Class Of '56 In Spotlight At Homecoming Celebration

The Spectator...
By Mary Brecheen

When I was but a wee lass, I was intrigued by conversations of the old folks--oh, for the day I could say "ten years ago" or better still, "twenty-five years ago." Little did I know that all grown up, I could converse with the best of them and even compete with some "twenty-five or thirty years-ago" stories.

When I must pick his audience when he starts on "the days of yore." The now generation just care what happened any further back then and in that respect, I dare say they have it over us.

It's what makes Homecoming fun, however. When we tell our age right off by whom or what we know.

The generation never heard of a visual aid at school except chalk and a blackboard and the only thing to a movie projector that I knew of was the Rose Theater. The quickest way to draw a picture was to bring a car to school. You suddenly had a host of friends--and believe it or not, there was a parking problem.

In my wildest dreams did I consider the wisdom or authority of a teacher. My parents were school supporters--from a distance. They too respected the teachers and administrators and were able to convey their respect in my educational welfare by insisting that I do what was expected of me. Nothing less and nothing less.

My parents didn't need a parents' advisory group to tell me what was going on at school and the school activities, likewise, didn't need any outside help to get their job done.

As I said, we date ourselves by what we know.

Dr. Ted Pridmore, Lubbock physician, will introduce his cousin, Gordon Smith, a Baptist minister from Windermere, Florida who, in turn, will address his fellow ex-students at the Homecoming celebration in Tahoka on Friday, October 8th.

Pridmore and Smith were both members of the honored class of 1956.

The public is invited to the program, to be held in the high school auditorium.

Following the parade and pep rally, the honored class will meet in the First National Bank Community Room and again in the same room on Friday.

NHS To Honor Exes At Coffee On Friday

Tahoka High's National Honor Society will host a coffee for ex-students and guests in the entry hall of the high school at 12:30 on Friday, preceding the 1:30 ex-students' program.

According to Mrs. Jane Roberson, sponsor, all local and visiting ex-students are invited.

The class of 1966 will meet at the Country Club after the general meeting.

Work + Dedication + Respect = Education; Magic Formula Works At O'Donnell

Benjamin Franklin, an American statesman, said "empty his purse first, no man can learn from him. An investment in knowledge pays the best

Dale Read, superintendent of O'Donnell Independent School District, said "We want to get back to the basic skills and give every child what he or she needs most to make a life, as well as a living."

Those two spokesmen live more than 200 years apart, chronologically, and many hundreds of miles apart, geographically, but they are in very close proximity in their philosophies of education.

During a visit to the schools in O'Donnell, two facts come through "loud and clear"--number one, the education of students is the primary concern of everybody, and number two, there is a mutual admiration society consisting of faculty and administrators. And with those components, there are more positives than negatives in that institution of learning.

The O'Donnell School District covers an area of 338 square miles and has in the neighborhood of 660 students, statistics which are a definite boon, financially speaking. The district's state funds are calculated by applying what is known as the "sparse formula"--if a district covers more than 300 square miles and it has less than 1,000 total enrollment, then it qualifies for extra funds. Property in the school district is valued at $38,000,000 with an assessed value of $16,800,000. Tax rate for the current year is $1.78 per hundred dollar value, that figure including 28 cents for bonded indebtedness.

Those are the statistics on paper and, though they are vital, the man at the helm in the O'Donnell schools sees far more than statistics. He's a knowledgeable man--legislative goings-on, school law, finance, you name it. He realizes the need, for example, of involving the student and of expecting that student to perform to the best of his ability. He attributes a great deal of his success as an administrator to his Board of Education: Charlie Beckham, chairman; Shag Garrett, vice chairman; Kenneth Pearson, secretary; Kenneth Eaker, David Franklin, Raymond Hancock, and B. J. McLaurin.

He believes in developing the student socially and physically as well as intellectually. High school and junior high students erected an activity building a few feet away from the main structure and ten minutes of every day is set aside for a student break where they may go to the activity building for a quick game of table tennis or to have a soft drink. Junior high students take a break at a time other than that of the high school students. Even in the elementary school, there is a ten-minute break for students.

And Mr. Read is also quick to tell you about the 3-2 record the Eagles have set in football this season and going right along with his philosophy on developing the "whole student", he proudly related the all-school participation in Interscholastic League events.

Many schools whose enrollment exceeds that of O'Donnell are envious of another unique activity there--a mass communications program whereby students in speech and English classes have their own closed-cable TV. Mrs. Gary Botkin, English 3 and 4 and Speech teacher, directs the program and says, "The purpose of the course is to inform the O'Donnell community of school and local events." For example, on Monday evenings at 6 o'clock, on Channel 3 in O'Donnell, there is a Bits and Pieces program; at 6:30, viewers may see a sermon by a local minister, filmed primarily for shut-in people. Tuesday at 6:00, the varsity football game of the preceding week is replayed for Channel 3 viewers and on Wednesday, there is a video tape of students' interview of coaches on Coaches Corner, this at 6:30.

At 6:00 on Wednesday, also, a viewer sees KOHS news, produced by students in the communications class. On Sunday morning at 11:30, the video tape of the sermon may be seen again. Teachers realize the potential of such a program and are eager to assist and to share in the benefits that are gained.

Mrs. Donna Hopkins, who has been teaching in O'Donnell ten years, is making tremendous inroads with her photography lab, another cooperative project between students and teachers. She teaches commercial subjects and is sponsor of the yearbook. Her student staff members have learned to take and develop their own pictures, a sizeable savings to the program.

It's that way in every department--pride in student accomplishments and an ever-present desire to make things just a bit better.

Mrs. Caroline Rogers, a newcomer to the system, expresses her love for and interest in the newly renovated library and her expectations in obtaining more volumes for the already adequate facility.

The 175 high school students and the versatile programs are under the direct leadership of Frank Nanson, principal; Glen Hopkins is junior high principal, and in another building are the elementary facilities with Bill Schooler as principal of that part of the campus.

As is the case in every complex organization, there must be a person who "touches" everybody and in O'Donnell schools, that person is Mrs. Vera Eitter, a 30-year veteran in the administrative offices. She has been secretary to eight superintendents since beginning work with the '46-47 school year.

She shares her "seniority" with James Reed, agriculture teacher there for thirty years, and Mrs. Will Ed Treadway, a third-grade teacher for some twenty-eight years. Another "old-timer", Mrs. Nola Balch, retired a year ago.

That's just "touching the hem of the garment" in school at O'Donnell. Their successful homecoming celebration last Friday bears witness to the fact that in the past, O'Donnell students have felt a closeness for each other not known in many places and all indications are that that ingredient, coupled with a faculty dedicated to the ideals of educating young people, will continue to produce quality education at O'Donnell.

Festival Plans Discussed Chamber Board Told Of Funds Approval For Housing Unit

Tahoka's Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors met on Tuesday of this week and were told by director Dwain Lusk that an FHA loan had been approved for construction of twelve apartments by the Tahoka Industrial Housing Association.

As soon as architectural plans are completed, the Association will advertise for construction bids.

In other business, the minutes of the September 7 meeting were read and approved and an informative report was given by new Tahoka merchant, Bruce Tuttle, regarding future plans for his West Texas Golf Company.

Mrs. Mary Brecheen gave a final wrap-up of Festival plans and activities to be staged on Saturday.

George McCracken and Winston Wharton reported on the cleanup of downtown streets.

Directors present at the meeting were H. B. McCord, Jr., president of the Chamber; Harold Roberts, Carl Reynolds, McCracken, Jay Dee House, Lusk, Wharton, and Dr. David Midkiff.

Another guest, besides Tuttle, was Mrs. David Midkiff.

Cantata Rehearsals To Begin

The Tahoka Community Chorus will begin work on its annual Christmas music program on October 13 at the First Baptist Church.

The chorus will be directed by Morris Johnson, minister of music at the First Baptist Church and time for the rehearsals will be 8:00 p.m.

A Christmas cantata by Joe E. Parks, Rejoice, O Earth, will be this year's presentation, scheduled for Sunday night, December 12, in the sanctuary of First Baptist Church. All interested area people are invited to join the chorus.

O'DONNELL HIGH has its own closed-circuit TV station. Here, ready to do a news broadcast, are Tammy Left, Irene Escobedo, center, and Sherri Read.

GORDON SMITH AND ANITA DURHAM take advantage of extended library facilities for O'Donnell High and Junior students.

Junior High-Lites

BY AMY PORTERFIELD

On September 30, the Junior High football teams played Post. During the seventh-grade game, Danny Thompson made a spectacular 40-yard run for a touchdown. Try for extra points failed. In the second half, Mark Hudlin ran 10 yards for a touchdown, but there was a flag on the play and it was called back. Post made a touchdown in the second half and their try for extra points failed. Thompson made another good run, in the last few minutes of play, of 30 yards.

Tahoka had 285 yards rushing with Thompson making 136 of them. Final score was Tahoka 6, Post 6.

The eighth-grade game was short and anything but sweet. Tahoka's lone touchdown was made by Tino Chapa.

Tahoka had 126 yards rushing with Roy Burks making 50 of them. Final score, Tahoka 6, Post 34.

The Junior High Pep Squad really looked sharp in their new uniforms—royal blue overalls and white blouses.

A real cute skit was performed during the Junior High pep rally. Debby Gwin played the coach, DeeDee Cawman was the cheerleader, Yvette Paynes, Cathy Meeks, Raejeanie House played football players and they all had problems.

Tonight's game (October

7) will be at home, against O'Donnell, first game starting at 5 p.m.

Clifford Bailey rushed for 90 yards and his brother, Earnest, had 68. Randy Meeks led in the tackle department with eleven. He also had 10 assists and Britt Brooks had 9 assists.

Following editorial appeared in The Lynn County News in fall of 1950 and we reprint it to honor that team during Homecoming activities.

They are now and then, we hear some person condemn a new generation of young people. For centuries, we suppose, the folks have been saying, "This new generation is going to be evil."

This is not true. Not in Tahoka at least. Certainly not in the case of the Bulldog football team. I never saw a bunch of boys that beat these," says Coach Gardner. "We just haven't had any discipline problems. They worked out these troubles among themselves."

This year there have been no training problems and they have remained in condition physically, mentally, and morally. I know that the boys would not want us to print some of the things we are about to reveal. But, in view of some of the things the younger generation sometimes gets, we think it our duty. And this is not meant for glorification, nor is it as a sermon—but there are plenty of us who should be their example. And they are no "sissies"—just ask of the teams they have met.

On Wednesday or Thursday night during the football season, members of the squad have been holding a little meeting of their own—no coaches or other adults present. At these meetings, it is known that they have discussed their many problems, built up the morale of each and developed a sense of cooperation and respect for each other to the fullest extent. If some fellow squad-member did not have the right attitude, he was given counsel and help. Sometimes a member of the team would pray.

It is that they came out on the football field a true team—still helping each other—a team that won five games last year during a season when the fans were saying the boys could not win over two. They fought fair and hard. Yes, occasionally, in the heat of conflict some boys became a little over-zealous and was the cause of a foul. But in the rough, tough game of football, against less scrupulous boys, a little rough stuff sometimes bounces out in self-defense.

In one game, the "little boys" were apparently hopelessly out at the half. There was no "eating-out" from the sidelines during the rest period, but attention was simply given to the mistakes. Then a Bulldog got up, asked Divine Grace, and thanked the Good Lord for their capabilities. It was a team that ran back to the football field. They would not accept defeat and they won! That team won three games it was supposed to win and that team used the best strategy it had against the overwhelming odds of the four teams it lost.

The same group of boys a few days ago went to Tahoka City, without fanfare or publicity, and held a memorial service for their team-mate of last year, Delwyn Kelley, who died during the 1949-50 season.

In almost every game played this year, the officials went to Tahoka coaches and complimented the Tahoka boys for good sportsmanship and attitude.

Only the coaches of this and previous years have been able to characterize as well as strong bodies.

Always have the boys had the big end of the score, but the 1950 Bulldogs are Champions. What do you say?

Hatchett, Ash, Huffaker Lead In Rushing, Tackles, Assists

On Thursday night, September 30, Post JV team beat the Tahoka team 13-0 and again, the statistics defied the scoreboard as Tahoka had 98 more yards.

The scoring did not start until the fourth quarter when Post blocked a punt by Roddy Brooks and recovered it and ran in for a TD. Jerry Hatchett blocked the PAT.

Post again scored in the quarter when the halfback scored on a 5-yard run. The PAT was good and Post led 13-0.

Hatchett was the leading rusher with 158 yards. Carlton Ash had 6 tackles and Cal Huffaker had 6 assists.

The Tahoka JV team has an open date on October 7.

Wilson Stampedes Jayton, 21-12

It was Homecoming on October 1st at Wilson and the Mustangs delighted the packed stadium with a 21-12 victory over the Jayton Jaybirds, making their record 5-0 in the 1976 season.

On Wilson's first play from scrimmage, the tempo of the game was set as Senior Carlton Henderson threw a 21-yard present to Senior Philip Bednarz, catching the Jaybird defense napping. The conversion attempt was wide and Wilson held a quick lead, 6-0. Neither team could mount an offense during the second quarter, but after the two teams returned from halftime, Junior Mikey Ramirez rambled in from the 35. He then was the recipient of a toss from Henderson for a 2-point play. Jayton got on the scoreboard moments later, but missed on the PAT. In the fourth quarter, both teams scored, but Wilson made their extra point and the scoreboard read 21-12.

Coach Charles Seagler and assistant Pat Mouser and Bill West thought the game was a good test for their strong Mustangs since district wars will commence on October 7. The Jaybirds had played tough class A teams prior to the game and are re-building from a fine 1975 championship team. Wilson's attack seems to be more balanced each week as the leading ground gainer in the Jayton game was Ramirez with 170 yards, following by Senior Wes Wilke with 113.

Sands is to be the first district opponent for the Mustangs.

This Is A Farmer

Farmers are found in fields plowing up, seeding down, returning from, planting to, fertilizing with, spraying for, and harvesting of. Wives help them, little boys follow them, the Agriculture Department confuses them, city relatives visit them, salesmen detain them, meals wait for them, weather can delay them, but it takes Heaven to stop them.

When your car stalls along the way, a farmer is a considerate, courteous, inexpensive road service. When a farmer's wife suggests he buy a new suit, he can quote from memory every expense involved in operating the farm last year, plus the added expense he is certain will crop up this year. Or else he assumes the role of the indignant shopper, impressing upon everyone within earshot the pounds of pork he must produce in order to pay for a suit at today's prices.

A farmer is a paradox—he is an "overlaid" executive with his home his office; a scientist using fertilizer attachments; a purchasing agent in an old straw hat; a personnel director with grease under his fingernails; a dietitian with a passion for alfalfa, animals, and antibiotics; a production expert faced with a surplus; and a manager battling a price-cost squeeze. He manages more capital than most of the businessmen in town.

He likes sunshine, good food, state fairs, dinner at noon, auctions, his neighbors, Saturday nights in town, his shirt collar unbuttoned, and above all, a good soaking rain in August.

He is not much for droughts, ditches, throughways, experts, weeds, the eight-hour day, helping with the housework, or grasshoppers.

Nobody else is so far from the telephone or so close to God. Nobody else gets so much satisfaction out of modern plumbing, favorable weather, and good ice cream.

Nobody else can remove all those things from his pockets and on washday still have overlooked—five steeples, one catter key, a rusty nail, three guins of corn, the stub end of a lead pencil, a square tape, a $4.98 pocket watch, and a cup full of chaff in each trouser cuff.

A farmer is both Faith and Fatalist—he must have faith to continually meet the challenges of his capacities amid an ever-present possibility that an act of God, a late spring, an early frost, tornado, flood, drought can bring his business to a complete standstill. You can reduce his acreage, but you can't restrain his ambition!

Might as well put up with him—he is your friend, your competition, your customer, your source of food and fiber, and self-reliant young citizens to help replenish your cities.

He is your countryman—a denim-dressed, business-wise, fast-growing statesman.

And when he comes in at noon having spent the energy of his hopes and dreams, he can be recharged anew with the magic words, "The market's up!"

Bill Craig Will Participate In Running Water Draw Show

Bill Craig of Tahoka will be one of the one hundred area artists and craftsmen participating in the Second Annual Running Water Draw Arts and Crafts Festival in Plainview's Hale County Agricultural Center October 15-17.

Craig's signature, the roadrunner at full speed, marks his award-winning western paintings and metal sculptures.

The festival, featuring 100 booths with 97 artists and craftsmen from the tri-state area, will open at 10 a.m. on Friday and Saturday mornings and closing time for both days is 9 p.m. Sunday hours will be 12 noon to 5 p.m. Admission prices are $1.00 for adults and twenty-five cents for students, daily.

The Festival is again co-sponsored by the Llano Estacado Museum and the Plainview Rotary Club. Rapidly becoming a Plainview tradition, it involves many of the finest artists in the area. Noted artists displaying oil and water color include Ruth Barnett, Marie Stalcup, and Deane White of Hale Center; Marguerite Butler, Peg Noel, Harold D. Paxton, Patsy Payne, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sisemore, and Suzanne Teyck of Plainview; Melba Mabry and Sandra Lange of Lubbock; Ted Bell and Penny Golightly of Floydada; and Jon Birdsong, William Hughes, Michael Clayton McCullough, and Justin Wells of Amarillo.

Visitors to the festival will find the metal and bronze sculpture of such artists as Pam Trotter of Hereford and Paul Wylie of Levelland, and the pottery of R. J. Delwaide of Arlington, Lisa Mosley of Lockney, and Tommy Eaton of Lubbock. Of special interest to festival visitors will be the "rock babies" of Frances Flaherty of Happy, the paper quilling of Kay Fleming of Lubbock, and the carved birds of Irad Arnold of Tucumcari, the silhouettes of Paul Hoyte of Truth or Consequences, the Faberge eggs of Jane Skaggs of Whitewright, and the dulcimers of Stinson Behlen of Slaton.

With the art and craftwork of these and many other talented artists, as well as entertainment by Ballet Folklorico and other dance groups, the festival will offer ample opportunities for visitors to enjoy and begin or add to their collections of original work.

Sophomores Plan For Homecoming

Tahoka's sophomore class met October 2nd to discuss their plans for Homecoming and the Harvest Festival.

Again on October 5th the class met at Clove Roseberry's home to work on posters for the football field and school halls.

The class will have a cow-chip-throwing contest at the Harvest Festival and all persons are invited to participate in the fun.

Class sponsors are Mrs. Barbara Jaquess, Mrs. Janie Pickett, and Coach Mike Williamson.

The following essay was submitted from the Wilson High School government class in observance of National School Bus Safety Week, October 3-10.

Hi, My name is Mary. I'm just an average American little girl. Every morning I wake up, get ready for school and walk to the corner to catch the bus. I'm not the only person in my family. There are my parents and my little brother, Rodger.

Each day we are bright and happy and we look forward to riding the bus. We have had fun talking with our friends and Rodger especially likes the driver, Mr. Smith. He imitates his every move and tries his best to learn all he can about his job. He questions the driver continuously and stays around him as much as he can. The driver also likes Rodger and helps him wholeheartedly. They are the best of friends.

One day as we were waiting for the bus, Rodger saw a small puppy on the other side of the street and went to play with it. I saw the bus and told Rodger to come back over to where I was standing. He was nearly all the way across when a car came speeding by. The driver saw the lights on the bus, but he didn't think anything of it.

The day seemed long and empty. It's not much fun walking to the corner alone. Mr. Smith comes by every morning and he is also not the same.

If the driver had known that flashing lights on a bus meant stop for children boarding or getting off a bus, this would probably have never happened. So each person that drives should know the laws of bus safety, or you could be the next to be in this same situation.

Drive with care when you near a school bus. If you approach a school bus from either direction and the bus is displaying alternately flashing red lights, you must stop and not pass until (1) the school bus has resumed motion or (2) you are signaled by the driver to proceed or (3) the red lights are no longer flashing.

You need not stop when meeting or passing a school bus (1) which is on a different roadway or (2) upon a controlled access highway where the school bus is stopped in a loading zone and pedestrians are not permitted to cross the road.

Pyracantha Berries Make Good Jelly

The Pyracantha has a long and famous history of beautifying fall landscapes with its heavy stems of bright red berries. The pyracantha is a well-known and widely used landscape plant for Texas. Some people like it; others do not. Granted, it is thorny, has outrageous growth habits, but in the fall when its branches are laden with a heavy coat of colorful red berries, it would be hard to deny it to a place in the landscape.

One of the myths of the pyracantha is that the berries are poisonous. If you've ever watched the birds feast on a branch of pyracantha berries, perhaps you have wondered if they were indeed poisonous. The fact is, pyracantha berries are entirely edible and there is at least one recipe discovered for pyracantha jelly. This information was taken from an article written by Ted Fisher, Travis County Extension Horticulturist.

Pyracantha Jelly

To extract the juice, boil 1/2 pound berries in 1/4 cup of water for one minute. Strain the juice through clean cloth. To one cup juice, add one teaspoon lemon juice and 1/2 package powdered pectin. Bring to hard boil. Add 1/4 cup sugar and continue rolling boil 1 1/2 minutes, stirring constantly. Pour into hot, sterilized jars.

Youth Plan 4-H Week Activities

Youth across the state of Texas are continually thinking up new ideas to better and promote their 4-H clubs. This year the young people seem to have already set out with determination to gain attention to 4-H during National 4-H Week, October 3-9.

Their motto for this year is "4-H—Room to Grow" and 6.6 million 4-H members across the nation will re-dedicate their heads to clearer thinking, their hearts to greater loyalty, their hands to larger service and their health to better living.

4-H projects and activities are supervised locally by staff members of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service—county agents and assistant county agents. They are assisted by volunteer leaders who may be adults, teens, and juniors.

Most 4-H youth across the state will devote this week to promoting their individual clubs and their activities through poster contests, slide presentations, and other programs to civic organizations and similar groups," points out Dr. John T. Pelham, state 4-H and youth leader with the Extension Service. "Other activities for National 4-H Week include achievement and Gold Star banquets where outstanding club members will be recognized."

Numerous counties within the state have planned special programs for the week. For example, Harris County 4-Hers will sponsor a Discovery Day at a shopping center in the Houston area. Brazoria County youth plan to enter a float in the parade preceding the county fair.

Liberty County will provide 4-H handouts and pamphlets to local merchandisers to be given to their customers. Galveston County members have planned a special story in the Galveston News featuring two former 4-H members who were active in 4-H from 1930 to 1950.

4-Hers in Grayson County plan to attend church as a group on 4-H Sunday, October 3rd. Window displays are also planned and a poster contest will be held at the Sher-Den Mall.

In Denton County, 4-Hers and leaders are working with the staff of the Denton Record-Chronicle to put together a 12-page tabloid highlighting 4-H events and project groups. An achievement banquet to recognize outstanding 4-H members and volunteer leaders will highlight the week.

Hunt County 4-H members are planning a supplement in the Greenville Herald-Banner that will feature stories and pictures about 4-H life. Radio messages, window displays, and a speakers bureau will also spread the word about 4-H.

Regardless of the county or town, each 4-H member will have a special hand in telling the public about the "learning to do" organization known as 4-H, notes Pelham.

Fire Drills Offered For Children

Children must practice fire escape and fire protection techniques if they are expected to react correctly in an emergency. The following is the last of six "fire drills" offered in this series designed to teach children how to survive a fire.

The drill called "Man the Hoses" teaches some principles of fire fighting. Every fireman knows how to put out a fire and your children can learn elementary fire fighting techniques. Although a child will never fight fire extensively, his quick action could save his life or your house.

Stage a small paper or wood fire in the backyard—in a box, barbecue pit or trash burner—where you can control it. Show youngsters how to put it out with a bucket of water or a hose. A coarse spray nozzle is better than a steady stream. If you own a fire extinguisher, and you should, have everyone learn to use it. A practice session is worth the cost of a refill, for an extinguisher is useless unless you know how to work it.

Warn children never to throw water on an electrical fire because of the shock hazard or on a grease fire because it may spatter, spreading the flames. Only an extinguisher designed for electrical fires will work on electricity. To squelch small grease fires, put a lid on the flaming pan or throw on several handfuls of baking soda (never flour; it may explode). For ordinary combustibles such as wood, paper, and cloth, water is the surest extinguishing agent.

Teach children exactly what to do if their clothing catches on fire. Let them pretend they are on fire and have them roll up in a blanket, rug, large towel or the quickest thing available to smother the flames. Emphasize that they should never run if clothes are burning because the breeze fans the flames.

Tracy Lee Is Wilson's '76 Homecoming Queen

Tracy Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Lee of Wilson, was named Homecoming Queen Friday night in pre-game activities at Mustang stadium.

Float winners in the homecoming parade were Senior class, first; Eighth grade, second; and Sixth Grade, third. Judges were Walt Olivo of Growers Seed in Lubbock, Dalton Wood of the Slatonite, and Mrs. Mary Brecheen of The Lynn County News.

Approximately 190 exes registered during the pre-game supper and after-game coffee. The Lions Club reported a very successful barbecue and ran out of food while guests were still waiting.

The Slaton and Jayton bands received plaques for performances in the parade.

The Ex-Students Association expresses its gratitude to all who helped make the celebration the most successful one in years.

Donald Klaus is president of the Ex-Students Association.

WILSON SENIORS won first place with their Homecoming float entitled "Wring Out the Jaybirds." Shown on the float are Vickie Kubacak and Cindy Davis.

"JAYBIRD MEMORIAL" was the name of the second-place float at Wilson's Homecoming parade. The float was made and entered by the eighth graders at Wilson.
