1 Less Death In '74

Lower Speeds Cause Fewer Accidents

Sgt. B. J. Butler, Supervisor of the Texas Department of Public Safety's Highway Patrol in Mitchell, Scurry, Nolan and Fisher Counties, has issued a report showing that highway accidents in the four-county area are down for the year ending Dec. 31, 1974.

Accidents in the county in 1974 totaled 84, compared to 1973's total of 127.

Of these 84 accidents, three deaths resulted--an El Paso man was killed in a flaming car crash on West I-20 and two truck drivers were killed when their truck ran through a guardrail on East I-20.

Personal injury was caused to 25 persons in 19 of the accidents and 63 accidents resulted in property damage.

In 1973, four deaths were caused by accidents, while 30 of that year's accidents caused personal injury and 94 caused property damage.

In the four-county area served by his part of the Highway Patrol, Butler summarized the following figures:

--424 accidents in 1974 as compared with 655 in 1973.
--8 less deaths in 1974.
--9 fewer fatal accidents.

--61 less accidents causing personal injury to 263 fewer persons.

--Property damage in 1974 resulted from only 307 accidents compared with damage resulting from 468 accidents in 1973.

The number of citations for all violations, especially speed, more than doubled in 1974, according to Butler's report.

He pointed out the major causes of accidents, listed according to most often occurring: excessive speed, drinking while driving, driver fatigue and defective equipment, such as tires, brakes, etc.

Butler stated that the 55 mph speed limit had been a definite factor in the number of lives saved and in reducing the number of accidents occurring in 1974. Accidents were reduced by one-half due to voluntary observation of the limit by drivers following the effective date of the new limit, Jan. 20, 1974.

He said that as drivers began increasing their speed, the number of accidents also steadily increased until by November and December, the frequency rate was about the same as in 1973.

"Enforcement of the traffic laws is an absolute necessity," Butler said, "but it is not the total answer in reducing the number of accidents."

He said, in conclusion, that the formula for successfully reducing the number of accidents is simple--"Voluntary compliance with the traffic laws and the practice of defensive driving techniques by the public, is the only solution."

Afternoon Reception

A large crowd of over 250 people attended the Open House Sunday afternoon in the new Civic Center. Elaine Ruffin and Addie V. Payne played organ music as people were greeted at the door by Mayor and Mrs. C. C. (Mike) Burt and the new city manager James Campbell. Members of the city council greeted guests and helped show off the new facility.

Wolves Take District Win

The Colorado City Wolves Tuesday took their first District 6-AA win in this season's campaign in two outings as David Childers popped the net on a 10-foot turn-around jump shot with two seconds to go to defeat Ballinger 57-55.

The contest was close all the way with the Wolves in the first half leading by as much as 12 points in two instances. At the end of the first quarter the Wolves led by five and hung onto the same lead at halftime.

However, three Wolves had four fouls each in the first half and two others had three fouls each. In the third quarter the Colorado City team seemed to be playing conservative ball as they apparently were afraid of fouling out and Ballinger held a two point lead at the end of the third stanza.

In the closing seconds of the game, the Wolves were four points behind but came on to catch up and go four points ahead. Ballinger evened up the score with nine seconds to go. The Wolves brought the ball down and fed it to Childers who turned around and put the jump shot in from the foul line just before the game ended.

The only other District outing for the Wolves this season ended the same way with the Wolves on the short end of the score against Stamford who won by one point.

Anson and Stamford now lead the district with two wins each against no losses. Coahoma has won two and lost one, Colorado City has won one and lost one, Hamlin and Winters have each lost two games, and Ballinger has lost three games.

Childers was high scorer with 17 points and he had four rebounds. Jackie Ellis had 8 points and 20 rebounds while Wayne McKee had 7 points and 8 rebounds. Dan Smith had 4 points and 8 rebounds, Dan Boger had 7 points.

The Wolves boys junior varsity Tuesday night lost to Ballinger 51-46 with Craig Carter leading the scoring with 14 points. Steve Belvin had 10 points and was leading rebounder with 14. Jim Jordan scored 9 points and had 12 rebounds.

In girls games, the Wolves Junior Varsity lost to Ballinger 32-22 with Tammy Tammen scoring 14 points.

The Wolves girls varsity lost to Ballinger Tuesday night 44-39 with Beverly Fuller scoring 13 points. Leslie Greenlee had 10, Rhonda Fries, 4 and Karen Thomas 3.

The girls junior varsity will compete in a JV tournament in Anson Thursday, playing Hamlin at 1:50 p.m.

Friday night, the boys and girls varsity and junior varsity squads travel to Winters for District games.

Area Farmers' Meeting Set

Don Stewart, executive director of the ASCS office in Mitchell County, received notice that an important meeting of area farmers will be held Jan. 13 (Tuesday) in Brownfield.

The 7:30 p.m. meeting is scheduled for Brownfield's Pioneer Natural Gas meeting room as a result of U. S. Senator Herman Talmadge's call for a nation-wide dialogue for the 1975 Farm Bill. Sen. Talmadge heads the Senate Agriculture Committee.

Stewart said the notice of the meeting asked that qualified Mitchell County farmers attend in order to help with the serious drafting of measures to go into the 1975 Farm Bill.

Permits Show Expansion

The city issued 61 building permits amounting to almost a half million dollars in 1974, the actual total, $456,675.

Of this amount, $184,800 was for seven new houses in the city.

Additions to businesses amounted to $189,600 during the year, broken down into the following figures:

--$28,000 for 31 x 75 addition to Eddie's Pharmacy.
--$3,000 for 20 x 24 addition to M&T Food Service.
--$6,600 for storage building at Root Memorial Hospital.

--$40,000 for 90 x 160 warehouse at Rogers Delinted Cottonseed.

--$96,000 for two buildings by Matlock Butane and Farm Supply, one 70 x 150 and one 40 x 60.

--$16,000 for 50 x 60 seed house at Producers Co-op Gin. The rest of the permits were for additions to homes, mostly carports or storage buildings or enclosing garages and adding on to the living space of homes.

Total for these amounted to $82,275.

The state legislature convenes next week in Austin and will consider a number of items very important to all of us. One of these items is financing of schools. Hopefully, the legislature will take some of the burden off the land owner. Talk is that land will be taxed on productivity, which would seem to be a fair assessment rather than market value as is the case now.

The legislature will also be asked to give school teachers a pay raise. If they decide to do so, they should supply the money.

Also, the legislature will consider creating a utilities commission, which I believe is the last thing we need. We already have too many state and federal agencies that have taken away the voice of the local communities. One such example is the Railroad Commission which deals with gas companies and local communities have little say in dealing with price increase requests after the railroad commission has had their say.

Utility companies in Texas, I believe have been very fair and are doing us a good job.

The Abilene Reporter-News recently suggested that the Legislature enact a measure creating a presidential primary for Texas. Texas is now the third most populous state and is one of the very few larger states without such a primary, which leaves Texas without a voice before the conventions. By that time, the nominees have already just about been selected and Colorado City Volunteer firemen were called to three fires Monday afternoon, the middle call to a pickup truck on fire about two miles east of Trucktown which was totally destroyed along with household items in the truck bed.

Called to the fire at 4:16 p.m., firemen found the truck completely engulfed in flames. Loaded in the back were such items as clothes, a mattress, television set, guns and other household goods. Two men driving the truck which had a California license plate said that the owner of the truck and most of the items in it was ahead of them on Interstate 20, headed for Dallas on a motorcycle. Texas Highway patrolman Jimmy Granato called ahead to the Abilene DPS in an attempt to stop him and inform him of the fire. He was later found and told about the fire.

A truck driver phoned Colorado City police on a citizen's band radio, saying the fire department was needed. Fire was reported out at 4:45 p.m.

In a call preceding the pickup truck fire, firemen went to the old refinery where workmen were cutting into a steel storage tank when flames erupted. There was not a big explosion, however, and firemen were able to bring the fire under control quickly without any difficulty. They watched the fire for a time, reporting it completely out at 3 p.m.

The last call of the day came at 5:25, reporting a corral on fire at the old Bodine place north of Buford. It was put out before firemen would get there, the person phoning the police department to say it was out at 5:31 p.m.

Mrs. Charles Leon Light, the former Terri Dorchel Mills.

some candidates have already dropped out of the race because of results in other state primaries.

It would seem that Texas does need to have a presidential primary, possibly during the May primaries, as the Abilene Reporter-News suggests.

Such a primary would also give direction to the Texas delegation which has previously done as it wishes.

Hopefully, there will be some better choices for President than there have been in the past two Presidential elections which caused a large number of people to be voting against rather than for a candidate.

Are Natural Gas Curtailments Going To Affect Me?

During cold days in the winter, when the demand for natural gas is really high, some industrial users are asked to cut back their consumption of natural gas. But we want to assure our residential and other high priority customers that it's highly unlikely their natural gas service will be interrupted.

The pipelines used to deliver natural gas can only hold so much gas. And during extremely cold winter days, there's sometimes more demand than we can supply. Some people ask, "Why not build bigger pipelines?" But that would be like building a church for the Easter or Christmas attendance, rather than the weekly congregation. The cost would be tremendous and gas rates would be much higher.

Instead we developed a "curtailment" program many years ago. Our industrial customers have signed contracts agreeing to "curtail" their use of natural gas during these peak times.

If you were considering replacing an existing gas appliance or purchasing a new one, be assured that Lone Star can provide the energy. We have the natural gas, and our residential and other-high priority customers may continue to rely on Lone Star's dependable service now as in the past.

Churches of Christ To Host Mid-Winter Youth Conference

Richard Hale is one of the guest speakers who will be featured during the Mid-Winter Youth Conference at Northside Church of Christ January 18. Both Northside Church of Christ and 22nd and Austin Street Church of Christ are sponsoring the gathering of young people from the city and county and surrounding towns.

Hale has preached in churches in Louisiana and Texas and has experience in holding meetings and campaigns, having held campaigns in nine states and the two foreign countries of Australia and New Zealand. Hale started preaching at the age of 12 years, was preacher to the Lake Charles, La. congregation for six years and presently preaching at the Church of Christ in Jasper, Texas.

He is married and he and his wife, Marie, have four teenage children, the oldest in the U. S. Navy.

Eddie Swinney, preacher at Northside Church of Christ, has invited all young people, no matter what church they attend, to come to the Youth Conference, stating that he expects about 1,200 people to attend to hear the singing, preaching and enjoy the food and fellowship.

Women of both Churches of Christ will prepare food for an afternoon meal, set for 4-6 p.m. Preceding the meal will be singing by the congregation, led by song director Al Pickering, who also sings with the Better Life Singers, a group from Lubbock Christian College.

Hale will speak, scheduled for 1:45 until 2:30 p.m., followed by singing of the Brothers Quartet, a group from Abilene Christian College. Ted Kell will be in charge of the service from 3:30 until 4:15.

Featured speaker for the night's program is Jim McGuggan of Belfast, Northern Ireland. He is set to speak from 6:30 until the Youth Conference breaks up.

COLORADO J.R. HIGH CHATTER

Colorado Junior High had a very exciting game last Thursday. When we returned from the Christmas holidays, everyone was ready for a game. The game was in Ballinger. Both games were really exciting. Five of the cheerleaders and about four or five Jamborees were there. We hope that more Jamborees and parents will try to come to the basketball games to help us in Backing Our Wolves!

The 7th grade played Ballinger Thursday, Jan. 2. They had them tied 26 to 26 and 30 to 30 at one time. With about 3 minutes to go, Ballinger came back and beat 42 to 32. Michael Johnson was high point man with 8. On defense we used the press, and it worked well until the last.

Next we enter the Stanton tournament. Our first game will be against Big Lake Friday at 1:15. If we win we will play again Friday at 7:15. GET 'EM WOLVES!

The C-City "B" team lost to the Hermleigh Jr. High by a score of 46 to 32.

Leading the way on offense was Ernest Aguilar, Rodney Taylor, Jimmy Shoemaker and Sammy Gomez.

Getting up on the boards was John Alvidrez and Blake Reynolds. Playing good defensively was Rodney Taylor and Rodney Wheeler.

They play Westbrook next.

Ag Census Begins

Forms Mailed To Producers

The 1974 Census of Agriculture got underway the week of December 29th with the mailing of about four million report forms to farms and ranches in the 50 states.

Farmers and ranchers are being asked to report on their agricultural operations during 1974. This 1974 census, the nation's 20th farm census in a series that started in 1840, will update data most recently obtained in 1970 for 1969 operations, according to Vincent P. Barabba, director of the Bureau of the Census. The Bureau is part of the Department of Commerce's Social and Economic Statistics Administration.

Primary emphasis will be on obtaining information about farms and ranches with sales of $2,500 or more annually. Such operations accounted for 98 per cent of the total value of all agricultural products sold in 1969.

To avoid undue burden on small farmers and to reduce processing costs, a short version of the census report form is being mailed to the over one million addressees estimated to have had both farm receipts and expenses of less than $2,000 in 1973. All other addressees are receiving the standard form.

Forms are being mailed to a list of the following: persons who filled out Schedule F of the 1973 individual income tax return, persons listed with other Federal agencies as associated with agricultural operations, and those reporting large or unusual farm operations in the 1969 census (such as institutional farms, farms on Indian reservations, etc.). This combined list of addressees forms a pool of potential respondents in the census. The final total of farms counted is expected to be well under three million, as it was in 1969.

A new kind of report form is being used in the 1974 farm census in order to reduce costs. The report form, instruction sheet, and return envelope have been printed and addressed in a single operation, thus eliminating separate printing, assembling, stuffing, and the attaching of the printed address labels. It is the first time that this type of operation has been used in a Federal census.

Also, for the first time, the forms are being mailed out at the third class bulk rate to reduce postage cost. The return envelope containing the farm operator's completed report carries first class postage to protect the confidentiality of the information reported.

Completed forms are to be mailed back as soon as possible. Census by mail allows operators to fill out their reports at their convenience and use their farm business records. Estimates are acceptable and should be reported in the absence of records.

Recipients of census report forms are cautioned not to discard them. Follow-up mailings costing additional postage will be required until all forms are received. Even if the recipient is not farming, the form should be returned with that fact noted.

Balance Sheet

For The Fiscal Year Ended August 31, 1974

Board of Trustees
Loraine Independent School District
Loraine, Texas 79532

Members of the Board:

I have examined the balance sheet of the Loraine Independent School District as of August 31, 1974 and the related analysis of changes in reserves and fund balances, comparisons of official budget with revenues and expenditures, and the bond schedule for the year then ended. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

In my opinion, the accompanying balance sheet, analysis in changes in reserves and fund balances, and comparisons of official budget with revenues and expenditures present fairly the financial position of the Loraine Independent School District as of August 31, 1974 and the results of its operations for the year then ended and, with exception of areas of non-compliance and areas of inefficiency as may be indicated on exhibits or schedules attached hereto, such operations were in accordance with applicable laws and regulations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principals for public local education agencies applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Respectfully submitted,

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

The group who call themselves Women Who Want to be Women have been far from silent on their views of the Equal Rights Amendment as noted in Letters to the Editor, January 5, Sunday, in the Colorado City Record. I also feel they have been misinformed on existing laws and possible results of the amendment. I, too, want to be a woman, I really enjoy the privileges, the luxuries, and the freedom I have. I would not exchange being a wife and mother under any circumstance. However, I feel that I, and every other citizen, am entitled to equal rights under the law.

The National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs has long supported ERA and has published answers to the charges by W.W.W.W. I hope every person who has heard the charges will take the time to read the following rebuttal prepared by Mrs. Hermine D. Tobolowsky, a Dallas Attorney, who is legal consultant to the Texas Federation BPW.

ANSWERS TO

THE MIS-STATEMENTS IN "LADIES! HAVE YOU HEARD?" Under the question, ARE YOU SURE YOU WANT TO BE LIBERATED? the statement is made that a "tiny minority of dissatisfied, highly vocal, militant women" want to "liberate" American women. Apparently, they are referring to the supporters of the Equal Right Amendment. Most of the representative groups supporting ERA are nationally recognized groups including such responsible groups as the American Bar Association and the National Federation of B&PW, AAUW, etc., groups that certainly do not fit the picture described in the opening paragraph of the 2 pages of misinformation printed under the name of "Women Who Want to be Women."

Under the heading "THE MOST DRASTIC MEASURE" the claim is made that ERA strikes at the foundation of family life. Another mis-statement! It actually strengthens the family by establishing a real partnership in law as well as in fact in the marriage relationship and strengthening the bonds between men and women. It will give women the opportunity to protect themselves from selfish husbands who might try to convey away all of the family property in those states which still leave all of the family assets in the hands of the husband. It will force Congress to change Social Security Laws to eliminate the discrimination that prevents a husband from drawing on his wife's Social Security account even though the married woman pays the same social security as her male counterpart, it will eliminate too many unjust laws to attempt to enumerate them here.

Under the heading of "DO YOU WANT TO LOSE YOUR RIGHT NOT TO WORK?" the claim is made that ERA will abolish the right of a woman not to work. There is no State in the Union with a law forcing any man to work nor is there any such Federal law, hence the Equal Rights Amendment could not possibly force women to work—that would be inequality. In the W.W.W.W. sheet, the Yale Law Journal is misquoted; what it actually says is quoted in an article on Texas Equal Rights Amendment in the Texas Tech Law Journal, Volume 5, No. 2, page 637 as follows:

"In this regard, the Yale Law Journal states:

"The Equal Rights Amendment would bar a state from imposing greater liability for support on a husband than on a wife merely because of his sex. However, a court could equalize the duty of support to women...if husband and wife had equal resources and earning capacity, neither would have a claim of support against the other. HOWEVER, IF ONE SPOUSE WERE A WAGE EARNER AND THE OTHER PERFORMED UNCOMPENSATING DOMESTIC LABOR FOR THE FAMILY, THE WAGE EARNING SPOUSE WOULD OWE A DUTY TO THE SPOUSE WHO WORKED IN THE HOME."

Thus ERA will not change the way people live their lives. Husbands doubtless will continue to be the primary breadwinners in the majority of families."

There is absolutely nothing in ERA to require parents to put their children in federal day care centers. ERA affects only laws that apply differently to men and women. Many states, including Texas, presently have laws requiring a wife to support a husband who needs support if she can do so—no law forces either a husband or a wife to support the other if he or she does not have the means to do so. In summary, NO law now requires either men or women to work and ERA would not change this—if there were any such law forcing anyone to work, we would not have so many on welfare.

Under "WILL THE ERA HELP DIVORCED WOMEN?" the claim is made that women will lose the customary right of child custody, support and alimony and be forced to pay child support and alimony.

No State in the Union gives a woman the right of child custody by law—all states provide that custody shall be decided on the basis of what is best for the child and hence custody laws do not favor one sex over the other and will not be changed by ERA. While men are the ones usually required to pay child support, women also have a moral and legal obligation to support their children—it is usually the men who pay because they have the finances to do so, but women can be ordered to pay and in some cases are presently required to pay child support. This would not be changed by ERA. Besides, any decent mother or father will support his or her children to the best of his or her ability. There is not and never has been any alimony in Texas and most other states have abolished alimony. If a State does have alimony, we see no reason why a husband should not have a claim if his wife is financially able to pay just as the wife should have a claim against a husband.

The heading "WHAT ABOUT OTHER EFFECTS ON FAMILY LIFE?" makes the claim that if ERA passes, wife and children will not be required to wear the name of husband and father and it will create confusion. In some countries, wife and children do not take the name of husband and father and there are some decisions in this country to the effect that they do not have to do so, but ERA will not prohibit continuation of the usual practice of the wife assuming the name of her husband and the children going thereby. Nor will ERA have the effect of permitting homosexuals to "marry" and adopt children -- Mrs. Tobolowsky says she knows of now lawyers who think it will have that effect nor does the W.W.W.W. sheets identify the "leading law counsels" who so state. Remember the American Bar Association supports ERA.

Under the heading "DO YOU WANT TO LOSE YOUR RIGHT TO PRIVACY?" the statement is made that there could be no segregation of the sexes in "prison, reform schools, public restrooms, etc." This ignores the fact that the Supreme Court has repeatedly held that there is a Constitutional Right to privacy and that ERA does not repeal other Constitutional Rights—it only repeals discriminatory statutes. The Constitutional Right to privacy also applies to segregation of military barracks. (See Supreme Court Griswold vs Connecticut)

Under the heading "DO YOU WANT TO LOSE YOUR RIGHT NOT TO BE DRAFTED?" the public is misinformed that women have a present right not to be drafted. On the contrary, there is no right not to be drafted by either men or women. By the end of World War II there were a number of bills introduced in Congress to draft women and had the war lasted another 6 months, women would have been drafted. Texas passed a bill in 1957 to draft women into the militia in time of war. This does not mean that women with small children will be drafted—you will recall that under the present draft law, men with small children were deferred.

Under the heading "DO YOU WANT PROTECTIVE LAWS AGAINST SEX CRIMES?" the W.W.W.W. sheets indicate that ERA will abolish laws against sex crimes. This is totally untrue. No criminal sex laws apply only to one sex. They prohibit a criminal act and ERA does not require that criminal acts go unpunished. They are designed to punish the criminal because he or she has performed a criminal act not because of the sex of the offender.

Under the heading, "WILL ERA HELP WORKING WOMEN?" the W.W.W.W. sheet indicates that ERA will adversely affect women in industry because it will invalidate all protective laws for women, such as weight lifting restrictions, etc. ERA does not require the repeal of any protective law—only that its "benefits" be extended to both sexes. Since men die at a younger age than women and suffer more from stress diseases, such as heart, ulcers, they obviously need protective laws just as much as women.

Under the present practice, so-called "protective" laws have been used as an excuse not to promote women, not to hire them in the more lucrative jobs. However, there have been several Federal Court decisions holding that "protective" laws which apply to women only violate the Equal Employment Opportunities Act and are thus invalid. As a result many states have already repealed such laws or extended their benefits to men to bring them in line with the federal law. In other states, including Texas, the Attorney General has ruled such laws invalid if they apply to women only. ERA will not prohibit one sex schools if the schools are private and privately financed, but it will prohibit public one sex schools and since they are supported by tax payers, men and women, this is as it should be. The Constitution protects separation of Church and State and guarantees religious freedom, hence the claim by W.W.W.W. that ERA will interfere with church internal policy is incorrect.

The attempt to link ERA supporters with communist Russia is a smear tactic.

There is federal court authority to the effect that once a state has ratified a constitutional amendment, it cannot legally revoke that ratification.

I agree with the W.W.W.W. that each of us should let our legislators know how we feel about ERA, but that is my only point of agreement. Sincerely, Shirley DeLaney Using electricity more efficiently for heating takes very little energy on your part.

A lower thermostat setting will result in less energy use. The setting of 65°-68° has been recommended for energy conservation. If you are going to be away, turn your thermostat down to a lower setting or turn it off unless freezing-weather could damage plumbing and appliances.

Keep the filters clean and enjoy cleaner air. Check them at least once each month. Dirty filters cause the equipment to work harder and use more electricity.

Insulation is very important and can pay for itself by lowering your heating costs. In fact, you can save as much as 20% or more on energy consumption if your home is insulated to meet FHA standards.

Help seal in the heat you're paying for by weatherstripping the doors and windows.

Open the draperies or shades on the sunny side of the house and let the sunshine in. Otherwise, keep the draperies and shades closed to help keep the warm air in.

When your fireplace is not in use, be sure the damper is tightly closed.

Dennis Alan Patterson,
...riding winners.

Patterson Ranks High At Louisiana Downs

Dennis Alan Patterson has come a long way since he rode calves on a Colorado City farm. He is now riding winners at Louisiana Downs, including four in one day recently, and now ranks among the leading jockeys at the northwest Louisiana oval.

Alan, who is 25, piloted the first two horses he rode at Louisiana Downs into the winner's circle and has been going good ever since.

Young Patterson got interested in thoroughbred racing when his uncle, the late A. T. Broadwell, sent several horses from the Albuquerque Fair Grounds to the Patterson's Colorado City farm to be trained in the deep sand there.

Although Alan's Dad, the late Dennis Patterson, competed in rodeos as a calf roper, the younger Patterson liked the speed of the thoroughbreds and decided to be a jockey. When the horses went back to Albuquerque, he accompanied them. He worked free for Ken Roberts, a jockey in the summer and trainer in the winter, and in turn was taught to ride.

Alan first rode on a recognized track at Sunland Park and says it took him a long time to bring in his first winner, Lou Rate. Later he rode at Arizona and Nebraska tracks before he was drafted into the Army.

He joined the Marines before actually being accepted into the Army and soon was headed for combat duty in Vietnam. Being the smallest fellow in his company, Alan became a "tunnel rat."

"I had to go in the tunnels with a pistol, knife and flashlight to see if any Viet Cong were in there. I never found anybody, thank goodness," Alan said. For his courageous acts, Alan won the Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry.

Alan says he never got rolling as a jockey in the big time until the Hot Springs meeting in 1972. He was the leading rider at Sportsman's Park in Chicago last year and the second leading rider at the same track this year.

Patterson's biggest win came recently at Sportsman's when he won one division of a $50,000 stakes with Special Goddess, a filly.

As for his recent four wins in a day at Louisiana Downs, Alan said it wasn't unusual for him.

"I've done it about four or five times," he said. "Best day I had was five wins, two seconds and two thirds on the mounts at Atokad Park."

Food Stamp Coupons To Be Changed

The U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) will replace the current 50 cent, $2 and $5 food stamp series with a $1 $5, and $10 series March 1.

USDA's Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) said that the larger denominations were prompted by the volume of coupons needed to meet increased food stamp allotments, paper shortages and increased production and shipping costs.

The new food stamps -- brown ($1), purple ($5), and blue-green ($10) -- use a more sophisticated design to deter counterfeiting. They are incorporated into redesigned, revalued coupon books.

All current coupons not issued by February 28 of this year, will be collected and destroyed. FNS said that food stamp recipients must spend their current food stamps by June 30, 1975 since retailers will not accept any old coupons after that date.

Authorized food stamp stores will use the $1 coupon for making change instead of the current 50 cent coupon and credit slips of 99 cents or less for change under $1. FNS advised retailers to redeem the current food coupons as soon as possible; banks will continue to accept them for redemption until August 1, 1975.

WTC To Offer Course In Salesmanship

Management 134, a practical course in salesmanship, will be among the courses offered by Western Texas College for extension class students in Colorado City during the spring semester.

Charles Riley, who joined the faculty at WTC last fall as an instructor and coordinator in the Mid-Management department, will be the teacher. He holds the Bachelor of Business Administration and Master of Education degrees, and has over 20 years of successful experience in sales work, management, personnel, teaching and consulting both in the business and education fields.

Riley plans to limit his class to 20 students so that each person enrolled will have ample opportunity to enter into class participation. "This course is filled with ideas and experces that can be put into immediate use by every student," Riley says. "Person-to-person communicating is the key note of the course, and that makes it useful to everyone who deals with people, whether it is in the business world or in the home."

Riley taught this course for extension class students in Haskell last semester. His students there ranged in ages from early twenties to past fifty, and included business and professional people as well as homemakers. Their comments at the end of the course matched Riley's own enthusiasm. One woman, for example, described it as "the most valuable learning experience I've ever had," while another said, "Next time, I want my husband to take this course. I'm hooked on it!"

"I'm applying everything I've learned in my day-to-day work," said one man whose work centers around building good customer relations. "It's helped me tremendously in being more relaxed and in managing our restaurant," commented a young businessman. "Being a football referee, as well as a store manager, is now much easier and more fun," said another businessman.

"In only one class, Self-Evaluation, I got my money's worth for the entire course," said a secretary, and her comment summed up the feelings of several others as well.

Registration for the spring semester extension courses in Colorado City will be held Jan. 14. Persons who would like to enroll early may contact the office of the registrar at Western Texas College or call Ruth Tate at extension 220 at the college, 573-8511.
