One Policeman, One Machine Gun

Cubans Find New Freedom Under Castro, Pastor Says

(The following article was written from Havana, Cuba, by the Rev. Russell Pogue, pastor of First Baptist Church who is conducting a revival and a series of one-night missions on that island.)

A trip to Cuba is far easier than the average American thinks. Friends were liberal with their advice, but I encountered no more trouble on the entire trip than I experienced two years ago on a flight to Portland Oregon.

One of the surprises of the trip was the fact that only six passengers boarded the plane in New Orleans for the flight to Havana. Upon arrival, the top deck of the airport was covered with people. Soon I felt rather important, but very soon after landing I learned that the Brooklyn Dodgers plane was circling the airport ready to land, and I realized they were the attraction. Customs and passports were finished in no time and we were in Cuba.

Number one topic of conversation is: What about the revolution?

Sure, the people will talk. In fact, they are anxious to talk. They are very happy.

I felt a bit out of place driving down main street in Havana and finding policemen with machine gun in hand instead of pistol in the holster. I asked the pastor about it, and he told me that before the revolution there were never less than four policemen together and each had a machine gun. The pastor also told me that the Chief of Police of Havana was at the Airport when I arrived. He said this was most unusual that he should be alone. Prior to the revolution the chief of police always took 30 or 40 men with him everywhere he went. When asked why he was alone, the Chief told the pastor that they wanted the people to trust them and so they trusted the people.

Everywhere one can see signs of promised agricultural reform. To speed this process many of the large businesses are sponsoring new machinery for farmers. There is a need for this reform. Outside of American owned and operated sugar cane farms there is extreme backwardness. An oxen and a donkey hooked together,

May 11 to 18 Clean-up Week in Wellington

May 11 to 18 has been designated Clean-up, Paint-up and Fix-up Week in Wellington. Mrs. Chester Fires, chairman of the beautification committee of the Wellington Chamber of Commerce, has announced.

"The Chamber of Commerce urges every citizen to take part in the campaign to clean up our town," she declared.

To help citizens in the work at hand, the city's trucks will pick up the trash Thursday and Friday, May 14 and 15, if the trash is piled up and ready to be picked up.

"The campaign opens Monday, May 11, and we urge that for yourself, your family, your friends, and your town, Clean up, Paint up, Fix up—and then keep it up," the chairman said.

A. Q. Bonner, Early County Resident, Dies

Another bit of Collingsworth County's earliest history slipped into memory with the death recently of Albert Q. (Smokey) Bonner, 81 of Dalhart.

Mr. Bonner was stricken while driving his car near his home and died within a short time.

Funeral services and burial were at Dalhart. A native of Mississippi, Mr. Bonner was 12 years old when he came with his parents to Wellington. His father, Frank Newton Bonner, had the first store here.

He was married to Miss Ruth Karnes, member of another pioneer family, in Wellington 55 years ago. Mrs. Bonner survives, as do three sons and two daughters: A. Q. (Shorty) Bonner Jr. of Dalhart; Deward Bonner of Phoenix, Arizona; Frank Bonner of Perryton; Mrs. Gilbert (Sue) Childers of Dalhart and Mrs. Thelma Gattoura of Napa, Calif. Other survivors are a sister, Mrs. J. M. Isbell of Dallas and ten grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Mr. Bonner moved his family to Dalhart 40 years ago and for 20 years operated a ranch northwest of that town. About 20 years ago he moved to Dalhart but retained his ranching interests and was active in the management until his death.

In recent years Mr. and Mrs. Bonner spent part of each winter in Arizona.

Trot Line Hooks Fish and Coon

Six county fishermen put out a trot line at one of their favorite haunts on Devils River last week and hooked an unlikely pair, a 22-pound catfish and a coon.

Les White, reporting the incident, said the coon apparently swam out to steal the bait off the line, was caught and drowned.

Making the trip were White, who lives east of Wellington, and George Stephens, Frank Lindsey, Willie Tow and Ople White, and Perry Sherrill, who was visiting here from California.

They returned Saturday, May 2, with approximately 100 pounds of fish. The group was near Del Rio.

Rain Totals 4.87 Inches During Year

Wellington has recorded 4.87 inches of rain so far this year, with half of this falling Monday afternoon and night, May 4, according to T. H. Franklin, Weather Bureau reporter.

Only 2.42 inches of moisture fell during the first 4 months of 1959, with January recording .02 inch; February .18 inch; March .28 inch; and April 1.94 inch.

Monday's moisture measured 1.93 inches up to 10 p.m., and .52 for the remainder of the evening.

Hail and Wind Bring Damage, But Good Rains Fall in County

Rain up to three inches broke the six-months long drouth, but not before hail stones as large as four inches in diameter had battered cars and rooftops in a strip across the county Sunday afternoon, and high wind blew down outbuildings and damaged more roofs Monday afternoon.

Approximately 700 of Wellington's 1050 telephones were out of working order Monday and Tuesday due to the high wind and rain, T. H. Franklin, in charge of repair, reported. Franklin, also weather bureau reporter, said that 2.45 inches of rain fell in Wellington Monday and Monday night.

A barn, two chicken houses and a shed were blown away at the John Coffee farm 5 1/2 miles north east of Wellington, the heaviest damage reported to one place from the two-day storm period. "Holes as big as your head" were torn in the roof of the Coffee house and a window was blown in, shattering glass over a room from which Mrs. Coffee had just removed her two small children.

Sammy, 6 and Linda, 11 months. The barn, 12x28 feet, was picked up by the force of the wind and dropped approximately two blocks away in a plowed field, and a trailer, 100 yards from the wreckage in the field. "It's all just kindling," Coffee said. An air conditioner was blown off the house into the field and a row of lightning rods peeled off the building.

About the same time, between 2:30 and 3 p.m., a shed was blown down at a tenant house on the Henard Gray farm adjoining the Coffee place.

Rain measured 3.2 inches in this area.

Damage from this blow started around the Bronco Drive-in, where fences were damaged. Utility poles were snapped off at the ground at the Cecil Street farm across the road. Outbuildings were damaged at the Fred Capps farm at Midway, neighbors reported. Large trees were broken in that area.

Hail, the largest reported in many years, fell about mid-afternoon Sunday, denting cars and damaging buildings from the vicinity of the Wilson Ranch west of Quail, along a north-easterly route to north of Lutie. The strip damaged was approximately two miles wide.

Roy Peggram, west of Quail, reported damage to his house and his pickup dented and the windshield broken. Lonnie Nolley, two miles west and north of Quail, said he had roof damage, as did Wayne Cummings and James Ross. Cattle on the Bourland and Ross Ranch were reported as looking bruised. At the Lewis Morris farm at Marella, luster furrows stood level with hail, the roof was damaged and trees stripped of their leaves. A pickup belonging to Morris parked at the Wayne Cummings place, was damaged by hail and the roof of the Cummings house was damaged.

An electric meter was reported beaten off the post at the Herman Mitchell home. Hail was lighter at the Monty Mitchell farm, but heavier to the east around the Carl Wischkaemper and Frank Coleman places.

North of Lutie, Austin Cantrell and Charlie Cantrell reported damage to their house, barn, pickup and car. Hail here, some of the largest reported, looked like slabs of ice, they said. John Coffee, whose farm buildings were damaged Monday, had his car dented and the back glass broken Sunday as he and his family

Mrs. Bill Adams, prominent young Childress woman, died Sunday, May 3, at 3 a.m. in a Plainview hospital, where she was undergoing treatment. Her death was unexpected.

Dial Service in February 1960

Remodeling Begins on City Telephone Office

Remodeling has begun on the Wellington office of General Telephone Company, the first step toward conversion to the dial system scheduled tentatively for February 1960.

While this work is under way, the commercial office will be located at 802 9th Street, next door to Lora's Beauty Shop, and all bills will be paid there and other business of a commercial nature conducted at that office, R. L. Brewer, district manager, said in Wellington Tuesday evening. The office will be open in its temporary location Monday.

Brewer, accompanied here by Gene Craig, northern division commercial superintendent, revealed building plans the company has for Wellington. Most of this will be interior changes, but the entire front of the building will be modernized. The large windows will be removed and the front will be solid brick. The present telephone booths will be removed and aluminum doors installed. The present garage will be taken into the building.

Commercial Contractors of San Antonio has the contract for the work, with John Butler as foreman for the Wellington job and others now under way in West Texas and Oklahoma.

Brewer estimated that the remodeling work will be completed around October 1, and immediately after that, installation crews for Automatic Electric, a subsidiary of General Telephone, will move in to install the dial equipment.

The commercial office will remain in Wellington after this system goes dial, Brewer pointed

Marvin Turner Dies in Wreck Near Dumas

Marvin Turner, 38-year-old Dumas man who formerly lived here, died May 2 of injuries received in a two-car collision near that town about 12:30 a.m. that same day. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Turner of Wellington.

Two other men in the car with Turner were killed and two were uninjured. The five, employed by Phoenix Drilling Company, were returning from work at a drilling rig 10 miles east of Spearman. Killed also were Irving T. Deck and Leon Boydston, the driver.

Mr. Turner died at 10:20 Saturday after brain surgery at the Dumas Hospital.

Highway patrolman said the wreck apparently occurred when the car driven by one of the boys moved onto the farm to market road on which the men were traveling and into the path of the Boydston auto. Both cars were demolished.

Turner grew up in this county and attended schools here.

His wife, Dorothy, is from Wellington, Kansas.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Sixth and Meredith Street Church of Christ in Dumas with Min. S. L. Edwards officiating. Burial was in the Dumas cemetery.

Constitutional Guarantees Are Ignored by Courts

→ → The Hosuton Chronicle.

"No person shall be . . . deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law." So reads the forgotten section of the Fifth Amendment.

It simply means that the government may not imprison a man nor take away his property except according to fair methods under the law. It means an accused man is guaranteed his day in court and the right to be heard in his own defense.

This precept has now been disavowed. The circumstances are almost unbelievable.

A farmer at New London, Ohio, John R. Donaldson, 48, was accused by the Department of Agriculture of growing 23 acres of wheat on which he was presumed to have produced 552 bushels. None of this wheat went to market, the Department concedes. However, the Department holds that this was 13 acres and 288 bushels over his allotment as granted him under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938. The Department, therefore, fined Donaldson $322.56.

The farmer hired a lawyer and filed answer, appealing the fine in the district court at Toledo. He prepared to testify that he planted less than 15 acres—the maximum permitted without allotments—and that the harvest remained on his own farm. He also prepared to show he had received no notice of allotment, which notice is required under the law to make an allotment effective.

United States District Judge Frank L. Kloeb threw out Donaldson's appeal, refusing to hear his evidence, and granted judgment against him. The Circuit Court at Cincinnati upheld Judge Kloeb. Donaldson's only recourse now is to go to the Supreme Court and ask whether he must stand deprived of his property without due process of law. Who can foretell what his chances are? The court's recent record indicates that if Donaldson had been accused of Communist subversion, such a summary disposition of his appeal, without notice and hearing, would have brought the court thundering on his accusers. But, in view of the court's disposal of the J. Evetts Haley and Stanley Yankus cases, his chances are probably slim.

And yet, good may come out of these usurpations. The very extent of this outrage on Donaldson must spotlight the fact that we are losing our liberties rapidly. Congress is our salvation, yet Congress can be awakened only by a massive protest from the people. The time to act is now.

Traffic Toll Worsens

→ → Abilene Reporter-News.

The Texas Department of Public Safety announced the other day that 50 more persons were killed in Texas traffic accidents during the first quarter of 1959 than for the corresponding period of last year.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director, fears this means motorists have reversed the trend which resulted in the lowest traffic death rate in the state's history in 1958.

January, February and March accounted for 551 traffic deaths this year.

The Safety Department gives some appalling figures relating to the deadliness of traffic compared with war.

In all our wars from 1775 to 1958 1,130,393 Americans were killed.

From 1900 when the first motor car death was reported, to 1958 the number of traffic deaths is placed at 1,264,704.

It took 183 years to compile our military losses; only 58 years to roll up an even greater toll on our streets and highways.

And these latter losses include male and female, young and old, the lame, the halt and the blind, the infant and the very old.

If war itself is hell—which of course it is—what term could you invent to describe the carnage on our streets and highways?

There Is a Bright Side

→ → The Taylor Press

The Chamber of Commerce of the United States finds a bright side to the much-discussed school picture. Since World War II, the number of teachers has increased more than 50%, and the average number of students per teacher has declined from 28 to 26. Where total expenditures for public schools, including construction, came to $2.9 billion in the 1945-46 school year, the figure for the current year is $14.4 billion. More than 600,000 classrooms have been added in the postwar period.

REPORT

Dear Editor:

I see where a select committee of U.S. senators has dug up proof that lots of people trying to make a living in the juke box business are being mugged and hijacked by racketeers muscling in on them. But my boiled blood neighbor says it don't look like Congress aims to interfere with this type of private enterprise, as long as it is carried on legally with paper unions.

Says he notes our brave lawmakers can get pretty sassy with Big Business and Southerners, but are very gut-shy about moving against murder, mayhem, etc., when these jolly sports carry a union label.

My hard-reading neighbor says he sees where one state has put a tax on dirt moving, which includes grave digging.

Says this looks like the ideal tax, as a man sure can't complain about being taxed to get his grave dug, and the state has got a cinch nobody will get out of paying it.

But I don't figure the taxlaying class is really much interested in single shot taxes like this, except maybe to get back at citizens who foil them by dying.

I see where the authorities out at Alcatraz are redecorating the interior of this home away from home in pastel colors.

My togethered neighbor says he notes a trend among penal institutions all over to strive for home likeness and he figures this will hurt their business by driving off lots of trade.

Says likely many of their customers go to these places just so they can have a room of their very own where they can't be dispossessed by feminine fudging.

I see where Texas is about to get a law passed which will make it illegal for people to buy and sell cars on Sunday.

My Sunday-shopping neighbor says this won't do much good, on account of outlawing this temptation just on Sunday will not save very many people from same.

Says, though, if this is an honest move to de-commercialize Sunday, he is for it. And he favors going even further, say, to the point of making it illegal to take up collections on Sunday.

I see where Vice Pres. Nixon wants a World Supreme Court rigged up to decide on which one has got to back down when two nations get to squabbling.

My dubious neighbor says if this scheme would work it ought to be cheaper than war and not so dangerous.

But he figures a World Supreme Court would suffer from the same ailment as our State and National Supreme Courts—the great famine of supreme grade men with the right connections to get the high judging jobs.

I see where the season is open again for grown men around over the country to get together and throw and bat a little ball around for money.

My baseball-bored neighbor says manhood used to could be proved by knowing how to fight and cuss, but now you have to know who is the Dodgers shortstop and be able to recite batting averages. Says too much newspaper space is wasted on baseball these days, and several times here lately it has even crowded out the daily Liz Taylor-Eddie Fisher bulletin.

John Quincy Adams was the only president's son ever to serve in the White House.

A Follow-Up Letter to the Honorable Commissioners' Court

Since the last TAXPAYERS' GROUP MEETING, as reported in our April 2, 1959 letter, further discussion has been held and it is thought that for comparative purposes the following approximate figures are now of especial interest in Collingsworth County affairs:

Collingsworth County Valuations were these figures as of Jan. 1:

The Honorable Commissioners' Court is to sit as a Board of Equalization May 11, 1959 and our TAXPAYERS' GROUP feel that relief by reduced values is morally in order and can be given so that the benefits can be had on the 1959 Tax Roll to be collected this Fall. This is the last chance to do so for the year 1959.

We respectfully urge that the overall valuation figure be reduced so that lower taxes can be set for 1959 on our Homes, Lands, Farm Equipment and Livestock. Our Group has contended heretofore, and still contends, that there is no reason why assessments on such property need be on a higher base in Collingsworth County than on like property in adjoining areas. For the year 1958 we understand the assessments were:

|--|-----------------|
| 1958 Assessment on Banks                             | $ 194,020.56   |
| 1958 Assessment on Gins                              | 157,095.00      |
| 1958 Assessment on Utilities, pipe Lines — Oil & Gas | 2,464,449.00    |
| 1958 Assessment on Railroads and Intangibles         | 363,505.00      |
| 1958 Assessment on ALL THE REST OF US                | 6,902,596.00    |
| TOTAL 1958 ASSESSMENT                                | $10,081,665.56 |

So far as we know and believe, Banks, Gins, Railroads and Utilities and the Oil & Gas Industry have their valuations in line with those in other nearby Counties; they have apparently protected their own interests and we commend them for having done so. We want all of these fine services to be on a fair basis too. We definitely feel, however, that the $6,902,596 Valuation on ALL THE REST OF US is too high compared to other Counties and that it is in this category that relief should come.

It is not a morally good answer to say that cutting this $6,902,596 figure might mean a reduction of the $17,015.36 amount for Salaries, Car Expense & Mileage it is proposed to pay in 1959 to the 4 Commissioners and the County Judge. WE HONESTLY FEEL THIS LATTER FIGURE SHOULD BE REDUCED AND HOPE THE COURT WILL JOIN WITH US IN THAT BELIEF AND ACT ACCORDINGLY.

The long suffering Taxpayers deserve some relief and the Honorable Court, sitting as a Board of Equalization, can give it for 1959 if they see fit to do so.

We believe that good morals require a minimum reduction on us of 1/4th and possibly a reduction of 1/3 or more. ONCE AGAIN, WE FEEL THAT THISWOULD BE A PROPER MATTER FOR CONSIDERATION by the Commissioners' Own COMMITTEE OF 22.

Respectfully submitted,

TAXPAYERS' GROUP

GRADUATE AT WELLINGTON MAY 22

Active in ag, sports and in the school social affairs are these eight Wellington seniors. They will receive their diplomas, along with others making up the graduating class, in the commencement Friday night, May 22. Pictures of other seniors are in this issue and still others

59 Wellington SENIORS

Sherrie Ann Smith

Twice chosen a Queen of school activities, Sherrie Ann Smith has been a gracious and charming leader in extra curricular fields.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Smith, 1511 Dalhart Street, she was born at Childress April 13, 1941, but Wellington is the only school she attended.

As cheer leader, Sherrie is responsible for much of the pep the students—and fans for that matter—have shown at athletic events.

She also was manager of the Skyrockette basketball team in 1958-59, a member of the Future Homemakers four years and the Library Club and Camera Club a year each.

Her top honors came when she was chosen Hallowe'en Queen last October, and Football Queen less than a month later.

Shorthand and Texas history are Sherrie's favorite subjects, and she plans to attend Draughon's Business College in Amarillo.

Retha Linville

Guiding the Skyrockette Basketball team through the bi-district championship this year was Retha Linville, who climaxed four years playing by serving as team captain.

Retha is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Linville, who live on West 8th Street. She was born August 12, 1941, at Earl, Ark., and attended school at Rounden Springs before coming here.

Retha has been a member of the Future Homemakers chapter four years and was parliamentary as a sophomore; she played volleyball two years; was a member of the Library Club and in the senior play.

Sports are her hobbies, and she plans to attend Draughon's Business College.

Jerry Belew

President of the Future Farmers of America this year is Jerry Belew, and in this office he has had the responsibility of many of the chapter's activities.

Jerry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Belew, 1310 Dallas Street, and was born here April 16, 1941. All of his school work has been in Wellington.

He was a member of FFA four years and played football two years. Talented in dramatics, he was a member of both the junior and senior play casts.

Jerry's favorite studies are vocational ag and biology. He is undecided as to what he will do next year.

Pat Tompkins

Pat Tompkins has been one of WHS' outstanding girl athletes, and this year alone she was on the all-district basketball team and placed second in tennis in District 5-AA.

From her four years of basketball, Pat was on all tournament teams at Shamrock in 1956 and 1957, and at McLean in 1959.

Other honors have come her way. She was secretary of the senior class this year, a Ticea officer in 1958 and YWA Sweetheart in 1957 and an officer of that church group last year.

She has been a member of the Future Homemakers, Camera Club and FTA and was on the volleyball team four years.

Pat is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tompkins and was born here January 18, 1941. Wellington is the only school she has attended.

English and science are her favorite subjects and leathercraft, music and art her hobbies.

Pat will enroll in a nursing school in Amarillo.

Bill Durfey

Rodeos are the hobby of Bill Durfey, who has helped put on those given by the Wellington Future Farmer Chapter. Like a number of other boys in this graduating class who live on stock farms, his activities have centered around the FFA chapter, of which he was a member 4 years. He is vice president this year and last year received the Farm Mechanics Award and placed first in the Greenbelt District radio broadcasting contest.

He was a member of FFA 4 years, on the livestock judging and chapter conducting teams several years, and attended the National FFA convention in Kansas City last year. Bill is a member of the Future Teachers.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Durfey of Loco, he was born here

December 20, 1940 and has attended only Wellington school. Science, including physics and chemistry, are his favorite subjects.

Bill was one of the two boys chosen to write the remainder of the senior series.

Next year he will attend Texas Tech, majoring in animal husbandry.

Cager Wilkins

Cager Wilkins' extra curricular activities have centered around sports, with football leading the list. He was a member of the Skyrockets four years, then participated in track three years and played baseball one.

Cager is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Wilkins, 1201 Bowie Street. He was born here October 17, 1940, and all of his school work has been here.

He was a member of the Future Farmers Chapter three years and the Future Teachers of America three years.

Physical education is his favorite subject.

Cager plans to attend either Texas Tech or West Texas State next year.

Jerry Scott

Jerry Scott has done outstanding work as a member of the Future Farmers of America, and this paid off in the number of prize winning animals he has exhibited in the Youth Project Show, including a champion hog.

Jerry is the son of Mrs. R. B. Scott of Loco community. He was born at Hollis August 7, 1940, and attended school at Loco four years before transferring to Wellington.

While his school activities center around ag work, he also was a member of the Library Club and the Future Teachers of America. He has taken part in FFA rodeos, stock shows, and plays put on by these organizations.

Biology, agriculture and algebra are favorite studies and he lists farming as his hobby.

Jerry will take his six-months active military duty immediately after graduating, under the National Guard program, then he plans to attend Central Christian College at Oklahoma City.

Grover Graham

Mechanically-minded Grover Graham finds the toughest subjects in high school are his favorites: physics, trig and chemistry. This has determined his choice of College, Lamar Tech at Beaumont, and the course of study he will follow.

Grover is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Graham who live southeast of Wellington. He was born here May 10, 1941, and all of his school work has been in Wellington.

His extra-curricular activities have centered around his ag work, and he has been a member of the Future Teachers of America and Future Farmers Chapter several years. He was on the chapter conducting team and a judging team.

An excellent student, Grover was chosen as one of the two boys to write the remainder of the Senior Series this year because of his grades in English.

Outside of school, mechanics are his hobby.

Doris Fern Wolf

Doris Wolf is a senior popular with her classmates and ready to help out with anything that comes along.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wolf of Loco and attended school there five years before transferring into Wellington. Doris was born at Hollis July 23, 1941.

Her activities include membership in the FHA, Library Club and Future Teachers of America. Texas history and speech are her favorite subjects and she says her hobby is having a good time.

Doris is undecided about her future plans.

J. Ben Winkelman, Amarillo, and his wife started out with 300 hens several years ago. Demand for quality eggs and desire for more income prompted the Winkelmans to expand. Today they have 2,330 hens, net $2.95 per hen.

"Producing eggs is just like any other business... we must be efficient and plug every profit leak," Winkelman said. "I'm producing a dozen eggs on only 3.6 pounds of Purina on mature birds. # Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

There are a hundred more chances of being injured or killed by a car than by a tornado even in the storm season. If you watched some of the driving that was done on the eve of the rain Monday afternoon you will realize this to be a fact. People have been killed by lightning in this area, but as far as we can find out there has never been a person killed by a tornado in Collingsworth County in the past fifty years. If a cellar is not handy it is safer to stay in the building where you are at the time the storm strikes. More people are killed by flying debris than exploding buildings.

If we did not have our tornado season, we would not have our good May rains either. The one Monday brought over three inches to many localities.

I guess John Coffee thinks that he has had it. First he was caught in the hailstorm near Lutie Sunday. The stones shattered his rear windshield, cracked the front one and dented the car all over. He says that some of the hail was as large as a baseball. Monday his home northeast of Wellington was hit by high winds or possibly a funnel which did considerable damage.

Jimmie Gillentine was in the office Monday. He says that people in Hereford think that D. E. is a second Will Rogers. That is the way things go. Everybody here just thinks of him as good old quiet talking Duard. Incidentally, Jimmie is going to be the Texas representative on the trip given by the Province of Ontario to U.S. editors each year. Among other things he will get to see the completed Saint Lawrence Seaway that has brought ocean going shipping to the very center of the U.S. and Canada. It is one of those trips you dream about but seldom get to take.

You need not expect a permanent postmaster for Wellington to be appointed any time soon. Of 990 postmasters nominated by President Eisenhower this year only 15 have been confirmed. It seems that the Democrats want

Too late then, for windstorm insurance

You can't get windstorm insurance after they start sending out windstorm warnings.

But, most days of the year, you can get in touch with us and get America Fore insurance to end your windstorm worries.

Windstorms don't look at the map anymore. In years past they used to pick on certain sections of the country. But now windstorms are whimsical and they turn up anywhere.

"Turn up" is right—trees, houses, business property . . . anybody's . . . maybe yours.

to leave open as many permanent jobs as possible until after the 1960 elections.

By that time Lyndon Johnson may be doing the nominating. Texas editors prefer Johnson as a nominee far above Kennedy, Stevenson and any of the others that have been named. And it is not because he is a Texan. They think he would make a far better president.

I knew that Castro was going to ask for money, but it took my breath away when he asked for $0 billion dollars for all of South America. Rev. Russell Pogue, who is in Cuba, writes that the people he has come in contact with have high hopes for a better way of life under Castro. But U.S. News and World Report says that the promised reforms have not started yet. About all Castro's lieutenants have been doing during his absence has been to continue the execution of followers of Batista.

My have we had a collection of different kinds of birds in our yard this spring. We had a pair of goldfinches visiting with us last week, and there was a whole flock of tiny yellow and brown birds. We decided that they must be some type of bunting or warbler. Jack Kopp's son found one nearly drowned after the storm and Jack says it may be a Mexican canary. Besides these we have seen red-birds, robins, three kinds of black-birds and a pair of brown thrashers and one of mockingbirds seem to have decided to spend the summer. Our St. Francis has had plenty of company this year. We do have a statue of the patron Saint of the birds in our yard.

Rocket Cagers Play Intra-Squad Game Saturday

The squad will be divided in two teams, the Reds and Whites. Team assignments will be made later this week.

Members of the junior class scheduled to play are Ronnie O'Rear, Max Courtney, John Duncan, Dickie Elbert, Bruce Crosby, Mike Rainey and Don Moore. many wagons and teams, much field work still done by hand, with the same work and methods used in our state, this land would produce enough for all, because of the year-round growing season.

Still visible are the beards of many men. These are the men who stayed with Castro in his rebel army and grew their beards. Now they wear them as a proud sign that they were in the revolutionary forces. Several of these men have attended our services. To mention the name Fidel Castro brings a broad grin to every face.

He is the same kind of hero that George Washington and Sam Houston are to us. Dr. Castro lives about two miles from where I am staying and I am to preach in a mission very near his home on May 5. His brother has invited us to lunch on that day. They have made themselves a real part of the people and the people love them. Members of the revolutionary army were school teachers, bankers, lawyers and business men, not the poor class. This indicates that communism will have no opportunity to control.

Cuban Peculiarities

The Modern and the Ancient! Many are the carts pushed by men, laden with everything one can imagine—pies, cakes, bread, ice cream, bananas, fruit, vegetables, or with a bevy of magazines. Honking at this man and his push cart is a diesel powered street bus that many people ride to work.

Modern conveniences of life are quite expensive. Butane is $11.00 in American money for a bottle of 100 pounds. Electricity is 9-1/3 cents per kilowatt regardless of how much you use. Telephones are prohibitive in cost and telegrams are sent from the post office.

No one carries insurance on his car here, and how they keep from running over each other is a miracle. The streets are from 18 to 27 feet wide, curb to curb. On the narrow ones parking is permitted on only one side, while on the wide ones parking is permitted on both sides, and they have two way traffic on both widths, including buses and trucks.

Women and children do not eat at the table with men. The women wait on their husbands and the children are sent outside at meal time. It is quite embarrassing sometimes to know how much to eat, knowing that mother and children must eat, too.

The New Government

So many changes have come with the new government that I cannot name them all. To the people of Cuba, the opening of the capitol building for visitors is very important. For the first time in seven years, the people of Cuba are free to call on their representatives, walk across the capitol grounds or have any vague idea of what is going on in their government.

Many have accused the new government of criminalities. This probably seems true to we Americans who are accustomed to our courts, but the authorized statement says that no person was executed who had not already been tried for killing innocent people to the Revolution. Many of the executions we heard about in the States were executions already authorized by Batista's government.

Appearing almost everywhere are signs saying, "Thanks Fidel", "Welcome Fidel", "Brave Fidel", for Fidel Castro asks the people to call him "Fidel" rather than Dr. Castro or Mr. Castro. The home that Fidel Castro lives in is a very modest home that does not even have a gate man. The home is very near many others outside Havana and the modesty under which Fidel lives convinces the people that he means to help all of them.

How good his government is must yet be seen, but the people's confidence will help it to succeed.

Kesler Released from Hospital

F. H. Kesler has been released from St. Joseph's Hospital, where he underwent treatment for injuries received when the tractor he was driving was hit from behind by a truck, driven by J. L. Singleton of Levelland.

Sheriff John Rainey said Singleton was a driver for the Heard Gin Company, and ran onto the tractor as both vehicles were going north. The accident occurred about one-fourth miles south of Lucky Corner filling station, Thursday, April 23, about 10:30 a.m.

out. The master office for dialing, however, will be Memphis, which also will serve Dodson, Lakeview, Hedley, Clarendon, Memphis and Estelline.

The local plant department will remain here. Most of the remodeling work will be done with local workmen, the district manager said.

Craig, who was in charge of the service department here prior to leaving 7 years ago, is again located at Memphis, having been promoted to northern division commercial superintendent January 1. He had been living in San Angelo, but Mrs. Craig and their younger sons, Larry and Don, will move to Memphis at the end of school. Their older son, Dickie, is a junior in the University of Texas.

Early Arlie Settler Here

Visiting in Wellington last week was Mrs. Frank Shannon of West Union, West Virginia, whose family was among the first group of 5 to settle in the Arlie community in 1886.

She was accompanied by her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Hardy, Johnny and Kay of Dallas, and they were the house guests of Mrs. Shannon's cousin, Mrs. Mish Dukeminier and Mr. Dukeminier.

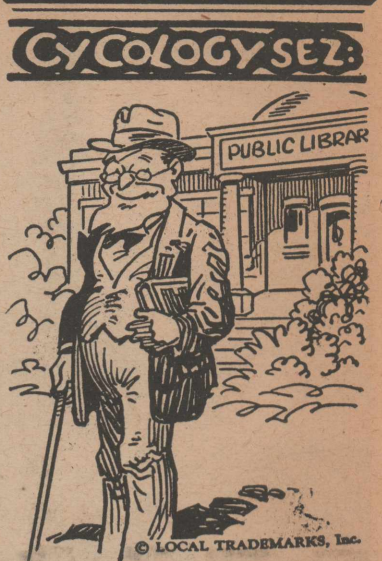

Mrs. Shannon left this area while still a child 65 years ago, following the death of her mother, and returned to West Virginia. She will be remembered by pioneers as Inez Showalter.

She lived in Washington, D. C. for 30 years, leaving in 1953, after the death of her husband. The house which her father, Charley Showalter, built for his family was moved three times from its original location and is now on the Jim Woods farm at Fresno.
