

14,000 EXPECTED Record Voter Total Still Climbs Higher

Mrs. Zirah LeFevre, county tax assessor-collector, said this morning that her records showed that 13,500 persons have registered and been issued voting certificates when the deadline fell for voter registration at midnight Wednesday.

On hand, she added, are between 500 and 1,000 mailed applications which are yet to be opened and processed. More such mail will probably arrive today and tomorrow, she said. If these letters show postal cancellation prior to midnight, Jan. 31, the applicant will be registered.

"I know we will find a large number of duplicate registrations when we check the lists," said Mrs. LeFevre, "and these, of course, will have to be voided."

"However, the way it seems today, with the mail on hand and 13,500 already registered, I am more sure than ever we will have 14,000 qualified voters for 1968 elections in this county."

The 13,500 figure is an all-time high total for voters for this county, and if the 14,000 Mrs. LeFevre anticipates is achieved it will exceed the previous record by 2,500.

'Dirty Needle'

HOUSTON (AP)—At least 15 young persons required hospital treatment for hepatitis the past two months after use of methedrine with a "dirty needle," according to a Houston doctor.

He said the youngsters injected the drug into their veins.

The doctor, whose name was withheld because of a Harris County Medical Society ruling, said the source of the disease was traced to a northside teenager.

Methedrine is described as a "highly dangerous drug."

Irwin Miller, president of the Harris County Pharmaceutical Association, said he has alerted wholesale drug firms "to check the identity of people" making pickups of methedrine.

Irwin said he learned that youngsters posing as pickup men for drug stores have made purchases of the drug at wholesale outlets.

TFX Critic

WASHINGTON (AP)—Charging multi-billion dollar waste, a persistent Senate critic of the Fort Worth-built F111B aircraft has called on Congress to "prohibit further waste of the taxpayers' money" regarding the controversial weapons system.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., cited reports Wednesday that top naval officers consider the plane not capable of performing its mission.

The F111B is the Navy version of the TFX aircraft concept, which features variable-sweep wings. The planes are built by General Dynamics in Fort Worth.

Mystery Fires

HILLSBORO, Tex. (AP)—Mystery fires suddenly erupted in a residential section of Hillsboro early today, destroying two churches and damaging a third.

Two houses also burned down and two more suffered heavy damage.

The Hillsboro fire marshal, Norman Honeycutt, said there has been definite evidence of arson.

One of the churches was four blocks away from the other two. The ground was wet and misty rain was falling at the time.

Dallas Fire Marshal Hal Hood, summoned to Hillsboro, said he found evidence of three separate fires being set in one church.

State Fire Marshal Charles Meadow, dispatched investigators to Hillsboro to look into the cause of the apparently deliberately set blazes.

Fire departments from more than a dozen towns sent units to Hillsboro to combat the siege of fires. Marshal Honeycutt said hundreds of firemen and volunteers were on hand—"so many," he said, "they got in each other's way."

Completely destroyed were the First Baptist Church and the A.M.E. Methodist Church about two blocks away.

Some four blocks away firemen were able to extinguish fires that had started in the Macedonia Baptist Church, and there was only slight damage.

Hood said there was evidence of three deliberately set fires in the church—in the pulpit, in a back room divan, and by a side window.

Marshal Honeycutt said fire department units were sent into Hillsboro from Lancaster, Grandview, Waxahachie, Corsicana, Ennis, West, Waco, James Connally Air Force Base, Red Oak, Cleburne, Alvarado and "several other towns."

Some of the towns are more than 40 miles from Hillsboro.

The first alarm was sounded at 2:27 a.m. and the fires were declared under control at 4:40 a.m.

AN ABSOLUTE DOLL

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Wanted: Girl cook and part-time dishwasher. Must be absolute doll, with fantastic disposition and cheerleader smile. Free meals but no pay.

Think you would get an answer to an ad like that? Two bachelor medical students at the University of Florida did.

Fed up with their own cooking, Harry Asch, 24, of Massatequa, N.Y., and Dave Klapper, 23, of Miami, ran an ad in the campus newspaper for a girl to cook their meals. They promptly got 33 applications for the job.

They chose Sara Leigh Wakefield, 21-year-old education major. They chose her because they liked the way she walked.

"She sort of knocked us out," Asch said. "She's a dream and a tremendous cook."

In the beginning, Asch added, "I was looking for a good cook. Dave was looking for a pretty girl. While I interviewed the girls, Dave just sat and stared."

"It looks like it will last. Dave made some passes at first but was rebuffed. Now he keeps his seat at the table."

The final decision was tough, Asch said, "but we chose Leigh when we saw her walk down the hall."

Fighting Continues In Saigon

SAIGON (AP)—U.S. infantry and armored units battled die-hard Communist forces in Saigon again today as the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese pushed their biggest offensive of the Vietnam war up and down South Vietnam for the third day.

As fighting continued to rage in South Vietnam's capital, the Communists rampaged through other key government cities and took control of important areas in some of them. The situation appeared critical at many points.

PREDICTED

Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. troops in Vietnam, predicted the Communists would follow the current drive with a still bigger campaign against South Vietnam's two northernmost provinces, Quang Tri and Thua Thien, where the U.S. Marines are on guard below the demilitarized zone.

The Communists were paying a heavy price in their current offensive. Westmoreland said 5,500 enemy troops had been killed across the country, more than the toll usually reported for two or three weeks of fighting.

Allied casualties also were

Junior College Signs Up Record Number On 1st Day

Howard County Junior College set a one-day registration record Wednesday when 847 signed for spring semester work.

This had climbed to 858 at the end of the day. The number of other registrations had been completed but had not cleared the business office at that time. The total last spring was 867.

The number of full-time students stood at 525, which was up substantially from the 501 final figure for the spring semester in 1967. Dr. W. A. Hunt, president, said that the pending registrations included a probability of 23 other full-time students, which would push this total to 548, only seven short of the fall semester full-time student load. He said he would not be surprised if the final full-time figure were as high as the fall level.

The number of students registering from Webb AFB was 126 Wednesday evening, and several others have been projected to come in the days ahead.

Registration continues today and Friday to 9 p.m. and more regular and night-session students are expected to sign. Actually, registration stays open through Feb. 9, but Dr. Hunt urged prospective students to enroll as soon as possible and avoid lost work.

While there was no accurate check, there were indications that the vocational-technical division enrollments were up sharply, possibly 50 per cent more than for the autumn term. Classes in electronic data processing were filling rapidly.

Koreans Hint Willingness To Discuss Return Of Ship

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson may have to reassess U.S. troop commitments in Vietnam and seek more money to beef up American forces in the Korean area, says Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield.

As Mansfield discussed the possible increase in the U.S. military punch in the wake of Viet Cong raids in South Vietnam and the Pueblo crisis, there was a hint the North Koreans may be willing to discuss directly with American officials return of the Navy intelligence ship and her 83 men.

PRECEDENT

A broadcast from Pyongyang, North Korea, quoted Kim Kwang Hyup, secretary of the Central Committee of the North Korean Workers (Communist) party as saying there is a precedent for dealing with such a case before the Korean Military munjon, Korea.

Kim was quoted as saying: "That the U.S. imperialists have illegally brought the Pueblo case to the United Nations, although there is a precedent for the treatment of similar cases at the Korean Military Armistice Commission, is a premeditated intrigue for covering up their criminal act and misleading world public opinion."

In Washington, the State Department declined comment on whether this country would make a second effort at Panmunjom to settle the crisis. The North Koreans spurred a U.S. demand a week ago at the armistice site for release of the ship and crew.

The department said no new meetings had been scheduled.

LBJ Pushes Appeal For Tax Increase

Wants To Avoid 'Feverish Boom'

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson called today for a temporary no-strike-truce between industry and labor, a tax increase "in the next few weeks" and a study of possible new wage-price guideposts.

In his annual Economic Report, Johnson warned Congress the business advance is running "too fast for safety." The nation must choose quickly, he said, whether it wants to avoid a "feverish boom" leading to "a possible financial crisis, and perhaps ultimately a recession."

EXPANSION

The expansion can be moderated by prompt enactment of his proposed 10 per cent tax surcharge—to a high but healthy production gain of $61 billion he said. That would bring 1968 output to a record $446 billion.

"Damage already has been done to interest rates, to our trade surplus, and to the level of prices by the failure of Congress to act last fall," Johnson said, and added:

"But it is still not too late to avoid far more serious problems if action is taken in the next few weeks."

He endorsed a voluntary moratorium on strikes in major industries to keep American goods available and competitive in world markets and prevent further balance-of-payments trouble.

"We must," Johnson said, "exert every effort to avoid the possible destructive effects on our trade surplus of strikes or

Alternate Plan For Tax Hike

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican Sen. John J. Williams says he has reason to believe his proposals for a lower income tax hike than President Johnson seeks might be acceptable to the administration.

The Delaware Republican, a leading GOP spokesman in the Senate on money matters, told a reporter he had consulted closely with administration officials before offering his proposals Wednesday in a Senate speech.

BOOST

Williams urged a 6 per cent boost in income levies on individuals and 8 per cent on corporations. Johnson is urging a 10 per cent surcharge on each.

Williams' plan would raise about $6.5 billion in the first full year compared with $9.8 billion of new revenue contained in the administration recommendation.

But the senator said he was trying to be realistic in proposing a tax increase that might have a chance to clear Congress.

"We need some action in this field," he declared, "there has been too much delay." Although Williams did not claim to represent Senate GOP thinking on taxes, Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen indicated in a floor speech the proposals might provide the basis for a GOP policy position on taxes.

CUT

Williams coupled his income tax plan with proposals to cut spending $8 billion below Johnson's $186.1 billion budget total and other measures he said would improve the government's fiscal position.

He said he would offer the entire package as an amendment on an excise tax bill considered certain to clear the House and reach the Senate Finance Committee by March. Williams is senior Republican on this panel.

the threat of strikes in key industries.

"I urge business and labor to cooperate with the Secretaries of Labor and Commerce in dealing with this danger to our export surplus."

PRICE STABILITY

The President also announced establishment of a Cabinet Committee on Price Stability directed to develop means of fostering price and wage stability. Among other devices the committee will try to draft a formula for voluntary restraint in wage and price decisions.

The panel will not intervene "in specific current wage or price matters," Johnson said. But he indicated it will seek some guidelines device to replace the virtually defunct wage-price guideposts promulgated under President John F. Kennedy.

In his own 11,000-word portion of the message, the President:

—Vowed anew not to devalue the dollar. The U.S. commitment to maintain gold at $35 an ounce is firm and clear, he said, adding:

"We will not be a party to raising its price. The dollar will continue to be kept as good as or better than gold."

—Asked speedy action by Congress to erase the requirement that the bulk of the gold stock remain frozen as a currency reserve. Freeing it for sale to maintain the $35 price, Johnson said, will demonstrate U.S. readiness to meet its commitments.

—Reiterated his Jan. 1 directives to close the balance-of-payments deficit, urging Americans to postpone travel outside the Western Hemisphere for two years.

DENOUNCED

—Denounced the movement in Congress to impose import quotas on steel and a score of other products. This would be "retreating into shortsighted protectionism," Johnson said, and would bring swift retaliation against U.S. goods, thus penalizing all Americans.

"Protectionism is no answer to our balance-of-payments problem," the President added. "Its solution depends on expanding world trade."

—To the latter end, Johnson announced he shortly will send Congress legislation to extend unused tariff-cutting authority and take other steps toward freer trade.

Has Info On WT Gaming

DALLAS (AP)—The Dallas Times Herald said today the Texas Department of Public Safety has information confirming there was a gambling operation in Odessa's Lincoln Hotel.

The Dallas newspaper, in a copyrighted story by Jim Lehrer and Lewis Harris, said the DPS information indicated that the gambling existed in the hotel, now the Inn of the Golden West, until a few months ago.

QUOTED

A member of the Texas Public Safety Commission, the three-man civilian group closely associated with DPS affairs, was quoted by the Times Herald as saying:

"The information is that there has been a gambling operation on the seventh floor of the Lincoln Hotel."

"Our information is—and was—that it has been shut down for the last two to four months while the hotel itself is being refurbished."

"If it should be reopened," the commissioner added, "the assumption is that the local law enforcement people will close it. If they don't, DPS will," he added.

YOU'RE SICK, PAL, SICK!

If You Spot Mr. GH

Friday is Ground Hog Day and you know what that means, pardner!

If Mr. GH comes out in early hours of the day and the West Texas sun's red morning rays project his shaggy old shadow on the sod, we're in for six weeks more winter.

If the skies are overcast or one of these frequent West Texas fog blots out the sun, naturally Mr. GH will not see his shadow.

SPRING CLEANING

If this occurs, it will mean we have reached the end of winter, that spring is here or the same as.

If the first development arises, we are informed the ground hog will pop right back in his den, pull up the blanket, turn out the light and sleep for six more weeks.

If it is cloudy and the shadow's not there to scare the daylight out of him, he will open the door, raise the window shades, air out his bedding and set about his spring den cleaning.

FAIR ODDS

The forecast for tomorrow offers a very good possibility that the shadow will be seen and this, remember, means more winter. Partly cloudy and mild was the words the weatherman used.

The sun makes its debut at 7:48 a.m. If you are acquainted with any ground hogs, you might be out at that hour to get the low down back over the old records, it is an even-steven deal that he will see his shadow. For the first 25 years that weather records were maintained in Big Spring, there were 12 cloudy and 13 fair February est ground hog day was Feb. 2, 1911, when it was a summery 78 degrees and the wettest Feb. 2 was in 1931 when .34 inch rain was gauged.

Meantime, if you see a ground hog hereabouts, check in at the nearest hospital. You're sick, pal, sick!

There ain't no ground hogs in this part of these United States.

Bill Nails Loan Sharks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House appears on the verge of passing the most sweeping legislation ever approved by either branch of Congress to require that borrowers and buyers be told what interest and other finance charges they'll have to pay.

In a series of votes Wednesday, the House nailed in provisions that expand the Consumer Credit Protection Act well beyond the dimensions of similar legislation passed last year by the Senate.

One major question remains to be decided before the final vote expected late today: Whether the measure should contain a strict limitation on garnishment of wages to collect debts.

As it stands, the bill covers practically all forms of lending and selling on credit, requiring that customers be told—in terms of annual percentage—the finance charges.

Unlike the Senate bill, the House measure includes revolving credit plans of department and mail-order stores—plus transactions in which the credit charge is less than $10 and first mortgages on real estate.

It also would require advertisements to be specific about credit charges, if they mention lending or credit in any but general terms. Responsibility is on the advertiser, not the medium.

The revolving credit issue provoked the greatest dispute, but the House voted 135 to 19 to include this form of credit in the bill. That marked a major victory for Rep. Leonor K. Sullivan, D-Mo., who as chairman of a consumers affairs subcommittee, had battled for months for coverage of rotating credit.

An amendment aimed at loan sharks allied with organized crime was adopted at the urging of the House Republican leadership and its task force on crime.

The amendment would make it a federal crime to violate state usury statutes. Penalties would range up to 25 years and $10,000 in cases involving violence or conspiracy.

Big Spring News Director Captures Texas Med Award

The Texas Medical Association's award for excellence in communicating health information to the public has gone to Jim Baum, news director of station KBYG, Big Spring, for radio reporting.

Other top winners of the 1968 Anson Jones award were Mrs. Moselle Boland, medical writer of the Houston Chronicle; Brooks, Keller, medical writer for the Galveston News; Walter Guild, editor of the Midcounty Review in Nederland; Gene D. Legler, editor of Humble Oil and Refining Company's Humble News. No television awards were given this year.

Both Mrs. Boland and Legler have won the award twice previously.

This was the first time for Baum, but in 1962 Robert L. Smith, then a staff member of the Big Spring Herald, won a first place Anson Jones award for his two-part series on the background, treatment and rehabilitation of a mental patient.

Baum's 15-minute tape was made at the Big Spring State Hospital where he interviewed Dr. Frankie Williams, clinical director, and other staff members.

"Mental Health—Today and Tomorrow" detailed some of the new methods of coping with and treating mental illness, also with rehabilitative programs, and finally with a look at trends and rays of hope in dealing more adequately with this illness and with promotion of mental health.

The award, which carries with it $100 in cash, will be presented at a meeting of the Permian Basin Medical Society, according to the state association. Broadcast entries were screened by a Texas Association of Broadcasters committee, but a panel of seven physicians on TMA's public relations and public service committee made the final choice.

The suits were filed in the respective courts dependent on the amount of delinquent taxes claimed.

In 1967, there were only two tax suits disposed of and one new tax suit filed. In 1964, there were 400 such suits on hand in the district court. Today there are 321 on file.

Hospital Employee Runs Bookie Joint

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Police raided St. Louis Chronic Hospital Wednesday and arrested a 51-year-old employee they said had been taking bets through the hospital switchboard.

Detectives said none of the other employees or patients at the hospital were believed implicated in the alleged gambling operation.

Arrested was Fred E. Manson of St. Louis. Police said Manson took hundreds of dollars in bets a day on his extension phone in the hospital store room.

DA Unveils Fem Witness

NEW YORK (AP) — New Orleans Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison says that a woman identified Jack Ruby as being at the scene of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in Dallas.

Garrison made the statement Wednesday during a taping of Johnny Carson's "Tonight" show for broadcast in late evening on NBC-TV.

According to the Warren Commission report, Ruby was at the offices of the Dallas Morning News when the President was shot Nov. 22, 1963. Two days later Ruby shot and killed Lee Harvey Oswald, named by the commission as Kennedy's slayer.

Garrison named the woman witness as a Julia Ann Mercer, whom he did not otherwise identify.

The woman told him, Garrison said, of reporting to the FBI that she saw a man with a gun get out of a truck at the assassination scene. Shown four photographs by the FBI, Garrison said that the woman selected one as the man she saw, and that Ruby's name was on the picture.

Garrison contends that a group of at least seven men carried out the assassination, and that some elements of the Central Intelligence Agency were involved.

Gunmen Grab Chief, Four

VAIL, Colo. (AP) — Two gunmen bungled a car theft and holdup in this Rocky Mountain resort town early today, then took five hostages—including the Vail police chief—as they fled east toward Denver, the Colorado State Patrol reported.

It was the second fouled-up holdup-hothead-chase episode in Colorado this week. Monday, seven hostages were taken and two were slightly wounded by the 250-mile chase ended and the abductor was captured near Denver, 120 miles east of here.

Today roadblocks were set up along US 6, and all available officers were pressed into the hunt, but the carload of captives and captors had not been located by 8:30 a.m. MST, some four hours after the incident.

There were conflicting reports on the number and origin of the hostages.

"Everyone tells a different story," said Richard Schippers, deputy chief of the patrol. The latest report from the State Patrol indicated the hostages were Vail Police Chief Ted Holmes, who later was left handcuffed to a tree; three janitorial employees of the Vail Manor Hotel, where the trouble began, and possibly another person taken during a swap of cars in the town of Silver Thorne, just east of Vail.

The patrol said the driver of the second car, a maroon Plymouth, was reported taken, but this was not definitely confirmed. Neither that person, nor the three hotel employees, were identified immediately.

Holmes managed to uproot the small tree on Vail Pass, just east of here, and free himself.

DEATHS

John Robert Loud, Services Today

John Robert Loud, 70, of 1718 Ave. D., Lubbock, died Tuesday at 11 a.m. in a local hospital. Services were held today at 2 p.m. at the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Sudan, with burial in Sudan Cemetery. River-Welch Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

He was born Dec. 25, 1897, at Grimes, and was a veteran of World War I. Mr. Loud was a member of the Baptist church.

Harmon Merrick, Dies In Austin

Harmon A. Merrick, 77, who was reared at Big Spring, died at midnight Wednesday after suffering a heart attack in Austin. He had been in ill health but was showing improvement until he had the attack.

For a number of years he worked with the Planters Gin Company here, going many years ago to Austin to become engine operator for the Austin State Hospital power house. Since his retirement he had been a consultant in big machine operation.

Survivors include four children, Robert (Bob) Merrick, Ackerly, Mrs. Obie Peugh, Plainview, Mrs. Francis Storey, Big Spring, and Mrs. Jack Graves, Andrews; five sisters, Mrs. H. G. Hill and Mrs. Corrie Nichols of Big Spring, Mrs. Pearl Penny, Midland, Mrs. L. A. Stefan, Austin, and Mrs. Robert F. Schermerhorn, Dallas; three brothers, Carl Merrick, Big Spring, Max Merrick, Cotton Port, La., and Frank Merrick, Long Beach, Calif.

Enrollment Is Whittled

The end of the semester shake-out, including 46 mid-term graduates, whittled 72 off the Big Spring school enrollment at the end of last week.

The total drop in elementary schools was 26, of which 12 were from the Washington Place school. Marcy had seven withdrawals, and all others were nominal. Boydston gained three. Goljad Junior High dropped eight and Runnels picked up one, while senior high lost a net of 42. This made a net secondary drop of 49. Total enrollment at the end of the week was 7,363, down from 7,571 for the comparable date a year ago.

Weather Forecast

Thursday night rain will spread throughout the Eastern third of the nation with snow in the Great Lakes area and showers in the central Gulf Coast states. More rain is expected in the Pacific Northwest. It will be colder in the Midwest and milder in the East.

Nixon Seeks Republican Nomination

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon announced today in an open letter to the citizens of New Hampshire that he would be a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

The former vice president told the people of that state "the choices we face are larger than any differences among Republicans or among Democrats, larger even than the differences between the parties. They are beyond politics."

Nixon said in his long-expected declaration: "Peace and freedom in the world, and peace and progress here at home, will depend on the decisions of the next President of the United States. For these critical years, America needs new leadership."

Nixon told the voters that he learned "the awesome nature of the great decisions a President faces" during his 14 years in Washington, and said he had had a chance to reflect on the lessons of public office and measure the nation's tasks and problems during the past eight years.

"I have sought to apply those lessons to the needs of the present, and to the entire sweep of this final third of the 20th century," he said. "And I believe I have found some answers."

He noted he had visited New Hampshire often in the past but said he was not asking the support of voters now "on the basis of old friendships. We have entered a new age. And I ask you to join men in helping make this an age of greatness for our people and our nation."

'Fantasticks' Opens Three Night Run

"The Fantasticks," a musical drama that holds the record for length of run in New York City, opens here at 8:15 p.m. today for a three-night run, a production of the Little Theatre of Big Spring. It is being staged in the Lamplight Theatre on the Mall of Highland Shopping Center.

A few tickets will be available at the door, at $2 for adults and $1 for students and airmen. Some tickets are still available for Friday and Saturday night performances, but theatre-goers are urged to make purchases early, as there has been a grand rush this week for the remaining tickets.

A happy comedy, the play is paced by a number of memory-slicking melodies — the best known is "Try to Remember." A relatively simple set, but with outstanding costumes, lighting, and make-up bring the characters to life on a stage that brings the audience almost into the action itself. It is the first time the organization has staged such "intimate theatre."

The cast of eight has been working long hours since Jan. 2 to get the performances ready, and a preview night was held Wednesday evening for the news media and friends of the crew.

Playing leading roles are Dan Shockey, as The Narrator (El Gallo, the bandit); Sharon Beisser, as The Girl; and Lowell Grabau, as The Boy. The Fathers are Barry Clayton and Dick Shaver. Mrs. Grabau is The Mute; Dennis Brewer is The Man Who Dies (The Indian); and Al Scott plays The Old Actor.

Sharon Ryan has directed the play, assisted by Mrs. Dan Wilkins, with Don Kiebach as technical director. Mrs. Linda Mason is musical director, assisted by Dale Young, Glen Scott, Conny Wade, Darwin McBeth and David Thomas. Costuming is by Mrs. Dick Shaver, Joan Robert-

An Interesting Evening Of A Novel Presentation

If you want an interesting evening with a novel type of dramatic presentation, get your seats now for the Little Theatre of Big Spring production of "The Fantasticks."

Tonight's opener probably is a sellout, but seats for the Friday and Saturday night offerings may be available. The show is in the Highland Shopping Center mall, starting at 8:15.

The Little Theatre group has attempted something ambitious with its first play with music. A preliminary presentation was given for guests Wednesday evening, and while they did not see an entirely polished show (it should be better on subsequent nights), they saw one done with earnestness and talent.

"The Fantasticks" basically is a boy-meets-girl story, with a side play about the parent-adolescent relationship, but it's done with the anagorical touch, so that it's not traditional theatre.

Staging is particularly effective, and the cast plays easily with this modern type of presentation.

Dan Shockey as The Narrator shows his professional training, and is probably the strongest character in the show. But Sharon Beisser as The Girl and Lowell Grabau as The Boy bring always pleasant moments and some deft ones. Barry Clayton as The Girl's Father and Dick Shaver as The Boy's Father are facile with roles that call for sly humor. Al Scott and Dennis Brewer are simply old-time comics; and there's Wanda Grabau who keeps in your eye all the time without saying a word.

The cast seemed a bit tense in the opening sequences Wednesday evening, but had warmed up considerably for the second act. A judgment is that they will be more in the spirit for the ensuing nights.

Much of the credit for this undertaking goes to Sharon Ryan, the director who has worked to create the right moods of this serio-comic story.

Her work helped a great deal, because the vocal efforts in the play are probably the weaker points. The people who are putting their dramatic talents to work, however, surely claim no operative stature.

The score has some fine tunes, particularly "Try to Remember," "Plant a Radish," and "They Were You."

"The Fantasticks" is a notable example of cooperative work by interested people. They have accomplished something, and Big Spring's ought to appreciate it. — RWW

Lurleen Back In Hospital

HOUSTON (AP) — Gov. Lurleen Wallace of Alabama has entered the M. D. Anderson Hospital & Tumor Institute because of what physicians described as "some discomfort and pain."

"We expect her to be hospitalized only a short time," a spokesman said today. "Evaluations are being made to see what can be done to relieve the situation."

Mrs. Wallace has been undergoing radiation therapy treatment the past 3½ weeks as an outpatient and has been staying at a motel about five blocks from the University of Texas hospital. Doctors hope the treatment will destroy a small tumor discovered in January in the pelvic area.

"She has had some discomfort the past several months and the doctors decided this would be the best time to find out about it," a hospital spokesman said. "She has had some nausea, which is not unusual with this type treatment, and there has been a little bit of pain from the tumor pressing against a nerve."

The current radiation series is scheduled to end Friday. A hospital announcement said Wednesday the governor would leave for Alabama Friday and return in about three weeks for evaluation and examination.

Birth Control Info Offered Nation's Poor

WASHINGTON (AP) — Birth control services for the nation's poor will be offered—not just available on request—under policy guidelines issued by John W. Gardner, secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

Until this point, the department's policy was to provide family planning information only if it was requested by persons receiving federally supported health and welfare services.

But Gardner said in a Wednesday memorandum:

"Plans for comprehensive health services including maternal and child health must include consideration of the need for family planning services."

"Beneficiaries of assistance programs or other money payments should be fully informed of the availability of family planning services."

Gardner said an individual's eligibility for relief should "in no way" be dependent on the acceptance or refusal of such contraceptive advice. And, he said, family planning programs "shall guarantee freedom from coercion or pressure of mind or conscience."

President Johnson has asked Congress to provide more than twice the $28 million budgeted for birth control programs this year to extend services to about 900,000 women in the fiscal year beginning July 1, compared with about 125,000 women this fiscal year.

Pro Elevens Wind Up Giddy Day In Draft

NEW YORK (AP) — There is a certain giddiness that overtakes pro football people after more than 22 hours spread over two days of drafting the nation's top college players.

The chuckles came in bunches as representatives of the National Football League completed their 17 rounds of drafting Tuesday night.

There was Minnesota scoring a thigh-slapper by picking Larry

BILL MILLER

Famed Jumper To Stage Track Clinic Saturday

SNYDER—Bill Miller, 26, considered the greatest long jumper in Texas collegiate circles, will conduct a track clinic at Saturday's high school gymnasium Saturday morning.

High school coaches and athletes from throughout the area have been invited to be in attendance.

Miller is now a junior high school teacher in the Abilene public schools. The one-time McMurry College great hails from Winters. He was the first Texan ever to leap over 26 feet.

Miller's best career jump was 26 feet, 6 1/2 inches which came in the preliminaries to the 1964 Olympic Games in New York City.

He won the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics title in 1963 with a jump of 26 - 2 3/4. Miller has outleaped the great Ralph Boston on several occasions although, at 155 pounds and 5-10 he is considered small for a jumper.

Bill barely missed making the Olympic team in 1964, when Boston beat him with a world record jump of 27-5 in Los Angeles. Miller made two goodwill

THURMAN RANDLE

Big Daddy Is Eagle Pick

Big Spring, which had two of its native sons playing professional football the past season, could have as many as four in the game in 1968.

Thurman (Big Daddy) Randle, a tackle here under coach Don Robbins and more recently of U-Texas at El Paso, was a sixth round pick of the Philadelphia Eagles in Wednesday's draft.

Earlier, Charley West was a second round choice of the Minnesota Vikings. West was a second team All-America selection the past year at UTEP.

Charley Johnson of the St. Louis Cardinals and Danny Birdwell of the Oakland Raiders are Big Spring exes who have already made their marks in pro football.

Birdwell played in the last Super Bowl game at Miami.

Games Are Not For The Pros, Says Brundage

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee today told the world's Olympic athletes:

"Those whose aim it is to make money are not eligible and are not wanted, it's as simple as that."

The 80-year-old American, who has dedicated himself to the Olympic movement, made his position known in a speech at the opening session of the 66th session of the IOC — six days before the start of the winter Olympics in this winter sports playground.

"You have heard much of the complicated amateur problem," Brundage said in opening the session.

"Despite all the talk it is not complicated at all. The games are non-commercial—they are not a business and those whose aim it is to make money are not eligible and are not wanted. It is as simple as that."

Brundage went on: "Those who assert there are no longer any amateurs and who with a wave of the hand wish to dismiss the distinction between amateurs display only their ignorance."

"It is true that amateurism is a matter of conscience and difficult to define, but it is precious things like friendship, love and charity and the world would be a dismal place without it."

Brundage added: "When a skier insists on being photographed showing the brand of his skis can be sure there is a reason, even if it is not to prove it."

"Those who are secretly on the payrolls of manufacturers, those who surreptitiously accept valuable presents which are the same as cash, those who are paid by commercial institutions or winter resorts and used for advertising purposes with no work to do are not eligible for the Olympic Games."

"If they sign the Olympic entry forms they are lying and if they are dishonest in sport they are likely to be dishonest elsewhere. It is neither smart nor clever to cheat and they are not fooling anyone merely because their dishonesty cannot be proven."

"If an individual wants to make money by reason of his athletic ability it is for him to decide, but he should admit his professional status publicly and with pride and not pretend to be an amateur."

Old Guard Takes Over In Tourney

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — The Old Guard, so to speak, was in at least temporary control today as Bob Rosburg, 41, and long Bill Collins, 39, led the way into the second round of the $122,000 Bob Hope Desert Golf Classic.

Rosburg, now listed from St. Louis, whose last tournament triumph was in the 1961 Bing Crosby National, and Collins, whose last big one was the 1962 Buick Open, went into play five strokes under par and one ahead of their nearest rival, Lee Trevino.

Collins won top money of $2,970 in the pro-amateur phase of the event last year. But both he and Rosburg finished out of the money in individual scoring, each with 366.

The top three players found the Indian Wells course to their liking, but from now on out the going may be rougher. Most of the pros rank Indian Wells as the easiest of the four in action.

Par is 36-36-72 on all the club tests—Eldorado, Bermuda Dunes, La Quinta and Indian Wells. Indian Wells is the shortest, 6,711 yards, and Bermuda Dunes the longest at 6,910.

Two Tandems In Deadlock

Two tandems tied for first place in the Louisiana Draw links meet held at the Muncy course here the past weekend.

Bob Smith and John Radcliff teamed up to fire a 70, the same score achieved by Don Lovelady and J. P. Gordon.

Two other duos were deadlocked for third place, each at 72. One was composed of Charles Bailey and Don Horton, the other of Jerry Barron and Jimmy Welch.

Three teams came in at 74 to tie for fifth. Jimmy Newsom and Jimmy Norman made up one of the tandems, Charley Johnson and Dewey Byers the second one and E. S. Morgan and J. Frierson the third one.

Merchandise awards were distributed to the top contingents.

A total of 224 players took advantage of the weekend's fine weather to play golf at the Muncy course, contributing toward the most traffic the 18-hole layout has had in several months.

"GOOD-WEAR 'NO LIMIT' GUARANTEE"

No limit on months. No limit on miles. No limit as to roads. No limit as to speed. For the entire life of the tread, ALL NEW GOOD-WEAR AUTO TIRES ARE GUARANTEED against defects in workmanship and materials and normal road hazards, except for punctures. This guarantee does not extend to auto tires used on trucks, or racing tires and tires stamped "Racer" and "Barnes" or "RACER".

GOOD-WEAR TIRE FAILS UNDER normal wear conditions of more than 80,000 Goodyear miles in the United States and Canada will at our option either repair or make allowance on a comparable new tire based on original tread design depth remaining. Good-Wear's printed "Guarantee" is the basis of adjustment, which price will fairly represent the actual retail selling price of the comparable tire at time of adjustment.

USE OUR RAINCHECK PROGRAM. Because of an expected heavy demand for Marathon tires, we may run out of some sizes during this offer, but we will be happy to order your size tire at the advertised price shown in price box and issue you a raincheck for future delivery of the merchandise.

Bob Lanier Shapes Up With Top Hands

By The Associated Press
Bob Lanier, 6-foot-11 sophomore from the unbeaten Brown Indians of St. Bonaventure, has established himself as one of the best big men in college basketball this season.

Low Alcindor, 7-1½ star of UCLA's national champions, and Elvin Hayes, 6-8 Big E of Houston's top-ranked Cougars, couldn't have played better than Lanier did Wednesday night in leading the fifth-ranked Bonnies over Villanova 66-62.

The 265-pound Lanier scored two key baskets, blocked several shots, grabbed a vital rebound and started several fast breaks in the closing minutes as the Bonnies chalked up their 16th straight at the Palestra in Philadelphia.

"Lanier won the game for us on defense by blocking those shots at the end," said Larry Weise, St. Bonaventure coach. "I never saw a man completely dominate the play the way Lanier did in the last three minutes," declared Jack Kraft, Villanova coach.

Lanier finished with 18 rebounds and 22 points, including the basket that put the Bonnies ahead for good at 60-59 as they snapped Villanova's nine-game winning streak.

In his last three games against Detroit, St. Francis, Pa., and Villanova Lanier has scored 73 points and grabbed 57 rebounds.

Lanier's latest performance overshadowed the 50-point spree by Calvin Murphy, the 5-10 soph, in leading Niagara over Syracuse 116-107. It was a single game record for Syracuse's Manley Field House. Dave Bing, former Orange star, held the old mark of 43.

Two free throws by Al Smith in the last 34 seconds gave Bradley a 74-72 victory over Cincinnati at Peoria. Jerry King scored 20 points and pulled down 15 rebounds in pacing Louisville to a 73-63 home court triumph over St. Louis, Wichita State, also playing at home, edged Drake 79-78 on Greg Carney's two free throws in the last four seconds.

Bob Quick threw in 38 points to lead Xavier of Ohio over DePaul 97-78 at Cincinnati and Boston College whipped Providence on the road 86-70.

In other games Penn State upset Temple 81-62, Massachusetts edged Connecticut 65-63, Toledo took Kent State 72-62, Davidson defeated Virginia Tech 81-76, Auburn downed Georgia 62-58 and Mississippi conquered Mississippi State 63-53.

Plan Heart Fund Canvass

Mrs. Neil Norred, Heart Sunday chairman, and K. H. McGibbon, special gifts chairman, map out the areas for the door-to-door canvass Monday, Feb. 26.

Heart Fund Drive Kicks Off Today

The Howard County Heart Association kicks off its drive today, with special activities and a door-to-door canvass planned for later this month.

Mrs. Donald D. Van Meter, president of the association, said that volunteers are now being accepted to help with the canvass and to coordinate special programs throughout the month.

Heart Sunday, a nationwide house-to-house solicitation for the Heart Fund, will be held locally this year on Monday, Feb. 26. Mrs. Neil Norred, who will head this effort, said that volunteers will call on Monday from 5-7 p.m. to avoid inconveniencing families on Sunday evening.

A very special part of the drive this year will be the presence of a Heart Princess, Kim Coffee. The 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Coffee, 1107 Pennsylvania, Kim has undergone open heart surgery twice. She will participate in special activities throughout the month.

A dog fashion show will be held Saturday, Feb. 17, at 2 p.m. downtown, but the exact location has not yet been established. The Big Spring Kennel Club is sponsoring the show and there will be a $1 donation to the heart fund to register the dogs. The dog must wear a fancy costume to be eligible to enter. Several prizes will be awarded.

Walter Osborne is in charge of the bowling tournament, which is sponsored by the Big Spring Men's Bowling Association. Proceeds will go to the Heart Fund. Osborne said that the tourney will begin Sunday, to run for one week.

Also assisting in the drive are the PBX Club and the Big Spring Police Department. PBX Club members are filling heart kits and envelopes for the volunteers, and the police are distributing canisters throughout the city.

Mayor Arnold Marshall officially proclaimed heart month Wednesday.

Gov. Rockefeller Wants Prison Bodies Exhumed

CUMMINS PRISON FARM. Ark. (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller has announced that he wants all bodies exhumed from the grassy field where three skeletons were dug up and placed in a "proper and decent" burial ground.

CONFUSING As demands for investigations increased, Rockefeller also said Wednesday, "I think it is better not to bring more people into an already confusing situation."

He added, "We believe the investigation should be pushed fearlessly but in an orderly manner, and let the chips fall where they may."

TEXAN TALKS Meanwhile in Houston, Texas, and Fresno, Calif., former Arkansas penitentiary inmates told newsmen they watched prison guards slay 10 convicts who may be buried beneath some of the numerous depressions in the field.

The Arkansas chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has asked U.S. Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark to have the Justice Department investigate. The Arkansas Legislative Council and the Lincoln County grand jury also are considering investigations.

The bones already exhumed were sent to the FBI laboratory in Washington for analysis, while Arkansas State Police continued to base their investigation on the assumption that the field is a paupers' graveyard.

NEGROES Maj. William Strubing, head of the criminal investigation division of the state police, took charge of the investigation Tuesday, the day after burly inmate Reuben Johnson, 59, a prisoner here since 1937, led diggers to the field where he said he helped to bury 10 or 12 convicts "shot or beaten to death" by "guards and wardens."

The NAACP action was in response to Johnson's claims that most of the men were Negroes. Rockefeller announced Wednesday that he had recommended that the State Penitentiary Board consider having all bodies removed from the unmarked graves and placed in a "proper and decent" burial ground.

He said this could be done in conjunction with the state police investigation.

PROBE PROMISED Strubing had announced there would be no more digging until pathology reports came in sometime within the next three weeks.

The governor promised a thorough probe. He said that the graves might be those of inmates who died destitute and whose bodies went unclaimed. But he said too: "We could be on the brink of uncovering a scandal of untold proportions." The story of Edward Redmond, 47, who operates a television repair shop in Houston, Texas, emphasized the latter possibility.

BARBED WIRE Redmond, who said he was an inmate at Cummins 28 years ago, told the Houston Post he saw a prisoner choked to death with barbed wire, then buried under a guard tower along with two other slain convicts.

Redmond said barbed wire

STANTON (SC) — Andrew Wilson, superintendent of Coahoma schools, presented a film of the Texas Lions Crippled Children's Camp at Kerrville to 17 members of the Stanton Lions Club Tuesday. The meeting was held at noon at the Belvue Restaurant.

President Tom Angel reported on an inter-club visit to the Coahoma Lions Club Monday evening. Those attending besides Angel were John J. Wood and Chuck Elmore. Nolan Simpson was introduced as a new member.

Three-Car Pileup Claims Student

TURNERTOWN, Tex. (AP) — A three-car pileup on U.S. 64 in this East Texas town Wednesday killed a Stephen F. Austin College student, Jimmy Earl Brown, 26, of Tyler. Three other students were injured.

Early-Bird Motorists

Shell Out For Licenses

As anticipated, there was a fairly long line of early-bird motorists on hand at 8 a.m. today to get new 1968 automobile license plates first.

As usual, too, after the first arrivals had been served, there was a sharp drop off in interest and at mid-morning only a few customers were at the counters awaiting their plates.

O. L. Jamison, 2716 Cindy Lane, won the distinction of getting the first 1968 tag issued in the property tax office of Mrs. Zarah LeFevre, county tax-assessor-collector. His Volks will be decorated with DDF 50. He also paid the enhanced fee of $12.30 for his plates.

Other early buyers of plates were C. A. Smalley, 1000 Howell, DDF 26; Ike Walraven, 624 Caylor, DDD 51; V. A. Key, 700 Douglas, DDL 24 and Louis D. Gammell, Webb AFB, who got DDL 16.

These latter two motorists were joined by Hugh D. Stout, Webb AFB in the auto tax office for initial service.

Stout also scored a second distinction—he wanted a motorcycle plate. Since no one seemed to have anticipated a motorcyclist would show up so early, he had to wait until a box of cycle plates had been opened. He was assigned X 16350. The fee this year was $5.30.

Plates will be dispensed until April 1. All motor vehicles will have to wear 1968 plates by that date or their owners will be in difficulty.

Plates are available at the two county tax offices on the first floor of the court house and at the Newsom Food Store on South Gregg.

Jet Crash Kills Arizona Pilot

BEEVILLE, Tex. (AP) — An Arizona pilot was killed Wednesday when his TAF9J jet aircraft crashed 12 miles northwest of the naval air auxiliary station here. The Navy said he was Lt. Andrew L. Sekan, 22, son of retired Lt. Col. Edward Sekan of Scottsdale.

'Jumping Jacks' Rips Miniskirts

"Jumping jacks" exercises are not for miniskirts or tight skirts.

So complained a mother to Joe A. Moss, president of the Big Spring Independent School Board.

Moss told trustees at a Wednesday luncheon meeting that he had received a call from a youngster's mother requesting that "jumping jacks" exercises be eliminated from the physical education program.

"I've mended my last skirt," the mother said.

Autopsy Changes Oil Heir Probe

SAN ANGELO (AP) — West were still trying today to fit witnesses' statements into time-space limitations in the slaying of Colorado oil heir Michael Robineau.

An autopsy filed Wednesday by Dr. James C. Womack put the time of death at 11 p.m. Friday, but Justice of the Peace O. L. Miller said the estimate could vary four to six hours.

This meant Robineau could have been killed as early as 5 p.m. Friday, which time would barely fit into prior reconstructions of the case.

Charged with the slaying Tuesday and held here without bond is Miguel Ybarra, 21, of Odessa, an Army cook AWOL from Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio.

Ybarra and Robineau, 22, both left Ft. Sam Houston Friday morning. The Coloradoan was mustered out after six months' training.

Robineau's body was found Monday in a cotton patch 12 miles southeast of San Angelo. He had been shot in the head. A search had started Saturday when his blood-stained abandoned car was found at Big Lake, 70 miles southwest of San Angelo.

Ybarra surrendered to police in Odessa Monday night.

A LOVELIER YOU

Reduce Your Hips By Special Exercises

By MARY SUE MILLER

Is all your weight in your hips? If so, today's routines will make short work of reduction. But if you are generally overweight you will have to combine the routines with a bit of dieting in order to obtain ideal results.

Here's what you do hipwise:
1. Lie back down on floor; bring knees to chest and clasp with hands. Now roll weight from far side to far side, across upper hip. Next come to erect sitting position with knees bent and soles of feet on floor. By swinging legs from side to side, roll weight across lower hip. Work up from two to five minutes.

2. Sit on a hard chair and square weight evenly on buttocks; raise feet several inches off floor, keeping legs together. Forcefully contract buttock muscles—hold for five counts and repeat 10 times.

In combination those routines deliver results with half the usual huff-and-puff. No. 1 is a vigorous, challenging workout that acts like hard massage on the flesh. No. 2, almost effortless, strengthens the hold of the muscles on the flesh. Outcome? Perfect!

A word to the wise: While awaiting the outcome, try to stand with the hips tucked under the body. A woman who always stands so may not have small hips but she will not have a shelf in the back.

REDUCING ROUTINES
You can diet until you become feather-light and still be hip-heavy. Reduction in the hips is assured only by exercise. For a set of quick and effective ones, send for my leaflet, "Hip Reducing Routines." Write Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and 10 cents in coin to cover handling.

Forsan Residents Take Trips, Visit

FORSAN (SC)—Mr. and Mrs. Danny Wash of Waco were guests of his parents, the C. V. Washes.

Mrs. M. M. Fairchild visited in Odessa.

The Rip Baileys were guests of her mother, Mrs. Mollie Smelser in San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Snelling visited Mrs. Walter Gressett in the Shannon Memorial Hospital in San Angelo.

Mrs. O. W. Scudday and Kerny were visitors in Gilmer with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mathews.

Mrs. and Mrs. Roy Klahr and Mrs. Sylvia Begot visited in Kermit with the Phil L. Moores.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kubecka were recently in San Angelo, Odessa and Midland.

Weekend visitors here were the James Craigs of Robert Lee.

Mrs. David Pohl Conducts Study

Mrs. David Pohl conducted the Bible study at the Tuesday meeting of the Lalla Baird Circle of Wesley Methodist Church in the home of Mrs. J. W. Brigrance, Knott Route.

Miss Helen Ewing led the opening prayer, and Mrs. D. Pohl presided and asked the group to provide cookies for the Church Women United area meeting Monday at Hotel Setles.

The hostess worded the benediction. Refreshments were served to nine. The next meeting will be a business session at the church.

Ester Circle Hears Program On Japan

Mrs. W. P. Bodin presided and gave the program on "The Response of the Church in Changing Japan" at the Tuesday meeting of the Ester Circle, Kentwood Methodist Church. The group met in the home of Mrs. Travis Floyd, 2708 Carol.

Plans were announced by the president to serve refreshments Feb. 16 at the Westside Recreation Center and to serve cookies Friday at the Big Spring State Hospital.

Seven attended. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Harold Pearce, 1515 Vines.

Golf Association Sets Luncheon

The Ladies Golf Association at Big Spring Country Club will hold its monthly luncheon Friday at 12 o'clock noon at the club with Mrs. Carl Marcum, president, presiding. Hostesses will be Mrs. A. Swartz, Mrs. Clyde Angel, Mrs. Lester Morton, Mrs. Joe Price and Mrs. R. J. Ream. Following the business session, party and duplicate bridge will be played along with other card games.

Commander To Talk At Club Party

Col. George E. Franks, base commander of Webb Air Force Base, will be the guest speaker for "Americana Potpourri," a program and hospitality hour scheduled by the Airmen's Wives Club. The affair will begin at 7 p.m. in the John H. Lees Service Club at the base.

Mrs. James Williams, club president, has announced that all airman's wives are invited to attend the party. Babysitting service and transportation will be provided if needed by calling Mrs. Williams.

Circle Hears Talk On Existentialism

The Martha Foster Circle of Wesley Methodist Church heard Mrs. W. B. Morris speak on "Existentialism" at the Tuesday meeting. The group met in the home of Mrs. M. O. Hamby, 1508 Eleventh Place. Mrs. Abbie Anderson worded prayer, and the group recited "The Lord's Prayer." Refreshments were served to seven. The Tuesday meeting will be at the church.

Mrs. Vera Harris Is Honored With Party

Mrs. Vera Harris, retiring postmistress at Forsan, was honored with a party Saturday evening in the cafeteria of the Forsan School. Mrs. Harris has served in the post from 1933 to 1968.

A group of Forsan residents hosted the affair, and the honoree received a money tree from the guests as well as a watch from her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Craig. Other gifts were a white chrysanthemum plant and a white carnation corsage tied with red, white and blue ribbon.

The patriotic colors were used in various decorations which included a confection mail box on the cake and an Uncle Sam hat which centered the lace-covered table. The gift and register table held miniature mail boxes filled with letters.

Guests attended from Eunice and Hobbs, N. M., Big Spring, Olsen and Forsan.

Pound Rebels To Continue Contest

A total weight loss of 13½ pounds was reported during the Monday evening meeting of the TOPS Pound Rebels in the First Federal Community Room.

Mrs. Henry Stewart presided and introduced a guest, Mrs. Gale Reining. Mrs. Allen McClinton won the attendance prize.

A "backsliders" contest was announced which will be in effect from January through March. Also, the members were reminded that at the next meeting, Tuesday, each will receive a free treatment at the Health Spa following the regular session at the YMCA.

Wife Helps Husband With Scout Activities

Mrs. Leon Miller of 2604 Lynn has supplied her husband with first hand material for home research as district executive for the Boy Scouts. The Millers have three sons, Scott, 10, a fourth grader at Kentwood Elementary School; Tim, 7, a second grader; and David, 5.

Scott is a member of the Webelos den and is now under his father's jurisdiction. When Tim becomes eight, he will become a Cub Scout and his mother plans to become a den mother again. She served in the same capacity for Scott, and plans to again be a leader for the younger boys.

The Millers moved here in September and were former residents of Lubbock, Midland and Post, their original home. Several nights each week, Miller has meetings scheduled, and Mrs. Miller maintains a flexible schedule to meet these demands.

She does all her own housework with assistance from the two older boys who help keep their rooms clean. She plans her menus by the day and shops for groceries every two weeks.

Milk is delivered to the house, and she buys bread six loaves at a time. Occasionally she shops for necessities between regular trips, but usually only after unexpected company has arrived.

Mrs. Miller sews for herself and for her home. She made curtains for her kitchen and the bedrooms and has also done several paintings for the bedrooms.

She is a collector of antiques and although she does not get to the auctions very often, this is the hobby that most interests her. She has a nice start in a very handsome buffet which belonged to her grandmother, the late Mrs. H. D. Moreman of Post. The Millers cut the legs off and refinished it, resulting in an attractive solid oak chest. She has an oak rocking chair that is sturdy and attractive with its simplicity of line, and she has an old crock churn and a spoon glass that originally belonged to her grandmother.

Mrs. Miller assists her husband by being his telephone answering service at his office in the home. She is a dedicated homemaker with no "secret desires" to work outside or to have a career of her own.

The Millers enjoy taking camping trips. This coming summer, they would like to visit Yellowstone National Park and are making their plans accordingly.

Mrs. Miller believes in budgeting expenditures and usually sticks pretty close to the purchase plan. An expenditure for new shoes for the boys at Christmas was not exactly planned, but they keep the budget flexible enough to withstand "emergencies".

Mrs. Miller prepares school lunch for the two older boys and usually serves dinner between 5:30 and 6 p.m.

Mrs. Miller centers her activities around her home and her family's affairs. They enjoy basketball games at Howard County Junior College, going to movies and visiting friends. She is a member of the Kentwood Parent-Teacher Association and is representative for the chapter at the P-TA Council. They are members of the Kentwood Methodist Church.

Prepare Casserole Dish Early

Start the preparation of casserole dishes the evening before, and dinner won't have to wait too long the next day.

With dried lima beans, cooking time is extensive. It need not get out of proportion, however, if part of the preparation is done while you tidy the kitchen or do other household tasks during the evening.

Pork smoked shoulder rolls, with their flavor like ham, may or may not need simmering, depending upon which type they are.

PORK 'N LIMA CASSEROLE

2 to 4 lbs. smoked pork shoulder roll (butt)

1 lb. dried lima beans

Water

1 cup chopped onion

2 tbsps. molasses

1 tbsps. cornstarch

3/4 cup firmly-packed brown sugar

1 tsp. dry mustard

1/2 tsp. salt

1/4 tsp. pepper

Wash beans, cover with four cups water and simmer one hour. Add smoked pork shoulder roll, onion and additional water to cover meat and beans. Cover tightly and simmer one hour. Turn meat and continue to simmer covered 45 minutes to one hour or until meat and beans are tender. Remove shoulder roll and drain beans.

Mix molasses, brown sugar, cornstarch, dry mustard, salt and pepper. Add to beans; stir until mixed. Place a layer of beans in a 2 1/2-quart casserole. Slice smoked pork shoulder roll and add a layer of sliced meat. Cover with remaining beans and top with remaining sliced meat. Bake in a slow oven (325 degrees F.) 30 minutes. Makes six to eight servings.

Make Cookies For Friends, Family

Just right for entertaining a few friends!

SUGAR CRISPS

1 cup unsifted regular flour (sift to aerate before measuring)

1/4 tsp. each baking soda, salt and cloves

1/2 tsp. cinnamon and 1/4 tsp. nutmeg

1/4 cup (1 stick) margarine

1/4 cup sugar

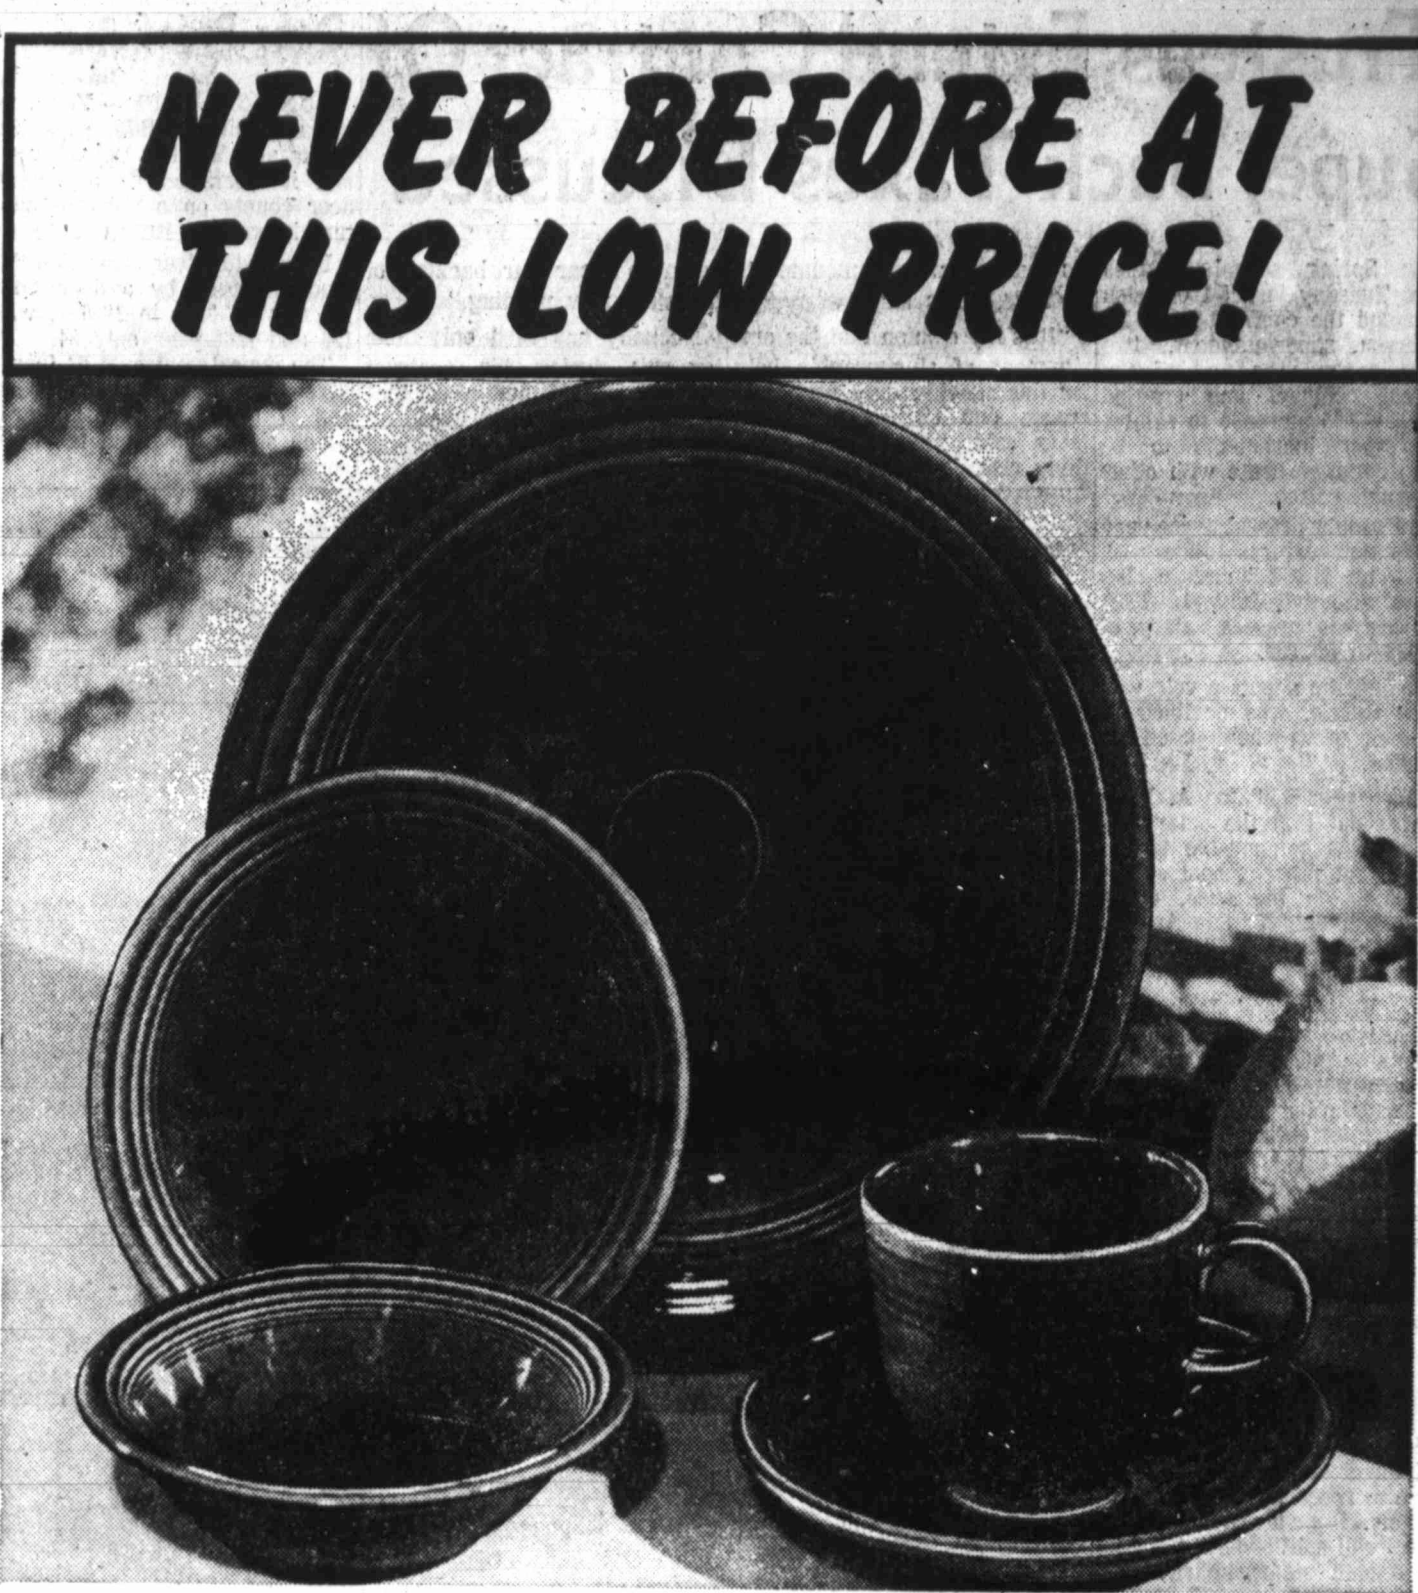

2 tbsps. commercial white sour cream

1-3 cup chopped (medium fine) walnuts

Sift together the flour, baking soda, salt and spices. Cream margarine and sugar; stir in sifted ingredients in two additions alternately with sour cream, then the nuts. Cover and chill until firm enough to handle.

Roll level tablespoonfuls of the mixture into balls; place several inches apart on ungreased cookie sheet; press with heel of palm to flatten and make thin — rinse hands in cold water if dough gets sticky; work with half of it at a time and keep remainder refrigerated.

Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until browned — about 10 minutes. Makes 2 to 2 1/2 dozen.

FRUIT COCKTAIL SALAD

1 3-oz. pkg. cream cheese

1 small pkg. miniature marshmallows

2 tbsps. milk

1 No. 303 can fruit cocktail

Nuts

Blend together cream cheese and milk. Add marshmallows and toss in drained fruit cocktail and nuts. Chill before serving.

CHOCOLATE NUT COOKIES

1/2 cup butter or shortening

1/4 cups packed brown sugar

1 egg

1 1/2 cups sifted flour

3/4 tsp. soda

1/2 tsp. baking powder

1/2 tsp. salt

1/4 cup milk

1 1/2 cups grape-nuts flakes*

1/2 cup chopped salted peanuts

1 6-oz. pkg. chocolate chips

*Cream shortening, add sugar gradually, beating until creamy.

Beat in egg. Mix flour, soda, baking powder, and salt. Add to creamed mixture alternately with milk, mixing well. Stir in cereal, peanuts, and chips.

Drop from teaspoon onto greased baking sheet. Bake at 375 degrees for about eight minutes, or until golden brown. Makes about four dozen cookies.

BROWNIES SUPREME

3 eggs

1 cup sugar

1/2 cup flour

1 cup chopped nuts

1/4 tsp. salt

1/2 cup butter

2 squares melted chocolate or 6 tbsps. cocoa

Melt butter in baking pan in 400 degree oven. Beat eggs in mixing bowl and add all other ingredients; butter and nuts last. Bake for about 30 minutes. Frost with favorite chocolate icing or powdered sugar.

MEXICAN CORNBREAD

1 finely chopped onion

1/2 pound grated cheese

1/4 cup cream style corn

1 cup corn meal

2 eggs

1/2 cup bacon drippings

2 Jalapeno peppers, chopped fine

1 cup buttermilk

1/2 tsp. salt

3/4 tsp. soda

Melt bacon drippings in 9-inch baking pan. Mix other ingredients and then pour drippings into mixture. Stir well. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes.

PUMPKIN NUT BREAD

1 cup brown sugar

1 1/2 cup shortening

2 eggs

1 cup canned pumpkin

1/4 cup milk

2 cups flour

2 tbsps. baking powder

1/2 tsp. salt

1/4 tsp. soda

1/2 tsp. ginger

1/4 tsp. cloves

1/2 cup nuts

Combine sugar, shortening, eggs, add pumpkin and milk. Sift other ingredients and add gradually. Add nuts. Bake at 350 degrees for 55 minutes in greased and floured loaf pan.

QUICK BREAKFAST RING

2 cans refrigerator biscuits

1 tsp. cinnamon

1/2 cup melted butter

1/2 cup brown sugar

1/2 cup chopped nuts

Shape biscuits into balls. Mix together sugar, cinnamon, and nuts. Roll each ball in melted butter, then in mixture. Arrange balls in bottom of 8 1/2-inch well-greased ring mold leaving about 1/4 inch between each. Make a second layer placing balls over spaces. Bake at 450 degrees for 15 minutes.

FROSTING

Gradually add four tablespoons warm water to one cup sifted powdered sugar, add 1/4 teaspoon vanilla.

TAFFY TAN FUDGE

2 cups sugar

1 cup milk

1 7-oz. jar marshmallow creme

1 12-oz. jar peanut butter

1 tsp. vanilla

In heavy sauce pan, boil sugar and milk for five minutes (soft ball 238 degrees). Remove from heat and add other ingredients. Blend well and pour into buttered dish. Cut into squares when cool.

PECAN PIE

4 eggs — well beaten

3/4 cup sugar

2 tbsps. flour

1 16-oz. bottle dark corn syrup

2 tbsps. vanilla

2 cups pecans

In two unbaked pie shells place pecans and a few dots of butter. Beat other ingredients together and pour over pecans. Bake at 350 degrees until solid in center.

Make Sunday Suppers 'A Continental Affair'

Sunday suppers — especially on cold winter evenings — should be "something special." Be continental and present French Toast Supper Sandwiches, the newest, most luscious invention since French Toast.

The sandwiches, dipped in egg batter, are a triple-layered treat of tart-sweet pineapple preserves, ham slices and Swiss cheese. You'll like them so well that you might even feature the French Toast Supper Sandwiches, at your next after-theater or midnight sup.

Spread six slices of bread with preserves; top each with a slice of ham and Swiss cheese. Combine milk, eggs and salt. Dip bottom side of sandwich stacks in egg mixture; place in hot skillet, greased with butter and fry until golden brown. Dip one side of remaining six bread slices in egg mixture and place egg-side-up on the sandwiches. Turn sandwiches and brown second side. Serve hot.

1/4 tsp. salt

2 tbsps. butter or margarine

Trustees Extend Contract Of Supe, Back Taxes Discussed

Big Spring school trustees voted Tuesday in a 5-1 decision to extend the contract of S. M. Anderson, superintendent, two years beyond the end of the present contract and granted him a $1,000 increase in salary, with other increments to be made commensurate with other personnel raises.

Anderson's present three-year agreement expires June 30, 1969. The $1,000 increase becomes effective July 1, 1968, boosting his present salary of $21,000 to $22,000.

Casting the negative vote was Jerry Currie, who declined to comment on why he opposed the decision.

Board president Joe A. Moss pointed out that the salary increase was comparable to the salaries of other school superintendents in the area, citing Abilene at $22,000; San Angelo, $19,000; Midland, $27,500; and Odessa, $22,500.

Roy Watkins and Jack Alexander, who initiated the motion to retain Anderson, asked that the contract be extended with a written contract to be entered into. For the past few years, the contract extensions have been okayed through the minutes of the board meetings.

In other business of the two-hour noon session at the Cosden Country Club, trustees reviewed the contract of Tom Huckaby, delinquent tax collector for the district, voted to extend his present contract until Aug. 31 and gave approval to hiring a delinquent tax stenographic employee to speed up tardy tax collections. Huckaby and the school will split "50-50" the $300 per month stenographer's salary.

Moss presented the board figures of Huckaby's collection period from March 1, 1967, through December 1967, pointing out that $43,053.10 had been collected in back taxes. Personal property included in this total amounted to $4,331.26. Huckaby was paid 15 per cent on his contract, which amounted to $6,458.26, Moss said.

"It is my opinion that the employment of stenographic help for this specific duty would increase our tax collections," Moss said. "More than anything else, it would help us to begin to clear our backlog of tax suits now pending."

Huckaby has filed only one tax suit during his contract time, Moss said, and added that he thought extra help would alleviate some of the backlog of paper work.

In 1961, the deer census on the land, enclosed by a deer-proof fence, was 323; in 1966 it was 126 and last year only 54.

The department said 93 fawns were born during those years and 37 bucks shot by hunters, which should have put the deer population at 379.

Registration For Beauty Show Opens

Registration begins Friday for the annual Jaycee-sponsored Miss Big Spring pageant to be held March 8-9. Entries will close Feb. 24, according to Jimmy Anderson, entries chairman, and participants may register at the Professional Pharmacy, Tenth and Main Streets.

There are two divisions in the pageant, according to John Anderson, who is handling arrangements. The junior division is for girls 16-18 as of Sept. 1, 1968, and the senior division will be for girls 18-28.

Unique to this year's pageant will be two nights of performance. The juniors will be in preliminary competition Friday, March 8, and 10 semi-finalists will be announced Saturday, along with the selection of Miss Big Spring in the senior division.

Awards to the winner of the Miss Big Spring title will be a $100 scholarship and a $300 wardrobe, which will be selected by the winner.

Miss Big Spring of 1967 was Darlene Lefelste, now a student at Angelo State College. Junior Miss Big Spring was Robbie Smart, a senior at Big Spring High.

Jim Baum will be master of ceremonies, assisted by Miss Texas of 1965, Mary Lou Butler. Molly Grubb of Fort Worth, the reigning Miss Texas, will appear at both performances.

Front Brings New Showers

A new cool front sprinted toward the southeast from the Panhandle-Plains sector in West Texas today with a promise of scattered showers and temperatures scaled down to February size.

Born only Wednesday over New Mexico and the Western Panhandle, the front advanced before daylight to a line extending from Wichita Falls into the Big Bend country. Skies cleared rapidly in its wake.

Scattered thundershowers popped up during the night and early morning near the cooler air mass.

A brief thunderstorm swept through Wichita Falls and scattered showers fell in the vicinity of Electra, Mineral Wells, Abilene, Stamford, San Angelo, Brownwood, Breckenridge, Fort Worth, Dallas, Sherman, Denison, Gainesville and Paris.

There also were isolated showers off the Upper Texas Coast southeast of Galveston.

Temperatures soared to levels 10 to 15 degrees above normal across the state Wednesday, hitting the nation's high of 84 degrees at Presidio in the Big Bend of far West Texas. Only a little behind at 81 were Alice, Cotulla and Laredo, all farther south.

Although the front was expected to sweep to the coast before day's end and all parts of the state were promised a little cooling, readings did not drop severely during the night.

Pre-dawn marks ran as low as 35 at Dalhart in the upper Panhandle. Elsewhere they ranged through the 40s and 50s up to a rather sultry 68 degrees at Brownsville, Houston and Victoria.

Two West Texas researchers will participate in the eighth annual meeting of the Weed Science Society of America in New Orleans, La., Feb. 5-8.

They are Dr. Allen F. Wiese, in charge of weed control research at the USDA Southwest Great Plains Research Center, Bushland, and E. D. Robinson, Spur, in charge of brush control research at the Rolling Plains Livestock Research Station, Spur.

Wiese is chairman of the society's finance committee. In addition, he will present a talk on oil-water emulsions for weed control in sorghum and will show a slide set titled "Billion Dollar Bandits" which depicts the weed problem on the Texas High Plains.

Robinson will discuss "The Influence of 2,4,5-T Picloram Combinations on Mesquite Control." Over-all theme for the meeting is "Weed Control and the World Food Problem."

Study May Give Clues To Aging, Development

LUBBOCK — A Texas Tech study of biological system in higher plants may provide man with new clues to the mechanisms that govern human aging processes and development of vital organs.

Dr. Murray W. Coulter, supported by $54,000 in grants from the Robert A. Welch Foundation and the National Science Foundation, is studying a metabolic regulation of a chemical compound (gibberellin) that acts as a plant hormone. He has formulated special experimental treatments with radiant light which regulate gene expression and, as a result, produce hormonal changes in certain plants.

Dr. Coulter's project is involved only in basic research with plant life, he explained, adding that "we believe the mechanism of gene action controlling the aging process of a plant is similar to that in the human."

Hubert Books Dallas Talk

AUSTIN (AP)—Vice President Hubert Humphrey will address a "victory '68" campaign conference of Democratic leaders from four states in Dallas the weekend of Feb. 9-10, state Democratic headquarters announced Wednesday.

Gov. John Connally is host for the regional meeting, the fourth in a series being held throughout the country.

Democratic leaders from New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas, as well as National Democratic Committee Chairman John Bailey, will attend the conference.

Dear Abby

A Clergyman's Problems

DEAR ABBY: Please tell I am a clergyman, and believe it or not, I have as many opportunities as the painter. I no longer call on women at their homes unless I take my wife with me. (She sits in an other room, but it's good insurance against lusty ladies who would make improper overtures.)

And if a woman comes to my office in a mini-skirt, my secretary has instructions to follow her in and place a large shawl over the visitor's knees. And when my secretary departs, per my orders, she leaves the door wide open.

In bygone years, it was the man who aggressively pursued the woman, but today, most women are far bolder than men.

I am a grandfather, in my early sixties, and not particularly handsome, but some of the propositions I have had from married sexpots would not be believed. Even by you, Dear Lady, who must have heard everything. NO NAME, PLEASE

DEAR ABBY: Re. your advice to the mother who was afraid to leave her children with Grandma because Grandma was such a poor driver: You suggested that before leaving them she make Grandma promise not to take the children in the car with her. I suspect that even if Grandma were to make such a promise, she wouldn't keep it. Besides, may I point out that if Grandma is as poor a driver as the mother said she was, it matters little whether she has the children in the car with her, or if they happen to be in the car with which Grandma has an accident.

I would suggest that the mother write to the Driver's License Bureau at her State capitol, reporting Grandma's inability to drive. Grandma will then be asked to take a physical examination as well as a written examination, which includes questions with regard to judgment and traffic laws.

If Grandma passes these tests, then she is just as qualified to drive an automobile as anyone. If she fails, the reporter will have performed a public service by removing one more menace from the roads.

In case you are wondering why I am so familiar with this procedure, I reported my GRANDPA in this manner, and now Grandma doesn't drive anymore. DID THE RIGHT THING DEAR ABBY: This "procedure" may apply in your state, but I doubt if it applies in all — although I think it should.

Car-Train Death

GROESBECK (AP) — Benjamin Maguire, 27, Rt. 1, Groesbeck was killed about 12:30 a.m. today when his car collided with a train in Groesbeck.

Horoscope Forecast

FOR TOMORROW — CARROLL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The early part of the day brings some delays that are necessary before you can move on and you may be considerably shaken up by the means through which this does express itself. However, study the best avenues by which you can dispose of them in future but don't change yet.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You want to establish a new set of conditions but there are certain stumbling blocks in your way that need clearing up first. Avoid the social right now, since there could be a disastrous disappointment following. Keep busy at practical affairs.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Be more alert instead of trying to change radically any conditions about you, or you could get into further hot water. You have troubles of your own, so don't waste time with those of others. Take it easy.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) It is better to avoid going out with friends today, but if you must, be very diplomatic. You are undecided just what your desires are and could make some big mistakes. Get yourself under better control.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Avoid doing anything that could ruin your reputation or incur the wrath of a higher power. You could lead to much loss for you. Use that fine courtesy, intelligence and wisdom which you are blessed with.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 23) Be careful your heart jumps into those fascinating new outlets, courses that could prove to be just a mirage. Be sure you follow through with every rule and law that applies to you directly. Do not get into trouble.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) You must have a larger income if you are to keep out of debt now, so first get busy and rid yourself of unnecessary expenses. Then study into new outlets that are profitable and until tomorrow before acting on them.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21) Why depend so much on others to do the duties that are really your own territory? Get busy and accomplish a good deal. Co-workers could be in a bad mood. Do your utmost to cheer them up.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Be careful you do not neglect handling some very important job in your desire to go about and have a good time. Being serious pays big dividends now. Evening is best for recreation like, CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Vital you do whatever makes your life at home more harmonious and that you get the O.K. of kin in some business or personal outlet you are planning. Be generous with little gifts. Show your affection.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) If you plan to take a trip or get in touch with others who are close or at a distance, make sure you know what you are going to do or say. Avoid accidents, wrong words, don't give your self with persons you know little about.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) You must have a larger income if you are to keep out of debt now, so first get busy and rid yourself of unnecessary expenses. Then study into new outlets that are profitable and until tomorrow before acting on them.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN tomorrow, he or she, will be a delicate plant, but there will be early an idea that will keep you from further jumping from one interest to the other, without completing any. This through right diet, broad education, mind here, it's very keen and almost anything tackled can be tickled. Be sure to send to college.

SOCIAL SECURITY--10

Young Benefit From Program

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
WASHINGTON (NEA) — Social Security stands in most American minds as an "old people's program," but in fact it has important meaning for young workers, for some young students, and for large numbers of children.

It is designed basically to protect aging Americans against the risk of income loss that can go with age. And about 17 million of the 19 million aged 65 or older do draw benefits under Social Security. In addition, all 19 million are automatically safeguarded by the program's hospital insurance under Medicare.

ORPHANS

But, as we have seen earlier in this series, some two million orphans — survivors of deceased workers who would have been qualified for retirement benefits under Social Security — get benefits today.

A breakdown indicates that some 425,000 students aged 18 through 21 are qualified as survivors to get the higher cash benefits the revisions prescribe.

In the care of their widowed mothers, qualified under the program, hundreds of thousands of unmarried youngsters under 18 and disabled children who suffered disability before 18 get benefits — assuming their deceased fathers would have qualified for retirement payments under Social Security.

The payment to the students of late high school and early college age is obviously an assist to them in meeting steadily rising education expenses.

GOOD BREAK

Children of disabled workers who qualify as do "survivor" children also get benefits. Again, this includes students up to 22.

In the disability field, young disabled workers also get a good break — a bit better under the new law than before.

Workers disabled before age 31, who presumably have barely begun their working careers, can qualify for benefits with less work under Social Security than the older disabled. The maximum, in fact, is set at one and one-half years of work. They get payments equivalent to those they would have if retiring fully qualified at age 65.

With healthy young workers just entering the Social Security system and facing long decades of paying ever-rising Social Security payroll taxes, the story is somewhat different.

Argument is often made that the young worker does not get his money's worth.

TAX BURDEN

Social Security actuaries respond, however, by saying that young workers paying at maximum contribution rates over a working lifetime generally will get protection worth 15 to 20 per cent more than their contributions. Even in extreme cases, it is judged, the benefits are likely to be at least equal contributions.

As a matter of fact, because today's young workers will be helped by steadily rising wage rates and thus will attain higher earnings levels, their ultimate cash benefit prospect under Social Security is a peak 30 per cent above pre-1967 law — as against the average benefit increase of 13 per cent Congress provided.

Arguing the case another way, Social Security experts say the 1967 revisions give the "maximum earner" among young workers some $13,980 in additional protection — lifting his total in prospect from the old $49,140 to a new $62,120.

One last point the Social Security authorities make: It cannot be fairly assumed that there will not be further liberalizations of the program whose benefit may fall heavily to the younger workers who, right now, see only their mounting tax burdens.

OFF BEATEN TRAIL

July Meeting Was First One

By ED SYERS
March 2 is our Texas Independence Day, from 1836 Washington - on the Brazos, although recently you found a Goliad Declaration preceded it in December, 1835. Answering an OBT query, now comes a forerunner to both assemblages - five months earlier and near today's Edna - according to that coastal city's historian Maurice C. Shelby.

"A large meeting was held July 17, 1835, at the William Millican Gin," says Shelby. "Horsemen gathered from all the Navidad-Lavaca country, held a day-long discussion of threats to Texas, then drew up a unanimous resolution. They did not declare independence from Santa Anna's rule, but in strong terms lodged 'an official protest.'"

These pioneer Texans were first to record they considered Santa Anna a dictator, hostile to their promised constitutional freedom. They resolved to oppose any military force sent to Texas (and subsequently did), recommended intercepting Goliad reinforcements bound for San Antonio as well as capturing that city itself (both done in three months), and called finally for a Texas militia "ready to march at a moment's warning."

Historian Shelby notes the unusual nature of the Navidad-Lavaca meeting. Chaired by Major James Kerr, the men of Millican Gin rode from no Texas settlements where you heard war or peace debate. "These men were all farmers straight from their homes, not a politician nor professional man among them."

He concludes theirs was no Declaration of Independence, but adds that the Millican farmers certainly wrote a preamble

... and were first to do it.

LOST LARISSA SCOPE
Old Larissa College near Jacksonville finally became San Antonio's Trinity University after a near century of moving, via Tehuacana and Waxahachie; and, on the way, losing its then-famed telescope, three times as powerful as Yale College's. For that scope we've searched, but El Paso's Dr. W. H. McKee authoritatively doubts we'll find it.

"My great great grandfather, Thomas McKee, came from Lebanon, Tenn., to... found the town and school (1846-48). Apparently the telescope was bought by Dr. F. L. Yoakum, Larissa's first president." After Civil War ended its proud East Texas career, the college moved - with telescope - to Tehuacana Hills where it took the name Trinity and where, long out of use, the scope ceased to function properly. On the later move from Tehuacana to Waxahachie, it was lost.

Observes Dr. McKee: "I imagine 'them as got it' ain't saying. And I feel its whereabouts will never be known."

CONFEDERATE CAPITOL
Kerrville's H. V. Elsberry: "There was an OBT suggestion that the last Confederate Capitol was in Marshall (where Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas governors met on call from 1862 to '65, finally pondering terms of surrender) at the old Capitol Hotel on the square. It was the Hall Plantation, about four miles out the old Longview road - a two-story brick colonial house: the bricks, handmade by slaves. I was raised in Marshall and at one time, lived on the old Hall place."

Want Room Reservation? A Push Button Gets It

When the Holiday Inn of Big Spring became part of the $10 million Holidex reservation system, the world's largest commercial computer - controlled communications network, the inn became a "nerve center" for instant communications throughout North America, announced O. T. Brewster, innkeeper.

The inn now utilizes IBM's new System-360 computers to offer guests free advance reservations in less than 60 seconds at any of the inns in the international system, Brewster said.

Holiday Inns of America, Inc., was the first company in the travel industry to convert its communications network to these new computers, Brewster said. "When the Holidex network went into operation, we had 500 inns with 63,000 rooms in 44 states. Today, we have more than 900 inns with 118,000 rooms in 48 states, Canada, Puerto Rico, and the Bahamas."

"In addition, we are constantly finding new ways to use the computers. The Holidex network helps us locate a guest in case of an emergency, and is used for broadcast messages from the HIA home office in Memphis, Tenn. This places added demands on available processing time and power."

With the new computers, Brewster can determine room availability at any other inn in 15 seconds or less. "More than 200,000 miles of communications lines serve this inn," he continued.

To reserve rooms, the innkeeper simply pushes a few buttons on the Holidex terminal, enters the guest's name, and lets the Holidex computer do the rest.

If the desired room is available, the computer automatically makes the reservation, giving the guest a printed confirmation. At the same time, the innkeeper where the reservation was made gets written notice of the transaction - also by computer.

If an inn cannot provide the room requested, the Holidex computer notifies the sender of the type of room available.

Opening lead: King of ♣.
A persistent assault on his trump holding, combined with an adverse division in the suit, threatened South's five diamond contract. In order to sever the opponents' line of communications and disrupt their attack, he found it necessary to borrow a page from the defense's own book.

West opened the king of hearts and continued with the queen which South ruffed. There appeared to be little more to the deal than to drive out the ace of trumps, for declarer was solid in the other suits. He, therefore, led the king of diamonds and, when this was permitted to hold, he continued with the queen.

West showed out on the second round discarding a heart and East ducked again. South was now obliged to abandon the trump suit temporarily for, if he led the jack which was his only remaining diamond, East would play the ace and return a heart for his partner to cash the setting trick. A fourth round of hearts would then dislodge dummy's last trump and thereby establish East's seven of diamonds.

When the queen of diamonds held, declarer crossed over to the ace of spades and ruffed a heart with the jack of diamonds. Dummy was reentered with the jack of clubs to lead the nine of diamonds. South's only hope was that, when East got in with the ace, he had no more hearts to return.

East played the ace of spades and, fortunately for his opponent, he was unable to force out the nine of diamonds with another round of hearts. He shifted to a spade and South played the king, entered dummy with the ace of clubs, to pull the last trump and claimed the balance.

Polite, Firm
Gunman Robs
Alvord Bank

ALVORD, Tex. (AP) — Sheriff's officers put out a pick-up order today for a man and a woman sought as suspects in a $10,000 holdup at the Alvord National Bank.

They said a man arrested in an automobile and questioned into the night was cleared of blame and released.

Warning that a lookout was watching from outside the bank, a gunman wearing blue jeans and a shirt took the money about noon Wednesday.

William Covington Jr., the bank's president, said the loss amounted to about $10,000. Only he and two cashiers, Barbara Peace and Doris Kenemer, were in the bank.

They said the man, "polite but firm," ordered Mrs. Peace to fill a paper sack with cash. Then complaining there wasn't enough, he directed Mrs. Kenemer to follow suit.

He ordered all three to lie down in the vault and stay for 10 minutes, mentioning that a confederate across the street would know if they emerged. The three stayed inside until they were sure he had departed.

It was the second such robbery in Wise County in recent weeks. Two gunmen took $20,000 Dec. 30 from the First National Bank of Rhame.

Four 'Hips' Linked
To Texas Slaying

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Four hippies were held today as fugitives for investigation of murder in the slaying of a companion in Texas, police said.

Officers reported three of them told of shoving a companion from a car as they drove across Texas, where the body of an unidentified man was found seven miles southeast of Greenville. It was three-fourths mile off US 69 at the dead end of a rural road.

Diet Pill Exec
Raps 'Quacks'

DALLAS (AP) — Carroll D. Brown, head of a firm which was the subject of a $1 million diet pill seizure last week, called Wednesday for an organization that would eliminate "the out-right quacks" in the field of obesity control.

Brown, of Dallas, is president of Lanpar Co., from which the Food and Drug Administration seized more than $1 million worth of diet pills.

The agency said the pills had not been proven effective and danger-free. Brown vigorously protested the action at the time.

He is calling for a national council of physicians to isolate and curtail the practices of what he called "quacks" in the field.

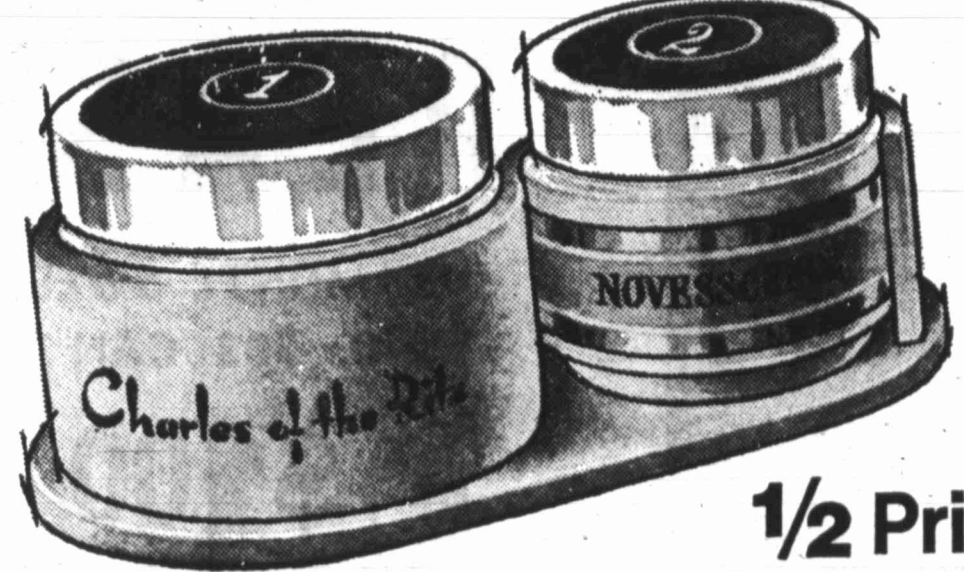

Brown said his statement on the matter was being relayed to Sen. Phillip A. Hart, D-Mich., who is conducting hearings on the use of drugs to treat obesity.

Tree Smash Kills
Hereford Driver

DAWN, Tex. (AP) — Alvin O. Walterscheid, 24, of Hereford, near here in the Panhandle, was killed shortly after midnight Wednesday when his car hit a tree. The accident happened one-half mile west of Dawn.

Gill quoted them as saying that while they traveled they picked up a youth they knew only as "Joe." While in Texas on Monday, the detective said, they began arguing with Joe, stopped the car and pushed him out.

Demonstrates Tiny Unit
That Slims Waist Lines

Six minutes a day and a device no bigger than your defroster spray can will add up to physical fitness, according to Mike Harris, YMCA physical education secretary.

Harris, in a demonstration before the Downtown Lions Club at the Wednesday noon meeting in the Settles Hotel, said this little metal cylinder, a piece of rope, handles and a bit of plywood with hook would overcome the obstacles of time and boredom which keep many from exercising.

Actually, most of the six minutes is given over to rest, he explained. By attaching the apparatus to a small fabric strap and a piece of paper, which is put between a door and its jamb, exercises simulating bench press, running, etc. can be effected.

AIDS ASTROS

Four pro-football teams have cut out running after the season starts and instead use the tiny unit developed by Dr. Dean Milner, nationally famed physical training specialist. He designed it in response to a federal assignment to find a means of preventing physical deterioration of astronauts while in space capsules for long periods of time.

He combined the principle of isotonic (pressure against an immovable object) and isometric (pressure against tension). The former provides strength; the latter provides lung and heart activity.

UNFIT TAG

Harris said that the American male had been tagged the most physically unfit man in history, and automation is making
