. 3, 2007.

Nominees for the Lynn County Committee are Glen Brosch and Vicki Ashbrook. The elected person(s) will represent LAA 2 which is the eastern and northeastern part of the county.

"FSA County Committees make decisions on commodity loans and payments; allotments, yields, marketing quotas, eligibility for conservation programs as well as disaster assistance," said Schoppa. "This Committee is the producer's voice in making national programs fit local situations — representing the customers for the individuals USDA programs are designed to serve," he added.

Schoppa stressed that the FSA County Committee system will only work well if all of FSA's customers are actively involved in how the agency's programs are administered. FSA's County Committee system needs diverse representation — small and large farm/ranch operators, truck farmers, specialty crop producers, livestock producers and local businessmen and women.

Schoppa encourages all eligible voters to cast their ballots this year. He emphasized that if you are eligible to participate in FSA programs, you are eligible to vote and; if you are eligible to vote, you are eligible to serve on the County Committee.

"While we try to send ballots to all eligible voters, we may have missed one or two," said Schoppa. "Persons who believe they qualify to vote in this election, and did not receive a ballot should contact our office," he said.

"It is crucial that every eligible voter take part in this election because county committees are a direct link between the local agriculture community and the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The grassroots committees are comprised of and make decisions for producers and concerned citizens that live and work in the local community," said Schoppa.

For more information on County Committees and to determine voter eligibility, contact the Lynn County Farm Service Agency at 806-998-4501 or visit the national FSA Web Site at <http://www.fsa.usda.gov>.

USDA to Report Market Gains on IRS Form 1099-G

According to Rodney Schoppa, Executive Director for the Lynn County Farm Service Agency (FSA), producers who have repaid a market gain on a Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) loan with cash or commodity certificates in exchange for outstanding loan collateral will now have their market gains reported to the IRS on Form 1099-G. Similarly, beginning January 1, 2008, cotton producers who apply storage credit to the repayment of a CCC loan will also receive an IRS Form 1099-G from FSA.

"Due to changes in tax laws, FSA is now required to report to the IRS all market gains associated with the repayment of a CCC loan," said Schoppa.

A market gain is the difference between the repayment rate, determined by the CCC, and the original loan rate. If the repayment rate drops below the original loan rate then the difference is considered a market gain. Producers will receive, by mail, the amount reported by FSA to the IRS for market gains and storage credits on IRS Form 1099-G.

Producers who have questions about how reporting market gains will affect their taxes should contact a tax advisor or visit the IRS website on Repayment of Commodity Credit Corporation Loans at http://www.irs.gov/irb/2007-33_IRB/ar07.html.
