Forest Schedules Deep Wildcat In NW Crane Area

Forest Oil Corporation will drill No. 1-B University as a Pennsylvania wildcat in Northeast Crane County.

Contracted to 9,500 feet, the project will be dug one and one-half miles northwest of its No. 1-A University, indicated flowing discovery from the Pennsylvania. It is now shut-in to erect storage.

Exact location for No. 1-B University is 330 feet from north and west lines of section 11, block 30, University survey.

It is 10 miles northeast of Crane and on a 160-acre lease.

Crockett Wildcat Finds Distillate In Ellenburger DST

Indications of a possible Ellenburger discovery were found on a drillstem test in Lion Oil Company No. 1 J. M. Shannon, wildcat in North-Central Crockett County.

The prospect is now at total depth of 7,003 feet taking a drillstem test after a previous test was taken in the interval from 6,956 to 6,973 feet. Tool was open one hour.

Gas surfaced in four minutes.

Recovery was 230 feet of drilling mud out with gas and distillate. No formation water was present.

The Ellenburger, which was topped at 6,945 feet on a datum of minus 4,283 feet, is 536 feet high to the same formation in The Wilshire Oil Company, Inc., No. 1 Shannon two miles to the northeast and 599 feet high on top of the Ellenburger to Superior Oil Company No. 1 Todd, two miles to the southwest.

Location is 1,980 feet from north and 665 feet from east lines of section 46, block UV, GC&SF survey.

Magnolia's Discovery In Andrews Flows At 554.4 BOPD Rate

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 University, Ellenburger discovery in East-Central Andrews County flowed 231 barrels of 46-gravity pipe line oil in ten hours through a three-quarter inch tubing choke.

The production was natural and was from perforated section at 13,868-896 feet. Shut-in was 4/10th of one per cent drilling mud. There were no signs of water.

Has Started Potential

One-half ratio was 398-1. Flowing tubing pressure during the ten hours of flowing averaged 55 pounds.

Operator has now started the official Railroad Commission production test. That 24-hour gauge is due to be completed early Wednesday morning.

If the wildcat flows as well on the potential test as it did during the 10-hour preliminary gauge it will complete for a daily initial production of 354.4 barrels.

This prospect is bottomed at 13,918 feet. The bottom section made a little water. That zone is now squeezed off with cement.

Has Oil In Devonian

Top of the Ellenburger is at 13,824 feet, which is on a datum minus 10,793 feet.

Magnolia's No. 1 University had also shown as a flowing discovery from the Devonian. That pay is to be left cased off for the time being.

Location is 11 miles east and slightly north of the town of Andrews and 660 feet from north and west lines of section 17, block 8, University survey.

Signal Is To Try For Shallow Production In SW Tom Green

Signal Oil & Gas Company No. 1-A Dr., W. E. Schukley is to be a 400-foot cable tool wildcat in Southwest Tom Green County.

Location is 825 feet from north and west lines of the W. Schirmacher survey 762, certificate 225, abstract 1911.

Twin To Deep Failure

It is a twin to the same concern's No. 1 Schukley which was recently plugged and abandoned on total depth of 5,612 feet in the Strawn section of the Pennsylvania.

The project lagged interesting shows of oil in the Permian section above 400 feet.

It went on down and tested the Strawn and found only water in that formation.

To Try For A Well

The hole was in such condition that it was not possible to test the upper pay. Therefore the shallow twin is to be drilled to try to develop production from the zone above 400 feet.

Midland Ranchers, Farmers To Confer On Recent Rainfall

That was a mighty peculiar rain for West Texas last weekend and Midland County ranchers and farmers are going to get together Thursday night to compare notes and see if cloud-seeding operations might have had something to do with it.

The meeting is scheduled at 8 p.m. Thursday in the district courtroom in the Midland County Courthouse.

Invitations to attend the meeting were being sent out Tuesday by John Dublin, Jr., and B. T. Graham, Midland County members on the board of directors of the West Texas Weather Improvement District.

The weather improvement district is the organization which has contracted with Dr. Irving Krick, famed "rain-maker," to conduct cloud-seeding operations over this area in an effort to get more moisture from any clouds which appear.

"Many people in the area," said the letter from Dublin and Graham, "believe a practical demonstration of the value of the program has been shown in the amount and type of rain in the last month and a half."

"Many believe the slow, steady rain of last Saturday and Sunday partly was due to Dr. Krick's activities, since he definitely had generators turned on at Crane, Lubbock, Elmore, N. M., Tatum, N. M., Lamesa and Sterling City."

"Some think there is more reason now to see that this program is continued rather than saying 'Well, we are over the drought.'"

Falling in slow drizzles over a wide area, the rain measured as much as an inch and a half in some parts of the county and was unlike the typical short and heavy downpours which, sometimes fall in West Texas.

This type of rainfall, it was pointed out, is what is needed.

LOWLY POTATO BECOMES STAR

LITTLETOWN, N. H.—(P)—The potato shortage is changing menus in this town, heart of a Connecticut Valley food-raising area.

Nick Perkins, proprietor of the White Mountain Restaurant, Tuesday posted a big window sign which read:

"Special today, baked potato, $1.29."

Nick tosses in the rest of the dinner "free."

LATE NEWS FLASHES

WASHINGTON—(P)—The House Judiciary Committee Tuesday approved a compromise bill providing for 16 new federal judgeships, including one additional permanent district judge for East Texas.

WEST POINT—(P)—President Truman Tuesday awarded a second Oak Leaf Cluster to the Distinguished Service Medal (equivalent to a third DSC) of Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, new NATO commander.

TULSA, OKLA.—(P)—A tentative wage agreement between Cities Service Oil Company and its refinery division workers was announced to union members at Ponca City Tuesday by the Oil Workers International Union (CIO).

Sinclair, Phillips, Republic, Atlantic Workers Sign Pacts

Plant-by-plant negotiations between oil companies and members of Oil Workers International Union (CIO) continued to brighten the nation-wide oil strike Tuesday, especially in Texas.

It was the twentieth day of the strike and many of the workers would not finish three weeks as strikers.

At the Phillips Chemical Plant in Moore County, 385 OWIU-CIO members returned to work Tuesday. They approved a one-year contract Monday.

About 450 Republic Oil & Refining Company workers at Texas City also went back on the job Tuesday with a contract providing a 15-cent hourly Effects of the oil strike are being felt for the first time at Midland Air Terminal.

Woody Campbell, station manager for American Airlines, said Tuesday that effective Thursday and Friday, American is cancelling two flights due to a shortage of gasoline. The Phillips contract was approximately the same.

So was the contract by which 10,000 Sinclair workers across the nation, many in Texas, voted to return to work.

About 350 workers returned to work Monday at Port Arthur's Atlantic refinery. Their contract follows.

They are Mr. and Mrs. M. B. (Jimmie) Johnson, both about 35. They were reported in serious condition from exposure.

More than 200 persons, equipped with boats, an airplane and short-wave radio, had searched for the couple. The Orange sheriff's office said a Block of Port Arthur, who owns a fishing camp in the area where the couple disappeared, located them.

They were carried in a Louisiana highway patrol car to St. Patrick's Hospital in Lake Charles, La., where attendants said their condition was "fair."

SHADES OF HENRY A.—

Potato Shortage Recalls Wallace Pig-Killing Deal

WASHINGTON—(P)—This year's potato shortage seems to be providing just about as heated a debate on the federal farm programs as did the government project of killing little pigs to raise pork prices in the early 1930's.

Officials say there's considerable criticism of ceilings on potato prices and a lack of price supports.

The pig-killing program raised such a furor that, every time meat has become scarce since then, the Agriculture Department has been flooded with an avalanche of mail harkening back to those days. That plan, sponsored by Henry A. Wallace, then the agriculture secretary, was designed to boost hog prices by reducing pork supplies.

The current potato shortage developed largely because farmers cut production 20 per cent last year. Most of this reduction came in the late potato crop—that portion which goes into storage for use during the winter, spring and early summer.

Farmers reduced their output after Congress directed the Agriculture Department to withdraw price supports. Congress did away with supports because they had cost the government more than $600,000,000 over a 10-year period.

Fearing a possible price collapse, farmers turned to more promising crops.

When it became apparent that stocks might not be large enough, prices started moving upward. The Office of Price Stabilization stepped in with ceilings. But until corrected, inequities in ceilings as applied market by market served to divert supplies to some markets and away from others.

The shortage has been aggravated by black markets, which have given some consumers more than their share.

Nevertheless, agriculture officials expect ample supplies by mid-June—and possibly lower prices.

The big question yet to be answered is this: Will the 1952 late crop be short again and cause a similar situation a year from now? Preliminary surveys indicate farmers may plant slightly less land to potatoes this year than last year because of opposition to ceiling prices.

No Polio Reported In Midland County Since Early April

The City-County Health Unit reported Tuesday that Midland County has not had a single case of polio reported since early April.

The report came from O. R. Cockrell, laboratory director-in-charge, after reports of recent outbreaks of the disease.

"We have made a careful survey of all the doctors," he said, "and up to last weekend, there hasn't been a single case of polio reported since early April."

Cockrell said six cases have been reported for the year with most of them coming in January, when there was an increase both in Midland and Odessa.

A fly-control program now is underway in the city to lessen the danger of any outbreak of polio or other fly-borne diseases this summer.

Tom Smith, a U. S. Public Health Service entomologist assigned to the health unit here, took over the program a week ago and already is waging an intensive chemical-spray campaign on all possible fly-breeding places.

Second Meeting Scheduled On Fund-Raising Proposals

A proposal to organize a unified fund-raising association in Midland will be aired at a public meeting scheduled at 2:30 p.m. Friday in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer.

Ray O. Howard, temporary chairman of a citizens' committee sponsoring the movement, announced the meeting and urged a large and representative attendance.

The possibility of organizing and staging a unified fund drive in Midland this fall was discussed by 15 business and civic leaders at a meeting held last Friday. A temporary committee organization was perfected at that time.

Under the proposed plan, all organizations which conduct regular finance drives here would be asked to join in the unified effort.

A representative of a professional fund-raising agency will speak at the Friday meeting, Howard stated.

He said those favoring and those opposing the unified campaign idea are invited to attend the session to express their views on the matter.

President Labels Soviet Adventure In Korea Failure

WEST POINT, N. Y.—(P)—President Truman Tuesday said the Kremlin's desire to dominate the world obviously is unchanged, "but I believe we are well on the way to preserving our freedom without paying the frightful cost of world war."

"The plain fact is," Truman said, "that the Communists have utterly failed in their objectives in Korea."

"The Communist aggression failed to shatter the United Nations. Instead, the Communist attack has made the United Nations stronger and more vigorous and has demonstrated that it can and will act to defend freedom in the world."

He added:

"But we must also be alert and ready to meet treachery or a renewal of aggression if that should come."

If it should come, the President said, the Communists will run against a solid wall of free world resistance—with the growing might of this country and its new atomic weapons in the key defense position.

Truman's speech was prepared for the 150th Anniversary Convocation of the U. S. Military Academy. The President came here by train to deliver it in the role of commander in chief of the armed forces.

Civilian Over Military
This role, providing civilian control over the military, is "nailed down" in the Constitution, Truman noted. And—in what could have been an allusion to such steps as his dismissal of Gen. Douglas MacArthur—he went on to say:

"Many Presidents, including the present one, have demonstrated that those words in the Constitution mean what they say."

Fresh from a conference with Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, who called at the White House soon after flying into Washington from Tokyo on his way to succeed Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as supreme commander in Europe, Truman spoke at unusual length about the Korean truce negotiations.

He declared as firmly as ever that (Continued On Page 14)

EVERYONE IS RODEO BOOSTER

Everyone is invited to help publicize the 18th Annual World Championship Midland Rodeo, June 4-8, rodeo officials announced Tuesday.

Delbert Downing, Chamber of Commerce manager, said colorful bumper strips, attractive placards and informative folders on Midland Rodeo are available free of charge at his office in Hotel Scharbauer. Persons making out-of-city trips especially are urged to obtain and display the bumper strips.

"Every Midlander is a member of Midland Rodeo's publicity committee," Downing stated.

New Boss Settles Two Kije Revolts

KOJE ISLAND, KOREA—(P)—Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner settled without violence two revolts by Red war prisoners in the first four days he was in charge of this UN camp for tough Communist captives.

One of the flareups involved the 400 women prisoners and internees on this riot-ridden island.

The other was a sitdown strike of male prisoner inmates and prisoner-doctors in the UN hospital for POW's.

At least two students were injured in hand-to-hand scuffling with police. The air was filled with rocks and tear gas, plus torrents of water from fire department hoses. Loads of collections, transported by pad-dy-wagons, were locked up.

A mob of some 1,000 to 1,500 men students scammed into three women's halls at the University of Wisconsin at Madison. It was all in fun, the police said, and there were no incidents.

At Newark, Del., some 250 male students stormed eight co-ed halls on the University of Delaware campus. Girls at one house fought back with a fire hose.

Feminine Flimsy Fad Keeps Students On Prowl From Vermont To Minnesota

By The Associated Press

The college boys craze to invade women's dormitories for panties flared anew on campuses from Vermont to Minnesota Monday night. Harassed police were caught between raiders and the beleaguered girls in the dormitories.

Similar collegiate outbreaks have occurred at other schools in the nation. Apparently, some persons believe, the Spring revolts represent the students' way of letting off steam before final examinations.

Here are Monday night's developments in silken shorts.

At Evanston, Ill., some 200 Northwestern University women serenaded in front of the men's dormitories. The boys applauded the girls, and then some 1,000 of them paid a "return visit" to the women's houses. Singing and cheering, the male students snatched lingerie in five dormitories. But 30 women at a sixth house repulsed the invasion with buckets of water. Police seized nine students but released them after a lecture.

At Columbia, Mo., 3,000 University of Missouri men students assaulted sororities on their own campus and dormitories at Stephens College and Christian College, both women's schools.

Acting Police Chief J. L. Parks said damage might run into thousands of dollars at the three schools. He said he obtained permission to call out the National Guard but that the youths retired after he alerted the Columbia unit. The forays lasted four hours. No serious injuries were reported.

At Minneapolis some 500 University of Minnesota men students raided three women's dormitories but the raid netted only four bras, four pairs of panties and a silk slip.

Some 3,000 University of Connecticut students at Storrs, Conn., millied around the Sorority Quadrangle in another pantie raid. Girls retaliated by dousing boys with buckets of water.

Jacoby On Bridge

When the average player holds a suit headed by A-J-10 his natural instinct is to take at least one finesse. This is not always the soundest procedure, as today's hand shows.

West opened the queen of spades, the king of spades was played from dummy, and East won with the ace. Declarer ruffed the spade return and entered dummy with a club to try a heart finesse. This was a poor idea.

West won with the queen of hearts and shifted to the nine of diamonds. Now declarer was in hot water without a life boat. He had to lose a diamond and another trump no matter how he continued. A trump finesse might have been a sound idea if dummy had held a

The correct play in this situation, which occurs in play fairly often, is to lay down the ace of trumps immediately and to continue with the jack of trumps. If South had done so after ruffing the second spade with a low trump, his ace of trumps would have caught West's queen, and the rest of the hand would have been very easy.

If South is not lucky enough to drop a singleton honor with his ace of trumps, he has several other chances to make his contract. He continues with the jack of trumps, and may find that East is obliged to win the trick.

Since a diamond return can not be made by East, South will then be quite safe. Even if West wins the second trump trick, declarer is still safe unless West shifts to diamonds.

In that case, of course, South must guess whether to try the diamond finesse or to try for a discard on one of dummy's clubs.

The bidding has been: North East South West 1 Heart Pass 1 Spade Pass 1 N.T. Pass ? You, South, hold: Spades A-Q-7-3-2, Hearts J-5-2, Diamond 4, Clubs K-6-2. What do you do?

A—Bid four hearts. Slam is practically out of the question since your partner's re-bid of one no-trump shows a minimum opening bid. Since his hand should be a virtual lay down for game at hearts, however, it is foolish to bid any less.

Theoretically your partner could not pass three hearts but there is no reason to take even a slight risk that our partner will have a brain-storm and pass in spite of theory.

TODAY'S QUESTION
The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades A-Q-J-10-9-7-3, Hearts J-5-2, Diamond 3, Clubs K-6. What do you do?

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log-

It is a short distance southeast of the deep failure. The driller is one mile northwest of Knickerbocker. Another One Plugged Marion J. Scott and Russell Hays of San Angelo have plugged and abandoned their No. 1 Bob Sharp, a 604-cable tool failure in Southwest Tom Green County.

It was two miles northeast of Knickerbocker and 1.615 feet from north and 2.2084 feet from west lines of the E. A. Tweedy survey No. 2.

Ashmun & Hilliard To Run Pipe In NE Ward Wildcat
Ashmun & Hilliard of Midland No. 1 John Edwards, wildcat in Northeast Ward County, was bottomed at 4,528 feet in Holt dolomite with operator preparing to cement five and one-half-inch casing after running electric log surveys.

The casing point will be 4,370 feet. Operator will drill out plugs and make production tests on open hole. It had been cored from 4,400 to 4,338 feet. Recovery was 48 feet of Holt dolomite, the top 12 feet was brown with fair stain and the next 27 feet was tan with scattered fair porosity and blebbing oil. The next six feet was dense dolomite and the bottom four feet was fractured blebbing oil.

DST Falls
Operator tried a drillstem test from 4,479 to 4,523 feet. Tool was open 15 minutes. Pulled tool and had no recovery. The tool was plugged. Another test was taken from 4,479 to 4,523 feet. Tool was open two hours. There was a steady blow of air throughout that period. Recovery was 100 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut mud. No water was present and no pressures were recorded.

Operator says the last test was not satisfactory. Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 1, block B-39, and survey and three miles southwest of the Monahans multipay field.

Ellenburger Pool In Nolan Sector Is Extended West
Placid Oil Company completed No. 1 R. E. Althoff as a west extension to a recent Ellenburger discovery by Skelly Oil Company in West-Central Nolan County.

No. 1 Althoff was completed for a daily pumping potential of 20 barrels of 47-gravity oil daily through perforations at 7,090-7,044 feet. That section had been treated with 3,000 gallons of acid.

Gas-oil ratio was 388-1. Location is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 86, block 23, T&P survey.

The discovery well, Skelly No. 1 Cox, was designated the opener of the Lake Trammel-Ellenburger area.

Jackson Finals Spraberry Well In NW Reagan
L. B. Jackson No. 1-A Aldwell has been completed as a new oil in an undeveloped area in the south side of the Aldwell field of Northwest Reagan County. Cities Service Oil Company spotted location for a northwest offset to its No. 1 J. F. Nunn, active wildcat in the complex.

PERMIAN BASIN OIL AND GAS LOG-
No. 1-A Aldwell was finished for a daily flowing potential of 261 barrels of 39.3-gravity oil plus three per cent water. Production was through a 3/8-inch choke and from open hole at 7,471 to 7,578 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 943-1 and tubing pressure was 275 pounds.

Location is 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 35, block C, L&SV survey. Offset
The northwest offset to Cities Service No. 1 Nunn is the concern's No. 1-J TXL, 660 feet from south and east lines of section 45, block 26, T&P survey. It is to drill to around 7,500 feet.

No. 1 Nunn reported 231.77 barrels of oil and 52.3 barrels of water on the last 24-hour gauge from perforations at 6,568-95 feet in the upper Spraberry.

Pecos Group Plans Three Booster Trips To Advertise Rodeo

PECOS—Midland and other Permian Basin Empire cities will be visited by Pecos businessmen in June to whom it is up for their annual Pecos Rodeo, starting July 3.

A cowboy band and cowgirl singers will accompany the rodeo boosters.

Glen Stafford is chairman of the trips, which are sponsored by the Pecos Rodeo Association.

First trip will be June 13 and 14 with Lubbock as the overnight stop. Towns to be visited include Andrews, Seminole, Tahoka, Lamesa, Brownfield, Levelland, Hobbs, Seagraves, Texas, and Garfield N. M.

Second trip will be June 19 and 20 to San Angelo for the overnight stop. Towns to be visited also will include Fort Stockton, McCombs, Big Lake, Colorado City, Sterling City, Big Spring, Midland, Odessa and Monahans.

Third will be to El Paso on June 26 and 27. Towns to be visited will include Fort Davis, Alpine, Marfa, Van Horn, Fabens and other points on Highway 80.

Gardner Opener Is Completed In N-C Runnels Area
John A. Messenger completed a flowing discovery from the Gardner sand in North-Central Runnels County and spotted a south offset to the well.

The opener is No. 1 M. C. Dale, finished for a daily potential of 265 barrels of 46-gravity oil plus 20 per cent water. Production was through a one-quarter-inch tubing choke and perforations at 4,172-82 feet in five and one-half-inch casing.

Gas-oil ratio was 1,850-1 and tubing pressure was 650 pounds. Pay was topped at 4,165 feet, elevation 1,892 feet.

Location is 2,106 feet from north and 1,880 feet from west lines of J. G. McKean survey No. 534 and five miles southeast of Winters.

The south offset is Messenger No. 2 M. C. Dale, 933 feet south of the discovery. Location is 3,039 feet from north and 467 feet from east lines of J. C. McKean survey No. 534. Drilling to 4,220 feet with rotary will start at once.

Brahoney To Drill Stepout To Opener In W-C Yoakum
Frank T. Brahoney of Midland is to drill his No. 2 Sherman Henard as a stepout to the discovery and lone producer in the Henard-San Andres field in West-Central Yoakum County.

It is to be four and one-half miles northwest of the town of Plains and 1,900 feet from south and west lines of section 394, block D, John H. Gibson survey.

That makes it three-quarters of a mile south of the same operator's No. 1 Henard, the opener of the field which was completed in 1950. Drilling will start at once to go to 5,300 feet.

Lion Abandons SW Bailey Duster In Granite Zone
Lion Oil Company has abandoned and plugged its No. 1 Birdwell, Southwest Bailey County wildcat on total depth of 8,953 feet in granite.

The prospector did not report having logged any shows of possible production in any zone it drilled through.

Southwest Of Muleshoe
Location was 660 feet from north and east lines of section 78, block A, MB&B survey. It was 14 miles southwest of Muleshoe.

Elevation was 3,892 feet. Top of the anhydrite was at 1,900 feet, top of the San Andres was at 2,875 feet, top of the Clear Fork was at 4,790 feet.

Franchot Divorces Beautiful Barbara

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—The celebrated Hollywood triangle of Franchot Tone, Barbara Payton and Tom Neal has been reduced to a twosome.

Tone won a divorce Monday from the blond Miss Payton on testimony that she told him, "I want to be free, to move where and when I want to."

After the trial her attorney said she's planning to do some moving—in the direction of Europe, and accompanied by Neal.

The two have separate movie deals cooking on the continent, the attorney said, and probably will leave together about the end of the month.

The Tones were married last September 28, two weeks after Tone took a beating from Neal in a fight over Miss Payton. The couple separated 53 days later.

Red Foley Pays Heart Balm Cash
NASHVILLE, TENN.—(AP)—A $100,000 heart balm suit filed by Nashville music publisher against Radio Singer Clyde (Red) Foley was settled out of court Monday.

Frank B. Kelton charged Foley lured his blonde wife, television actress Sally Sweet, away from him.

Kelton's attorney said the settlement was "sizeable."

Honolulu Stakes Short Outpost To SW Sterling Pool
Honolulu Oil Corporation will drill No. 4-A C. H. Sugg as a one-half mile north stepout to production in the Southwest Sterling County side of the Weddell field.

Contracted to test for production in the Spraberry at 5,200 feet, the prospector will be drilled 660 feet from south and 1,984 feet from the most westerly well line of section 45, William Dean survey. It is on a 3,520-acre lease.

STEWART GRANGER IS SKEPTICAL, BUT TEAMS WITH WIFE FOR FILM
By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD—Exclusively Yours: Hollywood's about to unveil a new husband-and-wife romantic team—Stewart Granger and Jean Simmons in "Young Bess"—but they have no dreams of becoming a steady marquee combination.

Waiting to do a scene in "The Prisoner of Zenda," Granger said: "We're looking forward to doing this film together. But I'm told there's a funny reaction to husbands and wives in screen clichés. People say, 'This is legal. It's not exciting.'"

Stewart Granger Is Skeptical, But Teams With Wife For Film

Granger and Jean teamed up once before in a British film when he asked J. Arthur Rank for her as his co-star. He remembers it like this: "Rank said, 'We'll have to be chummy about it. You're rather elderly and she's so young.' So we did a Daddy-Long-Legs type story which took care of my being 15 years older than Jean."

Judy Holliday, who didn't bother to deny the rumor at first now is saying that the story talk is ridiculous ... Errol Flynn is saying that Pat Wynne won't be accompanying him to London for the swash-buckler he will make for Warners.

A trial separation maybe? The Army already has turned down two screen treatments of "From Here to Eternity," but the words out that a third version of the best-seller is about to get the Pentagon okay ... Anne Baxter's vowing that, rumors to the contrary, everything's fine between her and John Hodiak.

His One Chance
Kirk Douglas, who lost out twice in the Academy Award race, finally wins a prop Oscar as the movie producer who makes Lana Turner a star in MGM's Hollywood backgrounded "Tribute to a Badman."

"Don't tell anyone," he grinned, "but I'm finally getting a chance to use my acceptance speech." Kirk's been rumored for the role of Captain Queeg in "The Caine Mutiny" for Producer Stanley Kramer, who boosted him to stardom in "Champion." But Queeg, says Kirk, isn't for him.

"I don't think I'm the type," he told me. I'd much rather play the lawyer who defends Lieutenant Maryk.

Rhonda Fleming's flame, Dr. Lew Murrill, is building a mansion in the hope that she will finally say "Yes" to his bended-knee speech ... Pale of Jane Wyman and Travis Bicklefield insist there isn't a chance they will change their minds and marry. The romance, they predict, is due for an any-day breakup ... Pat Nereny's wearing his busted heart in a sling over Mona Freeman's decision to call it a day.

Other night at a Beverly Hills cafe. Pat sat moodily and kept sending notes to Mona—in the dining room with another escort.

playing Gary Merrill's pet pooch in "Night Without Sleep."

Who's On First?
Orson Welles' unorthodox editing of "Othello"—it's Suzanne Cloutier as Desdemona in the closeups but five other actresses, all of whom played the role for him at various times, in the longshots—may result in the year's biggest legal battle over billing.

One of the Desdemonas in the longshots, I hear, is Betsy Blair, wife of Gene Kelly, who was replaced by Orson after several days shooting. English actor Robert Coote, now at MGM after working in the film, still is wide-eyed about it. He told me:

"One day I was having lunch with one of the Desdemonas and two other Desdemonas were sitting together at a table across from us. Really, old boy, it was fantastic."

The Peter Lawford-Jean McDonald love idyll is over and once more slippery Pete is playing the field ... Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz nixed an offer to play the Rocky Theater in New York this Summer. Not enough green stuff ... Major studio on an economy program tried to get Gary Cooper for a movie and quickly lost interest when Cooper's asking-and-getting price was quoted. Still $200,000 ... The new film version of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" by Dick and Mary Sale will retain the songs of the stage hit, but will lean heavily on Anita Loos' best-seller of the '20's for the dialog.

Appointive officers are Mrs. Percy Morrison, reporter; Mrs. Leroy Thomas, librarian, and Mrs. J. B. Youngblood. Mrs. Max Ramsey, master of ceremonies, presented the new president with a gift. Mrs. Max Goldsmith and Mrs. J. B. Youngblood were in charge of arrangements.

Stops Laxatives regains youthful regularity

"For thirty years, I took so many kinds of pills and laxatives to relieve constipation. Since I started eating ALL-BRAN every day, those troubles are over," says busy Bethany Mo., woman. If you, too, suffer from irregularity due to lack of dietary bulk, try toasty ALL-BRAN. It's helped thousands to regain youthful regularity. Rich in iron, high in cereal protein, provides essential B and D vitamins. Not habit-forming. It's the only type ready-to-eat cereal that supplies all the bulk you may need. Eat 1/2 cup every day; drink plenty of liquids. If you're not completely satisfied after 10 days, send empty carton to Kellogg's, Battle Creek, Mich., and get DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK!

Convict Who Admits Planning Brink's Holdup Branded Liar

BOSTON — (AP) — Deputy Police Supt. James F. Daley Tuesday branded as a "liar and faker" ex-convict Alfred A. Gagnon who said he was one of the planners of the fabulous $1219,000 Brink's robbery.

Gagnon of Pawtucket, R. I., named himself, Carlton M. O'Brien, Warwick, R. I., roadhouse owner, and Joseph F. McGinnis, former convict and Boston night-club owner, as the planners of the nation's biggest cash haul.

He is held in Rhode Island State Prison awaiting trial on a charge of attempted robbery of a Providence diamond merchant.

O'Brien, 49, of West Warwick, who also owned a prosperous Providence, R. I., diner, was slain in a gangland fashion Saturday morning in front of his home. Two shotgun blasts snuffed out his life.

Daley made the accusation in an angry answer to charges from Rhode Island Attorney Gen. William E. Powers that Boston police showed a lack of interest in information they had obtained indicating that the O'Brien slaying was tied up with the Jan. 17, 1950, Brink's holdup.

"This man (Gagnon) wasn't with in 1200 miles of Boston at any time from November, 1949, prior to the Brink's holdup, to March 5, 1950, following the Brink's robbery," Daley asserted.

Facts Irrefutable
"That taken by itself brands him as a liar and faker and these facts are irrefutable."

Daley said evidence gathered by FBI, Boston and State Police disclosed that Gagnon was in Tampa, Fla., from November, 1949, to March, 1950.

He said every move that Gagnon made during that period, every place he visited and everything he did, were checked, double-checked and re-checked by FBI and Massachusetts authorities.

"We had the Gagnon story and the so-called 'confession' to the Brink's case a year and a half ago," Lieutenant Detective James V. Crowley said.

"We checked all phases of it. He did not name McGinnis at any time until after the O'Brien murder Saturday, and even then, as we later learned, he named him only in connection with the O'Brien murder."

McGinnis was released after lengthy questioning by police in the O'Brien shooting.

Crowley also branded as a lie Gagnon's story that he bought the Navy pea jackets, whipcord chauffeurs' hats and rope used in the Brink's holdup.

To Ask For Statement
Monday night Massachusetts Attorney General Francis E. Kelly said he will ask Rhode Island authorities to obtain a sworn statement from Gagnon in the event that Bay State authorities decide to bring him before a grand jury to repeat his charges.

Kelly made the announcement after a meeting with state and Boston police authorities. He conferred by telephone with Powers.

The state house conference was called after Powers' criticism of Boston police.

Powers said any dissatisfaction he felt in the Massachusetts handling of the latest evidence in the Brink's case was directed at the Boston police and not Kelly.

Officials announced after the conference that there would be no further amplification of the case lest such disclosures hamper the investigation.

Krupp Marries U. S. Socialite

BERCHTESGADEN, GERMANY. — (AP) — Germany's once-mighty munitions magnate, Alfred Krupp, married a German-born American socialite Monday night at his mountain resort where Hitler used to relax.

The bride, Martha Vera Wilhelmine Knauer of Hollywood, Calif., wore a street-length white dress and a white veil. It was the second marriage for the 44-year-old Krupp. His first ended in divorce.

Former ski star Fredi Stoll and his wife, acted as witnesses. Stoll later told reporters Krupp's bride left Germany in 1938 and became an American citizen. He said the couple had known each other many years.

Krupp's 12-year prison sentence for war crimes was cut short last year by U. S. High Commissioner John J. McCloy's general amnesty. The Krupp empire, now run under close allied supervision, is engaged chiefly in peace time coal and steel production.

Rep Paper Says Koje 'Murders' Planned

MOSCOW — (AP) — Pravda headlined Tuesday that the American military is "preparing new murders of war prisoners on Koje Island."

The Soviet paper, organ of the Communist Party, said the Americans have directed artillery at the prisoner of war camp and predicted new bloodshed there.

Pravda said there were about 800 women and some children in the camp.

General McConnell Is Named To UN Armistice Group

TOKYO — (AP) — Brig. Gen. Frank C. McConnell, assistant commander of the U. S. 25th Infantry Division, Tuesday was named to the UN armistice delegation in Korea.

Gen. Mark Clark, supreme Far East UN commander, said McConnell will begin his new duties immediately.

McConnell takes the place of Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, who leaves June 9 to become superintendent of the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Joy's place as head of the five-man UN delegation goes to Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison, who has been a delegate since January.

McConnell was assigned to the 25th Infantry Division in January. He went to Korea from assignments at Camp Gordon, Ga., and Fort Jackson, S. C. In World War II he served in the Philippines.

McConnell, 53, is a native of Cicero, Ind. He was graduated from Purdue University in 1920 and commissioned in the regular Army the next year.

Yarborough Opens 'People's Campaign' For Governor, Blasts Shivers Machine

By The Associated Press
Ralph Yarborough, candidate for governor, opened what he called the "people's campaign" Monday night and asked Texans to help him "beat this machine that has fastened itself on the state government."

The Yarborough speech was one of many political developments in a state seething with factional strife among both Democrats and Republicans.

"It's time to have done with an administration that has proved too cold, too hard, too unfeeling, too ruthless," Yarborough shouted over the 26-station hookup that carried his speech.

He called for elimination of corruption on the state level, said he was against "widespread extravagance and mushrooming bureaucracy in our state government," and asked for a "fight for state's rights."

Yarborough said he was running because he believed the present governor's record failed to warrant a "third term," and asked his friends to contribute everything from tables to postage stamps for his campaign.

He said he sought "no large loans from great corporations," but wanted the help of the "plain people."

He said he was running because he felt he was qualified and could handle the job and because he thought "1952 is the year to clean house." He said he asked the permission of no political or economic faction.

Gov. Allan Shivers has said Yarborough was the "personal, hand-picked candidate" of Fagan Dickson, executive director of the Loyal Democrats, a group opposed to Shivers' policies. Yarborough has disavowed the tag.

USES STATESIDE SOIL FOR CHARM

45TH INFANTRY DIVISION, KOREA—(AP)—To the wide variety of good luck charms carried by American soldiers in Korea, you can add one tablespoon of "good old North Carolina dirt."

Chaplain James O. Mattox of Norfolk, Va., carries the state-side earth in an envelope wherever he goes.

Mattox took the dirt from a farm near his father's home at Rocky Mount, N. C.

McCamey Group Takes Draft Tests

ABILENE — A group of McCamey draft registrants took pre-induction physicals and mental exams at the Armed Forces Examining Station here over the weekend.

Included in the party were: Noah L. Myers, J. R. Behannon, Earl P. Johnson, Joe Carrasco, Deane B. Fambrough, John Ables, James R. Burnett, Calvin M. Stark, Roy Charles Brown, John W. Fuller, Manuel Aguilar, Fortunato A. Montez, William A. Barnley, Salome M. Fuentes, Elisha G. Walker, Bobby G. Stinson, and Marvin E. Simmons.

In a day filled with statements, charges and countercharges, there were these other developments on the political scene:

1. Forces backing Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for the Republican presidential nomination won the first round in a court test which seeks to void Taft rump conventions, in six Texas counties. The State Supreme Court agreed to hear the Ikem's suit Tuesday.

2. A special train to Mineral Wells to carry Harris County Eisenhower backers to the GOP state convention was announced. It will join what Ike backers say will be a "march" of 50,000 aroused Texans to the convention to "see that majority rule prevails."

3. Hitting at the proposed "march," two state leaders for Taft said it was an attempt at mob rule by the Eisenhower supporters. "They are trying to carry on a near-revolutionary mob rule," said Henry Zyeifel of Fort Worth, national GOP committeeman and Taft Texas manager.

4. In Dallas, Senator Tobey (R-NH) said he intended to vote against Texas in the Tideland issue because "oil lands are the last great asset of all our people." But on learning that Texas retained her offshore lands by the treaty of annexation to the U. S., Tobey said, "I'm quite a fellow for not violating treaties." He did not say whether he would change his mind about the vote, however.

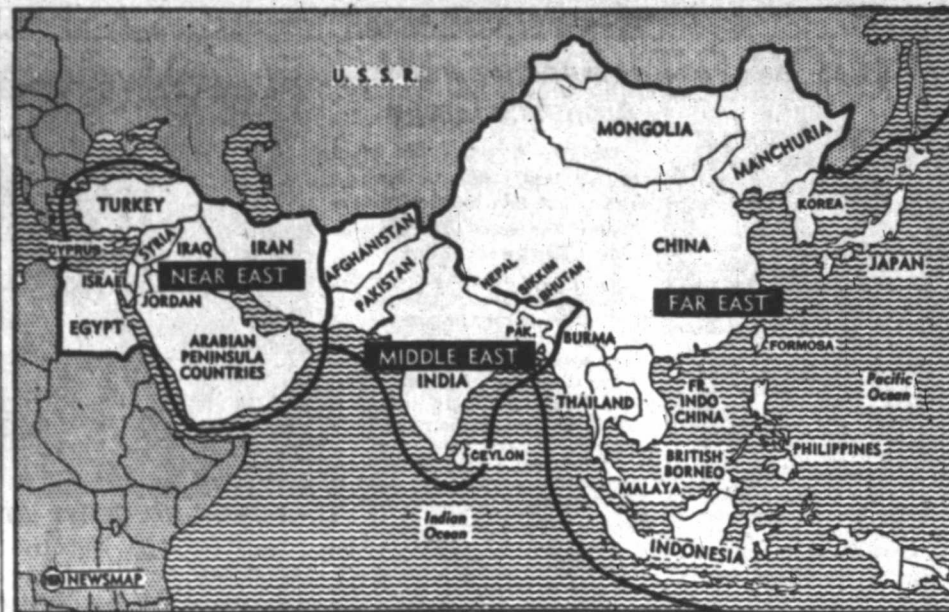

Almost everybody who could raise a voice joined in the mixed chorus that demanded the Tideland for Texas.

Speaker Sam Rayburn of Bonham said he thought the House undoubtedly would vote to override the expected presidential veto. Attorney General Price Daniel, Governor Shivers, Senator Lyndon Johnson, Candidate Yarborough, Candidate Lindley Beckworth, the Loyal Democrats, and Congressman John E. Lyle all spoke up for state ownership.

Eight-Plank Platform

Yarborough's opening speech also nailed the following planks in his platform:

1. "We must have a positive, progressive and efficient road-building program. x x x The present Administration's plot to take away the power of the county to build its own roads constitutes a dangerous threat to local government."
2. He said he opposed any addition to the gasoline sales tax, or diversion of occupation taxes to the highway fund.
3. "A drastic change in the iniquitous so-called 'safety inspection law' for trucks and autos."
4. "A preferential presidential primary so that the people can vote for the candidates of their choice for President."
5. "More comprehensive protection for the health of Texans," but opposed to socialized medicine.
6. "Return of local government to local hands."
7. "More just treatment of our elder citizens."
8. "Just laws protecting the small independent business men from unjust taxation."

HOW FAR EAST IS "FAR EAST"?—It has long been almost anyone's guess as to just what countries make up the "Near East," "Middle East," and "Far East." The designations, used to break up the vast Orient into easily identified sections, have been variously interpreted at different times. Newsmag, above, shows locations of the three regions, based on geographical divisions, as outlined by the National Geographic Society.

Cox Appliance Is New Servel Dealer

The Cox Appliance Company, 615 West Wall Street, has been appointed authorized dealer for Servel here.

M. D. Cox, owner of the firm, said new Servel models now are on display in his store and that residents are invited to inspect them at any time.

The new Servel, Cox said, has the built-in conditioner, dew-action fresheners, adjustable shelves, odds-and-ends basket, new design door handles, and a choice of interior color decoration.

He emphasized the fact the new Servel is permanently silent.

STUDENT COUNCIL TO PRESENT LIONS PROGRAM

Members of the club's attendance and program committees urged a large attendance of Lions at the meeting.

A rail link was opened last year connecting Lake Titicaca in Peru with the Pacific Ocean port of Matarani.

Barstow News

BARSTOW — Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burkholder are the parents of a son, John Harold, born recently.

The Rev. J. J. Wester, former pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Barstow, is undergoing medical treatment in the Memorial Hospital in San Angelo. Doctors there report he will be able to return home by the first of June.

A bridal shower honoring Mrs. James Robert Turner will be held at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Community Center. Mrs. Turner is the former Sharon Nutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nutt who formerly lived in Barstow. Turner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Turner, also former Barstow residents, now living in Hagerman, N. M.

Sue Wilson will be installed Sunday as the worthy advisor of the Rainbow Assembly. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson.

Returns To Abilene
Bessie Lucille Burkholder recently returned to Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene after spending several days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burkholder. Miss Burkholder will be graduated from the university June 2. Following her graduation she has accepted a Summer job as a staff officer at the National Convention Encampment of the Southern Baptist Convention in Ridgecrest, N. C.

Danish Boy Pulls Two Tots From New Jersey Lake

CLEMENTON, N. J. —(AP)—"I saw they were in trouble so I jumped in and pulled them out."

That statement, spoken in Danish, tells the story of the rescue Monday of two small boys from Clementon Lake by a 16-year-old Danish youth who arrived in America four days ago.

The Danish youth, Yohan Svendrup, was on his way to the grocery store. As he passed by the lake he noticed the two boys, Daniel Wayne, three, and Francis Welsh, 3 1/2, playing by the water.

Later on the way back from the store he saw the boys thrashing about in the water. He dropped his groceries, removed his shoes and stockings and jumped in.

He dragged the Wayne boy ashore and then returned for the Welsh child. Later all three were treated at Audubon Hospital for exposure. Yohan, his widowed mother, two sisters and a brother are living with his aunt until they find a permanent home.

AIR FORCE VOLUNTEERS
ABILENE — Among area men volunteering at the Air Force Recruiting Station here Monday were J. R. Simon and William B. Howard, both of Midland.

Court Candidate Is Midland Visitor

Glenn R. Lewis of San Angelo, candidate for Place 1 on the Supreme Court of Texas, visited Midland Monday in the interest of his campaign. He is the only West Texas candidate for the place now held by Associate Justice Sharp, who is not seeking reelection.

Lewis has practiced law in San Angelo since graduating from the University of Texas Law School in 1925. He was district attorney from 1931 to 1936, and was assistant attorney general of Texas from 1939 to 1942.

He served in the U. S. Navy from 1942-1945 and was released as a lieutenant commander.

A native of Limestone County, he graduated from Clarendon College and Trinity University before entering law school.

Braggins Receives Terms in Prison

BEAUMONT —(AP)—Robert E. Braggins, 29, was sentenced to 19-year and 12-year prison terms after pleas of guilty to charges of burglary and theft here.

Braggins was described by officers as a key figure in the recent probe of a state-wide burglary and theft ring operating in several Texas counties and several states.

The sentences received by Braggins Monday are to run concurrently.

He was the first of 15 men questioned in Beaumont in connection with the burglary ring allegedly operated out of Dallas. He also is under a charge of arson arising from the dynamiting of a Dallas cafe.

Braggins said later gambler Herbert Noble, who was killed by a cleverly planted land mine, hired him to blast the restaurant.

PIONEER PACEMASTER—The first Pioneer Pacemaster visit to Midland will be Thursday when the company brings the plane here for public display and inspection. The Pacemaster will be on display at Midland Air Terminal from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Service with the Pacemaster will start in June.

Pioneer Will Display New Pacemaster Here Thursday

Pioneer Air Lines' 270-mile per hour, 36-passenger twin-engine Pacemaster will be in Midland Thursday where it will be open for public inspection from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. O. H. Morgan, company manager here, announced.

This will be the first visit to Midland by the Pacemaster since Pioneer purchased the new fleet of nine planes in late March to replace its present fleet of 11 DC-3's.

Since the purchase of the new fleet, the company's pilots and other personnel have been going through an extensive training program while the Pacemasters have been modified by TEMCO Manufacturing Company to Pioneer's exacting specifications for its local service operations.

Service to Midland with the Pacemaster will start in June.

Pioneer has been serving Midland since Feb. 19, 1947, with 24-passenger, 160-mile per hour DC-3 planes. With the Pacemaster, Midland will have 36-passenger, 270-mile per hour, postwar design planes, Morgan pointed out.

The Pacemaster has a tricycle-type landing gear which permits the cabin of the plane to remain level at all times. The ship, which is powered with two 2,400 horsepower engines in contrast to two 1,200 horsepower engines on the DC-3, also has reversible propellers which permit a minimum of taxiing after landing.

With 16-inch by 18-inch windows, the Pacemaster permits the best air-to-ground vision of any plane in scheduled service in the Southwest. Another important feature of the Pacemaster is the integral passenger step which lowers from the rear of the plane. With this installation, the steps are provided a canopy which covers the passengers and steps at all times.

The eighth grade and freshmen classes of Crane High School held their annual end-of-school picnics Saturday. The freshmen went to Balmorhea and the eighth graders went to Fort Stockton. The sophomore class is planning a trip to Balmorhea Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hollis and son, Allan, have moved to Midland where Hollis will operate a well servicing company. The Hollis family has lived in Crane the last 20 years.

Pfc. Lewey Brents is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Brents of Crane. Brents has been serving with the Army in Korea since July.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coker announce the recent marriage of their son, Sgt. Wallace H. Coker, to Alice M. Leder in Landsbut, Germany. Sgt. Coker has been stationed in Germany the last three years. The couple took a wedding trip to Austria.

TO ATTEND EXERCISES

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Oates of Midland plan a trip to Abilene to visit Bonnie McDonald who is a graduate this Spring from McMurry College. The Oates will attend the graduation exercises.

Midland Takes Uphill Battle From Artesia, 7 To 5

Homer In Ninth With One Aboard Decides Contest

ARTESIA—(P)—Julio de la Torre clouted a two-run homer in the ninth inning here Monday night to break open a tie game and give the Midland Indians a 7-5 win over the Artesia Drillers.

After being held completely helpless by the slants of Artesia Right-hander Mike Rodriguez for six innings, the Indian bats got into action in the seventh for five big runs and started a comeback that was climaxed by De la Torre's circuit blast in the ninth.

Artesia started the scoring in the first inning when singles by Nick Cappelli, John Alonzo and Joe Bauman were good for two runs. Rudy Briner doubled in two more for the Drillers in the third to give them a 4-0 margin.

But Midland hit the come-back trail in the seventh with five runs. Bill Crumley singled and Eddie Jacome drew a walk. Cassidy singled to plate Crumley and chase Jacome to third. Rodriguez threw a wild pitch and Jacome scampered home.

A long single by Dinkle drove in Cassidy. De la Torre's single. White's long one-base blow and an outfield error pushed in Dinkle and De la Torre.

Artesia managed a single run in its half of the seventh to tie it up at 5-5.

But Midland would not be deterred, and De la Torre's homer in the ninth settled the issue. Dinkle who had walked was on ahead of him.

Eddie Jacome went all the way for the visitors in marking up the win. The score:

Kid Matthews Gets Decision Over Layne

PORTLAND, ORE.—(P)—Harry (Kid) Matthews cleared his first major heavyweight hurdle here Monday night, 183 1/2, Seattle, looked impressive in punching out a 10-round decision over Red Layne, 198 1/8, Lewiston, Utah. Layne was the first heavyweight of reputation Matthews had met.

His manager, Jack O'Donoghue, said after the fight he hoped to sign Matthews for a match sometime in July with Rocky Marciano, the Brockton, Mass., better who knocked out Joe Louis.

Matthews was just too classy and hit too hard for Layne, a primitive type mauler who nevertheless, holds a decision over Heavyweight Champion Joe Walcott.

Shell And Humble Win In Softball

Shell bounced the Independents, 10 to 7, and Humble took the Legion team, 12 to 10, in Monday's softball action at Wadley Field.

J. Rogers was credited with the Shell win, with Carl Harris the loser.

In the other tilt, John O'Donoghue was the winner and Ed Clusky took the loss. Cole got three for four in the second clash.

Shell collected four hits, against the Independents' five. Humble got seven hits and Legion 12.

North Little Loop Cubs Down Braves

The Cubs downed the Braves, 16 to 4, Monday afternoon in a North Little League baseball game, with Richard Brazee getting credit for the win. Arnulfo Velarde was the loser. The Cubs got nine hits and the Braves got three.

The Pirates take on the Indians at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday.

It was announced the Memorial Day game between the Pirates and the Indians has been postponed.

Fur trappers established a fort at Astoria, Ore., in the early 1880s, making it the first white settlement in the Pacific northwest.

WATCH ON THE LINE—Cardinal Catcher Del Rice and Pitcher Joe Presko join Artie Gore following Jackie Robinson's bunt down the third base line in Brooklyn. It went for a hit. (NEA)

The Sweetwater Braves are the only baseball club the Midland Indians have been unable to beat thus far this season.

The Indians have met the Braves four times so far, and each time have come out on the short end of the score. However they have lost three of the games by only one run and the other game by two runs.

In fact, the Indians have fared badly against all of the upper division teams. They have been able to win only two of eight games with Odessa, two of six games with San Angelo and two of four games with Vernon.

Contrast that with the way in which they have blasted the lower echelon in the league, whom they have played six times, winning all of them.

The Indians have won six of 22 games with the top four teams. The Tribe has defeated Roswell, Big Spring and Artesia twice, and won two of four from Vernon for an even split.

Still dabbling in statistics, we came up with the following chart which shows the margin of win, or defeat, involving the Indians so far.

Games won by one run, five; games lost by one run, five. Games won by two runs, one; games lost by two runs, five. Games won by three runs, none; games lost by three runs, one. Games won by four runs, two; games lost by four runs, one. Games won by five runs, one; games lost by five runs, one. Games won by more than five runs, three; games lost by more than five runs, three.

Manager Zeke Bonura informed us that he will place himself on the temporary disabled list. Zeke pulled a leg muscle in a pinch-hitting role at San Angelo recently and needs to give the injury time to mend.

Radio announcers and sports writers must be having trouble pronouncing and spelling the names of baseball players in Texas League this season, says Associated Press Sports Editor Harold Ratliff. Ratliff says take a look at these: Senciewicz, Iaringshaus, Carballera, Diugokecki, Radulovich, Izaguirre, Yzquierdo, Ankoviak, Peraza, Pfeiffer, Brzezowski, Turturro, Carcatera, Pilarcik, Wojciechowski, Gionfriddo, Mierkowski, Szekely, Tienen, Anechiba, Bujebio, Dieppa, Tayoan, Sake-witz, Grajeda, Traspuesto, Carreras, Gryzwacz—wow!

Ratliff says Buster Hale, Longview sports writer, while covering a game between Waco and Longview, looked at Carcatera and Turturro in the Waco lineup and Depperschmidt in the Longview lineup and mused: "Imagine what a double play between those guys would come out in a newspaper—Carcatera, Turturro and Depperschmidt!"

Odesa.—(P)—A home run by Leo Eastham with one man on in the fifth inning gave the Odesa Oilers a lead which they never relinquished as they went on to down the Vernon Dusters, 7-4, here Monday night.

A grand slam homer by Catcher Felix Castro, however, was the deciding blow of the contest. The husky Oiler backstop slammed the four master with the bases jammed in the second inning to give Odesa a 4-1 lead.

Vernon soon evened the count by scoring three tallies in the top half of the fourth on three base hits and walk. A double by Leon English accounted for two of the runs.

Juan Guerrero went the route on the mound for the winning Oilers, giving up a total of 10 base hits. Juna struck out two and issued only one base on balls.

The score:

Vernon	0	10	4
Odesa	7	5	0

Wallis and Niedson; Guerrero and Castro.

Broncs Break Loose In Eighth Inning To Smash Sweetwater

SWEETWATER.—(P)—The Big Spring Broncos broke a 4-4 tie in the seventh inning and went on to defeat the Sweetwater Braves, 11-4, in the opener of a three-game series here Monday night.

Burt Baes, Big Spring pitcher, started slowly but finished strong to rack up his third victory.

The Broncos used two errors, a walk, and singles by Al Valdez and Rick Gonzales to score three times in the seventh to go ahead and stay.

They had led off with a run in the first inning and tied the score at 3-all in the fifth. Sweetwater had moved ahead, 3-1, in the third on a double by Tony Traspuesto, a walk to John Miller, a force out, and consecutive singles by Luis Suarez and Warren Sitter, Suarez coming in on an error. Big Spring went ahead in the fifth on five walks and one single, and the Braves made it 4-4 when Suarez doubled and scored on Charley Buck's single in the same inning.

Big Spring added four in the eighth on a single by Buddy Grimes, a triple by Juan Vistuer, a walk to Ozzie Alvarez, a single by Valdez, a long fly by Baes, a walk to Gonzales and a final single by Al Costa.

The score:

Big Spring	10	030	340-11
Sweetwater	003	010	000-4

Baer and Valdez; Miller, Higgins and Traspuesto.

Indian Bats

Husky Left Fielder Dick Cassidy continues to pace the Midland Indians at the plate with a lustrous 356 batting average.

Cassidy has collected 42 hits in 118 times at bat. Out of Cassidy's 42 hits, 39 are singles, the other three doubles.

Shortstop Dempsey Albritton, leadoff batter in the Midland lineup, moved up into the second place slot with an average of .343.

Albritton moved out in front of Third Baseman Julio de la Torre, whose batting average slipped to .333.

Center Fielder Pat Lorenzo is fourth with a mark of .321.

Sal Maglie Picks Up Seventh Straight As Giants Win, 4-0

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The seven National League rivals of the New York Giants were wondering Tuesday if Sal (The Barber) Maglie ever is going to be beaten.

And you can't blame the Pittsburgh Pirates if they shake their heads in an emphatic negative manner.

The 35-year-old right-hander from Niagara Falls, N. Y., hasn't been beaten this year in racking up seven victories to run his undefeated string over a two-year span to 10. He has met and whipped all teams except the Boston Braves and the Chicago Cubs.

In 62 innings, he has allowed only seven earned runs for the enviable average of 1.02.

The Pirates have a special reason for wondering if Maglie is unbeatable. When he blanked them, 4-0, on seven hits Monday in one of the three games played in the majors, it marked the thirteenth straight time the curve-ball ace has turned back the cellar-dwelling Bucs.

Third Baseman Bobby Thompson supplied the batting power for Maglie's second shutout of the season as the Giants moved back into a tie for first place with the Dodgers, who played a 1-1 tie with the Cubs in a game called by rain after one was out in the top half of the seventh. Maglie's other goose-egg came on April 20 at the expense of the Dodgers.

Thompson drove in all of the champions' runs with a double and two singles to pace an eight-hit attack against Losers Howie Pollet, Bob Friend and Ted Wilks.

Billy Loes, who has won four straight for the Dodgers, and Turk Lown hooked up in a hurling duel before rain put an end to the night proceedings. The Dodgers, who made only one hit, were the first to score.

In the third inning, Lown lost control and walked Billy Cox, Pee Wee Reese, Jackie Robinson and Andy Pafko to force home a run. The Cubs tied it up in the fourth, when Toby Atwell walked and went all around on Hal Jeffcoat's double.

Center Fielder Pat Lorenzo is fourth with a mark of .321.

Anxious Candidates Await Ruling Of Poll Officials' Refusal To Count Ballots

WAYNE, W. Va. —(AP)—Two anxious candidates, only 41 votes apart, waited Tuesday while the attorney general considered the problem of the Effie. W. Val. polling officials who refused to count last Tuesday's ballots.

The 250 or so votes cast at the little polling place would settle the Democratic nomination for Wayne County sheriff.

The ballots weren't counted last Tuesday night right after the West Virginia primary election because they were too late. The five officials—four men and a woman—decided they wouldn't count 'em without extra help.

So they packed the decisive ballots in a can, slapped a lock on it and delivered the package to County Clerk App Queen.

The perplexed clerk kept the can until last Friday when he issued an order to the polling officials to report to him on Monday to count the ballots which could effect the other 28,000 or so residents of the county.

Candidates Stand By
Monday the five showed up, prepared to do their civic duty. The neck-and-neck candidates stood by expectantly and uneasily.

Then another stalemate developed. The five officials announced firmly that they would not do any more vote counting while members of the county court were in the room.

The county court members were not inclined to leave.

The polling officials pointed out that if they had counted the ballots last Tuesday night, they would have done so in secrecy and they saw no reason why they shouldn't be alone for the job now.

Clerk Queen turned the whole thing over to Prosecutor J. Floyd Harrison.

Harrison quickly passed it on to the West Virginia attorney general, who said at Charleston that he'd try to find the answer and issue a decision later Tuesday.

Bitter Armistice Session Fruitless
MUNBAN, KOREA.—(AP)—United Nations truce negotiators Tuesday accused the Communists of "seeking every vicious means" to block a Korean armistice because of their "fear of the truth."

The especially bitter 82-minute session at Panmunjom produced no progress on the lone issue blocking an armistice—what to do about captured Reds, who do not want to return to Communist territory. The Communists want them back.

The truce delegations will meet again at 11 a.m. Wednesday (9 p.m. EST Tuesday).

Woman Stabbed; Husband Suicide
HOUSTON.—(AP)—Mrs. Florida De Line, 49, was in a critical condition here Tuesday with 14 stab wounds in her body.

Officers Monday found her husband, Charles Leonard De Line, slumped in a chair dead, a 12-gauge shotgun on the floor nearby and a flyswatter in his hand.

They had come to investigate after Mrs. De Line said he stabbed her in front of their home Monday morning. She had run screaming to a neighbor's residence for help.

A coroner returned a verdict of suicide in De Line's death.

Test Rocket Flight Lights Western Skies
WHITE SANDS, N. M.—(AP)—An Aerobee rocket zoomed 57 miles above Southern New Mexico Proving Grounds Monday night in another effort to gain more information about the upper atmosphere.

Observers as far off as Carlsbad, N. M., and El Paso, Texas, about 90 and 50 miles away, respectively, reported seeing red and green grenade bursts set off from the rocket to mark its trail skyward.

The El Paso Times received a frantic call from one person who reported seeing an A-bomb blast.

After prying open the back door, he broke into a cigarette machine, took $15 in change, lifted all the cigarettes of one particular brand and turned up his nose at all the others.

American GI Forum Probes Slaying Of Brothers At Taylor

TAYLOR.—(AP)—The bodies of two Latin American brothers, shot to death by a policeman, were to be interred here Tuesday with members of the American GI Forum in charge of the services.

Justice of the Peace Sam Burnap said results of a closed hearing Monday would be turned over to the Williamson County district attorney.

Burnap said seven witnesses signed statements about the shooting of Air Force Sgt. Edward Vega, 26, and his brother, Arthur Vega, 22, here Saturday night.

The two were killed when Police-man Fred Grieger attempted to arrest them after a disturbance call, Sheriff Red Allen said.

Attorney Frank Pinedo of Austin, who said he represented the Vega family and the American GI Forum in conducting an inquiry into the case, said he was barred from Monday's hearing.

Pinedo said Assistant Police Chief Oscar Schier told him, "They don't want anybody in there."

The attorney said he would present results of his inquiry to the board of directors of the American GI Forum, a Latin American veterans organization, in San Marcos Sunday.

Arthur Vega was a Marine Corps reservist.

ADMITTED TO HOSPITAL
Jackie Ray Taylor, 1907 North Main Street, was admitted Monday to Western Clinic-Hospital for a tonsillectomy. He is the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor.

Barstow Road Crash Claims Third Victim
PECOS.—(AP)—Becoming the third victim of a truck-crash at Barstow Sunday, a Mexican alien, Jesus Nunz, 26, died in a Pecos hospital Monday.

His brother, Jose Nunz, still was in the hospital as a result of the accident. His condition was said to be "good."

Funeral services for Pedro Larez Lopez, 46-year-old Pecos man who died in the mishap, were held at 9 a.m. Tuesday at Santa Rosa Catholic Church.

Arrangements are incomplete, pending word from the Mexican consul at El Paso, for Nunz and Augustin Agnandes Torres, a Mexican alien who died three hours after the crash.

Mystery Surrounds Death Of Executive
CHICAGO.—(AP)—The bruised body of a national magazine executive was found Tuesday on a west side street and police were attempting to determine whether he died from natural causes or was the victim of violence.

The body was that of Richard W. Howard, 35, of Riverside, Conn., manager of sales and advertising in the Chicago area for "This Week," a newspaper supplement.

2-T-2 Lions To Meet In Odessa In 1953
EL PASO.—(AP)—Odessa was selected as the 1953 convention city at a Monday afternoon session of the annual meeting of District 2-T-2, Lions International, which opened here Sunday.

George Spence of Yaleta was named district governor to succeed Frank Cochran of Odessa.

Districts 2-T-1 and 2-T-2 are meeting jointly in this border city. More than 700 registrations were recorded last Monday. Adjournment is scheduled Tuesday afternoon.

HAND LACERATION
Betty Faw of Midland, telephone operator for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, was treated Monday at Western Clinic-Hospital for lacerations of the right hand.

Driver Dies When Truck Strikes Bridge
ABILENE.—(AP)—J. M. Winters, truck driver from Magnolia, Texas, was killed Tuesday when his truck and trailer lodged with lumber struck a cement guard rail on a bridge and burst into flames.

The accident occurred some nine miles south of here.

Sulfuric acid is made from hydrogen, oxygen and sulfur.

Prices Up On Some Canned Goods; Other Jumps Seen
WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Prices in many grocery stores went up one to two cents a can Tuesday on some canned vegetables, fruits and juices. Housewives can expect increases soon on a large variety of other foods.

The Office of Price Stabilization said it was granting the higher prices on vegetables, fruits and juices to compensate wholesalers for "markedly lower earnings."

Under this order some canned corn, green beans, peas, tomatoes, tomato juice, canned fruit cocktail, pineapple, peaches and pears.

OPS said most independent stores will be affected but few chain stores will be, since they normally buy direct from producers rather than from wholesalers.

The agency said it may issue before the end of this month an order permitting retailers to increase their mark-ups on such foods as concentrated coffee, dry cereals, cookies and many canned meats. Canned

KEY, WILSON & MAXSON'S REAL ESTATE

DELIGHTFULLY DIFFERENT is this Austin Stone home. It has 2 bedrooms and a paneled den. 2 tile baths, in the main portion of the house, a double carport, and attached family room with a 1/2 bath. The interior decorating is what you would find in BETTER HOMES & GARDENS. A partial list of the features are: a magnificent living room with a wood-burning fireplace, entrance hall, carpeting, picture-book kitchen, shake shingle roof, two porches, complete paneling in the garage, large lot. $37,500.

LOOKING for a smart place to live? We have some new listings from transferees who have to sell. We have heard how great are their regrets—and how they would all like to come back and live in the same homes which we list below. Let's discuss some of them.

FOR $2,000 DOWN—Located in TOWN NORTH, this 2-bedroom, kitchen, and living room house has this inside: 1 tile bath, Youngtown metal cabinets in kitchen, Vent-A-Hood, central water cooling system, wall furnace, washer connection, and attic insulation. Outside: trees, lawn started, almost completely fenced yard, attached garage. $10,500.

TO PLEASE THE MOST FASTIDIOUS—This Austin Shell Stone home is being offered for the first time for sale. It houses 3 spacious bedrooms, 2 tile baths, huge living and dining rooms, and 23 feet of kitchen—with paneled and built-ins galore. There is a 2-car garage, a utility room with a water well and pump, 2 hot water heaters, and covered rear porch. Partially carpeted, central heating. $33,000.

SPANISH INFLUENCE ON WALL STREET—3-bedroom, 1 1/2 bath, living room, dining room and kitchen stucco home—with rental unit. Soon to be zoned "Local Retail." The lot is 75x140. $18,500.

REMOVED—But not too far out, this 2-bedroom frame which is only 2 years old. Total price: $8,200. On Golf Course Road.

TO THOSE OF YOU who wish to express your finer taste of luxury with quiet sophistication, KEY, WILSON & MAXSON offer this dignified, 3-bedroom, 2 1/2 tile bath, Austin Stone home. It has a spacious rumpus room, entrance hall and guest closet, and service porch. Complementing its other features is the large New England fireplace in the living room. Luxuriously carpeted. $37,500.

GOVERNMENT REGULATION X is still in force, but we have approximately 5 homes that could be purchased for about $2,000 down, it is so simple to dial 2-1693, and ask to speak to one of us. You will find us most cooperative.

50 POPLAR TREES in the back yard alone . . . and in the house, 3 bedrooms, entrance hall and guest closet, large living room. Beautiful lawn in front and rear, 2 1/2 fenced, paved street. Approximately $3,000 down . . . Only $11,500.

DO YOU LIKE TO ADD ON? You could easily enclose the 10x21 rear porch and have this as your den—in addition to the 2 bedrooms, living room, and 17-foot kitchen. Nice yard with fence, furnace heating, water cooler. It is, of course, brick. Assume G.I. loan with $3,500 down payment.

15-ACRE INDUSTRIAL SITE . . . South Front Street, west. $850 per acre.

PEEP THRU THE WINDOW at 934 North Weatherford. It is a 2-bedroom cream brick home with carpeting in the living room, furnace heating, washer connection, nice closets, an attached garage, and fenced yard . . . then call us to see the rest of it. It is immaculately clean—and only 2 years old. $12,900.

FACTS & FIGURES—New Austin Stone with 3 nice sized bedrooms, 2 tile baths, kitchen is 13x22, living room is 13x31 with a log-burning fireplace; utility room, and 2-car attached garage. The lot is 77 feet across the front. The price is $26,500. Does this add up to what you are looking for? Our phone number is 2-1693, if you desire more information.

GROCERY STORE AND ATTACHED APARTMENT will set you up in business and will give you a 3-room house. Complete stock, fixtures, and brand new equipment are included with the Maydite brick building. It will take approximately $3,000 to handle. ONLY $9,175.

KEY, WILSON & MAXSON is the LEADER in Midland. A good reputation for fair dealing is the first quality that we sell—all others are secondary. Word-of-mouth advertising does not supplement these columns of listings—it far surpasses them. We gratefully acknowledge our appreciation to all our past and present clients. Why not stop in our office when you're in town—over a Coke.

Truman—

(Continued From Page One) this country will not accept the Red demand for repatriation of all captured Communist soldiers whether they want to be repatriated or not. "It would be a betrayal of the ideals of freedom and justice for which we are fighting," the President said. "If we forced these men at bayonet point to return to their ex-masters."

Honorable Settlements

"We won't do it. "We won't buy an armistice by trafficking in human slavery," Truman said it may not be known for some time whether the Communists will back down on this demand — an apparent indication that he does not expect the truce negotiations to break off in the near future. Then he added: "We shall remain ready to reach honorable settlements by peaceful means."

Truman said the Reds have built up their strength in men, tanks and planes since the truce talks began almost a year ago. But this country, too, has consolidated and increased its strength, he said. And with American rearmament booming and anti-Communist forces growing stronger in both Europe and Asia, he said, there is a generally improved situation in the world.

Truman cautioned against any relaxing or letting up in the Western defense effort. Likewise he denounced — as he has repeatedly in recent weeks — the threats in Congress to cut his military and foreign aid budgets.

While the free world is well on the way to preserving its freedom without a world war, he said, "no one should assume that the possibility of war has become remote."

The free nations, Truman said, must work for peace "in the face of a concerted campaign of threats and sabotage and outright aggression directed by the Soviet Union," which makes the situation of the rest of the world "dangerous in the extreme."

Asserting that the Reds in Korea have been driven back into their own territory and that all the Soviet satellites have been given "a terrible warning" of the cost of aggression, Truman declared: "As a result of Korea, the Kremlin knows that free men will stand up and fight x x x and, as a result of Korea, the free countries are infinitely better prepared than they were two years ago."

EMERGENCY TREATMENT

Emergency treatment was given Floyd Ray Lewis, 11, Route 2, Monday at Midland Memorial Hospital for lacerations of the lower lip. Attaches said he was kicked in the mouth by a horse.

TROUBLED WORLD FOR "PREEMIE" — Baby Elizabeth Dillon, above, has had more than her share of troubles since arriving in the world. Born prematurely, Elizabeth had all the symptoms to indicate she had an ulcer, and surgery was indicated. Believed to be the smallest baby ever to survive such an operation, the 48-ounce mite rests in the arms of nurse Kathleen Shaffer at Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago.

Unions Study Peace Plan Aimed To End Rail Dispute

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Three big railroad unions Tuesday studied a labor peace plan the White House hopes will end a three-year dispute on the nation's railroads. The engineers, firemen and conductors, with a combined membership of more than 150,000, were handed the contract proposal by Presidential Assistant John R. Steelman Monday afternoon. So were the railroads, and they accepted it quickly. The unions were set for all-day, separate sessions. But they agreed to act as one on final acceptance or rejection.

Steelman's proposal, submitted on a take-it-or-leave-it basis, would do these things:

1. Boost wages for men in yard service by 37 cents an hour, of which 12 1/2 cents is already being paid.
2. Boost wages for men who work on the open road by 22 1/2 cents an hour.
3. Give the train unions substantially what they wanted on a highly controversial working or operating rule involving crews which take a train through a divisional point. A change in this rule demanded by the carriers was described by union officials as the major obstacle to settlement.
4. Lay the groundwork for a five-day, 40-hour work week for men in the yards who now work 48 hours. The 40-hour week would take effect on three months' application by the unions provided a neutral referee appointed by President Truman decided enough manpower was available to meet management requirements.
5. Put into effect a cost-of-living escalator clause, using wages to the cost of living.
6. Submit to binding arbitration any disputes over the following two operating rules: the rule governing pay for men on a train which is assigned more than one type of work at the same time; and the rule under which a railroad may extend its switching limits.
7. Give the unions substantially, but not quite, all they wanted on a rule governing pay for workers told to report late for work because their trains are late.

A four-cent pay boost would go to all men switching from a 48 to a 40-hour week when the change was made.

Captives Become Captors In Brazilian Jungle Snafu

BELEM, BRAZIL — (AP) — The captives reportedly had turned captor Tuesday in the latest episode of Brazil's jungle rescue mixup. A Brazilian major radioed he had felled a rival search group which held him and an American aviation official hostage at the scene of last month's crash of a Pan American Stratocruiser.

This cryptic message was received Monday night from Maj. Miranda Correa as three planes with 38

New Jet Ace Born As Four MIG's Fall

SEOUL, KOREA — (AP) — U. S. Sabre jet pilots reported they shot down four Communist jets over Northwest Korea Tuesday. The air battle near the Manchurian border produced America's sixteenth jet ace.

A U. S. Fifth Air Force announcement said the new kills raised total destruction of Russian-built MIG's in the Korean war to 302.

Col. Harrison R. Thyng of Pittsburgh, N. H., commander of the Fourth Fighter-Interceptor Wing, got his jet ace rating in the fight near the Yalu River.

On the 155-mile ground front, action was limited to patrol clashes.

Oil Workers—

lowed the general formula outlined last week by the Wage Stabilization Board.

Reported near agreement were The Texas Company and several hundred workers at Port Arthur. They still disagreed on the retroactive pay proposal offered by Texaco.

Beaumont workers of Magnolia Petroleum Company started negotiations with the company on a new contract to replace one expiring May 31.

Another Texas City refinery, Pan-American, stayed strikebound with union and company bickering over the length of the contract. Other issues have been agreed upon.

Motorsists had not felt any ill effects from the strike as the end of three weeks of walkout approached. But the aviation industry had.

President C. R. Smith of American Airlines, one of the country's major air carriers, said his company would cancel 42 daily flights Thursday.

Smith said if additional gasoline is not available to the line quickly it would be forced to cancel more than 50 per cent of its schedules by Saturday.

Accident Victim Still Unconscious

Little Susan Gallagher, still unconscious since an automobile accident Saturday afternoon, continued to show a little improvement Tuesday at Midland Memorial Hospital.

Hospital attendants said the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gallagher, 409 West Hamby Street, still is in a serious condition but is showing slight improvements.

She suffered head injuries when the automobile in which she was riding collided with another vehicle and she never has regained complete consciousness.

Atom Blast Fizzles As Delonator Fails

LAS VEGAS, NEV. — (AP) — An experimental atomic shot at the Yucca Flat Proving Ground failed to function, the Atomic Energy Commission announced Tuesday.

Several hundred Army troops were at the stations as observers for the scheduled pre-dawn test.

The weather and other conditions were favorable for the blast, already delayed since Friday by weather and radioactivity from the last previous shot May 7.

However, the AEC said, the sequence timer, which sets off the electrical systems which detonate the device, failed. The AEC's first announcement said the cause of the failure had not been determined.

Once before, a similar failure occurred during an A-bomb test. That was the first shot of the Fall series of 1951.

The AEC said the test will not be canceled but merely has been postponed 48 hours.

Midland County joined the district but the trickle of funds has been slower than the rainfall.

While the county had pledged $7,000 as its share of the total district cost, only about $2,300 has been pledged by ranchers and farmers and only about $1,500 in cash actually has been collected.

The meeting Thursday night will feature a color movie, "Operation Weather Control," as well as a demonstration in which a miniature snowstorm will be created to show the effect of seeding moisture-laden clouds with silver iodide crystals.

25 Years Ago, He Was The 'Lone Eagle'

By WADE JONES
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—A balding, graying man in his fifties, he lives quietly now, almost forgotten, in the little town of Darien, Conn., with his wife and five children.

But he nurses as vivid a set of memories as ever a man was cursed or blessed with.

Twenty-five years ago this month he came out of the West with a big hope, and a small airplane, and said:

Most recent photo of Lindbergh was made at aviation dinner in Washington in December, 1949.

he planned to fly the Atlantic Ocean non-stop from New York to Paris. It had never been done before.

But he did it. His name was Charles Augustus Lindbergh.

The lanky, curly-haired youngster of 25, already with the familiar crinkle-cornered eyes of the flier, turned up at Curtiss Field, Long Island, on May 12, 1927, with a silver-nosed monoplane he called the Spirit of St. Louis.

Airplanes had just reached the point of development where a transatlantic flight was believed barely possible. The Frenchmen Nungesser and Goll had gone down at sea only that week in an attempt. Death and crack-ups had ended other ventures.

At least two planes were all set to take off from New York when Lindbergh learned, on the night of May 19, that the storms over the Atlantic were breaking up.

The rest of the night he spent in hurried preparation. No sleep. With five sandwiches and five quarts of water, Lindbergh climbed into his plane at 7:40 the next morning. At 7:51 the plane, its single Wright Whirlwind engine developing only 200 horsepower, began trundling slowly and heavily down the muddy landing strip.

Loaded To Limit

It was loaded to the limit with fuel. No engine of that horsepower had ever lifted such a heavy load. The big job was the take-off, now underway. Already three contenders—Fonck, Davis and Wooster—had failed to get off the ground.

Many in the crowd at Curtiss Field that May 20 morning sincerely doubted that Lindbergh would ever make it. Slowly, slowly the plane gained speed. It passed the point where Lindbergh could still stop it without cracking up.

Pilots in the crowd twisted and turned, trying hopefully to get the plane off the ground with their own body English. "Get the tail up, get the tail up," they urged, half aloud. Finally the tail did come up, then the wheels lifted ever so slightly. Over a tractor by a 10-foot margin, over telephone wires by a scant 20 feet. But she was off and flying.

Some 12 hours later the Spirit of St. Louis, a tiny speck in the sky, was sighted on course and on schedule over Newfoundland. Then Lindbergh ran into storms. He had to turn at right angles, flying first north and then south to dodge through the boiling clouds which meant big wind.

Some time in the lonesome darkness that night, Lindbergh ate a sandwich, the only one he had during the entire trip. Late the next day he sighted some specks to the south and far below. Fishing boats.

Circles Low

He circled low over one and yelled, "Which way's Ireland?" The astonished fisherman in the boat just looked, speechless.

But fishing boats meant land not far away, and in a few hours Lindbergh spotted the southern tip of Ireland.

Over Ireland, England and the channel. At the French coast he picked up the beacon lights of the London-Paris airway. They guided him to Paris' Le Bourget airfield, where his wheels touched down 33 1/2 hours after they'd lifted from Curtiss Field.

A crowd of 100,000 wildly cheering Frenchmen greeted him at the airport. They hauled him bodily from his plane and passed him along overhead hand-to-hand, rolling and twisting. It was one-half hour before his feet touched the ground.

The world went wild when Lindbergh landed in Paris on May 21, 1927, the first man to fly the Atlantic non-stop.

Movie Programs

were interrupted to bring the news. The staid New York Times used an exclamation point in its headline, "Lindbergh Does It!" It ran six solid pages of text on the story.

Lindbergh and his plane came home triumphantly on a United States cruiser at the order of President Coolidge. His ticker-tape welcome was one New Yorker will never forget.

Through it all, Lindbergh—now Lucky Lindy and the Lone Eagle—acted with complete modesty. He turned down more than $2,500,000 in movie and advertising offers.

Takes Over Headlines

Four years later the Lindbergh name had again taken over the headlines in the nation's newspapers, but this time it was a story of tragedy. His 19-month-old child, Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., was kidnapped, and three months later was found dead near the family's home at Hopewell, N. J.

For four more years, until the (Continued On Page Six)

Hemorrhoids Are Best Treated By Removing Completely

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Hemorrhoids, or piles, are enlarged veins which develop at or near the outlet of the rectum. They are likely to occur in clusters. At first, the enlargements appear and disappear. They may come on gradually or suddenly. A special strain, such as lifting, or a bad attack of constipation can bring sudden trouble.

Blockage of the flow of blood through the hemorrhoidal veins favors the development of piles. Many factors can contribute: childbirth, long-continued severe coughing, the muscular strain of heavy lifting or athletics, and constipation, are common.

Often the first symptom is the presence of blood on the outside of the stool without pain. Other common early signs are itching or slight pain, especially on straining. Bleeding usually is slight at first, but can get so bad that it can cause anemia.

Ulcers, or cracks in the skin or mucous membrane around the rectum often develop in a long-continued case. Such complications frequently are painful.

At times clots can form inside the enlarged veins. These are likely to arise suddenly with severe pain. They usually are absorbed in a week or so though the clot can be shelled out by surgery.

Surgery Best Treatment

Mrs. O. asks about treatment with the electric needle. This method is favored by some, but in general, the best treatment for hemorrhoids is to cut them out. This involves an operation which can be performed with either local or general anesthesia. There has been much improvement in the methods of treatment and after-care in recent years, so that usually convalescence is more rapid and the pain is less severe following this operation than formerly was the case.

There is some danger that piles will come back after operation—that is, new ones develop—unless the causes which originally produced the condition also are corrected. There is much concern about whether piles, or hemorrhoids, lead to cancer. Fortunately, though hemorrhoids cause a lot of discomfort, they do not increase the chances of developing cancer.

A cow eats about 125 pounds of five-inch-high forage a day—enough to produce 50 pounds of 3.5 per cent milk. But where the grass is two to three inches high, she eats only 45 pounds a day.

UNCLE EF

Crooked politicians have always been with us and probably always will be. It does seem, though, that we've been sort of over-producing in that department in recent years, and some plowing under might help the political soil in the future.

Norge Products Available At Beauchamp's

If you are considering buying a stove, refrigerator, washing machine or home freezer, Beauchamp's Refrigerator Service, 216 North Main Street, is the place to go.

Situated at a convenient downtown location, you can visit Beauchamp's and look over their products on your regular downtown shopping trip.

In business here for the past 30 years, Beauchamp's is an old reliable firm.

Be sure to have one of the clerks at Beauchamp's show you the new Norge automatic washer which takes all the drudgery out of washing clothes.

It's as simple as this to do your laundry with a Norge automatic washer: put your clothes in, add soap, set the washer on automatic and forget about it.

The Norge will wash, rinse and dry the clothes while the housewife goes about her other tasks. If she prefers, the washer can be stopped or started manually.

The beautiful new deluxe refrigerator also is on display at Beauchamp's. An outstanding feature of this product is that it automatically defrosts itself every night.

Other Norge products in stock at Beauchamp's include Norge gas or electric ranges or Norge Home Freezers.

A complete line of smaller appliances at Beauchamp's that every housewife should have includes roasters, coffee makers, mixers, toasters or electric blankets.

With warm summer months here, you need a Carrier-refrigerated air conditioner found in a variety of sizes from Beauchamp's.

Regardless of your appliance needs, go to Beauchamp's or telephone 4-4601 for information.

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail
And Thimble-Thumb

Mugwump, Monkey, the monkey boy, was sitting in the swing on the porch of the monkey house. He was wearing a dreamy cap on his head. He was going to dream that he was as little as a man's thumb, and that his head was no larger than a thimble. He was going to have the name of Thimble-Thumb.

thread from Mother Ringtail. The thread was a rope for Thimble-Thumb. He also borrowed a needle that Mother Ringtail used to sew buttons on shirts that needed buttons. The needle would be his sword. Thimble-Thumb now was all ready to seek his fortune in the great wide world, except Mother Ringtail said that first he ought to take a bath before he went. She filled a cereal bowl with clean warm water, and in he had his bath and a swim too, for the bowl was large enough for Thimble-Thumb to swim in. He laughed while he swam in the bowl, because it was the one where he had eaten his cereal that very morning when he was still Mugwump and before he had changed to Thimble-Thumb.

At last he began his long and dangerous climb on down to the ground from the top of the very tall tree where the monkey house was. What a long way down it was, now that he was little like a thumb. He might have been climbing all day, but a friendly butterfly gave him a ride to the top of a flower. Thimble-Thumb then slid down the flower in much the same way as he used to slide down the very tall tree when he was still Mugwump.

Oh, but now that he was on the ground, how could he ever walk anywhere without using up the rest of his life to do the walking? Thimble-Thumb was too little to walk fast or very far, and so he decided he needed a horse, but not the kind that big folks ride. He needed a horse the size of a mouse, yes—that's it! He needed a mouse for a horse, and tomorrow I'll tell you how he found one. Happy day!

Real Problems Of 1952

It would be a great disservice to the American people if the coming election should be fought out along the entrenched battle lines of the New Deal-Fair Deal versus the long-established opposition. Because events largely have consigned that struggle to history.

Unfortunately, there are many signs in both camps that the 1952 campaign still may be geared too closely to outmoded loyalties and hostilities. President Truman and some of his cohorts still boast loudly of the Democrats' anti-depression program, although it was initiated almost 20 years ago. In his messages to Congress and the people, he still discusses new social proposals as if this were 1936.

For their part, a great many Republicans still talk as if the great need of the moment is to halt the New Deal-Fair Deal in its tracks and perhaps restore many of the conditions which prevailed before 1932.

In some circles it is regarded as pretty damaging stuff to call a man a "me-tooer," indicating thereby that he is too friendly to Democratic notions of social progress.

In truth, the New Deal ended for all practical purposes in 1938, when sharp Republican gains in Congress put a checkrein on President Roosevelt, and Hitler's moves abroad shifted the emphasis to the world scene.

As for the Fair Deal, Truman's postwar social package, it has been mainly a paper program. A new housing law—sponsored by Senator Taft and approved by many Republicans—plus modifications of the social security and minimum wage laws just about represents the sum of Fair Deal achievement.

But more important than the fact that there have been no great recent advances which would give life to the old struggle, the problems of the American people today are no longer in that same frame of reference. In 1952 the big fact is the contest between the free world and Russian communism, and all that it means in terms of foreign aid, rearmament, domestic controls, inflation and the like.

In his new book, "The Future of American Politics," Samuel Lubell stresses this shift to new problems and points out the cost to Americans that lies in failure to recognize and deal with these difficulties.

During most of 1951, he recalls, a battle raged in Congress between members who felt $5,000,000,000 or $6,000,000,000 could be pared from the military budget, and those who supported Truman's contention that the budget already had been cut to the bone.

"While this controversy was going on," writes Lubell, "something like $12,000,000,000 were being added to the government's expenses by the failure to act in time to halt inflation. Rising prices added that much more to the cost of defense."

Looked at this way, the old New Deal-anti-New Deal fight on economy versus social gains appears silly. Where is the economy in slashing $6,000,000,000 from defense while inflation adds $12,000,000,000? And what social gains could be offered that could possibly offset the hurt to the citizen's pocketbook represented by that boost in costs?

Sooner or later the answers to the real problems of 1952 must be had. And the party which will insure itself of steady tenure in the White House in this next phase of American history is the one with the courage and imagination to tackle these issues.

Invisible To The Naked Eye

At long last Harold Stassen has conceded he has no chance for the GOP presidential nomination. He tries to imply that he never really felt he did, but only was concerned with stopping Senator Taft. And he suggests that his activity has been beneficial to the candidacy of General Eisenhower, whom he says he prefers.

Perhaps if you put Stassen's accumulated primary votes under the microscope, you might be able to discern some slight damage done to Taft. Certainly nothing is visible to the naked eye.

As for Eisenhower, it is difficult to see how he has been aided. Stassen opposed Ike alone in Pennsylvania, and cluttered up the opposition picture in New Hampshire, Nebraska, Illinois and now Oregon. Is this friendship?

The truth is, Friend Harold is just trying to explain away a bad situation. Not even radar could detect him on the political horizon another time.

The world is full of a lot of people who are willing to lead the way—but where to?

There still is a government demand for scrap iron, but that's no reason to drive carelessly.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1952, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)
Drew Pearson says: Resignation letter of Democratic Budget Officer Bradley is bitterly critical of Chairman McKinney; Refers to use of national committee funds in Illinois against Kefauver.

WASHINGTON — The personal and political expenses of Democratic National Chairman Frank McKinney are causing a lot of backstage comment in top Democratic circles this week. They've also caused the resignation of the Democratic budget officer, William S. Bradley.

Bradley resigned with a caustic confidential letter calling attention to McKinney's personal expenses, which include $750 to the Marian Service Company of Miami, reportedly for handling his yacht. And $21.75 paid to a photographer, P. H. Ho of Indianapolis. McKinney's home town, for "pictures of chairman."

The most amazing of McKinney's political expenses is $40,000 which was dumped into Cook County, Ill., to try to cut down the vote for Senator Estes Kefauver during the recent Illinois primary. Use of national committee funds against any Democratic candidate in a primary election is strictly against all the political rules, and as a result, non-partisan members of the Democratic National Committee are boiling mad.

All this came to the surface when Democratic Budget Officer Bradley submitted his resignation, with a stinging private letter blasting the manner in which McKinney was conducting Democratic finances.

Bradley also sent a letter to two top Democrats, Jonathan Daniels of Raleigh, N. C., and Molly O'Riordan of Boston, itemizing the chairman's extravaganzas. These included personal expense checks paid to McKinney for $3,000 each on January 1, February 2, and March 24, plus $1,720 on March 25, the latter credited as "expense acct.—Florida." This was in addition to the $750 to the Marian Service Company of Miami, reportedly for handling the McKinney yacht.

McKinney's total for expenses up to March 25 was listed as $10,578.93, this, however, did not include his bills at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington.

In fairness to McKinney, it should be noted that he has not received a salary from the committee. Bradley's letter was received by members of the Democratic Executive Committee meeting in Chicago last week and immediately became the talk of the meeting. Brought to the attention of Chairman McKinney.

"I do not know the source of the information on which you based your public statement that the 1952 dinner was the most successful ever held," the budget officer continued, "but it was completely erroneous. The records of the controller's office could have provided the correct figures, had they been consulted. The 1950 dinner, held in the Army, under comparable cost conditions, produced the following result: total receipts—$581,543.00. Total cost—$120,872.66. Net receipts—$460,670.34."

"A notable example of the need for the establishment of controls at the recently held Washington Jefferson-Jackson dinners. In spite of the fact that the total receipts for the dinner—$422,046.00—including pledges—were far below expectations, the committee could have saved approximately $50,000 by the application of reasonable controls over spending and waste."

"For example, we paid for 5,390 dinners, yet we received contributions, including pledges, covering only 4620 dinners—in other words, we fed 1,170 free-loaders, at committee expense. Perhaps 200 of these were given to the staff and officials guests—but what happened to the other 970? I do not think your records will disclose the names of the persons who received these free tickets—and yet, each ticket had a potential value of $100. The proper control of such an operation is exceedingly simple—immensely important. Some two months before the dinner, I made this suggestion to Judge Howard, again during your absence. I quote his reply: 'Since Wash. Williams is dinner chairman, suppose we let him run it.'"

"Of the total receipts, only $360,221 was in cash. Out of this, we will pay approximately $139,000 in dinner and promotion costs, leaving only about $221,000 in available cash for the present use of the committee. A few practical economies, applied in contracting the dinner costs, would have saved thousands, but unfortunately, no adequate controls were maintained. As a result, on the basis of the 5,390 dinners which we paid for, the cost of $25.10 per plate—while on the more accurate basis of the 4,220 contributions, the cost was $32.06 each. This estimate is predicated on full collection of all pledges. If we fail in this, the per plate cost will be considerably higher."

"Of the $61,000 in pledges, accepted in lieu of cash, approximately $18,000 came from persons who still owe us for their 1951 dinner pledges—some of whom owe for years even previous to that. All of these matters were called to Judge Howard's attention in ample time to have taken effective measures, had you so desired."

Bradley also made some pointed references to committee money used against Kefauver in Chicago.

"Since January 1, 1952, contributions to other committees, made on your authority, have exceeded the budget by $80,000," he said. "This includes a contribution of $40,000 to the Cook County (Illinois) Central Committee, which was not contemplated in the budget—and $4,000 to the Congressional Campaign Committee, which was not in their regular budget, and was, apparently, for some special purpose."

"Deservedly or not," Bradley concluded, "I have established a good reputation, which I value, as a budget officer, both with the government, and with the Democratic National Committee, under its three preceding chairmen—and I would like to keep the record straight on this subject."

Ridgway Is Almost Sure To Get Five-Star Rank Held By Five Other U. S. Generals

WASHINGTON — (NEA)—Four-Star-Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway is almost a sure bet to be given five-star general of the Army rank before he goes to take up his new job as SACUR—Supreme Allied Commander in Europe.

Timing for President Truman to send the promotion to Congress for approval hasn't been worked out yet, but a special ceremony as General Ridgway passes through Washington is a possibility.

He would be the second U. S. general to be given five-star rank since World War II. General of the Army Omar Bradley was the first. Marshall, MacArthur, Eisenhower and Arnold first were given this rank during the war.

If General Ridgway doesn't get it now he would be outranked in Paris by two of his deputies, British Field Marshal Lord Montgomery and French Gen. Alphonse Juin.

Shortly after President Truman's TV tour of the White House, in which the Man played The Piano, a friend said: "Mr. Truman, nobody will be satisfied now, until you and Margaret put on an act to gether."

The President threw back his head, laughed loud, and said: "I'm afraid that's one you'll never see."

The government's housekeeping agency, General Services Administration, is making vigorous denials that it is competing with privately owned Western Union Telegraph Company in operating a wire service.

Western Union has been blasting at the GSA telegraphic network in newspaper advertisements headed, "Blueprint for Socialism."

The main argument is that the government-operated telegraph service is a foot-in-the-door approach to government ownership, which now is being urged by striking Western Union employees.

GSA rebuttal is that the government wire circuit, linking 56 cities in which Uncle Sam does most of his business, save the taxpayers about $2,000,000 a year. Its operating costs are $1,400,000 a year. If messages were sent at commercial rates, cost would be $3,400,000.

Furthermore, the private wires are faster. And finally, the lines and equipment are leased from American Telephone and Telegraph, which is privately owned business and a Western Union competitor in this field.

In addition to the GSA network for general government messages, other agencies have private wires for specific purposes. Federal Reserve has a hookup with key banks. Department of Agriculture runs a network of its own so as to maintain secrecy. The armed services also have their own communications systems, but much of this goes by radio.

Congressional economy and budget-cutting drive now indicates possible savings of about $7,500,000,000, or a little more than nine per cent. Of this, $4,700,000,000 is the House cut of military expenditures, $1,000,000,000 is the indicated cut in foreign aid and $1,800,000,000 is the saving that the House has been able to make on all other government spending.

Senate so far has completed action on only two bills. It cut the Treasury-Post Office bill passed by the House $44,000,000 and raised the House-passed Labor-Federal Security bill by $3,000,000.

John L. Lewis' latest big words are "tergiversation" and "sciolism." Commenting on a recent speech by Clarence Randall, president of Inland Steel, the mine workers' boss said:

"Not content to confine his tergiversation to the steel dispute, Randall engaged in a little sciolism in regard to the union shop agreement in the steel industry captive mines."

Tergiversation means turning the back on, or desertion of a cause or doctrine. Sciolism means a show of learning.

Philologists and grammarians now are arguing among themselves as to whether Lewis used the right jaw breakers in the wrong places. In other words, what Lewis meant was that Randall, not content to confine his sciolism (show of learning) to the steel dispute, had engaged in a little tergiversation (turning his back on) the union shop. You figure it out.

In Ridiculous Spot

Irving S. Olds, retiring board chairman of U. S. Steel Corporation, told his stockholders that "the steel companies never have asked that steel prices be increased $12 a ton."

Other steel company executives and public relations spokesmen for the steel companies also have gone out of their way to insist that Washington statements on a $12-a-ton price increase to meet wage raises were without foundation. And technically they are correct.

This $12-a-ton figure did not, however, appear out of nowhere. On March 21 the Washington headquarters for the steel companies put out a statement that the recommended wage rate increases "would cost the companies about $1,000,000,000 a year, which is about $12 per ton of steel products shipped by the companies."

On the other hand, after President Truman blasted Senator Homer Capehart's price-raising amendment, the government put itself in a ridiculous position by trying to force the steel companies to accept a $3- or $4-a-ton price increase under the Capehart amendment, to meet government-recommended wage raises.

Watchful Policy

Nomination of Albert P. Nufar as U. S. ambassador to the Argentine will mean no change in U. S. watchful policy toward Dictator Juan Peron's government. The main purpose was to get a career diplomat in Buenos Aires to succeed the string of political appointees who thus far have not been able to improve relations with the Argentine.

They include Spruille Braden, James Bruce, Stanton Griffiths and Ellsworth Bunker. Another political appointee this close to U. S. elections might be bad.

One of the biggest headaches in U. S.-Argentine relations today is the steam of violent anti-American propaganda being issued by Peron's labor attaches at other Latin American capitals. Much of it follows the straight Commie line.

Protests have been made. The Argentine ambassador to Washington, Dr. Hipolito J. Paz, has just returned from a flying trip home. His mission was to try to persuade his government to ease up on its official, diplomatic anti-American propaganda.

Spirit of St. Louis, in which Lindbergh winged his way to fame, now hangs in the air over visitors to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington. He drops in once in a while for a look.

25 Years Ago He Was The 'Lone Eagle'—

kidnapers. Bruno Richard Hauptmann, was electrocuted for the crime at Trenton, N. J., on April 3, 1936, the story was top news.

In 1935 the Lindberghs went to England to get away from the terrible ordeal of the kidnapping. While he was there, Maj. Truman Smith, United States military attaché at Berlin, invited him to Germany to take a look at the fast-growing German air force.

Field Marshal Goring, head of the Luftwaffe, was flattered by Lindbergh's presence and rolled out the plush welcome carpet. Lindbergh got a thorough look at the Luftwaffe, from the inside out.

His and Major Smith's report to Washington was a masterpiece of military intelligence and won Smith the Distinguished Service Medal.

Lindbergh then, in 1936, began checking on the air forces of other countries, always working closely with our ambassadors in the foreign capitals and reporting direct to Washington.

In 1939 he came back to this country and went on active duty as a colonel. But when war broke out in Europe, he became a civilian again. He was a leader in the America First Committee, speaking out strongly against our involvement in the European war.

President Roosevelt criticized him so harshly that Lindbergh thought he was being accused virtually of treason. So he resigned his reserve commission.

After Pearl Harbor he offered his services to the War Department, but was turned down. But Henry Ford took him on as a consultant in B-24 bomber construction.

Later In War

Later in World War II, Lindbergh went to the Pacific theater and flew 50 combat missions as a fighter pilot, though he was then in his forties. He lived and worked like the rest of the pilots, almost all youngsters, but he wore no insignia.

Since the war he has lived largely in retirement, emerging now and then to do some work with our Air Force units abroad.

The Spirit of St. Louis now is at the Smithsonian Institution, in Washington, as much in the public eye as Lindbergh is out of it. More visitors ask questions about the plane than any other exhibit there. Once in awhile Lindbergh drops by to take a look at it. People who've spotted him there say his look is a little wistful.

A-Bomb Blast No Worse Than Jump To Paratroopers

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Being right up close to an atomic bomb explosion is no more frightening to a paratrooper than making a jump.

In fact the average American GI takes maneuvers with live atomic weapons pretty much in his emotional stride, with the implication that he could face real atomic warfare with no more qualms than any American soldier has ever had when facing combat.

These conclusions are based on extensive scientific psychological and physiological testing of the troops who participate in live atomic detonations. Some of the top psychiatrists of the country are running the study for the Army and act as observers with the troops during an atomic maneuver.

Various psychological examinations for troops who are going to be close to a blast are given before they are told what they are going to do, the night before the explosion, and immediately afterwards.

Measures Rate
The physiological testing includes use of a polygraph which measures rate of heart beat and breathing during questioning, a device similar to a lie-detector. Factual tests are given on how much the men learn from the briefings and seeing the explosion.

Purposes of the tests are two-fold, according to Major Jay B. Mowbray, an Army psychological research expert. First the Army wants to know if the men learn enough to make an atomic maneuver worth all the trouble. And second, Mowbray says the Army wants to know exactly how scared the men get.

So far the only results which have been completely analyzed are those from the first explosions in Nevada, which involved only paratroopers. Many of these results are secret. However, some of the general findings can be revealed, along with preliminary results from the most recent atomic maneuvers at Yucca Flat.

Before each test psychological observers planted among the men watch carefully for evidences of panic or attempts to escape it. No panic has been detected. And no more than normal attempts to alibi out of an all-day exercise have been seen.

Fact Observed
In fact, an opposite interesting fact is observed. During any given time among a group of troops a fixed fraction of the men will develop some kind of emotional trouble, from ulcers to complete breakdown. During the time the men are waiting for the actual atomic test, the number of psycho-neurotic casualties actually decreases.

Mowbray admits the results involving paratroopers might not be valid for the whole Army. They are an elite, volunteer and highly-trained group. But the preliminary results from the most recent test involving ground, Air Force and Marine troops indicate that the reactions of all GIs are just about the same.

Mowbray cites one example of the factual tests of the men's knowledge of atomic weapons given before and after the detonation, although most of the results are secret.

Before Blast
Before the explosion, more than 80 per cent of the men mistakenly believe that they need special protective clothing at the distance they are to be from it. Afterwards, in a written examination, all but about three per cent of the men show they have actually learned the facts involved.

A factual written exam before the explosion was given to another unit which was not going to participate but which was in the same division as the one that participated. The same exam was given a month later to find out how much the non-participating outfit had learned by word of mouth from the men who had gone through a blast.

There was very little distortion of the information passed on, no wild tales told of what an A-bomb explosion was like. But there wasn't much total information passed on either.

LOCUSTS PERIL MID-EAST FOOD SUPPLY—The worst locust plague in 100 years threatens the food supply of 15 nations in an area stretching from Egypt to Pakistan. White area on above Newsmag shows countries with a total of 1.5 billion acres of land which are infested with the dread insects. The problem has become so serious that Russia is cooperating with the United Nations in a united effort to control the menace.

Up front at atom bomb test, two soldiers watch the bomb cloud mushroom up as they stand in foxhole trenches close to the blast. Psychological tests showed they took it in stride.

Into foxholes before atom test at Yucca Flat, Nev., go Pfc. Kenneth Larsen, left, and Cpl. Clifford Stephens, Air Force observation troops. Like others in the tests, they underwent psychological tests before and after the blast.
