24-Hour Strike Called By Big French Unions

Many Workers Fail To Participate in General Walkout

PARIS, Nov. 25. (AP)—France's two biggest labor unions called a 24-hour general strike today but the demonstration for higher wages failed to shut down French economic life.

Transportation was disrupted. Mines and most big industries were closed.

But reports from throughout the country showed that large groups of workers insisted on staying on the job. Hundreds of thousands of Frenchmen walked or rode bicycles in a determined effort to get to work.

Effects of the strike on normal life were not very noticeable.

Socialist Cabinet Minister Eugene Thomas, who heads the post office, called the strike a "fiasco."

France's two biggest labor unions—one anti-Communist, the other Red dominated—got together to call the one-day demonstration strike. They want to pressure the government to give pay bonuses and end wage freezes.

Practically all domestic trains halted, as did the Paris subway and most bus lines. Mines were deserted, many ports were idle and thousands of factories were empty.

Labor did not appear to be carrying on any agitation now that the strike was on. There were no reports of clashes between strikers and non-strikers.

Spot interviews with Parisians on the streets revealed almost unanimous opposition to the strike and determination not to lose a day's pay. Liberal and conservative newspapers denounced the work stoppage, expected to cost France 10,700,000,000 francs (about $30 million).

Outside Paris, the strike also met with spotty response. French observers said today's strike was a pale imitation of pre-war general strikes.

Man Calls Cops To Arrest Him

CHICAGO, Nov. 25. (AP)—A man who called the Austin police station last night said he wanted to report that an attempted burglary had been halted and the prisoner was in custody.

The caller asked Sgt. John Giffeth to send a patrol wagon to 1327 North Ridgeway Ave. to take the burglar to jail.

When Giffeth asked the name of the complainant, the caller said: "This is the burglar."

The sergeant suspected he was being the butt of a joke but he sent a police squad to the address and found the caller. He was identified as Andrew Thomas, 29, of Detroit, who police said had a prison record dating to 1935.

Before Thomas was taken to jail he was given first aid treatment at a hospital for cuts on his hand and bruises on his face. They were inflicted, police learned, by Fred Zalepanski, a husky 22-year-old truck driver.

Thomas had attempted to escape when Zalepanski found him ransacking his home. They fought, and Thomas, some 60 pounds lighter than the 200-pound Zalepanski, was knocked out twice. Finally, Fred forced Thomas to remove his trousers and walk to a neighbor's. Then Zalepanski ordered him to telephone police and report an attempted burglary had been foiled.

Long Fast Cut Short By Death

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 25. (AP)—Percy Coplon, who started what he said would be a 100-day fast on Sept. 25, died early today.

Percy, a jocular five-by-five who weighed 257 pounds at the start, had gone 62 days without food. His weight had dropped to 245 pounds. He was 53.

Coplon spent most of the fast in a small house atop a 30-foot pole at his home. Last Sunday he came down because of dizziness and said he would finish his 100-day fast in his home.

His dizziness diminished and Percy was in good spirits yesterday. He lapsed into unconsciousness just before midnight, however, falling to the floor in his bathroom.

Two physicians worked over him but he died during the night. Percy told reporters at the start of his fast that he hoped to prove that the human body can heal itself without medicine if it is given the chance. He said he was not undertaking the long fast to gain publicity.

As his waistline receded, Percy joked with reporters. He had announced he would begin taking food next week, starting with a spoon of orange juice.

GOP Hits Handling Of Consul's Case

Firing Of State Dept. Officials Demanded

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25. (AP)—The State Department's handling of the Angus Ward case was under severe Republican attack today, with five lawmakers demanding the immediate firing of responsible officials "both high and low."

The congressman, all members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, issued a joint statement yesterday blasting the department for its "spineless performance" in trying to get the U. S. consul general freed from a Chinese Communist jail in Mukden.

The angry lawmakers called it "one of the most humiliating chapters in American diplomatic history" and declared that "the loss of face by the United States is beyond calculation."

One of the house members, Rep. Judd of Minnesota, told a reporter the United States should have tried "military action" in the Ward case instead of "incomprehensibly sneaking off the battlefield."

Besides Judd, the statement was signed by Reps. Chiswell of Illinois, Vorys of Ohio, Lawrence H. Smith of Wisconsin, and Jackson of California.

The statement reserved particular criticism for Secretary of State Acheson's appeal to 30 nations—including Russia—for assistance in the Ward case.

"It is to be assumed that it will require the assistance of 30 nations to protect the lives of our diplomatic officials under similar circumstances in the future," the five Republicans asked.

Ward and four consulate employees were released from jail this week after being given suspended sentences by a Communist court on charges of beating a Chinese employee during a disagreement about wages. They had been under arrest since Oct. 24.

Included in the Chest total and dependent largely or wholly upon it for financing of the year's activities are the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, YMCA, Salvation Army, the Alcoholics Anonymous for home maintenance only, and the Chest for a small amount of administration funds.

44 INJURED

Alabama Tornadoes Kill 14 Persons

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 25. (AP)—Thanksgiving Day tornadoes roared down at four points in East Alabama yesterday and killed 14 persons. Forty-four persons were injured.

The vicious, out-of-season storms left several other persons missing and destroyed more than a score of buildings as they leapt-frogged in three counties about dusk.

An entire family of 10 Negroes were wiped out near Hackneyville in Tallapoosa County, 60 miles southeast of Birmingham. The mammoth wind picked up their weatherbeaten little home and hurled it 300 yards across the road into another house.

The second house was occupied by another large family of Negroes, but none was reported hurt. Near Oneonta, in Blount County, two members of a white family were killed at the Easley Community. The same twister hopped a small mountain and struck again on the northern outskirts of Oneonta, where 34 persons were hurt. Property damage was heavy.

Another person was killed and five injured by the tornado's fury on Sand Mountain, near Valley Head in DeKalb County. Sheriff W. F. Maynor of Blount County reported that an unidentified body was taken from the ruins of a burned home near Oneonta.

A Red Cross disaster crew was dispatched to the Hackneyville storm area.

They said they were expecting swift action by United Mine Workers President John L. Lewis who appears threatened with a possible Taft-Hartley Act injunction if his 250,000 soft coal miners east of the Mississippi walk off the job Dec. 1.

The miners, after a 52-day strike, are at work now under a three-week truce called by Lewis Nov. 8. The truce ends Nov. 30, and there have been reports that President Truman is prepared to halt a new walkout by using his Taft-Hartley injunction power.

Officials predicted Lewis would try to forestall that by making a new bid for a contract with the operators. The miners are working under an indefinite extension of the old contract which expired last June 30.

The mine owners were due to decide today or tomorrow whether to meet Lewis in New York or elsewhere by early next week.

Deathless Days 716 In Big Spring Traffic

Two blocks of Douglas street, extending from Dallas to 17th street, are to be given a base stabilization treatment. E. L. Killingsworth, city engineer, said this morning.

Curbing is now being constructed for the improvement. The base stabilization will consist of an asphalt-type treatment of soil for a depth of about four inches. Killingsworth stated. It is designed to prevent wash-outs during rain.

Killingsworth said the stabilization would be extended to 16th street if property owners agreed to install curbing and gutters.

Dallas 'Love Burglar' Arrested, Identified

DALLAS, Nov. 25. (AP)—A handsome, 25-year-old office worker has definitely identified himself as Dallas' notorious "love burglar"—a man who for many months raped and molested women while looting homes, City Detective E. L. Munday said today.

Munday gave the man's name as Fred Felix Adair, Jr.

Adair has signed written statements, witnessed by newspapermen, involving two rapes and one case in which a woman was choked during a burglary, the detective stated.

C. V. Sanders, another city detective, said four women victims identified Adair as the bouddoir bandit.

No charge has been filed against Adair.

Adair signed one statement in which he said he raped a 31-year-old Dallas mother in her home while two children stood by, screaming, Munday said.

Adair was arrested yesterday in the office of a cement company which employed him as a payroll clerk. He is married and is the father of an 18-month-old daughter.

"There isn't anything to talk about," Adair told reporters. "If I signed the statements that means they are true, doesn't it. There are extenuating circumstances in all this. There's a lot about me that you don't know. It would take two hours to tell you about it."

Adair confessed the raping of a 17-year-old girl, Detective Munday said, and in a third statement he admitted several burglaries—one in which a woman was choked.

Adair's wife said she was astonished to learn of the accusations made against her husband.

Detective Sanders said the four women who had identified Adair as their attacker included a 17-year-old girl, a 50-year-old woman, and an airline hostess.

The felony career of Dallas' love burglar reached its night last summer. Generally homes were entered during the early-morning hours.

The man usually removed a window screen and stole money and merchandise. On numerous occasions he surprised women while they slept and attacked them. The burglar's forays became less frequent during the early fall and picked up in the past several weeks.

The arrest came after several days of intensive work on the part of Detectives Munday and O. A. Jones. Adair began telling his story to officers after they raided his home yesterday afternoon and found a cigarette lighter, an automatic rifle, a camera and other merchandise they said they believed had been stolen in Dallas burglaries.

Two breaks narrowed the search for the love burglar. A woman whose home had been burglarized this month told police she saw a patch on the shirt of the midnight intruder that bore the name of the intruder that bore the name of the

"When he struck in the early part of the night, he just told his wife he was out on a drinking spree," the detectives said. "And when he struck during the early morning hours he told his wife he 'had to go to work early.'"

Munday quoted Adair as saying he operated "all hours of the night."

FREER SPENDING REPORTED

Average U. S. Income Nearly Double Prewar 1939 Figure

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25. (AP)—The average American is taking in almost twice the money he did in prewar 1939 and he's spending it a little more freely than he did even three months ago.

The Federal Reserve Board reported last night that consumer income is 90 per cent higher than in 1939, just three per cent under the peak reached last year.

And the board noted that people as a whole are spending an increasing proportion of their income—$93.10 per $100 of income after taxes in the third quarter of this year as compared with $91.60 in the first quarter of last year.

The continued high level of consumer income—and willingness to spend it—helped markedly in cushioning the economic downturn earlier this year, the board said.

The agency's November bulletin showed consumer income flowing at the rate of $219,600,000,000 a year in the third quarter (July through September). That's roughly $1,400 for every man, woman and child in the country and reflects a 19 per cent increase for the postwar period alone.

Wage and salary income, which accounts for $124,400,000,000 of the total, was up 98 per cent from 1939 (the number of workers also had increased) and 23 per cent from 1946. It was off only two per cent from the peak reached in the fourth quarter of 1948.

Total wage and salary income in goods-producing industries was up 134 per cent over 1939 and 27 per cent over 1946. In stores the increase was 105 per cent from 1939, 31 per cent for the early postwar period and one per cent above last year's high mark.

Industries selling services rather than goods—laundries, for instance—showed a 48 per cent increase from prewar and 25 per cent for the postwar period.

Government wages and salaries were up 54 per cent since prewar, with no rise in the postwar period. But the total still was three per cent above that of late 1948, when the percentage had dropped because of a reduction in the number of employees.

Farm owners' income was indicated at 107 per cent above 1939, but 25 per cent below the 1948 peak period and three per cent off from the postwar period as a whole.

Income of landlords and owners of unincorporated businesses is 101 per cent above prewar, 14 per cent above postwar, but two per cent off from late 1948.

Income from dividends on corporate stocks is up 11 per cent from 1939, 45 per cent since 1946 and one per cent over late 1948. Interest receipts climbed 65 per cent from prewar, 20 per cent since 1946 and five per cent above last year.

Income from "transfer payments"—such as pensions, veterans bonuses and benefits, unemployment compensation etc.—is 207 per cent above 1939, seven per cent above 1946 and 16 per cent up from late last year.

Kashmir Guarded Against Communists

SRINAGAR, Kashmir, (U)—Kashmir's northern and northeastern frontiers are being guarded against Communist infiltration from the Chinese province of Sinkiang, reportedly under the control of the Chinese Communists.

A well-informed source here says a large number of Muslim refugees fled Gilit, which is held by Pakistan from Sinkiang already have entered difficult to tell whether any Communists are among the refugees.

Evidence Slips In Numbers Arrest

WASHINGTON, (U)—Detectives in a cruiser car saw a known numbers operator on the sidewalk with a paper bag in his hand. They told him to "come over here" and asked him what he had in the bag.

"You know what I got," the man replied. "I got numbers slips." The officers arrested him—but Judge Thomas D. Quinn set him free. He held that the man was under arrest the moment the officers called him over—and that at that time they did not have evidence of a misdemeanor.

Cat-and-Dog Scrap Causes Traffic Mishap

ANACONDA, Mont., (U)—F. C. Brown of Avon, Mont., was driving a loaded furniture van when his dog and cat got into a scrap on the seat beside him. The truck careened across the street and struck a parked automobile. It bounced off and smashed through the north wall of the Mat J. Kelly coal and storage warehouse, colliding with a conveyor. Finally, it rammed through the south wall before Brown could stop it. He came out without a scratch. So did the dog and cat, except for the damages they inflicted on each other.

Orange Gets Big Steel Pipe Mill

ORANGE, Nov. 25, UP—The stop signal was flashed this week for the solid trainloads of big steel pipe which have been moving through Texas from the West Coast in recent months. And nobody was happier to see the red light go on than the people of Orange.

For many weeks citizens of this Southeast Texas industrial center have sat parked in their automobiles at railroad crossings and watched one freight train after another bearing big steel pipe.

Each carload carried a sign on both sides reading: "Fabricated by Consolidated Western Steel Corp., Los Angeles, Calif."

Now, in a matter of a few weeks, the trainloads of pipe will be moving out instead of through Orange and the signs will be changed to read: "Fabricated by Consolidated Western Steel Corp., Orange, Tex."

This pipe—thousands of miles of it, runs from 24 inches to 36 inches in diameter and is being used for new pipelines from southwestern oil and gas fields to the east and midwest.

And its fabrication apparently is just beginning. This week, after concluding a deal with the government to buy a surplus Navy shipyard at Orange, Consolidated Western steel corp. announced plans to spend $5 million for a new mill to fabricate the pipe at the shipyard.

The new mill, Consolidated announced, will employ at least 250 persons and will have a monthly capacity of 100,000 net tons—about 50 miles—of 24 inch or longer electric welded and expanded steel pipe.

And the company will have additional uses for the surplus shipyard. Its announcement said the steel fabricating operations now being carried on in a similar plant adjacent which it already owned would be expanded sufficiently to require at least another 200 employees.

These things brought a lot of broad smiles to businessmen and unemployed industrial workers in Orange.

Ever since last Oct. 5, Houston had been under the impression it would get the pipe mill. Consolidated owns a 78-acre tract of land near the Houston ship channel and had announced it would build the plant there. But this week Consolidated President Alden G. Roach said that it would be built in Orange instead because its location here would "make a more economical operation."

Dead Girl Found Beside Sister Under Trestle

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25, UP—A twelve-year-old girl in a state of near exhaustion was found Thanksgiving Day beside the dead body of her younger sister under a 100-foot high trestle.

The girls apparently had fallen from the railroad bridge. In a moment of consciousness the injured girl said her sister fell "through the trestle, I heard her scream and ran to help her and I fell through too."

Their discovery by five boys playing on the brink of the ravine the trestle bridges ended an all night search for the girls. They were last seen Wednesday afternoon after they were dismissed from school.

The dead girl was 11-year-old Elsie Jeanne Henry. Her sister is named Janice Betty. They were third and fourth grade pupils, daughters of James F. Henry of nearby Rutledge.

The Henrys reported the children missing at seven Wednesday night. By morning a widespread search for them had developed. Just before noon three sons of a prominent Chester lawyer, J. H. W. Hinkson, with two playmates, heard feeble moans from the ravine.

The boys scattered and ran for help. One summoned Hinkson's gardener, George Rinehart. The banks of the gulch are so steep that ropes had to be used to help carry out Betty and her dead sister.

Betty is in a serious condition at Chester Hospital, Chester, suffering from shock, 17 hours of exposure, and internal bleeding. An examination showed no outward marks on her sister's body but indicated death may have been caused by bleeding into a lung.

CONGRESSIONAL 'NO' SEEN

Draft Extension In 1950 Is Doubtful

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25, UP—An emphatic "no" is expected to be Congress' answer to any request for extension of the draft law next year.

Congressional leaders believe the administration will make such a request, probably early in 1950, and are confident Congress will turn it down.

They have in effect so notified President Truman and Secretary of Defense Johnson.

In a letter to the President and Johnson discussing medical benefits for servicemen's dependents, Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Armed Services Committee and Rep. Kilday (D-Tex.) of the same committee said "It is exceedingly unlikely that the extension will be approved."

Draft law extension, they said, may be the "number one legislative item of the defense department in the second session of this Congress."

The present draft law, enacted in 1948, expires next June 24. It has been used only sparingly to meet manpower requirements of the armed forces, most of which have come from voluntary enlistments.

The argument that the draft has not been over-worked is expected to be cited by the armed forces as a strong reason for its continuation.

ance. It has, their congressional spokesmen claim, been a strong factor in heavy enlistments of youths who otherwise might have been drafted.

Since the law is used only in emergencies, they contend, it would be wise to keep it on the statute books rather than let it die and then re-enact it after the administrative machinery had been junked.

Rep. Price (D-Ill.), a member of the armed services committee, said he does not think Congress will take kindly to a proposal to keep the law on the books. But, he added, "It can not be charged that the armed forces did not act in good faith in administering it, since they promised it would be used only if needed, and that is what has happened."

Charity Gets Profits

WASHINGTON, UP—Profits from grandstand seats along last January's inauguration parade route and from the inauguration ball are to be divided among the Community Chest, Florence Crittenden Home and the Home for Incurables. The largest part of the estimated $30,000 to $40,000 will go to the Chest, but exact shares have not yet been decided.

Wildlife Work For Women Is On The Increase

By VERN HAUGLAND
WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Yes, little girl, the United States Government is interested in you and your future.

It wants you to get the best education possible, and to find the job for which you're best suited. If home-making is to be your career, it wants to see you happily married.

Take Saralee Levandoski, 293 Alleville, Mass., for example. She wrote to Secretary of Agriculture Brannan that "although I am only 13, I am very much interested in animals."

"I would like to make my work working with animals, or something to do with them," she said. "I wonder if there is any work in this field for girls, as I am a girl."

"I have had many discouraging let downs, saying that there is no such work for women in this field but I absolutely refuse to give up."

Saralee also wanted to know how much education she would need. The letter drew a reply from Albert M. Day, director of interior's fish and wildlife service.

Day wrote Saralee that she should be able to find a place for herself in wildlife work because there is "always a niche for anyone who really knows his or her subject."

"Although there aren't so many women working with wildlife at the present, there will be more in the future," Day said.

He suggested that Saralee might try to become a biologist in wildlife work—or a writer of biological studies, or an information specialist, or an animal illustrator or photographer if she likes art or photography.

Day said that a college education is desirable, and that a biologist should earn a master's—or even a doctor's—degree.

He added, as a final suggestion: "One other opportunity, which you shouldn't overlook, is that of an interested and helpful wife of a biologist, photographer, refuge manager or other wildlife worker."

"There will be a great many prospective husbands in this field when you are ready for one."

Sylvia Gould Finally Weds Naval Officer

ROXBURY, N. Y., Nov. 25. (U.S. Herald)—Sylvia Gould, who broke her engagement to Lt. Comdr. Ernst Hoefler, Jr., on the eve of their wedding scheduled for last Sept. 24, was married to the hand some naval officer last night.

Justice of the Peace James Hopkins performed the surprise ceremony. The simple ceremony was arranged on short notice at Furlough Lodge, Seagr, N. J., home of the 31-year-old heiress to part of the fortune of her great grandfather, Financier Jay Gould.

The bride said last Sept. 23 that she cancelled her engagement to the 29-year-old naval officer because he refused to sign away dower rights to her estate.

Newspapers had said the wedding was called off because of Hoefler's refusal to give up his navy career and become a business man in New York City.

The reports were called "entirely erroneous" by the twice-married Mrs. Gould. "I had every intention of living with him on any assignment he had," she said.

"He refused to sign a pre-nuptial dower rights agreement, relinquishing those rights in my estate," she said. "And my children must be protected."

Reached by telephone at the bride's Seagr estate after the wedding last night, Hoefler refused to comment on how their differences had been reconciled. Neither would he talk about their plans.

Asked if he would continue his career, he said, "Well, I'm still in the navy."

Attendants at the wedding were

LLOYD CONNELL, MINISTER

Every man has a little ghost all his own

Maybe you're haunted by him right now. Your own special ghost.

If he hasn't caught up with you, chances are he will.

You'll know him, all right. He'll be the fellow who will ask you uncomfortable questions.

He'll ask you: "Are you sure you're saving enough money so that you can live out your later years in comfort and security?"

And he'll ask you: "You wouldn't want to be dependent on your children when you grow old, would you?"

And he'll ask you: "What's gonna happen if you get sick and can't work any more?"

Oh, he's got a whole stock of questions for you. The kind that can make you squirm—unless you have the answer.

The answer is U.S. Savings Bonds. For here is a method of saving for the future that is practically painless in the present.

Through the Payroll Savings Plan, you put aside automatically part of everything you earn. Before you realize it, you have the beginnings of a wonderful nest egg waiting for you.

Or, if this Payroll Plan is not available to you, you can buy U.S. Savings Bonds through your checking account at your bank. Just ask the teller to give you the low-down on the Bond-A-Month Plan.

Either way you buy your Savings Bonds, you can be sure of one thing. That little ghost of your own is going to be mighty grumpy about it—and pretty soon he'll go away, never to bother you again.

Natalie Smith Becomes The Bride Of Cecil W. Peurifoy On Thursday

Natalie Smith and Cecil W. Peurifoy were united in marriage in a candlelight holiday ceremony in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Smith, 2008 Rannels, Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Peurifoy, 110 11th Place.

Homer Haley, minister of the Church of Christ in Abilene, read the informal service as the couple exchanged their vows before an altar scene of white. Greenery and palm leaves draped the silver candelabra holding lighted white candles flanking the bride and groom. Two large baskets of white

RIBBON RAMBLINGS

By Mildred Young

Big Spring, like any other town as large, larger or smaller, has its share of ribbon-writers. Some of them, of course, are in the song writing field.

We have a few local writers in various fields who have made the publishers' ink with their writings. But most of them are like us. They get something down on paper, pencil mark it for awhile and finally toss it in the waste basket. That's probably a pretty good place for most of it.

Record companies, song publishers, handleaders and vocalists are telling amateur song writers to please not send them their songs. They say that they come in by the hundreds, every day, every week, every month. Invariably they are accompanied by letters pointing out that the songs are "better than the tunes on the Hit Parade", or "all my friends say they're wonderful." But don't we all usually agree that some would-be-artists' friend of ours is good even though we know that whether he's in music, writing or some other art, his chances of success are very slight. Out of the talented persons you've known in Big Spring, just how many have ever gotten to first base?

Of course, the "big" publisher or "big" record company may be passing up a sure Hit Parade topper in returning your envelope unopened, but the odds are something like 20,000 to 1 that the next hit will be composed by a known song writer.

All of which leaves the amateur with two alternatives—and only two.

Keep your songs. Try to get them performed in your home territory by radio station, hotel bands, ballroom musicians, cocktail combos. If a tune attracts attention, no matter what the town or state, the "big" publishers will become aware of it. And if you can get your song started they'll all flock to you to obtain the publishing rights. Or—

Leave home. Go to New York (only New York—all the major publishers are there: even the Hollywood and Chicago publishers are mere sub-branches) and prepare to starve. You'll have to call on the publishers every day, dozens of them, and learn to know the people who are in a position to do something with your compositions. If your songs are good, it may take six months or six years. If your songs are poor you'll get no action in 99 years.

That's the story according to the guys who do the publishing of Hit Parade material. We don't know about the other fields, the ice has not been broken as far as we are concerned.

mums and white stock interspersed with variegated leaves completed the sanctuary.

Mrs. L. G. Talley, organist, played a prelude of love songs prior to the ceremony and the traditional "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin of Wagner as the processional and the "Wedding March" from "Midsummer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn, as the recessional. Mrs. Talley chose a light green crepe dress with black accessories. She wore a yellow chrysanthemum corsage.

Jean Casky of Dallas sang the selection, "Because," by "Hardly" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," by Victor Herbert. She was accompanied by Mrs. Talley. Miss Casky wore a deep green crepe dress and yellow chrysanthemum corsage. Her accessories were black.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in an off-white satin dress, fashioned with fitted bodice and full, flaring skirt. Deep pockets studded with rhinestone trim were placed at the skirt front. The dress featured elbow length sleeves and a softly flaring collar. Her shoulder-length veil cascaded down a white tulle train with white satin rosettes. She carried an orchid corsage with matching white streamers atop a white Bible. The Bible belongs to the Delta Theta sorority, of which she is a member. Her shoes were grey.

In carrying out the bridal tradition, she wore a brooch belonging to her aunt, Mrs. J. B. Collins, for something old and borrowed. The brooch originally belonged to her grandmother, the late Mrs. D. C. Riley of Lubbock. Something new was her wedding ensemble. She wore a blue garter and a penny in her shoe for luck.

Mrs. Dewie O. Stevenson served as matron of honor. Mrs. Stevenson was dressed in an iridescent rose taffeta ensemble, designed with beaded bodice and sweeping skirt. Her accessories were black. She carried an arm bouquet of rose mums with matching satin ribbon trim.

Candlelighters were Georgia Sanders of Abilene and Betty Collins. Miss Collins chose a chocolate brown brocade taffeta dress and brown accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of yellow mums. Miss Sanders was attired in a balenaga brocade taffeta dress and matching yellow mum corsage. Her accessories were black.

Stanley Peurifoy, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Smith chose a green faille dress with red rose corsage. Her accessories were black. Mrs. Peurifoy, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in a black crepe ensemble and black accessories. She wore a matching corsage of red roses.

An informal reception was held following the ceremony. Mrs. Avery Falkner, sister of the bride, presided at the guest register. The bride's table was laid with a floor-length white crocheted cloth hand-made by Mrs. Faye Price of Lubbock, aunt of the bride. The centerpiece included an arrangement of candy tuft and feverfew interspersed with lighted white tapers in a large crystal bowl. Crystal and silver appointments completed the table setting.

Mrs. Carl Coleman, sister of the bride, attended the punch service and Sammie Capps of Mason, cut the tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Out of town guests attending the wedding and reception were Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Wray, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Plum, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis L. Manly, Jr. and Homer Haley, all of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. Hub Holland and Peggy Ann of Anson.

The bride is a graduate of Big Spring high school and of Abilene Christian college. She is now employed as a teacher in the fifth grade class of the local school system. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Big Spring high school. During the recent war, he served two and on half years in the Air Corps. He is now associated with his brother in the Big Spring Radiator Service.

For traveling, Mrs. Peurifoy chose a brown-checked sharkskin suit. She wore a green blouse and a brown off-the-face hat, with cream-colored satin trim. Her accessories were brown and she wore an orchid corsage.

Following their wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 1107 Owens, Big Spring.

"We teachers are getting more money today and we have to work less," Dr. Henry Hill said last night. "But as our teaching load becomes easier we should do better work."

"To the very limit of practicality, we should keep our schools close to the people," he said. "State controls should not be substituted for local controls unless there is a clear and conclusive reason for the act—and the only valid reason should be that the state is doing something beneficial for the schools that the local district cannot do."

The three-day teachers meeting opened with a mid-day Thanksgiving Day service. Dr. W. R. White, Baylor University president, spoke.

Streets, store fronts, and community attitude go into effective sales. E. C. House, New York sales consultant, told the crowd attending the concluding lecture of the sales series conducted here this week.

The very appearance of a town, said House, conveys impressions which may be reflected in business channels. The attitude of police, service station attendants, waiters, cashiers and others in the service field adds to those impressions.

No one can know when a constructive and friendly approach will pay big dividends for his or her community, he added. Every worthwhile thing that comes to a community is the result of civic-minded men and women who take time out of busy lives to make them possible. Those who drive their feet and hands to contribute to civic projects do not deserve the support of the community, he asserted.

Industrial executives frequently are impressed and influenced by the alert and courteous approach of sales people, according to the lecturer. Energetic clerks and business men are indicative of an atmosphere in which executives would like to operate businesses.

Rouse took occasion again to follow the extensive approach in selling with emphasis on the intensive.

It is founded, he said, on a cordial approach, conveying sincerity and enthusiasm along with a thorough knowledge of merchandise and a desire to fill the customer's wants.

"Put life and color into the presentation of merchandise," said Rouse. "Be specific, avoid general-

CONTRACT WITH GOD

This is the one contract that a lawyer cannot draw up.

It is also the one contract that has no standing in court.

When a man enters into a contract with God he needs neither lawyer nor code of laws. All he needs is a grateful heart!

He may write this contract on a church pledge card, or merely make a "mental note" of it—but the terms are always the same:

"Because God has Given me so much, I will return ALL I CAN TO GOD."

We have churches and institutions of mercy today because men have made and kept such contracts through the ages. What we will have tomorrow depends on the honesty and gratitude with which we deal with God today!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For the sake of his community and nation. (2) For the sake of his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Police Foil Attempt To Free Doomed Man

CHICAGO, Nov. 25. (U.P.)—Police patrolled areas outside the Cook County Jail today after thwarting an attempt by two young men to free James Morelli, the "mad dog" killer, who is scheduled to die in the electric chair early Saturday.

Police said the two men seized near the jail last night admitted, in statements, they had been trying since last Monday to aid the doomed HMorelli in escaping from the jail.

Morelli already has been granted five stays since he first was sentenced to death last March 19. He was convicted of killing Emil Schmeichel on Dec. 12, 1947, in the shooting orgy in which two other men were killed and two wounded.

Morelli's attorney today will seek a sixth stay at a hearing in federal court on a petition for writ of habeas corpus filed by his wife, Genevieve.

Police identified the two men seized last night at Dominic J. Demarelli, 30, and Erville Leaffrey Burdick, 22, and said they had been friends of Morelli for seven or eight years. Burdick, in his statement, said he and Morelli plotted the escape and agreed that he would enlist Demarelli's aid.

Police said a bag which Burdick was carrying when picked up by four detectives contained two 19-caliber revolvers, and 50 feet of fishing line.

Burdick's statement said he and Demarelli were to signal Morelli by a lighted match, waved in the direction of the cell block he had occupied. If the signal was returned, also by a lighted match, they were to move to the side of the north wall and look for a thin cord weighted by a washer. They were to attach the end of a fishing line to the cord, and a bag containing the saws and the pistol to the end of the fishing line.

Burdick said they flashed the signal and in turn received a return signal on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday night. But, he added, as they moved along the wall on each of the three nights, they could not find the cord.

Morelli, unknown to Burdick and Demarelli, was moved from a cell block to the death cell yesterday afternoon. Earlier he had eaten Thanksgiving dinner with three other men awaiting death sentences and 10 other prisoners.

Sheriff Elmer Michael Walsh said there was "nothing to indicate any collusion from the inside, either by jail personnel or prisoners." He added "it would have been pretty futile for them (Burdick and Demarelli) to have tried anything from the outside."

One year ago, on Thanksgiving night, jail guards foiled a daring break by nine criminals. One was shot and killed. The others surrendered.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Prophet Jeremiah Was Spokesman Of Jehovah

Scripture—Jeremiah 1: 14-7; 22: 1-23; 32: 6-10; 37-39.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

It is a far cry from the time of the Prophet Jeremiah to our own time. The people of that day were wicked—self-seeking; enjoying luxuries and idleness when they could afford it; oppressing the poor; worshipping false gods; ignoring the Lord who had brought them safely out of captivity into their own fruitful land.

Fear of war for they were a small, weak people; anxiety that they might be taken away into exile from their homeland, oppressed the common people. Fear of war and conquest still hangs over the peoples of the world, although the time we are studying was more than 2,500 years ago.

The tiny town of Anathoth, about two and one-half miles north of Jerusalem, was the birthplace of the courageous prophet known to us as Jeremiah. The word of the Lord came to him when he was a child, telling him that He, Jehovah, had set him aside to be His mouthpiece to the people.

Jeremiah protested that he was only a child and couldn't speak. Jehovah assured him, however, that even before he was born He had set the child aside "to go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak."

"Be not afraid of their faces," said the Lord, "for I am with thee to deliver thee."

The Lord then "put forth His hand, and touched my mouth," says Jeremiah, "and the Lord said unto me, 'Behold, I have put My words in thy mouth.'

We do not know how Jehovah touched Jeremiah's mouth, but we do know that for 40 years of ministry he never feared to tell the people what the Lord told him to say, whether the messages were of impending disaster or of comfort.

He was fearless, for the Lord had said: "They (his enemies) shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the Lord, to deliver thee."

In the 14th chapter of Jeremiah, we read how the people repented of their sins, for there was a great drought in the land, and they were afraid. Famine and the sword of the enemy threatened them. They prayed to God, for "Art Thou not He, O Lord, our God? therefore we will wait upon Thee; for Thou hast made all these things."

Jeremiah had many enemies among the wicked priests and the princes of the court. One of the priests, Pashur, hearing Jeremiah's dire prophecies, struck him and threw him in the stocks. He released him, however, and Jeremiah foretold an awful fate for him—such fate had the prophet in the word of the Lord for his defense.

Jeremiah certainly minced no words in translating the Lord's messages to the people—kings, princes and priests. Righteousness was what God required of them: "Excuse ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor; and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place."

Troubles thickened in Judah when Zedekiah, son of Josiah, reigned. He was rather a weak character. Fundamentally he seems to have had a great respect for Jeremiah, but he never was strong enough to stand against the princes of his court. When they became enraged at Jeremiah for his dismal warnings, the king meekly told them to do with him what they would. They wanted to put him to death, and they let him down into an abandoned well with deep mud at the bottom—hoping, supposedly, that he would either starve or sink into the mire. However, at that time, as we learned in a previous lesson, he was rescued by the Enech Ebed-melech.

Secretly the king sought Jeremiah's advice, but he never had quite the courage to take it literally. So Judah fell; the king was taken captive and blinded. He also saw his children and princes slain before his eyes.

But Jeremiah, the prophet, was well treated in captivity by command of Nebuchadnezzar himself. He is called a prophet of calamity, but at the time it is said that he was also a builder and planter.

Barkleys Having Quiet Honeymoon

SEA ISLAND, Ga., Nov. 25. (U.P.)—Mr. and Mrs. Veep—the Alben Barkleys continued their quiet honeymoon here today in the wake of yesterday's double celebration.

The vice president observed his 72nd birthday and he and his bride of a week, the former Mrs. Carlton Hadley of St. Louis, enjoyed a traditional Thanksgiving dinner in their apartment by the sea.

Mrs. Barkley set the candles on the cake aflame and the Veep blew them out. Then he served the few guests invited for the cake cutting.

"Happy Birthday Veep" was inscribed on the cake.

Wednesday, the vice president and his brunette bride will fly to New York so Barkley can fill a speaking engagement.

Then the newlyweds will continue their honeymoon. They plan to spend 10 days either in New York or Washington before returning South.

Czech Reds Seek Liquidation Of Larger Farmers

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Nov. 25. (U.P.)—Communist-led search committees spread out through the Czech countryside today in an apparent drive to liquidate larger farmers.

The committees, backed by self-styled "persuading groups" spread through a "wide section of the country seeking out and rounding up 'economic saboteurs,'" reports in the controlled press revealed.

Prison sentences, confiscations of stiff fines were being imposed by district national committees (local governing bodies) against the Kulaks (village rich) on charges of sabotaging the nation's five-year plan.

The agrarian campaign appeared to be a counterpart of the wave of arrests last month in cities which rounded up thousands of independent businessmen and other middle class elements.

Informed diplomatic quarters interpreted the new drive as part of the Communist class warfare plan and a prelude to collectivization of the land along the Soviet pattern.

TURKEY HUNTER COMMITS SUICIDE AFTER KILLING AUNT BY MISTAKE

PENROCK, Ga., Nov. 25. (U.P.)—A Thanksgiving Day turkey hunter committed suicide after he apparently had mistaken a red kerchief for a cock's comb and killed his aunt.

The dead were identified by Sheriff E. W. Miles of Bryan County as Mrs. Bertha Goodman, 33, and William E. Ruff, 29, both of Savannah.

Sheriff Miles said Mrs. Goodman was wearing a red kerchief when she and Ruff took stands about 30 paces apart for the shoot yesterday.

Apparently, said Miles, Ruff spotted Mrs. Goodman's red kerchief bobbing in the thick brush along the Ogeechee River and fired.

Goodman said Ruff cried, "Oh my God, I've killed your wife." Before he could stop him, Goodman related, Ruff placed a shotgun against his head and fired.

Coroner R. L. Jackson impaneled a jury at a nearby hunting camp which returned a finding of accidental death and suicide.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25. (U.P.)—Ex-Communist Agent Whitaker Chambers will return to the witness stand Monday for further cross-examination by the defense in the second Alger Hiss perjury trial.

The trial is in recess for the Thanksgiving holidays.

In such a scheme "big" farmers (none of whom can own more than 124 acres of land under present laws) first would have to be liquidated.

Sweetwater Batters Steers In Final Grid Go, 53 To 0

Speck Franklin Local Standout

Performing about as expected, the Sweetwater Mustangs rolled to a 53-0 victory over the Big Spring Steers in the season's final football game for both teams here Thursday afternoon. A crowd of less than 2,000 looked on in near-perfect football weather.

Accept any part of that score you want to, and it still sounds big but the resident Longhorns were not without heroes. Little Charley (Speck) Franklin gave local fans hopes that he'll be a varsity standout as early as next year by turning in a jam-up performance.

Billy Hooper was the big throwing his blocks. Aubrey Armstrong, another lad who'll be back next year, had a good afternoon. Carroll Cannon tackled viciously Lee Axtens was tough to move out. Billy Hooper was the big noise in the Sweetwater secondary. It seemed that every time the Pones needed a TD Billy coked his arm and threw his Sunday punch. After tiring of throwing payoff passes to other members of the crew, William finally took the ball in the waning moments of the game and roared 67 yards straight up the middle to a tally.

The guests scored on the third play of the game when Wesley (Red) Rushing took a handoff from Hooper and breezed 39 paces for a touch. LeRoy Thompson added the point after and it was 7-0.

That was all the point-getting in Round-One, although Big Spring chugged down to the Sweetwater 11-yard line at one point after Armstrong had recovered a Sweetwater fumble on the Mustang 44. The Cayuses opened the throttle wide after the teams changed ends of the field, however, and by half time were leading, 35-0.

Elley Cross galloped 48 yards across the twin stripes after a pass had moved to ball to that point. Within a matter of moments, the Mustangs had gained possession on their own 34 and moved right down the field for a score. Ronald Fraley climaxed the drive by going across from five yards out and Thompson booted the point to make it 35-0.

Arnes Jones had one of his kicks blocked in the succeeding series of downs and Sweetwater took over on Big Spring's 34. The Longhorns braced to hold on the 10 but a fumble, one of seven committed by Big Spring during the afternoon, gave the Mustangs another life on the 19. A pass from Melade De-Gaish to N. Haggerton ate up the last 15 yards and the tally mounted to 26-0. Thompson's kick was good.

A fumble on Big Spring's six, caused when the Steer secondary got mixed up on its signals, set up the final Sweetwater score of the second period. Claybrook whirled over on the second play and the tally mounted to 35-0.

The Pones weren't able to count in the third quarter, although a fumble by Robert Cobb in the Big Spring 15 gave the Cayuses a golden opportunity they missed. Early in the fourth, Claybrook ripped off nine yards into the end zones to climax a 50-yard drive and move the count to 40-0.

D. C. Andrews scored the next TD midway in the round on a pass from Hooper that covered 25 yards. Thompson added the point to make it 47-0. Hooper's mad dash was to close out the scoring. Coch Carl Coleman of Big Spring wisely made use of his reserves throughout the fray.

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 25. (AP) — Hardin College is in a "watchful waiting" mood today. Waiting, perhaps, for a bowl bid.

The Indians yesterday smothered Trinity University, 53-0, to win the Gulf Coast Conference championship. It was their ninth victory against one defeat.

There's a good possibility Hardin will get a bowl bid, so it isn't likely Coach Billy Stamps' grid-ders will pack their uniforms away.

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 25. (AP) — The Texas Aggies swabbed their wounds—and that is speaking literally—from a 42-14 licking at the hands of Texas today and wondered, as did 41,200 other souls, how the Longhorns ever lost four games.

Texas would like to know, too. It dropped those games by a combined margin of 10 points. Coach Blair Cherry called it a "snake-bit season."

But the Longhorns closed out with awesome power yesterday, administering one of the worst drubbings in 56 years of football rivalry. It was a roughhouse battle—mostly on the Texas side. Arms and fists flew in the first half as the Longhorns drew 73 yards in penalties and Ray Stone, Texas wingman, was banished from the game after Aggie Fullback Bob Smith was knocked cold.

The second half was just the reverse and the boys ended what some wag in the press box termed "The Texas A&M Golden Gloves" by congratulating each other, shaking hands and in other ways showing they didn't really mean it like the greatest crowd ever to see a football game here thought.

The Longhorns stormed and passed for 423 yards and a couple of roughing penalties against Texas added the Aggies in getting their two touchdowns.

Sophomore Byron Townsend had his greatest day, gouging the Aggie line for 128 yards and three touchdowns. Smith, the Southwest Conference's leading ball-carrier, spent too much time recuperating on the sidelines to aid his cause materially. He netted only 23 yards, making his season total 694-107 yards better than Gordon Wyatt of Rice, who gets his last chance tomorrow against Baylor at Houston.

The Aggies managed for just 136 yards rushing and passing and the only bright spot was Yale Lary's 45.8 kicking average.

Watson Paces Fem Bowlers

Jesse Pearl Watson and Faye Johnston won first and second places in individual high game and high series scoring in the Women's Classic Bowling league last night to give Nathan's three victories over league-leading Douglas Keglers.

Zack's salvaged one line of a three-game match with Leonard's to move to within a half game of the leaders, is the Nathan's team took a stronger hold on third position, six and a half games behind the leaders.

The Leonard bowlers continued in fourth position with the victory over Zack's, while Clark Motors, gained a notch by winning 3-1 over cellar-dwelling Handy Liquor store. Nathan's won high game and high series honors with marks of 733, 704, and 2130. Leonard's was second in high series scoring with 2008.

Nathan's Watson won both individual game and series laurels with scores of 518 and 222. Faye Johnston of the same team was second in both divisions with marks of 489 and 181.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Pat Stacey, Big Spring's popular baseball skipper, has officially been declared batting champion of the Longhorn league for the second year in a row. The circuit's number one officer, President Hal Sayles, made an announcement to that effect yesterday.

Stacey finished with a mark of .3764, compared to the .3755 accumulated by Stu Williams of Ballinger. Rain might have proved an ally to the Big Spring Irishman. The Big Spring-Sweetwater game on the final day of the season was called off due to a pre-game shower. Williams played the last day and got only one hit in five trips.

TOTAL OF 85 TEXANS PLAYED IN LEAGUE
The state of Texas apparently is making great headway in its campaign to produce more professional baseball players. Of the 160-odd lads who decorated Longhorn club rosters last season, no less than 85 call Texas home. California was next in line with 37 representatives.

Ballinger had the biggest turnover in players during the year, having looked at 54 athletes. Vernon's Dusters experienced less player traffic. Manager Bob Huntley signing on but 27 during the season. Big Spring had 28 under contract at one time or another.

Thirty of the 48 states in the Union, plus Mexico, Cuba and Canada, were represented on club rosters of the Longhorn league.

Schoolboy football note: Tiny Etheredge, the giant Odessa Bronco center, is only a sophomore. . . . Billy Hooper, who gave the Steers fits here yesterday, completed 19 passes against Odessa early in the campaign. . . . He's considered a torrid college prospect because he can sling the melon. . . . Lamesa's Tornados will be hit hard by graduation. . . . Completing their eligibility with the Tornados this year are Jerry Phillips and T. J. Womack, ends; Jamie Pearson and Robert Adair, tackles; Jim Bob Boothe, guard; Bill Hart, center; Bobby Hawkins, Randall Reeves, Ron Chapman, Larry Lattimore and Dick Echols, backs. All are considered regulars.

GET READY, ALL-AMERICANS COMING UP
It's peach-picking time across the nation with the sports scribes now. All-Americans are in the process of being made. Collier's magazine announces its All-Southwest eleven today, a club not selected from Southwest Conference players alone but those from the entire Southwest.

Doak Walker, SMU; Lindy Berry, TCU; George Thomas, Oklahoma; and Muscles Campbell, Arkansas, were the backs honored. Up front, Jimmy Owens of Oklahoma and Jimmy (Proger) Williams, Rice, were the ends; Wade Walker of Oklahoma and Thurman McGraw of Colorado A & M the tackles; Bud McFadden of Texas and Jack Halliday of SMU the guards and Joe Watson of Rice the center.

The Collier's All-American club appears next week. Walker has already been named to two All-American teams, one chosen by the United Press and the other by the Police Gazette.

Walker shared billing on the UP team along with Emil Silko of Notre Dame; Bob Williams, Notre Dame; and Arnold Galiffa, backs; Leon Hart, Notre Dame, and Art Melner, North Carolina, ends; Leo Nemellini, Minnesota, and Al Wistert, Michigan, tackles; Rod Franz, California, and Ed Bagnon, Michigan State, guards; and Clay Tomemake, Minnesota, center.

He was selected for the Police Gazette's spangled team along with Jack Cloud, W & M; Choo-Choo Justice, North Carolina; and Art Murakowski, Northwestern, backs; Dan Foldberg (of Dallas), Army, and Hart, ends; Nemellini and Wistert, tackles; Frank and Joe Drzenovich, Penn State, guards; and Tomemake, center.

Austin's 7-0 victory over El Paso gave it the title in 4-AA and Port Arthur wrapped up 11-AA with a smashing, 72-13, win over Beaumont.

Littfield beat Spur, 47-14, to advance in the Class A race. Wink walloped Haskell by the same score. Ballinger edged Ranger, 6-2, Menla beat Lavaca, 29-7, Atlanta rolled over Honey Grove, 61-6, and Mission defeated Texas, 13-0. Rosebud noised out Lampasas, 16-14, Wednesday night.

Paschal and Sunset of Dallas meet in Fort Worth Dec. 2 in the opening round of the City Conference playoff, while Thomas Jefferson and San Jacinto, the Houston titlist, play in San Antonio Dec. 3.

Officials from Lubbock and Austin of El Paso were to decide at Fort Worth today where this district, Class AA title will be played.

Thomas Jefferson clinched its victory in the fading minutes when S. M. Meeks intercepted a Brackenridge pass and returned it 55 yards for a touchdown.

Cotton Mills scored four touchdowns and passed for three more in Port Arthur's one-sided win.

Some old "grudge" games were unriveted yesterday.

Abilene noised out San Angelo, 21-20. Pampa beat Borger, 14-7. Sherman downed Denison, 13-7, and Texarkana, Tex., defeated Texarkana Ark. 32-0.

Waco and Temple square off tonight in their annual battle.

Randy Clay and Lew Lavine each got a touchdown for Texas with the great pass-receiving of Ben Procter contributing strongly to the scoring. Procter took four passes for 52 yards.

The Aggie touchdowns were made by Bobby Goff and Smith, one coming after a penalty-for-illegal-use-of-the-hands-on-the-A&M player's neck—had set the ball on the Texas one-yard line, and the other when Texas was penalized half the distance to the goal line—34 yards—on Stone's foul.

Stone, in a statement, said he lost his head and was sorry for the incident. But he added the action had been provoked in a preceding play.

Coach Harry Stiteler of A&M declared "The team that lost four games was NOT the Texas team we played today."

CATS VS MIAMI TONIGHT

College Football Season Attains Climax Saturday

By JACK HAND AP Staff

NEW YORK, Nov. 25. — The college football season reaches a climax tomorrow with bowl bids and the violent Army-Navy struggle sharing top billing.

Some of the excitement died down yesterday after Cornell nipped Pennsylvania, 20-21, for a second straight Ivy League title. Maryland, College of Pacific and Texas boosted their chances of post-season invitations with convincing holiday victories.

Tonight's schedule calls for an important Kentucky-Miami game which might determine Santa Clara's opponent in Miami's Orange Bowl Jan. 2.

But Saturday is the big one for the bowl-minded. It also is the big one for the phone company. Telephones will buzz in athletic offices across the land as anxious promoters page the available few who still remain acceptable and willing.

Oklahoma probably is the prize bowl catch—the only member of the "big four" atop the football rankings which still can be had.

California, No. 2 behind Notre Dame, is the latest Associated Press poll, already is signed for a Rose Bowl date with Ohio State. Both have finished their regular season.

Notre Dame, which seeks to stretch its unbeaten string to 37 games against Southern California tomorrow, is not interested in bowl games. The Irish still must play Southern Methodist Dec. 3.

Army, of course, will not listen to bowl bids after its traditional finale with Navy. The unbeaten untied Cadets, No. 4 in the nation, wind it up before some 102,000 fans at Philadelphia tomorrow.

The Sooners of Oklahoma are heavy favorites to thump their neighborhood rivals, Oklahoma Aggies, and march on to a bowl date. New Orleans and the Sugar Bowl is their likely destination with the Cotton Bowl a possibility.

Rice and Baylor will fight it out for the right to be Southwest Conference champs and Cotton Bowl host. Rice is No. 7 and Baylor No. 9 in the AP poll.

Tulane, eager for a new year's assignment in the Sugar Bowl, may make the grade if it gets past Louisiana State in a rugged contest that should be one of the day's best.

Virginia, dumped from the perfect record ranks by Tulane last week, can make itself most attractive to bowl promoters by defeating North Carolina. As Charlie Justice will be playing his last game for the Tar Heels, that may take a lot of doing.

Georgia and Georgia Tech, both suffering sub par seasons, renew their ancient struggle, so do Mississippi and Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt, Southern Methodist and Texas Christian and North Carolina State and William and Mary.

Other top games on the final big Saturday of the season are Wake Forest-South Carolina, Tulsa - Arkansas, Alabama-Florida, Boston College-Holy Cross, New York University-Fordham, Colorado A&M-Colorado, Kansas-Arizona, Brigham Young-Pepperdine.

Texoma Bowl Stated Tonite

Austin College squares off against East Central College of Oklahoma tonight in the Texoma Bowl and Texas A&I is host to the University of Corpus Christi in final games involving Texas Conference teams.

Yesterday Howard Payne grabbed a share of second place in the conference standings by blanking Abilene Christian College, 20-0. Austin and Texas A&I are the others tied for second.

A crowd of between 5,000 and 6,000 persons is expected at Denison to watch the pass-happy Kangaroos of Austin College in action.

A&I's tilt with the Corpus Christi eleven is a non-conference affair.

BACKERS CONFIDENT

Townsend Plan May Reach House Floor

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—The Townsend old age pension plan is being maneuvered into a position to stir up some excitement in the next congressional session and the 1950 elections.

Backers reported today they have 179 names on a petition to force the plan onto the House floor for a vote. It takes only 218 signatures to do it.

Some supporters of the program, which has been kicking around Congress for years, figure their cause is being helped by the wave of disputes over pensions between industry and labor and statements like one Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) made Tuesday.

Various steel companies and the Ford Motor Co. have agreed to pension systems whose payments, on top of the government's social security program, will give their workers $100 a month at age 65.

Now Taft says it is up to the Senate Finance Committee to determine whether there should be a basic, uniform federal pension for everybody at 65.

He estimated the cost of such a program at $12 billion a year and expressed doubt that the American economy could stand it. But if a steel worker gets $100 a month, he asked, why shouldn't a waiter?

The Townsend plan, an outgrowth of a program originally developed by Dr. Francis E. Townsend, also proposes to "provide every adult citizen in the United States with equal basic federal insurance." But the pensions would start at 60 instead of 65.

The plan also would take care of totally disabled people.

Those pushing the program in the House have organized a steering committee and are campaigning for the rest of the 39 signatures needed on their petition. They may be holding back some sure signers to bring in at the last minute in case administration forces succeed in getting some members to change their minds. That is a common strategy.

The Townsend plan doesn't set a specific goal of $100 or $150 a month.

It would clamp a three per cent tax on all the earnings and income of business firms and on all the earnings and income of individuals beyond $250 a month.

The proceeds would go into a pool and would be divided among people eligible for benefits. These folks would get a check every month.

And with the idea of keeping the money circulating—thus providing more income and earnings to be taxed and more money for pensions—the recipients would have to spend each installment within 30 days.

Opponents say the whole idea is fantastic—sort of like holding yourself up by your bootstraps. And so far they always have managed to beat back the Townsends.

But the Townsend people probably will be around knocking on the door when the Senate Finance Committee starts hearings next year on expansion of the present social security system. The House already has passed a bill to enlarge it and it's up to the Senate committee to act next.

Panama Gets 3rd President In Six Days

PANAMA, Panama, Nov. 25 (AP)—Arnulfo Arias, a fiery 49-year-old surgeon, early today became Panama's third president in six days by proclamation of Congress.

The congressional approval apparently put the stamp of legality on the latest coup by Panama's president-making police chief, Col. Jose Remon.

Remon, who forced the ouster of President Daniel Chavis, Jr., on Sunday, late last night defied a ruling of the Supreme Court and announced that Arias was the new president. A few minutes before, the court had ruled Chavis was still the constitutional president of this Central American country.

The congressional endorsement of Arias at 2:08 o'clock this morning ended a week of turmoil over the presidency which produced riots and tangled political situations unusual even for Latin America where revolutions are not uncommon.

Nationalists Try To Halt Red Drive

CHUNGKING, Nov. 25 (AP)—Nationalist reinforcements were rushed to the front today to try to halt a three prong drive on Chungking by an estimated 130,000 Communists.

Twenty-five thousand Reds were centered at Fowling, 55 miles northeast on the Yangtze River, and Nanchuan, highway town 50 miles southeast. Thirty-five thousand were moving up from Kweichow Province.

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 25 (AP)—Hallie Payne, 47, of San Antonio, died from knife wounds received in a tavern fight last night.

Mother Leaps To Death In Worry Over Thanksgiving

McKEESPORT, Pa., Nov. 25 (AP)—Police said a young mother leaped to her death from a bridge over the Youghiogheny River after worrying about Thanksgiving dinner for her husband and four children.

The body of Mrs. Helen Swann, 33, was recovered from the river yesterday, four hours after her steelworker husband, John, was awakened by one of the children who told him "mother's gone."

Police said Swann told them he and his wife attended a dance Wednesday night.

"On the way home she began to worry about how she'd bake the 20-pound turkey that had been given us," he told police. "We haven't a roasting pan."

"She was very nervous and easily upset about trifles," he added.
