

Salt Fork SCD Second in 1956 Goodyear Contest

The Salt Fork Soil Conservation District won second place for this region in the annual Goodyear Awards Program, Fred Squires, work unit conservationist, has been notified.

The region includes approximately that part of the state west of the 100th meridian. First place winner was the soil conservation district with headquarters at Sweetwater.

A plaque will be presented the district at the next meeting of the Texas Association of Soil Conservation Districts, to be held in Tyler in February 1957.

Of eight awards contests entered by the district, or by individuals representing the district, all have won either first or second place, Squires remarked.

The Goodyear Awards program is based on accomplishments within the district during last year. All phases of work are included, such as educational activities, the amount of practices applied on the ground by co-operators, financing, and co-operation given by other organizations.

Seventeen Boy Scouts of Troop 32 returned Sunday, June 24, from a week at Camp Ki-o-Wah, where they worked on advancements in rank, and participated in Scoutcraft, swimming, archery, and marksmanship activities.

Harry White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin White, received nine badges and advanced from Scout to Life Scout. He now holds the second highest rank in the troop, and his next step will be Eagle Scout.

Two boys were admitted to the Order of the Arrow Brotherhood, an honorary group to which a small number of second year campers are chosen. Ten boys of the 17 attending received badges for swimming an aqua-mile. Other boys did advancement work, but lack other requirements before they can attain another rank.

Each boy attending will receive a Camp Ki-O-Wah patch to be sewed on his uniform.

Boys going were White, Daves, Russell, Dillon, Roark, Sweat, Cudd, Watkins, Pat Frost, Ray Henry, Weldon Cleveland, Creed Hill, Harold Pigg, Ralph Coburn, Craig Bergval and Randall Scott. Scoutmaster Royce Daves and Henry Sullivan were with the boys at Camp Ki-O-Wah.

Grad and Unharvested Wheat Can Draw Soil Bank Payments

Willnounces For Isature

John of Pampa has authorized Wellington Leader to announce candidacy for the office of representative from the 87th District, subject to action Democratic Primary.

John said: "The stone of my platform is honesty and moral integrity state government."

"I favor of: 1. Live reforms, including a study registration law. 2. 3 of all legislation that will benefit the farmers and ranchers."

"3. A large water conservation plan for every river and stream in parts of Texas affected."

"4. Regulation of all corporations with public interest especially loan, insurance, and investment companies."

"I wish the fact that I believe part of the three counties take up the 87th district to fair and just representation and if you elect me I will be the representative of the people of the 87th district."

No one is legislating with an avid worker, and I am enthusiastic in all my work."

Wheat farmers who grazed their land but did not harvest a crop can qualify for payment under the new soil bank law, as can those who had a wheat acreage allotment but were unable to plant because of dry weather.

These points and others were cleared up during the last week, Millard Brown, ASC secretary, said.

Information on both wheat and cotton provisions under the 1956 soil bank plan were released by his office.

Signing soil bank acreage reserve agreements is due to start early next week in the ASC office.

Farmers who planted wheat and then lost it can qualify for payment at the rate of $6 per acre on one-half their allotted acres that was seeded. Those who had an allotment but did not plant at all can draw $4 per acre on one-half the allotted acres.

Farmers with under 100 acres wheat allotment, can qualify on one-half their acreage allotment or 50 acres, whichever is greater. Since the county's average wheat allotments are between 60 and 70 acres, this provision will help the smaller growers who lost their crop.

Mr. Brown said that of the county's original 27,400 acres wheat allotment, not more than 60 per cent was harvested, leaving one half of the estimated 11,000 acres not cut eligible for 1956 soil bank participation. He estimated that approximately 6,000 acres of the allotment was never planted at all and that an additional 5,000 or more was lost to the drought.

A telegram from the state ASC office has informed Mr. Brown that wheat that was grazed up to June 22 can qualify for participation.

He pointed out that some farmers who did not get to plant wheat last fall are putting those fields in other crops—grain sorghums or a legume, but farmers who want to put that land back into wheat can summer fallow it, keep the weeds down and plant it to wheat this fall. It will then qualify for the 1956 soil bank payment. He said it is not grazed up until the wheat is planted. The wheat plant is considered the 1957 crop.

There are three ways a cotton farmer can get under the soil bank plan, he said. (1) underplanting, (2) to plant his cotton, and (3) to have part of it destroyed.

by drought, hail or insects, (3) to plant the acreage he wants to put in the soil bank plan.

Cotton will be paid for on the basis of the normal yield per acre for the individual farm times 15 cents a pound. Since the county's average yield is only 149 pounds, for farm program purposes, this (continued on page twelve)

Peyton Smith, Retired Dodson Grocer, Dies

Peyton Smith, who for 14 years operated a grocery store in Dodson, died in St. Joseph's Hospital Tuesday, June 19, at 4:20 a.m. He had been in failing health several years and more seriously ill for about six months.

Mr. Smith first came to Dodson in 1922 and was in business there until 1936, when he moved to El Centro to become associated with Cicero Smith Lumber company. He returned to Dodson to make his home in 1950.

A native of Hillsboro, Thomas Peyton Smith was born July 30, 1900. In 1908 he came with his parents, the late John A. and Alma Hervey Smith, to Marlow, Oklahoma, where he lived until moving to this area.

Mr. Smith was widely known through the Dodson area, and his friends found in him a man who did much for them through the years, and who proved himself a good friend and neighbor. During his last period of residence at Dodson, his health prevented him from doing many of the things in which he continued to maintain an interest.

He was a member of the Methodist Church at Dodson.

Funeral services were held at the South Baptist Church, Dodson, Wednesday afternoon. Officiating was the Rev. J. M. Fitzgerald, a former pastor at Dodson.

Mr. Smith was now of the Rev. J. M. Fitzgerald, a former pastor at Dodson, and the Rev. Lonnie Voorhies of the Church of the Nazarene.

Funeral bearers were Fred Boyd, Floyd Teutsch, J. C. Howell, Buster Fillpot, Ed Crowder and Robert Tabor. Burial was in the Dodson cemetery by the Coley Funeral Home.

Quail's Bill Phillips Takes Coaching Job at Tulia

Bill Phillips, Quail high school coach for six years, has resigned to teach in the athletic department of Tulia high school, Supt. Herman Moseley announced.

The school board is looking for a coach to replace Phillips. In his new job, Phillips will coach high school girls basketball and teach physical education.

"As head of our physical education department, Bill has really done a wonderful work and we hate to see him leave, but this new work offers him an opportunity to advance," Mr. Moseley said.

Phillips, a graduate of West Texas State College, has produced some of the lower Panhandle's top basketball teams in both high school and junior high brackets during the time he has been here.

Mrs. Phillips is the former Jo Blevins of Quail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Blevins.

Few Thrips and Grasshoppers

Flea Hopper Infestation Heavy in Irrigated Area

A heavy infestation of cotton flea hoppers has developed in county fields, especially on May cotton that is fruiting.

County Agent J. W. Thomas said after checking fields Tuesday evening, June 26.

"It behooves farmers to watch their irrigated cotton," he warned, and advised that cotton should be sprayed if necessary. "Tests at the Lubbock Experiment Station last year show that irrigated fields that were sprayed made up to $30 more than those that were not sprayed."

The county agent had checked irrigated fields for Elvis Crawley, John Harper, Hayden Williams, and John Sherman, the first three around Wellington, and the latter at Arlie. In all of these, the flea hopper count was over 26 hoppers per 100 terminal buds.

Thomas explained that a count of 0 to 10 was considered light, 11 to 25 medium infestation, and 26 and above heavy.

The sprays generally used here are toxophene and DDT, and Thomas advised two and possibly three sprayings at 7-day intervals.

Thrip infestation here is light in all fields checked and there are not enough grasshoppers in cultivated fields now to cause worry, but Thomas reminded that from experience growers know there is going to be some loss in fields adjacent to pastures.

Faculty Now Complete

Arnett's Coach Don Ward To Norwood

Don Ward, Arnett high school principal and coach, who has taken six teams into Oklahoma state competition in six years, has been elected coach of Samnorwood high school, Supt. Orville Cunningham announced this week.

Mrs. Ward was elected to teach English in high school. Ward replaces Purl Tippie, and his wife replaces Mrs. Charles King.

The couple, with their two small daughters, will move to Samnorwood as soon as the teacherage they are to occupy is repaired.

Cunningham also announced the election of two other teachers to complete the Samnorwood faculty.

Mrs. Barney Walker of that community has been elected to teach the fourth grade, succeeding Mrs. Tippie, while Thomas Lawrence of Avoka has been elected to teach math and science.

Darrow to Head Lone Star Gas Distribution

Joe C. Darrow, a Lone Star Gas company vice president, has been placed in charge of all distribution properties of the company, according to an announcement by Chester L. May, of Dallas, senior vice president. The properties consist of company-owned and operated gas systems in Wellington and Dodson and 450 other cities and towns in Texas and Oklahoma, May said.

With headquarters in Dallas, Darrow takes over his new assignment June 16 after serving as general manager of the Fort Worth Division of Distribution from 1951 until January 1954, and as vice president in charge of the division since that date.

Darrow's successor in Fort Worth is A. P. Rowland, recently elected vice president, who began his career with Lone Star in 1924.

Darrow, a native of Milford, Texas, attended the University of Texas and went to work for Lone Star in 1927 as a construction timekeeper. He was appointed as local manager at Hugo, Okla., in 1932, then held district managerial assignments at Itasca, Terrell, and Brownwood until 1946 when he was appointed superintendent of distribution operations for the Dallas Division of Distribution. He was transferred to Abilene in

WILL WILSON RESIGNS FROM SUPREME COURT TO CAMPAIGN

Supreme Court Justice Will Wilson has resigned his post on the State's highest tribunal to launch a fighting campaign for Attorney General of Texas. His resignation was made effective on June 1.

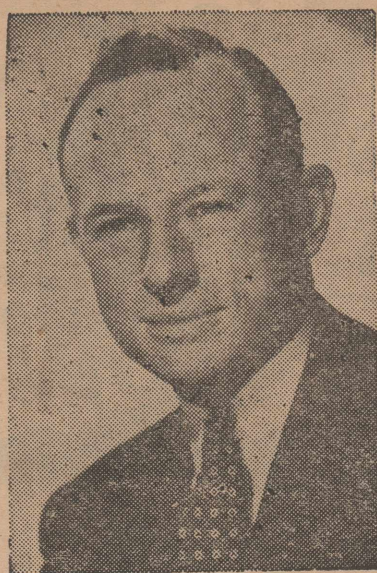

"The most compelling call to duty for me today is to serve the people of Texas as their Attorney General," Wilson said.

With a career as Dallas' racket busting district attorney, followed by six years on the Supreme Court, Wilson said he left the court "with reluctance." However he surprised few Capitol observers in responding to the challenge to serve as Texas number one law enforcement officer.

"I have been asked why I am willing to leave the Supreme Court," Wilson commented. "Like the old cavalry general, I've always believed in riding straight for the sound of the guns."

"Certainly I know that I am deliberately turning my back on the security of a quiet harbor and certainly the course we will steer lies through troubled waters. But 1949 as superintendent of Lone Star's West Texas distribution properties. Two years later he was appointed to the Fort Worth division as general manager.

that's where the need is greatest. "Texas' greatest need today is vigorous enforcement of our Texas laws. I believe I can serve Texas as best in filling that need."

Most seasoned observers agree that Judge Wilson would have been re-elected without opposition to the Supreme Court. Both of his colleagues up for re-election are unopposed.

"I cannot remain on the Supreme Court while I campaign for Attorney General," he said.

On the issue of corruption in Texas government, Wilson's statement was quick and clear-cut: "We're way past that as an issue. The only issue today is who is best qualified to clean it up."

"I believe my record as two-time assistant attorney general, prosecuting district attorney and

Wilson was elected to the Court in 1950 by a heavy majority. He is one of the youngest men ever to serve on the high bench. While District Attorney he gained national recognition in stamping out organized crime in Dallas.

Selected by U. S. Attorney General J. Howard McGrath as one of the five district attorneys in the United States to speak before the Department of Justice's Conference on Organized Crime in Washington in 1950, Wilson was commended as one of the outstanding prosecutors of crime in the nation.

As assistant Attorney General of Texas under Gerald Mann and Grover Sellers in 1941-42, Wilson successfully prosecuted cases involving millions of dollars for Texas school children.

Buck Creek News

Mrs. J. C. Hartman

It is a very lovely day here, it's cloudy and misting rain. The Buck Creek community has been blessed with from five to six inches of rain and everyone is planting cotton and getting ready to cut wheat. Everything has changed from a brown to a lovely green except the wheat and it's a rich golden color. We had a very good attendance at church yesterday both morning and night services.

We are losing one of the families from the community, Mrs. Al Thompson and Doc Thompson are moving to Wellington to make their home. Since the death of Mrs. Thompson's husband they are unable to farm.

Eld. and Mrs. Stonecipher visited Mrs. Ella Phillip and girls of Dozier Sunday afternoon. They had a special treat as her daughter, Ploy Caperton from El Paso was visiting with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bias have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boules.

Doris Jane Weaver has been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dolan, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Weaver of Denver City. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver came over the week end to get their daughter and visit with the Dollars.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Withers of Amarillo visited the Palo C. Cummings last Thursday.

Mrs. Vivian Patterson and Don went to Albuquerque with her mother, Mrs. Pick Bartlett to visit her sister Mrs. Gene Cook and family.

The Buckcreek W. M. U. held their regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Frank Boyles June 1st. First John, 3rd chapter was read as the devotional, Mrs. Stonecipher led the opening prayer, and the lesson was taught by Mrs. Clyde Brown. We are studying the 16th chapter of Romans and our next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Palo F. Cummings. A wonderful angle food cake and punch was served to Mmes. Willie Tow, Walter Gentry, and Patsy Bro, and Mrs. Stonecipher, Clyde Brown, Elvis Pitts, Janice, and Donita, Travis McQuire, Sherry, Bill Bias, J. C. Hartman, and Mitzie.

Joan Lacy is home from Oklahoma where she has been attending Draughan's College. After a short visit she plans on going to Amarillo with Peggy Clay of Hedley. The two girls plan on going to school and working during the summer.

Logan Wayne Lacy is also home for the summer to help on the farm. He has been attending A&M.

Mrs. Marshall Peters, Mike and Judy have returned home from visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lancaster of Muleshoe.

We have a new arrival to the community, she is the new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Patterson. Also Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Lacy are blessed with a new grand daughter she is Linda Chri daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Aaron.

It took natural forces from 400 to 1,000 years to produce a single inch of topsoil -- this thin line of defense that stands between security and national weakness and decadence.

Miss Bouck and Buddy Cornelius Marry In Ceremony at Hollis on June 17

Miss Sonja Clarece Bouck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bouck of Hollis, became the bride of Farris Maurice Cornelius, of Phillips, Texas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Farris Cornelius, Dodson, at three o'clock Sunday afternoon in the First Baptist Church, Hollis, when the pastor, Rev. R. S. Jackson, read the double ring ceremony.

An arch entwined with fernery and white gladioli, flanked by tall cathedral baskets of white gladioli and by candelabra holding white tapers, formed the background for the exchange of vows. White satin bows and fernery marked the pews.

A program of nuptial music was played by Mrs. Mackie Hunt, organist who also accompanied Miss Kay Kirkland, soloist, who sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white embroidered cotton satin dress fashioned on princess lines. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a beaded coronet. The bridal bouquet of white orchids was carried atop a white Bible from which fell a cascade of white satin streamers.

Miss Flora Bouck, Clinton, was maid of honor for her sister. The bridesmaids were Miss Sue Duvall and Miss Jo Ann McLaughlin. Seafoam green cotton satin made up the dresses for the attendants, fashioned on similar lines as the bride's dress. They carried colonial bouquets. Miss Waynette Ruggles was candlelighter.

Best man was Gerald King, of Borger, and ushers were Ted Crownover, Hollis, and Raymond Daugherty, Amarillo.

A wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with Miss Jean McLaughlin and Mrs. Wendell Burge presiding.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will establish a home in Borger.

The bride, graduate of Hollis schools, grew up there. She was a member of the school band for seven years, serving the past year as secretary. She is a member of the Junior Aeolian music club and is active in the youth program of her church and is a member of the church choir.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Dodson high school and attended Texas Tech at Lubbock.

Yarbrough Speaks Here June 20

Ralph Yarbrough, first of this year's gubernatorial candidates to speak here, addressed a small crowd on the court house lawn Wednesday, June 20. Advance notice of his visit had not come in time to give his supporters sufficient opportunity to publicize the visit.

"The people of Texas want a new state government, free of entangling alliances and partnership with the outgoing administration. Texas wants a state government free of the policies of the past and capable of independent action," Yarbrough said in his speech.

He pledged a "campaign of truth, free of mudslinging, and free of sham and hypocrisy." He said he would give "the people of Texas the true facts in a straightforward and honest manner. This I have done in the past. This I will do again."

Yarbrough stressed his "platform of progress," saying that it was a "positive program including water and oil conservation, drought relief, higher old age pensions, improved schools, adequate teacher pay, adequate teacher retirement pay, adequate classroom space, a youth development program, a juvenile delinquency program, a real anti-narcotics law, a lobby registration law and an industrial safety law."

Ernest Rountree is a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital where he was admitted for surgery June 24.

Crossroads Report

Dear Editor:

I see where one of your fellow editors the other day just about ran out of subjects to write on so he took a crack at the Irish sweepstakes and says it's a racket which people in the U. S. ought not to put their money in.

He says 80 per cent of the tickets are sold to U. S. suckers and most of the money winds up in the pockets of shrewd Irishmen.

But my gambling neighbor says that whereas we have got in the habit of donating money to various countries all over the world, it is only the Irish who give us even a sporting chance to get a little of our money back.

Guar Can Be Planted Here Until July 15

Guar, a double purpose money crop and soil builder, can be planted in this area as late as July 15 and still mature a good bean crop. This date has been established by plantings here over the last three years, as well as in other sections of northwest Texas with similar growing seasons.

A considerable acreage has been put in here in the last two weeks, and moisture conditions are good for planting. Most of those who grew guar either last year or the year before are still keenly interested in the legume that has proved its adaptability here, reports indicate.

It appears to be an answer of what to plant for a money crop on acres taken out of cotton.

This year is due to tell the story on how much increase in cotton production a farmer can expect when he plants it on guar land, according to Fred Squyers, work unit conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service. Most of the 8,000 acres that produced guar last year are going into cotton, and the increase in yields on various types of lands, and the amount of the increase will be watched.

In other sections, particularly around Vernon, guar is considered one of the best legumes, and the farmers report increases in cotton production to almost double that of land where guar was not grown depending on the original fertility of the land.

Several local growers have reported as much as 25 per cent increase last year on land where they grew guar the year before, says Trusten Thomas, agricultural officer of the City State Bank and one of those promoting guar in this section.

"So far, we haven't had a check here on the increase in cotton production, and I don't suppose anyone can quote definite figures but we do know that cotton grown on guar land makes more," Jones Singley of Singley Mill and Elevator said.

The thing that has impressed many guar growers is the penetration of the root system. "It opens up the ground and makes it easier to plow," Thomas said.

This very thing became a problem to some farmers who didn't make provisions for ground cover, and they found their land blowing this spring.

To eliminate this, yet retain the benefits of guar, the Salt Fork Soil Conservation District is encouraging what it calls "a conservation cropping system," a rotation of guar, and rye for winter cover crop, followed by cotton next spring.

Zook Thomas, a supervisor of the Salt Fork SCD, is taking the lead in proving this system. Year before last, he deep broke land in the Lillie community and grew one crop of cotton. Last year he planted guar in the same field and followed it with rye for the past winter. This spring, the field has gone back into cotton.

Development of the Groehler variety of guar is due to mean increased production for growers, too, reports John Esser, representative of General Mills, Inc., who takes the local No. 1 bean crop.

Fifty pounds of Groehler guar seed, enough for about 10 acres, has been sent here for experimental work this year. Groehler has the same short growing season as the present varieties, but it has the advantage of branching from the base of the plant, resulting in increased bean production and also of vegetation which may be returned to the soil as organic matter. This is an important factor in wind erosion. This new variety is expected to increase yields as much as 25 per cent.

A market price of $3.40 per 100 on No. 1 beans was announced earlier by General Mills, Inc., through its buying agent, Singley Mill and Elevator.

A majority of the farmers who grew beans last year, only to have September rains cause the beans to blacken and become unfit for commercial use, have accepted this as an unusual situation that no one, including the buyer, had met before.

"I think most plan to plant guar again, although last year's crop was not as profitable as we had expected," Trusten Thomas said. "Many of the growers feel that the penetration of the root system, and the nitrogen that guar puts back in the land alone are enough to warrant them planting again."

The third angle to guar production, in addition to its being a money crop and a soil builder, is its potential as a low-cost protein supplement for livestock.

"It's the only crop I know where a farmer can grow his own protein supplement," Trusten Thomas remarked, referring to the experience stock men had here of buying blackened guar seed at $1.50 per hundred and having it rolled.

The results here were similar to experiments both at the experiment station at Woodward, Okla., where tests have been carried on, and around Vernon, where guar was fed commercially, as it was here.

Creep feeding offsets drop in milk production on summer-poor pastures

MILK PRODUCTION ON BROOD COW IN RELATION TO PASTURE

Calves get early nutrition requirements from the brood cow. Note the sharp decline in milk flow when grass turns brown in summer while calves nutritional needs increase. For steady gains start creep feeding early.

All of us are looking for ways to make extra gains per pound of feed and to cut costs per pound of beef produced. What could be more conclusive than these figures? Purina's tested and proved creep rations are built to do both jobs.

Start feeding a Purina Creep Ration early this year to get your calves used to eating before pastures turn brown. When milk flow drops, your calves should continue gaining at low cost. Creep feeding helps you get superior calves, higher market prices plus efficient daily gains. See us for simple plans on how to build an inexpensive creep feeder.

Let us help you put Purina's 30 years of "Know-How" and ours to work for you. We'll help you MAKE FEED DOLLARS COUNT! Stop in NOW!

If you have grain, we have a PURINA SUPPLEMENT to help you get the most from it. See us about it.

Money Goes Farther

when you keep it at home

If we take the time to face facts . . . It's easy to see that our money buys US . . . personally . . . about 30% LESS elsewhere than it will buy for us at home.

Part of each dollar we spend buys goods . . . but around 30 cents of it has to cover the necessary expenses of the community where the sale is made . . . paying the people who work there . . . justifying the capital invested, and building facilities for better service.

Give one of our home business men a check for goods or services . . . and you get something else, too . . . a share in the better community that your trade helps to support.

Give the same size check to a peddler, send it to a mail order house, or take it to the city . . . and you get ONLY about the usual 70 cents worth of goods per dollar. You get NOTHING to show for the community-supporting 30 cents your money paid for . . . for somebody else's benefit.

It's the same thing as taking 30% less than face value for your money and for the checks you write.

—By Deskins Wells

Windsor, Ontario
Saturday Night
Ray Dyer and I had a wonderful trip to Detroit. It took us nearly as long to get to Windsor from the Detroit airport as it did to fly from St. Louis to Detroit. Ray is a wonderful traveling companion and I was hoping to room with him. However, he has been paired with the man from Arkansas and I am paired with the one from Kansas. We have not met either of them. The travel people offered to switch, but we told them no. We felt we could get along.
Not all of the editors are here but I am of the opinion that I won't be writing very much. Actually this thing is not supposed to start until tomorrow morning, but it seems fast enough of a while to me on the eve of the beginning. They have already given me a camera, some rolls of film, a nice bag (airline type) and a lot of stickers and literature.

Chatham, Ontario
Sunday night
It is raining cats and dogs to use a figure of speech. The weather has been hot and humid here in southern Ontario. Something like Louise and I ran into in the Chicago depot when we had to carry our own bags.
The Detroit river runs due south from Lake Huron to Lake Erie and today we were in the most southern part, which is considerable farther south than Detroit, Mich., and which is farther south than 22 of the states in the United States. At one point we were even farther south than the northern part of California.
They say the weather is unseasonably hot. I will be glad to move on farther north. We start north tomorrow.

Today we were in a rich section that raises a tremendous amount of vegetables and fruits. Enormous yields per acre. The land is valued at $2,000 per acre.
I need a raincoat; but the silliest thing I ever did was to bring my topcoat on this trip. We had a fine boat ride today in the Detroit river and had a nice luncheon on Lo-Bo Island, which is a picnic and playground resort.

Kitchener, Ontario.
Wednesday

We are in the interesting "German" town of Kitchener. It is 100 per cent German descent. The original name was Berlin. It was changed in World War I to Kitchener.
Did we have a dinner tonight. The Walper Hotel is famous for its German food and we had all kinds of cold meats, all kinds of cheeses, three different kinds of raw salads, pickled corn about the size of your little finger, the best kind of a dark bread buttered that you ever ate in your life. Hot dishes were baked salmon, a special sort of potato roll, hot beef that tasted something like corned beef but slightly different and better; but the tastiest thing of all was pig tails—something like barbecued pork, but again different, and a German pudding for the dessert. Beer during the meal and strong black coffee with the dessert. I never dreamed that I could eat so much.

Today we ate lunch at the Stratford Country Club, the city where the Shakesperian Festival is held. I was selected to respond for the editors.

I cudgeled my brains to remember some of the most interesting things out of our book, "Shakespeare's London," and after the usual amenities, based my talk on that. Several of the Stratford officials of the Festival came around to congratulate me and said they had heard something about the life of Shakespeare they had never known before. The U.S. editors who had been kidding me about "Texas brags" are now calling me the Shakesperian Scholar. I did the speech rather easily and gracefully, if I do say so myself.

After the reception and luncheon, we went to see Henry V. It was very good; but somehow I did not enjoy it as much as I did "The Taming of the Shrew" that we saw in Dallas.

Actually it is not as good a play as Edward III that we saw on television; but the costumes and the acting were the best I have ever seen in a play by Shakespeare.

This country is another lush valley. The agriculture is different. Today I saw dairy cows standing in green grass that comes up to their bellies.

We have a wonderful group of men on this trip, about the best group I have ever traveled with.

Saturday
We left Toronto yesterday and am now at the Britannia on the Lake of Bays.

We have a day of leisure. It is raining gently like it does at home in the fall. We may not take the ride; but I don't care. I can stand a day of doing nothing.

The trip has been wonderful; but finally you get to where you have to have a day like this. Think I will take a good long nap this afternoon.

I am rooming with Larry Miller, manager of the Kansas Press Association and he is lots of fun. We had to use blankets and the counterpane to keep warm last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindell Norman and children of Elkhart, Kansas, were here last week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther McPherson, and to attend the Norman family reunion near Arlie.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Glenn were in Lubbock for the week end visiting relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hunsaker, and Mrs. Virginia Pierce. Their daughter, Vickie, is there for an extended visit.

E. A. Womack of Hollis, Okla., was admitted as a patient at St. Joseph's Hospital June 19 and was discharged June 22.

BUDDY'S SUPER MARKET

City Grocery Holds Opening Friday-Saturday

The City Grocery will hold its formal opening in its new location Friday and Saturday, June 29 and 30, Raymond Patton and Luther Sullivan, owners, have announced.

The store has just finished moving immediately across the street from its old location to the building formerly occupied by the United Super Market.

The move gives City Grocery approximately double the space of its former building, enabling the owners not only to enlarge their stock and the variety of items carried, but it can be arranged more conveniently for both those associated with the store and for the customers.

"We hope all our customers will be in to visit us, and those who are not acquainted with come by during our two-day formal opening," the owners said.

The new building offers, in addition to more room, refrigerated air conditioning for the comfort of the customers, plus considerably more display space in the produce and meat departments.

Mr. Patton has been an owner in the business for the past nine years and Mr. Sullivan bought an interest 7 years ago, but both have had many more years than this in grocery experience.

Both owners work full time in the grocery store, and working with them are Mrs. Patton, Mrs. Robert Gosnell, Johnny Barnett, Jerry Lacy, and in the meat department, Bill Langford and Loyd Langford.

W. F. Howard Resigns at Quail

W. F. Howard, commercial art teacher at Quail, resigned that place Monday night, Supt. Herman Moseley has reported.

Mr. Howard has been teaching at Quail six years.

He plans to continue in the teaching profession.

Arnett Coach—

Ward is ranked as one of the finest coaches in the Western Oklahoma area, and his teams have always been known for their clean, sportsmanlike play and good competitive spirit.

This year, his baseball team had a record of 39 wins and 6 losses, winning the Oklahoma Class C championship. His boys basketball team had a 28-5 record.

He coached the Mangum American Legion baseball team last year and had a 28-6 record, which included two losses in the state tournament. In his 6 years of coaching, his teams have a record of 224 wins and 65 losses in school and Legion play.

"We played Ward's team twice this year and they defeated us in both games, but the feature that was most noticeable to me and to the boys, was the kind of sportsmanship they displayed, and we are very glad to add him to our faculty," Supt. Cunningham said.

Mrs. Walker taught for a number of years in Wellington junior high school, and since moving to Samnorwood she has done substitute teaching in the school there. She is a graduate of West Texas State College and is one of the county's best known members of the teaching profession.

Lawrence, who succeeds Paul Young as math and science instructor, has taught those subjects at Abilene and Avoka, and in the latter school, he served as girls basketball coach, taking his team to a district championship. He will do some coaching work at Samnorwood. Mr. Cunningham said. He is an honor graduate of Hardin Simmons University, Abilene, where he majored in math and science.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson visited Mrs. Thompson's sister, Mrs. Ethel Britton, in Odell, Oklahoma, Sunday.

Heart Attack Fatal to W. W. Hagerman

Mr. Hagerman was a long time resident of the Loco area before the family moved to Lubbock four years ago to make their home.

Engaged in the combine business, Mr. Hagerman was transacting business in Perryton when he suffered a heart attack. He died en route to the hospital. He was 49 years of age at the time of his death.

Mr. Hagerman is survived by his wife, the former Inez Lovelace, a son, Wayne Hagerman of Lubbock, a daughter, Mrs. James Franklin of Lubbock, and one grandson.

Other relatives include three brothers, H. H. Hagerman of Portales, N. M., L. L. Hagerman of Wheeler, and O. O. Hagerman of Grimes, Okla.

Repair of Quail School Under Way

Summer repair work is under way at the Quail School, Supt. Herman Moseley reports.

Classrooms are being repainted and floors resanded, and general repair will put the school plant in top shape.

Soil Bank—

would mean an average of $22.35 per acre. Some farms will have a higher average yield, but some will be below the 149-pound figure. Brown pointed out. These average yields are being worked out by the County ASC committee this week.

On the other hand, if cotton is planted but destroyed, either by hail or drought, and the acres placed in the soil bank program, a flat $6 per acre will be paid.

Under the third provision (a farmer who plants cotton, then plows it up and places that acreage in the soil bank program) an appraised yield will be set up at the time the farmer signs his application, or the farm average yield will be used, whichever is smaller.

Brown explained that such a case could come about when a farmer sees his cotton crop deteriorating from drought or other cause and decides at that point to enter the soil bank program. He said he expected very little if any cotton in good condition to be plowed up and the land put in the program.

One other crop grown here comes under the soil bank program—peanuts. A grower can put his peanut acreage in the program in the amount of one-half of his allotment or 10 acres, whichever is larger. There are 26 peanut allotments in the county. Payment will be made on the average yield for that farm times 3 cents per pound, with the county average being $12.36.

Various requirements must be fulfilled by the farm operator in order to receive payment. If the operator is a renter, the soil bank acreage reserve agreement must be signed by both the tenant and the owner or owners.

Application must be filed not later than July 20, 1956.

The land put in the soil bank program must be representative of the land used for the allotment crop; the acreage of any basic crop harvested must be less than the allotment for that farm, and in the case of wheat it must not have been grazed after June 22, 1956 calendar year, except for the provision covering summer fallowing and planting a 1957 crop. Noxious weeds must be kept down on the "reserved" acres, and the farmer must comply with all acreage allotments set up for his farm.

He was married recently to Miss Mary Farlow of Ft. Worth. A graduate of Texas State College for Women, Denton, as a chemistry major, she has been working as a chemist in qualitative analysis in the laboratory of Temco Aircraft, Dallas.

Mr. Thomas is a nephew of Mrs. R. W. Brantley, and a cousin of Mrs. Deskins Wells, Miss Bonnie Willis, Mack Willis and Heber Brantley.

No July 4 Rodeo At Samnorwood

No plans have been made for a rodeo and picnic at Samnorwood July 4th, W. R. Breeding, one of the directors, said this week.

Everyone in that community has been too busy with crops to put on this annual event, he said. This will be the first time, except for a possible war year, when the Samnorwood picnic, or its forerunner, the Abra picnic, has not been held.

Wills Announces—

the duties and responsibilities of a representative comes from direct training and experience.

In the last session of the legislature, Wills served as assistant sergeant at arms in the House of Representatives. During those months, his job was to work directly with the sergeant at arms in keeping the House, lobby, galleries and all other rooms assigned to the House in order while they were in session.

Working indirectly under the Speaker of the House, he was in charge of all House and Senate bills introduced on the floor for debate and discussion. Besides seeing that the bills were in proper order, Johnny also kept a record of the dispersal of bills.

While working with Jim Lindsey, Speaker of the House, Johnny formed the Page Boys Club, an organization set up to teach the page boys parliamentary procedure and to familiarize them with state government. At that time he had 46 employees working under him, including 35 page boys.

Wills said if he is given the opportunity, he would like to continue his work with the youths who are connected with the legislature, for he is an avid worker in this field.

"I am saying to the people of the 87th district, 'you help me in and I'll help you out.'"
