Rufus Singer Of Littlefield Crash Victim

Three Others Are Recovering From Injuries Received Last Night In Mishap Near City

Six hours after Rufus Singer, 22, of Lubbock had died from injuries suffered in an automobile collision a charge of driving an automobile when intoxicated was filed against L. L. Nettle, 26, of Lorenzo.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Singer of Littlefield was in an automobile crash about two miles east of Lubbock a few minutes before 10:30 o'clock Wednesday night. A student of Texas Technological college, he suffered a severe skull fracture and concussion from which he died at 6 o'clock this morning.

Three Others Recovering

Three other persons were recovering at noon from injuries growing out of the crash.

Nettle, a laborer, was transferred to county jail from city jail when authorities related he was driver of the machine in collision with that in which Singer and three others were riding.

Arraigned This Afternoon

Charges, prepared by Burton S. Burks, district attorney, and filed in the court of S. E. McMillan, justice of peace, Justice McMillan said Nettle probably would be arraigned early this afternoon.

Others injured were:

Miss Lillian Tow, about 21, of Dallas, dismissed from West Texas hospital after treatment for lacerations of the face, bruises, and shock.

To Leave Hospital Friday

F. G. Follis, about 26, of east of Lubbock, salesman for Butler-Fuller Motor company, severe gash beneath the left eye and bruises and contusions, probably be dismissed from West Texas hospital Friday.

Miss Mary Haynie, 20, of near Lubbock on Slaton highway, shock and bruises, released from Lubbock sanitarium after treatment.

Driving Toward Lubbock

The man in jail was arrested by O. E. Rush, and Melvin Alvey of the police department and Tom Majors of the Texas Highway patrol. He suffered lacerations of the head, left arm, and right leg. Officers said he told them he was the

Notice To Cut Wages Posted

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 12—The management of the 10 principal railroads of the country notified employes today it intends to reduce basic wages 15 per cent on July 1.

"This action," the statement said, "is compelled by conditions now confronting the railroad industry. We wish the public and the railroad employes to know what those conditions are, because both the national welfare and the welfare of railroad men are necessarily dependent upon the welfare of the basic transportation industry of the country."

Spokesmen for the railway brotherhoods have announced they will not accept any reduction, and that the wage controversy eventually will be placed before the national mediation board.

The railroads now employ slightly fewer than a million workers. It has been estimated a 15 per cent reduction would amount to $250,000,000 annually.

Fallen Negus Pleads Cause At Council

U. S. ADHERES TO POLICY

WASHINGTON, May 12. (AP)—The American government adheres to its policy of non-recognition of conquered territory despite the position of Great Britain and France at Geneva in favor of recognizing Ethiopia, Secretary of State Hull said today.

(By The Associated Press)

GENEVA, May 12.—Ethiopia's fallen Emperor Haile Selassie today demanded that the question of recognizing Italian conquest of his African empire be taken to the league assembly.

The demand of the former "King of Kings" if successful probably would wreck Anglo-French plans to recognize King Victoria Emanuele of Italy as emperor of Ethiopia, for the assembly includes all the members of the league, many of which are set against recognition.

RECOGNITION IS FAVORED

GENEVA, May 12. (AP)—The last hopes of Haile Selassie of blocking an Anglo-French move to recognize Italy's conquest of his Ethiopian empire vanished today as a majority of the delegates of the League of Nations council declared in favor of recognition.

His Speech Is Read

Haile Selassie, too ill to speak, sat at the league council table while his representative, Ato Lawrence Taezez, read his speech.

After he had listened silently to Britain's foreign secretary, Viscount Halifax, announce that Britain wanted to give even his title to Italy, he told the council he had come to Geneva to "defend my people."

He explained, however, that he was "just recovering from illness" and asked permission to have his speech read.

Reads In Low Voice

"All the procedure that the league can command has been used to try to get Ethiopia out of this body of nations," Taezez read in a low voice.

The statement of the exiled Emperor Haile Selassie declared that his country held not only legal but factual rights as an independent state and that Italy had by no means completed conquest of his empire.

"I am sorry I do not find myself in agreement with Great Britain

Mrs. Caraway Has Four Men As Opponents In Race For Senate

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 12 (AP)—Arkansas' Hattie W. Caraway will seek her second full term in the United States senate this summer over the challenge of three men opponents.

A four-way race for the Democratic nomination was assured today when the ticket closed for the August 9 primary.

Qualifying were Mrs. Caraway, John L. McClellan, sixth district congressman, Ector R. Johnson, Little Rock attorney making his debut in politics, and J. Rosser Venable, World war veteran, who ran unsuccessfully against the late Senator Joe T. Robinson in 1936.

More Than Six Tons Of Metal Picked Up On State Highways

More than six tons of metal has been picked up by a state highway department nail picker in division 5, since September, 1935, George M. Garrett, division engineer, said this morning. The metal included nails, spikes and metals from cars, found on state highways.

In addition to the metal, which amounted to 12,791 pounds, 150 truck loads of old wrecked car pieces and other metals were taken by maintenance department employes from right of ways of the division.

NEW TAX BILL APPROVED

Vargas Orders Wiping Out Of Fascists

Martial Law Is Invoked Today And Every Suspected Fascist Is Ordered Arrested

(By The Associated Press)

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, May 12—Brazil's strong man president, Getulio Vargas, invoked full military and police action today to wipe out forever fascist greenshirts, whose three and one-half hour rebellion failed because they did not know the government palace was without a garrison within its walls.

Police, with 500 of the rebels already in jail, spread through the city, searched every suspected fascist's home, made more arrests and found evidence the revolt was well planned but without coordinated execution.

Lacked Information

The rebels made their attack yesterday morning against President Vargas' palace, the residence of the chief of staff of the army, and other strategic points — but they lacked the one vital piece of information that could have carried them to at least momentary success.

J. Alberto Lins de Barros, former charge d'affaires who helped defend the president's palace, told about it today.

Without Internal Garrison

"I believe the attackers did not know the palace was completely without an internal garrison, otherwise they would have advanced into the palace instead of fighting in the gardens," he said.

"The truth is the president's life was in imminent danger."

Vargas, with his dark-eyed 23-year-old daughter, Donna Alzyra, and only five others were inside ready to fight off the attackers from palace windows, but fighting outside apparently convinced the rebels they faced a strong body of defenders. Arriving reinforcements saved the palace and the attackers capitulated.

Vargas, his position as dictator apparently strengthened, invoked martial law to carry on punitive action against the revolt which ended at 5:30 a. m. yesterday, with 12 dead and 22 injured.

False Arrest Charge Made In Suit Today

Alleging false arrest, counsel for Jim Johnson, a barber, this morning filed action asking of the city of Lubbock $50 in damages.

W. D. Girand said the action sought "vindication" for a recent arrest of Johnson, who was charged with having failed to deposit a nickel in a parking meter after parking his automobile nearby.

Charged are the city manager, chief of police, city attorney, city recorder, a police official who signed the charge and the police authority who made the arrest, individually and as city officials.

Pleadings set up Johnson was arrested contrary to "highest court" opinion the ordinance he was charged with running afoul was unconstitutional, said Girand. He referred to a ruling recently of Judge J. J. Dillard of county court, which, said Girand, constitutionally is the "court of last resort for appeals from corporation court."

Longview Attorney, Candidate For Rail Post, Due Here Today

Jerry Sadler, Longview attorney and candidate for railroad commissioner, was expected to arrive in Lubbock shortly after noon for an address, said a telegram from Odessa to the Evening Journal.

Sadler will have his Cowboy stringsters with him, said a message from Ernest Jones. No other details were available.

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—President Roosevelt has carried forward his apparent policy of giving a "pat on the back" to administration senators who are up for re-election by urging the veteran Senator William G. McAdoo (D-Calif) to seek another term.

Chief Justice Urges American Lawyers To Be 'Vigilant' In Striving For 'Good Judges'

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 12. — Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes urged today that American lawyers be "vigilant" in seeking the selection of "good judges" to preside over the nation's courts.

CHARLES E. HUGHES

He told the American Law institute:

"I question if there is any greater need at this time than continued respect for the judicial tradition of independence and impartiality.

"The prime necessity in making the judicial machinery work to the best advantage is the able and industrious judge, qualified by training, experience and temperament for his office."

"It is the exceptions among the judges, who, with their conspicuous ineptness, do the harm, and they need such admonition as it may be practicable to give under our system.

"But the maintenance of the standards of judicial office rests chiefly with the electorate, where judges are elected, and with the appointing power, where they are appointed, and in both relations a vigilant bar through its organized efforts to secure good judges should exercise, and should constantly seek to exercise, a potent influence."

Tendency Is Noted

Declaring that "the multiplication of administrative agencies is the outstanding characteristic of our time," the chief justice added:

"I notice that there is a tendency, in the desire to emphasize the importance of obtaining stability and expertness in particular classes of cases, to depreciate the

Residence Permits Top Half Million

New residence construction in Lubbock for 1938 passed the half-million dollar mark this morning.

Approval by Jim Reid, city building inspector of a permit for a residence costing $3,500 to be built by Julian Williamson at 2628 Twenty-fifth street increased the total authorized investment in new homes since Jan. 1 to $503,411.

It increased to 271 the number of new homes authorized in Lubbock since the first of the year. Williamson is a technician for Clark-Key clinic.

Housing Meet Here Tonight

Several representatives of the Federal Housing administration from the insuring office in Fort Worth will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Chimayo room at Hilton hotel with architects, contractors, realtors, lumber dealers, and representatives of other occupations in Lubbock.

Local activities in an educational program to be launched under recent amendments to the Federal Housing act will be discussed, according to John D. Mitchell, chairman of the Lubbock Better Housing committee. P. S. Luttrell, production manager; R. E. Sikas, mortgage conference representative, and W. W. Ryan, chief underwriter of all the F.H.A offices in Fort Worth and Dallas, will be present.

Thousand Men In Search For Missing Pennsylvania Child

BRADFORD, Pa., May 12 (AP)—Volunteers, answering a call for 1,000 able-bodied men, set out today soon after the break of another cold northern Pennsylvania dawn to beat through heavy woods in a final search for little Marjory West.

A reward of $200 for information leading to discovery of the blue-eyed, auburn-haired child "dead or alive" spurred the volunteers to press foot by foot through the wild, heavily forested country 16 miles south of this oil producing field.

The Bradford American Legion post 108 offered the reward last night, four days after little Marjory, four-year-old daughter of an oil field worker, wandered away from a family picnic to pick flowers on a mountain side.

In addition, 94 permits have been issued for alterations and improvements to existing homes to cost $41,720. Approximately half of those permits have been to provide additional living space in the structures.

The figures disclose that the investments in homes, including new structures and improvements to others, totals $545,131, which is just a trifle short of two-thirds of all construction for which permits have been issued this year. Building permit total for 1938 to noon today was $823,923.

The home building and alteration pace this year has been approximately twice that of 1937, according to records in the building inspector's office.

Quality Is High

Analysis of the records discloses that the pace thus far has been well sustained and that the quality of the new homes, taken as a whole, is remarkably high.

Average cost of the new structures is shown to be approximately $1,900. However, included among the permits are a considerable number of garage apartments, which are a factor of major importance in housing in Lubbock and which, on the whole, provide desirable small-family quarters for relatively small investment.

At least half the habitations for

Verdict Of Murder And Suicide Returned In San Antonio Case

SAN ANTONIO, May 12 (AP)—A verdict of murder and suicide was returned last night by Justice of the Peace O. L. Wiley in a double shooting that brought death to George Dickerson, 73, retired printer, and Miss Wilma Stecke, 25, of Weimar.

Bodies of the man and woman were found in a room at a hotel here by a niece of Miss Stecke.

A revolver was found on the floor by a chair in which Dickerson's body was slumped.

Oklahoma Town Celebrates Its Whoopee Regime In Big Style

DISNEY, Okla., May 12.—Boyoboy, did Disney celebrate it's whoopee regime last night!

The fun and frolic lasted right on until 4:30 a. m.

Today everybody was on the job though, mebbe a little tired, but happy about the night's fun.

Nobody was arrested.

Chief of Police Hale Dunn watched the proceedings, said it was "good, clean fun—beer was the only stuff I saw being drunk."

And Billy Baker, the object of the celebration, stayed right in there and pitched like any good ex-cowgirl. The party was thrown for her on account of she won, hands downs, an election Tuesday that gave her the right to dictate a curfew-less regime in the Grand River dam boom town for 30 days.

The defeated early-to-bed candidate, Mrs. Vera Silar, did just that.

She joined good naturedly in the scuffling at Morgan's dance

Fifty Million Less Income Is In Sight

Lower Level Of Business And Income Decline Is Blamed; Profits Tax Revise

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 12—Final congressional approval of the new tax program left treasury officials today with prospects of about $50,000,000 less income for next year than they had anticipated.

Original estimates provided $5,330,000,000 revenue in the bill, but one federal expert declared the lower level of business and the resultant decline in corporation profits would reduce that figure.

Quick Approval Expected

President Roosevelt was expected to give quick approval to the legislation, which greatly modifies the present undistributed profits and capital gains levies—targets of business criticism.

Treasury officials, however, said privately they were not fully satisfied with the new provisions, adopted as a compromise after the senate had eliminated the entire undistributed profits tax.

Provisions Are Listed

Briefly, the measure provides:

An undistributed profits tax, applicable to corporations having more than $25,000 income ranging from 16 1-2 to 19 per cent, depending on the amount of profits distributed.

A graduated tax of from 12 1-2 to 16 per cent on corporate incomes under $25,000.

A revision of capital gains taxes, setting a flat 15 per cent rate on gains from assets held more than two years, 20 per cent on those held from 18 months to two years, and ordinary income and surtax rates on those held less than 18 months.

An increase in the hard liquor tax from $2 a gallon to $2.25.

Repeal of certain "nuisance" taxes.

Estate and gift tax provisions unchanged except to reduce the annual exemption for gifts from $5,000 to $4,000.

U. S. To Buy Islands In Pacific Ocean

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—The "line of observation" in the Pacific navy intends to add to its wartime ocean a few more islets near Canton and Enderbury islands, authoritative persons said today in explanation of a bill pending in the house.

Canton and Enderbury now are claimed by both the United States and Great Britain.

An obscure $25,000 item in a measure which the house naval affairs committee approved yesterday involves purchase by the navy of portions of the tiny Palmyra group, about 1,000 miles south of Honolulu, informed persons said.

The projected acquisition fits into the navy's plans for a half-circle of island warning stations about Hawaii.

Palmyra is a group of 30 or 40 islets enclosing a u-shaped lagoon and aggregating less than a square mile of land surface. They are privately owned by Americans. Naval informants said a small portion of the land area for buildings and radio equipment would serve military purposes.

Dr. L. H. Reeves Of Fort Worth Elected State Medical Head

GALVESTON, May 12. (AP)—San Antonio was selected as the next convention city and Dr. L. H. Reeves of Fort Worth was named president-elect at final sessions of the 72nd annual convention of the State Medical Association of Texas here today.

Dr. E. W. Bertner of Houston was installed as president. Dr. Reeves will take office next year. Dr. C. C. Hannah of Dallas is the retiring president.

Other officers elected were: Dr. Louis B. Holland of Wichita Falls, Dr. J. W. Ward of Greenville, and Dr. Fred Shields of Victoria, vice presidents; Dr. Holman Taylor of Fort Worth was re-elected secretary; and Dr. K. H. Beall of Fort Worth, treasurer.

Eckener Holds Scant Hope For Zeppelins Now

SUGGESTS CONGRESSIONAL ACTION

WASHINGTON, May 12. (AP)—Secretary Ickes suggested today that congressional action probably would be necessary before any helium is sold to Germany.

He insisted that his stand was based solely on the section in the present helium export law prohibiting the accumulation of helium in quantities of "military importance" abroad. Ickes added that he had no personal motive in blocking the sale.

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 12—Dr. Hugo Eckener held little hope today for the future of Germany's lighter-than-air passenger travel, in view of the apparent failure to obtain helium from the United States.

"There will be no more passenger Zeppelin flights without helium,"

REMAIN TIGHT-LIPPED

BERLIN, May 12. (AP)—German aviation circles remained tight-lipped today over the refusal of the United States to deliver helium for German lighter-than-air craft.

"We will not say anything," an air ministry spokesman answered to questions about possible other moves of Dr. Hugo Eckener, president of the Zeppelin Building company, who now is in the United States.

Indiana Town's Citizens' Fear Of 'Hexing' Allayed As Indian Woman Is Ordered To Leave

ROCHESTER, Ind., May 12 (AP)—Unable to find a witchcraft law in Indiana statutes, Fulton County Prosecutor J. Murray McCarty today said Mrs. Irene Ray, 60-year-old Miami Indian held here on vagrancy charges, was freed after she promised to leave town and allay "hex" fears of citizens.

McCarty said he was asked to investigate Mrs. Ray after frightening rumors had sped from lip to lip that the woman had "hexed" several Rochester residents.

Mrs. Ray, wife of a WPA worker, was placed in jail by Police Chief Paul Whitcomb. The chief said one family attributed their daughter's serious heart illness to a spell cast by the woman and a minister was called to the home to read scriptures in an effort to break the spell.

Whitcomb said Mrs. Ray claimed she possessed "hexing" powers and told him her favorite method of spinning a spell was to gather haircombings of the person to be "hexed," mix them with vinegar in a bottle and bury the bottle. The spell was supposed to cause the particular person to wither and die.

Plan To Turn Funds Over To States Loses

First Amendment Offered On Measure Would Decentralize Distribution Of Funds

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 12—The house beat down today a Republican attempt to turn the administration of relief over to the states. The standing vote was 106 to 39.

Another amendment, to increase from $1,250,000,000 to $1,500,000,000 the proposed WPA fund for the seven months ending next January 31, was rejected by a standing vote, 61 to 23. It was proposed by the house liberal group.

The first amendment to the $3,054,000,000 lending-spending bill, offered by Representative Bacon (R-NY) was the minority proposal for decentralization of relief. It proposed to set up bi-partisan boards to handle relief funds and to require states to put up 25 cents for every $1 contributed by the federal government.

Would Get More Relief

Under that arrangement, Bacon said, "more and more relief money would reach the people in actual need."

Republicans said that they would make another attempt, just before a vote on passage of the bill, to put their program into the measure.

Democratic and Republican house members offered conflicting amendments in a dispute over expanding or stopping federal expenditures for public power and electrification projects.

Opposes Entire Legislation

Republicans, opposing the entire legislation, contended it would let the Public Works administration go-ahead at once with $56,780,026 in new power developments, which by PWA's own statement would complete with private facilities.

Although conceding they had no chance of success, the minority members proposed forbidding use of funds in the bill for competitive projects of any sort.

Final Vote Late Today

The Democratic leadership, on the other hand, endorsed an amendment to let the Reconstruction Finance corporation supply $60,000,000 additional for sending electricity into

Flood Control Plan Offered

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 12—A five-year plan of flood control went to congress today with leaders planning to ask initial appropriations next year to carry it out.

As drafted by the house flood control committee, the bill would authorize projects to cost $375,000,000 during the five fiscal years ending June 30, 1944.

On Basis Of Recommendations

The committee, lacking authority to appropriate money, prepared the program on the basis of recommendations by the army engineers. Appropriations can be proposed only by the appropriations committee which already has made its flood control recommendations for the 1939 fiscal year.

Those recommendations, approved by congress, provided $118,000,000 for flood control projects previously authorized.

Contributions Proposed

The committee bill proposed 30 per cent local contributions for reservoir property rights. This action, Chairman Whittington (D-

Announcements Made Yesterday Of Two Marriages To Take Place In June

Miss Ratliff Is To Wed Mr. Redding

Mrs. John L. Ratliff, 2413 Nineteenth street, entertained with a tea from 3:30 until 6:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Charlotte Ratliff, and Russell F. Redding of LaGrange, Ga.

The marriage will take place at the First Baptist church June 7. Mr. Redding, former member of the Texas Technological college engineering faculty, is a member of the technical staff of Callaway Mills in LaGrange where the couple will live.

One hundred fifty guests called. They were greeted by Mrs. George Walton and presented to Mrs. Ratliff, the honoree, Mrs. C. M. Stanley, jr., Miss Wilma Redding, sister of the bridegroom-elect, and Mrs. Jeanne Winn. The guests registered in a white bride's book.

An entirely white motif was featured in the party appointments. The tea table was covered with a white transparent oiled silk cloth and centered with a large bouquet of calla lilies in a crystal bowl. The service was of crystal and silver and plate favors were cape jasmine.

Mesdames J. T. Hutchinson, R. M. Chitwood and W. B. Atkins presided alternately at the table. Others in the house party were Misses Lyall Pickett of Post, Mary Alice Maedgen, Joni Bundy, Vondelle Prideaux, Nell Montague, Mesdames Troy Dale, Lawrence Bacon, Marcus Halsey, jr., C. E. Maedgen and Leroy T. Patton.

Swatches of white cloth attached to cards bearing the announcement in "textile terms" were presented to the guests.

Musical entertainment was provided by Doris Kolb, piano; Douglas Hardy, violin, and Virginia Belle Gamble, cello, throughout the afternoon.

Miss Ratliff will be honored at numerous parties within the next three weeks.

Miss Wilkinson Will Head Lubbock UDC

Stephen Wilkinson chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, elected officers at a meeting in the home of Mrs. John LeMond Wednesday afternoon. They are:

President, Miss Delia Wilkinson; first vice-president, Mrs. Mary Lovell; second vice-president, Mrs. Ansel Hines; treasurer, Mrs. C. S. Middleton; historian, Mrs. J. S. Johnson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. S. Rodgers, and custodian, Miss Wilkinson.

Mesdames Lovell, Amelia McKinney and Dan Blair were the nominating committee.

Mrs. J. S. Penney reported a white marble marker had been erected at the grave of Thomas J. Lokey of Slaton, Confederate veteran.

So-Su Club Meets In Home Of Mrs. Anna Moore Wednesday

So-Su club was entertained by Mrs. Anna Moore Wednesday afternoon. The club will meet May 25 at 1:30 o'clock with Mrs. Lena Payne.

Punch and cake were served to Mesdames Carl Beasley, L. L. Madera, Payne, Zula Nichols, Georgia Sligar, Ozna Wright and Jimmy Moore.

SALES ARE INCREASED

NEW YORK, May 12. (AP) — An increase of almost 50 per cent in sales by the American aircraft industry for the first quarter of 1938 over the same period in 1937 was announced today by Leighton W. Rogers, president of the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce.

Rats are among the most prolific animals, breeding four or five times a year.

Constipated? You Should Get at the Cause!

Lots of people think they can't be "regular" without frequent trips to the "medicine chest. "I just dose up and get it over," they tell you. But doctors know they don't "get it over" at all—until they get at the cause of the trouble!

Chances are it's simple to find the cause if you eat only what most people do—meat, bread, potatoes. It's likely you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It's a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If that fits you, your ticket is a crunchy breakfast cereal—Kellogg's All-Bran. It contains the "bulk" you need plus the great intestinal tonic, vitamin B1.

Eat All-Bran every day, drink plenty of water, and just watch the old world grow brighter! Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Girl Scouts Camp To Be Held At Post First Week In June

Threat To Seek Federal Regulation Made By East Texas Oil Men

Closing Order Drawing Fire

(By The Associated Press)

GLADEWATER, May 12—A threat to seek federal regulation of the Texas oil industry if the railroad commission "doesn't change its tactics" was projected last night by independent oil men protesting the shutdown of nearly all Texas fields on Saturdays and Sundays this month.

TO REDUCE OVERSUPPLY

AUSTIN, May 12. (AP)—Texas oil men predicted today the drastic crude production curtailment instituted by the state Railroad commission, if left unchanged until June 1, would result in rapid elimination of a large portion of the nation's oversupply of gasoline.

The formal order calling for Saturday as well as Sunday oil field shutdowns in Texas the remainder of the month gave no hint as to whether the policy would be continued in June but the general opinion here was that it would not.

The possibility of a court test of the commission's order also was suggested at meeting termed by John C. Schroder, president of the East Texas Independent Petroleum association "the second of a series of mass meetings to acquaint people with conditions in Austin."

Schroder said the "little oil men will have to ask the federal government for aid in obtaining equality and fair treatment if the Texas Railroad commission doesn't change its tactics."

He charged the East Texas field had been discriminated against since the first Sunday shutdown order of Nov. 15, 1937.

Schroder said 62 Texas fields had been given increased allowables "while we East Texans are held back."

Inspired By Price Threat

The commission's order was inspired by the threat of crude price slashes due to excessive stocks of gasoline and slackened consumption, it reported.

Otto Staerker, Gladewater city commissioner and manager of an estate owning about 100 wells, said he would not "shut down my wells on Saturday and Sunday until the Railroad commission forces me to and then there will be a court test."

Schroder charged pipe lines were "reducing oil prices in Kansas and they are likely to try the same thing in East Texas.

"The Railroad commission is using the market demand law to transfer the production rights of East Texas to other Texas fields."

He said the major companies did not "care;" they obtained their oil "from other fields."

Karl Crowley, candidate for governor, said the East Texas situation was the "effect of monopolies seeking to force the independent out of business."

PRICE IS REDUCED

LOS ANGELES, May 17. (AP)—The Union Oil company announced today it would reduce the prices it pays for oil in the Santa Maria Valley field from 23 to 26 cents a barrel, effective May 20.

Slaton Band To Stage Concert Tonight; Funds Are Sought

SLATON, May 12—In attempt to obtain funds for a trip of the Slaton band to the state contest at Abilene May 19-21, band mothers will sponsor a concert tonight at the athletic stadium.

The Tiger band recently won highest honors in its group at San Angelo.

Contest pieces and march numbers are to be played. The march numbers will be shown to give the parents and friends an idea of how the band appears in contests.

A Tiger queen is to be crowned during the program.

Clyde Rowe is director. The band has a membership of 70.

A bicycle parade is to be held during the program. Prize of $1 will be awarded the boy with the best decorated machine.

A new road surface being used in India consists of molasses, charcoal powder and slaked lime.

Copies Of Garbage Ordinance Are Distributed Wednesday

Copies of Lubbock's garbage ordinance were distributed here Wednesday as part of the city's cooperation with the cleanup-paintup drive, according to W. W. Stafford, city sanitation superintendent.

The pamphlets were distributed through the schools, were printed in the bulletin published weekly by the Retail Merchants association, and were distributed by the fire prevention committee for the cleanup-paintup campaign, according to information from chamber of commerce headquarters Wednesday.

"If Lubbock is to remain 'The Cleanest City In Texas,' the carrying out of this ordinance to the fullest degree will be necessary," officials said.

Ten rules were listed relative to garbage collection.

Vivisection was practised as early as 300 B. C.

Highway 51 Plans To Be Talked In Levelland Session Tonight

LEVELLAND, May 11—An open meeting at which progress of plans for construction of highway 51 will be discussed will be conducted by Hockley County Board of Development tonight.

Development of oil fields in Hockley and also Cochran and other counties has increased the interest in a north and south road. The Texas highway extends from the state line north of Dalhart, through Hartley, Old Tascosa, Hereford, Littlefield, Levelland, Brownfield and to Odessa, where it branches into the Big Bend country.

Deeper Drilling Operations Said Bringing Conservation Needs

NEW ORLEANS, May 12. (AP)—N. C. McGowen of Houston, Tex., president of the American Gas association, told members of its natural gas department in convention here Wednesday that deeper drilling operations were bringing a need for new conservation practices.

McGowen, delivering the report of a subcommittee on gas well deliveries, cited drilling in the Gulf regions in urging that engineers study new conservation problems caused by the deeper wells.

The average well depth in the Louisiana coastal district is 6,263 feet and in the Texas coastal region 5,553 feet, he said, compared with a national average of 3,225 feet.

SHOPPERS ARE INJURED

NEW YORK, May 12. (AP)—Twenty-four women and one man hunting bargains in a linen sale were cut and bruised Tuesday when milling shoppers shattered the glass show windows of a linen shop in the Bronx.

Modification Of Law Asked

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, May 12. — The Texas Cotton Growers association adopted a resolution here Tuesday urging modification of the 7,000-pound weight law for trucks. The growers named Henry J. Wischkemper of Wellington chairman of a committee to go to Washington to enlist aid in passage of legislation to re-imburse farmers for money lost in 1929-31 through Federal Farm board activities.

The resolution said the weight law penalized Texas farmers in cotton shipment by truck over states to the east and urged modification of the Texas law to put cotton from this state in competition with other states.

J. S. Sharp of Paris was re-elected president; Harvey Pigg, Waxahachie, vice-president, and A. B. Emmert, Dallas, General manager of the association.

Negro Says He's Not 'Guilty Of What They Caught Me At' And Wins His Own Case

BALLINGER, May 12. (AP) —A Ballinger negro, on trial in 119th district court here for chicken theft, elected to defend himself. He won the case, possibly with the aid of his own naivete.

When being questioned by Judge O. L. Parish before the trial was opened, he said, "Judge, I ain't guilty of what they caught me at."

Two other negroes testified that the defendant was in the negro section at the time of the alleged theft of the fowls, from a white person. A produce man, upon cross examination by the defendant, testified that he did not find any identifying marks on the chickens, which the negro sold him the morning after the alleged theft.

Judge Parish instructed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty.

Grand Jury Probe Of Primary In Pennsylvania Is Delayed

PHILADELPHIA, May 12. (AP)—A grand jury investigation of bribery and coercion charges in Pennsylvania's Democratic primary campaign has been called off until after the primary.

The state supreme court, with the inquiry set to begin this morning at Harrisburg, ordered it stayed at least until May 18—the day following the election.

Investigation Of Nation's High Tariff Industries Urged By Writer

Death Of Contractor Not To Affect Plans For Project

TEMPLE, May 12. (AP)—The death of C. P. Lytle, contractor on the Possum Kingdom dam, will not effect in any way plans for construction of the dam, officials of the Brazos River conservation and reclamation district said here today.

Lytle, 70, on the threshold of the largest construction project of his career, died of a heart attack Tuesday at his home in Sioux City, Ia.

He was president of one of the two companies recently awarded the contract for building the district's dam in Palo Pinto county.

To relieve unemployment in the tin mines, the Federated Malay States government plans to allow mining companies to produce more than their quota.

PROMOTION APPROVED

WASHINGTON, May 12. (AP)—President Roosevelt approved today the promotion to lieutenant commander in the medical corps of John P. Wood of Waco, Tex., now stationed at Boston.

States which have abolished and then restored capital punishment are Colorado, Oregon, Washington, Arizona, Missouri and Kansas.

Protection Of Group Is Cited

(By The Associated Press)

KANSAS CITY, May 12.—Investigation of the nation's high tariff industries was urged Wednesday by W. W. Waymack, Pulitzer prize editorial winner, who said such industries employ only one-seventh of the wage earners.

"Of the 49,000,000 or 50,000,000 earners normally gainfully employed," the Des Moines, Ia., Register and Tribune writer told the General Federation of Women's Clubs, "perhaps 7,000,000 are in manufactures enjoying stiff protection. It would seem somewhat absurd to assume that our general wage conditions could be determined by tariff benefits to this minority."

Cites Trade Agreements

Waymack said concern for the nation's peace must turn from the navy and army, which he termed adequate, to the economic structure where he looked upon the Hull trade agreements as "the most hopeful policy."

The Federation, seeking a public policy for its 2,000,000 members, considered a resolution today asking President Roosevelt to prevent the senate Minton committee, investigating lobbying activities, from having access to the "intimate" informaton contained in income tax returns. The resolution urged such information be available only to permanent congressional committees concerned with tax legislation.

The first canal in England was built in 1134 by Henry I to connect the Witham and Trent rivers.

New Brazilian Envoy Visits the President

Brandao

NEWEST envoy to the United States is Mario de Pimentel Brandao, ambassador from Brazil, who is pictured in all his diplomatic splendor, as he visited the White House to present his credentials to President Roosevelt.

POSTMASTER APPROVED

WASHINGTON, May 12. (AP)—Vice President Garner's home town postmaster—John W. White of Uvalde, Texas—won speedy senate confirmation Tuesday for another four-year term.

County Election Board Is Just Year Ahead; No Election Held

TOMS RIVER, N. J., May 12. (AP)—The Ocean county election board sat all day in the county court house awaiting the returns from a commission election in Harvey Cedars. Their suppers were cooling when a courier arrived at nightfall.

He reported the election was scheduled for next year.

Lubbock Plane Party To Visit 17 Towns On Airmail Tour Friday

Pickup Test To Be Talked

Seventeen of 21 towns included on feeder routes out of Lubbock in connection with an airmail pickup test here May 19 will be visited Friday by the airmail pickup committee from Lubbock.

The trip will be made by air and the group, scheduled to leave at 7 o'clock Friday morning from the Lubbock Municipal airport, will return at 2:05 o'clock that afternoon for lunch and refueling; and, after leaving again at 2:45, will return at 6:15 o'clock that night.

Four Are Eliminated

The four towns on the map (showing the four routes where airmail will be picked up on the morning of May 19) not included on Friday's itinerary, were eliminated because of poor ground facilities for passenger plane. It was pointed out, however, that stops will be made at those town May 19 by the mail plane. The four towns will be visited by automobile Friday.

Friday's schedule includes arrival at: Seagraves, 7:40 o'clock in the morning; Hobbs, 8:20; Seminole, 8:50; Lamesa, 9:30; Post, 10:05; Spur, 10:40; Crosbyton, 11:15; Ralls, 11:35; Floydada, 12:15; Lockney, 12:40; Plainview, 1:10; Hale Center, 1:35; Levelland, 3:05; Morton, 3:40; Clovis, 4:25; Muleshoe, 5:00; and Littlefield, 5:35.

Fifteen-Minute Stops

Fifteen-minute stops will be made at each of the towns.

R. Dick Shinkle of the chamber of commerce, and C. E. Maedgen, general chairman of the aviation committee of the chamber went to Big Spring today to a conference at which the schedule of the airmail plane May 19 from Amarillo to San Antonio will be completed. The proposed route for the plane is from Amarillo to Lubbock, Big Spring, San Angelo, and San Antonio.

Itineraries Announced

No. 1—Littlefield, Muleshoe, Clovis, Morton, Levelland.

No. 2—Brownfield, Seagraves, Hobbs, Seminole, Lamesa, and Tahoka.

No. 3—Floydada, Lockney, Plainview, Hale Center and Abernathy.

No. 4—Slaton, Post, Spur, Crosbyton, and Ralls.

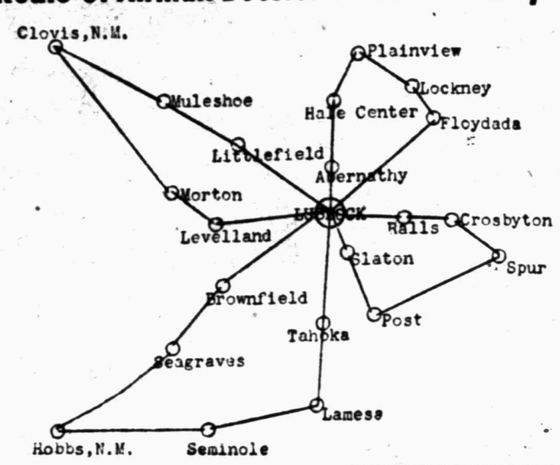

Clent Breedlove will make trip No. 1; A. F. Holt, No. 2; J. H. York, No. 3; and Art Chase, No. 4.

A three-inche square special cachet has been obtained by Amos Howard, chairman of the observance of national airmail week, and every piece of airmail handled through Lubbock will bear the stamp. Postmasters of South Plains towns were asked to obtain special cachets, also.

Heading the good-will delegation will be the postmaster with Clent Breedlove, manager of Municipal airport, at the controls. Two others who will have seats in the four-place ship are yet to be chosen.

Letters from the chamber of commerce to postmasters along the route have asked that committees await the Lubbock group at their landing field. In towns without airports, the postmasters have been asked to arrange for the marking of the landing field with a large white cross.

Route Of Airmail Booster Plane On Friday

Chinese women centuries ago rouged and painted their finger nails with names, designs of constellations, or animals while the burnt bark of the weeping willow tree was their mascara.

Instrument Enables Physicians To Forecast Birth Of Twins

PASADENA, Calif., May 12. (AP)—An instrument which enables physicians to forecast the birth of twins more accurately was demonstrated before the California Medical association convention here by the man who devised it, Dr. William J. Kerr, president of the American Heart association.

Called a symballophone, the instrument is similar to a stethoscope except that it has two receivers to carry sounds from two portions of the body at once. Dr. Kerr said that in two years of experiments the instrument has been correct four times out of five.

ELECT SAN ANTONIO

SAN ANTONIO, May 12. (AP) — George Kearns, San Antonio funeral director, was elected president of the Texas Funeral Directors and Embalmers association at the close of a three-day convention here Wednesday.

Other officers included Roy Hatch of Waco, vice president.

Houston was selected as the 1939 convention city.

SICK OF SEA, one unhappy woman angler nurses her misery on upper deck while other deep sea fishermen wait for bites aboard a fishing boat out of San Diego to lower California. On this trip rock cod were caught 600 feet down.

THERE'S NO ESCAPING CLOUDS in this Sikorsky—believed world's largest privately owned flying boat—which is the property of Commodore and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt. The amphibian, recently flown to Oakland, Cal., can carry 18 passengers, has a speed of 190 miles an hour and a cruising range of 1,200 miles. Its interior includes a mural of sunlit clouds.

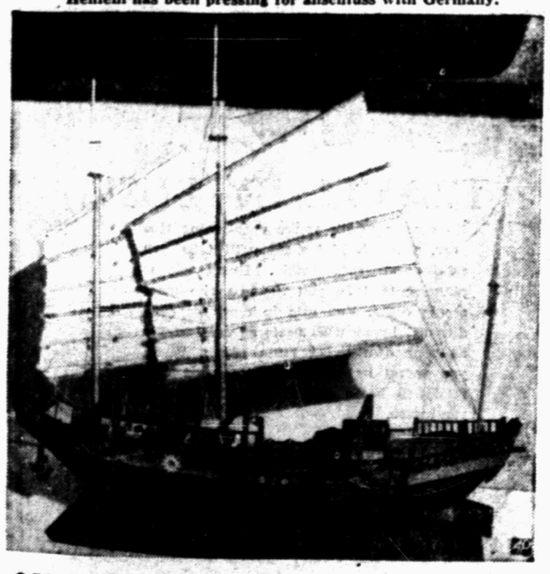

THE MAIL CAME THROUGH for Doris Lee, 33, Illinois artist who blends history with humor in above two murals on the rural postal service. The murals, now in the postoffice department at Washington depict (top) a country "general store" and postoffice combined, with two women at postal window; (lower) delivery of mail to farmers. Note boxes mounted on wagon wheel.

WITH GERMAN CUSTOMS and language the Sudetens such as these two discussing their ancestry make little attempt to conceal Hitler sympathies. The Sudetens maintain that German tribes inhabited their region before the Slav migration of fifth and sixth centuries. As Nazi leader of the Sudetens, Konrad Henlein has been pressing for anschluss with Germany.

CLINT IN EYES of Seabiscuit at Belmont Park, Long Island, training quarters may spell bad luck for War Admiral when two horses meet in $100,000 race May 30. This, which looks like horse laugh, was a bit of temper over a rubdown.

Giants And Yanks Out In Front Again; Melton Factor

Terry's Soph Southpaw Has Jinx Whipped

BY SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Meet the icicle, folks, he not only has the temperament, he even looks like one, this Cliff Melton, the Giants' sophomore southpaw who's standing National league batters on their ears and giving old-man second year jinx one of the classiest goings-over that gentleman ever has suffered.

He's built on the general proportions of a beanpole, Melton, is stretching about six feet six straight up from his size 12's; and his most distinguishable features are a pair of out-sized ears. But, man, can he pitch!

Nothing Riles Him

Nothing riles him. Not even as nifty a needler as boiling Botly Grimes, one of the better goat-getters. In fact it's doubtful if Cliff—the boys have tagged him Mickey Mouse and Mountain Music and Stringbean—even realizes they're trying to rib him. He has less imagination than a pancake and he pays less attention, if that's possible, than his cool, calm and collected southpaw mate, King Carl Hubbell.

As a result, Cliff today is big league baseball's No. 1 elbower of the year in the matter of games won and lost, with an unbeaten run of six straight showing that a second-year man doesn't necessarily have to go to the dogs, as is the general belief. He's one of the chief reasons Bill Terry's Terrific Terziers are making somewhat of an early season runaway of the National league race, what with the Chicago Cubs showing signs of coming apart at the seams.

Yankees In First Again

And, with the Yankees in first place in the American league pennant parade as the result of their 4-1 win over Cleveland's collapsible Indians yesterday, the whole situation looks like things are on the way toward the third straight championship monopoly for little old New York.

It took a lot of pitching to whip the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday, but Melton had it and the Giants won out 5-3 for their fifth in a row.

The Yankees climaxed their long uphill climb with their seventh straight win.

Washington Is Second

Since the Washington Senators were having their seven-game streak ruined, 4-1, by Vernon Kennedy and the rest of the Detroit Tigers, the Yanks pulled themselves out in front by a few percentage points, and the Nats dropped to second.

Lefty Grove made it five in a row and tossed the Boston Red Sox to a 4-2 decision over Jimmy Dykes' limping White Sox.

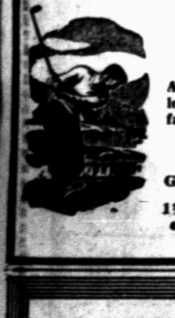

The Cubs came apart with a bang that must have been heard in Siam, as Van Lingle Mungo got back to the wars with his fireball, a neat curve and control, and won his first game of the year, 7-0, for the Dodgers over Cholly Grimm's gallopers. It was Mungo's first shutout since he whitewashed these same Cubs back in September of 1936, and it raised the Brooklyns to sixth place.

The St. Louis Browns, buried in the American league cellar, worked a triple play and went on a 9-5 win over Connie Mack's fumbling athletics, who made only five errors.

The Boston Bees-Cincinnati Reds and Phillies-Pittsburgh Pirates games lost out to old man cold weather.

AMBERS WINS DECISION

KANSAS CITY, May 12 (AP)—Lou Ambers, world lightweight champion, flailed out a unanimous decision over Jimmy Garrison of Kansas City in a 10-round overweight bout last night. Ambers weighed 136 and Garrison 136 1-2. There were no knockdowns.

Nine Horses To Run Preakness

BALTIMORE, May 12. (AP)—Minus the Kentucky derby winner and the future book favorite, the Preakness will be renewed for the 47th time Saturday with nine horses, one a filly, slated to battle over Pimlico's historic mile and three-sixteenths for the turf's richest three-year old prize.

The classic, second of America's spring specials composing the "triple crown," was dealt two blows last week when Stagehand, the favorite came down with a fever at Churchill Downs and Lawrin, not a Preakness eligible, won the derby. Then this week W. S. Kilmer's promising Nedayr and Lucky Omen contracted the coughing epidemic that has been sweeping through the stables this spring.

"But the name "Preakness" is all that is needed to draw the fans here and if the weather continues fair, General Manager Matt Daiger fully expects 45,000 people, one of the largest crowds since Survivor won the first running in 1873.

With the derby winner absent, the Preakness will be something of a consolation but it'll be a rich one. If nine face the barrier at about 3:30 p. m. central standard time, the race will gross close to $70,000 with all except $17,000 going to the winner.

Softball Champions Of Senior High To Be Decided Next Week

Softball champions of Senior High school will be decided next week when the winners of the two divisions play five game series. Ten physical education classes have been divided into two groups and are playing a round robin schedule.

Two teams with the highest average and two with the lowest average will be matched for finals. The contest has been in progress three weeks.

A manager for each team was selected at the first of the tournament and at present the team managed by Cleveland Cobb is leading with seven wins and no losses. Joy Threadgill is manager of the second ranking team with six wins and one loss.

Two games of seven innings each are played at 4:15 o'clock each afternoon on the physical education field across from Dupre school.

Seven Women Named For Curtis Cup Play With British Team

NEW YORK, May 12. (AP)—Seven women, including National Champion Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Chapel Hill, N. C., were invited today to play on the Curtis cup team that will meet the British women at the Essex Country club, Manchester, Mass., September 7-8.

Invitations also were extended to Mrs. Edwin H. Vare, jr., of Philadelphia, former U. S. champion; Patty Berg of Minneapolis, Maureen Orcutt of New York, Marion Miley of Lexington, Ky.; Charlotte Glutting of Rock Springs, N. J., and Kathryn Hemphill of Columbia, S. C. The team will be captained by Frances Stebbins.

Miss Amy Johnson, the English aviatrix, whose marriage was recently dissolved, has dropped the surname of Mollinson and will be known by her maiden name.

Midland Will Close Series With Locals

Today's bill—Lubbock vs. Midland.

Time and place—Parris field, 3:30 p. m.

Probable pitchers—Blanchard (Lubbock) and Nelson (Midland).

They can rave about the merits of dead and lively balls in the major leagues if they wish, but the Hubbers don't argue—they just put jackrabbit on any kind of horsehide.

They would call it Yankeeitis in any other league but to the home fans it is a plague original with the Lubbock youngsters—this home run hitting disease.

Carr's Case Most Serious

Bob Hillin and Boyd Watkins got the mania Wednesday, while Pope Mize, Malcolm Stevens, and Al Carr, already vaccinated last week, did not show signs of cure. In fact, Carr's case seemed more serious than ever—he hit two Wednesday, his fifth and sixth in 5 games.

Del Ballinger and Buzz Brown for Midland weren't immune and joined the homer parade.

Tied For Leadership

And after eight home runs and occasional singles, doubles and triples were counted the Hubbers had won another ball game, 19 to 14, to remain tied for the West Texas-New Mexico loop leadership with Wink.

Wink made in two in a row over Big Spring under the lights on the Spudder diamond, 13-7. Hobbs again eked an 8-to-7 triumph over Clovis.

Longview Steps In As Leader Of East Texas League Today

(By The Associated Press)

A new leader surveyed the field today in the slam-bang East Texas League campaign.

It was Longview, which has been knocking at the door so consistently Tyler last night stepped aside and permitted the Cannibals to edge onto the top rung by a half-game.

But it wasn't Tyler's idea. Jacksonville proceeded to blast the Trojans 13-7 while Longview was pushing Palestine around 12-1.

Texarkana advanced to within 4 percentage points of Tylers, by downing Kilgore 8-5 and Marshall defeated Henderson 13-6 to move within 7 points of Henderson and Kilgore, tied for fourth place.

CARDS RELEASE JOHNSON

ST. LOUIS, May 12 (AP)—The outright release of Si Johnson, right handed hurler, to the Rochester club of the International league, a farm, was announced last night by the St. Louis Cardinals. Johnson has been with the Redbirds since July, 1936, when he was obtained from Toronto.

KNOXVILLE SELLS PLAYER

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., May 12 (AP)—Jack Calvey, 25-year-old utility infielder for the Knoxville baseball club, was sold today to the Oklahoma City team of the Texas league, Manager Neil Caldwell announced.

Wolcott Is To Lead Southwest Meet

DALLAS, May 12. —Boyish Fred Wolcott, Rice institute's two-headed candidate for the "world's fastest human," leads a fleet pack of teammates into the Southwest conference track and field meet here tomorrow and Saturday doped to nose out the University of Texas.

Three first places are expected to belong to Wolcott after the finals Saturday. Recent maker of a 110-yard high hurdle mark of 13.9 seconds, which bettered the American record, Wolcott is expected to win that event, the 220-yard low hurdles and the 100-yard dash.

Texas To Be Pushing

His mates who recently joined him in setting new Drake relays marks, are counted on to aid him in bringing in firsts in the 440-yard and one-mile relays, but Texas, holders of records in both those events, will be pushing the Owls all the way.

Dope sheets favored the Owls to win eight of the 16 events, but critics believed Texas could sneak in with a goodly portion of the seconds and thirds to defend its title.

Few Doubt His Prowess

Few doubted, however, that Wolcott would not smash the conference 110-yard hurdle record of 14.5 seconds, set by Jack Patterson, his teammate, last year. He also was given an even chance to better Charlie Casper's mark of 23.2 seconds for the 220-yard timber event, set in 1932 when the former Texas Christian footballer was in top form.

It still wasn't known whether B. F. (Beefus) Bryan, Texas' great pole vaulter, would be in shape to compete. An injured shoulder has kept him out of practice.

Preliminaries will be run tomorrow; the finals, Saturday.

Howard Payne's Tracksters Favored In Texas Contests

BROWNWOOD, May 12 (AP)—Record breaking Howard Payne track and field stars took the favorite's role today at the opening of the annual Texas conference meet in Howard Payne stadium.

Three conference records went down last week when the Yellow-Jacket tracksters engaged Abilene Christian college in a duel meet. The relay team traveled the mile in 3:18.2; Waymon Wilson broke the 880-yard record and Milton Howard lowered the 440-yard time.

Teams from Austin college, Southwestern, Abilene Christian, Texas Wesleyan, McMurry college, Trinity, St. Edward's, Daniel Baker, and Howard Payne were entered.

Golf and tennis meets also were scheduled today and tomorrow with Texas Wesleyan and Trinity favored in the links meet and Abilene Christian in Tennis. Conference executives will meet in annual session tonight.

Brother To Face Brother In Famed Memorial Day Race

INDIANAPOLIS, May 12. (AP) — Brother will be pitted against brother when the 500-mile Memorial day automobile race is run here next May 30.

Driving a new car which he built himself will be Louis Meyer of Huntington Park, Calif., the only three-time winner of the Indianapolis event. Heading a pit crew in charge of a car which he rebuilt from the wheels up will be Harry Meyer, 22-year-old brother of Louis. Tony Gulotta of Detroit will be the driver of Harry's car.

And to make the situation even more complicated, the Gulotta car is the same one which Louis Meyer drove to victory in 1936 and in which Ralph Hepburn of Los Angeles finished second last year.

Chapman will report to Connie Mack following his graduation within the next several weeks. Slamming Sam played third base and the outfield for the Bears. He hit .420 as a sophomore and .368 this spring. He is 21, stands 6 feet, and weighs 183 pounds.

Tremaine Is Victor Over Bob Cummings

Andy Tremaine captured two straight falls Wednesday night in the main event at the Auditorium to end Bob Cummings' winning streak just about where it started a couple of weeks ago.

The San Franciscan looked good in spots but couldn't stay with Tremaine to the finish.

George Hartay fought an uphill battle to gain a draw with Dilly Davis in the semi-windup. Davis slugged and gouged and used the ropes to advantage.

Crowd Gets At Referee

The crowd was at the referee's throat throughout the match, begging a square deal for Hartay. The squatty Hungarian braved the onslaught and applied some of favorite holds but could not pin the Houston redhead.

With Davis resorting to the rough tactics the match appeared a little onesided in favor of him, but Hartay stayed all the way despite illegal practices.

The referee and Buzz Reynolds won the opening bout from Carl von Bromberg. Reynolds cuffed the Teuton around a bit, the referee fell on him, and by that time he was gone. Reynolds pinned him in 13 minutes.

Boy Scouts were guests of the management.

State Baseball Tourney Is On In Dallas

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, May 12.—Eight crack teams representing every section of the state inaugurated the first annual Texas High School baseball tournament today with no team showing enough to become a strong favorite.

There was little chance for comparison of the clubs—Wilmer-Hutchins, Dallas Tech, Merit, Hillsboro, Hondo, Cooper, San Augustine and Pharr-San Juan-Alamo—because none had played against the same competition, but the two South Texas outfits, Pharr-San Juan-Alamo of the Rio Grande valley and Hondo boasted fine records and Hillsboro, from Central Texas, had a sensational streak of 11 victories and no defeats.

Cooper Plays This Morning

Wilmer-Hutchins, another unbeaten club, blasted off the lid with Hondo. Cooper met Merit in the second game of the morning round while this afternoon Hillsboro faces San Augustine and Dallas Tech clashes with Pharr-San Juan-Alamo.

Semi-finals will be played Friday afternoon, consolation play Friday morning. Finals in both divisions are scheduled Saturday afternoon.

The tournament, being sponsored by the Dallas Municipal Athletic association, is being staged with the idea of getting the Texas Interscholastic league interested in sponsoring a baseball race as a regular annual event.

Second Look Being Taken At Sports

(By The Associated Press)

The Shreveport Sports were still in the second division today but they were commanding a second look from critics who expressed sympathies for them a month ago in the turbulent Texas league race.

The Sports started the season by dropping nine straight, but have become as tough as they make them—as Oklahoma City will testify. Yesterday Shreveport shut out the Indians for the second time in a row behind the effective pitching of Jim Bivin, who allowed the Oklahomans four hits, none for extra bases, while Walsh was clubbing two homers and Jim Moore and Bill Svilich socking one each for the Sports four runs.

Shreveport thus went into sixth place and the Dallas Steers took over sole possession of the cellar by falling before San Antonio 7-2. Fort Worth edged into seventh position by downing Beaumont 3-2.

Tulsa's Oilers, after dropping two straight, blasted Houston 7-6 and increased their league lead to 3 1-2 games. San Antonio wedged into second place.

Mrs. Dean And Mrs. Akey Are Winners Of Ladies Program

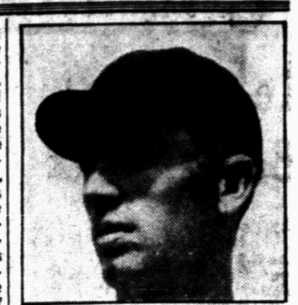

Mrs. Kirk Dean and Mrs. Charles Akey won the bridge-golf tournament for Ladies Day at Lubbock Country club Wednesday.

Matches were played in partnership, with bidding as in bridge before starting play. The winning score was 3,600.

Mrs. M. M. Brown was hostess at luncheon in Lubbock hotel at noon.

Those entering were Mesdames H. A. Humphries, W. H. Perry, J. R. Farmer, Buster Fluke, Mamie Sam Henry, J. Hooper Stiles, Cliff Widener, W. F. Helwig, Guy L. McAfee, A. A. Moore, Bob Crawford, Ford Benham, G. D. Smith, Akey, Dean, and Brown, all members, and Mrs. Roy R. Miller, a guest.

Looks Like Old Tony Galento Was Born To Trouble; He's Cause Of Battle Of Jacobs

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 12.—It looks like poor Tony Galento, who asks only that he have his beer and be permitted to bite in the clinches, was born to trouble. Nothing seems to go right for Tony except his left hand, with which he expects to knock out Natie Mann tomorrow night.

He only just managed to get himself reinstated by the local boxing commission so that he could start in making an honest living for his first-born, and now he finds himself the unwitting cause of a war between his manager, Joe Jacobs, and the promoter, Mike Jacobs.

"Something's Always Happenin' "

"Something's always happenin' to me," the Newark round man mourned after Joe and Mike had their verbal clash yesterday down at the boxing commission. "I got kicked out of school because I hit the principal with a house-brick, and it seems like I been hittin' somebody with a house-brick ever since.

"Chee, Joe's sore at me now because I signed a contract for this fight. They shouldn'ta told me they was goin' to reinstate Joe as a manager if they wasn't gonna do it. Joe says I made a 'scratch man' outa him, whatever that means."

Not Enthused Over Garden

Tony really looked pained right down to where his neck would start, if he had a neck. He couldn't work up any enthusiasm about making his first appearance as a maineventer at the garden.

"What's so wonderful about the garden?" he wanted to know. "I fought many a time in better places. I pulled crowds in Philadelphia in hard times. Besides, these guys here are always tryin' to tell me I gotta fight fair. Ask anybody—I always fight fair, only except maybe I get sore and bite a little.

That Got Him Off

"Only time I ever was on a floor was when I knocked a big guy out and he fell on me. Made me so sore I bit him. That got him off. Me and Godoy did a little bitin' out at Chicago once. That was a swell fight," said Tony, reminiscently.

Tony considers himself in mighty fine trim for his tussle with Mann. He's down to around 240 pounds, the result, he says, of having limited his beer drinking to when he was thirsty and having refused several second helpings of spaghetti. Also, he has skipped considerable rope and bopped a lot of sparring partners, whom he employs on a wholesale scale at $2 the session.

"A guy like me don't need a lot of this fancy training," he explained. "I always could lick anybody in my block, and I was brought up with some tough mugs. Most of them must of been killed by this time, or something. Fightin' guys like that, you learn all there is about fightin', and that's why I can knock anybody out now."

New unrecorded ruins of prehistoric Indians constantly are being reported in the southwest. During the summer of 1937 more than 50 were discovered on the north rim of the Grand Canyon, 26 on the south rim.

'Conciliatory Formula' In Mexico Oil Case Reported

Lease Plan Is Being Studied

(By The Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, May 12.—Reliable quarters today reported Ambassador Francisco Castillo Najera was returning from Washington to Mexico with a "conciliatory formula" advanced by the United States for settlement of the $400,000,000 oil industry controversy.

Unconfirmed reports said the formula involved leasing of the foreign-controlled companies for a period of 15 or 20 years with government participation.

Would Revert To Nation

Profits would go toward paying indemnities to the companies from which they were taken by the Mexican government March 18. The properties ultimately would revert to the nation.

Meanwhile, the constitutionality of the expropriation was argued in the second district court at a hearing on an appeal filed by the Anglo-American oil interests.

Judge Manuel Partlett indicated he probably would not render a decision until next week. Today he studied 60-odd documents presented by the companies and long briefs prepared by government departments.

To Go To High Court

Regardless of which way Judge Bartlett Rules, the case was expected to be carried to the supreme court, with a high court verdict unlikely before late June or early July.

Government attorneys denied the oil companies' charges that President Lazaro Cardenas violated the constitution in the expropriation.

The companies pleaded the constitution limited expropriation to matters of public interest.

Without Due Process

The companies complained their properties were taken without due process of law, to which the government lawyers replied the constitution and the expropriation law limited intervention of the courts to the fixing of indemnities.

There was considerable conjecture that the government might not be opposed to a way out from the situation into which expropriation led.

No Oil Sold

In 50 days the government, operating the oil plants, has sold abroad only 463,000 barrels of oil, and virtually all of this on contracts it had for its own wells before expropriation. The foreign companies previously shipped more than that in one week regularly.

Deprived of revenue from oil export taxes, and with income from other sources dwindling as the result of a steady business recession, the government is hard pressed to meet pay-rolls.

Rome's Colosseum, finished by Titus in 80 A. D., held 100,000 spectators.

Yearbook At Senior High Is Dedicated To E. J. Lowrey

First copy of The Westerner, Senior High school yearbook, was presented to E. J. Lowrey, history teacher, to whom the volume is dedicated, at ceremonies in the high school auditorium Wednesday afternoon.

W. C. Estes, business manager of the book, announced the selection of Lowrey, who has been a member of the school faculty since 1922.

Two Brief Skits Given

The program opened with two brief skits from the junior class play, "'Huckleberry Finn," to be presented Friday night. Estes and Watson Carlock, annual editor, then took charge as co-masters of ceremonies, presenting Neil Armstrong and his orchestra, with Brunette Beard singing the Westerner theme song. Senior Editor Walter Studhalter spoke briefly on the theme chosen for the new yearbook, hobbies. Estes introduced members of the staff, who were seated on the stage, and reviewed the life of the man to whom the annual was dedicated, while Neil Armstrong played background piano melodies.

After the program was concluded, students rushed to the principal's office to receive their copies of the Westerner.

Description Of Book

The 1938 Westerner is bound in pebble-surfaced brown leather, and printed in brown on cream paper, with orange borders. The cover, showing two hobby horses beneath the word Westerner printed in an orange semicircle, was designed by Junius Young, high school student. The hobby theme is stressed throughout the book, the frontispiece and section first pages showing snapshots of hands at various hobbies, such as tennis, photography, and knitting.

This year for the first time, according to Mrs. Ross Ayers, faculty sponsor, faculty members, including the superintendent and principal are shown in informal shots. The issue also includes more snapshots and individual class pictures than before, two pages for autographs, and the entire senior class role.

New Map Is Being Distributed Here

The Texas highway commission's state map for 1938 has been issued by the department and a limited supply has been received at division headquarters here for distribution.

On the reverse side are pictures of scenes over the state. Looming up is a large picture of a wheat field, labelled "Panhandle Harvest," but, in reality, showing a Texas Technological college wheat harvest, the grain shocked and ready for the threshing machine.

The pictures are on a background outline of Texas, with the famous Lone Star at the top, the lariat and are work commemorating cattle raising.

On the map side, showing the state's highway system, is a county map of Texas. Paved roads are designated by a solid black line, surfaced roads are alternate black and white squares, improved roads small qhire squares, earth roads two lines and dashes mark the conditionally designated. U. S. and state number designations are given; likewise mileage figures between towns and between triangles.

Smaller maps show highway designations through the larger cities of Amarillo, Wichita Falls, Waco, Austin, El Paso, Beaumont, Fort Worth, Galveston, Dallas, San Antonio, Houston and a Dallas - Fort Worth and Houston insert.

When folded, one side shows the Alamo in colors, "Cradle of Texas Liberty," and the other a typical road scene with a forest background.

INCOME IS GREATER

NEW YORK, May 12. (AP)—Standard Oil company of New Jersey reported today an aggregate net income of $147,993,147 for 1937, equal to $5.64 per share of capital stock.

This compares with a net of $97,774,000, or $3.73 a share, in 1936.

BEAUMONT MAN ELECTED

GALVESTON, May 12. (AP)—Dr. Talbot Tumbleson of Beaumont was named president elect of the Texas Pediatric society at a meeting here Wednesday. San Antonio was selected for the next convention city. Dr. Otis Calloway of Houston, incoming president, will take office in June.

Sharper Cleavage In Ranks Of Pros Is Favored By Leader

NEW YORK, May 12. (AP) — A sharper cleavage in the ranks of professional golfers, putting the tournament troupers on one side of the fence and the teaching pros on the other, was recommended today by George Jacobus, president of the Professional Golfers association.

Jacobus made his recommendation as contestants gathered for the annual Metropolitan open championship, which starts tomorrow with more than the usual array of touring stars. The group includes Harry Cooper and Sam Snead, Jacobus' co-favorites to succeed Jimmy Hines as champion; Horton Smith, Jimmy Thomoson, and Lawson Little.

U. S. Open Champion Ralph Guldahl also is in the field, but he recently took a job in the Metropolitan area and cannot be considered a touring pro for this event.

If Jacobus' suggestion were followed, the top-notch pros who really dominate competition winter and summer would stick to that and to exhibition matches. They would not be permitted to have club affiliations. The others, except for occasional tournament appearances, would make it their business to handle club jobs properly.

"Expansion of the summer and winter circuits in recent years," said Jacobus "has helped stimulate golf interest throughout the country. But it also has drawn pros away from their club jobs to such an extent that more and more club officials and members are complaining.

"It's part of his job for a pro to play in enough tournaments to prove to his members that he's worth his salt. It's something else again to have him play in so many that members who want instruction have to get it from assistants."

Yucatan state, Mexico, has introduced "work camps" in an effort to rehabilitate criminals.

Total Of 241 Deer Released In State's Restocking Program

AUSTIN, May 12. (AP)—The game department announced today 247 deer, the majority of them does, had been released in its seasonal restocking program just completed.

The deer were caught in heavily populated areas and released in districts where a decline had been noted.

Beal Jester, assistant secretary to the game commission, said distribution of the wild deer had been made possible by resumption of the use of a white-tail deer trap, believed the only one of its kind in the world, on the Premier ranch between Fredricksburg and Mason.

Roosevelt Group To Present Three-Act Comedy Tonight

Vocational agriculture students of Roosevelt Rural High school will present a three-act comedy drama, "The School at Cantaloupe Center," at 8 o'clock Tuesday night in the auditorium there, Roy F. Monk, vocational agriculture teacher, said Wednesday.

The play will have 15 characters. Female roles will be played by boys. Proceeds from a 10-cent admittance charge will be used for purchase of a first aid kit and to build a reserve fund for members of the Roosevelt chapter of the Future Farmers of America who will leave May 25 on an educational tour to California.

Monk is director of the play.

Dutcher's News Of Washington

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 12—"Drunkenness in the United States and all territories thereof is hereby prohibited."

That will be the next amendment to the Constitution of the United States if Congressman Gomer Smith, of Oklahoma, can put it over with the aid of two-thirds of each House of Congress and the legislatures of three-fourths of the states, whose ratification would be necessary.

Rodney Dutcher

This Gomer Smith is the Smith who used to be a power in the Townsend old age pensions movement and he is serving his first term in Congress.

Gomer's proposed amendment, already introduced in the House, ambitiously proceeds to provide that Congress and the states shall have power to enforce this prohibition and to fix penalties for violation.

Not Gomer's Idea

The idea of making it a federal offense to get spiffed is admittedly not the brain child of Congressman Smith himself, who says a committee of prominent Baptist ministers got him to introduce the amendment, promising him that they would promote it as a rallying point for a temperance program. But Smith thinks it's a good idea just the same.

Although he blames the administration for all the drunkenness that has been going on, Gomer admits that most persons can drink normally and endanger neither themselves nor others. He decries the notion that men and women get drunk only because they want to.

"Many of us are allergic to alcohol," he says, "and such a person will, if he takes one drink, get drunk just as surely as there is enough liquor in sight to accomplish that purpose. Will power will not help him at all. You might as well say that a man suffering from hay fever, who is allergic to golden rod, could walk through a field of golden rod and not sneeze—on will power. It cannot be done that way."

Realizing that he has a long-range proposition on his hands Gomer Smith has not gotten around to figuring the appropriate federal penalties for drunkenness or to the question of who is to decide whether a citizen is drunk or just merely jingled.

Wets Unworried

Members of Repeal Associates, the organization which was carried over from the old Association Against the Prohibition Amendment to watch the drys on behalf of the wets, say they're not worrying about the Gomer Smith amendment. They find the drys are chiefly busy trying to get towns and counties to adopt local option dry laws, and the associates have trouble combatting this because they would run into local resentment against "outside interference" if they were to try to run counter-campaigns in the counties.

The next major dry offensive, the wets figure, will be aimed at making individual states go dry. Since the old A. A. P. A. fought the 18th amendment on the ground that states should control liquor traffic within their borders without federal interference, its heirs find the prospect of lobbying against state prohibition laws a bit embarrassing.

Capt. William H. Stayton, whose friends call him "father of repeal," is head of Repeal Associates. Miss Elizabeth Livingston, veteran of the repeal battle, is executive secretary. Most of the funds are contributed by wealthy members of the advisory committee, chairmaned by Pierre S. Dupont.

Octagon House

BY PHOEBE A. TAYLOR
Copyright, 1938, Associated Press

The Story So Far: Sleepy Quanomet on Cape Cod wakes up with a bang when all its citizens are caricatured in the new post office mural. While inspecting the cause of the upheaval, Asey Mayo, homespun detective, meets engaging Pamela Frye, who lives in the old Octagon House. She tells him her brother-in-law, Jack Lorne, is the artist, but that her sister Marina is the one responsible for the malicious trick. Asey has never heard more hatred in a voice than when Pam speaks of Marina.

Chapter Two Murder!

Once in the headlines, Quanomet stayed there. Those piercing optics, the Eyes of the Nation, focused themselves on the town. It became, as a Boston newspaper grudgingly admitted, a cynosure. In 24 hours, the average blindfolded resident of Walla Walla or El Paso could have navigated Quanomet's Main Street with greater ease than he could circle his own back yard. Aunt Nettie Hobbs, the Pickle Lime Lady, was Woman of the Week in three news magazines, banishing the budget and wars way back among the dandruff cures.

The continued headlines, of course, were not due to the post office, or even the mural. But like the Octagon House and the Pickle Lime Lady, they continued to provide an important and bizarre background. They were what the press meant when it referred to the Incredible Background of These Startling Incidents.

The first incident which startled Asey Mayo happened in the bright moonlight at two o'clock that morning as he rowed back to his landing.

His mind occupied almost entirely with the new sailboat which he had just returned to her mooring, Asey didn't see the figure lurking in the shadows on his wharf until a hand reached out and grabbed the prow of his sharpie.

Shipping his oars, Asey jumped lightly onto the landing.

"What the—who—Pamela Frye, that ain't you?"

"Yes, Asey, I—"

"What're you doin' here this time of night — look, child," Asey discovered that she was trembling from head to foot, "what's wrong?"

"Asey, you know today — you laughed about my always hunting ambergris, and I told you that I still did, and—"

"But God A'mighty, child, you ain't found some!"

"Asey, I have! I did, this afternoon, on Quanomet Point. A huge lump. It's 100 pounds, anyway."

"What!" Asey did some rapid calculating. "That's more'n $50,000 worth—no wonder you're quiverin'! I know what you want. Sure, I'll help you lug it to Boston, an' get it to the right place, an'—"

"But that's not what I've been waiting for, Asey. It's about me and Sister. She—"

"Your sister Marina? Oho," Asey said. "Did she find it with you?"

"No, but she helped me take it home. And tonight I went over to get it, and — Asey, she's been killed!"

"What?"

"Murdered. And they say I did it!"

'With My Knife'

Asey stared for a long moment at her face, chalk white in the moonlight.

"Sit down, Pam, he said gently. "Here, on this clam dreener, before you tremble yourself off into the water. Now," he made fast the sharpie, "tell me everything, just as short an' sweet as you can make it. Begin back with the ambergris — ambergris — honest, that amazes me morn'n the rest!"

"But it's the rest that matters—that's the worst," Pam said. "Asey, they'll be after me now. Hunting me. It was my knife that killed her, you know. Jack Lorne recognized it. He knows it's my knife. There—there isn't any way out of it!"

"Pam Frye," Asey spoke almost in his quarterdeck voice, "snap out of it! You didn't kill her, did you?"

"Of course not! Of course I didn't. But," she added, honestly, "I've often wanted to. I wanted to this afternoon."

"There's a vast difference," Asey said, "because feelin' an urge to kill someone an' actually killin' 'em. If you didn't kill her, don't worry."

"But I did want to, and it's my knife, and they think I did. They're hunting me now, probably. I heard them a thousand times while I waited in the last hour. Somebody's sure to come to you and tell you and ask your help, even though they don't know I'm here—" Pam's voice broke. "They'll arrest me and—"

Asey held a match for her cigarette.

"In another half minute," he said, "I'm goin' to begin to wonder if you didn't kill her—Pam, I know you're all worked up, but you've got to quiet down an' tell me things. Until you do, we can't get any place at all. Begin with the ambergris."

'I Bawled'

"I found it around five this afternoon," she made a valiant effort to pull herself together. "On Quanomet Point. I thought at first it was a lump of tallow—oh, Asey, after all these years, I couldn't believe it! There it was, staring me in the face. A chance to get away from that Godforsaken town, and that tumbledown rat trap of a house, to get Father away, to go places and do things—art school, everything. I just sat down and bawled."

Asey lighted his pipe and waited for her tears to pass.

To a certain extent, he thought, he understood how the girl must have felt. That afternoon he had driven past Octagon House, as massive and ark-like as it had been when he first saw it years and years before. The sides facing the road were bravely painted, the lawns and the flower beds were well kept. Even the stiff-necked iron stag by the elm tree seemed to be doing his gallant best to bear up past tradition.

But the rear of the house was bare of paint, and the back porch sagged. The old octagonal barn was warped to a circle that hovered uncertainly on rotted underpinnings. No electric wires, he noticed, ran to the house. That meant kerosene lamps and a hand pump and all the drudgery that went with old time housework. And a casual inquiry had brought forth the information that Pam Frye, at 23, lived there throughout the year, supporting herself and her father, and somehow keeping the old place going. They were completely ignored by the bewitching Marina.

"I'm pulled together now," Pam said. "Asey, after I finished bawling, the problems involved suddenly burst on me. There I was, three miles up the beach. The tide was coming in, lickety larrup. The ambergris was almost awash. I couldn't carry it, or even lift it. I didn't dare leave it, to go back for a barrow, or a car, or anything. And I began to wonder what would happen if anyone came."

"Uh-huh," Asey said. "It ain't like $50,000 worth of stocks or bonds registered in your name. If you happened to meet someone who felt like claimin' it, an' if they happened to be bigger than you—"

"You have," she said, "hit the nail squarely on the head."

What happened to the ambergris? Continued tomorrow.

Today's Thought

Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: by the law of faith. Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law. —Romans 3:27, 28.

ODDS FAVOR TOPS

Despite the sincere hope of most Americans that the Chinese will whip the pants off the Japs, the most authoritative opinions are that eventual victory will rest with the invaders, probably within the next few months.

Those responsible for such forecasts, of course, leave themselves plenty of loopholes if they have guessed wrong, and virtually all agree that the outcome of the struggle still is uncertain. But the odds, they insist, favor the Japs almost overwhelmingly.

Their reasoning is that Japan, up to the present, has not put into the field an army large in size when compared to those which operated during the World war. They say that the islanders now are preparing to send such an army into China. It is their belief that if and when such a force joins the invaders, the superior training and equipment will bring a Japanese victory within a comparatively short space of time.

Should that happen, the consolation for those who sympathize with China will be that Japan has paid a bigger price for her victory than she had imagined possible. According to those who should know, the Japs started the war believing that a small force would sweep to victory within three months. Instead, after 10 months, the Chinese resistance obviously has gained in strength.

At the beginning, the Chinese fought merely in the hope of averting defeat. Apparently, even with the chance against her, she now is fighting to wind and believe that victory is possible.

Hollywood Chit-Chat

BY PAUL HARRISON
Journal Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, May 12 — Many members of the screen colony are inclined to look upon the audacious, gag-tossing Milton Berle as a newcomer to the movies, he having taken part in RKO's "New Faces" a few months ago. That was the first talkie for the vaudeville-night club-radio comedian, but it makes him no less a veteran of the flickers.

A Promoter In The Family

With Pearl White, he shared "The Perils of Pauline." He played with "Daredevil Eddie" Polo, with Charles Hutchinson in "The Iron Claw" with Ruth Roland and Flora Finch and Douglas Fairbanks and practically everybody of their time.

Whenever anybody wanted a little boy to tie on a railroad track or on the carriage of a sawmill, or to boot off a cliff, Mrs. Sarah Berlinger and her son Milton were sure to be around looking for the job.

That was the beginning of the most famous mother-and-son association in the whole realm of show business. She brought him here from New York, and from the time he was 5 she managed and coached him and regaled casting directors with astonishing tales of his histrionic skill. No matter what was wanted—Fauntleroy or urchin, comic or pathetic waif—Mrs. Berlinger was right in there, vowing that the role was Milton's specialty. She won the jobs, too.

But after a few years it became apparent to everybody that Milton was a comedian. He was put into a satirical vaudeville sketch with a little girl named Elizabeth Kennedy. The best thing he did in those days was an imitation of Eddie Cantor. After three years of it, he began to grow like a rumor and he declares that he's still round-shouldered from scrooching down to juvenile size.

In 1924, when he was 15, Berle went into long pants and a solo patter act. Sample: "I've got a girl—boy, oh boy!—she's got bobbed hair on her chin!" Such lines, delivered in a false baritone, didn't exactly panic audiences. There were plenty of times that Ma Berlinger and son dined on a can of tomato soup warmed over a gas jet. And they have slept in many a railroad station.

Applause Of A Sort

Their fortunes couldn't be worse, so they got better. In a year or two, Milton was organizing vaudeville companies, or units, and headlining with them.

From the time he first faced an audience or a camera, Mama never missed one of his performances. In a theater, she'd sit among the cash customers and lead the laughter and applause—a plaque of one. Sometimes, of course, no laughter and applause followed, and thus became somewhat conspicuous.

Critics and columnists began to mention her, and this was all grist for the giggle-mill. Berle deliberately would tell a flat joke or two, and acknowledge her minority applause with a "Thanks, Mom!" That always got a general laugh. Still does.

Berle Branches Out

Somewhat to his own embarrassment, at present, Berle built up a reputation as a joke stealer. It started as a joke. Long before the carefully-planned Winchell-Bernie feud, Berle and the late Ritchie Craig schemed a bitter public rivalry in which each accused the other of gag-larceny.

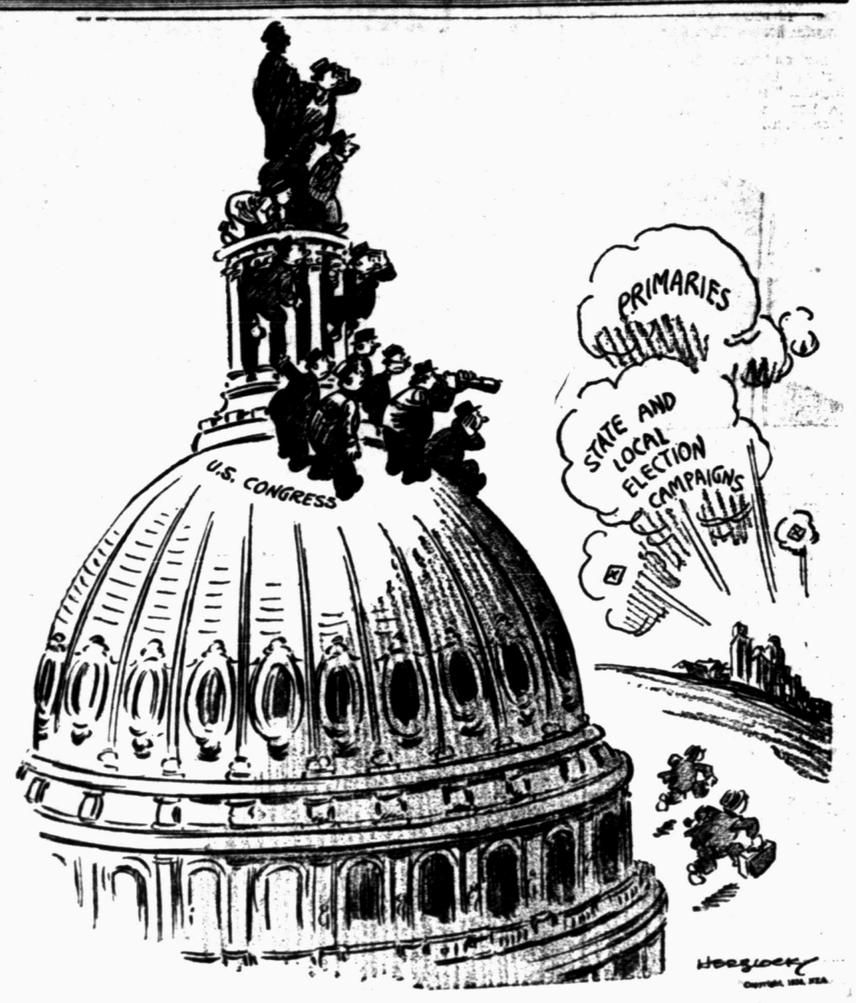

By 1932, Berle's quick, ad-libbing wit had made him definitely a star. He was in demand on the radio, and as a night club master of ceremonies. He began to appear in musical comedies, although the first, "Saluta," was a flop.

For vaudeville, his wage tops that of almost any movie star; it is $6500 a week, plus a percentage. Conversely, though, his movie salary, on an RKO contract, isn't so big. Nor has he had a chance to do much in pictures. The last one, "Radio City Revels," was so jammed with comics that none of them got a chance. "The only straight man connected with the film," he said sadly, "was the cutter. Mine was the face-on-the-cutting-roomfloor. I'm still getting fan mail from mice."

And Milton is still getting applause from Ma, who lives here and watches over him, even on the sets. She takes such good care of him that he never even has thought about getting married.

The average American automobilist on vacation takes a trip which lasts about three weeks and selects his travel objectives as he goes, according to the American Automobile Association.

Could Hardly Walk, So Crippled With Awful Rheumatism

Terrific Pains Made His Life Miserable; Stomach Distress Added To Discomfort — Until Gly-Cas Again Proves Unfailing.

"For ten years I had been searching for just such a medicine as Gly-Cas," said Mr. O. C. Nations, 734 Elm Street, Abilene, Texas. "Rheumatism had settled in my lower limbs, especially in my feet and ankles. Besides the severe pain that was almost unbearable, I was so crippled I could hardly walk at all. My stomach became affected, too, actually felt like a rock in the pit of my stomach after eating. I was dreadfully nervous, tired and worn-out all of the time for I could not get a good night's sleep. I put many medicines to the test in my case but met only with repeated failure until I began Gly-Cas.

MR. O. C. NATIONS

"I found Gly-Cas to be the first medicine that did not disappoint me," continued Mr. Nations. "That dreadful rheumatism has been relieved so I could walk with ease and get around as I please. The sharp, stabbing pains have been relieved also, nerves are quieted, stomach regulated and that tired, worn-out feeling is now in the past. I even have new strength and energy since I can get rest and sleep and it is such a pleasure to feel as good as I do today."

Gly-Cas is sold by Mark Halsey Drug Co., 1219 Broadway, this city, and by the leading druggists in surrounding towns.—Adv.

LUBBOCK AUCTION AND COMMISSION CO. SALE EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY, BEGINNING AT 10:00 A. M.

Traders have come to know that they get the best prices that the market permits for their cattle when they bring them to us to sell.

We have endeavored to transact our business in a straightforward manner, and it is not surprising that our volume of business is ever increasing.

We try to treat all customers honorably and alike—doing as we would be done by, and this means that once a patron of this establishment, you are always a patron. We believe that our auction sale is a distinct feature of the country, and materially assists in making this section more progressive and more attractive from a commercial and agricultural standpoint. Help us to continue to build up our reputation as such an asset by bringing us more cattle to sell, so we can keep the buyers constantly coming to us for their cattle requirements.

Invitations Mailed On Legion Session

Invitations to the approximately 2,500 members of the American Legion in the 19th congressional district were mailed this morning, according to Chas. Whitacre, chairman of the invitations committee.

The invitation, attached to a cartoon leaflet, explains that Daniel J. Doherty, national commander, will speak here the night of May 21 and that a dance and chow line will be among entertainment features.

Meanwhile, according to announcement by J. A. Raley, jr., chairman of the reception committee, he is proceeding with the completion of that group. Every post in the district will be represented on the committee by two or more members, Raley said.

The fact that the convention is to be held here, members of the post learned, has received widespread publicity in the May issue of the American Legion News, official publication of the Texas department. The issue is delivered to all of the approximately 25,000 Legion members in the Texas department.

Eunice, N. M., Child Dies Here Today; Funeral In Oklahoma

Betty Ann Newman, 2 1-2 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Newman of Eunice, N. M., died at 12:55 o'clock this morning in a sanitarium here.

Sanders Funeral home will send the body to Alma, Okla., where funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon. Burial will be in Alma.

The child had been a medical patient in the sanitarium 15 days.

Public May Inspect Hospitals In Observance Of Day In Lubbock

Opportunity to inspect Lubbock hospital facilities is being offered during an open house from 2 to 4 o'clock this afternoon at Lubbock sanitarium, Plains Hospital, and West Texas hospital.

The open house is being conducted in observance of National hospital day, designated by the American Hospital association and proclaimed by officials over the country.

Visitors are being directed through Lubbock's three hospitals.

only occupant of the heavy coach. He was driving west toward Lubbock and persons in the other machine, a light car driven by Follis, were driving east, investigators said.

Body of Singer was transferred to Pryor Hammons Fungral home in Littlefield. The funeral home announced this morning services would be conducted, probably at 2:30 or 3 o'clock, Friday afternoon at the First Baptist church and burial will be in Littlefield cemetery.

Singer was graduated from Littlefield High school in 1935. He was a second year student in the agricultural division at Tech, and lived at 2424 Fourteenth street. His father is a farmer. He was a nephew of A. R. Hendricks, prominent Littlefield resident. List of other survivors was not obtainable this morning.

He became unconscious about 15 or 20 minutes after the accident and did not regain consciousness.

The Dallas resident injured is a visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Swayder of 1301 Twenty-third street.

Witnesses said both automobiles were damaged considerably.

Two Rowena Men Are Killed In Crash Near Ballinger

BALLINGER, May 12 (AP)—Two Rowena men, Ed Kunkel and L. B. McCoy, were crushed to death in wreckage of their automobile in a head-on collision with a truck on the San Angelo highway six miles west of here today.

Dean Young of San Angelo, driver of the truck, and J. R. Cotton, also of San Angelo, received minor injuries.

Young said he pulled the truck off the pavement in an effort to avoid the crash. Crow bars were used in an hour-long effort to extricate the mangled bodies from the light coach.

The victims had started to Winters where Kunkel, about 40, manager of a Rowena gin, was supervising the overhauling of a gin, and McCoy, about 30, was assisting. The truck was going to San Angelo.

Head-On Crash In Oklahoma Is Fatal To Two Men

HOBART, Okla., May 12 (AP)—A head-on automobile-truck collision yesterday east of here killed two men instantly and seriously injured another.

Ray Fletcher, about 28, of Cloud Chief, and R. F. Cochran, about 40, of Hobart, were killed. H. F. Daniels, a truck driver, was suffering from severe shock. Fletcher and Cochran were riding in the automobile.

rural areas.

Leaders said they would hold the house in session until it took a final vote on the bill, probably early in the evening. Representative Woodrum (D-Va), in charge of the legislation, said it would pass without any trouble.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, May 12. (AP)—Cotton futures opened 4 to 5 higher on trade and foreign buying with offers small. May 8.65; July 8.72; Oct. 8.76; Dec. 8.80; Jan. 8.81; March 8.86.

July eased from 8.73 to 8.68 with the market net unchanged to 3 points higher shortly after the first half hour.

Two private estimates placed April domestic consumption at 425,000 to 445,000 bales.

The market remained quiet later in the morning. Additional Liverpool selling depressed prices a few points further but trade and local buying absorbed the offerings. Around midday July had recovered from 8.66 to 8.69, leaving the list 1 point net lower to 5 higher.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, May 12. (AP)—Cotton futures opened 3 to 4 points net higher today.

May contracts opened at 8.75 bid, July at 8.84, Oct. 8.88, Dec. at 8.91, Jan. 8.93 and March at 8.97.

Trading tapered off later in the morning and prices reacted slightly under profit taking by recent buyers. The undertone remained steady and offerings were absored by trade buying and covering.

Near mid-session July sold at 8.81, Oct. 8.85, and Dec. 8.88, net unchanged compared with the previous close.

The turnover yesterday was 10,000 bales and open commitments 354,100 bales, an increase of 150 bales over the previous day.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, May 12. (AP)—Wheat advanced in Chicago today after a hesitant start. Crop damage developments Southwest were sharply watched and it was observed that no wheat was being tendered on May contracts at Liverpool.

Opening ¼ off to ¼ up, May 81¼, July 79-79⅛. Chicago wheat futures then rallied. Corn started unchanged to ⅛ higher, May 58¼, July 59⅛.

At the close, Chicago wheat futures were ¼-⅜ lower, compared with yesterday's finish. May 81, July 78⅛-⅜, corn ¼ off to ⅛ up, May 58, July 59⅜, and oats at ⅛ decline to ⅛ advance.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, May 12. (AP)—Demand was good for wheat here today and fair for other light offerings.

Wheat No. 1 hard 97½-99½.

Barley No. 2 nom 57-59

Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs. nom 1.00-05; No. 2 white kafir nom 99-1.02.

Corn, shelled, No. 2 white 72½-73½; No. 2 yellow 71-72.

Oats No. 2 red 37-38.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, May 12. (AP)—It was a stock market in search of a trend today as leading issues stumbled into insignificant declines and equally unimportant advances.

The list lacked rallying vitality at the start, although there were few noticeably depressed groups just as there was a scarcity of strong spots. Volume dwindled after the opening and dealings were of an indifferent character during the remainder of the proceedings. Transfers approximated 550,000 shares.

One or two aircrafts, oils, mail orders and specialties gave fair account of themselves, and utilities and rails contested such light pressure as was exerted against them. Steels, motors, rubbers and coppers stood still or shifted to moderately lower levels.

Keys Quads Appear In Palace Theater

Songs and skits by the Keys quadruplets are entertaining audiences at the Palace theater this afternoon and tonight, on the second day of their appearances on the stage of the theater.

The famous Keys, Mona, Mary, Roberta and Leota, arrived in Lubbock Wednesday from their home in Hollis, Okla. They are former graduates of Baylor university, and known by many persons in the state before their present tour.

work of the courts and by comparison to exalt administration boards and commissions.

"Such efforts are short-sighted and are not in the interest of the suitable development of administrative agencies.

"It must be remembered that to the courts the community still looks for the standards of judicial conduct . . .

"Whatever the shortcomings of courts, and whatever the need of administrative bodies, it is still the courts which stand out as the exemplars of the tradition of independence and impartiality.

"This is because judicial institutions, as we understand and support them, have won their place and established their standards through the historic contests against the abuses of power.

Guided By Principle

"So far as it is humanly possible under the conditions of democratic organization, judges are as a class supposed to be removed from political influence, to be guided by principle and not by sentiment or passion, and habitually to adhere to the requirements of the law in a conscientious endeavor to ascertain and apply them.

"This tradition should be cherished and not weakened by disparaging the institutions which embody it."

Lubbock School Children Asked To Write Airmail Letter To Someone In Another City To Be Mailed In Pickup Test Here

Bulletins addressed to principals of all of Lubbock schools were distributed by W. B. Irvin, city superintendent, today inviting the cooperation of every pupil in preparing for the airmail pickup test here May 19.

Suggestion was made in the bulletin, school officials reported, that each child write a letter to someone in another city to be placed aboard the mail plane. Any letters written, it was explained, will be wholly voluntary but teachers have been instructed to assist pupils who wish to cooperate.

Letters In Two Groups

The letters, officials said, will fall into one of two groups. Those who prefer, will address them to someone they know in some other city.

Most letters, however, will not be addressed by the pupil, but will be delivered in an unaddressed envelope to the chamber of commerce. There, they will be addressed to the superintendent of schools in some city with the request that he deliver it to some interested pupil. Effort will be made, it was explained, to put pupils in contact with someone of their own grade and age.

Expect 900 Or More

Expectation is that enough letters will be written by the pupils so that almost every town and city of 10,000 or more population in the United States will be reached. There are approximately 900 such cities.

Pupils here must buy their own airmail stamp, cost of which is six cents. For a penny additional, they also may secure an airmail envelope.

The letters will be collected next Tuesday, Superintendent Irvin said.

More Water Added To City's Supply

Approximately 700,000 gallons of water daily have been added to the city water supply by the completion of the third of a series of four wells beyond the northwestern edge of the city limits in the Maddox addition, according to information given at the city hall Thursday.

The well's production has averaged approximately 480 gallons a minute during the test which has not been completed, officials said.

Capacity of the well was described by city officials as about "average," but is substantially short of another well northeast of the new one which will produce in excess of 1,000,000 gallons daily.

Another well authorized by the city commission will be started immediately to complete the spring drilling program. It is the expectation of city officials that the new wells, in the aggregate, will add from 2,000,000 to 3,000,000 gallons daily to the city's supply, which will be more than adequate for any demand which may develop this summer.

Officials pointed out, however, that if Lubbock's growth continues at anything approximating the present pace, further and extensive expansion of the water system will become a vital necessity next spring.

U. S. 'No' On Helium

cated they fear no military developments from the sale."

Ickes is a member of the board of six cabinet officers who must agree to the sale of any helium to foreign powers. This country has a natural monopoly of the gas.

No date has been set for a possible further meeting of the board, which has the power to decide whether to permit shipments. A unanimous decision is required and Secretary Ickes has shown no inclination toward changing his attitude.

May Be "Death Stroke"

Eckener, seated in an easy chair at the German embassy, said the decision might be the "death stroke" to the experiment in lighter-than air transportation. He insisted that Germany would derive "no military use whatsoever" from helium.

The demand for helium to inflate the giant airships was spurred by the explosion at Lakehurst, N. J., last year of the Zeppelin Hindenburg, in which 36 persons were killed.

The Hindenburg was built in Germany to replace the Graf Zeppelin, which, using inflammable hydrogen, had made 80 round trips across the Atlantic. The Graf Zeppelin has discontinued passenger flights.

Eckener said he would not ask to see President Roosevelt because there was "no particular use" in view of Secretary Ickes' decision.

President Roosevelt meanwhile kept a hands-off attitude. White House aides said he was powerless to interfere under the law passed last September.

Flood Control Bill

Miss) said, resulted from recommendations of war department engineers and President Roosevelt that the principle of local participation be retained.

The administration, Whittington said, objected to committee proposals that local contributions might be abolished entirely on the ground flood control was a federal problem.

Could Drive Bargains

They said engineers and the president contended local governments could drive better bargains in purchasing property rights. Negotiations for such purchases would be made by the federal government if it assumed the full cost.

The committee bill would leave selection of projects under the authorization to the army engineers. They could select any of the many already recommended and considered by the committee, irrespective of whether they were named specifically in the bill. The committee listed a few specific projects but the engineers' authority would permit them to revise the bill's recommendations, members said.

Residence Permits

which permits have been issued call for investments exceeding $3,000. The facts that the top permit figure for any residence this year has been $18,000 and that there have been fewer than half a dozen above $10,000 are cited as evidence that the average for the whole has not been pulled up by a small group of costly structures.

Figures Are Revealed

The new home construction by months is evidence that the building pace has been sustained. Those figures, listing totals of new homes and the cost are:

	Permits	Cost
January	49	$ 80,476
February	69	114,757
March	86	160,230
April	47	124,283
May, to date	20	43,665

Residence repair permits for the same period have been:

	Permits	Cost
January	21	$ 8,070
February	19	7,791
March	23	8,414
April	19	6,486
May, to date	12	10,959

hall until about 9 p. m. and then hit the hay.

Miss Baker had the best idea. "Boys," she said early in the evening, "I just can't hold out. The campaign and all, you know. I gotta have rest."

So the partners who'd been swinging her said okay and she went to bed for a couple of hours. Around midnight she was up and dancing again and she stayed with it until the string orchestra squeaked its last around sunup.

Brief Bits Of News

Pender Speaks — Prof. H. C. Pender, acting head of the government department at Texas Technological college, spoke on the Sino-Japanese political situation Wednesday night at a monthly meeting of Presbyterian Men-of-the-Church. W. L. Hester was chairman. Refreshments were served.

Picnic Held Wednesday—Approximately 400 persons attended the annual picnic sponsored by the Enginering society of Texas Technological college Wednesday afternoon in the City park section of Mackenzie state park. The final game of a softball tournament between departments in the engineering division was played, a program presented, and a picnic supper served.

To Go To Seagraves—Several Lubbock men, representing the chamber of commerce, plan to go to Seagraves late this afternoon for a banquet of the Seagraves civic body, recently reorganized, with a full-time secretary to begin work soon. George W. Dupree, attorney, is to be the main speaker for the occasion. Charles A. Whitacre, chairman of the goodwill committee and others of his group are to make the trip.

Manire Leaves—R. A. Manire, Austin, head of state vocational agriculture work, as a department of the state department of education, left this morning after spending several days here. He visited with O. T. Ryan, supervisor of Area 1 and Ray L. Chappelle, head of the department of agricultural education of Texas Technological college and others of the college faculty.

Negro Trapped — A 27-year-old negro was nabbed by L. U. Belt, nightwatchman, in 1800-block Avenue H last night when he went to an alley to get three shirts Belt had seen another black hide there two hours before. Belt lay in wait. The negro arrested gave the name of another police said they would arrest. The shirts, freshly washed but not ironed, may be claimed at the police station. They are white, size 15 1-2.

Swears Falsely — Sentence of 15 days in jail and fine and costs aggregating $103.20 were assessed Herbert Aduddell, Lubbock man, this morning by Judge E. L. Pitts of 99th district court. The man admitted in open court he had sworn falsely to an application made of U. Brown, district clerk, for suspended sentence on conviction of drunk driving, then in testimony before Judge Pitts. Burton S. Burks, district attorney, in open court said he did not "see how the grand jury can fail to indict" on a perjury count. In addition to his fine and imprisonment, Judge Pitts suspended the man's driving license six months.

Three Births Reported—Mr. and Mrs. Ted Glover of Buffalo Springs are parents of a daughter born Tuesday morning and weighing 8 pounds. She has been named Teddy Adele. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hall of Route 2 are the parents of a daughter born Wednesday morning and weighing six pounds. A six-pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sooter of route 1, Slaton, at 4:35 o'clock this morning.

Sentence Suspended—A two-year suspension of sentence was allowed E. R. Phegley, charged with swindling, Wednesday in 99th district court. A charge of driving when intoxicated, naming J. A. Bell, was passed.

Soap Cost High—A 21-year-old Mexican swiped a case of soap, Wednesday he paid for it, $55. The assessment was in corporation court.

Man Transferred—In lieu of $1,000 bond set by Mrs. Olive Fluke, U. S. commissioner, Earnest Colquit, 25, of Wasson was transferred Wednesday by C. E. Luce, U. S. deputy marshal, to Potter county jail. Forgery of a U. S. money order was charged.

Floydada Event Scheduled—Preparations were announced complete this morning for a "rally" which will be a miniature circus to be presented by Boy Scouts of northeastern district in Floydada High school stadium at 8 o'clock tonight. Troops from Floydada, Matador, Lockney and Silverton will participate, according to Lyndon T. Grant, assistant executive, who will represent council headquarters at the event. Other announcements at headquarters this morning were that an enrollment of 50 is indicated at the leadership training school at Camp Post Saturday and Sunday, and that Lubbock Sea Scout troop is to be reorganized at a meeting in the basement of First Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

State Treasurer Here — Charley Lockhart, state treasurer, arrived in Lubbock Wednesday to remain until Sunday as the guest of his brother, G. E. Lockhart, Lubbock attorney residing at 1611 Broadway. Lockhart is now campaigning for re-election following his recent announcement for a fifth term as state treasurer. Accompanying him is H. G. Secrest, staff member of the Austin Dispatch.

Sigma XI Meets—Officers will be elected, committee reports presented, and an address made by Dr. W. W. Yocum at a meeting of Sigma XI at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the home of Dr. W. H. Abbitt, president, 2309 Eighteenth street. Dr. Yocum will speak on "Root Development of Apple Trees in Relation to Soil Moisture." The organization is composed of several science faculty members of Texas Technological college.

Hufstedler To Ship—E. K. Hufstedler of E. K. Hufstedler & Sons is planning shipment of 20 cars of cattle to Emporia Kansas over the week-end. He will have a special freight train to Amarillo. Cattle will be put on grass near there.

Three To Face Judge—Two Lubbock girls and a Lubbock youth, two of them juveniles, probably will face Judge E. L. Pitts today. The girls admittedly telephoned a false fire alarm and the boy is charged with highway law violation.

Held For Plainview—A 35-year-old Lynn county man, one of four persons arrested early Wednesday night for Plainview officials, pleaded guilty of drunkenness and was assessed a fine of $50 in corporation court, said Walter Wharton, city recorder, who had ordered the man held for Plainview authorities. Plainview officials had asked the men be arrested.

Patient Dismissed—Carl Warner of Fort Worth, who suffered a hand injury Friday when working a concrete mixer at the library building being constructed at Texas Technological college, was dismissed from Plains hospital this morning.

To Be Dismissed—Mrs. Raymond McNeely of route 3, who underwent surgery recently at Plains hospital, probably will be dismissed Friday, it was said this morning at the hospital.

Haile Pleads Before League

which has given me hospitality and France to whom Ethiopia owed its original membership in the league," the statement continued.

"Members of the league, this is a reign of fear. The states that are members of the league are each one for himself.

France's foreign minister, Georges Bonnet, spoke when the Ethiopian statement was completed.

"We have done all we can," said Bonnet, shaking his head emphatically at the negus who sat with his eyes closed.

All Members "Sorrowful"

He said all the members of the council were "sorrowful" over the step which "must be taken."

"The presence of Emperor Haile Selassie increases our emotion," he declared.

"Ethiopia continues to climb her Calvary," the emperor's statement declared through the droning voice of Taezez.

"No humiliation has been spared her. I address a most energetic protest to the world.

As Living Symbol

"If it is true that the Ethiopian people can expect no aid from the league, Ethiopia will remain amidst you as a living symbol of a violated victim . . .

"Millions of men and women are following the drama being played today at Geneva, where the future of the League of Nations and my country are at stake.

"It is inadmissible to sacrifice a member state for the needs of one or several other powers. Only the assembly can decide our case."

Soviet Russia's foreign commissar, Maxim Litvinoff, surprised the council by indicating that his government, although not aboard the "recognition steamroller," would not oppose it.

Swede McMurry Is Named Head Football Coach At McKinney

John W. (Swede) McMurry, former teacher of physical education at Lubbock High school, will go from Gainesville to McKinney to serve as football coach next season, the Associated Press reported from Gainesville this morning.

McMurry has compiled an outstanding record as football coach at Gainesville.

Announcement that he would go to McKinney after four years as head of the Leopard teams was made Wednesday by Supt. H. O. McCain of Gainesville. He will succeed Noble Atkins, who was a star footballer at Texas Christian university.

McMurry taught in Lubbock three years, from 1931 to 1933.

Annual Sophomore Class Picnic Being Held At Mackenzie Park

Approximately 350 students were to leave Senior High school at 2 o'clock this afternoon to go to Mackenzie park for an annual sophomore class picnic.

Games will be played and a picnic supper served.

Sponsors were to accompany the group. They are Miss Alice Beckett, Mrs. Ross Ayers, Miss Eufala Wise, Miss Linioel Hilliard, Sam Lafieste, Miss Amelia Hargis, Miss Rosalie Knox, Carl Bailey, and Miss Ruby Atwood.

YM-YWCA Officers Elected At College

The board of directors of the YM-YWCA of Texas Technological college elected officers at an annual dinner at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday night in the college home economics tearoom.

J. I. Kilpatrick, who was re-elected chairman of the board of directors, presided. Other officers elected were: Dr. Fred W. Sparks, first vice-president; Mrs. William Dingus, second vice-president; H. D. Woods, treasurer; and Dr. A. J. Bahm, secretary. More than 25 members attended.

Mrs. C. M. Stanley, who has been executive secretary of the student "Y", offered her resignation. A committee was appointed to consider employing a secretary for next year. Members of the committee are: Dean Mary Doak, chairman, Miss Jonnie McCrery, Dr. Bahm, and Kilpatrick.

Members voted to petition faculty members of the college for pledges so as to be able to guarantee the salary of a new secretary. Dr. A. W. Young was made chairman and other members are Dean Margaret Weeks and Dr. Sparks.

On the great Arch of Augustus at Rimini, Italy, is carved the date "B. C. 271." The only question is, how did the men of that time know that the birth of Christ would occur in exactly 271 years?
