Drastic Price Cuts Are Announced For Kaiser-Frazer Cars

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, March 29.—Kaiser-Frazer Corp., slashed its car prices today—the auto industry's second price cut within a month's time.

Simultaneously, Kaiser-Frazer announced a change in top management.

The price cuts ranged from $198 up to $333 on K-F's various models, by far the largest of any cuts in the industry since the end of the war.

The company said in a statement that it was "entering a broader mass market" and was "offering the public the lowest priced big cars in the world."

Coupled with the price cut was the elevation of Edgar F. Kaiser to the presidency of Kaiser-Frazer.

Kaiser, son of Board Chairman Henry J. Kaiser, succeeds Joheph W. Frazer, who becomes vice chairman of the board, a newly created post.

The younger Kaiser was formerly vice president and general manager. His father and Frazer founded the auto company in 1945.

The changes were described in trade circles as the outgrowth of differences in policy.

K-F, still a relative newcomer in the highly competitive auto industry, cut its prices a month after General Motors reduced prices.

GM, largest of the car producers, reduced its passenger car prices $10 to $40 and its trucks up to $150.

This was coupled with a two cents an hour contractual cost-of-living wage cut for GM's 273,000 production workers. GM said at the time it meant to let the public benefit both from the wage cut and increasing availability of materials.

Kaiser-Frazer, in its announcement today, commented that it was in its "best supply position" in its history regarding finished parts

Local Authority, Fair Return For Owners Provided

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The Senate today approved compromise legislation to continue rent controls 15 months. The bill also provides for "home rule" decontrol and a "fair net operating income" for landlords.

The vote for approval was 78 to 11.

The measure now goes to the House, with administration leaders predicting its approval before nightfall.

Motion Rejected

The present rent law expires at midnight, Thursday.

The Senate vote came after rejection of a motion by Senator Bricker (R-Ohio) to send the bill back to a Senate-House conference committee for revision of its terms.

Bricker contended that a provision aimed at living landlords a "fair net operating income" was meaningless.

The vote against Bricker's motion was 53 to 33.

Bricker centered his fire on a provision directing the federal housing expediter to set rents at a level that would give landlords a "fair net operating income."

Fair Return Provided

He said that gives landlords no more relief than they have under the present law.

The House first passed a bill requiring that landlords receive "a reasonable return on a reasonable value" of their property. The Senate bill provided for 10 per cent rent increases in some cases.

To settle the dispute over this issue, the conferees agreed on rents that would return landlords "a fair net operating income."

Bricker, however, said that "I don't believe there are two senators who would agree" on the meaning of the phrase. He said he preferred the formula used by the House.

Truman Wanted Move

Time, meanwhile, was running out. At midnight Thursday the present rent law expires. Democratic leaders expected Mr. Truman to sign the extension measure once it gets to the White House, even though it isn't nearly as tight a bill as he wanted.

Mr. Truman asked for a two-year extension and more stringent controls.

While it would continue federal rent controls through June 30, 1950, the bill contains a broad "home rule" provision which lets states, cities, towns and villages get rid of controls any time the

Down Payment For Stocks Cut From 75 To 50 Percent

(By The United Press)

NEW YORK, March 29—A tremor of excitement and through Wall street today as nationwide price cuts and statements by banking officials indicated that inflation was on its death bed.

The stock market opened with a flurry of buying that sent stocks from one to three points higher.

The situation at a glance a few minutes after the opening: American Telephone and Telegraph up a full point, United States Steel up 1½ points, General Motors up ⅝, Standard Oil of New Jersey up 1⅛, Montgomery Ward up 1½, Santa Fe, leading the rails, up 1⅞.

Bonds Edge Upward

Even bonds edged upward in the market flurry, and commodities held firm. Cotton futures were unchanged to two points higher.

The increased buyers interest was attributed to the announcement in Washington by the Federal Reserve board that, effective tomorrow, only a 50 per cent down payment would be required of investors and speculators in securities. A margin of 75 per cent had been required since Feb. 1, 1947, and a full 100 per cent was required for the 11 months preceding that to guard against inflation.

Follows Credit Easing

The board's order was issued in the wake of a flow of government reports showing employment, production, prices, bonds loans and sales of many goods coursing down together in early 1949.

Not in four years—since the approaching end of the war made the board in 1945 fearful of an inflationary boom spreading out of the stock markets—had the board made securities-buying credit so liberal.

Throughout 1946, when it was

Solon Assails Price Control

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said today a "tapering off" in prices may save this country from a future economic crash.

Taft is drafting a minority report for the Senate-House economic committee. In it he is expected to attack President Truman's proposals for standby price-wage controls and for government authority to build industrial plants.

The committee, headed by Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo), recently endorsed the President's program. At that time, Taft protested that the report's statistics "seem to have been fitted to the President's conclusions."

Living Costs Drop

Noting that the cost of living has dropped for the fifth month in a row, Taft told a reporter today he thinks this is an indication that a gradual decline in prices may continue for some time.

He said he doesn't believe industrial production can be kept permanently up to the level caused by the demand for war-short goods, plus the needs of the foreign economic recovery program.

"I think it is better to let prices taper off than to try to support the economy artificially at this time," the Ohioan said.

"If we try artificial supports, the time may come when we can't

Two Starving Sisters, Body Of Brother Found By Police

(By The Associated Press)

PAOLA, Kas., March 29—Two starving sisters and the body of their brother were found yesterday in a farm house cluttered with mountainous piles of food and clothing.

Coroner William Brown said the sisters, Miss Mandy Stachling, 65, and Miss Mattie Stachling, 63, were found in a bed under a huge pile of bedclothing.

Both were brought here for treatment. A physician said feeding by intravenous injection might be necessary for several days because of their condition.

The coroner said the brother, Albert P. Stachling, 70, had been dead about ten days and apparently had died of malnutrition.

Officers broke a locked door to enter the home. Sheriff Fred Ivy, jr., said the four downstairs rooms in the two-story house were stacked almost ceiling high with boxes of food, bedclothing, dress materials and shoes.

Only narrow passageways remained in the rooms.

County Attorney Robert H. Miller ordered an investigation after a Paola undertaker reported he was asked to come to the house and then was refused admittance.

The sheriff said neither woman was able to talk.

RECOGNITION OF UNION SOUGHT

New York Taxicab Strike Threatens

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 29—A city-wide taxicab strike has been set tentatively for 4:30 a. m. (EST) Friday in a dispute over union recognition.

A union meeting of approximately 3,300 night-shift taxi drivers and inside workers voted early today for the strike.

Day-shift drivers and other workers will vote on strike action at 5:30 p. m. today, and a union spokesman said a strike would be certain if the afternoon vote follows the morning trend.

No Cabs Will Roll

"Not a cab will roll," he declared.

The meetings were called by local 35 of the taxicab workers organizing committee, a unit of the United Construction Workers and an affiliate of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers.

Chief point in the dispute is the employers' refusal to recognize the union until it has been certified by an election under state labor laws.

The union, demanding immediate recognition, contends such an election would delay recognition because of what it calls "technicalities and other obstacles."

Appeal Is Barred

Appeal to the National Labor Relations board is barred to the union because officers of Lewis' parent union have not signed Taft-Hartley act non-communist affi-

Amarillo Youth Is Beaten By Prisoner

AMARILLO, March 29 (UP) — Walter Williamson, 17, serving a 30-day sentence for driving a car without the owner's consent, was beaten severely in his county jail cell by another prisoner, Sheriff Paul Gaither said today.

Doctors said young Williamson suffered a brain concussion. Gaither said he had prepared charges of aggravated assault against the assailant. The sheriff reported that the fight started from an argument over a cup of coffee.

Savings Drive Is Organized

A group of business and professional men assembled for breakfast in the Hilton hotel this morning to organize the annual savings bond drive for Lubbock county under the leadership of C. H. Hamilton, general chairman.

Gayle Rhyne, representative of the savings bond division of the Treasury department, told the division chairmen of the drive organization of some of the goals that the Treasury department hopes to reach.

Hedge Against Depression

"Residents of Lubbock county are now holding more than $18,000,000 in savings bonds," Rhyne said. "The largest part of these holdings is the "E" type which indicated a wide dispersal of the holdings and creates an excellent hedge against depression."

The official kick-off for the state of Texas will take place in Houston on April 19 and the actual drive for bond sales will start on May 15, Rhyne stated.

The Treasury representative pointed out that the advantages of purchasing savings bonds were multiple. He said they encouraged thrift, especially among students; helped spread the load of the national debt; served as a means of combatting inflation by taking excess income out of the buyers' market; acted as a stabilizing influence on the nation's economy and helped to form a barrier against recessions and de-

Two U.S. Soldiers Sentenced

Americans Get Lengthy Terms On Spy Charge

Men Convicted In Secret Trial By Czech State Court

(By The United Press)

PRAGUE, March 29. — Two American soldiers who went AWOL in Germany and wandered into Czechoslovakia have been sentenced to 10 and 12 years in prison as spies after a secret trial before a Czech state court.

The official Czech news agency reported today that the senate of the state court in Prague last Saturday sentenced George R. Jones, 22, of Owensboro, Ky., to 10 years at hard labor and Clarence R. Hill, 31, of Jackson, Miss., to 12 years at hard labor for espionage.

The announcement referred to Jones as "Cpl. Alexander Hunter, alias Jones," but offered no explanation, and said Hill's rank was private. Both Jones and Hill actually held the U. S. Army rank of recruit.

Spy Charge Made

"Hunter and Hill illegally crossed the Czech frontier in December 1948 with the intention of carrying out spying in Czechoslovakia, during which activities they were caught by Czech security organs," the news agency said.

No further details were announced.

The two soldiers disappeared from their units in Germany early last December. Not until January was there any word of their whereabouts. Then a letter sent by Hill through a Czech prison censor reached the U. S. embassy

RIDE 'EM COWHANDS—It was like the wild and woolly west at Lubbock Senior High school today. No horses were in evidence, but H. J. McCabe, dean of boys, and some students found the next best thing, a model-T Ford. Clambering aboard in true cowboy fashion, they looked ready to hit the open range. Anti-Red Stampede Runs Into Barrier

AUSTIN, March 29. (AP)—The House started a new stampede against Communism again today.

But the uproar ran headon into a block of members who wanted more study on a bill designed to throw Communists out of state colleges. The cautious won out and the House agreed unanimously to postpone further debate until Thursday morning.

The bill had swirled through the House this morning in an outburst of oratory. Author Sam Hanna of Dallas got unanimous consent to introduce it. The education committee met immediately and approved it. Within 15 minutes the House had given unanimous consent for the bill to be brought up for debate.

Hanna's bill would require every teacher, student or employe of any state college to sign an affidavit of his loyalty to the constitution and swear that he was not a member of any subversive organization.

Mitchum Says Privacy Goal

HOLLYWOOD, March 29. (UP)—Robert Mitchum walks out of jail tomorrow a free man, but he'll pay the penalty for that marijuana charge forever because the public will never forget it, he said today.

"They'll always remember," said the actor, now tan, lean and sporting a mustache after 49 days imprisonment.

"I'll have this to bear till the day I die.

"Ten years from now if Vickie Evans' (one of his co-defendants) second cousin gives birth to a baby the paper will get 'Mitchum' in the headlines. They'd let up on me temporarily only if some other actor got in a scrape."

To Seek Privacy

Blonde starlet Lila Leeds, another of his co-dependants, also will be freed tomorrow. Each was sentenced to 60 days, but got 10 off for good behavior.

Mitchum, lounging in faded dungarees in the jail visitors' room, said his only defense will be to put up a wall of privacy around his life so the public won't ever get a peek at it again.

"Who says an actor can't have privacy? I'll have it. No more interviews about my personal life. I'm shutting out my so-called pals. I'm not going any place or seeing anybody except my wife and kids and a couple of understanding friends whom I'll choose very carefully."

Westerner Round-Up Is Staged At Senior High

The Senior High school student body, bedecked in blue jeans, cowboy boots and ten-gallon hats, this afternoon was preparing for the grand finale of a day-long Western Round-Up, one of the most gala events of the school year.

With nearly every student dressed in western garb, prizes were awaiting those adjudged best in a special balloting early this afternoon.

Although the winners will not be announced until a special program at 7:30 o'clock tonight, representatives of the student council revealed that the following students have been nominated for "best-dressed" awards:

Rossi Stiles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stiles of 3002 Twenty-second; Anne Lingle, granddaughter of Mrs. Percy Spencer of 1647 Thirteenth; Margaret Barrier, daughter of Mrs. Clifton Barrier of Vaughn road; Joyce Moody, daughter of Mrs. M. S. Williams of 1906 Eighth; and J. T. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jones of Brownfield highway.

A day-long celebration will be topped off tonight with a special assembly program, feature of which will be a kangaroo court. Some hapless high school student—no one knows who yet—will be haled before the "court" to be tried before the student body for a "crime" committed in school.

Waggoner Carr, county attorney and a 1937 graduate of the school, will act as judge.

The assembly program will also feature the announcement of all-school favorites and home room favorites.

Russian Composer Apologizes For Music Disliked By Party

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, March 29 — A thin, sensitive, 43-year-old genius traveled all the way from Russia to the United States and apologized for his work.

Dmitri Shostakovich, who has written some of the finest music of our time, said he was sorry. He had made a mistake in his music.

His music didn't fit the Communist party line in Russia, where the line extends to telling musicians what to compose.

He came here with six other Russians for the "cultural and scientific conference for world peace" at Madison Square garden.

What he had to say was read for him, although no one in this country knows whether he wrote it himself or had it written for him.

Slapped Down By Party

It doesn't matter much, judging from his past experience. He had made the same apology before and he wouldn't say anything that would cause him more trouble in Russia.

There, some time ago, he was slapped down by the central committee of the Communist party which has slapped down with equal fervor other musicians, writers, scientists and economists, one after another.

When that happened to him, Shostakovich, who seems to want to continue writing music, said he was sorry for being a bad boy and wouldn't do it any more.

Since that central committee tells Russians what to think and do, if they want to stay out of trouble, it could be expected he'd come here and speak his piece over again.

Reds National-Minded

Why the crackdown on him and other scientists and artists?

Because the Russian Communists, who claim to have a great international spirit, have become the most national-minded group in the world, demanding that influences or ideas from outside Russia be kept out and Russian culture played up.

So here he said the criticism of the central committee, made up of Communist politicians, had helped him "bring his music forward."

But whether or not Shostakovich's statement was written for him, the language in it was the typical Communist language that can mean anything or nothing and has been used so long and so often that it lost its meaning.

The committee cracked down on him, he said, because of the revulsion of the Russian people toward anything that looked like "petty, subjective, individualistic introspection."

Guilty Of Formalism

He said he had been guilty of "formalistic" music whereas he should have been composing "realistic" music.

So he recanted the "bourgeois formalism" of some of his work. At the same time he condemned the "cosmopolitanism" of the West.

"Cosmopolitanism" seems to be a Communist word in current favor. It was used also by Alexander A. Fadeyev, secretary general of the Union of Soviet writers and head of the Russian delegation here.

The dictionary defines "cosmopolitanism" as "belinging to all the world; not restricted to any locality, field of activity or sphere of thought." In other words, international.

Ironically, Shostakovich was given a scroll signed by 42 prominent representatives of the music world here. It said:

"Music is an international language and your visit will serve to symbolize the bond which music can create among all peoples."

THAT LISTLESS, LETDOWN FEELING

*Often, it comes from a Borderline Anemia

When you get up mornings tired and "tuckered out" — when a weary, letdown feeling makes you wonder how you'll drag through the day — it may be because your red blood cells are too small and faded.

Yes, people who look pale and act listless may sometimes suspect a Borderline Anemia, due to a ferro-nutritional blood deficiency. Medical studies show that up to 68% of women—many men and children — have this tiring blood condition.

Weariness and pallor have many causes — always consult your doctor regularly. But if you have this Borderline Anemia, remember: Ironized Yeast Tablets can help you reclaim your vitality and healthy good looks. Senator Will Fight Alabama Conviction

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 29. (AP)—Sen. Glen Taylor (D-Idaho) was scheduled to arrive in Birmingham today for an appeal hearing on a disorderly conduct conviction.

Taylor announced in Washington yesterday he would come here for tomorrow's hearing. He said he would "fight the charges as far as it is necesary or as far as I can go."

The Idaho senator was arrested while trying to enter a negro meeting in Birmingham May I. The arresting officer, Patrolman W. W. Casey, testified Taylor attempted to use a door reserved for negroes.

A police court fined Taylor $50 and gave him a suspended sentence of 180 days last May 5.

Negroes and white persons are required to use separate entrances under Birmingham segregation laws.

Taylor planned to address the Southern Negro Youth congress here, but didn't make his talk.

Transfer Of Many U. S. Aerial Units Set By Air Force

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—The only group of long-range reconnaissance planes in the Far East will be brought back to the United States in the near future, the Air Force announced tonight.

No reason was given for the transfer of the Fifth Reconnaissance group. It was one of several shifts of units announced today.

Two squadrons of the group — the 38th and 338th — now based at Clark Field, the Philippines, will come to Topeka base, Kansas, to join the 55th group there. The Fifth group headquarters and the 23rd squadron will transfer from Okinawa to Mountain Home Base, Idaho.

Other changes announced include:

Transfer of the Second Bomb wing, a B-29 outfit, from Tucson, Ariz., to Savannah, Ga., next month. The 43rd Bomb wing will remain at Tucson.

Two fields used as emergency landing spots on the route from the United States to Panama will be closed. The field at San Jose, Guatamala, and Managua, Nicaragua, will be closed on April 19 and the personnel transferred elsewhere in the Caribbean Air command.

The 319th all weather fighter squadron, originally scheduled for transfer from France Field, Panama Canal Zone, to Moses Lake Base, Wash., will go instead to McChord Base, Wash.

The 468th Heavy Construction company consisting of about 75 men and three officers, will go from Selfridge Base, Mich., to Fort Peppperell, New Foundland. That transfer also will be made in the near future.

New Yorker, Who Promises To Outdraw, Outshoot Hombres, Seeks Sheriff's Job

HARLAN, Ky., March 29 (AP)—A New Yorker, who promises to outdraw, outshoot and outlive the toughest hombre in Harlan county, wants to be chief of police at Evarts.

Evarts is a coal mining community near here that has had five police chiefs since last August. One was slain, another was wounded, two resigned, and the fifth was recently convicted of manslaughter.

Now, dozens want the job.

Despite the threats and gunplay that have made the office an uneasy spot in this mountainous southeastern part of Kentucky, more than 200 persons have applied to the mayor of Evarts for the role of Mr. Big or Mrs. Big.

One was a 41-year-old bespectacled woman, Mrs. Pearl Katherine Burrus of Lexington. Mrs. Burrus pledged to bring law and order to Evarts without using a gun.

Bill Williams of New York City was the one who promised to outshoot all the rough and ready hombres aroundabouts. Williams addressed his letter to "Hon. Mayor, Harlan County, Ky."

The letter was delivered yesterday to City Clerk Carl Caton of Harlan, and Caton tossed it away, just as he had done with the other applications for the Evarts job that have found their way to his desk.

He said that with all the applications the mayor of Evarts had received from all parts of the country, he didn't suppose the mayor wanted to be bothered with any more.

The Evarts police job is no problem for Caton. He said he'd received about a dozen applications for the job, and had thrown them all away.

HST Seeking To Build Cabinet Which Can Meet "Great Age"

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—President Truman said last night he is trying to build up a cabinet that can meet the "very great age" America is now facing.

"And I think I am succeeding in doing it," he told about 250 top government leaders at a testimonial dinner given for the new Secretary of Defense, Louis Johnson.

Johnson was sworn in yesterday with probably the most elaborate ceremonies ever accorded a cabinet member. He succeeds James Forrestal, who resigned.

Forrestal received the distinguished service medal from the President in a surprise ceremony when he called at the White House after Johnson took office. The President said: "You deserve it, Jim."

Both Men Praised

Mr. Truman praised both Forrestal and his successor at the testimonial dinner at the Mayflower. Then, turning to the world picture:

"We are faced with a great many problems, both in this hemisphjere problems, both in this hemisphere We have been trying to meet those problems to the best of our ability, and I believe that when the history of the years after the war are written objectively and not politically, that we will have nothing to be ashamed of or sorry for."

As to his cabinet, he said:

"I think we are facing a very great age, and I have been trying to build up a presidential family—a cabinet—that can meet that age. And I think that I am succeeding in doing it."

Created After War

The cabinet post of Secretary of Defense was created after the war in an effort to unite the three armed forces. Forrestal was the first to fill it.

The President said Forrestal had done a "magnificent" job and that he is convinced Johnson "will have an outstanding career" in the new post.

He said Johnson "as far as it is possible for me to give it to him" will have complete cooperation of the administration in carrying out unification of the armed forces.

Johnson promised that he will carry out the program to the best of his ability. He said his goal is to make this country "so strong that that thing we call peace — which you seek, Mr. President— will be peace not only for the United States but for all the world."

At one time, cotton was grown on 85 per cent of Alabama's farms.

Student's Sermons May Benefit Thief

HUNTINGDON, Pa., March 29 (AP)—Joseph H. Brady, jr., hopes his sermons will do the thief who stole them some good.

Brady, Altoona, Pa., pre-ministerial student at Juniata college, had 120 sermons to try out at the Grier school for girls near Tyrone, Pa.

Yesterday, he reported all of them were stolen. And a dollar was taken from his roommate—Jack F. Padgett, Haddonfield, N. J.

One Little Domestic Story Ends Happily

LOS ANGELES, March 29. (AP) With a name like Valentine and a picture like "Love Is Big Business," how else could this little domestic story end?

Joseph A. Valentine, academy award-winning cameraman left the set of "Love Is Big Business" yesterday for a court room.

He opposed his wife's separate maintenance suit with a divorce action. After a conference with Superior Judge Joe Raycraft, Valentine hurried to a telephone, his wife on his arm.

He called their two-year-old son and said: "Hello, Honey. Daddy and mom are coming home right away."

Adamant was an imaginary substance, either a metal or a stone, which the ancients believed was of impenetrable hardness.

Association Makes Plans For April Dance In Lubbock

Lubbock members of the Westerners Square Dance association will be hosts for the next dance, which will be held Thursday night, April 7, at the Playmor hall in Lubbock. Music will be furnished by Hoyle Nix and his band from Big Spring, from 8 to 12 o'clock. Callers are being recruited from over the entire area, with local callers on hand to fill in as needed.

Admission for the dance is 75 cents per person, with the same charge being made for spectators as for dancers. With the increase in membership and interest in square dancing, emphasis is being put on participation. While the Playmor hall is large enough to accommodate several hundred dancers, space for spectators is limited.

Membership in the association is open to all residents of the northwest part of Texas who are interested in square and old-time dancing. With the membership list growing daily, there are at present more than 500 members.

Local members of the association who are working on arrangements are Kenneth Cox, chairman, and Mrs. Cox, Mr and Mrs. Lee Mason of Port, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Sollis, Mr. and Mrs. Wright Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. J. M Harper, H. R York and Miss Zora Joy Gifford.

The next dance to be held by the Westerners Square Dance association will be in Brownwood, with other towns being hosts at succeeding dances.

Mary Haworth's Mail . . .

Woman Suffers After Being Ditched By Married Beau Whose Wife Returns

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: To give you background, I had been going with Craig, who is married to Ellen, from whom he was separated at the time. She had "run out" on him and their daughter Linda, 10, with no thought of returning. She was engaged to marry another man as soon as each could get a divorce.

Then Craig and I started going together and fell deeply in love. I love Linda, too, as if she were my own, for in her early years she was left in my care while Ellen worked. Craig and I planned a future together, the three of us; but recently Ellen's lover ditched her, despite her brags that she had broken up his home.

She came back to Craig, who took her back, which leaves me heartbroken; but if it's for the happiness of Craig's household, I guess I can stand it. Craig's and Linda's happiness (even without me) seems more important than anything else.

WIFE IS UPSTAGING HEARTSICK STAND-IN

UNFORTUNATELY the problem doesn't end there. Now Ellen calls me or drops in casually to say very unkind things. She is trying to convince everyone, including me, that I broke up her home; and she won't permit Linda to speak to me. However, Ellen borrows my hats, gloves, etc., so you see I am doing my utmost to be friendly.

We live in a small town, only a block apart, and Ellen makes it uncomfortable for me if we meet in public; so I try to avoid these encounters, yet I treat them nicely when we meet. But as it happens, my work brings me in contact with Craig's firm, and he is forever speaking of the past—saying if I had done this or that, things would have been different for us.

I realize now that his love for me was phony; but since I have lost this battle of hearts, how can I get Craig and Ellen to leave me alone?

(Signed) V. Y.

GIRL IS CRINGING "BEGGAR OF LIFE"

DEAR V. Y.: It seems to me your troubles with Craig and Ellen point to the fact that you are a beggar-of-life, so to speak; that you have no emotional anchorage in a "we"-relationship, and no social pursuits that knit you into group activity with congenial associates.

Consequently, the Craig-Ellen axis has become the center of your interest. To put it another way, you hang literally and imaginatively on the fringes of their purple married life.

When Ellen "ran out" and left a vacancy, you were right there, waiting in line, wistfully hoping to get inside and enjoy her leavings — with the starved eagerness of a "nobody's child" who spends much time with nose hungrily pressed against a bake-shop window.

Craig took the easy way in accepting you as a substitute for Ellen. It saved him searching for companionship, maybe also was aimed at getting her goat; and in his lonely "beaten" mood no doubt he felt sentimental gratitude for your devotion, and called it love.

UNSTABLE WIFE IS PSYCHOPATH

THEN when Ellen bounced back he promptly dropped you in favor of her; and now when he sees you he feels guilty about your disappointed hungry expectancy, and remembers with embarrassment the "future" plans embroidered in Ellen's absence. That's why he tries to pretend, ridiculously, that somehow or other you're to "blame" for things working out as they are today.

Ellen is a psychopath, and any way you figure such people, they don't make sense. But it's part of their pattern to cruelly pester and fleece familiars, and their special prey is the easy mark who puts up with it yet visibly suffers — which describes your dealings with Ellen recently.

Craig and Ellen will leave you alone when you have no interest in them; when you don't care what they think or what they're doing; when you can hang up on them, shut the door in their face, ignore them in the street, and don't give a hoot if you never see them again. So stop bellycrawling and get tough with Ellen, who has no right to try to "shame" you.—M. H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of The Lubbock Evening Journal.

"Peace" Delegates Get Picket Threats

Second Cultural Rally In Newark Brings Wave Of Protests From Veterans Groups

(By The Associated Press)

NEWARD, N. J., March 29—Delegates to the controversial "world peace" conference—embarking on a tour of American cities—ran into new picket threats today.

The second of a series of "cultural rallies for peace" is scheduled here tonight, with the New Jersey Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions in the role of sponsor.

Plans are similar to those for the three-day round of oratory in which delegates from Soviet Russia and seven other foreign nations participated in New York last weekend. The New York conference was characterized in advance by the U. S. State department as a sounding board for Communist propaganda — a characterization which the sponsors of the meeting hotly denied.

Announcement of plans for the Newark session brought from veterans' organizations and other groups a wave of protests similar to those which greeted the New York conference. Pickets were promised by state leaders of the Catholic War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Disabled American War Veterans.

The New Jersey council sponsoring the Newark meeting is a branch of the national organization which sponsored the New York session.

An "action committee" set up at the New York conference announced that after the Newark meeting most of the foreign delegates would embark on a tour of "as many American cities as possible." A spokesman said the itinerary was not complete, but that cities certain to be visited included Baltimore, Philadelphia, Detroit, St. Louis and Los Angeles.

During the tour, he said, the action committee plans to obtain the signatures of "millions of Americans" to a "roll call for peace" to be presented to President Truman on Memorial day.

In closing sessions Sunday, delegates to the New York meeting approved resolutions that called for strengthening the United Nations and cooperating with peace movements throughout the world. The resolutions did not specify how these aims were to be accomplished, but gave power to the action committee to carry them opt.

Thief Runs Right Out Of His Shoes

AMARILLO, March 29 (AP)—A fleeing thief ran right out of his shoes here today.

Two men walked boldly into the waiting room of the Fort Worth and Denver City railroad station. They snatched a purse from Mrs. Ala Culberson of Wichita Falls and hot-footed it out of the station.

Pursuing police almost stumbled over their only clue—a worn, brown pair of number tens. They figured the purse snatchers must have been trying to throw them off the scent.

Man Fined Following Auto Accident Here

Richard M. Andrid, 23 - year - old Mexican of 1410 North Third street, was fined a total of $35 in corporation court after allegedly leaving the scene of a minor accident at Eighteenth and Texas Ave. last night.

Later apprehended at a used car lot, Andrid pleaded guilty to having no operator's license and failure to leave information at the wreck scene. Fines of $10 and $25 were assessed and paid.

Suspect Returned Here

John Lee Wilson, 21, of Idalou, pleaded guilty of a charge of theft and was fined $25 and court costs and sentenced to one day in county jail.

Three women, arrested last night at a small downtown hotel, pleaded guilty in corporation court of vagrancy by prostitution and were fined $25 each. Another woman, also charged with the same offense, and a man charged with vagrancy by association with her, entered innocent pleas and were released on bonds.

K. E. Middleton, 31, charged with car theft, was returned here Monday afternoon from El Centro, Calif., in custody of Chief Dep. Sheriff George Eubank.

The deputy flew to the coast and returned in a car which the complaint, filed in the court of C. E. Lynn, justice of peace, alleges was stolen March 10 from E. E. Mosley of Lubbock. The prisoner had waived extradition.

Bond of $1,000 was set by Lynn in binding Middleton over to investigation of an April 4 grand jury in the court of 99th District Judge G. V. Pardue.

HST Supports 'Prefab' Plan

CHICAGO, March 29 (INS) — President Truman threw his support today behind the prefabricated house industry as a method of alleviating the nation's housing shortage.

A message from Mr. Truman was read to the opening session of the sixth annual meeting of the Prefabricated Home Manufacturers' institute in Chicago.

The President's message said in part:

"Your convention of housing prefabricators this year serves to add to the hope of many families who have been unable to find good homes within their means. We need new ways, better ways, more efficient ways to produce the housing that the average American family should have.

HST Offers Encouragement

"You have my full encouragement in your efforts to apply modern methods and techniques to the solution of our serious housing problem."

President John W. Pease of the institute told the representatives of more than 30 manufacturing companies that the prefabricated homes industry is "ready to supply 50,000 homes this year." he added:

"We will be the source of supply for an increasing number of homes for builders in the years ahead."

Pease reported a survey of member companies of the institute disclosed most of the houses being manufactured have two and three bedrooms selling in the $5,000 to $8,000 range, including the lot.

Price Reductions Sought

William D. Flanders, special assistant to the administrator of the Housing and Home Finance agency, told the delegates "now is the time for manufacturers of prefabricated houses to take their rightful place as a prime source of sturdy, well built value-for-money received homes." He added: "A reduction in costs should be sought in all price classes with particular emphasis on the moderate and lower costs fields—because they are the ones most in demand. However, we should bear in mind that it is the cost that is to be made smaller—not necessarily the house."

Separation Of State, Church In England Is Warned Against

LONDON, March 29. (AP)—The archbishop of canterbury says separation of church and state in England would be a disaster at a time when Christians are being "persecuted by a militant creed of another sort."

He did not specifically mention Communists in his remarks.

The archbishop, Dr. Geoffrey F. Fisher, is spiritual head of the Church of England. The king is its temporal leader.

The archbishop said separation of church and state would "be a great disaster at home and an even greater disaster to Europe and beyond."

Writing in the "Canterbury Diocesan Notes," he said.

"The stability of this nation and the steadfastness with which it meets its trials has a world wide influence and importance; and, as I have reason to know full well, churches on the continent and elsewhere regard as a profound part of that stability and steadfastness the recognition of the Christian foundation of our national life which is given by the position held by the Church of England.

"Disturbance of that recognition at this time when the Christian faith is challenged, its principles denied and its adherents persecuted by a militant creed of another sort would be a terrible blow to the Christian cause, a heartbreaking discouragement to the hard-pressed Christians and a cause of rejoicing to their enemies."

Fight Over Increasing Public Power Facilities Before House

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The fight over expansion of public power facilities came before the House again today in the annual Interior department appropriation bill.

The $536,211,909 measure financing the department's operations contains approval of the administration's plans to provide more power to private users through federal reclamation projects.

The appropriations committee approved the program yesterday by a close vote. Republicans announced they would carry to the House floor their fight against what they say is a move by the government to force some private power companies out of business.

Republican Attacks

Rep. Jensen (R-Iowa), top Republican on the subcommittee that drafted the bill, called the measure "another step in a program which would eventually give the federal government control of all utilities."

Because of special considerations, Jensen told newsmen, federal agencies can sell power to consumers at a lower price than it costs tax-paying private companies to produce the power.

While the appropriations committee leveled a general 15 per cent cut against all construction projects in the bill on the ground that lower materials cost make less money necessary, it approved the overall power program of the Interior department.

The $536,211,909 cash recommended in the bill for the fiscal year starting July 1 is $80,593,112 less than the President requested but $126,821,934 more than Congress appropriated to the department this year.

Committee Approves

In addition to the new cash, the committee approved $41,112,500 in contract authority for which future appropriations may be needed. This is $13,187,500 less than the President requested.

Almost half the bill's total spending availability is earmarked for the reclamation bureau, which operates the power projects. Other large sums were allotted to the national park service, the bureau of mines and the bureau of Indian affairs.

Before tackling the interior money bill, the House scheduled several roll-call votes to dispose of the annual Army engineers' civil functions bill. This bill, carrying a total of $593,292,270, finances the rivers and harbors and flood control programs of the engineers. It already has been raised tentatively $6,530,270 above the amount recommended by the appropriations committee.

Reserve Group Gets Twin-Engine Planes

Two AT-11 twin-engine training planes are now available to all eligible members of the reserve unit of the 707 Bombing squadron VH, according to Capt. C. E. Jennings, assistant operations officer of the squadron.

The trainers which are based at the Lubbock Army air field may be flown anytime in the week except Monday and Tuesday Capt. Jennings said. Plans are being made with the proper authorities in Washington, D.C., to move this reserve unit into a higher grade which could result in reserve pay for enlisted men who are members.

Capt. Jennings said the planes were flown here from Hensley Field in Dallas. There were already two AT-6 single engine trainers stationed here.

The reserve unit of the 707th meets on the first and third Thursday of every month in building 62 at the base. All reservists are urged to attend.

Fines Assessed In Court Here

Seven judgments were taken this morning in county court, when assessments totaling $500 in fines, court costs and one day in jail were handed down.

However, payment was deferred in more than half the cases, judgments of County Judge Walter Davies showed.

Robert Lee Drones, was fined $25 and costs on a plea of guilty of aggravated assault, deferred 60 days. He informed the court his true name is Robert Lee Wilkson.

Nettie Bowles, about 40, was fined $125 and costs on a plea of guilty of liquor law violation. She paid $50 of the amount, the remainder being deferred.

Deferred Two Months

W. E. Grant of Shallowater, pleading guilty of establishing a lottery, was fined $100 and costs, but the assessment was deferred two months.

Romeo Ben Daniels, pleading guilty of liquor law violation, was fined $125 and costs. He paid $75 of the amount. The remainder was deferred one month.

Other judgments: John Lee Wilson, theft, $25 and costs and one day in jail; Robert Hastings, $25 and costs, aggravated assault; Frank A. Hames, 55, drunk driving, $75 and costs and revocation of operator's license six months.

Horton B. (Bo) Sessums, 26, of Lubbock route 1, pleaded innocent of liquor law violation and posted bond of $800, the sheriff's department said.

He was arrested by W. G. Poplin, deputy supervisor of the liquor control board office here, and board inspectors Charles A. Talley of Lubbock and Leon Bowman of Plainview.

Sessums had been arrested by board officials and Lubbock police 24 hours earlier and charged with vagrancy. He posted $100 bond in corporation court on that charge.

Conference Favors Free Puerto Rico

HAVANA, Cuba, March 29 (AP)—The Latin-American conference on colonies voted late yesterday to include Puerto Rico in the dependencies for which freedom should be sought.

The conference, attended by 13 nations, adjourned indefinitely after acting on the case of Puerto Rico, U. S. territory.

The meeting here was established by the Bogota conference of American states to seek "peaceful means" of eliminating colonalism in the Americas. The United Kingdom, France and the Netherlands hold colonies in this hemisphere.

Puerto Rico was not mentioned in the Bogota resolution. "Non-American countries" were. Some delegations, Mexico's particularly, doubted the Bogota plan included Puerto Rico, but went along with the others for solidarity.

The motion itself, as adopted in committee and plenary sessions, expressed the same doubts, asked the organization of American states to interpret the Bogota resolution. Should the answer be negative, presumably it would kill the conference's decision, since the conference is a creature of the OAS.

DODGERS BREAK CAMP

VERO BEACH, Fla., March 29. (U.P.)—The varsity squad of the Brooklyn Dodgers planned to break camp today and fly to Beaumont, Texas, where it will open its barnstorming tour of the Southwest tomorrow. The second half of the Dodgers' squad will leave here next week and head up the Itlantic seaboard for a juncture with the regulars.

Love Perplexing To Boston's Officials

BOSTON, March 29 (U.P.)—Raphael Palomino, dancing instructor from Barranquilla, Colombia, asked for a street entertainer's license tody so he can court his girl the South American way.

Palomino, 22, walked into police headquarters last night and put his problem up to Policeman John Sullivan at the information desk.

Palomino said he was in love and wanted to woo her with a south-of-the-border technique.

That, he explained, calls for the swain to wait until his beloved is asleep and then serenade her from the street with three songs. When she wakes she decides whether she loves the singer, he said.

"And could I have see permit for see serenade, senor?" he asked.

Perplexed, Sullivan said he could give him a license for a dog, a gun or a taxicab but not for romance. He suggested that Palomino call at city hall today.

Texas Judge Plans Appeal

PASADENA, Tex., March 29 (U.P.) Police Court Judge H. T. Miller was on the outside looking in today, but Harris county sheriff's deputies claimed he held the reverse position Saturday night.

Judge Miller was picked up by Sheriff Buster Kern's men in a raid on a drive-in here, and was subsequently dismissed by Mayor Sam Hoover.

On the bench or off, the former judge said he intended to appeal his case to the county court-at-law. His fine of $13.50 was paid by the drive-in operator.

To Appeal Case

"I didn't know he paid my fine at the time when we were carried to jail," Miller said. "I'm going to have the fine set aside and appeal the case."

Miller claimed he was watching two men play dominoes when the sheriff's men came in.

"I walked in the room about ten minutes before they arrived. I was not gambling and I was not watching the poker game," said Miller.

Mayor Hoover made clear-cut statements concerning the judge's dismissal.

"He was a part-time, substitute, corporation court judge until 8 a. m. Monday when I learned of the gambling raid. At that time he ceased to have any connection with the city of Pasadena," the mayor stated.

Capt. Charley Nix, who led the raid and filed a gaming charge against Miller and others, said the judge was "kibitzing" 'a poker game.

NEIGHBOR ACCUSED OF KILLING TO GET WIFE

Woman Plots Flaming Death For Husband; Attempt To Cover Up As Suicide Failure

(By The Associated Press)

PORTLAND, Me., March 29—To be rid of her husband Margery Clukey, 25, plotted his flaming death, a prosecutor charged today.

George Clukey, 27-year-old Scarborough dump picker, perished in a blaze that destroyed his shack March 21.

County Attorney Daniel C. McDonald said the widow admitted orally last night that she and Robert B. Curlew, 30, planned Clukey's death.

"His prize was to be her, and hers was to have been getting rid of her husband," the prosecutor said.

Both have been charged with murder. Curlew has pleaded innocent. McDonald said Mrs. Clukey probably will be arraigned today.

McDonald said Mrs. Clukey told him:

Clukey beat her and would not support their two little daughters. Curlew, a good neighbor who was kind to the children, wanted to marry her.

She led him on, although she had no intention of marrying him.

Curlew bashed the drunken Clukey's head with a kerosene jug.

The injured man lay groaning on the floor. While Curlew spattered the kerosene around the shack, Mrs. Clukey threw herself on her prostrate husband, crying:

"I won't marry Bobby. I won't marry Bobby."

Anxious to make the death appear a drunken suicide, Mrs. Clukey and Curlew went to police. Mrs. Clukey obtained a warrant charging her husband with arson.

Auto Owners Rushing To Buy Licenses As Deadline Approaches

A last-minute rush was shaping at the office of the county tax assessor-collector and five sub-stations, as motorists sought to license motor vehicles by the Friday midnight deadline.

As of April 1, 1948, total registrations stood at 23,713. But continuous purchase of 1948 tags since has run the total to more than 35,000, J. B. Johnston, county tax assessor-collector, said. Almost 13,000 had been issued in the new registration period as of March 19, this year, it was said.

Stations Listed

Only passenger cars are registered at the sub-stations, but those who find the lines too long and tedious at the courthouse may be accommodated with dispatch at one of the following places set up as a convenience to the motorist in the waning days of the registration drive:

Thomas - Davis Cadillac company, Main at Ave. Q; J. D. Hufstedler Truck company, 1941 Texas Ave.; Massey Motor company, 102 Broadway; Carl Nall hardware, 301 College Ave.; and Daniel Furniture company, 1617 College.

New tags must be mounted on operated vehicles Saturday morning.

No Cut In European Aid, Connally Insists

WASHINGTON, March 29. (AP) The $5,580,000,000 European recovery bill "will be kept intact" despite vigorous GOP efforts to cut its size, Senator Connally (D-Texas) insisted today.

Under Republican attack from several quarters, the measure for a second year of the Marshall plan was set aside temporarily to make way for action on rent controls.

But when it comes to a vote, the chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee declared, it will be in its present form.

The House will take up its $5,380,000,000 foreign aid bill tomorrow.

Five Foreign Students Speak At Lions Club Session Today

Five foreign students, all members of the student body at Texas Tech, were featured on the Lions Club program at noon today. Each spoke briefly on his or her ambitions and of some of the conditions existing in their respective homelands.

Miss Matina Zanga, a student from Greece, enrolled this semester, told of the tragedy of the civil war in her country and its effects on the young people. There, she said, there is no laughter and gaiety among the students. They are serious because of the gloom and misery that surrounds them all of the time.

Hopes To Aid Farmers

James Chien-Sheng Young, a graduate student from China who is studying agriculture, hopes to return to his country better equipped to aid the Chinese farmers who make up 80 per cent of the population.

Thomas R. Cleveland, Belgian Congo, hopes to return to Africa for the same purpose, he told the Lions. "The Africans are truly remarkable people who need only assistance and encouragement to forge ahead," Cleveland said.

Jimmy L. D'Acosta, Mexico and James Lakas, Panama were also thinking of their homelands when they enrolled at Texas Tech. D'Acosta, an engineering student, hopes to further the industrial development of Mexico. Lakas, enrolled in the graduate school of architecture, sees the need for modernizing the architecture of his country and putting it on a scientific basis. In answer to a question both students said they had run into little or no discrimination that is alleged to exist in some parts of Texas.

Outstanding In Studies

The students were introduced by Prof. James Allen, dean of men at the college who added a footnote that all of the 29 foreign students at Texas Tech were outstanding in their studies and set high standards of conduct and courtesy for other students to emulate.

The Lions were also entertained by a musical program furnished by the cast of the Varsity Show. Members of the cast were introduced by Bill Parsley.

President Wayne Henly presided over the meeting and the guests were introduced by Cliff Freeman.

Guests of members present included Woodrow W. Adcock, president of the Hale Center Lions club; W. D. Burger of Amarillo; H. H. Moyer of Wyoming, and Bill Robertson of Lubbock.

Actress Undecided About Divorce Suit

HOLLYWOOD, March 29 (AP)—Paulette Goddard has not decided whether to file suit for divorce from Actor Burgess Meredith in California or Mexico.

But the pert, brunette actress confirmed yesterday Burgess' announcement in New York last week that they have parted.

Miss Goddard said she has requested from him a consent decree. As soon as she finishes a movie this week, she added, she plans to fly to New York to talk things over with Burgess.

This will be the actress' third divorce. She divorced Edgar James, lumberman, in the early '30s and Charlie Chaplin in 1942. She married Meredith in 1944.

Tech, Lubbock Bid For Relays Titles

Red Raider Trackmen Compete At Austin Meet This Weekend

Austin's Texas Relays are beckoning to Texas Tech and, from present indications, the Red Raiders will have a much stronger squad on hand than that which showed at Fort Worth a couple of weeks ago.

The Raiders finished fifth in that track and field carnival and Coach Maxey McKnight has no intention of letting two schools beat him out of third. That's what happened, with Arkansas and SMU nudging themselves ahead of the Raiders.

Second Raider Appearance

This will be the second appearance of the Raiders this year and they are choosing one of the top national meets in which to show their ability. The Texas Relays, along with the Penn, Drake and Kansas Relays, are tops in the nation and all signs point toward the best Lone Star State relays in history.

Yesterday's warm weather and the lovely afternoon encouraged Coach McKnight, who cast his unhappiness aside and sent runners and field men through a good session. It was the first they had had in a long time when they were able to accomplish a lot.

Pinnell Will Run

Coach McKnight believes that he has picked up the few more points necessary to finish high up in the Texas Relays. Not in the Fort Worth meet was Charley Pinnell, who last year won the high hurdles at Fort Worth. Pinnell, who played basketball, was not in shape this year, but is now. He will run the high hurdles and jump in the high jump.

Ed Clepper will head the Tech squad at Austin. The Mobeetie senior has been a standout the past two years in the hurdles and high jump and wants to have his best year in 1949. He finished third in the high hurdles at Fort Worth, tied for second in the high jump and was on the sprint relay team that finished third.

Certain Events Favored

Charley Reynolds, sprint king, has been slow in getting into shape and didn't place at Fort Worth. He's just about ready now for some good sprints and will go after both the 100 and 220 yard dashes, as well as running on the mile relay team.

McKnight says that he intends to concentrate much of Tech's strength on winning the sprint and medley relay events. Both quartets are strong and, with a break in the weather, should develop enough to make Tech's threat strong.

Lubbock Nine Edges Morton

A single in the bottom of the ninth inning broke a 7-7 deadlock between Lubbock High and Morton yesterday at Chapman field diamond and gave the Westerner baseball team an 8-7 victory. Dean White singled with the bases loaded to score Norman Bantz from third base.

Both teams committed errors with surprising frequency, but the Westerners made 10 miscues to six for the visitors. And the hitting was very poor although seven hits were made.

Regulars Are Replaced

Most of the regulars were replaced in the sixth inning with substitutes, and up to that time the first team had made four runs from two hits and three Morton errors. One hit was a home run by Jessie Fullerton in the first inning.

Morton broke loose in the sixth inning for seven runs on four errors, three walks, and two hits. Pitcher Bennie Day had not given up any hits to the visiting club in the preceding two innings, but after striking out the first man to face him in the sixth the support from the field failed and the runs started pouring in.

Probably the most costly error for the Westerners was the muffing of a fly ball by White which allowed two runs to score.

Hamilton Is Starter

Jimmy Hamilton started for the locals and allowed one hit in his three inning stint while striking out two men. He also picked two men off first base. He was followed by Day who suffered by poor fielding, striking out five batters.

Coming on in the seventh inning, Jim Wilson limited the Morton team to one hit, struck out eight batters, and allowed no runs, although three errors were made while he was pitching.

Westerner runs were scored by Fullerton in the first; Jimmy Sexton, Day, and Jimmy Richards in the fifth; Hamilton, running for Burgess, in the sixth; Bantz and Morris Turner in the seventh; and Bantz in the ninth.

Bowling Tourney Is Completed In City

The Women's City Association bowling tournament was held the past week-end with 13 teams and 45 individuals entered in doubles and singles.

At Playmor Lanes Saturday, Russell Hardin Tailors won the team championship by toppling 2,660 pins. In second place was Hub Laundry with 2,580, and Hemphill-Wells scored 2,572 pins for the third position. A mathematical error had placed Hemphill-Wells in second place earlier.

Singles competition was very close, and only four pins separated the first and third place bowlers. Polly Buckner won the first position with a 592 series. In her first game she polled 239.

Just two pins back was Faola Patton with a series of 590 for second place. Taking third place with 588 was Aleen Hilton. Her high game of 246 was good for individual game honors.

The doubles event was won by Helen Henkel and Gail Tyson with 1073. In second place with 1061 was Margaret Cowan and Jo Nita Jenkins, and Lenora Roberts and Nora Lee McCasland placed third, rolling 1059.

Faola Patton took the all-events trophy with a 1665 score.

All prizes and trophies to the first place winners will be awarded at the annual dinner-dance April 20 at Hotel Lubbock. The last meeting of the Ladies City association will be to elect officers and will be held April 1 at Southwestern Public Service Company.

Idalou Netters Win County Tournament

Tennis teams from Idalou, Shallowater and Frenship met on the tennis courts at Texas Tech yesterday in a Lubbock County tournament for District 7-B schools, with Idalou winning.

The Wildcats edged past Shallowater on the point basis 43 to 38, while Frenship could score only eight points.

It was a close race between Shallowater and Idalou for the championship but the Wildcats won when Frenship upset the Mustangs in the girls junior doubles and Idalou won the girls senior doubles to turn the tide.

Don Seale of Idalou won the senior boys singles, Jerry Brock of Shallowater won the junior boys singles, Clydene Whitaker of Shallowater won the senior girls singles and the junior girls singles went to Shirley Giles, also of Shallowater.

Shallowater won the senior boys doubles and junior boys doubles, while Idalou won the senior girls doubles and the junior girls doubles went to Frenship.

Major Clubs Clash At Rosenthal Field

Overflow Crowd Expected To See Giants Battle Indians

The New York Giants and the Cleveland Indians will be in town a week from this afternoon, playing an exhibition game at Rosenthal field that starts at 3 p. m.

And there are indications that just as many fans as last year will be in the stands and ringing the outfield. Eight thousand baseball mad fans jammed their way in last year to see the Giants take a 10-2 victory over the team that went on to win the American League pennant and the World series.

Sheldon Jones, rookie Giant hurler, turned in the pitching performance that licked the Indians and the Cleveland club has a score to settle here. The Giants didn't do anything after the spring season, but Cleveland won just about everything in sight.

Durocher To Be Here

Of course the center of most eyes will be Lippy Leo Durocher, fiery manager of the Giants and erstwhile Brooklyn Dodger pilot. Durocher is attempting to instill his same rambunctious playing habits into the Giants and there's certain to be plenty of fireworks here.

Lou Boudreau, the outstanding player in the majors last year, still is managing the Indians. He's done a fine job since holding the reins of the Indians and playing shortstop, a position he seems to own. And he teams with one of the greatest second baseman in the business, Joe Gordon, to give the Cleveland nine an outstanding Keystone combination.

There's a pair of Texans returning to Lubbock this year who also will be more than somewhat in the limelight, Clint Hartung of Hondo on the Giants and Thurman Tucker of Midland on the Indians.

Tickets On Sale

Hartung was purchased from Minneapolis in 1943, after busting down fences in the American Association. He didn't make it as an outfielder with the Giants, but was converted to the pitching staff and has done well enough to stay with the club. Last year he won and lost eight for a .500 record.

Tucker is one of the lesser heroes of the Indians, a player whose playing has been overlooked, to a large degree. Tucker's record is not outstanding, but his presence in the lineup seemed to spark the Indians and while he played, they won 38 games of 53 for an amazing .719 mark.

The bespectacled Tucker, nicknamed "Joe E" by his teammates because of his resemblence to the comedian, led the Texas League in stolen bases while playing with the Fort Worth Cats. He stood ont on a weak Chicago White Sox club and has been more than dependable for the Indians. A catch of his in the World Series was one of the top fielding gems of the series.

Tickets still are on sale at the Hub Clothiers at $1.20 each, with no reserved seats. About half of the tickets already have been sold and the remaining 4,000 probably will go before Tuesday.

Paul Hinrichs May Be Yankee "Find"

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 29. (U.P.)—The New York Yankees, who have had too little to crow about this spring, hoped they had a new "find" today in Pitcher Paul Hinrichs.

The 24-year-old right-hander, picked up for $40,000 last winter when he was declared a free agent from the Detroit Tigers' farm system, stopped the Philadelphia Phillies during a three-inning stint yesterday to run his shutout streak through 13 innings.

Hinrichs didn't get into the game until the fourth inning, and the Phillies already had blasted Bob Porterfield for seven runs which assured them a 7 to 3 victory. It was the Yankees eighth setback in 16 games.

Amarillo Team To Play Here

Members of the Ross Rogers Municipal Golf course in Amarillo will pay a return visit to the Meadowbrook Publinx Golf club here April 10, to pay back a match held Sunday between the two teams in Amarillo.

Lubbock golfers visited the Panhandle city Sunday and came back with an 18½ to 15½ victory in their first outing of the season. Paul Jones, Meadowbrook pro, said that Amarillo has promised to bring upwards of 60 men here for the matches.

Go To Lamesa

A group of Meadowbrook players will leave Lubbock Thursday morning for Lamesa, where they will take part in the West Texas Pro-Amateur Golf association's first match of the season.

Results Sunday included Harry Delashmitt, Amarillo, over A. B. Holton, 1-0; H. L. Bradley, Amarillo, over Bob Ewerz, 1/2-0; Fred Hinson, Lubbock, over Cecil Smith, 1-0; Bob Dowell, Amarillo, over Carl Nail 1½-0; J. R. Robinson, Amarillo, over Jack Trammell, 1/2-0; Elmer Tucker, Amarillo, over Pete Felton, 1-0; H. B. Shuffler, Amarillo, over J. D. Horne, 1-0; Keith Fowler, Amarillo, over Clint Bussey, 1-0; Jack Jackson, Lubbock, over L. E. Merry, 1-0.

Also, M. P. Tobin, Amarillo, over Ken Holton, 1-0; Paul Jones, Lubbock, over Paul Smith, ½-0; Houston Trammell, Lubbock, over Colby Davies, 1-0; Davis Medley, Amarillo, over Bill Prince, 1½-0; Sid Oglesby, Lubbock, over Jack Robinson, ½-0; Dave Lawson, Lubbock, over Jack Robinson, 1½-0; Dick Stalcup, Lubbock, over Joe Witt, 1-0; Chet Mitchell, Lubbock, over W. C. Hunt, 1½-0.

Also, Jim Witt, Amarillo, over W. L. Carson, 1-0; Lon Felton, Lubbock, over L. C. Whatley, 1-0; Buster Holton, Lubbock, over Don Gatlin, 1½-0; C. W. Nance, Lubbock, over W. C. Rogers, 1½-0; Jeff Jeffreys, Lubbock, over L. W. Cristy, 1½-0; A. M. Fleming, Amarillo, over Preston Baumgardner, 1-0; W. D. Jones, Amarillo, over A. E. Davis, 1½-0; B. W. Hayden, Amarillo, over Sloan Portenberry, 1-0; Jack Craig, Amarillo, over M. D. Thomas, ½-0.

Also, Sled Allen, Lubbock, over Charles Whatley, 1½-0; Manse Allen, Lubbock, over Cliff Rogers, 1½-0; O. M. Ramsey, Amarillo, over Frank Wilson, 1½-0; and Bill Martin, Lubbock over R. Brown, 1½-0.

Four matches were draws, between Bob Ewers, Lubbock, and H. L. Bradley, Sam Cobb, Lubbock, and Jack Phillips, Allen Orr, Lubbock, and Bill Batson, and J. F. Nicholson, Lubbock, and Thurman Gholston.

Lubbock Kegler Cops Third In Tournament

Ben Brown, one of three local keglers participating in the annual Cowtown Roundup singles bowling tournament last week-end finished in third place.

Top score in the four-game match was bowled by Don McClure of Dallas. He had a total of 919 pins, an average of almost 230 per game. The second place score was 836, and Brown won the third prize of $125 with 813.

Other bowlers going to Fort Worth were Jay O'Keefe and Bill Nelms.

A'S SQUAD CUT

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., March 29. (U.P.)—A reduction was made in the Philadelphia Athletics' squad today with the optioning of Outfielder Ray Coleman and Infielder Billy Demars to the Buffalo Bisons.

Westerners Go To Big Spring

Lubbock High school will be well represented at the fifth annual Big Spring Relays Saturday, April 2, and 13 events will be entered.

Yesterday at Chapman field track the team went through a light workout in preparation for heavier work today and later this week, weather permitting.

Time Trials Slated

Coaches Fred Brown and Pat Ferris will probably take a squad of 21 boys to the Big Spring meet Saturday, April 2, and 13 events will be entered.

Wayne Stroud will make the trip, but it is not known if he will be in condition to run. Otherwise the team should be in good shape as far as injuries are concerned.

In an effort to get more speed in the 440-yard dash, Eddie Goetze will be entered in that event, rather than the half-mile. He has failed to gain speed in the longer run but has the endurance necessary for the shorter distance.

Time trials will be run in nearly every event today, and a big day is ahead of the boys. With the aid of sunny weather the boys should be in condition to take more first places than they did last week at Odessa when the team finished third behind Amarillo and Odessa. Both teams may be at the relays.

Following the same procedure set last week, the squad will leave Lubbock early Saturday morning by chartered bus and reach Big Spring in time for the preliminary events which begin at 9:30. About 15 teams are expected at the meet, and competition should be rugged.

Entries Are Given

Tentative entries in the relays are:

880-yard relay: Malcolm Young, Danny Boone, Douglas Weinke, and Jerry Denny.

100-yard dash: Charlie Williams, Donald Decker, and Wayne Stroud.

440-yard dash: Eddie Goetze, Kent North, and Cecill Caddell.

220-yard dash: Williams, Boone, and Young.

440-yard relay: Decker, Young, Williams, and Stroud.

220-yard low hurdles: Decker, Donny Ralls, Denny, and Deanny McGuire.

Mile run: Don Hancock.

Mile relay: Goetze, North, Caddell, and Henry McDougal.

Pole vault: Alfred Adair, W. J. Blake and Caddell.

Broad jump: Williams, Boone, and McDougal.

Shot-put: Morris Moyers, Dale Young, and Teddy Vaught.

High jump: Adair, Richard Allen, and Young.

Discus: Douglas Ross, Adair, and Decker.

Lamesa Gun Group Holds First Shoot

LAMESA, March 29. (Special)—The first shoot of the season for the Lamesa Gun club was held here Sunday with almost 100 members present.

Traps on the new range, only recently completed, are electrically operated and the range is called "one of the best in the nation" by an arms company representative, N. A. Garrett. Garrett has been advising the club and was present for the first trial shoot Sunday.

Many of the club members tried their hand at skeet shooting for the first time. Top scores for 25 targets included Bob Huff and Dr. U. H. Zee, club president, 19; Tommy McAllister, 18; Duward Williams, 16; Lex Carrell and Connally Baldwin, 15.

Next regular shoot will be held April 3. Non-members will be allowed to shoot later on and will be charged a set fee. Applications for membership must be passed on by a membership committee.

Tentative plans are underway for the joint construction of an outdoor rifle range near the skeet layout by the gun club and the local National Guard.

Don Webster of Tulsa of the U. S. Hockey league is starring as a defense man, after playing forward for nine teams since he turned pro in 1942.

YES, IT'S REAL—Golfer Ben Hogan playfully tugs the beard of George (Gabby) Hayes as John Payne and Mary Beth Hughes look on at on El Paso, Tex., hospital. INTRA-SQUAD CLASH SCHEDULED

Grid Ticket Sale Starts Wednesday

Dr. Gallup, so far as is known, doesn't have any more reliable indication of trends than the telephone in a newspaper office.

And if Alexander Graham Bell's invention is a good guide to interest, Jones Stadium should be pretty well filled April 9 for the intra-squad football game at Texas Tech.

Most of the calls have been about tickets and where they are available. They can be purchased, beginning Wednesday afternoon at 1, in the Tech athletic office in Jones Stadium.

Later, a ticket booth will be set up in the lobby of the Hilton hotel, with tickets on sale there by members of the Women's Ex-Students association. These tickets will go on sale next Tuesday.

Some business firms already have said that they intend to buy a block of from 20 to 50 tickets to give to customers and employees of the firm. Football players will visit local firms in an effort to sell tickets. They won't be high-pressuring anyone and merchants are urged not to feel that they must buy one or more. However, there's no law against buying as many as each firm thinks it can bear.

Plans Shaping Up

Plans for an extensive program are shaping up rapidly and it appears that the paying customer will be treated to both a good football game and a fun night unequaled in years. D. M. McElroy's committee is lining up local talent that is experienced and there has been nothing but enthusiasm so far.

Funds raised from the fun night and game will be used toward construction of a new separate athletic dormitory at Texas Tech. The college needs such a building badly and proceeds from this game will go a long way toward accomplishing the task.

Eight Teams Compete In Oil Belt League

Eight teams are now entered in the Oil Belt Baseball league, Joe Holmes, president, announced over the week-end, after Tahoka gave notice that a baseball team would be organized there.

At a meeting in Lubbock March 13, representatives of the teams already in the league voted to accept one other team and to have a 35 game schedule, beginning March 24. Since that time Tahoka had been contacted, but it was not until last weekend that the organization of the team was completed. Frank Larkin of Tahoka will act as business manager.

Other teams are Levelland, Post, Sundown, Denver City, Slaton, Brownfield, and Seagraves.

Games will be played on Sunday afternoon and Thursday night. Night games will be played at towns with lighted fields. Sundown and Post now have lighted diamonds, and Slaton and Levelland plan to install lights soon.

Boxing Ducats On Sale Today

O. C. Foster, Lubbock boxing promoter, said last night that tickets for the five-card bout in Sled Allen's arena April 8 would go on sale today at his gymnasium at 2417 Main street.

Scale of prices on the tickets are $3.60 for ringside, $2.40 for reserved seats and $1.80 for general admission. For this cash layout, the fight patron will see four local boxers, three of whom have been fighting pro for some time, against stiff competition from Mexico.

Henderson Is Featured

Featured on the card will be a 10-round main event between Bill Henderson of Lubbock and Levelland against Paul Guerrera of Juarez, Mexico. Bill Pollard and Gene James will see action in four rounders and Charley Neff of Petersburg and Lubbock will go in a six rounder.

The fifth bout on the card also is a six rounder and brings Dickie Weinhold of Amarillo and Jesse Robles of Juarez into the ring.

Neff Is Matched

The crowd will see two lightweight bouts, a welterweight go, a middleweight fight and a light heavyweight match. For James, it will be the first professional fight of his career. He meets Jack Wortham of Amarillo, a main eventer and a slugger.

Neff is matched with Conrado Castanou of Juarez, a hard-punching Latin American, while Pollard faces the tough Frankie Guzman.

Between The Lines. . .

By Joe Kelly

Hubber players, or what there are of them in Greenville, got the exhibition season off to a fast start Sunday. They teamed up with players from Corpus Christi and Greenville to play two seven-inning games for a large crowd of spectators. Al Echols, our correspondent in Greenville, reports that sparkling fielding gems were turned in by both sides, considering the time of the year. Among the outstanding players were Conk Mereweather, a somewhat familiar face to Hubber fans, and Jackie Wilcox.

The squade were so mixed up that it would be impossible to call them as a unit, but the alleged Greenville team won both games, 5-2 and 12-3. Herby Pitts started for Greenville and went four innings, giving up only two hits and one run. He was the only Hubber hurler to work on the mound. Chick Fowler played both games in centerfield for Lubbock-Corpus and had two hits in five trips, both doubles. He scored one run, had four putouts and one assist. Lloyd Pearson, Hubber outfielder formerly with Greenville, also showed in both games, playing left and rightfields.

Pearson only had one hit in eight trips, scored one run, and had three putouts. Wilcox, Jackie Sullivan, Ben Pardue, Jim Prince, Mike Dooley and Frank McAlexander all appeared in only one game. The starting lineup for the first game had Dooley behind the plate, Prince on first, McAlexander on third, Wilcox on short, Pearson in leftfield and Fowler in center. Pardue, Sullivan, Pearson and Fowler were the only Hubbers in the second tilt. Pearson and Sullivan also slammed doubles, while Prince had a single.

Royce Mills played second base for Greenville in the second game and had a single that drove in two runs out of two plate appearances. He handled five chances without error. There were eight errors in the two games, with Pitts and McAlexander the only Hubbers to err. Prince took part in two double plays, one started by Wilcox and the other started by McAlexander. Pitts gave up two walks and fanned one batter. And to round out the offensive, Sullivan drove in two runs and Fowler one, while Chick also thieved a base.

Ho hum, same lineup, same players. Maybe Wednesday, when George Schepps is due to arrive back here, he'll have some good news for us about replacements who can hit and field, both, along with six pitchers who can win 15 games apiece. At least, six pitchers who can average 15 victories each. It sure would help.

Reserved seat sales for the Hubbers are coming along in fine shape, so well, in fact, that persons desiring them had best hustle to the baseball offices. The club is in the Shaw Building, in case you've forgotten. Climb the stairs and go all the way to the rear of the building. Mrs. Sam Rosenthal is there most of the time. She reports that some persons are not claiming the seats they held last year, but that there has been, in each case, a new reserved seat patron for each one turned back. Remember, only a week from today the Giants and Indians will be here and only 15 days after that, the Hubbers open the season.

When you get a bunch of men enthused, there isn't much they won't do. They'll work night and day for something in which they believe. They'll roll up their sleeves and really go to work. That's what is happening in regard to the intra-squad football game at Tech. Everyone serving on the committee is doing so voluntarily. They didn't have to be asked; they came right in with no urging. As a result, they're planning one of the best fun nights ever to be seen in Lubbock. Actually, the game is going to be so good that they don't really need to have all the stunts that are being planned, but they don't want a single soul to go away from Jones Stadium feeling that he hasn't gotten his money's worth.

Right now they're working on a scheme that should be good gate and of great interest to Lubbock football fans. We can't disclose what it is, for it might not go through, but we think that it is a good piece of sales. You'll want to see the Tech players and you'll want to see the different stunts. And if this present scheme works out, you'll want to be there for it. No one knows how badly Tech athletes need a dormitory, except the coaches, players and Tech friends who have been in it. This game and fun night is first rate entertainment. It warrants your support and we can guarantee it without reservation.

Pirates Pound Out 15-11 Win Over Sox

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., March 29 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox and the Pittsburgh Pirates play another in their series of spring exhibition games today, but it is unlikely that they can duplicate the shenanigans that went on at Pasadena yesterday.

The game, won by the Pirates, 15 to 11, was highlighted by a White Sox triple play and grand slam home runs by the Pirates' Ralph Kiner and the White Sox Steve Souchock.

High-Low Meet Field Slashed

Play in the Lubbock Country club High-Low golf tournament will continue this week with seven team matches scheduled. The field was narrowed with the elimination of 14 teams last week.

Bad weather interrupted play several days last week, but the elimination continued. In matches this week, the schedule of play has Bill Tatum and Hiram Parks Vs. Jack Markham and Robert Moxley; C. E. Fish and Jack Stone Vs. Roy Cooper and Wilkie Talbert; Dr. R. T. Canon and Jake Warnick Vs. Hugh Anderson and Kyle Rattiseau; F. L. McRee and J. V. Powers Vs. Harris Underwood and Jake Hassell; Bill Bartley and Bob Lavender Vs. Weymond Newton and F. L. Lindsey; Raymond Marshall and K. N. Clapp Vs. C. C. Caldwell and Dr. C. B. Batson; and Olen Stewart and Tom Pendergraff Vs. J. A. Raley and Dick Green.

Three defaults marked the matches last week. H. M. Chick and R. J. Cheatham defaulted to Markham and Moxley; John A. Bell and E. R. Howell lost their match by default; and T. L. Sampson and H. D. Delaney failed to appear for their match.

Cooper and Talbert advanced by winning a tough match from G. E. Taylor and B. E. Adair, 3-2. And Melvin Best and Dr. J. R. Harris lost to Tatum and Parks, 2-1. Another 2-1 match was won by Biggers and Campbell over Ted Tipps and Dr. Dave Haymes.

The other matches were won, 1 up, Fish and Stone defeated O. A. Terry and Trey Peeples; Charles Townes and N. D. Allen were defeated by Canon and Warnick; Anderson and Rattiseau downed H. J. Patterson and Orville Stewart; McRee and Powers were victors over John Tryon and W. S. Monerief; Cecil Horne and Dr. J. M. Reynold won over S. R. Forsythe and O. A. Brock.

Bartley and Lavender downed Dr. W. A. Schaal and Chas. A. Guy, jr.; J. K. Bradshaw and L. O. Neill fell to Newton and Lindsey; and Stewart and Pendergraff defeated Lindsey Telford and Guy Brown.

Boys Club Trounces Slaton Nine, 8 To 1

Three pitchers yielded only one hit in a seven inning baseball game yesterday as Boys Club defeated Slaton High school, 8-1.

The only batter to hit safely for the Slaton team was the pitcher, Carl Willis, who singled in the last inning. Joe Hall and Jackie Martyn pitched hitless innings.

Leading the eight-hit attack of Boys Club was Royce Jones with two singles in two trips to the plate and Bennie Scott with a double and a single in three times at bat.

M. D. Stevens and Jackie Cook divided the time behind the plate for the locals.

Thursday afternoon at Boys Club diamond, the clubbers will play Tech independents.

Six Pioneers Sign Contracts For '49

By BERN GANTER
News-Journal Sports Editor

CLOVIS, March 29—Jess Jacinto, who clouted the pill at a .315 gait with the Pioneers last season, is the sixth player to be signed by the Clovis Baseball club of the West Texas-New Mexico League.

A second baseman, Jacinto came to terms yesterday.

Others in the fold, including Manager Paul "Daffy" Dean, are George Matthews and Mel Kramer, pitchers; Wilcy Moore, outfielder; and Chuck Novotney, first baseman.

The Pioneers own four other players, but they aren't figuring in the club's plans this season, Dean declared. They are Pitcher Al Kavanaugh, Catcher Bill Mayfield and Infielders Frank Pacheco and Mel Serafini.

Kavanaugh and Mayfield have indicated they are going to ask to be placed on the voluntary retired list. Pacheco and Seaafini have returned their contracts unsigned and "we're through bickering with them," Dean said today. Pacheco, Serafini and Kavanaugh were with the Pioneers last season.

Mayfield was obtained in a straight player swap with the Amarillo Gold Sox recntly, pitcher Darwin "Tootie" Dobbs going to the Sox.

Mayfield is going to continue his profession in pharmacy, while Kavanaugh, a school teacher at Las Cruces, N. M., is going to attend summer school at Colorado Institute of Highet Learning, working toward his Master's degree.

The Pioneers start spring training here Friday afternoon at Bell Park. During the first four days, a baseball school and tryout camp will be conducted in conjunction with the Pioneer training.

The baseball school, which is expected to attract an unpresedented turnout, will be held in the morning. More than 100 youths are anticipated by Dean, who will supervise the school. From inquiries received, nine states will be represented — Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Michigan, California, New Jersey, Illinois, Kansas and New Mexico.

About half a dozen Lubbock youths have planned to attend the school, among them Jack Martyn, who performed in Lubbock Legion baseball last year. The school starts Friday.

Pruning will start on the school immediately, with no boy retained who does not hold promise. Promising players will be held over for afternoon sessions with the Pioneers. The Clovis club will be looking for four or five good rookies, all of whom will be carried for the first weeks of spring training and with the hope that two of them are good enough to retain for the season.

As for the Pioneers, Dean has stated flatly that his club will finish in the first division—"and we'll start off on the right foot at Lubbock." The Pioneers open in the Hub City April 20.

The Pioneers, who finished sixth last year, do not have any tie-up with a major league club, but Dean has been promised several good players from his big league connections.

Acquisition of players isn't worrying Dean. "We'll have the players," he says, "when the time is ripe."

Appeal Slated For Witnesses

LOS ANGELES, March 29 (AP)—Nine witnesses sentenced to jail for refusing to answer questions of a federal grand jury in its inquiry into Communist activities will appeal the case to the U. S. Supreme Court, if necessary.

So said their attorneys yesterday after three witnesses, convicted of criminal contempt, each was sentenced to one year. They are Samuel H. Kasinowitz, Henry Steinberg and Ben Dobbs.

The other six, convicted of civil contempt, were ordered held in custody until they answer the grand jury questions. They are Irving Caress, Merle Brodsky, Robert Blair, Phillip Bock, Frank Spector and Mrs. Lillian Doran.

Free On Bail

A member of the district attorney's staff explained that criminal contempt is a punishment, while the civil contempt sentences were to secure compliance with the court's order to answer the questions.

Kasinowitz, Steinberg and Dobbs were convicted Dec. 14 and the others March 3.

All nine had been at liberty on bail ranging from $1,000 to $4,000, pending sentencing except Mrs. Doran, who was free on her own recognizance. They were arrested at various times after refusing to testify before the grand jury the latter part of 1948 and early this year.

Judge Pierson M. Hall said if any of the six sentenced for civil contempt change their minds, the grand jury will be convened on 24-hour notice to hear the answers.

Several hundred pickets paraded before the federal building during the hearing yesterday. Some carried placards criticizing the government's prosecution of the nine as a "witch hunt."

Skid Row Salesman Has New Song "Hit"

TAMPA, Fla., March 29. (U.P.)—The song salesman of Skid Row, Robert Stuart Bowen, is shuffling on again toward that million dollars he intends to make one day.

Tired of "tin ear" music publishers who turn down his songs as fast as he writes them, Bowen became his own publisher. A friendly printer struck off 500 copies of his latest "hit," a tune called "When It's Dogwood Blossom Time in Dixie," for $12.50.

Bowen peddles the sheet music along Franklin Street here; 25 cents if you look good for it, maybe a penny if you're broke and really like the tune. Business is pretty good, Bowen says. He nets up to $4 a day, which is better than he used to do peddling papers.

The income also pays desk space for the self-proclaimed "greatest song writer in Florida."

On his World War I pension of $103 a month, Bowen has tramped about most of the country since that war, spending most of his time in Florida. He tried New York last fall, but a Bowery binge landed him in Bellevue hospital.

He told a nurse he was a song writer, Bowen said, and she told him, "fine, we'll put you in the room where Stephen Foster died."

Bowen had just one complaint: "Stephen Foster died with 35 cents in his pocket, and I'm stone broke."

The nurse lent him 35 cents.

Inflation Fear

sounding the gong against inflationary fires, the board banned grant of any credit to stock buyers.

The shift in the board's views on the economic state were underlined by the fact that easier "stock margin requirements" were authorized on the heels of consumer credit control relaxation March 3.

In the earlier move, installment buyers were given 21 months to finish paying off, thus lengthening payment time by three to six months for various goods and, consequently, making each month's installment smaller.

Move Said Overdue

The cash down payment on all goods but autos also was cut to 15 per cent from the previous 20 per cent level, although down-payments on cars were held at 33 per cent.

What easier credit might do to stock prices and the volume of stock trading, which has been unusually light for many weeks, was something for which there was no sure answer in advance.

In New York, Wall streeters greeted the announcement as one that was long overdue. Harold L. Bache of Bache & Co. said: "It should tend to broaden our markets by enlarging buying power. It should aid in stimulating the use of risk capital." However, few brokers expected to see much increase in the volume of business on security exchanges.

The order caught the stock exchanges at a time when credit outstanding for securities purchases was near an all-time low of around $1,150,000,000 on the books of dealers and banks, according to latest official data.

The volume has been sliding away from a $4,126,000,000 level in 1946, when the board put in for a year the ban against any extension of credit for securities purchases.

go on with them and then there would be a crash. If prices go down gradually, I don't think we'll have that crash."

Pretty Good Balance

Taft said his surveys indicate that, economically speaking, "things are in pretty good balance now."

"Profits are too high but I think they will come down quickly when competition gets in full swing," he said.

He added that while consumer buying is slow, it is likely to turn up with prices going down a little mor[illegible]

Daily Markets

Stock Market

STOCK DEMAND BOOMS

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP) — Demand for stocks suddenly boomed in today's market following news that securities could be bought on more lenient credit terms.

Final prices were up $1 to an extreme of around $6 a share. Closing quotations were the highest for the day in many cases despite a midday let-down in demand.

Buying was so fast immediately after the opening of the market that the high-speed ticker tape could not keep up with recording actual transactions on the floor of the exchange.

The abrupt increase in activity livened a market that has been asleep on its feet most of the time for months.

The extreme advances scored in the morning were later shaded as the trading pace slackened. In the last hour demand revived. Trade was at the rate of around 1,700,000 shares for the full session, which would be the largest since 2,100,000 shares changed hands on Nov. 10.

Numerous issues sold at the top prices of the year, including Lockheed, Montgomery Ward, United Aircraft, Loew's, Dupont and Pepsi-Cola.

Also up were U. S. Steel, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, American Telephone, Western Union, Cerro De Pasco, International Paper, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Skelly Oil, Amerada Petroleum, and United Air Lines.

Railways bonds pulled up with stocks. U. S. governments showed new strength in over-the-counter dealings.

and basic materials.

K-F said its price cuts averaged in excess of 10½ per cent.

Two years ago Ford cut prices but subsequent increases more than wiped this out.

However, yesterday President Henry Ford II said in Boston that Ford might again reduce prices. He said material costs were coming down "somewhat."

In Kaiser-Frazer's personnel changes O. B. Motter and W. A. MacDonald resigned as directors. No successors were named.

Henry J. Kaiser and Joseph W. Frazer said in a joint announcement:

"Our 4,600 dealers can immediately market the largest car in the industry selling at a factory delivered price under $2,000." This reference was to the 123½-inch wheelbase Kaiser special delivering retail at the factory at $1,995, a reduction of $333.

The company said the five new models—in addition to four standard models and taxicabs—placed on the Willow Run plant's production schedule are:

The Kaiser Traveler and Vagabond, which combine the carrying purposes of a station wagon with the uses and appearance of a six-passenger sedan; Kaiser and Frazer four-door convertibles, and the Kaiser Virginian, a six-passenger sport sedan with all-steel top.

Has Anyone Seen Hide Or Hair Of Speedball?

Canine Veteran Of European Theater Sought In Lubbock

A little sharp-nosed German Chihuahua named Speedball which survived wounds suffered on battlegrounds of Europe in World war II was being sought in Lubbock today.

Two months ago, Speedball disappeared from the home of Bill Andrews of Hurlwood, veteran who brought the dog home with him after end of the war.

A dog seen today on the courthouse lawn was recognized as the missing Speedball, but the dog eluded capture and had disappeared by the time Andrews had arrived.

Anxious to locate the dog which accompanied his battalion as mascot in Europe, Andrews asked that anyone seeing a dark brown male dog with black and white on the breast and neck, nine inches tall and weighing 15 pounds and answering to the name of Speedball, telephone 2-2623 in Lubbock and leave a message for Andrews.

Speedball was found by the 807th tank destroyer battalion in Montbron, France, in 1945. After remaining in Montbron for a time, the battalion took the dog along as mascot in France, Austria, Czechslovakia and the low countries.

Once when Speedball was wounded, serum was obtained from Paris for use in treatment.

He was a valued "member" of the battalion, and the veteran who brought him to the United States prizes him too highly to give him up without widespread efforts to find him.

Ex-Inmate Of Dachau On Trial In Slaying Of Mystery Woman

TANGIER, Morocco, March 29. (AP)—A former inmate of a Nazi concentration camp is on trial in this international settlement for the murder of "the mystery woman of the Middle East."

She was Magda D'Andurain, 52-year-old French countess, long a glamourous figure in tales of Mediterranean intrigue. She disappeared from her yacht anchored here last Nov. 5.

The defendant, Hans Abele, alias Renato Oncini, a German, said the death was accidental. The presiding magistrate said Abele told him he accidentally knocked the countess' head against a bunk during an argument board the yacht. Frightened, he said, he weighted her body and dumped it into the sea. The body has not been recovered.

Prisoner Nine Times

Testimony taken yesterday disclosed that Abele had been released from Dachau in 1941. Prior to that he had been in prison nine times in Germany, Austria and Switzerland between 1935 and 1939.

At one time the countess was married to a Syrian sheikh. Following his mysterious death she was condemned to be stoned to death, but managed to flee the country.

She was later reputed to be a close friend of Mussolini. After the liberation of France she was convicted of spying for Germany. At the time of her arrest she protested being taken from Marseilles to Paris in a third-class railway carriage "like a common criminal."

In January 1948, she was charged with slaying her nephew by feeding him poisoned chocolates. The charge was not pressed after the coroner issued a report in the case.

Young Film Actress Is Granted Divorce

LOS ANGELES, March 29. (AP)—Coleen Gray, 24-year-old up and coming screen actress, who testified her husband didn't like her hats, won her divorce.

She added yesterday before superior Judge Wilbur C. Curtis that Rodney Amateau, her writer-husband, often made her discard hats which she thought particularly smart.

They were married here in August, 1945 and separated last July. They have a two and a half-year-old daughter.

The court approved a property settlement, and ordered Amateau to contribute five per cent of his earnings above $30 a week to the child's support.

Divorce May Delay Hollywood Wedding

HOLLYWOOD, March 29. (AP)—The wife of Movie Hero Errol Flynn and Crooner Dick Haymes may not be able to marry as soon as they had hoped.

Mrs. Haymes had planned to establish residence in Las Vegas, Nev., for a divorce about the same time Mrs. Nora Eddington Flynn went there to get her decree. A Nevada divorce can be obtained in six weeks.

Yesterday Mrs. Haymes, known on the screen as Joann Dru, was reported planning to proceed with the divorce suit she originally filed in Los Angeles Jan. 17, charging cruelty. Haymes will contest it. A California divorce takes a year.

His attorney, Joe Ross, said Mrs. Haymes "has made an 11th hour demand in the property settlement which I consider most unreasonable." He did not elaborate.

Arrangements are made to take Haymes' deposition today.

Aid To Puerto Rico Is Urged

By TEX EASLEY
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Texas Rep. J. M. Combs of Beaumont has become one of Puerto Rico's staunchest friends in the Congress . . . and hopes to promote better relations between the U. S. and its island territory.

He has in mind, among other things, the drafting of a bill to provide for the exchange of teachers on an annual basis. The government would put up the difference needed between their salaries and actual expenses.

Treatment Is Hit

"In some respects we have been treating the Puerto Ricans and, I am afraid, thinking of them, as a foreign people," he says.

"And yet, Puerto Rico is one of our most stragetic possessions in the defense of the Caribbean, the Gulf and the Panama Canal."

The Texan's interest in the island stems from the appearance of the Puerto Rican Commissioner, Dr. A. Fernos Isern, before the House Ways and Means committee. Combs is on the committee. Dr. Fernos was seeking expansion of the social security program in his homeland.

"Personally, I think we must do something to give Puerto Rico a fair break economically," Combs said. "We must act not only in regard to social security, we must go further and remove those discriminations which tend to keep Puerto Rico in relative poverty.

Problems Are Recognized

"Although Puerto Rico has been a part of the U. S. for 50 years and the Puerto Rican people are American citizens, we have not extended to them the treatment accorded other Americans and to other teritorial possessions such as Hawaii and Alaska."

He pointed out that the U. S. Treasury helps pay the cost of operation of the Hawaiian and Alaskan teritorial governments, but not that of Puerto Rico; American tariff and shipping reglations, Combs believes, prevents Puerto Rico from operating in foreign trade on a par with Latin-American nations.

"It must be recognized," he adds, "that certain peculiar problems exist by reason of the fact that Puerto Rico was shifted from an economy dominated from overseas by Spain to a new relationship as a teritorial possession of the United States only 50 years ago."

davits.

A strike, the union says, would halt all the city's 11,414 taxicabs, some of them independently owned and operated.

Mayor William O'Dwyer said that if a strike comes, he is determined that it shall be peaceful—"if it means 2,000 additional policemen."

A taxicab strike here in 1934 produced violence, with cabs overturned and men beaten.

Representatives of about 5,000 independent owner-drivers have demanded police protection "for our right to work" and declared they will defend themselves "in the exercise of that right."

here.

It said:

"Myself and my friend are being held for crossing the boundary without authority papers. We have been questioned . . . but nothing has been done about returning us to the U. S. zone of Germany.

"We have been held since Dec. 9. I hope you can do something about it."

Embassy authorities tried repeatedly to obtain the release of the two soldiers, but were refused permission even to visit them.

Not until March 2 did the Czechs notify the embassy that the soldiers were being held for a "serious offense" under security regulations covering espionage.

No Comment Made

Embassy officials said today that the Czech news agency announcement was the first word they had received of the trial. They refused immediate comment, but said a statement might be issued later today.

The two soldiers were assigned to the 6th armored cavalry regiment of the Army constabulary in Germany at the time they went AWOL.

The trial of the two Americans followed closely American trials in much of a group of German and Czech nationals accused of spying on American forces in Germany for Czechoslovakia.

Ford Sees Reduction In Prices Of Autos

BOSTON, March 29. (AP)—Henry Ford, II, president of the Ford Motor Co., sees a "possible" reduction in Ford prices.

"Material prices are coming down somewhat and a price reduction is possible," he said last night in an interview. Ford was here to address the Harvard school of business administration.

He emphasized that when he said "possible" he did not mean "probable."

He said that the consumer "is getting a car cheaper today than a year ago. The buyer soon will be able to get cars without unwanted extras."

"More advantageous trade-ins," he added, "may cut the dealer's profit margin, with consumers benefitting."

Rent Control

state governor approves.

Foes of that section have contended it would wreck rent control. Backers of the provision argue that local communities are in the best position to know when controls no longer are needed in their areas.

Income Part Debated

But the provision of the compromise measure stirring most of the trouble in the Senate and House is the one directing the federal housing experiter to fix rents at a level giving landlords a "fair net operating income."

The conference committee substituted that for a House section which was designed to assure landlords a "reasonable return on the reasonable value" of their property.

Congress members were wary about saying what effect the "fair income" provision will have on rents. Even some members of the Senate-House committee acknowledged privately that they have no idea.

Officials at the housing expediter's declined to estimate what might happen to rents, pending further study of the provision.

Italian To See Sec. Acheson

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP) Italy's foreign minister headed for the State department today to report his country's readiness to join the other western democracies in an alliance against Russian expansion.

The Italian official, Count Carlo Sforza, had a date to see Secretary of State Acheson (2:30 p. m. EST).

The bearded diplomat reached here late last night, well ahead of the procession of nine—and possibly 11—other foreign ministers converging on the United States to sign the North Atlantic Defense treaty April 4.

Sforza's first words on arrival were to hail the pact, which the Communists have denounced as "aggressive," as an instrument aimed at keeping the peace.

"I have put my name to many treaties but if there is one which I am glad to sign as a man and as a citizen, it is the North Atlantic pact," he said.

His decision to call promptly on Acheson raised speculation that he planned to devote part of the meeting to discussion of Italy's request for trusteeship control over her three former colonies in Africa.

The United Nations assembly is to decide the future of the colonies during the session beginning in New York April 5. The United States at last report still was undecided about its policy toward two of the colonies—Eritrea and Tripolitania.

Assistant Secretary of State Dean Rusk said at a new conference yesterday that this country favors returning the third colony, Somaliland, to Italy under a trusteeship arrangement.

Work On New Ocean Liner Gets Underway

CAMDEN, N. J., March 29. (AP)—Construction is underway on the first of three American luxury liners to be built for the American President lines.

The keel of the $12,000,000 S. S. President Jackson, first passenger liner to be built in the United States since the war, was laid yesterday by the New York Shipbuilding Corp.

Keels of the other two will be laid later in the spring. Completion is scheduled for late in 1950.

The three ships will be revolutionary in design in that they will have no stacks. They will displace 19,000 tons, have a speed of 19 knots and carry 228 passengers.

Four-Year-Old Lad Feeling Okay After Firing .22 Bullet Through His Head

SALISBURY, Md., March 29—Four-year-old Paul J. Hastings, Jr., is feeling fine today, even though he fired a bullet through his head.

The bullet went in under his chin and came out through his ear.

Paul was riding in an automobile Saturday with his father, mother, and two brothers, when he found his father's .22-caliber pistol in the back seat. The gun went off.

The bullet that passed through the boy's head, grazing his skull, also went through his mother's hair without hitting her head. It then struck the windshield and bounced back into the front seat.

Paul was taken to a hospital here but was discharged soon afterward.

$100,000 Action At Lamesa Postponed

LAMESA, March 29 (Special)—A $100,000 civil suit to establish damages against the Texas Electric Service company, brought by Dewey Koslosky, Lamesa, Monday was postponed until Wednesday in 106th District court.

The suit charges that the company erected a power line through the Forrest Park addition, A new subdivision in south Lamesa which is owned by Koslosky, without permission or proper condemnation action.

Claim Upheld

The Supreme court upheld the claim for damages on an appeal. The suit was filed in the amount of $100,000 and the amount of damages to be paid will be set as the case is tried on its merits here.

A suit against the same company filed on similar grounds by Fred Henderson, Dawson county farmer, was also postponed today.

Representing Koslosky are Karl Cayton, Lamesa, and E. L. Kelt and Doyle Justice, Lubbock. Carl Rountree, Mas Wassell and Raymond Renner, Lamesa attorneys, are representing the company.

Verdicts In Trials At Levelland Given

LEVELAND, March 29 (Spl)—A two-year sentence, two four-year sentences suspended and one mistrial were the result of four trials held here Monday in the 72nd district court of Judge Dan Blair, District Attorney Lloyd Crosiin and A. W. Salyars, assistant district attorney, said.

Don R. Hull was found guilty of a charge of theft of a trailer from A. L. Stone and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

Jimmy Collins, 17, was found guilty on a charge of forgery and was given a suspended sentence of four years. A similar sentence was assessed against Carl Phelan, 19, after he was found guilty of receiving and concealing stolen property, $60 belonging to Harold Combs.

After four hours deliberation, a jury in the trial of G. E. Brown, charged with theft of a saddle from C. B. Hightower, failed to return a verdict and Judge Blair declared a mistrial. The jury was deadlocked at 11 for conviction and one for acquittal, the foreman announced to the court.

Britain To Tell UN That Troop Movement Not Truce Violation

LONDON, March 29 (AP)—Britain is challenging the contention of Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, that she has violated the Palestine truce.

Christopher P. Mayhew, undersecretary for foreign affairs, said last night the government will tell the U. N. the sending of British Tommies to garrison the Trans-Jordan port of Aquaba was a purely defensive action not in conflict with the truce.

The admiralty, meanwhile, disclosed Britain has sent another warship to Aqaba. The 1,730-ton destroyer Troubridge anchored in the harbor Saturday, it said.

Reports Violation

Bunche, in a report from Rhodes to the U. N. security council March 23 said both Israel and Trans-Jordan have violated their truce agreement by the movement of troops. He told reporters he considered that the landing of British troops in Aqaba also was a violation. Britain sent troops there in January under a mutual defense alliance with Trans-Jordan, and reinforced them this month.

In a written reply to a question in the House of Commons, Mayhew said the criticism presumably stems from the security council resolution "which calls upon all governments and authorities concerned to undertake that they will not introduce fighting personnel into Palestine and Arab states during a cease fire."

Not In Conflict

Britain, Mayhew said, "has not in any way engaged in the conflict," and therefore "it cannot reasonably be supposed that this resolution meant the United Kingdom . . . was debarred from reinforcing or altering the composition of its forces in the Middle East."

The foreign office, he said, will submit this view to Trygve Lie, U. N. secretary-general, in answer to Bunche.

Reports from Rhodes said Bunche is believed to have asked Lie to use his influence to induce the British to do what they can to reduce tension along the Palestine-Trans-Jordan border. Israel has indicated strong disapproval of the landing of British troops at Aqaba.

Beery Paternity Suit Settlement Disputed

LOS ANGELES, March 29. (AP)—Mrs. Gloria Schumm, film bit player, claims she was forced to sign a $20,000 settlement in her paternity suit against actor Wallace Beery, saying she was "berated, cajoled and threatened" by her own lawyers.

The 32-year-old wife of actor Hans Schumm asked superior court yesterday to set aside the agreement. She said it provides that she will receive $12,542 of the amount to be invested for her son, Johan, 13 months old.

The settlement also provides, she said, that she will not contest a court decree holding that Beery, 63, is not the father of the child.

Her paternity suit, set for hearing tomorrow, alleges the child was conceived while she was separated from Schumm, whom she has remarried. Beery claims Schumm is the child's father.

Old Folks Home Is A "Good Place" If Person Is Lonely

By OPAL DIXON
Journal Staff Writer

Lubbock county Home for Old Folks is "a good place for you to be if you don't have any folks."

Those are the words of Mrs. Annie Sparkman, who along with six other residents of the Home For Old Folks spends her days in activities in and around the building at 406 Fourth street.

Mrs. Sparkman did not know there was such a place as an old folks home in Lubbock until two and one-half yers ago. At that time, her husband was ill with a malignant ailment and she was ill with asthma. Friends arranged for them to enter the Home for Old Folks.

Her Husband Died

Her susband, James Sparkman, died less than a year later.

Saying that she is glad to be living in the home, Mrs. Sparkman added, "after I lost my husband, I couldn't have stayed by myself."

She has no children.

Conditions which lead persons to become residents of the Old Folks home vary. Illness frequently is a factor. In many cases residents have no near relatives.

All is quietness and serenity much of the time, although there are occasions when the residents meet in the large living room and laughter and talk rings out in the house. Some of the residents play dominoes.

MEAL TIME IS HAPPY—Mealtime frequently is a happy occasion for residents of the Lubbock County Home for Old Folks. Shown in top photograph having lunch, reading clockwise, are P. B. Acuff, with back to camera, W. O. Kerns, Mrs. Robert Baker and her husband, who are new managers of the home, Mrs. L. L. Davis and Mrs. Annie Sparkman. Lower photograph shows R. R. Rivers, who is partially paralyzed, and Harry A. Ludlow, also partially paralyzed as result of cerebral hemorrhage. (Staff Photos.)

Management of the home was changed recently. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baker, who moved here from Littlefield, became managers of the home March 10, succeeding Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Banks. They have encouraged residents to gather in the living room.

Rather than spend most of their time in their own rooms, residents

Optimist Clubs Hold Banquet

A talk on the subject "What Constitutes Leadership?" by Dr. E. N. Jones, vice-president of Texas Technological college, highlighted last night's annual installation banquet of the Optimist and Opti-Mrs. clubs in Hotel Lubbock.

Speaking to some 140 members and guests, Dr. Jones described a great leader as "one who can get a few policies indelibly fixed in his mind . . . and see that these are carried out."

As for the specific qualities which produce true leadership, Dr. Jones listed consistency, proper delegation of authority, respect for lines of authority, proper delegation of responsibility, and the ability to serve as a "lubricant" for human relations.

Explicit Faith Necessary

Dr. Jones, citing the late President Woodrow Wilson as an example, pointed out that a great creative mind is not necessarily great in an executive sense. One of Wilson's greatest shortcomings as a leader, Dr. Jones said, was the fact that he worked alone too much.

"A real leader need not have faith in humanity as such, but he must have explicit faith in at least a few men," Dr. Jones stated.

His address was punctuated with frequent anecdotes and examples by way of illustration.

Prior to Dr. Jones' speech, Mrs. Joe Kelly, accompanied by Mrs. Marlin Smith at the piano, sang two songs, "Spring Is a Lovable Lady" and "Song of Songs."

Officers Installed

Incoming officers were installed by O. W. McGuire in a brief ceremony. New officers are G. C. Stewart, president; Winston Clark, first vice-president; Billy Davis, second vice-president; L. G. Pierce, jr., secretary; H. P. Watkins, treasurer; and C. H. Cummings, L. O. Neill and J. E. Speer, members of the board of governors.

Charles Cobb, as retiring president, automatically became chairman of the board of governors. Also on the board of governors is A. G. Oberg.

Cobb briefly expressed his thanks to club members for their cooperation during his tenure as president, and Stewart gave a brief speech of acceptance.

Guests Attend Banquet

Opti-Mrs. officers, also installed by McGuire, included Mrs. O. W. McGuire, president; Mrs. Hudson Burke, first vice-president; Mrs. Homer Hunt, second vice-president; Mrs. J. Holland Cox, third vice-president; Mrs. L. B. Millsap, secretary; Mrs. Charles Musson, treasurer; and Mrs. L. G. Pierce,

Liquor Board Asks Tip-Offs

Any bootlegging going on next door or up the street from you?

W. G. Poplin, deputy supervisor and commanding officer of the Lubbock district of the Texas Liquor Control Board, told newsmen Monday.

"We're not looking for publicity, but we were sent here to enforce the law. That's what we intend to do. So, if anyone know of any bootlegging here or over this districut I'd like to be informed about it.

Information Is Checked

"This department will accept such information in confidence. We will work out the cases and, if we find that our information is correct, will raid suspect premises—first taking careful precautions to guard against error."

Poplin, who with three inspectors was transferred here Saturday, said:

"We frankly are asking for help of the public. The public knows who is doing the bootlegging. We don't—yet. We don't always move immediately upon receipt of such information, but do after we have weighed and sifted it to be sure that we are not acting upon erroneous information innocently given—or given through spite."

Further, the board official said, "We are looking for the big bootleggers. That doesn't mean the little ones will be overlooked. There are only five of us and we are expected to work 23 counties, but we'll act as soon as possible on whatever information we get."

Lubbock Teachers To Be Elected Tonight

Members of the board of the Lubbock Independent school district will meet tonight in the school business office, 1007 Texas avenue, to elect teachers for the 1949-50 school year, R. W. Matthews, superintendent of schools, has announced.

In addition to the election of teachers, other routine matters will be discussed by the board, it was indicated.

THE QUESTION

How can one be a good citizen in the school and in the city? (That question was answered of sixth grade students at Sanders school, where good citizenship is being studied as a school project.)

THE ANSWERS

CAROLYN BLANKENSHIP, Lubbock, route 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Blankenship: "One can be a good citizen of the school and of the city by helping people—by being kind and courteous. You can also be a good citizen by trying to keep the city neat and clean."

JEAN GRAVES, 602 Ave. E, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Carruth: "Good citizens are helpful and they're kind and they're courteous. They don't throw paper around and get the streets dirty. When they are in church, they can listen to the preacher and not chew gum and talk."

ROY JENKINS, Clayton-Carter addition, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jenkins: "I'm a Boy Scout and I just follow the Scout laws and try to be a good citizen. A Scout is trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, brave, clean, thrifty and reverent. If you're those, you're a good citizen."

LARRY HALFORD, 413 Ave. F, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Halford: "You can remember that no one is better than you and you're not better than anyone else. That way, you can have more friends and everyone will be friendly to each other. Everyone should have an equal share in keeping better relations in the school or in the town."

RONALD HALL, 520 Ave. F, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hall: "A citizen in school can be loyal on a football team and obey rules and not get mad whether he loses or wins. One should play fair on a football team or anywhere else. You should take care of public property and help keep your town clean from all kinds of germs."

MAXINE ALEXANDER, 417 Third, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Alexander: "Don't say anything about anybody unless you can say something nice and don't say anything to anybody's back you would not say to their face. Everyone would be friendlier toward one another if they would do that, and they would be better citizens. If a new pupil comes to school, you can be friendly and show her around the school."

126,413 Bales Grown In '48

Lubbock led all other Texas counties in the production of cotton in 1948, the Bureau of Census report issued this week reveals. The official figure, not counting linters was 126,413 bales. This compared with 180,939 in 1947.

Lubbock county which was fourth in the nation in 1947 dropped to 15th place in 1948. An Arkansas county (Mississippi) led all producers with 291,286 bales. California was next with Kern county, 281,794 bales and Fresno county, 262,863. Counties in Arizona, Mississippi and Missouri also topped Lubbock's figure.

Other top producing Texas counties were Hidalgo, 117,502 bales and Cameron, 111,919. Hidalgo's crop was an increase of 35,000 bales over 1947. Cameron had almost the same identical production reported in 1947.

Some counties doubled their ginned cotton total. Among these were: Anderson, Cherokee, Erath, Hamilton, Henderson, and Starr. Most of these counties were small producers.

On the other side of the picture there were several counties whose crop was half or less than the 1947 figure. These counties were for the most part in the Panhandle, Plains and South Plains region: Bailey, Cochran, Coleman, Crosby, Dawson, Garza, Karnes, Lynn, Martin, Midland, Terry and Wilson.

Hail damage and blowing dust and sand accounted for part of this large decrease. The prolonged dry spell also took its toll in the unirrigated fields.

The total number of bales for Texas was 3,062,493 in 1948 as against 3,309,073 in 1947. This represents a decrease of some 246,580 bales.

Undaunted by this decrease, Texas cotton growers, especially those on the South Plains, have declared their intention to plant a record acreage to cotton. The soil and moisture conditions have been very favorable up to this time, and as planting season nears, the majority of the planters are optimistic for the coming year.

Mississippi Second

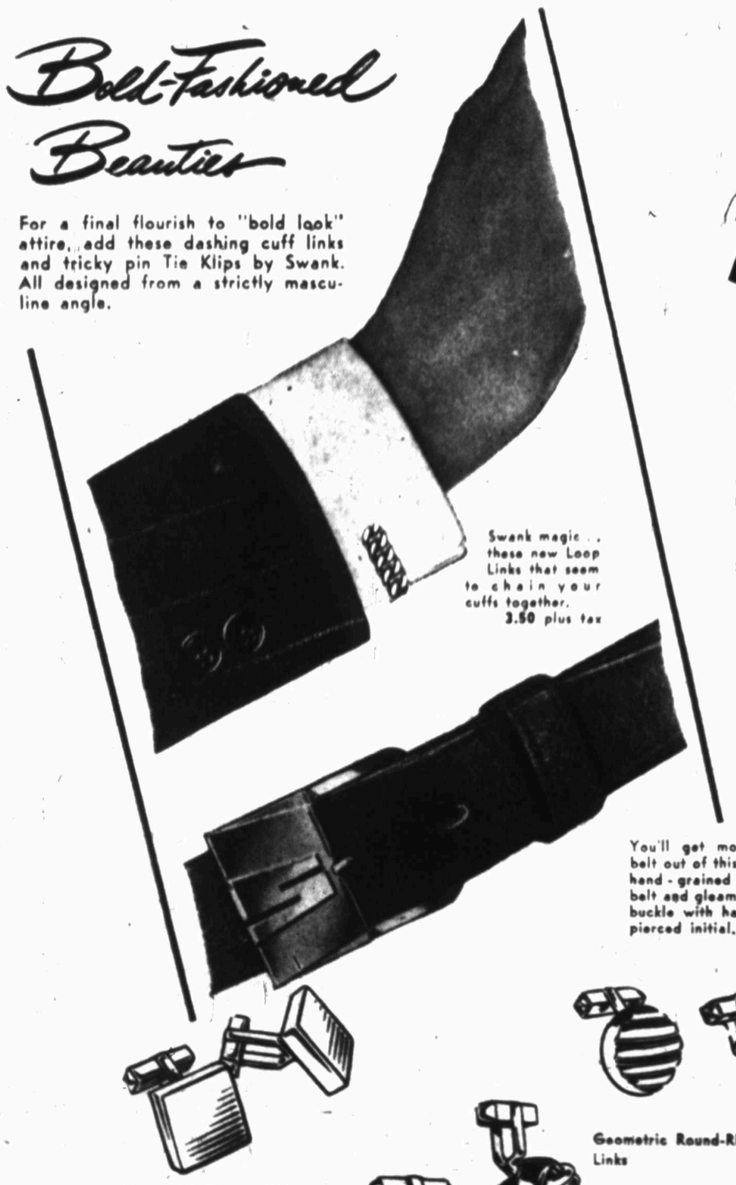

More acreage has been brought under irrigation and several thousand acres will be switched from the grain sorghums to cotton to get under the anticipated 1950 cotton growing restriction. Present surpluses and prospects for more cotton in storage failed to halt the rush to cotton planting. The majority of growers and buyers believe that foreign markets will help absorb the surplus if the domestic market cannot take up the slack.

Texas had little competition for

Veteran Pension Plan Under Social Security Is Proposed

By JAMES DANIEL
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Rep. John A. Carroll (D., Colo.) has proposed to blanket all veterans of World Wars I and II under the social security old-age insurance system, instead of putting the superannuated ones on the pension rolls.

Here's how Mr. Carroll says his plan would work:

Each of the more than 18,000,000 veterans would be given, at no cost to him, a social security "basic credit" equivalent to payroll taxes on an income of $3,000 a year for 10 years.

Each veteran would have this credit as a right, regardless of the duration of his military service.

Credits Explained

The credit would entitle the veteran to minimum retirement benefits of $64 a month when he reaches age 65. He could increase the benefit to as much as $90 a month by paying the social security payroll taxes on his earnings from employment before reaching that age.

For a married veteran and his wife, the basic-credit benefits would be $96 a month when the husband has reached age 65 and the wife has reached age 60, and these benefits also could be increased by payment of taxes on earnings while employed.

If the veteran died, leaving a widow and orphans, the widow would receive $96 a month insurance if she has one child less than 18 years old; $120 a month if she has two children; $150 a month if she has three or more children. If childless, the widow would receive $48 a month at the age of 60.

These insurance features, Mr. Carroll believes, should be of special interest to World War II veterans, most of whom won't reach retirement age for many years.

The pension bill offered by Rep. John E. Rankin (D., Miss.) and defeated last week in the House proposed $90-a-month pensions at age 65 for all veterans who served as long as 90 days in either world war. The substitute bill now proposed by Mr. Rankin would provide pensions of $72 a month, limit them to World War I veterans, and apply a means test for eligibility.

Rep. Carroll, now 48, served overseas in both world wars. He was one of the leaders in the House battle which resulted in defeat of the original Rankin bill by a 208-207 vote.

Mr. Carroll says actuaries have estimated the eventual cost of his plan at $10 billion to $15 billion. The pension proposal of the original Rankin bill would have cost over $100 billion in the next 50 years, according to government estimates.

As one concession to practical politics, the Carroll plan would put all veterans under social security protection without forcing an immediate decision on President Truman's request that coverage be extended to farmers, self-employed persons and others not now in the social security system.

World's Most Powerful Light Cruiser Will Join U. S. Fleet

PHILADELPHIA, March 29. (AP)—The world's most powerful light cruiser will join the United States fleet Monday.

On that day, the U. S. S. Roanoke will be commissioned at the Philadelphia naval base.

A sister ship of the U. S. S. Worcester, the Roanoke cost $30,000,000 and required over four years to build. She has a beam of 70 feet; displaces 17,000 tons and has a designed speed of 33 knots.

Launched Two Years Ago

The Roanoke was launched two years ago by Julia Ann Henebry, Rollins college student and daughter of the then-mayor of Roanoke, Va.

The new cruiser is the second ship in United States naval history to bear the name Roanoke. The first was a wooden screw steam frigate launched Dec. 13, 1855.

51 Officers, 922 Men

The Roanoke will be manned by 51 officers and 922 enlisted men. She has a main battery of 12 new semi-automatic six-inch guns housed in six turrets.

Her second battery consists of 10 rapid fire three inch guns and six twin 20 mm guns.

Capt. J. D. Kelsey, Silver Springs, Md., will command the cruiser.

In 1820, the United States had a population of 10 million persons.

Convict Fights His Own Case

PITTSBURGH, March 29 (AP)—A 27-year-old prisoner who used his self-acquired knowledge of law to carry his case to the U. S. Supreme Court is free on bail today after serving 10 years and five months.

Elmer Uveges was released from Western state penitentiary in $1,000 bail yesterday by Judge Sara M. Soffell to await the next step in his battle for freedom.

Uveges, who was sent to the prison in October, 1938, to serve 20 to 40 years on burglary charges, spent much of his time in study. He completed his college education and studied law so that he could prepare his own briefs and petitions.

Unlawfully Sentenced

Last December, the Supreme Court ruled the Pennsylvania supreme court erred in rejecting Uveges' petition for a hearing on a habeas corpus writ. The ruling held in effect that he had been unlawfully sentenced because he pleaded guilty without advice of counsel.

Last week the state supreme court ordered that his guilty plea be vacated and directed that he be arraigned on the indictments against him.

Attorney Albert Fiok, of Pittsburgh, who became interested in Uveges' case, refused yesterday to permit him to enter a plea before Judge Soffell on the grounds that Uveges had never been formally indicted.

Fiok also contended the statute of limitations will prevent Uveges' indictment on the burglary charges.

Judge Soffell ordered the case heard by three judges sitting en banc.

Preacher's Happy Wife Is Fined $25

LAFAYETTE, Ga., March 29. (AP)—A preacher was acquitted on assault and battery charges yesterday but his wife was fined $25 for contempt of court when she shouted for joy over the verdict.

The Rev. W. J. Heflin, pastor of the Happy Valley Baptist church at Rossville, Ga., was indicted by the Walker county grand jury on charges that he slapped a church deacon.

Mrs. Heflin was so happy over the outcome of the trial that she didn't mind paying the fine.

At the time of Columbus the level of culture attained by some native peoples of South and Central America had almost reached that of ancient Egypt and Babylon.

No Apology Needed For Case Of Nerves

TARENTUM, Pa., March 29 (AP)—If Mrs. Harriet E. Elliott, 43, of R. D. 2, Tarentum, had a bad case of nerves today she needn't apologize.

Mrs. Elliott didn't see a fast freight bearing down on her as she started over a railroad crossing. When her car stopped violently on the other side of the tracks she got out to investigate.

The spare tire and the rear bumper were missing. A freight locomotive had sheared them off.

TWO ARE CHARGED

BROWNWOOD, March 29 (AP)—John Leist, jr., and Charles E. Rodgers face felony theft charges here in connection with alleged theft of steel beams from a bridge.

The beams were missing from a span over Pecan bayou, southeast of here.

British Factory Girl Visiting U. S. Thinks Her Government Takes Better Care Of Labor

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—A British factory girl told a national radio audience last night the English government takes better care of workers than the American government does.

Ada Fishburn, 24-year-old British lighting tube tester who arrived in the United States in an exchange of workers between American and British factories, strongly praised the cradle-to-grave social security program in her country.

Miss Fishburn, a coalminer's daughter, now works in a North Bergen, N. J., plant.

Medical Care Possible

She was invited to participate in a nationally broadcast (Mutual) "American Forum of the Air" debate on social security featuring Rep. Curtis (R-Neb) who opposes President Truman's proposed social security program, and social security commissioner Arthur J. Altmeyer, who favors it.

After asking how much an American worker would get if injured while at work, she said:

"Through the British scheme one can go to the hospital and have free treatment, whereas before this act came out, the working class people couldn't afford to go through any operations."

She said British workers were very satisfied with the program.

Curtis and Altmeyer dropped their debate and began arguing the British cradle-to-grave program, sponsored by the labor gove .ment.

Milton Babich Remains In Jail On Charge Of Murder In Death Of His Wife's Sister

MILWAUKEE, March 29 (AP)—Milton Babich today remained in jail on a first degree murder charge in the death of his young wife's sister after he twice was denied release on bond.

Circuit Judge Daniel Sullivan, in denying a plea by Chief Defense Counsel Arthur W. Richter to free the 19-year-old student on bond, said:

"I'm satisfied from reading this confession that a jury would be justified in finding a verdict of guilty of first degree murder."

District Attorney William McCauley had objected to the motion to free the youth pending his preliminary hearing April 12, saying he had obtained a confession from Babich that he killed Patricia Birmingham last Dec. 10.

Charges Given

The state charges Babich killed the 16-year-old suburban West Allis high school student and threw her weighted body into the Milwaukee river because he feared she would tell her parents that her sister, Kathleen, 17, was pregnant.

"I'm afraid if he is admitted to bail he might also decide to kill himself or some other person," McCauley said.

BABICH FACES JUDGE—Milton Babich, 19, left, appears before Circuit Judge Roland J. Steinle in Milwaukee at a habeas corpus hearing. Right is Dep. District Attorney John S. Barry. Babich is charged with the slaying of Monday was denied bond. He Patricia Birmingham, his young wife's sister.

Babich rose from where he had been sitting with Kathleen and denied he had any thought of killing himself or running away.

Said Judge Sullivan:

"It is my understanding it is not a practice to admit a defendant to bail, particularly when a confession has been made, in a crime of this nature.

Would Be Justified

"I'm satisfied from reading this confession that a jury would be justified in finding a verdict of guilty of first degree murder.

"He had murder in his mind when he bought the gun and when he loaded it and took it with him on his trip. He admits that Patricia annoyed him by threatening to reveal that her sister was pregnant.

"The motive was there, and finally he admits he pulled the trigger, on his own admission, twice. Once, it might have been considered an accident . . .

Made Similar Motion

Earlier, Richter had made a similar motion for Babich's release to District Judge Harvey L. Neelen after the latter had set April 12 for his preliminary hearing. McCauley objected and the motion was denied. Babich stood mute at his arraignment.

Babich first sought his freedom last Saturday in a habeas corpus action. But the hearing was recessed briefly and when court reconvened McCauley announced he was filing a murder charge against the youth.

Babich insists he only meant to frighten Patricia when he produced a .22 calibre target pistol, and that the shooting was an accident. He eloped with Kathleen five weeks later—just two days before Patricia's body was found March 20.

Robert Taylor And James Stewart Are Planning Westerns

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, March 29. — When in doubt, make a western.

This old movie maxim, based on the sure-fire box-office of horse operas, is being heeded by Robert Taylor and James Stewart. Taylor's next film after "Battleground" is slated to be "Devil's Doorway," which is one of MGM's first westerns since the actor's "Billy The Kid".

Stewart tells me he is thinking about getting back in the saddle again in "Blood Brother" at Warners. His last trip out west was "Destry Rides Again."

Speed Record Set

Stewart just finished "Operation Malaya" at MGM. The picture has the amazing record of being finished in 26 days on a 40-day scredule. The pace had everyone dazed. "I hope we don't find out that we left out the middle or something," says Jimmy.

Bing Crosby can't seem to escape horses. He's acting with 'em in "Riding High". That should be the signal for Bob Hope to get out his Crosby's horses" gag file.

Kenton Takes Rest

Stan Kenton, now on a six-month rest tour of South America, is said by friends to be planning a change of professions at 38. After being run ragged in the band business, he wants to turn to psychiatry. Some might consider the two fields closely allied.

Railroads Take Full Advantage Of Lewis' Green Signal Block

PITTSBURGH, March 29 (AP)—Coal-bearing railroads took full advantage of John L. Lewis' green signal block today, pulling long drags of coal cars to an eager market.

Their action was the answer to whether 463,000 United Mine workers east of the Mississippi river had obeyed Lewis. The miners to a man had followed their chief's order ending a two-week mine shutdown on schedule.

Less than 24 hours after the stoppage ended yesterday railroad crews came into the coal fields to attach locomotives to cars loaded to the brim. During the early morning hours today strings of empties were shuttled onto mine sidings.

Idles Railroaders

Some 70,000 railroaders were idled during the two-week stoppage. It was impossible to determine the exact number summoned back today. Most were running crews—engineers, firemen, brakemen and conductors.

Many thousands of shop workers remained idle but railroads indicated they would be back at work, too, by next week. The Chesapeake & Ohio said it would have about 7,000 shopmen report by April 2.

Among railroads reporting mines working full blast along their routes was the Norfolk & Western. It serves 128 mines in West Virginia, Virginia and Kentucky. The Virginian railway, which serves 75 mines in West Virginia, said all were operating.

That was the picture in all states where the UMW members quit work March 14 when Lewis called the shutdown. He termed it a memorial to miners killed and injured last year—and a protest against appointment of Dr. James Boyd as head of the federal bureau of mines.

Senate Confirms Boyd

The Senate confirmed Boyd last week by a 50-1 vote. Some operators feared Lewis wouldn't end the walkout on schedule. But such wasn't the case.

However, soft-coal miners will work a short week. April 1 is observed as John Mitchell day, in honor of an early UMW leader whom miners call the father of the 9-hour day. A similar holiday is observed in the anthracite fields during October.

Anthracite miners will work at least four days this week because the Pennsylvania anthracite commission fixed a 965,000 ton quota. That's double the quota of the week of March 7, the last week the miners worked in the anthracite fields of eastern Pennsylvania.

By 1948, more than one million barrels of crude oil were being produced daily from oil fields in the Middle East.

VICTIM THOUGHT SISTER'S CONDITION FUNNY

Slaying Of High School Girl In Milwaukee Is Symptom Of Rising Juvenile Delinquency

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Babich case in Milwaukee is already being called "a postwar American tragedy," a symptom of the rising juvenile delinquency worrying parents of teen-agers all over the country. Milwaukee has been stricken twice within a few months with youthful scandal and tragedy of national interest, and is aware of the urgency of solving the delinquency problem. The United Press sent staff correspondent Robert Musel, internationally famous reporter, there to report on what has happened and what is being done. His dispatch follows.

BY ROBERT MUSEL
United Press Staff Writer

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 29—Sixteen year-old Patricia Birmingham thought it was funny that her seventeen year-old sister, Kathleen, was pregnant from an illict love affair.

She joked about it to her own boy friend, confided it to her high school classmates and remarked slyly on her sister's figure in front of her unsuspecting parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Birmingham.

Desperate, unable to face a shame he knew must become known in a few weeks at the most, Kathleen's lover, 19-year-old Milton Babich, begged Patricia to keep the secret until he could manage an elopement.

Today, Patricia is dead, her body dragged from the Milwaukee river where Babich confessed he dropped it, wired to a concrete block—a method he read about in a comic book. Kathleen is on the verge of nervous collapse. And two pleasant middle-class homes are all but wrecked.

Vice Ring Revealed

The Babich case happened in Milwaukee. But it could have happened anywhere in the United States.

"Something has come over our young people," said Mayor Frank Zeidler, "perhaps something has happened to the American home in the aftermath of war."

Mayor Zeidler knows. Last October his city was stunned by the discovery of one of the worst juvenile vice rings in Midwestern history—20 teen-age white girls, negro youths and older men who frankly confessed sexual excesses that police said were almost "beyond belief." The girls were not identified but some of them were known to have come from "good homes."

This followed a raid by the morals squad on a party in which eight boys and girls were found intoxicated, at least one couple in the bed-room while automobiles filled with other teen-agers raced away from the house when the police arrived.

Drinking Orgy Reported

And while the city still was taking action on the juvenile vice ring, another teen-age drinking orgy was reported to police who caught 24 boys and girls from 15 to 18 in the home of a woman who said she saw nothing wrong in minors drinking at home — "it keeps them off the streets."

Yet Milwaukee's record for a city of its size, 700,000, is not bad. There are worse.

"What has happened here serves to indicate, however, that juvenile delinquency must be a tremendous problem the whole country over," Mayor Zeidler said.

Milwaukee's current sensation, the Babich case, is gruesome enough in its bare outlines, but some of its aspects will interest social investigators beyond the scope of the crime itself.

Patricia apparently considered her sister's pregnancy a matter for jest — a curious attitude perhaps indicative of the changing ideas of what is right and wrong among young folk. That is what Milwaukee's church and civic leaders are setting out to fight.

Unaware Of Slayer

Babich, tall, handsome honor student, apparently did not find it hard, judging from the way he smiled at photographers, to elope and marry Kathleen in Kalamazoo, Mich., (where the waiting period is waived for pregnancies) knowing he had killed the sister she was worrying about.

Kathleen, nursing her tragedy, murmured over and over:

"I lived with him five days and didn't know he killed my sister."

Of deepest concern to Mayor Zeidler and civic and church leaders is that the Babich case and many of the more flagrant recent examples of juvenile delinquency have stemmed from homes which a decade ago rarely figured in such incidents.

All are agreed that the decay set in during the war. In 1943, when parents were working long hours in war factories, or spending the inflated income of the period, Milwaukee had a record number of 2,766 cases in its juvenile court. Last year's figure was a little less, 2,372 cases.

But commenting on these, Fred Schwarze, superintendent of the detention home, said the percentage of teen-age girls committed last year for sex offenses was unprecedented and "staggering" — 60 to 70 percent.

'Seeing-Eye' Dog Gets Helping Hand

PHILADELPHIA, March 29 (AP)— Dickey, a 10-year-old German shepherd seeing eye dog, needed a helping hand himself today and got it quickly.

Dickey was leading his master Michael Smith, off a subway escalator when his right rear paw slipped into the crack at the edge of the platform.

He stopped and whined softly. Smith quickly diagnosed the trouble but was unable to free the trapped foot. A sympathizer dashed downstairs and had a PTC employe shut off the escalator's power.

Another called police who freed the dog and took him to SPCA headquarters. The mangled paw required several stitches.

Lubbock Man Heads Photography Group

FORT WORTH, March 29 (AP)— Winston Reeves of Lubbock is the new president of the Southwestern Photographers association. Other new officers included Jack Rodden, Roswell, N. M., vice-president, and Lee Webb, Houma, La., secretary-treasurer.

They were elected at the final meeting of the association convention here last night.

Twenty prize-winning photographers were selected from more than 1,200 entries.

Three photographers, R. Wade Vliet of Oklahoma City, Frank B. Burchard of Denton, and W. F. Schlueter of Nacogdoches, each had two prize-winners.

Others garnering awards were Paul L. Gittings, Houston; Offie Lites, Pine Bluff, Ark.; L. F. Doherty, Denton; Mel Thurman, Abilene; Virginia Leberman, Austin; John C. Guillet, jr., Natchitoches, La.; Grace Moore, New Orleans; Gibbons Smith, Brownwood; C. F. McCann, El Campo; Ben Terrell, Harlingen; Phyllis Moore Stoll, New Orleans; George A. General Ike Begins Rest In Effort To Shake Off Ailment

KEY WEST, Fla., March 29 (AP) —Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower began his first full day of rest and recuperation today in the warm sun of this southernmost city in the United States.

He was here to shake off an inflammation of the stomach. His doctor, Maj. Gen. Howard Snyder, was with him.

The man who led the allied armies to victory in Europe arrived at Boca Chica naval air station yesterday abboard President Truman's plane, the Independence.

Appears Pale

He appeared pale, and leaned heavily on General Snyder as he was assisted down the ramp and walked slowly to a waiting car.

The famous lopsided Eisenhower grin apeared as reporters clustered around him, however.

But he shook his head to their questions.

"I haven't any comment," he said.

Driven To Base

General Eisenhower was driven eight miles to the naval submarine base, where he took over "quarters L," a residence near Mr. Truman's little White House. In the same quarters Adm. William Leahy rested and wrote his memoirs.

Before leaving Washington, General Eisenhower said he expected to have the joint chiefs of staff, of which he is chairman, at Key West for a weekend conference when he feels better.

Police Call Deaths Murder And Suicide

EVANSTON, Ill., March 29 (INS) —Police found a young couple shot to death today in an Evanston home and officers declared the shooting was murder and suicide.

The bodies of Joseph W. Cowley, 34, an electrician, and his estranged wife, Katherine, 24, both believed to be from Richmond, Va., were discovered in the home where Mrs. Cowley had been rooming.

Police rushed to the home after a telephone call from a man they believed was Cowley. The voice gave Sergeant Bertram Schlenger the address and then blurted out:

"I just killed my wife. I'm going to kill myself."

Mrs. Cowley's body, with a bullet wound in the head, was found in a front bedroom. Her husband's body was nearby and a Spanish pistol lay beside him. He also had been shot in the head.

William the Conqueror, ruler of England, was a Duke of Normandy and a descendant of Viking tribal chieftains.

IT is quite right that the practice of cosmetology (a $15 word meaning beauty operation) should be guarded by law.

To let anybody and everybody do professional beauty parlor work under any and all conditions of sanitation and lack of it, would be dangerous to the point of foolishness.

We have laws governing cosmetology in Texas and, by and large, they are good and sufficient. But some people in the beauty parlor dodge are a little bit too ambitious and, therefore, should be spanked.

Senate Bill No. 247, currently pending in the Legislature, would make it a violation of the law for anybody not a registered beauty operator to help somebody else with what is loosely called a "permanent," or with any other sort of hair-dressing. Thus, two neighbors who might wish to help each other with their hair (by way of one of these newfangled home "permanent' deals) would be lawbreakers, and subject to punishment.

That's a lot of hooey. It violates freedom of individual action. In short, it stinks.

Any legislator who would vote for Senate Bill No. 247 without proper changes to safeguard people's individual rights ought to be ridden back to his home district on a rail.

If backers of Senate Bill 247 want to make it a violation of the law for non-licensed persons to do hair dressing for a fee, we'll go along with them.

So will everybody else, who realizes that there must be sanitary and other strict standards surrounding professional beauty work and beauty operators.

But if Mrs. Joe Blow wants to help her good friend, Mrs. Bill Doakes, with her Toni, or Phoney, or whatever they call 'em, for free, that is the right of Mrs. Blow and Mrs. Doakes. Senate Bill 247 would be just another unenforceable law with nothing more than nuisance value.

What we need most in this state is a law, with teeth in it, aimed at selfish groups seeking statutes which (1) are against the best interests of the public; (2) are unenforceable, and (3) are plain silly.

Time was when the best actors on Broadway took Broadway's best shows to the hinterlands, playing one, two, three - day or weekly stands from one end of the country to the other. But travel costs, union restrictions and the movies put an end to all that. Now a big name actor with a big name show is a rarity, outside of New York, Chicago, Boston and San Francisco.

That's too bad. It's been too bad for several decades now. But maybe a new attack on the travel problem may result in good actors and good shows again being seen on the Main streets of the land.

Recently organized in both New York and Hollywood is a group known as the "Theater on Wings." By use of the airplane, and by employing scenery made of spun glass and aluminum, repertory shows will again take to the road—the first tour being into the Southwest and starring Richard Arlen and Sally O'Neill.

Al Duffy is business manager of the undertaking and his address is 2192 Beech Knoll Road, Hollywood, 46, Cal. If any local group is interested in sponsoring the "Theater on Wings," its members can start from here.

Perhaps we should relegate this material to the advertising columns, but we feel so strongly about the nation's needs for good entertainment to let pass the opportunity of bringing it out here.

After all, haven't the people of America, as a whole, just as much right to good theater as the favored few of New York plus a few visitors?

"THEATER on Wings" has the best wishes of the best people in the theater world. Headed by Harold Winston, a successful producer and former associate of Frank Capra and other movie greats, the organization has something the people—or, at least, a lot of them—really want.

Getting started, "Theater on Wings" will play under auspices of local groups, splitting the profits as it goes. We'd like to see some of its offerings—including "The Voice of the Turtle," "Blithe Spirit," "Pygmalion," "The Bad Man," "Suspect" and "Peg o' My Heart"—right here in Lubbock.

So would others.

After all, life can be made so much more pleasant and exciting if we will only make it so.

BY DREW PEARSON: PAN AM'S LOBBYING AS EXTENSIVE AS ITS AIRPLANE ROUTES

Marshal Tito Woos U.S.A. With Tips On Russia

WASHINGTON.—Pan American airways not only operates airplanes to many corners of the world, but it operates lobbying activities to almost every corner of Washington. Free rides, fancy dinner parties, special airplanes at the disposal of senators and newspapermen are part of the way Pan American has helped to get lush air routes and fat mail subsidies.

PEARSON

The other day, however, Pan Am pulled a new wrinkle. It has half a dozen important cases pending before the Civil Aeronautics board. While waiting decision on these cases Pan Am staged a junket for some of the top government men who will pass on them.

In Pan Am's latest luxury liner, a Boeing stratocruiser, Oswald Ryan, vice chairman of the CAB, plus four CAB officials flew to Miami, basked in the sun for three days, spent little money, ostensibly inspected Pan Am's Miami base. With Ryan went: Warner Hord, chief of the accounting and rates division; William Cusick, CAB examiner; Frank Crozier, special adviser on route matters; William Andrews, chief of the accident investigation bureau; Ed Slattery, CAB's publicity chief.

Queried about details of this "inspection," the CAB claimed it was "routine." Just why the CAB permits its employees to accept favors from the same corporations CAB is charged by law to regulate remains a mystery.

However, there would be less corporate subsidy of government employees if Congress would increase the pitifully inadequate travel allowance now paid them.

Courtesies Of The Senate

It's against Senate ethics for one senator to make an uncomplimentary remark about another on the Senate floor. But that didn't stop Indiana Republican William Jenner from taking this off-the-record crack the other day at Minnesota's forthright Hubert Humphrey.

While Humphrey was speaking, Jenner whispered over his shoulder:

"You know, looking at that guy reminds me of some tomatoes I planted once. I planted them too early in the spring and the frost got them."

Old-Fashioned Republicanism

The Republican national committee got a sharp earboxing from liberal Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon at a recent secret session of G.O.P. senators. Furthermore, Ohio's conservative Bob Taft, who is poles apart with Morse on most things, backed the Oregonian to the limit.

"I'm fed up with having the national committee dictate to members of Congress on legislative policy," Morse angrily told his colleagues. "In many states committee members aren't even elected, like we are. They are appointed by courthouse gangs, and do not express rank-and-file sentiment.

"We've got to restore public confidence in the Republican party and it's obvious we will get no help from the national committee," the Oregonian continued. "I've got an election fight next year, in which I intend to take my own position on public issues, not the committee's.

"The same goes for this new senatorial campaign committee (headed by G.O.P. Senator Owen Brewster of Maine and ex-senator John Townsend of Deleware)," concluded Morse. "I'm going to make it clear that I don't want any money or help from this committee if it is conditioned on the committee telling me how to run my campaign."

A number of colleagues seconded Morse's views, among them Taft, who jumped to his feet and announced:

"I'm in complete agreement with the gentleman on both points he raised."

TITO Warns U.S.A.—Here is a strange tip—from Joe Stalin's onetime friend, Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia. He has informed the U. S. ambassador in Belgrade that Russia is secretly building a major submarine base off the Albanian coast, from which Red subs could disrupt all British-American shipping in the Mediterranean. Tito is leaning over backward to be friendly these days.

British housekeeping — British Ambassador Sid Oliver Franks has to juggle his guest rooms carefully these days. After the visit of Winston Churchill, leader of the opposition in the British government, Sir Oliver will entertain his own boss, Foreign Minister Bevin, who will arrive for the signing of the Atlantic pact.

Thumbs down on Sweden—The American embassy has flatly turned down Sweden's request to buy American radar equipment. Freeman Matthews, the U. S. ambassador, told the Swedish foreign minister that the U. S. A. has none to spare because it is building a radar fence around its borders . . . Inside fact is that the Army department has some old radar equipment it could sell the swedes, but it has no intention of doing so in view of the way the Swedes vetoed the North Atlantic pact.

Germany in North Atlantic pact—Secretary Acheson has agreed to meet with the French and British foreign ministers to talk about Germany—early in April in Washington. Main purpose will be to give final approval to plans for creating a separate western German government. Most important aftermath of the meeting is that if all goes well western Germany will be included in the North Atlantic pact.

How About A New One, Tex?

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

A GROUP of college girls recently interviewed by a New York World-Telegram reporter admitted marriage was their number one ambition but all declared they were going to fight against even slipping into the "bridge playing garden club rut."

MILLETT

Well, girls, it's going to be a long, hard fight.

It may be fairly simple at first to steer clear of the clubwoman routine, especially if you have a job during the first year or two of your married life.

But every year the fight will get tougher. As you and your husband settle down to take your place in your community all sorts of pressures will be brought to bear.

For instance, there are all those auxiliaries made up of women who have nothing in common except that their husbands have something in common.

And, though you may have sworn never to join a bridge club, there'll come a day when you oblige a friend by filling in for an absent member of her club. First thing you know you'll be asked to join and you won't even be able to plead that you don't know how to play bridge.

WORST IS YET TO COME

OR YOU'LL find yourself lonely in some strange city and you'll discover that the only way to meet other women, now that the neighborly call has gone out of style, is to join some kind of a club or organization. Loneliness drives a good many women into the "bridge playing, garden club rut."

You may even get ambitious for your husband and wonder if perhaps the prominent clubwomen aren't better press-agents for their husbands than you are for yours.

Or somebody will decide you are just the person to help out with a civic program and first thing you know you're heading a committee. If it is ever discovered that you're a hard worker, the fight will be over. You'll be on every committee that comes along.

But the greatest pressure of all will come when your children start to school. Belonging to the PTA is only the beginning.

When you said you were going to FIGHT the "bridge playing, garden club rut," girls, you chose the right word.

If you manage to escape it, you'll have to fight. For the feminine world is organized to the teeth and if the garden club does not get you the child study club will.

SIR JAMES TAGGART was showing an Aberdeen visitor through a Sheffield cutlery factory. The proprietor offered him a beautiful pocket knife as a souvenir of the visit, but as it is thought unlucky to give a knife as a present, suggested a nominal payment of one half-penny.

The Aberdeenian's face fell, but he fished in his pocketbook, and extracted a penny. "I dinna hae a ha'penny," he explained. "but here's a penny. I'll take twa."

COTTON IN CANADA?

The announced plan of a Canadian farmer to experiment with cotton growing there has intriguing possibilities.

The present supposition is that cotton cannot be grown profitably in the Dominion, which is about 1,000 miles north of the U. S. cotton belt. But there was a time when the same thought existed as to wheat. Canada long has been one of the greatest wheat producing nations, chiefly because strains adapted to the climate were developed.

The development of cold-climate cotton varieties doubtless would be more difficult than wheat. But there's no proof that it can't be done. If it should be, the effects might be considerable upon the U. S. cotton farmer—including the loss of the Canadian market for the staple; a new competitor in world trade and fast-maturing strains which might enable the American grower to produce two crops a year instead of one, thereby aggravating the anticipated problem of surplus.

The chances are, however, that the experiment won't succeed. But the prospect won't keep American observers from watching with much interest, and some uneasiness, the first attempt to produce cotton in the Medicine Hat area, about 75 miles north of the Montana boundary.

Nickel Glass Of Beer Brings Fame, Union Action, Trouble

NEW YORK, March 29—There is a pretty important man named Sam Atkins living in this town right now. Sam was never very important when he was a soldier in the first World war, or when he was a fireman in New Jersey, or when he was working in warplant protection during the last mes.

RUARK

Sam didn't draw much water during the last four years either, when he ran his own saloon in one of the poorer streets in the lower east side. It was just a saloon, like any other modest saloon in the unplushy parts of New York — a smoky cave with kids playing stickball out front, and a few bums dropping in to cadge a free snort, and the neighborhood guys coming around to talk baseball and grouse about their wives.

Sam's saloon didn't even have a television set.

Then all of a sudden Sam got important. Sam did an unprecedented thing. Sam shook the entime social structure of his town, to where it wobbled at the roots.

Reduces Beer Price

Sam reduced the price of beer from ten cents a glass to a nickel a glass.

Just think, a whole glass of beer for only a nickel!

Sam figured soundly. He says he used to make, at 10 cents a glass, a whole six bucks on a half barrel of brew. But he didn't sell many half barrels. Money, says Sam, was getting tighter in his neighborhood. Ardent beer-bibbers didn't have the cash they used to have, when the war plants were booming and the sailors were in from the sea.

So Sam figured that if he could sell ten times as much beer at half the profit, he would be doing a lot better. People in the St. Mark's place neighborhood would be a lot less thirsty.

So Sam slashed the price of beer to a single, homely jitney. And the world beat a bath to his door.

First it was the customers. They even came over from New Jersey, to marvel at and to drink that ancient wonder, a nickel beer. Then the reporters heard about it, and Sam scarcely had time to draw a glassful for answering questions plied by inquisitive young men with wads of yellow copy paper in their fists.

THINK of it! In this world of the sundered atom, the germ-killing fungus, the guided missile, a burly man in a lower east side semi-slum is suddenly famous, famous for voluntarily reducing the price of eight ounces of hops and malt.

A television show claimed him as an oddity, but his patrons couldn't see him on the show. The customers stood six deep in his little cellar pub. Prosperity came to Sam.

But with prosperity came the penalties of fame and riches. First it was his fellow saloon keepers. They didn't like the way Sam was selling beer. Bread out of their mouths, they said.

So they got together with some big brewers, and they pulled a force-out. The brewers told Sam they couldn't supply him any longer. Pressure from the competition. So Sam had to go into the hot beer business. He is buying his suds on the side, now, at stepped-up prices.

Still For Nickel

But he kept selling it for a nickel. So at 3 p. m. last Wednesday afternoon, pickets, from the bortenders' local No. 15—they showed up with "unfair" signs on their shoulders. Not unfair to the brewers. Not unfair to the customers, who cheer Sam on. Unfair to the bartenders. Coincidence?

Their complaint is that Sam hires a barmaid. The union is against bar-maids — even though this one, a pretty girl named Helen Johnson, is Sam's niece. Sam always ran a family business. His assistant, Sam Hoch, is his cousin. Sam Hoch says he is a member of the barkeeps' union.

During the four years Sam Atkins has run his bar, always using female help, the unions never bothered him before, he says. They were only after the big grogshops. Now they want him to fire his niece and hire two union-scale barkeeps, or they will keep picketing him, scaring off customers and making beer delivery more and more difficult.

Sam Atkins is only trying to run his own business his own way, at a small profit, eminently suitable to himself and to his customers. Sam Atkins says he won't knuckle down. But Sam Atkins has nothing but trouble today.

And all he ever did was cut the price of a glass of beer.

Today's Thought

Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ . . .—I Peter 1:13.

Oil Project In Gaines County Proven For Flowing Production

Magnolia Petroleum Company No 1 Flanagan, one location east of the discovery from the Ellenburger at Shell Oil Company, Inc., No. 1 Hawkins, to open the Flanagan field, in South-Central Gaines county, about 11 miles southeast of Seminole has proven for flowing oil production from the lower Clear Fork of the Permian, and is to drill ahead to explore the Devanian and the Ellenburger.

This project, located 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 9, block A-23, psl survey, flowed 45.9 barrels of oil in one hour through a five-eighth inch bottom hole choke, from interval at 7,169-7,265 feet.

Gas Shows At Surface

The tool was open one hour and 32 minutes. Gas showed at the surface in four minutes. Mud flowed out at the top in 23 minutes and oil started flowing in 28 minutes.

The well was flowed to pits for four minutes to clean, and was then turned to tanks. It flowed 45.9 barrels of clean oil, and no water in 60 minutes, and the tool was then closed.

Gas-oil ratio and gravity figures on the petroleum was not reported. The venture drilled on down and took another drillstem test at 7,265-85 feet.

The tester was open for two hours and 45 minutes. Gas showed at the surface in 10 minutes. No fluid flowed out while the tool was open.

Recovery was 3,822 feet of 37.6 gravity oil, 182 feet of heavily oil and gas cut drilling mur, and 121 feet of salty, sulphur water.

Venture Drills Ahead

The venture is drilling ahead.

Shell's No. 1 Hawkins, discovery well of the Flanagan field developed several hundred feet of free oil in drillstem test in the Clear Fork, but it did not flow from that formation.

It showed for prolific flowing oil from the Devonian, and also for good flowing production from the Ellenburger.

The Shell discovery was completed from the Ellenburger. The Clear Fork and Devonian pays were left cased off and will not be produced at this time.

It is reported by informed observers that the Magnolia prospector is approximately flat with Shell No. 1 Hawkins, on the formations so far penetrated.

Takes Drillstem Test

George P. Livermore, Inc., No. 1 Head, southeast stepout from the Shell discovery, and located 631 feet from north and 610 feet from the west lines of section 12, block A-23, psl survey, took a drillstem test for an unreported length of time in the Clear Fork at 7,049-7,187 feet. Recovery was 180 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud, with no formation water being developed.

This venture is reported to have drilled to about 7,240 feet and to be taking another drillstem test.

Small Amount Of Oil

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware and Pan American Production Company No. 1 Good, Southwest Borden county wildcat, showed a little free oil and a small amount of oil and gas cut drilling mud, in a drillstem test of a Pennsylvanian lime section at 7,910-20 feet.

The tester was open for 70 minutes. Gas showed at the surface in 19 minutes. The volume was not gauged or estimated. No fluid flowed out at the top.

This prospector is 1,985 feet from south and 2,004 feet from west lines of section 37, block 33, TP survey, T-4-N. It is six miles northwest of the Vealmoor field, of North-Central Howard county. The production in that pool comes from the Canyon lime of the Pennsylvanian.

The No. 1 Good is to make more hole.

On the last test reported, the project swabbed 16 hours and made 101 barrels of oil cut three-tenths of on per cent basic sediment. The deep pay is opposite casing perforations at 8,200-40 feet.

The well has been shutin to dismantle the rig and install a pumping unit, before attempting completion.

Third Well Completed

Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company has completed the third commercial oil well for the Shafter Lake-Ellenburger pool in North-Central Andrews county.

The concern's No. 2-F University, 1,923 feet from south and 1,983 feet from east lines of section 13, block 13, University survey, was finalled for a 24-hour flowing potential of 1,952 barrels of oil per day.

The flow was through a 25/64-inch choke from the Ellenburger open hole pay bone at 11,736-11,817 feet. Gravity of the petroleum was 42 degrees. Gas-oil ratio was 138-1.

Have Various Activities

Residents have various activities. Mrs. Sparkman has crocheted and embroidered numerous items, selling some and using the proceeds to buy more thread and to buy medicine.

Her neighbor, Mrs. L. L. Davis, the only other resident at present of the women's wing of the building, and Mrs. Sparkman spend much time together.

Some of the men often read.

One resident, smiling, praised management of the home and said his only complaint is that friends do not come to see him often enough.

Lubbock Cotton

first place in cotton in 1948. Mississippi was in second place with a total of 2,274,864 bales. This was 787,629 bales under the Texas crop. It was, however, three-quarters of a million (757,611) bales more than they produced in 1947.

Mississippi not only increased her over-all crop but had two counties that topped 200,000 bales and two more that came close to that figure. Mississippi had an unusually fine growing season with plenty of moisture spread out fairly evenly over the entire season.

Cotton States Listed

California had two counties whose production exceeded 200,000 bales. Several in California, Arizona and Mississippi went over 150,000.

FIRE BREAKS OUT

PARIS, March 29 (AP) — Fire broke out today in the headquarters of the French Communist party. No great amount of damage was done.

The first record of skating in England was in the 12th century, when skates were made from the brisket bone of an ox and fastened by thongs to the sole of the skater's boot.

Oil Project In Gaines County Proven For Flowing Production

Magnolia Petroleum Company No 1 Flanagan, one location east of the discovery from the Ellenburger at Shell Oil Company, Inc., No. 1 Hawkins, to open the Flanagan field, in South-Central Gaines county, about 11 miles southeast of Seminole has proven for flowing oil production from the lower Clear Fork of the Permian, and is to drill ahead to explore the Devanian and the Ellenburger.

This project, located 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 9, block A-23, psl survey, flowed 45.9 barrels of oil in one hour through a five-eighth inch bottom hole choke, from interval at 7,169-7,265 feet.

Gas Shows At Surface

The tool was open one hour and 32 minutes. Gas showed at the surface in four minutes. Mud flowed out at the top in 23 minutes and oil started flowing in 28 minutes.

The well was flowed to pits for four minutes to clean, and was then turned to tanks. It flowed 45.9 barrels of clean oil, and no water in 60 minutes, and the tool was then closed.

Gas-oil ratio and gravity figures on the petroleum was not reported. The venture drilled on down and took another drillstem test at 7,265-85 feet.

The tester was open for two hours and 45 minutes. Gas showed at the surface in 10 minutes. No fluid flowed out while the tool was open.

Recovery was 3,822 feet of 37.6 gravity oil, 182 feet of heavily oil and gas cut drilling mur, and 121 feet of salty, sulphur water.

Venture Drills Ahead

The venture is drilling ahead.

Shell's No. 1 Hawkins, discovery well of the Flanagan field developed several hundred feet of free oil in drillstem test in the Clear Fork, but it did not flow from that formation.

It showed for prolific flowing oil from the Devonian, and also for good flowing production from the Ellenburger.

The Shell discovery was completed from the Ellenburger. The Clear Fork and Devonian pays were left cased off and will not be produced at this time.

It is reported by informed observers that the Magnolia prospector is approximately flat with Shell No. 1 Hawkins, on the formations so far penetrated.

Takes Drillstem Test

George P. Livermore, Inc., No. 1 Head, southeast stepout from the Shell discovery, and located 631 feet from north and 610 feet from the west lines of section 12, block A-23, psl survey, took a drillstem test for an unreported length of time in the Clear Fork at 7,049-7,187 feet. Recovery was 180 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud, with no formation water being developed.

This venture is reported to have drilled to about 7,240 feet and to be taking another drillstem test.

Small Amount Of Oil

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware and Pan American Production Company No. 1 Good, Southwest Borden county wildcat, showed a little free oil and a small amount of oil and gas cut drilling mud, in a drillstem test of a Pennsylvanian lime section at 7,910-20 feet.

The tester was open for 70 minutes. Gas showed at the surface in 19 minutes. The volume was not gauged or estimated. No fluid flowed out at the top.

This prospector is 1,985 feet from south and 2,004 feet from west lines of section 37, block 33, TP survey, T-4-N. It is six miles northwest of the Vealmoor field, of North-Central Howard county. The production in that pool comes from the Canyon lime of the Pennsylvanian.

The No. 1 Good is to make more hole.

Pump Necessary

Failure to flow has necessitated the installation of a pump at Humble No. 1-B Moore, probable Ellenburger discovery in Northwest Scurry county, 10 miles northwest of Snyder and 1,850 feet from north, 1,980 feet from east lines of section 492, block 97, H&TC survey.

On the last test reported, the project swabbed 16 hours and made 101 barrels of oil cut three-tenths of on per cent basic sediment. The deep pay is opposite casing perforations at 8,200-40 feet.

The well has been shutin to dismantle the rig and install a pumping unit, before attempting completion.

Third Well Completed

Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company has completed the third commercial oil well for the Shafter Lake-Ellenburger pool in North-Central Andrews county.

The concern's No. 2-F University, 1,923 feet from south and 1,983 feet from east lines of section 13, block 13, University survey, was finalled for a 24-hour flowing potential of 1,952 barrels of oil per day.

The flow was through a 25/64-inch choke from the Ellenburger open hole pay bone at 11,736-11,817 feet. Gravity of the petroleum was 42 degrees. Gas-oil ratio was 138-1.

enjoy meeting in the living room and are looking forward to sitting on the front porch in warm weather.

Women have rooms in one wing of the home and men have rooms in the opposite wing.

Those not too ill to leave their rooms go to the dining room for meals.

Have Various Activities

Residents have various activities. Mrs. Sparkman has crocheted and embroidered numerous items, selling some and using the proceeds to buy more thread and to buy medicine.

Her neighbor, Mrs. L. L. Davis, the only other resident at present of the women's wing of the building, and Mrs. Sparkman spend much time together.

Some of the men often read.

One resident, smiling, praised management of the home and said his only complaint is that friends do not come to see him often enough.

Lubbock Cotton

first place in cotton in 1948. Mississippi was in second place with a total of 2,274,864 bales. This was 787,629 bales under the Texas crop. It was, however, three-quarters of a million (757,611) bales more than they produced in 1947.

Mississippi not only increased her over-all crop but had two counties that topped 200,000 bales and two more that came close to that figure. Mississippi had an unusually fine growing season with plenty of moisture spread out fairly evenly over the entire season.

Cotton States Listed

California had two counties whose production exceeded 200,000 bales. Several in California, Arizona and Mississippi went over 150,000.

FIRE BREAKS OUT

PARIS, March 29 (AP) — Fire broke out today in the headquarters of the French Communist party. No great amount of damage was done.

The first record of skating in England was in the 12th century, when skates were made from the brisket bone of an ox and fastened by thongs to the sole of the skater's boot.
