MCHD board takes the next step

Much consideration and discussion by the hospital board has centered around the possibility of the district building a new nursing home and assisted-living facility. During Tuesday night's meeting, the board took a step that will help them decide whether or not to go forward.

Hospital CEO Robbie Dewberry suggested the board hire an architectural firm to visit the campus, listen to suggestions and come up with renderings and estimated construction costs for the board to consider. He said he'd like to include other in-house projects, such as renovating the ER, moving the EMS on campus, revamping the physical therapy department, etc.

Dewberry said taking this next step should provide enough information for the board to make a final decision about whether or not the district can afford to move forward on the projects.

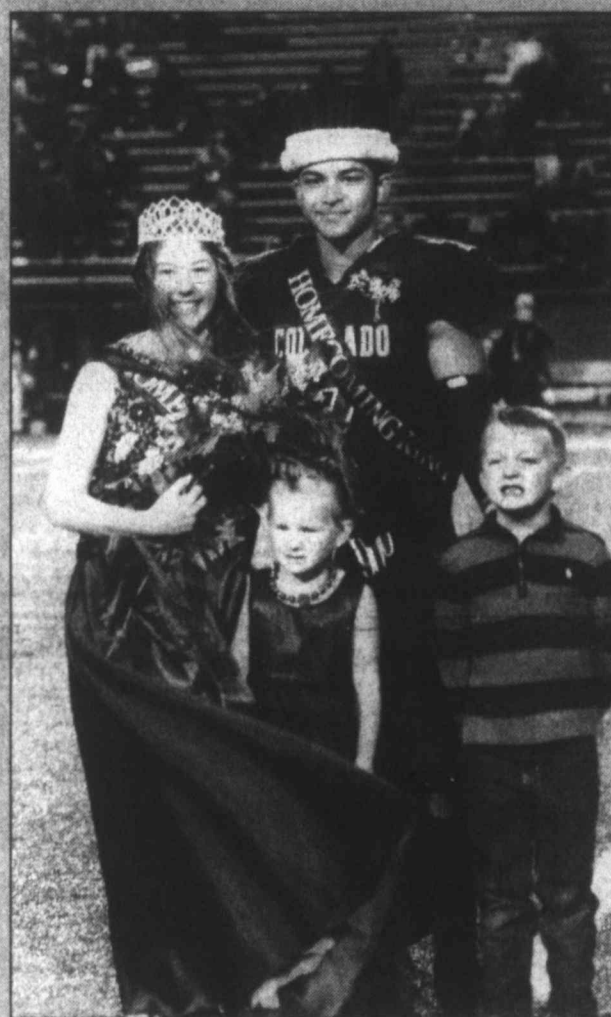

The administrator told the board that they are not locked into using the same architect for the actual projects as the one who designs the renderings.

Cost for the work may be up to $30,000, and the budget will have to be amended for that amount.

Board member Brodie Harris asked how about the duration of a turn-around time, and Dewberry said he thinks the renderings and cost estimates could be finished in 30 to 45 days. Marsha Rickard moved to hire a firm, Patty

Coat drive in need of children's coats

Winter weather is coming, and the Kiwanians are at it again. The wonderful volunteers are collecting coats to be given away to those in need this winter.

The annual coat drive has been going on for a couple of weeks, and organizer Jan Lemons said the group has gotten a great response so far. She said lots of men's work coats were needed and have been received.

"I picked up a pickup load full of coats at the bank," Lemons said. "We sure are thankful for the generosity of the citizens here."

Now, the club is making a different plea. There has been a shortage of children's coats in the drive this year. Lemons said club members are definitely still needing kids' coats in all sizes.

Like in year's past, there's no set date for the giveaway. Instead, Kiwanians will be watching the weather forecast, and coats will be given away in anticipation of the first sign of winter weather.

Anyone wishing to donate may take new or gently used coats and jackets to City National Bank during regular business hours.

Citizens should be advised to keep up with the weather, and read the Record and listen to the KVMC/KAUM to find out when the giveaway will be held.

Lemons also said that citizens needing a coat before that time can contact her by calling 325-242-0075.

Dr. Dee Roach attended last Wednesday's gathering of the Wallace Senior Center, as he was the guest speaker of a new program, Lunch and Learn. Dr. Roach was the first speaker of a series of educational talks planned at the center.

The local physician talked about pulmonary issues, flu, pneumonia, and preventative measures to take. He also talked about the importance of getting a yearly flu shot and staying current with pneumonia and shingles shots.

Center leaders and volunteers are appreciative of Dr. Roach taking the time to come out and share his expertise on subjects that are so important to those who attend the center.

On Wednesday, October 10th, Kindred at Home will sponsor an immunization clinic at the center. Nurses from Mitchell County Hospital will be there to give flu and pneumonia shots starting at 9 a.m. that morning. Those planning to participate should be sure to bring proof of insurance.

The Wallace Senior Center, 312 East 12th Street, is open three days a week, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday as a meeting place for the Senior Citizens of Mitchell County.

In addition to the meals the center has many things designed to keep everyone entertained. A jigsaw puzzle is always being worked on and a fun and competitive game of Farkle are among other activities enjoyed at the center.

The center has a full library, exercise machines, and now a quilt being completed. Kindred at Home has a blood pressure clinic every Tuesday 11 a.m. until noon and sponsors Bingo games the first and third Thursdays of each month. Come visit us and have some fun!

The center opens at 9 a.m. and closes at 2 p.m. Meals are served at noon at a cost of $6.00.

The following will be served at the Young at Heart Café: Wednesday, Sept. 26th – pork chops, gravy, mashed potatoes, salad, roll, fruit medley

Berman brothers tell stories of life in Colorado City

The Berman brothers, sons of H.I. and Alice, visited Colorado City over the weekend, bringing a bus full of family members and friends with them to their hometown. While here, they were the guest speakers of the Mitchell County Reunion and enjoyed site-seeing and visiting the Heart of West Texas Museum.

Over the course of two days, many stories were told about the Berman family and experiences from the brothers growing up in Colorado City. At the reunion, there were photos on display of the Berman family and copies of a story that ran in the Texas Jewish Historical Society in 2002 summarizing the history of the family and life here in West Texas.

Harold, who is 92, lives in Dallas where he is a practicing attorney. Stanley lives in Santa Cruz, California, and Irwin lives in Lake Tahoe, California. They are both cardiovascular thoracic surgeons and are 89 years old.

Harold served as the primary narrator for the trip. He talked about how his family ended up in Colorado City, starting with his dad, Hyman Israel, or H.I. as he was known and his two brothers, Max and Phillip.

The three brothers sailed to Galveston on a ship from Bremen, Germany, after leaving Russia in about 1903. When the boys arrived in the U.S., all three were ill, according to Harold. They were quarantined in a Catholic hospital, which later became John Sealy Hospital.

Immigration records show their mother, Mamie, made the trip with no money. Only a train ticket to Seguin from Galveston secured the final leg of the trip.

Harold said the family settled in Seguin, a German community at the time, because they spoke no English. However, they did speak Yiddish which is a much easier translation to German.

Harold's grandfather, Sam, was a peddler. He worked hard and was eventually able to open a grocery store in Seguin known as The Pick & Pay.

It was "Uncle Max" that made the first move to West Texas. Harold told the group at the reunion that Max traveled with Louis Landau to Colorado City because Landau said it was the land of opportunity. There was money to be made and plenty of work in the Mother City of West Texas.

Max worked as a clerk at Landau's dry goods store. Landau was one of the patriarchs of the Jewish community in West Texas. Harold said each city had a patriarch, and Landau served that position in Colorado City.

H.I. made the trip out west, as his brother Max had impressed him with talk of the progressive, growing community of Colorado. In 1924, H.I. established Berman's Variety Store, and five-and-dime store, the first-ever in C-City.

In 1925, Max bought out the oldest department store in West Texas at the time and renamed it Berman's Department Store. Harold said it came to be known as the Neiman Marcus of West Texas, because all the latest fashions and finest merchandise could be purchased there.

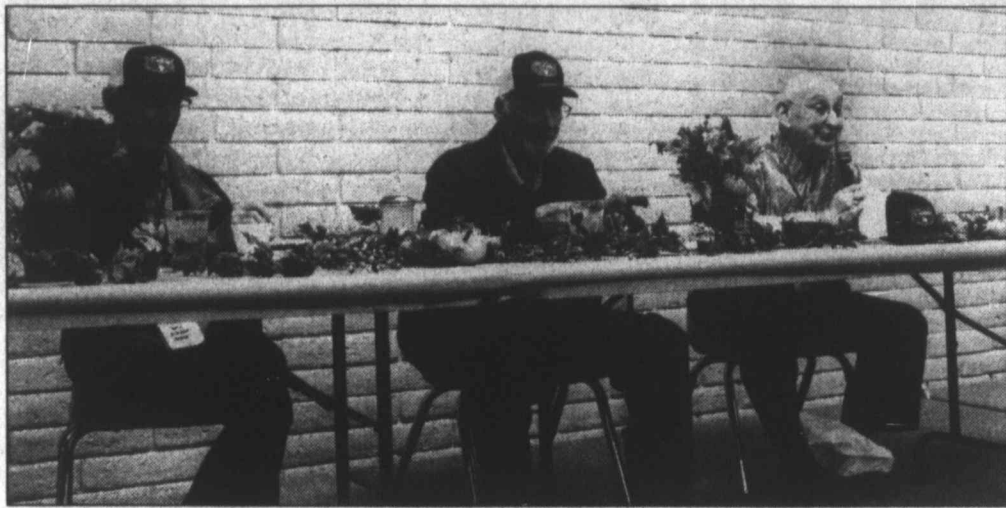

"Uncle Phillip" opened a grocery store that stayed in business until selling to Raymond Fuller, owner of Fuller Foods. The three brothers were excellent businessmen. Harold shared a story about Sam Walton, as in Walton family-Walmart. He said Mr. Walton visited Colorado City many years ago to learn about how to run a successful retail business from the three Berman boys.

Harold was born in a hospital in Sweetwater, and the twins were born in the family home that still stands at 10th and Cedar, delivered by Dr. Root.

Harold reminisced about the 1940s when the Bankhead Highway ran through downtown Colorado City. He said there was no parking to be found downtown as the holiday season approached. The stores stayed open late.

He said his mother was really the core of the family, and she loved the people in West Texas.

H.I., Max and Phillip bought merchandise wholesale and stored it in a huge warehouse. Then, it was sold retail for a profit. It was the first time that business practice was used in Colorado City.

The Jewish community was thriving here at that time. Harold pointed out that many of the businesses were owned by Jews back then. Jewish young men came to C-City to open stores, find wives and raise their families.

Harold said the population here ranged from 5,000 to 9,000 during those years, but "we received one hell of an education." He said Colorado ISD had the best teachers, naming Gladys Miller as one of his favorites. He went on to urge local citizens to be proud of Colorado ISD and the education being passed on to students.

Harold graduated from CHS in 1942 at the age of 15. He attended the University of Texas until he was drafted. After serving for two years, he got out of the service and attended Harvard Law School.

Stanley and Irwin graduated from CHS in 1946. Separately, they both applied to the Mayo Clinic to do their residency and both were accepted.

Many, many stories were told and all enjoyed a journey to the past days of Colorado City, courtesy of the Berman brothers.

October is a busy month for MC Library

Mitchell County Library hosts many activities throughout the year, and librarians are always looking for programs to help local citizens. Read on for information about upcoming programs and changes to check-out terms.

Personnel from the Area Agency on Aging will be at the library on Thursday, September 27th from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. to help citizens sign up for Medicare Part B. Anyone taking part in this program should bring their important personal information and documents.

Game Day at the Mitchell County Library will be Friday, September 28th from 2 to 5 p.m. If you enjoy playing board games, card games or dominoes, come on down and enjoy a little competition and visiting.

Starting October 1st, the circulation length of library materials is increasing. Books and audio books will be checked out for three weeks. Checking out DVDs will also change. Patrons will be able to check out four DVDs for four days per household, with a maximum of two new DVDs being checked out at a time.

The monthly Library Book Club is set to be held Thursday, October 11th. There's no specific book to read to take part in the club. Readers gather from noon to 1 p.m. and discuss what they're reading and/or what they've just finished reading. Some also bring their lunches.

For more information on any or all library programs, call 325-728-3968.

Read the news of Mitchell County by subscribing to the Colorado City Record. 6 month & yearly subscriptions available. Editions are also available on newsstands around the county.

For more information, call the fire station at 728-5252 and leave a message.

DEADLINE

ocratic candidate DeLynn Hackfeld will face Republican candidate Ricky Bailey.

Another important decision facing voters is a proposition made by the city's Economic Development Corporation. The EDC board is asking voters to fund future endeavors of the new development group.

The city council called for the election recently to ask voters to approve using 1/8th of 1% of the sales tax rebates currently being sent to the city. Sales tax rebates have been increasing throughout 2018, and if the voters approve the measure, the State Comptroller Glenn Hegar would begin sending the amount directly to the EDC.

The measure would not affect taxpayers, as the money is already being sent to the city. Instead, the funds would simply be redirected.

If you know someone who needs to register to vote, be sure they take the appropriate steps to do so on or before October 9th.

HOSPITAL

Pharis seconded and the motion passed unanimously.

After hearing from Dr. Dee Roach during the medical staff report and Michelle Lewis, hospital CFO, there's no doubt the hospital has been busy. Usually, numbers of patients being seen in the clinic and admitted to the hospital drop significantly during summer months. That didn't happen in 2018.

Lewis said clinic visits are up by 1,625 in 2018 when compared to the same time period last year, and DON Mark Sheets said the hospital census has only been down to seven or eight patients a couple of times over the past three months.

During the med staff report, Dr. Roach said the healthcare providers and staff at the hospital are focused right now on immunizations. He recently attended the Wallace Senior Citizen Center and talked about the importance of flu shots and other immunizations.

The hospital's staff is also planning to do some community outreach on the topic in the coming weeks, as an immunization clinic is planned at Lowe's Market on October 17th from 3 to 6 p.m. A shot clinic is also planned to be held at the senior center.

Mitchell County Nursing & Rehabilitation Center had a good month in August, financially speaking. Thanks to new administrator Jessica Whitesides looking into efficiency, some changes have been made to cut costs and increase revenues, and the nursing home saw a total profit of over $50,000 last month.

Census there is up to 62 patients, and staff is staying on top of Medicare services to get the best reimbursement possible. A new therapy company has also been hired to offer physical, occupational and speech therapy to patients.

"We are very proud," Pharis told Whitesides, with Rickard adding, "Great job!"

A retirement party is planned to honor Nita Brooks on Friday, September 28th from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. She is retiring after 31 years.

VISITING SISTERS — Marge Kolman and Nell Holman both made it to the Mitchell County Reunion on Saturday. They really enjoyed hearing about Colorado City in the 30s and 40s from the Berman Brothers.

CHS WALL OF HONOR — CHS 2018 Wall of Honor inductee Beau Rees (right) received a medal, as he was recognized by the school district Friday for his accomplishments. The award was presented by CHS Counselor Kaci Griffith.

New members inducted to CHS Wall of Honor

Six Colorado High School alumni were honored Friday, Sept. 21st during a ceremony held in the CHS auditorium.

Those inducted to the Colorado High School Wall of Honor were Wilma Reynolds, Beau Rees, Bill Ellis, Marjori Maddox Krebs, Bo Merket and Marcus Monroe.

This week the Record will spotlight Reynolds and Rees. Other recipients will appear in future issues of the Record.

Wilma Reynolds

Wilma was born in 1935 on a cotton farm east of Colorado City. She was the youngest of five children. Without a phone or television, they had to use their imaginations to occupy their time.

Wilma is a 1954 graduate of Colorado High School. While attending CHS, Wilma was involved in Student Council, Choir, Howl and Annual Staff, FHA, Jet Maskers, and a variety of plays. She was Sophomore Vice President, Neatest Girl, Runner-up Best All-Around, Wolverine officer and FFA Sweetheart where she went on to win district.

After graduating from CHS, Wilma attended McMurry University. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science in 1958 and became a teacher. She met Jerry while at McMurry. She says he was there on a track scholarship and could run fast, but she caught him, and they were married in 1956.

Wilma went on to further her education at Sul Ross State University, Texas Tech University, and the University of Hawaii.

In 1961, their family was completed with the birth of their son, Blake. Blake and his wife Heather live in Weatherford where he is a pharmacist. Wilma and Jerry have two grandchildren and three step-grandchildren, all of whom they are very proud.

Wilma's first job was in Colorado City at Hutchinson Elementary where she taught 3rd grade. She also taught in Denver City, Lubbock, and Andrews. She and Jerry then returned to Colorado City where she continued teaching. Wilma retired in 1991 after 33 years in education. She is a member of the Retired Teachers Association and a past member of Delta Kappa Gamma.

Wilma has been a member of the First United Methodist Church her entire life. She has been very active in the church serving on many committees and teaching Sunday School. She served as president of the Garden Club for two years as well as serving on the Chamber board and Main Street committees.

Beau Rees

Beau was born in 1971 to Tom and Margaret Rees. His parents were both involved in education, Tom was a school board member and Margaret was a teacher. They had a tremendous influence on Beau's life.

Beau is a 1989 graduate of Colorado High School. He was a member of the Colorado Wolves football team while at CHS. He was a three-year letterman in football. In 1988, the Wolves were district and bi-district champs. That same year, Beau was named the District 7-3A Offensive MVP. The awards did not stop there; he was named to the All-Area team, the All-West Texas team, the All-South Plains team, the All-State team, and the Crossroads Country Honor Roll. Beau was also a three-year letterman for the track team. He was a two-time regional qualifier in the 4x100-meter relay and the discus. Beau says he owes many thanks to the teachers, coaches and administrators of Colorado ISD, specifically Mark Merrell, Rick Robinson, Jerold Epperson, Chuck Claxton, Jerry Reynolds, Nancy Hanks, Joan Lemons, Kitten Arthur, Carl Berry Moore, Bo Merket, and Doc Staats.

After graduation, Beau went on to further his education at Texas A&M University. He graduated from A&M in 1994 with a Bachelor of Science in Political Science. In 1998, he earned his Master's in Education from Abilene Christian University and went on to earn his Doctorate in Educational Leadership from Texas Tech University in 2004.

Beau began his career in education as a teacher and a coach in Sweetwater in 1995. He then made his way back to Colorado City where he was the principal at Hutchinson Elementary. Beau has 24 years of experience in public education, with 16 years of experience as a Superintendent. He is a former coach, teacher, assistant principal, elementary principal, high school principal, and director of curriculum. He has served in these capacities in the Colorado, Sweetwater, and Graham school districts. Beau is currently the Superintendent of Montgomery ISD where he has served for seven years. Beau would like to express his appreciation to some great mentors like Tom Ritchey, Terry Pittman, Greg Gibson, and Buddy Compton. These folks have had a tremendous impact on his life.

Beau married his high school sweetheart, Billie Muncrief, in 1993. He never would have made it without her. Beau and Billie have three daughters, Hannah is a junior at Texas A&M, Blyss is a senior at Montgomery High School, and Reagan is in 6th grade at Oak Hills Junior High.

Wolves' offense rains on Buffs on homecoming night

Markis Monroe tossed four touchdown passes and Bubba Williams rushed for three more on Friday night hile senior Tracy Smith hauled in 3 receptions for 3 touchdowns and 145 yards receiving that powered the Colorado High School Wolves to an easy 54-6 non-district rout of the Forsan Buffaloes on rainy homecoming night at Wolf Stadium.

And did we mention it was easy?

En route to running their season record to 4-0, Colorado City rolled up almost 500 yards of total offense and scored in every quarter against Forsan.

Forsan, now 0-4 for the season, managed to stay close early in the first. Well, at least for the initial 82 seconds of the game.

The Wolves shifted their offense into high gear quickly. They scored the first of their eight touchdowns just 1:22 into the contest, capping a quick three-play, 51-yard drive on a 37-yard scoring run by Williams.

After Monroe opened the Wolves' initial possession with a short gain on a quarterback keeper, Zach Thompson hauled in an 8-yard pass that gave Colorado City a first down at the FHS 37.

Williams made sure they wouldn't need any more plays from there. He took the hand-off from Monroe on the ensuing play and darted around the right end. After dancing past a defender at the Buffalo 32, he broke free in the Forsan secondary and raced to the end zone. Williams' first TD put Colorado City on top 7-0 with 10:28 left on the clock.

The Wolves added to their lead later in the first. Following a Forsan punt from their own 8, the CHS offense shifted into action. Monroe and Williams both reeled off quick 10-yard games on the first two plays. From there, Thompson put the Buffaloes' backs against their own end zone by turning a short pass from Monroe into a 35-yard gain to the FHS 4. One play later, Williams slipped off the left side for a short scoring run.

Williams' third rushing touchdown of the season staked C-City to a 13-0 advantage heading into the second quarter.

The Wolves blew the wheels off the Buffalo wagon in the second. Colorado City scored on all four of its second-quarter possessions and built its lead to a commanding 41-0 margin.

Monroe set up the Wolves' first score of the second quarter with a stellar special teams effort. On the final play of the first quarter, the CHS stand-out returned a Forsan punt 50 yards to the Buffalo 25. After a pair of penalties had backed C-City to the 29, Smith ignited the Wolves' offensive explosion. On a third-and-11 play, Smith managed to get behind the Forsan defender and then hauled in a strike from Monroe in the back end of the end zone. His 26-yard touchdown reception gave Colorado High School a 21-0 lead with 10:24 left in the half.

C-City was far from through. After the Wolf defense had forced Forsan to punt away its next series, Colorado City crafted a quick 3-play, 54-yard drive that ended with Smith catching the second of his three TD receptions - this one coming via 36-yard pass from Monroe. Thompson's ensuing extra-point kick put C-City up 28-0.

Things didn't get any better for the Buffaloes. Forsan managed to move the ball just six yards on its next series before being forced to punt the ball from their own 14. Facing a stiff rush, Forsan's Kobe Richardson uncorked a short 13-yard punt that set the CHS offense up at the Buff 27.

It took Williams just one play to turn Forsan's mistake into six points. On first down, he took a pitch around the right side, skirted around a seal block from Reid Harris and raced down the sideline for a touchdown to put Colorado City up 35-0 with 6:27 left in the frame.

CHS' first-half fireworks weren't through. Smith notched his third receiving TD of the first half with 1:27 left in the quarter by turning a short pass from Monroe in the middle of the field into an 83-yard scoring jaunt. With the ball at the Wolf 17, Monroe dumped the ball to Smith at the 35. The speedy receiver turned to his right and outran four FHS defenders to the end zone.

Smith, who has nine touchdowns and 500 receiving yards on just 12 receptions this fall, chalked up 145 yards on three plays against Forsan.

Bracken Hargrave got into the scoring act in the third quarter. The CHS receiver pulled in a 14-yard strike in the home corner of the end zone that pushed C-City's lead to 47-0.

Monroe finished the game by completing six of his nine attempts for 215 yards.

Akimas Clarrett closed out the Wolves' scoring barrage in the fourth by scoring on a 49-yard run.

Clarrett, one of eight Wolf rushers in the game, closed out the contest with 58 yards on eight attempts.

As a team, C-City rushed for 256 yards.

Forsan, which managed just 120 total yards in the affair, notched its lone score in the fourth quarter.

Colorado City will close out its non-district schedule this week with a showdown against Clyde. The game will begin at 7:30 p.m. at Wolf Stadium.

Loraine reunion festivities kick off Friday

The Loraine Ex-Students Association will celebrate the upcoming Bulldog Homecoming in style this year. A golf tournament will kick off activities on Friday morning, the Bulldogs will play football Friday night with halftime activities dedicated to homecoming, and the exes will have a reunion Saturday. The 17th Annual Loraine Exes Golf Tournament is set to be held Friday, October 5th, and the event is a fundraiser for the association's scholarship program.

The format will be a four-man scramble, with $300 going to the 1st place team. Other awards given will be Closest to the Pin, Longest Drive and Hole in One.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m. at Wolf Creek Golf Course in Colorado City. Tee-off time is 10 a.m.

Cost is $40 per player, and golf cart fee is $10 for 1/2 cart. Mulligans can be purchased for two for $10. Lunch will be provided to all golfers from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

To register your team, contact Abel at the golf course by calling 325-728-5514.

The Lueders-Avoca Raiders will come to town to face the Bulldogs in a homecoming game Friday night, Oct. 5th, at Preston Stadium. Kick-off is set for 7:30 p.m. At half-time, homecoming king and queen will be announced and the identities of three Wall of Honor recipients will be revealed.

The fun continues Saturday morning, as the exes association will hold the annual Loraine reunion in the school's cafeteria. This year's 50-year class will be the Class of 1968, and members of the class attending will be introduced.

Wall of Honor award recipients will be recognized again to be presented certificates. Plaques will be awarded and placed on the Loraine Wall of Honor.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m., providing plenty of time for visiting before the reunion program begins at 10:30. Principal Dustin Anders will welcome all to the reunion. Lunch, catered by Gas 'n' Grub, will be served at noon.

MUDDY DAYS AND KNIGHTS – The Knights of Columbus held the Knights Mudbug at the Mitchell County Fairgrounds Saturday. About a dozen entries had the mud flying, as spectators lined the fences and filled the stands.

Wolves host Clyde in final non-district game

The Wolves will entertain Clyde Friday night at Wolf Stadium to complete the non-district portion of their 2018 schedule. After an open date next week (Oct. 5), the Wolves will gear up for district on the road, visiting Lubbock Roosevelt.

Clyde brings to town a 1-2 record, having beat Merkel 47-19, while losing to DeLeon 26-8 and Comanche 20-0.

The Bulldogs return eight offensive and four defensive starters from last years' 6-5 (district 3-2) team. A member of District 3-3A DI, Clyde's other district opponents include Wall, Breckenridge, Jim Ned, Eastland and Early. High school student enrollment figures for the two schools are Colorado City with 254 students and Clyde with 404.

The Wolves hope to end non-district play with a perfect 5-0 record and a victory Friday night over Clyde will certainly give the Wolves a lot of momentum and confidence going into district.

Coming off a 54-6 rout over Forsan last week to celebrate homecoming, the Wolves should be in pretty good shape physically with a few bumps and bruises. Clyde brings to town size and an offense that could challenge the Wolves' defense. The Wolves' defense has been outstanding, along with an offense that has averaged 37.5 points per game and hopefully that continues this week.

Kick-off is set for 7:30 p.m. and another large crowd is expected at Wolf Stadium.
