Artillery Fighting Continues Along Front in France—Reported That Turks are Burning Towns on Asiatic Side at the Dardanelles

By Associated Press. London, Sept. 14.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's offensive near Dvinsk where the railroad leading from Vilna to Petrograd has been reached again menaces the railway connections with the Russian capital. The comparative successes in other sectors which the Russians have gained causes the capital to regard the latest threat against it with no alarm. British opinion is that the Courland campaign of the Germans not only is proving costly in men and supplies but is likely to fail unless the Russian offensive on the other extreme can be stopped soon. By their last attack in Eastern Galicia the Russians are reported to have penetrated Austro-German trenches in the face of an exceptionally heavy artillery fire.

To the north the Russians are withdrawing steadily from the dangerous Niemen salient opposing the German advance merely by stubborn rear guard actions. The tremendous duel of big guns still marks operations along the Franco-Belgian and Italian fronts. Except for occasional attempts to rush advantage trenches there is little infantry activity on either side. From the east comes reports that the Turks are firing villages on the Asiatic shore of the Dardanelles and it is suggested that they are preparing to abandon the straits. It also is reported that the Turkish shore batteries on the Asiatic side of the straits have been reduced almost to silence.

JUDGE HOPKINS PLACED ON STAND IN VOTE TRIAL

Accused District Judge Testifies for Defense in Vote Conspiracy Trial at Corpus Christi

By Associated Press. Corpus Christi, Texas, Sept. 14.—District Judge W. B. Hopkins, one of the 41 defendants to charges of having conspired to corrupt the general election of 1914 who are being tried here in the United States district court was on the witness stand for more than two hours today, testifying in his own behalf. Judge Hopkins underwent a vigorous cross examination from United States Attorney Green.

Judge Hopkins, next to Judge Timmon, is probably the best known of the defendants. He has been judge of this court for nine years, having been appointed by Governor Sayers after the assassination of Judge Stanley Welsh of Rio Grande county. He had served as county judge twelve years before taking the district bench. Judge Hopkins is named in the indictment as being a party to the alleged machinations of the courts to restrain Joe Acebo from his liberty on election day in 1914 and holding from him his rights to vote. This is the only count against Judge Hopkins, according to the evidence already introduced.

Dignified in appearance, a prominent jurist himself, he made a unique appearance on the witness stand. Acebo indicted. Joe Acebo, who was supposed to have been one of the government's star witnesses in the Nueces county election case but who turned out to be quite the contrary when placed on the witness stand Saturday, was indicted on two counts alleging perjury by the Federal grand jury Monday afternoon, the bill being returned in open court and Acebo placed under a $5,000 bond. The date of his trial will be fixed later.

The announcement of the Acebo perjury indictment came in the midst of the first day of testimony by the defense in the election cases and almost overshadowed interest in the trial itself. Acebo is quite a unique local character and as he expressed it on the stand a few days ago, has been in Corpus Christi politics "since he was a kid." He was among those at first indicted for election fraud, but later was understood to have become a witness for the prosecution and the charges against him were dropped. But when he took the stand his testimony, according to United States attorneys, was distinctly at variance with that which he is understood to have given the grand jury and upon which some of the prosecution's theory was based. The government construction was that Acebo was unlawfully arrested and that although an independent he voted the Democratic ticket in order to obtain his release. On the stand, however, Acebo told of a disturbance he raised which caused his arrest, and said he was permitted to go to the polls from jail and voted the Democratic ticket voluntarily because he went in the primary. The defense offered evidence to substantiate the claim that he was arrested for the reason he gave in his recent testimony.

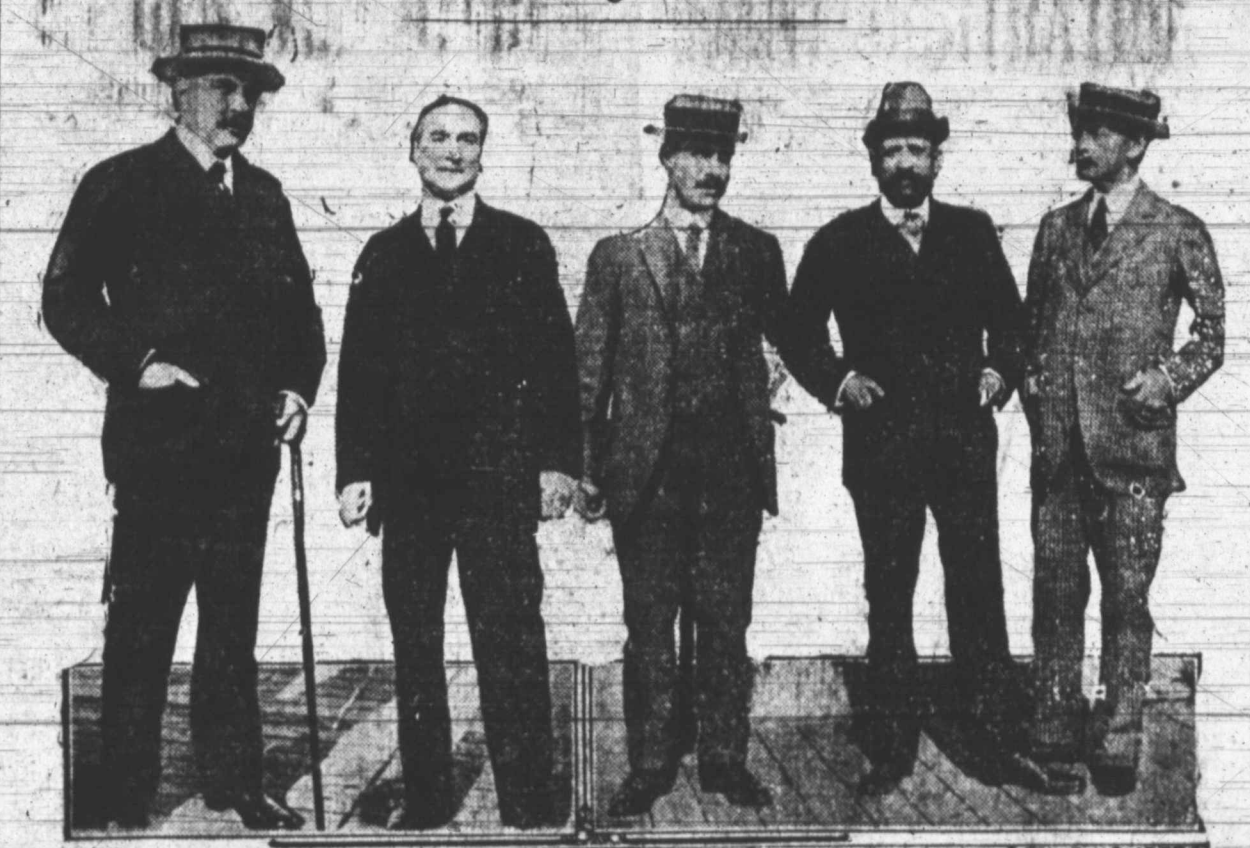

Seek to Prove Alibi. The general character of evidence developed by the defense in the examination of eighteen witnesses was to prove an alibi for certain defendants who, according to preceding government witnesses, were on "the hill" last general election day and to controvert details of parts of former testimony and so discredit some of the government's evidence. Testimony was taken from election attaches and supervisors, who said they saw nothing wrong at the polls on November 3rd, and from Mayor Roy Miller and Police man Johnson, the latter being the first to testify, to the end that they neither saw nor heard anything of "buying Mexican votes" or "the hill" or anywhere else on election day or at any other time. Each of these witnesses said he had no understanding that it was customary to buy Mexican votes at elections here and had never heard any part of the Mexican vote was purchasable. Police man Johnson said the only time he ever heard of Mexican votes being bought was in the city election of 1911, but that he did not move here until 1913.

Allies' Envoys in United States Seeking War Loan Of $500,000,000

The allies' financial commission, sent to this country from Great Britain and France to negotiate a loan or credit, the probable amount of which, according to American financiers, will be in excess of $500,000,000 at a conservative estimate, reached New York on the White Star liner Lapland. Within a few hours after their arrival the commissioners were in council with more than 100 representatives American financiers. J. P. Morgan's library on Thirty-sixth street, between Madison and Park avenues, which in the fall of 1907 provided a setting for meetings of the most important men in Wall street to contrive ways and means to check the financial disaster of that period, was the scene of the meeting. Conveances rolled up to the library in an uninterrupted procession and from them stepped bankers, railroad men, heads of insurance companies and others well known in the financial world. The six foreign commissioners were among the first to arrive. They were received by Mr. Morgan and Henry P. Davison of J. P. Morgan & Company. The commission has four representatives from Great Britain and two from France. The British members are Baron Reading, lord chief justice, chairman; Sir Edward Hopkinson Holden, chairman of the London City and Midland bank; Sir Henry Babington Smith, president of the National Bank of Turkey and Basil Brackett, a British treasury expert, who is the secretary of the commission. The French commissioners are Octave Homberg of the French treasury and Ernest Mallet, a regent of the Bank of France.

NOT SERIOUSLY INJURED

Shooting Took Place in Woman's Room and She Was Found Dying on Floor When Door Was Broken In—Man Arrested and in Jail

The Shaw woman was shot twice, one bullet entering just above the mouth and the other taking effect in her heart. A .32-caliber H. & R. old style revolver was used. Scott had gone to the resort earlier in the evening and had been in the room with the woman for some time. Other inmates of the house heard the shots and rushed to the door, to find it locked. A male visitor smashed it in, and found the young woman dying and Scott unconscious on the floor. Medical attention was summoned, but the woman died within a few minutes. Sheriff Hawkins, Constable Allen and Deputy Constable Buxter were soon on the scene and took Scott to jail. This morning he was much improved and was out of danger. Scott is a jockey by profession, and had come here recently from Quannah where there had been a race meet. His home is in San Angelo, where his wife and one child reside. The Shaw woman came here from San Angelo also. She is understood to have relatives in Fort Worth and the body is being held pending advice as to the disposal of it.

WAGONS OF MEXICAN FARMERS CHOKE ROADS LEADING TO RIO GRANDE CROSSINGS ALONG BORDER

BODIES OF MEXICANS FOUND

Three Bodies Found in Vicinity of Edinburg While Another Was Seen Floating Down Rio Grande River Chained to a Log

By Associated Press. Brownsville, Tex., Sept. 14.—The bodies of three dead Mexicans were found today at various points in this section. United States immigration authorities have placed a partial embargo on the crossing of the river by Mexicans and are passing only such Mexicans as can prove that they have legitimate business on the American side. The purpose is to stop bandits and numerous Mexicans with known Texas police records from continuing to cross at their pleasure to the American side.

The bodies of two Mexicans were found near Edinburg, twenty-five miles from the scene of yesterday's fight. The Mexicans had been shot. Rangers have been working near Edinburg but have made no report of encountering Mexicans. It is not believed that these Mexicans had any connection with the attack of yesterday on the American camp. The body of another Mexican today floated past Brownsville chained to the trunk of a tree. There was nothing on the body to indicate whether the Mexican was the victim of private vengeance or whether he came from the American or Mexican side.

Colonel A. T. Blackston, in command at Fort Brown, today sent another troop of cavalry into the Los Endos section, where the soldiers were ambushed yesterday. Another Mexican was arrested there on suspicion, making a total of six prisoners held in San Benito in connection with this fight. Officers do not believe that any of these Mexicans were in the fight but that they might have known that the attack was made. On an inspection trip made by Colonel Blackston over the country within ten miles of Los Endos he found it presented an almost perfect picture in miniature of the nature of the trouble in this entire section. The speed of the colonel's automobile was frequently reduced to make way for passing wagon loads of Mexican families hurrying into Mexico. As one Mexican family lined up on the porch to watch the military force pass, a two-year-old child clothed only in a shirt and holding a fan suddenly waved the fan over its head, disclosing an American flag fastened across the fan. Among these peaceful Mexicans, officers were positive were some of the Mexicans who fired on the troops at Los Endos and were appearing openly as farmers, their arms hidden in fields or houses. Mexicans whose moving wagon trains occasionally choked the roads were fleeing as much from these Mexicans for whom rangers and deputies were searching as they were from other causes. In fields where the Mexicans surrounded the soldiers at Los Endos two army canteens were found and identified by U. S. Cavalrymen as canteens they had lost on August 3 in a fight twenty-five miles distant from the scene of yesterday's battle. The August 3 fight was with a band alleged to have been led by Antonio Pizano. The whose arrest Col. Blackston has made a request to the Mexican authorities. Army officials regarded the finding of these canteens as highly significant showing that the shooting was by the same soldiers who started the trouble two months ago.

The mail man shot yesterday, on his route between Edinburg and Del Vina was Octaviana Aleman. He was fired upon from the brush, being hit in the neck but was not seriously hurt as he jumped from the wagon and ran to the brush for cover. The government mule drawing the mail cart ran away thereby saving the mail. The mule was found later, leisurely plodding along towards Del Vina with the postal bag. Aleman skirted through the brush until he reached a nearby ranch.

DESPENDENT FARMER HUNG HIMSELF TO A RAFTER

By Associated Press. Houston, Sept. 14.—T. C. Williams, a farmer living two miles west of Goldthwaite, killed himself at his home Sunday night. He was found by his wife a few minutes after she had gone to bed, hanging to a rafter. He had evidently swung off the side of the bed. Dependancy is given as the cause for this act.

THIS ANNOUNCEMENT MADE BY A HIGH GOVERNMENT OFFICER

GERMAN AMBASSADOR SHOWN EVIDENCE IN POSSESSION OF STATE DEPARTMENT AT WASHINGTON

TRANSMITTED TO BERLIN

Washington Government Awaits To Learn How this Evidence Will Affect Attitude of Impartial German Government on the Issue

By Associated Press. Washington, Sept. 14.—The American government is not willing to discuss with Germany the question of arbitration in connection with the sinking of the Arabic. It was stated today by a high government official that the "question of arbitration is not in issue."

It was learned that the German ambassador had the opportunity at the state department to examine carefully a map of evidence gathered by the United States giving technical details the position of the Arabic, the British steamer Dunstey and the German submarine up to and including the time the torpedoes were fired which destroyed both vessels. The proof offered is understood to be chiefly that the German submarine was at right angles to the Arabic when it fired the torpedo and that the liner could not see the submarine because up on the moment of the firing it was concealed behind the Dunstey.

These facts have now been transmitted through diplomatic channels to the German foreign office and officials are wanting to learn what effect a study of this evidence will have on the point of view of the German government.

GIBBONS VISIT TO WILSON TO INFLUENCE PUBLIC OPINION.

Rome, Sept. 14.—In discussing Cardinal Gibbons' visit to President Wilson, the newspaper Roma, often considered inspired by the Vatican says there is no idea at present of offering mediation to the belligerents, but that the pope's object is to influence public opinion in favor of peace so that mediation may have every chance of success when the circumstances seem favorable.

The pontiff is said to realize there is no possibility that his intervention now would be accepted by the quadruple entente.

Everybody is going to take part in the big style show Thursday evening down to the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker. It is the intention of practically all of the grocers, druggists and other merchants whose lines of business are not directly interested in fashions, to dress up their store windows for the occasion, merely as a manifestation of the "Wichita Way" of pulling together. Even now with this first style show still a thing of the future, merchants are planning big things for the spring style show, providing the people of Wichita Falls take an interest in the introductory show of Thursday evening.

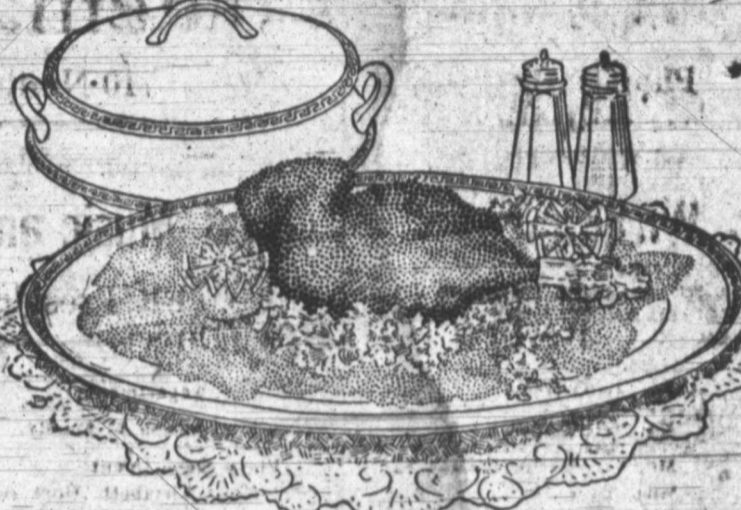

ISSUED AT MIDNIGHT. WRIT SERVED AT 2 A. M. Justice Roused Out of Bed to Issue Writ Which Was Served on Young Lady Boarder. With a writ of sequestration issued at midnight and service on the same secured at 2 a. m., the ends of justice were being met in Wichita Fall sat odd hours Monday night. A young woman who owed her landlady for board and other things was believed to be planning to depart with all her effects on an early train. Justice Howard was roused out of bed and a writ of sequestration secured; Constable Allen, took this and served it at 2 a. m., and the supposed intentions of the young woman were blocked. While such antics are not common in the halls of justice, they are not nearly as rare as might be supposed, being made necessary fairly often.

HENDERSON BATES' OWN VERSION OF SHOOTING. "If another nigger tells me to stay away from his house, I'm top old a nigger to try to go there," said Henderson Bates this morning discussing his shooting of another negro Sunday night. Henderson says "The Times account of the shooting was wrong in many of its details." He never has been to Luther Brown's home in "my life," he said, and he had never warned anybody about any attentions to his wife Sunday night he come over to my house and started a racket. He called me out and when I came out he threw a rock and ran. The rock hit a window. I went back into the house and picked up my shot gun and pursued him. When I got down to his house I found that my boy had taken the shells out of my shot gun and I turned to walk back home. Then he shot at me. The shots were fired from a distance of about 25 yards and did little damage. Bates this morning showed no bad effects from the shooting.

Fried chicken that is fried chicken. Don't you want to taste the tip-toppet fried chicken you ever put in your mouth? A brown, crispy crust on the outside—and just full of the chicken juice (no grease) on the inside? Fry it in Crusto—given you all the chicken taste because it itself is tasteless. Saves all the chicken juice because you can get it so hot without burning, that the minute you drop the chicken in the pan a crisp crust is first around the meat which keeps the grease out and the flavor in. Lard and butter burn long before Crusto will. Lard costs no less and isn't as good. Cooking butter costs more and doesn't approach it. Use Crusto for lard and butter purposes—all but bread-spreading.

OKLAHOMA TO KEEP 4 INSPECTORS IN FIELD

State Takes Steps to Conserve Supply and to Prevent Wastage in the Fields of That State.

Oklahoma City, Sept. 14.—Four inspectors to prevent the waste of gas and oil under the new conservation law will be in the fields constantly under the agreement made by the corporation commissioners and Mine Inspector Ed Boyle.

Inspector Boyle has contended that the new law placed the conservation of oil and gas in his department, but the corporation commission took charge of it and made rules governing the producers. Under the agreement made, the commissioners will have two inspectors and Boyle will put two more into the field.

The commission has ordered the use of mud fluid in plugging the wells through the gas sand, where the drill is to go deeper for oil. Boyle contends that this method is worthless and will try to have the order changed after it has been demonstrated that mud fluid plugging will not prevent the leakage.

The delay was occasioned by the failure of workmen to install the fixtures on time, the supervisor arriving one week late. As extensive a display as is possible under the circumstances is being planned.

CHINESE BOYCOTTING JAPANESE IN AMERICA

More Than 500 Japanese Cooks and Waiters in Chinese Restaurants in Chicago Discharged

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Wholesale discharge of Japanese cooks and waiters in restaurants operated by Chinese was explained today as being in part of the boycott proclaimed sometime ago by the Chinese on Japanese labor and products, throughout the United States. The boycott is the result of the demands made by Japan on China for the ceding of territory and other rights. More than 500 Japanese waiters and cooks in Chinese restaurants have been summarily discharged. "Within another month business between Japanese and Chinese in this country will have stopped," said Moy Dung Jo, president of the Chinese Merchant's Association of Chicago.

PERMISSION WITHDRAWN NEGRO ENTERTAINMENT

Repealed Resolution By Negroes at Lake Wichita Will Not Be Given Planned

Plans for a negro entertainment at Lake Wichita tomorrow night were called off today after the nature of the offer became known. In the meantime the negroes had distributed circulars and given considerable publicity to their plans. It was learned that the negroes, instead of wanting to use the pavilion for a social function, wished to give a performance there, believing that the white patrons of the lake would like to see the dances given by the darker tribe. Permission for an affair of that kind was given by F. P. St. Clair, who is in charge of the lake concessions, he understanding that it was not to be in the nature of a religious social affair, but merely a performance for which admission was to be charged. This morning, however, it was decided to withdraw the permission and the affair will not be held. The idea for such an entertainment, it is said, had originated with some white folks who thought it would be a novel diversion. It was felt, however, that what it would be set lines against which might lead to trouble in the future. The report that permission had been given for a negro dance at the lake aroused considerable interest until the true facts were ascertained.

WICHITA WANTS NO DISCRIMINATION IN FREIGHT RATES

OBJECTS TO SPECIAL RATES FOR DALLAS OR FORT WORTH UNLESS SAME RATES ARE MADE TO SMALLER CITIES.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETS

Resolutions Made for Poultry Show, Labor Day Deficit and For Cotton and Grain Exchange By Directors at the Tuesday's Session.

Wichita Falls will protest against making any special rate from eastern points to Dallas or Fort Worth, unless the same rates are made to the smaller cities of Texas. At the morning's session of the Chamber of Commerce directors, it was decided to enter a formal protest, joining other Texas cities in this move.

The directors appropriated ten dollars monthly for the cotton and grain exchange which is being organized here, $25 to help defray the expenses of the poultry show to be held here this fall and $50 to make up the deficit in the Labor Day expenses. R. O. Harvey brought up the exchange matter, Rev. T. E. Cannedy presented the poultry show's needs and J. A. Wray appeared on behalf of the trades and labor council.

The Rate Question.
Mr. Kell brought up the freight rate question. He said that as a result of Shreveport's fight for better rates to Texas points, which gave the Louisiana city equality with Texas jobbing centers, Shreveport now had an added advantage by reason of lower rates from Pittsburg and other eastern points. Dallas and Ft. Worth he said, had applied to the Interstate Commerce Commission for a special rate that would offset this advantage in Shreveport's favor, but a number of smaller Texas cities had intervened, objecting to giving Fort Worth and Dallas any advantage in which they did not share. Mr. Kell did not think it was necessary for this city to also intervene, but wanted the Chamber of Commerce to enter its objection. A motion to this effect prevailed.

Directors present today were: Messrs. Ward, Kemp, Huff, Harvey, Huey, Art, Pennington, Kell, Blair, Noble, O'Reilly and Leopold.

FIVE MORE ARRESTS FOR TRAFFIC LAW VIOLATIONS

All Were Charged With Driving Autos Past Standing Street Cars—Or—Disobedience Misunderstood.

Five more arrests for violations of the traffic ordinance have been made, all for driving cars past standing street cars. In each case the autoist said that he did not understand the provisions of the ordinance on this point, and while the police feel that every opportunity has been given to become familiar with the ordinance, they are still supposed to be lenient. Motorists who cannot distinguish between the "blind" side of a street car and the open side may follow this rule, of not passing a standing street car when it is headed in the same direction that the autoist is going; when it is headed in the opposite direction, he may pass it, going slowly and not closer than seven feet to the car. To illustrate, if the car is going north and the autoist is also going north, the latter must stop his machine until the car has gone on; if the car is going north and the autoist is going south, he may drive slowly past, going not nearer than seven feet to the car. Chief Nail wants attention called to the fact that the ordinance applies to horse drawn vehicles as well as automobiles and he says drivers of buggies and wagon are not as careful as they might be, appearing to think the ordinance was intended for autoists alone.

Mrs. Charles Dickinson Says Paper is Telling Influence for Growth of City

Mrs. Charles Dickinson, Woodville-on-Hudson, in renewing a subscription for the Times for Mr. Dickinson's mother one of the oldest residents of Wichita Falls now living with them, pays a compliment to the Times. In a letter accompanying the remittance Mrs. Dickinson writes:

"I am taking the Times for Mr. Dickinson's mother. She is now 87 years young, she having lived in Wichita Falls thirty-seven years. We have been there when the prairie dogs were in possession of the assets. Mr. Dickinson still owns property on Tenth street and watches with great interest the progress of the city and feels like congratulating the energetic broad-minded citizens who are doing so much. No one influence is so telling for the growth of the city as your daily paper which I always find urging the public to greater effort and always on the side of right. Let me congratulate you."

Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson are starting on a trip to California to be gone about six weeks. The elder Mrs.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Wives, Als.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that I was a victim of the 'Cardui' habit for a great deal of time. Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate, I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches occasionally. Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 15 pounds in weight. If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer. For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proved by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year. Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength. Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it."

$58,000 IN DELINQUENT TAXES IN WICHITA COUNTY

Contract For Publication of List Not Awarded—Commissioners Court Adjourns.

The county commissioners got through with their labors Monday and adjourned, without making the award for the printing of the delinquent tax list which goes over for later action. The court has until May of next year to publish this list which is to advertise property on which about $58,000 in delinquent taxes is due. Tax Assessor Bullard's account of $1800 for preparing this list was allowed.

The court appointed T. E. Griffin constable in precinct No. 5, to succeed Frank Watkins, resigned.

The order passed last month providing that residents of Wichita Falls must call at the court house to get their warrants instead of having the same mailed to them, rescinded. Objections to this rule had been numerous. County Judge Harris was granted five days leave of absence this month.

The Wichita Daily Times, referring to the Corpus Christi conspiracy trial now engaging the attention of the Federal court, says among other things that the "defendants have retained among other prominent and able counsel, such men as Jake Wolters and Jonathan Lane. Well, what about "such men?" In all Texas do you know of two better lawyers than Jake Wolters and Jonathan Lane? Why shouldn't they be retained when the very best legal counsel is sought? Is it because they differ politically with you that you refer to them as "such men?" And because they belong to a different school of politics from yourself, would you discredit them as lawyers? From what we can gather from newspaper reports these defendants stand very much in need of the very best legal talent obtainable and it seems they knew where to go to get it.—Denison Herald.

this country's President loves peace and is trying with every means at his disposal to preserve our country's peace. That doesn't sound as if Bryan was at odds with the President, who doubtless will prove a great disappointment to the political enemies of both the President and Mr. Bryan. Mr. Bryan's great error was in resigning himself conspicuously between the President and the President's diplomacy. His resignation as a resignation was not at all honorable. He had every right in the world to leave the Cabinet when he found himself and his chief opposed in their convictions. But the time and the manner of his resignation were such that they emphasized the differences existing between the Bryan idea and the Wilson idea, and that undue emphasis gave to the constituted authorities of Germany and Austria a misconception of America's conditions, a misconception which has worked disadvantageously to our diplomacy and of which the present critical situation between this country and Austria is one of the fruits. Mr. Bryan owed it to his chief, to his country and to himself to hold his contemplated resignation till a later date, a week later, or a month. Then it might have been presented with more dignity to himself, even if with less dramatic effect, and, above all, with more circumspection as regards the country's interests. All this is true beyond cavil, yet it is unfair, ungenerous and unjust to ascribe to William Jennings Bryan mean attributes, or charge him with a lack of patriotism, or small ability. He is truly a great and courageous and impressive character, and his public usefulness is by no means at an end. Given his usual health and a few years more, he will again be called to high service. And it is due to him to grant that his influence for peace has been stimulating and wholesome.—State Press in Dallas News.

EUGENE V. DEBS HERE FOR ADDRESS TONIGHT
Eugene V. Debs—you don't wonder when you meet him that his friends call him Gene—is here to speak tonight on socialism at the Wichita Theatre. He arrived this afternoon from Seymour where he addressed an immense audience at the West Texas Socialist Encampment last night. He was accompanied from Seymour by T. A. Hickey of Hallettsville, editor of the Rebel and state secretary of the Texas Socialist organization who will act as chairman at tonight's meeting. Dr. W. L. Gaines of Bomarton and a number of other prominent socialists who have been attending the encampment at Seymour.

Debs is a tall thin figure of a man with a benignant, kindly face that wears a winning smile and when he looks you in the face through his broad rimmed spectacles and warmly grasps your hand any preconceived ideas as to his being an apostle of violence vanishes. Mr. Debs has beaten Bryan's record, having been a candidate for the presidency four times on the Socialist ticket. Debs has been prominent in the work of the several of the railway brotherhoods, especially the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and was one of the leaders in the great Pullman strike, in which as a result of his activities he spent six months in jail for contempt of court.

The meeting tonight is scheduled to open at 8:30. Mr. Debs is stopping at the St. James Hotel where he received many friends this afternoon. He leaves over the North-western tomorrow morning for Mangum, Okla., where he is to deliver an address tomorrow. J. K. Moore of Dallas, is in the city in the interest of the Adolphus hotel of which he is chief clerk.

The public road crossing the spillway at Lake Wichita is to be completed, the county paying one-half the cost of same and the company owning the lake the other. This will be good news to farmers and others who have been coming to or leaving this city traveling that road. At times the crossing at the spillway has been rough and dangerous and has been the cause of much complaint. It is thought concerning the crossing will make it so that it will be comparatively safe for travel, except at times when the water flowing from the Lake is too high. To have made it safe at such times would have been necessary to construct a bridge, which would have been very expensive.

Things are beginning to get better in Wichita Falls. As evidence of this, there are few if any residences of a very desirable character without tenants. This was not the case a few months, or even a few weeks ago. There are also other indications that business in all lines is improving. Cotton is selling at two or three cents higher than the price paid this time last year, with a fair prospect that it will go higher still. This is due largely to reduced acreage this year, and the fact that the banks are co-operating with the National government in rendering aid and assistance to cotton farmers in holding their cotton off the market until such time as the price will justify them in selling.

This business of slapping the Times editor has gone far enough, and it's got to stop. Only last week Milt Clendenen of the Barkburnett Star had the unmitigated nerve to suggest that we exhibit ourselves at a style show, and now comes a card from some fellow away up in New York who writes that one of our friends has written him to the effect that we were suffering from obesity, having gained this information from another party in our town whom he or she had treated successfully for that complaint. We have no idea who our obnoxious friend can be but we would thank him to correct the impression he has created on the New Yorker and have him strike our name off his mailing list that our mail will cease to be burdened with his literature. The facts are the editor of the Times weighs only 145 pounds, and he has neither gained

WAR'S DAILY COST 78 MILLION. (Brooklyn Eagle) It has been estimated, somewhat roughly, that the first year of war cost Europe 20 billion dollars. This estimate is probably under, rather than over, the actual cost. Certainly if one is to consider the economic waste in weapons and men the cost must be considerably above 20 billion dollars, which is only the estimate of what has actually been spent. A writer in one of the famous British financial journals has placed the military cost for the coming year at 25 1/2 billion dollars, and then hur-

FOUR FIRST BALES REACH CITY TODAY

BONUS FOR "FIRST BALE" WILL BE DIVIDED AMONG THE FOUR CLAIMANTS

S. D. THAMES PROBABLY FIRST

Farmers Union Gin First to Get Going and Ginned Four Bales Brought in Four "first bales" arrived in Wichita Falls this morning, signaling the opening of the cotton season here. The first bale is believed to have been brought in by S. D. Thames, who resides north of the city. R. S. Dunaway, who has a farm in the irrigated district, and W. H. Vickers, who runs the county farm south of the city, came in during the morning with bales, and shortly before noon J. P. Wilson, whose farm is six miles northeast of town, came in with another.

Each of the four had counted on getting the premium for the first bale and was disappointed when he found others to dispute the honor with him. The premium which is usually given the farmer who brings in the first bale will be divided among the four who came in today. It was being raised this afternoon.

The Farmers' Union gin was the first to get going this morning, and ginned all four of the bales, being ready for them. The Farmers Supply Company bought the Thames bale at ten cents per pound, which is slightly above the market. About nine and a half cents was the market price for middling today.

It was known earlier in the week, as stated in The Times of Monday, that the first bale would reach this city sometime this week, but cotton men had not expected such a bunch of them. Mr. Thames' bale was probably the first to arrive, as he claims to have been waiting for the gin to get up steam when the others drove up.

By Associated Press. Kansas City, Sept. 14.—Wheat, No. 2 hard, $1.06@1.09; No. 2 red, $1.10@1.13. Corn, No. 2 red, 69 1/2c; No. 2 white, 69 1/2c. Oats, No. 2 white, 27@35c; No. 2, mixed, 34@35c.

Chicago Grain Futures.

By Associated Press. Chicago, Sept. 14.—Wheat, bulged sharply today on account of the wet weather in the northwest. Delays to the movement of the spring crops after the fall season rain's interference with the winter yield caused much more uneasiness in regard to billing contracts than would ordinarily be the case. Free profit taking sales led afterward to a setback in wheat in which the price gains largely disappeared. The close was unsettled at the same as last night to 1 and 1/2 cents higher with September at $1.01 1/2 and December at 95 5/8. Oats trading was very small, prices were bullishly affected by the loss of the favorable weather. Subsequently when the wheat underwent a reaction the greater part of the advance in corn was lost. The market closed steady, 1/4 off to 3/8 to 1/2 up, compared with last night. Wheat closed: Sept. $1.01 3/8; Dec., 95 5/8; May, 99. Corn, Sept. 71 1/2; Dec. 56 7/8; May 59 1/8.

New York Cotton Futures.

By Associated Press. New York, Sept. 14.—The cotton market opened active and firm at an advance of five to eight points with October contracts selling at $10.45 and January at $11.03, making new high records for the season. Strength in Liverpool and an advance in southern spot market made yesterday probably influenced a further broadening in Wall street and commission house interests while spot houses were buyers of October and sentiment seemed to be favorably influenced by a more favorable view of international politics and the thought that the proposed foreign loans would facilitate export business. The close was steady, October, $10.56; December, $10.93; January, $11.00; arch; $10.40; May, $11.68.

At The Theaters

The Lamar Airdome.
The third Broadway Universal feature since their first release is showing here tonight.
"The Earl of Pawtucket," Augustus Thomas' famous play, in which Lawrence D'Orray, one of Broadway's best known character actors, is featured. Harry Myers, who, with his co-star, Rosemary Theby, was recently signed up for two years by the Universal, has created a masterpiece in his screen version of the famous old romantic comedy. Moreover, it is safe to say that Mr. D'Orray never played "opposite" a prettier or more polished actress than his vis-a-vis, Miss Rosemary Theby, who plays the leading feminine role in the picture. Both in person and in character, Mr. D'Orray is "a scream" with his dry, sly, satirical type of humor.

The Majestic.
Bety Nansen in "Should a Mother Tell?" is today's attraction at the Majestic theater.

Jean Sothorn, the little blonde beauty who portrays the deeply sympathetic role of Pamela in the William Fox production of the great problem play, "Should a Mother Tell?" was a genuine discovery. One of the William Fox directors spied her photograph in the show case of a Broadway photographer and decided at once that she was an ideal type for the picture upon which he was then at work. But to identify her proved no easy task. The photographer's business had recently changed hands. The new owner did not know who the winsome little original of the picture was. He had merely put it in the show case because it was a striking photo, he said. The director bought the picture and he began working on this slender clue. He had met with no success, however, when one day Mr. Fox happened to see the photo and inquired about it. The director told the film magnate about his search.

"Should a Mother Tell?" is doing an act or my circuit," exclaimed Mr. Fox. Miss Sothorn was discovered at the Riviera Theatre and immediately engaged for the part in the picture play. From that moment she developed into one of the best-known and most loved of portrayers of young girl characters upon the screen. In "Should a Mother Tell?" Miss Sothorn portrays Pamela at the age of sixteen; in the earlier part of the screen play where Pamela is only five years old, little Runa Hodges, the beautiful child actress whose work in the William Fox production of "A Fool There Was" will be recalled with delight by all who saw that photo-drama enacts the role, bringing to it the same charm and sympathy with which Miss Sothorn invests it later on in the course of the drama.

The Empress.
Chester Conklin in a two part feature is on today's program, also a one part drama, "The Catamount" featuring Dorothy Gish. A fanciful two part drama is "The Picture of Dorian" from the novel by Oscar Wilde. Helen Fulton and Harry Gordon are featured; a synopsis is given.
"Dorian" Gray, a handsome young man of wealth and a favorite in London society, has his portrait painted by Basil Hallward, a celebrated artist. As he gazes at it, Gray says "I wish that I might always remain young like this painting. I wish I were the picture which would grow old and not myself." Dorian is in love with Evelyn, an obscure actress who plays Shakespeare in a small theatre. She has promised to marry him. Convinced that his sweetheart is a genius, he takes Hallward and Lord Henry Wotton to the theatre. They see her work as it is—woefully bad. The audience hisses and laughs at the poor girl. An artist, his illusion shattered, bitter and reproaches Evelyn. She tells him that never can she endure again the life of sham and mockery on the stage, for his love has changed all that for her. "You have killed me!" cries the young man, "I will never see you again." The next morning he hears that Evelyn has shot herself. The news stirs him only remotely. Looking at the portrait of himself, he sees that an obscure actress has crept into the picture. He goes to the theatre and sees the actress and Gray being taken to the lunatic asylum, and ever after the portrait reflects all these evil changes. But Dorian himself does not alter. Still young and innocent to look upon, no one will believe him the beast that he is. At last, one day, facing his real self in a portrait, the libertine picks up a knife and stabs it into the breast of the man on the canvas. A terrible cry rings through the house. The servants find on the wall a beautiful portrait of their master as last they saw him, unspoiled and youthful. On the floor lies a wizened, loathsome old man with a knife in his heart.

The Gem.
Viola Dana, the little actress who scored such a remarkable hit in "The Stoning" is featured today with Robert Conness at the Gem in "On Dangerous Paths." A story is given.
Eleanor Thurston, of Sterrettsville, and Roger Sterrett, son of the wealthiest resident, are in love. Strangely enough, Eleanor has a gift in the philosophy of her father, a minister, who believes always that the Lord will provide. Consequently when Joan, her business like sister, arrives from the city for a stay, Eleanor sees no reason why she should take advantage of an offer made by an uncle in the city to help her all she could if she decided to become a business woman. When Roger calls with a perfect white solitaire that evening, he is almost knocked speechless by Eleanor's statement that she is going to the city. The advice of Eleanor's family and Roger is not heeded and she leaves for the city. Although chagrined at Eleanor's refusal, Roger still remembers her faint heartedness. Her lady and determines to go to the city, and bring her back to the country. Eleanor becomes a nurse and while doing night duty is attacked by an insane patient. She is rescued by Dr. Sinclair whose fatal good looks have been the cause of many an imbroglio. They are introduced by each other, the doctor wiping another point when he meets Eleanor. Roger arrives in the city to attend to some business in the New York office of his father. His arrival is celebrated by him and other gay young rangers with the result that early in the morning he is picked up intoxicated by Dr. Sinclair and taken to a hospital. In the morning Eleanor, now doing day duty, recognizes him. Roger earnestly pleads with her to go back to the country, but Eleanor is practically in Dr. Sinclair's power and refuses. When Roger learns of her love for the doctor, he leaves in a rage and in full view of Eleanor flirts with a

GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB NOW SEEMS TO BE ASSURED

NEARLY 100 HAD SIGNED APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIPS AT ELEVEN O'CLOCK THIS MORNING.

COMMITTEES ARE NAMED

Planned to Organize With Capital of $10,000 With Charter Membership of 100—Committee On Membership Named Last Night.

Seventy-nine members had been secured for the proposed Golf and Country club before noon today and it was expected that the necessary one hundred subscribers would be secured before night. Those desiring to join are urged to see or telephone members of the membership committee at once. A meeting will be held next Monday night for organization.

Forty-four of the signatures were secured at a meeting at the Elks Club last night. There were forty-seven present at Monday night's meeting and forty-four of these affixed their names to the subscription list which pledged them to pay $100 each. The membership committee which has the list in charge consists of C. W. Reid, J. J. Perkins, John W. Thomas, G. D. Anderson, W. M. McGregor, O. T. Bacon and W. H. Carnes. J. A. Kemp resided at the meeting last night, W. J. Carpes being secretary.

The question of by-laws came in for some attention and a motion was made to appoint a committee to draft a set of by-laws at once, but it was decided to wait until the membership list is complete. There is considerable interest as to some provisions of the by-laws. The various phases of the club question were discussed at considerable length Monday night and much enthusiasm was manifested. When the call was made for signatures to the subscription list, Mr. Kemp headed the list, taking two shares, one for himself and one for his son. Practically all of those present signed up.

Another meeting will be held next Monday night at which it is hoped to complete the organization. Those present last night were: C. W. Reid, W. M. McGregor, W. N. Bonner, W. N. Maer, Wiley Robertson, F. N. Lawson, A. L. Hady, F. F. Brown, A. R. Ostro, Frank Cullinan, J. C. Hunt, J. Reed, A. H. Brittain, N. L. Ingo, Geo. Thornburg, H. E. Patterson, John C. Cay, J. W. Thomas, H. M. Berry, T. J. Taylor, J. W. Stone, H. L. Hunter, P. I. Pennington, J. A. Kemp, J. J. Perkins, Orville Bullington, G. D. Anderson, Everett Jones, O. T. Bacon, R. O. Harvey, C. E. McCutchen, V. H. Shepherd, J. B. Maxwell, J. R. Jamison, W. La Berlin, W. L. Carnes, W. H. Hickman, M. Hirschfelder, Wiley Wyatt, Wade Walker, Jerome Stone.

The country club will be "dry" it was decided last night. This question came up at the meeting, and it was decided that it might as well be settled then as later, so a vote was taken. A large majority of those present opposing the drinking of liquor at the club, and the subject, which is a frequent feature of country clubs elsewhere, will not be present at the club here.

stranger and leaves with her in an automobile. Eleanor has a dinner engagement with Dr. Sinclair. They arrive at a wayside inn and are seen by Roger who is there with Miss Montgomery. Eleanor and Roger are in the same room. Eleanor is in the room and Roger is in the room. They have been inside some time, during which the doctor has, by accident, been in the room. Eleanor would have been over, when a note is handed to the physician. Soon he is on the veranda arguing with Roger, who finally convinces the doctor of his sincere love for the girl. The doctor leaves and Roger greets Eleanor, telling her what has transpired. Miss Montgomery's deserted enters the private room and at once starts a tirade against the man who "has done her up" for another. A bill curtals her volubility. Eleanor and Roger are back in Sterrettsville the following Sunday, the happiest persons in the little church.

LUTHERAN BODIES AGREE ON COMMON SERVICE BOOK.

Rock Island, Ill., Sept. 14.—At today's session of the General Council of the Lutheran Church in America it was announced in the report of the Church Book Committee that the work of revising the English books of worship in the Lutheran Churches had been completed after many years of work, and it was hoped that the new forms would contribute largely toward a United English Lutheranism in America.

The existing books and services have been thoroughly revised, according to the present liturgies of the Lutheran Church of the 16th century. The result is a book upon which all three main bodies of Lutherans have come to perfect agreement, and all publishing houses will print from the common plates. The new book is to be called "The Common Service Book and Hymnal." It will be published in a music edition also an edition with words only. The committee added a memorial tribute to the late Rev. Hora of Philadelphia, the secretary of the committee, who had labored most faithfully on this book and who died just before the realization of the aims of the committee had been attained.
