Eastland Echoes

By Casey

FOUGHT FOR TODAY: "When men are rightly occupied their amusement grows out of their work, as the color-petal out of a fruitful flower." — (Ruskin).

Eastland was signally honored in having in its midst over the week-end Chief Justice J. E. Hickman of the Supreme Court of Texas. Judge Hickman, one of the Southwest's most distinguished jurists, and Mrs. Hickman grew to love Eastland and its people, during the years when they lived here — and the happy recollections concerning Eastland, its people and its institutions will ever be green in their memories and cherished in their hearts, their friends were pleased to hear him say in his impressive address at the Layman's Day morning worship hour address Sunday.

And it indeed is a mutual affection. The community is indebted to Grady Pipkin and Judge M. S. Long for affording this opportunity to hear the justice, and the 9:49 Class engagement of the judge was arranged by Dist. Judge Turner Collier. Eastland is proud to have been the locale of a chapter in the life of the esteemed Austin jurist and is truly the gainer for the Hickmans' having resided in this community.

"Just think of it!" exclaimed the romantic young newlywed, "a few words mumbled over your head and you're married."

"Yes," agreed the cynic, "and a few words mumbled in your sleep and you're divorced." — (Cheer).

Ever take some unnecessary chance, with a car, while driving? Nearly everyone has, at some time or another. And don't you feel constrained to reprove yourself about it? Usually it's because of a feeling one must, hurry, hurry. Actually, though, we're seldom in as big a hurry as we think we are. (Continued on Page 2)

Clinic for Curbing Divorce Explained to Rotary By James

Already approved by the Eastland County Ministerial Association, a family clinic for dealing principally with the divorce problem was outlined by the Rev. H. Grady James of Cisco, pastor of the Presbyterian Church there and association president, when Eastland Rotary met Monday at the Connelley Hotel.

The Rev. Mr. James said that he had received considerable information on this project from Bliss Kelly, a newspaperman turned lawyer at Oklahoma City, who had instigated such a clinic there that has been operating successfully the past six years. The personnel is: A businessman, a lawyer, a minister and a doctor.

This plan of selecting the personnel was adopted, Mr. Bliss told him, because he had found that divorce usually is caused by these reasons: physical, financial, legal or spiritual.

The Rev. Mr. James said that he had gone over the situation with courthouse authorities in Eastland County and found that a third of the people who get married in this county later seek divorce, according to the present trend.

"It seems to me that a panel could be set up in each of the towns of Eastland, Cisco and Ranger," said the Rev. Mr. James, "and since it has been found that it is best for those who are divorced or considering divorce to consult with people who are strangers, if interested in reconciliation, this arrangement would work out satisfactorily."

The Rev. Harvey Kimbler, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Eastland, told the Ciscoan that he was convinced of the worth-while-ness of the plan "because although I have been here less than a year I have consulted with no fewer than a dozen couples about this very same problem—and a panel such as suggested could do better for them than I alone could, of course."

Jack Muirhead arranged the Monday program and, in his absence, Tom Wilson introduced the Rev. Mr. James.

Guests at the meeting included Highway Patrolman K. B. Hallmark of Wichita Falls, present to promote the candidacy of Syd Gaines of Wichita Falls for Rotary district governor, and Rotarian L. C. Davis of Cisco.

President Bernard Hanna, who presided over the meeting, announced that a Rotary information meeting for new members will be held at an early date.

Wylie Bulldogs Next Foe For Mavericks

By NORMAN WRIGHT

After squeaking by the Rising Star Wildcats 57-0 last week the Eastland High Mavericks have turned their loving attention to the Wylie Bulldogs for their third conference game of the season and another taffy-pull they should wrap up without too much trouble.

The game will be played over there Friday night and in case you've forgot where Wylie is you go to Abilene and turn south on the Buffalo Gap road and drive for about five miles and keep looking for a big consolidated school and that will be Wylie and if you don't understand this we don't either. We got it from Wendell Siebert.

Up to now Wylie has won only one game this year, defeating Gorman 19-12. They lost to Clyde last week 13-12 in a close game that speaks pretty well for Wylie since Clyde is one of the few teams this year that has been able to handle Cross Plains. Clyde and Cross Plains tied 13-13.

Of course, Cross Plains has swamped everything else on their schedule with the exception of Ranger who beat them 25-0 last week and in case you are interested in the statistics on that important contest, here they are:

As if Ranger didn't have enough already, they discovered a couple of players last week they didn't know they had. A lad named ed Tommy Sutton left a herd of Buffaloes scattered all over the field everytime he carried the ball from his fullback position, and a recent named Robert Watson, who didn't become eligible until two weeks ago displayed some pass-catching magic that hasn't been seen around here before.

Eastlander rooters who want to enjoy the Mavericks current winning streak had better get on over to Wylie Friday night because there will be weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth after this week. At the very best it will be a toss-up between Cross Plains and Eastland on November 11 with any advantage going to the Buffaloes because the game will be at home on the range in Cross Plains. The (shudder) Ranger game will be one of those things that should be attended by only those with stout hearts, and women and children should be barred.

Everybody enjoyed the Rising Star game and Eastland could have beat them 100-0 if Coach Shelton had so desired. Incidentally, the Telegram erred in reporting that game, Mike Manning was given credit for making only one touchdown when he actually made two. So many subs got into the game whose numbers didn't match with those on the program it was difficult to tell who was doing what in the latter stages of the game.

Mrs. B. Bacon Funeral Rites Are Conducted

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Hamner Funeral Chapel in Cisco for the late Mrs. Billy Bacon, 49, of Cisco, whose husband is office manager for Sig Faircloth at his livestock auction in Eastland.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Irvin Watson, pastor of the Cisco First Christian Church. Interment followed in Oakwood Cemetery.

Palbearers were announced as follows: Sig Faircloth and C. M. McCain of Eastland and A. J. Taylor, Dr. J. H. Denton, A. J. Sender and W. E. Kurkin of Cisco.

Mrs. Bacon was born in Breckenridge on June 27, 1906, and was married to Billy Bacon in Breckenridge on February 17, 1929. They moved to their Rt. 2 home in 1935.

James T. Wright, Chancellor Commander presided over the meeting. Short talks were made by Tom Lovelace Sr., Guy Robinson, and also Hugo Horstman who is in charge of the Pythian Home. Refreshments of pie, coffee, and Coca-Cola were served to approximately fifty members.

Kickoff Breakfast Sets Campaign For $6500 in Motion

Launched with kickoff breakfast Tuesday at the Methodist Church, Eastland's first United Fund general financial drive is aiming at a goal of $6,500.

Jack Frost, well-known attorney, was the principal inspirational speaker for the breakfast meeting, explaining the importance of the campaign and outlining the services performed by the agencies it presently sponsors — the "Y," the Salvation Army, the Red Cross, the Boy Scouts and the United Defense Fund.

John Goode is business area chairman and Mrs. Jack Frost is residential chairman. Chairman of the breakfast arrangements was Homer Smith.

Bob Perkins, general chairman for the campaign, stated that the drive is due to be completed by Saturday and suggested that anyone inadvertently missed in the solicitation turn in a contribution to Treasurer Charles Freyschlag or President Tom Wilson or himself.

"We intend to do our best to see everyone," he said, "but at that someone accidentally might be missed."

President Tom Wilson said, on behalf of the directorate, officers and directorate, that the fine spirit of co-operation by workers is deeply appreciated and that he anticipates generous giving to the fund.

Business area workers, announced by the captains, were listed today. The residential solicitors were announced previously. Downtown canvassers are to be:

County Beef Show Plans Being Made; Prizes Reach $500

The third annual Eastland County registered Beef Cattle Show to be held in Cisco next May will offer $500.00 in premiums to the owners of the prize winning animals. S. P. Crofts, prominent Angus breeder of Cisco and president of the group, said today.

It will be the first time that cash prizes have been awarded since the purebred show started in 1953. Only ribbons have been awarded in the past, President Crofts said.

The exact date in May for the show has not been set. It will be scheduled to coincide with the Ranch Day of the Cisco Junior College and the Cisco Fiesta and will be held in downtown Cisco instead of at the show barn on the Moran highway as in the (Continued on Page Six)

This News Will Drive Fishermen Off Their Rocker

Police Chief Ray Laney has a batch of news that will drive fishermen completely nuts. Yesterday he went with Field Representative Ball of the State Fish Hatchery Division and they engaged in some lake stocking.

At Ringling they put in 800 black big-mouth bass, 500 channel cats and 600 brim.

Earlier in the year Mr. Ball added to Lake Eastland's stock 2,000 channel cats and 11,000 bass. The cats were put in early in October, the bass in May.

Hickman In Methodist Church Talk Says Service Is Privilege

Justice J. E. Hickman of Supreme Court of Texas, Austin, formerly head of the 11th Circuit of Civil Appeals in Eastland, told the large morning worship hour congregation at the Eastland Methodist Church Sunday that "the most a person should ask of a community is an opportunity to be of service there."

Gallagher's Hole-In-1 Official Here

A. L. Gallagher last Thursday made the first official hole-in-one ever recorded at Lakeside Country Club in Eastland.

Gallagher was playing with Homer Williams and George Parrock and made the shot on No. 3, a 200-yard par hole. The shot was made into the wind with a No. 3 Iron.

calities and Breckenridge were represented in the gathering.

Judge Hickman was introduced by Virgil Seaberry, prominent Eastland attorney, who said:

"Today Judge Hickman belongs to all of Texas, holding the highest judicial office in our state."

Mr. Seaberry paid high tribute to the well-known jurist's service to his profession, to the public and to the church. The justice organized the "9:49" Class at the Methodist Church in Eastland 25 years ago and was its teacher for the five years the family lived here and Mr. Seaberry pointed out that he is still teaching in Sunday school — a men's class at the University Methodist Church at Austin.

Sunday on Layman's Day, an occasion when the pastor, the Rev. Richard R. Smith, was in a revival meeting in the Stephenville community. Mrs. Hickman responded to a request to "take a bow," to the gathering.

John Goode, prominent young layman, presided.

"The love of this fine church will always be in our hearts," said Justice Hickman. "Here we have worshipped with wonderful friends. We were given an opportunity to be of some service here—and no one should ask more of a community than that. We lived here during the depression years, a time when people turned to fundamentals. Halloween Benefits Here Are Profitable

Ghosts, goblins, witches, clowns and what - have - you were all present in great numbers to celebrate Halloween Monday night at the annual P-T-A carnival at the high school gymnasium.

A large crowd attended; and most adults ate supper at the carnival, to say nothing of the food consumed by the small fry and teenagers. The food booth boasted typical carnival cuisine—hot dogs, sandwiches, pie and cake.

And there were numerous other booths all decked out in the spirit of the evening, such as "The Country Store," "Spook House," "Fish Pond," "Grab Bar," "Hat Bar," booths where guests threw darts, tossed bean bags and threw dolls at dumbbells.

Each room for the two Ward schools was responsible for a booth.

Funds realized from the carnival, estimated this morning, will be about $275, after expenses are paid.

Back The United Fund

Today's the day when we put the united-way of giving to the test—for it's the opening of the general drive of the United Fund.

And it is the first time the U-F has been offered here. There's nothing new about it, the country over. Called variously, by three or four names (frequently Community Chest), it is a plan for rolling as many charitable campaigns into one as possible and practicable.

It is the smooth, systematic way to handle this vital community chore, and it cuts down on duplication of solicitation and consequent tremendous loss of man-power hours.

I have heard businessmen say, to this effect: "About all I seem to do is serve on soliciting committees." This, obviously, cures a lot of that, and it saves loss of time on the part of the prospects, too as a matter of fact.

So successful has it been that thousands upon thousands of cities and towns have adopted the plan.

Let's follow suit and GIVE THE UNITED WAY.

Publishers Fear Increasing News Print Costs

The Giant Canadian International Paper Co. announced last week that it was increasing newsprint prices by $4 a ton.

Previously St. Lawrence Corporation Ltd. and Abitibi Power Paper Co. Ltd. had announced $5 a ton increases.

Newspapers over the nation have felt that the increased costs will bring higher advertising and subscription rates in the near future.

Total cost of the newsprint increased to American dailies will be $32 million annually and is felt that the staggering sum is more than any newspaper in the country can absorb because the newspaper profit margin is the narrowest ever and growing even more narrow, forcing publishers to seek additional income.

ACCENT ON GRACE AND BEAUTY is this 1956 Oldsmobile "98" Deluxe Holiday coupe with new Starfire styling which will be presented Wednesday night, November 2 in a formal showing at Don Pierson Olds-Cadillac. The two-tone styling that Oldsmobile introduced to the industry in 1954 is refreshingly different in its 1956 version, with a body-long sweeping side moulding to provide the color separation. Front end treatment is brand new, incorporating a new airfoil grill, restyled bumper and new hood contour. The luxurious upholstery features bright new colors and fabrics. The "98" Deluxe Holiday coupe is powered by the sensational "Rocket" T-350 engine.

Safety Practices Should Begin At Home

"Many so-called model parents are far from model in setting a good example to their children in safety practices."

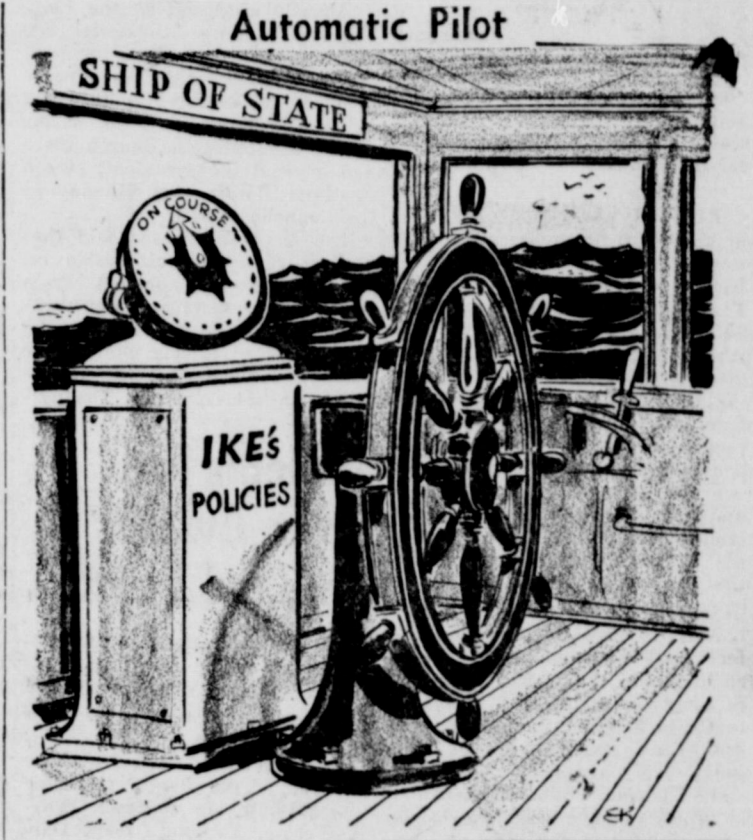

Mr. E. C. McFadden of Dallas, President of the Texas Safety Association, Inc., made that statement in behalf of the child safety program being sponsored by the Texas Safety Association, the Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council.

"Too often parents treat children as if they were deaf, dumb, and blind," he said. "They don't realize that children have keen minds and pick up their first habits, good and bad, from their parents. This is especially true of safety habits which are a responsibility of parents, and a grave responsibility which they are sometimes inclined to overlook."

"Safety begins at home," Mr. McFadden said, and parents should be sure they set good examples in their own safety practices for their children to follow. He asserted that parents themselves often are victims of their own carelessness, or are responsible for accidents to their children through failure to stress safety measures in their own behavior around children.

"How many fathers go through red lights, weave in and out of traffic and ignore other safe driving rules while their own children are riding with them?" he asked. "How many mothers jaywalk, beat lights, and disobey good safety precautions while accompanied by their children? Yet these parents scold their children for doing the same thing."

Mr. McFadden reminded parents that National Safety Council figures show that more than 4,000 children under 15 will die in traffic casualties this year unless these accidents are prevented by better safety education of children at home.

"It simply doesn't add up," he said. "If parents want to do right by their children, they must set a good example for their children."

Mr. McFadden outlined basic lessons in safety which parents should check themselves on before teaching them to their children.

"Be safe parents, he urged, and you'll have safe children."

Brother of Mrs. O. C. Warden Hurt In Accident

John Kimbrough, brother of Mrs. O. C. Warden of Ranger, was seriously injured last week when the car he was driving struck a Mississippi State Forestry truck 25 miles south of Jackson, Miss., Sunday.

Also injured, but not as seriously as Kimbrough, was Odell Turnage of Newton, Miss., who was a passenger in the car with Kimbrough.

Kimbrough was suffering from a broken arm and hip and five broken ribs. Doctors at Hazel Heart, where the two victims are hospitalized, said that Kimbrough showed slight improvement but that surgery would probably have to be performed on his hip. Turnage suffered a broken pelvis bone and a slight concussion.

BSP Meets For Pledge Ritual, Program Banquet, Reception

Meeting for their annual banquet and pledge ritual Saturday night at the Connelley Roof Garden, the Zeta Pi and Xi Alpha Zeta chapters of Beta Sigma Phi held a program followed by a reception to which their husbands were invited.

Mrs. Joe Sparks, vice president of Zeta Pi chapter, conducted the pledge ritual for six new members: Mmes. Steve Beard, A. L. Gallagher, Bill Sikes, Rufus Higgins, Les Strawn and Jerry C. Carter. Mrs. W. C. Moore was unable to attend the meeting and will receive her pledge later.

The roof garden was decorated in a Halloween theme featuring black cats, masks and pumpkins. Centering the long banquet tables were pumpkins and black candles surrounded in autumn leaves and persimmons. Between the pumpkins were small bowls of marigolds. The speakers' table bore a black bowl of yellow Talisman roses, the sorority flower.

The program for the banquet follows: invocation, Mrs. Larry Kinard; welcome, Mrs. Joe Sparks; response, Mrs. Steve Beard; music, Kalliope records, the instrument, at least 100 years old, having been bought in Germany by Mrs. George M. Daniel when she was there with her husband, Captain Daniel; a talk, Mrs. Art Johnson, sponsor.

Attending were 34 members of Beta Sigma Phi in Eastland and a former member of Xi Alpha Zeta chapter — Mrs. James Harkrider of Fort Worth.

Programs for the banquet were fashioned as a map of Texas, imprinted with the yellow rose of Texas, and favors were ceramic ashtrays bearing the Beta Sigma Phi emblem and three stars, designating Zeta Pi as a three-star chapter.

Mrs. Norman Guess and Mrs. Luther Wilson were in charge of decorating the hall, assisted by Mmes. Jack Horn, J. W. Eidson, James Hendricks of Cisco, Luther Wilson, Neil Hurt and George M. Daniel. Mrs. Joe Sparks and Mrs. Don Doyle were chairmen of the table decorations, assisted by Mmes. Bill Arther, Larry Kinard and J. C. Kuykendall. Mrs. R. M. Sneed and Mrs. P. S. Ervin were the music committee.

The Zeta Pi chapter served as hostesses to the Xi Alpha Zetas on this occasion.

AROUND the TOWN

By Fay

MR. and MRS. DUDLEY L. HOULE, who left their home here May 18 for their summer home at Sturgeon Bay, Wis., arrived at their home in Eastland the past weekend.

About a week before they came home they went to Minneapolis to visit their son, DR. BEN HOULE, who had an interesting experience while they were there.

Dr. Houle, a resident in surgery at the University of Minnesota Hospital, who has been chosen to do eight months research in heart surgery there, was privileged to assist, with DR. GIL CAMPBELL, the two famous heart surgeons, DR. LILLEHEI and DR. VARCO, in an unusual operation.

The Drs. Lillehei and Varco used the long of a dog to oxidize the blood of a child during a heart operation for the closure of an interventricular septal defect. The little girl's blood was pumped through the dog lung during the 4-hour operation. The girl had a hole as large as a half dollar in the inner wall of her heart.

Eventhough she was 7-years-old she weighed only 36 pounds. She was so thin and weak the doctors were fearful that she could not live through the operation but it was a last resort and when the Houles left she was still alive and showing improvement. It took two hours to prepare the lung (from the dead dog) for the operation.

The little girl's father paid $1500 for the operation; the doctors received $300, and $1200 went into the heart research fund.

Using the lung of a dog for this purpose was the idea of Dr. Gil Campbell with whom Dr. Houle works in his assignment on research in heart surgery.

Dr. Houle was graduated from Castle Heights Military School, TCU and Tufts Medical School, Boston.

He interned at the University of Minnesota and spent his first residency at the Veterans Hospital at Cincinnati. He is a first lieutenant in the Air Force and is to receive the rank of captain in March. He is to be at the University of Minnesota Hospital two more years.

DON PIERSON OLDS-CADILLAC will present to the people of Eastland County the new Cadillacs for 1956 on Wednesday, November 2 at a formal showing to be held Wednesday evening beginning at 6:00 o'clock. Pictured above is the new Sedan de Ville, Cadillac's four-door hardtop presented for the first time for 1956. It preserves the graceful Florentine window styling of two-door hardtops yet provides the roominess and four-door convenience of sedan models. Rear seat head and leg room in the Sedan de Ville is greater than in two-door hardtop models. The car features a new power train consisting of a new 285 horsepower engine and a "controlled coupling" Hydra-Matic transmission which is completely new in principal and mechanical parts.

CADILLAC for 1956

Top to bottom—Eldorado Seville, Sedan de Ville, Sixty Special

Presenting the Most Inspiring Motor Cars the World Has Ever Seen!

You are looking at three of the most magnificent and inspiring creations ever to issue from the drawing boards of Cadillac's designers and engineers.

These spectacular new Cadillacs—in company with the other Cadillac models for 1956—introduce a standard of excellence that will find no counterpart on the world's highways.

Where, for instance, could you find anything to match them for beauty and elegance? Their long, low, sweeping lines . . . their jewel-like grille and rear-fender designs . . . their brilliant new color combinations . . . their sparkling highlights of chrome and gold . . . all combine to create a beauty that is truly unique.

Where could you find anything to equal them in luxury? Their new interiors offer fabrics and leathers of rare richness and quality . . . together with features of comfort and convenience that will delight even the most experienced Cadillac owner.

And where could you find anything to rival them in performance? There's a completely redesigned Cadillac engine developing 285 and 305 horsepower . . . an entirely new, controlled-coupling Hydra-Matic Drive . . . advanced Cadillac Power Steering . . . and improved Cadillac Power Braking.

This extraordinary new beauty . . . and this brilliant new luxury . . . and this dynamic new performance . . . have been interpreted in four separate series and in nine individual body styles.

We sincerely urge you to stop in for a personal inspection and demonstration at your earliest convenience.

We know you will agree that these are the most inspiring Cadillacs of all time. And that, of course, means that they are the most inspiring motor cars the world has ever seen!

Tomorrow's Drivers May Surprise You

By Betty Skelton, Dodge Test Driver

Your teen-ager may well be a better driver than you—if he has had a high-school driver training course. He knows more about cars is more alert, and is less nervous at the wheel.

And here is a fact that will jolt a young man's pride:—Your Junior Miss is an even better driver than Junior. If you don't believe it, check the insurance rates.

When you first learned to drive, your father or a friend probably took you out on a wide thoroughfare and showed you how to shift gears. After a few stops and starts, you were "graduated" from your driving course. To state it more accurately, you were turned loose.

But not Junior. In his high school driver training course he is taught by a thoroughly trained instructor. He learns how his car operates, and how to take proper care of it. Experts teach him driving skills and traffic rules and regulations.

Learns Properly He avoids developing those bad driving habits you probably aren't aware you practice, because he learns proper methods from the start.

There's a big difference between your driving attitude, and Junior's. While you drive to work, you may plan your schedule for the day. You may decide what to buy Aunt Middy for her birthday while you drive to a shopping center. Your mind is on everything but driving. To you driving has become an automatic chore.

But for Junior driving is a real thrill. He concentrates on the exciting experience of cruising "his" mechanical marvel.

As a typical American youngster,

Junior loves cars. He understands what makes his car tick, because he has grown up in a mechanical age where automobiles are a necessity. He has been taught to respect the horsepower under the hood, and he's a better natural driver than you were when you were a kid.

Over-Confidence Dangerous

Drivers in that age group up to 25 have more accidents than they should, and pay higher auto insurance rates because of it. But their accidents happen when they reach the over-confident stage where driving has become automatic to them—as it is to most adults. (Only 3 per cent of last year's accidents were caused by motorists with a year or less of driving experience.) The high accident rate for under-25's is being whittled down. Every year more high schools throughout the nation are adopting driver training courses, whose skilled young graduates have 50 per cent fewer accidents than untrained drivers.

So, have a little faith in our new generation of drivers. Help them. Use your influence to establish a driver training class in your community. If your school already has a training course, make sure it is the best.

America's most famous woman driver, Miss Skelton holds the woman's automotive speed record of 143.44 mph, and is the only woman test driver in the automotive industry. Address any questions or suggestions about cars, safety, and driving problems to her in care of this newspaper.

Hermits Welcome Company and Coffee

MOST hermits hide away from the world. But these hermits love a crowd—and a crowd will love these Apple Hermits.

They're cookies, of course. Like traditional hermit cookies they are tangy with spices and old-fashioned molasses. Bits into them and taste plump raisins, crisp walnut meats. There's a special ingredient too, that makes these hermits-with-a-difference. Chopped apple gives them a touch of the unusual, a welcome change of pace.

In most states, coast to coast, it's apple time right now. Delicious McIntosh, Northern Spy, Ribbston Pippin, Jonathan—all these apples are ripe for the picking or the buying. Any variety of apple is the right kind for making Apple Hermits and you can serve Apple Hermits almost any time of the day. They answer the call for a mid-morning snack, an afternoon nibble, an after-dinner sweet. The same can be said of coffee, and hermits are especially friendly to this fragrant, heartwarming brew. A pot of fresh coffee and a plate of hermits seem to be made for each other.

When you have both of them on hand, it's practically certain you won't be alone for long!

Apple Hermits

1 cup seedless raisins
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1/2 cup molasses
2 eggs, unbeaten
3/4 cup sifted, enriched flour
1 teaspoon baking soda

3 teaspoons powdered cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon ground cloves
1/2 teaspoon grated nutmeg
1 cup broken walnut meats
1 cup finely chopped raw apples, peeled

Rinse raisins in hot water and drain on absorbent paper. Cream shortening with brown sugar until light and fluffy. Add molasses. Add unbeaten eggs one at a time, beating after each addition. Mix and sift flour, salt, baking soda and spices and add to molasses mixture. Mix lightly. Stir in walnuts, chopped apples and raisins. Mix well. Drop by spoonfuls on greased baking sheets. Bake in moderate oven, 350° F., 12 to 15 minutes. Makes 5 to 6 dozen.

Rangers Passes Whip Henderson County, 27-6

Held scoreless in the first quar-ter of play, the Ranger Junior Col-lege Rangers marched to one touchdown in the second quarter, two in the third and a final count-er in the fourth to crush Hender-son County Junior College, 27-6, Saturday night at Athens.

Expecting as much, the Rangers fought down a Henderson passing attack that saw 40 passes fill the airways.

Ranger, on the other hand, practically matched their season's pass total and at the same time taught the Athens crew a thing or two in passing magic as they com-pleted nine of 15 for three touch-downs and 157 yards to go with their 284 yards on the ground.

The Rangers recovered from their old nemesis—the fumble—in the second quarter after two drives were ended at the five and an-other at the seven yard line in the Henderson end of the field in the first quarter by the costly bobbles.

J. D. Hansen, hurdle man who began suiting out with the Rangers three weeks ago, scored the first Ranger touchdown on a seven yard gallop that ended a 55 yard scor-ing march.

Early in the third frame, the Rangers counted on their first scoring pass play of the night with Quarterback Lonnie Wood doing the pitching and Jim Mangum re-cieving 18 yards away in the end zone. The same two added a 30 yard pass play earlier and Half-back Sherman Adeock helped with a 30-yard jaunt to set up the score.

On the first play following Henderson's first punt in the sec-ond half Wood flipped a pas to Harold Cartwright that carried past. Several business firms have offered to donate space for the one-day affair, according to T. G. Caudle, Cisco Hereford breeder and general superintendent of the show.

There are 39 breeders of regis-tered beef cattle of the Hereford and Angus breeds in Eastland County, according to information from County Agent J. M. Coop-er's office in Eastland. Most of them are small breeders, however, it was said.

Due to the expressed desires and wishes of the breeders at several meetings, the classes for the show have been changed to allow many individual animals to be shown. It was pointed out however that emphasis will continue to be placed on the group classes where more than one animal are shown together. The classes of animals have recently been mail-ed out to all breeders in the coun-

"SMOKE SCREEN" FOR THE ATOM AGE—HMS Cumberland appears to be on fire as the British cruiser steams through exercises off the island of Malta in the Mediterranean. "Smoke" is actually mist from a special sprinkling system which keeps the entire ship wet down. Purpose of the spray is to wash away atomic fallout in event of an atomic attack.

times cemented bonds of fellowship which endured. I have been wondering if we would be adequate to meet another depression, if it comes, and, in fact, if we are adequate for prosperity.

"In the olden days, there was a wrong moral and ethical concept, and all too often there was a vengeful picture of God. Too frequently even today people blame God for all their suffering. Let us remember that the Master founded our religion on suffering—and that if we are faithful and true somewhere out yonder there will be recompense."

Justice Hickman complimented the church on its service and particularly on "the fine music here which has lifted my head above the clouds this morning" and upon its pastor, the Rev. Mr. Smith, and his effective ministry. And he admonished:

"Let's build our church — and from there sow out the Gospel."

Judge Hickman told of attending the great Pageant of Faith the theme of which was "Christ is the Hope of the World" and urged his hearers to be motivated by the same thought.

The service was opened with the organ prelude by Mrs. D. L. Kinnaird and music was furnished also by the robed choir and cellist Al Lotspeich, who is director of the choir. The morning prayer was offered by Mr. Goode.

Arrangements for Judge Hickman's speaking engagements at the worship hour were made by Grady Pipkin and Judge M. S. Long and for his teaching the "9:49" Class by its regular teacher, Dist. Judge Turner Collier.

Justice and Mrs. Hickman spent the week-end here as guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pipkin, long-time friends of theirs.

Postal -

never before by the recently developed method of handling business at postal money order windows.

Formerly the purchaser was required to fill out an application, and thereafter the postal clerk filled out the money order form. As a result of changes made in the last few months, the purchaser now merely walks up to the window and tells the clerk the amount of the order he wishes to buy. The clerk fills in the amount on the form and the stub. Before mailing, the purchaser fills in the name and address of the payee, and his own name and address.

In this manner much is added to the convenience of the postal patron, while the savings in clerical time and paper-work may be expected to reduce postal operating costs by several millions of dollars a year, Postmaster Mrs. Johnson said.

Authorized by Act of Congress on May 17, 1864, the system was put into operation on November 1 of that year. Early operations were small compared with those of today. During the first eight months money orders totaled only $400,000. This year the total will be approximately $6 billion.

Originally the maximum amount of a money order was $30. Today the maximum for individual orders is $100. And today money orders may be cashed at any post office the payee finds convenient. In the early days such orders were cashed only by specified offices, and even then only after the issuing office notified the paying office on a form called an "advice."

Money order safety today is at its highest point in history, Postmaster Mrs. Johnson said. Any one purchasing a money order is guaranteed reimbursement in the event his order is among the relatively few lost or stolen.

Although authorities about the county had been alerted to search for him, a ten-year-old boy, living 9 miles north of Cisco, was found safe and sound — but hungry — Sunday night. The lad had gotten lost in the woods while hunting there with his dog and was missing so long his parents became alarmed.
