Coolidge Puts Name On Rail Labor Bill

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The Watson Parker railroad act, abolishing the railroad labor board and substituting a new system of handling railway labor disputes was signed today by President Coolidge.
In a public statement, he described the new law as lodging "a far larger measure of responsibility for amicable relations in industry itself." He added, however, that the provision for adjustment of problems within the industry, without intervention of the government, does not imply "that the railways have by undertaking this self-government in the smallest fashion relieved themselves of their responsibility to the public at large, but rather they have increased their responsibility by virtue of the self-government which this act imposes upon them."

The law was sponsored by the association of railway executives and railway brotherhoods, who described it as a "treaty of peace" between them, and was opposed by a smaller group of railroads and employees, and by some commercial interests. It passed both Senate and House overwhelmingly.

The measure provides for conference courts to be set up with the industry for adjustment of controversies, with a board of mediation composed of five members to act in case of a deadlock.

Members of the mediation board are expected to be appointed by the president in time for the Senate to confirm them at this session.

Planes And Poison Gas Should Be Banned In Future Wars, Germany's Representative Claims At Geneva

GENEVA, Switzerland, May 20.—(AP)—Concrete proposals to forbid the use of airplanes and poison gas in warfare and suppress heavy artillery and tanks were put forward by Germany today at the session of the preparatory disarmament commission. The proposals were presented by Count Von Bernstorff, former ambassador to the United States.

Answering allusions to Germany's industrial strength, which would have to be taken into account with Germany's neighbors were asked to disarm, Count von Bernstorff declared: "I don't want to evoke memories of the past, but history has demonstrated the impossibility of transforming our industrial equipment into implements of war, primarily because our factories are so near the frontier that they can be destroyed at the very outset of a war."

Count von Bernstorff complained that a number of delegates to the conference seemed to approach the problem with a view to discovering why nations should not disarm rather than to finding reasons why they should. He declared that the creation of the League of Nations has changed the whole aspect of the world because it made war virtually impossible since a conflict only could occur between the League and an aggressor state.

MELLON BACK OF DEBT AGREEMENT

French Settlement All Right Secretary of Treasury Is Quoted As Saying

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 20.—The French debt settlement was described today by Secretary Mellon to the House ways and means committee as "fair to both the American taxpayer and to the French people."
It represents France's capacity to pay, Mr. Mellon said, and predicted that when France has concluded debt settlements with England as well as this country it will be able to stabilize its currency.

Legislative Work Begun
The appearance of the secretary of debt commission, before the committee today marked the first step in the legislative consideration of the French and Junk-Slavian debt pacts, which the administration hopes to have approved by Congress at this session.

Mr. Mellon pointed out that the settlement provides for total payment by France of $6,847,674,192 over a period of sixty-two years on its original loan from this country of $2,340,000,000, with payments starting at $20,000,000 and gradually rising to $125,000,000 annually which will be paid for the last 47 years.

"To insist on too heavy payments in the early years," the Secretary declared, "might well jeopardize the accomplishment of those reforms essential to France's economic and financial rehabilitation."
"France is at present not able to set apart large sums to be transferred abroad as payments of her external debts. Despite great efforts she has not yet fully repaired the losses in manpower and property caused by the war. Her domestic debt has reached enormous proportions, her currency is inflated and it is becoming increasingly difficult to raise by taxation sufficient funds to meet the charges on her debt and to pay her ordinary governmental expenditures. Subject to the ill effects of a fluctuating currency she has been making every effort to balance her budget."

The present value of the French payments on a 4-1-4 percent basis is $2,001,222,224, or about 56 percent of the debt funded. Mr. Mellon said, as compared with the Italian settlement of 24 percent. While the money loaned to France was obtained by the Treasury at a 4-1-4 percent this government is now getting money at almost 3 percent he declared and on this basis the French settlement is virtually 60 percent dollar for dollar in present value.

Comparing the settlement with those negotiated with other governments, the Secretary said it called for an annual average payment by France equivalent to 7.33 percent of its total budget expenditures. The British settlement amounted to 4.5 percent of its budget, the Italian settlement 5.17 percent and the Belgian settlement 2.5 percent.

Lattie Rankin's Home BRILLIANT RECORD MADE Gets More Excitement

When it comes to finding excitement in front of one's home, Mr. and Mrs. Lattie Rankin "take the cake" at their home, 1510 Avenue Q. It all started back early in the spring when an infant only a few hours old was discovered waiting on the front door step of the house and first the neighborhood and later the whole town, it seemed, flocked to the house to view the babe and either ask for the custody of the child or merely evidence an interest in the orphan.

A home was found for the child and about that time, Mrs. Owen Parry, who lived in a part of the Rankin home, started to town one morning and was struck by a car just as she stepped of the curb in front of the house, receiving painful injuries. The ambulance dashed up; another crowd gathered.

Mrs. Parry recovered and all quieted down again. But last evening a Ford coupe carrying 3 small boys drove past the house and just then there was an ignition shortage and the car burst into flames. By this time Mr. Rankin had become accustomed to such happenings. He was digging in the yard. He scooped up some dirt with his shovel and smothered the fire, but not the excitement.

Staid and solemn business men, with their wives and sweethearts, if any, will forget the worries and cares of community leadership and the commercial world tonight when the Lubbock Rotary club entertains with a "Ladies' Night" program and dinner at Cheri Casa dormitory, beginning at 8:15 o'clock.

The entertainment is one of the periodical events of its nature which the civic clubbers extend to their ladies and according to Chairman J. A. Rix, of the arrangements committee, nothing will be left undone to show the ladies a most enjoyable evening.

The program will consist largely of entertainment features with plenty of music, Mr. Rix said. "We promise to forget the 'heavy' problems and will not even build a single railroad during the evening."
Following the dinner, which will open the evening, Miss Violet Grayum, widely popular soprano, and Mrs. Frank Barclay, contralto and pianist will present a series of Spanish songs following which Miss Evelyn Poyer, accompanied on the ukulele by J. E. "Red" Hamilton, Matador athlete and musician, will be heard in several popular numbers.

Alvin Hudson and Billy Elliott, Tech students, will then give a demonstration of the Charleston after which Dr. E. Watson Simms, of Boston, will make an address. Doctor Simms, who for the past several years has been connected with the Boston Tech, will come to Lubbock next year as assistant to Dean Miller in the school of engineering at the college. His talk is expected to be highly interesting and constructive.

Presentation of diamond Rotary pins to Past Presidents Walter S. Posey and Nell H. Wright, and to Secretary Sam T. Davis, together with a number of the honorary awards, will close the evening's program. Music will be furnished by the Texas Tech Toradors.

PEKING, May 20.—Capt. Thomas J. Betts of the American army, attached to the American legation here, is a captive in the hands of bandits in Yunnan province, in the most inaccessible parts of China, the legation was informed today. He is a native of Maryland.

Big Bambino Wallops Two Homers As Yanks Beat Brownies; Hornsby Is Spiked While Cardinals Lose

(By the Associated Press)

Eventy home runs will be turned from the bat of Babe Ruth if he continues his present pace throughout the season.

Hit two circuit blows against the St. Louis Browns yesterday, which reached the right field seats, gave him fourteen to date with only one-fifth of the season gone. He is a week ahead of his record of 1921 when he made 59.

Ruth was not the lone figure in the massacre of the Browns; six to two, for Earl Combs and Bob Menusel also hit homers. But Ruth's first drive settled the issue for he straightened a Zachary curve with two men on the bases.

Otherwise it was a Western day in the American League, Chicago, Cleveland and Detroit winning their games.

The Tigers, with Johns pitching six hit ball and Ty Cobb sending forth three safeties, downed the champion Washington Senators, 6 to 0.

Cleveland rallied in the late innings to beat Philadelphia 6 to 2. Lefty Grove being the victim. Simmons and

Gold Tournament Sponsored By Lubbock Country Club Arranged At Banquet Meet Here Wednesday Night For Next Sunday

Lubbock golfers, regardless of their affiliation with the Country club, municipal club, or any other organization that has for its end similar pursuit toward pleasure, will be given an opportunity to show their hand here next Sunday afternoon when a free-for-all tournament will be held at the Lubbock Country club course, sponsored by the Country club that will be open to all participants, or would-be participants, in the internationally known game of Scotch origin.

Final plans for the tournament were worked out at a banquet meeting on Wednesday night at the country club that was attended by about twenty golfers, some of whom were members of the Country club, and others of the municipal club. Still others who attended the meeting are unattached.

It was decided that all who expect to enter the tournament must play an 18-hole qualifying round some time between now and Saturday evening, and that the sixteen low medal scorers in qualifying play will be eligible to enter into the main tournament that will start at 8 o'clock Sunday morning.

It is expected that probably 10 or 15 will enter the qualifying rounds, and Saturday night the sixteen low scorers

Rockie Infield

Many of the experts are inclined to the belief that the inexperience of the Detroit infield will prove a serious handicap to the Tygers' chances.

When the season opened the veterans, Lu Blue and Frank O'Rourke, were at first and second. Playing short was the brilliant Jackie Tavener with a year's experience, while at third was Warner, who made an auspicious debut last fall.

Inside of two weeks illness and injuries had changed the entire personnel of the Tygers' inner defense.

Instead of an infield balanced with a couple of old heads, it was a combination made up of young players, none with more than a year's big league experience.

Neun at first, Gehring at second, Tavener at short and Warner at third was the lineup of the Detroit infield.

POST GAME SUNDAY CANCELLED BY OFFICIALS

Baseball leaders of Post for some reason or other, have withdrawn from their contract to meet the Lubbock Hubbers on the Merrill park here next Sunday. It was announced Thursday following long distance conversation with officials of the club there.

Post was slated to meet the Hubbers Sunday in what was expected to be the upset hotly contested diamond encounter of the season, and the decision of Post officials has brought bitter disappointment not only to participants in the game here, but to fans who had been looking forward to a real battle.

Not to be beaten, however, in giving the fans of Lubbock and surrounding cities the benefit of an announced engagement, Skipper Sled Allen of the local club immediately began to cast about for an opponent for his club Sunday, and announced at noon that Littlefield will be here again to contest the Hubbers, Littlefield met Lubbock here last Sunday, and offered a brand of ball that was pleasing to fans, even though they went down in defeat by a narrow margin.

Post officials assumed their reason for not appearing Sunday that several members of the club were on the sick list and unable to appear in action. Just how sincere they were in this statement could not be ascertained, even though local baseball leaders do not doubt the veracity of the statement. The club probably will appear here later in the season, it was said Thursday.

MICKEY WALKER'S TITLE AT STAKE TONIGHT

SCRANTON, Penn., May 20. (AP)—Mickey Walker was in the "enemy's" country today to defend the world's welterweight championship he has held for four years.

Tonight he will battle Pete Latzo, home town challenger.

The bout will be ten rounds to a decision.

Walker is in trim for the first fight in defense of his crown since he beat Dave Shade last summer in New York but the crowd will be with Latzo, 23-year-old idol of the anthracite coal region. With seven years' ring experience, Latzo has grown up in an atmosphere of hard coal and hard fists. He has been mine boy, preliminary boxer, baseball star, and now challenger for a world's title. Prayers have been offered in his behalf in churches of the valley.

The fight starts at 10 p. m. Eastern Standard time.

LUMBERMEN BEAT BARRIER TEAM WEDNESDAY

The first preliminary practice skirmish in what is believed will be a very successful city league season this year was held Wednesday afternoon on Tech field when the lumbermen, with the assistance of one or two recruits from other walks of life in the city romped away to an easy victory over a team assembled in the department store of Barrier Bros. The final contest in the abbreviated contest, as far as could be ascertained was 7 to 2 with the lumbermen in the lead.

The creaking joints of "has-beens" on the diamond could be heard and almost felt by the spectators as the participants forced themselves to bend to the ring of horsehide off timber, and this morning those who promulgated themselves through the five innings felt aches in these joints as they went about their routine of labor "the morning after the night before."

Slamaker, pitcher for the Barrier crew, was hit freely throughout the contest, and these hits, coupled with errors on the part of his teammates

COCHRAN LEADING OVER ROTAN AT HOUSTON

HOUSTON, May 20. (AP)—Tommy Cochran of Wichita Falls, defending state golf champion, won his first match of the championship flight in the annual tournament of the Texas Amateur Golf association by defeating George Rotan of Houston.

Rotan carried the Wichita Falls entry to 21st hole, squaring the match after he had been two down at the turn. Cochran shot remarkable golf on the last few holes to win. Three down at the 11th he paired that hole to take it, scored a birdie three on the 17th, and had a par four on the 18th to tie the count.

Rotan took a five on the first while Cochran had a four. Their cards:

The discovery well was completed in July 1923, while the maximum daily production of about 360,000 barrels was attained in November of that year.

THIS field produces a high grade petroleum adaptable to the manufacture of good gasoline. But the Simms Oil Company is not dependent upon its source of supply from the Powell Field alone. The raw materials used in the manufacture of Simms Gas come from several North Texas fields where high grade crude oil is produced.

MR. DAVIDSON

Lynch Davidson will be here tomorrow night, speaking to Lubbock citizens in the interest of his campaign for Governor of Texas.

There may be more supporters for Lynch Davidson in Lubbock county than for any other candidate and then again, there may not be.

Lynch Davidson may be the next Governor of Texas. That he is an outstanding candidate for the position is conceded everywhere.

Lynch Davidson doubtless knows more about the state political situation than anyone in Lubbock and it is safe to say that if such is the case his hearers tomorrow night will have an opportunity to learn something about this great state of ours.

RECKLESS DRIVING

The Lubbock police department has opened an aggressive campaign against fast and reckless driving. Every officer has his eyes peeled for such law violations and many arrests are resulting.

There is a difference in speeding and reckless driving. In the former case, unless the person charged is an inveterate offender, a fine, administered in police court, is the proper action.

The Journal doubts very seriously if reckless driving can be as effectually curbed through the assessment of fines as it can through an imprisonment sentence.

One of these days or night a joy-rider, or an otherwise careless autoist, is going to hurt some innocent party badly—or perhaps kill them—through sheer recklessness.

A lot of folks who are opposed to capital punishment on principle have gotten considerable satisfaction out of some recent hangings.

Wet leaders insist that John Barleycorn was not given a death blow and never can be; drys assert that he was killed but not buried deep enough.

"There's something from nearly all of our friends—Pat and Marian Forbes, Dick Menefee, Clara and Margaret Wayne, Noel and Vera Boyd—goodness! I can't remember them all. I told the nurse I'd keep them all here until you saw them and then they could take most of them and put them in some of the other rooms."

"That was thoughtful of you, honey." He bent down and kissed her. Then he told her of Pat Forbes' invitation.

"Surely you're going?" Fay asked. "Well, I didn't know as I ought to. I'm pretty busy and I thought I ought to come out here as much as possible. I've got quite a case on the baby—little rascal."

"You go right ahead. It will do you good. Besides, you can't see the baby every time you come out. It's only when it's feeding time."

"You mean to say I can't demand to see her?" "Try and see how much good it does." He made a rueful grimace. "Pretty high-handed, I call it."

STEWART'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By CHARLES P. STEWART NEA Service Writer. WASHINGTON. — Representative Victor L. Berger is leader of the smallest party group in Congress.

Representative Berger explained this the other day. He's a 100 per cent socialist. Representative LaGuardia sat in the 65th and 68th Congresses as a republican.

Berger considers his party a mighty important and useful institution in Congress, even if it does count only one and a half, for he points out that it's the only consistent "opposition" the republican-democratic party has.

In his opinion—and a lot of other people's, too—the dominant party ought always to have an "opposition," to criticize it and keep it more or less worried, which tends to make it behave.

The Journal doubts very seriously if reckless driving can be as effectually curbed through the assessment of fines as it can through an imprisonment sentence.

Alamo Company To Appear Here In Chautauqua

Twinkling guitars and plaintive notes of violins. Alluring songs of the open road, the flickering fires of vagrant camps, twinkling stars and creeping shadows of the night. Customs of the dress of wandering minstrelsy, whose tinkling cymbals and gaudy color dispense mystic potions of romance. Picture such music in such imaginative settings, and one has some idea of the treat in store for Lubbock, when the Premier Chautauqua opens here June 18.

The Alamo Serenaders is a combination of instrumental and singing artists that will set one's toes a tinkling, and put one's heart in tune with happiness and melody.

They came to the Premier Chautauqua Circuit from a long season in Lyceum and Vaudeville, and during this season they have received many splendid press stories, and hundreds of testimonials from friends they have made along the way.

The Daily Ardmore at Ardmore, Oklahoma, said of their appearance there: "From the opening strains to the final chords, in fact from the time it was started until the close of the concert, Ardmore was thrilled. Spellbound by the harmony of voice and instrument, thrilled by solos, duets and specialty numbers, Ardmore was enraptured as never before."

Premier patrons are bound to be royally entertained by this splendid company of singers and players, and think of their being on the same day with Everett Kemp, the entertainer par-excellence, who comes in a triumphant return to the Premier Circuit.

WOOL REPORT
SAN ANGELO, May 20. (AP)—Proceeding cautiously, with few of the dozen or more buyers at San Angeles making offers, the Texas wool market developed Wednesday the first sale in over a week, that of 15,000 pounds of twelve-months fleeces by Tom N.
Jones, of Eldorado, Schleicher County, to James A. Hill, of San Antonio, representing Jernstall, Williams and Company of Boston.

The price was withheld, but was understood 38 cents a pound was paid.
This, according to unconfirmed report also was the price paid by J. D. Silberman of S. Silberman and Sons of Chicago in the purchase over a week ago of 100,000 pounds on a mill order. This was about the average price before buying in Texas virtually came to a standstill a few days before the English industrial strike began, whereupon all houses withdrew their buyers from the market. Prices reported in the last two sales, if correct, indicate that the market has returned to its former level.

WALL STREET REPORT
NEW YORK, May 20. (AP)—Price movements were confused at the opening of today's stock market with short covering bolstering up some of the motor shares while fresh selling broke out in other quarters. Hudson, Dodge, Studebaker and Mack Trucks moved fractionally higher but Dupont reacted 2 1/2 points and the rubber shares continued heavy. American Telephone rallied more than a point as the first sale of the new subscription "rights" took place at $3.
Opposing speculative forces presently made little effort to control the trend of prices and erratic fluctuations marked the first half hour's dealings.

PENNSYLVANIA SENATORIAL RACE WILL BE PROBED BY COMMITTEES ON EXPENDITURES, DECISION SAYS

SHARP THITS AMONG SENATORS FEATURE DAWES' NAMING OF COMMITTEE; OTHER RACES TO ALSO BE INVESTIGATED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Expenditures on behalf of candidates in the Pennsylvania Republican primary campaign probably will be among the first to be subjected to the scrutiny of the new Senate committee authorized to investigate the financial phases of all primary and election campaigns this year.

Two Republicans, two Democrats and one insurgent Republican make up the committee, which was appointed by Vice President Dawes under a resolution of Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, action on which was touched off yesterday after a sharp political skirmish precipitated by Representative Vane's victory in the Pennsylvania primary over Senator Peppier and Governor Pinchot.

Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, and Demos of Illinois are the Republican members, Reed of Missouri and Bayard of Delaware, the Democrats and LaFollette of Wisconsin, the insurgent.

Scrutable is started.

His resolution had been pending some time and was snapped up for opportunity to get action on it during the squabble which started when Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, cited published reports placing expenditures in the Pennsylvania primary campaign at $2,000,000 to $3,000,000. Republican attack leaders opposed its consideration but when voted down on this point, many of them cast their ballots for its adoption.

Senator Harrison charged that the "very practices which were indulged in yesterday (Tuesday) in Pennsylvania by the three candidates for the Republican senatorial nomination, had been condemned in the resolution adopted by the senate when it seated Truman H. Newberry, of Michigan.

Reed Makes Hot Answer

This brought a heated retort from Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, who denied there had been any corruption in the primary and answered that the outcome hinged on the prohibition question. He held that the wet and dry issue should not be injected into primary and election campaigns but should be submitted to the people in a referendum, and in a formal statement he expressed hope that the Pennsylvania legislature would take action along this line similar to that voted recently in New York.

"A wave of resentment against the prohibition law blundered many people to the real questions at issue," he said. "It was the only opportunity which they thought they would have to express their sentiment on the wet and dry issue. I regret it occurred."

Senator Reed's opinion as to the importance of the prohibition issue in the primary was shared by wet leaders in and out of Congress. Senator Foraker, Republican, New Jersey, points to the outcome as demonstrating that the people "demand an early return to sanity, and no matter what the other issues are, will embrace every opportunity to express their determination."

FRANCE RALLIES TO SAVE FRANC

Finance Minister Peret Asks Nation To Bolter Its Slipping Credit

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, May 20.—The government announced through Finance Minister Peret at the conclusion of a cabinet council today that it had decided to use every resource to support the franc, which has been steadily declining.

The cabinet examined all aspects of the exchange at its sitting, M. Peret said. The necessity for acting firmly and energetically was recognized and it was unanimously decided that there should be no hesitation in employing all the resources of the public credit to defend the franc.

The cabinet agreed that the present decline of the franc was not justified by the international situation. It was necessary above all to take technical measures among which M. Peret mentioned the creation of a clearing house for exchange transactions, to cooperate with brokers.

In other words, France has decided to take the offensive as the most effective remedy against further collapse of the franc.

It is asserted in reliable financial centers, though not officially corroborated, that the ministers discussed the advisability of throwing the remaining $32,000,000 of the American loan of March, 1924, into the breach.

WILL TEACH HERE FOR SOUTHLAND COMPANY

ROBERT F. SHORT

(Special to The Journal)

DALLAS, Texas, May 20.—Robert F. Short, supervisor of the Dallas agency of the best instructors of life insurance men in the South will be a visitor in Lubbock next week.

Short, at the request of Neil H. Wright, district agent for The Southland Life Insurance Co., at Lubbock, will conduct a school for Wright's agents many of whom live in the territory surrounding Lubbock.

Short conducts his school along competitive lines and at the end of his course, which usually lasts six days, gives an examination papers being graded as they would be in any school.

The Southland Life is one of the strongest companies in Texas, having more than $100,000,000 insurance in force. Harry L. Stacy is president of the company.

LASS-O PRODUCED WITH PAID EMPLOYEE

DENTON, Texas, May 20.—To publish the best newspaper of its kind in the state, to consistently develop it editorially and mechanically and yet to reap no dividends, to entertain no bids for its disposal at a huge profit and not even a salary for wielding blue pencil and making the linotypes tinkle—all that may appear quite absurd to the journalist who is more accustomed to measure his success in terms of pecuniary rewards.

And yet, there is one such property in the state of Texas, and the failure of the sheet to declare dividends or distribute salary checks does not serve to dampen in the least the ardor of those who year by year carry it along to the peak of its field. It is "The Lass-O," student weekly newspaper at the College of Industrial Arts, that has for three consecutive years been voted the best in Texas intercollegiate circles.

Times was when The Lass-O was "passing fair," but it threw off thirty four years ago when the department of journalism was established. The first year of the department's existence the paper tied for second place in the annual poll taken from prominent newspaper judges by colleges and universities of the state, and since then it has never been headed.

The entire process of publishing "The Lass-O" is carried out on the C. I. A. campus. Students in journalism find the news, gather and write it, edit it, compose it into type on the linotype machines, read and correct proof, design and carry out the makeup, and even assist in running the finished product off the press. In fact, the conduct of journalism classes at the college is carried out precisely as the management of any newspaper office.

Excerpts from the editorial page of The Lass-O have appeared in prominent papers throughout the state. In addition to winning first place with The Lass-O, journalism students won in feature writing, second in editorial writing, and third in news writing in competition with almost a score of other educational institutions.

And—the inviolable rule of every newspaper office is observed intact on the C. I. A. campus. The Lass-O has never missed its day of publication.

BAPTISTS REPORT MANY CASES OF USEFULNESS

HOUSTON, Texas, May 20.—The role of the Good Samaritan was played by Southern Baptist women in thousands of cases reported here to the Southern Baptist convention.

The report of the Woman's Missionary Union, presented by Mrs. W. J. Cox of Memphis, president, and Miss Katherine Malloy, Birmingham, corresponding secretary, disclosed accomplishments in many lines of social endeavor.

The poor were clothed and fed, the sick were nursed, wrecks of humanity were rescued, and cheer was brought into many gloomy corners, the report related.

The women of the union made and distributed 229,543 garments, and 224,194 baskets and trays of food among the needy, and put in 245,887 hours in nursing the sick, while 453 local societies conducted religious work in prisons.

In strictly religious work, the women conducted 22,219 services, distributed 14,344 Bibles and 2,845,425 other pieces of religious literature. As a result of this work, 7,228 joined the church.

Good will centers were conducted in larger cities, their work being expressed in 269 home makers' clubs, 484 mission Sunday schools, 2,965 cottage prayer meetings, 82 chess-all clubs, 63 boys' clubs, 64 indoor school clubs, 1,732 sewing circles, 143 kindergartens, 424

RETAIL MERCHANTS CLOSE HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION; 7 LOCAL MEMBERS ENTER INTO BIG SESSION

The Retail Merchants Association of Texas closed the most successful convention in the history of the association in Dallas Wednesday afternoon, according to word received here from Paul Sherrard, president of the local association who has been in Dallas leading the delegation which attended the convention.

The convention consisted of a meeting of the Retail Merchants Association, the Associated Retail Credit Men and the Secretaries Association, while the Service Groups also met and organized a state association to be affiliated with the state merchants association.

Some leading merchants, credit men and secretaries in Texas together with outstanding speakers in other parts of the Southwest appeared on the program during the three day convention which was held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The retailers problems were discussed from every angle. Group meetings of the various classifications were held Tuesday afternoon to discuss their particular problems.

The retailers went on record as opposing the selling of goods on the installment plan unless the article has a resale value. They went on record to assist in the program of diversification of crops over Texas.

The convention selected Fort Arthur for the 1927 meeting place over Lubbock. Officers of the associations are: E. O. Dean, Orange, president of the Merchants; Robert Sterna, Dallas, president of the Credit Men; Lucille Self, Brownwood, president of the Secretaries; and Eas W. Cullum, Dallas, president of the grocers.

The delegation from Lubbock consisted of the following: Paul Sherrard, Joe Nislar, Eric Posey, J. D. Hassell, Lee McWhorter, Harry Miller, and Garnet Reeves.

ZULU PRINCE HAS IDEAS OF OWN, HE SAYS

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 20.—(AP)—Prince Bullumo of Zululand is in Dixie studying the American negro.

"My purpose is to study any people here along educational and vocational lines," he said. "When I return I will establish the same line of work among my people."

The Zulus, most warlike tribe in the whole of South Africa, at the same time are the most refined and Christianized, the Prince declared. He is the son of the war chief Catewayo of Zululand, who raised the insurrection against England in 1857. Catewayo died, a prisoner of war, after two years' imprisonment in England. Since his death there has been no chief.

Bullumo said "there is no class of people that will assimilate education and Christianity more quickly than those semi-barbarians in the wilds of Zululand."

FRENCH AND DRUSE TAKE HEAVY TOLL IN LATE DAMASCUS BATTLE

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, May 20.—More than 600 civilians and about 100 rebels and twenty French have been killed in a bombardment by the French forces of the Midan quarter of the city of Damascus, says a dispatch to the Daily Express.

Three hundred houses were destroyed. While there has been no confirmation of the dispatch, which was dated May 9, it has occasioned considerable surprise as it was thought that the troubles in the city between the French and the Druse tribesmen had calmed down under the civilian administrations headed by M. Fozvanel, French High Commissioner for Syria.

Bombardment Thought Small

The latest bombardment is said to have been announced May 11 as a comparatively small affair, involving the deaths of about fifty Druse rebels. The trouble began May 6th when the Druse rebels attacked French military posts, killing or capturing 25 soldiers
