Brunswick And Berlin Areas Are Attacked

Channel Observers Said Force Biggest Seen During War

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, May 19 — American Fortresses and Liberators and fighter escorts, described officially as a strong force and probably numbering up to 1,500 planes, resumed the Allied aerial offensive after a five-day lapse today and struck at targets in the Berlin and Brunswick areas.

The attack precipitated a running air battle right across Germany to the sky over the German capital, German broadcasts indicated.

Disrupts Broadcasts

The ensuing bombardment — the U. S. Strategic Air force's 10th attack on the Nazi hub and the third on the capital this month—was so heavy that it disrupted German news broadcasts.

From the RAF and the USAAF Berlin has taken about 46,000 tons of bombs up to today.

Channel observers said the parade of aircraft setting out for the continent today was the biggest seen during the war.

While the American "heavies" were smashing at Berlin and Brunswick, small formations of Allied Expeditionary Air force and RAF Mosquitos, Typhoons and fighter-bombers attacked unspecified objectives in northern France this morning, taking advantage of clear skies to press home the attack.

Over German Capital

The German broadcasts said the bombers swept over the German border, crossed the much-bombed Hannover and Brunswick areas to Brandenburg — in the Berlin area — and finally appeared over the German capital itself.

It was the first sign of major air activity from Britain in six days.

There was slight enemy activity over northern Scotland last night, but no bombs were dropped, the air ministry said.

As the high altitude armada swept across Europe the Vichy radio said another air assault on northern France and Belgium — a likely resumption of the attack

Germans Mass Aircraft Along European Coast

Facilities To Drop Airborne Division On Britain Seen

LONDON, May 19. (AP) — The Germans have massed gliders and transport planes in concealed hangars along the European coast in numbers sufficient to drop at least one airborne division on Britain, the London Dailiy Mail said today, asserting its information came from "excellent sources."

The British do not rule out the possibility of such a German counter-invasion. The enemy troops might be assigned to knock out nerve centers vital to the Allied war machine.

Warning Is Given

Only last Saturday, Field Marshal Lord Ironside, commander of the home guards and former chief of the British imperial defense staff, warned that "it is quite possible that when we make our great invasion, the Germans will make some sort of effort to land in this country."

The Daily mail said the German aircraft reported assembled along the channel coast included some huge six-engined Dorniers, each capable of carrying 150 men. The paper mentioned medium gliders and Junkers 52 transports as also in the enemy array.

The DNB agency announced in a broadcast from Berlin that the Nazi air force intended "to smash Portsmouth, Plymouth, Bristol and the docks of London" — ports it described as "bristling - positively crammed to the bursting point — with all manner of invasion-equipment."

DNB declared that "in these ports the entire Allied invasion material has to be concentrated."

SUB MAKES DARING RESCUE—Crewmen from the U. S. submarine Tang, help aboard Navy fliers who were shot down off Truk during the April 29th and 30th air strike. The fliers made water landings, took to their life-rafts. During the two day operations, the Tang, commanded by Lt. Commander Richard H. O'Kane, USN, rescued a total of 22 downed fliers under the eyes of the Japs and brought them all safely back to Pearl Harbor. (Official Navy photo from NEA Telephoto).

Jap Base In Java Blasted; Allies Take Over In Wakde

Important Air Base Captured

BY RICHARD C. BERGHOLZ
Associated Press War Editor

Powerful Allied offensives in the Southwest Pacific and in Burma today brought control of the important Wakde area of Dutch New Guinea and sent jungle-hardened veterans into Myitkyina, main Japanese base in northern Burma.

American Sixth Army troops hopped more than 100 miles up the Dutch New Guinea coast from Hollandia for a speedy amphibious conquest of the Wakde island area, site of an important air base from which General MacArthur's forces might speed the clean-up of New Guinea and bring the Palau and Philippine islands under air assault.

Jap Defenses "Negligible"

Latest reports indicated the Americans had pinned the last Japanese defenders of Wakde against the edge of the 4,700-foot coral airstrip and were wiping out determined enemy mortar gun crews. On the whole, Japanese defenses were "negligible," MacArthur said.

Allied headquarters said the strip can be lengthened to 7,000 feet, providing room for heavy bombers which can roam north to the Palau islands, 695 miles away, to the enemy's big Dutch East Indies base at Halmahera 750 miles to the west and to Davao in the Philippines, 1,000 miles to the northwest.

In Burma, Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's troops exploited their surprise capture of the Myitkyina airfield to advance into the city's outskirts under artillery fire.

Air War Not Yet At Peak, Arnold Says

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 19 — To German Europe, battered by the combined bomber offensive, went word today from Gen. H. H. Arnold today that these air attacks, fierce as they are, have yet to reach their peak.

In his first press conference here in months, the commanding general of the Air forces presented to reporters yesterday the outline of a combat organization of 2,300,000 officers and men which doesn't know its own strength, but has an impressive record of achievement.

Results Are Unknown

"I don't know what an air force can do," said Arnold. "There never has been an air force constructed in the world before—an air force that had the power that we now have to use against Germany.

"Can we knock Germany out of the war? Can we break the morale of her people? I don't know, and I don't believe anybody else knows. However, we hope to get a pretty good idea of what can be expected in future air operations."

Summary Presented

Arnold used a map, a chart, a prepared statement and offhand answers to present this summary:

In all theaters, from the start of the war to May 15, the Army Air forces flew 746,353 sorties, dropped 468,391 tons of bombs, destroyed 20,174 enemy planes, probably destroyed 4,997, and damaged 6,978, while losing 6,154.

Army planes sank 320,489 tons of Japanese shipping in the first four months of this year.

Combined bomber missions in Europe now reach all German-held territory—the Nazis no longer can move their factories out of danger. But they have a "remarkable facility" in rebuilding.

Primary mission of the AAF in Europe has been to destroy the luftwaffe, an objective not yet accomplished.

Two Raids By Big Bombers Reported

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 19 — The Tokyo radio said today that Soerabaja, one of Japan's key bases in the Netherlands East Indies, had been raided twice by Allied bombers on the morning of May 17 and 18 and the Japanese account suggested that Allied naval and air task forces from India were carrying out another of their bold sweeps, this time in conjunction with U. S. Pacific forces.

The broadcast said some 50 bombers and fighters "coming from the direction of the Indian ocean" carried out the first attack.

Portion Of Task Unit?

"It appears as though the enemy came as a portion of a task unit based on an aircraft carrier," it added.

The following morning, Tokyo added, a string of bombers shot over Soerabaja "one by one" and appeared to be Consolidated bombers—such as operate from the Pacific.

A powerful task force, including an American aircraft carrier under the command of Admiral Sir James Somerville, commander-in-chief of the British eastern fleet at Ceylon, last was reported in action on April 19 when it attacked Sabang and Sumatra at the western end of the Dutch East Indies.

Powerful Naval Base

Soerabaja is the once powerful Dutch naval base on Java.

Tokyo said "some damage" was done installations in the first attack by carrier planes, but claimed that three of the attacking planes were shot down by ground defenses and two more were damaged in the second attack. No mention was made of any defense by aircraft.

JAP RADIO REPORTS ATTACK ON JAVA BASE

ADVANCED ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, May 19 (AP) — The Japanese - controlled Batavia radio announced last night that Soerabaja, Java, Japan's main base in the Netherlands East Indies and former headquarters of the Dutch eastern fleet, has been bombed heavily.

Soerabaja lies 1,300 miles west of Darwin, Australia.

FORRESTAL TAKES OATH

WASHINGTON, May 19. (AP) — James Vincent Forrestal, 52-year-old New York investment banker and broker who first learned about sea warfare as an enlisted man in the first World war, today took the oath as secretary of the Navy succeeding Frank Knox, who died April 28.

House Passes Bill For Navy Landing Craft

Additional Outlay Authorized For Naval Facilities

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 19—The House approved without dissent today legislation authorizing the Navy to build an additional 1,000,000 tons of landing craft, largely to be used in Pacific operations.

The program calls for an estimated cost of $1,800,000,000.

The House also passed and sent to the Senate likewise a bill authorizing an additional $65,000,000 for naval ordnance and production facilities, including $15,000,000 for development of rocket guns.

Money Bills Later

Appropriation bills providing the money will be introduced later.

A debate on the landing craft authorization developed into a fiery exchange on the question of responsibility for the disaster at Pearl Harbor.

Rep. Gore (D-Tenn) accused the minority party of opposing adequate preparedness prior to the Japanese attack, and Rep. Fish (R-NY) shot back "there's not a word of truth in that statement."

Administration Challenged

Fish challenged the administration to proceed with the court martials of General Short and Admiral Kimmel "and let the people know who was responsible for Pearl Harbor."

Fish said the court martials will reveal that Admiral J. O. Richardson, commander of the fleet, protested against concentration of the fleet at Pearl Harbor "where it could be attacked." Fish said Richardson was "removed" from his command.

Rubber Stock Will Dwindle

WASHINGTON, May 19. (AP) — Urging House reconsideration of its vote to liquidate the guayule rubber program, Rubber Director Bradly Dewey predicted today the nation's crude rubber stock would dwindle to 55,000 tons by years' end—less than half the present pile.

His statement was in letters published by Representative Anderson (R-Calif) and addressed to Chairman Canon (D-Mo) of the House appropriations committee and Representative Tarver (D-Ga) chairman of the subcommittee which recommended liquidation of the guayule project.

To Discuss Difference

Writing as House and Senate conferees prepared to discuss difference on an agriculture appropriation bill in which the Senate reinstated the guayule program, Dewey stated:

"I sincerely trust that the conferees of the House will concur to the Senate version of this section of the appropriation bill."

The Senate approved approximation of $5,420,000 for continuation of the project in western coast states. The House had previously approved merely appropriation of $3,952,585 to cover costs of liquidating the project during the next fiscal year.

"I do not take any position on guayule as a commercial postwar

Hearings Completed On Services Merger

WASHINGTON, May 19 (AP) — The House post-war military policy committee today completed four weeks of hearings on proposals for eventual Army-Navy consolidation after hearing a War department witness reiterate Army approval of the idea.

Whether a recommendation on unification will be submitted to the House depends on the committee's desires. Should the decision be against statutory consolidation, no recommendation would be necessary

The Army throughout the hearings has strongly advocated postwar merger of the services, while the Navy has voiced opposition to the proposal.

Nazi Retreat Is Near-Rout; Big Guns Abandoned

French, Yanks Smash Into Hitler Line At Center; Fleeing Enemy Troops Leave Behind Heavy Guns Of Two Entire Divisions

(By The Associated Press)

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples, May 19. — French troops and U. S. tanks broke into the Hitler line at its very center today in a smash toward Sant' Oliva, a front dispatch declared, as the Allies hammered all along the front at this new mountain wall manned by the Germans after "a disorderly retreat."

The German retreat approached but had not yet reached the proportions of a rout. Yielding the right wing of their vaunted Hitler line in the Formia sector, the Nazis were abandoning huge stores of equipment, including the big guns of two entire divisions.

Sant' Oliva—only four miles from Pico on the inland road supplying the Nazi front—is at the tip of a pie-shaped wedge driven into the mountains between Pontecorvo and French-captured Esperia.

A headquarters officer declared the Germans had made "a disorderly retreat instead of a mere withdrawal" between the Liri valley and the sea when they fell back from their smashed Gustav defenses.

Yanks Near Road Junction

Even as the French supported by American tanks threatened Sant' Oliva, U. S. troops struck close to the key Appian way junction of Itri, menacing the German supply road from the coastal end. British and Poles troops were pushing westward from their victory at Cassino on the northern flank.

It appeared likely that any breakthrough in the south to the outskirts of Itri would compel the Germans to pull out of the entire southwestern end of the Hitler line and swing their front into the mountain range running southwestward from Pontecorvo through Fondi to Terracina on the coast.

But such a line would be vulnerable to flank attack from the Anzio beachhead, where strong Fifth army forces are massed though quiet. It is believed the enemy has not had time to prepare fortifications on the Pontecorvo-Terracina route on a scale comparable with the Gustav or Hitler lines.

From all reports it appeared the fifth and eighth armies were off to an excellent start on the avowed objective of destroying the German 10th army.

(The German high command, reporting the heaviest fighting in the center, at Pontecorvo and to the southwest, acknowledged a "local dent" in the Hitler line at Sant' Oliva but said it was "sealed off." This indicated a French-driven wedge toward the mountain only some four miles from Pico, on the inlan road from threatened Itri.)

Poles of the Eighth army, pushing beyond fallen Cassino on the northern flank, fought within a mile and a half of Piedimonte, four miles west of Cassino near highway 6—the road to Rome.

On the central sector south of the Liri valley, Fifth army forces reached a point 17 miles air line

Germans Claim Invasion Delay

Schedule Is Said Upset By Weather

(By The United Press)

LONDON, May 19.—The German radio said today that Anglo-American armies of "unimaginable" size are massed in southwestern England for an assault on western Europe, but it asserted that the Allied invasion schedule has been upset by heavy storms over the channel area during the past six days.

Lt. Col. Alfred von Olberg, Transocean news agency's military commentator, said in a broadcast that Allied land, sea and air forces have not yet reached the state of maximum preparedness for the invasion.

He acknowledged that "enormous tension" still exists in Berlin over imminence of the Allied attack, although he insisted that the periods of favorable tides in the channel already has slipped by.

Plans Said Upset

"A crossing of the channel and amphibious landing operations on a very large scale can hardly be carried out in storms and torrential rains," Von Olberg said. "Weather conditions such as have been prevailing over the British isles in the last six days have largely upset all strategic plans."

Von Olberg said German labor battalions and civilian workers have rebuilt almost all of the damaged railway and road lines bombed by the Allied air fleets in their month long pre-invasion offensive and that the element of surprise has been removed from

Will Rogers' Body Moved To Oklahoma

CLAREMORE, Okla., May 19. (AP) —The body of Will Rogers is coming home to a resting place in the soil of his native state.

The remains of the famous Oklahoma humorist were taken from the Glendale, Calif., cemetery today and will be interred in a native stone crypt beside the Will Rogers Memorial museum here.

A brief private ceremony will be conducted. Members of the family requested that the time of the burial be kept secret. Less than 100 persons will be invited.

Arrangements to move the body to the hill overlooking Claremore were made by the Will Rogers Memorial commission, headed by N. G. Henthorne, Tulsa World editor, with the cooperation of Gov. Robert S. Kerr and Former Gov. Leon C. Phillips.

News of the body's removal was broken by the Tulsa Tribune in a copyrighted story.

Lew Wentz, Ponca City oil man, and Ewing Halsell, Vinita rancher, are in California and will accompany the body home.

Rogers and Wiley Post, globe-circling pilot, were killed in an airplane crash at Point Barrow, Alaska, Aug. 15, 1935.

Alabama Dean Visits At A&M And Austin

HOUSTON, May 19. (AP)—F. M. Law, president of the board of directors of Texas A. and M. college, said today that Dr. M. C. Huntley of the Southern association of Colleges and Secondary Schools "seemed primarily interested in affairs at Austin" on his recent visit to Texas.

Dr. Huntley, acting secretary of the commission on higher education of SACSS and dean of the University of Alabama, conferred with Law 10 days ago, Law disclosed, and asked, "what's going on up there at A. and M.?"

Law said "I told him," adding that the purpose of Dr. Huntley's visit "wasn't made very clear to me."

Dr. Huntley later arranged to confer with Dr. F. C. Bolton, acting A. and M. president, and the conference presumably was held in College Station, Law stated.

President Homer P. Rainey of the University of Texas revealed earlier that Dr. Huntley was in Austin last Friday and Saturday. Dr. Huntley recently conferred with Dr. Rainey and with John H. Bickett, chairman of the university's board of regents, at Dallas.

Russians Stage Surprise Blow

MOSCOW, May 19. (U.P.) — Red army troops, seizing the initiative on the southern approaches to Lwow, have captured a height of "great importance" in a surprise attack southeast of Stanislawow, the Soviet high command announced today.

The thrust enlarged the springboard from which the Russians are expected to launch a summer offensive against southern Poland and Hungary. The Germans abandoned 90 dead and wounded in their retreat.

On a neighboring sector, the Soviets killed nearly 400 Germans and captured 40 more in repulsing several enemy attacks.

Nazis Attack Bridgehead

The Germans also attacked the Soviet bridgehead on the west bank of the lower Dnestr in an attempt to regain positions lost the previous day, but fell back after losing 600 men and seven tanks.

In northern White Russia, three detachments of German infantry attempted a reconnaissance raid on Soviet positions southeast of Vitebsk following an artillery and mortar barrage. The Russians held their fire until the enemy was within close range, then opened up a strong barrage. The Germans left 60 dead on the battlefield and fled.

Planes of the Baltic fleet air arm were credited with sinking a 3,000 ton transport, damaging seriously another and shooting down nine enemy planes in a raid on an unidentified enemy port.

Turkish Pro-Nazi Leaders Arrested

LONDON, May 19 (AP) — Arrest of several leaders of the Turkish pro-Nazi organization, "Pan-Turanian," said to have been plotting to overthrow the present government in neutral Turkey, was announced in an Ankara broadcast last night which declared that martial law had been imposed at Istanbul.

The broadcast said that a series of raids conducted by military authorities had uncovered documents disclosing that the organization had been "building up a nation-wide organization, preparing plans and signing agreements aimed at the overthrow of the present regime."

"While there is yet no direct proof they are working under direct control of a foreign power," the broadcast said, "the indications are the organization was a pro-German one based on racialism and Fascist principles."

An Ankara dispatch two days ago disclosed that a considerable number of arrests had been made quietly throughout Turkey in an effort to break up an allegedly Nazi-financed society known as the "Gray Wolf."

(It was not brought out whether any tie exists between the two organizations).

More Than 20,000 Workers Are Idle

(By The United Press)

More than 20,000 workers were idle across the nation today despite temporary settlement of a major dispute between Detroit war plants and the Foremen's Association of America which earlier in the week had forced 75,000 men in that war production center into idleness.

The foremen had struck for recognition of their independent organization but agreed to resume work after the War Labor board and War department said the walkout of its 3,500 members, including supervirory inspectors of war goods, hampered the war effort and endangered the lives of fighting men.

A general strike of truck drivers, also in the Detroit area, wound up in a truce between CIO and AFL unions, but CIO workers in the Chrysler plant, where the jurisdictional trouble began over which drivers should deliver soft drinks, refused to recognize the truce. Nine thousand men remained idle in that plant. The union charged the men were locked out, but the management denied the charge.

Twelve Demo Senators Favor Wallace For Vice Presidency

WASHINGTON, May 19 (AP) — Forty-one Democratic senators naming their choices for the party's vice presidential nomination in an Associated Press poll today gave 12 votes to incumbent Henry A. Wallace and split the rest among 10 other possible candidates.

Fifty-three of the Senate's 58 Democrats were asked to name their personal choice for second place on a ticket most of them now believe will be headed by President Roosevelt. (Five could not be reached.)

Of those polled, 12 said they had not made up their minds; six supported Speaker Sam Rayburn (Tex.) of the House; five each voted for Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the majority leader, and Chairman Truman (Mo) of the Senate's war investigating committee, and four named War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes, a former South Carolina senator.

Three Suggest Gillette

Three members suggested Senator Gillette (D-Iowa) for the vice presidential nomination, Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) was the choice of two and the following received one vote each: Circuit Judge Sherman Minton, former Indiana senator; Henry J. Forty-Seven RAF Officers Shot By Nazis After Escape From War Prison Camp Near Dresden

LONDON, May 19. (AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden disclosed today 47 RAF officers had been shot by Germans after a mass escape from a war prison camp near Dresden on March 25.

Seventy-six officers participated in the break, Eden told the House of Commons. Fifteen were reported captured alive, and 14 still at large.

Some were shot resisting arrest and some in the course of a new escape attempt after they were captured, Eden said.

It was the first such episode of the war.

Government Profoundly Shocked

"The government is profoundly shocked by this news and I have urgently requested the protecting power (Switzerland, through which notification of the deaths came to the relatives and the Air ministry) to demand from the German government a full and immediate report of the circumstances in which these men met their deaths, and an explanation of its failure to report the facts at once to the protecting power," Eden said.

The men were members of the "RAF Dominion Allied" Air forces, the customary terminology embracing the RCAF, RAAF, RNZAF and other national groups in the RAF like the Poles, the Dutch and the Norwegians.

No Americans Involved

As far as is known there were no Americans involved.

The shooting was disclosed by German authorities to a representative of the protective power "in the course of a routine visit to the camp on April 17," Eden said.

First word of the fliers' fate came yesterday when relatives in England, given brief formal notification by the Swiss government of the deaths, began inserting obituary notices in the London papers.

Only detail given the families was the official "shot trying to escape."

The fliers, like most war prisoners, had made efforts to escape and had even mentioned them in letters to relatives."

2 tablespoons sugar
1 egg, well beaten
½ cup milk
4 tablespoons melted shortening or cooking oil

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and sugar, and sift again. Add egg, milk, and shortening. Stir only enough to dampen all flour. Bake in greased muffin pans in hot oven (425° F.) 18 minutes, or until done. Makes 8 large muffins.

For Spice Apple Muffins, add ½ cup chopped sliced apples with egg, milk, and shortening. Sprinkle batter in pans with mixture of 2 tablespoons sugar, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, and dash of nutmeg. Bake as directed, allowing about 20 minutes.

AUSTIN, May 19 (AP)—Pictures of President Roosevelt, John Garner, Jesse Jones and Tom Connally will come out of the Senate chamber to make room for the state Democratic convention Tuesday.

But the huge paintings of the battle of San Jacinto and the battle of the Alamo, hanging on the wall and guarded by brass railings at the back of the room, will stay in place.

Senate officials, estimating the hall could hold a maximum of 2,200 persons, arranged these housekeeping details while it appeared final that the session would be held where the convention arrangements committee wants it held—in the Senate.

Make Way For Chairs

The pictures of Roosevelt, Connally, Garner and Jones, standing on easels near the front of the room, will have to come out simply to make way for folding chairs, said Bob Barker, Senate secretary. Barker figures he could put 1,200 such chairs on the main floor, commenting that it would be a close fit and perhaps a little snug for bigbeamed delegates. Barker said he could seat another 1,000 persons in the gallery.

Charles E. Simons, secretary of the executive committee, said it was now estimated that there would be between 1,400 and 1,600 delegates.

That would leave room for 600 spectators, if everybody's maximum figures are correct.

Simons said he is proceeding with plans to hold the convention in the capitol under instructions from the arrangements committee, and that his original instructions have not been changed. Mayor Tom Miller of Austin, leader of a group advocating an instructed Texas delegation, has urged that the session be held in Gregory gymnasium or at a downtown park here.

Simons said that this would be the procedure for gaining admission to the hall as a delegate:

The state executive committee will make up a temporary roll of delegates from certified lists furnished by county conventions; badges will be issued to certified delegates from a desk in the rotunda. Only those holding credentials will be admitted as delegates.

Death Sentence Is Given Clay Whittle

CROCKETT, May 19 (AP) —Clay Whittle, 38, previously convicted for robberies with firearms in Ector, Lubbock, Midland and Winkler counties, has been sentenced to die in the electric chair on June 30 following conviction by a Houston county jury in the 1943 stabbing to death of T. E. Keeley.

District Judge Sam Holland sentenced Whittle, Texas prison inmate from Durant, Okla., yesterday.

Keeley was a fellow inmate of Whittle at the Eastham unit No. 1, where the stabbing occurred.

Demos' Battle Enters Courts

AUSTIN, May 19. (AP) — The pre-state convention battle of Texas Democrats entered the courts today.

On file in 98th district court here was a petition of Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum of Austin, member of the party's state executive committee, asking that Charles E. Simons, committee secretary, be restrained from interfering with her inspection of committee records.

Mrs. McCallum complained that on three occasions she had been denied permission to examine returns of county conventions, including lists of delegates, certified to the secretary for use in the state convention here May 23.

In Pro-Roosevelt Group

Mrs. McCallum is identified with pro-Roosevelt forces which are battling Democrats who favor sending an uninstructed delegation to the national convention in Chicago July 19. The national delegates will be chosen at the state meet.

The committee member alleged that she was entitled to examine records in the performance of her duties.

She alleged, too, that Simons on letterheads of the committee had sent out communications, a so-called "state party program," and a four-point resolution which purported to be acts of the committee which actually never had been approved by a majority of the committee called in meeting for the purpose of passing on them.

Majority Favored Resolution

Chairman George A. Butler of the committee said recently more than a majority of members contacted had favored a four-point resolution, including a recommendation for an uninstructed delegation, which was submitted to precinct and county conventions at which delegates to the state convention were chosen.

Mrs. McCallum's petition said that Simons is "undertaking to throw a cloak of mystery and darkness about the official returns."

A complete tabulation of the number of state convention delegates instructed by county conventions to support re-nomination of President Roosevelt and those which are uninstructed has not been made public. Simons announced recently that the returns are not complete and therefore have not been tabulated.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

JACKSON, Miss., May 19. (AP)—The Southeastern football conference, blighted by war drains on its manpower since Pearl Harbor, plans to field teams from 21 of its 12 schools this fall. Vanderbilt alone probably will not take on conference teams.

Simple Luncheon Is Satisfying

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor

Whether it's your bridge club of eight or a dozen, or a woman's club of 150, you can plan a fine luncheon party in line with the government's current low-point, no-point campaign. In this fashion, you can also avoid making your members starve at home in order to have a little party with their friends outside.

Women's luncheons, on the whole, tend to be too elaborate. They are too much of the marshmallow and maraschino cherry (and once there was whipped cream!) school. There's scarcely a female creature who isn't interested in keeping her figure slim. There's scarcely one, either, who doesn't like to entertain with elegance. The greatest elegance, the greatest sophistication—and the slimmest figures—are achieved through simplicity. When we've all really learned that, we will give up maraschino cherries on our salads and fussiness in our food and we will be far more relaxed and charming people than we were in the days when we got mixed up and thought that being elaborate was the same thing as being elegant.

Simple, But Beautiful

I offer here what seems to me a perfect luncheon for your club. It's well balanced. It's hearty enough to be satisfying, without making you feel overfed. It can be served either at table or buffet style. There isn't a dish suggested which you would find difficult to prepare, or to get the ingredients for. Except for the use of butter or margarine, there isn't a ration point needed to produce the whole meal. Here it is:

MENU
Cream of Chicken Soup with Croutons
Chiffonade Salad
Mixed Fruit Cookies

With the two first courses you might serve Melba toast or thin bread-and-butter sandwiches. If you choose the latter, use dark and light bread for variety of appearance ,as well as flavor. Here's the soup recipe of Giacomo Carisio, chef of the Casbah.

Cream of Chicken Soup
(For Six)

- 6 cups chicken consomme
- ½ lb. butter or margarine
- ½ cup flour
- ½ cup cream
- 2 onions, chopped
- 1 stalk celery, choped
- 2 bay leaves
- Dash red pepper
- 3 teaspoons salt

Saute onion and celery in butter or margarine until soft. Do not brown. Add flour and blend well. Add rest of ingredients and simmer gently for about a half hour. Strain through a coarse sieve. Serve with croutons.

A mixture of salad greens with varying shades makes a bowl of salad alluring to the eye. So does the inclusion of bit of cooked beets —the factor that makes the salad a chiffonade. And grated hard cooked eggs sprinkled generously over the top add much to color and flavor. Here is the Casbah's recipe for French dressing to go with this salad. The anchovy paste and caviar are, for most of us, out of a dream world, but I've left them in anyway, just to remind you of the good old days! They are in no way essential to the dressing.

French Dressing

- 1 tablespoon salt
- ½ teaspoon black peper
- ½ teaspoon English Mustard
- ½ teaspoon anchovy paste
- 1 tablespoon Russian caviar
- 1 teaspoon choped chives
- ½ cup vinegar
- 1 cup salad oil

Mix thoroughly all the ingredients but the oil. Then beat the oil in very slowly, drop by drop.

For a different flavor fling, use leftover canned corn in dumplings or topper for meat pie.

KITCHEN KORNER

Store honey in a warm dry place.

Keep oleomargarine covered in the refrigerator.

A dash of curry powder peps up creamed eggs, meat stuffed tomatoes or baked peppers.

Heavy limes usually have more juice than lighter ones.

Take the sun in short doses; parboiling the skin ruins complexions.

Wash neckwear in a quart-sized mason jar and save hot water and soap.

Crochet bright hat and bag combinations to go with black suits and dresses.

Wash grapes when ready to serve and store carefully to prevent bruising.

Yellow squash is good with diced cooked bacon, minced onions and tomatoes.

Salt added to dried fruits when they are cooking helps bring out their natural sweetness.

Thin peanut butter with orange juice to make a tasty sandwich or cracker spread.

A cup of dried beans or peas equals about 2½ cups when cooked.

Cook dried beans and peas over low heat in tightly covered utensil.

Baked beans are good served with cabbage slaw, tomato catsup or chili sauce.

Try substituting tomato juice or stewed tomatoes for milk in cheese souffle recipes.

Chili powder and garlic salt put new interest in pork pie and deep dish meat or fish pies.

Crushed fresh herbs give flavor to mineral oil dressing served with green salads.

A dash of salt and small wedge of lime or lemon usually enhance the flavor of cantaloupe, honeydew and casaba melons.

Nuts added to creamed or plain buttered carrots give new flavor, crunchiness and more nutrition.

To keep fresh peaches from discoloring, peel them just before serving.

Use stiff brushes to clean suede and buckskin shoes as a metal brush is likely to make holes in the fabric.

Take Advantage Of Plentiful Eggs For Attractive Dishes

With egg production topping an all-time high record this spring, it's time for us to take advantage of this nutritious no-point food and use it more often! Start serving eggs for lunch and dinner as well as breakfast . . . and give every member of the family one or two a day instead of three or four a week!

No other single article of food can be utilized in a greater number of dishes than can eggs. Whether alone or with ham, sausage or bacon . . . or in omelets, souffles or croquettes, eggs not only make dishes look more attractive, but make them more delicious and much higher in food value. Regardless of how they're served and whether they're white or brown shelled, eggs all supply excellent protein, vitamins, iron in which so many diets are lacking, calcium and phosphorous. With more eggs added to our diet, it will mean that much more protection for our health!

Get Quality Eggs

Your best assurance of fine quality eggs is to buy brands which you can rely upon to be of the same high quality standards every time you buy them. And if you buy them from refrigerated cases you can know that they have been kept cold and fresh. "Once a good egg, always a good egg" is far from correct, because eggs can be readily spoiled without proper storage. Be sure to store them in the refrigerator, but don't wash them first as you'll be destroying the natural protective covering, the bloom, which helps keep them fresh. Eggs should be covered and kept away from strong flavored foods as they'll quickly absorb any off-odors, such as fish or onions, that happen to be present.

Slow cooking with moderate and even heat is the secret of success in cooking with eggs and any dishes in which eggs predominate. Extreme heat will make eggs tough and rubbery every time. Two little hints that always make the preparation of egg dishes easier is to keep in mind that the separation of yolks and whites is easier when eggs are taken right from the refrigerator and that whites beat up stiffer and quicker if they've been warmed to room temperature.

Here are three delicious tried tested recipes with which you can begin using more and more eggs for more and more dinners!

SHIRRED EGGS IN STUFFED BAKED POTATOES

- 6 eggs
- 6 medium or large baking potatoes
- 2 tablespoons butter
- ⅓ cup (approximately) scalded milk
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- 1 cup grated cheese (approx. ¼ pound)

Scrub potatoes well, dry and brush with fat or salad oil. Bake in a 450° F. oven for 45-60 minutes or until tender. Cut a slice from top of each potato and scoop out center. Mash with potato masher or ricer. While beating vigorously, gradually add butter, milk, salt, pepper and cheese. Line skin with ½ inch of mashed potatoes. Using a fork or pastry tube, flute edges of skin with mashed potatoes. Break egg and drop in center. Bake in 375° F. oven for 20 minutes or until the egg has been cooked to the desired degree of doneness. Six servings.

EGG CUTLETS

- 4 hard cooked eggs
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 3 tablespoons finely chopped onion
- 4 tablespoons flour
- 1 cup milk
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- 1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley
- 1 cup bread crumbs
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine

To hard cook eggs: Simmer in water to cover for 20 minues and cool in cold water. Saute onion in melted butter. Blend in flour. Add milk gradually and stir until thick. Season. Cool. Cut hard cooked eggs into medium-sized cubes. Add eggs, parsley and 1/3 cup bread crumbs to cream sauce. Form into patties and roll in remaining bread crumbs. Brown in melted butter on both sides. Six servings.

HOT STUFFED EGGS

- 4 hard cooked eggs
- ½ cup chopped fresh mushrooms
- ¼ cup chopped onion
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 tablespoon flour
- ½ cup milk
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- ¼ teaspoon mustard
- Buttered bread crumbs

To hard cook eggs: Simmer in water to cover for 20 minutes and cool in cold water. Brown mushrooms and onion in butter. Add flour and blend. Add milk gradually and stir until thick. Add seasonings. COOKERY HINT

Here's a new way to season vegetables. Heat lard or drippings with minced onion, chopped parsley, a tiny piece of bay leaf. Do not allow vegetable to brown. Strain fat, store, and use as needed, on potatoes and other vegtables.

RATION RECOMMENDATION

Don't overheat fats! They become rancid more quickly and develop undesirable flavors. Lard can stand higher temperatures than some fats. Never heat lard to the smoking point. It can be used repeatedly for frying.

SALT SAVES VITAMIN C

Tests have shown that when potatoes are boiled in salted water, they retain almost 20 per cent more vitamin C than when unsalted water is used. This is doubly important in preparing war-time meals.

MORALE MEMO

Fats make food look and taste better. They make bulky foods more appetizing. Vegetables glistening with fat whet the appetite and satisfy.

Keynoter For Texas Demos Is In Doubt

HOUSTON, May 19 (AP) —Neither the supporters of an uninstructed delegation nor the pro-Roosevelt forces have revealed who they hope to elect as keynoter at the state Democratic convention in Austin next Tuesday, but it is expected that each side will have a general caucus in Austin Monday night when the matter will probably be settled.

The names of Former Governors James V. Allred, for the pro-Roosevelt forces, and Dan Moody, for the anti-fourth termers, have been mentioned.

Meanwhile, George A. Butler, state Democratic executive committee chairman, has declared that there will be no steam-roller tactics at the state convention while he is in charge of the meeting. He said yesterday all nominations for temporary chairman will be given a chance to be heard. He will call the meeting to order and preside until a temporary chairman is elected.

Contest Nets $421 For Negro Nursery

A negro baby contest in Mt. Vernon Methodist church netted $421.10 to be used in building a new nursery at 2304 East Avenue B, according to a report Thursday by Permilla Woods, nursery supervisor.

Tickets were sold, and the winner was selected by popular vote. Winning the first prize was Bennie Jean Whitfield, daughter of Bennie Whitfield. Second place went to Alfred Rogers and third to Lydia E. Jackson. Winners were presented cash prizes, and they in turn gave the money back to the nursery building fund.

The nursery children gave a program preceding the announcement of the winners. The supervisor, who is assisted in taking care of babies of working mothers by Juanita Long, said she wished to thank all who helped to make a new nursery possible.

Other babies in the contest were Moses Carter, jr., Connie R. Graves, Marion Joyce Johnson, Willie James Ford, Marillyn Ann Hobdy, Joe Willie Wright and Barbara Jean Johnson.

German 17th Army Died At Sevastopol

BY HARRISON SALISBURY
United Press War Writer

SEVASTOPOL, May 17 (Delayed)—This is the story of the death of an army—the German 17th army—which was literally blasted to bits on a gaunt, three-mile stretch of the Khersones peninsula waiting for evacuation ships that never came.

Correspondents flew here from Moscow to view the scene of the 17's death under blows so terrible, according to our Red army guides, that during the last days the Germans assigned a guard over Major General Gruner, one of two surviving generals, to prevent his committing suicide.

From the Red sandstone shores of Khersones peninsula, I saw hundreds of German bodies littering a 15-foot ledge along the narrow, rocky beach. These were the bodies of Germans drowned attempting to reach boats or killed in the final Russian charge.

Last Remaining Hold

That shelf was all of Russia that remained for them to cling to. Behind them was only the sea and their sunken ships.

Some of the stiffened bodies lay in the gently-lapping water, hands rigid over their heads as if saluting watchers on the ledge.

Other dead carpeted the three mile stretch. Into this peninsula, for 60 hours after the final capitulation of Sevastopol, were jammed 50,000 Germans. The slaughter in that area, roughly three miles long and one mile wide, was epic.

25,000 Prisoners

When the battle was over, shortly after 10 a. m. on May 12, some 25,000 were prisoners. The others were dead.

You couldn't walk more than a yard or two in any direction without stepping on a body.

Lt. Gen. Sergei Biriuzov, chief of staff of the Fourth Ukraine front and newly promoted and decorated for this campaign, told correspondents that between April 6 and May 12 the Germans had evacuated 25,000 men from the Crimea—little more than 10 per cent of the forces left to defend it.

The battle cost the Germans four generals—Air Lieutenant General Boehme, commander of the Fifth army corps; Major General Gruner, commander of the 111th Infantry division; S. S. Lieutenant General Kurt and Major General Reinhardt, commander of the 98th infantry. Boehme and Gruner were taken prisoner. Kurt and Reinhardt were found dead on the battlefield.

Military Junk Yard

The whole Sevastopol area looked like a military junk yard. The Khersones promontory was covered with wrecked tanks, field and siege guns. Along the shore were remnants of small rafts the Germans had attempted to use for escape.

Thousands of papers swirled in the dust—passports, military documents, letters, playing cards. Interspersed were other relics—German song books, prayer books, postage stamp albums, bullet-punctured blouses, broken helmets, heaps of ammunition.

Russian salvage crews swarmed over the battlefield like ants, sorting usable parts from wrecked ME-109 and FW-190 planes, trucks and tanks.

The city of Sevastopol itself is rubble. In a 90-minute drive through the streets, I saw only five buildings which appeared habitable. Mayor Vassely Yefrimov estimated that 10,000 civilians remain from the prewar population of 100,000. I saw only 30 civilians.

He told us that only 15 per cent of the city was still standing when the Russians abandoned it in 1942. He now estimated about only three per cent still stood. About 500 houses are habitable, he said, and a bakery and bathhouse have been set up. The military has established a 150-bed hospital and two clinics.

The harbor is a mass of wrecked hulks and mines which must be removed before ships can enter.

Employment Needs Are Being Reported

Lubbock employers are responding splendidly to recent appeals, in which the chamber of commerce joined, to report their employment needs to the U. S. Employment service, according to a report this morning by M. W. Waldron, service manager.

However, he reminded that the reports for each month are closed on the 20th. Therefore, he suggested that employers who have had employment needs during the past month should report them at once to the employment service office, 1207 Thirteenth street, telephone 4661.

If this is done, he explained, they can be included in the monthly report for the office which will show, among other things, the number of requests for jobs and for workers made to the service during the past month.

In the past, it was explained, many employers have failed to report their employment needs. As a result, the monthly reports for the office has indicated that a surplus of labor is to be found in Lubbock. As a further consequence, numerous labor recruiters from other cities have come to Lubbock seeking to obtain employes.

It is the expressed opinion of officials of the chamber of commerce that, if employers will make a report to the service of their labor needs, the monthly report will show a shortage rather than a surplus of labor in Lubbock.

Plainview Sets Pioneer Event

PLAINVIEW, May 19 (Special)—Highlighted by a parade and "old time" square dance, the annual Pioneer Roundup will be held here Saturday. Plans for the day's program have been completed, officials of the affair have announced.

The Pioneer Roundup is sponsored annually by the Business and Professional Women's clubs of Plainview. The spirit of the old pioneers will be manifest on the day, which is set aside each year for the old timers to put on their boots and kick up their heels.

The reception, scheduled from 11 a. m. to 6 p. m., will be at the Elks building with Mrs. A. B. Cox in charge. At that location those who do not wish to stir around will have a ring side seat for the parade which will move off at 1:30 p. m.

Towns To Enter Floats

The business houses of Plainview and surrounding towns will enter their floats in the parade and vie for honors. The parade this year is scheduled to begin at Junior High school, winding its way up Fifth, then north on Broadway and circling back on Ninth and Austin before dispersing.

Bands from Junior and Senior High schools will furnish the music for the parade, with the American Legion bearing the colors. The Texas State guard and Golden Wedding circle will have prominent places.

At 3 p. m. a rodeo will be held south of Wayland college which will be followed by a Chuck Wagon supper at the city auditorium. The rodeo will be presented by the Plainview Roping club under the sponsorship of the Business and Professional Women's clubs, sponsors of the roundup.

Barn Dance Planned

Another feature of the annual affair will be the barn dance in the city auditorium, beginning at 8 o'clock and will continue for an hour, followed by the "old time" square dance.

Frank Day will act as master of ceremonies for the square dance. The high school band will sound off with "Dixie" and play several other numbers. The Hale Center Square Dance club will perform special numbers, among them an old fashioned waltz number, the schottische and a square dance.

Musicians playing for the square dance, as well as the barn dance, will be E. C. and Harvey Hammit of Cotton Center, J. W. Shelton and Bill Short of Hale Center. Fred Lowe of Plainview will call. Pvt. Tom Locke of Plainview, stationed at Sheppard field, plans to be on hand to help with the music.

At the same time the square dance is in progress a dance will be held at Legion home. Sons of the West band will play for this dance.

News Briefs

Here for the purpose of interesting eligible women in this district in joining the Women's Army Corps are Lt. Jerome Michalson, S/Sgt. Harold Wainbeck and WAC Sgt. Janie Boldt of the Midland Army Air field. The Air-WAC team, making their headquarters during their stay at the Army recruiting office in the postoffice here, will call on all eligible women in this area during their two weeks stay in Lubbock.

Teacher was glad to oblige Thursday when a note explained lateness of two boys, Alton Slagle, 12, and Walter Bramlett, 13, Junior High school students. They had put out a threatening fire at 1712 Eighteenth street after a busy party line precluded their telephoning a fire station. Boy Scouts, they went to work with a garden hose, put out fire in a pile of shingles near a fence and a garage. "Might have been serious loss except for their quick action," said police, who were looking into possibility another boy might have set the blaze.

Six candidates will appear at 6:30 o'clock tonight for the Royal Arch degree, 30 minutes after supper is served to members, said W. Guy Casey, high priest of Chapter 248.

Air Raids Resumed

on the enemy's anti-invasion railroads and airfields — was underway.

The Germans said heavy air battles were being fought as the Americans pierced Berlin's defenses and indicated that the center of battle was over Osnabruck where the "heavies" bombed railroad yards last Saturday in the concluding strike from Britain in the month-long offensive.

Swimming Pool To Open After June 1

City swimming pool in Mackenzie state park will be operated as usual during the coming summer, starting soon after June 1, according to definite announcement at the city hall this morning.

Some doubt had existed as to whether operation would be possible, due to manpower shortages and a question as to the availability of chemicals used in purifying the water. The shortage of chemicals curtailed operations somewhat last summer.

R. E. Wimberly, coach and physical education director of Junior High school, again will manage the pool. He and City Manager Marlin R. Smith, jr., are selecting lifeguards and attendants from a list of applicants more than sufficient in number to complete the staff, they reported.

Softball Leagues For Adults Are Planned

Plans for the organization of adult softball leagues as part of the city recreation program were reported this morning by A. C. (Stumpy) Hamilton, assistant superintendent and director of men's activities.

Mrs. Grace Dyess, department superintendent, also announced that similar leagues are planned for junior boys and girls and for women.

However, plans for the men's league are receiving immediate attention. Hamilton reported that letters have been addressed to many of the larger business concerns in the city asking whether they would be interested in participating in such a league.

If organized, he added, the participating teams may be the representatives of individual business concerns or of professions and occupations, such as doctors, lawyers, abstractors, carpenters and the like.

Hamilton invited anyone interested in such an activity to call him, or Mrs. Dyess, in recreation offices on the first floor of the city hall, telephone 9346.

Russian Fighting

Poland reflected mounting German anxiety today that the Red army is massing strength to break a long lull in land fighting with a new smash on the central front along the shortest line to Berlin.

The Berlin radio reported "concentrated attacks" on rail yards and trains at Sarny, Rowne and Zdolbunow, the last about 10 miles south of Rowne.

Moscow dispatches, meanwhile, talked unofficially of preparations for big mountain operations on the Carpathian front and Berlin said a Soviet attack was brewing on the lower Dnestr.

Armour Ideas Make the Most of Meat

Armour's Star Bacon and Cabbage . . . Good!

Haven't you heard men rave over corned beef and cabbage? Well, just let the man of your house try this delicious bacon and cabbage dish! It's wonderfully full of flavor. It's hearty and satisfying. It's the dish that gives that "well-fed" feeling . . . yet is so thrifty you'll want to serve it often.

It tastes extra good because it's made with Armour's Star Bacon, the rich, mild bacon that is sugar-cured in its own juices, then slow-smoked over fragrant hickory and hardwood fires. So flavorful that its fine meat flavor extends through all the cabbage . . . makes just a little go a long way. And in this bacon and cabbage dish you need no butter (that's point saving).

To prepare the dish, fry 4 or more slices of Armour's Star Bacon slowly until crisp. Remove slices. Add 2 tbsps. sugar and 2 tbsps. flour to bacon fat. Blend. Add ½ cup water and ½ cup vinegar gradually. Cook and stir until thick. Season. Cook cabbage in boiling water for 5 minutes. Drain. Pour sweet-sour sauce over cabbage. To serve, place crisp bacon slices on top of cabbage. Serves 4.

Dies Promises 'True Picture'

JASPER, May 19 (AP) — Rep. Martin Dies (D-Tex), who recently announced his decision not to seek reelection, says he is "going to give the people of the United States a clear picture of what has been going on in Washington."

In an interview with a Houston Post reporter at his country home near here yesterday, Dies declared that between June 1 and 15 he intends to lay on the desks of American newspaper editors a documented denunciation of the New Deal. He added there would be disclosures more sensational than anything his congressional committee on un-American activities has ever yet announced.

Dies said they had never been able to convince the people how deadly the Communist menace is, because, he said, "the elements in the national administration which have hampered and opposed the committee have had too strong a control over the channels of public information.

Evidence Said Incomplete

"We have been criticized and ridiculed for years on the claim that we did not have enough documentary evidence to prove our charges irrefutably," the Texas congressman declared. "This time I think we will have enough evidence to give a clear picture."

Dies reiterated that a throat ailment which he said prevents him from making public speeches had prompted his decision not to run again, along with his wish to dissociate himself from the Roosevelt administration more thoroughly than he could while entered in a Democratic primary. Another factor, he said, was his unwillingness to raise and spend a campaign fund big enough to match sums he said the CIO planned to spend in an effort to beat him.

The post reporter said the election of J. M. Combs, former justice of the Ninth court of civil appeals and candidate to succeed Dies, appeared almost certain. The only other candidate against him is Sgt. Hugh A. Wilson, Camp Swift soldier and former Port Arthur refinery worker.

Session With Nazi Sniper Makes Yank Expert On Foxholes

TEMPLE, May 18 (AP) — Pvt. James D. Martin of Pitkin, La., says he is a "connoisseur of foxholes."

Try to avoid digging foxholes in sand, Martin advises.

Under treatment at McCloskey general hospital here for a spinal injury, Martin recalled his first foxhole on the beach at Salerno last Sept. 9.

"A German sniper and I played quite a game that day," he said. "I guess you could call it 'fun and duck.' He had all the fun and I did all the ducking.

"He fired a couple of shots into the side of the hole even though he couldn't see me. Now that's where I found out something about foxholes in sand. His bullets started sand dribbling down into the hole. Sand just slides in and begins to fill it up and the first thing you know you are out on top again.

"Getting rid of the sand without exposing myself was hard work, but I finally made it and relaxed for a breather. He fired several more shots. Down came lots more sand. That's the way the game went. First he shot, then I dug; then I dug and he shot.

'Escaped Prisoner' Is Tired Sailor

HOUSTON, May 19. (U.P.) — A jittery woman's "tip" that she saw "a German prisoner of war on the loose" in Houston yesterday afternoon sent scores of policemen, plain clothesmen and FBI agents, plus a pack of bloodhounds, speeding to a wood... section at the city's outskirt.

The officers carefully surrounded the 600-acre wooded section and cautiously began to close in. They trapped their prey—a young and be-freckled Navy seaman, who went into the woods to rest in the shade until highway traffic increased to better his chances of thumbing a ride to Galveston.

COMMANDO RAID

LONDON, May 19 (AP) — The Berlin radio said today that a British commando raid on the Aegean sea island of Paros was repulsed during the night of May 15-16. Paros is about 100 miles north of Nazi-occupied Crete.

FILES AS CANDIDATE

AUSTIN, May 19 (U.P.) — Charles T. Rowland of Fort Worth today filed as a candidate for associate justice of the state supreme court with Secretary Charles E. Simons of the state Democratic executive committee.

Durwood Bradley Is Speaker For Club

"Shall we as citizens of the United States preserve our constitution and hand it down to our children as our forefathers did, or shall we sit back at home and see it destroyed," asked Durwood Bradley, Lubbock attorney, in addressing the members of the American Business club in their luncheon today noon in the Hilton hotel.

Speaking on the recent supreme court decision of the negro vote question and the seizure of Montgomery Ward's plant in Chicago, Bradley stated he could accept the decision as handed down by that body of men, but could not accept the part which states that "we have the high privilege of choosing our rulers." He said we do not choose our rulers. We select our representatives.

He said that heretofore members of the supreme court had possessed both practical and theoretical experience, but now most of them have never had any practical experience as lawyers.

Bradley was introduced by Bill Cauley who presided in the absence of the club president, J. Ray Dickey.

Plan For Uninstructed Delegation Defended

LONGVIEW, May 19 (AP) — Merritt H. Gibson, member of the state Democratic executive committee, stated today "we want the national convention to see the possibility of the defeat of Roosevelt if the election is thrown into the House of Representatives."

In a written statement to the press, Gibson defended his proposal that Texas' 23 presidential electors be appointed with instructions to exercise their free choice among Democrats president and vice president unless the two thirds rule is restored by the national convention.

Gibson's statement was in reply to a statement by Everett L. Looney of Austin, a leader in pro-Roosevelt forces, who had asserted that forces favoring an uninstructed delegation for the national convention want to name presidential electors at the state convention May 23 who actually will vote for Thomas E. Dewey in an attempt to defeat Roosevelt in November.

News Brief

S. commissioner for the Lubbock division of the northern district of Texas. The negro, who was arrested in Snyder Thursday by C. E. Luce, deputy U. S. marshal, was released from the county jail here upon posting $250 bond today.

Rations For Moving Laborers Protested

The test also was filed with U. S. Senators Tom Connally and W. Lee O'Daniel, Congressman Lyndon Johnson, Governor Coke Stevenson and the commissioner of labor.

...Chairman Don... ...calling for "relief ...r in foundries is so scarce as to endanger production of airplanes and landing craft. In the critical class he listed forgings, ball bearings, lumber and textiles. He figured 300,000 to 400,000 additional workers are needed.

Nelson, Navy Secretary James V. Forrestal, and Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson testified for a measure which would permit the drafting of:

Men 18 to 45 into military or work units if they quit or refused farm or essential industry jobs without authorization of draft boards.

Work Units For 4-Fs

Men physically unfit for military service into work units, unless they obtained war jobs.

Forrestal said the legislation was merely a "statement of the obligations of citizenship," a declaration of "our duty to support the men actually go into battle."

Patterson agreed with him that the measure would reduce labor turnover and assist in recruiting workers, but said it would offer one cure-all for strikes.

Calling the recently ended strike of foremen in Detroit inexcusable, Patterson declared:

"Any strike in wartime on war production is inexcusable, whatever the merits. The sacrifice of the worker is trivial compared with the sacrifice of the men on the fighting fronts."

1,000,000 Men Affected

Col. Francis V. Keesling, Selective Service official, estimated the legislation might make at least 1,000,000 men not now in war work available for such employment. He accepted a statement by Senator Bailey (D-NC) that the bill would "stabilize about 15,000,000 men and probably make available for industry all they need."

The government, he said, would have direct control over all registrants 30 to 45 years old, in addition to all 4-F's.

Keesling's appearance ended testimony on behalf of the bill, although Senator Brewster (R-ME) said he would like to hear from the White House on the legislation. Opposition witnesses from the American Federation of Labor may be heard next week.

Outstanding Students Given Recognition

Outstanding students in attendance, citizenship, athletics and art were recognized in a program at the Central Ward school this morning at 11 o'clock, H. C. Bowlin, principal, announced today.

Track, softball and volleyball winners of annual playday were recognized along with outstanding art students and members of the school's safety patrol, he said.

Slight Rise Shown By Texas Payrolls

AUSTIN, May 19 (AP)—Texas payrolls rose only 1.6 per cent from March to April, while the number of workers remained virtually static, showing two-tenths of 1 per cent decline, the University of Texas Bureau of Business research reported today.

Eight cities recorded payroll gains, ranging from a fraction of one per cent in Waco to 6.1 per cent in Abilene, the report indicated. Other gains: Amarillo 1.8 per cent; Beaumont 3.2 per cent, Dallas 3.3 per cent, Houston 4.1 per cent, Port Arthur 2 per cent and Sherman 5.6 per cent.

Galveston and Wichita Falls showed payroll drops of 5.6 per cent, while Austin, El Paso, Fort Worth, and San Antonio showed declines of between 1 and 2 per cent.

Col. Marsh Sentenced By Court Martial

TEXARKANA, May 19. (AP) — Col. Raymond Marsh has been sentenced by a general court martial to be reprimanded by the reviewing authority, to be confined to the limits of his post or station at which he may be serving for six months, to be reduced in rank to the foot of the list of officers of his grade and to remain there for five years.

Col. Marsh, former commanding officer of the Red River Ordnance depot, was found guilty of 11 of 14 charges yesterday. All findings of guilty were for action taken without proper authority while he was in command of the depot. He was charged with misuse of funds for unauthorized construction.

Col. Marsh said he would report to Maj. Gen. Richard Donovan, commanding general of the Eighth Service Command, at Dallas Monday.

Sens Nudge Yanks For League Lead

Nats Have Won 12 Of Last 16 Games

(By The Associated Press)

Clark Griffith's night life diet has fattened the Washington treasury by some 100,000 admissions and today has lifted the Senators into a virtual tie with the Yankees for the American league lead.

Lodged in sixth place in early season after pre-campaign dopesters had touted them as the club New York and the rest of the loop had to beat, the Latin-tinted Nats have won 12 of their last 16, and six out of eight since they turned on the lights at Griffith stadium.

Today's standings show them with one more win, and one more loss, than New York, although nine points back in the percentage tables, after last night's 4-2 nod over Cleveland.

Leonard Wins Third Straight

Roger Wolff, Johnny Niggeling and Mickey Haefner have been three-time winners since the spurt started and Dutch Leonard added his third straight victory of the campaign last night on one big four-run inning.

Chicago's Thurman Tucker belted New York out of a 10-inning ball game, 8-4, when he tripled with the bases loaded off relief man Em Roser. Ernie Bonham was raked for 14 hits before he retired in the ninth after Wally Moses' circuit clout tied the score. Hal Trosky, continuing his successful comeback, moved into a tie in the home run derby with No. 5.

Rufe Gentry blanked Philadelphia with nine hits and batted in the only run off Detroit's 1-0 triumph over Don Black, and Oscar Judd clubbed two hits and scored three times while going the route for the first time in Boston's 12-1 swamping of St. Louis.

In the National Al Javery added another link to his tough luck chain by dropping a two-hitter to St. Louis. Javery, who has lost five in a row but never yielded more than four runs, blew this one on the first hit, a single by Whitey Kurowski driving in two runs for a 2-0 edge in the seventh. George Munger scattered five blows for his fourth triumph.

Ken Raffensberger of the Phils didn't quite match Javery in his three-hit effort at Cincinnati but he managed to win and snap Bucky Walters' streak at five by a 2-0 score.

Rube Melton of Brooklyn whitewashed Pittsburgh for eight innings but the Pirates got after him and Reliefer Bill Lohrman for runs and a 4-3 victory before a man was retired in the ninth. Coach Spud Davis, recently reinstated to the active list, drove home Babe Dahlgren with the decisive score.

New York at Chicago was postponed on account of cold weather.

Willie Pep Facing Tough Bout Tonight

CHICAGO, May 19 (AP) — Willie Pep, Hartford, Conn., who won the featherweight title when only 20 years old, faces his toughest fight since he was discharged from the Navy when he battles Frankie Rubino, Brooklyn tonight in a 10-round, non-title go at Chicago's Coliseum.

Pep is the second champion to fight on Promoter Jack Kerns' two Chicago cards since he began promoting here last month. The clever little Italian puncher was an 8-5 favorite over Rubino, a tough infighter who was expected to give the New York boxing commission champion a hard battle.

Pep, who has had three previous bouts since being medically discharged in February, considers the Rubino match merely a warmup for a proposed fight with Sal Bartola, N. B. A. title holder, in Madison Square Garden June 16 or 23.

Officers Elected By Cotton Bowl Group

DALLAS, May 19 (AP) — The Cotton Bowl Athletic association, official Southwest conference agent for control of the annual New Year's day Cotton Bowl grid classic, had a new president today, but the two main workhorses of the association were still in harness.

They were Chairman of the Board Dan Rogers and Secretary-Treasurer James H. Stewart, who nominally handles the bowl job as a sideline to being athletic director and head coach at Southern Methodist university.

New president elected at yesterday's annual directors' meeting was J. R. Parten of Houston, who succeeded to the spot vacated last year by the death of Earl B. Smyth of Dallas.

Other new officers included Jordon C. Ownby and Tyree Bell, vice presidents, both of Dallas.

When the Maritime commission was established in 1936, there were only 10 shipyards in the U. S. capable of building ocean-going vessels 400 feet long.

Sports Roundup

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 19—Overseas sports roundup:

PERSIAN GULF COMMAND

Sgt. Allen Lacombe, the No. 1 boxing promoter from Cairo to Teheran, types this report: . . . "Boxing in the P.G.C. has been pretty good in the last month or so. I took 22 boys on tour of the command. The camps we appeared in did not have boxing teams before we went there, but as soon as we left all of the camps started to organize teams . . . There is only one place that we can fight during the summer and that is Teheran. It is nice and cool up in the mountains where the camps are so once a month I have to put on 12 fights up there, matching boys from all over the command. The only rough part about it is that we fellows stationed down in the southern part of Iran have to travel almost 850 miles to fight. The change of climate is murder; you can hardly breathe when you get up in them mountains. And you have to travel fourth class or ride in box cars all the way, eating C rations, but the boys do not seem to mind it very much. In fact they raise hell if you cannot get them a match every time you go up there. When this war is over and all the boys turn pro and we have to ride the rods from town to town, up and down the kerosene circuit, we will be used to it."

NEW GUINEA

Recently received copies of the "Cockatoo," which describes itself as "the leading and most widely read morning newspaper in New Guinea," include complete resumes of major league baseball performances as well as racing results at "Fresh Meadows," a track where toy horses are raced with the aid of dice . . . And an accompanying letter from editor T/5 Clifford Garding says: "In our particular, but not peculiar, situation, we are unable to participate in athletics because the jungle is hardly the place for diamonds, courts, courses and athletic fields.. The sea is our playground and water sports are the main diversion."

ENGLAND

From a Canadian newspaper comes information that a Canadian army cricket team will play an American team on the famed cricket grounds at Lords, July 20 . . . The match already has led to speculation in London papers as to whether the game will help Canadians and Americans forget the more raucous game of baseball when they return home . . . From this distance, it seems more likely that staid Londoners never will forget the Canadian-American game.

NORTH AFRICA

Chief Warrant Officer Frank Hartley reports as follows to his old paper, the Louisville Times, on racing in North Africa: "It's confusing enough to buy a ticket which reads 20 francs, but which sells for 60 francs, or $1.20. It's even worse inside . . . If you're lucky, you can find through the use of sign language and GI French that favorites aren't posted and there aren't, as a result, any opening odds . . . So long as the race is going on, you can imagine that you're back in the States, because usually the races are good and it's just as difficult to see the backstretch as it is 'at home.'"

Junior Softball Loops Planned

Project Part Of Recreation Plan

With nine teams ready for the starting gun, the city recreation department is pushing plans for the junior softball leagues in the city for this summer, Curtis "Stumpy" Hamilton announced today.

The plans for the softball leagues will be to take care of the boys in the city who don't make the junior baseball teams and will afford the chance to play in some sport to a larger number o' the boys. The junior softball will be under paid instructors and supervision and will be run on the same basis as the junior baseball.

Age 15 An. Under

Efforts are being made to get the boys to line up their own teams, and any boys interested in getting up a team should contact Hamilton at the recreation office at the City Hall. The age limits for the league will be for boys 15 years of age and under.

Hamilton plans to carry on the grade school softball teams in the junior leagues, alon_ with whatever additions that can be obtained. The nine teams that have already been signed up include the eight grade school teams and Benson Addition.

Team Managers

Managers for these teams have been named, Hamilton said. The list of managers for the eams will include Manuel Gallegas at Guadalupe; Kenneth Penrod at Sanders; Jesse Fullerton at K. Carter; John Nelson at Dupre; Alfred Adair at Central Ward; Jimmy Sexton and J. C. Chambers at Hunt; Morris Turner at Bean; Marshall Pharr and Billy Wright at Wilson, and Melvin Lindsey at Benson Addition.

All games will start after 6 o'clock.

Two softball diamonds have been arranged in the city. One of these will be located at 22nd and Ave. Q and the other at 22nd and Ave W, Hamilton announced.

Hamilton also stressed an appeal to the boys that were interested in playing softball to organize their teams. The Recreation Department will furnish all the equipment.

Navy Baseball Team Wins 23 Out Of 24

NORFOLK, Va., May 19 (AP)—A record which many a minor league club and even some of their contemporaries in the majors, would envy has been established by the Norfolk Naval Training station baseball team.

The club, which began playing early in April, has won 23 of 24 games played—20 consecutively—including a 9-4 decision over the St. Louis Browns of the American league.

Gas cartridges are being used in New York state as ammunition against crop-destroying woodchucks.

No More 'Pullman Car' Tactics

War Solving Naming Problem For Owners Of Race Horses

BY JACK CUDDY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 19 — Until the war came along, stable owners in the United States and Britain went through as many mental gymnastics in giving names to their young hay-burners as did the baptismal beezarks of the Pullman Car company or the proprietors of "ye triple-decker sandwich shoppe."

But the global conflict was a god-send to racing, not only from the angles of attendance and betting, but particularly in the department of designating proper appellations for the juvenile geegees.

Until the outbreak of hostilities, owners of baby bangtails were so hard pressed in both countries to find new names for their nags that they began mouthing the names of prominent friends as they shattered magnums of champagne over the nags' noggins. This practice created lasting enmities when the human Joe Doakes-Fitzhugh and all of his friends kept betting on the nose of equine Joe Doakes-Fitzhugh, every time the latter Joe started—every time the latter Joe proved an also-ran.

Came the war, and a holiday for the owners of strings. (Pardon the plagiarism, David Rose.) All an owner in the U. S. or British Isles had to do was read today's newspaper, then he could rear back and jab a hat pin anywhere, and he had a patriotic handle for his latest foal.

Some owners, in service, had a wealth of nomenclature provided by their own experiences. For example, Lt. Col. C. V. (Sonny) Whitney became enamored of the RAF expression in India "pukka gen," which means "good news." Through a registrar's error the name was changed to "Pukka Gin" when hung on the colt that was winter book favorite for the Kentucky Derby, but which failed to run in the classic.

Whitney also gave off such handles for his hosses as Signals Bloke, Alamein, Bug Bug (mispelled from Bug Buq), Gezira, Good Show, etc.

In this week's 2,000 guinea classic at Newmarket, Eng., entries included Teheran (where the Axis fate was settled), and Growing Confidence. Other English races finds the fields studded with such hosses as Gremlin, Bomber, Lysander, Coastal Command, Seafire, Mosquito, Atlantic Ferry, Salerno, Star of Africa, etc. In deference to the American allies, names of British horses now include such as Yankee Doodle and Star Spangled. As a concession to the Soviets, one is called Russian Rose. Then there are such war generalizations as Anchors Aweigh, Cameron Highlander, Desert Patrol, Merchant Navy and Cadet.

This war or patriotic motif was even more emphasized in the early list of nominees for the recent Kentucky Derby. The list included: Ariel Flight, Ariel Game, Pilot Star, Smolensko, Navigate, Fire Power, Skytracer, Air Supremacy, Salvo, Shining Deed, Free France, Captains Aide, General War, Bomb Sight, etc.

We find only two instances of owners delving into the prospects of peace. One of the Kentucky Derby pre-race field was a filly named Peace Bells. She was scratched. In England, a recent also-ran was Peace Envoy. Neither had much chance under current conditions.

Hirst Kayoes Steen For Texas Title

WACO, May 19 (AP)—In a fight billed as a bout for the middleweight championship of Texas Chuck Hirst of the Waco Army Air field and Detroit, Mich., kayoed Howell Steen of Dallas and Houston in the fourth round of a scheduled 15-round bout here last night.

Steen, who hardly touched Hirst, was knocked down twice before the blow that finished him off.

In the six-round semi-final, Bob Kirkland of Waco won by a technical knockout from Bill Dillar of Juarez, Mexico in the fourth round. Thommy Lenoir of Waco won a six-round decision from Willie Barnett of Dallas.

Al Hostak, former middleweight champion of the world, participated in a three-round exhibition bout against Jimmy Clasby of Kansas City. Ray Martin of Pittsburgh won from Sammy Young of Los Angeles, and Lee Taylor of Dallas won by a technical knockout from Jimmy Sinclair of Fort Worth in the second round of a four round bout.

Three thousand fans saw the boxing program.

BRITISH BOUT SET

LONDON, May 19. (AP) — Jack London, RAF sergeant, has signed to fight Freddie Mills for the British heavyweight fistic title over 15 rounds here July 8. Mills holds a 10-round non-title decision over London, but the West Hartlepool giant said he was confident of beating Mills over the longer route. The heavyweight title is now vacant.

Number Of Prison Inmates Has Been Greatly Reduced By War

BY MARLOW AND ZIELKE
Associated Press Staff Writers

WASHINGTON, May 19 — The war has dulled the game of cops and robbers, put a crimp in larceny, and left prisons a little roomy.

James V. Bennett, director of the U. S. Bureau of Prisons, said today the number of inmates in the nation's prisons — federal and state — is about 120,000.

Four years ago, the Census bureau reports, it was 180,000.

War is the No. 1 reason for the decline.

Bennett explains it:

Economic conditions are better than in 1940. More jobs are available. Wages are higher. Thus the need or desire to steal diminishes. And "acquisitive" crimes like thefts and embezzlement, drop off.

Economic Conditions Are Factor

When economic conditions are bad, prisons fill up. In 1937 the prison population was about 200,000.

Certain types of crimes are harder to commit now anyway. Like auto theft. Automobiles are fewer, owners are more careful of them.

It is easier to parole prisoners in wartime. They find jobs and keep out of mischief or they go into the Army and are kept out of mischief.

The manpower shortage also makes parole boards more liberal in giving prisoners their freedom.

There is this factor, too:

A paroled man who goes into the Army from prison has a better chance at rehabilitation than one who goes directly from the clink into civilian life.

When he goes back into civilian life it will be as an ex-soldier, not as an ex-convict. The Army life and discipline help straighten him out.

Large numbers of the young men, whose daring and energy might help them try their hand at crime, now are hustled off into the military service where their thinking can be directed into other channels.

Bennett noted that federal officials have to contend with crimes that didn't exist in peacetime. For example, there are about 3,000 draft violators in jail.

Others have been sentenced for wartime frauds against the government and for black market counterfeiting, such as ration stamps.

Pneumonia attacks most frequently during winter and early spring, medical authorities say.

LEAVING out any and all personal feelings regarding politics, the New Deal's policies, personalities involved and everything else except the bare facts, the average American must be sorely puzzled over two recent events of national importance.

If the average American isn't puzzled over the difference in treatment of Sewell Avery and Montgomery Ward & Co., and of Robert H. Keys, president of the union called the Foremen's Association of America, he should be—whether he is or isn't a member, or a supporter, of union labor.

Sewell Avery, as head of Montgomery Ward, had his business taken over by the government, and he, himself, was dumped out of his office by American troops because of differences of opinion between himself and the New Deal government. The government—rightly or wrongly makes no difference here—alleged that Montgomery Ward & Co. was a war industry; that Avery's position was a hindrance to carrying on the war effort—so the government took him and his concern over, lock, stock and barrel, and by armed force.

Members of the Foremen's association struck, seeking union recognition by employers. According to no less a public figure than Lt. Gen. Henry H. Arnold, the strike cost our Army Air Forces a total of 250 sorely needed planes; threatened to interfere with invasion plans, and offered at a critical time respite to a badly battered German Luftwaffe. The strike rolled along for 20 days before General Arnold's plea to the union resulted in the strike's being called off.

The point, it seems to us, is this:

If Montgomery Ward was a stumbling block to the war effort, and IF the New Deal government was right in taking its business over and applying the mailed fist of its military in so doing, WHY, then, were not similar steps taken against the head of the striking foremen's group?

Even IF the Montgomery Ward attitude hindered the war effort, certainly it did not cost the Air Forces 250 planes, or even one plane, at a time when planes mean life and death to American fighting men; might conceivably mean the difference between a longer war and a shorter war; might even mean the difference between success and failure of the forthcoming invasion of Fortress Europe.

The New Deal's action in the Ward case, and its lack of action in the foremen's strike is, indeed, puzzling.

Do American laws apply differently to different individuals or groups?

Do "Executive directives" apply only to one segment of our population and not to others?

Can anybody explain the situation in fairness and with logic?

Somebody in Washington ought to try to do so.

COMMENT here the other day concerning relative rank of Army and Navy nurses as compared with women wearing uniforms of the WAC, the WAVES, SPARS and feminine Marines, struck a responsive chord. We find much agreement in our statement that large and active "public relations" departments of the newer women's uniformed bodies have served to obscure from the public mind the great—and in our book, at least, the more essential—war service of nurses.

But we found out something else, too, as result of the comment. We discovered that Army and Navy nurses have never been, nor are they now, recognized as integral parts of the services; that while the nurse has a "relative rank," she does not have an actual commission, such as given officers of the new and highly publicized women's services.

What is even more important from a practical standpoint, Army and Navy nurses are not provided with dependency allowances, as are women of the other services. That is most unfair, since it provides a benefit for a WAC or WAVE recruiter, for instance, that it does not provide for Army or Navy nurses living in the mud immediately behind the front lines and who are subject to all sorts of dangers—including bombings—that your natty home-fronter only reads about in the papers.

We bring this information before the South Plains public because we doubt that one person in 1,000 realizes this discrimination exists.

We also bring it out because there is pending in the Congress the Bolton bill which seeks to end the discrimination and give the Army and Navy nurse the same sort of break given other uniformed women of comparable rank.

Senator Connally and Representative Mahon should be asked by South Plainsmen to support the Bolton bill for the sole reason that it is just.

Certainly Army and Navy nurses are worthy of every right and privilege any other service woman is entitled to. The fact that they are not as well organized politically, or as well publicized, should not be against them. Instead, it indicates they are too busy at their essential jobs to take time off for political or public lobbying.

SO-CALLED "little things" sometimes are very important. Often, seemingly inconsequential matters play a leading role in a decision, business or otherwise.

We are not, at this time, able to call names—since this information was given us confidentially, to hold for the time being. But we have here an example of how "little things" often count more than "big things."

Two executives of a large business concern—one which fairly well blankets the nation—were in Lubbock recently, looking this city over as one possible site for their company's post-war expansion.

The men had looked over a number of other cities, too, and were trying to come to a definite conclusion about where to locate an important branch when conditions will permit. High in a corner room of Lubbock Hotel, the men were discussing various factors involved and one strolled over and looked out the window.

A moment later, he snapped his fingers.

"There's no question about it," he said. "We want to come to Lubbock."

"Why?" asked his companion. "How'd you happen to hit on a decision so quickly."

"Come over here," the first man suggested, and when his companion joined him at the window the first man explained:

"Look at the lines of parked cars along the curbs in every direction. Look at the lines of moving traffic. Study those cars. Every one is clean and most of them are shiny. Those cars tell me that not only are Lubbock business men busy and prosperous, but so are the people who live here and around here. They have pride, because they keep their cars up. This is an up-and-coming city and section—which is what we are looking for."

And that's the story of how a big concern chose Lubbock, over other cities, for one of its post-war layouts.

THERE are no hasty war marriages for Yanks who decide they are in love with Australian girls.

MILLETT

The Australian brides who recently arrived in this country pointed out that before they could be married the girls had to get character references, doctor's certificates, and letters from their parents. Their Yank fiances had to get recommendations from their commanding officers and "certificates of singleness," in addition. And there was a required wait of six months between the time of the application for permission to marry and the wedding ceremony.

Wouldn't it be a good thing if there were that much concern with the problem of hasty marriages in our own country?

• • •

REGULATIONS NEEDED

IF it is necessary to make such regulations for the protection of American soldiers abroad and for the protection of the girls of foreign countries — isn't it just as necessary to protect service men and American girls from too hasty marriages?

We hear so many stories of service men who marry young girls when they already have wives somewhere else — and of girls who marry two, three or four service men just to collect allotments.

And the plight of a high school girl who marries a soldier she has only had a few dates with is an old, old story.

Many of those tragedies could be prevented if the Army were as particular about the marriages of service men in this country as it is about their marriages abroad.

A WELL-EARNED REWARD

A well-earned reward for a group of men who did a fine job is suggested in the proposal now before Congress that Army commissions be awarded to the qualified pilots who conducted the war training program of the Civil Aeronautics authority through most of 1942 and 1943.

The task assigned to these men was trying and dangerous. It was their job to take the greenest fledglings and give them their very first training in a course designed to fit them for duty as Army airplane pilots. The civilian instructors are due a large share of the credit for the air supremacy that the Allies now hold in the war.

Their job was dangerous because of the material with which they had to work. The training of a fledgling always is risky business. It was a trying and frequently an embarrassing job because the instructors were civilians. Many of them wanted in the Air Forces, but were kept on duty as civilian instructors because that was where they were needed most. But most of them had the feeling that their friends were wondering: "Why aren't you, a pilot, in the Army?"

It is to be assumed, of course, that if commissions should be awarded to these men now, it would be because they still perform duties which would entitle them to such recognition. In such case, there can be no question but that their records of splendid and invaluable performance in the past recommend them for the commissions proposed.

Senate Probers Unimpressed By Army's Job

Truman Doubts IG's Worth

BY PETER EDSON
Journal Washington Correspondent

EARLY in the period of national defense, Gen. George C. Marshall suggested that a new division be set up in the Office of the Inspector General of the Army to keep an eye on construction and procurement programs. Realizing this was to be a far more expensive war than the last one, appreciating that some mistakes would be made, it was considered essential to keep a close check on the spending of billions of dollars in public funds.

EDSON

The result was the creation of a new Procurement and Construction Inspections division in the Office of the Inspector General. The question now is how well the inspections job on this effort has been done.

In the insistence on speed, with accomplishments counting first and economic efficiency second, it is perhaps only natural that some public money slipped through the fingers and down the drains.

There were congressional camp construction investigations aired throughout 1941. A $515,000,000 program for building 229 camps actually cost $818,000,000, according to a Senate report.

Then came a series of ordnance plant construction programs that did not make nice reading. After inspecting the Wolf Creek Ordnance Plant project at Milan, Tenn., the Senate's Truman committee reported that the War department had failed to conduct an adequate investigation simultaneously with construction, and that it even refrained from making a thorough check of matters referred to it. The subsequent report by the Office of the Inspector General was considered by the Truman committee to be an attempt to whitewash conditions there.

On the other hand, one high Army officer contends that the inspector general's report was a thorough investigation and its report one of the best ever prepared. The report was not made public, however, and was not even turned over to Congress, as all reports of the inspector general's department are considered confidential and not public documents.

• • •

NO CONFIDENCE

AFTER the inspector general had worked on several matters referred to the War department by the Truman committee, and after several of the officers, considered by the Truman committee to be incompetent bunglers, had been promoted, Senator Truman informed the War department that his committee could have no confidence in the investigations of the inspector general.

That was pretty rough treatment, but then, after the ordnance plant disclosures, there came a series of congressional investigations of aircraft procurement, truck procurement, the Canol oil pipeline and refinery project in Canada and Alaska, expenditures over and above appropriations for Pentagon building construction, air transport, leasing and purchase of hotels for Army use. All these congressional disclosures certainly did not add to public confidence.

In setting up the procurement and construction division in the Office of the Inspector General, it was given only a policy-making assignment. It was not set up to make the inspections itself, but to set a pattern for inspections to be made by others. It inspected the inspectors and inspected their reports. The small staff of 16 officers, now headed by Brig.-Gen. Leo J. Ahearn, could not possibly inspect all the war plants, all the contracts.

• • •

REFERRAL AGENCY

EVEN when the P. and C. division did find something wrong it could not make a full investigation itself. Instead, it could only refer its findings to the investigations division of OTIG to be run down.

In the case of civilian personnel or private contractors being at fault, evidence uncovered by investigations of the inspector general's department was of necessity turned over to the FBI or to the war frauds unit of the Department of Justice for prosecution.

Dozens, hundreds, perhaps thousands of cases involving both civilians and military personnel have been turned up by the inspector general's department and turned over to proper authorities. Many were small fry. But too many of the big fish got away, and that raises the question of whether this cloistered, grand jury-like procedure in the inspector general's department is adequate to deal with a vast multi-billion dollar procurement program.

American Fliers In B-26's Get Up Early To Start Day's Work

Ernie Goes With Yanks On Bombing Mission

BY ERNIE PYLE
Journal War Correspondent

A B-26 BASE Somewhere In England, May 19 (By Wireless) — The B-26 is a bomber which is very fast and carries a bomb load. In its early stages it had a bad name — it was a "hot" plane which took great skill to fly and which killed more people in training than it did in combat.

ERNIE PYLE

But the B-26 has lived down the bad name. The Boys of this squadron wouldn't fly in anything else. They like it because it can take quick and violent evasive action when the flak is bothersome, and because it can run pretty well from fighters.

Its record over here is excellent. Bombing accuracy has been high and losses have been extremely low. And as for accidents — the thing that cursed the plane in its early days — they have been next to nonexistent here.

The boys so convinced me of the B-26's invulnerability that I took my courage in my hand and went on a trip with them.

• • •

They Start Early

They got us up at 2 in the morning. Boy, it was cold getting out of our cots and into our clothes. We had gone to bed about 11, but I couldn't get to sleep. All night long the sky above us was full of the drone of planes—the RAF passing over on its nightly raids.

"Chief" Collins, the pilot, "Red Dog" Arnold, the bombardier, and I were the only ones in our hut who had to get up. We jumped into our clothes, grabbed towels and ran out to the wash house for a quick dash of cold water on our faces. The moon was brilliant and we needed no flashlights.

Red Dog gave me an extra pair of long drawers to put on. Chief gave me his combat pants, as I had given mine away in Italy. Also I put on extra sweaters and a mackinaw.

Then we walked through the moonlight under the trees to the mess hall. It was only 2:30 a. m., but we ate breakfast before the take-off. And we had two real fried eggs too. It was almost worth getting up for.

• • •

WE drove out to the field in a jeep. Some of the boys rode their bicycles. There were a couple of hundred crewmen altogether. At the field we went into a big room, brightly lighted, and sat on benches for the briefing.

The briefing lasted almost an hour. Everything was explained in detail—how we would take off, how we would rendezvous in the dark, where we would make the turn toward our target.

Then we went to the locker room and got our gear. Red Dog got me a pair of flying boots, a Mae West life preserver, a parachute and a set of ear-phones. We got in the jeep again and rode out to the plane. It was still half an hour before take-off time. The moon had gone out and it was very dark.

We stood around talking with the ground crew. Finally, 10 minutes before take-off time we got into the plane. One of the boys boosted me up through a hatch in the bottom of the plane, for it was high, and with so many clothes I could hardly move.

I sat back in the radio compartment on some parachutes for the take-off. Red Dog was the only one of the crew who put on his chute. He said I didn't need to put mine on.

• • •

Take To Air Fast

We were running light, and it didn't take long to get off the ground. I had never been in a B-26 before. The engines seemed to make a terrific clatter. There were runway markers, and I could see them whiz past the window as we roared down the runway. A flame about a foot long shot out of the exhausts and it worried me at first, but finally I decided that was the way it was supposed to be.

It's a ticklish business assembling scores of planes into formation at night. Here is how they do it:

We took off one at a time, about 30 seconds apart. Each plane flew straight ahead for four and a half minutes, climbing at a certain rate all the time. Then it turned right around and flew straight back for five minutes. Then it turned once again, heading in the original direction.

By this time we were up around 4,000 feet. We had not seen any of the other planes.

• • •

THE flight leader had said he would shoot flares out his plane frequently so the others could spot him if they got lost. Red Dog was half turned around, talking to me, when the first two flares split the sky ahead of us. He just caught them out of the corner of his eye, and he almost jumped out of his seat. He had forgotten about the flares and thought they were the running lights of the plane ahead of us and that we were about to collide.

"I haven't been so scared in months," he said.

The leader kept shooting flares, which flash for a few moments and then go out. But we really didn't need them. For we were right on his trail, just where we should have been, and everybody else was too. It was a beautiful piece of precision groping in the dark.

As we caught up to within half a mile or so we could finally see the running lights of other planes, and then the dark shapes of grouped planes ahead silhouetted against a faintly lightening sky. Finally we too were in position, flying almost wing to wing up there in the English night.

'PLEDGE' SNAPS ANSWER

LAWRENCE, Kan., May 19 (U.P.) —Marvel Enno, Alpha Omicron Pi freshman pledge at the University of Kansas here, had to have a quick answer recently when she returned from a scavenger hunt on which she was ordered to find a small black kitten as a "hell week" duty. The Pledge, bringing back an oversized black tomcat, promptly announced, "He's had thyroid trouble."

STANDARD FACTS

SEA POWER...
Unites the United Nations makes them strong
Look at your world map. Without the power to move freely over the face of the seas, what could the United Nations accomplish? They would be hastened—and destroyed one by one—because they could not help one another.

SEA POWER
STRENGTHENS FEEDS, TOO!

Consider feeds for poultry and livestock. Grains alone, without the help of quality vitamins, VITAMINS and FOOD MINERALS, are not "strong," meaning simply that rations of grain alone will not produce the maximum amounts of meat, milk and eggs per pound of feed. You waste time and money when you feed "weak" feeds. The sea is our richest potential source of the very proteins, vitamins and food minerals needed to balance up the grain and mill feeds produced on land, to help them give best feeding results.

STANTON'S FEEDS CONTAIN MANAMAR

The ManAmar contained in Stanton's Feeds is produced by Philip R. Park, Inc., San Pedro, Calif. This research organization specializes in "sea farming" . . . gathering, concentrating and blending always-healthy ocean fish (and their by-products) and "Sea Alfalfa" or Kelp. The fish are rich in proteins and also in health- and growth-promoting vitamins. Kelp supplies food minerals which may be lacking in land feeds.

Try Stanton's feeds, enriched with ManAmar, and increase your production schedule and profit. Get all the facts, today.

Daily Market Reports

Stock Market

RAILS, SPECIALTIES IN SPOTLIGHT

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP)—Rails, specialties again held the bullish spotlight in today's stock market while many industrial leaders found it difficult to attract bidders.

Another batch of dividends, mostly favorable, in addition to the generally hopeful earnings outlook, inspired further reinstatement of investment accounts.

Dealings picked up at intervals after a steady opening and turnover of around 600,000 shares was another of the tops for a month. Gains of fractions to a point or more were well distributed near the close.

Peaks for 1944 were recorded by Cuban-American Sugar, South Puerto Rico Sugar and Newport Industries. Ahead were N. Y. Lackawanna, Delaware Lackawanna, Morris & Essex, Santa Fe, Atlantic Coast Line, Southern Pacific, Southern Railway, Pepsi-Cola, Park & Tilford, National Distillers, Dupont and Johns-Manville. Steels, motors, aircrafts, oils, coppers and mail orders were listless.

Poll Of Senators

A. Farley, New York state Democratic chairman.

Of those unwilling to express a choice, three said they were against Wallace's renomination and one said that a southerner ought to be chosen. On the other hand, some of those who named others as their personal choice, said they were prepared to support Wallace if the President should indicate he wants the same ticket in 1944 as that which won in 1940.

Although Wallace was a two to one favorite over the next highest man, 29 votes were cast for other potential candidates despite his position as presiding officer of the Senate. This apparently represented a belief on the part of some of the senators that another candidate would strengthen a ticket more than Wallace, although he hails from Iowa, a doubtful state.

Dent Is Driven In Hitler Line

from their jumping-off place of the week-old Allied offensive by taking 4,129-foot Monte Faggeto overlooking the Itri-Pico road, the enemy's only communication link between the ends of the now-dented Hitler line.

French Driving Ahead

French troops yesterday captured the village of Monticelli, four miles northwest of Esperia, and drove on toward Sant Olivia, generally regarded as one of the strong points of the Hitler line.

The Allied command declared the Americans were in close contact with the battered enemy in the mountains forming the southern strongholds of the Hitler line and asserted that the Eighth army, "quick to exploit its successes" in the Cassino region, "pressed the enemy vigorously back against the line."

On the west coast, Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's Americans mopped up the few snipers left in captured Formia and a spokesman declared that other Fifth army units were "poised before Itri" without specifying how near that junction the advanced elements had progressed. It was disclosed yesterday, however, that they were less than two miles from the town even on the preceding day. Through Itri runs the enemy's only avenue of retreat from the Gaeta point sector to the southeast.

Nazis Destroy Supplies

A glow lighted the skies even as far south as Naples before dawn today and it was believed the Germans were destroying ammunition and other dumps at Gaeta from where their long-range artillery has been operating in recent weeks.

Allied warships poured shells against enemy batteries, dumps and roads west of that point yesterday in close support of the ground forces an official announcement said retaliatory fire from German shore batteries was ineffective.

Allied air forces yesterday and strafed the Germans in the battle area. At least 13 of more than 100 German fighters encountered in Thursday's raid on Ploesti, Romania, were shot down, headquarters said.

RAF Wellingtons and Liberators attacked points just beyond the battle line last night.

Back from the Tyrrhenian coast American and French guns rained shells on the Itri-Pico road.

French Working Up Slope

Near the center of the battle line the French worked up the slopes of lofty Monte-D'Oro, north of Esperia — an elevation officially described as a forward bastion of the Hitler line.

In the Liri valley and the hills immediately to the north the British and Poles mopped up scattered enemy resistance after the capture of Cassino and its famous monastery.

In the valley British and Canadian troops punched forward with tank support and extended the front line to a point south of the Aquino airport, some five miles from where the crossing of the Rapido river was achieved at the outset of the offensive.

A German broadcast betrayed increasing enemy fears that Fifth army troops on the Anzio beachhead might begin an attack in an effort to join the main body of the Allied forces in the Itri area 40 miles away, but the Allied command said the beachhead "continued quiet."

Pacific Fighting

helped capture the Myitkyina airfield, sent another column west of the city to block the supply line from Mogaung, 40 miles west. Other Allied forces were moving on Myitkyina from the north.

Approximately 80 airline miles to the east, Chinese columns were developing a pincers drive to clear a portion of the enemy-held Burma road and effect a juncture with Stilwell's army, thus connecting the Ledo and Burma roads and opening an overland supply route to China's scantily equipped army.

American airmen supported the Chinese drive in Yunnan province by attacking Tengchung and Lungling, principal bases in the area. Chinese headquarters reported advances on the western slopes of the Kaoli range in the flanking attacks on these bases.

"Extremely Optimistic"

A Chinese Army spokesman in Chungking pointed to the blocked Japanese supply lines and said "we are extremely optimistic over the situation in western Yunnan province and northern Burma."

But it wasn't so rosy in the north. Chungking conceded defenders of Loyang in northern Honan province are surrounded, but said Chinese still hold 80 to 90 per cent of the city and are "determined to hold out."

Japanese columns west of Loyang formed a juncture and pushed into the railway town of Shanhsien, only 49 miles from Tungkwan and the Yellow river gap which opens into China's rich interior.

Central Pacific planes pounded little Wake island, sank a 10,000-ton tanker and medium freighter in Truk's harbor and bombed Ponape, Nauru and isolated enemy positions in the Marshalls.

WASHINGTON, May 19. (AP) — Rubber Director Bradley Dewey told Senate liquor shortage investigators today he saw little prospect of a substantial diversion of alcohol from the synthetic rubber program to whisky manufacture within less than a year and a quarter.

Neutral Countries Are Being Watched

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

Continued success of the Allied drive in Italy will be bound to have a salutary effect on the European neutrals and wretched Axis satellites.

Indeed, when the Allied invasion of western Europe has been successfully inaugurated, and the assault on Hitler's fortress is underway from all sides, we're likely to see a sharp swing of the neutrals and Hitlerian partners towards the United Nations. This is the main idea, it strikes me, of the offensive in Italy — to repair the damage done to Allied prestige by the delay in cracking the Gustav line which now has been obliterated.

The point is, of course, that most of these little countries haven't been masters of their own fates but have been sitting under the fuehrer's big guns. Once the Nazi devil is trapped and their security is guaranteed, their moral support — and in some cases active aid — is likely to be flung to the Allies.

Use Strong-Arm Methods

Pending the arrival of that favorable moment, the Big Three —America, Britain and Russia — are compelled to use strong-arm methods in the cases of neutrals which are giving invaluable aid to Hitler. Among the most urgent cases is that of Sweden whose export trade with Germany includes ball bearings, which are among the most vital of war materiel.

Pressure from the Big Three has failed to move Stockholm.

Why does Stockholm take this stand? The answer from what I understand to be the Swedish viewpoint is interesting, though unsatisfactory to the big three.

They tell us that the vast majority of the Swedish people are with the Allies at heart. The reason they're not in the war on our side is because they have, right up to now, been faced with these hard alternatives — either to maintain neutrality or commit national suicide. One hostile gesture from Sweden and Hitler would have treated her as he did Norway and the rest.

The Nazis control Swedish waters and that only by Hitler's permission could the Swedes import anything from abroad by sea.

We've now reached the point where danger of attack by Germany has sufficiently lessened so that the Swedes might venture to cut off all trade with the reich —if the Allies could replace essential Swedish imports.

That day may not be far off.

North American Asks For Mexican Permit

MEXICO CITY, May 19. (AP) — Mexican newspaper reporters were surprised yesterday at the novelty of a roughly dressed North American applying at the ministry of industrialization and agricultural development for permission to establish himself as an immigrant in this country to work as a small farmer.

The applicant was William Haut, of Illinois, who, with a tourist permit, has been looking for a suitable place to work modest farm.

"From what I have seen of Mexico," he told reporters, "this country offers as good opportunities as Argentina. The only thing necessary for a man reared on the soil and not afraid of work to get ahead in this wonderful country is that he be allowed to toil without undue hindrance."

Haut said that his opinion the best land in the temperate region of Mexico was to be found in the state of Michoacan, where he expects to invest his savings in a small piece of property, which he himself will cultivate.

Atlantic Sailors Talk Mostly About Girls And Subs

BY HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 19—In the old seafaring days sailors used to swap tall tales of girls, shipwrecks and sharks. Now it's girls and submarines.

The German U-boat menace has been largely brought under control, but many merchant seamen still suffer from "torpedo jitters" as a result of the days when their service paid a higher price in lives than either the Army or the Navy.

It was a mixed crew which brought me here from the United States. Many who had been in sinkings displayed less fear than some who were making their first trip. They've been through it, and know what to do if it comes again.

The least worried man aboard was Boson Al Bybus, 26-year-old Glasgow-born welterweight boxer who has survived five submarine and plane attacks and believes he has achieved immunity.

'The worst worry was the bombing we got on the way to Murmansk," he said. "A German plane started to strafe us." Bybus got bullets in his left arm, leg and hand and had to spend six months in a hospital.

This apparently ruined his boxing career, which had included Madison Square garden bouts with Al Rother and Baby Arizmendi.

"After the war I'd like to go into politics back home," he said, smiling. "But I don't know whether I ought to mention it now or not. People might think I'm just punch drunk."

Another veteran of similar battle is junior engineer "Red" Dodge, of New Orleans.

Once, off Trinidad, "they were hitting ships all around us but we hadn't drawn a torpedo," Red said. "A fireman came up to me like a small child and kept asking, 'Red, where we going? Please tell me, Red, where we going?'

"They were popping those torpedoes all over the place then, so I told him, 'well, it looks to me like we are going to hell in a few minutes.' Course, we didn't."

A young crewman who was listening in said he half hoped our freighter would flush a submarine because "it would be exciting" to see it use it guns.

"Don't," said Red, "be completely ignorant."

Alphonso Johnson, 24, of Big Stone Gap, Va., was on his first and what he hoped would be his last trip to sea. One reason: He wants to get back to a girl in Bayonne, N. J. "I sure do miss her," he said. "She wants me to meet her after. Says she likes to hear hillbilly talk. She's easy pleased, that girl."

Mrs. Taylor Henry Is Granted Divorce

PALESTINE, May 19 (AP) — In an uncontested proceeding before District Judge Sam Holland Mrs. Alexina B. Henry has been granted a divorce from her war correspondent husband, Henry Taylor Henry.

Henry, former Associated Press chief of the Vichy bureau, recently returned from a year's internment in Germany. He will go to New York soon to re-enter the Associated Press foreign service.

PLANS FAR AHEAD

DARLINGTON, S. C., May 19 (AP) — A man who plans for the future is A. J. Howard of Darlington. He has enrolled his two young sons at the Citadel College in Charleston, S. C. One will enter in 1948, the other in 1956. Howard is taking no chances on their being the third generation at the South Carolina military college.

The U. S. government now offers 20-hour safety courses for war plant foremen.
