ELEGANT FISH FILLETS—Poached in foil in the oven and given a rich sauce plus a garnish of shrimp and mushrooms.

The Newlywed Cooks Fish

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

AMONG THE questions asked by young married couples—and nowadays the groom as well as the bride is likely to be interested in cooking—here's a perennial one: "What fish dishes are fancy enough for company?"

What do we suggest? Shrimp Creole or Salmon Mayonnaise (hot or cold) is our stock answer, and new cooks usually find them failproof. Now comes a new idea—a simple way of preparing French-style fish filets.

In this classic dish, the filets are poached, garnished with shrimp and mushrooms, and given a creamy sauce. The new trick is to package the filets in foil and poach them in the oven.

Honey Is Related To Flowers

Hundreds and hundreds of acres of flowers make honey, honey, and more honey. A combination of garden flowers, sweet clover, alfalfa, sage, orange, star thistle and buckwheat, all offer their springtime bloom to the hungry bee, and in part determine the texture of honey. Some individual types of bloom produce honey which is crystal clear. Others result in a short period of time in crystal solids, while others help form crystals which do not solidify, therefore combinations are most desirable.

The 1961-62 record production of honey has offered a choice of varieties, colors and flavors to the people who like to eat it as a spread, or use it as honey-in-the-comb, or in liquid form. Honey used in baking results in keeping the product moist and palatable.

Keeping in tune with spring and summer, choose rhubarb in combination with honey in the form of a cobbler. Peaches add to the flavor.

Rhubarb and Peach Honey Cobbler
1 box (1 pound) quick frozen rhubarb, thawed
1 box (10 ounces) quick frozen sliced peaches thawed
1 1/2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
2 cup honey
1 cup sifted flour
1 1/2 teaspoons double acting baking powder
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon mace or nutmeg
1 1/2 cup butter or other shortening
1/4 cup milk

Drain the rhubarb and peaches, reserving the juices. Combine juices with tapioca and bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Add honey. Remove from heat. Add rhubarb and peaches to the thickened juice. Pour into 2-quart baking dish.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, sugar, salt and nutmeg, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Add milk gradually, stirring until a soft dough is formed. Turn out on lightly-floured board and knead 10-seconds or enough to shape. Pat or roll dough to fit top of baking dish. Cut several slits in center and adjust dough over fruit mixture, opening slits with knife to permit escape of steam. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees) 30 minutes. Serve hot or cold with honey-sweetened whipped cream. Honey gives a delicious flavor and helps whipped cream to hold up longer. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Bride No Longer Needs Hope Chest

BY VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newswriters Writer

Hope chests have lost their usefulness, in the opinion of Carole Stuppell, well-known New York table coordinator, "unless you stock them with Treasury bonds."

Time was when a girl married and stayed in her own social circle for the rest of her life.

"But our lives move faster now, and we don't know where we will be tomorrow, and what our standard of living will be. The items put in a hope chest may not fulfill our requirements," Miss Stuppell says.

And it often is Mom and Grandma who stock the chest, not only with gifts that run to money, but with their own taste, she points out.

"Mothers often can't wait to begin hope chests for daughter. One Mother wanted to start her 9-year-old girl with two placements of gold flatware. She thanked me for steering her to Treasury bonds."

Miss Stuppell also leads young girls away from expensive settings and away from the idea that what they buy as brides will last forever.

"It is silly to get a service for 12 in a three-room apartment or small house," she says. "If a table can seat six, purchase no more than six settings of china, silver, glassware."

"Many brides feel they are through for life after the original purchases are made, but that isn't the idea in this era."

"We change other furnishings but somehow we are convinced we should use the same dinnerware and flatware for the rest of our lives."

Few Beautiful Tables

The table coordinator suggests brides-to-be would do well to learn to set a table instead of worrying about filling a chest.

Charles Laughton Is Hospitalized

NEW YORK (AP)—Actor Charles Laughton is in Memorial Hospital for Cancer and Allied Diseases.

His manager, Bob Hutter, said "nothing has been settled" and examinations will be made today.

Laughton, 62, entered the hospital Sunday.

Hutter said the examinations involved scrofula trouble, for which Laughton has been treated for a number of years, and collar-bone fracture which he suffered in a bathtub fall at Flint, Mich., on tour last January.

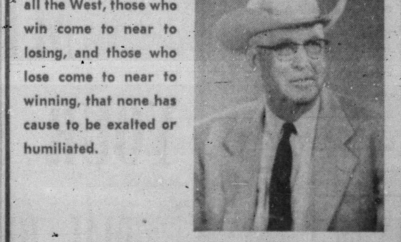

Other sources report that Laughton will undergo an operation Tuesday for removal of a cancer-infected kidney.

An ingenious decorator from Vienna suggests a special trick with paint to make a room look cooler. Just cover "warm, looking" washable objects—such as dark lamp bases and plant stands—with water-soluble paint.

Come fall, wash the paint off with soap or detergent suds—and your "summerizing" will vanish along with the hot weather.

New Cocktails Too Much For Sophisticated New Yorker

BY INEZ ROBB

The more I travel through the United States the more I am convinced that we who live in New York have an overwrought and ill-earned reputation for sequined sophistication.

By and large, we lead lives of quiet dedication to home and far from the purple distractions of the country and so-called service clubs. In the simple matter of alcoholic preference, for example, New Yorkers are a staid and unimaginative lot.

I have lived in New York more than half my life, and yet it took my recent swing through the nation to be offered, as a before-luncheon cocktail, something called a "Pink Squirrel" and a before-dinner mixture called "Bull Shot."

In Manhattan, at least, we are plain meat-and-martini people. Or steak-and-Scotch. Or Bourbon-and-roast beef rare. Or vodka-and-veal.

"What is a Pink Squirrel?" I asked the lady in Pittsburgh who offered me one before luncheon.

"Well, I'm not quite certain," she said, "but I like it because it doesn't taste like liquor."

When the Pink Squirrel arrived, it was served in a stemmed cocktail glass that gave it the appearance of a short-stemmed strawberry-ice-cream soda.

"Take a sip," my hostess said with true hospitality. I did, and my vitals turned over and played dead.

"What is it?" I asked the barman. He said, with admirable self-control, that it contained (1) white creme de menthe, creme de almond and cream (two).

For some reason I don't quite understand, cow cream mixed with liquor and served as a cocktail has always withered my intestinal tract. For cooking, si; for drinking, NO!

"Envoy Look" Coming in Fashion Parade

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—The American envoy look, characterized by a one-button suit, will head the nation's male fashion parade next year.

That's the word from the International Association of Clothing Designers.

The envoy suit coat, in addition to the one-button, will feature double piped pockets instead of pockets with flaps. The waist will be pulled in a little more, just enough so light can be seen between the sleeves of the coat and the body. The trousers won't have cuffs.

"Why don't you try a White Squirrel?" asked the lady across the table. "It's simply lovely. It's cream de menthe, brandy and cream."

Reason reeled and I clung to the table as I contemplated this mixture. But another woman said, "Why don't we order an Angel's Kiss for Mrs. Robb. I'll bet she'd love it."

"What is that?" I whispered, as hope fled.

"The Angel's Kiss enthusiast," said the lady, "is made of white creme de menthe and real cream and something else. And they float a rosebud on top."

As my head went into orbit in one direction—and my stomach in another, I heard yet another woman say, "Turn is the other ingredient, Agnes. And at Christmastime, Mrs. Robb, it's called a White Christmas because they float a little sprig of holly on top."

As compared with Pittsburgh, even St. Louis and its addition to what-to-a New Yorker—had seemed exotic drinks became drab in retrospect. How can a "Turkey on the Rocks" (vodka and cranberry juice) compare with a Pink Squirrel? Or a "Bull Shot" (vodka, beef bouillon, lime and seasonings) hope to rival a White Christmas with holly afloat?

"We went to change the public image of Pittsburgh," one of the ladies was saying slyly when I came out of my contemplation of St. Louis's conservative habits. "In the past we've always been known as a 'Boilermaker' town—you know, a shot of whiskey with a beer chaser."

"But we're going to change all that," another woman said, sipping a Pink Squirrel.

And heaven help Pittsburgh, I don't doubt it!

Columnist Gets Report Via Mail

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Air sickness no longer is much of a problem in a smooth-flying jet age, but it hits five times as many women as it does men.

As airliners get bigger, so do stewardesses. The first stewardesses were little over five feet tall, now they range up to 5 feet 9, weigh up to 140 pounds.

Tip to veterans: Don't rely on the accuracy of the blood type shown on your World War II dog tag. Rechecks have shown nearly 10 per cent are wrong.

Do you pride yourself because you keep your toes? Well, settle back, man. It has been found both adults and children have fewer foot problems when they carry more of their weight on their heels.

Banking hired hands: Some 200,000 peese find steady work in California's fields as weeders. They are used in most crops except corn, which they can't tell from weeds.

Winged death: Stinging insects, such as bees, hornets and wasps, now cause more deaths in the United States than do rattlesnakes.

Sobering statistics: America is producing alcoholics at the rate of 50 an hour around the clock. Drinking drivers are involved in at least 26 accidents an hour around the clock.

Does your wife sew? In a recent magazine poll more women (41 per cent) named sewing as their principal spare time activity in the home than cited reading (40 per cent) or watching television (19 per cent).

Avoid that trapped feeling in life. It can make you sick. Zoologists found caged animals have a higher incidence of arteriosclerosis than those who roam wild and free.

How they got started: Alan Ladd worked in a newspaper circulation department. Frank Sinatra served briefly as a reporter. Georgia Raff sold newspapers on a street corner.

People hate to throw away something they got for nothing. Although match booklets are usually given away free, only about one out of 750 is tossed away before all its 20 matches are used.

Many beauty experts today agree a woman ideally should be an inch larger around the bust than the hips. The Venus de Milo, the perfect beauty of antiquity, weighed 115 pounds.

Her measurements were: Bust 37 inches; waist 25 1/2, hips, 38 inches.

Executive signs: On the desk of J. Jerome Riker of the Hotel Stambor, "To handle yourself wisely, use your head; to handle others, use your heart."

History lesson: George Washington, who left an estate valued at $50,000, was considered "land poor" at his death. That same land today is worth more than $20 million.

Challenge to beatniks: The longest beard ever measured belonged to Hans N. Lanoseth, who migrated to North Dakota from Norway in 1912. His whiskers reached 11 feet 6 inches after 35 razor-free years.

It was Henry Wadsworth Longfellow who observed, "It takes less time to do a thing right than to explain why you did it wrong."

Junior Editors Quiz on HORSES

QUESTION: Are rodeo horses trained to buck?

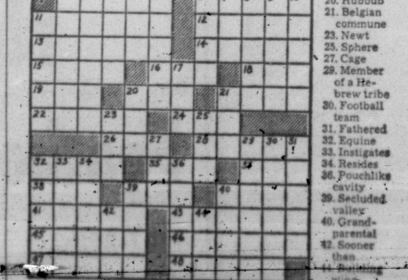

ANSWER: Let's find out what people who provide these bucking broncos to the rodeo shows have to say. No one knows exactly what makes a bronco buck, reports one such expert. A bronco likes to buck or he doesn't. No cowboy, just by looking at a horse, can tell whether he's got dynamite inside him or not. You can irritate a horse into bucking, of course, but you can't train him so that he will buck whenever you want him to do so. You may wonder how we get horses who will buck for the rodeo shows. It's not easy—there's no special way to do it—we just keep on looking for them. When found, a horse which bucks naturally is valuable and is very well cared for. He may keep on bucking, sometimes up to twenty years. There is one way the rodeos can add to a horse's natural ability to buck which will make sure that he comes bucking out through the rodeo shows and see if you can locate the bucking strap. You will also find them shown in action shots of the dangerous game of wild riding.

FOR YOU TO DO: Look for pictures of bucking broncos performing in rodeo shows and see if you can locate the bucking strap. You will also find them shown in action shots of the dangerous game of wild riding.

(Billy Hayes of Richland, Wash. wins $10. for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper.)

Scurry Club Cops Second

ABILENE—The Scurry County Boys' Club won first place in two out of four age groups in the State Boys' Club Track and Field Meet held at Abilene Christian College Saturday.

First place in team standing went to the Panther Boys' Club of Fort Worth as it completed 70 points. Snyder edged out Fort Worth Boys' Club for second place by a 64 to 63 1/2 points score. Other teams earning points were Wichita Falls 37, Abilene 36, Brownfield 20 1/2, and Lamesa 16.

Tom Sinclair of Snyder won high point individual trophy in the junior division by scoring 12 1/2 points for the 100-yard dash.

Results of the scoring by the boys of the Scurry Club, which brought home a large second place team trophy, were as follows:

In the midget age group George Kay won 100-yard dash with 17.4 seconds. Ken Sebested won the 200-yard dash with a record of 3:59.7. Bennie Ward tied for first in the high jump clearing 4'2". Terry Clemmer and Ed Williams took second and third respectively in the broad jump. The shuttle relay team consisting of Hollis Clemmer, Williams, and Kay took first place, running 2:49.9 in 3:34 seconds.

In the junior division Tom Sinclair took first in two individual events by leaping 18 feet in the broad jump and high jumping 4'.

Colonels Trip Oklahoma City In Twin Bill

Louisville, the pre-season pennant choice, may be making its bid to challenge the American Association leaders.

The Colonels swept a Sunday doubleheader with Oklahoma City 5-4 and 3-0. This put them in a third place tie with Denver, five games off the pace.

Front running Indianapolis split a twin bill with Denver, losing 4-1 and winning 4-3. A Dallas-Fort Worth at Omaha doubleheader was postponed because of wet grounds.

Oklahoma City's losing streak stretched to nine games. Louisville scored the winning run in the last frame of the seven-inning opener on a single, grounder, passed ball and infield grounder. Right-hander Federico Olivo hurled a five-hit bid in the nightcap.

Doug Gallagher, a Denver recruit from Detroit, stifled Indianapolis on five hits in his league debut in the first game before 2,038. The Tribe broke a 3-3 tie in the last inning of the nightcap on Jim Korand's two-out homer.

GIANTS, DODGERS Feeding On Mets

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Feeling tired? All run down? Need a tonic? Call Casey Stengel. The Mets will pick you up.

Both the San Francisco Giants and the Los Angeles Dodgers have been on the Met diet recently. The Giants and Dodgers won 13 of the 15 games that the Mets have lost in row. Both clubs left the Polo Grounds with new health and wealth.

The five Met dates with the Dodgers and Giants drew a total of 197,383, a brilliant financial coup. But the price was steep. After knocking heads in California and New York with the two front runners, the Mets are embedded in 10th place, with a sorry 12-34 record.

Alvin Dark's Giants completed a four-game sweep Sunday by rallying for five runs in the seventh and a 6-1 victory that left them 2 1/2 games in front of the Dodgers, who stumbled in Philadelphia Saturday night and Sunday after winning 13 in a row. The Phillies came from behind and dumped the Dodgers Sunday 7-5.

Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and St. Louis, running the fourth and fifth, all lost. The Reds, beaten by Chicago, 6-3, now trail by 6 1/2. Pittsburgh, winner of seven in a row, bowed twice to Houston 10-6 and 10-3 and dropped eight games back. St. Louis lost its eighth straight, losing to Milwaukee 6-4, and fell 12 games behind the leaders.

In the American League, the New York Yankees moved into a first-place tie with Cleveland by beating Los Angeles 6-3 while the red-hot Detroit Tigers were whipping the Indians 4-2. The Tigers are only one game back. Minnesota moved within a half of the lead by winning over Washington 2-0. Chicago's 10-3 victory over 3-0. The Boston at Kansas City game was rained out.

Los Angeles' 6-3 victory over the good-looking Cincinnati Reds

10'. Kent Noble took second in the broad jump and 100-yard dash. Jerry Smedley took fourth place in the 50-yard dash and the soft ball throw. The Great took second in the 100-yard dash. Sinclair, Noble, Greil, and Smedley combined to win first place in the 240-yard relay.

In the intermediate group Philip Floyd cleared 8' in the high jump to win third place.

Nineteen boys made the trip to Abilene and the lack of boys participating in the intermediate and senior divisions by Snyder probably cost him the State Championship.

Cain Back In Defense Of Crown

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—The Texas Amateur Golf Tournament opened today with a field of 125 due to past qualifying scores.

John Paul Cain of Lubbock is defending his championship. He is the only former titlist in the field.

Cain is among the favorites, with Ed Hopkins, a long-time contender, rated highly. Hopkins took the 6,074-yard Corpus Christi Country Club course with a Sunday par 66 in a tenebrous round.

Others giving strong chances were Frank Luke, North Texas State star; Richard Yates, Corpus Christi Country Club champion, and Jack Satterwhite of Sinton.

Match play will start Tuesday. The tournament runs through Saturday.

Duo Tied In Rain-Stalled Zaharias Golf

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—The rain-plagued $7,500 Babe Zaharias Open tries to get in its last round today with Betsy Rawls and Kathy Cornelius waging a fight for first place.

The final 18 holes were postponed Sunday when rain came for the third straight day.

Miss Rawls, of Spartanburg, S.C., and Mrs. Cornelius, of Scottsdale, Ariz., lead the way into the last round with 106 for 36 holes—four strokes better than anybody else.

Sandra Haynes of Garland, Tex.; Ruth Jensen of Seattle and Betty Jameson of San Antonio are tied for third place with 150, while five players are bunched at 151.

Hebert Cops Memphis Title After Playoff

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Lionel Hebert had victory in his clutches, fumbled, then retrieved it deftly in the first sudden-death playoff hole of the 40,000 Memphis Open Golf Tournament.

The Lafayette, La., native fumbled in his shot putt on the 18th hole, but he recovered by missing the hole by a hair's breadth.

Hebert, 34, from South Africa's Gary Player and National Open Champion Gene Littler in the three-way playoff.

The Lafayette, La., native fumbled in his shot putt on the 18th hole, but he recovered by missing the hole by a hair's breadth.

It was a game recovery from a bitter disappointment on the last of the regulation holes where Hebert was putting for an eagle and needed a birdie to win. His putt rolled almost the width of the green and stopped three feet from the cup. The second stroke rolled inches past the mark, giving him a 71.

Player rapped the 18th for 68 after recovering from a trap. Littler chipped close and dropped a putt to birdie the same hole by a 66 and a spot in the playoff.

On the decisive 19th all three men hit the green in two. To show he still could putt, Hebert whacked a hard one that rolled true to the cup for a birdie. Player ran his putt past the cup and Littler putted his to the rim where it refused to drop in.

Hebert, Littler and Player finished the regulation 72 holes at 287. Littler and Player each won $3,000.

Lionel Hebert's brother, Jay, and Bruce Crampton of Australia finished a stroke behind the leaders and won $2,000.

It was the first tournament victory for Lionel since 1960.

Refugees On Way To U. S.

HONG KONG (AP)—A Chinese refugee family that has been trying to get into the United States since last week off by plane today

Eng Se-suey, 45, his wife and three children are the first to be admitted to the United States under the emergency provisions proclaimed by President Kennedy after thousands of refugees from Communist China flooded into Hong Kong last month.

The elder Eng emigrated to the United States in 1916 a few months before his son was born. He is critically ill in a hospital at Park Ridge, Ill.

Eng said he escaped from a Communist forced labor prison in Red China in 1953 and fled to Hong Kong with his family. He has operated a small mail order business, shipping Hong Kong goods to Chicago.

TV 'Bad Guy' On Good Side Of Law

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Robert Fuller, a "bad guy" on the "Laramie" television series, was on the good side of the law Sunday, police said.

Fuller was moving into his new home in North Hollywood when he heard a noise at a window. He told officers he grabbed a pistol, dashed out the front door and caught a man about to crawl through the window into the house. Fuller held the man at gunpoint while a passing motorist called police.

Officers said the suspect, Robert Potter, 25, a transient, had several letters from Fuller's mailbox. He was booked on suspicion of burglary.

Brando Cuts Foot While Chopping Wood

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actor Marlon Brando cut his foot while chopping wood with a hatchet, he reported Sunday night to the director of his current film.

Brando went to a private physician for treatment of the injury. He told George Englund, director-producer of "The Ugly American," that the gash was painful but apparently not too serious.

"The cut is about an inch and a half long," Englund said. "It's where his big toe joins the foot. The doctor took several stitches to close it."

Airmen Take Dip In Imperial Moat

TOKYO (AP)—Four American airmen took a dip in the imperial palace moat in the heart of downtown Tokyo early today, but helicopter police released them with an admonition to do their swimming elsewhere.

Officers said the four from nearby Fuchu Air Base had been drinking and one apparently fell in the water. The other three dived to the rescue, and "all found it so pleasant they continued to swim," a police officer said.

RESIDENTS TURN OUT FOR INOCULATIONS — Two thousand San Antonio residents wait outside municipal auditorium to get the Sabin oral polio vaccine. Altogether half a million people took the vaccine at about 50 stations throughout the city in a campaign to head off a polio epidemic in the city. (AP Wirephoto)

Moslems Reject Compromise Bid

ALGIERS (AP)—A bid for compromise by Secret Army Organization leaders has been rejected by Moslem nationalists in Algiers, but the city remained quiet as the Europeans held to the truce they invoked four days ago.

Capit. Taieb Boualem turned down the compromise offer in the name of the national liberation army's autonomous Algiers zone command. It could not be determined whether his statement represented the view of the entire National Liberation Front.

The Algiers zone command reportedly has opposed any contacts with the secret army, but other rebel elements were said to favor talks.

Boualem coupld his rejection with a warning that the zone would be punished.

STATE FARM INSURANCE

LARGER QUARTERS FOR A GROWING FIRM—Roy J. McCloskey stands in front of the new State Farm Insurance office at 4006 Big Spring Highway. Growth of the firm over the last six years made the move necessary several weeks ago. McCloskey is prepared to furnish the best in car insurance as well as every family's needs for life and home insurance.

State Farm Agent Sees Firm Grow Rapidly in Last 6 Years

Back in July, 1956, when Roy J. McCloskey came to Snyder and assumed the management of the State Farm Insurance Company's agency, he kept the records of policyholders in one desk drawer. Today, six years later, that drawer has grown into two full sized filing cabinets. And the old office on the East Highway which was plenty adequate in 1956, has had to be replaced with a much more spacious quarters.

The new offices of State Farm are on the east side of the Big Spring Highway directly across from where Fortieth Street dead-ends. Space in the new office is adequate for at least another six years.

The location is new, but the personal service offered by McCloskey is still the same. As a State Farm agent McCloskey is more than just an "insurance man." He's a friendly and helpful aide to your family.

State Farm is the world's largest car insurer. But in addition to that, McCloskey and State Farm also offer State Farm Fire Insurance, State Farm Life Insurance, and auto insurance through the Texas company of State Farm

Deaths Hiked By Highway Mishaps

Traffic accidents causing multiple fatalities sent the violent death toll in Texas soaring during the weekend.

Thirty-eight deaths were listed in an Associated Press tabulation from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday, and 24 of these occurred in auto accidents.

Killed in the collision 5 miles south of Crockett were Sam Johnson, 50; his wife, about 35; their son Lonnie, 27; James Chan, 30; and Roosevelt O'Neill, O'Neill lived at Fodice. The others were from Pennington.

Victims of the crash near Paris were Dennis Gordon, Leon Stone and Lee Upchurch, all of Paris, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chism of Powderly. Highway patrolmen said the car occupied by Gordon and Upchurch and the Chism auto collided head-on and Stone's car then hit them.

Francis Medina Jr., 13, drowned Sunday while swimming in San Germano Creek north of San Antonio.

Phillip Klander Jr., 30, drowned Sunday in Lake Houston.

A Laredo woman, Adell Thisell, was killed Sunday when a car hit a bridge 2 miles north of Laredo.

Andrew Garcia, 39, was stabbed to death in his Dallas home Sunday. Police said the stabbing occurred during an argument between Garcia and his wife in which a 15-year-old relative of Mrs. Garcia intervened. The youth was arrested.

Bitterness Is Generated In South American City Slums

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

LIMA, Peru (AP)—Juan Jose Benitez spat contemptuously on the hard dirt floor of his hotel.

"The Alliance for Progress? Yes, I have heard of it. But nothing will change. The riccos will get all the money. Always the riccos (rich men) get all the money."

Juan Jose Benitez, 40, is better off than most heads of families living in the barricadas—the vast slums which stretch for miles around the outskirts of Peru's capital. He is a sort of foreman on an estate and he earns 80 cents for eight hours. On this he supports his wife and seven children.

His neighbors work eight hours for 20 cents. They are just peons—laborers.

Juan Jose Benitez and his neighbors are in the same boat as many thousands.

Communists and extreme leftists tried to spoil the inauguration ceremonies, but their efforts flopped. The local people delighted with their villages, ignored the extremists.

In Argentina, I visited slum areas and talked to people in the poor districts. In some areas I found them still regarding former dictator Juan Peron as a hero. Why? Because he looked in their direction, realized they were there, promised them work and higher wages. Nobody, they said, had done that before. It may not be true, but that is the way they feel.

Violence lurks in the slums of all the big cities of Latin America. The desperation among people living at subsistence level is easy prey for the Communists and extremists. All it takes is a promise, and an offer of somebody or something to blame for their plight.

Slums are the plague of Latin America's cities, and housing an outstanding social problem.

Juan Jose Benitez' home is better than many because it has two rooms. Geese wander about inside the house. The only furniture is one big bed and a wooden table. Evidently the children sleep on the dirt floor. Barefoot Juan Jose Benitez must own the house. It belongs to the landlord who owns the nearby hacienda. You can see the landlord's home in the distance, a picture of Latin American luxury.

Juan Jose can read and write, but he can hardly hope to put his children through school on what he makes. He hates the riccos. "Gangsters, all of them," he told me. "Like your own Capone."

"Who will win the election, and what will it mean to you?" I asked him. Peru's national elections will be held Sunday.

"Who cares?" he snapped. "We still will have no schools, no hospitals, no anything. It is all the same to us."

Lima is a city of 1.3 million people. Of these, about 500,000 live in the crowded slums. More pour in every day from the countryside in hopes of finding a better living.

In other areas the lower-middle class lives in barracks-like slums where tuberculosis and other diseases are rampant. You can see piles of garbage in the streets, and children rummaging about in them seeking tidbits to eat.

There are homes whose water supply comes from outdoor public taps, one tap often supplying several families. You see hovels where there is scarcely any furniture at all—not even dishes for eating. Meat costs 45 cents a pound, so there is rarely any meat. They eat potatoes, corn, and whatever they can scrounge cheaply from their meager earnings.

Another day I visited Valparaiso, a lovely Chilean city on the Pacific. A storekeeper said that for two years he hadn't been able to save enough money to buy even the most elementary things for his wife and four children, needed.

An elderly man told me "nobody in the government cares about us. How long can we go on this way?"

Valparaiso's slums are not as bad as many in Latin America, but still are bad enough to generate deep bitterness among a fairly sophisticated people who are becoming increasingly impatient.

Of all Latin countries, Chile has done the most in the past 15 years to attack its housing problems. Where conditions are improved, there is definite impact among the people. Their political attitudes tend to become more moderate.

Broad Areas Get Rains
By The Associated Press
Light rain and showers dampened broad areas of the nation today, duplicating the wet weather pattern of the past several days. Thunderstorms hit some sections during the night.

In the west, showers sprinkled scattered sections of the north Pacific Coast, the north and central plateaus and the Rockies. The wet belt extended into the Great Lakes region and the middle and south Atlantic Coast states.

Thunder showers were reported in the middle and lower Mississippi Valley and in the eastern part of Texas. Some isolated showers and thundershowers hit northeastern Montana, southeastern Wyoming, eastern New Mexico and in the Ohio Valley.

Thunderstorms rumbled across the warm, humid southeast quarter of the country Sunday night, with heavy rains in some areas. Two inches of rain drenched Nashville, Tenn., in a six-hour period. Pleasant and mild weather prevailed in most of the north Atlantic Coast and parts of the middle Atlantic Coast states.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 24 in Gila Bend, Ariz., to 20 in Measham, Wis.
