Let me tell you the story of Willie, the orphan.

Poor little Willie was found in a quiet residential neighborhood in Amarillo. He was wandering down the street, barely old enough to toddle along, as fair and golden a child as you've ever seen.

A kind lady took him in her arms and went from door to door, looking for his parents, but all to no avail.

At long last, she took him home and fed him on hamburger meat and bread...knowing very little about the care and feeding of such little ones. Her husband was somewhat shocked at her new baby, but gave in with good grace and entered the search for relatives. Calls to various authorities in town yielded no results in locating little Willie's folks.

His lonely cries filled the first night, tearing at her heart, and she got up time after time to hold him and comfort him.

A day or two later, however, this poor orphan was handed over to foster care...and put into the back seat of an automobile and driven over four hundred miles to a new home. The lady who found him grieved, but knew she and her husband couldn't provide a proper home for the orphan.

Poor little Willie, how confused and frightened he must be, carried from pillar to post, with changes in climate and diet assaulting him at every turn. Little Willie seems to be one of life's tragic victims of "the system".

I suppose that since you have read Willie's story so far you will bear with me to the end.

Willie, you see, is a fluffy yellow duckling!

The kind lady is my cousin Medora, who discovered Willie "cheeping" down the middle of the street, so young that his egg tooth was still in evidence.

Thomas and I were the unfortunate people who innocently arrived a few days later to take over the care and feeding of this tiny orphan.

She was feeding him hamburger meat on a toothpick. I promptly set us all to killing flies and bugs to feed him, and began teaching him to eat duck food (which he viewed as a poor substitute for hamburger meat). They could not keep him...their neighborhood has ordinances against it, their dog was insanely jealous and they travel a lot.

Have you ever driven 425 miles with a duck in the back seat? For entertainment I do NOT recommend it! When we went into a fast food place for lunch we put a big cup of ice in his box, covered it with a towel and kept him comfortable.

But every hour and a half this duck thought it was time for food and water. After about 30 minutes of listening to "peep, peep, peep" we would stop and feed him.

At a gas station he made a giant leap and left his box, and we narrowly missed a chase on the highway!

Now he lives in our upstairs bathtub. He doesn't seem to be suffering any traumatization from his being orphaned and fostered. Keeping the cats away from him is a chore, but at the rate he's growing it won't be too long before he can join the big ducks on the ponds.

I only have one burning, pressing question.

WHY DO THESE THINGS HAPPEN TO ME!

Anyone with an answer other than "Because you're a sucker" please let me know!

HAZEL VAUGHAN AND DIXIE BROWN are featured this week in the Country Cooking column. (Photo by Judy Screws)

Country Cooking

By Judy Screws

I'm so happy that I can hardly contain my joy. I actually, honestly and truly have some recipes from one of the ladies who was featured in this column during the last few weeks. She was so nice about it, that she didn't even fuss at me for printing that her son, whose home is built next to hers, lives at home. I hope he can also forgive me eventually. I'm going to tell you about Hazel Vaughan and Dixie Brown this week and give you the recipes I've been promising from Betty Swindle.

Hazel Vaughan and Dixie Brown are both part of the Caring and Sharing Ladies who meet at The Woodland Church. When I met them on that day back in June, they were quilting. Hazel and Harold Vaughan live in Reno. She is retired from a hospital in Houston, and he does mechanical construction. They have 5 children, 3 grandsons and 1 granddaughter. They attend the South Side Baptist Church in Paris.

Hazel's hobbies and favorite activities include crafts, sewing, quilting, gardening, and canning.

She enjoys cooking vegetables and cornbread. Her family also enjoys her Chicken Enchiladas, Sour-dough Rolls, and Rich Chocolate Cake.

Dixie Brown lives in and attends church in Woodland. She worked for a while as a young girl, but found her true calling as that of a homemaker. Of course there is no work in that. Is there?

Dixie and her husband, Loftin, who died a year ago, had 3 sons. Johnny Brown, who is deceased, Ralph Brown, who is a Special Education Teacher in Sulphur Springs, and Harlan Brown, who is a farmer and rancher. Dixie has 3 grandchildren and 1 great granddaughter.

Mrs. Brown's hobbies and things she does for relaxation include, cooking, gardening, quilting, and working in her flowers. She enjoys cooking pies and cakes. When the kids come to visit, they enjoy her pecan pies and roast beef.

I want to thank all of you ladies for letting me visit with you. I have enjoyed telling about you all, even if everything I wrote was not exactly correct, you have to remember that I have slept since we talked, and I never guaranteed to be perfect. It's a shame that the writing cannot always be as interesting as the subject.

I would also like to wish Mrs. Mitchell a speedy recovery.

I'm sure we'll enjoy Betty Swindle's recipes, and I'm looking forward to receiving the others soon. Thanks again.

Apple Dessert By Betty Swindle

Make pecan crust first:
1 1/2 cups flour
1 1/2 stick margarine
pinch salt
1 cup chopped pecans

Work the flour, margarine, and salt together. Add pecans. Press into bottom of a 10x13 (or approximately that size) pyrex dish. Bake at 350 degrees until brown. Cool crust while making the rest of the pie.

Filling: 1-8 oz. pkg. cream cheese
1 cup powdered sugar

Mix well. You may need to add just a spoon or two of milk so that you can spread on crust. Now spread 1-5 oz. container of Cool Whip on top of cream cheese layer. Gently, and by the spoonful, dip 1 can Luck Leaf Apple pie filling (Don't get Lite) on to the top of the cool whip. Sprinkle top with a small amount of nutmeg and cinnamon. Chill well, and keep chilled to serve.

Chicken and Dumplings

Boil 1 chicken in at least 2 quarts of water. Add salt and pepper to taste, and cook until chicken is done. Remove bones and set chicken pieces aside to cool.

Dumplings:
4 cups flour
1 tsp salt
1 Tbsp. Shortening
just enough cold water to make dough soft.

Knead dough until stiff. Roll as thin as possible, (as though you were rolling noodles) Cut into squares with a pizza cutter. At this time, the dumplings may be dropped into the boiling chicken broth, or layered on a cookie sheet with plastic wrap or waxed paper and frozen until ready to use. Whichever way you do them, just drop the dumplings into the boiling broth, add more salt and pepper if needed to suit your taste, turn down burner and simmer for about 15 minutes. Stir in boned chicken and cook until it is good and hot.

Uncooked Green Tomato Relish

By Betty Swindle's mother in law

3 pints cider vinegar
4 cups sugar
Bring to a boil and cool.
Mix together:
1 tsp. Allspice
2 tsp. celery seeds
8 chopped onions
1 gallon chopped fresh green tomatoes

1 head chopped cabbage
6 chopped green peppers
1 chopped hot pepper (optional)
1/2 cup salt

Pour cooled vinegar mixture over chopped vegetables, put into hot sterilized jars with hot sterilized lids and seal. This is good with beans and cornbread.

Coconut Cream Pie

6 Tablespoons flour
2/3 cup sugar
dash salt
3 eggs separated
2 1/2 cups milk
1 1/2 cup coconut
1 baked pie shell
1 tsp. vanilla
1 Tbsp. margarine

Mix dry ingredients. Gradually stir in milk and slightly beaten egg yolks. Microwave on high for 6 minutes in a big microwave bowl. Stir and cook 4 more minutes or until of desired consistency. Add coconut, vanilla and margarine. Pour into baked pie shell and top with meringue made with stiffly beaten egg whites and 1/4 cup sugar. Bake in a 325 degree oven for 15-20 minutes. You may make a chocolate pie by deleting coconut and adding 1/3 cup cocoa powder to dry ingredients or by stirring 1 cup chocolate chips into the cooked filling while still hot. If using chips, only use 1/2 cup sugar in pie.

50-Year Reunion Celebrated

The Deport High School class of 1943 celebrated its 50-year reunion Saturday, July 10 at the Holiday Inn in Paris. Former classmates, teachers and friends met at 6:30 p.m. for registration and fellowship with a buffet dinner following at 7 p.m.

Artie Lee Short presided at the registry and welcomed all on arrival. Some brought old photographs, newspaper clippings and other memorabilia that was enjoyed by classmates and friends.

The large U-shaped table was covered with white cloths with maroon placemats. The silk flower arrangements were also in the school colors of maroon and white. Decorations for the head table were a pair of hand-crafted graduate dolls dressed in cap and gown and holding their Deport diplomas. Large computerized banners were placed on the walls around the room reading: 1943 Class of Deport High School-50th Anniversary! Beat Bogat! Beat Blossom! 1943-50 Years-1993, etc. The dolls were made in honor of the celebration by Audrey

Secrest and the banners by Chris Hulén.

The meeting was presided over by Kenith Brown and Novelyn Hulén, president and vice-president of the Reunion Committee. Geraldine Crowley, secretary, took the minutes.

The invocation was given by Artis Edzards. After the meal, everyone gave their name, place of residence, family, etc.

Mrs. Ailene Morris, widow of L.L. Morris, football coach, gave a short summary of her life with her "Happy Jack" and Deport.

Miss Virginia Turner, former typing teacher, also told of her life since 1943.

Mrs. Edwin (Mary Williams) Fleming, former Deport English teacher, modeled a blouse that was made for her while she was at Deport, over 50 years ago. Her husband, Edwin, read a poem to the class.

Awards were presented to: Bennie Williamson for traveling the greatest distance; Bonnie Rainey Turner for responding to invitation first; Dorothy Cheatham Betterton for least changed; Kenith Brown for least hair; Kitty Bishop Secrest for both married the longest and most grandchildren.

Novelyn Hulén presented each classmate with a book that she compiled. It includes copies of the 1943 Senior Group Picture, Class Member Information Sheets, giving brief history to their life since 1943, "In Memoriam" section for the six deceased classmates. Also a copy of the Letter of Greetings received from The White House, Washington, D.C., which congratulated the group on their 50th anniversary and was signed by President Bill Clinton. The letter read:

Greetings to the members of Deport High School's Class of 1943 as you gather to celebrate the 50th anniversary of your graduation.

The Class of 1943 has contributed to America during some of the most dramatic and successful times of our nation's history. Each of you can take pride in being part of a group that has contributed so much to our nation and the legacy of Deport High School. I know you will enjoy your time together as you reflect on the enduring bonds you share.

Best wishes for a memorable celebration.

Bill Clinton

Classmembers attending the reunion were: Mr. and Mrs. Artis (Dorothy Walker) Edzards; Mr. and Mrs. J.T. (Grace Nicholson) Carter; Artie Lee (Hignight) Short, all of Paris.

Out of town members included Mr. and Mrs. Jesse (Dorothy McDowra) Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pate, Mr. and Mrs. Kenith Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Pete (Novelyn Secrest) Hulén, all of Dallas; Geraldine Wright Crowley, Cedar Creek Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Rhodes, Deport; Dorothy Cheatham

Betterton, New Boston; Mr. and Mrs. Ballard (Bonnie Rainey) Turner, Borger; Mr. and Mrs. J.R. (Kitty Bishop) Secrest, Alamogordo, NM; Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Williamson, Sacramento, CA.
