Report On Ambulance Seminar Given By Bailey County Judge

Percy Parsons, local funeral director, accompanied by Frank Ellis, city councilman from Earth and Bailey County Judge Glen Williams, were in Austin Friday, Feb. 19 for a seminar presented by the Ambulance Institute and the Funeral Director and Embalmers Association of Texas. Judge Williams prepared a report on the seminar and following is that report in its entirety: "The seminar was held in regard to Senate Bill #17, an important piece of legislation that has been introduced in this session of the legislature. Hearings were held the week before on House Bill #34, companion legislation."

"This is a highly important matter that might vitally affect ambulance service, and the cost thereof, in this area. The general sentiment of the meeting was that the Bill should either be defeated or modified, and it is believed that much good was accomplished. "According to the provisions of Senate Bill #17 and House Bill #34, if they should become law, no ambulance could make an emergency run without having a specially trained driver, and an attendant aboard at all times. This would of course greatly increase the cost of operations. Furthermore additional equipment would have to be purchased at an estimated cost from $3,500.00 to $5,500.00."

ical attention at the hospitals, including more efficient emergency room services, would contribute greatly to that end. "Don Hill, of the Health Division of the Federal Department of Transportation, explained the federal role and the ways in which the proposed legislation would affect the State and Federal Highway program of Texas. "The Texas Ambulance Institute officially indicated that they are inclined to favor the Bill, with certain modifications, but the Funeral Directors Association are officially opposed. Regardless of the outcome however the people of this area will ultimately have to pay more for ambulance services and those additional expenses will likely have to be borne by the County and or City. "The Muleshoe area is presently receiving splendid ambulance service and it, no doubt, is greatly appreciated. Ellis stated that under present laws with the splendid cooperation he has from City officials, County officials and others he can continue -- and he wants to continue. But if he is forced to employ additional and more professionally trained personnel at a much greater cost and purchase more expensive equipment, then he cannot continue without financial assistance. "In conclusion, it is a problem that affects each of us, we must have ambulance service, so we must work it out together. "These statements made by Judge Williams in referring to Bailey County are applicable to Lamb County and Olton residents.

Five Incumbents, Two Hopefuls File

All incumbents, with the exception of one, have filed for their positions on the school board and city council. The election of the officials will be held April 3 from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. In the city election, terms of councilmen Walter Struve and K. Y. Givens expire as does that of the mayor, Farley Myers. V. L. Smith, Sr. had filed for the mayor's post earlier but withdrew because of health reasons. No others filed for the city positions.

An unusual situation has arisen in the school board election this year, because of appointments made in July 1970 of Bill Gunter to serve the unexpired term of Gerald Allcorn, whose term is not up until 1972. However, in the event that an election is held prior to the expiration of an appointed official, then that official must be elected by voters in the school district. At the same time that Gunter has been appointed to serve Allcorn's unexpired term, Garland DePrang was appointed to serve out the remaining period of Elmer McGill's term, which expires April 1971. Because of this Gunter has filed as an incumbent for the one year term and DePrang has filed for the three year term. John Norfleet, the only other incumbent on the board, did not choose to run again this year. Others making a bid for the three year term are Robert C. Dennis and Burley Faver. Date for absentee voting is from March 15 to March 30. Absentee votes may be cast at the city hall for city councilmen and mayor and at the school business office for the school board officials.

Minister Tells Youth

First Seek A Goal In Life, Then Strive To Attain It

"The trouble with so many people today is that they just don't know where they're going," exclaimed personable Jon Jones, minister of Central Church of Christ in Miami, Fla. who spoke during an assembly Monday morning at Olton High School. Jones, who is in Olton leading a series of Bible messages at the Main Street Church of Christ, urged his youthful audience to seek a goal or a dream in life and then strive to attain that goal, thereby achieving success. Quoting the famous Albert Schweitzer when he said "people do not know where they are going," Jones commented that many spend their lives going in many directions, never ever really knowing where. He likened persons to two ships, docked in the same harbor. "The two ships can be just as equal as they lie in harbor but start one up without crew, without captain and without that small instrument, the compass, and that ship cannot get out of the harbor without ramming against the dock or another ship. Nor can it reach a destination. "But take that other ship. Give it a crew and a captain. Give it a compass and it can travel to any part of the world. It can go anywhere because it knows where it's going. "Conformity is the opposite of courage," Jones said. "Americans want to be like everyone else -- but they don't know why. To be really courageous, do your own thing -- regardless of the crowd. "Success or failure is up to you," he said. "This is the most important phase of your life. To be successful, make some real plans, some real goals. Do some dreaming. "Have ideals, have concepts. Don't go along for the ride. Don't just go through the motion of living. Jones told the youth of a survey made by a northern factory as workers arrived at work, punching the time clock. Each worker was asked two questions: "Why did you get up this morning? Why did you come to work?" Nineteen of 20 workers had no real answer but replied in generalities such as "Why I always work," or "Because I get up every day." "The Bible is man's compass. It helps man with the navigation of his life." Lots of things will happen in life to tempt one to falter, he explained. "But the Bible will give you direction. The Bible is like a chart book." "Look about at people," he urged. "Some seem to succeed all the time. Some seem to fail. The difference primarily is goals. With goals, they know where they're going. Without them -- they go here, there, getting nowhere." Jones told his attentive young listeners, "Wise men have agreed, 'Man's life is what his thoughts make of it.' You become what you're thinking about. So get up with the right thoughts, have goals and dreams. You'll do all right." He compared man's mind to the soil in which a farmer planted two seeds. One seed was corn and the other nightshade, a poison. "The soil didn't know the difference," he explained, so both seed sprouted and grew. "Your mind doesn't care what you plant in it. It reproduces whatever kind of seed you plant there. You can plant hate, fear, lust, immorality and get an abundant crop. Or you can plant good seed -- compassion, purity of mind and heart, goals and dreams. Then your mind will reproduce good seed and you'll have a great crop -- one that will sustain and build your life." The human mind, Jones said, is the last great unexplored continent. "Man operates on

Saturday March 6

Mike Parsons To Compete In Olympics At Laredo

Mike Parsons is competing this weekend in the 1971 Border Olympics. The annual competition, held in Laredo, is invitational and Parsons will compete with track stars from high schools of all classifications. Also competing in the Olympics will be tracksters from junior colleges, colleges and universities. Second in the state track meet for the past two years, Parsons will be running in the mile run division. Parsons, who had an outstanding year in basketball, will fly to Laredo Thursday. Preliminaries will be Friday and the Olympics Saturday. He will be accompanied by Coach Ray Kinnison and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Parsons. The invitation to run in the Border Olympics is believed to be a first for Olton High School. No other area high school will be represented. There will be participants in the meet from Wayland Baptist College and South Plains College. Parsons, with a goal set for winning the State Mile this year, came in first in a track meet Saturday in Brownfield. Olton finished seventh from among the approximately 20 schools participating, including Brownfield, Levelland, Littlefield, Estacado, Dunbar, Stamford, Spearman and others. Also placing in the Saturday meet were Billy Gary and Max Moss in pole vault competition. James Cross earned points in discus. Dedication accounts for much of Parsons' achievements in athletics. Winning third in the district mile competition his freshman year, he began his sophomore year at OHS with an aim toward the state championship. Success seldom comes, he realized, without putting forth exercise, effort, endeavor and elbow grease. Thus began his dedicated training routine. During the school months, Parsons faithfully sticks to an early-bird habit of running four miles each morning before breakfast. When track season begins, he increases his running so that he averages 40 miles per week. The work paid off that first year when he was runner-up in the State Meet with a 4:25.4 time. He also finished second in the state event last year but whittled his time to 4:19.8. As a freshman, Parsons competed with Ronnie Yandell, Gary Durham and Kenneth Johnson in a "No Man's Land Marathon." The team finished third in the 41-mile relay from Elkhart, Kans. to Texhoma, Okla. Each member of the team ran 10 and a quarter miles. In addition to the preparation and ambition, young Parsons is quick to give credit for his achievements to the wholehearted support and encouragement of his parents. Very seldom have they missed attending any of the competitive events in which he has participated. And, sacrificing those extra minutes of morning sleep, his father has been right along on the early morning workouts -- sharing the miles via bicycle.

A MILE LONG DREAM -- Mike Parsons, OHS senior, keeps in practice with eyes set on a goal that may be attained in Austin this May. In the meantime, he'll compete in the Border Olympics this weekend.

Dear Editor

'Like A Letter From Home'

Dear Editor,
 Let me return a probably long-awaited thank you for the Olton Enterprise which you sent me some months ago. Surface mail usually takes a much longer time to arrive here in Ethiopia than one may think. On top of this I had been away from Addis Ababa, the capital for several weeks, returning to find the Enterprise among my accumulated mail. Receiving the Enterprise is like receiving a letter from home. Thousands of miles are bridged into what appears to be a few minute's walk, and far-back remembrances take on the quality of yesterday.

I hope that I can do the same for you from this side of the fence, bringing some of the Ethiopian life into an Oltonite's perspective. You may have questions, all of which I would enjoy discussing. Not only is my job here to work in Ethiopia but it also includes transferring an understanding of Ethiopia to Americans. If I can be of help in this area, write me.

Best regards,

only ten percent of his ability," he explained.

"If we could tap our resources of power, we could get more from ourselves. We could lead more productive lives."

"You can do more than you think you can," he challenged.

Jones then told the youth a little fun tale packed with significance.

"A man was strolling through a pasture one day, enjoying life and the world about him, when he heard a noise behind him and discovered a giant bull, snorting and bellowing in pursuit. He began running with all his might and realized he'd never make the fence. Spying a tree, he veered toward it, running with all his strength. Suddenly he noticed that the tree's lowest branch was 12 to 14 feet from the ground. He could never make it but he had no alternative but to try. Reaching the tree, he leaped with all his power.

"He missed," Jones said as ripples of laughter spread about his audience.

"But wait," he stopped them. And then added, "He caught that branch coming down."

"Christianity," Jones said "enables man to do incredible things - if you don't sell out too soon or too cheap. A determined life will enable one to go someplace, do something."

Jones closed his address with a personal experience, relating an experience that happened when he was pastor of a Pampa church.

Scheduled to speak at a Saturday night banquet in Lubbock, he was flying aboard a small passenger plane on a shuttle flight from Amarillo to Lubbock when a storm struck.

Recalling how frightening it was to be aboard a small plane buffered by winds, rain and lightning, he told how the pilot was able to bring the plane to a safe and secure landing back in Amarillo with the help of an instrument panel which seemed so complex to himself (Jones).

"Well, you're sitting at the controls of human life," he said. "That's power! You have incredible power at your fingertips."

"You can let it go down the drain and be nothing. Or you can keep your hands on the wheel - watch - be concerned - it can all be yours!"

IN SHALLOWATER
 Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Moore, Timothy and Kristi were in Shallowater Sunday with Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Williamson. He had been dismissed Friday from a Lubbock hospital where he was treated about ten days for burns he received due to gasoline having been spilled where he later burned trash.

Sue's Views

Wheel! What a busy week. Getting six of us up and ready for a 7:30 a. m. meeting is quite a chore!

It's not so much the getting up early that bothers me... it's the staying up late trying to get everything ready for the next morning that's about to get me.

We are attending the Main Street Church of Christ services this week each morning and at 7:30 at night. We are certainly having good attendance and enjoying the messages that Jon Jones is bringing and also the singing that Ted Kell is leading.

There are still two more nights, so come on out and visit with us.

Well, I thought, "You gotta be kiddin'." Only I am thinking out loud because he replied, "No, it's the best thing in the world for dusting negatives."

Now can you imagine buying canned AIR???

Well, I am now the possessor of a compressed can of air! And you know something? It works!

I'm not ever going to tell anyone again not to take any wooden nickles. They might be just as valuable as canned air! Who knows?

Wonder what the weatherman has in store for us during the stockshow next weekend?

You know, it's always cold, raining, snowing or blowing dirt during the show --- but we've already had all this. So maybe he'll fool us this year and let it be pure old sunshine and clear days. (We should be so lucky).

But anyway, it seems that we always have a good crowd out for the show regardless of the weather, so at least that won't be any different this year, we hope.

Gregory, long active in Texas High Plains agriculture, will apply his knowledge of farming and applications of mechanical and biological methods of improving farming in servicing the agricultural market with Farm Builder Bio-Chem. In addition to farming over fifteen years, Gregory is the past manager of a grain elevator and the past owner of a fertilizer company.

As past president of the Olton Country Club and past vice-president of the Olton chamber of commerce, Gregory lists community service among his special interests, as well as golfing and fishing. Gregory, his wife Colleen and their family reside at 1107 West 8th in Olton.

Farmers using Farm Builder Bio-Chem, Grover says have found benefits in better water penetration, lessening of clodding and compaction and in gaining the full benefit of fertilizers. Grover points out that these benefits all work together to help give the farmer greater crop volume and better crop quality for increased year-end profits.

Girl Scout Cookie Week Brings Suggested Recipes

Girl Scout Cookie Week began Friday and continues through Thursday, March 11. The cookies are tasty tidbits in themselves but here are some suggested ideas and recipes released from Southern Biscuit Company to the Caprock Girl Scout Council in Lubbock.

CRUMBLE THEM, crush them, roll them or whatever your heart desires to turn them into crumbs - then put them to use with some of the following recipes.

THE BUTTER FLAVORED shorties can be crushed and mixed with shortening to make wholesome and delicious pastry for pies such as custard, lemon, butterscotch, chocolate cream, etc.

THESE GIRL SCOUT cookies may, also, be used to line a mold to be filled with your favorite gelatin desserts.

COOKIES are very good if topped with a marshmallow and dot of butter and browned quickly under a broiler.

TURN A 22-ounce can of cherry pie filling into 9-inch pie plate. Press 6 to 8 butter flavored shorties lightly into surface. Heat in 400 degree oven until bubbling, for 15 minutes. Spoon into dessert dishes, with cookies on top of each serving. Serve warm with cream. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

APRICOT WHIP- Using stewed dried fruit sweetened to taste, 1/2 tablespoon plain gelatin, 3 tablespoons cold water, 1 cup hot apricot syrup, 3/4 cup crumbled butter flavored shorties, 1 cup whipping cream, 12 stewed apricot halves. Soften gelatin in cold water. Add to hot syrup and stir until dissolved. Cool and chill when slightly jellied and beginning to set, whip until light and fluffy. Fold in crumbled cookies and whipped cream. Place the apricot halves in bottom of mold and stand butter flavored shorties around the edge. Pour in gelatin mixture and chill until firm.

DATE AND NUT ROLL-Using butter flavored cookies, 1 dozen Girl Scout cookies, (broken), but not too fine, 3/4 cup chopped dates, 14 marshmallows-cut up, 1 cup chopped nuts, 1/2 cup whipped cream. Combine the above-saying 1/2 cup crumbs, mix well and roll up with 1/2 cup crumbs on the outside. Wrap in waxed paper and put in refrigerator at least 5 hours. Cut in slices and top with whipped cream.

HEAVENLY COOKIE CREAM - 10 Girl Scout butter or peanut butter sandwich cookies, plus extra cookies, 1 cup well drained crushed pineapple, 1/2 cup chopped dates or drained maraschino cherries, 1/2 cup chopped nut meats, 1 cup heavy cream or 1 pkg. dessert topping mix, 1 tsp. vanilla, 1/2 tsp. lemon flavoring. Roll the 10 cookies between a fold of waxed paper or even crumbs (cream) filling mixes with crumbs). Combine with fruits and nuts. Whip cream or prepare dessert topping mix as directed on package. Fold in flavorings and crumb mixture. Chill. Spoon into dessert dishes. Set a vanilla or chocolate sandwich cookie on edge into each serving with insignia and "GS" letters in full view.

CHOCOLATE CREAM Ice Box Cake - 1 cup heavy cream, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/2 cup instant sweet cocoa mix or 1/4 cup cocoa and 1/4 cup sugar, dash of salt, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 12 butter flavored cookies. Whip cream mixed with cocoa mix or cocoa and sugar, salt and vanilla until thick. Spread some of the mixture on each cookie and put them together in a stack or roll, placing it on a platter or refrigerator dish. Frost outside with remaining chocolate cream. Store in refrigerator 8 hours or overnight, then cut in diagonal slices about 1 inch thick. For mocha roll, add 1 to 2 teaspoons instant coffee to the cream mixture. Serve with chocolate sauce. A good variation is to use plain sweetened whipped cream and when ready to serve, add a sauce of sliced strawberries.

Terraclor Super-X in-furrow... that's how W.E. Lindamood plants his cotton, and # ONCE IS ENOUGH.

Terraclor Super-X Fungicide in the furrow is the only way to start a crop, says the 1970 Cotton Farmer of the Year, W. E. Lindamood of Tiptonville, Tennessee.

He uses the formulation with *DiSyston Systemic Insecticide impregnated in the granules. It saves time and labor.

In his own words: "We keep getting the best results from in-furrow application. We get more protection. We're pretty far north and we have some real cool weather after planting. We have a bad damping-off problem and we have to get maximum results from such materials."

We couldn't have said it better.

Get all the details on Terraclor Super-X from your Olin dealer or distributor. He has all the information you should need to decide that once is enough. Which is another good reason why we say...

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a new Section 49-d-1 to read as follows:
"Section 49-d-1. (a) The Texas Water Development Board shall upon direction of the Texas Water Quality Board, or any successor agency designated by the Legislature, issue additional Texas Water Development Bonds up to an additional aggregate principal amount of One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000) to provide grants, loans, or any combination of grants and loans for water quality enhancement purposes as established by the Legislature. The Texas Water Quality Board or any successor agency designated by the Legislature may make such grants and loans to political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the State of Texas, including municipal corporations, river authorities, conservation and reclamation districts, and districts created or organized or authorized to be created or organized under Article XVI, Section 59, or Article III, Section 52, of this Constitution, State agencies, and interstate agencies and compact commissions to which the State of Texas is a party, and upon such terms and conditions as the Legislature may authorize by general law. ## Mini-Motoring Tom Smiths Home From Florida Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith have returned home from a five weeks tour of Florida, traveling in the comfort of their mini-motor-home.

Traveling to Florida over the northern route, the Smiths and Midland friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Golladay, traveled through Louisiana and Mississippi. One of their first sight-seeing stops was visiting the Civil War Battlefield at Vicksburg, Miss.

Enroute, they also stopped in Ozark, Ala. and visited with a friend, Mrs. Cullen Skipple, whom they had not seen in more than 30 years. Passing through Georgia, the Smiths arrived in Florida and were welcomed, as all tourists, with fresh orange juice at the visitor's center.

The Stephen C. Foster museum and a boat ride down the Swannee River was one of the first Florida attractions visited by the Smiths. They also visited St. Augustine, oldest city in the United States, and the Castillo Fort built there by the Spaniards. In St. Augustine, they also visited Potters Wax Museum with wax models of 242 famous characters and Ripley's Believe It Or Not Museum.

Marfneland was their next stop and then on to Silver Springs where they took glass-bottomed boat rides and a jungle cruise. At the Ross All Reptile Museum they saw venom milked from rattlesnakes.

Going mainland, they saw citrus groves with more than 17 million orange trees are grown. There they were given permission to pick a sack of tree-ripened fruit.

The Smiths saw one of the most beautiful landscaped gardens at Cypress Gardens and were entertained with a water skiing show.

Enroute to Miami, they drove through a Lion Country Safari and saw wild animals from the African jungles living in a natural habitat. In Miami they visited with a cousin of Mrs. Smith whom she had not seen in more than 40 years.

Taking a boat cruise down Biscayne Bay, they saw homes of millionaires and multi-millionaires. They also attended an international recreational vehicle show finding none more desirable than their own mini-home.

The Smiths traveled the intra-coastal highway, bordered by the Atlantic Ocean and the Gulf of Mexico, into Key West. By coach train, they toured the southern most point of the nation as well as the city.

Spending several days in the Everglades National Park, they traveled on through the agricultural district of Florida seeing beans, corn, tomatoes, papayas and avocados growing out of rocky, sandy soil.

Traveling the Tamiami highway to the west coast, they drove to Marco and Sanibel Islands for fishing, beach combing and wading in the Gulf of Mexico.

In Sarasota they saw the John Ringling Art Museum where paintings from 1400 to the present day are displayed. In Tampa they visited Busch Gardens with its tropical birds and saw parrots and other birds perform in a show. There they also visited the State Fair.

The story of Cinderella was enacted by mermaids at Weekie Wachie, famous underwater theater. Mrs. Smith was asked where she was from by one of the mermaids.

Driving along the west coast, they saw oyster boats come in and watched oysters broken open and tasted their first raw oyster, fresh from the shell.

Returning home, the Smiths saw a Mardi Gras parade at Mobile, Ala.

Most beautiful attractions of Florida to the Smiths were the State and National Parks and the National Forest. Campgrounds are built where tourists may see nature revealed since the beginning of time.

Tourists gather at the campfire areas with many showing slides of places they had visited. The Smiths saw slides made in Argentina, Pearl Harbor, Canada and Israel.

Traveling more than 5,000 miles and exchanging greetings with fellow tourists from every state in the union, England and Canada, the Smiths were happy to be back to the wide open spaces of the Texas Plains and "Home Sweet Home" in the little town of Olton.

Everything But The Kitchen Sink

BY MOZELLE TROTTER

No doubt about it - I'm set in my ways!

Much of the time I have to plead "guilty" that I'm "content with the old and see no need to change."

My sermon topic this week? Why doesn't "square" mean what it used to mean!

I was in a group a few days ago when a Cub Scout's mother commented that the little blue clad boys still say, "I promise to do my best, to do my duty to God and my country, to be square and obey the law of the pack."

"I promise to be square," Does sound a little outdated doesn't it? But little Cub Scouts still believe that it means the same as it did when the Cub Scout program began in America back in 1930.

How long does it take a person to forget that meaning and to look with horror at the possibility of being "square"? As long as it takes to get across that "generation gap"?

Is it the generation gap that's responsible for the very opposites in opinion on the movie "Love Story"? I haven't seen it so I can just go by what others have said. Youth see it as a wholesome movie - as its makers proclaim. But what's wholesome about vile language?

Yes, our youth hear those words daily. So often they hear them at home. They've come to be so commonly spoken that our youth have grown accustomed to their sound.

Perhaps, like "square", they don't mean the same thing to all generations.

Even so, aren't there so many, many nicer words we can speak? Can't we communicate with good, wholesome expressions? Shouldn't we try to "clean up" our tongues?

I'm "set in my ways" and,

hopefully, I'm "square."

Something else bothers me! Our supposedly "better" magazines are indoctrinating us with literature that should put us to shame! The current issue of one of the leading women's magazines has an article on "pre-marital sex". You know the reasons against it? Fear of pregnancy or venereal disease! Nothing about the teachings of the Bible, Oh, no! That must be for the "squares."

When will we wake up? When will we realize we're changing? Whenever may be too late!
