U. N. Again Faces Indonesian Crisis

LAKE SUCCESS, June 17. (AP)—The United Nations faced a new Indonesian crisis today after months of quiet on the front. It was not clear just how serious the current Batavia difficulties are, but some high UN authorities feared a complete collapse of Dutch-Indonesian peace talks is imminent.

The council also had before it the atomic control problem, which was carried over from yesterday. It was agreed the atomic issue would be taken up after the Indonesian problem was discussed.

Batavia said a serious situation had developed there after publication of a confidential proposal which the U.S. member of the Good Offices Committee had submitted to the Dutch and Indonesian representatives.

Third Veto By President Is Overridden

History Made With Moves By Lawmakers

WASHINGTON, June 17.

(AP)—Congress made history today by passing major legislation over President Truman's veto for the third time in four days.

The No. 3 bill is one letting railroads make rate agreements of a kind now barred by anti-trust laws.

Final action was completed by the House. The Senate overrode the veto 63 to 25 yesterday.

The House vote was 297 to 102. This was 31 votes more than the two-thirds needed to make the measure law over Mr. Truman's objections.

Congressional officials said three vetoes slapped down within a week is a record not equaled by any other Congress.

Earlier this week Congress knocked down votes of a social security bill and an appropriation bill transferring the United States Employment Service from the Labor Department to the Federal Security Agency.

The railroad bill says railroads and other surface carriers cannot be prosecuted under the anti-trust laws for getting together and making agreements on rates and fares, provided the agreements are approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

When Mr. Truman vetoed it, he called the bill "inconsistent" with a "vigorous anti-monopoly program."

Underground Crash Kills Coal Miner

WELCH, W. Va., June 17. (AP)—Ten coal miners were injured and another was killed early today in an underground collision.

G. R. Jennings, superintendent of the Olga Coal Company's mine at Caretta, six miles west of here, said that apparently "a motor got loose and ran into a man-trap."

Miners said a train of ten cars had crashed into a motor hauling equipment, and that the latter then collided with a train of three cars carrying miners.

First reports stated erroneously that a hoist cage had fallen down a shaft.

Draft Bill Heads Into More Trouble

Proposal Already Drastically Revised

WASHINGTON, June 17. (AP)—The House draft bill, already drastically revised, headed into more trouble today.

Opponents said they have "an outside chance" of beating it; supporters predicted it will be passed before the day is over.

In two tentative decisions yesterday the House voted to cut the term of draft service from two years to one and to junk plans for a special registration and draft of medical men.

Both actions may be subject to later roll call votes. The tallest remaining hurdle appeared to be a proposal by Rep. Shafer (R-Mich) to pass the bill but put off any actual drafting at least until after Jan. 31, pending a stepped up recruiting drive.

Foes of the two-year draft revival measure were jubilant after the House voted 156 to 88 to cut the period of service from 24 months to 12.

The members listened to Rep. Kilday (D-Tex) make a final appeal for defeat of the amendment. He urged them to vote against the bill, if they chose, but not to "cripple it" by reducing the term of service to one year.

When the House bill is passed, it will go to a conference committee to work out differences between it and the bill passed by the Senate last week. The Senate bill calls for two years' service.

As yesterday's debate started, the House tentatively accepted a "pull-the-trigger" amendment by Rep. Andrews (D-N.Y.). It would postpone inductions until the President proclaimed that the armed services cannot get enough men voluntarily.

Up for action was a proposal by Sen. Russell (D-Cal) to substitute for the Vermont bill a House measure extending the present price support law 18 months. Russell contended that the long-range program was too complicated to be considered this late in the session.

Acting Floor Leader Wherry of Nebraska told newsmen he will hold the Senate in session into the night, if necessary, to reach a decision and — if Russell's amendment is beaten down — send the measure on to conference with the House.

But Aiken's plan for a permanent system of price supports faced a major test with resumption of debate today on the prime political campaign issue.

FOR TALKS

Bernadotte Now On Way To Tel Aviv

CAIRO, June 17. (AP)—Count Folke Bernadotte took off for Tel Aviv today to talk with Israeli leaders about permanent peace plans for Palestine. The first week of a 28-day armistice ends tonight.

Bernadotte, mediator for the United Nations, has been talking with Arab leaders here for the last two days.

Just before he left, a letter he wrote to Premier Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrashy Pasha was made public promising the military situation in the Holy Land will be restored to what it was when the truce took effect.

Bernadotte's letter, in response to Nokrashy's complaints of Jewish truck violations on Palestine's southern frontier, said:

"I can give you formal assurance that necessary measures will be taken toward restoring the military situation to what it was June 11, 1948, at 0600 GMT."

In Tel Aviv, Bernadotte intends to ask Israeli authorities whether they plan to send consultants to his headquarters on Rhodes. He said the Arabs have promised to send four experts there next Monday.

Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary of the league, emphasized that the experts will not represent Arab countries, but merely will supply Bernadotte with data and documents he may need.

Bernadotte pointed out that sending experts to Rhodes does not mean there will be a roundtable conference attended by both Jews and Arabs. The Arabs already have turned down any such talks.

"If we get suggestions we think are just, we will send them to the different parties and they will study them," Bernadotte said.

He plans to return to his Rhodes headquarters tomorrow.

The Israeli government in Tel Aviv, meanwhile, accused Britain of diverting fuel oil to Arab states by shutting off the pipeline from Arab countries to Haifa. A spokesman said Israel may appeal to the UN Security Council to prevent the British from removing remaining oil reserves to refineries in Lebanon.

G-E Orders Price Hikes

NEW YORK, June 17. (AP)—The General Electric Company has ordered price increases—ranging from five to 12 percent—for numerous household articles and industrial products.

Charles E. Wilson, company president, said yesterday the price boosts will be effective immediately.

He said the move was made necessary by wage increases, higher freight rates and advanced costs of materials.

The company last week granted an eight per cent price increase to 125,000 members of the CIO United Electrical Workers employed at G.E. plants across the country.

The advanced prices will be tagged on a variety of items ranging from refrigerators to small electric motors.

RELUCTANTLY

French Approve A West Germany

PARIS, June 17. (AP)—The National Assembly reluctantly approved today a six-power agreement to set up a semi-independent government in Western Germany. It tacked on six conditions intended to guarantee French security.

The final vote was 300 to 286, a margin of 14 for Premier Robert Schuman. The original tally was 297 to 283, with 26 absences, but later three North African deputies changed their positions.

French approval was the final one necessary to start the new German plan rolling. The other five governments involved—Britain, the United States, Luxembourg, Belgium and The Netherlands—all gave their okays previously.

The plan envisages election of a constituent assembly in the French, American and British occupation zones of Germany to set up a German government with the least possible allied control. It also contains provisions for six-power control of German industry and the Ruhr mines. And for indefinite allied occupation of Germany.

The Russian, invited to put their occupation zone into the same setup, have rejected the whole idea as a violation of the Potsdam agreement.

Korean Reds Break Silence

SEOUL, June 17. (AP)—The Russian commander didn't budge from his power policy—but he finally answered an American letter.

Major Gen. S. P. Merkulov, new commander of the Soviet occupation zone in North Korea, wrote a flat refusal to resume supplying power to American-occupied South Korea. The switches were pulled May 14.

Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, American occupation commander, made the Russian reply public. It was the first official communication in months from the Russian in answer to Hodge's numerous requests and protests on various matters.

BUILDING PLATFORM

Race Issue Breaks In GOP Committee

PHILADELPHIA, June 17. (AP)—The race issue broke in the Republican Platform Committee today as a delegate from Texas protested that no Southerner had been assigned to the subcommittee that will write the GOP platform on civil rights.

Orrville Bullington of Wichita Falls, Tex., arose in the committee session to tell Chairman Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., that "the South is more interested in this question than anything else." He demanded that a Southern delegate be put on the Civil Rights Committee.

Lodge, a Massachusetts senator, told the 104-member Platform group that it was in order for members to swap their committee assignments if they desire.

Mrs. Agnes Jones Gifford, South Orange, N. J., immediately announced that she would yield her Civil Rights Committee post to Bullington. The Texan then was assigned to this committee and Mrs. Gifford took his place on the subcommittee dealing with economic and small business.

This dramatic development occurred shortly after the Platform Committee had organized, electing Lodge as its chairman and designating nine subcommittees to conduct hearings on party platform planks.

When the morning committee session adjourned, Bullington told reporters, "It is time the South became a two-party country and we don't want to keep pulling Democratic chestnuts out of the fire."

He told newsmen emphatically he opposes the FEPC (Fair Employment Practice Committee) and anti-lynch legislation.

FEPC, he said, "is not constitutional," and as for anti-lynch laws, he declared, "we don't need them. We have no lynchings anymore."

Anti-lynch laws would "harm the colored people," he asserted.

No Polio Yet Found In Area

No polio cases have been reported here this season, Dr. F. E. Sadler, Midland, director of the Midland-Ector-Howard county health unit, said Thursday.

While he expressed a deep hope that this would continue to be so, Dr. Sadler advised vigilance in precautions against this and any other summer infections. Polio is at a record level in Texas.

Symptoms of polio often are quite obscure, he said, and sometimes the case may not be diagnosed positively until there is some muscular reaction.

Generally children become languid and run some fever, he said. The mother will know that the child is ill but not know exactly why. Dr. Sadler advised that the family physician be consulted.

General and individual sanitation is about the best preventative, he said.

Dr. Sadler said that he hoped that a representative of the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation could be brought here soon for a two-day course dealing with poliomyelitis. This instruction, for mothers and others interested, is being offered currently in Odessa.

DARK HORSE HOLDS TOP INTEREST

Vandenberg Is Expected To Let Voting Take Its Course At GOP Convention

PHILADELPHIA, June 17. Close associates said today that unless he changes plans, Sen. Arthur Vandenberg will permit Republican presidential voting to take its course without any statement from him.

This person, who declined to be quoted by name said the Michigan senator feels he has done everything possible to discourage his nomination. He has said publicly—and privately to picked audiences—that he does not want the honor and doesn't expect to get it.

But Gov. Kim Singler of Michigan said at the governors' conference, in New Castle, N. H., he is convinced Vandenberg is "available" for the nomination.

Vandenberg personally pledged with Duff several weeks ago not to adopt this course. But the Pennsylvania governor went ahead.

There were many in this flag-bedecked convention city, however, who felt that it is about all over with but the shouting. Their view—and it was expressed widely by delegates and party leaders—is that Dewey is in such a commanding position that he never will be headed in the voting.

Against this, the advocates of Harold E. Stassen clung grimly to the belief that their favorite somehow can crash through to the nomination. They were a little hard put, however, to blueprint any such result. Stassen was due here today to shed more light on this situation.

Vandenberg has adopted a let-see-what-happens attitude toward the balloting, which may begin next Wednesday or Thursday.

Foreign Aid Program Heads For Showdown

WASHINGTON, June 17. (AP)—The multi-billion dollar foreign aid program headed for a final showdown today.

A Senate-House conference committee was called into session this afternoon to decide how much the United States will spend to help 16 European nations, Japan, China and Korea on the road to recovery.

A lively verbal fight appeared certain before the conferees emerge with the finished bill—a compromise between the sharply conflicting Senate and House versions. Each chamber still must ratify the conference report but with the rush to adjourn Congress Saturday this becomes a mere formality.

The House took the administration's proposed $6,533,710,228 (B) program, spread it from 12 to 15 months, and in effect whittled off about $1,433,000,000 (B). Also the House inserted several restrictions on how the money was to be spent.

The Senate took a very different view of the foreign needs. It changed the program back to 12 months and restored an estimated $1,157,000,000 (B) of the House cuts, in addition to knocking out some House restrictions.

WASHINGTON, June 17. (AP)—Sen. Aiken (R-Vt) predicted today the Senate would approve his long-range farm bill before closing up shop for the night.

But Aiken's plan for a permanent system of price supports faced a major test with resumption of debate today on the prime political campaign issue.

Up for action was a proposal by Sen. Russell (D-Cal) to substitute for the Vermont bill a House measure extending the present price support law 18 months. Russell contended that the long-range program was too complicated to be considered this late in the session.

Acting Floor Leader Wherry of Nebraska told newsmen he will hold the Senate in session into the night, if necessary, to reach a decision and — if Russell's amendment is beaten down — send the measure on to conference with the House.

EX-GOVERNOR HERE

Davis Will Take Song Over Politics

Take it from one with no less experience than Gov. Jimmie Davis, a tour on the entertainment circuit, even in the face of blistering temperatures, provides a welcome respite from politics, especially the Louisiana variety.

The tall, blue-eyed string band leader who will present his show tonight from the stage of the Municipal auditorium, released his chair as chief executive of Louisiana a little more than a month ago.

"That office sure furnished some headaches," he commented. He did not seek a second term.

Despite the trials of political campaigns, and an apparent reluctance to dwell upon the subject, Davis is not counting himself out of that field, however. In fact, political interest may have been partly responsible when he resigned as professor of history at Dodd college in Shreveport a few years ago and "took up yodelling."

"I thought it would look silly to go around yodelling in the frocked coat of a professor, and besides, there is a certain amount of politics connected with college work and I decided that it would be just as well to come out in the open as long as I was already in," he explained.

His campaign tours consisted of "lots of singing and little speaking," he reflected.

He told of arriving at one small town in the southern part of Louisiana during his campaign for governor when he decided to make no speech at all. He told the throng that had gathered that he would just sing and forget about talking. One individual of French origin was not satisfied, however.

"What do you intend to do with the one-cent sales tax?" he shouted. "I intend to take it off," Davis answered.

"Thank God for such a candidate," the questioner signed. "But I intend to put on a five-cent tax in its place," the candidate continued.

"What a blankety-blank candidate," the man exploded. Davis also took the time to point out that he left a surplus of some thirty-five million dollars for Louisiana at the end of his term after paying of debts of about forty-eight millions.

Taxes here are exceptionally high, however, he admitted. It takes about $1.20 more to fill my car with gasoline in Louisiana than it does in Texas, he said.

He served as police commissioner in Shreveport and later as railroad commissioner for the state before he became Louisiana's governor. He also took note that he and Sam Jones are the only two living ex-governors of that state who have not gone to the penitentiary.

Travelling with Davis are members of his string band, many of whom were associated with him before his political campaigns. Included in the party is Charlie Mitchell, who was Davis' executive secretary while he was in the governor's office.

Otschalk Man Hurt In Crash

G. B. Stockton, Otschalk, was in a serious condition at the Cowper-Sanders hospital Thursday, suffering from auto mishap injuries.

The accident occurred on Highway 87 south near the thoroughfare's entrance to the city park at approximately 3 p. m. Wednesday.

Stockton's condition was said to be satisfactory considering the extent of his hurts, which included four fractures of his left arm, including a compound break, a dislocated left hip, multiple lacerations about the head and face and abrasions.

He was rushed to the hospital in a Nalley ambulance after his car was in collision with another vehicle which contained Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Dominguez and their three children. The couple sustained minor injuries as did a son, John. Two daughters were unhurt.

Dominguez, heading into town, said it appeared that Stockton decided to come back to the highway after turning off on the road to the "new wells."

Water Runs Short Here

The city hall was deluged with a flood this morning, but not the kind that would help erase a drought.

Instead, it was a flood of telephone calls complaining of low water pressure which developed as a result of Wednesday's record consumption.

Pumps simply could not keep water in the distribution system because patrons were using no less than 4,782,000 gallons, an all-time record for a single day. In fact, Wednesday's consumption exceeded the previous record by almost half a million gallons.

Residents near the ends of lines were completely without water for a while, and other areas could obtain a mere trickle. City Manager H. W. Whitney said. Larger pipes for the distribution system is the only solution for the problem, the city manager explained.

Britain Moves For Nationalization Of Gas Industry

LONDON, June 17. (AP)—The 23-bor government's proposal to place 1,050 privately-owned British gas companies under public ownership went to the House of Lords for approval today. The House of Commons approved it last night.

First Lady?

MRS. ROBERT TAFT

Mrs. Taft talks more about her husband than has the wife of any other candidate in history. She is trained in politics, has strong opinions, a sense of humor and an uninhibited platform personality. As Martha Wheaton Bowers of Winona, Minn., she went to a fashionable girls' school in Connecticut and the Sorbonne in Paris.

Martha met Bob Taft at a school dance in 1910. They were married in 1914. They have four children and six grandchildren. They live in an old-fashioned, three-story red brick house in Georgetown.

Alice Roosevelt Longworth, Martha's political comrade, says it's the kind of a home "that has a cookie jar in the pantry instead of a bar."

SHOVEL and HOE

A Garden Column by Virginia Scott. Presented by the Big Spring Garden Club.

From all accounts there have been bigger and better Flower Shows and Garden Tours this year than ever. It would be impossible to attend them all, but we would like doing just that. We have always refrained from strong drink, but the draught of beauty quaffed in the springtime makes us slightly dizzy, so it may be as well not to indulge too freely.

The show season was about a month earlier in some sections this year. Roses that bloom in early May held off until June last year, but were back to normal this year. While on the subject, there are two new roses coming up for market this fall. Forty-niner and Tallyho, "All-America Rose selections for 1948."

Judged on qualities of the ideal Rose, Forty-niner and Tallyho achieved near perfect scores and demonstrated that they could flourish in any part of the country.

The outstanding feature of Forty-niner is the color, a rich yellow outside which contrasts and yet harmonizes with the vivid red inside. The yellow color is most evident in the bud, which is chrome yellow, sometimes overlaid with pink. This changes to straw yellow in the open blooms. The inside surface of the petals is an orient red which turns cherry red as the blossom ages.

A rich spicy fragrance, unique in coloring, and graceful form in the open bloom were major reasons for Tallyho's selection as an All-America Rose. The plant branches continually, throwing out long, straight flower stems with a beautiful bud at the top. Bi-colored, Tallyho has an unusual tint that is entirely new to roses. Its coloring varies according to the weather and planting location. While the outside of the petals fluctuates from crimson to cardinal red, its inside surface exhibits several shades of pink.

Summer care of roses consists of cultivation, watering, spraying and feeding—if necessary. A mulch helps to conserve moisture, but the ground should be kept loose. Hoe and rake beds after a heavy rain, as soon as the ground is workable. Not too deep.

All watering should be thorough, no sprinkling as this brings the roots to the surface and causes them to dry out. Some growers advocate watering roses in the early morning to prevent black spot, and washing plants with a strong stream of water several times during the day in extremely hot weather.

Grafted roses sometimes send up shoots that remain ungrafted until they begin to starve out the real rose. These shoots have different and smaller foliage than the variety grafted, can be removed by cutting off close to the plant as low as possible.

If it is necessary to fertilize your roses, complete plant food should be applied at the rate of four pounds per one hundred square feet of bed and worked into the soil.

A visitor to our gardens during the Rose season remarked that she knew everything about a house but nothing about the garden. Standing beside a large Pillar Rose, she reached up to touch a perfect pink blossom and suggested how lovely it would be floated in a crystal bowl. We caught her vision and knew the Rose. In that short space, a masterpiece was created. Upon such small incidents hinge the niceties of life.

The question of how arteries and veins in the human body were connected remained unanswered until 1861 when an Italian anatomist discovered tiny connecting vessels with the newly invented microscope.

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Many people have reported amazing results with this home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your drug store and ask for a ounce of liquid Barco-traine. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if possible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic, from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, thighs and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 47 Pounds
"When I commenced to take Barco-traine, I weighed 213 pounds. I now weigh 166. I lost 25 pounds on the first two bottles. I feel so much better after taking that week. I think it is a wonderful medicine and thanks to Barco-traine."—Mrs. George Greig, Chalices Courts 4, Apt. 1, Austin, Texas.

Lost 20 Pounds
"I lost 20 pounds taking four bottles of Barco-traine and I feel fine."—H. H. Gates, 512 25th Street, Corpus Christi, Texas.

COMPLETELY NEW MODEL

New '49 Ford Will Be Displayed Here

The 1949 Ford, revealing a radical departure from traditional Ford styling and engineering, goes on display in Big Spring Friday at the Big Spring Motor company, local Ford dealer. Several models will be available for inspection, and the public is invited to see the line for which Ford Motor company spent more than $37,400,000 in re-tooling. Claimed for the 1949 Ford are new standards of beauty, comfort, economy and performance. The modern design has been molded along functional lines, resulting in a long, low, sweeping silhouette. The grille is distinctive, the hood massive but shorter than the body so wide the rear fenders have been eliminated. There are clean, unbroken lines from front to rear. Comfort has been one of the primary objectives in the new Ford. There is more room in the "lounge car" interiors than in many cars with much larger over-all dimensions. Front seat widths have been increased six inches and the rear seat nearly eight inches. The body has been moved five inches forward with the seats cradled between the axles for a much smoother ride. A new type of suspension system—"hydra-coil" springs—replaces the traditional transverse springs and the front axle. This system is centered around airplane type shock absorbers mounted within low frequency coil springs. In the rear, extra long longitudinal springs are complemented by airplane type shock absorbers. The drive shaft tunnel has been decreased by adoption of the Hotchkiss drive and the hypoid rear axle. These engineering changes also minimized the transmission of road noises into the car. New standards of safety have been set in the rugged construction of the chassis and body. The box-type frame is of all-welded construction. Although the frame is lighter, there is 30 per cent more rigidity when combined with the body. Lowering the over-all height by four inches and placing the seats between the axles results in a lower center of gravity, an aid in safe driving. The windshield has been increased in height and width and the rear window now provides "picture window" visibility for driver and passengers. The rear window is larger than the ordinary windshield. There is as much as 20 square feet of windows in the new cars. The 114-inch wheelbase, convenient for parking and in moving through heavy traffic, has been retained. The new six develops 95-horsepower, providing better acceleration in passing and heavy traffic. The V-8 develops 100-horsepower.

Coach That Got Heave-Ho Heads Alumni

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, June 17. (AP)—Letting other guys do your work: Horace Wade, Monmouth Park publicist, was looking for an angle on the Salvo Mile, opening day feature at the last New Jersey track... The race honors Salvo, which set a mile record of 1:35 1/4 at old Monmouth Park 58 years ago. Equipose currently holds the record of 1:34 2/5. Frank Christmas asked: "Everybody speaks about the four-minute mile man is going to run some day. How about the horse that is going to run the 1:30 mile?"... The horsemen at Monmouth insisted there ain't no such animal and 'settled for a composite nag which might turn the trick. . . But why not Citation? He's been matching records without even being urged. . . But maybe Frank Colletti, former noted Jockey, had the answer to that: "When Citation carries 138 pounds to victory as Man O'War did, you can start coupling them in the same breath." . . .

NO STOP LIGHTS

Another Wade discovery was that when Salvo set his record on Monmouth's famous mile and three-eighths straightaway, he started in the village of Eatontown, ran clear through Little Silver and finished in Oceanport. . . Try to do that in your jalopy in the same time without getting a couple of tickets. . .

HOME TO ROOST

When Charley Bachman got the heave-ho as Michigan State football coach two years ago, the impetus came from the Detroit alumni group. . . Naturally, Lou Zarza, Bachman's first assistant, also went out on the first bounce. . . Now Zarza, assistant to Bo McMillin of the Detroit Lions, has been named director of the Detroit Michigan State alumni, the same group that cost him a job. . .

LOST AND FOUND DEPT.

Seeing mention in this space of a battle between Jack Dempsey and George Fulljames for the world middleweight title in 1884, Mr. Gertrude Lombard of Ludlowville, N.Y., asks further particulars. . . "George Fulljames was my great uncle," she explains. "He came from a proud old English family, who disowned him for entering the fight game. His name was never afterwards spoken in the family. . . This is the first time I've ever seen Uncle George's name in print." . . .

TRAVELOGUE

Hal Jeffcoat, the Chicago Cubs outfielder, was born in South Carolina and broke into baseball via Nashville, Tenn. . . He married a Gloucester, Mass., girl in Italy and their son was born in Tennessee. . . Hal lists Gloucester as his winter residence, but the family now is living in Chicago.

Chinese Students Mar Ration Cards

PEIPING, June 17. (AP)—Seventeen students of national Peking University today defaced cards entitling them to rations under the U.S. China relief program. They did so, they said, in protest against a recent speech of John M. Cabot, American consul-general at Shanghai. Cabot, now in the United States, criticized Chinese students for anti-American agitation. The students tacked their ration cards on a wall with a notice: "Give America back her relief supplies. We would rather die in hunger. Take your supplies back home." . . .

Latin Segregation Ended In Schools

AUSTIN, June 17. (AP)—Texas public schools were under an order from the state superintendent of public instruction today to eliminate segregation of students of Mexican or other Latin-American descent in all grades above the first grade.

The order was issued yesterday by State Supt. L. A. Woods in compliance with a federal district court judgment issued here Tuesday ruling segregation above the first grade to be a violation of the constitutional rights of Mexican pupils as guaranteed by the amendment of the United States constitution.

Woods directed "all school officers of county, city, town and school districts" to take "all necessary steps" to eliminate segregation that might exist in violation of the court judgment.

He said he would take whatever steps necessary to enforce his order.

Woods' order, in compliance with the court judgment, recognized as "permissible" separate classes in the first grade for any students shown by language tests to have language difficulties.

He noted, however, that segregation in the first grade must stop at the instructional level and that all other school facilities must be the same for all students.

Langley Tells God's Paradoxes

In "God's Strange Arithmetic" there are many paradoxes, the Rev. Ralph Langley told a Thursday morning revival group at the First Baptist church.

One is the truth of gain through loss, he said, expanding on his Wednesday evening message of the power of spiritual over the material. Another is that of "losing one's self to find one's self in service;" that "humility leads to exaltation;" that life comes out of death; that the "Cross principal" of life is after all the most satisfying and fruitful.

The services continue at 8 p. m. today, 10 a. m. and 7 p. m. Friday.

Truman To Carry Congress Blasts To Four More States

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., June 17. (AP)—President Truman set out today to carry his criticism of Congress and "special privileges" through four more states today on the last lap of the cross-country speaking tour.

Mr. Truman, due in Washington Friday, planned stops in Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio.

cid to remain in Independence with her mother.

Mrs. Truman and Margaret accompanied the President during virtually all of the train trip. Margaret said in an interview yesterday she found campaigning "interesting." She laughingly said "no comment" when asked whether she was a "number one" attraction with the crowds in various parades.

A cheering throng jammed Kansas City's Union Station when the Truman family arrived yesterday. Another crowd greeted them upon arrival at their big white frame house here.

The President's brother, J. Vivian Truman, and his sister, Miss Mary Jane Truman, met him at the Kansas City station and drove with him to Independence. Nevertheless, Mr. Truman took time off later to drive with Margaret to nearby Grandview, Mo., to pay a social call on his brother and sister.

It was the President's first visit home since the death of his 94-year-old mother, Mrs. Martha Truman, last summer.

Burma Still Wants U.S. Friendship

RANGOON, Burma, June 17. (AP)—Burmese Foreign Minister U Tin Tut told newsmen today Burma does not want to "relax friendship" with Britain and the United States, despite professions of leftist unity.

In a speech to followers of his United Left Party Sunday, Premier Thakin NU, urged insurgents to declare their belief in leftist unity and join the United Front.

"We don't want to relax friendship with Britain and American," Tin Tut declared today. "We want to extend sphere contacts. No question of dropping old friends for new."

"Thakin Nu's belief in his program wouldn't interfere with Anglo-Burmese unity," Tut added.

Parents Seek Return Of Boy Evangelist

INDIANAPOLIS, June 17. (AP)—Little David Walker, 13-year-old evangelist, sat stoically yesterday through testimony on his parents' petition for his return to their custody.

David's mother, Mrs. Gertrude Walker of Chicago, sobbed at times as she pleaded for his return. He has been under the guardianship of James M. Dawson, Indianapolis lawyer.

His father, Jack L. Walker, was reported ill in Chicago and unable to attend the hearing. Referee Lawrence Hinds of juvenile court agreed to hear Walker's testimony whenever he can appear.

"He should be at home living the life of a normal boy with his parents," Mrs. Walker said. "He shouldn't be commercializing the gospel."

Rev. Raymond G. Hoekstra of Indianapolis, with whom David has appeared at some of the country's big tabernacles, testified the boy had "the best in food and very good clothing."

Mrs. Walker disagreed and said, "I found him with dirty underwear and his teeth not brushed." Before the hearing opened David told reporters he would like to stay on tour with Hoekstra and spend his rest periods with his parents.

Heavy Rains Over Midwestern Area

CHICAGO, June 17. (AP)—Rain fell over widely-scattered sections of the Midwest, South and Far West today, with falls in some areas measuring more than two inches.

A thunderstorm hit Mobile, Ala., during the night and the weather bureau reported a rainfall of 2.21 inches. Heavy falls also were reported at Jacksonville, Fla., and Vicksburg, Miss.

A tornado, rain and hail storm swept the North Platte Valley of Nebraska last night and caused thousands of dollars of damage to crops and property.

Just Push Button And Catch A Fish

WASHINGTON, June 17. (AP)—Push button warfare has invaded the deep sea fishing field.

Although not atomic, a new automatic fishpole has plenty of power. It has hooked and bated a 105-pound tuna in 30 seconds.

The gadget, designed by Anthony Mollakey, San Pedro, Calif., is described by the Fish and Wildlife service in its monthly summary of "important developments in commercial fisheries." This is how it operates:

"The rod, of steel, terminates in a cylinder and is tethered to a cable on a fixed arm.

"When a fish strikes, the attendant merely pushes a button. This releases air into the cylinder and makes the rod shoot into the air. "The cable restricts the outward movement of the rod and causes a flipping motion which tosses the fish onto the deck."

As you can see, it practically does away with the need for the old-fashioned fisherman.

But like the old-fashioned fishing rod, it doesn't take care of the big one that got away. That angle is still the fisherman's specialty.

To serve a new customer we need not only a telephone instrument and room on the switchboard, but also there must be a pair of wires to connect the two. Right now, most of the wires in telephone cables are in use. 'That's why we're putting in new cables as fast as the factories can deliver them—and the factories are turning out twice as much as they did before the war. 'To you people waiting: We want you to know that we're doing everything we can to get you a telephone—just as soon as we can.'

HISTORY SHOWS

Reds Shift Policy To Cause Confusion

By ROBERT E. GEIGER
 WASHINGTON, June 17 —(AP)—Is the new Russian "peace offensive" sincere? Many Americans are puzzled and confused by this question and the cool reception Stalin's proposals have received here. Why didn't American officials jump at this opportunity to talk things over?
 A House Foreign Affairs subcommittee which analyzed Russian tactics predicted weeks ago there would be frequent shifts in Russian policy. Reports like this one, and other knowledge of Russian tactics, help explain the American attitude. The committee decided that "raz-de-dazle" is an important feature of Communist policy and thumbed through 100 years of Communist history to support this decision.
 On the football field razzle-dazzle is a quick and hidden shifting of the ball from player to player amid so much confusion that the opposing team is dazzled. The committee said the Russians attempt to do the same thing in international affairs. Its report said if Communist policy seems headed toward cooperativeness at one moment, toward uncooperativeness at another and somewhere in particular at a third it's only to hide one truth:
 "Economic and political policy and action, collaboration on the surface and subversion underneath, a swing to the right in one period and a swing to the left in another, are meant to serve a single end, the world revolution." The State Department's attitude toward Stalin's statement that U. S.-Russian differences could be settled along lines suggested by Henry Wallace is this, in brief:

 These points of difference that Stalin mentioned are old ones. There has been plenty of opportunity to settle some of them in the United Nations. Russia knows this. If she really wants to settle them the way always is open. The subcommittee's analysis of Russian policy is more blunt and explains why many government officials look with skepticism on Stalin's proposal. It says:
 A zig-zag line of advance and retreat, called the "Leninist line," has been a basic policy explaining Communist strategy for the past 30 years, since the Russian Revolution. This zig-zag line is the cause of most of the confusion as to just what the Communist policy is. The subcommittee traces the zigs and zags this way:
 1. After the revolution came three years of war Communism, when the party in Russia drove to the left, nationalizing industries, requisitioning goods and drafting manpower.
 2. Then came six years when free enterprise was encouraged, to revive production.
 3. Next came the Five Year Plan. The drive to the left brought socialization of agriculture, famine in the Ukraine and the slaughter of so many cattle that livestock never have come back to their former numbers.
 4. Hitler's rise to power in 1933 brought a shift to the right in foreign relations. There was an alliance of communism with Socialism in France and other countries. Purges of 1937 and 1938 showed how Russia could intensify leftism at home and at the same time cooperate with capitalism abroad.
 5. Then came the war. The Russians look what they could on their own. They discussed world revolution with the Germans but set their price too high for the Nazis. The failure to make a deal with Hitler brought the German attack on Russia in 1941. The United Kingdom accepted Russia as an ally. The United States moved swiftly to include Russia under lend-lease. Thus began a new "right" period of cooperating with democratic forces.
 6. Until repudiation of the Marshall plan in June, 1947, there was cooperation with the democracies. Then Russia began her period of expansion and of "radical leftism."
 7. Now there is evidence Russia may be setting on a new "zig" or "zag," possibly touched off by the defeat of Communism in Italy. Is she sincere in wanting world peace?
 Committee members say they see no reason for altering a conclusion they reached before the present Soviet peace drive. They concluded:
 "They (Communists) know when and how to emphasize the line of sweet reasonableness, resorting to appeasement tactics, strictly on the psychological level where it costs least."

Shocking Hay Decade Away

There is a very good chance that you can almost double your money in 10 years by joining the Security Loan parade for spot or systematic bond purchases.

Part of this is problematical, but there is nothing problematical about the fact that in a decade you get back four dollars for every three you put into bonds now. That, if you want to take the U. S. Treasury's word for it, is 25 per cent compounded semiannually when bonds are held to maturity.

There is another side, although conjectural, which offers exciting possibilities of multiplying your modest wealth through saving. It is simply that the economic picture may be adjusted substantially within that space of time so that the same number of dollars will be worth more.

This is speculation and simple arithmetic. If your $3 will bring you $4 in 10 years, the chances are fair that the purchasing power of your dollar may be up by a third in that space of time. The decline has been more than that in recent years and when the pendulum swings back 33 per cent more value in your dollar may not be unreasonable. That means that your $4 would be worth $5.32 in present terms, or that your $3 would have increased in real value to the extent of $2.32 in that space of a decade.

There are a lot of other good reasons for buying bonds, and perhaps less open to conjecture than these. But one thing is sure, it's good reasoning to invest in U. S. bonds. Give the Security Loan a lift. Buy a bond today.

Fallow Acres Close The Gaps

At this stage it would be hazardous to estimate the acreage of cultivated land in Howard county which is or will become fallow within the next fortnight.

Abnormally high temperatures have given emphasis to warnings that the early June showers did not "break" the drouth as some enthusiastically supposed. Several thousand acres of cotton turned up its toes aborning. Several thousand more to cotton may soon toss in the sponge unless rescued by merciful thundershowers, and still other thousands of acres were never planted because the moisture reserve was so scant that it got away before planting could be accomplished.

These conditions do not mean that we face a crop failure by any manner of means. The probability is that our cotton harvest will be down considerable from last year.

Moreover, we have by no means passed the last chance stage. There is still time for seed production, and good showers might have the effect of bringing the grain and cotton ratio back into focus this season. Certainly a bumper bundle and grain yield would be a boon to preserving the livestock industry, which is peculiarly hard hit by drouth. Beside grains, there is the possibility of planting black-eyed peas. Dawson county reaped several hundred thousand dollars on this "last chance" planting one year and since has made peas a money crop. We might find them profitable, too, and certainly beneficial to our weary land.

Only about 17 per cent of the working Jews now in Israel live on the land. The rest are in commerce and industry in the towns. Of the Jews now in Palestine, approximately 40 per cent came there originally from Poland.

TAKING TRIP AROUND WORLD IN A DAZE

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Ever been around the world in a single daze?

That's the way I travel when my pocketbook is already too pleasure-bent to support a journey. I buy a hypothetical hop to anywhere I choose and enjoy it at home.

It's the only way I know that two can travel as cheaply as one. I go first cabin, take Frances along and scatter $3 tips like grass seed.

I don't have to look at museums I never wanted to see. I don't have to admire the dilapidated grandeur of local ruins pointed out by a guide whose dogged good nature doesn't hide the fact he's tired of them, too.

Like Stephen Leacock's hero, I can jump on my horse and ride off in all directions—at once. How?

I have an old game I've been playing, Walter Mitty style, since I was knee-high to a Rand-McNally. It's called "Supposing." It begins with, "Supposing somebody gave you $10,000 and said you could travel anywhere in the world. Where'd you go?"

You get out the Atlas and the battered school geography. Then you figure out where your money will buy the most adventure—and you scoot off on your jet-propelled imagination.

During the war I was in 31 countries. Many were lands I had yearned to see in boyhood, but they drew me no more, particularly the large, sick, civilized places. Too many of them have "American bars" and specialize in "Yankee malted milks," innocent of ice cream, and offbeat jazz bands, guilty of musical murder.

I'd most like to see three countries I missed—New Zealand, Finland and Ireland.

New Zealand was the only country I didn't get to visit in the Far East. I'd like to go there because other travelers have told me it is the most civilized country in the world and people live longer there than anywhere else. I'd like to find out why.

Why Ireland? Not so much because its green and beautiful, but because every American in his heart wants to go back and see where his ancestors came from. I want to check up on whether the English really ran my grandfather out—as he said—or whether his neighbors did.

As for Finland, no one I've known who has been there has anything but admiration for the honesty and courage of its people. I want to have a look at this small tough land whose independence even the Russians have come to respect.

Why Solons Long Winded

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, (AP)—Time is short... but the human impulse to say a few thousand well-chosen words is strong.

The House is debating the draft bill, no one doubts the outcome. The House will pass it, just as the Senate did. We'll have a draft law.

The mind of every House member already must be made up on how he'll vote. Speechmaking at this point won't change his mind. The draft problem has been kicking around Congress for months. Every member has had a chance to look into it carefully and think about it.

He's had a chance to read all sides of the argument. He's talked with other congressmen. And he's been drowned in mail from the folks back home.

So it would be quick and easy if the House just voted and got the draft out of the way, except maybe for trying to make a few changes in the bill.

Everybody knows the less speech-making, the more work can be done. But this doesn't stop a congressman from getting up and cutting loose.

So in relays congressmen parade up to the microphone and tee off. Each congressman gets four or five minutes. He waves his arms, pounds the table, juts his chin, shouts.

Most of the speakers wander up, say their say, and wander back to their seats without applause from their fellows waiting for a chance to do the same thing.

When the House put up the shutters for the day yesterday, this writer called one of the congressmen who had been listening all day.

"Do you think anyone's mind was changed by all the speechmaking?" "Not one," he said.

Why then bother to talk? Maybe three reasons:

- 1. Some congressmen feel so strongly about the draft, one way or the other, that they have to say something.
- 2. Some probably just like to hear themselves talk.
- 3. And some want to get on record so they can mail a copy of their speech to the voters back home.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

Senator Vandenberg Has Learned To Be Good Statesman The Hard Way

By DREW PEARSON
EDITOR'S NOTE—Senator Arthur Vandenberg, No. 1 dark horse of the Republican party today, is analyzed in Drew Pearson's columns on G.O.P. candidates for president.

WASHINGTON.—After the Cleveland G.O.P. convention finished nominating Alf Landon for president in 1936, they looked around anxiously for a good vice-presidential running-mate. Colonel Bertie McCormick of the Chicago Tribune, joining in the search, dropped in to see Senator Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan to propose putting his name in nomination.

"Let me ask you one question," replied Vandenberg. "How would you like to be vice-president of anything?"

The matter was dropped. Much to McCormick's disgust, his rival, Col. Frank Knox, Chicago publisher, was nominated instead.

At that time Vandenberg was a staunch isolationist and the apple of Colonel McCormick's eye. Today the colonel cartoons him on the front page of the Tribune as "the Benedict Arnold of the Republican Party."

At that time also, there was nothing Vandenberg wanted more than to be president of the United States. He was a dark horse in 1936, again in 1940, and again in 1944. In 1940 his friends arranged a careful build-up and were all set for the lightning to strike—when the tumultuous cohorts of Wendell Willkie took away the play.

Today, Arthur Vandenberg could probably have the Republican nomination. Probably also he could be president—if he let his friends go out and work for him. But he won't.

Furthermore, Van has pretty well convinced a lot of his friends that, at the zenith of his career, he sincerely does not want the honor he sought so long in the past.

VANDEMBERG GOT SEASONED
The career of Arthur Vandenberg shows that, despite all the emphasis on younger blood in politics, age has its assets; that the Stanssens and the Deweys sometimes have to season before they become statesmen.

A few years ago, Vandenberg was a mixture of bumptious pomposity nicknamed the "Kemal Pasha" of the Young Turks, whose Senate antics nearly cost him reelection in Michigan. Campaigning to keep his Senate seat in 1934, Van told his friend, Harry Toy, now police commissioner of Detroit: "We'd better be frank and tell this crowd tonight that I'm licked. The Wayne County vote is going to swamp me."

Toy, however, urged Van not to give up the fight. And the next day none other than Franklin Roosevelt inadvertently came to his opponent's rescue. At the urging of Gen. Hugh Johnson and Donald Richberg, FDR renewed the auto code, one of the most reactionary of the NRA creations. Result: Thousands of auto workers stayed away from the polls and Vandenberg was re-elected by the scant margin of 3,000 votes.

VAN LEARNED THE HARD WAY
It has taken the senator from Michigan a long time to learn some things, but he has learned them well. His mistakes, however, have been many.

It was not long ago, for instance, that he was not only the darling of the Chicago Tribune, but of rabble-rouser Gerald L. K. Smith, even wrote long letters to Smith pointing out that there were no size differences between their hands. Domestic policy not so much so.

On internal problems, the senator from Michigan has frequently taken his cue from the General Motors clique which dominates his state, or from Arthur Summerfield, G. O. P. national committeeman and president of the Detroit auto dealers who now face a grand jury probe over the manner in which he raised G. O. P. money. Locally also, Van has not been averse to accepting support from the powerful Frank McKay racetrack and gambling ring. Though a matter of political expediency, this wedding does not bear too close inspection.

These, however, are not the factors now being considered by Republican leaders as they approach the Philadelphia convention. What they have in mind are two things: 1. The senator's age and health; 2. Can you control Vandenberg once they put him in office?

The answer to point 2 is that when it came to domestic policy—the chief concern of the politicians—Van would be amenable to reason. On foreign policy he would be his own boss.

Regarding point No. 1, the senator is 64, the same age as President Truman. Although he complains of violent headaches and has to travel at a slower pace than formerly, he also amazes colleagues by the strength and virility he shows during hour-long Senate speeches.

While I am convinced Vandenberg honestly does not want to be president, I am also convinced that, if nominated, he would serve. But regardless of what happens in Philadelphia next week, the place of Arthur Vandenberg in history is secure. Regardless of past errors, or even perhaps because of them, he is the most important influence on our foreign policy and one of the great statesmen of our time.

GENUINE LEADER
However, we are dealing with the present, not the past. And unquestionably the fact that Vandenberg has seen the light, makes him all the more effective. He can speak from experience. People listen when he tells the isolationists how wrong they are.

And today, he is, beyond question, the most influential leader in the Republican Party, and on foreign affairs the most influential spokesman in the nation.

As president, Vandenberg would be his own secretary of state. Foreign policy would be in capable

Europe Becomes Mecca For The Touring Stars

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—Europe is now taking over as the number one destination for Hollywood's star tourists.

In the past, Malibu, Agua Caliente, Mexico City, Hawaii and Sun Valley have been meccas for movie stars on vacation.

This year it's Europe. There are good reasons for the migration: 1. Many stars are making films there for U.S. firms seeking to unfreeze their foreign money. 2. European countries are encouraging noted visitors, since the tourist trade is an important item in recovery economy.

Among those now in Europe or heading for there this summer are Cary Grant, Ronald Coleman, Rita Hayworth, Lana Turner, Clark Gable, Tyrone Power, Mary Pickford, Buddy Rogers, Sonja Henie, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Fredric March, Louis Hayward, Hedy Lamarr, Orson Welles, Maria Montez, Jean Pierre Aumont, David Niven, Rex Harrison, Lilili Palmer, Charles Boyer, Jack Benny, Alice Faye, Phil Harris, Edgar Bergen, Tony Martin.

John Wayne, who plans a film based on the life of Davy Crockett, has been beaten to the punch by Edward Small. The producer is now shooting "Indian Scout." It stars George Montgomery as the legendary Texan.

AMAZING FACTS ABOUT PRISON FARM SYSTEM

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
By The Associated Press

A farmer would go broke using the farming methods of the Texas prison system. The system's agricultural practices as reported by the secretary of the State Prison Board, are enough to give a county agent the creeps.

Dr. T. R. Havins of Brownwood, the board secretary, made a talk at Coleman, in which he said:

"On one prison farm near Sugarland, they have planted sugar cane for the last 80 years, with no diversification whatsoever. There are 900 men down there, using tools in raising cotton that your grandfather discarded before 1900. One mule and a turning plow works each row. The mules' collars were made by the prisoners, from cornshucks.

"The men walk four miles to work in the morning, knock off work at 11 a. m. to walk four miles back to lunch. . . then that same four miles back to work, and back again at night. That's wastefulness personified. We want to buy trailer wagons to haul these men to and from work to eliminate the lost time walking 16 miles a day to and from the fields."

Havins said "we are asking the state legislature for an appropriation of $4,200,000 for new buildings and machinery to modernize the terribly outmoded buildings and equipment now being used by the system. If the legislature will give us this appropriation, we will build us a $8 million system, since we will use mostly free labor. Prison-made brick, tile and prison-sawed lumber.

"The system is costing the state a $2 million deficit annually under the present setup. If we can get the appropriation, we will have the prison system self-supporting in two years. We do not want to compete with public business, but we can feed our own convicts and sell the surplus to the state for its other institutions."

The board secretary stated that field guards have charge of 18 to 30 men working in the fields. "The guards are on duty 13 hours a day, seven days a week and get the magnificent salary of $133 per month. The picket guards in the prison proper have a top salary bracket of $120 a month.

"These men in most instances have to live away from their families in the same buildings with the prisoners, separated by them only by bars. We want to build homes on the prison grounds for these state employees so they can live with their families. The cost won't be much. . . Prison-made building materials and prison labor would be used."

Affairs Of The World—

Truman And 'Old Joe'

By JAMES B. WHITE
(For DEWITT MACKENZIE)

Whether he intends it or not, President Truman's remarks last week about "Old Joe Stalin" could reopen the question of a meeting with that particular Joe.

This has been in abeyance since the Potsdam meeting three years ago, which left much to be desired from many standpoints.

Since then, President Truman has said he has asked Premier Stalin to come to see him in Washington, and Mr. Stalin has stayed away.

Last week when Mr. Truman was talking about Mr. Stalin he tossed in a remark that the latter is a prisoner of the politburo in Moscow.

Checking on this at the state department, reporters found an air of surprise and a prevailing impression that Mr. Stalin is the politburo's boss, not its prisoner.

Now Mr. Truman said absolutely nothing about seeing Mr. Stalin, but let us look into what his friendly reference could mean—bearing in mind that the next day at Berkeley he listed Soviet breaches of faith in detail and declared once more this country's peaceful intentions.

In doing so, he made the statement that America is not waging cold war.

What Mr. Stalin thinks of all this may not be too important, especially if it is true that he forms his policy toward America by balancing America's own policy against her ability and willingness to back it up. What Mr. Stalin thinks may not be the point.

The point may be what the American people think, this being an election year.

Mr. Truman, long pledged to carry on in the footsteps of his predecessor, the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, may be following in his master's footsteps. In FDR's own words, he used to return, at such times as this, to a political position "just a little left of center."

Let us proceed on the assumption that Mr. Truman figures the country would not take unkindly to better relations with Russia.

If this is so, a meeting with Stalin is conceivable, and such a meeting is easier because of what the President said last week. If it is the politburo and not Mr. Stalin who is behind all the things Russia does, Mr. Stalin stands somewhat exonerated of these same things.

How such a meeting would be sandwiched into an election campaign is for those interested to figure.

Around The Rim—By The Herald Staff

Show Is Relic Of Old West

Come one, come all, it's free, see the Indian dance, laugh at the blackface comedy, thrill when the ghosts appear.

These words came from the little man behind a microphone on a small truck-stage as the Tate medicine show, probably the last survivor of that ancient institution of the Old West, opened on South 11th street in Waco.

And come they did in spite of competition from movies, baseball, bowling centers and all modern entertainment has to offer. The crowd gathered to stand in small groups or perch on auto fenders and listen to the music and routines that have changed little since the wagons of the medicine barkers first alighted into the ruts of Texas trails.

The clink of bottles recorded the sales as the show progressed. Before the entertainment had run its course the "sold out" cry was heard.

The show is one of several sent out each year by Dr. N. F. Tate, Waco drug manufacturer.

Tate first entered the business at Shamrock, Texas in 1907 with a suit case full of his drug and a few stage properties. He traveled by train.

Soon this equipment was replaced by a horse and buggy with expanded facilities. This, in turn, was replaced by gaudily painted wagons and added personnel.

Today the show hits the highway instead of the trail in brightly colored truck-stages and a microphone has displaced the barkers' megaphone. But outside of these surrenderings to modern techniques, it's still the same caravan that brought many early-day settlers their only professional entertainment. It's a unique page of the past allowing youth to witness history and oldsters to relive their memories.—ADRIAN VAUGHAN

Treaty Is Peace Key To Palestine

By WALTER LIPPMANN

Without counting any chickens that are not yet hatched, it is now clear that organized warfare can be stopped in Palestine by the United States and Great Britain acting jointly for the United Nations. The military and diplomatic developments since the British mandate ended on May 15 have shown beyond any reasonable doubt that the only forces capable of fighting a serious war in Palestine are the Haganah and Abdullah's Legion. The Egyptian incursion, the Syrian and Iraqi raids, are of minor importance and can easily be dealt with if there is no war between Trans-Jordan and Israel.

To achieve an armistice and then peace in Palestine is a matter primarily of imposing an armistice and negotiating a treaty between Trans-Jordan and Israel. The crux of the problem has been to induce Mr. Bevis to use his influence in Trans-Jordan to bring about an armistice and a treaty of peace. There are good grounds for hoping that not only American diplomacy in London but even more so that the pressure of influential British opinion have been persuasive. The scandal of a British satellite army defying the United Nations had to be ended, and we may be confident that it has been.

There is now in sight the main outline of an honorable settlement which will fit the vital interests of all concerned: namely, the expansion of Abdullah's kingdom up to the partition line, except for the international enclave of Jerusalem; a treaty of peace and alliance between the enlarged Trans-Jordan and the State of Israel; and then a confederation with economic union between them. This would bring into existence a Middle Eastern commonwealth which would be under the joint protection of Great Britain and the United States. Instead of Britain and America being divided over Zionism and Pan-Arabism they would be brought together in the common task of establishing security and promoting prosperity in the central strategic position of the Middle East.

The development of this mixed confederation would not threaten any other Arab state. It would not threaten Egypt—how could it? It would not threaten Iraq, with which Abdullah is closely connected by dynastic ties. It would not threaten Saudi Arabia, which is far away and moreover under American protection. The large Christian minorities and the Druses in Lebanon and Syria will be far more secure as the neighbors of a mixed confederation than they could ever hope to be if Palestine were to become a province of a Pan-Arabian empire.

In the public controversy which has grown up around British and American policy in Palestine, the argument has often degenerated into charges that the American attitude is determined by the Jewish vote and the British attitude by imperialism and oil. It would be well to stop these recriminations and to recognize that the real question underlying all the others is whether the vital interests of Britain, America, and the Western World in the Middle East can be safeguarded by a policy founded on the Arab League.

Dairying Will Be Spotlighted In Local Meet

The Texas dairy industry will be spotlighted here tonight at a special meeting in the Howard County Junior college cafeteria.

Principal speaker will be Bryan Blalock, Marshall, president of the Dairy Production Institution of Texas. Blalock who is in a speaking tour in connection with state dairy month observance, was booked here through arrangements made by Banner and Borden Creameries.

The general public has been invited to attend the session, which is scheduled to begin at 8 p. m. All dairy operators, members of the chamber of commerce agricultural committee and many others have been urged by their respective organizations to attend.

Refreshments, featuring dairy products, will be served by the sponsoring firms.

Police Holding A Wanted Man

City police today were holding a 33 year old transient who has been sought for several months by authorities in two other Texas cities and in Arizona.

Police Chief Pete Green, who made the arrest late Wednesday afternoon, said the man had been identified as an ex-convict who is wanted in Dallas on three counts of theft and one of burglary. A felony warrant also has been issued at Waxahachie charging him with aggravated assault with a motor vehicle, and he is wanted in Tucson, Ariz. to face charges of car theft.

The man probably will face a narcotics charge here, Green said. Immediately after the arrest local officers confiscated approximately 25 marijuana cigarettes. The arrest was made at a local rooming house.

Confined To Jail On Hot Check Counts

Tom Morgan and Buddy French have been confined to the county jail on charges of passing hot checks.

Morgan was picked up Wednesday afternoon, French this morning.

KNEE-HIGH CORN—Marilyn Meth of Omaha, Neb., gives a yardstick test to a stalk of corn in a field outside Omaha. Corn in the Nebraska-Iowa area traditionally is supposed to be knee high by the fourth of July. This stalk already had bettered the standard. Government crop observer K. E. NCAA PLAYOFFS

USC Baseballers Beat Baylor 8-0

DENVER, June 17. (AP)—The Southern California Trojans had a full head of steam up today in their race toward the 1948 N.C.A.A. championship.

The Pacific Coast titleholders had everything—sound pitching, a top-notch defense, batting power and expert base running—as they swamped Baylor, 8-0, in yesterday's first round of the Western Playoffs.

Their classy performance convinced experts here that the Trojans won't have much trouble winning this tournament and the play-off with the Eastern champion in college baseball's "World Series" June 25-26 at Kalamazoo, Mich.

The Oklahoma A. and M. College Cowboys whipped Colorado State 13-7 in a ragged contest that launched the Western tournament and will run up against Southern California today at 2 p. m. (CST).

In the losers' bracket, Baylor will play Colorado State at 11 a. m. CST.

Wally Hood, a 22-year-old Southern California junior, racked up his 19th victory of the season against two defeats as he held Baylor to eight hits. But the South west Conference team threatened frequently and Hood needed a couple of sizzling double plays and some spectacular catches by the outfielders to preserve his shutout.

Left fielder Hank Workman bounced a three-run homer off the left field fence in the first inning to send the Trojans ahead 3-0 and

HD Leaders Have School

Training leaders in seven Home Demonstration clubs of the county received floral and weaving instruction Thursday.

Margaret Christie, county home demonstration agent, conducted the all-day meeting in her office, and was assisted by Faye Calthorp, local florist, and her twin sister Mildred Christie, who is visiting here.

During the morning the training leaders were taught to make small Scotch coin purses. In the afternoon session Miss Calthorp gave instructions in the care of cut flowers, containers, arrangements and making of corsages. Miss Mildred Christie gave lessons in making bracelets with brass wire and weaving purses with bias tape.

Training leaders, who will in turn give instruction to their HD clubs, were Mrs. W. H. Ward, Mrs. Leslie Bryson, Mrs. Claude Self, Mrs. J. L. Baugh, Mrs. O. D. O'Daniel, Mrs. Ray Swan and Mrs. Allen Hull.

Cattle Prices Are Steady To Strong

Prices fluctuated generally strong to up at the Big Spring Livestock Commission sale Wednesday.

Receipts for the day amounted to 600 head. Butcher yearlings brought up to $30.50 cwt. again warming a previous top and showing strength over last week by about two cents on the top side.

Fat cows were off about two cents to 22.10 cents. Stocker steers were much stronger in moving at 28.00-29.10 and so were tocker heifers at 27.50-28.00. Stocker cows were up about three per cent in hitting a $207.50 top for the pair on choice offering, and down by about the same ratio for $158.50 per pair on the plain and small classes. Bulls gained slightly to 24.10 and canners and cutters commanded up to 18.00. A few head of hogs brought a top of 25.00-25.10, a gain of one cent over a week ago.

CAVALRY DOES BIG THINGS

TOKYO, June 17. (AP)—The U. S. First Cavalry Division likes to do things in a big way.

In the early days of the occupation, it erected billboards to let everyone know it was "the first to enter Tokyo."

The division announced today it will put on an earthquake emergency drill at Camp Drake tomorrow — but not an ordinary one.

It will stage a "reenactment" of the Sept. 1, 1923 quake which devastated Tokyo and took 44,000 lives. The division didn't say exactly how this would be done.

Rice Riots Take Place In China

NANKING, June 17. (AP)—More than 5,000 angry Chinese stormed through Chungking streets for six hours today, looting 30 rice shops. Dispatches from China's wartime capital said gendarmes used bayonets to disperse the mob. The looting started after the price of rice doubled.

Police arrested about 200 rioters.

Without Painful Backache
Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.
The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.
When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills

Viadora Blanks San Angelo As Cayuses Triumph, 7-0

Locals Return Home Friday

SAN ANGELO, June 17.—Getting behind Rolly Viadora with a nine-hit attack, the Big Spring Broncs won their first game in San Angelo this year by defeating Pepper Martin's Colts, 7-0, here Wednesday night.

Viadora spaced six hits in blanking the home club. It was his sixth victory of the year. He has lost but once.

Durwood Cox was a mystery to the Hooses until the fourth when they got to him for four tallies. They added their other three in the eighth.

Ray Vasquez, Pat Stasey and Bobby Fernandez each collected two hits for the Cayuses. Stasey drove in a brace of tallies with a double and a one baser.

Viadora walked six men but was near perfect in the clutches. Angelo had 11 men stranded on the sacks.

The two teams close out their three-game set here tonight. Gerry Rodriguez (7-1) is due to work on the hill for Big Spring against Bill Guthrie (5-3).

Big Spring returns home Friday to open a five-game stand with the Vernon Dusters and Odessa Oilers. Vernon will be here Friday and Saturday.

EYE BATTING CROWN—Ted Williams (right) of the Boston Red Sox and Manager Lou Boudreau of the Cleveland Indians compare grips on the same bat during the current series in Cleveland. Both are shooting for the American League hitting title, with Williams currently leading the loop and Boudreau runner-up on .394 and .374 averages, respectively. LOOKING 'EM OVER

Decision of the Longhorn baseball league's executive committee to assume control of the club franchise at San Angelo is a blessing in disguise.

Had Clarence West, who held the franchise rights, remained in charge, the circuit will probably have been operating with its original six members by July 1.

As it stands now, the team's financial worries are due to be cleared up. Men with money are reportedly moving into the picture and, given the proper co-operation, can convert the organization into a self-paying project.

CHUCK CHAPETTI JOINS SAN ANGELO CONTINGENT

Chuck Chapetti, who played most of last season with Vernon, has signed on with the Angelo club and should be of much help to Pepper Martin's club. He's an outfielder-first socker who hits a long ball.

Jack Dillon, the Angelo high school track coach, has started working out with the Colts and may sign on. He's an outfielder.

SAMMY MALVICA QUALIFIES STATEMENT ON PITCHING

Sammy Malvica, the Angelo infielder, wants to qualify the remarks he made in comparing the Longhorn league pitching this year and the WT-UM hurlers he looked over last year.

Sam insists he doesn't think the Longhorn league hurling has more depth than the 1947 pitching in the Class C circuit.

"Let me repeat," Malvica winds up by saying, "that I think the Longhorn league has by far a better all-around pitching staff than the WT-UM league has this year. I'm sure the ERA's will bear me out on that and I don't think our dead ball has too much to do with it."

ONE MAN DIFFERENCE IN HAVANA BALL CLUB

Havana of the Florida International league, sister club of the Big Spring Broncs, is having its trouble staying atop the circuit standings (the Cubans are now three games out) and one of the big reasons is the absence of Chino Hidalgo, shortstop, from the lineup. So says Oscar Rodriguez, skipper of the Havanaans.

Hidalgo jumped all the way from Class C to Triple-AAA ball this spring and made the grade. He's with Buffalo and Paul Richards, the Texas who manages the Bisons, says he's the best short stop Buffalo ever had.

CORPUS CHRISTI MAY LAND BIG STATE FRANCHISE

Corpus Christi may land a Big State league franchise as early as 1948.

The coast city hasn't a ball park yet but is starting a campaign to get one. The money reportedly is available.

BYRON TOWNSEND AWARDED FOOTBALL TROPHY

Byron Townsend, the Odessa football phenom, was awarded a trophy by the Texas Sportswriters association in a ceremony preceding the Odessa-Ballinger baseball game last night. He was named the outstanding grinder in state prep circles by the organization last December.

T-C CHAMP MAY PLAY COTTON BELT TITLIST

The Tri-County independent baseball league, which plays its games every Sunday, may match its champion with the kingpin of the Cotton Belt league in a post-season playoff. The latter circuit is composed of towns between here and Lubbock.

The T-C circuit may also hold a post-season banquet for all its players for the purpose of making plans for an even bigger league in 1949.

Jack Lamb's brain child has had some rocky going this year but interest has increased in the league and, from all indications, it will be much stronger in second half play.

Jap Princes Are Barred From Office

TOKYO, June 17. (AP)—The cabinet today barred imperial princes with former military service from heading any public or social organization—not even as honorary president.

Subject to the ruling are the emperor's brothers: Prince Chichibu, honorary president of the Japan Amateur Athletic Association, and Prince Takamatsu, president of the Japan Red Cross Society.

Since war's end, all former military personnel have been prohibited from holding public office. The cabinet decided not to except the princes.

Colts May Be Sold Today

SAN ANGELO, June 17. (AP)—The San Angelo club of the Longhorn League is expected to go under new ownership today.

C. L. Taylor, representative of the Board of City Development, predicted it yesterday following an emergency meeting of San Angelo business men.

The club has been operated for several days by the league itself. Owners C. West and Bodie Cain were given the choice of offering the club for sale or having the franchise withdrawn. He offered it for sale.

A $50,000 corporation is expected to be formed with ten or more San Angelo men investing up to $5,000 apiece. More than a dozen business men have indicated they are willing to invest up to that amount.

Muny Softball Parley Slated

Managers of the Muny softball league, which began play last Monday, gather at the Settles hotel this evening to fashion a constitution and set of by-laws to govern future activity. The parley gets underway at 7:30 o'clock.

The straw bosses will post a $5 forfeit fee, in addition. The money will be used at the end of the season to purchase team trophies.

Player limits and eligibility regulations will come in for prominent discussion. Umpires will also be appointed.

Teams to be represented include T & P Shops, T & P Motor Transport, Big Spring Vocational school, McKee's Construction company, Grappette Bottling company and West Texas Sand & Gravel company.

Oilers Ahead Of Fort Worth In Standings

Tulsa's Oilers were in second place in the Texas League today, clinching a haul that saw the Oklahomans drive from the cellar in a little more than five weeks.

Fort Worth tumbled to third place last night as Houston stopped the Cats 4-1.

The Oilers beat Shreveport for the fourth straight time last night, sinking the Sports 3-1.

Dallas fell to sixth before a fearful barrage of 21 base hits that rated from the bats of the San Antonio Missions. San Antonio crushed Dallas 26-7 in one of the most lopsided games of the season.

Houston rode with Pete Mazar, tiny left hander who gave the Cats just five hits and had them shut out until the ninth when they scored an unearned run. The Buffs blasted across three tallies in their part of the last inning.

Southpaw Mike Schultz hung up his sixth victory for Tulsa as he turned back Shreveport with seven hits. Russ Burns scored two runs and drove in the third.

Dallas used five pitchers trying to stem the San Antonio tide. They were pounded for 30 bases and issued walks.

Oklahoma City whipped Beaumont 9-1 to advance within two percentage points of the seventh-place Exporters. Preacher Dorsett hurled a six-hitter for Oklahoma City.

COAHOMA IN TIE Forsan Rallies To Win 10-8

FORSAN, June 17.—Forsan's Oilers put together five hits with a walk for five runs in the sixth that enabled them to hogtie the Howard County Junior college Jay-hawks, 10-8, in an important Tri-County baseball league game here Wednesday afternoon.

The defeat dropped the Hawks into a tie with the Coahoma Bulldogs and will necessitate a playoff for first half honors. The playoff has not yet been arranged but probably will not come off until next week.

Up until the big sixth, Don Clark, the epilegians' flinger, had the Oilers on his hip. A three-run outburst in the Hawks' half of the sixth had given them an 8-5 lead.

Porter led off the Oilers' half of the sixth with a single. Barnett walked. Then Bobby Asbury blasted a home run to tie the score. Burt Griffith followed with a one-baser and advanced to second on Cleo Wilson's single. J. R. Smith doubled to drive in two additional tallies.

The Hawks came back strong to load the bases after two were out but Jimmy Smith fanned to end the contest.

Bob Coffee hit a three-run homer for the Hawks in the fourth inning.

Victory Open Begins Today

CHICAGO, June 17. (AP)—A field of 75 of golf's leading professionals and amateurs teed off at Midlothian Country Club today as the fourth annual $15,000 Victory National Tournament opened.

Ben Hogan, recent winner of the National Open and the PGA tourneys, was not on hand to defend the title he won last year at Chicago's Westward Ho club. Neither was Jimmy Demaret, runnerup to Hogan in the National Open.

The pro field included such names as Lloyd Mangrum one of the leading money winners this year, Bobby Locke, the touring South African; Skip Alexander, Jim Tunnica, Elsworth Vines, Johnny Bulla, Vic Ghezzi, Bob Hamilton, Jim Ferrier, Dutch Harrison, George Schneider, Clayton Heafner, Ed Furgol, Toney Penna, George Fazio, Al Smith, Jock Hutchinson, Jr., and Henry Ransom.

The professionals were slated to play 18 holes a day through Sunday. Top man will pick up $2,000. The pros were paired with amateurs for a 72-hole pro-amateur battle for an additional $2,000.

NCAA Track Meet Is Slated

MINNEAPOLIS, June 17. (AP)—Collegiate track and field athletes poured into Minneapolis from all sides today, each determined to win a place in the final tryouts for the U. S. Olympic team by scoring in the NCAA championships opening here tomorrow.

But with two of its stars on the ineligible list and at least three others suffering from one kind of misery or another, the 27th annual meet lost some of its luster even before it commenced.

SHOOTING STAGE SOMETIMES REACHED

Convention Battles Must Get Hot To Match Old Times

WASHINGTON, June 17, (AP)—Sharp battling is expected at the national political convention, but the doings will be docile compared with gun-toting powwows of early years.

Back in 1856, when the Republicans held their first nominating convention in Philadelphia, delegates from the far west came east by stage coach, carried long rifles to ward off Indians and mountain lions. It took some of them seven weeks to make the trip to the convention city.

The controversy over extension of slavery was at shooting stage in "Bloody Kansas." Rival factions had captured towns and burned houses. An abolitionist senator from Massachusetts said: "President Pierce goes to the Democratic convention with the light of the burning dwellings of Kansas flashing upon his brazen brow."

A Democratic newspaper called a rival publication which had assembled Presidential Possibility James Buchanan: "A know-nothing lying, Black Republican journal."

Gen. John C. Fremont of California, Mexican war veteran and Indian fighter, was nominated for president by Republican delegates who shouted: "We'll go for Fremont. He grappled with the grizzly bear and he beat the Indians. He can lick the slave-drivers."

McDonald Unruffled By Lobby Charges

DALLAS, June 17. (AP)—J. E. McDonald was apparently unruffled today by the federal lobbying indictment drawn against him in Washington.

The Texas State Agriculture commissioner said yesterday the indictment is: 1. a compliment to his administration; 2. "just politics;" and 3. based on a misinterpretation of the law.

The state official said the charge "is evidence that I have been on the job for which I was elected—to aid agriculture and obtain fair prices for farm products."

McDonald, who is seeking reelection, added that he did not act outside his official capacity as head of the state's Agriculture Department. He said he had violated no law.

The commissioner freely admitted to having appeared before committees in Congress.

One of the counts on the indictment drawn against McDonald, Ralph T. Moore of Granger, Georgia Agriculture Commissioner Tom Linder and Robert M. Harriss of New York was that they had "ignored" provisions of the lobbying act which call for a "complete disclosure of money received as well as all sums expended with any lobbying activity."

McDonald's only primary election opponent thinks he should be removed from office as a result of the indictment.

Jim Griffin said yesterday he is asking Gov. Beauford H. Jester to request McDonald's removal from office while the indictment against the commissioner is pending. Griffin said he also is asking Jester to appoint "a competent successor" while the charge is pending.

Death Reveals Story Of Actress' Father

HOLLYWOOD, June 16. (AP)—Death itself has roused from the shrouded past the story of Screen Star Loretta Young's father.

He left his wife and children in Salt Lake City 31 years ago. Miss Young said that John V. Earle, 58, who died in a charity ward of the Los Angeles General Hospital June 6 "may have been my father."

"As far as I know, this man may have been my father," said Miss Young's statement. "I never saw him. Ten or 12 years ago my parish priest came to me and said that a man who called himself Jack Earle and who said he was my father had come to him needing help."

"I asked the priest what I should do and he said the man's story seemed clear to him. So I told him to send the man to see my lawyer. An arrangement was made for me to contribute to his support. I have done so ever since. I never heard further from him until just before the funeral."

Miss Young's 92-year-old grandmother, Mrs. Laura Young, wrote her of the death.

"I am obliged to tell you, but you should know, that a person who has called himself John Earle died in the general hospital of a stroke or heart attack yesterday."

She had made funeral arrangements out of savings from the monthly checks Loretta sent her. Miss Young did not attend the funeral service at Woodlawn Cemetery in Santa Monica last Thursday but her sisters, Actresses Polly Ann Young and Sally Blane were there.

Stuffed Sweet Potatoes Served With Pork Roast

A spicy touch to sauerkraut here and the mellow flavor of peanut butter in whipped sweet potatoes there — and you have a "new look" for a pork roast dinner.

Our new look's not expensive, just novel in flavor. And the meat's in the economy brackets for we'll choose the roast from the rib end of the loin. It costs about the same as fresh pork shoulder.

A rib-end roast of pork isn't the cheapest meat buy. But it's less than the more costly cuts from the center of the loin. And it can be oven-roasted, since it's so tender.

Here's a recipe for the sweet potatoes using plentiful peanut butter.

STUFFED SWEET POTATOES 2-3 cup milk 4 tablespoon peanut butter Salt and pepper

Bake sweet potatoes. While hot cut in half, remove from shells, and mash thoroughly. Add milk and peanut butter, season, beat until fluffy and refill shells.

You'll like the spicy sauerkraut. It varies from the traditional by the addition of one teaspoon of caraway seed and one teaspoon of sugar to a quart of sauerkraut. Here's a full menu:

Rib of Pork, Spicy Sauerkraut Stuffed Sweet Potatoes Apple-Raisin Salad Broiled Half Grapefruit

Food Tips: Peanut butter is more than an extra. It's a good nutritious food.

A pound of peanut butter gives you as much protein as about two pounds of beef—say rib roast.

Of course, the peanut butter is concentrated. There isn't a bit of waste. But a rib roast is about one-fifth bone.

Naturally we don't eat a pound of peanut butter as we would a pound of beef for a meal. But we can use a little peanut butter to increase our protein supply.

We don't get all our protein from the meat we eat or the main dish at dinner anyway. Much of it comes from other foods — milk, eggs, cheese, bread and other cereals.

Governors Pick Dewey To Win

NEW CASTLE, N. H., June 17. (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York is the best bet to win the Republican presidential nomination in the opinion of most of the Republican governors attending a national conference here.

An informal poll by the Christian Science Monitor and the Associated Press of 15 Republican governors to whom they thought would win the party nomination showed this: Gov. Dewey, seven; Sen. Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan, two; Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, one; Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, one.

Three governors of so-called "key" states refused to voice an anonymous opinion.

One sidestepped the question by saying he thought it would be a deadlock and that he had no idea which way the tide would turn.

Among the Democrats, the general feeling was that President Truman would win re-nomination. But one Southern Governor said he thought Gen. Eisenhower has an "outside chance."

Admiral Spruance Plans To Retire

WASHINGTON, June 17. (U.P.)—Adm. Raymond A. Spruance, one of the last of the famous Pacific Fleet commanders on active duty, will retire July 1, the Navy said today.

Spruance, who will reach the legal retirement age of 62 July 3, is now serving as president of the Naval War College at Newport, R. I. He commanded the Fifth Fleet in its brilliant trip-hammer strikes against the Japanese, after decisively beating the enemy carriers at the key battle of Midway.

The roll of his campaigns is like a list of Navy victories in the Pacific: the Gilberts, Marshalls, Saipan, Guam, Philippines, Tinian, Iwo Jima, Okinawa.

Secretary of the Navy John L. Sullivan and Adm. Louis E. Denfeld, chief of naval operations, joined in tribute to Spruance's fighting career.

"The American people may add the name of Spruance to the list of those who have been entrusted with a large and irreplaceable share of the nation's strength in an hour of peril and who have secured for them brilliant and decisive victories," Denfeld declared.

Recalling Spruance's "brilliant record of achievement," Sullivan said that at Midway his "daring and skilled leadership routed the enemy in the full tide of his advance and established the pattern of air-sea warfare which was to lead to his eventual capitulation."

due there possibly today. State Department officials said.

Paddock was at Shanghai for some three months waiting for Russia to say yes or no to repeated American requests for a Soviet entry permit. It came through just when the State Department was on the point of chartering a commercial ship for a special trip to Dairen, U. S. naval craft have been barred from entering the port.

Paddock's arrival will permit the departure of Vice Consul Isaac Patch and his family, who have long since run out of coffee, flour, medicines and other supplies they could not obtain locally.

Patch, 35, a native of Gloucester, Mass., has been ordered back to Washington to report on the situation.

Travelling on Russian vessels by way of Vladivostok, Paddock took along several tons of supplies in preparation for a long stay. He was accompanied by a clerk, Culver Gleysteen.

Only one other American lives in Dairen, once Manchuria's principal port. The city has been held in a Soviet iron grip since Russian troops moved in at the time of the Japanese surrender. The United States and China have protested vainly against closing the port to commerce.

Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" sold 2,500,000 copies in 1852, the year it was published.

U.S. Consul Finally Admitted To Dairen

WASHINGTON, June 17. (U.P.)—The United States has finally succeeded in getting a new American consul admitted to the Russian-occupied Chinese port of Dairen.

Robinson Is Bout Favorite

CHICAGO, June 17. (U.P.)—Ray (Sugar) Robinson, the Harlem Hurricane, was a 3 to 1 favorite to retain his world's welterweight boxing crown tonight against his No. 1 contender, Bernard Docusen, of New Orleans, in a scheduled 15-round bout in Comiskey Park.

Promoter Irving Kovvin predicted a turnout of 15,000, with gate receipts hitting the $100,000 mark. The champion's cut will be 37 1/2 per cent. The challenger will receive 20 per cent.

Robinson, seeking his 33rd successive triumph, will be shooting for a quick knockout against his 21-year-old foe who popped out of nowhere to become the No. 1 contender.

Docusen has scored 44 victories, fought four draws, and lost two in 50 professional fights. He reversed the two he lost, the last being an exchange of decisions with Gene Burton of Chicago. The bout will not be broadcast.

Sarah Bernhardt earned about $9,000,000 during her international stage career.

MAN FRESH FROM DEATH ROW SAYS RELIGION, NOT CRIME, PAYS OFF

CLEVELAND, June 17. (AP)—Julius Petro—fresh from 19 months in a prison death row—says religious faith pays off much better than crime. The 26-year-old Clevelander was acquitted of a first-degree murder charge yesterday after a re-trial in which a common pleas jury deliberated 13 hours. A previous jury condemned him to die in Ohio penitentiary's electric chair. Petro was convicted June 18, 1946 for the fatal shooting of Theodore Knuts in February, 1946. The Ohio Supreme Court granted him a new trial last Nov. 27 on grounds his conviction June 18, 1946, followed an unfair trial. "All I can do now is thank God I'm here," Petro said after the jury returned its verdict. "I had faith because I knew I was innocent." Petro pledged himself to a law-abiding life in his father's furniture business. "I just wasn't responsible. But now I know that that kind of life doesn't pay. Nineteen months in death row and watching five men walk that last mile—men that I ate their last meal with—taught me that it's no use." He said serving 18 months for a burglary once before had not cured him, but he added "there are no atheists in death row." "Trying to ascertain the time of death caused doubt and so did discrepancies due to frailties of police, such as the loss of some of the evidence," Jury Foreman Hoffman said.

Auto Slashes Death Swath Through Group

GATE CITY, Va., June 17. (AP)—A speeding automobile cut a swath of death through a group of pedestrians returning from a church service near Lancaster, Va., about three miles north of here last night, leaving three persons dead and six injured. Mrs. Anna Mae Johnson, about 58, was killed instantly. A youth identified by a hunting and fishing license in his pocket as Billie Peters, about 17, of Gate City, died of head injuries in a doctor's office here. Miss Wilma Jean Bowen, 20, was reported dead on arrival at Holston Valley Community Hospital in Kingsport, Tenn. Virginia State Trooper C. G. Cunningham identified the driver of the car as G. G. Dean, 20, of Pennington Gap, Va. The youth was quoted by police as saying he was blinded by the lights of an approaching vehicle and did not know the pedestrians were there until he felt the impact and heard the screams of the injured. Cunningham said Dean was being held under a technical charge of involuntary manslaughter.

Big Spring Daily Herald Mexico To Operate Its Cables, Telegraph

MEXICO CITY, June 17. (AP)—Foreign telegraph and cable companies learned today they have a year in which to wind up their business in Mexico. The Mexican government informed Mexican Telegraph Company, a New York firm, that the government communications network now is sufficiently developed to handle national and international exchange. It cancelled a 20-year concession to the U. S. company. Western Union, All America Cables and Postal Telegraph also were parties to the concession, but only Mexican Telegraph operates here. The company is controlled by Western Union, and officials say All America Cables has an interest. Mexican Telegraph operates land lines from Mexico City to Vera Cruz, and from Puerto Mexico to Salina Cruz, connecting with its cable which runs from Galveston, Texas, to Puerto Mexico via Tampico and Vera Cruz. The company connects with Western Union at Galveston, and with All America Cables at Salina Cruz. The government is expected to acquire the company's lines, buildings and equipment, though it is concentrating on radio rather than on land wire and cable communication. No estimate of Mexican Telegraph's investment was available.

WHY RIGHTS CURBED

Federal Employee Political Ban Prevents A 'Machine'

WASHINGTON, June 17 (U.P.)—This being a campaign year, the government is warning about 2,000,000 federal and other public employees not to play politics.

Signs posted in government buildings in Washington and throughout the nation are headed by the word "Warning" in big black letters. Underneath this word the signs say: "Political activity of federal employees prohibited by law" and "Political activity of certain employees of a state or local (city) agency prohibited." The United States Civil Service Commission is distributing these warnings and telling officials to post them conspicuously.

In a town like Washington, where politics are the vitamins of social life, this may sound like the pot calling the kettle black. The big shots can play politics but the little people can't. But there are good reasons for the "no politics" rules. They are written into the civil service regulations and are contained in a federal law, the Hatch Act. A proven violation is punishable by dismissal from the federal service.

One reason for the rules is to prevent the building up of a great political "machine" among federal employees and the hundreds of thousands of other persons employed by the state or local authorities on projects sustained in whole or part by federal money. The 2,000,000 federal employees and their families alone represent 7,000,000 or more votes. If each was for the same candidate and persuaded only a friend or two concerning his vote, the total number of votes involved, or "influenced," might be over 10,000,000. This would have been a big chunk of the 48,000,000 votes cast in the 1944 Presidential election.

The law doesn't forbid employees to discuss elections and candidates privately with their families and friends. But it does forbid outright electioneering, like making a speech.

The danger of creating a formidable federal machine was apparent as long ago as 1801, when a presidential directive by President Thomas Jefferson forbade non-elected federal employees from engaging in politics. The civil service rules have contained a "no politics" clause since the commission was established in 1883. Briefly the rules are:

1. Civil service rules apply to all civil service employees in Washington and other cities. The great majority of federal workers, outside the military, come under them.
2. Most other government employees come under the Hatch Act.
3. Neither the law nor the civil service rules apply to the president, vice president, cabinet officers or other top officials who set government policies. Also exempt are the people of the law-making (congress) and law-interpreting (judges, etc.) branches of government.
4. The Hatch Act also covers employees of state or local agencies, like highway departments, that obtain all or part of their funds from the federal government.
5. In general, an employee can't serve in any official political capacity or make campaign speeches or solicit political funds. He can't run for political office if party politics are involved.
6. The employees are permitted to take part in local elections not run on a party basis. As an instance, one might be a candidate for a school board if none of the candidates was running as a member of a political party, and no party issues were raised.
7. The rules and the law do not forbid individuals from expressing a political opinion at a private gathering such as a bridge party.

Federal offenders are dealt with by the Civil Service Commission. It is proved that an individual violated the civil service rules or the Hatch Act, the commission must discharge him. The commission is given no other choice. The commission also may decide about the guilt of a state or city employee, but it can't discharge him. It informs his boss of his guilt. If his boss doesn't fire him, the commission may cause a sum of money, equal to two years' pay

Iron Bars Unable To Block Cupid

OSHKOSH, Wis. (U.P.)—Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Egan got married but they did not invite too many friends to their reception.

It was held in the county jail. Egan, 24, was sentenced to serve eight months for a car theft and robbery. The same judge who had sentenced him performed the marriage ceremony. Then the wedding "party" had refreshments in the lobby of the jail.

With good behavior, Egan can be released in September. Until then, authorities hope to find him a job and let him serve his time under the Huber act, which allows a prisoner to stay in jail at night and work during the daytime.

Psychologists Test Drivers' Fatigue

EVANSTON, Ill. (U.P.)—Psychologists at Northwestern University are running a series of tests to measure driver fatigue.

Using students as subjects, the psychology department will determine how long a man can stay behind the wheel of a car without getting tired.

The results of the experiment will help build a better car of the future, it is believed.

Dr. Robert H. Seashore said that even in the car of today, "some subjects, in preliminary tests, were found really to relax behind the wheel."

Quints Called Good Insurance Risks

NEW YORK (U.P.)—The Dionne quintuplets, at 14, have defied the normal statistics of mortality risks, according to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

The quintuplets jointly have overcome risks that face an average woman in 65 years and now have 97 out of 100 chances that they will live to a marriageable age. Their chances of living until 50 are three to five and to 65 more than one in five, the statisticians say.

Animals Also Have Sleepless Worries

ST. PAUL (U.P.)—Domestic animals, as humans, suffer from insomnia, the University of Minnesota farm school reports.

The "contented" cow is not too sound a sleeper, according to W. E. Petersen. Cattle worries include being dropped from the social order of the herd, maladjustment and poor caretakers.

Horses worry when removed from familiar surroundings and friendly stablemates, and often go for weeks without lying down. They do catch a few winks while on their feet.

Sheep, the neurotics of the domestic animal kingdom, keep an ear cocked while asleep and poise on the alert.

The pig, however, is a hearty sleeper. H. G. Zavoral, animal husbandman, said the grumpy snores of pigs serve as music to lull pen-mates to sleep.

Fails To Get Trip, But Has A For Effort

SPRINGFIELD, Tenn. (U.P.)—Eleven-year-old Bob Curtis and his cronies won't go to Bedloe's Island after all to help clean up the site of the Statue of Liberty.

Young Curtis read in his school paper that there were unsightly heaps of rubbish on the island. He wrote President Truman offering to organize a group of schoolboys to go to New York and clean things up if the government would pay their expenses.

At long last Curtis got an answer from Herbert Evison, chief of information for the National Park Service. Evison, in effect, thanked young Curtis for the offer but said he believed the Park Service could do the job all right.

Productivity Clause Hailed In G-M Pact

WASHINGTON, June 17, (AP)—Several important labor leaders say one feature of the General Motors wage contract is the most important thing that has happened to labor in years. They refer to a provision allowing workers a 3 cent an hour wage increase, this year and again next year, to improve their standard of living.

The GM workers obtained a total increase of 11 cents an hour. Eight cents of this is to meet increased living costs. Theoretically the worker has to pay this out to meet the increased costs of the things he has to buy. It doesn't increase his standard of living. But the 3 cents an hour, theoretically, is extra "profit" for him on his labor, so that he and his family can enjoy more of the things they consider the good things of life or store up more savings for old age. For a 40-hour week this 3 cents totals $2.40 a year. One national labor organization official says of this: "It is the first time we have gained recognition, by an important company, of management's responsibility to share the fruit of productivity with labor and increase the working man's standard of living. This establishes a new beach head for labor in a battle we have fought a long time with management over this principle."

Labor leaders say the GM contract helps the worker but is far from the goal they want to reach for all American workers. They want to tie wages, company profits and the prices of goods together. To do this, companies would have to open their books to the unions or some "umpire" such as government agents.

Profits might go up because of price increases. Or profits might rise sharply because there was more efficiency in industry, from new scientific developments, new machines, more efficient management or other reasons. In any event labor wants to share in these. It doesn't want wage scales tied rigidly only to the cost of living. If they are, wages will go up and down with living costs, without adding to the workers' standards of living, labor leaders say. They aren't very enthusiastic about this feature of the GM contract. A hint of new labor policies is contained in the official statement issued by the United Auto Workers (CIO) on the GM case. It said:

"The assumption that workers can expect no more than to remain on the economic treadmill, inching up 3 cents an hour per year while management and stockholders reap profits proportionately far in excess of that amount is unsound and unwise. This is the trickle-down theory of prosperity, slightly modified. The modification is extremely important, however, because in making it General Motors has accepted the principle that prices and profits are a concern of labor. 'This is progress.'"

Atomic Worker Dispute Ends

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., June 17, (AP)—A three-months labor dispute was ended last night when atomic laboratory workers voted to accept a new work contract calling for an average 15 1/2 cents an hour wage increase.

The contract with increases ranging from 6 1/2 to 40 1/2 cents for 875 employees of Oak Ridge National Laboratory was ratified at a union meeting by a vote of 271 to 60.

Officials of the AFL Atomic Trades and Labor Council and Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corp. had come to agreement on contract provisions last Sunday.

The wage boosts are retroactive to Dec. 18, and will be effective

Hard To Stop

BUTTE, Mont. (AP)—A super-eager beaver was balked in an effort to build himself a dam in suburban Meaderville but won his fight to remain free. The animal's engineering work on Silver Bow Creek didn't fit in at all with city planning, so Jack Ritter and Louis Bugni hauled the beaver off the job with a garden rake and dumped him in a sack. For a time they entertained ideas of making him a pet but he fought that idea, tooth and claw, so they freed him in nearby hills.

for a year from the time the new contract is signed. The previous average wage for the laboratory workers was $1.38 an hour.

AFL Organizer Kenneth L. Scott said the contract would be signed within 48 hours after the workers accepted it.

U.S. Colonel's Death A Mystery

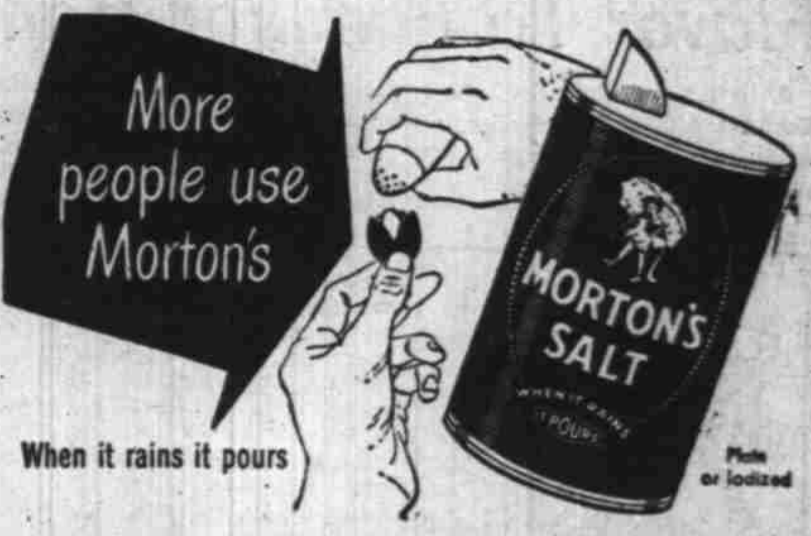

TEL AVIV, Israel, June 17, (AP)—An Israeli spokesman said today that an investigation has failed to substantiate reports that David Marcus met his death when he answered a sentry's challenge in English.

Marcus, war-time U. S. colonel and former New York commissioner of correction, was killed June 19 while acting as supreme commander of Israeli forces on the Jerusalem front. His body has been brought to Tel Aviv, where arrangements will be made to fly back to the United States.

The exact circumstances of Marcus' death have not been disclosed. The best available unofficial information is that he was struck by a stray bullet.

Barbecue Sauce Gives Holiday Flavor To Familiar Hamburgers

A thrifty way to extend vacation fun beyond the allotted two weeks is to make the most of picnicking opportunities. If you can't manage an excursion to the woods or beach, a barbecue feast right on the front porch or in the backyard will provide a festive substitute that rates high in holiday atmosphere.

Spicy barbecue sauce can be counted on to add appetite appeal to such thrifty, familiar favorites as hamburgers, lamb ribs or spare ribs. To give barbecued hamburgers a new tang that will have special appeal, add half a cup of beer or ale to the sauce. This trick of using malt flavor as a favorite in Denmark and Scandinavian countries. Before adding the beer to other ingredients in the container should stand open for about 15 minutes until the beer becomes completely "stiff." Bermuda onions and hot toasted rolls have special flavor affinity with barbecued hamburgers. If you travel to your picnic spot and lack vacuum jars, you can manage a deliciously chilled dessert by taking along several packages of frozen fruit. By the time you are all ready to serve a happy ending to the barbecue feast, the fruit will have defrosted to just the right consistency.

Barbecued Hamburgers
Brown hamburger patties on both sides in a little fat. Add barbecue sauce and simmer 10 minutes. Serve on toasted hamburger rolls.

Barbecue Sauce
1/2 cup ketchup
2 tablespoons vinegar
1/2 cup beer
2 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
Salt and pepper to taste
Combine all ingredients; mix well. Pour over hamburgers. Yield: 6 servings.

Porch Party Salad
4 cups cooked elbow macaroni
1/2 cup diced green pepper
1 cup diced celery
3 sweet gherkins, sliced
1/2 cup mayonnaise
Salad greens
1/2 cup beer
1 lb. bologna sausage, cubed
Tomato wedges
1/2 teaspoon celery seed
1 1/2 teaspoons salt

Combine macaroni, green pepper, celery and gherkins, mix well. Combine mayonnaise, salt, beer and celery seed; add to macaroni mixture; mix well. Serve on salad greens, topped with bologna cubes; garnish with tomato wedges. Yield: 6 servings.

Date Dessert

1/2 pound marshmallows
3 cups graham cracker crumbs
1/2 cup finely chopped filberts
1/2 pound dates, cut fine
1/2 cup cream
Whipped cream

Cut marshmallows in small pieces with wet blades of kitchen scissors. Put aside 1/2 cup of the graham cracker crumbs; mix the remaining crumbs with the filberts, dates and 1/2 cup cream. Sprinkle the reserved 1/2 cup of graham cracker crumbs on a large piece of waxed paper. Put the fruit-crumbs mixture on the crumbs and form a roll about 2 inches in diameter. Roll up tightly in the paper and chill in refrigerator. Slice and serve with whipped cream that has been sweetened and flavored with vanilla. 6 servings.

Dutch Poppy Seed Cake

2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
2-3 cup milk
1/4 cup poppy seed
3 egg whites, stiffly beaten

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually and cream together until very light and fluffy. Add vanilla. Add dry ingredients, alternately with milk, about one-third at a time, beginning and ending with them; stir only until blended after each addition. Add the poppy seed and fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into two layer cake pans that are 9 inches in diameter and at least 1 1/2 inches deep; the pans should be greased and lined with waxed paper that is also greased. Bake in a moderate (350 F.) oven for about 25 to 30 minutes or until done. Fill and frost with Caramel Frosting.

In the past 50 years, the number of United States tenant farmers increased on an average of 20,000 yearly.

Thousand Island Dressing

1 cup mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing
1/4 cup chili sauce
2 tablespoons finely-chopped green pepper
1/4 cup finely-chopped pimento-stuffed olives
1 tablespoon finely grated onion, if desired
2 hard-cooked eggs

Put the salad dressing in a bowl and add the chili sauce, green pepper, olives, celery and onion (if used). Rice the eggs into the bowl. Makes about 2 cups, enough for 6 to 8 servings from a salad bowl to which no other dressing has been added.

Budget Porch Suppers For Summer

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

If you are looking for an inexpensive main dish that's good to eat and extremely attractive to serve for a summer porch supper you'll like the Ham and Pea Whirligig shown in the accompanying photograph. The deviled ham in this dish costs less than fifty cents for four servings; and there's additional protein in the milk, the peas, the enriched flour. The canned peas used in this dish are plentiful and cheap, too, since stocks of them are greater than they have ever been at this time of year.

I was interested to note, in a government report, that American acceptance of canned meat products has grown considerably. There are more than 30 standard varieties of canned meats and many more specialty meat products available. Canned meats contain the same high quality protein as do the home prepared.

Ham and Pea Whirligig
Part One
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1 No. 2 can peas
Milk
2 tablespoons chopped pimento
1/4 teaspoon salt

Put butter or margarine in saucepan and melt over low heat; blend in flour and remove from heat. Drain liquid from peas; add enough milk to make 1 1/4 cups. Add to blended flour and butter gradually, stirring until smooth after each addition. Return to heat and cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly until thickened. Add peas, pimento and salt; keep over very low heat until vegetables are heated. Turn into 2-quart casserole and top with the following biscuits:

Part Two
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons fat
1/4 cup milk

2 small cans deviled ham
Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Cut in fat with a pastry blender or two knives until the mixture resembles coarse meal. Add the milk, mixing to a soft dough; place on lightly floured board and knead for thirty seconds. Roll into a rectangle approximately 12 x 8 inches. Spread with the deviled ham. Beginning at the longer side, roll as tightly as possible. Cut in approximately 1-inch pieces, place on top of hot creamed vegetables in casserole. Bake in a hot (450 F.) oven for 25 mins. 6 servings.

An emergency shelf that will yield quick inexpensive main dishes seems to me even more important in summer than in winter—because in fine weather there are more unexpected guests! Here is a dish that's easily put together. Vary it if you like—cold ham will substitute for the luncheon meat; and maple syrup or maple flavored syrup is good to baste the sweet potatoes with instead of brown sugar.

Baker Pork and Yams
1 12-ounce can pork luncheon meat
1 No. 2 can yam sweet potatoes
2 tablespoons brown sugar
Cut luncheon meat into 4 thick

Casserole Of Dried Beef Cooked With Noodles

3 quarts boiling water
1 tablespoon salt
8 ounces noodles
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/4 pound dried beef
1 1/4 cups medium white sauce
1 teaspoon celery salt
1/2 teaspoon freshly ground pepper
1-3 cup grated cheese

Add salt to boiling water in a noodles and cook uncovered for 8 to 12 minutes, or until tender. Drain, rinse and put aside. Put the butter or margarine in a skillet over medium heat, add dried beef and cook until edges curl. Add celery salt and freshly ground pepper to white sauce and combine with noodles and fried dried beef. Place in a medium-sized casserole; sprinkle with grated cheese and bake in a moderate (350 F.) oven until thoroughly hot through, about 20 to 25 minutes, 6 servings.

Note: This is a convenient dish because the noodles and white sauce may be made as far ahead as desired and then quickly combined with the remaining ingredients and reheated a half-hour before serving.

Shredded Vegetable And Tomato Aspic

1 1/2 cups tomato juice
1 package lemon-flavored gelatin
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons tarragon vinegar
1 cup finely-cut celery
1 cup shredded green cabbage
1 cup coarsely shredded carrot
1 cup finely-cut green pepper
Sliced greens

Mayonnaise-type salad dressing
Heat tomato juice; remove from range and dissolve gelatin and salt in it. Add tarragon vinegar and cool until mixture is just beginning to set. Add celery, cabbage and carrot; mix well and turn into large or individual molds. Unmold on salad greens just before serving and garnish with salad dressing, 6 to 8 servings.

Strawberry Jam

1 pint basket (2 cups; ripe strawberries)
1 1/2 cups sugar
Pick over strawberries and hull. Put in a colander or strainer and wash under cold running water; drain. Place in a medium-sized saucepan and mash with a potato masher. Add sugar and mix well. Place over high or medium heat and, stirring constantly to dissolve sugar, bring to a boil. Lower heat if necessary but keep boiling gently, stirring frequently, until thickened. Pour into a heat-proof container and cool. If not used immediately cover and keep in refrigerator.

Plan Menus Before Buying

The end-of-the-week food ads in your newspaper are golden sources of information if you're treasure-hunting for money-saving ways to feed your family.

There is a magic way of reducing food bills and still serving inviting meals, say government home-making specialists.

It's all achieved with good planning, they say—based on a thorough study of your local grocery ads. Many grocers reduce prices for weekend buying—and you don't want to miss the bargains.

But it's not end-of-the-week bargains alone you'll want to brush up on.

If you know prices, you can select foods your family likes and still stay within your food budget, and this is pretty difficult to achieve with the hit-or-miss-selecting after you get to the store.

While you're planning around good food buys, there'll be time to check against the nutrition rules that mean hearty, healthful meals for your family.

Base your planning on the basic seven food groups. And serve the family foods from each of the seven groups each day.

For your food dollar will buy more food value if you keep the "basic seven" in mind while you're menu planning with the food ads.

Meat ads come first. And this weekend you may find that smoked ham is one of your economical buys—not the most costly center cuts but a smoked picnic ham.

Economical meal planning might call for the purchase of a four-pound "picnic." You'll have enough meat for three meals if you use meat-extending dishes.

The first meal could be savory hot ham, with fruity raisin sauce. Then you can serve cold slices of ham for another meal with scalloped potatoes and cheese.

And here's a delightful suggestion for a third ham dish—creamed ham and eggs with asparagus:

CREAMED HAM SUPREME
2 tablespoons fat
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
Salt, pepper and paprika
1 cup minced ham.
2 hard-cooked eggs

16 spears asparagus

Make white sauce; melt fat, stir in the flour, add the milk gradually, season, and cook until thickened. Add the minced ham and sliced, cooked eggs. Heat and serve on asparagus tips. Serves 6.

Ruby Red grapefruit is a newcomer to many markets and is a happy choice for dessert. It's so flavorful that it makes even delectable ambrosia better to eat.

This grapefruit's a good buy too. In some markets, it's as little as six cents a pound. And it provides food from one of those basic-seven food groups—the citrus fruits and tomatoes, so rich in vitamin C.

CONSERVATION NEWS

This Story's True: Bear With Handbag

AUGUSTA, Me. (U.P.) — The "new look" for bears this season includes a traveling bag. Game Warden Charles Harmon of Aroostook County reported to the state fish and game office here that he chased a black bear that was carrying such a bag. "I didn't get close enough to shoot the bear," he said, "but I scared it so that it dropped the bag in flight." Among other things, the bag contained a lipstick.

The banjo, as we know it today, was evolved and developed by the Negroes of the south.

Organic Soil Proves Best Water Holder

M. A. Cates, cooperating with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation

District, reports that soil which had a lot of organic matter in it soaked up most of the water from recent rains on his farm three miles southwest of Vincent, Texas. Cates checked his terraced and contoured field after the recent rains and found that where there was good litter on the ground the soil was wet. On part of the field low in organic matter there was more run-off and less water soaked into the ground. Besides this, Cates said, the soil with lots of organic matter stayed wet longer and did not crust over like the soil low in organic matter.

Crop residues and cover crops are two measures Cates plans to use in his coordinated soil conservation program to build up the organic matter on his land.

H. L. Batton, manager of the J. Y. Robb farm in the Lomax soil conservation group, plans to plant 50 acres of sudan on a field of shallow soil to be retired from cultivation. Batton is planting the sudan to leave a cover litter on the soil. He will plant pasture grasses in this litter next fall. The cover of sudan stalks is needed to protect the young grass seedlings.

A two acre seed plot of sand lovegrass and weeping lovegrass was made by Roscoe Buchanan after recent rains on his farm five miles northwest of Coahoma. Buchanan plans to harvest seed from this plot to plant a sandy field to these grasses. Putting this field back in grass will help to protect his house and yard from sand blowing off the field.

Frank Loveless, district supervisor in Zone 3, reports he got excellent grazing this spring from a four acre improved pasture plot. Loveless planted a mixture of perennial rye, orchard grass, meadow fescue, hairy vetch, hubam clover, and crested wheat grass last fall on four acres of seepy land on his farm in the Coahoma soil conservation group. The grass has done well and furnished considerable grazing, Loveless said.

Terraces built by Porter Motley this spring on his farm in the Ackerly soil conservation group held most of the water that fell during a recent heavy rain. Motley said the terraces protected the field from washing and saved enough water to make the field wetter than it had ever been before. He plowed down old terraces that had never worked and built new terraces on the field this spring. The Soil Conservation Service helped him lay out his new terrace system.

E. T. O'Daniel combined his Abruzzi rye crop last week on his farm 10 miles northeast of Coahoma. The crop made 20,800 pounds of rye on 60 acres, O'Daniel stated. He planted the rye and hairy vetch last fall for cover and soil building and grazed it for three weeks this spring with 7 cows.

O'Daniel said the rye made more grazing than any of his other small grain crops and made a fair yield of grain, considering the drought. The cover crop also protected the land from blowing and will add a lot of organic matter to the soil from the straw left on the ground.

Flying Farmers Take Invitation Literally

WINDOM, Kan. (U.P.) — The next time Alliff Neel may think twice before telling flying farmer friends to "fly up and see us, any time."

After he had voiced that invitation at a flying farmer meeting, 24 small planes glided in for unexpected landings at Neel's farm-landing strip.

Up to the occasion, Mrs. Neel whipped up a breakfast for the visitors and the day was spent visiting and flying.

The "confused" flour beetle is actually known by that name among entomologists because of the confusion scientists have had in naming it.

CLUES FOUND ARE OBVIOUS

REDWOOD CITY, Calif., June 17. (AP)—John T. Walker, 25, Negro war veteran whose house burned mysteriously last year, was suspicious.

Pink paint splashed the living room walls of his new home.

An observing sheriff noticed none of the splashes was more than three feet above the floor. Then he found four children with pink paint on their shoes. Parental spankings ended the case.

Five Americans Reported Held By Yugoslavs

TRIESTE, June 17. (AP)—Five Americans are officially reported prisoners of the Yugoslavs today. U. S. Army authorities said they were taken prisoner Tuesday, while aboard a motor boat off Punta Grossa in Istria.

Unofficial military sources said the Army expected the group to be returned today.

Civilian travelers from Istria said one of the captives is a civilian while the others are soldiers of the engineers corps. They said the Yugoslavs declared the motorboat entered Yugoslav territorial waters.

These informants said the boat was escorted to nearby Capodistria, where the Americans were detained. Punta Grossa is a few miles south of Trieste. It juts out into the Gulf of Trieste.

REDS WALK OUT

Kommandatura May Be On Last Legs

BERLIN, June 17. (AP)—Three committees of the Allied Kommandatura for Berlin met today, with the Russians present despite their angry walkout last night from the Kommandatura itself, last functioning four-power agency in the city.

They stalked out of yesterday's long session shouting: "There won't be any next meeting." Col. Frank L. Howley, the U. S. representative at that meeting, said he believed the Russians intend to boycott the Kommandatura, as they have the Allied Control Council for Germany since March 20. A Soviet walkout broke up that agency.

The Kommandatura is the administrative agency for the city of Berlin, a four-power island deep in Soviet-occupied territory. The Control Council is the four-power agency for governing all of occupied Germany. There were hints today that the Russians might be intending to revive the

Scientist Predicts Atom-Powered Planes

NEW YORK, June 17. (AP)—Planes powered by atomic energy and capable of circling the globe without a stop are predicted by Dr. Andrew Kalitinsky, an Oak Ridge, Tenn., engineer.

He told members of the metropolitan section of the Society of Automotive Engineers last night that the new atomic-powered aircraft would almost certainly attain supersonic speeds during long-range flights.

The initial types, he said, probably will be about the same size as the giant B-36 bomber.
