

LUBBOCK JOURNAL

ACCURACY
RELIABILITY
ENTERPRISE

VOL. 2, NO. 55.

LUBBOCK, TEXAS, "THE HUB OF THE PLAINS" MONDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 22, 1926

Means "By Associated Press"

TODAY'S NEWS
TODAY

CITY NEWS
BRIEFLY
TOLD

JAMES CLEMENTS OF LAMAR, is in Lubbock on business.

FLOYD MATHNEY IS IN LUBBOCK transacting business from Hale Center.

T. D. ISBELL OF LONGVIEW, IS business visitor in Lubbock.

SAM WILSON IS TRANSACTING business in Lubbock from Snyder.

D. M. HARRON OF DALLAS, IS transacting business in Lubbock.

N. C. BROWN IS IN LUBBOCK from Fort on business.

MRS. JEWELL PHILLIPS OF Clovis, N. M., is visiting in Lubbock.

Q. H. WILLIAMS IS A BUSINESS visitor in Lubbock from Fort Worth.

J. L. STENLEY IS TRANSACTING business in Lubbock from Slaton.

S. P. FOSTER OF MERKEL IS IN Lubbock this week on business.

MR. AND MRS. E. O. KELLY visited in Post Sunday afternoon.

JEFF MORGAN OF MAUD, TEX., is in Lubbock on business.

E. D. TAACK OF DENVER, IS transacting business in Lubbock.

D. D. AMBROSE IS TRANSACTING business in Lubbock from San Angelo.

HOMER HUME AND C. B. AKIN of McKinney, Texas, are business visitors in Lubbock.

CHARLES JONES AND FAMILY of Coffeyville, Kans., are visiting in Lubbock.

SAM TOWNSEND OF TENNYSON, Texas, is a business visitor in Lubbock.

ARNOLD BRADFORD IS A BUSINESS visitor in Lubbock from Miles, Texas.

MR. AND MRS. KNOX THOMAS visited in Post Sunday afternoon, returning Sunday night.

MRS. MAE KELLY, 1214 AVENUE H, is spending a few days with friends in Amarillo.

DR. AND MRS. L. P. SMITH visited in Slaton Sunday, returning Sunday night.

SAM ACTON, REPRESENTING the Southwest Paper company of Fort Worth, is a business visitor in Lubbock.

BORN TO ME AND MRS. J. K. DENNIS, living four miles east from Lubbock, a fine baby girl, early this morning.

J. E. JOHNSON, COTTON BUYER for City and company, is in Lubbock from Dallas taking an even look of Lubbock county cotton.

H. J. GANN AND FAMILY ARE moving from Abilene to Lubbock this week. Mr. Gann will be connected with the City Light company as night engineer.

WALTER DENNIS AND FAMILY of Memphis, Texas, are in Lubbock visiting in the home of their cousin, Jesse Dennis. Mr. Dennis is on a prospecting trip and will probably locate in or near Lubbock.

W. H. PATTON, REPRESENTING the Merchants Linotype company of New Orleans, stopped over in Lubbock Sunday night on his way to Levelland, where he will erect a late model Linotype machine in the office of the Hockley County Herald.

W. J. BALDWIN, EDITOR OF THE Hockley County Herald, was in Lubbock Sunday night and Monday morning on business, and visited the Avenue-Journal office while in the city. Mr. Baldwin believes in keeping pace with the progress of his thriving little city of Levelland, and consequently is having a modern Linotype machine installed in his newspaper office this week.

WEST TEXAS: Tonight and Tuesday generally fair, rising temperatures. Oklahoma: Tonight fair, warmer. Tuesday increasing cloudiness. East Texas: Tonight fair, except rain on the coast; warmer in north section; Tuesday generally fair, warmer. Louisiana: Tonight partly cloudy, probably frost nearly to east; Tuesday fair, not so cold.

WESTERNER GAME YET UNCERTAIN

As to who, when and when the Westerners play for the championship title of District I of the Texas Interscholastic League is still in the hands of the general athletic committee, Wichita Falls, declared ineligible for the title has asked for an appeal and was granted until Wednesday for action; however, Vernon, the present title holder of the eastern half, and Lubbock will likely be the clubs to be in the play off.

Coch E. J. Von Tungetz stated this morning that he would have a joint conference with the coach of Vernon high school in Matador tomorrow morning. At this meeting it is thought that a definite date and place for the game will be decided upon.

Coch Von Tungetz stated that the game would likely be played either on Wednesday or Saturday of this week.

COLEMAN MAN DIES Of Injuries In Fall

SAN ANGELO, Texas, Nov. 22 (AP)—T. A. Halbert, 78, of Coleman, Texas, died there at 10 o'clock Sunday night as the result of injuries sustained about a month ago in a fall from a pecan tree. A message to his brother, B. M. and R. H. here, related his death. Mr. Halbert was oftentimes referred to as the Burbank of Texas by reason of his plant propagation work, the perfection of the Halbert pecan and the Halbert melon. One of his latest works was the propagation of the English walnut to the native walnut stock of Texas. It was in a fair way to success, and other nurserymen were accepting it when death came. Mr. Halbert had also attained wide fame as a weather forecaster.

YOUTH SHOTS THREE MEMBERS OF FAMILY

BRIDGETON, N. J., Nov. 22 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. William Gandy, this city, were shot and instantly killed today by Linwood Ware, 22, their nephew, who also shot and seriously wounded his sister, Mrs. Madeline Maxwell, 26.

Mrs. Maxwell is reported dying in the hospital here.

Mr. and Mrs. Gandy and Mrs. Maxwell lived with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ware, parents of Linwood. While the family was sitting at breakfast, the youth entered with an automatic pistol. He opened fire on his aunt and uncle and then shot his sister. After seeing the three fall from their chairs, he walked out. Young Ware was arrested.

SCRIPPS-HOWARD BUYS Two Denver Papers

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 22 (AP)—An announcement was made here today by Roy W. Howard, chairman of the board of the Scripps-Howard newspaper group of the purchase by his company of the Morning Rocky Mountain News, and the Evening Denver Times from John C. Shafer.

SAYS U. S. S. BUCHAREST—Sir Tagore thinks the U. S. is selfish; its people cupied with business a time to live. The British visiting Queen Marie will stop in New York when she returns home.

WELTERS AND GERM MACHINISTS Satisfaction Guaranteed 812 Texas Avenue Phone 99

MISS MABEL McCarty apprehension C. E. HUBBARD Business Manager

FOR NURSES is section with women who line may Sanitarium

255-R 1708 Ave K

BUSINESS MANAGER OF TECH DIES

Cotton Crop of 18,399,000 Bales is Predicted

4 YOUTHS HELD HERE IN BURGLARY ORGY

QUARTET TAKEN FROM 'STORAGE' HOUSE IN RAID

MUCH WEARING APPAREL TAKEN IN RAID BY SPECIAL OFFICER

Four young men are being held in Lubbock jails on charges of theft, while officers are trying to locate owners of hundreds of dollars worth of clothing, jewelry, blankets, suit cases and other similar articles. The boys were arrested by a special city officer Saturday night after they took two suit cases that had been set out as devious. A fifth member of the band is out of the city at this time, though his arrest is expected at any moment.

Much Theft Reported

For weeks citizens of this city have been complaining of petty thefts. Even visitors have had their cars robbed while they were visiting in the city, and while officers have worked day and night in an effort to locate the guilty party or parties their exact identity was not known until their arrest Saturday night. Officers had suspected the guilty parties, but they were thoroughly organized in their work they were unable to catch them either stealing goods or with stolen goods in their possession.

Two Suit Cases Were Put Out Saturday Night

Two suit cases were put out Saturday night at a point often frequented by the boys, and the boys "fell for the bait." They were then trailed to the house and arrested. Investigation revealed that many stolen articles were hidden in and around the building, and before they had spent many hours in jail one of the boys made a complete confession, implicated his four associates and told officers where all the stolen property might be found.

Hauling Goods In

Sunday morning officers began hauling the goods to the police station and notifying people to call in and identify their property. All day long the work continued and by night some 300 to 400 articles had been accounted for. These articles range in value from a five cent pencil to articles valued at a hundred dollars or more. Checks and notes valued at about $1,500 had been burned, the confessor had stated.

Monday Morning Officers In Search of Stolen Property

Monday morning officers in search of stolen property. One man identified a suit case, an overcoat and other articles of wearing apparel. Another

(Continued on Page 8)

Sixty-Two Cups

HEAVIEST CROP IN HISTORY OF NATION IS SEEN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22—For the first time in history the American cotton crop will exceed eighteen million bales, the department of agriculture reported today. Indications on November 14 point to a total production of 18,399,000 bales.

REPORT SHOWS 12,295,000 BALES GINNED PRIOR TO NOVEMBER 14

(By the Associated Press) The cotton crop will total 18,399,000 bales this year, as indicated by reports concerning condition, probable yields, ginnings and other factors as of November 14, the department of agriculture announced today. A fortnight ago 17,918,000 bales were indicated. Last year's crop was 16,103,673 bales.

Indicated Yield Is 18.3

An approximate yield of 18.3 pounds per acre is indicated, compared with 18.1 pounds a fortnight ago and 16.7 pounds last year's final yield. The indicated total production by states follows:

Virginia, 2,000 bales; North Carolina, 1,200,000; South Carolina, 1,140,000; Georgia, 1,490,000; Florida, 20,000; Missouri, 250,000; Tennessee, 480,000; Alabama, 1,410,000; Mississippi, 1,880,000; Louisiana, 790,000; Texas, 5,800,000; Oklahoma, 1,830,000; Arkansas, 1,575,000; New Mexico, 72,000; Arizona, 112,000; California, 124,000; all other states, 22,000; Lower California (old Mexico), 80,000.

The department's next report on

(Continued on Page 8)

R. M. CHITWOOD—LEADER OF MEN

An Editorial

BY CHAS. A. GUY For the first time in the school's short history grim tragedy has visited the inner corner of Texas Technological college. R. M. Chitwood, known and honored all over Texas, business manager of the school, lies still in death while West Texas mourns a favorite son.

To say that Mort Chitwood was business manager of Texas Tech leaves more than half untold concerning his relations with the institution. He was life blood—he was bone, brain and sinew—the guiding spirit in its realm of its finance. He was the engineer who guided the new, yet powerful educational machine along its maiden run, the deft mechanic who negotiated perilous curves and difficult hills in safety. To him was trusted grave problems—problems which he solved quietly—unerringly, as the Southwest's newest institution of learning continued along its path of glory, making history all the while.

Texas Tech—its regents, faculty #### and student body—Lubbock and all West Texas mourn the loss of R. M. Chitwood to this great and growing section. In West Texas he lived, playing always the role of the benefactor—the progressor. He served his fellow citizens and his state as a whole in the legislative halls at Austin and he was a power among his colleagues as he was here and in his former home at Sweetwater. When Texas Tech was established he was placed in charge of its management after officials had considered men from over the length and breadth of Texas. Their choice, time brought out, was a wise one, and a successful one. He was a man of vision, a man of action, a man of courage. But although the demise of this man, Mort Chitwood, has robbed a college of its business head, a family of its husband and father, and a great state of one of its leaders, his life, as it was lived, was a life of supreme service and it has not been in vain. The Great Director of all men's lives has called him to a higher place, where they are lying in state at the present time.

Many Pallbearers To Serve

Pallbearers were announced this morning as follows: Active—R. E. McAdams, A. K. Kendrick and J. B. Kendrick, all of Sweetwater; H. T. Kincaid, Dickerson and W. T. Meadows, Waco; W. H. Newman, Sweetwater, and Mrs. J. A. Hays, Midland; all Tech regents; R. W. Wagoner, Clyde Payne, and R. W. Stinson, all of Sweetwater; Walter S. Pender, C. B. Maedgen, Sam C. Arnett, Shelby W. H. Beldone, Representative J. K. Westover, Byron C. Dickinson, and W. T. Haydon, and the following officials of the Texas Technological college: President Paul W. Horn, Dean A. H. Liddin, Dean William J. Miller, Dean Margaret Weeks, and Director of Athletics Ewing Y. Proctor.

The body was met at Sweetwater this morning by Dr. J. M. Gordon, Tech administrator, and a host of friends from the College of Liberal Arts at the college in the absence of Dr. Paul W. Horn, who is president of the school was attending an educational meeting in

(Continued on Page 8)

NINE CONVICTS STILL AT LARGE

Five Of Escaped Men Using Stolen Auto In Break For Liberty, Said

(By the Associated Press) HUNTSVILLE, Nov. 22—Five of the nine convicts who escaped from the Wynne state convict farm near here early Sunday morning, were wandering over the country in a stolen automobile, according to Warden J. S. Speer of the state penitentiary who said Monday that only one of them, Salvador Vasquez, was a long term man.

E. F. Lamar, was recaptured soon after the break for liberty. W. W. Cavett returned to the camp voluntarily and A. J. Andrews and Roy Davis were found on the highway by a farmer and brought to the farm.

Men Make Key

According to Warden Speer's information, the nine men manufactured a key to the rear door of the wooden barracks and shortly after the guard had been changed, unlocked the door and walked away.

Some of the convicts, it appears, came to Huntsville and stole two automobiles which were standing on the streets. One of the machines was found Monday abandoned in Curose, Casner was given a death sentence on El Paso on the charge of killing a policeman. His sentence was commuted to life imprisonment several months ago.

Bank Robber Taken From Jail By Band

SALLISAW, Okla., Nov. 22 (AP)—Snatched from the hands of the law by a desperate band of friends who raided the Eogoyah county jail, Matthew Kimes, spectacular young bank robber, was at liberty today—the day he was to have been sentenced to life imprisonment in the state penitentiary.

Officials admitted that they had no knowledge of the whereabouts of Kimes and the band, believed to consist of at least six men, who fled after they too possession of the town early yesterday and released Kimes from the jail.

Kimes, who is only 16, was to have received sentence of life imprisonment today for the slaying of Perry Chuculate, Indian deputy sheriff, near here three months ago.

Injuries In Buggy Wreck Prove Fatal

DENISON, Texas, Nov. 22 (AP)—A fat her home at night from horse drawn buggy was killed today when the buggy was wrecked near here.

Expect Apprehension Of Rutherford Soon

BROWNWOOD, Texas, Nov. 22 (AP)—Sheriff Hise said today he was in Brownwood, Texas, where he thought he had located the hideout of the man who shot and killed John Carver, 34, near here Saturday night, was being hunted today by Sheriff Arlton and a posse.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

PROBE OPENS IN PARDON RECORD

Man Convicted Of Six Criminal Offenses Pardoned Two Months Later, Said

(By the Associated Press) AUSTIN, Nov. 22—Within two months after pleading guilty in six cases of offenses against young boys, Patrick Holmes was granted a full pardon by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, who sent rangers to escort Holmes from the Maverick county jail. Wray Zook, Maverick county attorney, and D. E. Home, Eagle Pass attorney, told the house investigating committee today.

At the time the offenses were alleged to have committed, Holmes was principal of the Eagle Pass public schools, and a Sunday school teacher, the witnesses testified.

Zook said a large number of representative Eagle Pass women protested to Governor Ferguson the proposed pardoning.

Mrs. Lee Home of Eagle Pass, former president of the parent-teachers association of that city, said that when the women learned that it was probable that Pat Holmes would be granted a pardon, they as a committee came to Austin to protest and instead of seeing Governor Miriam A. Ferguson were compelled to interview James H. Ferguson.

LOCAL GIRL IS RUN DOWN BY AUTO

Leahy daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Morrison, 207 Main street, suffered a serious ankle, a dislocated thumb and severe lacerations Saturday night about 11 o'clock when she was run into and dragged by a car on Main street in front of her home. While she is still in hospital and not able to be out of bed, it is thought that she is completely paralyzed, according to reports.

At the time the girl was with a group of friends, she had been to the depot to meet a special train arriving from Amarillo, and had had light of her home. She started to cross the street, she started to cross the street and was struck by a car driven by Wesley Manley. The driver was not at fault, Mrs. Morrison said, as she was blinded by the lights of another car coming from the opposite direction and Miss Morrison had seen only one of the approaching machines.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

Journal News Reel

R. M. Chitwood, business manager of Tech college, lies in state Wednesday in Sweetwater following services here Tuesday. Four youths are being held here in burglary orgy. Cotton crop now estimated at 18,399,000 bales, new record. Probe into pardon record of Governor Ferguson opened. Mount Pleasant merchant dies in family row. Three killed, 19 injured in apartment house fire at Los Angeles. "Surprise visit" by Leahy murder trial tells of planned plot. Nine convicts still at large after break Sunday from Wynne prison farm. Louisiana highway retractor.

From Every Woman's Viewpoint

Blanche E. Bean, Editor

Phone 13 or 14

The Social Calendar

TUESDAY

The Twentieth Century club will meet at 3 o'clock at the First Methodist church to study life of the Ancient East with Mrs. J. R. Kruger leading. She will be assisted by Mesdames T. B. Duncan, J. R. Rix, J. L. Daw, O. D. Harris and E. L. Dehoney.

Mrs. Elmer Conley will entertain the Coffers club in the evening.

Mrs. W. B. Robinson, 2297 16th street, will entertain the Jolly Dozen club at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Sorosis club will meet at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon with Mrs. W. W. Revaly, 2611 Main street, to study Texas artists with Mrs. J. R. Kruger leading the lesson. She will be assisted by Mesdames C. Y. Partain, R. H. Moore and O. D. Hewitt.

Church Groups Stage Program in Post Sunday

Thirty-three members of the Senior Christian Endeavor of the First Christian church and of the Sunday school orchestra of the institution gave a Thanksgiving program at the Christian church in Post last evening. The group went to Post late in the afternoon and were honor guests at a banquet featuring the community male

Thanksgiving Program Given By Central Ward Students

A Thanksgiving program was given by pupils of Miss Lou Mae Craven and Mrs. L. J. Von Tungen Thursday afternoon at a meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of the Central ward school.

The program opened with a prayer by Mary Genevieve Hardberger and followed with "A Letter of Thanksgiving" with the following taking part: Ernestine Lockhart, Mary Evelyn Pickle, Mary Genevieve Hardberger, Joe Ab Alexander, Nancy Ruth Loverton, Johanna Boyd, Duke Moreman, Rachel Campbell, Evelyn Hawkins, William Camp, Myrtle McLarty and W. C. Barnett. A story of Thanksgiving was read by Frances Snyder and music was given under the leadership of Von Tungen. "Giving Thanks," a dialogue, was given by Johanna Boyd, Myrtle McLarty, Frances Snyder, W. C. Barnett, Raymond Duncan and Frank Duncan. "The Day Before Thanksgiving" was read by Kathryn Royalty.

Former Lubbock Girl President Nurses' Association

Mrs. C. H. Kay, of Amarillo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Pollard, 1922 Avenue M, has been elected president of the American Graduate Nurses' Association, District 2, at a meeting held in Amarillo last week according to word received here. She was formerly Miss Terpest Pollard of this city and is a graduate of the Lubbock Seminary.

Mrs. Kay is the youngest nurse in age that has ever been elected to presidency in this organization, it was said. District 2 covers a part of Texas and Oklahoma.

Menu For Today

BREAKFAST—Grape fruit, cereal, thin cream buckwheat cakes, country sausages, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of tomato soup, croquets, macaroni salad, rolled omelet, bread, apple sauce, ginger cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER—Roast chicken, mashed potatoes, creamed onions, head lettuce with Thousand Island dressing, vanilla ice cream with caramel sauce, mock angel food cake, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

A last spring chicken which has grown until it weighs about four pounds dressed in best roasted. When ready for the roaster rub inside and out with salt, spread lightly and evenly with creamed butter, dust with flour and sprinkle with pepper. Put into a hot oven for twenty minutes, then reduce heat and roast about 2 hours.

One and one-half cups rolled oats, 2 cup boiling water, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 tablespoon lard, 1/2 cup molasses, 1 yeast cake (compressed), 1/2 cup lukewarm water, 5 cups wheat flour.

Put boiling water over oats and cook until lard and yeast cake dissolved in lukewarm water. Add molasses and stir well. Add flour gradually, mixing well with a spoon as long as possible and then kneading with the hand. Turn onto a floured board and pat into a loaf about twelve inches long. The dough should be smooth and elastic to the touch. Put in a warm clean bowl, cover with a warm clean cloth and let rise in a warm place until double its bulk. It will take about eight hours. Then shape into 2 loaves and place in two greased bread pans. Let rise again until double in bulk and bake 1 hour in a moderate oven. The oven should not be hot when the bread is put in and the heat decreased after fifteen minutes.

The water used to dissolve the yeast should be boiled and cooled to lukewarm temperature.

(Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

Menu For Today

BREAKFAST—Grape fruit, cereal, thin cream buckwheat cakes, country sausages, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of tomato soup, croquets, macaroni salad, rolled omelet, bread, apple sauce, ginger cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER—Roast chicken, mashed potatoes, creamed onions, head lettuce with Thousand Island dressing, vanilla ice cream with caramel sauce, mock angel food cake, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

A last spring chicken which has grown until it weighs about four pounds dressed in best roasted. When ready for the roaster rub inside and out with salt, spread lightly and evenly with creamed butter, dust with flour and sprinkle with pepper. Put into a hot oven for twenty minutes, then reduce heat and roast about 2 hours.

One and one-half cups rolled oats, 2 cup boiling water, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 tablespoon lard, 1/2 cup molasses, 1 yeast cake (compressed), 1/2 cup lukewarm water, 5 cups wheat flour.

Put boiling water over oats and cook until lard and yeast cake dissolved in lukewarm water. Add molasses and stir well. Add flour gradually, mixing well with a spoon as long as possible and then kneading with the hand. Turn onto a floured board and pat into a loaf about twelve inches long. The dough should be smooth and elastic to the touch. Put in a warm clean bowl, cover with a warm clean cloth and let rise in a warm place until double its bulk. It will take about eight hours. Then shape into 2 loaves and place in two greased bread pans. Let rise again until double in bulk and bake 1 hour in a moderate oven. The oven should not be hot when the bread is put in and the heat decreased after fifteen minutes.

The water used to dissolve the yeast should be boiled and cooled to lukewarm temperature.

(Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

RULER IN EXILE AFTER CHARGES

Vice President Of Bolivia Is Incensed At Charges In Opium Episode

(By the Associated Press)

LA PAZ, Bolivia, Nov. 22.—Abdon Saavedra, vice president of the Bolivian republic, has gone into voluntary exile in Argentina.

His action was due to a hostile campaign directed against him since his return from the United States in July, following the discovery and seizure of a quantity of opium in a trunk belonging to one of his aides, Reyes Ortiz, in a New York hotel.

Didn't Finish Trip

The vice president went to New York on his way to Washington to express the thanks of Bolivia to the American government for having sent representatives to Bolivia's centennial of independence. When the drug was found, Saavedra and his wife and two daughters left New York for home. He did not go to Washington to carry out his mission, Saavedra declared.

Ortiz declared that he was innocent of knowingly smuggling the opium. He said that Jose Vasquez, a Bolivian, formerly a newspaper reporter in Mexico City, had handed him the package in the Mexican capital, carefully wrapped for delivery in the United States and that he did not know its contents. Saavedra was arrested in Laredo, Texas, charged with conspiracy to import the opium, and was sentenced to three years imprisonment and fined $10,000.

Washington dispatches at the time

New Junior Colleges Will Open Next Fall

AUSTIN, Nov. 22.—Next fall two new junior colleges will be opened in connection with city school systems at Edinburg and Texasville under the supervision of the University of Texas at Austin.

City Officers Busy During Past Week

City officers were busy Saturday night and Sunday, and the city jail was comfortably filled Monday morning when the Journal man called by on his regular run.

Two drunks were picked up Saturday night and on Sunday other law violators were arrested. Four young men were arrested on charges of theft, but they will be transferred to the county. Just what kind of charges will be filed against them is not known, but the stolen goods found in their possession are worth several hundred dollars.

Law Students Named in Quizmaster Role

AUSTIN, Nov. 22.—Appointment to positions as quizmasters in the School of Law of the University of Texas is considered a distinct recognition of diligent work and scholastic proficiency. The six students who have such appointments during the present session are F. Joyce Cox of Cameron, Jack DeCourse of Laurel, Miss F. Fisher Deany of Crockett, Benton Greenwood of Palestine, Richard L. Hackett of Plano, Forney Nowlin of Rotan, and Emmanuel Reichman of Seguin. In addition to their work of grading papers and the like, the quizmasters must contribute to the Texas Law Review.

Crop failures in Denmark this season are causing great hardship among farmers there.

Fresh Revolution In Albania Is Reported

BELGRADE, Nov. 22.—The newspaper Vreme says a fresh revolution has broken out in Northern Albania and is extending rapidly. Four tribes are said to have taken up arms against the existing republican government, headed by President Ahmed Zogu, and are negotiating with other tribes of the region to join them in attack to break down the regime.

The report of the revolt is said to have caused a panic at Sarajevo.

Your child will thrive on Comet Rice

Cooks light white and flaky!

Cooks light white and flaky!

Germaine Revels In Domesticity

Left is a deep red crepe de chine day frock with pleated flounces, right an outfit of beige with blouse of silk and wool jersey

PARIS, Nov. 22.—No wonder he never noticed it—Aunt Louise and mother have treated me like an infant, and never once have I had a good stage position. However, they cannot efface me so effectively when they return, since I have had my chance.

While shopping for my wrap, I also looked for something "sensible" as you asked me, and I found two that could be worn very well for morning, or all day if necessary.

One is on the sport order; has a beige skirt placed in clusters, and a blouse of silk and wool jersey or beige with horizontal stripes of rose and blue, and a vestee of silk. A sketch is enclosed.

The other is a very deep red crepe de chine, with pleated flounces and wide ruffles of pleating. Both are exceedingly practical. If you like them, I can easily have them fitted on me.

Have you seen the marvelous new velvet negligees banded with shaded stretch. They are enchanting. And have you seen the new nightgowns with the fitted robes of embroidery and the whole is belted with a two-toned ribbon. I think they are charming.

I must tell you of the lovely new shoes that Perugia and some of the smart bootmakers are showing. They are of colored suede trimmed with cuties, and strappings of lizard or even of gold leather applied in the most artful manner, so that they in no wise complicate the line, but at the same time add to the gaiety of footwear, and the color of life generally.

Many new tricks in shoe making are being tried. I have seen a pair of shoes with a sole of cork and a lining of felt. The cork sole is very light and the felt lining is very soft. I have also seen a pair of shoes with a sole of cork and a lining of felt. The cork sole is very light and the felt lining is very soft.

Miss Mary Edwards Is Leader Of C. E. Program

Miss Mary Edwards led a program of Thanksgiving at a gathering of the Senior Christian Endeavor of the First Presbyterian church Sunday evening with 18 members and six visitors present. A lunch is to be served at 6 o'clock next Sunday evening before the program, to be led by Doyle Wallace in order that the members may become better acquainted. It was announced today.

The Woman's Daily Editorial

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

NEW DISEASE DISCOVERED

Dr. George Draper, a professor of clinical medicine at Columbia University, renewed for his research work abroad and at home, and author of many articles and two books, says there is a new disease among children that he calls "spirit crippling."

To its doom he lays the increase in juvenile crime and other shortcomings known to those in close touch with the newest generation, had behavior, anti-social attitudes, and so forth.

He blames the thorny path that leads from the nursery to the college degree, for breaking down unique personality, that fragile heritage of every human being. He compares the process of preparing for college and competing boys and girls to jump the hurdles of entrance examinations, to the custom of strapping the feet of Chinese women. The educational effort uses its powers all in one direction, that of preparing for the school, the manual school, the boarding school, and the boarding school for the college or university.

"This process retards the natural development of the boy or girl in any other direction," says Dr. Draper, "and it is a biological truth that the process of growth or development whether it be of the foot or the soul of man, cannot be restricted with impunity."

It seems then that during adolescence the problem of child welfare should not be pedagogical, but biological and psychological. In other words, parents lay too much stress upon school and education, and too little stress upon other things.

I know a girl whose parents were so intent upon her "doing them credit" and getting into a certain big college that months before her college entrance examinations she was almost a nervous wreck. She was made to feel that they would never get over the disgrace if she failed.

There is a great variety of schools. Some are "harder" than others. All children cannot "make" the same college, but parents do not seem to understand this. They try to force a boy or girl along until they get into a certain college because it has standing. It is the parents who are to blame. Half the time they know nothing about the standard their child is trying to reach.

They are surprised if his health breaks and they are more surprised if constant strain and suppression result in the spiritual paralysis which Dr. Draper has brought to our attention, and which evidences itself in unnatural defiance of recognized laws of behavior, as well as physical breakdown.

Reverend Doak Speaks At M. E. Church On Sunday

Rev. D. E. Doak, presiding elder in the Methodist church, preached at both services Sunday at the First Methodist church in the absence of the pastor, Rev. E. E. White, who is in a hospital following an accident last week. Reverend White was said to be convalescing slowly.

KEEPING PARLEY

All paralytic becomes slightly witted, but for about an hour in cold weather, shake off the water with a tight cover. The ice box it will keep it from freezing.

Thanksgiving Cantata Features First Of Sacred Concerts

With a cantata, "Psalm of Thanksgiving," as the principal feature, the Lubbock Music club gave the first of a series of sacred concerts at the First Methodist church Sunday afternoon with an excellent crowd in attendance. Mrs. Carl Seeglin, director of the club chorus, was in charge of the program for the afternoon.

"Land of God" (Basso) opened the program. In this Mrs. Carl Seeglin sang the solo part. Mrs. Mamie L. Neal was at the organ, Miss Annie Owens played the violin and Miss Mary Dunn was at the piano. This was followed by an organ solo from Mendelssohn's "Elijah" Chorus, by Fred W. R. Washburne and a vocal solo by Miss Nell Parsley.

Solo parts were taken in the cantata by Mrs. G. N. Atkinson, contralto; Edgar Shetton, baritone; Miss Louise Ocker, soprano; Mrs. E. A. Clements, alto; R. A. Clements, tenor; Edgar Immon, bass. Miss Owens played the violin and W. R. Washburne was at the organ. A quartet in the number was sung by Miss Ocker, Mr. and Mrs. Clements and Mr. Immon.

Two other sacred concerts will be given this year by the club.

Brief Social Items

Mr and Mrs Lonnie Montgomery, of Plainview and formerly of Lubbock visited here Sunday.

A. A. Boggess and George R. Bean are in Olton and Muleshoe on business Monday.

W. L. Pirle, H. D. Chipley and J. H. Goodrich are in Muleshoe on business today.

E. L. Kiett, local attorney, is in Olton on court business today.

Rev. W. P. Jennings, pastor of the First Christian church, has returned from Memphis, Tenn., where he attended the 77th anniversary of the founding of the church. He was accompanied by Mrs. Jennings, with whom he stopped in Dallas for a short visit enroute home. Mrs. Jennings underwent an operation there and is expected home the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Roger Pierce will be leader of the Altar service in the afternoon at the First Baptist church with Mesdames J. F. Hankins, W. L. Baugh and B. Davis as assistants. The lesson is on the development of landscape painting from the simple portrait backgrounds of Italy.

STORMS RAVAGING EUROPEAN PORTS

PARIS, Nov. 22.—Storms, with scarcely a lull between them, are ravaging Southwestern Europe. Ports on both the Atlantic and Mediterranean coasts are filled with battered vessels. The fishing industry is at a standstill. The Riviera again has suffered badly.

A tidal wave swept holes of merchandise from the wharves at Marseilles, damaged the coast road and stopped the operation of the street cars.

The Swiss Canton of Ticino has been visited by a gale, accompanied by a deluge of rain which lasted twenty-four hours. The rivers rose swiftly and flooded various lakes. An Italian torpedo boat belonging to the anti-submarine service, was forced to take refuge at the Swiss village of Maggiora.

Thanksgiving Dinner

Hotel Lubbock

—All the abundant goodness of field and stream and farm-yard has been gathered to grace our festive board. King Gobbler will reign supreme, of course but there'll be lots and lots of other good eatables.

DINNER SERVED
12 O'Clock Until 8 P. M.

$1

The Charge.

PHONE LUBBOCK'S WARMEST NUMBER

1-9-4

—Plenty of Coal now on hand—Prompt Delivery's assured. Lowest possible prices on best grades—Furnace Nut, and Furnace Lump.

GOOD SERVICE — GOOD COAL — GOOD PRICES

Lubbock Grain & Coal Comp'y

Choice Of All-Southwestern Team Great Puzzle To Scribes With List To Be Announced Probably Sunday

(By the Associated Press) DALLAS, Nov. 22.—Scribes who follow the fortunes of Southwest Conference platoon combinations are engaged these days in much scratching of heads as they ruminate on the wealth of grid stars in the conference and try to dope out the eleven most worthy of berths on the All-Southwestern team.

Backfield aces are particularly plentiful. Of the 36 outstanding contenders for all conference places, 15 are back of the line performers, and only four of the 15 can be named on the first All-Southwestern combination. For example, the conference can boast at least five capable quarterbacks: Mann of S. M. U., Clark of T. C. U., Hunt of Texas A. & M., Savan of Baylor University, and Washam of Baylor. While Mann will be the choice of most sport writers, many deposters will shift their selections to make room for Hunt and Clark, as well as Mann.

To Be Announced Sunday Most scribes will announce their selections in newspaper columns Sunday, November 23. The result of Thanksgiving Day clashes between the Texas Longhorns and Texas Aggies and between the S. M. U. Mustangs and T. C. U. Frogs will have considerable to do with the makeup of the all-honor eleven, though some scribes have clinched berths, regardless of the outcome of Turkey day contests.

Coach Ray Morrison's S. M. U. Ponies lead the field with eight candidates, as is fitting for the championship aggregation of the conference and the other teams listed in the following order: Coach Matty Bell's T. C. U. Toads, seven; Coach Morley Jennings' Baylor Bears, Coach "Doc" Stewart's Texas University Longhorns, and Coach Dana Bible's Texas Aggies, five each; Coach Francis Schmidt's Arkansas Razorbacks, four; and Coach John Heisman's Rice Institute Owls, two.

Mann is Outstanding Gerald Mann, dazzling quarterback of the Mustangs, is the outstanding candidate of the big and blue machine, and of the Southwest Conference for that matter. Mann's rifle-throwing passes, his quick thinking, his running, and the fight and aggressiveness he showed in every game made him the outstanding player of the season in this conference. Mann was at his best in the big contests. Few followers of football in this section will deny that Mann well earned a berth on the mythical combination.

Other Mustang players who will be given serious consideration are: Redman Hume, excellent punter, and the most dangerous man around the wings the conference has known in several years; Christopher Cates, the "Wonderful Wop" who like Hume plays in the backfield, and whose great defensive work has a major factor in the winning of the title; Wade, fullback, a defensive player of merit, and a capable snatcher of forward passes; "Doc" Dawson, three-loss end, whose offensive play overshadowed his work on the defensive; "Ox" Key, husky end, whose scholastic ineptitude for the game against Baylor will operate against his being selected on the first All-Southwestern team.

T. C. U. Offers Matthews "Bugs" Matthews, scintillating end, is the most prominent candidate T. C. U. offers for the mythical combination. Matthews has no weaknesses on the defensive or offensive, and commended himself to all real football fans who saw him in action. On a forward pass from Clark, Matthews scored the touchdown that enabled the Frogs to topple the formidable Razorbacks.

Other stars who have flashed for T. C. U. are: Brewster and Herman Clark, all-Southwestern quarterback of 1925, who has played stellar football all seasons; Washam, captain, heady center, and field goal kicker of great ability; "Bear" Wolfe, one of the conference's outstanding guards, and a field goal kicker of merit; his field goal from the 42 yard line giving the Frogs a 10-7 victory over Arkansas, when the count was knotted 7-7; Blackie Williams, hard-hitting fullback.

Two With Baylor Abil Kelley, sturdy fullback, and Sam Coates, businesslike defensive end, are Baylor stars who are being given the most serious consideration. The Ponies trounced the Bears 31-2 but Kelley was an offensive star, while Coates played a grand defensive game. Coates was an all-conference tackle in 1924. Kelley is an excellent punter, and a well-rounded performer.

Porter, big tackle; Wray, big guard and Weir Washam, tiny brookfield flash are other Bear members of note. Incidentally, Coates, Wray, and Washam are former pupils of Paul Tyson, the Waco high school mentor, who has turned out so many mighty gridsters.

Joel Hunt, the peppery back of the Aggies, will find a berth on many all-conference selections. Hunt is an excellent forward passer, knows how to "cutback" off tackle in a dangerous broken field runner and best of all knows how to inspire his mates. He should have his greatest season in 1927, the last year he will play with the red and white.

Captain Dieterich, All-Southwestern tackle of 1925; Watts, a fine center; Sikes, a wing performer who is developing all the while, and "Jelly" Woodman, stocks fullback, are other candidates for the honor team offered by Coaches Bible and Robinson.

The Arkansas Razorback eleven of 1926 is one of the strongest ever developed at Arkansas, with Captain Booman, center; Scott, guard; Cole, halfback and Smith fullback, outstanding grid warriors.

The fact that comparatively few conference sport scribes saw the Razorbacks in action will reduce their chances of placing men on the All-Southwestern.

The Rice Owls have had a disappointing season with "Heavy" Underwood, hard scrapping center, and Ed Heeling, halfback, showing fair form. Underwood is certain to receive mention for the mythical team than any other Rice player.

Disfavor Of Forward Pass Rule Voiced By Coaches CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—A majority of the Western Conference coaches today expressed vigorous dissent with the new football rule in effect this year, inflicting five yard penalties for successive incomplete forward passes after the first try.

A season's experience with the restriction has convinced most of them, they said, that it had failed to achieve the rule committee's object of cutting down indiscriminate passes.

The suggestion that the rule be abolished, however, found opinion about evenly divided and one coach, Wiley of Ohio, is a vigorous advocate of the abolishment of the point kick after touchdown. Ohio lost its chance for a tie with Michigan this year through a one point defeat, but won from Illinois to take second place by this same one point.

Coaches Stagg of Chicago, a member of the rules committee, and Wiley are the only supporters of the new forward pass penalty rule.

Such was true in the case of Harry Greb, one of the greatest fighters that ever answered the call of the referee.

Many of the critics who couldn't see Greb in his painted beautiful and pictures as to his remarkable ability, when death removed him from the world of sport.

True, Greb was unorthodox in his style and had no great reputation as a puncher, despite the fact that he packed a kick in either hand. The reason Greb kicked out so few punts was that he seldom "cut out" for his punches.

Razorback Ace

MINOR "OX" SMITH

Meet Minor "Ox" Smith, veteran University of Arkansas halfback, who is one of the reasons why the Razorbacks were in the race for the Southwest Conference championship this season. Smith is a southpaw, passing with the left hand and kicking with the left leg. This is his third year on the team.

Billy Evans Says

Related Tribute to Harry Greb Death forcibly brings to the attention of the public the true worth of an individual how and then.

Such was true in the case of Harry Greb, one of the greatest fighters that ever answered the call of the referee.

Many of the critics who couldn't see Greb in his painted beautiful and pictures as to his remarkable ability, when death removed him from the world of sport.

True, Greb was unorthodox in his style and had no great reputation as a puncher, despite the fact that he packed a kick in either hand.

The reason Greb kicked out so few punts was that he seldom "cut out" for his punches.

He preferred to win by confusing rather than rendering unconscious the fighter opposing him.

Champion Gene Tunney's Praise No greater compliment could possibly be paid a fighter than the words of Gene Tunney, in expressing his opinion of Greb.

"Greb was a great fighter," said Tunney. "In spots, the greatest fighter I ever saw."

MATADORS TO CLOSE SEASON ON TURKEY DAY

MEET CANYON BUFFALOES AND SPECIAL TRAIN TO GO FROM HERE

Thanksgiving day will bring down the final curtain of the season on the Scarier and Black grid performances—the two teams will be shown in Canyon on Thursday. This game is not only the close of the season on the Matador camp but it brings together two of Texas' most formidable institutions and the state's only West Texas institutions. Preparations are being made in Canyon to care for the large crowd that ever attended a game on the site of the Teachers College.

Special Train To Go

One of the longest special trains ever to run from any Texas city for a football game will likely carry the followers of the Tornado to the scene of the Turkey Day classic. It is thought that as many as 1000 fans will board the special train which will leave Lubbock on the morning of the game.

Hordes of fans from the Panhandle cities will attend the contest, and thousands of W. T. S. T. C. ex-ers will also journey to the scene of the Tech-Luff game. If favorable weather remains for the game it is thought that the attendance will run as high as 10,000.

Discount "Dope" Frederick and Higginbotham realize that while the comparative scores of teams in the "wearers of the Scarlet and Black" is due to win with more than two touchdowns that this has no effect on the result of the game. The Buffs would rather lose two games of games only to win over the Matadors—and for that reason a fight may for man is expected from the Buffs. Last season the Buffs held the Matadors to a close score of 14-12.

The only Matador body of the Tech is expected to attend the game tomorrow. The Matador 80-piece band of the Tech will also be on hand to assist the Picadors in their part of the program. Tickets for the game will be on sale at the station or from the Associated Journal.

New Rule As Result Of Harvard Loss Mentioned

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The possibility of a new rule in the football book next season developed today from an incident that figured in Yale's defeat of Harvard Saturday.

Yale scored a touchdown after a long punt in Captain Coody drove the ball from deep Harvard territory to apparent safety, for just mid-field. The ball was called back when it was discovered that a Yale substitute had stepped on the field in the middle of the play.

When Coach Rickard again called a timeout because a substitute of the Red and Starving stepped on the field over Harvard's goal for a touchdown, had it not been for this touchdown Harvard would have won.

Critics favoring a change in the rules say that Harvard's defeat was penalized a touchdown because a substitute caused it. Yale men to be on the field during the play. Yale suffered no penalty, and received two chances to block one kick. Some critics suggested the rule be changed to allow the original kick to count as it plays disregarding the illegal substitution.

THE REFEREE

What was the result of the Illinois-Ohio State football game in 1925? E. R. W.

Illinois 14, Ohio State 9.

How many world series did Meinie Groh play in and with what clubs? T. H. J.

Four—One with Cincinnati and three with New York Giants.

What was the outcome of the bout between Floyd Johnson and Kid Norfolk held in Oakland, Calif., last year? F. T. R.

Johnson won on a foul in four rounds.

Did Freddie Lamprocht win the intercollegiate golf championship twice in as many seasons? G. H. L.

Yes.

How long has "Pie" Traynor of the Pirates been in the majors and what batting average has he compiled? N. H. G.

Six years and has a batting mark of .307.

How many times has Bill Johnston been runnerup for national tennis honors? R. E. Y.

None.

How old was Francis Ouimet when he won the national open golf championship by defeating Vardon and Hay at Brookline? D. E. H.

Twenty-two years.

How many shutouts did Vance pitch during the 1925 campaign? C. T. N.

Four.

When was the Tunney-Gibbons battle and how many rounds did it last? S. E. T.

June 5, 1925, Tunney winning on kayo in twelfth.

Who was national indoor golf tennis champion in 1924? L. W. C.

Betty Hiltrey.

Too Conceited

BRIDGEPORT, Conn.—The Angelo Saxons are too conceited, thinks Bishop Hughes of Chicago; they claim most of the credit for the United States being the wealthiest and most powerful nation.

A fight with Dempsey in New York and probably about $200,000 in real money.

Greb was a great fighter, but is not of people didn't realize it until death called him.

DRESS WEEK AT EASTHAM'S

IN ADDITION TO THE MANY PRETTY DRESSES WE ALREADY HAD IN STOCK—we have added a recent purchase of Dresses at a Big Reduction for spot Cash and we are going to pass this Saving along to our Customers.

MISSES, LADIES AND WOMENS SIZES—Materials of Wool, Jersey and Twills, also Smartly tailored Silk Frocks, of Flat Crepe's Georgettes and Satins, that are graceful of lines.

THREE GROUP SPECIALS

$13.44 $22.28 $27.28

Of course we have Cheaper, and even higher Priced Dresses

SPECIAL INDUCEMENT TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

$2.95 HATS

—We will give a beautiful Flower ornament with every Dress sold in the above three group's Tuesday and Wednesday Only.

Did they Buy them? We will say so—you never saw such a response—only a few left so hurry.

REMEMBER FRIENDS THAT THE DECKS MUST ABSOLUTELY BE CLEARED BY DECEMBER 1ST—ITS UP TO YOU TO SHARE IN THIS BUYING EVENT.

EASTHAM'S

"Watch for opening of our Gift Department December 1st.

Mascots Are Barred On Longhorn Trips

AUSTIN, Nov. 22.—Official mascots for athletic teams have become traditions so far as the University of Texas is concerned. Because of the expense of the mascot's way is paid, or because of the wrong principle involved if "dead bearing" is resorted to, the athletic council has ruled that mascots shall not accompany the Longhorn teams, says L. T. Belmont, director of athletics. It is the first time in many years that the football team has had no mascot.

Something Wrong

NEW YORK.—Something has gone deeply wrong with the moral fibre of the nation in the opinion of the Rev. Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick. The American people, he says, hold nearly a third of the wealth of the human race, but there are six times as many murders in New York as in London, we need armored cars to guard the mails and old ideals of self-discipline and old-didial are hard to find.

GENTRY WELDING & MACHINE SHOP

WELDERS AND GENERAL MACHINISTS Satisfaction Guaranteed 812 Texas Avenue Phone 99

Lubbock Sanitarium

(A Modern Fireproof Building) and Lubbock Sanitarium Clinic

DR. J. T. KRUEGER Surgery and Contraceptions

DR. J. T. HUTCHINSON Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat

DR. M. C. OVERTON Diseases of Children

DR. J. P. LATTIMORE General Medicine

DR. J. H. STILES General Medicine

DR. J. W. ROLLO Medicine and Surgery

DR. F. B. MALONE General Medicine

DR. H. L. GARLAND General Medicine

DR. L. P. SMITH General Medicine

MISS MABEL MCLENDON X-Ray and Laboratory Technician

C. E. HUNT Business Manager

A chartered Training School for Nurses is conducted in connection with Sanitarium. Young women who desire to enter training may address the Lubbock Sanitarium.

G. G. CASTLEBERRY, M. D. Gynecology, Urology, Surgery and Diseases of Women

H. A. CASTLEBERRY, M. D. Obstetrics and General Medicine

DR. WALTER J. HOWARD Practice in all branches of Dentistry

DR. WALTER J. HOWARD Practice in all branches of Dentistry

TEXAS LIFE INSURANCE CO. K. L. Riggs Agency Mgr. for West Texas

Agents Wanted Farm and Ranch Loans Sudden Service

302 Ellis Bldg. Phone 25 Lubbock, Texas

CLEMENTINE W. VAUGHN LADY CHIROPRACTOR

Phone 255-R 1708 Ave K

LUBBOCK JOURNAL Member of Associated Press Published Every Afternoon, Except Saturdays, and consolidated on Sunday mornings in the Sunday Avianche-Journal By THE AVIANCHE-JOURNAL PUBLISHING COMPANY

TELEPHONES 13 or 14—Private Branch Exchange Connecting All Departments.

Charles A. Guy, Editor Dorrance D. Derick, Manager Entered as second-class mail matter at the postoffice at Lubbock, Texas, according to the provisions of the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879, and under the ratings of the Postmaster General, Permit Pending.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation, which may appear in the columns of this paper will be gladly corrected upon due notice of same being given to the editor.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper, and also the local news published herein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES Sent anywhere by mail or in the city limits by carrier, for Six Dollars per year, payable in advance.

ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES The Texas Daily Press League, Dallas, Kansas City, Chicago and New York. Advertising rates upon application.

LINES FROM THE Old Masters Like the waves make toward the pebbled shore, So do our minutes hasten to their end; Each changing place with that which goes before, In sequent toil all forwards do contend. Nativity, once in the main of light, Crawls to maturity, wherewith being crown'd, Crooked silliness against his glory flings, And Time that gave doth now his gift confound. Time doth transfix the flourish set on youth, And delves the parallels in beauty's brow; Feeds on the rarities of nature's truth, And nothing stands but for his scythe to mow: And yet, to times in hope, my verse shall stand Praising thy worth, despite his cruel hand. —Shakespeare: Revolutions.

IN NEW YORK SEE-SAWING UP and DOWN BROADWAY NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—James W. Dean, who once upon a time signed his name to this daily letter, wandered into town the other day for the first time in a couple of months. I asked him, as an old-timer who once kept a keen eye on the Manhattan passing show, what in particular caught his attention. "It's the way this darn town changes," said Dean. "I come through here on the way to the Dempsey fight. I stood at the very window from which I'm looking now, and I saw a building begin to sprout like a slender stalk of corn. Today I look out and there stands a 20-story giant with a big sign out telling me that offices are for rent. And that's just between the fight and now. I don't dare go down town."

And what's that's why even those who get mad fed up on the show, keep finding something to interest them. If they don't go up town for a couple of weeks or so they walk into a strange place. Take any other city in the world and you can go down town pretty certain of what you will see there. But New York—go away for two months and all you can do is find familiar places. The whole thing changes. New skyscrapers go up and new architectures are conceived. If you didn't see the corner sign you wouldn't believe your own eyes. I used to haunt every prominent corner getting out for this column, but if I had to start all over again, I wouldn't know where I was. Change! That's what hits you in the eye when you come back.

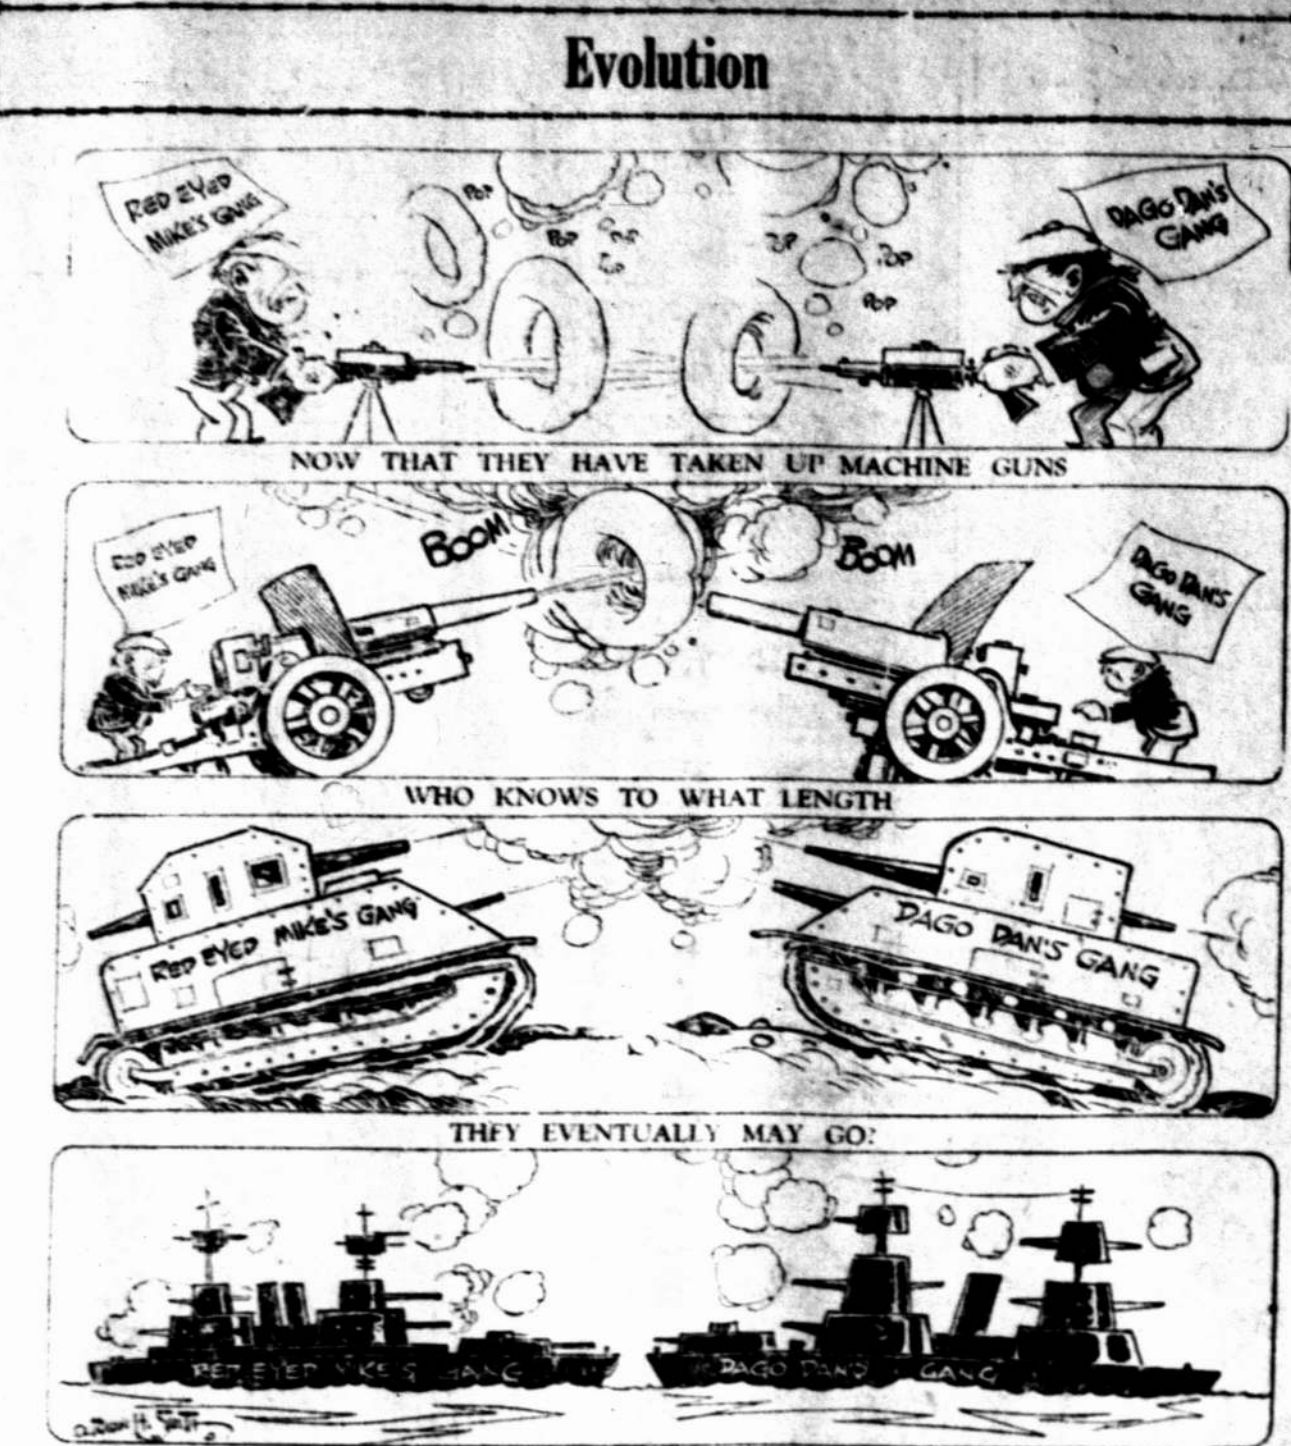

It's not only the fellow who's been away that notices it. There used to be a little place in the village where, during the summer, some of the boys would stop to get a glass of beer. I dropped in there three weeks or a month ago. The other day I decided to shock a visitor. I went to the place, ring the bell and waited. In a few moments a woman in the frock of one of the church sisters opened the door. The place had become a day nursery operated by a church. I don't know where the bootlegger is, perhaps he was elected a congressman or something at the November elections.

Again! Not many weeks ago I noticed the workers doing their worst on old buildings. I'll drop by and pick up a few pretty-que details about all buildings in arrears. Arriving at the spot a specklike structure, beautiful in line and accent in its media like design, hit my eye. I thought I was on the wrong street. "Say," I asked a policeman, "where's the old Delmonico ruin?" "It's knocked up," he said, pointing to the monument of steel and concrete. —GILBERT SWAN (Copyright, 1926, NEA Service, Inc.)

Journal Jobs The sense of sin and modification was the chief characteristic of the Middle Ages and the result was gloom, stagnation and despair. The sense of humor, which characterizes the present age has made it an era of light and joy. Friendship is necessarily a reciprocal thing. We lose interest in those who have lost interest in us. It is the active and useful man who gets the bumps of criticism. People do not throw stones at trees that have no fruit on them.

A THOUGHT Do they not eat that devise evil? But mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good. Prov. 14:22. Never throw mud. You may miss your mark; but you must have dirty hands.—Joseph Parker

JUST AS I WALK The boy stood on the burning deck. Expression was not grim. Why should he worry when the ship Did not belong to him?

WASHINGTON LETTER LONE FARMER-LABORITE MAY DECIDE ORGANIZATION OF NEXT SENATE By NEA Service WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—If the United States Senate refuses to seat William S. Vare and Frank L. Smith, as seems far more than likely, the organization that is to say, the committee membership of the upper house in the 70th Congress will be dictated by Senator Henrik Shipstead.

Chuckle Achile Chanking Styles "Haint no sir!" "Yes, but don't make it too short. I don't want to look effeminate." —Life.

BARB'S Two Mexican Indians ran 62 miles in 3 hours and 27 minutes. The police blame a book agent. A French scientist says man's supremacy may give way before the lowly insect. There are times when you can't tell them apart. A human tooth a million years old has been found in Montana. But then it may have been only a piano key. Today's object lesson: the ambition of older which is always willing to work. We are glad to reveal today that, owing to the advent of the bob, the old gray hair ain't what it used to be. Did you ever hear the famous story that begins with, "Well, after I had gone to four doctors?" (Copyright, 1926, NEA Service, Inc.)

Without the Rah-Rah The shrewdest definition so far of a pro football player, one who is paid to give limitations of the way he played in College.—Detroit News. "I did. That's the one I'm looking for." —St. Johns, N. B., Globey. Good Measure "Have your pants all come back, darling?" "Back? This is what I call rubbing it in! I sent them four, and hugged if they haven't returned me nine!" —Passing Show, London. Except onally Dry "Well, Daddy, did you go to church this morning?" "Yes, Daddy, but it was awfully dry. The curate licked his lips 45 times during the sermon." —Tit-Bits, London. MRS. NEWBICHE, Are you very severe doctor, that I have the very latest form of influenza? DOCTOR: Quite, madame. You cough exactly like the Countess of Wessex.—Answers, London. You Don't Say! JACK: Did you know that sweet kid I've been dancing with all night—the one with the henna bob? JILL: Oh, yes, that's mother.—Bulletin, Sydney.

WASHINGTON LETTER (Continued) With Vare and Smith out of it, the Senate lineup will be: Democrats, 47; Republicans, 46; Farmer-Laborite is Shipstead. The Democrats will submit their list of committee candidates. The Republicans will submit theirs. The Democrats will cast 47 votes for theirs and if Shipstead votes with them that will cinch it. The Republicans will cast 46 votes for theirs and if Shipstead votes with them he'll make it a tie, which Vice President Dawes will break by voting with the Republicans. The 46 Republicans include six irreconcilable Progressives, who most propositions but their precedent is their strength to the latter on committee assignments. Presumably they will do so on this coming occasion. This is assuming that the regulars' committee selections are reasonably acceptable to the insurgents, but it's safe to predict that they will be. The regulars will want their own organization. They'll realize that their only way of getting it is by least semi-satisfying the insurgents, and also Senator Shipstead. So they will have to make concessions. So will the Democrats. The Democrats have less insurgency in their ranks than the Republicans. They will not have to make many concessions to insurgents in their own ranks, but must make them to Senator Shipstead. Otherwise he'll vote with the Republicans. Congressional committee assignments are highly important. The committees don't have quite the last word to say on pending measures. Their recommendations can be turned down, but they seldom are. Occasionally they are a good deal modified, but they generally get through in substance. A committee can also pigeon hole propositions it doesn't like, and when that happens, it is extremely difficult to drag them out into the light again. Then there's prestige. A Republican administration doesn't like to have a Senateful of Democratic committees. And a Senateful of Democratic committees can seriously run the program of a Republican administration. Even an insurgent feels under some slight obligations to his party label. Usually he thinks he has discharged them by voting for his party committees. Up to that point, unless his feelings are too violently outraged by selections he disapproves of, he's regular. This applies to both Republicans and Democrats. But Senator Shipstead has absolutely no strings on him. He has complete freedom of choice between the two big party committees. What's more, it seems pretty certain that he will have the casting vote between them. So the next Senate, in all probability, will be organized by Henrik Shipstead of Minnesota. Another thing that proves that America is still distinctly "isolated" from world affairs is the widespread ignorance in this country of the significance of the Locarno agreement.—Auburn Citizen.

QUEER QUIRKS OF NATURE

Sea Lily

By AUSTIN H. CLARK Smithsonian Institution. These creatures, called sea lilies, have a pointed almy skeleton or more than two million separate bones. They are so brittle they can only live where it is very quiet and the action of the waves is very slight, that in deep water. This type of sea lily I have dredged in great abundance on the south coast of Japan in water from 300 to 912 feet deep. They are found southward to Tasmania, and very similar ones are abundant at certain places in the Caribbean region, especially near Havana, Cuba.

Helpful Health Hints

HOW TUBERCULOSIS IS BEING CARRIED TO EXPOSED BY DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN Editor Journal of the American Medical Association and of Hygiene the Health Magazine. Few persons realize that cases of open tuberculosis existing in a family are a danger to all other persons with whom the sick person comes in contact. A study made by Drs. E. L. Gipple and F. M. McPhedran of Philadelphia shows that prolonged exposure to open tuberculosis causes tuberculous infection of all of the members of the household. A hundred families were studied during 1923 and 1924 and the progress of the disease has been followed for the three years that have elapsed since the first cases were seen. What Test Shows In families that are free from tuberculosis, the young members, with few exceptions, are found to be negative when tested by the tuberculin test, and X-ray pictures of the lungs are likely to show little if any evidence of tuberculosis. However, when an older person in the family was suffering with a severe form of tuberculosis, every child in the family was found to react positively to a minute quantity of the tuberculin used in the tuberculin test. Furthermore, X-ray studies showed the lungs in many cases with different types of tuberculous infection. The most significant type of disturbance in childhood is tuberculosis of the glands around the greater and lesser tubes through which air is carried to the lungs. These inflammations were found 21 times in 42 families in which there was a person with open tuberculosis, three times in 18 families in which there was tuberculosis, but in which the sputum did not contain the organisms of tuberculosis, and only four times in 44 families in which there was no apparent tuberculosis in any member. In a large proportion of husbands or wives who had been exposed to open tuberculosis in the other part of a long period of years, some tuberculosis was found in the lungs usually an infection of the upper position. The study as a whole revealed the fact that tuberculosis is likely to be transmitted to other persons when there is a severe case in the family, and that even though the disease may remain hidden, it is capable of breaking forth in a severe form under suitable conditions.

With Our Contemporaries

REALLY A BIG THING The idea of getting a highway laid across nine counties from the Red river line to the New Mexico line, giving an all-year round connecting link to the east, to the Texas markets and through Oklahoma to eastern and northeastern points, is something to get enthusiastic about. It can't be out of the bounds of possibilities, and it would be tremendously valuable to every county it crossed, and even neighboring counties. Wilbarger, Foard, Cottle, Motley, Floyd, Hale, Lamb, Bailey and Pomeroy are the counties the route would touch reading from east to west. A comprehensive plan that would include them all and give a hard-surfaced route to the markets is the kind of plan that will influence and pull behind our paving proposal the big men of the various counties touched.—Plainview Herald. GETS FACTS FIRST The Hesperian has been for at least one hard-surfaced highway across Floyd county for a good many years. However when it comes to favoring an actual outlay of any given amount of dollars and cents, we want to be able to have real facts for our readers. We do not know what the verdict of the taxpayers of the county would be. In Hale county they are said to be working on this basis. The same plan needs to be followed in Floyd.—Floyd County Hesperian. Some of them can fix themselves up in a manner to take 10, or even 15, years of their respective ages, apparently, but we often feel like saying to one or another of the good old girls of our set, merely by way of helpful suggestion: You can't grunt when you sit down and seem young.—Ohio State Journal. Somebody says the boy has no imagination, and yet a boy will harbor the sorriest mongrel pup in town and call that abject and pathetic specimen "sport."—Lafayette Journal and Courier.

Flapper Fanny

Little Joe

Rates-Information CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

An accommodation account will be carried for those who telephone their ads in. All Want-Ads are strictly cash and are accepted over the telephone with the positive understanding that the account is to be paid when our collector calls the following day.

PHONE YOUR WANT AD TO- 13 or 14

Our courteous Ad-Taker will receive your Want-Ad, helping you word it, then our collector will present the bill the following day. All ads for situations wanted are cash with order and will not be accepted over telephone. Out-of-town advertising cash with order.

The Avalanche-Journal reserves the right to classify want ads under appropriate headings and to revise or withhold from publication any copy deemed objectionable. Notice of any error must be given in time for correction before second insertion.

Obituaries and cards of thanks at regular classified advertising rates. RATES 3 cents per word each for the first three insertions, and two cents per word for each insertion thereafter. No ad accepted for less than 30 cents.

Notices

CARD OF THANKS We want to thank our many, many friends for their loving and tender kindness given us during the illness and death of our darling La Verne. Also for the beautiful floral offerings. May God's richest blessings be with each of you. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Johnson, Hugh Young, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kaw, R. P. G. H. Alberta and Alpha Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ottlinger and family, Mrs. W. P. Blackham.

CARD OF THANKS We wish to express our heart-felt thanks to our friends and neighbors for their many kind deeds rendered during the illness of our husband and father. Also for the beautiful floral offerings. May God reward everyone of our sincere desire. Mrs. A. P. Koch and children.

CARD OF THANKS We desire to express our sincere thanks to each and every one who in any way assisted us when death claimed our son and brother. And especially do we wish to extend our appreciation to the Lubbock sanitarium attendants and to Dr. L. P. Smith, who so faithfully administered to his needs. A. G. Crow and family.

LOOK! LISTEN! Remember the colored style show at the First Baptist church Tuesday, November 23rd, at 8:15 p. m. Ave. A-1098. Come one-Come all. Seats for white friends. Conducted by Mrs. M. S. Sims. Get tickets at 1701 Ave. A.

WILSON ABSTRACT CO. Prompt, efficient service. The only abstract plant in Lubbock county that owns its own home.

OLD, STRONG, RELIABLE Room 204 Wilson Bldg. R. L. Wilson, proprietor. FOR RENT-Desirable office space in above building.

JUST COMPLETED LUBBOCK COUNTY OWNERSHIP MAP SEE SYLVAN SANDERS LEADER BLDG. PHONE 27

Lost and Found LOST-Key ring with about 20 keys and 10 cents. Return to Avalanche and receive reward.

LOST-Small suit case containing ladies' wearing apparel. Reward. Leave Avalanche-Journal office.

LOST-One red sock, weighing about pounds. J. R. Smith, box 24, Smy-Texas. Reward.

Woman's Column MARCELLA PERMANENTS The Modern Shop For Ladies Complete Operators Lubbock Beauty Shop Mrs. Lana McElroy Phone 332

REBUD BEAUTY PARLOR Alexander, formerly of Lubbock Beauty Shop, where she will be glad to see former customers. PHONE 131

FACE THEATER BUILDING AVENUE Q BEAUTY SHOP OPEN Treatment, first class work by experienced operator. A complete line of Marcella creams for sale.

AVENUE Q BEAUTY SHOP 1507 AVE. Q Mrs. Thompson - Mrs. Elma Hunt

Washing, quilts and blankets. Specialty. 2213 5th St.

3. Woman's Column Many sleep in comfort due to the fact that the DIRECT MATTRESS CO. makes the mattresses. Phone 1148. 1717 Ave. H.

4. Miscellaneous STOP SELLING COTTON We have a million dollars to advance at 6 per cent. See me at 908 13th or phone 1513. Walton Winn.

PAINTING AND PAPER HANGING Lehr PHONE 430W

CHEAPER AUTO TOPS AND PAINT A sweeping reduction on all lines of our work, including painting, tops, curtains, seat covers and upholstery, including all kinds of furniture repairing.

5. Financial CITY LOANS FARM LOANS TEMPLE TRUST CO. T. B. DUGGAN, Vice-Pres. 14 ELLIS BLDG. LUBBOCK, TEX.

JONES INVESTMENT CO. OILS-INSURANCE OIL INVESTMENTS FRANK JONES HUB JONES CITIZENS' NAT'L BANK PHONE 886.

CITY AND FARM LOANS -at the lowest rate of interest. Let us build or refinance your home. Our motto is "Service." See us before you place your city or farm loans.

CITY LOANS FOR RESIDENCE AND BUSINESS PROPERTY We represent the United Savings Bank of Detroit, Michigan, and are in position to offer you the best loans to buy, build or improve residence or city property.

6. Houses For Rent FOR RENT-Modern 5-room house well located. $25. Phone Garrison & Holt-364.

7. Housekeeping Rooms FOR RENT-Two unfurnished rooms to couple without children. 1612 10th St. Phone 745.

8. Bedrooms For Rent FOR RENT-Front bed room, furnished, adjoining bath. Phone 1495. 1923 Broadway.

9. Apartments For Rent FOR RENT-Two room furnished apartment. Close in. 1412 Ave. M. Phone 1341.

10. Board and Room BOARD & ROOM-Reasonable. Close in. 707 K Avenue.

11. Garages FOR RENT-Garage, $4 per month. 1709 Ave. I. Call at 917 13th St.

12. For Sale-Misc C. M. HAWES Mattress & Upholstering Co. -wants your mattress and upholstering work. New mattresses made to order. Old mattresses made new.

13. Office Space Choice offices in Leader Bldg. See John W. Jarrott. Room 204.

14. Business Opportunities FOR SALE-Cafe, doing good business well located. 917 13th St.

11/17/26 Classified Man, Avalanche-Journal, Lubbock, Texas. Dear Sir: This is to inform you that the first part of this week I inserted an ad in the classified column of the Avalanche-Journal, for farm to sell or trade, and the first day I received "Twenty-one" replies, closing the deal on the second day after the appearance of the ad. Thanks for your cooperation. Classified ads in the Avalanche-Journal sure get results.

17. For Sale or Trade FOR TRADE-Bundy home on 13th St. Between high school and Tech. Owner wishes to move closer in and would trade for lot or house closer to town. Phone 1156W.

18. Bedrooms For Rent FURNISHED BED ROOM ADJOINING BATH. Hot Water. Apply 1211 16th.

19. Automobiles 1926-Chevrolet Roadster.....$425.00 1926-Ford Coupe..... 350.00 1925-Ford Touring..... 200.00 1924-Ford Touring..... 150.00 1923-Ford Touring..... 75.00 1925-Chevrolet Roadster..... 235.00 1923-Exess Coach "four"..... 150.00 1926-Dodge Sedan..... 500.00

20. Real Estate INVESTMENT-Duplex, 11 rooms, 2 baths paved street, partly furnished. Rents $190 month. Yours for $7500. One-third cash. 3 Acre, Extra choice. Near Highland Heights, only $400.

21. Houses For Sale FOR SALE-Modern 5-room house. Terms. D. M. Smith. 1907 8th.

22. Female Help Wanted LADIES-Make $75 to $50 weekly including cards at home. Experience unnecessary. 2¢ stamp brings full particulars. H. Lichty, New Castle, Ind.

23. Situations Wanted WANTED-Experienced young lady desires office work. Also, would like collecting. Recommendations. Phone 1130M.

24. Male Help Wanted Address envelopes at home in your spare time. Earn $15 to $25 weekly. Experience unnecessary. Weather & Co. 22 Quincy St. Dept. 719, Chicago, Ill.

25. Situations Wanted WANTED-A position as stenographer. College graduate and experienced. Reply box "L. M." Avalanche-Journal. 11.

26. Sailors Wanted Men and Women to work. Salary and Commission. J. E. George, room 4, Brown Bldg.

27. Poultry Pet Stock FOR SALE-32 Pige and shooks. Prices right. Martin Kuykendall, 2 miles south on Tahoka road.

28. Wanted to Buy WANTED-To purchase 4 sections choice South Plains raw agricultural land, and 2 sections improved farm land. Address G. L. Moody, 2215 10th St. Lubbock Texas, giving price.

29. Furnished Apts FOR RENT-3 or 4 furnished apartments and garage. Hot water. 1908 16th.

30. Real Estate DIRT IS CHEAP AND EASY TERMS 10 acres partly improved. Will trade equity for city property.

31. For Sale or Trade WHEAT LAND In cultivation, one look will convince you it's the best. Price $25 per acre. In tracts 450, 600 or 1700 acres. Will consider merchandise, hotel or city property. Owner: Answer P. F. Murray, 202 Leader Bldg., Lubbock, Texas.

32. For Sale or Trade FOR SALE OR TRADE-Nice 5-room brick veneer, Southwest part town. Consider 1 or 2 vacant lots. Balance monthly. Phone 818W. P. O. Box 1555

20. Real Estate RAILROAD BOARD BAR-GAINS Investment-Duplex, 11 rooms, 2 baths paved street, partly furnished. Rents $190 month. Yours for $7500. One-third cash. 3 Acre, Extra choice. Near Highland Heights, only $400.

CHAS. F. O'NEALL, Realtor PHONE 236

ATTENTION, BARGAIN HUNTERS Most beautiful brick veneer home in Lubbock, at a bargain. Drive by 2215 10th St. See

FOR SALE OR TRADE SECTION OF LAND IN TERRY COUNTY. WILL TAKE SECURED NOTES OR CITY PROPERTY AS PART PAYMENT. JARROTT REALTY CO. Phone 316 204 Leader Bldg.

HOME TO TRADE FOR CAR Will trade 5-room modern residence at 1911 6th Street or 1921 10th Street for a good car or notes. J. O. Garlington. Phone 1419W.

J. O. GARLINGTON PHONE 1419-W

21. Houses For Sale FOR SALE-Modern 5-room house. Terms. D. M. Smith. 1907 8th.

22. Female Help Wanted LADIES-Make $75 to $50 weekly including cards at home. Experience unnecessary. 2¢ stamp brings full particulars. H. Lichty, New Castle, Ind.

23. Situations Wanted WANTED-Experienced young lady desires office work. Also, would like collecting. Recommendations. Phone 1130M.

24. Male Help Wanted Address envelopes at home in your spare time. Earn $15 to $25 weekly. Experience unnecessary. Weather & Co. 22 Quincy St. Dept. 719, Chicago, Ill.

25. Situations Wanted WANTED-A position as stenographer. College graduate and experienced. Reply box "L. M." Avalanche-Journal. 11.

26. Sailors Wanted Men and Women to work. Salary and Commission. J. E. George, room 4, Brown Bldg.

27. Poultry Pet Stock FOR SALE-32 Pige and shooks. Prices right. Martin Kuykendall, 2 miles south on Tahoka road.

28. Wanted to Buy WANTED-To purchase 4 sections choice South Plains raw agricultural land, and 2 sections improved farm land. Address G. L. Moody, 2215 10th St. Lubbock Texas, giving price.

29. Furnished Apts FOR RENT-3 or 4 furnished apartments and garage. Hot water. 1908 16th.

30. Real Estate DIRT IS CHEAP AND EASY TERMS 10 acres partly improved. Will trade equity for city property.

31. For Sale or Trade WHEAT LAND In cultivation, one look will convince you it's the best. Price $25 per acre. In tracts 450, 600 or 1700 acres. Will consider merchandise, hotel or city property. Owner: Answer P. F. Murray, 202 Leader Bldg., Lubbock, Texas.

32. For Sale or Trade FOR SALE OR TRADE-Nice 5-room brick veneer, Southwest part town. Consider 1 or 2 vacant lots. Balance monthly. Phone 818W. P. O. Box 1555

SAINT AND SINNER By ANNE AUSTIN COPYRIGHT 1926 NEA Bob Hathaway and Faith Lane looked at each other blankly for a moment then Bob laughed shortly, flicking the typed message that the fleeing stenographer had left for him, with a contemptuous finger. "Seemed stiff-put out," he said succinctly. "She must have guessed that you had traced the letters to this office. But this is rather conclusive proof that I had nothing to do with her many little blackmail schemes, isn't it?" "Oh, Bob, don't!" Faith pleaded, reaching out a shy hand to touch his arm. "I never really doubted you, but I had to find out all I could-for Cherry's sake. In my heart I knew-" "Your big heart, your darling, generous big heart!" he said, laughing, catching her odd fingers and a smile. "This isn't the time to be in the place, dear, to tell you, I had planned it so differently-moonlight or starlight, the two of us alone, entirely away from all the other Lanes and Cherry's presence-but you know, Faith, during 1924, that I have wanted you to marry me. You've known haven't you?" He drew her toward him, his blue eyes brilliant with love, and a little shy, too-the eyes of a man who has not had enough practice in tender declarations to do it easily. "Yes," Faith whispered, a little breathless that his lips should be so close to her cheek, and she felt a flood of heart-breaking tenderness that flooded her brown eyes with light and lifted the deep-set corners of her mouth in irresistible invitation, she mounted on her instinctive effort to hold back, and walked gladly, proudly into his arms. She cupped his cheek, and her face in his hands, and raised her face to his kiss. His arms stretched her with such sudden fierceness against his breast as he bent to kiss her that her back protested with a sharp stab of pain. But it was a delicious pain. She could never admit to being stretched on the rack if he had been bending over her, kissing her. When at last he flung back his head, triumphantly, and she rested in the curve of his arms, looking up at him with wide, misty eyes, she saw to her amazement that his lips were trembling, and that tears had magnified the amazingly blue lines of his eyes. "Not-sorry, Bob," she whispered, and touched his cheek with tingling, quivering fingers. "Sorry, Oh, my God, Faith! I'm just praying that in the halfway good enough for you to feel such a water-about Cherry. I wish I had never kissed another girl that-" "Don't!" she begged huskily. "I know-how you feel. Chester Hart, kissed me once but I didn't like it. I-I rubbed it off," she confessed naively, "and he was so sorry that he turned to Cherry. But I've never-let men paw me, Bob." "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with too much joy. "I always love too much, burden those I love with tenderness and solicitude. Don't let me burden you, Bob. They say men like to pursue, never quite sure, even after marriage, if she to think this is still as hidden chamber, containing the very core of love." Bob Hathaway laughed exultantly. "You precious!" he laughed, rubbing his cheek against hers, and cuddling her fingers against his throat. "We'll simply have to forgive each other for our dreadful sins and begin all over again. Do you really love me?" His voice was suddenly serious, a little incredulous, as if he sincerely doubted that such a marvelous thing had really happened to him. "I'm afraid I love you too much," she whispered unthinkingly, drawing a quick sharp breath as if her heart had been filled as it was with

DERRY VALE LINENS

Are Our Contribution To Make The Thanksgiving Table Complete

—Yes the setting for the Thanksgiving meal has much to do with its enjoyment. Exclusive Restaurants everywhere realize how important "atmosphere" can be. In arranging their interiors as well as their tables they try to overlook nothing that will make for attractive appearance. Your table for the Eventful Thanksgiving meal should be attractive.

The Finest Linen Money Can Buy

Derry Vale Linens represent the limit in quality that is impossible in fine table linens. Everywhere where the best is desired you will find that Derryvale is the choice. This exclusive line is to be had in Lubbock only at this store—in varying length cloths with napkins to match—in a varied array of patterns and in price scales that range from as low as $6.75 to as fine as $22.45

Hemphill-Price Co.

1212 AVENUE J

A Modern Method of Cleanliness

Because it cleanses the mouth and teeth, removes odors of dining or smoking and renders the user acceptable in any company, the use of

Wrigley's Chewing Sweets is a mark of refinement.

To use Wrigley's shows thought for the feelings and the favor of your companions.

Wrigley's is also a delightful refreshment enjoyed by people of all ages.

It is an aid to digestion—a guardian of good health.

WALDEN SWEET MEAL

5% THE FEDERAL LAND BANK OF HOUSTON

—has plenty of money to loan on farms at 5 per cent—the lowest rate offered. Will take up and extend your old loan or make new one. E. E. R. B. RODGERS 214 ELLIS BUILDING, PHONE 16

Hemphill-Woods Co.

INSURANCE AND BONDS (LUBBOCK INSURANCE AGENCY)

Phone 267 Citizens National Bank Bldg.

Avalanche-Journal Want Ads Get Results

Automobile Liability

You as owner of the Car, are responsible. You should carry Public Liability, and Property Damage Insurance.

J. A. McCELVEY AGENCY

Insurance and Loans 223 Ellis Building

QUEEN'S PHOTO IS GIVEN VETS

Pictures Of Queen And Princess Given In Exchange Of Vets' Souvenirs From Club

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Witch veterans of the Dugout Club for disabled soldiers, today looked forward to the receipt of a photograph of one of the handisomest queens in Europe and a good looking princess who is not above making home so that an injured soldier could be taken to a hospital in her automobile.

Queen Marie and Princess Helena of Rumania visited the Dugout yesterday with General Pershing. They were offered souvenirs made by the men and the princess selected a lamp shade with a ship on it. She offered to send her photograph in return.

Photos of both "Well send a photograph of both of us," said the queen, "but on condition that you hang it out where the men can see it, and not in the official room."

"We want the men to have something to remember us by," the princess was driving her own car when Lucretia Roberts, one of her motorcycle escort, collided with an automobile and was slightly injured. She got out and helped him into his own machine, then she and her companion, Miss Ella Marx, walked several blocks to the automobile hotel where the royal party made its headquarters for the day.

Today's Program The program of the queen and princess today included a visit to the grave of Theodore Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, and a tour of the home of Mrs. William Brewster, who is former Princess Zena of Greece. Prince Nicholas, en route from Cleveland, did not figure in the plans.

The queen and her party will go to the airport tomorrow afternoon to see the king and queen in their plane. Mr. and Mrs. Winston Archer, the ship's pilot, will be in the West.

COTTON CROP

(Continued from Page One)

December 15, showing revised figures for the year. The average for the year is 1,340,000 bales, and total production will be the last year until revision next April after the final ginning report.

Ginnings To November 14 WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—A report of this year's growth of cotton ginnings to date, totaling 12,352,793 bales, including 428,926 round bales counted as half bales, and exclusive of linters, the census bureau announced today.

Ginnings to November 1 this year totaled 11,598,878, including 298,227 round bales and to November 14 last year the ginnings were 12,266,352 bales, including 218,758 round bales.

Ginnings By States The ginnings to November 14 by states were: Alabama, 1,597,611; Arizona, 82,871; Arkansas, 1,136,439; California, 77,242; Florida, 36,975; Georgia, 2,041,758; Louisiana, 682,375; Mississippi, 1,429,142; Missouri, 141,095; New Mexico, 25,897; North Carolina, 863,417; Oklahoma, 891,916; South Carolina, 162,561; Tennessee, 321,469; Texas, 1,871,159; Virginia, 32,478. All other states, 8135.

Drops 51 At New York NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Remarks by the exchange on the New York cotton exchange to the increase of 481,093 in the government crop estimate of 18,399,900 bales. Prices dropped approximately one dollar a bale, but large buying orders were pronounced on the decline.

Steady At New Orleans NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22.—The government cotton crop forecast announced today had only a slight effect on the market here. December dropped 18 points, January 11 points and March 8 points. Total ginnings of 12,352,793 bales was smaller than expected, with the crop of 18,399,000 bales was larger than expected.

The Daintiest Desserts you ever enjoyed are made with

KNOX SPARKLING GELATINE

"The Highest Quality for Health"

"What's What in Desserts"—Free What desserts and salads to have for every kind of meal and how to make them easily, so no preparation. Send for free recipe book. Send for postage and price order card.

CHAS. E. KNOX GELATINE CO. JENNISON, N. Y.

Re-Adjustment Sale of Dresses

One special group that are our best Dresses. The regular prices range from $45.00, $49.50 and up to $59.50. You may take your choice now of the lot for only—

$27.50

Other Dresses specially priced at— $9.95, — $13.75, — $19.75

Barrier Bros.

DEPENDABLE MERCHANDISE

R. M. CHITWOOD

(Continued from Page One)

of Paso at the time he was in Mr. Chitwood's death. The Lubbock doctor, Dr. Hottel, will arrive in Lubbock tonight, his secretary stated upon receiving word from him.

Condition Worse Than Thought While Mr. Chitwood had been in ill health for several months prior to his death, his condition was not thought to be dangerous. He was in Dallas for medical treatment at the time of his death.

A citizen of Sweetwater for many years, Mr. Chitwood was active in the forefront of civic activities and, in addition to one time operating the Sweetwater Reporter, served several terms in the state legislature where he was a power among his fellow citizens. He was engaged in business in Sweetwater, owned several farms, and is credited with bringing the United States Gypsum Refining plant to the Nolan county seat. When the Texas Technological college was located in Lubbock, those in charge of the school searched over the length and breadth of Texas for a business manager and after inquiries on the part of himself and his friends, Mr. Chitwood accepted the post which he has filled in a most efficient and outstanding manner.

The deceased is survived by his widow and one son, Gen, who is a senior in Rich Institute at Houston. He was a member of the First Baptist church, the Masonic lodge, the Lubbock Rotary club and has been prominent in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

In reverence to the deceased official of the Texas Technological college will remain closed all day tomorrow. It was announced this afternoon by Deans J. M. Gordon and A. H. Ledwith, in the absence of the president.

BURGLARY ORGY

(Continued from Page One)

men found his watch, and several students found fountain pens, books, engineering tools, football regalia, graphophones, hotel cases, bill folders, hats, shoes, shirts, collars and other articles too numerous to mention. The boys had not chosen any special items of goods, but just anything that happened to be handy. Counting the notes and checks the entire loot was worth something like $2,000.

Traveling Man Here A traveling man whose home is in Fort Worth, identified almost $100 worth of goods that was taken out of his car a few weeks ago while he was in the Western Union office sending a message. "I want to compliment you," he said to Chief May, "and tell you that I will come three hundred miles

THREE DEAD IN TENEMENT FIRE

Several Others Injured And Jap Bellboy Is Missing in Los Angeles

(By the Associated Press) LOS ANGELES, Calif., Nov. 22.—Three persons were burned to death, 19 others were injured, two seriously and a Japanese house boy is missing in a fire which early today destroyed the Rangel apartment house, a three-story wooden structure at 723 West Third street.

The dead are: W. Rockwell, 51, believed to be an Eastman Kodak company official of New York state; Mrs. W. Rockwell; Elizabeth Stage, 49, believed to be from Lincoln, Neb.

Many Leap From Window Several persons were hurt in leaps from windows and others partially overcome by smoke were taken into nearby apartments and hotels.

The building became a mass of flames within a few minutes after fire broke out in the basement. The flames swept up an elevator shaft to the third floor and spread to other parts of the structure.

First reports were that an explosion preceded the burst of flames. Dense clouds of black smoke belched from the basement.

Mexican Killed In Free-For-All Fight

(By Associated Press) BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Nov. 22.—Rufael Garza is dead and two other men are suffering from pistol shot wounds following a free-for-all shooting struggle Sunday afternoon at a track thirteen miles above Brownsville. The shooting is said to have followed a quarrel over bets placed on horse races.

MR. AND MRS. R. F. SHEPARD, 231 Thirtieth street, visited in Post Sunday afternoon returning Sunday night.

to testify against his gang of thieves. Some two hundred articles are still held by the police station, and officers ask those who have had property stolen during recent weeks to come and look over the lot.

The boys are being kept separated, some of them being in the county and others in the city jail. Charges of theft have been filed against them, and all will be transferred to the county jail at an early date. So far none of them have made bond.

Dramatic Reader Here For Program

Edwin M. Whitney, dramatic interpreter, who is to appear at the high school auditorium this evening at 8 o'clock as a member of the Tech art club course, arrived in Lubbock this morning. It was announced by college officials.

Mr. Whitney is a reader and an artist of nation-wide fame, according to those who have heard him, and is the highest type of dramatic interpreter. His facial expression is marvelous, and his rapid transition from one character to another plumps him as a genius, one critic said of him. Each year Mr. Whitney adds to his records some new success. He is heard in many colleges during the season.

Mortgaged Car Held Subject To Seizure

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Automobiles being purchased on the installment plan, with title remaining in the motor company, were held by the supreme court today to be subject to forfeiture by the government when used in the illegal transportation of intoxicating liquor.

The decision was in a case from Alabama. A somewhat similar proceeding has come up from Washington state.

The court divided widely. The cardinal question involved was whether the prohibition amendment and laws had repealed the old internal revenue laws relating to liquor. The majority answered this question in the negative, but Justices McReynolds, Sutherland and Butler strongly dis-

Turkeys To Suffer For Big Spring Feed

BR SPRING, Nov. 22.—A number of turkeys are apt to loose their lives as a result of a joint meeting of the Modern Woodman and Royal Neighbors of America planned for November 24th at 7:30 p. m. in the Odd Fellows hall at Big Spring. Members of both orders have sent out invitations announcing the occasion and inviting members from nearby towns to participate in the festivities of the occasion. It is announced that a large class of new members will be initiated at that state and the District Representative of the Modern Woodman, Deputy L. C. McNatt of Abilene will be in charge of the initiatory work.

SAM COPLAND, MONROE COFFLAND and Clyde Smith of Santa Anna are transacting business in Lubbock.

PHONE 626-J For Estimates on Finishing and Re-Finishing New and Old Floors J. J. CHAMBLESS 807 AVENUE X

LOANS

6 1-2 PER CENT FARM LOANS 7 PER CENT ANNUAL RESERVE LOANS 7 PER CENT BUSINESS PROPERTY LOANS

Let us make your new or re-finance your old Loan

GILLON & McAFEE

INSURANCE—LOANS—BONDS TEL—234 415 ELLIS BLDG.

ALL THE LATEST HITS ON COLUMBIA RECORDS

MEIER JEWELRY AND MUSIC SHOP 1102 Broadway