Fireman Honored At Annual Party

McGuire was presiding officer for the program and introduced retired fireman Hank Bryant and Mrs. Bryant as well as honorary fireman Robert Brooks and Mrs. Brooks.

Firemen also heard a report that they answered 217 fire calls during the past year, 10 of them plug fires.

Volunteer Fireman Wendell Bryant, also a Deputy in the Mitchell County Sheriff's Office, introduced the speaker, Chief Deputy Mike Stutts. Stutts gave a brief talk about drugs and drug abuse, telling about some of the paraphernalia which he had on display.

Following Stutts' talk, firemen and their families exchanged Christmas gifts and a Country & Western trio from Ranger played music: Roy Thackerston, fiddle; Raymond Hart, guitar and Reese Franklin, bass guitar.

Farmers To Vote In Cotton Referendum

Ballots were mailed Wednesday to about 1,500 cotton producers in Mitchell County, all part of a nationwide referendum by producers.

The central issue is approval or turning down a proposal which would increase the amount of money cotton producers give to their own organization, Cotton Incorporated, for cotton research and promotion.

In 1966 cotton producers approved establishing a uniform collection of $1 per bale to give cotton an impetus in the battle against synthetic fibers in the marketplace.

Since 1970, the amount spent for research and promotion by Cotton Incorporated is reflected in this table:

--1970, $9.1 million
--1971, $10 million
--1972, $10 million by farmers, $10 million by the federal government.
--1973, $10 million by farmers, $10 million in matching funds by the federal government.
--1974, $14 million by farmers, $3 million by the government.
--1975, $13.8 million by farmers, $3 million by the government.
--1976, $9.6 million by farmers, $3 million by the government.
--1977, estimation, $9.2 million by farmers, none by the government as that program has ended.

Most cotton farmers believe that the improved demand and good price of cotton this year is a result of advertising and research that has improved the quality of 100 per cent cotton and cotton-blends.

Inflation has eaten away at the $1 per bale farmers approved in 1966 as it buys less than 60c worth of research and promotion today. The supplemental government funds have been eliminated due to federal budget cuts.

On the other side of the picture, synthetic fiber firms spent an estimated $230 million for fiber research in 1975 compared with Cotton Incorporated's $5.4 million. Odds in fiber advertising ran $60 million versus $3.4 million.

The U. S. Congress this year passed enabling legislation which allows the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) offices to conduct the election.

3 Wolves Selected To Area Team

Three members of the Colorado City Wolves 1976 football team were named to the All-West Texas team by the San Angelo Standard-Times Wednesday.

On the team for the Wolves on offense was Kevin Herm, a senior 5-foot-11 190-pound guard. Wolves on the All-West Texas defensive squad were Jackie Ellis, a senior 6-foot-4 215 pound defensive end and senior Defensive Back Wayne McKee, 6-foot, 165 pounds.

This is the second year that McKee has been named to the All West Texas team.

Only two other players from District 6-AA other than the Wolves were named on the All-West Texas team, Ken Kelson of Coahoma and Phillip Colburn of Winters.

Colorado City had the same number of players on the team as did Ozona whose team went to the quarterfinals before being defeated by Childress.

Colorado High Athletic Director Mike Farda said Wednesday that a number of college scouts are taking a close look at Colorado City players for possible scholarships.

As a result, the ASCS office in Mitchell County mailed the ballots yesterday to about 1,500 county producers. Ballots must be returned to the ASCS office by Dec. 17 and will be counted Dec. 22.

Each eligible producer is entitled to only one vote and farmers are on their honor to vote in only one county, even though many farmers farm in more than one or several counties.

The ballot is worded as follows:

--Do you favor the amendment to the Upland Cotton Research and Promotion Order? There is a space to place a check mark in the square marked YES or NO.

A summary of provisions of the proposed amendment to the order are given here:

--Beginning with the 1977 crop, the supplemental assessment rate will be 4/10ths of one per cent of the value of cotton, plus the $1 per bale now being contributed. For example, the supplemental assessment would be $1.20 per bale on a cotton value of 60 cents per pound, plus the $1 now, making $2.20 per bale on 60-cent cotton.

--Beginning with the 1978 cotton crop, the cotton board, with the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture, may increase or decrease the rate of the supplemental assessment as long as any increases do not result in the total supplemental assessment exceeding one per cent of the value of cotton.

--If the amendment to the order is approved in referendum, the Secretary will prescribe by regulation whether the assessment rate will be applied against (a) the current value of cotton, or (b) an average value determined from current and/or historical cotton prices and converted to a fixed amount for each bale.

--Other provisions of the order will remain unchanged. Any producer who does not care to support the research and promotion program may request and receive a refund of the $1 per bale as well as the amount of the supplemental assessment.

The Cotton Research and Promotion Act provides that no amendment to the order will be issued unless it is approved by:

--At least two-thirds of the producers voting in the referendum, or

--At least a majority of the producers voting if they produced during a representative period (1976 crop in this case) at least two-thirds of the cotton represented by all those voting in the referendum.

If it becomes necessary to calculate volume of production to determine the outcome of the referendum, the ASCS office will make the calculation on the basis of acreage planted in 1976 and the established yield for the ASCS program payment.

The ballots are to be returned to the Chamber by Friday, Dec. 17, according to the Chamber Executive Vice President, Sefton Pickens.

The holdover members are Kenneth Beasley, Bill Carter, J. O. Dockrey, Mildred Free, Jean Holbert, Larry Ivy, Kenneth Rogers, Steve Smith, Bobbie Steakley, and someone to replace Glenn Polk, who recently resigned.

Pickens said that Polk's replacement has not yet been decided but will be soon, to serve a two-year term.

The new directors will be installed during the Chamber banquet in January. There is also a place on the ballot for a write-in vote.

Pickens said that the decision to have the banquet was decided during Monday night's regular monthly meeting of the board which was held this time in his home near Buford. Mrs. Aldred Pickens served Christmas refreshments following the meeting as eleven of the 14 directors attended, along with husbands or wives.

Mrs. Steakley and Mrs. DeLaney are co-chairmen of the banquet committee and are currently working out details of when it will be and who the speaker will be, Pickens said.

Self Culture Club Meets For Program On "Hands Up"

The Self Culture Club met in the home of Mrs. Earl Brown Dec. 3. The meeting was opened by repeating the club collect and pledge to the flag led by Mrs. L. B. Elliott.

The treasurer reported $162.42 balance. Mrs. Della Fox was appointed to help Mrs. Brown with the High School Essay Contest on Texas Heritage.

The club voted to present the "needy child gift" of a new dress worth at least $25 and also voted to include Mrs. Mary Womack in the club's membership.

The club agreed to donate an average of $5 to the Woodland School Workshop for Mitchell Co. retarded citizens.

The program was on Crime Prevention. The first organization discussed was "Hands Up", a volunteer approach through which crime incidence is reduced.

Mrs. Fox told the group that those same documents that guarantee the rights of every American citizen—life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness—also place the responsibility for safeguarding those rights on the shoulders of every citizen.

"Hands Up" is a national volunteer program. They seek new avenues of approach to counter increasing crime rates.

Mrs. Billy Culwell gave the goals of the "Hands Up" program which are:

"To strengthen the cooperative rapport between citizens and police through knowledge, service and understanding."

"To establish a permanent, enduring program that provides a vehicle for citizens input and involvement."

"To disseminate information on crime prevention techniques."

"To expand the base of currently existing crime prevention experts."

"To reach more citizens on a local, face-to-face level with specific relevant crime prevention information."

"To develop personal relationships and positive social attitudes toward law enforcement agencies."

"To effect a tangible reduction in crime through each community by focusing on prevention tactics that can be utilized by the general citizenry."

Mrs. L. B. Elliott told the group how "not to become a damsel in distress," by introducing ways to prevent crime in the home, on the telephone, walking, driving on city streets, when traveling and in public places.

"Above all," she stressed, "Call the police anytime you feel you need help. Your police department has one primary function to protect you. A call for help is routine to the police. They want you to call when you're in trouble or better still, before trouble starts."

Wolves Win Consolation

Colorado City's Varsity boys won the Consolation trophy in the Anson Tournament last weekend after losing the first game to Big Lake, 55-63, winning over Albany 47-44, and defeating Knox City in the Consolation game 65-35.

In Thursday's game with Big Lake, Wayne McKee led scoring with 11 points, Craig Carter and Kevin Geiger had 10 each, Jackie Ellis and Jim Jordan scored 5 points each, Cornell Ausbie and Bill Jordan each scored four points and Terry Culbertson each scored two points.

They made 39% of floor shots and were within two points four times in the last two minutes of the game but then, Coach Mike Hart said, the Reagan County team would score a three-point play and pull ahead.

After letting Albany get a 16-6 first quarter lead, the Wolves caught up and the score was tied at 33 at the end of the third period of play. They went ahead to win 47-44.

Hart said each of the players scored: Jackie Ellis, 9 points; Frank Sanchez, 7; Jim Jordan, Wayne McKee and Kevin Geiger, 5 each; Craig Carter, Bill Jordan and Cornell Ausbie, 4 each; Blake Hammond and Terry Culbertson, 2 each.

Scoring in the Knox City game were Jackie Ellis, 12; Craig Carter and Frank Sanchez, 10 each; Blake Hammond, 9; Cornell Ausbie, 8; Wayne McKee, 5; Jim Jordan and Kevin Geiger, 4 each; Bill Jordan 2 and Terry Culbertson, one point.

C-City led scoring throughout the game as the score was 21-10, first quarter; 36-21, half; 49-23, third quarter and 65-35, final.

Hart said that all of the team played but they are about 50% because of colds and flu. "Five of the ten players are sick," he said.

Hart also gave thanks to Blake Hammond, Cornell Ausbie and Terry Culbertson for coming off the bench to aid the team effort. "They have helped the whole team by being ready to play and supporting the team. We have so much depth this year that any one of the players could make the team and they sure do help by giving one hundred per cent," he said.

The Varsity lost to Sweetwater Monday and then lost to Stanton Tuesday. The Sweetwater score was 70-41 with Frank Sanchez scoring 12; Jim Jordan, 11; Jackie Ellis, 8; Wayne McKee, 6 and Craig Carter, Cornell Ausbie and Blake Hammond hitting 2 each.

In Stanton, the score was 72-54 as Ellis scored 22; Jim Jordan, 14; McKee, 6; Craig Carter and Blake Hammond, 4 each and Frank Sanchez and Bill Jordan, 2 each.

Basketball At CMS

The Colorado Middle School 7th Grade basketball team opened the season Monday night in Wolf Gym with a win over Midland Trinity, 39-36.

The 8th Grade team, playing their second game of the season, lost in the final seven seconds as a Trinity player sank two free throws to make the score 26-25.

Coach Steve Van Hoozer, 7th Grade coach, said the team played a good game and 20 people got to play. Victor Jackson led scoring with 21 points and rebounding with eight; Jeff Hammond scored 6; Lynn Williams, 4, and Dane Powell, Michael Scott, Billy Gilstrap and Mitchell Williams scored 2 points each.

In the 8th Grade game, Doug Johnson scored 13 points, Timmy Womack, 6 and Mark Carter, Mike Beights and Barry Blackmon scored 2 points each.

The two teams play Sweetwater teams Monday in Wolf Gym, games at 5 p.m., 7th, and 6 p.m., 8th.

JV Wins Trophy

Colorado City's JV boys won the second place trophy in the Cross Plains Tournament last weekend and placed two players on the All-Tournament Team: Jay Feaster and Ricky Sanchez.

The team was pitted against Class A varsity teams in the tournament and won the first game over Rising Star, won again over Paint Creek and lost the final championship game to Bangs by the score of 43-37.

Coach Mel Gierhart said that Bangs had a taller team and played a slow game, holding down the running and shooting of the JV team. C-City was successful on 45% of floor shots but were held to only 40 shots instead of their usual 60 shots.

"It was close all the way and then in the last 16 seconds, they got the lead and we had to foul to get the ball. We stole the ball three times in the last two or three minutes but the ball just wouldn't drop through the hoop," Gierhart said.

Feaster scored 13 points over Bangs, Sanchez, 12; Boobie Garcia, 8; David Rivera, 4. Gierhart said that the team made one of only four free throws against Bangs while Bangs made 11 of 18 free throws.

He also credited Scott Motley, Joe Franco, Rodney Wheeler and John Alvidrez for supporting the team on the bench. "These boys deserve some credit because they gave us good support and didn't get to play much but we sure were glad to have their help," Gierhart said.

In the Paint Creek win, the team played their own type of game and won 61-44. Feaster, 12; Ruben Garcia, 12; Ricky Sanchez, 11; Johnny Garcia, 10; Gene Carter, 6; David Rivera, 4 and Jimmy Shoemaker, Rodney Wheeler and Scott Motley, 2 each. Feaster made 18 rebounds and Sanchez had 16.

Pecan Show Set For Saturday, Dec. 18

For the first time this year, there will be a Mitchell County Pecan Show, scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 18 in the Charles C. Thompson meeting room of City National Bank annex.

Sponsors, the Mitchell County Program Building Committee and the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce, hope to make it an annual event.

Entries will be taken between 8-10 a.m. Dec. 18 and should be marked with the owner's name, variety and the grower's address.

Growers are limited to one entry of each improved or papershell variety and all pecans entered in the show must have been grown in 1976.

There is no limit on number of entries of seedling or native pecans.

All entries become the property of the Mitchell County Pecan Show and will be given to a charitable organization.

Ribbons may be picked up between 4-5 p.m. Dec. 18. Each entry must consist of 43 nuts and the nuts are to be displayed on paper plates.

Any alteration of pecan shells by marking, filing or polishing will disqualify the entry so treated, say the rules of the show. However, exhibitors are encouraged to remove all traces of husks and foreign matter from the shells.

Rosettes will be given the following:

Champion and Reserve
Champion In-Shell
Champion and Reserve
Champion Shelling.

Champion and Reserve

Banners will go to the Best of Show and Reserve Best of Show.

Classes will be judged on size, color and appearance, shell thickness, cracking quality, attractiveness and other factors.

For a copy of the rules or for further information, contact Bob Benson, Mitchell County Extension Agent.

Monday night the 8th grade basketball team lost a close one to a very tough Midland Trinity team. The game was very close all the way.

The Colorado City team took a half time lead, but in the second half Trinity came back. The game was tied, but in the last minute Doug Johnson put the Wolves ahead by one point.

With 7 seconds left one o

Midland's players were fouled and had 2 free shots coming. He made them both and put them ahead. With 5 seconds left the Wolves tried to score but time ran out.

The high point man for the Wolves was Doug Johnson with 13, Timmy Womack with 6, Mark Carter with 2, Mike Beights with 2, and Barry Blackmon with 2.

The team was credited with good hustle and team play. Our next game will be against Sweetwater, Monday, December 13, at 6:00.

Barry Blackmon

Midland Trinity traveled to Colorado City to play the seventh grade Wolves on Monday, December 7.

The Wolves won 39-36. Scoring for the Wolves were Victor Jackson with 21 points, Jeff Hammond with 6 points, and Lynn Williams with 4 points.

Also scoring with two points were Dane Powell, Michael Scott, Billy Gilstrap, and Mitchell Williams.

We have twenty-one players and all players played well the whole night.

Jeff Hammond

The National Junior Honor Society had a good concession stand at the basketball games on Monday night.

The members had to work hard or our concession would have been a flop. Our goal for the 1976-77 school year is to earn enough money for our organization to go to Six Flags.

The National Junior Honor Society would like to encourage everybody to come by and buy something from us. We would like to thank the people who bought something from us Monday night.

Kelley Dockrey

Tuesday, November 30, the photographer came and took pictures needed for the annual. All the student pictures have been taken.

He took other pictures, including those of the choir, the seventh and eighth grade basketball teams, the boys in the off-season program, the officers of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, the all-star teams from girls' intramurals, the principal, superintendent, and lunch room workers.

The photographer also shot the band pictures. He postponed the taking of the twirlers' pictures since Nina Bodine had a broken arm.

We still need some of the teachers' pictures and some other groups. These will be taken on January 11.

Kari Morren

The band marched at the Christmas parade, Saturday, December 4. They played a song called "Christmas March."

It contained variations of the song "Jingle Bells." We expected it to be cold during the parade, but luckily, it was warm.

The band has been working on solos and ensembles for contest in February. Good luck to everyone who has taken the challenge of preparing a solo or ensemble number.

Tammy Bodine

Mrs. Denson, the eighth grade English teacher, brought the idea of a journal into the eighth grade classroom. There were some groans and some hurrahs.

Every Friday we have to have completed five pages. Some people don't mind writing. Many of the students have diaries while others just write about anything that turns up.

Jana Bassinger

In Miss Brown's seventh grade language arts and reading class we went over the program called Career Analysis Now.

In the C.A.N. we looked into four areas about ourselves: interests, values, skills and aptitudes, and personality characteristics.

This gave us some idea what our needs are in life. From these needs we chose a career that we think we might like.

After we worked on the program, we went to the library for one period to write reports on our chosen careers.

Sherry Stinson

At Colorado Middle School we're doing something different. Starting the second trimester we're having class meetings during the first period on Wednesdays.

There was something different about this meeting I am reporting on. Everybody was unhappy. Nobody was cheerful. Miss Landers happened to notice it and demanded to know what was the matter. There were several excuses.

Some of the reasons that came to light were: too much homework; worries about the Dallas Cowboys; financial problems; being tired of school.

Frankly, I think people are just being skeptical.

Robert Godina

Since we have started a new system of behavior, we have little rap-sessions sometimes during our first period classes on Wednesdays.

In Coach Geirhart's class we talk about anything we want to. Some of our discussions have been: Kim Hardgree's trip to Washington, Dallas Cowboys' football games, the latest movies, and television shows.

Tammy Bodine

In the second period girls' physical education class, we have formed six groups by numbering off. We are still playing in groups with the boys.

Right now we are practicing shooting goals. The first group to get 10 baskets is given 10 points. The next group to get 10 baskets gets 8 points, etc.

If we get through in time, sometimes we double the points. Close to the end of the period, the points are added up. The group with the most points does not have to run laps like the others.

Tracy Claxton

This week our period of Sixth grade band got a new number called "March of the Men from Harlech." All of us are zooming to go. Mr. Newman agrees that we are all doing better. The band is going to do a concert in the future so we want to be good.

Cheryl Bradbury

This week in Mrs. Horton's sixth grade language arts our spelling unit was easy. Everybody was able to turn theirs in within two or three days.

One morning when we came, our desks were fixed in a different way. The other way they looked messy. We like this way.

In language arts we are learning about base form, "s" form, and "ed" form.

In reading we made a book report. We have also been studying about similes. They sometimes mix you up, or at least they did me.

Also in language arts, we have words on the overhead projector that we copy on our papers.

Kerry Spivey

In math we have been working on multiplication. We use the short form, the distributive form, and the four-step method.

We are also doing problems which Mrs. Powell put on the board. We multiply one or two digits by at least three, four or five other numbers using each or all of the methods.

Ray Garcia
Carl Britton

Last week in our sixth grade science class, we had two tests. Everyone is still busy at work trying to find some materials for our six weeks projects.

Prestons Have Open House Sunday Afternoon

Open house at the newly decorated and enlarged home of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Preston was held from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 5, with friends of the couple hosting and assisting in showing callers through the home.

The home, located in the south edge of Loraine, originally a small three bedroom structure, now has an additional 30 by 15 ft. den, built where the original one car garage was. Also the new addition comprised a 20 by 20 ft. master bedroom, 12 by 15 ft. utility room, halls, bathrooms, walk in closet, a large roofed patio. With large brick barbecue grill, a porch with brick flower planter box, and a wide concrete walk completely around the house.

The brick fireplace covers the entire north wall of the den. Elm paneling was used on the new addition and original walls.

Den carpeting is in gold and brown tones, the living room and north hall, leading to Preston's office and the office is carpeted in shades of green. Thirteen year old carpeting has been replaced with blue floral drapes and bedspread, and John's room is decorated with brown to correspond with the carpet in brown tones.

The carpet on the south hall leading to the master bedroom and in this room is green, brown, and gold. Sliding glass doors lead from the bedroom to the covered patio. This room also had a large walk-in closet, and bath.

The kitchen cabinets are finished to blend with other room walls. Counter and cabinet tops in kitchen and utility room are jade green formica.

Preston is a farmer, rancher, and member of Texas Cattle Breeders Association.

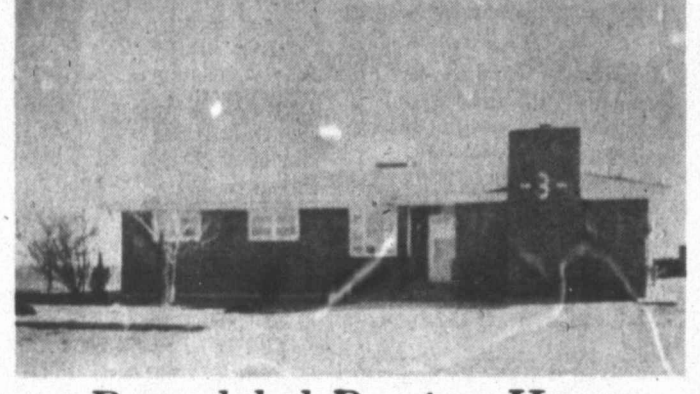

The house was built by the Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Company in Colorado City. Gerald Frizzell also made the bookcase with finish to match the den walls and furniture. The home is equipped with central heating and air conditioning. Outside of the house is mingled brown brick.

White brick was built in to form the Preston's cattle brand - 3 - across the outside chimney.

The large backyard is enclosed with cyclone wire fencing.

During the calling hours guests were registered by Ginger in the book made by Mrs. Jessie Watkins of Andrews. On the cover of the book she used pictures of the home before and after remodeling.

We're running out of the main fuel we use to run our power plants.

For years now, natural gas has been the main fuel we've used to generate your electricity. But the simple truth is we can't get new supplies of natural gas in the huge quantities we need. This is why Texas Electric is building power plants that run on lignite coal and nuclear fuels. These new plants are very expensive. But we must build them to make sure you'll have the electricity you need at the lowest possible cost.
