2 BANK ROBBERS SHOT TO DEATH

Brownwood Policeman Held In Dual Shooting

ATTEMPT TO JAIL DRUNKEN MEN IS STARTER OF ROW

TWO VERNON GIRLS ALSO HELD FOR SHOOTING LATE YESTERDAY

(By The Associated Press)

BROWNWOOD, Texas, Sept. 9.—Charles Greenwood, 22, was shot and killed, and Hoyet Shelton, 22, was probably fatally wounded at 10 o'clock last night. Assistant Chief of Police Cy Thigpen surrendered to the sheriff's department immediately following the shooting, and will be given an examining trial at 3 o'clock this evening before Justice of the Peace E. T. Perkinson.

Greenwood and Shelton, both oil field workers, were under arrest on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and Thigpen was attempting to take them to the city jail when the shooting occurred. The men were driving a high-powered car, and with Thigpen sitting between them, turned toward the country instead of the city hall. Hearing a bridge at the outskirts of town both men seized the officer's wrists, and he began firing, two shots taking effect in Greenwood's body and three bullets striking Shelton. Greenwood died enroute to a hospital and little hope is entertained today for the recovery of Shelton.

Greenwood was a son of Ed Greenwood of Putnam, Callahan county, and Shelton is a son of A. J. Shelton of Borger. Both were unmarried.

Vernon Youth Shot

VERNON, Texas, Sept. 9. (AP)—Charges of assault with intent to murder have been filed against Addie May Selmon, 16, and John Selmon, 17, as a result of the shooting of a court house square, in which Ralph Adams, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Adams who lives seven miles from Vernon, was shot five times and seriously wounded at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening. The girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Selmon of the local community. Both perfected bonds in the sum of $2,500 after waiting examining trials. B. S. King and C. S. Schmoker signed the bonds. Adams will recover physicians announced this morning and his condition was reported as satisfactory. The Willinger county grand jury will convene next week and will probably investigate the shooting.

Immediately following the shooting officers took a .25 calibre automatic away from the younger girl and she has admitted firing the shots.

Adams recently had been charged with a statutory offense, the district attorney's office stated, and was out on bond pending action of the grand jury.

Adams, accompanied by his brother, Cecil and O. D. Phillips, a friend, had just left the court house and all were walking toward their automobile when they noticed the two sisters. Adams spoke, paused to light a cigarette and the shots rang out, witnesses said.

Gentle Pastor And "Hardboiled" Gunman In Borger Compete In Taming Oil Boom Center

RANGER CAPTAIN OPERATES ON TIP AT CLARKSVILLE

$10,000 TAKEN; ROBBERS SHOT DOWN ON STREET ATTEMPTING ESCAPE

(By The Associated Press)

CLARKSVILLE, Texas, Sept. 9.—Two unidentified bank robbers burdened with $10,000 loot from the Red River National bank, were shot to death as they left the bank about noon today by Ranger Captain Tom Hickman, Ranger Stuart Stanley and Constable E. Q. Ivy, who lay in wait in a building across the street, in response to a tip.

The robbers had placed the money in a suitcase and had reached the sidewalk when the officers ran out and began shooting. Both fell mortally wounded.

Seven persons were in the bank when the men entered. Giving commands, "Stick 'em up high," the robbers raked up all the cash in sight, between $10,000 and $15,000, stuffed it in the suit case and started to flee.

Expected Daylight Robbery

Captain Hickman and his aides had a tip in advance that a daylight robbery would be attempted and posted themselves nearby.

The persons in the bank were marched before the desperadoes drawn pistols to the back of the room, where they were forced to lie flat on the floor while one of the men took the money. The other covered the party.

T. E. Williams, assistant cashier of the bank said that five officials including himself, and two customers were in the bank when the robbers entered with pistols displayed.

Giving the "stick 'em up" order, he said, the men forced them back and made them lie down in front of a vault where locks were kept. While one kept guard over them the other rifled the money vault and then all the drawers at the teller's cage, raking it into a suit case.

They then backed out keeping up covered, making for the automobile they had left with the engine running," Williams said.

Source of Tip Unknown

How Captain Hickman obtained his tip was not learned this evening, although he has been working out of Fort Worth and Dallas for several months, trying to ferret what he believed to be a gang of ex-convicts who were perpetrating numerous North Texas bank robberies. It is believed his investigations unearthed clues leading to the warning of the attempt here.

Information came to the captain, it is understood, that a certain bank was to be robbed in North Texas on a given date. It now seems apparent that this information related to the bank here.

The robbery and shooting threw the town, which has about 4,000 inhabitants, into intense excitement.

The two robbers were about middle age and an hour after the robbery no one had identified them. Captain Hickman was reported to have sent for persons who might be able to identify them.

Bible And Six-Gun On Equal Footing In Panhandle Town

AMARILLO, Tex., Sept. 9.—Two well-known agencies of uplift are at work in the boom city of Borger, in the Texas Panhandle, and Borger's neighbors are watching curiously to see which will accomplish the most.

There's the Bible, as exploited by the 23-year-old Rev. Orion W. Carter. There are bullets, as advocated by Richard Herwig, Oklahoma "two-gun man."

Quietly, confidently, the pair have gone about the job of taming a tough town.

An Old Story

Until a few months ago, Borger was just a bald spot on the prairie. Then it's an old story—drillers struck oil, and a populace of 15,000 flooded in.

Borger was being hailed soon afterward as the reincarnation of all that was bad in the towns of the old west.

The importation of Herwig, who was brought about by a few leading business men, Herwig showed up with his two six shooters, a police dog, and an eloquent reputation for marksmanship.

Rev. Orion W. Carter came largely of his own accord. He held his first services in a furniture store, but soon succeeded in building a tabernacle.

He Isn't a Fighter

"Everywhere I go," reports Rev. Carter, "I am received most kindly. I am not taking up my work in a fighting attitude. My hope simply is to unite the forces for good that exist in Borger just as they exist everywhere else, and aid in the proper building of a city. I see no adventure in it."

Herwig is received less kindly, perhaps, but certainly with respect.

There has been steady thinning of the ranks of Borger's bootleggers, gamblers, and vice resort habitués since he became the town's police force.

Whether he or Rev. Carter ultimately will get the most credit for "civilizing" the boom community—that remains to be seen.

DIXON WINS IN STORAGE PLEA

Company Granted Permit To Store Million Gallons of Oil in Earthen Tank

AUSTIN, Sept. 9. (AP)—Solution of the storage problem in the Panhandle oil field was expedited Thursday when the railroad commission granted a permit to the Dixon Creek Oil company to store not more than a million barrels of oil in a covered earthen tank.

The Dixon Creek Oil company will build its earthen tank at the head of a canyon in Hutchinson county. The walls of the tank will be lined with a reinforced, water-proof cement, and the tank covered with lumber, painted with tar paint, and covered with tarpaper.

The floor of the tank will be covered with six inches of water to prevent seepage of oil.

Tex McElroy of Amarillo, president of the company, testified he could not dispose of oil which aggregates a production of 25,000 barrels a day and that the only relief he saw was to store the oil in earthen storage.

He declared the only wells he is drilling in are offset wells and declared that the big oil companies and other operators are bringing in wells which are not off set wells. He said the railroad and pipe line facilities are inadequate and that operators who have no means of getting their oil to markets are being squeezed because the big companies won't take the oil.

The Woman's Daily Editorial

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

The sermon, good friends, today is of extravagance. "Folks" says to "ponder only those things from which we ourselves are exempt." Under, here, means to criticize. Also there is a deep, dark saying about people in glass houses? Who am I, you ask, to talk about extravagance when I am a woman?

There is another trouble... Women actually do have vision. One sees an attractive mat. Instantly, there springs into her mind's eye a bare spot by the side-door promptly covered by the mat. She buys the mat. She sees a yellow voile dress—then she sees Betty in her old sun-faded green. (Be sure she always sees the worst in this mind eye of hers.) Instantly there is Betty as pretty as sunlight in the yellow. Five on the yellow! The yellow wins!

In fact, the sport dress, and modifications of it, have become standard day attire, particularly for the flapper and the young matron. No woman who has kept her figure youthful need hesitate to wear sport attire. And no one need question its absolute propriety for general wear. Pictured today are three of the most approved fall models. The sleeveless model will continue for winter, and usually is shown with an interesting jacket effect in velvet or wool.

WESTERNERS OFF ON ANNUAL GRID TRAINING GRIND

THIRTY HUSKIES REPORT FOR FIRST PRACTICE ON WEDNESDAY

With thirty embryo athletes reporting for intensive training, Head Coach L. J. Von Tungen and Line Coach Harry Fmka of the Lubbock high school football team, swung their charges into action here yesterday afternoon at the high school scrimmage grounds. Calisthenics were the order of the first practice session.

Although a week's training was completed by many members of the squad last week, after a camp at Silver Falls lake, Crosby county, only a few linemen were present, most of the candidates on hand being of the backfield variety. The practices being held now find candidates for all positions present and promise to do the job a great deal of good in rounding into condition before the first battle begins.

Von Tungen Optimistic.

Coach Von Tungen is highly optimistic over his chances for a victorious year and in laying plans now to turn out the best team in the history of Lubbock high school. A tentative schedule has been arranged with the home games to be played on the Tech gridiron.

ALLEN SCORES IN POPULARITY VOTE

In spite of the fact that his team appeared in only two games and taking into consideration the number of Denver men appearing in play, Slen Allen, manager of the Lubbock Hubbers, received 88 votes in the general balloting to determine the most popular player in the recent Denver Post baseball tournament, the Denver Post yesterday announced.

Only one other Texas player received any votes. Caraway, Lamesa's hurling ace, being just ahead of Slen Allen. About thirty players received ballots and the Hubber boss was among those at the top of the voting list.

Six In Six

PAUL WANER

One of the brightest young twinks to come into the National League in some time is Paul Waner, sensational outfielder of the Pirates. Waner has been playing bang-up ball all year into ballroom's hall of renown by smacking out six hits in as many trips, two being doubles and one a triple. The Pirates obtained Waner from the Pacific Coast League last year.

CARDS ALL SET FOR SCRAP WITH FIGHTING YANKS

"NOTHING CAN STOP US," SKIPPER HORNSBY SAYS AS LEAD INCREASES

"Nobody is going to beat us now," says Rogers Hornsby. He and his fighting clan of St. Louis Cardinals are so confident about it that they have been looking over their prospective world series opponents, the New York Yankees. On an off day the Cardinals went to the Yankee Stadium. Meanwhile, their lead over Cincinnati stretched to three full games yesterday.

The battered Pittsburgh Pirates, clasped by the leaders in the scramble for the National league flag, yesterday slugged the ball and took two days of a double header from the Reds, 6 to 1 and 11 to 0. The victories took the Buccaneers to within two points of Cincinnati, although the surge may be too late to catch the Cardinals, three and a half games away.

The Cardinals resume their labors at Boston tomorrow. The Pirates had a double header with Chicago scheduled for today and therewith a chance to take second place from the idle Reds.

By winning the second game of a double header, 4 to 2, after losing the first, 5 to 1, the Braves yesterday clinched the season's series with the Giants with 12 victories, nine defeats and one game to play.

C. Y. Williams was the hero of a ninth inning rally that gave Philadelphia six runs and an 8 to 4 victory over Brooklyn. He belted a homer with the bases loaded and the score tied at four-all.

The Yankees may have been covering up the style of play that has wafted themselves in games ahead of Cleveland. Certainly the visiting Cardinals saw nothing amazing as Lefty Williams cut down the Yanks, 5 to 2, to break Boston's losing streak of 17 games.

Cleveland failed to realize an opportunity to gain on the Yanks. They lost to Detroit, 10 to 7.

ROTARY TEAM TO INVADES SLATON

With a clean slate as far as 1926 diamond battles are concerned, the Lubbock Rotary club baseball team, fourteen members strong, will descend upon the Slaton club's aggregation in the neighboring city tomorrow. The game will be played at two-thirty in the afternoon, following a luncheon at which the Lubbock men will be the guests of the Slaton club.

Coach "Big Up" Freeland, Lubbock hurling ace, may not be able to make the trip, due to the fact that he has issued his call for Matador grid candidates for tomorrow afternoon. In case Freeland's delivery will be unobtainable, Sled Allen, ball player of many parts, will take up the hurling burden.

Members of the team, who will make the trip, are: Hilburn, catcher; Allen, firstbase; Freeland, pitcher; Guy second; Raley, shortstop; McFee, third base; Dickinson, Griffith, Conley, Jackson, Roberts, Blocker, Grant, Inman and Sennabaugh, outfielders. Several other members of the club will probably attend.

Slaton Supt. Named District Chairman Of Interscholastic Football Play When Class B Coaches Meet In Session Here

C. L. Sone, Superintendent of the public schools at Slaton was elected District Chairman and official arbiter in all matters pertaining to class B football this fall in the Lubbock district interscholastic league, at a meeting of coaches from throughout the district Wednesday afternoon. The coaches, here to attend the Teachers Institute, were in their annual athletic session held in connection with the institute.

Such action was made necessary under a ruling of league officials recently in order that the work of the league might be more easily facilitated, especially in the central office. Since organization of the league, the organization has grown to such an extent that it is admittedly almost beyond reach except through division offices.

And in order that the district chairman's work may be lightened to a certain extent, the district has been divided into four sections, with a sectional chairman over each, these to work in conjunction with the district head in settling all disputes.

Division No. 1, composed of Dickense, Floyd, Hale and Lamb counties will be in charge of Jas. C. Webster, Superintendent of Floydada schools; Division No. 2, composed of Crosby, Lubbock, Hockley and Cochran counties will be in charge of W. E. Patten, Superintendent at Ralls; Division No. 3 composed of Garza, Lynn, Terry and Gaines will be in charge of Superintendent Haze, of Post; and No. 4, composed of Scurry, Dawson and Andrews counties will be supervised by Superintendent Rogers, of Lamesa. Each division chairman will act as a member of the arbitration committee, with Mr. Sone as chairman in the settlement of all disputes and controversies.

The rule regarding entry into class A and class B competition by high schools is optional, even though a school is supposed to enter class A competition when the high school enrollment has reached 350. Due to the fact that some of the larger schools in the district prefer to remain in Class B competition, despite their eligibility for class A, it was decided that a certain discrimination should be made in class B, with the result that the larger schools were grouped into one division, and the smaller ones in another. This was thought necessary in order to put competition on a more equitable basis.

Schools Are Grouped.

Schools in the first group are Ralls, Spur, Littlefield, Floydada, Post, Lamesa, Tahoka, Slaton, Lockney and Snyder. The other group is composed of Brownfield, Levelland, Sudan, Amherst, Otton, Hale Center, Lorenzo, Crosbyton, Dickens, Southland, Muleshoe and Idalou.

Schedules were arranged in accordance with this grouping, but winners will be decided entirely on the basis of percentage of games won. The season will get under way with most of the teams immediately following opening of school, the most of which will open their doors next Monday, and some of the liveliest competition in this section of the state is expected.

DEMPSEY TAKES TO TRAINING IN GREAT EARNEST

TUNNEY ALSO HAS FULL DAYS PROGRAM AFTER HOLIDAY YESTERDAY

(By The Associated Press.)

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 8.—Jack Dempsey's three day vacation is up tomorrow. He will devote little time hereafter to playing checkers, fooling with his thousand dollar radio, or motoring.

He intends to set a pace that will put him on razor edge within the next ten days. He is determined to carry his sparring mates along at a terrific clip to develop speed, timing and judgment of distance.

Jimmy Slattery, Buffalo light heavy weight, will be on the firing line to speed Dempsey up. Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia light heavy and Martin Burke of New Orleans, will help. The heavy duty will fall to Big Bill Tate, and Charley Anderson, negro heavy weights. In all, Dempsey has 15 playmates in camp ready to stand up or get knocked over.

STROUDSBURG, Pa., Sept. 8 (AP)—Gene Tunney's program today was almost full enough to make up for time lost in the holiday he took yesterday.

Golf in the morning and exploration of a Pocono mountain road in the afternoon were what he counted on to bring his condition back to what it was Tuesday night, and six rounds of boxing after luncheon, constituted his appetizer for dinner.

His routine on his regular afternoon appearance never varies. He punches the bag for several rounds, setting the pace for his sparring partners, as they skip rope. The sparring partners shadow box, but Tunney does nothing in the ring. He does plenty of shadow boxing in secret instead. Much of this is done on morning jaunts along the road. He then goes into the boxing ring, a few feet from the platform on which are the punching bags, and goes through his six or eight rounds of boxing.

STEER SKIPPER CERTIFIES DIXIE SERIES PLAYERS

TEXAS LEAGUE PENNANT CINCHED WITH WIN WEDNESDAY

(By The Associated Press.)

DALLAS, Sept. 8.—John Sniper Conley, manager of the Dallas baseball club will certify only five pitchers on his Dixie series list, he announced following the victory that cinched the Texas League pennant Wednesday.

The hurlers will be Rife, Love, Hunter, Shuman and Pence. Other players certified are Billings and Hungling, catchers; Riley, Morse, Tate, Bauman and Gross, infielders; Woebler, Miller, Williams and Brainerd, outfielders; Conley, bench manager.

By certifying both Bauman and Morse as eligible, Conley can work the right hand and left hand shift at this position. He can cut the number of south paw hitters to three—otherwise he would have to use four.

Conley will manage the club from the bench and will not be eligible as a player. The Steer skipper believes he can do more for the club if able to devote his entire attention to directing play and for this reason listed himself ineligible.

Although New Orleans appears the certain winner of the Southern association pennant, and the opponents of the Steers for the Dixie flag, it will be several days probably before the race in the old South is conclusively settled.

Golfers in this country spend $2,000,000 a week on caddies. This is, of course, further proof of the immediate necessity of a third major league.

They had to hold a candle while Chick Evans putted out in the darkness at Indianapolis last week. We can remember when nobody could hold a candle to that boy.

This country is not so bad after all. For instance, there is no law compelling persons to read Harry K. Thaw's history of his life.

Things Worth Knowing In Sport

After two great seasons on the mound, Dazy Vance, Brooklyn's speed ball merchant, is experiencing an unusually tough time this campaign. Vance has won but few titles this year, injuries having kept him from showing his usual brand of stuff for the most part.

It was in 1924 Vance first blazed a dizzy trail in the National League. That season the big boy won 28 games, losing but six. He fanned 242 clubbers in 35 games.

Last year Vance came back to cop 22 frays while dropping nine. It wasn't quite as impressive a performance as he had hunk up the season before, but still mighty good as pitching feats go nowadays. He struck out 221.

Billy Evans Says

FATE PLAYS PART

Fate plays unusual parts in the career of every athlete.

Sometimes it is a pleasing smile, often a most unfriendly frown.

Recently Ted Lyons, star pitcher of the Chicago White Sox, worked a no-hit game against Boston. Such a performance is close to the last word in pitching.

Very often such games are tainted with plays that might be scored as hits or errors. The performance of Lyons had no such blemish.

Only two men reached first, one on a base on balls, the other on a fumble, followed by a wild throw. Only one ball was hit hard, a line drive by Jacobson to Outfielder Johnny Mostil.

In breaking into the list of select pitchers who have worked no-hit games, Lyons received deserved recognition. It is doubtful if any twirler ever had a tougher break in this respect than was his portion a year ago.

Listen to the tale.

Goal of All

Next to a no-hit game, in which players may reach first through fielding or battery errors, is the so-called perfect game, in which not a batsman reaches first.

In order to turn such a trick it is necessary for a pitcher to retire the players in order as they step to the plate for nine consecutive innings.

That is no mena trick against a hard hitting big league ball club. Incidentally it is not unusual for a pitcher to give a base on balls or a fielder to err.

Veach Spoiled It

Facing the Washington club that won the American League pennant last year, Lyons retired the first 25 batters to face him in order.

With two out, Veach was sent in as a pinch-hitter and he proceeded to spoil the perfect day by hitting safely to right field.

That was a tough break, so when Lyons held the Boston club hitless the other day, Fate, very properly, smiled instead of frowned.

In the game preceding the no-hit affair, Lyons blanked Detroit for 10 innings, allowing only three hits.

Two pitching chances, in which no runs and only three hits were made in 19 innings.

Luck With Ehmke

Back in 1923 Howard Ehmke, now with the Athletics, then with Boston, pitched a no-hit game against Connie Mack's club.

It is a rather peculiar coincidence that he was opposed by "Slim" Harris, who was recently traded by Mack most plandy on Ehmke.

In that game Dime Fortune smiled most plandy on Ehmke.

Late in the contest, "Slim" Harris, who is pleased when he hits a foul, surprised himself and Ehmke by hitting the ball to the center field wall.

Now, "Slim" doesn't glide over the ground a la Ty Cobb and by much effort he managed to reach second base. He shortened the route a trifle by failing to touch first base.

The omission was noticed by the first sacker and the umpire. The ball was thrown to that base and one of the few hits Harris has made in his big league career was wiped out.

No other Philadelphia player made anything like a base hit. However, the slip of Harris, the mere failure to touch first, robbing him of a hit, was a slight taint on the no-hit game.

Tough Break Here

In his very next start Ehmke opposed the New York Americans, pennant winners of the previous year, who also repeated in 1923.

In this game a most unkindly frown from the official scorer kept him from being the only pitcher in the history of the major leagues to pitch two no-hit games in succession.

The first man to face Ehmke was Outfielder Witt. He hit a fast-bouncing ball to Third Baseman Shanks. It appeared to be an easy out.

Shanks, after fumbling the ball, juggled it several times before being in a position to throw and just failed to get Witt at first.

Everyone in the press box but the official scorer, called it an error, but he ruled it a hit.

That tainted hit was the only one made by the Yanks during the rest of the game.

It was as tough a break for Ehmke as the missing of the bag by Harris was a lucky one.

SADLER WILL OPEN HERE MONDAY

Harley Sadler, premier show man of West Texas in the opinion of many fans of the traveling theatre, will open a weeks engagement with "His Own Company," in Lubbock next Monday. Marvin Landrum, advance agent for the show, who was here yesterday, announced.

Mr. Sadler has selected as his opening play for Lubbock, "The Awakening of John Slater," or "When Toby Hits New York," and Mr. Landrum pronounced the play as one of the funniest and best plays in the large repertoire of the company. This play, he said was given here last season by the Sadler Company, but had weather broke into the crowd. The play, however, was so enthusiastically received by those present that repetition has been asked.

The show this year is accompanied by Eddie See's famous orchestra, and in addition to this, will present an entirely new line of specialties, with complete change of program each night.

AMARILLO PAPER SAYS THAT SLED MAY COME THERE

The Amarillo News, in a sport story today, hinted that Manager Sled Allen of the Lubbock Hubbers, might be brought to Amarillo next year to guide the destinies of the Metropolitan baseball aggregation. The article concerning the Hubber boss was printed under a column picture of "the skipper" Manager Allen told the Journal upon his return to Lubbock that he had had overtures from Amarillo and Cheyenne, Wyoming, for the 1927 season. The Amarillo paper also stated that Sled was being mentioned for an important post with the Wichita Falls Spudsters in the Texas League for the coming season.

The NUT CRACKER by Joe Williams

They say that Mr. Henry Persson, the Swedish heavyweight, made an impression on the fight fans in his America debut. The surprising impression is that he did not make an impression on the canvas.

The elementary class in funning had hoped that Mr. Persson would prove a flop so he could be referred to in a naive, subtle sort of way as a cheese champion.

The class had also planned to go even further in its rollicking manner and say something about the big cheese being punched full of holes.

NOTE: The analogy here is particularly effective and will be promptly recognized by anyone who ever had intimate relations with a slice of Swiss cheese.

That must have been an old-fashioned dog that leaped at Jack Dempsey the other day, because he didn't stop to quibble over terms, weights or movie rights.

Contrary to the ancient belief that the man must bite the dog in order to provide news, we have the spectacle of a dog merely growling at a heavy-weight champion and providing page one matter.

Maybe after Bobby Jones graduates from law school he'll be able to explain just why some old geezers spend 20 minutes studying the line of a putt and then miss it.

Charlie Hoff, the pole-vaulting champion, has turned professional and what astonishes us is that he was able to do it without any help from Cashandcarry Pyle.

Since Mr. O'Goofy-learned alcohol is being used in gasoline these days, it's impossible to get him away from the filling station before midnight.

The idea of forming a third major league is interesting enough, but what do the organizers plan to use for players?

Dunning Urges Comradship In Talk Formally Opening State Convention Of American Legion At Amarillo

(By The Associated Press) AMARILLO, Sept. 8.—Comradship is the keynote of the vigorous, growing American Legion post, Dr. W. T. Dunning of Gonzales, state commander, declared here Wednesday in opening the state convention.

His report for the year in the main was optimistic. He pointed out that the membership increase for the year was 66 per cent, but added that membership would be a pressing problem, until every eligible person had joined.

Receipt of $129,511.74 from sales of the Legion hospital near Kerrville to the United States government was mentioned, as well as its investment in $1-4 per cent second issue Liberty bonds. Dr. Dunning praised the assistance of Hansford McNIder, assistant secretary of war, and former national commander of the Legion, and of W. F. (Wild Bill) Donovan, assistant attorney general of the United States, in bringing about the sale.

Money Carefully Handled In reciting how carefully money has been handled under his administration, the state commander said, "I have taken 18 signatures to place money in the legion depository and 19 signatures to get it out.

The comradeship of the Legion knows no political, religious, or social lines," he said. "Post officers should make it a point to see that every new member, as soon as he comes into the post, realizes that he is among more than mere friends; that he has found his own crowd. The spirit of comradeship, or whatever you choose to call the common bond which exists between ex-service men should be given every opportunity to develop.

Stability is also an important factor in success of the post, and permanency is assured through good management of the post affairs and finances. Mismanagement breeds dis-

PRODUCTION OF COTTON FIXED AT 15,166,000 BALES

CONDITION 59.6 PERCENT NORMAL SHOWN; YIELD PER ACRE DECREASED

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—A cotton crop of 15,166,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight is indicated by the September 1 condition which was 59.6 per cent of normal, the department of agriculture announced Wednesday.

Developments during the remainder of the season are unfavorable to the crop as in the three years of greatest decline in the last ten, a total production of about 44,104,000 bales might be expected, the crop reporting board announced, but should conditions be as favorable as during the three years of greatest subsequent improvement an out turn of about 15,279,000 bales might result.

Acres Abandoned. The preliminary estimate of abandonment of acreage for the season on the basis of September 1 was placed at 1,591,000 acres or 2.5 percent of the 48,898,000 acres in cultivation on June 25, leaving for harvest this season 47,307,000 acres.

The September 1 condition indicates a yield of 153.6 pounds per acre, as compared with 154.6 pounds a fortnight ago and 167.2 pounds the final yield last year.

A total production of 15,248,000 bales was indicated a fortnight ago on the August 16 condition, which was 63.2 percent of normal. Last year's crop totaled 16,102,679 bales and the September 1 condition was 56.2.

Preliminary Estimates. The preliminary estimates of area left for harvest (in thousands of bales) as indicated by the September 1 condition, by states follow:

FARMERS CHOOSING FAIR EXHIBITS

The Panhandle-South Plains fair, "The Show Window of the Plains," will not be complete this year without all the best specimens of products on display, according to David F. Eaton, county agent. The majority of agricultural crops are ready to be gathered and specimens should be selected for the fair, which is to be held September 29, 30 and October 1 and 2, he said.

Mr. Eaton and representatives of the fair association are meeting with the farmers and helping them select and arrange their exhibits. Milk, maize, kafir, higeria, fetaria, millet, all varieties of cane, dawo and other crops are now being prepared. Vegetables will be prepared soon, he said. The best exhibits in the Lubbock County fair will be sent to the Dallas fair for display in the Lubbock booth. Fair catalogues are now being distributed and may be secured at the Chamber of Commerce offices.

The Carlisle community, judging from prospects of the country surrounding it, is facing great prosperity; and the meeting, as well, bids for success, according to Rev. Norcross.

VANITY CASE

"No, Al objected, 'I could tell by the way he talked to me that he isn't the murderer. Why, he loved his wife. But he told me I must do it so I want to nail the crime on him.' 'I'd like to see those men you speak of,' Truitt said to Cunningham. 'Can you fix it up for tonight?' 'Yes, sure. They'll all be at the club, or if not, we can get them there.' 'All right, Mr. Cunningham. Buck will bring me over at whatever hour you say. Now, if nobody objects, I'm going to give this house, or some rooms in it the once over, all alone by myself, and I'll be back at your house in time for dinner, Toddy boy.' The little group dispersed, and Steve Truitt, alone and unescorted made his unquestioned way wherever he chose to go, through the rooms of the Heath house.

He spent most of his time in the bedrooms of Mr. and Mrs. Heath, paying scant attention to the studio or any part of the lower house. But he wandered for some time up and down the terrace, the east terrace on which there was a small lat-used window as well as one long. "Good girl," he called out gayly. "I'll come right over." He stroked leisurely back to the front house, and found Bunny had come downstairs, and was ready for a conference. Mrs. Prentiss and Ted were also waiting, and Truitt described his search of the Heath house. (To Be Continued)

NEW ORLEANS TRADING NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 9. (AP)-The cotton market opened steady although Liverpool showed little change, being one point down to 3 points up. Rains in the Western belt and large sales of spots in Liverpool held the market for a time but later selling by ring traders caused prices to react. October traded down to 17.68, December to 17.74, and January to 17.78, or 7 to 11 points below the opening.

The market continued to ease off during the greater part of the morning on selling. There was also more or less hedge selling, prices easing off 20 to 24 points down from yesterday's close. The decline attracted some trade buying and there was also more or less covering on the outlook for less favorable weather in the belt. The market rallied 7 to 13 points near mid-session. The market proved quiet but steady at mid-session with prices ruling within the earlier range and about 12 points above the lows of the morning.

NEW YORK TRADING NEW YORK, Sept. 9. (AP)-The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 1 to 10 points. Active months soon showed net losses of about 4 to 5 points, under Southern selling. Private reports of further showers in Oklahoma brought in some buying, however, and after initial offerings had been absorbed, the market steadied on covering, December selling up to 17.85 by the end of the first hour. The market at that time was fairly active, prices holding well up to or within 2 or 3 points of yesterday's closing quotations.

The market turned easier later in the morning with the appearance of more southern hedge selling. Trade demand was less in evidence and there was also renewed liquidation and realizing. At mid-day October was ruling around 17.53 and January 17.78, or about 18 to 20 points net lower.

After selling down to 17.50 on the mid-day decline, December rallied to 17.75 on covering and hedge buying which appeared to be based on the detailed weather report showing general rains in the Oklahoma district.

The rally was not fully maintained, but the market was quiet and steady around 2 o'clock, December selling at 17.73, or about 13 or 14 points net lower.

WALL STREET TRADING NEW YORK, Sept. 9. (AP)-Stock prices failed to follow a clearly defined trend at the opening of today's market. Realizing and short selling followed up yesterday's late break were offset by renewed buying of the seasonal industrialists, but initial changes with few exceptions were limited to fractions. Radio advanced a point but Jordin Motors slumped to a new low.

Snappy Interviews

ATTORNEY HOMER L. PHARR: "Taking Mrs. Pharr and Lee J. home this evening, when Lee J. will see his home for the first time. Both of them are just getting along fine, and Lee J. is getting along so well that it won't be long till he will be yelling 'Hooryay for Dan Moody.'"

"I was in the cafe today, and happened to look up and see another fellow looking at me. I looked at him, and he continued looking at me, like a couple of blazes, until he stuck out his hand and asked me what I was doing in this town. It was Freestrong, of Lubbock, who sat in classes with me before we graduated in '14; and this was the first time we'd seen each other since. He's a lawyer now down at Dallas. I told him that I was an old-timer 'out here now, since I had been here for four years, and he had to agree."

A large number of American legion boys went up to Amarillo today; in fact, quite a delegation. Yes, Woods is Post Commander, and H. L. Allen chairman of the delegates. They'll be there three days, and will have quite a time."

H. L. KIMBRO: "Never saw crops looking better in this country since I've been out here. Field grains as well as the cotton, all over this section, looking mighty good. This country is making history now, same as any other section of the state has made its history; and people are only learning the real crop value of the Plains. Do you know, the Plains, according to tests conducted at the state experiment farm out here, is the greatest cotton producing section of the state? For eleven years, Mebane seed planted out there, cultivated intensively, with dry cultivation, has averaged three quarters of a bale to the acre. Every Plains farmer could do the same thing, if he would plant good seed, and cultivate the crop well instead of trying to handle so much, which condition is being done away with."

"Of course we expect that the legislature will grant the emergency voucher for the Tech, for $150,000. The governor has turned it down; but the school must have it to put on the Junior year of college work. There must be new teachers and new laboratories and other supplies. It takes lots of money to run a school, especially one as big as the Tech. The initial appropriation was expected to take of the first years' enrollment, when it was estimated that 250 students would be here for the opening - and the 1943 registered. It is complete evidence that the need for the school was here, as shown by this enrollment. With the population of the Plains towns and the country itself more than doubling each decade, the Tech will keep on growing."

"Oil? Why, if oil should be struck at any distance from Lubbock, especially in more than one direction, Lubbock would become the distributing center of more wealth than it has ever had before. Oil now would touch off a big boom that would be another story like Amarillo's."

W. A. MYRICK, Sr.: "How's everything? 'Everything's all right. Well, I might say that the hotel has opened nicely, and is running in excellent shape. Of course, there are odds and ends which will have to be straightened out and cleared up, but even now everything is in good shape. Running with ninety per cent of guest rooms filled every night, Sunday night, only three nights after having opened the hotel, guests were turned away. But they were turned away from other hotels in the town too; it was just an extra big run."

"It all exceeds anything we had expected. I might say, also, that we are much pleased with the manager of the hotel, and with Mrs. LaFon too. They are thoroughly competent. We are also very well pleased with this building. 'The Plains? Never had better prospects before. And the crops this year have been brought along so far with the least expense of any year. The wheat is especially fine. I have 600 acres of wheat sowed and up, and by next week will have 100 more. That inch rain Wednesday night was certainly fine for it. I'm sowing 2,000 acres; just presently, I think that every farmer should sow some wheat. 'Yes, this oil business sure looks good. Getting closer and closer to the Plains; and all these wells are bearing out the theory expressed by the president of the Standard Oil com-

is the hardest style effect to achieve

Gone . . . the days of keen "boiler plate" fit. Gone the days of "curve for curve" tailoring. Today . . . the best fitting garments are those that fit nicely . . . not too snugly at the shoulders . . . and drape themselves naturally to the rest of the body.

Such an effect is splendidly achieved by the designers of—

FRAT CLOTHES for YOUNG MEN

And such an effect is possible only with accurate workmanship, thoughtful tailoring — skillful needlework.

You'll see such an effect in the Merton, a well-favored Double - Breasted that emphasizes the broad - shouldered set that most men want—today.

And such materials as Battersea Blends and Mayflowers do much to give the pleasing idea of studied carelessness.

At a carefully studied price of—

Palmer Will Attend Scout Officers Meet

H. B. Palmer, Boy Scout executive in this section, is to attend the fourth biennial conference of the Scout Executives of the United States in Hot Springs, Ark., September 20, 21, 22, according to present plans. He is to attend a short training camp for officials in the ninth region in the Ozarks preceding the conference. It is thought that Scout executives will attend from several foreign countries.

Mr. Palmer is now making a trip over the South Plains area in direction and organization of several units of work. He is gathering pictures of local scouts and troops to include in his report and has asked that pictures and negatives be sent to the Scout office.

ABOUT 7 BALES OF COTTON have been ginned in Lubbock up to now. It was unofficially announced today. The first bale to be ginned here was brought in by W. L. Altman from west of the city.

HOWARD FERGUSON, SON OF Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Ferguson, left Wednesday for Syracuse, N. Y., where he is to attend school this winter.

ORCHESTRA WELL RECEIVED HERE

Playing before an audience of several hundred persons, the Imperial Symphony orchestra of Mexico, under the direction of Professor Roberto S. Rechl, gave a concert at the Tech pavilion, Wednesday evening under the sponsorship of the South Plains Music Teachers association, of which Miss Mary Duns is president. Teachers attending the institute here were present in large numbers swelling the attendance.

Popular American music, grand opera selections and famous Mexican love songs were played during the evening by the musicians who received high praise for the quality and beauty of their music from virtually all of the audience. And in spite of the fact that the improvised seats in the auditorium were uncomfortable, these gathered sat for several hours listening to the music.

The geniality of the director won the liking of the audience early in the evening. Characteristically, the Mexican players responded readily to the applause and approval of the audience. A group of American and Southern melodies played during the evening were among the more popular selections, although each number was well received.

A feature of the evening was the attendance of a group of Mexicans from Lubbock's Little Mexico who came to hear their countrymen play.

Booths Being Sold Now For Big Fair

Booth space in the industrial building at the 1926 Panhandle South Plains fair is now being sold and merchants who held booths last year are being given the first call. A. B. Davis, manager of the exposition announced this morning.

According to the manager's word the industrial building will be one of the bright spots of the fair this year and great pains are to be taken with the building as a whole as well as with the individual booths.

WEST TEXAS FAIR OFFERS LIBERAL PRIZE FOR BEST MAIZE HEADS

The West Texas Fair Association is trying to encourage the farmers throughout West Texas to plant a better strain of maize seeds. With the object in view, this organization is offering unusually liberal premiums to the farmers who exhibit the best ten heads of maize at the coming fair. As you know, if we in this territory plant better seeds, the movement becomes contagious and extends to other sections; any worthy development in one section is calculated to affect the whole area of West Texas, according to J. R. Masterson, superintendent of the agricultural department of the West Texas Fair to be held at Abilene Sept. 20-25, this year.

Further, according to Mr. Masterson, the West Texas Fair association will award the lump sum of $100 to the exhibitor of the best ten heads of maize. Competition is open to the world, and either white or red maize will be acceptable. Farmers, especially are urged to enter the ten heads for this premium.

The association will also award $100 to boys and girl club members who are working with a County or Home Demonstration Agent for the exhibitors of the best ten heads of maize, to be divided as follows: 1st, $25; 2nd, $20; 3rd, $10; 4th, $5; 5th, $5; 6th, $7; 7th, $6; 8th, $5; 9th, $4; 10th, $3; 11th, $2; and 12th, $1.

Boys or girl club members may compete for both the lump sum and $100 prize and also for these Club specials by entering 20 heads of maize.

Other awards will be to exhibitors of the best bunch of sweet clover three inches in diameter, with open entries, with prizes of $10, $5 and $2.50.

All entries must be on the Fair grounds not later than noon of Sept. 20th, specimens that are mailed in should be addressed to J. R. Masterson, Sup'l. Agricultural Dept., West Texas Fair, Abilene, Texas.

Nebraska moonshiners are on a bread and water diet, the bread being to help get the water down.

THE STUDEBAKER CORPORATION OF AMERICA

appoints

TILSON-DENNIS AUTO CO.

as Studebaker dealer in LUBBOCK, TEXAS

THE Studebaker Corporation of America takes pleasure in announcing this appointment to the many Studebaker owners in this locality.

This selection is in line with the Studebaker policy of appointing as its representatives only those men who are thoroughly qualified to render Studebaker owners the service and attention that we have always considered a part of the sale.

This organization decided to handle the Studebaker line after a thorough investigation of the field of fine cars. These are the factors which influenced their decision—factors which will appeal equally to every motor car purchaser seeking utmost value for his dollars:

1 Studebaker offers the only One-Profit automobile in the fine-car field. Like Ford in the low-price field, Studebaker builds all of its own bodies, engines, clutches, gear sets, brakes, springs, differentials, steering gears, axles, gray-iron castings and drop forgings. Thus by saving the profits of outside parts and body makers, Studebaker is able to offer a much better car for the money—can afford to use finer upholstery, better steels, higher grades of hardwood, more painstaking workmanship, and still keep down the purchase price.

2 The One-Profit Studebaker is a better car, regardless of price, because it is designed, engineered and built as a unit. As a result, its hundreds of parts function together as a unit, yielding greater comfort, easier riding and longer life.

Scores of thousands of miles of excess transportation are thus built into every Studebaker car.

3 Studebakers are kept constantly up-to-date, improvements being made without regard for the calendar. This policy protects buyers against unnecessary depreciation and lowered resale value caused by annual announcements.

4 Back of every Studebaker car are assets of $100,000,000, plus Studebaker's 74-year-old reputation for quality. This background assures the purchaser that the Studebaker will never be an "orphan" car.

Come in and inspect the display of One-Profit Studebaker cars. See the Studebaker enclosed models—coaches, broughams and sedans. See the exclusive Studebaker Duplex models—combining open-car airiness with closed-car protection. Remember, the One-Profit Studebaker offers you a better car at a lower price. It is the supreme value in the fine-car field.
