A new book, "First Christmas, The True and Unfamiliar Story in Words and Pictures," by Paul L. Maier, published by Harper & Row, offers further substantiation of Luke's story of the nativity, which some historians in the past have claimed to be "slightly garbled."

The journey of Joseph and Mary was questioned, but Maier says that discovery of a Roman edict gives historical basis for such a journey.

Caesar Augustus took many censuses during his reign, says Maier, ordering all the people in the far-flung Roman Empire to their ancestral homes to register. Augustus was checking to determine how his campaigns against bachelorhood were doing. He worried about the reluctance of men in the empire to marry, fearing that an extremely low birth rate occasioned by the growing number of bachelors would cause his domain to fade away. Under his decrees, bachelors faced penalties, while men who married and became fathers received political advantages.

The entire Mediterranean world was governed by Rome, and it was an edict of Augustus that caused the Nazarene couple, Joseph and Mary, to travel 80 miles to Bethlehem, says Maier.

"Although little is known of the birth of Jesus outside the New Testament, the full story of the first Christmas is not limited to the Gospels of Matthew and Luke," says Maier. "Many important aspects of the event come into sharper focus when history, geography, archaeology and even astronomy shed their light on the suject."

Aside from the true history there are many legends associated with Christmas. One of these involves the Christmas tree. The first such tree with lights and gifts on it is believed to have been used as recently as 130 years ago by Prince Albert and Queen Victoria in Windsor Castle.

One early legend is based on three trees said to have been near Christ's manger: the olive, the date palm and the pine tree. It was said that the olive gave its fruit to honor the newborn King, the palm gave its dates as an offering, but the pine had nothing to give. So, some stars descended gently and rested on the boughs of the pine as a gift of light.

There is another account concerning the origin of illuminating the tree. It is said that on one Christmas Eve, Martin Luther wandered outdoors and became enraptured with the starry sky. The beauty and brightness caused him to reflect on the glory of the first Christmas Eve in Bethlehem. Wishing to share this with his wife and children, he cut down an evergreen glistening with snow, and took it home. Then, he placed candles on it to represent the brilliance of the heavens outside.

Electric illumination of the Christmas tree first began in 1902.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Thursday, Dec. 23, the 357th day of 1971. There are eight days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1941, U.S. forces on Wake Island surrendered to the Japanese during World War II.

On this date:

In 1783, George Washington resigned as army commander-in-chief and retired to his home at Mount Vernon, Va.

In 1788, Maryland voted to cede a parcel of land for the seat of the U.S. government.

In 1805, the Mormon leader, Joseph Smith, was born in Sharon, Vt.

In 1940, during World War II, Britain's Prime Minister Winston Churchill urged the Italians to rid themselves of the dictator, Benito Mussolini.

In 1948, former Premier Hideki Tojo of Japan and six other Japanese war leaders were executed in Tokyo.

In 1962, the first of more than 1,100 prisoners captured in the Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba began arriving in Miami in an airlift that followed payment of ransom.

Ten years ago: President John F. Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan were discussing Berlin and other world problems at a meeting in Bermuda.

Five years ago: Thousands of Christian Arabs crossed from Israel into Jordan to celebrate Christmas in Bethlehem.

One year ago: Jozef Cyrankiewicz was ousted as premier of Poland and replaced by Pietr Jaroszewicz.

POW Families Elated Upon Release Of Names

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For the families of 18 American servicemen the edge of anxiety wore off today, the agony of not knowing was gone. Their men are prisoners of the Viet Cong in South Vietnam, but their men are alive.

"I feel grand, I can't tell you how grand I feel," said Mandy Davis in Clayton, Ala., after learning Wednesday that her son, Thomas, missing in action since March 1968, was among the 18.

"How would you feel if it was your son?" replied Jerhardt Mehrer of Omaha Neb., when a reporter asked his reaction to the news that his son Gustave was one of the prisoners.

Some of the families had not heard from their men in years. One man had been listed officially as killed in action. Sixteen had not been heard from as prisoners previously.

The names were released by Cora Weiss, co-chairman of the Committee of Liason With Families of Servicemen Detained in North Vietnam, which serves as a conduit for mail from the prisoners.

Letters from the 18 were among 1,001 letters from 332 war prisoners brought to New York Tuesday by the Rev. Richard Fernandez, a member of the committee, from North Vietnamese and Viet Cong representatives in Paris.

In Omaha, Mehrer said his son was captured on Christmas Day in 1968. The only clue the family had to his fate came in 1969 when another American prisoner was freed.

The prisoner who was released had memorized the names of other prisoners including one "Gussie from Omaha." Since then they had let themselves believe that their son was alive, Mehrer said.

Since the summer of 1967, the family of Sgt. Alfonso Ray Riate has believed him dead. The Marine Corps listed Riate as missing for 60 days, then notified the family he had been killed in action.

"It's really hard to believe. It's really shocking," said Riate's half sister Zelda Lovinto in Bell Gardens, Calif. Mrs. Mary Pepper a sister, added, "It's really a good time of year to hear something like this—if it's true."

Mrs. Valerie Kushner of Danville, Va., wife of Army doctor Maj. Floyd Harold Kushner, said a telephone call from New York Tuesday was the first direct word she had received about her husband since 1967.

She said the caller told her that her husband had sent a Christmas letter. "Open it quickly and read it to me," she said.

A Hanoi spokesman said Wednesday in Paris that the list of 339 prisoners was up to date. With the addition of four Americans reported captured Dec. 18, the total number the North Vietnamese acknowledge is 343.

Heath Flies To N. Ireland

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Prime Minister Edward Heath flew secretly to Northern Ireland today to visit British troops locked in a struggle with guerrillas of the Irish Republican Army.

British government officials refused to give details of the British leader's movement in the province wracked by 28 months of shooting and bombing. But they said no political consultations had been planned.

A spokesman for Heath said: "The prime minister has gone to pay Christmas calls on British troops serving in the province. He went this morning and he will be returning later today."

Heath, who returned to London Wednesday from talks in Bermuda with President Nixon, went first to Londonderry, Northern Ireland's second city and a hotbed of insurgents. It is his first visit to Ireland after becoming prime minister in 1970.

He made a tour of military units, switching from place to place by helicopter. Britain has 14,000 troops in Northern Ireland where the Irish Republican Army is waging a terrorist campaign aimed at driving Britain from the province and uniting it with the Irish Republic to the south.

Details of the prime minister's itinerary were kept strictly secret to prevent any possibility of an IRA attack.

Heath was expected to pay what was described as a social call on Northern Ireland's prime minister, Brian Faulkner.

In Ireland, Irish troops battled mobs of rock-throwing youngsters as Northern Ireland's violence spilled over into the Irish republic.

US Air Attacks Closer To Hanoi

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. air attacks in North Vietnam drew closer to Hanoi Wednesday as an American fighter-bomber attacked a radar station 73 miles from the North Vietnamese capital, military sources reported today. Another such attack 82 miles from Hanoi Wednesday had been reported earlier.

Both attacks were made by planes escorting U.S. bombers operating over northeast Laos. They raised to 102 the number of U.S. attacks on North Vietnam reported this year.

The U.S. Command said that in the 102nd attack, an Air Force F105 fired a Shrike missile and probably destroyed the radar site 16 miles east of the Laotian border.

Although the U.S. Command said it was "a protective reaction against the hostile actions of an enemy air defense radar site," other sources reported that the radar was not one that could control the firing of surface-to-air missiles or antiaircraft guns.

In the earlier attack Wednesday, the U.S. Command said the enemy radar was 10 miles from the border and had been tracking a bombing flight preparatory to firing. The command said two F105s each fired a Shrike, but the results were not known.

U.S. B52 bombers were reported making attacks in eastern Cambodia north of Highway 7 between Krek and Dam Be, hitting menacing units of the North Vietnamese 9th Division.

Senior South Vietnamese officers said the North Vietnamese troops, after inflicting heavy losses on Cambodian forces on the west side of the Mekong River, had crossed to the eastern side. Officers said at least one battalion was trying to outflank the South Vietnamese force in eastern Cambodia.

Postal Rates Exempt From Price Controls

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Cost of Living Council today exempted postal rates from price controls, but said the U.S. Postal Service must review any proposed rate increases including a 23.9 per cent hike in third class mail rates it is presently seeking.

At the same time, the council said pay for postal workers and all state and local government employes, including teachers, will remain under the authority of the Pay Board.

However, the council lifted price controls from most state and local governmental fees, saying that to do otherwise would invite increases in taxes, which are exempt by law.

Donald Rumsfeld, director of the council, said he thought the new rules would "impose a discipline" on cost of state and local government.

But he said he could not predict at present that the five-and-a-half week-old post-freeze system of economic controls would achieve President Nixon's goal of reducing inflation to beween 2 and 3 per cent next year.

"Look, I have no crystal ball," Rumsfeld told a news conference. "We feel thus far all indications are that it's working. Is it going to get us to the President's goal? I can't say that. It's too early ... I personally believe we'll reach the President's goal."

Rumsfeld said the fledgling U.S. Postal Service, which became an independent federal agency last May, would not be subject to regular price controls but would nevertheless be required to justify any future mail rate increases on several grounds.

Any rate increases must not reflect or allow for future inflationary expectations, must reflect increases in worker productivity, must be necessary to assure continued adequate service, but must not prevent full recovery of costs.

Pay for state and local government employes, including New York City transit workers who are seeking fat pay increases in a new contract to replace one expiring New Year's Eve, will be subject to the Pay Board's ruling that no pay raises in new contracts may exceed 7 per cent a year even in special circumstances.

However, state and local governments will not be required to get advance approval of pay raises. Instead, governmental units with more than 1,000 employes may either, report their pay agreements as presently required or report them only semi-annually provided they promise the Pay Board to abide by its standards.

Nixon has cleared the way for employers to begin retroactive payments to some workers whose pay raises were previously frozen.

Landlords, too, have escaped a total freeze and will have the right beginning Dec. 29 to raise some rents, but only under a complicated set of rules.

Neither the worker who expects a lump sum in back pay, nor the renter who expects an increase, is likely to know for sure how his pocketbook will be affected for some weeks.

In a related development, the Price Commission today was expected to roll back a scheduled 34.1 per cent increase in Blue Cross-Blue Shield insurance rates for 1.4 million federal employes.

Blue Cross-Blue Shield reportedly lost $60 million last year, but Commissioner Chairman C. Jackson Grayson said insurance companies would not be allowed to raise rates to make up for last year's losses.

The commission's sketchy insurance rate guidelines, issued Wednesday, set no flat limit but declared that rates may not be raised to boost profits.

Retroactive pay was provided in a bill Nixon signed into law Wednesday. The measure also extend the President's authority to mandate economic controls through April 30, 1973, the full time span he had requested.

The AFL-CIO and the National Education Association applauded the action, saying it would provide retroactive wage increases to millions of Americans.

The act provides for retroactive payment of some contracted wage increases that came due during the 90-day freeze which ended last month.

Whether those increases would be paid retroactively for the freeze period had been a bone of contention among Pay Board members.

Lighting Contest Judged

Bob Watlington and Mrs. Sam Martin, Jr. were the top winners in the annual Christmas lighting and religious scene decoration contest this year.

Watlington, 2200 Towle Park Road, won the outdoor lighting contest. Mrs. Martin, 1901 Merrill, won the religious door and window contest.

Runnersup in the outdoor lighting contest are Mrs. Bill Dennis, 2801 Twenty-eighth Street (second place), and O.D. Fletcher, 3004 Crockett (third place).

W.E. Raborn, 3007 Crockett, won second place in the religious door and window contest. Mrs. Buck Sitton, 3749 Rose Circle, won third place in this division.

The contest was sponsored jointly by the Jaycees and the Texas Electric Service Company. First prize in the outdoor lighting contest was a portable electric grill, and it was donated by Texas Electric Service Company. All of the other prizes were donated by the Jaycees.

Second prize in the outdoor lighting contest is an electric blender, and third prize is $10 in cash.

Top prize in the religious door and window contest is a $25 U.S. savings bond or $18.75 in cash; second prize is $10; and, third prize is $5.

Postal Service Slate Announced

Regular window service at the Snyder Post Office will be maintained from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Friday, Christmas Eve, Postmaster H.D. Moreland has announced.

[illegible] collection service will follow the regular schedule Friday. However, there will be no mail service on Saturday, Christmas Day.

POWs SUPPOSEDLY TOPIC

Bob Hope Visits N-Viet Embassy

VIENTIANE (AP) — Bob Hope flew to Laos today and in a surprise visit to the North Vietnamese Embassy was believed to have asked permission to visit U.S. prisoners of war in Hanoi.

Hope refused to say what he discussed with the North Vietnamese, but an aide said it was obvious that the American POWs were a topic.

Asked whether the North Vietnamese had responded to any requests he made, Hope replied: "There is no way to know."

Asked if he had requested permission to fly to Hanoi to visit the prisoners, Hope replied: "I don't want to make any comment that might upset things."

Hope spent an hour and 25 minutes with First Secretary Nguyen Van Thanh and said his visit was "friendly and cordial."

Hope's press aide, Bill Faith, refused to say whether the 68-year-old showman carried a message to the North Vietnamese from his friend President Nixon.

A U.S. Army plane brought Hope and Faith to Vientiane from Bangkok, the comedian's headquarters for his annual Christmas visit to U.S. servicemen in Southeast Asia. They were met at the airport by U.S. Ambassador G. McMurtrie Godley and Richard Rand, the embassy's specialist on prisoners of war.

After meeting with Thanh, Hope lunched with Godley and then put on a 20-minute, one-man show on the ambassador's front porch for more than 400 members of the American community in Vientiane.

Fog Hits Texas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Widespread fog and occasional drizzle again plagued much of Texas today, concentrating on the central and eastern sections.

At times it was foggy in a belt stretching from Corpus Christi and San Antonio toward the east and north into Oklahoma.

A line linking Abilene, San Angelo and Del Rio divided the state into two weather patterns—clear to partly cloudy over the western half and foggy with light drizzle scattered across the east.

Paper To Take Yule Holiday

The Snyder Daily News personnel will have a full holiday Saturday, Christmas Day, which means that there will be no Sunday paper Dec. 26.

A weekend issue, combining the regular Friday and Sunday features, and with the Sunday comic section, will be distributed on Friday, Christmas Eve. The regular publication schedule will be resumed on Monday, Dec. 27.

Inflation Surge Is Expected

WASHINGTON (AP) — After claiming success for trimming the rate of inflation during the wage-price-rent freeze, the Nixon administration is now bracing for a temporary surge in the cost of living.

President Nixon's economic advisers say they fully expect the inflation surge to take place as the nation's economy moves through the transition from freeze to thaw.

The nation will get its first glimpse of how extensive the inflation acceleration is when the Consumer Price Index for December is released next month.

Although Nixon's economists say the price stepup should be temporary, they are worried about the length and size of the surge, fearing it could lead the nation back into an inflationary psychology.

During the period roughly corresponding to the freeze, the three months ending in November, the Consumer Price Index advanced by 1.7 per cent, after increasing by 4 per cent during the previous three months.

"Encouraging," the Cost of Living Council said in a statement.

"The program has been a success," said Labor Secretary James D. Hodgson. "The outlook is a better year for the average consumer."

But, first, the council said, consumers will have to wait a few months for that better outlook.

"The price adjustments which have accompanied the transition from the freeze to the system of wage-price controls could result in larger increases in the Consumer Price Index over the coming months, reflecting some of the pressures which built up during the freeze," the council said.

Re-entry into an economy where wages and prices have been allowed to rise within certain limits is the cause for administration worry.

Close to one-fifth of the items that make up the cost of living have been exempted from post-freeze controls—items such as used cars, commercial and industrial rents, raw agricultural products.

The Price Commission is allowing prices to go up to reflect increased costs.

Weather Joke Leads To Arrest

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — What began as a joke about the bad weather over Dallas ended abruptly Wednesday night when a Wichita Falls youth was arrested for making a "hijacking threat" as he deplaned from an aircraft rerouted to Abilene.

"All I did was make a crack about the weather, as bad as it is, it looked like we might end up in Cuba," said the 19-year-old, who is from Lake Charles, La.,

Law enforcement officers converged on the youth as he stepped from Texas International flight 606 following an alert from the pilot, Paul Downing, that he had a possible hijacker aboard.

The supposed hijacker was taken inside the terminal building where he was questioned for 30 minutes and released. No charge was filed.

"There were about six of us griping about the weather and I just happened to make the remark about Cuba as the pilot walked by my seat," he said.

The plane, carrying 36 passengers, was en route from New Orleans to Dallas with a stop at Lake Charles. It was one of several planes rerouted from Dallas because of bad weather.

The youth said he would ride a bus to Wichita Falls.

"I'm sure not going to ride a plane," he said.

Pleas Heard In County Court Cases

Two guilty pleas and three pleas of innocence were entered in county court yesterday.

Freddie Ray James pleaded innocent to a charge of illegal possession of intoxicating beverages and was released on $500 bond. The offense allegedly occurred Dec. 15, and he was arrested by Sheriff's Authorities.

David Leon Smith pleaded innocent to a charge of aggravated assault, and he was released on $1,000 bond. The offense allegedly occurred Dec. 10, and he was arrested by City Police.

Mozelle King pleaded innocent to a charge of illegal possession of intoxicating beverages, and she was released on $1,000 bond. The offense allegedly occurred Dec. 9, and she was apprehended by Sheriff's Authorities.

Trial of James, Smith and Mozelle King was set for Jan. 11, 1972.

Samuel Davis pleaded guilty to a charge of keeping a bawdy house, and he received a $200 fine plus court costs.

Leslie William Floyd pleaded guilty to aggravated assault on two police officers. He received a $25 fine. The offense occurred Dec. 6.

Tuesday, Abelino Lopez Valadez pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was assessed a $100 fine plus court costs and a 30-day jail term. However, the jail term portion of the sentence was probated for six months. The offense occurred Dec. 19, and he was arrested by City Police.

Man Shot In Church

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A young man, cursing and screaming obscenities, entered the Trinity Assembly Church here Wednesday night and was shot by a cousin whom he had threatened, police said.

Quoting the pastor and 20 witnesses, officers told this story:

The 22-year-old man, waving a gun, forced his cousin, 39, to the pulpit and told him to get on his knees and beg for mercy.

His demands were ignored and he began firing the .22 caliber pistol. The threatened man produced a .25 caliber pistol and shot back, hitting the intruder in the cheek and shoulder.

After emptying his gun of seven bullets, the intruder tried to flee the church but was tackled by one of the worshippers.

Officers said the Rev. John Hagge was delivering a sermon on "Demons" when the intruder entered.

From his hospital bed, the wounded man said his older cousin was a warlock and had attempted to bewitch him. The older man escaped harm.

Noting the sermon topic, officers said some of the worshippers present expressed the opinion that the intruder was possessed of a demon.

School To Be Club Project

The Kiwanis Club of Snyder decided to make aid to the Humble-Smith Special School its No. 1 project for the 1971-72 club year.

The decision was made at the regular luncheon meeting of the club Wednesday at the Steak House.

A report on the Goodfellows was given by Billy Wayne Thompson, and Arel Faver discussed the Humble-Smith School project.

Fireman Called

City Firemen answered two calls yesterday.

They extinguished a minor car fire in the 1500 block of Twenty-seventh Street at 1:15 p.m. They extinguished a grass fire 2½ miles east of town off the Roby Highway at 1:45 p.m.

Seven and a half million Londoners live in 610 square miles.

Robes Are Quilted, Embroidered

EMBROIDERED LOUNGEWEAR—Quilting and embroidery turn simply pretty robes into smashing ones. At left, Odette Barsa translates this year's popular daytime coat, the princess, into a luxuriously long robe. It is boldly embroidered, begins slim with long narrow sleeves and a soft bow, then flares. In the center Bill Tice creates a wine velvet hostess gown for Royal Robes. Inspired by the 19th century dress, the design is long with puffed sleeves, a high collar and white floral embroidery. At right, Odette Barsa shows off a short robe. It's a shocking pink embroidered peignoir, and has a gathered look. The sleeves are puffed and there is a full bow at the neck. Underneath the coat, a sheer nightgown has rippled embroidery at the bodice. Layout by Joe Damone

Woman Recalls Being Lone Female In Classes In 1921

By BOB INGLE
Associated Press Writer

TALLADEGA, Ala. (AP) — In 1910 Maria Whitson decided she'd rather lead women than follow men. Now she leads both, but it wasn't until 60 years later that her ambitions were fulfilled, when she ran for office this year, and outpolled 29 other candidates for the city council.

In the meantime, Miss Whitson wasn't idle. She was the first woman to get an engineering degree from Auburn; she directed a technical school program and gave up a teaching career to help the war effort.

Today, at 70, she's still forging forward and makes a habit of not looking back. "I never wanted to relive anything, even the more enjoyable times. I never felt I could do any better. If I really intended to do better, I can start now," she said.

But, with a little encouragement, she'll talk about those days in 1921 when she went to school with all those men at Auburn. After getting a degree in math and physical science at Randolph-Macon Women's College in Lynchburg, Va., Miss Whitson said she realized she wanted a job. A favorite professor recommended the new field of electrical engineering and Auburn accepted her application.

"Since I had most of the basic courses out of the way, I was able to get a degree in two years," she said.

And the reaction from her male colleagues—"Remarkably well, considering they didn't want girls at Auburn. The only time my feelings were really hurt was when I discovered they were finding out which sections I would be in so they could sign up for the others.

"It seems they were afraid a certain colorful professor wouldn't unload his collection of stories if I were in his class."

After receiving her degree from Auburn, Miss Whitson worked for an engineering company, but it folded during the depression, so she found a job teaching elementary school history. When the schools wanted to offer technical education, she took over since there were no qualified men in the school system in Talledega.

But when World War II came—"I got tired of saying goodbye to all those boys, so I joined the WAVES. They made me a lieutenant senior grade in charge of a hotel where WAVES were kept." From there she was transferred to a secret installation involved in bacteriological warfare.

After the war, Miss Whitson taught again until she retired in 1964, but being idle didn't appeal to her. When the government changed in this northeast Alabama town from a city commission type to a mayor and council type, she was off and running. She outpolled the other 29 candidates, and the council elected her president. Everyone from teen-agers to senior citizens worked in her campaign.

Now her problem is—"I've never been able to get done in one day everything I had planned." On the question of women's lib, she says, "I've never been denied anything because of my sex. I think everybody should be treated as an individual. There are just some things women can't do.

"My motto is: Never do for yourself what you can get a good man to do for you."

Ring In The New Year With A Punch

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

If you want to serve a punch at a party, you can please two kinds of guests: those who want a spirited drink and those who prefer a beverage without alcohol. The following recipe gives both methods of preparation; you can make up a batch of each.

BELL RINGER PUNCH

1 envelope (6 ounces) instant openhouse punch mix
2 cups cold water
1 cup orange-flavor liqueur
1 cup dry red wine
1 large bottle (28 ounces) club soda, chilled.
Unpeeled thin orange slices, halved

Gradually stir contents of envelope of punch mix into cold water; continue to stir until punch mix is completely dissolved. Add liqueur and wine; stir and chill.

Just before serving, pour chilled mixture over ice (1 tray of ice cubes or a 3-cup ice mold). Add club soda and mix lightly. Garnish with orange slices.

Makes about 2 quarts or about 16 four-ounce servings.

NOTE: For a non-alcoholic punch, prepare as above but omit orange-flavor liqueur and red wine; use 1½ quarts ginger ale.

New Mannequins Show Off Braless Fashions

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP) — Fashion display directors say the advent of new female-form mannequins designed to show off fashions for wear without a bra has caued little comment.

"It's just part of the female revolution—it's realistic," said Aurthur Janikas, display coordinator for Cherry and Webb stores.

The mannequins arrived in department stores here in time for the Christmas sales season and are being used to display lingerie and light, clinging fashions. They are sculptured to show a woman's breasts in detail.

At the large Peerless Co., department store, a silver-haired mannequin with seemingly downcast eyes shows off an ankle length blue dinner dress that hugs the bosom.

Tax PreparersThinking In Terms Of New Law

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — While most people are preparing for Christmas and the new year, the nation's tax preparers are getting ready for March and April. March is when their business booms. April 15 is their new year.

Since their minds are already into 1972, many of them are thinking in terms of the new tax law just signed by President Nixon, effective Jan. 1. But, they note, it has applications now.

If, for example, you are planning to contribute to the campaign of a political candidate or party, it might be wiser to delay doing so until next year, which now means a delay of only a few days.

The reason is that the 1972 law specifies that an individual can earn a tax credit of one-half the amount of any contribution to $25, and a married couple twice that. No such provision covers 1971.

Note: That's a tax credit, not a tax deduction. A tax credit is much better: it comes directly off the check you send to the Internal Revenue Service. A tax deduction comes off the amount of income on which you calculate your tax. The final saving is only a fraction of the deduction.

For some reason, says Sanford Kahn, tax director for General Finance Corp., which hopes to prepare the returns of many thousands of customers next year, this provision of the new law didn't generate much publicity.

Whereas the political contribution will mean more in a tax sense if made in 1972, there is a convincing argument for paying in advance some other bills between now and the end of the year. That is, if you're still able to do so.

The reason is found in the new standard deduction allowances. In 1971 this allowance is $1,500 or 13 per cent of adjusted gross income, which ever is less. The 1972 allowance will be 15 per cent up to $2,000.

Assuming the same income for 1971 and 1972, he states, the 1972 tax owed would be less. Therefore, he continues, "itemized deductions are of greater value if you can include them on your 1971 tax form."

Among deductibles that could reduce taxes if paid before midnight Dec. 31 are charitable donations, medical bills, interest and property taxes. "If some of these are due in 1972, ultimately it might prove more profitable to prepay."

One of the neatest but conceivably the most hazardous tax reducer is marriage. If the legalities are observed and the ceremony completed by 11:59 p.m. on New Year's Eve, the couple can file a joint return for the entire year. Reminder: You can wait an entire year and obtain the same benefit.

Making some major purchases now could help, Kahn says. Sales taxes on big ticket items, for example, can be deducted on 1971 income tax if the bills are paid before Jan. 1.

As for medical expenses, Kahn suggests the possibility of delaying payment until next year. Such expenses can be deducted only to the extent that they exceed 3 per cent of income.

"If your 1971 medical bills don't appear likely to go over that figure, it would be smarter to defer them until next year. If they surpass 3 per cent, then it would be best to itemize them on the 1971 form.

Another reminder that might not be appreciated by busy people:

"Consider having any other medical work you were planning on—visits to the dentist or new eyeglasses, for instance—completed during the remainder of December. Then pay the bills at once and lump them with your other 1971 deductions."

The object of such advance buying and prepaying is to lift your deductions above the 13 per cent or $1,500 allowance and thus reduce your tax bill. But—if you fail to top $1,500 you must change your thinking.

Instead, take the standard deductions and put off those medical, charitable, interest and tax bills until 1972. Itemize them then and, with other bills paid during the year, try to top the 15 per cent or $2,000 allowance.

And if you still fail? Admit defeat. Surrender. Take the standard deduction.

A Junior Editors Quiz About GIRAFFES

QUESTION: How did the giraffe get its name?

* * *

ANSWER: The giraffe has interested man from early times. The ancient Egyptians and Greeks thought that giraffes were a mixture of the camel and the leopard and called the animal a "camelopard."

The giraffe is a ruminant mammal living in Africa in the area south of the Sahara. Scientists classify it in the genus Giraffidae.

The giraffe is the tallest of all living animals, but the body of a giraffe is no larger than that of the average horse. Its great height comes mostly from its legs and neck. A giraffe eats only plants, chiefly acacia and mimosa leaves. Its great height helps it to reach the leaves on trees which grow in tropical areas where there is little ground vegetation. If it wants to take something from the ground, the giraffe has to spread its legs far apart to bend down. It is protectively colored with large tan-to-brown angular spots. It has a keen sense of hearing, smell and sight. It can run at a high speed when pursued. When attacked, a giraffe can put up a good fight by kicking its hind legs or butting with its head.

Books Suited For Celebrities

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — A book can be one of man's best friends.

Unlike a dog, a book doesn't bark or bite. It doesn't have to be taken for a walk or fed. In fact, a book can feed you and take your mind on a journey.

So, if you are a last-minute shopper and are out of your mind about what to give someone for Christmas, why not give him the great gift of a book? It is certain to surprise him, and it may even please him.

It is more likely to do this if you select a book that is keyed to his interests. Here, for example—and all in fun—are a few books you might find suitable for some celebrities on the current scene:

"The Exorcist"—Billy Graham.

"The Sensuous Woman"—Phyllis Diller.

"Wheels"—Any New York cab driver.

"Our Gang"—The New York Police Department.

"Honor Thy Father"—Producer Richard Zanuck.

"An Old-fashioned Darling"—Mia Farrow.

"Theirs Was the Kingdom"—The Democratic party.

"The Vantage Point"—Daniel Ellsberg.

"Any Woman Can!"—Gloria Steinem.

"Don't Look Now"—Richard Nixon.

"A Rose for Virtue"—Gen. Omar Nelson Bradley.

"The Winds of War"—Prime Minister Indira Gandhi of India. "Flashes of Merriment"—Dick Martin and Dan Rowan.

"Talking to Myself"—U.N. Ambassador George Bush.

"Ring Bells! Sing Songs!"—Hubert H. Humphrey.

"Those Were the Good Old Days"—Lyndon B. Johnson.

"The Frustration of Power"—Spiro T. Agnew.

"Teeth, Teeth, Teeth"—Liberace.

"Trust Me with Your Heart Again"—Eugene J. McCarthy.

"Oh, How They Played the Game"—The Buffalo Bills.

"Nemesis"—Martha Mitchell.

"Dreams and Dreaming"—Harold Stassen. "Grandfather's Corny Jokes"—Milton Berle.

"Other Sheep I Have"—Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago.

"Nothing but the Truth"—Any presidential aspirant.

"Living Well Is the Best Revenge"—Hugh Hefner of Playboy.

Party Held For Embassy Children

WASHINGTON (AP) — Yogi Bear got kicked in the shins but the gingerbread house remained intact Tuesday at the annual White House Christmas party for embassy children.

"I hope you are having a happy holiday away from school and that your holiday will be bright," Mrs. Richard M. Nixon, hostess at the party sponsored by State Department volunteers, told the children seated on the East Room floor. Then she introduced several television stars including Yogi Bear and his sidekick Booboo.

A 5-year-old Nicaraguan girl jumped onto the stage, kicked Yogi in the shins and retreated. She did not say why.

Last week another group of children nibbled some of the goodies from the two-foot-tall gingerbread house built by the White House chef. He baked replacements for the bare spots, and a White House aide guarded the tempting building during the party Tuesday.

Tech Defeats Fresno State

Southwestern Conference basketball teams went into action Wednesday night with a 32-20 edge but major SWC teams suffered ragged defeats.

At Little Rock, San Francisco State's Gary Bradford tossed in a free throw with less than a minute left in overtime to romp on Arkansas 84-81.

And Texas A&M, which lost four players on fouls in the last five minutes, took a 95-73 licking from host New Mexico in the Lobo Invitation tourney at Albuquerque. The Aggies Jeff Overhouse was top scorer with 20 points.

The SMU Mustangs fared even worse at Louisville where the Cardinals whipped SMU 96-62 after picking up an early first half lead.

At the half, Louisville carried a 42-29 lead and SMU never got close the rest of the game.

The Rice Owls eeked out an 88-76 victory over William & Mary at Houston. The Owls took the lead for the last time in the second half on Mark Werhle's one-and-one.

Six players scored in double figures at Lubbock where Texas Tech earned a 98-85 win over Fresno State. Greg Lowery led the Red Raiders with 29 points.

Eight Cowboys In Pro Bowl Tilt

NEW YORK (AP) — Defensive tackle Merlin Olsen of the Los Angeles Rams named for the 10th time in his 10-year National Football League career, and 23 newcomers were among those named today to the National Conference squad for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game at Los Angeles, Jan. 23.

Olsen did not play last year because of knee surgery but kept his string intact nevertheless. Another longtime repeater is cornerback Mel Renfro of the Dallas Cowboys, making it for the eighth time in eight years.

Both quarterbacks for the NFC team—Roger Staubach of Dallas and Greg Landry of Detroit—were among the new faces selected in balloting among the conference's 13 head coaches, who were not permitted to cast votes for players on their own team.

Staubach and Landry will be able to hand the ball off on running plays to three 1,000-yard ground gainers—John Brockington of Green Bay, Steve Owens of Detroit and Willie Ellison of Los Angeles. Larry Brown of Washington also was selected at the running back post.

The receivers will be Dick Gordon of Chicago, Bob Grim of Minnesota, Roy Jefferson of Washington and Gene Washington of San Francisco.

Dallas, which won the Eastern Division title, has the most players on the team, eight. New Orelans and the New York Giants were the only teams not represented.

Besides Staubach and Renfro, the other Cowboys on the squad are tackle Rayfield Wright, guard John Niland, defensive tackle Bob Lilly, linebacker Chuck Howley, safety Cornell Green and punter Ron Widby.

St. Louis cornerback Roger Wehrli received enough votes to make the team, but was not included on the playing squad because of late season knee surgery.

The squad:

OFFENSE

Wide receivers—Dick Gordon, Chicago; Bob Grim, Minnesota; Roy Jefferson, Washington; Gene Washington, San Francisco.

Tight ends—Ted Kwalick, San Francisco; Charlie Sanders, Detroit.

Tackles—George Kunz, Atlanta, Rayfield Wright, Dallas; Ron Yary, Minnesota.

Guards—Gale Gillingham, Green Bay; Tom Mack, Los Angeles; John Niland, Dallas.

Centers—Forest Blue, San Francisco; Ed Flanagan, Detroit.

Quarterbacks—Greg Landry, Detroit; Roger Staubach, Dallas.

Running backs—John Brockington, Green Bay; Larry Brown, Washington; Willie Ellison, Los Angeles; Steve Owens, Detroit.

DEFENSE

Ends—Carl Eller, Minnesota; Cedrick Hardman, San Francisco; Claude Humphrey, Atlanta.

Outside linebackers—Chuck Howley, Dallas; Isiah Robertson, Los Angeles; Dave Wilcox, San Francisco.

Middle linebacker—Dick Butkus, Chicago; Mike Lucci, Detroit.

Cornerbacks—Jimmy Johnson, San Francisco; Mel Renfro, Dallas; Bruce Taylor, San Francisco.

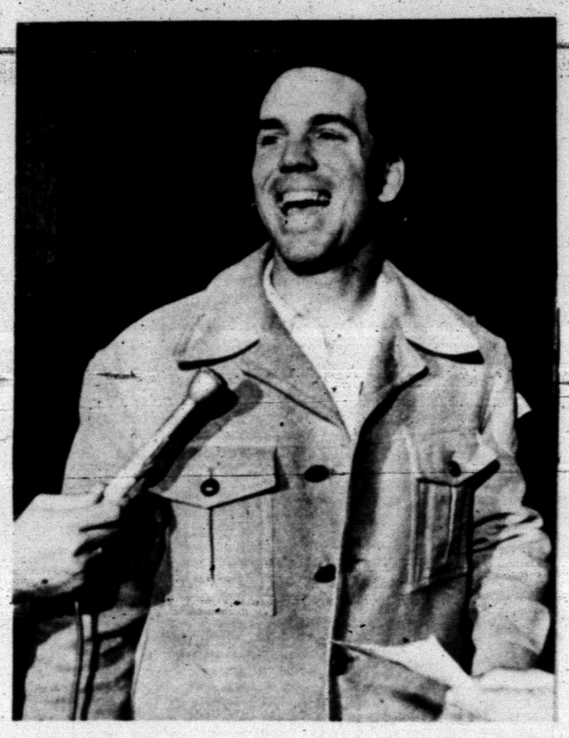

Safeties—Bill Bradley, Philadelphia; Cornell Green, Dallas; Paul Krause, Minnesota.

SPECIALISTS

Punter—Ron Widby, Dallas.

Placekicker—Curt Knight, Washington.

Kick returner—Speedy Duncan, Washington.

IN PRO BOWL — Roger Staubach of the Dallas Cowboys was named today to the National Conference squad for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game at Los Angeles, Jan. 23. Seven of his teammates also were named to the National Conference squad, including cornerback Mel Renfro, tackle Rayfield Wright, guard John Niland, defensive tackle Bob Lilly, linebacker Chuck Howley, safety Cornell Green and punter Ron Widby. The Cowboys will tangle with the Minnesota Vikings Saturday in Bloomington, Minn. in the first round of the pro playoffs.

Hogs Say Call Bad

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — An assistant coach at Arkansas said Wednesday night that films of Monday night's Liberty Bowl game indicated officials probably made mistakes on both of the controversial calls that allowed Tennessee to gain a 14-13 victory over the Razorbacks.

The coach, who asked to remain unidentified, said, "Nothing can be gained by talking about it or by making any protest. It's just a shame."

He said the film showed Tom Reed of Arkansas clearly recovered a Jon Richardson fumble on a third-down play at the Arkansas 37-yard line.

Officials awarded the ball to Tennessee and the Volunteers subsequently scored a touchdown.

The coach said Preston Watts, the official who signaled that it was Tennessee's ball, was standing on top of the play and should have seen it all. He said Watts stayed there after he made a weak signal in favor of Tennessee.

Referee McDuff Simpson arrived to help unpile the players and Reed handed Simpson the ball, the coach said.

The Arkansas Gazette reported that Simpson questioned Watts about how it could be Tennessee's ball when an Arkansas player had possession and Watts only reply was, "It's Tennessee's ball."

Watts was also the man who called holding on Bobby Nichols when Bill McClard kicked a 48-yard field goal that would have put Arkansas ahead 16-7 with 5:51 to play.

"Our film shows us nothing that could be construed as holding by Nichols," said the Arkansas coach. "The Tennessee end puts a hand on Bobby's left shoulder. Bobby immediately squared to the inside. The Tennessee end's arms are above Bobby's. The contact lasts only briefly and the Tennessee end leaves."

Nichols said after the game that if anyone held on the play it was the Tennessee end.

Watts is a native of Memphis and he is chairman of the Liberty Bowl's Officials Committee.

"It just doesn't make sense that the Liberty Bowl or the Southeast Conference would put a Memphis man and a Tennessee native in a situation like that, with Tennessee playing a big game against us," the coach said.

The coach said that nothing could come of any protest and he doubted that any would be made, but a decision of the situation might lead to some changes in the method of assigning officials for bowl games.

Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles said he had no comment on the situation at this time but he might have something to say later.

Abilene Trips Bengals 82-60

ABILENE — The Abilene junior varsity, favorites to win the JV basketball tourney being held here, defeated Snyder's Bengals 82-60 in the first round last night.

It was close for three quarters with Snyder leading 21-17 after one period. Abilene went ahead 37-33 at halftime and was out front 55-49 after three frames. However, the hosts outscored the Bengals 27-11 in the last quarter to win easily.

Only one Bengal hit in double figures. Richard Gorman scored 19 points. Three Abilene boys hit in twin figures: Monte Harris 18 points, Mike Shawe, 16, and Larry Wiley 14.

In other first round games, Midland beat Brownwood 107-52, Midland Lee bested Graham 93-86, and Cooper tripped Sweetwater 63-38. The Abilene team now has won twelve straight contests.

In the second round, which began today, the Bengals met Brownwood at 10 a.m. and Graham tested Sweetwater at 11:30 a.m. on the Consolation side of the bracket. Abilene and Midland tangled at 2:30 p.m., and Midland Lee and Cooper clashed at 1 p.m. The battle for seventh place was set for 4 p.m., the Consolation game will be held at 6 p.m., the third place game will be held at 7:30 p.m., and the championship will be held at 9 p.m.

Eau Claire In Second Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wisconsin-Eau Claire's basketball team now is the top challenger for Kentucky State's No. 1 ranking and will soon have a first-hand opportunity to deliver the knockout blow.

Eau Claire, which added two more victims to its undefeated record last week, bumped Evansville out of second place Wednesday in the college division poll.

A nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters gave Eau Claire five first-place votes for 266 points and the Wisconsin Team climbed within 14 points of Kentucky State's 280.

The teams meet in a holiday tournament Dec. 29-30 with the top ranking at stake.

Kentucky State, who defeated Marian College 114-90 last week, garnered seven No. 1 ballots.

Evansville lost its runnerup ranking after losing two games—72-63 to Seattle Pacific and 92-79 to Weber State. The Purple Aces got three top votes and 233 points.

Louisiana Tech, the No. 4 team, was the only other to receive a No. 1 ballot in the voting. The voters gave Louisiana Tech a total of 200 points.

Tennessee State moved up one notch to No. 5 and Assumption climbed from seventh to sixth, Cheyney State slid from fourth to No. 7 and Akron remained No. 8.

Stephen F. Austin and Eastern Illinois wound up No. 9 and No. 10, respectively, reversing their positions in last week's poll.

The Top Ten teams in The Associated Press College Division basketball Poll with first-place votes in parentheses, season records through games of Sat. Dec. 18 and total points based on 20 for first, 18 for second, 16-14-12-10-9-8, etc.

Bellard Hires Dan LaGrasta

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP) — Dan LaGrasta, 41, head coach at San Angelo Central High School who spent 12 years under new Texas A&M Coach Emory Bellard as an assistant, will join Bellard at A&M Sunday as a line coach.

LaGrasta replaced Bellard in 1967 when Bellard went to the University of Texas where he helped Coach Darrell Royal innovate the Wishbone-T offense.

A North Texas State graduate, LaGrasta spent five years with Bellard as an assistant at Breckenridge and seven years under him at Central.

LaGrasta had a 33-16-1 record as a head coach.

He is married and has two children. One son, Freddie, was the starting center on the 1971 Bobcat team and planned to attend Texas A&M.

Remember 1970 Is Poke Cry

DALLAS (AP) — As if the Dallas Cowboys needed it, they have a little something extra to get them psyched up for the National Conference playoff joust with Minnesota Christmas Day.

The last time they were in Bloomington, Minn., the Vikings prevailed 54-13.

"That one left a scar on us," said offensive tackle Rayfield Wright. "We've got to erase it."

The Cowboys never had a problem with the Vikings until that 1970 game. They had defeated Minnesota in five previous regular season games.

Coach Tom Landry made a special effort to dust off the film of that disaster for a showing this week.

"I showed it to them so they could see what Minnesota tries to do against you," Landy said. "They came out running against us that day. We weren't very coordinated and made every error you can imagine ... fumbles, penalties, blocked punts. I want them to know what can happen if they aren't ready ... if they're not on edge."

Landry said Minnesota is a ball control team which "likes to wait for turnovers and take advantage of them. They like to create their own field position."

Cowboy assistant Ermal Allen added "Minnesota hasn't changed since the last time we played them—they are very experienced and very aggressive."

Landry said he recognizes the Minnesota defense as one of the best in the National Football League but added "I feel confident we can run. Minnesota plays a containing defense and you have to take what you can get. We've got to hope we can take advantage of the breaks when we get them."

Landry said he believes the Cowboy Doomsday Defense—rated No. 1 in the conference against the rush and No. 9 against the pass—will holdup against the Viking attack.

"I'm not overly concerned about stopping the run," Landry said. "But anytime they put the ball in the air long it will scare you."

Bear Coach By Christmas?

WACO, Tex. (AP) — Baylor Athletic Director Jack Patterson said Wednesday he hopes to have a head football coach by Christmas.

"I hope I'm not too optimistic," said Patterson. "I do feel confident we are close."

Patterson had to start the coaching hunt anew after New Mexico's Rudy Feldman backed out on an agreement.

"My goal is to have it wrapped up by Christmas," Patterson said.

"We don't plan to have our man down here for the press to meet until after Christmas. We'll just make the announcement."

Patterson has interviewed Angelo State Coach Grant Teaff, a former Texas Tech assistant.

Oilers Owner Fires Ed Hughes

NEW YORK (AP) — The coaching merry-go-round in the National Football League is spinning merrily along.

In a day of many developments Wednesday, Ed Hughes lost his job as head coach of the Houston Oilers and it was learned that Lou Saban, whose latest stint was with the Denver Broncos, is returning to the Buffalo Bills.

And Bill Peterson, the Rice University coach, was reported by the Denver Rocky Mountain News and others as the new head coach of the Broncos.

The Associated Press learned from reliable NFL sources Wednesday that Saban would be named head coach of the Bills, the team he coached to two American Football League championships.

A spokesman for the Bills had no comment and refused to say if a news conference would be held sometime this afternoon to announce Saban's hiring. Other sources, however, said the team would hold a 3 p.m., EST, press briefing.

Saban flew into Buffalo Wednesday night and admitted he would talk today with Ralph Wilson, the Bills' owner. "I think everything will be resolved tomorrow," Saban said.

Hughes got the ax from Oiler owner Bud Adams after he and Adams couldn't reach accord on what Adams said was one major obstacle.

The one major obstacle turned out to be two people—trainer Warren Arial and former equipment manager Johnny Gonzalez. Adams wanted Arial fired and Gonzalez rehired. Hughes wouldn't do it.

Adams said he has no replacement immediately in mind for the Oiler coaching job. He said he would be interested in Peterson but understood the Rice coach "would take the job in Denver."

It was learned that Peterson may be having problems getting out of the last four years of his five-year contract at Rice.

The names of George Blanda and Sid Gillman were being tossed around as likely prospects for the Houston job in NFL circles Wednesday night. Blanda is the Oakland quarterback who holds the longevity record as a pro football player and Gillman formerly was coach of the San Diego Chargers.

Earlier in the week, Harland Svare was rehired as San Diego coach, Ed Khayat was retained by the Philadelphia Eagles, the Boston Patriotots extended John Mazur's contract and Weeb Ewbank got another contract to coach the New York Jets.

Reds, Pirates Series Slated

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds and the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates will play a series of spring training games in Latin America, Bob Howsam, Cincinnati Reds general manager announced today.

The Reds and the Pirates will play March 17 at San Juan, Puerto Rico; March 18 at Maracaibo, Venzuela; and Caracas, Venzuela March 19.

The trip will be Cincinnati's first to Latin American since 1964 when they played in Mexico.

5 cheers for the idea of ~~male~~ secretaries!

By Abigail Van Buren

(c) 1971 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: To answer the lady who wanted to know what kind of "man" would become a secretary, let me tell you one kind. A man who was once a self-respecting mathematician at The National Aeronautics and Space Administration Manned Spacecraft Center in Houston, Tex. He was told that due to cutbacks he would no longer have a job unless he would accept a secretarial position. Due to the present economy and its lack of jobs, he accepted. Now just sign me "FLO IN TIGHT PANTS"

DEAR ABBY: Tell ANONYMOUS that male secretaries, altho scarce and costly, are in demand because they are superior.

Males excel at deft exactness. All diamond cleavers are men. So are the best cooks, seamsters, and lacemakers. All telephone chief operators in the U. S. A. are males. [The girls who answer your "chief operator" call are only assistants.]

The big trouble is that most male secretaries eventually go on to more glorified jobs. My father told me that the most efficient shorthand wizard and most accurate typist and most dependable secretary he ever employed was Joe E. Brown. And no one who knew Joe would dare call him a "queer." A. M.

DEAR A. M.: And didn't the late Billy Rose, the great showman, once hold the world's record for speed and accuracy in shorthand?

DEAR ABBY: I have been a private secretary to a top-notch business executive for 17 years. During that time I have never missed a day's work because of periods, pregnancy or menopause depression. Neither did I have to quit because my spouse was being transferred to another city.

And if the boss asked me to work late, or go to lunch with him to discuss business matters, I never worried about what my spouse [or his] or anybody else might think. I have also accompanied my boss on many out-of-town business trips without fear of gossip.

Can any female secretary make that statement?. I doubt it. MALE SECRETARY

DEAR ABBY: Wow! The things I don't learn from reading your column. Now, you've given me a brilliant idea. A male secretary! How stupid of me to have not thought of it myself. That could very well be the answer to one of my problems.

You see, I run a very successful business, and I could use a little pleasure with my business. My secretary has become very crotchety and complaining lately. I think I'll replace her with a MALE secretary. Thanks, Abby, baby. FEMALE BOSS

DEAR ABBY: Until I read your column about MALE secretaries, it didn't occur to me that if I had a male secretary I could eliminate a lot of hassling with my wife.

You see, she is the jealous type, altho I assure you she has no reason to be jealous of any secretary I ever employed.

Now, if, as a matter of policy, I were to hire only MALE secretaries, that would put an end to all her foolish accusations. Right? ON THE BALL IN ST. PAUL

DEAR ON: Not necessarily.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Third Of Trees Are Artificial

By CAROLE MARTIN
AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Nearly one of every three U.S. Christmas trees brightening this holiday season is likely to be ersatz evergreen.

This year U.S. residents were expected to spend an estimated $210 million for 35 million natural trees and an estimated $90 million on 4.5 million plastic trees, industry sources say.

But sales of natural trees leveled off in recent years while the sales of plastic trees, which may be kept from year to year, has quintupled in five years.

The artificial tree industry, therefore, estimated that nearly 15 million homes across the country would be decorated with fake fir trees this year.

"All the forces are working against natural trees," said Terry Hermanson, treasurer of Mr. Christmas Inc., an artificial tree maker.

"Many apartment houses will not permit natural trees because of the fire hazards involved," said a clerk at Minneapolis' Dayton Store, which sold some 1,500 artificial trees this year. "Also, people don't have the bother or the mess that is involved with a natural tree."

Millions of Americans have found the artificial trees make their Christmases less hectic. Most of the trees are reusable, easy to set up, flame resistent and don't shed their needles. In addition, their forms are nearly perfect.

Still, most artificial tree buyers choose a variety that "looks real." Green is by far the most popular color now, although there once was a vogue for silver and blue metal ones.

"About three years ago, white flocked trees were popular, but that has disappeared for a more natural looking tree," said a spokesman for L. S. Ayres department store in Indianapolis where artificial trees cost from $2.50 to $125.

While the artificial trees are expected to last from one year to the next, salesmen said a recent trend among some people to buy a second tree after a season or two should keep sales brisk.

"A lot of them are two-tree families now. The first tree goes down to the basement recreation room, and the new one is put up in the living room," said a clerk at a Midwestern variety store.

Woolworth said artificial trees were its biggest item this season, and Jordan Marsh of Boston reported it almost sold out of a "very real looking Hong Kong tree" that retailed for $60.

The Harry S. Truman sports complex in Kansas City will open next April 11 when the California Angels in a night baseball game.

Emeralds Stolen From Hayes

NYACK, N.Y. (AP) — Actress Helen Hayes has lost to burlgars the famous emeralds her late husband, Charles MacArthur, gave her to make up for a time he had given her only peanuts.

When MacArthur gave her two peanuts, he said he wished they were emeralds. Word of that remark got around so MacArthur purchased the emeralds in India during World War II.

In disclosing what was taken in Sunday's burglary, police reported Wednesday that a gold pin shaped like a heart with the number 18 on it also was missing. Miss Hayes said the pin had been given to her late daughter, Mary MacArthur. On her 18th birthday. The daughter died here in 1949 at the age of 19, three days after being stricken with polio.

Jail sentences are imposed in Tennessee in connection with big game violations.

SCHOLARS VISIT DIPLOMATS.

Unique Program Provides Ideas

By KENNETH J. FREED
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — In any given month this year a small group of scholars roams the State Department as part of a unique program in which the nation's diplomats and private foreign-affairs experts tap each other's brains.

The idea, according to program director Robert W. Caldwell, is to close the gap often existing between the theoreticians of the academic community and the practical world of the State Department.

The scholars, selected from applications submitted by universities and colleges throughout the nation, are brought in in groups of a dozen or so to work with department specialists in their particular area.

This involves not only briefings but access to secret documents by the scholars and an over-the-shoulder look at the State Department's decision making process.

According to Caldwell, the program is more than a good will gesture or a public relations effort. "While it is the exception," he explained, "for anyone to contribute specifically, there have been times when a professor has provided research that later proved useful."

But the main thrust of the program, now in its third year, "is to provide a dialogue on ideas," Caldwell explained.

The program operates in both directions, he said. Foreign service officers visit campuses "with special interests in foreign affairs and which have sent their scholars to the department seminars."

Both the participants and the State Department officers say the program is important.

Scholars who attended last month's session involving Southeast Asia talked of overcoming preconceptions that the department operates on a day-to-day basis, reacting to specific situations with no awareness of history.

On the other hand, several department specialists said the scholars do provide important insights and, perhaps more important, give indications of current thinking in the academic community, which often molds public opinion.

DES Rules In Effect Jan. 8

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says a new mandatory certification program for use of DES in livestock feeding will take effect Jan. 8.

Beginning then, stockmen who feed the synthetic growth hormone must certify it was withdrawn from cattle and sheep at least seven days before slaughter or else that it was not fed at all.

Otherwise, federal inspectors will hold the live animals for the required seven-day period, the department said. Another alternative will permit the livestock to be slaughtered without certification and the carcasses held from the market until laboratory tests show the meat to be free of residues.

Meantime DES residues continue to show up sporadically in animal livers. The latest was disclosed Wednesday after newsmen inquired. It raised to 22 the number of DES-tainted cattle and sheep livers found in a special testing program involving about 4,400 animals.

None has been reported in red meat or muscle tissues, officials say.

Kim Is Thankful

By JIM YEARY
Weatherford Democrat Writer
For The Associated Press

WEATHERFORD, Tex. (AP) — Kim Bedford is 4,000 miles from home, the mother of two children, Vietnamese and alone at Christmas.

Nonetheless, she says, she is "very thankful to live in such wonderful country."

Her husband, Paul Bedford, is an American businessman concluding one last year of business in Hong Kong while Kim, 23, and their two children, Lucky, 3, and Ricky, 1, wait for him in Weatherford.

Kim was orphaned at age six and went to live with her grandfather, one of the Vietnam Delta country's richest gold miners and buffalo herdsmen.

The Viet Cong later forced her and her grandfather to flee to Saigon.

Three days later, the Viet Cong killed her grandfather.

Kim earned enough money to pay a Catholic priest for three days of education. Armed with "help me", "thank you" and "good morning", she found work tending bar at a club on an American base.

While working at the noncommissioned officers club, Kim met Paul and they married.

But Vietnamese custom required them to return to the area of her birth so the marriage could be recognized.

Lucky was born in their home at Na Trang. Two years later, Ricky was born.

This is the first time away from Vietnam for Kim, Ricky and Lucky.

But she has a special Christmas wish for her husband. "I want to learn to read and write so my husband will be proud of me," she beamed.

Ricky and Lucky grinned happily, "I am American."
