FOURTEEN CONVICTS BREAK PRISON

Dispondent, Youth Kills Sweetheart

ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE IS MADE IN JAIL CELL

(By Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Oct. 10.—Glen Jenkins, 20, who surrendered to police last night after stabbing his sweetheart to death and swallowing poison, made a spectacular attempt to commit suicide today by diving from his second tier cell to a floor, 18 feet below, at police headquarters. His skull was fractured and he was reported in a critical condition.

The youth, who told police he killed Marie Young, 21, telephone operator, because he loved her and could not afford to marry, was headfirst over the balcony railing in front of his cell when the door was opened for the morning roll call.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 10.—Glen Jenkins, 20, student waiter at a downtown club, was held by police today following his confession last night that he stabbed to death his sweetheart, Miss Marie Young, 21, a telephone operator.

The youth who is recovering from the effects of poison taken after he had brought the body to the Nineteenth street police station, said the act was prompted because he could not marry Miss Young on the $30 monthly salary which he earned.

He told police he purchased a 10 cent butcher knife in a 10 cent store yesterday, bought some poison, inserted a car and called for the girl.

"I drove to Fairland park, determined to kill her, so that I would hang for the crime," he said. "She did not know of my plan. I stabbed her three times, then drove to the police station. She had asked me many times to kill her because she seemed hopeless."

Jenkins drank poison before entering the station, but was revived by a physician.

Death Appears As Sure For Hickman

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—Death on the gallows seemed a certainty for William Edward Hickman today following rejection of his appeal to the United States supreme court and announcement of Governor C. C. Young that he will let the law take its course.

The Kansas city youth is under sentence to die October 19 at San Quentin prison following the kidnapping and murder of Marian Parker in Los Angeles last December.

Governor Young said last night that only new evidence could induce him to commute Hickman's sentence.

FEAR MANY DEAD IN DEBRIS

EIGHTEEN BODIES ARE ALREADY RECOVERED FROM BUILDING

(By Associated Press)
PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Oct. 10.—Pitiful appeals for help coming today from the debris of an eight story stone office building which collapsed yesterday spurred rescue workers on to dig out 65 persons estimated to be buried in the ruins. Eighteen bodies had been recovered and it was feared many of those entombed were dead. Two more were missing.

Pedestrians in the narrow street and passengers in a street car passing the building at the time of the collapse were injured. The chief inspector of police was run over and killed by a fire department automobile when he was hurrying to the scene with a group of salvagers.

The architect of the building was reported to have committed suicide on the spot when he saw the disaster. Three building inspectors were among those buried in the ruin.

Cries of relatives of the missing added to the horror of the scene as rescue workers labored through the night under the beams of search lights.

A woman found in the ruins the severed head of her husband and police had to take it away from her.

The explosion of the vicinity was terrified by the collapse which occurred at a time when the business street was thronged.

Government authorities attributed the collapse to defective cement and heavy faulty construction.

Hickman Declares He Is Ready To Die

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Calif., Oct. 10.—In a signed statement addressed to the Associated Press, William Edward Hickman, sentenced to death for the slaying of little Marian Parker, today confessed he was a "guilty sinner" and thanked the state supreme court for giving him time to prepare for death.

Hickman asked "the people" to pray for the condemned men at the prison and said he was sorry he "offended God and man."

He denied to Warden James B. Holohan that he tried to commit suicide in his cell as rumors had indicated.

"I have made up my mind to take my medicine," he said, "and I am not going that way."

KIWANIANS JOIN WITH ROTARIANS TODAY IN DOUBLE MEETING

With visiting pastors and laymen of the Presbyterian Synod of Texas and members of civic clubs in other cities present, the combined memberships of the Lubbock Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, in joint meeting at noon today, listened to an address on present day youth and social problems, delivered by A. J. "Dad" Elliott, of Chicago.

Mr. Elliott, who is spending a week at Texas Technological college here, is general secretary of the National Council of the Young Men's Christian association and for a score of years has been active in college Y. M. C. A. work.

Praises Youth of Today
Declaring that the youth of today, despite the urban influence for moral deterioration, is a most responsive group to religion and higher social life, the speaker laid the blame for unrest among the youngsters directly at the door of the older generations. He urged co-operation among the feature citizenry in the upholding of the law and in setting the right example for the younger generations and surprised his hearers with the charge that "the good" (Turn to Page 6, Column 2, Please)

BYRD AND CREW PREPARE FOR START TODAY ON LONG EXPLORATIONS INTO UNCHARTED REGIONS OF ANTARCTIC

(By Associated Press)
SAN PEDRO, Cal., Oct. 10.—Commander Richard E. Byrd and his little group of followers prepared to bid goodbye to the United States today as their final gesture before embarking on a long trek which will take them into voluntary exile in the Antarctic regions for from one to three years.

The explorers, who left their mark in the Arctic by flying over the North Polar area, and who spanned the Atlantic by airplane in one of the most thrilling of trans-oceanic flights, will meet adventure at the nether end of the Earth by essaying to "fill in the blank spaces on the map" of that region.

Follow Other Vessels
Abroad the staunch Whaler C. A. Larsen, Byrd and his companions were ready to start at flood tide today for Dunedin, New Zealand, where their drive into the South Polar Zone begins. Across the Pacific ocean they will follow three other vessels of the Byrd expedition, the Sir James Clark Ross, the Eleanor Bolling and the City of New York, already well on their way to distant New Zealand. NATION PLANS NO WEAKENING OF DEFENSES

SECRETARY OF WAR IS SPEAKER FOR MEET OF LEGIONNAIRES

(By Associated Press)
SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 10.—A promise that the administration does not contemplate any weakening of the national defense because of the recently signed Kellogg treaties was given the American Legion here today by Secretary of War Dwight F. Davis in an address in which he praised the purpose and the statesmanship of the documents.

"I know the great value of the support which has been given by the American Legion to our national defense. Desires of peace, you nevertheless have realized that we must not jeopardize our heritage of liberty during our search for a panacea for war. Therefore, you will wish to know that your efforts have not been misdirected. The government does not intend that there should be any weakening of the national defense as a result of these treaties."

The value of this step (the peace treaties) will be lost," Davis said, "if we conceive it to be a definite assurance of a permanent establishment of World Peace. Unfortunately some of our citizens have thoughtlessly jumped to such a conclusion. Contrary to the advice of President Coolidge and Secretary Kellogg there are those who even advocate an immediate reduction of our modest defense forces. It is obvious that any disarmament to be effective must be universal.

While there is in the administration the most sincere desire to promote world peace, and a very definite renunciation of aggressive war as an instrument of national policy, there is no intention whatsoever on the part of our government to jeopardize the security of ourselves or our posterity.

MILLER CASE IS IN HANDS OF JURY

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 10.—A jury today was considering whether Clyde Miller, 34, killed Bruce Collier, 27, at Newlin last Christmas, or if the state has charged or whether Collier was killed in a train-automobile collision.

After about a score of witnesses had testified, the case went to the jury here at noon today. Collier was found dead in the wreckage of his automobile which was struck by a train south of the Newlin depot. The state alleged that Miller and Collier engaged in a fist fight about four hours earlier and Collier died from a blow on the head, struck with a bottle. Miller, the state charged, then put Collier's body in an automobile and left it on the railroad track.

PLOT TO WRECK HOMES OF CHICAGO JUDGES BROUGHT TO LIGHT

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—A bomb plot against two Chicago judges, on candidate for state's attorney on the Democratic ticket, was checked today.

Judge William J. Linday of the superior court, candidate for state's attorney, and Judge John N. Lyle, municipal judge, were given protection following revelations which both men had indicated the home of both men had been marked for bombs.

The plot was reported by Robert Maxwell who told of overhearing three men on an elevated train whispering about a "job of tossing pineapples" at the homes of the judges. Maxwell followed the men from the elevated train until they entered a close sedan without license plates and were driven away by a fourth man.

Maxwell said he understood the men to say the "pineapple tossing" was to be done between midnight and 1 a. m. today and heavy police guards were sent to both places.

(By Associated Press)
HUNTSVILLE, Oct. 10.—Fourteen convicts, including three who had been charged with arson for the burning of five buildings on the Wynne state prison farm near here last week, escaped from the remaining whole building at Wynne farm last night by sawing a hole in the floor of the building.

Four of the prisoners were recaptured in Huntsville, two miles from the Wynne farm, a little more than two hours after their escape. They were recognized by Walter Woods, taxicab driver, who called Police-man P. C. Crittenden, and together the two men made the arrest.

Three of the men recaptured were to face trial soon for the firing of the tubercular building at the farm last week. Five buildings were destroyed with a property loss of about $2,000.

Bloodhounds were trailing the escaped men today, and officials at the state penitentiary said they expected to recapture some of them soon.

HUNT NEGRO IN ASSAULT CASE

GAINESVILLE WOMAN IS NEAR DEATH, RESULT ATTACK BY BLACK

(By Associated Press)
FORT WORTH, Oct. 10.—Constable C. F. Cochran and Deputy Sheriff Reese of Gainesville, arrived in Fort Worth last night and told police they believed the negro who assaulted Mrs. A. R. Hassenflugh at Elm Grove, 13 miles south of Gainesville Monday, is in Fort Worth.

They said Mrs. Hassenflugh is in a critical condition and not expected to live.

Cochran said he was satisfied the negro came to Fort Worth in the automobile owned by the woman's husband in which he escaped after the assault.

Cochran described the attack, saying the woman had carried the negro from one field to another to pick cotton. Leaving the car, he said, she started to enter the house to tell her husband she had secured another cotton picker, when the negro called to her and she went to him. Before leaving, Cochran related, he pulled her tongue out and almost severed it with a knife or piece of glass.

That Waistline—Jean Patou Says It Must Be Drawn Somewhere

Some of the waifs Patou introduces the new, almost normal waistline. Left to right, a blonde lace and georgette frock uses a narrow georgette belt to mark the waistline, though the lace points below it from and back. A pink crepe evening frock has folds of self-material and just where the waist should be. A handsome evening gown, with all-over embroidery of white pearls and black beads, achieves a waistline effect by gradated beading.

BY JEAN PATOU

FOR NEA SERVICE

PARIS, Oct. 10.—One of the most important questions where the technicalities of fashions are concerned is the waistline.

More than three years ago I presented in one of my collections a model typifying a tendency which I anticipated in the waistline. In this model the waistline purposely was somewhat exaggerated. It was almost normal and consequently caused a great deal of surprise and comment.

Today this very same model could be shown in my collection without attracting more comment than any of the other dresses. This in itself is sufficient proof of the evolution of fashions in the sphere of the waistline.

Gradual Transition

This transition of the normal waistline is a slow process, however. If a comparison is made between my present collection and the fashions of three years ago, although one has a very definite impression of a higher waistline, it would be difficult to say of any model that it typifies this change.

The question of changing the waistline was one fraught with many difficulties for the couturier. Women offered a certain amount of resistance to the idea. Today it is practically an accomplished fact, but only because this change was effected through the seasons in an almost unconsciously progressive way.

Another reason is that a very great diversity of means was employed so that little by little women's eyes became accustomed to a waistline which was not placed just somewhere above the knees.

In any instance, a waistline can be a very elusive thing and can give the impression of being nearly normal without being so in reality. This illusion is secured with the help of various effects. The more usual pretext takes the form of some sort of belt. In certain instances this belt is nothing more than a superposition of material, not very marked, but giving the required effect. Again, when the top of a gown is trimmed either by a work of incrustations, stichings, tucks or frills, these various trimmings are made to finish a little lower than the so-called normal waistline.

Belt in Uneven Line

Another effect I have used in my winter models is that of a belt placed at the same height as on my summer models, but raised on the back or front.

I believe, however, that the time has not yet come to launch dress with a determined and normal waistline. My theory is that one can not impose a brusque change on women, unless they can be taken completely by surprise.

'Titan Type' Of Beauty Requires Little Make-Up, Says Alfred Cheney Johnston

Ann Smith . . . the "Romney type."

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fourth of a series of articles written for The Journal and NEA Service by Alfred Cheney Johnston, one of the foremost artists among American photographers. Each day he discusses a type of feminine beauty, explains how it best can be enhanced by make-up and coiffure, tells which color schemes and styles of gowns he considers most effective.

BY ALFRED CHENEY JOHNSTON
Written For NEA Service

The titan-haired siren has been the subject of countless lyrics. Historians have recorded how wars have been fought for her; the poet has immortalized her in verse; and her beauty has graced the canvases of many of the old and modern masters.

A lovely titan-haired girl is Ann Smith, whom I photograph frequently. Miss Smith is divine in all, with the poise and charm that one associates with the heroines of Romney portraits. Her hair is a delightful shade of auburn. At first glance, the tone of red seems soft and subdued, but glints of pure copper are revealed when the sun touches it.

Miss Smith has an oval face a broad brow, faintly arched brown, straightforward, clear blue eyes, a small, well-shaped mouth and a straight, little nose with just a suggestion of tilt. She typifies the gracious, high-born lady. Her skin is opalescent and nature has given her that rich, rose-petal coloring one sees so often with auburn hair.

Many girls of Miss Smith's type have not her dark brows and lashes. And since the titan-haired girl relies so much upon her brows to bring out the color of her eyes, I would suggest that a slight application of medium brown pencil be used; but again I advise caution. Never draw a hard, dark line, but apply the pencil gently, even if it is necessary to go over it a second time. A natural face powder is best for this type, and a light raspberry rouge. Never use orange-tinted rouge—for they clash with the copper hair. Nor should a brilliant shade of lip-rouge be used, for there again is the danger of its interfering with the tone of the hair. They should be kept a dark, natural color.

This type of girl may wear her hair either long or short, but in either case the coiffure should be simple and loosely waved. The tall, titan-haired woman wears furs and jewelry exceptionally well, especially if she has a long graceful neckline. Blue greens and green blues are most flattering and she wears white, black, brown, navy blue and pale yellow to good advantage. Most shades of red and orange are not good, nor are the deep tones of yellow. Pink and rose tones make her complexion look too ruddy. Light gray is exceedingly becoming but the stately, auburn-haired lady with blue eyes should include at least one black-and-white costume in her wardrobe.

Over a Billion Deadly Germs in a Single Drop of Water

Germs are so small that there may be as many as one billion, seven hundred million of them in a drop of water. And just a few of these tiny germs, if they get into your blood through a cut in your skin, may make you so sick you will be in bed for weeks—may cause the loss of a limb through blood poisoning—may even infect you with that most dreadful and fatal of diseases, lockjaw.

Just because you can see no dirt in a cut does not mean that it is clean. You cannot see germs. The only safe and sane thing to do, is to thoroughly wash every cut, no matter how small, with Liquid Boraxone, to kill the germs, and then dust it with Boraxone Powder, to hasten the healing. Liquid Boraxone costs 30 cents, 60 cents, $1.50 and $1.50; Boraxone Powder, 50 cents and 60 cents, and can be had at LUBBOCK DRUG CO.

RELIGION HELD VITAL FACTOR BY PRESIDENT

COOLIDGE MAKES TALK AT CONVENTION OF EPISCOPALIANS

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Addressing the general convention of the Episcopal church here today, President Coolidge proclaimed religion to be necessary for the conservation of American government and the maintenance of those liberties and privileges which are characteristic of American life.

The president's address at the present convention and other organizations were taken by Coolidge as evidence that "the forces of the world are and energetically engaged in promoting the spiritual advancement of humanity."

In this country, the chief executive saw conditions which require constantly increasing efforts for the betterment. "The problem of the nation," he said, "is one that is now and will be forever recurring. There are large settlements of people in great centers of population living under foreign conditions, though they are dwellers within our borders, they have never yet fully come into the United States."

Declaring that while the government does all it can to remedy what evils exist in society, the president expressed the view that laws do not meet the problem of human existence or furnish a sufficient foundation for human progress.

NEED PROBATION OFFICER IN CITY COMMITTEE SAYS

The next step in the settlement of Lubbock's delinquent children problem will be addition of a probation officer to the local force who will concentrate his energies on the problem.

This is the hope of the committee selected to consider the question of the children of the city. The committee is composed of Judge Clark M. Mullican and E. M. Clapp, representatives of the Kiwanis club; S. E. Come and Charlie Crenshaw, of the Rotary club, and City Manager Gus McCleary, representative of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

The committee was selected recently at a joint meeting of the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs. It is planned for the city and the county to share the expense of employing a probation officer. This request was presented to the county commissioners court last Monday although no action was taken, and it is understood that the city has agreed to undergo half of the expense.

Whaley Lumber Co. Case Comes Today

Verdict in the case styled, Chipley vs. Smith, which was tried yesterday had not been returned this morning although the jury was still deliberating. Civil suits are set from now until October 27. The new term of the court will begin October 29, lasting until shortly before Christmas. Grand jury of the 99th district court again convened this morning and resumed investigation. No verdicts have been returned by the body since it met Monday.

SONG SERVICE INTERESTING

MUSICAL PROGRAM IS FEATURE OF REVIVAL IN PROGRESS HERE

The song service each night at the First Christian church revival is proving to be a most interesting and inspirational feature of every service and the people respond in a hearty manner. Musical Director Chester F. Harris, said today. Dr. Virgil Wallace preached last night on "A Near Jail Delivery." He was very realistic in his presentation of the jail experience of Paul and Silas, depicting as he did the consternation of the jailor on finding the bars of the jail let down. Fearing for his personal safety he was about to thrust his body on a sword, when Paul cried out "Do thyself no harm for we are all here."

Believes in Pastors

He said in part: "I suppose you expect me to talk of the preacher who has fallen into sin and whose name is heralded abroad on the front pages of hundreds of newspapers. A news agency pays the ministry as a whole the highest possible compliment when it treats as taken the sin of one who has taken upon himself the obligations of the Gospel ministry. I am not worried about the integrity of the ministry so long as the fall of one of their number is so unusual as to be considered news."

Dr. Wallace then read the story of the imprisonment of Paul and Silas, and the conversion of the Philippian jailor, using as a text the jailor's question, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" The answer given was "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ."

"No man believes in Christ when he says 'I will not become a Christian until I know that I can hold out,' said the speaker. 'This is not faith in Christ, that is the way of faith in yourself. God cannot and will not save us until we have stepped down and out of the chariot of self-sufficiency. This is antagonistic to several scriptural ideas of a surrendered life. God wants us to trust Christ. This question is one that will last through the ages. They gave him one clear answer, 'believe on the Lord Jesus Christ. There is something for you to do. It is something that you can do. God never asks the impossible or the foolish. He did not say give up your bad habits and you will be alright. One may become the best man, and yet not be good enough to enter heaven. The soul that sinneth shall die. All have sinned and come short of the glory of God. It is not reformation but regeneration that is necessary. He did not say, follow your conscience and you will be alright." Tonight the subject announced will be "Heaven—Where is It? What is It and Will We Know Our Loved Ones There?"

CURTIS URGES WHOLE TICKET

SPEAKS FOR 'REGULAR' NOMINEES IN TOWNS OF NORTHWEST

(Associated Press Staff Writer) ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 10 (AP)—Senator Charles Curtis, republican vice-presidential nominee, is hewing to his long standing slogan of "the straight republican ticket" as he campaigns through the interstate political zones of the Northwest where factional strife in state politics looms as a threatening influence on the national contest.

Yesterday at Superior, Wis., he endorsed Senator Robert M. La Follette, republican senatorial nominee, and last night in Duluth gave his word for Arthur E. Nelson, regular republican candidate for the senate in this state.

La Follette so far has said nothing about the Hoover-Curtis ticket. His faction in Wisconsin has opposed Walter Kohler, of the conservative wing, republican gubernatorial nominee, who is supporting Herbert Hoover. Curtis also spoke a good word for Mr. Kohler. Senator Shipstead, farmer-labor, is the opponent of Mr. Nelson, regular republican in Minnesota.

Building Permit Office Is Moved

Building permits, formerly issued from the city offices, have been transferred to the city building department which is located in the engineering department rooms in the city hall.

Miss Eunice Wulfman is now in charge of issuance of the permits. The building department is headed by J. A. Presley, city building inspector.

Permits continued on the upward trend this morning with the granting of one residential permit for $4,500. It was to G. G. Gunn, contractor, for the construction of a residence for M. S. Gunn, owner, at 2319 18th street. October's total now stands at $51,150 for fourteen permits, and the total since the first of the year is $2,709,500 for 580 permits.

Order Reduction On Potato Rates

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—Rates on potatoes from the Greeley producing district in Colorado to southwestern consuming territory were ordered reduced by the Interstate Commerce Commission today, by amounts averaging 5 percent, the new lower schedule to become effective December 19. In addition the commission held that rates to the southwestern ports from the Red River Valley in Minnesota and North Dakota were also unfair to the Colorado producers and ordered changes in the northern rates as well.

ARKANSAS NOT ASKED TO QUIT ATHLETIC LOOP

CONFERENCE PRESIDENT SAYS NO ACTION YET ON NEW MEMBERS

Denying all reports that Arkansas University had been asked to withdraw from the Southwestern Conference, D. A. Penick, president of the loop, said this morning that the rumor was unfounded and had been hatched up by mislead persons.

The conference head, who is attending the Presbyterian Synod in session here, intimated that in case the Arkansas entry should choose to adopt the Tech had a splendid chance to become a member of the conference.

The Southwestern Conference has never as a body signified any desire for Arkansas to withdraw. Neither has any one member come out with such a statement, as appeared in the press recently.

The rumor has been hatched up by a number of sport writers who are taking a lot for granted.

"If Arkansas does choose to withdraw, the schools who applied for membership last fall will be considered," the conference head explained.

The chances for Texas Tech to be received into the conference are promising. The conference members are in sympathy with the athletic department of the school and admire the attitude adopted by the coaching staff.

Mr. Penick stated further that the report circulating throughout the state, especially through the columns of sport writers, that the Texas members of the conference desired to limit the membership to six, was of no consequence.

No action has been taken on the admission of new members since the meeting last fall when Tech and other schools applied for membership. Mr. Penick stated, in summing up the matter.

While the Cardinals were booting the ball around the lot in the sixth inning of Sunday's game Babe Ruth was busy making a score. He is shown here sliding into home for a run after catcher Wilson dropped the ball.

Who's Who among GRID LEADERS

BY NEA Service

MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 10.—You've heard of triple-threat backs. Well, Idaho is being captained this fall by a triple-threat end. His name is Darwin K. Burgher.

D. K. Burgher

Burgher upset the belief of some coaches that great prep school athletes seldom make good in college. He stars in football, basketball and track.

Burgher started as a halfback in his sophomore year but was converted into an end along about the middle of the season. But he punts so well, passes so accurately and gains yardage so easily at times, that he is often called upon to perform such duties.

Burgher was selected one of the best ends on the coast last year, and should play well enough to deserve the same honor this fall.

Charles Erb, choice of Walter Camp in 1923 for All-American quarterback is coming to Idaho. He played on those famous "Water Clevers" at California coached by the late Andy Smith.

Erb sent his team into a triple tie for Pacific Coast Conference honors last fall and is likely to have them up among the top-notchers again this fall. He has ample veteran material on hand, most of whom were sophomores last fall, and he has been at Idaho long enough now to get his "Andy Smith" system to working.

Erb is trying out several candidates for this job in early games and believes a capable man will be found.

SAINTS GRIND FOR TILT WITH TECH ON 13TH

VICTORY OVER RICE PUTS CATHOLICS IN PEPPY MOOD

(Special To The Journal)

AUSTIN, Oct. 10.—Pleased with the result of their trip to Houston, where Rice was defeated last Saturday, the St. Edward's university Saints began preparation Monday for a trip to Lubbock next Saturday, when they will match with the Matadors of Texas Tech.

The Saints returned from the Rice fray in somewhat battered condition. Both Sarafin and Wainwright have bruised shoulders that will hamper them considerably during the week and may keep them on the sidelines Saturday.

Wainwright especially is likely to need a more extended period of rest for his shoulder.

Saints Fear Matadors
Although the Saints put up a better game against Rice than they did against Texas, dopesters figure that the superior showing made by Tech against the Longhorns, indicates that the Saints will be in for a tough game when they get to Lubbock.

Not only did the Matadors hold Texas to a lower score, but they also showed more punch on the offense than the Saints were able to muster.

The Matadors have two victories over the Saints. In 1928 they took a 7 to 6 game, and last year they increased the margin to 13 to 7. The Saints therefore have a stirring ambition to make the count somewhat more favorable to themselves this year.

Behind their ambition is the hope that their showing against Rice last Saturday was not all due to an off-day in the Owl camp. The entire team functioned well against Rice, the team play being much better than it was against Texas.

Coach Meagher is strong for teamplay and the work done by individual ball carriers is largely credited to the blocking of the remainder of the team.

Neither the screen actress nor her husband, the Marquis De La Palaise et de La Couduy, was present at the ceremony.

A Beautiful Friendship

Mickey Walker has become somewhat of a factor in the light heavyweight class since he flattened Armando Emanuel.

The publicity that attended his victory over the overly advertised Emanuel put him in line for a "natural" with Tommy Loughran.

Tex Rickard is fond of those "natural" things and as he is too much of a business man to permit personal prejudices to interfere with the prospect of his board of directors it was thought that his feud with Jack Kearns, Walker's manager, might be settled amicably.

When Kearns was asked if he would bury the hatchet he said he would. But he added—Right down in Rickard's skull!

He said he had a better way of revenge than the commission of assault and that he would bail him out on his own score by forcing Rickard to come over with 250 grand and if the promoter want to use Walker.

A Slop At Sharkey

In spite of every good reason to believe that Walker is through he may go on and even become a person to be considered in the tangled heavyweight situation. There is a thing certain. If he can hold up his end he will get some great managing from Kearns.

Kearns knows how to pick spots for his fighters, spots that get the biggest glare of publicity.

There is no better judge of fighters in the business than Kearns and it can be taken as more than idle chatter when Kearns says he is in-

CONDITION OF RANGES GOOD

ABUNDANT RAINS HAVE MADE PASTURE BEST OF MANY YEARS

(By Associated Press)
 AUSTIN, Oct. 10.—The condition of Texas livestock ranges on Oct. 10 was 80 per cent compared with 86 a month ago and also 86 per cent, the average for the last five years, says the United States Department of Agriculture, division of livestock estimates, in a statement today.
 Although ranges deteriorated somewhat in the northeast, northwest and west-center, they have shown improvement in other districts, the statement continues.
 "In the west ranges are in better condition than for many years, being recorded at 105 per cent. Grass and weeds have greened up again in many areas and if favored by a late frost, will assure excellent winter ranges.
 "Abundant rains in the south revived ranges in that district and with the exception of a few scattered sections, there will be adequate feed for local needs.
 "Hay and other feed crops have made about average yields in those areas where rain has been adequate and only a comparatively few sections will find it necessary to import feed.
 "The October 1 condition of cattle at 89 per cent remained the same as last month and two months ago, but is one point better than the average for the last five years. Cattle have gone backward rapidly in the northeast and have lost flesh slightly in the northwest and west-center, but have shown improvement in other districts and are putting on flesh rapidly. Calves in some areas are not in as good flesh as a month ago, but with improved range conditions will be in good shape for delivery in November and December."
 Cattle, the statement says, have been moving rapidly all from the ranges all summer and shipments now are becoming heavy from some sections.
 "Contracting of calves has been brisk and most of these will move in November and December. Surplus cattle have been well cleaned out in most areas and those not already shipped have been contracted at satisfactory prices and will move later. Demand is continuing strong. A slight decline in the market has tended to curb speculating somewhat.
 "Many cattlemen who will have an abundance of grass and feed are attempting to restock, but are finding it increasingly difficult to obtain good cattle at reasonable prices.
 "Sheep have improved six points in condition since a month ago and many fat sheep and lambs have already been shipped to market. There is a general tendency to sell old ewes and to hold young ewes and ewe lambs and there is a strong local demand for these two classes. Comparatively high sheep prices are tending to slow up local buying which has been rather brisk, as many sheep owners are increasing their holdings rapidly. Sheep shearing has just started in some sections, but has been delayed about two weeks because of recent rains.
 "The conditions of goats improved slightly over that of a month ago. Goats generally are in better condition than usual at this time of year, but many freshly shorn animals were lost during recent rains and cold weather."

GOUGHAN FACES BIG WALK-OUT

EXPRESS CLERKS, IRED OVER FAILURE TO ENFORCE RULE
 (By Associated Press)
 NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The greater New York area was the scene today of an unannounced strike of members of the Brotherhood of Railroad and Express Clerks employed by the American Express company which went into effect at midnight and the cause of which was shrouded in somewhat of a mystery.
 Union claims were that between twelve and fifteen thousands employes had quit their places on trucks, weighing machines and desks and asserted the strike would be extended throughout the country.
 No official union statement on the reason for the strike could be obtained but one delegate explained that the principal grievance is failure of the company to recognize the seniority rule whereby in slack seasons the most recently employes would be the first to be laid off.
 Union pickets were on duty throughout the night at the various railroad yards and express company terminals. As drivers brought out their trucks for the day's work they were approached by the pickets and in cases where they were won over the trucks were driven back to the stables.

SINCLAIR TERMED ELUSIVE WITNESS

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (AP)—Harry F. Sinclair, oil operator, was described in federal court today as an "elusive witness" by David P. Seigel, counsel for Edward F. Brown and Elmer F. Andrews, international revenue agents, who will be tried next week for alleged acceptance of a bribe of $10,000 from Reginald Ragland, attorney for Sinclair.
 Siegel told Judge Winslow that process servers had been unable to find the oil man and requested a court order directing Sinclair to stay within the jurisdiction of the federal court here, pending the trial, and to present himself as a witness. Judge Winslow advised the lawyer to renew efforts to subpoena Sinclair.

HOOVER MAKES INVESTIGATION OF CONDITIONS IN NEW YORK STATE; STUDIES OVER SPEECH IN BOSTON

By JAMES L. WEST (Associated Press Staff Writer)
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Herbert Hoover turned his attention today to the situation in New York state, calling into conference Charles D. Hilles, national committeeman, and Edmund Machold, state chairman, for a through-going survey of conditions.
 Aside from the drive for the 45 electoral votes of the home state of his democratic opponent, Alfred E. Smith, the republican presidential candidate is evincing a lively interest in the success of the state ticket as well as the party candidates for the senate and the house of representatives.
 Arriving in New York at 8 o'clock on the morning of October 22, the republican standard bearer will establish his headquarters at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, where he will devote much of the day to conferences with New York leaders as well as those from Connecticut and New Jersey.
 Subject Not Announced
 The nominee has not yet turned his thoughts to the subject matter of the address he will deliver at Madison Square Garden that night, as he is putting in all his spare time on his sparetime on his Boston speech next Monday night. In that he will discuss both foreign trade and the tariff.
 Now that the campaign is swinging into the most intensive stage and approaching the decisive period, more and more of the republican candidates' time is taken up with the direction of the forces in the field and in digesting reports which come from various sections of the country, south as well as east and west.
 While such leaders as Senator Borah of Idaho, have brought much encouraging word about conditions in the northwest than were reaching headquarters only a comparatively short time ago, there seems to be the consensus among these leaders that much work remains to be done in that section.
 This is one of the reasons why increasing demand is being made that Hoover deliver a set speech in this section while enroute to a home at Stanford university to vote. But almost equally insistent is the pressure for him to talk at St. Louis and also to deliver one speech in Texas.

New Corporation To Handle Cotton

FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 10 (AP)—Formation of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Inc., a corporation to purchase and operate converting houses in the North and South, as a step in the plans of Homer Loring for the rehabilitation of the New England textile industry, was announced here today.
 The new company is chartered under the laws of Delaware. Its capitalization consists of 150,000 shares of six per cent authorized cumulative preferred stock with 50,000 shares presently offered and 300,000 shares of no par common authorized and outstanding, underwritten by Klidder Peabody and company of Boston and offered at 107 1/2. With each share of preferred stock offered is given a bonus of one share of no par common. Mr. Loring and his associates retain 250,000 shares of common stock.

Say Rail Earnings Register Increase

CHICAGO, Oct. 10 (AP)—J. L. Jacobs, a Chicago economist, told President Coolidge's railroad fact-finding commission today that train service employees of western railroads have increased their average annual earnings by 90 per cent since 1914, while the cost of living has advanced 65 per cent. He testified for the railroads in their wage and working conditions dispute with conductors and trainmen.
 Western train service men already are paid higher than those of eastern and southern lines, he said. He placed the average earnings of trainmen in the west at $2,497; at $2,339 in the east and at $2,230 in the south. The average increase of 61 per cent offered by the western lines, Mr. Jacobs said, would put the wages of western conductors and trainmen at the highest level ever reached.
 It's a question which will win out this year—the whispering campaign or that conducted by loud speakers.

New Yorkers Buy 600 Mile Route

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (AP)—O. P. and M. J. Van Sweringen, who have started financial circles in recent years by the overnight scooping up of whole railroads, announced today the purchase of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railway, a 600 mile line which brings their holdings up to nearly 10,000 miles of roadways.

The Van Sweringens purchased for about $11,000,000 sixty-seven per cent of the B. R. and P. stock from the investment banking houses of A. Iselin and company and Roosevelt and Sons, and agreed as the condition of the sale, to offer the same net price of $100 per share of preferred and common stock to the minority stockholders.

The B. R. and P. runs from Pittsburgh through the bituminous coal regions of western Pennsylvania to Buffalo and Rochester.

IMAGE SUIT CHOES DEATH

WIDOW OF J. E. SANDERS ASKS $50,000 FROM THE SANTA FE

Growing out of a railway accident which it is alleged that James E. Sanders sustained fatal injuries, a suit for $50,000 was filed in 72nd district court here yesterday by Mrs. Sanders and her daughter, Leona Mae Sanders, against the Panhandle and Santa Fe railway. Sanders, an employe of the railway company in the capacity of fireman, met death near Canyon when he fell from an engine while performing his duties, according to a petition filed yesterday. The sudden stopping of the engine is held to be the cause of the fall and is said to be due to carelessness of the company.

Appeal Made From Haskell-Duke Suit

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10 (AP)—Arguments were concluded in the United States court of appeals today in the appeal from an $8,000,000 judgment against the James B. Duke estate, awarded to George D. Haskell, president of the Bausch Machine & Tool company of Springfield, Mass. Three judges heard the arguments, but in view of the voluminous records a ruling may not be made for several weeks. Charles Evans Hughes represented the Duke estate. Haskell sued the Duke interests for $45,000,000, alleging that Duke had sold out to the Aluminum company of America after Haskell had discovered aluminum deposits in Canada and had taken Duke into partnership. He was awarded judgment of $8,000,000 in federal court in February.

In appreciation for this accomplishment, W. B. Hilton and A. Sansom, proprietors of the local establishment, were given a trip to the same office of the company in Detroit with all expenses paid.

Growth of Lubbock was given by Mr. Sansom as the basis for the company's large volume of sales during the past year. Upon his return from Detroit, he expressed an optimistic outlook for business during the next year.

Reporter Praised For Work In Flood

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (AP)—A Florida newspaper man—D. H. Conkling of the Palm Beach Post—who waded through flood waters to give the first news of the recent hurricane to the Associated Press through two amateur operators, has been cited for "outstanding service" by the board of directors of the news gathering organization. The radio operators, Ralph Hollis and Forrest W. Dana, are to be the recipients of suitable awards.

The following resolution, unanimously adopted, was made public today:

"Resolved, that on behalf of the membership of the Associated Press the board of directors record appreciation of the outstanding service of D. H. Conkling, member of the Associated Press for the Palm Beach Post. Mr. Conkling, early on the morning of Sept. 17, immediately following the hurricane, waded and waded through from West Palm Beach to Palm Beach, and to fire station, where he found two young amateur operators, Ralph Hollis and Forrest W. Dana, and through their courtesy Mr. Conkling was enabled to send the first news of the hurricane to his fellow members in the Associated Press."

Morris Invades America

As the Ford has taken Europe, the Morris car has invaded America. Here it is, as shown at the recent Canadian National Motor Show in Toronto. The engine is rated at seven horsepower, and the car is said to go 60 miles on a gallon of fuel, making its highest speed at 55 miles an hour. Its cost is little more than a Ford.

Fair Association Busy In Check-Up

Although the 1928 session of the Panhandle-South Plains fair is over to most people, to the officials of the exposition it might as well be going on. The fair office is buzzing with activity as officials work out details and check up on winners of premiums. The thousands of entries in the various departments intensify the complications of figuring out the premiums. More than 3,000 checks must be filled out before the work is completed and a check can be made of the financial status of the fair.

MARTYR FREED

War Hero Was Held For Refusal To Pay Alimony

WILLOWS, Calif., Oct. 10 (AP)—More than three years incarceration in jail for refusal to pay $20 a month for the support of his little daughter as ordered by the courts was at an end for Samuel W. Reid, world war veteran, today who was free as the result of action taken by his former buddies of the 363rd infantry.

Members of the infantry organization yesterday paid Reid's back alimony and a fine of $50 assessed against Sheriff Roy Heard of Glenn county. The sheriff, recently took Reid from jail on his own responsibility in order that the "martyr" might attend a reunion of the service men.

Reid, who is said to be well to do, refused to pay the money to his wife on the ground that she was not a desirable person to have custody of his daughter.

The veteran offered to pay twice the amount fixed by the court providing some other person than his wife were given custody of the child. The court refused the offer.

LONDON—Old street police court started a new racket recently when it issued a summons charging desertion against a man whose wife complained that he would not work to support his family. THE PLAINSMAN

Says
 That girl on Broadway says being born with a silver spoon in one's mouth doesn't mean so much nowadays.

Lubbock is host to a notable gathering this week—the ministers and laymen of the Texas synod of the First Presbyterian church.

It takes all kinds of meetings and conventions to make a city well rounded.

Recorder's Court Judge W. McKeay Skillman has ordered a warranty of arrest issued for a student who is charged with painting a wall.

Admittedly some of the politicians use questionable judgment in painting their fluffers but as long as the bounds of propriety are within the bounds of propriety, the Plainsman can see nothing wrong with the practice.

From all we can hear in this country about the crime wave and the racketeering in Detroit—the city which is "pushing" Chicago for the questionable honor of lawlessness.

If he is like the rest of us the learned judge was probably young himself once, and while painted fluffers have trailed into popularity since they have no doubt enjoyed himself in some antiquated manner twice as often as his neighbors.

The action from Judge Skillman's bench is symbolic of something which we should frown upon in our courts. Making mountains of molehills and molehills of mountains is entirely too popular.

That Man on Avenue Q says when a woman has discarded two husbands and is preparing to wed another the situation might be aptly described as "two down and one to go."

He used to bring her roses. When they were scarce and high. But since they are so plentiful. Their bloom he passes by.

It is reported that the Plainsman that Mr. Nye's idea is a good one. There is nothing that will stimulate municipal pride in the smaller cities like a friendly spirit of competition.

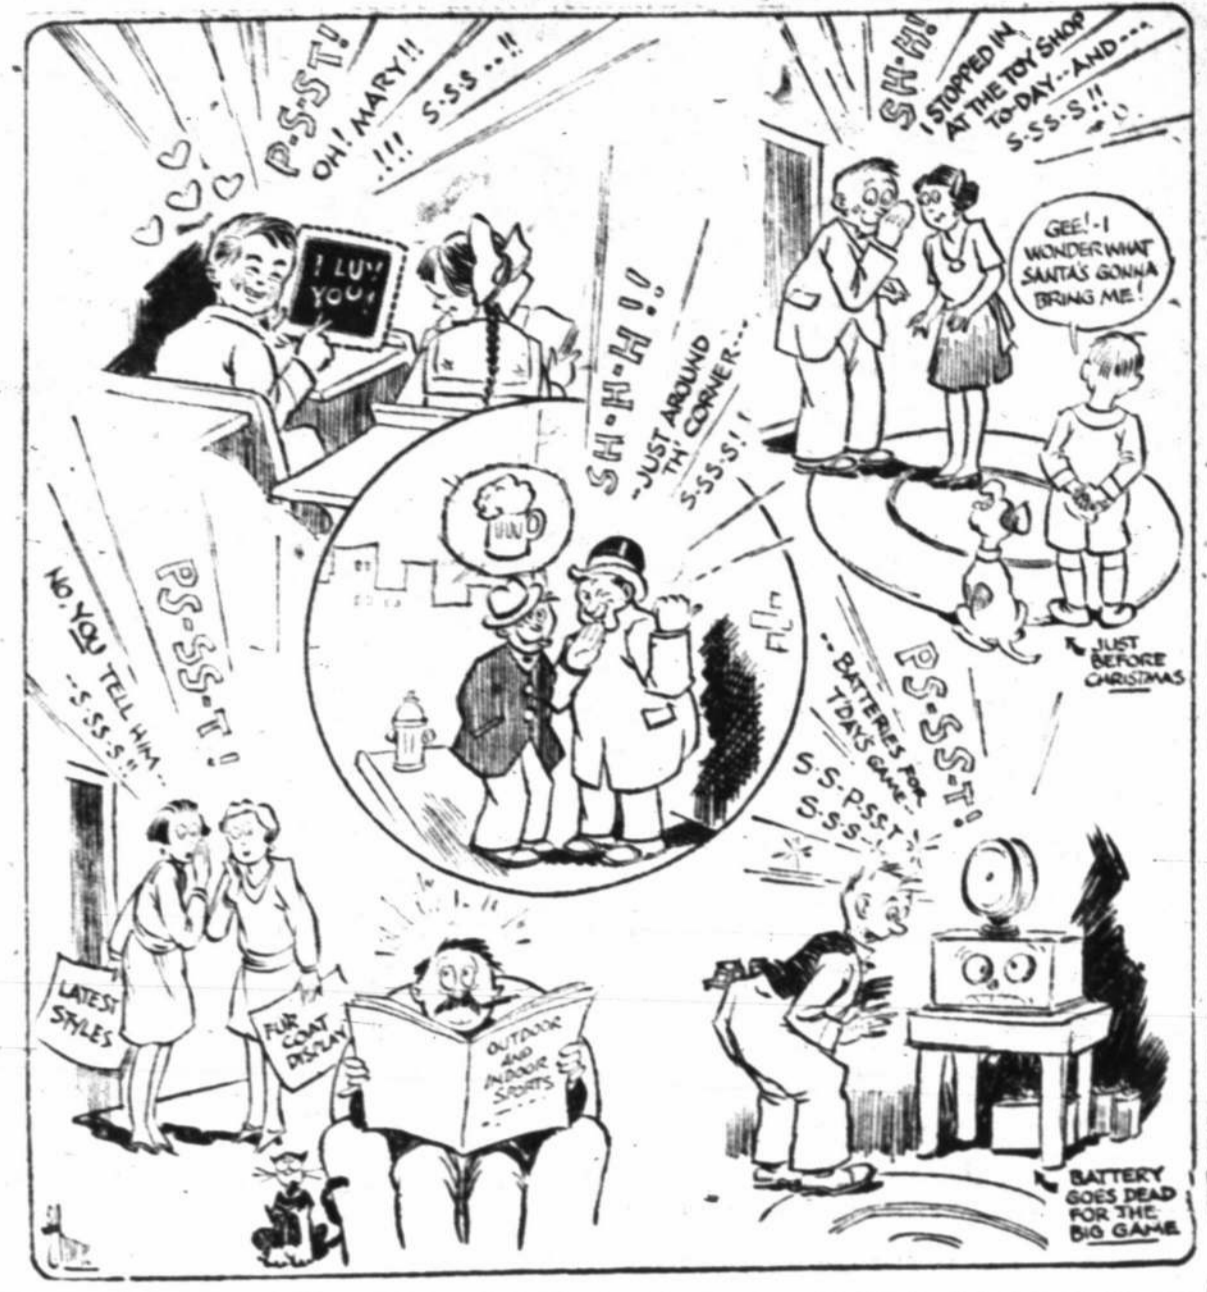

It appears to the Plainsman that Mr. Nye's idea is a good one. There is nothing that will stimulate municipal pride in the smaller cities like a friendly spirit of competition.

Texas Tech says Dr. G. A. Penick of Austin, president of the Southwestern conference, has just secured a large number of members in the conference at another school providing Arkansas university withdraws.

Tech, as a state school and destined to become one of the largest and strongest institutions in the Southwest, is the logical choice for conference membership and the gentlemen who guide the course of the conference are doubtless well aware of the fact.

"Whispering Campaigns" We Have Heard!

"Without-Or-With, Offense To Friends Or Foes, We Sketch Your World Exactly As It Goes"—Byron

Dutcher Digs Up A Couple Of Campaign Jokes That Are Not So Funny; Raskob Is Wise Politician, He Believes

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
 A Service Writer
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—There is to be a serious lack of good campaign jokes. Most of those heard around here to date have been pretty awful. Two samples:
 "What's the first thing Al Smith will say when he gets in the White House?"
 "Good morning, Mr. Hoover!"
 "That's the end of that one!"
 "What's the most important letter in the alphabet?"
 "H. It's the beginning of Hoover and the end of Smith."

any worse campaign jokes than those please send them in for publication.
 The only other one your correspondent was pulled by was that of a radio station the other night:
 "I'd rather be drunk with Smith than hungry with Hoover."

With Our Contemporaries

Press dispatches from Sweetwater state that the tax rate for that city has been reduced 51 cents for the present year.

The greatest injustice in the matter of taxation is to the owners of tangible property. The burden is especially heavy on the small home owner.

It is not because of any wish to discriminate on the part of public officials that this is so. Building real estate, merchandise and other values are tangible. The tax assessor can easily check up on these intangible values, subject to taxation.

This plan being used in many cities for scientific appraisal and to forestall the hidden values in tax studying. The question of tax rate in municipal affairs is not nearly so important as getting value equalized and getting all taxable property on the tax rolls.

It might be that a scientific system might work in the taxation of property but we are rather inclined to think that it would take a magnetic system rather than a scientific system. There are some people who will not respond to science.

There are those who will respond to nothing except pressure, and possibly if some sort of great magnet could be placed about the minds of some folks and cause them to open up and render their property for taxes there might be a reduction on the rolls of the tax assessor there.

Chairman Raskob showed good sense in hastening to repudiate talk about Candidate Hoover's drinking. Hoover has been one of the few high officials in Washington whose name is not mentioned in discussions of drinking in high places.

In an Indiana town ruffians are forbidden to crow before 5 a. m. An ordinance ordering all hens to lay at least one egg each day also ought to help along.

Third Charge In Kelley Slaying
 LUFKIN, Oct. 10.—Lena Lane, third member of a party with which Mrs. Daisy Kelley was alleged to have been motoring when she was shot and stabbed to death near here in September, was arrested today on a charge of murder sworn out by Special Ranger Homer Rowley.

Rowe Found Sane; Must Stand Trial
 DALLAS, Oct. 10.—Found sane by a jury in criminal district court here today after a two-day insanity hearing, T. D. Rowe, 57, barber, will be forced to stand trial for the murder of O. B. Strickland, who was slain June 23. Date for the trial was not set.

In New York

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—West street provides the last scene in the endless scenario of the soil.
 West street tells between craters through its grate-laden lanes, the story of struggle and labor that has gone on through many seasons in many geographically scattered points to make the soil produce its finest product.

West street on a chill autumn morning, reminds a lad who once lived in Michigan, for instance, that somewhere the frost is on the pumpkin. It makes one just a little lonely for the old farm, under the towering skyline, a little row of smelters on anvils is all but lost in the roar of traffic.

West street, which faces upon the docks and backs into the skyscrapers of lower Broadway, seems strangely out of place in a city where a tree is so hard to find.

It often seems even unfair that one city should get the choicest that the earth affords. Yet, such is the legend, New York does get first choice and best choice. No halfway products find their way here.

And since there are more horses in this belt than one will find anywhere else in Manhattan, this is one of the last stamping grounds of "the village blacksmith." Few expect to find the "smithy" under the spreading chestnut tree of the village. Far more likely is one to find a garage.

Gothen glimpses—George Abbott is Broadway's most magic name. Abbott, it is, who is called upon as a "play doctor" whenever a drama is in doubt.

Margaret Livingston, who came from Bloomington, Ill., by the way, is one popular stage idol who insists on remaining in retirement.

Although offered any number of emotional roles, she is determined to be a "housewife." She has had excellent opportunity to learn how completely a stage career can intrude on the home.

Owen Johnson, the novelist, has succeeded in enlisting a dozen of the prominent writers, who dwell in Manhattan, as political workers—not an easy task.

Anderson Lovelady and Paul Jones, other members of the party, were released under bond several days ago to await action of the grand jury.

An autopsy revealed that Mrs. Kelley had received four wounds, any one of which might have proved fatal it was said. Two bullets had entered her body and she had been twice stabbed in the chest.

Rowe smiled broadly when the jury returned its verdict declaring him mentally sane. He had steadfastly maintained that he was sane and left the courtroom apparently pleased.

Counsel for Rowe indicated that insanity would be used as a defense in the murder trial, notwithstanding today's verdict.

REGIONAL BAND BEING PLANNED

MUSICIANS WILL MEET AT ABERNATHY ON OCTOBER 20
 Plan for more than 200 musicians of the South Plains to gather at Abernathy, October 20, with the hope of forming a gigantic band to represent this section at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention at El Paso next June, was announced yesterday.

Musicians throughout this section are being invited to attend the meeting by C. W. Beene, director of the Abernathy band, and J. P. Nystel, director of the Chamber of Commerce. It is planned to hold a number of similar meetings at various places in the South Plains to give the band an opportunity to become efficient in marching and playing as a unit.

Concerts by individual bands and mass playing will feature at the first meeting. Lunch will be served by the Abernathy Chamber of Commerce.

Gifford Victims Died Of Arsenic
 PACIFIC, Mo., Oct. 10.—A coroner's jury, sitting here today, belatedly inquests on three alleged victims of Mrs. Bertha Gifford, confessed poisoner of Catawissa, Mo. found in each instance that death was caused by arsenic poisoning.

In the cases of Elmer J. Schamel, 7, and his brother, Lloyd, 9, the jury found that death was due to "arsenic poison administered by Mrs. Bertha Gifford." But in the case of Ed Bronley, Catawissa farmer, who died after being "nursed" by Mrs. Gifford, the jury found death was due to "arsenic poison administered by persons unknown."

Mrs. Gifford had confessed giving poison to all three victims but Prosecutor F. W. Jenny, in testimony before the coroner's jury, to only of her confession in the death of the two boys.

Dangerous Business

"Our stomach and digestive systems are lined with membrane which is delicate, sensitive and easily injured. It is dangerous business, then, to use medicines containing harsh drugs, salts or irritants, when we are constipated. CAPTAIN HALTS DIRIGIBLE TO GREET FATHER

(By Associated Press) WHEELING, Mo., Oct. 10 (AP)—Since the Civil War almost, Missouri and Wheeling in North Central Missouri have been rival country towns but of recent years Wheeling has been forced to take a back seat to Meadville, birthplace of General John J. Pershing, basked in the spotlight.

Wheeling took its place in the sun today, however, following Pershing's visit from the naval dirigible Los Angeles, which paused for a five minute visit over the town while Lieutenant-Commander H. V. Wiley, commanding the ship, kept a pre-arranged aerial rendezvous with his aged father, J. A. Wiley.

Nearly the entire population was gathered about the Wiley home, where Mr. Wiley had lighted two red flares to welcome his Annapolis trained son.

The cruiser, returning from its long flight to the American Legion convention at San Antonio, halted direct-over—the flares, and a searchlight played over the assemblage. The commander flashed a torchlight signal to his father, and after a five minute stop the ship sailed on.

MORE THAN 200,000 ALREADY CLAIMED BY WARFARE

(By Associated Press) SHANGHAI, Oct. 10 (AP)—Civil warfare after a Mohammedan uprising in Kansu province, which was stated to have claimed more than 200,000 lives, was believed to be continuing in the western Chinese province.

In addition to the ravages of civil warfare the area was stated in reports from Kansu to be suffering from an intense famine. This had been aggravated by the fighting and the reports said that half the population of the province was liable to die during the coming winter.

The latest estimate of the population of Kansu, compiled by the Chinese post office in 1923, is 5,927,997. Serious conflicts between the Kansu Mohammedans and troops of General Feng Yu-Hsiang, who claims the overlordship of the province, caused chaotic conditions. Detailed information was not available in Shanghai, but a letter from the China Inland Mission headquarters at Lanchow, capital of Kansu, dated August 1 stated that acute troubles started last spring. At that time armed Mohammedan
