

Price Fixing Measure Introduced Today in Senate Session

STERLING HITS MURRAY

STATE BODY WOULD HAVE FULL POWER

Members Would Be Appointed by Governor, House, and Senate, One Each—Probe Delayed.

PLAN PROCEDURE

Administration Plan Is for Commission to Prevent Physical Waste—Adjourn Until Monday.

AUSTIN, July 17. (AP)—Start of the investigation of the oil industry by the lower branch of the legislature acting as a committee of the whole was delayed today while floor leaders conferred on the best method of procedure. The house was in session approximately one hour and recessed to permit a course of procedure to be outlined.

The senate was in session seven minutes and adjourned until Monday. One bill was introduced. It was by Sen. Charles Gaines of Bryan and provided for establishment of a commission of three to administer conservation laws. One of the members would be appointed by the governor, one by the senate and one by the house of representatives. Production would be limited to a reasonable market demand and the commission would be given authority to fix the minimum price of oil and natural gas at the wells.

Price Estimated

The price of oil would be 15 times the price of gasoline per gallon sold at retail, less taxes and transportation charges. The price of natural gas at the well would be 25 per cent of the retail price to consumers.

Two bills dealing with oil were introduced in the house and referred to the committee of the whole. One, regarded as the administration bill, offered by Rep. Alfred Petch of Fredericksburg and others, provided for a conservation commission of three appointed by the governor to direct administration of the conservation laws and was aimed primarily at preventing physical waste, according to its authors. No attempt was made in the bill to prevent economic waste.

The second house bill, by Rep. J. T. Cox of Groesbeck, provided that no oil or gas wells shall be drilled nearer than 600 feet to any completed well or any drilling well on the same or adjoining tract or within 300 feet of the property line of the tract. Provision was made for exceptions to the 300 foot rule in event vested rights of ownership were shown. The bill provided for administration of the law by the railroad commission.

Minor to Preside

A resolution was introduced shortly after the session opened by Petch to authorize Speaker Fred Minor to preside over sessions of the committee of the whole and to issue subpoenas for witnesses at the request of members. Each member would have the right to interrogate his own witnesses before turning him over for general examination.

This procedure met with objection. (See LEGISLATURE, Page 3)

Accidents Take 9 Lives Thursday

By The Associated Press

Nine persons were known to have been killed in a series of accidents over Texas Thursday.

Four died in an airplane crash, three were drowned, lightning killed one and another died in an automobile wreck.

The dead:

Major Charles V. Hart, 54, flight surgeon, Harrisburg, Pa., killed in a crash landing of a biplane.

Second Lieutenant K. Austin Rogers, 25, flying instructor, San Antonio.

Endicott Longacre, 24, flying cadet, Washington, D. C.

Mary Ethel Conant, 10, Angus.

Elita Doris Conant, 8, Angus.

Corra Lee Conant, 7, Angus.

Mrs. J. J. Lockhart, Tyler.

John L. Williams, 45, San Angelo.

Major Hart, Captain Chamberlain, Lieutenant Rogers, and Longacre died when two army planes crashed together in the air near San Antonio. The planes plunged from an altitude of approximately 400 or 450 feet. Neither caught fire, but the impact converted both into shapeless masses of wreckage.

The three Conant children were drowned in a tank near Angus, Navarro county. Mary Ethel and Elita Doris Conant were sisters, and Corra Lee Conant was their cousin.

Mrs. Lockhart was killed when the car to which she was riding left the highway near Dalville and crashed into a telephone pole.

Mrs. E. L. Norton, driver of the car and her three children, Helen, 3, Leo, 10, and Arthur, 5, were injured.

Williams, a farmer, was killed near San Angelo by a bolt of lightning. Williams and three of his daughters were chopping cotton, and were hurrying from the field to their home when the bolt struck him.

Burglars Active Again

Drug Store and Oil Station Suffer Losses.

Thieves and burglars made three costly raids in the Pampa community last night.

The Richards drug store on West Kingsmill was broken into, and burglars took $5 in change from a cash register. A large rock was hurled through the glass door at the front, and the lock on the door opened from the inside. The rock not only smashed the door glass but struck a costly glass display case, splintering it.

A 1929 Chevrolet coupe, bearing license number E1-9408, owned by the Rev. Joseph J. Wenderly was stolen from the inside. The rock not only smashed the door glass but struck a costly glass display case, splintering it.

Burglars forced an entrance into the office of Wilcox Oil and Gas company and took away with them an Underwood typewriter, a check-writing machine, and a Burroughs adding machine.

City and county officers are investigating the thefts. Sheriff Lon L. Blansett this morning advised merchants not to leave large or small amounts of money in cash registers. "Money in a cash register is always an inducement to petty thieves," he said. "If merchants would establish the habit of pocketing all change usually left in their cash registers, thefts would decrease. The cash register burglar does more damage while breaking in than he does after he gets in."

Starting of Rail Work Is Likely to Be in 10 Days

Guaranteeing of right-of-way in the Wellington district is believed to have removed the last obstacle in the way of starting of construction of the Pampa-Childress line of the Fort Worth & Denver Northern railroad.

Every mile of right-of-way has been guaranteed, together with terminal facilities, and the railroad has signed a formal contract with Childress. Denver officials are expected to be here soon with the contract they give in exchange for the right-of-way guarantee.

Mr. Debenport stated that the contractor who for some time has had a contract for grading the first 10 miles out of Childress, would resume work within ten days. Just before the deadline for the Denver to begin construction under its I. C. C. permit, the contractor turned the soil for about three miles. Then the work was held up pending completion of details on the construction of the line. The Rock Island backed out of its Quinal-Shamrock line and refused to enter into a joint construction agreement with the Denver between Wellington and Shamrock, trying to keep the latter out of their Shamrock territory. The move failed, and now the Denver Northern has the entire permit, together with a permit granted this week for two short industrial tracks in central Gray county.

Much Work

Pledges on which right-of-way guarantees have been based in the towns along the route must, in the next few weeks, be converted into cash in order that deeds for the necessary land may be given the railroad before actual construction can begin. This will entail a tremendous amount of work, but the intention is to place work-camps at various places along the route where deeds are obtained.

Construction will necessitate an expenditure of more than four millions of dollars, with about $800,000 being used in Gray county. Local labor will be specified in the general contract. It is hoped that the line may be completed in time to handle next year's wheat crop.

Additional work on the Gray county project awaits coming of Denver Northern officials with deed forms, contracts, and specific instructions.

Oil Man's Body Found in Grave

MARSHALL, July 17. (AP)—The body of Harold W. Cook, 35, believed to be a Longview oil man, was found in a lonely grove at Woodlawn, 11 miles north of here, at 3 a. m. today. He had been shot through the head.

A pistol was lying a few paces away from his body. Officers discovered his automobile nearby.

Numerous lease papers and checks, bearing the signatures of officials of East Texas oil companies were scattered on the ground. Residents of nearby houses said they heard a shot about 10:30 p. m. last night.

Officers were conducting an investigation to determine how the shooting occurred.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beverly are visiting at Wichita Falls.

PAMPA TEAM WILL ENGAGE BORGER THIS AFTERNOON

Loss Would Eliminate Entry at Amarillo—Ross Likely to Take Mound.

The Pampa All-Stars left the city this morning well aware that if they lost to Borger's Phillips "66" team in the Amarillo baseball tournament this afternoon they will be eliminated from active competition.

The "66" team has not played a game in two days and has one of the best pitching staffs in the tourney. Predictions are that the Borger team will take the game. The Pampa team lost a game yesterday afternoon to the Texola-Willow team because of a wild throw that let in four runs.

Ross, who allowed only four scattered hits in the six innings that he pitched, wants to take the mound again this afternoon and Manager Raburn Burke may consent. Edwards was almost the same as no pitcher at all in the first three innings.

The All-Stars believe that with Ross pitching they would have won easily yesterday if their fielding had been normal. The Pampans are aware that Borger's team is rated higher than any in the tournament, but they are by no means confident of losing.

One Is Killed in Battle After Mass Meeting on Death Sentences

CAMP HILL, Ala., July 17. (AP)—One negro was killed and five others wounded early today as posse sought leaders of a mass meeting near here at which Governor B. M. Miller was threatened with violence unless he released eight negroes under death sentence for an attack on two white girls near Scottsboro, Ala., last March.

Poses were organized after Sheriff J. Kyle Young was wounded seriously and his deputy sheriff, Jack Thompson, was hurt slightly when they sought to question Ralph Gray, a negro, who was slain by officers.

Police Chief J. M. Wilson said the five negroes, one of whom was wounded seriously, were shot in an exchange of fire with the posse. The negroes opened fire on the posse, Chief Wilson said, when attempts were made to force entrance into a house 2 miles south of here. Firing through doors and windows, the negroes sent the 15 or 20 possemen scurrying for cover under a hall of at least 50 shots, Wilson said. None of the possemen was injured.

Chief Wilson said last night's meeting 5 miles south of here was the second called in protest of the Scottsboro sentences, the first having been held Wednesday.

He said negroes attending the meetings told him they were to protest death sentences and that they threatened violence to Governor B. M. Miller unless he freed the negroes.

Hoover Is Urged to Pardon Fall

SILVER CITY, N. M., July 17. (AP)—W. B. Walton, district attorney and member of the sixty-fourth congress, has urged President Hoover to consider a petition by members of the New Mexico legislature asking a pardon for Albert B. Fall.

"Justice," Mr. Walton said in a telegram to the president, "has been more than satisfied in Mr. Fall's case if mental and physical suffering, bankruptcy and national obloquy are considered punishment."

EL PASO, July 17. (AP)—Albert B. Fall awaited with interest today a report on living conditions at the New Mexico penitentiary, where he is to serve a term on conviction of accepting a bribe as secretary of the interior.

Dr. J. H. Gambrell, personal physician of the former cabinet officer, revealed in Albuquerque, N. M., last night that he had visited the Santa Fe prison to inspect the quarters in which his patient is sentenced to serve a year and a day.

"I did it out of personal interest," Dr. Gambrell said, "nothing else."

PANGHORN AND HERNDON BARELY ESCAPE DEATH IN ATTEMPTING HEAVY TAKE-OFF

Ocean Trippers Will Lighten Load and Hop Off Again Near Midnight.

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., July 17. (AP)—Clyde Panghorn and Hugh Herndon narrowly escaped crashing in an attempted take-off for an Atlantic flight early today, and announced shortly afterward they would hop for Harbor Grace, N. F., about midnight, and from Harbor Grace continue to Moscow.

Their ambition is to lower the world-girdling mark of Post and Gatty.

The fliers explained they wanted to land at Harbor Grace by daylight. By taking off at midnight, they hoped to reach their Newfoundland destination before tomorrow noon. There they would refuel and take off for Moscow.

By breaking their flight to Moscow with a stop at Harbor Grace, they will be relieved of the necessity of carrying the heavy load of fuel which nearly caused them to crash on their attempted take-off this morning.

They failed to go up in the air after speeding their plane down the mile long runway at Roosevelt field, No. 1, and to save them from disaster, dumped part of their gasoline.

They started off at 5:30 a. m., Central Standard Time, rolled the full runway, went over an embankment and continued on the field No. 2, in hopes of rising with their 8,000-pound load. With a hanger and wires endangering them, the fliers dumped their fuel and waded to rise above the building, averting a crash by scant inches.

They then landed and taxied the plane back to their starting point.

An escort plane, which took off when they started, with Mrs. Dixon Boardman, mother of Herndon, as a passenger, landed before the big

SHARP MESSAGES

Toll Route Is Shut Through Detouring of Motorists to Another Avenue 30 Miles Away Today.

AUSTIN, July 17. (AP)—Governor Ross S. Sterling today wired Governor William H. Murray of Oklahoma that "I feel you have extended your jurisdiction beyond all reason" in connection with the Red river bridge controversy.

Governor Sterling dictated the wire over telephone to Pat Dougherty, his secretary, from Mineral Wells, where he had gone to inspect the cavalry brigade of the Texas National guard.

"The highway commission of Texas has been served with a federal injunction writing prohibiting the opening of the Red river bridge," Governor Sterling said. "Understand your highway department has crossed into Texas and torn up approaches to the bridge. I feel you have extended your jurisdiction beyond all reason."

"Won't Join You"

"Certainly I cannot join you in attempting to make a federal court injunction inoperative. At the request of the Texas highway commission I have sent state rangers to protect Texas highway employees while they are endeavoring to obey the federal court's injunction."

The governor did not say how many rangers were sent, but from other sources it was learned that traffic was not being allowed to pass over the Texas side of the free bridge north of Denison. Oklahoma authorities had closed their side of the parallel toll bridge which meant that traffic was having to detour via the Preston free bridge which increased the distance between Denison and Durant, Okla., about 7 miles.

DENISON, July 17. (AP)—Under the personal supervision of Adjutant General W. W. Sterling and Capt. Tom Hickman, of the Texas Rangers, highway department employees early today rebuilt the barrier at the Texas end of the new highway No. 6 free bridge across the Red river, which was removed last yesterday by order of Governor W. H. Murray of Oklahoma.

"We are as anxious to see a free bridge opened here as anybody," he declared. "But we want it done lawfully."

News of the bridge opening spread rapidly last night and within short time an unbroken stream of automobiles were filing across the span. A 45-minute check at the peak of

FRANCE STANDS ALOOF AS NATIONS PLAN CONFERENCE

Rioting by Communists Adding to Germany's Troubles; Many Wounded

By The Associated Press

American statesmen are taking an active hand in the rapidly developing European situation, with Secretary Stimson attending conferences in Paris and Ambassador Hugh S. Gibson sitting in on the London meeting of Young plan experts.

The Paris meeting concerned itself principally with financial details of helping Germany, awaiting arrival of Chancellor Brüning and Foreign Minister Curtius who are expected tomorrow.

The Young plan experts adjourned until after the meeting of representatives of seven nations at London on Monday. There appeared to be a possibility that session might be postponed for a day or so until conversations at Paris are concluded.

Session Killed

In Berlin the Reichstag steering committee voted down a demand for an extra session and quiet appeared to have been restored in the Ruhr where there were serious communist riots overnight.

PARIS, July 17. (AP)—The ministers of France, America and England are devoting their day to putting the finishing touches on a plan of French origin which it hopes will extricate Germany from her critical financial position.

The outlines of the scheme are understood to have been sent already to Berlin, so that when Chancellor Brüning and Foreign Minister Curtius arrive tomorrow

Hungarian Fliers Rest Over Beer Tankards Today

BUDAPEST, Hungary, July 17. (AP)—Focusing the world's spotlight on their native land with the first trans-Atlantic flight from America to Hungary, Captains Alexander Magyar and George Endres gave themselves up today to the pleasures of their countrymen.

They landed the monoplane "Justice for Hungary" near the village of Biske, 14 miles from Budapest, at 7:40 p. m. (12:40 p. m. C. S. T.) last night, missing their goal by the scantiest of margins because their fuel ran out. They had flown 3,239 miles from Harbor Grace, N. F., in 26 hours and 22 minutes since Wednesday noon after a short hop from Roosevelt Field, N. Y., on Monday.

Their plane came down in a forced landing on the side of a railroad track, damaging the propeller and one wing but inflicting no injury on the pilots. They crawled out and telephoned the news of their arrival to Matyasfold airdrome. Another plane brought them to the city.

Over tankards of beer, they told how diminishing gasoline over land and heavy storms over water had made their feat a hazardous one.

"We hardly saw anything of the ocean during the trip," one of them said. "It was wrapped in dense blankets of fog. We were overtaken by a severe storm toward midnight last night. The storm lasted three hours and shook the plane very badly."

"When we first reached Hungarian territory our fuel had nearly given out and in the neighborhood of Biske we could not keep the motor running any longer and were forced to come down. It was a sad decision we had to make before landing but there was nothing else for it."

They plan to remain here about a month and then make a return crossing of the Atlantic via Africa and South America. Their ship must be repaired and reconditioned before they can start the homeward flight to receive the congratulations of their adopted country.

Mrs. Ernest Shuman of White Deer was shopping in Pampa today.

GROW SOMETHING FOR THE FAIR

It is usually to be assumed that the first year of a fair is dulled by necessity of getting started. This is not necessarily true, and the Gray County free fair of next fall will be as good as its patrons make it.

Of course, it is not wise to start a fair on a tremendous scale and to shoot far short of the mark to emerge with a big deficit. The Gray County free fair is essentially a picture of county activities. If it reflects the quality and variety of our products and gives producers and artisans a chance to compare their work, it will have accomplished its purpose.

The women, girls, and club boys may be depended upon to have good departments. It remains for farmers and livestock men to grow good exhibits and to select the best for the fair. Were Gray county to put her best in her show window, which is the fair, even residents would be astonished at the quality and variety.

It's funny how no one paid any attention to Germany's plight until President Hoover discovered it, then the Germans themselves suddenly discovered how near to a "crisis" they were.

The Hungarian fliers missed their goal by a few miles, but golfingly speaking they got on the green even if they didn't make it in one. We will give them a birdie, two, allowing three for a lengthy hop like that.

Just when we think we are going to have a journalistic vacation, the legislature meets and the hot air rises. But even more prostration talk is a relief from one accident story after another. The depression has just about crowded crime news off the front page, and it takes a close-at-home bloody murder to claim a top streamer.

People are "considering their Adam's apples" but they are doing little to prevent accidents. The national toll is equal to two or three Mexican revolutions in totals.

Mexico, by the way, has not had a revolution for quite a spell and it looks like hating of gringos may relieve the national temperament. And we are giving ample cause for complaint of late. We war our fishermen to stay on this side of the Rio Grande and to remain where Mexico is New.

BRIDGE—

the rush showed automobiles crossing at the rate of 700 an hour. Shouts of "Hurrah for Governor Murray" were heard frequently as the cars rolled onto Texas soil.

Rebuilding barriers at the free bridge severed all direct highway connections between Denison and Durant, Okla. The Oklahoma road leading to Colbert toll bridge was closed last night and preparations were completed this morning to close up a 2,100-foot section of the approach, marooning the Red River bridge company's structure.

A watchman was established at the Oklahoma road blockade last night to route traffic over the free bridge.

Motorists Detouring
Severing of highway communication on the two roads between Denison and Durant forced motorists to take highway 91 northwest of Denison to Preston Bend bridge, which enters Oklahoma at Woodville. This bridge was purchased by the state last summer. Motorists were thus forced to travel many miles farther than they would have on regular state and federal highways closed by the bridge dispute.

Murray Is Wrathful
OKLAHOMA CITY, July 17. (AP)—Governor Murray of Oklahoma said today he could call out the national guard if any attempt is made to arrest state highway employees tearing up road approaches to a toll bridge across the Red river at Denison.

With Texas Rangers blocking the south side of the parallel free bridge, he directed highway employees on the Oklahoma approach to the toll bridge to turn traffic to the Preston Bend bridge, about 30 miles away. If the men routing the traffic away from the toll bridge are molested the National Guard will protect them, he said.

At the same time he announced that while an injunction, obtained by the toll bridge owners, preventing opening of the free bridge was pending in federal district court neither he as governor nor the state could be made parties.

While he had ordered the Gainesville bridge opened, he said this morning the approach on the Texas side had not been completed and the structure could not be opened now. In a telegram to a Texas news-of a citizen to sue a sovereign state.

"If his excellency, Governor Sterling, through his executive and military power, desires to close the road on his side I shall not dispute his authority. I shall place on the old road men to direct traffic out of Oklahoma to detour and go by the Preston bridge and if the people of Texas side desire to aid they will also go to the Preston bridge and that will leave the toll bridge without profits.

"I call upon the citizenship of both states to take a little trouble and go by the Preston bridge. When the governor of Texas wants the free bridge opened, then we will open it."

Two other Texas Rangers, Jim Huddleston and W. H. Kirby, joined General Sterling and Captain Hickman at the bridge this morning. After the Texas end of the bridge was closed again a crew began plowing up the approach to the toll bridge on the Oklahoma side, and traffic was routed over the free bridge on highway No. 91.

HOUSTON, July 17. (AP)—Federal Judge T. M. Kennerly today declined to discuss the action of Gov. W.

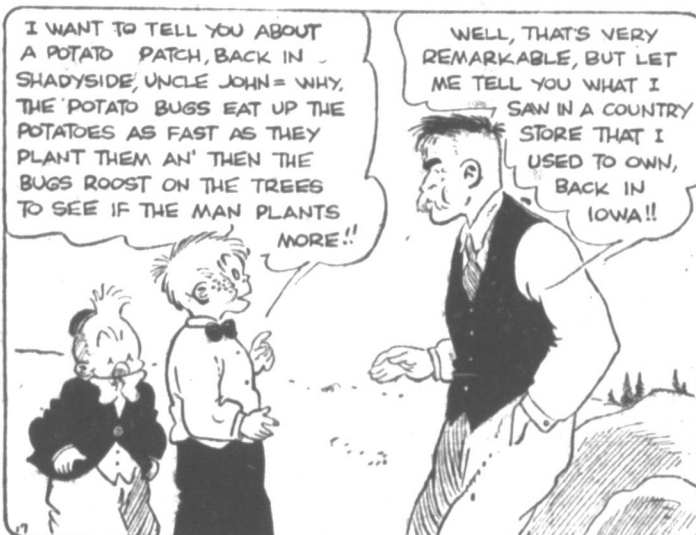

H. Murray of Oklahoma in ordering opened for traffic free bridges across the Red river between that state and Texas.
Judge Kennerly issued an injunction here recently restraining the opening of the one of the three bridges involved—the bridge between Denison, Texas, and Durant, Okla., he denied a similar injunction sought to prevent opening the Ringsold, Texas-Terral, Okla., bridge.

In granting the injunction first, Judge Kennerly ruled that a contract between the Red River Bridge company, operating under a federal receiver, and the state highway commission, demanded a payment to the bridge company of certain sums before the free bridge was opened and was valid.

"Keep It Closed"
MINERAL WELLS, July 17. (AP)—Gov. Ross E. Sterling today said he had ordered Ad. Gen. William Sterling "to close the highway bridge at Denison and keep it closed."
The governor, here to witness athletic events of the Texas National Guardsmen at Camp Wolters, said he issued the order as soon as he had been informed the governor of Oklahoma had ordered removed barriers which had been placed to carry out a federal court injunction.

F. Meers.

Miss Ruby Harkins will be bridesmaid and Roy Williams will be best man for the Watson-Hollingshead wedding, and a Claude minister will read the ring ceremony. The bride will be wearing a charming white satin gown for the occasion.

After the ceremony, an informal reception will be given and the couple will return to 902 Twiford street, Pampa, where they will make their home.

Mr. Hollingshead is employed at the Pampa postoffice, and Miss Watson, until this week, was employed at the Pampa Business Men's association.

The Rev. James Todd will officiate for the wedding of Miss Meers and Mr. Sprinkle.

Following the ceremony, the couple will leave for a short honeymoon trip, and, upon returning, will reside temporarily at the home of the groom's parents.

Miss Meers was graduated at the Pampa high school with the class of '29, and is a former student of Fleming Business College, Amarillo. She is a member of the First Christian church and is prominent in Christian Endeavor activities. She is an accomplished pianist.

REV. WONDERLY'S WONDERS ARE NON-EXISTENT

First thing every morning the Rev. Joseph Wonderly looked out a window to see if his Chevrolet coupe was still in its parking place in front of the Catholic rectory, 612 West Browning.

He often wondered if his car would ever be stolen. It seemed to him that the car, sitting out in front, should be a great temptation to a car thief. So he always rolled the windows to the top, locked the doors, put on the emergency brake and put the brake in reverse gear. Not only that, he had the car insured.

The priest awakened at 5:30 o'clock Friday morning and discovered the car was missing. He last saw it about 11:30 o'clock Thursday night. What puzzles Father Wonderly is how the thief got into the car and how he started it after he got in.

"I was quite thrilled when I found it was gone," he said. "With so many thefts being committed it occurred to me several times that my car might be stolen."

This view was concurred in by Petsch and other signers of the resolution. Petsch declaring he wanted it "distinctly understood" no effort was being made by the administration forces to delay the investigation or "choke down" the proceedings.

"Under this resolution," Petsch stated, "each member of the house is placed on equal footing so there will be no charges of unfair tactics." A resolution by Rep. G. B. GERMANY-they will be able to get down to business at once. It will be the first time the heads of the German government have been in Paris since the signing of the treaty of Versailles.

The newspaper L'Ouvre says that France proposes the opening of a credit of $500,000,000 to the Reichsbank and a similar amount to the German government, repayable in ten years under well-defined financial and political guarantees. The loan would be granted by the American federal reserve system, the Bank of France, and the Bank of England.

Many to Satisfy

Although the conference thus far has been occupied with the financial details of the salvage plan, the political aspects have not been lost sight of for they are regarded here as of vital importance. It is believed that a formula has been found which is likely to be acceptable to Germany as well as the powers who must furnish the money.

BERLIN, July 17. (AP)—Pistol shots from behind communist barricades in the industrial Ruhr today emphasized the seriousness of the financial situation which is being faced by Germany. The situation is likely to be worsened by a party with French statesmen.

While Chancellor Bruening and his foreign minister were snatching a few hours sleep in preparation for an arduous week-end, rioting broke out in Gelsenkirchen and police battled communists for possession of the streets. About the same time a communist was killed and two were wounded by gunfire in a brawl with national socialists at Darmstadt.

In Gelsenkirchen, 40 stores were plundered, windows were smashed, lights were knocked out and pavements were torn up. The rioters threw up fortifications in three thoroughfares and defied the efforts of the police to dislodge them, replying with bullets, bricks and bottles. Similar trays occurred in Dusseldorf and Coblenz.

MISS Muriel Denhart is succeeding Miss Audrey Watson, who, until this week, was employed at the Pampa Business Men's association. Miss Watson will become the bride of E. Payne Hollingshead tomorrow evening.

B. E. Finley will leave tomorrow on a two-week vacation trip to California.

Lucky Lady

It was a lucky day for Mrs. O. O. Hammonds, above, when she resigned as secretary to Governor Henry S. Johnson of Oklahoma after a row in the legislature that marked the governor's impeachment. She went into the oil business and recently she is reported to have shared with Fred P. Branson, former chief justice of Oklahoma, in the sale of Texas oil lands for $1,000,000 in cash and oil.

Man on Trial Slashes Wrists

CORSIKANA, July 17. (AP)—Charles Douglas, 40, on trial here for the fatal shooting of his sister-in-law, Texana Hall, was found in his cell today with his neck and both arms slashed. He was taken to a hospital, where his condition was reported as serious. A safety razor blade was found in his cell.

Attendants at the jail said they heard a disturbance near Douglas' cell about 4 a. m. Other prisoners found him wounded about an hour later.

LOS ANGELES, July 17. (AP)—The honeymoon of Mrs. Minnie (Ma) Kennedy, mother of Alvin Karpis, and the Rev. C. Edward Hudson came to an abrupt end today with the bride seeking annulment of their marriage on the ground that Hudson still is legally married to another woman.

The suit was filed here yesterday by Mrs. Kennedy-Hudson with the concurrence of Hudson. It set forth that at the time of their marriage in Longview, Wash., June 28, Hudson still was legally married to L. Margaret Newton-Hudson.

Referring to Hudson as "what a man!" Mrs. Kennedy-Hudson said: "When this is all settled we will be married again. And what a wedding!"

POWERFUL CUBS ARE CLIMBING UP ON BASE BLOWS

HACK WILSON HITS HARD IN RECENT TILT

Capture Third Straight From Giants to Go Into Second Position.

BY GAYLE TALBOT JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Victims in the opening months of the campaign of as virulent a slump, both individually and collectively, as ever attacked a ball club, Rogers Hornsby's Cubs at last seem to have reclaimed the power that featured their fight for the 1930 National league flag.

Although he still is hitting only .280, far below his form of last year, Hack Wilson is hanging the ball hard and often in recent games, while Hornsby, Cuyler, and Grimm are high up among the leading sluggers of the league. They are giving their veteran pitching staff more runs to work on and the result is seen in the club's steady climb up the ladder.

As a climax to their latest drive, the Cubs captured their third straight from the New York Giants yesterday, 5 to 2, and slipped into second place in the league standing. They are four points ahead of the Giants today and six games back of the leading St. Louis Cardinals.

Rogers is Good
Hornsby made three hits and Cuyler, Wilson, and Grimm two apiece in beating the veteran southpaw, Clarence Mitchell, yesterday. Charley Root spaced nine hits to register his ninth win of the year. The Cardinals made it two out of three from the Brooklyn Robins, 5 to 0, when Bill Hallahan yielded seven hits and struck out eight. Chick Hafey and George Watkins hit home runs to lead the champions' assault on Babe Phelps.

Cincinnati fans were treated to their second pitching duel in as many days when Bruce Cunningham of the Boston Braves shut out the Reds, 2 to 0. Cunningham allowed five hits while his mates solved Benton and Frey for eight.

Pittsburgh pounded three pitchers for 17 hits, including a home run by Comorosky, to make it four straight from the Phillies, 12 to 8. Senators in Rally

Washington's Senators scored three runs in a rousing ninth inning rally to nose out the Chicago White Sox, 5 to 4, but they failed to cut into the lead of the Athletics, who again won from Detroit, 5 to 3. Walt Johnson sent in three pinch hitters in the ninth and all three came through with hits to sink the White Sox.

Roy Mahaffey pitched and batted the A's to victory over Detroit, keeping 10 hits and giving up a home run in the sixth inning.

Fred Schulte and Oscar Melillo made all of St. Louis's five hits off two Boston pitchers as the Browns defeated the Red Sox, 2 to 1. Lou Gehrig hit his twenty-sixth home run and Babe Ruth his twenty-second, but the Yankees lost a loose affair to the Cleveland Indians, 9 to 8, when four Yankee pitchers issued 11 bases on balls.

Pampa All-Stars Beaten by Texola In Amarillo Meet

Four runs in the first inning proved too large a margin for the Pampa All-Stars to overcome yesterday in the Amarillo tournament, and they lost to the Texola-Willow team, 8 to 4. An error by Mitchell cost Pampa the game.

Hack Wilson, former Pampa, was the only member of the Texola nine to get more than one hit. Dye and Newsome got four of their team's five blows, one of Newsome's going for a triple and one of Dye's for a double. Ross, relieved Edwards in the All Star box, subdued the hard hitting team from Oklahoma after he went in in the third with three men on and one out. He got out of the hole with only one run being scored against him.

Chody started the game for the Texola crew and allowed only one hit the four innings he pitched. He was relieved by Vessell who pitched 12 balls to walk three men. He was walked and Masterson took up the duties. After the umpires spent several minutes showing the hurler how to stand on the mound he got the crew out with two runs being scored against him.

The scoring in the first inning was the result of a nice double against the right field fence by Hack Wilson followed by a walk to Cornellison, a single by Plipin and Mitchell's error. Schmidt hit a hot liner to Newsome who fumbled it. Mitchell picked the ball up and threw to second but missed the bag by 10 feet and the ball rolled to the north fence and before being recovered four runs crossed the plate.

A mix-up in signals between first and pitcher started two more runs in the second inning. Anthony singled and Chody and Cornellison bunted and both were safe to score on an error by Mitchell.

The final two counts came in the following inning on three walks, error and a fielder's choice. Edwards left the game with three men on and one out and Ross took up the duties.

The Pampans failed to score until the fifth inning when Vessell walked three men and Masterson one, to be followed by two outs, which scored runs.

The other two counts came in the ninth when Lister got three bases on Balenti's error in center field and was scored by a single through second by Newsome. The other runs were the result of Newsome's single over short which scored Newsome.

Cahill had a great day on second for the Mags. He made four assists and had six putouts. Dye played a great game at first and hit well. Newsome's catching could not be beaten. The Mag manager apparently made a mistake when he shifted Mitchell to short. The football coach is a first or second baseman de luxe but is lost on the left side of the diamond.

Hutchins on second for the Texola boys was a close second to Cahill in fielding. He made five assists and three putouts but made one error. Only two balls went to the outfield. Seeing getting one and Balenti bobbling the other.

Who the Mags will meet next had not been determined last night but many are betting that it will be the Amarillo White Sox, who are anxious to get Pampa out of the running as soon as possible. A Pampa nine has won the tournament the last three years.

FIVE CLUBS ARE BUNCHED IN BALL RACE

Mr. Dean Whips Fourteen of Sports; Cats Annihilate Galveston Outfit.

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Two important things occurred Thursday night in the second lap of the Texas league pennant dash which has five clubs bunched and ready to go down the home stretch in grand old neck and neck style.

First, the Fort Worth Cats swept aside Galveston 6 to 1 to climb from a tie with Dallas for fourth place to a deadlock with Wichita Falls for third place. Second, the elegant Jerome "Dizzy" Dean of the Houston Buffaloes turned in an 8 to 0 victory over Shreveport, accomplishing this, Dean struck out 14 Sports.

He allowed five hits, got a couple of hits, scored a run and accepted three fielding chances without a bobbie. Today he is the leading pitcher with 18 victories and 5 defeats. He leads the circuit in strikeouts. He fanned Solters, Shreveport leftfielder, four times. Eight other Houston players participated in the game, but it was mostly Dean who closed the door on the Sports in their last 19 starts.

Hitting timely, fielding consistently and playing heads-up baseball throughout, the Fort Worth Cats stepped up a few paces in the flag marathon by whipping Galveston, 6 to 1, in the second inning. Anthony singled and Chody and Cornellison bunted and both were safe to score on an error by Mitchell.

The final two counts came in the following inning on three walks, error and a fielder's choice. Edwards left the game with three men on and one out and Ross took up the duties.

Dempsey Will Attempt Staging of Title Battle

RENO, Nevada, July 17. (AP)—Jack Dempsey, who brought boxing into big money as a fighter, saw it lapse after he lost the world heavyweight title, and now is back as a promoter, hopes to stage a world championship heavyweight match here next summer, with Max Schmeling against the most likely contender.

Dempsey made this announcement last night after he talked over plans with Sammy Goldman, manager of Tony Canzoneri, for a bout here Labor day.

"I will put forth every effort," he said, "to bring Max Schmeling here in a world heavyweight championship bout with the foremost contender for the title during the early part of next summer."

The promoter pointed out that he had "an arena already built that can be enlarged to meet any requirements."

Dempsey and Goldman debated possibilities of bringing together Canzoneri and Kid Chocolate, junior lightweight champion, in the Labor day fight. Three titles, junior lightweight, lightweight, and junior welterweight, would be at stake.

Football Captain Suffers Injury

Communists Riot In German Town

GELSENKIRCHEN, Germany, July 17. (Friday) (AP)—Police and communist rioters were entrenched against each other here early this morning, waiting for daylight, after a night of rioting in which streets were torn up, windows smashed, stores plundered, volley fired and barricades thrown up.

AGED CHAMP SAYS WALKER DUE TO WIN

Tommy Burns Thinks Sharkey Will Get Whipping of His Long Career.

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

ORANGEBURGH, N. Y., July 17. (AP)—Back in 1905 a little fellow named Tommy Burns turned from the middleweight ranks to fight heavyweights and the first fellow he picked on was Marvin Hart, a big, powerful 200-pounder who had just whipped a negro named Jack Johnson.

Burns weighed 172 pounds then, not all of it fighting weight, but he plastered Hart around a Los Angeles ring and ever since then Tommy has been considered the unofficial heavyweight champion who ruled between the time of Jim Jeffries' retirement and the reign of that same negro, Jack Johnson.

Tommy sat in the sun at the ringside of Mickey Walker's training camp yesterday and for the first time watched another overgrown middleweight, who aspires to the heavyweight crown, go through his preparatory paces for a 15-round battle in Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, next Wednesday night with Jack Sharkey, the Marvin Hart of the present fighting era, another big, tough fellow who can box and hit.

He saw Walker in a mediocre drill with three sparring partners. Perhaps he sides naturally with a little man such as he was himself against a man of Sharkey's size and stature. Perhaps he's a prophet among prophets. At any rate he spoke as follows:

"If Walker can get past the first three rounds with Sharkey he will give the big fellow the licking of his life."

Tommy went way back into his own memories, back over the history of the gladiators he has seen and met in gladiatorial warfare, to bolster his opinion.

"Heavyweights," he said, "always have the most trouble with little men. Hart couldn't beat me, Dempsey would not tackle Harry Greb, and Walker will beat Sharkey. He will beat him with left hooks to the body, by crowding him, out-gaming him, taking the best Sharkey can throw, coming back for more."

The Hedding law which legalized boxing in Wisconsin has been in existence 18 years.

Amarilloans Will Play City Scribes

Golfers from the Amarillo NEWS-GLOBE will invade Pampa July 26 and will meet a team from the Pampa NEWS-POST on Red Deer golf course. The Amarillo gang accepted a challenge from the Pampa players yesterday afternoon. The only unexpected happening of the tournament will be the absence of Jerry Malin, erstwhile sports writer, who will be on his vacation.

A. N. Bartlett will lead the Amarilloans into Pampa. He is not sure how many "white ball artists" he will be able to bring but says he will have enough to "beat" the Pampa team.

A Pampa NEWS-POST tournament will end Sunday at the Red Deer course when F. A. Womble and W. S. Fleetwood meet.

Ask Annulment of Former Marriage

LOS ANGELES, July 17. (AP)—Admitting a previous undissolved marriage, Guy Edward Hudson late today petitioned the superior court here to annul his recent marriage to Mrs. Minnie "Ma" Kennedy, mother of Almee Semple McPherson, the evangelist.

Papers in the annulment suit represented Mrs. Kennedy-Hudson as plaintiff and Hudson as defendant. A statement by Frank Lober, the plaintiff's attorney, said the annulment was Mrs. Kennedy-Hudson's first step in rescuing Hudson from the marital claim of Mrs. Margaret L. Newton-Hudson of Los Angeles.

E. M. Conley, manager of Montgomery Ward and company store here, and his family, are vacationing in various parts of Texas.

Helene Madison Is Acquatic Champ In Air Theater

NEW YORK, July 17. (AP)—Once again Helene Madison, Seattle's free-style aquatic marvel, dominates the National A. A. U. swimming championships for women, now in progress at Bronx beach on Long Island sound.

Miss Madison, who won four titles last year, already successfully has defended three of them. On Wednesday she retained both her 100 meters and mile free style crowns, and last night she raced to an easy victory in the 440-yard event. Her fourth title defense, at 800 yards, will be made tomorrow night.

The Seattle girl, holder of all but two of the 16 recognized world free-style records, won the 440 last night by some 15 yards in 5:42 4-5, far behind her record for the distance. Lenore Knight of Homestead, Pa., was second and Josephine McKim of Los Angeles third.

WILL OPEN REVIVAL
CANYON, July 17. (Special)—Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Flowers, evangelists, will open a revival at the Canyon Methodist church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, which will last from 10 days to two weeks, according to Rev. C. E. Jameson, pastor of the church.

TWENTY GRAND HAS PERFECT RACE TEMPER

Famous Horse Obeys Jockey's Slightest Wish; Starts Slowly on Purpose.

By JIMMIE ROWE
(Trainer for Twenty Grand)
ARLINGTON PARK, Ill., July 17. (P) Twenty Grand gave me his confidential tip over the feed box today.

It was simply that he was fit and ready to win that Arlington classic tomorrow and prove beyond the slightest doubt that he ranks as the greatest three-year-old of the year and probably the greatest the turf world ever has known.

Many race fans ask why this son of St. Germain-Bonus is such a great race horse and why he wins so leisurely and surely. I have been with him day and night, you might say, since he was turned over to my care last November and in all that time the one trait in his make-up that has impressed me most is that he appears to be the perfect thoroughbred.

Not once in my experience has Twenty Grand made a false move through temperament. He is the perfect horse because he does exactly what his rider urges him to do and it takes little urging, too. Whether he is munching his oats, getting a bath, galloping about in a workout or in the middle of a hot race, he seems to be just like a fine working automobile. He responds perfectly to his pilot's will. The best time you get a chance, watch Twenty Grand at the barrier. You won't see him act up. He is patient but ready. When they all dash away, watch him some more. You won't see him rush into the lead. He stays back just where his jockey wants him to stay. Then watch him in the stretch. He flies home and the jockey doesn't have so many worries.

Some of the railbirds believe that Mrs. Payne Whitney's star is only a distance horse—say over the mile and a quarter route or so. But they are dead wrong. He can sprint. He is a slow starter solely because his jockey and trainers prefer him to start that way.

We figure that it is best in a longer race to keep him slightly in restraint until the stretch and then let him come home. We don't need the whip much. But if he has to travel at the start, he can do it. A lot of race people forget that it was the Kentucky jockey club stake race last year which directed nationwide attention to Twenty Grand. He ran the mile in the record-breaking time of 1:36 flat and caused all of us in the Crenshaw stable to sit up and take notice.

Slap in the Face Leads to Altar In La Nora Movie

She slapped his face — and so they were married.

Which is how the effervescent William Haines is catapulted into romance in "Just a Gigolo," his latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer talkie which will open today at the La Nora theater.

Adapted from the brilliant New York stage play, "Dancing Partners," the story has Haines in the role of a young English nobleman with a flirtation complex and an idea that no woman can make a faithful wife because all can be misled. The slap in the face teaches him differently, in a vivid little drama which also abounds in comical situations.

Success in Europe
The play, a European hit by Alexander Engel and Alfred Grünwald, was adapted to the English stage by Frederic and Fanny Sittler. It was produced with sensational success in New York by David Belasco, and for the screen was directed by Jack Conway, who directed "Paid," "The Unholy Three," "New Moon" and other well known films.

The plot starts when Haines promises a rich uncle to marry an heiress provided he can't mislead her in a month's time. At the end of a month of hilarious happenings mixed with some poignant drama he gets slapped for his pains and awakens to the fact that he really loves her.

COTTON IS STEADY

NEW ORLEANS, July 17. (P)—Cotton had a steady opening today owing to better Liverpool cables than due and the generally more favorable character of the German financial news.

First trades showed gains of 5 to 6 points and the market continued to improve right after the start, October trading up to 9.56 and December to 9.77, or 6 to 7 points above yesterday's close.

Later in the first hour, the advance brought out considerable realizing and selling for a reaction and prices soon eased off to 7 to 10 points from the top with October down to 9.46 and December to 9.70. Trading was only moderate.

GRAINS WEAKER

CHICAGO, July 17. (P)—Grains underwent price setbacks early today, influenced by unlooked for downturns in Liverpool wheat quotations ascribed to bearish Russian advices. Reports of cooler weather and scattered showers over parts of the corn belt were also incentives to bears.

Opening 1-4 to 7-8 cent off, wheat later showed but little power to rally. Corn started unchanged to 3-4 down and afterward held near to the initial limits.

MOON of DELIGHT

by Margaret Bell Houston

SYNOPSIS: Seeing the stranger, Umberto, enter the hold of the Dolores, Juanita Basara hides in a chest that captures his thieving eye. When she reveals she is in a New Orleans gambling place, questioned by Jason Divitt, the proprietor, to whom she tells her strange story. He believes her to be an Argentine girl who has run away—perhaps to avoid an unworkable marriage, but plans to keep her captive so that her story might not involve him in an unpleasant explanation about the stolen chest. Only the dwarf, Gabreau, Umberto and Conchita question her. But Divitt, who with his wife, Molly, runs the place, admits that they like herself—are outside the law. "You protect us. We protect you," he says.

Chapter 3
"UNCONVENTIONAL" MOLLY
Gabreau could not sleep. In the short bed he had never outgrown he muttered and tumbled. One end good now, but when Divitt turned back—

"Divitt do not turn back. I see Umberto look," conceded Conchita. I see her look too—at my Gabreau."
Gabreau sat upright. "You see dat? Black eyes—day grow soft like rain. De small chest full of black opals too. I look an' see. Oh, mamen, I hope she cannot run away."

For the third time Molly Divitt knocked on the door of the room above the fountain. Molly in green lounging pajamas had a hard prettiness softened by a ready smile and close to the door now.

Molly went to Conchita's room and bade her go down to the kitchen and prepare a tray. Then she went back to the room above the fountain. The barred door opened at her knock, and the girl, wrapped in her cloak, went back to the bed and sat upon it.
"Gosh," thought Molly. "She's beautiful."
The pale face with its lovely oval, the tumbled blue-black hair, the dark eyes with their darker lashes; the body so delicately rounded. And how she looked at you beneath the straight line of black brows! Divitt had not prepared Molly for these. "Go and talk to her," he had ordered. "She's been in some deviltry. But get her confidence. She may do for what we want."

"Do?" thought Molly. "She'll more'n do." Then she came in, smiling.
The girl did not smile back. Her eyes rested on the open door as if desiring Molly to close it.
"I've sent Gabreau for some things you'll need," Molly said casually.

CONSTIPATION BRINGS MANY ILLS

Did you know that constipation often brings despondency? Poisons spread through the system. You lack pep. Headaches become frequent. No wonder you have the "blues."

Yet constipation can be overcome by having sufficient roughage in your diet. A pleasant way to obtain this roughage is through eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.

You will enjoy this delicious cereal. And how much better for you than taking habit-forming laxatives.
Two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN, eaten daily, will relieve and prevent both temporary and recurring constipation.

ALL-BRAN also contains needed iron to build up the blood. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

hair blonde and ringleted. Molly knocked more loudly. It was after 12 o'clock. There was a stirring inside, and then a voice. "Who is there?"
"Mrs. Divitt. Don't you want breakfast? You can have it in bed."

"Thank you." The voice was of the room had been curtained off for Gabreau.

"She is a queen," he whispered to Conchita, who came over to make the mosquito bar tight about him. "Who run away from revolution?"

"They do not have queen in Argentine," said Conchita.

"I'm glad you feed her and give her yo' night gown."

"She do not wear him. She let him drop on flo—and she do not eat the food."

"Madre de Dios, her eyes!" groaned Gabreau. "Did you see Umberto look at her, mamen? He like to eat her. At first he is skered. Den he see how beautiful she is. He think she is hees. Umberto—I will kill Umberto. He's ually. "The bath is down the balcony."

A half hour later she sat by the bed while the girl drank the coffee and toyed with the food Conchita had brought. At every step beyond the closed door she started, yet listened to Molly, seeming to study her.

"It was awful," Molly was saying, aware that the way to win confidences is to make them. "When I got in trouble as I did time out west. I forged a father's name to pay what he owed me—and up I went. I was a stenographer at the time, but after I got out I was rusty on shorthand. I took a flyer in Hollywood, learned a lot out there, costuming and how to arrange the sets."

"I loved it. But along came a feller from back home with 'Here, I know that girl' and it was all up. You'll find it that way, honey. There'll always be somebody that knew you."

"Lie flat now and rest," said Molly as Juanita Basara's hand moved to her eyes, covering them. "I've talked to you enough for one day."

"No, no. Finish." Juanita's eyes met hers. "Have you ever got away from—the thing?"

"Only here. I brushed up on my stenography and landed here and got a job at the Hotel Tilton, public stenographer. Divitt used to come in and talk to me, just enough to show he was friendly. He was from Montana, he said, and I told him that was my state."

"In come a man one day. 'Hello,' he said. 'I know you.' I pretended not to remember him. He said the manager about me, and the manager let me out. I couldn't do nuthin' but cry. The girl at the cigar counter said, 'Why don't you see Mr. Divitt? He owns this place.'"

"I told him all about it. It's true, I said, but I wouldn't forge a check again if my life depended on it. But I'm a good stenographer—though I'm not from Montana."

"I'm not either," Divitt said. "And maybe I've done things just as unconventional." He said he guessed I didn't want to go back to the Tilton anyhow, and he needed a cashier if I'd work in the evenings. Can you beat it? And pretty soon we were married."

"You love him?" Juanita asked. "How can you help loving a man who makes you cashier after you've forged a check?"

"That is not love." "Well, I'd do anything for him. The place was a sight when I came—sawdust floors and a regular gang playin'. Divitt let me fix it up."

"Then I invented the role of cigarette girl. But I've been sick lately and I've got to give it up. The parlors don't look the same with no girl goin' about."

"Now, honey, layin' her hand on the girl's. 'You know about me. I want you to know you can say to me anything you want to.' Juanita looked at her. "Help me to get away," she said.

SECOND PERIOD OF MICKEY MOUSE CLUB TO BE STARTED

Pampa Magazines Ready for People

The remainder of the "Pictorial Pampa" magazines were shipped yesterday and should arrive in Pampa tomorrow, according to word received by George W. Briggs, manager of the Pampa Board of City Development. Sample copies were received last week and a few distributed. Nothing but praise has been heard from those seeing the booklet in Pampa.

Approximately 10,000 copies will come to this city. The B. C. D. will receive 2,500 for distribution to outside points. One will be delivered to every house in the city. Persons who advertised in the rotogravure will receive numerous copies.

"We are anxious that these magazines be distributed throughout the country and anyone wishing to send copies to persons interested in Pampa may receive some from the office," Mr. Briggs said.

Special Treats Await Children at Rex Theater Tomorrow Morning

The second six-week period of the Mickey Mouse club will begin at the Rex theater Saturday morning. The official badge will admit members free.

During the absence of James Lucas, Rex manager, who is on vacation, Acting Manager Weaver has prepared an interesting program which will be rendered under the direction of McCoy Bros., owners of the Creme-Top drink stand. All the former club members remember the deliciousness of Creme-Top drinks, crisp caramel popcorn, and the delightful treat given them by these former sponsors of the first club.

The Dilley bakery, one of the first sponsors, is sponsoring the second club and is offering weekly prizes to the club members who save the wrappers, sacks and bands from Dilley's bread, cakes, pies, doughnuts, etc. On Saturday, July 25, the prize will be a big red Chinese scooter. At the close of the coming six-week period, August 29, Dilley's will award a grand prize to the boy or girl who delivers the largest number of wrappers to the Dilley bakery during the period, which will be in addition to the weekly prize. Club members will profit by asking their friends and neighbors to save the wrappers for them.

Next Year's Crop Will Be Reduced

Many farmers in this territory have stored their combines for another year and if what some say comes true, for many years to come. Several farmers in the territory have threatened not to harvest a crop next year unless some sign of relief appears soon. They claim they would make more money letting their places stand idle than to sow grain and harvest it only to sell it for 25 cents a bushel, the present price.

It is expected that 90 per cent of the wheat in this territory will be harvested by Saturday night. Much of the grain is stored in farm granaries and will remain there until a better market.

Plowing is under way and the ground is in excellent condition with just enough moisture.

Jameson Selected Night Watchman

Pampa merchants yesterday apparently favored the appointment of I. S. Jameson, former justice of the peace, as night watchman to succeed Clarence Barksdale who resigned last week to make his home in Cleburne. The name of R. H. "Cowboy" Mumford was also mentioned. He was particularly favored by Chief J. I. Downs.

Mr. Downs said last night that Carson Loftis, member of a committee composed of Mr. Loftis and C. S. Boston and Elbert E. Thomas which was appointed to see merchants regarding choice, told the chief last night that about 75 per cent of the merchants favored Mr. Jameson.

Valuable Prizes to Mickey Mouse Club Members

Dilley's Big Dandy Kid says: "Save all Dilley bread wrappers, pie sacks, cake wrappers, cake bands, doughnut bands, or anything that has the name of the Dilley Baking Co. printed on it." Each week a prize will be awarded to the boy or girl securing the largest number of Dilley wrappers, sacks, bands, etc. At the close of the six weeks period a grand prize goes to the club member who has saved the largest number.

A BRAND NEW BIG RED CHINESE SCOOTER is the prize for the week closing July 25th. All wrappers, sacks, bands, etc., must be taken to the Dilley Bakery, 308 South Cuyler by 9 o'clock each Saturday morning. Prize will be awarded at the close of the Mickey Mouse Club program at the Rex Theater.

Ask your neighbor to use Dilley Bakery Products and save the bread wrappers, pie sacks, cake bands, cake wrappers, doughnut bands, etc., and help you win some of the prizes.

Laura Ingalls Is Hoping to Remove Women's Jinx

NEW YORK, July 17. (AP)—Aviators at this jumping off place for Atlantic flights look on diminutive Laura Ingalls as a feminine David who has selected as her Goliath the jinx which has presided over practically every ocean flight in which women have taken part.

Of the 10 women who have actually started on such adventures five have perished; one was injured in a crash, another was rescued only after being flung into the sea, two turned back, and only one reached the other side although not in the country she had intended. Others planned ocean flights, but for one reason or another never reached the point of take-off.

Yet Laura Ingalls, one of the smallest and apparently the frailest of them all, has set her eyes across the sea and has determined to do alone what so many of her shipmates could not do with the help of men.

The first woman to try an ocean flight was Miss Mildred Doran who set out with two men on Aug. 16, 1927, on an air race from the west coast to Hawaii. She and her companions were lost at sea as were two other men in another entry in the race and still two more in a plane which tried to rescue them.

Two weeks later the first Atlantic flight participated in by a woman began. With two men the Princess Ludwig Lowenstein-Wrthum (Lady Anne Saville) took off in England for Canada. They were never heard from.

In October of that year Lilli Dillenz, Austrian actress, started out in a Junkers plane from Germany and got to the Azores but there after many delays the flight was abandoned and she returned by boat.

While she was waiting at the Azores Ruth Elder hopped off in America with George W. Haldisman to fly the southern route to France. They made a forced landing off the Azores and were rescued by a steamer.

The only other woman to try an ocean flight in 1927 was Mrs. Frances Wilson Grayson, who took off for Harbor Grace two days before Christmas with three men. All were lost.

In March of the next year the Hon. Elsie Mackay took off in England with Captain Walter Hinchliffe. Neither was ever seen again.

In June 1928 Amelia Earhart and Major Foll both planned Atlantic flights, but Miss Earhart got away first and Miss Foll abandoned her flight. Miss Earhart is the only woman who has ever flown across the ocean in an airplane. She hoped to reach Paris but landed in Wales.

QUEEN IS LEAVING
BUCHAREST, Rumania, July 17. (AP)—Queen Helen's departure from Rumania today was believed to mark a step toward permanent exile. She said in a letter to the marshal of the court that she was going abroad to visit relatives and would not be back until the end of October, adding that the trip had the approval of King Carol.

TWO FLIERS KILLED
LOS ANGELES, July 17. (AP)—Willard J. Wilson, 34, student pilot, and Louis Wells, 35, flying instructor, were killed in a crash near Bell, Calif., last night. Their two passenger plane went into a sideslip and crashed from an altitude of about 700 feet. Witnesses told deputy sheriffs the two had been stunt flying.

TWO HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. D. H. Coffey honored her two daughters, Frances, 10, and Margie, 9, with a birthday party Tuesday afternoon.

Games and contests were enjoyed and Lowell Hudson of Oklahoma, brother of Mrs. Coffey, entertained with vocal and guitar selections.

Among the most appreciated of many lovely gifts was money sent by their grandmother, Mrs. Hudson, of Oklahoma.

A cake topped with pink candles was cut and served with pink and white ice cream. Striped candy was given as favors.

Those attending were Sarah and Charles Peiffer, Ray and Charles Boyles, Edith and Herma Beckham, Dorothy Jo and Jerry Moore, Betty Jean Tieman, Mary Sue Murry, Norma Lee, Maxine and Doyll Lane, Ruby Seale, Marshal, Rosemar, and Flora Mae Ray, Lowell Hudson, of Oklahoma, and Mrs. Dan Ray, who assisted in entertaining.

Ace Hudkins, who recently made his debut as a heavyweight with a victory over King Levinsky at Chillicothe, started his ring career in 1925 as a lightweight.

"Mate" Is Watched By Railbird Gang

CHICAGO, July 17. (AP)—Railbirds, always on the lookout for a good horse with a longer nose, turned their eye away from Twenty Grand to A. C. Bostwick's Mate today as the entries in tomorrow's rich Arlington classic breezed through their final workouts.

Most of the so-called "wise" ones among them agreed that nothing short of a broken leg could stop Twenty Grand in the gallop over a mile and a quarter but many of them recalled that Mate turned the trick and might do it again.

Bostwick, himself, was confident that his entry would repeat his upset. He had Sonny Workman ready to ride Mate and said his three-year-old was fit and ready.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Hoare visited in Amarillo yesterday, attending the All Star-Texola baseball game during the afternoon.

Russ Saunders, captain of the 1931 University of Southern California grid team, has announced he will play professional football next season with the Green Bay (Wis.) Packers.

Heat Relief Is Promised Tomorrow

By the Associated Press
Midwestern Americans, suffering beneath torrid skies today, were promised relief tomorrow.

Rains, originating in the north-west, were on their way toward Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio today. North Dakota and Minnesota, which had been sweltering under temperatures running over the hundred degree mark, found themselves sighing with relief as mercury dropped, in some localities to as low as 80.

Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, and Southern Illinois appeared due today to reap the first fruits of the cooling showers.

While the Pacific coast enjoyed normal weather, and the southern and eastern states were cooled by vagrant showers, thermometers in the middlewest yesterday jumped into the three-figure class. Chicago, however, had a maximum of 96 degrees, with those along the lake enjoying a sudden drop of four degrees in 50 minutes, shortly after noon.

From the standpoint of mortality, the current heat wave is only an echo compared to that of latter June. The national death toll then was well into 1,200; the toll of the current wave is still in its twenties.

T-Anchor Cowboys to Meet Aug. 27

CANYON, July 17. (Special)—The annual reunion of the T-Anchor cowboys will be held at the Wrage pork north of Canyon on the highway on Thursday, August 27. Arrangements are being made for the annual reunion by John Arnold, president; R. E. Baird, vice-president, and Miss Laura Hammer, secretary. The T-Anchor reunion was first held in Hereford about 10 years ago, and was moved to Canyon the second year in order to be near the old headquarters of the famous old ranch on which so many of the leading men of this territory once worked as cowboys.

Mr. Baird said that the directors have decided that the attendance must be restricted to members of the immediate families of the cowboys. In past years many others have been invited, and married children of the members together with their families have attended so that the crowd has become very large. Tickets will be issued this year to those entitled to membership, their wives and their unmarried children.

Plans are under way for a $10,000 Kansas City open golf tourney next year.

"No comebacks"—when you smoke Chesterfields.

The tobacco is right! Chesterfield uses only mild, ripe, sweet-tasting tobacco—the best and purest money can buy.

The blend is right! It's an art to put tobaccos together the Chesterfield way—in the exact proportions which bring out the finer qualities of each tobacco type. A science too! For each type of tobacco used must pass rigid laboratory tests for mildness, for aroma, for taste. No raw inferior tobaccos ever find their way into Chesterfield cigarettes!

The manufacture is right. Every Chesterfield is well-filled, well-formed and burns evenly. The paper is right—in texture, weight and purity. Money can't buy better.

The taste is right. It is not by accident that Chesterfield holds its smokers. They're milder—and yet They Satisfy.
