Teen-Age Boy Charged With Slaying Girl

NORWOOD, Mass., Nov. 6 (AP)—A Lanky, 15-year-old altar boy and former Boy Scout was charged with murder today after he allegedly confessed to strangling Geraldine Annese, 15, an ex-schoolmate, whose nude body was found yesterday in a garage beside her home.

Dist. Atty. Myron Lane said Peter Makarewicz Jr. good looking six-footer, confessed strangling the girl with his bare hands.

Peter allegedly confessed after eight hours' questioning. Handcuffed to police later, he walked through a horrified crowd of his neighbors to the garage as investigators sought a reenaction of the crime.

Lane said:

"There was sex connected with the attack. He planned to do it that (Thursday) evening. We have evidence that shows he had reason (to kill the girl) although he didn't say."

Geraldine, a vivacious sophomore in a vocational school, had been out with other teen-agers Thursday night and left them about 9:45 p.m. When she failed to return home by 11:30 p.m. her father reported her missing.

Next morning, her body, clad only in socks, was found on the garage floor. A necklace was drawn tightly around her neck, but authorities did not believe the ornament was the instrument of death.

Peter was among several teenagers questioned yesterday and last night .

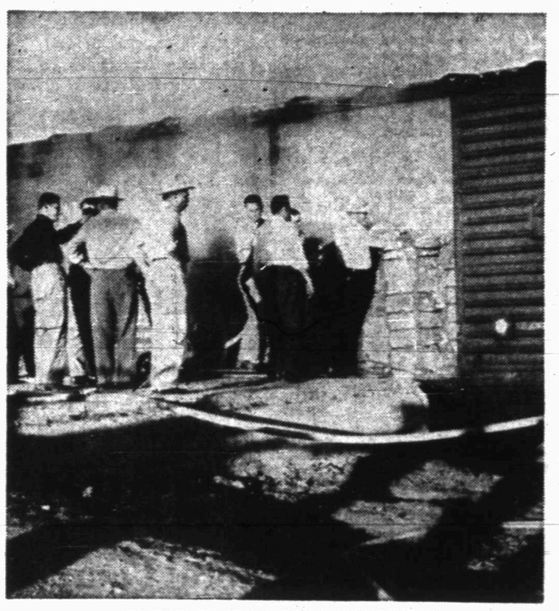
Peter and Geraldine went to grammar school together. Until recently they had taken the same cooking course in school. They lived around the corner from each other and "dated" until she broke off the association six months ago, neighbors said.

Peter's mother said today: "He used to walk home from school with her. He's never been in trouble." Neighbors referred to him as a "nice" boy.

As Peter walked with police to the garage this afternoon, Geraldine's step-brother, Philip de Rose leaped at him, shouting: "My sister's dead. My mother's dying." Geraldine's grief-stricken mother has been given sedatives.

Police said that young Peter attempted to make a date with another girl last night, less than 24 hours after Geraldine met death.

Dixon-Yates Issue Gets Blame For AEC Diversion



FIRE DAMAGES COTTON

Fire damaged a few bales of cotton in a freight car at the Roscoe, Snyder & Pacific railway docks at Twenty-sixth Street about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Firemen pulled the compressed bales of cotton from the boxcar and put out the fire without serious damage. (Lee Watson photograph)

Murray's Views Lead To Clashes

By RUSSELL BRINES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP) — Atomic Energy Commissioner Thomas E. Murray said today the Dixon-Yates power issue has diverted top-level commission attention from vital atomic weapons problems.

Murray, who abstained from the Atomic Energy Commission vote approving the power project, told the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee:

"I can assure you that the time spent on this highly controversial and political matter is increasing neither our weapons 'know how' nor our weapons production, at a time when this is of the utmost importance.

"No one will ever be able to estimate the degree to which top level commission attention has been diverted from its grave primary responsibilities by an issue only distantly related thereto."

Murray's statement led to clashing opinions as to what should be done. Chairman Cole (R-NY) of the Atomic Committee took the position the committee should waive a waiting period and let the contract go through to end what he termed damage inflicted on the atomic program by the controversy.

Rep. Holifield (D-Calif.) said, on the other hand, that the contract should be subjected to further, intensive scrutiny.

Murray is the only appointee of President Truman left on the AEC. He said he was opposed on four counts to the proposal to supply the Tennessee Valley Authority with AEC-contracted power from a new, 107-million-dollar private plant, although he said he personally believes private utility companies should be used whenever possible to meet "the ever growing demands for power throughout the nation."

But, he urged, the Dixon-Yates issue should be resolved soon so top AEC management "will get back to its vital tasks."

He testified before the committee shortly after the congressmen and the AEC agreed to have the 500-million-dollar contract signed Monday in order to clear the committee's legal authority to review it. The contract, approved by the AEC but not yet signed, is between the AEC and a private utility known as Dixon-Yates.

The committee decided to ask the AEC to sign the agreement as soon as possible, after members of both parties had questioned the committee's authority to consider the contract until it is completed. AEC approved the agreement last month but did not sign it.

AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss told newsmen the signed contract would be delivered by 11 a.m. Monday when the committee reconvenes. And Edgar H. Dixon, speaking for the private utility group, said it could sign by then.

With a signed contract in hand, the congressional group will continue the hearings, now in the third day, which already have brought sharp partisan bickering over the power plant.

The proposal, hotly debated since June, provides for a 25-year agreement between AEC and the Dixon-Yates group for some 600 thousand additional kilowatts of power in the Memphis, Tenn., area beginning in 1957 and construction of a 107-million dollar power plant. The AEC would pay about 20 million dollars a year for the power, to be supplied to TVA to take the place of some of the electricity it sells AEC.

Sen. Lyndon D. Johnson, (D-Tex) slated to be the majority leader in the next Congress, meanwhile indicated that the Democrats would air the contract during the forthcoming session. "That contract," he told a news conference, "was written in the dark of the moon and we're going to expose it to some good New Mexico sun."

That was a reference to the fact that Sen. Anderson, (D-NM), long an opponent of the Dixon-Yates proposal, is in line to be the next chairman of the Atomic Energy Committee.

Johnson said a statement would be issued next week about Democratic plans and that "It will be of interest."

Anderson brought the question of the committee's right to consider an unsigned contract to a head in today's hearing by suggesting that hearings "be terminated until a signed contract is before us."

Atom Agency Resolution Is Reinstated

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Nov. 6 (AP) — A seven-nation draft resolution for an atoms-for-peace agency was reinstated tonight, a U.S. delegation spokesman announced, after it had been withdrawn temporarily for a check as to whether it would open the door for Red China to attend a scientific congress.

The resolution, sponsored by the United States and six other nations, was made public as a note to correspondents tonight.

A key paragraph proposed that all "members of the United Nations or of the specialized agencies" be invited to attend a U.N. scientific conference on President Eisenhower's atoms-for-peace plan to be held not later than August, 1955.

Documents were being prepared to circulate the resolution to the 60 members of the U.N. Assembly's main Political Committee when the United States suddenly stepped in.

A U.S. spokesman said "The text is being withdrawn in order to correct an error due to inadvertence."

This was after newsmen had raised the question whether Red China was a member of the Universal Postal Union, the largest of the U.N.'s dozen specialized agencies, and therefore, by the language of the draft, eligible for an invitation.

Later the U.S. delegation spokesman said the check had been made and that Red China was not a member of the Universal Postal Union. He emphasized that the United States never had an intention of letting Red China participate.

Search Resumed For Plane Over Atlantic

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—Some 30 or 40 planes and a destroyer were ordered today to resume search for a Navy super Constellation plane which disappeared a week ago over the Atlantic. Aboard were 42 persons, including women and children.

A spokesman for the Eastern Sea Frontier said the search, abandoned earlier this week, was being reinstituted "in a renewed effort to locate some trace of the plane to assist in determining the cause of the tragedy."

The spokesman said there was no hope that the search would turn up survivors and that all aboard were presumed lost.

Air Force Planes Fly Under Highest Bridge

CANON CITY, Colo., Nov. 6 (AP) —Attendants said three Air Force planes flew under the world's highest bridge at Royal Gorge near here today, and the president of the Royal Gorge Bridge Co. asked the Air Force to investigate.

Ralph J. Wann, who is also on the board of directors of the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad, said the planes might have crashed into cables stretching from the bridge to the gorge wall. He said the lives of passengers on a sight-seeing train below the bridge were also endangered by the maneuver.

Senate Wants Short Session

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP) — Senate leaders said today they hoped to wind up before Thanksgiving the special Senate session which will consider the proposed censure of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis). The session opens Monday.

Republican leader William G. Knowland of California and Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas also made clear at a joint news conference they want the session limited to the specific purpose for which it was called, barring some emergency.

They said, however, that the opening session on Monday will be very brief, with the Senate adjourning out of respect for members who have died since its recess August 20. Actual debate on the censure issue may not start until late Tuesday or even Wednesday.

McCarthy, who has been accused of conduct unbecoming a senator, has predicted that he will be censured by his colleagues and has spoken of the forthcoming session as a "lynch party" and a "circus." Both Knowland and Johnson declined comments on these statements.

A special Senate committee of three Republicans and three Democrats unanimously recommended last Sept. 27 after nine days of public hearing that McCarthy be censured by the Senate for his conduct.

It is the first censure case to come before the Senate in 25 years. Only three senators have been censured by their colleagues in the nation's history.

Sen. Watkins (R-Utah), chairman of the special committee, said he plans to call the members together Monday, to go over the draft of the resolution he is preparing to carrying out its recommendations and findings.

McCarthy has accused Watkins and two other members of the special committee of being biased against him. In a letter this week he charged Watkins had made an "imbecilic ruling" during the hearings that prevented him from offering his full defense.

Ask List Of Subversives

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—Demands that the Eisenhower administration disclose the name of "every single subversive thrown out of government" in the last two years came today from two Democratic senators.

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) said the new Democratic-controlled Congress which meets in January "will want the names of these people, not the numbers."

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) told a newsman:

"We will go into this question of subversion. We will insist on a complete breakdown for the American people. We will insist on full publicity of Vice President Nixon's allegations and the basis on which he made them."

The Civil Service Commission announced several weeks ago that the Eisenhower administration had separated 6,926 security risks from the federal payroll through last June. Of these 2,611 were fired, the Commission said, and 4,315 resigned. Out of the total, the Commission said, 1,743 had information in their files "indicating" subversive associations in "varying degree."

Nixon and other influential Republican campaigners repeatedly referred to these results of the administration's security program, contending it "got rid of thousands" of Communists, subversives and other security risks.

Mansfield said Democrats also will demand to know whether any administration officials made campaign use of what he called classified FBI files.

Couple Killed When Car, Truck Collide

MINEOLA, Nov. 6 (AP)—William Cline and his wife Allene of Longview were killed today in a car-truck crash near here.

The two were on their way to watch the SMU-A&M football game in Dallas when their car was in collision with a cattle truck. The truck driver was not injured.

Navy Band To Arrive Here This Morning

The U. S. Navy Band is scheduled to roll into Snyder at 11 a.m. today, and Snyder Shriners, sponsors of afternoon and evening concerts, have planned special welcoming ceremonies.

The U. S. Navy Band will appear in concerts at 2 p.m., at 4 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Some tickets for the concerts will be available at the box office. Adult tickets for matinees sell for $2.40 each, while student tickets are 60 cents each. For the evening concert, reserved seats at $3.60 each and all other tickets are $2.40 each.

A welcoming caravan composed of Shriners and others will meet the Navy Band north of the city on U. S. 84. The procession will be escorted into town by peace officers. The welcoming ceremonies will be on the courthouse square.

Shrine Club members were continuing advance ticket sales Saturday afternoon. All tickets remaining after advanced sales will be made available at the auditorium box office. All ticket purchasers will be assured a seat, since in no case will ticket sales exceed seating capacity of the auditorium for any one concert.

The Navy Band, long known as "The World's Finest," is in demand throughout the country for concerts. Many high school band students for surrounding towns, as well as Snyder, are expected here for the matinee concerts today.

Field Wants To Come Home

LONDON, Nov. 6 (AP) — Hermann Field, 44-year-old Cleveland architect recently released after five years in a Polish Communist jail, said in a statement released by his wife tonight that he wants to return to the United States.

But, he said, he does not want his return to life in the West to heighten the cold war.

The statement, said by his wife to have been dictated when Field made his daily telephone call to her from Warsaw, was the first he has made since Poland announced his release on Oct. 25. He now is staying in a Polish rest sanitorium outside Warsaw.

Field, his brother Noel, and Noel's wife and adopted daughter all disappeared behind the Iron Curtain in a cloak-and-dagger mystery beginning in 1949. Hermann dropped from sight in August, 1949 while in Warsaw searching for his brother and was not heard from until 12 days ago.

The Polish announcement of his release said his arrest was the result of a "frameup by an American agent" in the Polish Security Service. It named the agent as Jozef Swiatlo, a top official of the Polish secret police, who deserted to the West and gave to a Washington news conference on Sept. 28 the first authoritative account of Field's arrest and interrogation. Previously, official American pressure on Polish officials for information about the missing Fields had run up against a blank wall.

The American Embassy in Warsaw has said that Hermann Field is "entirely free to come and go as he pleases but is not in the physical condition to do so."

Flier Trying Atlantic Hop

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—A 49-year-old California song writer—attempting a nonstop flight from New York to Paris in a small, twin-engined plane—was reported tonight to have completed a third of his journey.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration here said Max Conrad's plane passed Gander, Nfld., at 6:35 p.m.

The flier, father of 10 children, took off from New York City's Idlewild Airport at 11:27 a.m. and said he expected to land in Paris in 18 to 22 hours.

Conrad, who carried a box of crackers, a grapefruit and two bottles of soft drinks, said before he left that the primary purpose of the flight is to stir up young people's interest in flying.

In San Francisco, where he lives, his wife said tonight she wasn't worried about her husband's trip.

"I'm pretty used to this sort of thing after 25 years," she said. That is about how long Conrad has been a flying enthusiast.

Conrad said he intended to fly over the ocean at an altitude of 15,000 feet and at a speed of 170 miles an hour.

Pilot Kiled In Crash Of Jet Training Plane

GREENWOOD, Miss., Nov. 6 (AP) — A jet training plane roared faster than sound into a frost-hardened cottonfield and exploded, killing the pilot and scattered the plane over a 10-acre field today.

Identification was withheld pending notification of next of kin.

A hunter, Charles Sligh of Yazoo City, said he heard two jets pass over and looked up in time to see one bank for a turn. But instead of turning, the plane banked into a vertical dive and roared headlong into the field about 12 miles northwest of here, Sligh said.

Mahon Predicts Fight Over Farm Program

COLORADO CITY, Nov. 6 (AP)—Rep. George Mahon predicted today that high, rigid farm price supports would not be approved by the coming Congress. He predicted a fight to reinstate them.

He said the Democrats would attempt to restore the 90 per cent support program but estimated this program might be delayed until effects of the presently approved flexible program are felt in 1955.

United Fund Goal $29,500

The first annual campaign of the Scurry County United Fund will get underway Wednesday, when one of several divisions kicks off its drive.

This will be the advance gifts division, headed by D. M. Cogdell, Sr., rancher who lives near Snyder. Cogdell has been busy for the last several days contacting workers he has chosen for his part of the drive.

With the announcement of Cogdell as chairman of this division and preparations for beginning the division's work, the United Fund's progress began to come in rapid-fire action.

The fund's board of directors met with president Lyle Deffebach and set the budget at $29,500 for the drive. It also made final approval of work of the budget and admissions committee, headed by Malven Stevenson, which had set up eight agencies which had applied for admission to the newly-created United Fund. Those are the Salvation Army, United Service Organization, Girl Scouts, American Heart Associaion, American Red Cross, Scurry County Youth Center, Boy Scouts, and West Texas Boys Ranch of San Angelo.

Dr. Cecil Yarbrough, general chairman of the campaign, was still working on selection of leaders and other workers with the campaign committee, headed by Dan Warren, and chairmen of drive committees.

The United Fund last week set up its office at 2508 Avenue R with two office secretaries, Mrs. Yvonna Vick and Mrs. Mildred Byers. Telephone numbers at the office are 3-4624 and 3-4625.

The budget includes the regular operating budgets of all the agencies which have joined the United Fund. The one drive, which is planned to continue until early in December, is designed to take the place of all the drives which would ordinarily be made by these agencies. The agencies will all combine in one drive, rather than holding eight separate campaigns.

Funds raised in the campaign will apply to the 1955 budgets of the agencies. To arrive at the budget figure, the budget and admissions committee took proposals of the organizations which had shown interest and wished to join the fund.

Deffebach said between 300 and 400 persons in the county will participate in work to be done in the drive.

Johnson Scoffs At Talk Of Stalemate

By EDWIN B. HAAINSON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson today scoffed at any talk of a stalemate because of the election of a Democratic-led Congress and said the Democrats will cooperate with President Eisenhower if consulted in advance.

Johnson, Texas Democrat slated to become majority leader of the Senate in January, spoke at a crowded news conference.

"Talk about a stalemate is as ridiculous as talk about a cold war," he said, adding:

"If there is a cold war, the Democrats are not going to provoke it."

This was a reference to President Eisenhower's statement last month that a Republican Congress must be elected to prevent "a cold war of partisan politics" between Capitol Hill and the White House.

"Eisenhower told his first post-election press conference that this campaign oratory probably was too strong," the tall Texan recalled.

He said he personally was disappointed by some of Eisenhower's campaign utterances and he reported that other Democrats are still burning at campaign statements by Vice President Nixon and other GOP orators that Democrats are "left wingers" or "the party of treason."

Johnson said he was glad that the President had invited top congressional Democrats as well as Republicans for a conference on foreign affairs here Nov. 18.

"We will be happy to participate and contribute anything we can," he said, adding that this was "a step in true bipartisanship" that Democrats had urged in the fields of foreign relations and national defense.

But Johnson stressed that bipartisanship and Democratic cooperation must include "more than just a review of the facts and decisions that have been made."

"A political party cannot be asked to bear the responsibility of a decision in which it had no part," he said.

Several times he cited what he said was a biblical quotation often used by his father:

"Come, let us reason together."

Johnson said he and Rep. Sam Rayburn, a fellow Texan who again will be speaker of the House, had agreed that Democrats will have their own legislative program. He said this will be in addition to the recommendations in Eisenhower's State of the Union message to the new Congress.

Although he had tart comments on Republican tactics in the recent campaign, Johnson said the public is more concerned about the integrity and prosperity of this nation and peace in the world, than which party controls Congress.

"And you won't have a strong America if you keep one eye on the election returns and play politics," he said. The election results proved, he said, that the American people "rejected the extreme partisanship of both parties."

Asserting the President "now has had his little fling in the political arena," Johnson said this had surprised many voters who regarded Eisenhower as "the President of all the country."

Johnson praised Sen. Knowland (R-Calif), the present majority leader, as a man who "never questioned anyone's patriotism," and later they had lunch together.

Britain, U. S. Backing Effort For Mideast Defense Program

By SEYMOUR TOPPING

LONDON, Nov. 6 (AP)—Arab statesmen have started new moves—with strong British and U.S. support—to set up a Mideast defense system against Communistic aggression.

Diplomats report a flurry of secret exchanges among the Middle East capitals on plans to build a security network tied in with the West. London and Washington are encouraging this long hoped for trend with promises of military and economic aid.

Organization of a Mideast defense system—extending over the oil laden land bridge between Europe, Asia and Africa—would close the last gap in the West's defense ring around the Communist bloc.

Iraq's Premier Nuri Said has taken the lead by proposing that some of the eight Arab League states link up with the Turkey-Pakistan alliance. Turkey is a member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The 68-year-old Iraqi Premier, despite his poor health, has traveled through the Middle East winning a lot of attention for his defense project. He is reportedly well advanced in his negotiations with Turkey for an alliance and possibly full membership in the Turkey-Pakistan pact. Western informants said Nuri is soon to get his first shipment of U.S. arms under a military agreement concluded last April.

Western diplomats find Egypt, once the chief opponent of Arab military cooperation with the West, moving toward a reversal of her traditional stand. Two recent developments have made this possible:

1. Cairo and London have signed an agreement to end the bitterly opposed British occupation of the Suez Canal zone.

2. Egypt's Premier Abdel Gamal Nasser has cracked down on the extremist Moslem Brotherhood, which has led the country's anti-West movement.

Informants said Egypt is due to open negotiations soon with Turkey on some kind of association. Preliminary talks in Ankara have gone well. The link probably will fall short of a full military pact—but it will be a step in that direction.

Syria and Lebanon would be likely to follow Egypt's lead in seeking a defense arrangement outside the weak Arab League.

Washington and London are urging Iran to team up with Iraq in linking with the Turkey-Pakistan alliance. This would consolidate the northern tier of Mideast states which front on the Soviet Union. This project has been given top priority by British and American diplomats.

Russian Workers Censured Because Of Production Lag

By RICHARD R. KASISCHKE

MOSCOW, Nov. 6 (AP) — Deputy Premier M. Z. Saburov tonight kicked off the festive weekend celebrations of the 37th anniversary of the Russian Revolution by censuring Soviet factory and farm workers for lagging production. He said additional controls would be imposed to develop further the Soviet economy.

Speaking in Moscow's Bolshoi theater before the top Soviet government leaders, dignitaries and diplomatic corps, the youthful-looking Saburov also denounced the West's defense alliance moves, including rearming of West Germany, and repeated the charge that the United States is trying to encircle Russia with military bases.

He stressed the Soviet government's theme of coexistence—that capitalistic and Communist nations can live peacefully together in the same world.

"As far as the U.S.S.R. is concerned," he said, "the basic principles of coexistence will be observed."

But he added that Russia stands ready to maintain its interests by force of arms, if necessary.

President Klementi Voroshilov, arm in arm with Premier Georgi Malenkov, led the procession of government dignitaries onto the flower-banked stage of the Bolshoi. Above the floodlit stage flashed an electric slogan: "Long live the 37th anniversary of the great October Socialist Revolution."

Voroshilov escorted Malenkov to his seat and then the government sat down in the following left to right order:

Deputy Premier A. I. Mikoyan, 1st Deputy Premier Lazar Kaganovich, Defense Minister Marshal Nikolai Bulganin, Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, Secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist party N. S. Khrushchev, Premier Malenkov, President Voroshilov, and M. A. Yasnov, chairman of the Moscow City Soviet (City Council).

Deputy Premier M. G. Pervukhin did not sit with the other leaders, but was in a back row.

Outside the theater, hundreds of thousands of Soviet citizens milled around the brightly lit streets of downtown Moscow in gay holiday mood. They were entranced by electrical displays which were more elaborate this year than ever before.

Buildings were decorated with bright bunting and portraits of Soviet leaders. The two dead Soviet leaders — Lenin and Stalin — got the usual center honor positions with Premier Malenkov beside them. Foreign Minister Molotov and Secretary Khrushchev vied for the No. 2 spots.

Tomorrow the traditional military parade and civilian demonstration will roll through Red Square as the government reviews it from atop the Lenin-Stalin tomb. In the evening Molotov will be host at a diplomatic reception in the Kremlin.

Saburov, one of the leaders of industry, is also chairman of the State Planning Commission — the organization that governs the nation's industrial and agricultural life. His speech tonight marked the first time he has occupied the center of the stage at such a prominent event.

Referring to livestock production Saburov said: "We cannot tolerate the fact that last year, owing to unsatisfactory wintering conditions the number of cattle, far from showing an increase, actually showed a decrease."

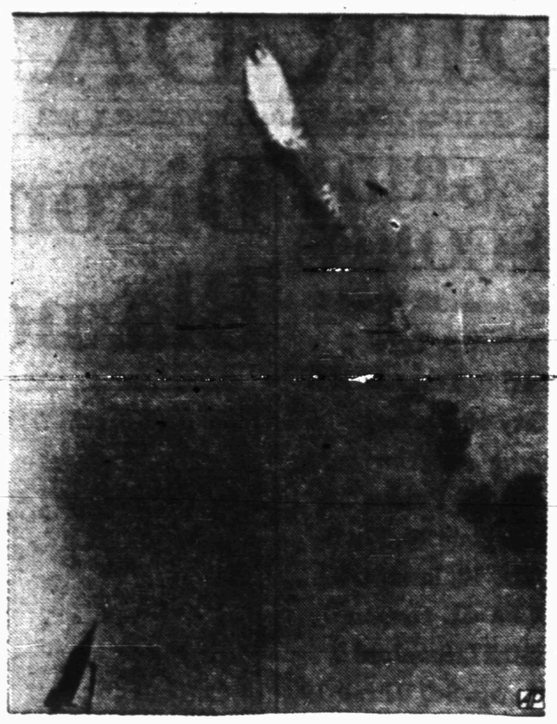
Saburov served notice of a renewed drive for more work and production in these words:

"The task of the further development of our Socialist economy requires the further tightening up of labor discipline, the strictest control over the norms of labor and the norms of consumption.

"It is particularly important for Socialist society correctly to distribute the labor reserves, in order to have them concentrated mainly in the sphere of production — in other words, in factories, plants, collective farms, machine tractor stations and state farms."

POGO STICK TAKE OFF

Convair's fantastic vertical takeoff fighter, the XFY1, takes off in a public demonstration at San Diego, Calif., with Pilot J. F. (Skeets) Coleman at the controls.



SEADART EXPLODES

A ball of flame follows the fore section of the Convair YF2Y1 jet seaplane (lower left) after the craft exploded over the bay at San Diego, Calif., Thursday, killing the pilot. The craft, the world's fastest seaplane, is equipped with a pair of skis instead of conventional landing gear or floats.

Government To Open Bids On Tidelands

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—The government will open bids Tuesday for oil and gas leasing of 100,028 acres of submerged lands in the other continental shelf off Texas.

The sale will be the first of offshore areas in the Gulf off Texas.

Last month, however, bids were received for oil and gas leases on 97 out of 180 tracts offered off Louisiana in the first federal sale of offshore leases. Bids also were received on six out of 108 tracts off Louisiana offered for sulphur lease.

All the tracts off both states lie outside of what the Interior Department regards as the three league, or 10.35 miles, area seaward from the coasts.

Interior Department officials in charge of the Texas sale declined to speculate today on how much the high cash bonus bids may total.

The high bids for the lands off Louisiana totalled $129,527,476 for oil and gas leases and $1,233,500 for sulphur leases.

The Texas offering is in 38 separate tracts.

In addition to the cash bonuses bid Tuesday, with a minimum of $15 an acre required, the government will also charge a royalty of one - sixth on production and a rental or minimum royalty of $3 an acre a year.

All receipts go into the federal treasury.

In connection with the leases off the Texas coast, the Navy notified the Interior Department it will be possible to readjust the naval operating training areas so that the section north of 22 degrees, 40 minutes within one leasing area will not be used for gunnery practice. As a result, the Navy said it had no objection to the proposed leasing of the property.

Purpose Of Robertson's Trip Is Told

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—The State Department finally acknowledged today that Asst. Secretary of State Walter Robertson's mystery mission to Formosa, a month ago, was concerned in part with discussion of a treaty of alliance between the United States and Nationalist China.

The information came from Press Officer Henry Suydam in response to inquiries about progress on such a treaty.

From other sources it was learned that there has now been a modification of the U.S. government attitude toward a treaty with Nationalist China so that, if satisfactory provisions can be drafted, the United States is willing to sign such a pact.

Previously the United States was willing only to talk about an alliance, not act. U.S. officials advanced various arguments against such a treaty, pointing to the problem of Nationalist held islands along the China coast and the idea that the American government might some day decide to recognize Red rule on the China mainland.

Nationalist Chinese Foreign Minister George Yeh has been here to discuss with Robertson the possibility and nature of the treaty. This prompted questions to the State Department press section.

Group Fails In Effort To Detain O'Dwyer

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—A city reform group, gunning for former Mayor William O'Dwyer for years, failed to get him detained for questioning during his recent visit here.

Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan said he told the group, known as the City Club, that he had no evidence of corruption in the O'Dwyer regime on which to question Mr. O'Dwyer before a grand jury.

"Any calling of Mr. O'Dwyer at this time would, in our opinion, be an abuse of grand jury process," Hogan said.

The club's attempt was disclosed today in the New York World-Telegram & Sun which published a telegram to Hogan from the club's chairman of the board of trustees Walter M. Weis.

Elizabeth Thrilled By American Drug Store

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP) — Britain's Queen Mother Elizabeth interrupted a tour of historic Washington sights today to inspect the contents of an American drugstore.

The Queen Mother, accompanied by President Eisenhower's wife, noticed the drugstore's window display while strolling through the Pentagon.

"Would you like to go in?" Mrs. Eisenhower asked when her royal guest paused.

"We'll just look in," said the Queen. And although the store was closed to customers, its doors were opened promptly for the visitors.

Obviously delighted, Elizabeth chatted gaily with her escorts as she looked over the displays.

New Jersey Ballots Impounded By Demos

NEWARK, N.J., Nov. 6 (AP) — Democrats held impounding orders for 12 New Jersey counties today and pushed to seal voting records in seven more in the wake of a close U.S. Senate vote which gave apparent unofficial victory to Republican Clifford P. Case.

Thorn Lord, Mercer Democratic chairman and spearhead of the party's legal actions in the wake of Tuesday's election, said of Case's slender 3,308-vote margin:

"According to our calculations, it is considerably lower."

Hawaii produces more than a million tons of cane sugar a year.

Irrigation Is Not Feasible

AUSTIN, Nov. 6 (AP)—Widespread irrigation of large tracts in the wide, flat valleys of the Concho River near San Angelo is not feasible, the chairman of the State Board of Water Engineers said today.

Chairman H. A. Beckwith made the statement in releasing a report on ground water resources of Tom Green County. The report was prepared by the U.S. Geological Survey in cooperation with the board.

The report shows a few wells have maximum initial yields of 1,000 gallons a minute from dolomite limestone formations but would cause rapid local depletion of the ground water reservoir.

Smaller irrigation wells pumping from the valley fill of pleistocene age yield as much as 500 gallons a minute, but lowered water levels mean this rate of pumping can rarely be sustained.

The report finds plenty of water available from the hills south, north and northwest of San Angelo for domestic and stock use.

Graham Says Nation Needs Moral Courage

WACO, Nov. 6 (AP)—America "does not have the moral courage to control the strength we have found" in the hydrogen bomb, evangelist Billy Graham said today.

"No man in public office has an answer to the problem except those who believe a return to God can save us," the young revival minister said in an address at Baylor University.

Graham spoke at a conference on American ideals at which the Baptist university awarded him an honorary doctor of divinity degree. An honorary doctor of law degree also was awarded the nation's youngest governor, Frank Clement, 34, of Tennessee.

Graham described a debate he heard in the British House of Commons at London. At that time, Prime Minister Winston Churchill said the hydrogen bomb was now so big that it would hold back wars.

The evangelist then quoted Mr. Churchill as saying: "'That is my hope'."

Graham continued:

"I felt like standing up in the balcony and saying: 'If that is our only hope then we of all men are most miserable with but empty souls.'

"It would not be so bad if we hadn't developed the frankenstein monster called the hydrogen bomb that could destroy much of mankind. We do not have the moral courage to control the strength we have found.

"I have another hope that we will get back to God in a spiritual revival.

Gov. Clement last night told the conference that faith in the wisdom of God is the X-ray that will do more than "military surgery" to cure the social cancer of Communism.

Alpine Man Elected

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 6 (AP)—Hugh White of Alpine was elected president of the Big Bend Trail Assn. today.

Vice - presidents named include C.W. Meadows Sr., San Angelo.

The percentage of men teachers in U.S. elementary and secondary schools has been increasing —15.2 per cent in 1947 and 22.8 per cent in 1951.

Marines' Attire Due To Get New Attention

WASHINGTON, Nov 6 (AP)—Marines must not be too big for their breeches. That's an order.

Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd Jr. Marine Corps commandant, issued word today that many of his Leathernecks have been wearing trousers "too short and too tight in the seat."

Shepherd ordered all commanding officers to check the appearance of both officers and men for this and other uniform violations deserving "particular attention," including:

Too tightly tailored—and thus muscle showing—Marine shirts; neckties tied in a bulky Windsor knot; Shirts with frayed cuffs and collars, and with sleeves cut to hug the arm; Garrison caps pushed or tucked in, or of incorrect size.

Lincoln P-TA Holds Banquet On Thursday

The Parent-Teachers Association of Lincoln Elementary School held a banquet at the school cafeteria Thursday night.

Present active members of the P-TA served as hosts.

Dinner music was played throughout the event by Ruth Smith of San Angelo. Mrs. Lois Powell sang two numbers, "Morning," and "Because."

Approximately 65 parents were served a turkey dinner, and all parents were urged to become active members of the P-TA and to attend meetings regularly to help improve the community.

Next meeting of the Lincoln P-TA is set for Nov. 18.

Armas Takes Oath As Guatemala's President

GUATEMALA, Nov. 6 (AP)—Carlos Castillo Armas took oath of office today as Guatemala's constitutional President and declared he stood neither with the left nor the right but for social justice for both workers and employers.

The wiry little colonel who led the revolt which ousted a pro-Communist regime from this Central American republic last June said economic recovery is the most pressing problem facing the new government.

Collins Arrives At Critical Moment

By JOHN RODERICK

SAIGON, Viet Nam, Nov. 6 (AP)—President Eisenhower's special representative, Gen. J Lawton Collins, is arriving here at a critical moment in the struggle to prevent communism from grabbing another big chunk of Southeast Asia.

Not since President Truman dispatched Gen. George C. Marshall to China in 1946 to attempt to bring the Communists into a coalition government has an American military man been entrusted with such a tough and delicate job.

Collins, who was named by the White House on Wednesday to "coordinate the operations of all U.S. agencies" in Viet Nam, is expected here Monday. Actually, his assignment is to try to bring order out of the political chaos now existing in the non-Communist South. If it is not done soon, there seems little chance Viet Nam can be saved from a Communist victory at the polls two years from now when a unified government is chosen under terms of the Geneva armistice agreement. The former Army chief of staff has the personal rank of ambassador during his mission.

Collins must undertake a difficult diplomatic chore without seeming to interfere in the South's internal affairs, carefully avoiding the oversensitive toes of high strung Vietnamese.

This, in general, is the situation which confronts the American envoy:

Premier Ngo Dinh Diem, ardent nationalist and anti-Communist, is at the head of a government which has no real power because he is unable to exact obedience either from the national army or from the national police force.

His hold on the army has been broken by the tactics of Chief of Staff Nguyen Van Hinh, son of a former Premier. Ninh defied Diem two months ago after he had been accused of political ambitions. The army, believing their chief was being martyred, backed him.

The police force is under the control of Viet Nam's gambling czar, Gen. Le Van Vien, who heads the Binh Xuyen society endowed with its own small private army. The Premier, a man of great integrity and ascetism, opposes gambling and vice in general and would like to put his own man at the head of the police. But he is powerless to do so and would run counter to the wishes of Chief of State Bao Dai if he did. The ex-Emperor put Binh Xuyen in control before Diem took over the government.

Without the loyalty and obedience of the army and the police, Diem is paralyzed. He plans to carry out widespread reforms such as land redistribution which would answer the Communist-led Vietminh's claims if it is the only party concerned with the people's welfare. But he cannot do so unless the police and the army can be depended on to maintain order while this drastic new system is being installed. The same holds true for calling a National Assembly and enactment of measures to combat the influence on communism in the South.

Execution Of Rapist Stayed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—The Supreme Court today granted a stay of execution for Walter Lee Irvin, Florida Negro convicted of raping a white woman.

Irvin had been scheduled to die at midnight tomorrow in Florida's electric chair. The plea for the stay of execution was filed yesterday by the National Assn. for The Advancement of Colored People. The court acted at a conference of the justices.

Irvin was convicted in the 1949 rape of a Groveland, Fla., housewife. Two other Negroes involved in the case were killed by police and a third sentenced to life imprisonment.

A spokesman for the court said Irvin's execution will be held up pending further consideration of his case. His attorneys likely will ask the court for a review of his conviction.

If the court agrees to the review, Irvin's execution could be delayed indefinitely.

About 9,250,000 U.S. wives now hold jobs outside their homes compared with a peak of seven million during World War II.

Weather Is Pleasant Over Most Of Nation

By The Associated Press

Pleasant autumn weather with clear skies and moderate temperatures prevailed in most sections of the nation Saturday.

Precipitation was confined to a few scattered showers over the northern Rockies and a few snow flurries over Michigan.

Cooler air spread in Florida and readings Saturday were 15 degrees cooler than the preceding day.

In most other sections, however, temperatures were somewhat higher.

Marquette, Mich., with a midday reading of 36 was the coolest spot on the weather map. Thermal, Calif., with an 82 was the warmest.

Other afternoon temperatures included Boston, 48; New York, 48; Atlanta, 53; Miami, 68; Dallas, 68; Chicago, 50; Denver, 66; Omaha, 63; Bismarck, N.D., 62; Portland, Ore., 53; Salt Lake City, 54; Los Angeles, 78, and San Francisco, 58.

Lawyers For Sheppard Told To Speed Up

By ARTHUR EVERETT

CLEVELAND, Nov. 6 (AP)—Dr. Samuel Sheppard's defense lawyers were on the spot today for their lengthy questioning at his first degree murder trial.

"I have an inquiring mind," retorted defense attorney William J. Corrigan. "I intend to question everything. That's my job."

After three weeks in court, the trial has yet to get beyond the first state witness—Dr. Lester Adelson, the deputy county coroner who autopsied the slain Marilyn Sheppard, wife of the 30-year-old osteopath.

Common Pleas Judge Edward Blythin grew restless yesterday at the defense's daylong cross-examination of Dr. Adelson, almost unprecedented in its minutess and detail. The judge said he had never tried a case where so much time was devoted to establishing the cause of death.

He threatened Corrigan with Saturday court sessions unless the defense quits stalling.

At one point, Corrigan bridled at the court and shouted:

"I'm going to take all the time necessary, your honor."

"No you're not, Mr. Corrigan," Blythin replied.

Sheppard is on trial for his life, accused of beating his 31-year-old wife to death last July 4 in the bedroom of their Lakefront home. She was four months pregnant with her second son.

The state contends the couple quarreled over the handsome osteopath's affairs with other women, including pert Susan Hayes, a 24-year-old former technician in the Sheppard Osteopathic Hospital. She is to testify for the state later.

Sheppard claimed a bushy-haired marauder bent on burglary entered the home, killed Marilyn and knocked him unconscious.

Houston Banker Found Dead At Home Saturday

HOUSTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—E. F. Gossett, chairman of the board of the Texas National Bank, was found dead at his home today. He was 73.

The body was found by Vivian W. Penny, a vice president of the bank. Penny had gone to Gossett's home to take him to the office.

A native of Henderson County, Gossett entered the banking business at the age of 22 with the old Gulf National Bank at Beaumont. He later served as a state bank examiner and as deputy state bank commissioner.

Survivors include the widow and two sons.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Three Scouts Earn Awards

Three Fluvanna Boy Scouts will receive a special God and Country Award in a program set for 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night at the Fluvanna Methodist Church.

They are J. V. Evans, Leslie Coval Burrow, and Troy Evans, the first scouts in this district to receive the awards.

The Rev. Wayland Dowden, pastor of the Cactus, Tex., Methodist Church and former Fluvanna pastor and scoutmaster of the Fluvanna troop, will make the main address during the program.

Included on the program will be a brief talk by Sam Bruner, new scoutmaster of the troop, an explanation of the meaning of the award by Bob Eastus, district scout executive, and presentation of the awards by the Rev. J. W. Hawkins, pastor of the church.

The scouts receive this award from the church for fulfilling specific standards involving participation in the total program of their churches. Endeavors included being more faithful in religious duties, deepening personal devotional life, deeper study of teachings, practices, policies, and organization of the scout's church, and giving of practical expression to religious convictions in service to the church.

Ike, Dulles To Give Support To Yoshida

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles have decided to give Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida every possible evidence of strong American support for Japan during Yoshida's round of conferences here beginning Monday.

Eisenhower and Dulles were reported today to visualize the Yoshida mission as one of great importance in relation to the development of Japan as a bastion against the spread of Communist power into the Western Pacific.

Yoshida is expected to obtain assurances of 100 million dollars or more worth of surplus agricultural products, of support for Japan's efforts to open up desperately needed markets in Southeast Asia and the Americas, and all the military assistance which the Japanese government can use in building up defensive forces to a total of 210,000 men in the early future.

Essentially, however, officials said Japan's critical problem is not military but economic. Unless markets can be found for the products of her 87 million industrious people in the free world, there is a deep fear here that over the next few years Japan will tend toward communism.

Residents Asked To Remember Patients In State Hospital

Help from residents of West Texas has been asked by officials of the Abilene State Hospital as Christmas approaches.

William T. Lawler, director and education and rehabilitative therapies for the hospital, said there are 1,520 patients in the hospital. In a letter to the Plainview Home Demonstration Club, headed by Mrs. W. E. McMillan, Lawler said about 800 of the patients are in need of help, since they will receive nothing from home for Christmas. Many, he said, have lost contact with relatives, while others have no relatives.

The patients, he said, look forward to Christmas, but some fail to receive gifts. Because of this, he is asking West Texans to lend a hand in sending gifts to the patients. All gifts wrapped, he said, should have a tag on them telling what they are and the size in case they are clothing, along with specification as to whether they are for a male or female. The hospital would appreciate receiving the gifts by Dec. 10, he said, so it can prepare for Christmas. They should be sent to Abilene State Hospital, Box 451, Abilene, Tex., care of William T. Lawler.

Prisoner Denies She 'Ribbed' Federal Men

HOUSTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—A 30-year-old federal narcotics prisoner denied today that she was "ribbing" federal agents when she said she had a love affair with a former police detective and that he supplied her with narcotics.

Mrs. Marguerite Fredericks was recalled as a government rebuttal witness in the federal court trial of Sidney Smith, who was suspended as a vice squad detective during an investigation of a police department narcotics scandal last summer.

A grand jury investigating the scandal indicted Smith for conspiring with two police characters to obtain narcotics.

Payne To Stay With Senate

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—President Eisenhower and Sen. Frederick G. Payne (R-Maine) both decided today that Payne should not leave the Senate to take the 15-year, $17,500 post of comptroller general.

A delicately worded announcement to that effect was made jointly by Payne and White House press secretary James C. Hagerty after an Eisenhower - Payne breakfast conference. Neither would say that Payne had been offered the job, considered a prize patronage plum, but it was plainly implied that the senator was sounded out on all the angles involved.

One big stumbling block from the Republican point of view is that Maine will have a Democratic governor, Edmund S. Muskie, after Jan. 1, who could appoint a new senator to serve until the next general election two years from now.

In response to reporters' questions, the tall, handsome senator conceded that Republican Gov. Burton M. Cross, defeated by Buskie Sept. 13, could make a Republican appointment before he goes out of office, but he made no further comment about this.

Fort Davis Soldier Dies

FORT DAVIS, Tex., Nov. 6 (AP)—Anton Aggerman, 95, the last known surviving soldier who served in the old Fort Davis Army post, died here today.

Aggerman was born in Europe in what was then Bohemia. It is now a part of Czechoslovakia. He came to the United States as a youth and served in U. S. Army units along the Western Frontier from 1878 to 1891.

Fort Davis, in the Davis Mountains of West Texas, was the site of an Army post which was abandoned around the turn of the century. Aggerman was stationed there and settled in the town of Fort Davis after the Army left.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Josephine Clark, of Fort Davis, and several grand children.

Funeral services are pending.

Man Admits Slaying Nurse

By ED MARKAITY

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Nov. 6 (AP)—Police said an 18-year-old mental hospital patient, who previously complained about uncontrollable sex desires, told them today he raped and strangled a blonde nurse he described as "awfully pretty."

Louis M. Smith, a 135-pound, 5-foot-7 patient committed to Kalamazoo State Hospital Feb. 5 after sexual offenses against young girls, was jailed in the brutal slaying of Miss Marilyn Kraai, 20. A red pencil led police to him.

The nurse's body was found last night in a hospital therapy room. She had been choked to death with a patient's necktie.

Garrett Gerlofs, Kalamazoo detective, said Smith told him in a signed statement:

"I did it. I did it. I'm sorry.

"I don't know why I did it. It was an impulse, I guess. But she was awfully pretty. I wish I were dead."

Prosecutors will decide whether to charge Smith with murder, or recommend a transfer to Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane.

Gerlofs said Smith first denied the slayings but admitted it when shown his red mechanical pencil, found near the body.

Dr. Mosley To Speak

Dr. John D. Mosley, president of Austin College in Sherman, will be in the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church during morning worship services today at 11 a.m.

U.S. women, on the average, outlive men by six years.

Foes On Gas Issue Back Into Senate

By MAX B. SKELTON

HOUSTON, Nov. 6 (AP)— Senate leaders who four years ago took opposite views in a fight to amend the Natural Gas Act were reelected this week.

The same fight is expected to be resumed shortly after Congress convenes.

Oklahomans Tuesday reelected Sen. Kerr, a Democrat whose bill proposing exemption of producers from provisions of the gas act was vetoed by President Truman.

Sen. Douglas, an Illinois Democrat who was a leading opponent of the Kerr bill, also was reelected.

Oil industry leaders already have said proposed legislation to remove the natural gas producer and gatherer from Federal Power Commission control will be ready in early January.

When the Kerr bill was being debated, FPC had made no effort to regulate the producer who is not affiliated with an interstate pipe line. Backers of the bill feared the commission would make such a move.

FPC made the move last July 16, posting an order freezing field prices of natural gas. The order was retroactive to June 7, the date the Supreme Court held that the commission must fix rates of interstate sales by companies which produce and gather natural gas.

One senator who took an active role in the fight, Homer Ferguson, Michigan Republican, lost his bid for reelection.

On the day FPC posted its price freeze, Ferguson said the action "will have a real meaning to Michigan consumers of natural gas in preventing rate increases."

Ferguson spoke on the Senate floor during an unsuccessful effort to give FPC an additional $300,000 to carry out the price freeze order.

Two Texans who gave active support to the Kerr bill will hold influential positions under the reorganization of Congress.

Sen. Johnson would become Senate majority leader. He already has pledged to help shape legislation designed to solve problems raised by the court order.

Rep. Rayburn would return to the speakership of the House.

Rayburn left the speaker's chair in 1950 to make one of his rare floor speeches while supporting the Kerr bill.

The bill squeezed through the House with only a 2-vote margin.

Von Neurath Is Released

By TOM REEDY

BERLIN, Nov. 6 (AP)—Broken in health and almost forgotten in changing world politics, Baron Konstantin Von Neurath, Hitler's first foreign minister, was released from a war crimes prison today.

Now 81 and suffering from heart trouble, Von Neurath was granted a parole from Spandau, the four-power prison holding the seven top Hitler Nazis who escaped hanging.

None ever had been expected to see the outside again. The Russians, in charge of the prison this month, revived last Wednesday an old Western proposal to release Von Neurath because of age and health, and got quick American, British and French assent.

Von Neurath's daughter, Mrs. Winifried von Mackensen, was notified to appear here for a "conference" at 10 a.m. today. At 11 a.m., her father appeared in the visitors' room, dressed for street travel for the first time in eight years.

He did not know he was being released, Mrs. Von Mackensen said. Only at the last moment were both advised by officers of all four powers that a car awaited. They went to a modest hotel in downtown Berlin where tonight Von Neurath was under a private physician's care.

Thanksgiving Is Proclaimed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—President Eisenhower today proclaimed Thursday, Nov. 25, as Thanksgiving Day and called on all citizens to observe the day with prayer.

"Let us demonstrate in our lives," he said, "our humble thanks to God for His beneficience in the year which is past, and let us ask His guidanee in the year to come."

The proclamation expressed gratitude that "our beloved country, settled by those forebears (the Pilgrim Fathers) in their quest for religious freedom, remains free and strong, and that each of us can worship God in his own way, according to the dictates of his conscience."

In designating the fourth Thursday in November as Thanksgiving Day, the President acted in accordance with a joint resolution of Congress approved December 26, 1941.

Potential Flow Logged In Area Field Venture

General Crude Oil Co. No. 79-4 Percy Jones, Clairemont - Lower Pennsylvanian field test, has reported a potential flow of 175 barrels of 39.2-gravity oil.

The production is through perforations at 6,714-738 feet, and is natural. Gas-oil ratio on the test was 481-1. No water was present. Tubing pressure was 250 pounds, with a packer on casing. A one-quarter-inch choke was used.

The No. 79-4 Jones is 1,980 feet from south and east lines of section 79-G-W&NW. Derrick floor elevation is 2,152 feet.

Manufacturers estimate that about 14 million cameras in the United States are equipped for use of photo flash.

Wildcat Find Is Completed

Cosden Petroleum Corp. of Big Spring and B. L. McFarland of Midland have reported the completion of a wildcat discovery in Northwest Howard County at the No. 1 Modesta Good Simpson.

On the completion test, the well flowed 24 hours through a one-half-inch choke to make 216 barrels of oil plus 58 per cent water. Gas-oil ratio was estimated to be 500-1.

Production is from open hole between the bottom of the five and one-half-inch casing cemented at 8,646 feet and total depth of 8,563 feet.

The No. 1 Simpson, two and one-eighth miles northwest of the Oceanic-Pennsylvanian field, is in section 22-33-t3n-T&P. It is about three miles west of Vealmoor.

21 New Oil Wells Completed In State

AUSTIN, Nov. 6 (AP) — Operators brought in 218 new oil wells and 20 gas wells this week, at the same time plugging 121 dry holes.

Oil completions for the year now total 10,266 compared with 8,783 a year ago, the Railroad Commission said in its weekly report. The gas well comparison shows 1,085 wells this year against 928 at this date in 1953.

Of the 218 new oil wells this week, four were wildcat. There were no wildcat gas wells, 59 wildcat dry holes.

The total average calendar day crude allowable today was 2,889,547 barrels, up 65,199 barrels from a week ago as the November allowable went into effect.

New Locations Staked In Howard County Field

Fleming Oil Co. and Fleming & Kimbell of Fort Worth have set two new locations in the Snyder field of Howard County, five miles south of Coahoma.

The No. 11-E D. H. Snyder is 990 feet from south and 330 feet from west lines of the northwest quarter of section 21-30-T&P. The No. 6 D. H. Snyder is 990 feet from north and 330 feet from west lines of the southwest quarter of the same section. Both will drill to 3,200 feet with combination tools, starting at once.

DRILLING REPORT

Union Oil of California No. 1 M. I. Simmons, Northeast Scurry County wildcat, is preparing to cement five and one-half-inch casing at approximately 6,000 feet. Perforations are to be made above that point for tests in the Pennsylvanian reef zone, which had some shows on a drillstem test.

In Central Scurry County, Taylor Oil & Gas No. 1-B Winston is drilling in shale and sand below 5,585 feet. Ten miles west of Snyder, General Crude No. 1 Hugh Taylor is drilling in lime below 2,265 feet.

* * *

General Crude Oil No. 1 Diedrich Wolff, Jr., 10 miles east and north of Hamlin in Northeast Fisher County, is preparing to test on perforations from 6,020-028 feet. General Crude No. 2 Wolff is drilling in shale and lime below 5,430 feet.

Sid Katz No. 1-B Nina Wheeler, East Fisher prospector, has set and cemented five and one-half-inch casing at 2,676 feet. Shows for production there will be tested through perforations.

* * *

L. E. Schereck and others No. 1 Gilbert Wright, Jr., four miles southeast of Vealmoor in North Howard County, is coring below 7,160 feet.

Sid Katz No. 1 Tom Morrison in West Mitchell County is preparing to clean out and test after fracturing perforations with 15,000 gallons of sand oil.

In Stonewall County, Moore & Nenney No. 1 Kennedy is drilling in lime and shale below 3,172 feet. The New Seven Falls Co. No. 1 Ellison is at total depth of 6,149 feet and preparing to take a potential test for completion.

Burke New President Of Scurry Association

Harold E. Burke was elected chairman of the Scurry County Oil & Gas Association at its monthly dinner meeting Thursday.

Other new officers, who will take office with Burke at the end of December, are George Horst, vice chairman; J. W. McClure, secretary; Leroy Williams, treasurer; W. F. Walker, program chairman; publicity and membership chairman, Jim Kincaid, and Jimmy Lee, entertainment chairman.

Two films were shown during the evening. One, produced by the CICC, was "Crossroads, U.S.A." The other, a Shell Oil Co. film, was "Finding Oil for Energy."

Plans for a Christmas party in mid-December were made during the business session.

New Lea County Maps Ready For Distribution

The Midland Map Co. now has complete ownership maps of Southeast Lea County, New Mexico, ready for shipment, C. E. Prichard, manager, has announced.

The map is tied to adjoining Texas surveys, and gives up-to-date lease and fee information. This is the last of four maps covering Lea County. Each section of the complete county map may be obtained for $12.50 on paper or $17.50 on linen.

Kent Has Two New Oil Wells

Two new producers in the SMS-Canyon sand field of Northwest Kent County have been reported to the Railroad Commission.

Honolulu Oil Corp. No. 2 Newman Brothers was finaled for a natural 24-hour flow of 431 barrels of 40.9-gravity oil with no water. The flow was through a one-inch choke and from perforations at 6,095-116 feet.

Top of the pay was at 6,095 feet, with five and one-half-inch casing cemented at 6,179 feet. Tubing pressure was 200 pounds and casing pressure 550 pounds. Gas-oil ratio was 585-1.

Drillsite for the No. 2 Newman is 660 feet from north and 597 feet from west lines of the north 219.5 acres in section 2, J. B. Ward survey.

Blanco Oil & Newman Brothers No. 2 Neustadt reported a 24-hour natural flow of 206.25 barrels of 36.5-gravity oil. No water was present. Production is from open hole at 6,049-056 feet, with five and one-half-inch casing cemented at 6,049 feet. Top of the pay was at 6,049 feet.

Gas-oil ratio on the test was 500-1. Tubing pressure was 125 pounds and casing pressure 200 pounds.

The No. 2 Neustadt is 1,465.5 feet from east and 538 feet from north lines of section 16-7-H&TN.

Dawson Reef Test Tries To Complete

Ray A. Albaugh of Big Spring is attempting a completion from the Pennsylvanian reef at his No. 1 R. B. Adams, a wildcat in extreme Southeast Dawson County.

Top of the reef was tentatively called at 9,218 feet, on a minus datum of 6,380 feet. Operator took a 15-hour drillstem test from 9,282-300 feet with gas at the surface in 65 minutes.

Recovery was 2,070 feet of oil and 90 feet of salt water.

The No. 1 Adams is one location southeast of Stanolind Oil & Gas and Albaugh No. 1-A J. Y. Graves, a Dean sand discovery from pay at 8,180-270 feet.

San Andres Wildcat Planned In Gaines

Guy Mabee of Midland has staked location for his No. 1 Homer Stimson as a 5,500-foot San Andres wildcat in Gaines County.

The drillsite is 660 feet from north and east lines of the southeast quarter of section 301-G-CCSD&RGNG, about six and one-half miles northwest of Seminole. Operations are to start at once.

Southwest Winkler To Get New Wildcat Test

Gulf Oil Corp. is to start operations at once on the No. 1-GV State, a new wildcat in Southwest Winkler County.

Location is 1,980 feet from south and east lines of section 43-21-University survey, and eight miles southwest of Wink. Contract depth is 5,500 feet, calculated to allow a test of the Delaware sand.

Arbie Phillips, one of Bronte's offensive leaders Friday night against Hermleigh, makes a long gain here in his team's 19-18 win over the Hermleigh team. Richard Fritz, No. 11, and Jay Houston, No. 26, close in on Phillips, while Wendell Goodman, No. 17, also pursues. Hermleigh and Loraine are tied for the District 6-B lead. (Lee Watson photograph)

Bronte Longhorns Surprise Cardinals

The Bronte Longhorns surprised the Hermleigh Cardinals Friday night, knocking them for a close 19-18 loss.

The loss, however, did not ruin Hermleigh's strong title hopes. Hermleigh had edged ahead the week before by downing powerful Loraine. Now Hermleigh and Loraine are tied for the district lead, but Hermleigh has the advantage of the win over the Loraine squad.

The Cards have only Trent left to contend with. Trent is not considered a very serious threat, since it has won only one of eight games this year but Hermleigh Coach Ray Isaccs is wary because Trent's one win was over Bronte.

Kenneth Scott was the hero of the game Friday night for Bronte, being the only one to get an extra point, the one which made the difference in the game.

Bronte led 12-6 at halftime. Scott tallied first on a one-yard plunge in the first period. Denny Braswell got the next one, also going one yard.

In the second period, Hermleigh scored when Robbie Robinson passed to Wendell Goodman in a play which covered 55 yards. The team was able to tie it up in the third quarter when Billy Mac Davidson raced 60 yards for a touchdown.

In the fourth, Hermleigh moved ahead on a two-yard scoring play by Davidson.

As the game drew to a close, Bronte scored when Arbie Phillips passed to Dean Scott 20 yards.

Robinson completed six passes in the game for 124 yards.

ABOVE THE BLEACHERS

By DALE WALTON

Anyone wanting assurance of a seat for next Friday night here at the Snyder - Breckenridge game will have to get his ticket early.

Breckenridge is planning to send its usual big delegation out of town for the game. Art Nicholas, school business administrator, sent 350 student tickets and 804 reserved seat tickets. "They wanted more," he said, "but that was all we could send them." With those out of the way, that fills up the east side of the stands. The two bands and students all go on that side.

That just leaves 473 reserved seats to be sold here, since about that many are already gone in season tickets. When those sell out, and they will, only a few general admission seats on each end of the west side will remain. Those will be taken by fans from both cities.

Tickets will go on sale early tomorrow morning in the office of Forrest Beavers in the courthouse, and they may be all gone by tomorrow afternoon.

The District 3A-1 committee will meet in Snyder next Wednesday, and some important problems are on hand. That's when the committee will have to vote on whether to keep Breckenridge in or let the team go. As it now appears, the district will have nine teams next year if Breck stays, since Lubbock's new Southside High is scheduled to come in.

Rumors which are fairly authentic now have it that only one school in the district opposes keeping Breckenridge, which has enough enrollment to apply for admission but not enough to be in Class AAA without approval. Personally, we favor keeping the school, even if it means a nine-team district. That would leave only two non-district games to play, but it probably wouldn't last but a year or two, since some schools are on their way up in enrollment and some on their way down from Class AAAA. Pampa and Borger almost fell out of AA-AA last year, and Dumas is growing fast enough to be getting into Class AAA soon. Others may be getting close, too.

• • •

Comanche, which will go into the Class AA playoffs, probably won't get far. Colorado City and Phillips will control this end of the state, with Phillips probably winning out. Comanche, which Friday night downed Lakeview 34-0, has a good team but is only one-deep. Star Back Calvin Lee, who is compared to Colorado City's Hollis Gainey in speed, is bothered with a bad ankle and couldn't even run in the same race with Gainey now.

South Taylor Trips Hobbs

The Hobbs Panthers lost their sixth of nine games this season Friday night 20-14 to South Taylor in a homecoming game at Tuscola.

South Taylor got its lead early and scored a touchdown in each of the first three periods. Hobbs scores came in the third and fourth quarters.

Bobby McMillan passed to Bill Self for a 60-yard play and the first South Taylor score. Stanley Rogers intercepted a Hobbs pass in the second and South Taylor started another drive, with James Wash finishing it on a two-yard plunge. McMillan ran the extra point.

In the third, Hobbs moved out to score, with Bynum Miers passing to Mack Etheredge 35 yards. Durwood Hopper converted. South Taylor got another tally, however, when McMillan made a short run into the end zone. Rogers got the point to make it 20-7. Hobbs got its last score in the fourth, with Hopper going 45 yards and getting the conversion.

Albany Skips Over Roby's Lions, 63-14

The Roby Lions Friday night fell to Albany, one of two undefeated leaders of football District 8-A, 63-14.

Albany held complete control of the game until the final period, when Roby got two touchdowns.

Twin halfbacks David and Daniel Mitchell got three Albany touchdowns, Daniel one on a 25-yard end run and David two on runs of two yards and 45 yards. The longest run of the night was by Albany's Jody Beel, substitute halfback who returned a punt 70 yards for a score. He also got a touchdown on a five-yard run. Other TDs were tallied for Albany by fullback Albert Burton, who got two on runs of 27 yards and 11 yards. Norman Schkade, who scored twice on runs of 25 and 44 yards; and Charlie Knight, who took a 32-yard pass from Bobby Alman for a score. Knight got three of 10 extra point tries.

Kidd Waddell intercepted a pitchout by Schkade in the fourth period and ran it 47 yards for the first Roby score, and Jimmy Kiker, substitute quarterback passed to Waddell for the conversion. Roby tried an onside kick and recovered on the Albany 30, and on the first play Kiker passed to Waddell for the 30 yards and another score. The same combination worked for the extra point.

This gives Roby a 2-7 season record and 0-5 in district play. The Lions will be open next week and will go to Roscoe the following Friday for their last game of the season. Albany and Haskell, the two undefeated teams in the district, are due to meet in two weeks. Albany next week plays Roscoe.

Yale Humbled By Army, 48-7

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 6 (AP)—Fleet Tommy Bell burst 64 yards on Army's first play from scrimmage today and then zing, zing, zing, went the touchdowns as the Black Knights of the Hudson crushed unbeaten Yale, 48-7, before a sellout of 73,600 at Yale Bowl.

Bell, a high-kneed churner, accounted for three of the scores and sophomore Bob Kyasky, returning from the injured list, added two more during the rout. Three touchdowns came from the accurate pitching arm of Pistol Pete Vann.

With the score 41-7—after two touchdowns in each of the first three periods — Coach Earl Blaik of Army called off his point-conscious regulars and emptied his bench, letting reserves get into the game. Even that was not enough to stop the massacre.

It was the sixth victory in seven starts for Army's seventh-ranked legions, the country's offensive leader, and the first setback for proud Ivy League Yale, with only a Colgate tie previously marring its record.

Little League Meeting Set

The Snyder Little League will hold an open meeting at 7 o'clock tomorrow night in the shop building at the high school.

Speedy Moffett, league president, called the meeting to begin reorganization of the league for the coming year. Next year's officers and various workers in the league must be elected, and preliminary plans for the league operations will be made.

The Little League has operated for three seasons in Snyder with six teams. The league area has the boundaries as does the Snyder school district, or all the county except three communities. Play in the league is open to boys 12 years old and younger. There are 15 boys to each team. Those not picked each time to teams are placed on a list of prospects, from which players are chosen when vacancies occur.

The present organization for the league has Moffett as president, Jake Phillips as vice-president, H. W. Cargile as treasurer, Dale Walton as secretary, Hardy Scarborough as umpire-in-chief, Rex Miller as player agent, and Ross Carroll, Don Robinson, Ed Free, and John Curry as directors. Team managers are Skipper Joyce, W. A. Mayfield, Bill Roberts, Buck Logan, Dwayne Walton, and Charles Baker.

Moffett urged persons who would like to work with the league to attend the meeting. Workers will be needed in the offices, directorships, managerships, and many other jobs, such as coaches to work with the managers and referees. The Little League season usually starts in May and lasts through most of the summer.

Tigers Advance In District Without Even Playing A Game

The Snyder Tigers edged from sixth place in District 3A-1 into a tie for fifth without even playing a game Friday night.

This occurred when Sweetwater, which edged Snyder by one point earlier this season, got a taste of a similar defeat from last place Plainview, which moved up to seventh place with its 19-18 win.

Breckenridge put Big Spring out of first place and kept it alone when the Buckaroos downed the Steers 35-14 in a game which was close through three quarters but a runaway in the last period.

Vernon stayed in the running in the district by picking off Lamesa 28-0, and Lamesa now holds up last place alone.

With the weekend of games out of the way, here's how the district stands: Breckenridge, which has three wins and a tie, is in first place. Big Spring and Vernon, each with three wins, one tie, and one loss, are next, followed by Levelland, who has two wins, a tie, and a loss. Sweetwater and Snyder, with two wins and two losses each, follow. Plainview comes next with a win and four losses, and Lamesa brings up the rear with five losses in five games.

Bennett Watts, Breckenridge quarterback who is causing even more talk in high school football than did his predecessor, Kenny Ford, paced his team to the win.

Both Breckenridge and Big Spring capitalized on the other team's mistakes through the first three quarters. Breck got the first two touchdowns, one each in the first and second periods. Big Spring's Tommy McAdams fumbled, and Breck tackle Jerry Cramer recovered, on the Steer 37 in the first quarter, and Clyde Harris made a score on the next play. In the second, Watts intercepted a McAdams pass and returned it 30 yards to the Big Spring 35. Dick Carpenter carried for 14, then Harris passed to Sandefer from there for another TD.

Big Spring struck back in the third period after center Jerry Graves recovered a Watts fumble on the Buckie 46. Fullback Frosty Robison got 35 yards on one play, Brick Johnson carried to the four, and Robison took it into the end zone. A few minutes later, end Wiley Wize recovered a Carpenter fumble on Breckenridge's 37, and the Steers went for the score in five plays, the scoring play a 19-yard pass from McAdams to Johnson. Harris and Big Spring's Glenn Jenkins had made extra points on all touchdowns, so the two teams were tied up 14-14 going into the fourth period.

Breckenridge went wild in the fourth, scoring TDs. Taking the kickoff after the Big Spring score, they drove 80 yards, and Watts crossed the goal line from the two. End Tommy Beasley later intercepted a McAdams pass on the Buckie 45 and carried to the Steer 38. After a few short jabs, Watts went over tackle for the last 10 yards and another score. Sandefer got the last score when he crossed tackle for 39 yards. Harris got the conversions on all those for a perfect night of kicking.

Plainview led all the way in its close win over Sweetwater, running behind the leadership of quarterback Lonnie Holland. Passing was barely used by the Bulldogs, who completed one of four for nine yards. Holland scored all three Plainview touchdowns. The Bulldogs got the first TD when they recovered a Sweetwater fumble and took it 20 yards into the end zone. Holland carried it the last play around left end 15 yards. Sweetwater's Frank Smith tied it up in the second quarter when he picked up a Sweetwater fumble and moved 51 yards for a tally. In the third, on the second play, Sweetwater fumbled again and Plainview recovered. The Bulldogs drove to the 21, and Holland went around end again to score.

Sweetwater tied it up again after the kickoff, driving 58 yards for a touchdown, with Bobby Hartgraves carrying 20 yards to the four and James Harvey passing to Bubba Meyer the rest of the way. Holland took the kickoff after that touchdown and went 79 yards to score and put his team ahead. All conversion tried had been missed up to this time, and Jack Williams kicked the point on this one. Sweetwater came back rapidly, scoring in four plays after the kickoff from their own 30, Robert Neeper to Smith for the score on a 46-yard play. Smith missed the point try after this touchdown, as well as the others. Sweetwater got the ball three more times in the game but couldn't get a scoring drive started.

Vernon did all its scoring in the first three quarters against Lamesa. Bill Lovelace caught a pass for 10 yards from Jerry Pearson for the first one in the first quarter and ran across five yards for another in the second. Also in the second, Robert Pigg went seven yards for a score. He got another from the one-yard line in the third. All the extra points were kicked by Keith Morris.

Galveston, Lufkin Still Big Favorites

By The Associated Press

Galveston and Lufkin still are the championship favorites as the upper classes of Texas schoolboy football start deciding district titles.

Galveston remained unbeaten and untied in Class AAAA last week by lashing Orange 61-0. Ranked No. 1 in the state, the Tors pushed within one game of clinching a place in the state playoff. Now all Galveston has to do is lick twice-beaten Galena Park next Friday night to sew up Dist. 8 representation.

Lufkin rolled on unbeaten, untied and unworried with a 48-7 trouncing of Longview and is looked upon as most likely to win the Class AAA state championship. Lufkin probably won't clinch its district title this week, however, because it still will have a game to play with a possible contender.

Waco and Wichita Falls clash Friday night with Waco able to gain a berth in the state Class AAAA playoff if it wins this one. Wichita Falls, which opened the district race last week by beating Austin 46-7, couldn't make it with a triumph over Waco but would be in a most favorable position. Waco took its second victory as it slammed Highland Park of Dallas 28-0.

In Class AAA, Palestine can gain top honors this week by downing McCallum of Austin.

But otherwise, the districts will be paving the way for big showdowns a week hence. There are 16 districts in the two classes.

Upsets were a dime a dozen last week but only one undefeated, untied team fell. That was Pharr-San Juan-Alamo in Class AAA, which took a 45-13 licking from Harlingen. Big Spring, which was undefeated but had been tied, was walloped by Breckenridge 35-14. Breckenridge thus became an overwhelming favorite to win its district title.

South Oak Cliff's 23-14 triumph over Dallas Sunset was one of the upsets of Class AAAA and it threw the Dallas district race into a big jumble. Jefferson of San Antonio beat Ray of Corpus Christi 7-0 in another startling reversal. It left Miller of Corpus Christi the only unbeaten team in conference play in District 6 and Miller has still to play Ray.

Port Arthur dropped its second game, taking a 26-0 pasting from Pasadena. By so doing, Port Arthur probably fell out of the state's top 10, something it had led most of the season.

Palestine beat Temple 19-18 virtually sew up its district title in Class AAA.

This week's schedule by districts (all games conference unless indicated otherwise):

CLASS AAAA

1. Friday: Lubbock at Abilene. Saturday, San Angelo at Amarillo, Pampa at Odessa, Midland at Borger.
2. Thursday: El Paso Jefferson vs El Paso Austin; Friday: Ysleta at El Paso Bowie.
3. Thursday: Fort Worth Poly vs Fort Worth Amon Carter-Riverside. Friday: Fort Worth Tech vs Fort Worth North Side.
4. Thursday: North Dallas vs Dallas Sunset; Friday: Dallas Forest vs Dallas Hillcrest, Dallas Adamson vs Dallas Woodrow Wilson. Saturday: South Oak Cliff vs Dallas Crozier Tech.
5. Friday: Wichita Falls at Waco, Dallas Highland Park at Tyler.
6. Thursday: Houston St. Thomas at Corpus Christi Ray; Friday: San Antonio Brackenridge at Corpus Christi Miller, San Antonio Tech at Laredo (nonconference). Saturday: Brownsville at San Antonio Jefferson.
7. Thursday: Houston Jeff Davis vs Houston San Jacinto; Friday: Houston Reagan vs Houston Lamar. Saturday: Houston Milby vs Houston Austin.
8. Friday: Galena Park at Galveston, Port Arthur at Beaumont, Freeport at Baytown, Pasadena at Orange.

CLASS AAA

Georgia Tech Tramples Vols

ATLANTA, Nov. 6 (AP)—Georgia Tech took three of Tennessee's favorite weapons—a pass interception, a punt return and a clutch defense—and used them today to trample the Vols 28-7 in a Southeastern Conference football game.

Wade Mitchell, Tech's sophomore quarterback, did everything and did it well, and with two sophomore halfbacks, Jimmy Thompson and George Volkert, led the winners explosive fourth quarter victory drive.

Tom Tracy, Tennessee's battering fullback, carried the load for the Vols—and he gave Tech's defense fits. But he didn't have enough help.

The game was tight as a new pair of shoes until the fourth quarter when Tech broke it up with three swift touchdowns.

Harvard Fumbles To Win First In 7 Years Over Princeton, 14-9

PRINCETON, N.J., Nov. 6 (AP)—Recovery of its own fumble over the goal and a 25-yard touchdown run by Bob Cowles enabled Harvard to end seven years of domination by Princeton today and win its 500th football game since 1874 by a 14-9 score.

The 30,000 fans were kept on pins and needles throughout the game by an ever-threatening Princeton team. Great line play, particularly by guard Bill Meigs, repulsed it at the crucial times to give Harvard the first victory in the Big Three round robin.

The Harvard Crimsons came from behind to win, scoring in the second and third periods. It then knocked Princeton back from the 4 in the last quarter and forced the Tigers to settle for a field goal.

Princeton scored on the third play of the second quarter when Dick Martin plunged for one yard. Two fumbles enabled Harvard to tally and go ahead 7-6 at the half. Cowles' run early in the second half proved to be the clincher.

Buckeyes Rap Pitt, 26-0

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 6 (AP)—Ohio State's powerful Buckeyes enhanced their No. 2 national ranking today as they scored in every period and stopped the Pittsburgh Panthers cold for a 26-0 non-conference victory before 80,886 fans.

Pittsburgh, which had defeated Northwestern and unbeaten Navy and West Virginia in its last three starts, failed to reach the Ohio 40-yard line as the Bucks completely smothered the Panther power and passing attack.

Probably the happiest kid in town was Ken Thompson, sophomore halfback from Dayton, Ohio who got into the game in the last three minutes as Ohio flooded the field with the last of its benchwarmers. Carrying the ball for the first time for the Buckeyes, Thompson took a pitchout from Bill Booth and rolled 32 yards around his left end for the final touchdown.

Earlier the Bucks had moved 81 yards in 19 plays, 34 in 3, and 80 in 14 for touchdowns with Bobby Watkins getting two on the ground, and quarterback Dave Leggett pitching 13 yards to end Bill Michael for the other.

Gail Coyotes Thump Knott Sextet, 40-6

The Gail Coyotes knocked Knott clear out of the six-man area title race and stayed on top in their district Friday night in a 40-6 win.

Knott had suffered only one loss in district play. Gail has been tied once. The Knott team, feared throughout its district because of its spread formation, saw that offense backfire as the Gail defenders stopped it cold. Knott did not score until the final quarter, when Coach Eddie James of Gail began playing his second team.

The defensive team played outstanding ball all night before the That team was made up of Donald Reddell, Alvin Bradshaw, Lonnie more-than-average crowd at Gail. Doyle, Glen Kingston, Larry Smith, and Shorty Farmer.

Borden Reeder and E. L. Franklin lead the offense. Reeder scored the three touchdowns of the first half on runs of 45, 40, and 12 yards, while Kingston passed to Farmer for one conversion and E. L. Franklin kicked one. The team was leading 21-0 at the half.

In the second half, Franklin ripped off three touchdowns on long runs, with Reddell adding an extra point.

The Gail junior high team, which played Thursday afternoon, remained undefeated in four games by downing Loop 33-21. James calls this team one of the best he has seen for teamwork. Raymond Walton and Lloyd Ramsey headed up that team's offense, with Walton scoring three touchdowns and Ramsey two. This team will meet Dawson at 1:30 o'clock this Thursday afternoon at Dawson.

The Coyotes will be at home again Friday night for a meeting with Klondike.

Irish Gallop To 42-7 Win Over Penn

By JACK HAND

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6 (AP)—Ralph Guglielmi put on a spectacular passing show today, throwing for two touchdowns, scoring one and setting up a fourth as Notre Dame wore down stubborn Pennsylvania and romped to a 42-7 victory.

The six-foot senior from Columbus, Ohio, riddled Penn's leaky pass defense, completing 13 of 19 attempts for gains of 260 yards.

Penn, going down for its seventh straight defeat, held the Irish scoreless in the first period and forced them to dig in deep to stop Quaker threats on the seven and three. An interception by Guglielmi and passes knocked down by Dick Szymanski and Don Schaefer blunted the Penn drive.

After Schaefer stunned the crowd of 61,189 with a 69-yard stop-and-go run, Guglielmi sneaked over from the four for the first score early in the second period. A beautiful 20-yard pass from Guglielmi to senior end Dan Shannon of Chicago, gave Notre Dame its 14-0 lead at halftime.

The Irish kept it up in the second half, scoring twice in each period with the sophomore-loaded second string playing the last period.

Guglielmi calmly hit his mark again with an 18-yard scoring pass to Shannon to climax an 80-yard march early in the third period and Joe Heap drove over from the seven for another touchdown after Penn's Walt Hynoski had dashed 12 for the Quakers' only score.

Soph Dean Studer sped 20 yards around right end at 32 seconds of the final period and soph Paul Hornung drove home from the three after Tommy Carey recovered Hynoski's fumble on the Penn 21.

Fullback Schaefer, a workhorse all through the bright, sunny afternoon, added three conversions, and Hornung kicked three. Jim Manley added the point after Hynoski's touchdown.

Illinois Falls To Michigan

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 6 (AP)—Up-and-down Michigan, sparked by Lou Baldacci, a quarter-fullback, smothered Illinois' speedy backfield 14-7 today, to keep alive its faint hopes for a Rose Bowl trip.

It was the fourth straight Big Ten loss for Illinois, the team that shared the conference title last year with Michigan State. It also broke a four-year winning streak the Illini had held over Michigan.

Michigan struck for two touchdowns in the second quarter to come from behind after Illinois scored in the first period.

Baldacci, the regular quarterback, led the way to the first Michigan score, carrying the ball from fullback in six plays of a nine-play series that covered 69 yards. Baldacci scored from the Illinois 2.

Michigan's second touchdown came on an 89-yard march in six plays with halfback Danny Cline leading the way by running 38 yards and passing for 46.

His pass to Jim Maddock scored with 20 seconds to go in the first half.

The Illini struck first with two sophomore backs, Harry Jefferson and Abe Woodson, doing the work. Woodson scored from the Michigan 6, one play after Jefferson had made a first down.

BREAKING TRADITION

A 17-year-old tradition at Texas Tech was broken this year when four majorettes were named to march with the Red Raider band, the first since 1937. Helping Drum Major Jerry Cunningham with his hat above are the majorettes, Audralene Head of Snyder, Cindy Bartciel of Levelland, Sandy Casstevens of Brownfield and Arleen Durkee of Abilene. Miss Head, a freshman at Tech, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Audry Head, Arah route, and was head majorette for the Snyder High School band. Like the other majorettes, she also plays an instrument in the band. (Texas Tech photograph)

Bears Rebound To Win, 13-7

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

WACO, Nov. 6 (AP)—Billy Hooper couldn't go in the air so he turned to the ground and faked, feinted and ran Baylor to a 13-7 victory over Texas today to keep the Golden Bears in the Southwest Conference football race.

The Bear quarterback scored both touchdowns as he led his team in a glittering last half rally that saw Baylor virtually sweeping the Longhorns off the field.

Texas took a 7-0 lead by driving 73 yards with the opening kickoff to a touchdown and the Bears battered futilely at a battling Longhorn line for a half. But they came back in the third period with a change of strategy. Instead of running inside, the Bear ball carriers started charging outside, especially over the position of James Smith, the Baylor tackle.

It paid off handsomely. Del Shofner bobbed up to intercept a pass, his second of the day, to give the Bears the ball on the Texas 44 early in the third period. With L. G. Dupre gaining 20 of the yards and Hooper doing the piloting, the Bears rolled to a touchdown. Hooper made it from the two on a sneaker. But the homecoming crowd of 32,000 was dismayed when Paul Parkinson dashed through to block Charley Smith's try for extra point. Actually, Hooper had juggled the ball in putting it down and the kick was low.

But Baylor roared back the next time it got the ball for another touchdown which Hooper made in a 26-yard sprint around right tackle. This time Smith's kick was good.

The Texas touchdown was scored by Don Maroney, the hardest Texas runner, with a 3-yard plunge and Buck Lansford converted.

It was Baylor's first victory over Texas at home since 1939 and the second over the Longhorns in four years.

Arkansas beat Rice 28-15 at Little Rock to stay on top of the conference race with five victories and no defeats but Baylor remained in contention, just one game back. If Arkansas should lose to SMU next week, Baylor could tie for the title by beating SMU.

Dupre was the power of the raging Baylor ground game with 81 yards on 19 tries while the best all-around player on the field was Baylor's Henry Gremminger, the terrific end to did everything.

The Bears rolled up 278 yards on the ground and 57 in the air. Texas got 85 rushing and 68 passing.

It was a daring game, especially on the part of Hooper, who late in the contest, with the ball on the Baylor 18 and a yard to go for a first down—and fourth down coming up—ran with the ball and got the yard. Had he failed Texas would have had Baylor in a deep hole.

It was the nationally televised game of the week and fans over the country got an eyeful of a grand defensive game the first half but a wild offensive affair—especially on Baylor's part—in the last half.

Miami Upset By Auburn

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 6 (AP)—The Auburn Tigers, led by a great fullback in Joe Childress, defeated Miami's potent Hurricanes today 14-13 in a tremendous football upset.

The victors smashed for their two touchdowns in the final quarter, after trailing 13-0. Miami was sixth ranked nationally.

Childress led a 73-yard scoring march six minutes before the game ended, with quarterback Bobby Freeman's sneak from a yard away getting the score.

Two minutes later Childress blasted into the end zone again on a four-yard gainer after tackle Frank D'Agostino recovered a fumble on the Miami 27.

Childress added both extra points.

Miami, capitalizing on an alert pass defense, scored in the second period on a 13-yard pass from Carl Garrigus to end Tom Pepsin, and in the third on Mario Bonofiglio's 53-yarder on a fake handoff.

Howard Payne Nudges Indians To Win Title

BROWNWOOD, Nov. 6 (AP)—Howard Payne won the Texas Conference football championship today by beating McMurry, 13-6, cashing in on miscues to make both its scores.

Dave Smith went over from the 2 in the first period and Jerry Millsapps scored from 6 inches out in the second to wrap up the game for the Yellowjackets.

Oklahoma Aggies Trip Detroit Team, 34-19

STILLWATER, Okla., Nov. 6 (AP)—After a nip-and-tuck first half, Oklahoma A&M broke up its Missouri Valley Conference game with Detroit today by turning errors into touchdowns for a 34-19 victory.

The Aggies victory was their second in four conference starts while Detroit lost its first league game against one victory.

Moccasins Edged Out By LSU Tigers, 26-19

BATON ROUGE, Nov. 6 (AP)—Quarterback Al Doggett's 13-yard touchdown pass in the last three minutes staved off a shocking Chattanooga eruption tonight as Louisiana State eked out a 26-19 football victory.

The underdog Chattanooga, led by substitute quarterback Dick Durham, blasted for three touchdowns in six minutes and almost turned what was supposed to be an LSU breather into a choker.

Then Doggett and halfback Chuck Johns staged a 76-yard drive that pulled the game out of the fire.

Playing before the smallest crowd in years — less than 13,000 — LSU fired a three-touchdown volley in the opening half.

While Coach Gaynell Tinsley was running through his reserves, Chattanooga suddenly came to life as Durham carried on a relentless spot pass attack that kept the LSU defense in confusion.

Oklahoma Crumples Iowa State, 40-0

AMES, Iowa, No2 5 (AP)—Oklahoma crumpled Iowa State's defenses 40-0 today and bounced back two Cyclone threats inside the 15 for its 16th consecutive victory.

The victory preserved the Big Seven champion's record of never losing a conference football game under Bud Wilkinson in eight seasons.

Gene Calame, a slick split-T quarterback, ran back Cyclone John Breckenridge's pass 54 yards for a touchdown in the third after the Sooners ground out a 20-0 halftime lead.

Red Raiders Thump Arizona Clan, 28-14

TUCSON, Ariz., Nov. 6 (AP)—Texas Tech put a stranglehold on the Border Conference football championship tonight with a 28-14 triumph over Arizona.

The Red Raiders moved to a 14-0 lead in the first half and matched the Wildcats for touchdowns in the last half.

Tech remained unbeaten in Border Conference play.

Unbeaten Razorbacks Throttle Owls, 28-15

By RAY STEPHENS

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 6 (AP)—Arkansas' undefeated Razorbacks drove to two final quarter touchdowns to come from behind and smother the Rice Owls, 28-15, for their seventh straight football conquest.

The victory put the Porkers in the position of needing no more than a tie with SMU next Saturday to win their first clear-cut Southwest Conference title since 1936.

While a capacity crowd of 38,000 looked on, the Razorbacks' great Henry Moore riddled the Rice line and sophomore tailback George Walker passed with perfection to give the Hogs an eight-game winning streak, starting with the final game of the 1953 season.

Rice had appeared to be unstoppable on the ground, where Dicky Moegle, undoubtedly the best running back Arkansas has faced all year, and a bevy of talented companions time and again racked up long gains.

But Arkansas' upstart Hogs were not to be denied, and twice came from behind.

The game had been billed as a duel between Moegle, the Southwest's top rusher and leading scorer, and Moore, who stands second to the Rice ace in both departments.

Neither of the men let the fans down as both turned in sparkling performances.

Moore, noted for his high diving plunges, scored one Arkansas touchdown and set up another with three short bucks into the line. The Arkansas star carried 25 times for 85 yards.

Moegle was by far the outstanding player on the field. The big, swift halfback never got across the Arkansas goal line, but he carried the ball 12 times for 117 yards; returned four punts for 73 yards, and caught three passes for 27 yards.

The Owls were first to get on the scoreboard. Arkansas's Joe Wilson fumbled the ball on the Razorbacks' 17 in the second period and Rice's Don Wilson fell on it. Rice marched to the goal in seven plays with quarterback John Nisbet sneaking across from the one. Jack Throckmorton's kick was wide.

The aroused Razorbacks took the kickoff and marched 73 yards to go ahead, 7-6. Arkansas moved goalward on Moore's short plunges, never less than two nor more than seven yards, and Walker's superb passing. The young tailback completed four throws to account for 58 yards of the drive, and then carried over from the two to score.

A weird play which caught Rice standing idle gave Arkansas its next touchdown early in the third. Walker took a punt from Atchley Proctor on his 27 and moved to the 31, where he was hit. Walker spun away from the tackler and raced the rest of the way to score—a 73-yard run. The Owls apparently thought Walker had been stopped and recovered from their mistake too late to catch him.

Rice retaliated quickly. Moegle returned the kickoff 43 yards to the Arkansas 38, and six plays later Rice had its second touchdown. Proctor sneaked across from the one after substitute Halfback Bryant Stone and fullback Mac Taylor had run up 40 yards on two carries each.

The next time Rice got the ball, the Owls drove to the 17, where Arkansas held. The Owls sent in Jerry Hall, a reserve fullback and Hall booted a field goal to put Rice in front, 15-14.

Arkansas took the kick and drove 72 yards, with the help of a 15-yard penalty for unnecessary roughness, to go ahead to stay. Walker hit end Walt Matthews with a pass on the 16 and as Matthews fell out of bounds, he was tackled hard by Rice's Larry Lundstredt. The officials put the ball on the one, and Moore plunged across on the next play.

A pass interception by Benny Berry, a reserve playing his first game for Arkansas, gave the Porkers their last touchdown. Berry returned the ball 13 yards and two plays later Walker hit right tackle for 38 yards and a touchdown.

Mustangs Decision Texas Aggies, 6-3

By JOE BENHAM

DALLAS, Nov. 6 (AP)—Southern Methodist struck with a desperate second-half fury that beat down drive after drive by Texas A&M today to beat the Aggies 6-3 and stayed in the thick of the fight for the Southwest Conference title.

The Mustangs, with only a tie marring their conference record, stayed within striking distance of unbeaten Arkansas with today's victory. The Mustangs meet the Porkers next week to decide the championship.

Today's triumph was an uphill one for the Mustangs, who entered the second quarter trailing 3-0 and more than that in the statistics as a result of fired-up play by the Aggies that kept them in control of the ball most of the time in the first two periods.

Elwood Kettler's booted field goal in the first period gave the Aggies their lead.

SMU won the game in the third period when Duane Nutt crashed over from the one to end a 59-yard march.

It was homecoming for SMU and the annual "corps trip" for A&M, a combination that drew 44,037 persons to the sun-drenched Cotton Bowl.

The game looked like a replay of earlier Aggie games, but rarely resembled the wide-open, pass-filled play of SMU in earlier games.

The Mustangs were unable to keep the pace that they usually set, falling behind A&M in first downs and 72-62 in yards rushing in the first half.

They came back in the second half to dominate play and edge the Aggies 15-14 in total first downs and 231 to 142 in yards rushing, but trailed in passing 95 yards to 76.

It was the big and brutal SMU line that finally made the difference. Sparked by end Ray Berry, guard Tommy Hairston and tackle Erick Knebel, the Mustangs forced A&M into the air and stalled them at the gates to victory.

The Aggie pointage came at the end of a bogged-down march at the start of the kickoff and rolled up four first downs in quick succession on a march that took the ball to the SMU 8 before Berry and Nutt broke up two passes and Berry smacked Kettler on a ground play to bring up the fourth down field goal try.

Kettler, who gave the Cotton Bowl crowd a steady display of cool, confident talent all afternoon, stepped back and booted the ball through the center.

SMU's third period tally wound up a drive balanced by fine passing and strong ground work. Don McIlhenny started it with a burst through left tackle for a first down on the A&M 45. Five running plays and two long passes later, Nutt smashed into the center of the line and bulled on over. John Marshall set the play up with an eight-yard spurt off tackle.

Tommy Beal's kick was halted by Henry Clark to leave it at 6-3.

Wisconsin Is Winner, 34-13

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 6 (AP)—Big Alan Ameche crunched out 59 yards to become the greatest ground-gainer in college football history today as Wisconsin barreled over Northwestern, 34-13, in a big Ten game before a record-equalling crowd of 53,131 at Camp Randall Stadium.

The 210-pound fullback, "The Horse" the Badgers have ridden for four years, smashed an NCAA rushing record set three years ago by Ollie Matson at San Francisco University, as he ran his total to 3,186 yards in 660 carries. Matson's mark was 3,166 yards.

Ameche scored one touchdown and Jimmy Miller passed for two as Wisconsin racked up its third conference triumph against two setbacks. Miller's replacement at quarterback, Jim Haluska, connected on a 9-yard pass for a fourth touchdown and sophomore halfback Billy Lowe cashed the other on a 23-yard sprint.

Northwestern got its brace of touchdowns on 2-yard shots by little Georgie Gondek and John Foster to cap long drives sparked by Dale Pienta's consistent short passing.

Maryland Eases Past North Carolina, 42-14

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Nov. 6 (AP)—Maryland strengthened its bid for a second straight trip to the Orange Bowl by running up a three-touchdown lead in the first half and coasting to a 42-14 football victory over North Carolina today as 21,000 watched.

The Terrapins scored in the first period on Ronnie Waller's 61-yard punt return and in the last quarter on George Albrecht's 20-yard pass return.

In between there were four Maryland touchdown marches guided by Sam Tamburello and Charley Boxold, ranging from 70 to 95 yards.

Maroons Ease Past Eagles

STATE COLLEGE, Miss., Nov. 6 (AP)—Mississippi State's Maroons alternated power and passes in a dazzling show of scoring might today, smothering North Texas State, 48-26, before 10,000 homecoming fans.

Mississippi State counted five times on the ground and twice through the air in dominating the one-sided intersectional football contest.

No standout emerged from the mass Mississippi State attack, although two plays after the kickoff Joe Silveri raced 63 yards for the first Maroons touchdown and Bill Glasgow added the first of his four conversions.

After that six other Maroon backs hit pay-dirt one way or another. Dean Renfro counted for North Texas State with a 62-yard touchdown sprint and Jack Hayes tied up the game 7-7 with his extra point. But only moments later Mississippi State quarterback Bobby Collins pitched a 14-yard touchdown strike to end Levaine Hollingshead in the end zone.

Trojans Look To Rose Bowl

PALO ALTO, Calif., Nov. 6 (AP)—Opportunist Southern California converted two fumbles and an intercepted pass into a 21-7 Pacific Coast Conference football victory over Stanford today and virtually clinched a bid to the Rose Bowl before a crowd of 38,000.

The big Trojans, who now have a 5-0 conference record, capitalized on their first break in the opening period when guard Orlando Ferrante scooped up a fumble on the Indian 35. From the 17, quarterback Jim Contratto threw a wobbly pass to left half Aramis Dandoy who snagged it in the end zone.

Southern California snapped up another Stanford fumble on the Indian 17 in the third quarter. Contratto passed to Dandoy for 16 to the 1 and the quarterback went over on a sneak.

Dandoy intercepted a Stanford pass on his own 1 and raced back to the 25 in the fourth and the Trojans marched 75 yards on 12 ground plays. Left half Ron Brown went the last 15. Sam Tsgalakis converted all three points.

Late in the fourth Stanford drove 5 yards in seven plays with fullback Joe Moreau going 4 for the score. Hank Roland converted.

Iowa Downs Purdue, 25-14

IOWA CITY, Nov. 6 (AP)—A bruising Iowa football team struck Purdue for a 25-0 halftime lead today and had more than enough in reserve for a 25-14 victory.

The pummelling blasted Purdue out of the Big Ten title race and a possible Rose Bowl appearance, the same fate Wisconsin met on the same field only a week ago.

It was the second loss in four games for the Boilermakers.

Iowa gave the 52,900 fans a smashing performance in the first half. Iowa's relentless ground attack got two spectacular touches from halfbacks Eddie Vincent and Earl Smith.

Vincent rambled 96 yards for Iowa's fourth and final touchdown in the second quarter to establish a modern conference record from rushing.

Smith's sparkler was a 68-yard punt return that produced a 12-0 Iowa lead with only 14 seconds showing in the first period when "Easy Earl" finished his run.

Kentucky's Wildcats Sink Vanderbilt, 19-7

LEINGTON, Ky., Nov. 6 (AP)—Second stringers Delmar Hughes and Don Netoskie pumped life into a listless Kentucky attack today and gave the Wildcats their working margin for a 19-7 victory over winless Vanderbilt.

Hughes' passing and Netoskie's running were mainly responsible for a three touchdown second quarter that carried the Wildcats to their fifth win in eight games and clinched a first division berth for them in the Southeastern Conference.

Vandy, with a return to action of its injured star, Charlie Horton, was helpless most of the afternoon and lost its sixth game in a row, a record losing string for the Commodores.

California Grinds Out Win Over Washington

SEATTLE, Nov. 6 (AP)—California's burly Bears chewed out a 28-6 Pacific Coast Conference football victory over Washington's Huskies today, using the talented arm of the nation's leading passer, Paul Larson, for a two-touchdown finishing splurge.

A homecoming crowd of 36,5500 had little to cheer for until the Huskies finally got a touchdown drive going in the final period against the California reserves.

Missouri, Colorado Fight To 19-19 Tie

COLUMBIA, Mo., Nov. 6 (AP)—Missouri's Bob Bauman smashed two feet with a minute and six seconds remaining for a touchdown that gave Missouri a 19-19 tie with Colorado in a Big Seven football game today and probably eliminated both teams from Orange Bowl consideration.

Ray Detring's try for the conversion that would have kept Missouri in the bowl picture was blocked by Frank Bernardi of the Buffaloes. The ball hit Bernardi flush in the face, breaking his nose.

Bauman scored after Colorado had stopped one Missouri threat six inches short of pay dirt.

Today's ding-dong game left Missouri with a 2-1-1 Big Seven record and Colorado 2-2-1. A crowd of 24,000 watched in warm clear weather.

Nebraska Takes 41-20 Victory Over Kansas

LAWRENCE, Kan., Nov. 6 (AP)—Nebraska got a splendid ground performance from a stable of fleet backs today and took a long step toward an Orange Bowl assignment by wearing down a scrappy Kansas football team, 41-20, in a Big Seven Conference Homecoming game.

The victory gave the surging Huskers a 5-2 over-all record and left them with a 4-2 mark in the Big Seven. N. U. has only Oklahoma left to play. It was Kansas' eighth loss in as many starts.

The Nebraskans used the forward pass sparingly but when they did it was a deadly weapon, thanks to their awesome ground threat.

Nebraska rushed for 416 yards. It tried only four passes but completed two and one went for a touchdown.

Agricultural Tour Scheduled Tuesday

The second agricultural tour of the year to be made here by farmers, ranchers, and businessmen is scheduled for Tuesday.

The tour was set by the Chamber of Commerce agriculture committee, headed by Max West. It will start Tuesday morning when those attending will gather at 8:45 o'clock in the morning at the livestock barn in Towle Memorial Park.

Ranch visits will be made throughout the day, and a free lunch will be provided at the stock barn at noon by the wholesale oil and gas dealers of Snyder and the Snyder National Farm Loan Association. They included Herman Doak, Gulf distributor; Claude McCormick, Phillips 66; W. A. McGlaun, Texas Co.; Bill Line, Standard of Texas; J. H. Sullivan, Humble; N. W. Autry, Magnolia; Carl Herod, Conoco; Prentis Bass, Cosden; W. J. Barber, Cities Service; and West, who is manager of the farm loan association.

West urged all persons interested in new and improved ranching methods to attend the tour. The general farm tour, which was held in August, was conducted in a similar manner to this one and was well-attended.

At the noon lunch, J. C. Porter, manager of the agriculture department of the First National Bank of Wichita Falls, will be main speaker. He is also director of 4-H and FFA activities at the Texas-Oklahoma Fair, co-chairman of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce agriculture and livestock committee, and serves on agriculture and conservation committees of the Kiwanis Club, Chamber of Commerce, Birdwell Soil Builders Awards Program, and the Wichita Falls area soil conservation district. Once an employe of the Soil Conservation Service, he was in charge of part of the first upstream flood control work done on the Trinity River.

A full day's tour was planned by a sub-committee headed by Jake Hodges. Giving explanations of conditions at the stops during the tour will be Herschel Bell of Amarillo, range specialist for the Soil Conservation Service.

During the morning, the tour will include a spreader dam demonstration at the Hugh Taylor Ranch west of Snyder, brush control and blue panic grass demonstration at the Jack Martin Ranch west of Snyder, and deferred pasture grazing demonstration at the Shannon Estate west of town.

In the afternoon, the group will see pasture pitting demonstrations and pasture furrowing at the Audrey Head Ranch west of town.

Button Clover Is Doing Well

By SAM WHITLOW
Texas Editor, Farmer-Stockman Magazine

MCKINNEY, Tex., Nov. 6 (AP) — Button clover is making good headway in the Collin County Soil Conservation District.

J. M. Norton and E. R. Post of the Collin district office say that farmers of the area are interested in the clover because it seems to fit the soil and climatic conditions. Demand for the seed has been strong.

The seed usually are planted in the fall at the rate of 5 to 6 pounds per acre. This is where the clover seed are overplanted in pasture grass.

Some farmers have planted button clover with oats, using about 2 busheis of oats and 10 pounds of clover. This provides a good oat and clover hay, which is cut when oats are in the dough stage. Farmers report it makes a good quality hay.

Norton and Post explained that when button clover is overseeded on pasture, the clover seed are drilled in. By using this method, the grass is not disturbed.

Most of the clover for this region has already been planted, but soil conservationists say there is still time for planting, provided the seed are put down soon.

Louis Robinson, near Celina, has had good results with button clover. The clover was overseeded in a King Ranch Bluestem pasture in the fall of 1952. The bluestem was seeded in the spring of 1949, and furnished considerable grazing each year after it was planted. This combination can furnish grazing up to 10 months a year. Under favorable moisture conditions, longer grazing could be provided.

Farmers in the Gunter area of Grayson County report good results with button clover.

Farm Bureau Members Go To Convention

Several members of the Scurry County Farm Bureau were leaving this weekend for Galveston, where they will attend the state Farm Bureau convention tomorrow through Wednesday.

The group took 11 resolutions adopted by the local bureau to be presented at the convention. The resolutions were adopted last week, when the bureau elected its new directors for the coming two years.

New directors are T. B. Knight, Sam Chorn, C. A. (Jack) Ramsey, Buford Sterling, White Farmer, and Billy Jo Clifton. Holdover directors are C. H. Stahl, president; M. W. Bavousett, vice-president; M. L. Andress, secretary-treasurer; E. H. Williams, C. A. Wade, J. J. Henry, and Dee Pylant.

Delegates to the convention are Stahl, Knight, Dale Hess, O. C. Hess, and Ramsey.

Resolutions the delegates are taking with them include opposition to the effort to tax non-highway used gasoline in the next state legislature and a proposal that the state continue to refund to farmers money collected in lieu of tax; support of a state or federal law or both that all synthetic ingredients used in lieu of natural proteins be declared and so stamped on tags of all feeds sold; proposal that all milk sold for human use be labeled as to butter content; proposal that a special effort be made to expend and encourage use of more fluid milk and milk products to be used in the public school lunch program; that Texas A&M College continue and increase its cotton research program; that there be a farmer member on the pink boll worm control commission; that the Farm Bureau ask for at least 90 per cent parity, with acreage controls when needed; that parity be based on net income in comparison to industry and labor; that publicity be given to the fact that the farmer receives no more subsidy than other industries "but on the contrary receives a less degree of aid than many other industries according to percentage of investment;" and that any farmer failing to plant his allotment of any designated crop be penalized the following year only if failure for not complying is within his control.

Pvt. Glen R. Crank of Snyder has completed a course at the Ordnance Automotive School at Atlanta General Depot, Ga. He is a former employe of Magnolia Petroleum Co. here.

Six European nations — Luxembourg, Andorra, Liechtenstein, San Marino, Monaco and Vatican City —have a total area smaller than that of the King Ranch in Texas.

Here's a new twist on the benefits of raising guar. B. J. Clifton has said he likes the way his guar land plows.

"I could tell when I hit the guar land by the way it plowed," he said, adding that the soil was more crumbly and plowed much easier with the same equipment. Guar is a summer legume which has been tested under droughty conditions during the past two years by cooperators of the Upper Colorado Soil Conservation District.

A large field of guar can be seen on the A. J. O'Neal farm three miles east of Snyder. The greatest dividends from guar, says Jake Hodges of the Soil Conservation Service, can probably be obtained through green manuring of the legume. Crops following guar should pay off well, provided there is average rainfall. Such crops will be watched closely by farmers in this area next year.

• • •

Audry Head has been running a test with his sheep to find out how well they like blue panic grass. They were turned into a field which had Johnson grass, sudan grass, and blue panic, along with other feed crops. He was pleased with the way they ate the blue panic, he said, and added that since they like the grass he would like to get several acres started next year. Jack Martin is also giving the grass a palatability test, running cattle instead of sheep. He came out with the same results, however, when he grazed the cattle on a field which had redtop cane, hegari, and blue panic. After about two days the cattle began to spend most of their time in the blue panic patch. Both of these men's places are included in the range tour to be held Tuesday.

"Be sure to leave that dead litter cover crop undisturbed on any land you intend to seed to grass next spring," advises Hodges. A dead litter cover crop is a necessity in getting a stand of grass established on all types of soil here.

"Of course we are going to need rain to get grass seedling up. We will also need a dead litter cover crop to reduce evaporation and furnish protection for the young tender plants," he said.

King Edward II of England defined the inch as equal to three grains of barley laid end to end.

Matador Cleared Of Bull Slaying Charge

LISBON, Portugal, Nov. 6 (AP) — Manuel dos Santos, a leading Portuguese matador now retired, was acquitted today of a charge that he illegally slew a bull in the local bull ring 3½ years ago.

The incident occurred in June 1951 just after Dos Santos had returned from a tour of Mexico and Spain. The killing of bulls in the ring is permitted in those countries. Dos Santos pleaded he killed the animal here in error.

Bullfight fans carried him from the courtroom on their shoulders, as matadors are carried from the ring after a good performance.

JOHN WHITE

Fisher Farm Union To Hear John White

John C. White, young state commissioner of agriculture, will be main speaker Nov. 19 for a meeting of the Fisher County Farmers Union in Roby.

The meeting is being held for presentation of the newly-organized union's charter from the State Farmers Union.

White was this year considered a possible candidate for governor, but he did not enter the race. He was elected to his present post in 1950, defeating J. E. McDonald, who had held the office for many years.

The farmers union in Fisher County, headed by Joe Dismore, adopted a resolusion in a recent meeting commending congressional representatives for the stand they have taken on the controversial 75 per cent to 90 per cent parity support of farm products. The resolution was sent to Senator Lyndon Johnson, Senator Price Daniel, and Omar Burleson and Martin Dies, representatives.

The Nov. 19 meeting will be held in the Roby High School auditorium. Nash Miers, chairman of a committee making plans for the meeting, said interest appears high for the meeting and White's visit. It is usually very hard, he said, to get any state official to visit a sparsely-settled county like Fisher except during political races, so the union is expecting a large crowd.

Dismore said the meeting will start at 2 o'clock on the afternoon on Nov. 19. Many farmers, he said, have not been working in any farm organization, adding that farmers "must make their voices heard if farm policies are to be guided by the farmers themselves." He believes, he said, that many present farm policies were developed by people who are not farmers and are not representative of farmer thinking.

VOL. 5, No. 163 SNYDER, TEXAS, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1954 SECTION B

Dividing interest this season with the shell-type miniature hats are the larger brimmed hats in a variety of colors and styles. Mrs. James C. Barnett, 3729 Avenue U, is shown above wearing a velour hat which is accented by a band studded with pearls outlined with beads which curls off the edge of the hat.

With Fall and Winter weather in the air, hats are becoming a more necessary item of women's apparel, but few of the hats are designed for protection from the elements. Mrs. Charles Hooser, 200 Thirty-fifth Street, wears a black velveteen shell hat with half-veil above, that achieves the purpose of most women's hats—it adds the well dressed look, and can be worn with most casual and "dressy" costumes. (Lee Watson photographs)

FALL HATS

An olive velveteen shell hat with half-veil and a feather-like spear which drapes over the right eye is the hat chosen for this season by Mrs. Derald Lambert, 3727 Avenue U. Designers of hats for this season have successfully turned out creations which look well with the fashionable short hair-dos, or long-hair styles retained by many women.

Mrs. Jay Rogers, 3702 Sunset, is shown above wearing a hat she selected to highlight many of the costumes in her wardrobe for this season. It is a black velveteen variation on the fitted style, polka dotted with rhinestones and has a half-veil. Like most petite hats of this season, the wearer may choose the angle she wishes and still achieve the flattering affect only a hat can give.

Church Women Observe World Community Day

World Community Day, sponsored by the United Church Women's department of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., was observed by United Church of Women of Snyder Friday morning at the Union Methodist Church.

"Light From the Lamp," a pageant directed by Mrs. Dale Clemmer, was presented in pantomime, its theme in keeping with the Christian Women's Program for Lasting Peace. Mrs. E. B. Boone, Mrs. Carl Arnold, Mrs. Lloyd Weathers and Mrs. Ted Zeck played the speaking roles and the pantomime roles were enacted by Mrs. Bill Starnes, Mrs. Billy Byington, Mrs. Jack Cole, Mrs. Jeff Brown, Mrs. Charles Duran, Mrs. Troy Stephenson, Mrs. Colin Killgo, Mrs. Bill Lewis and Mrs. Mary Glass.

Mrs. Robert White, soloist, sang "St. Agnes" as the call to worship and "Finlandia" as the hymn of dedication. Mrs. Robert Crowell accompanied her at the piano.

The World Community Day offering of the United Church Women of Snyder amounted to $46.50. Part of the money will go to the Church World Service Fund to help send U. S. government surplus food overseas and part of it will be used to help support the United Church Women's own official observer at the United Nations and the Christian Woman's Program for Peace.

All clothing and bedding collected by United Church Women will go to Palestine, Germany, Korea, Greece, Hong Kong, Italy and France, according to Mrs. Clemmer. The Snyder organization was pleased with the amount of clothing collected for shipment from here.

A covered-dish luncheon was held in the church following the morning service and program. Fall flowers were used in decorations and the plate favors also were flowers. Approximately 35 adults and 15 children were present.

VIVE LES CURVES

. . . Designer Oleg Cassini indicates the natural bustline on a pastel wool knit sheath from his new collection. Designed for cocktail or evening wear, the dress is bare-topped, snugly fitted, with long-torso lines and a matching jeweled cardigan.

Clothes Keep Curves In Next Season's Fashions

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Woman's Editor

The way to find out what women want to wear is to ask them, says Oleg Cassini, a designer known for clothes that dramatize the feminine figures.

Accordingly, when news of Christian Dior's move to minimize the bustline was flashed from Paris, this suave Italian consulted some of the young ladies with whom he is frequently seen at New York's smarter night spots.

"I found," says Cassini, "that the girls had no interest in the flat-chested look, and they preferred clothes that showed off their slim waistlines. After all, if you have a figure, why not make the most if it?"

His new collection for resort and early spring, therefore, preserves the curves, achieving a new look by use of the long-torso silhouette and longer jackets on suits.

"I don't believe in tampering with a woman's figure," continues Cassini. "The bosom remains as nature intended it. And my dresses also have waistlines."

Cassini believes in clothes that fit the kind of lives American women lead.

"If you can't sit down, breathe or walk in your new costume, you are not going to look either pretty or happy in it," he says. "Many French designers do not understand the American woman's active life, and that is why European clothes always have to be modified and adapted before they are successful over here."

In his new collection, Cassini highlights the sweater dress and the "sweater look." He shows sweater tops for evening gowns, knit daytime dresses with matching or contrasting cardigans, sweaters in all guises and for all occasions.

His knit outfits hug the midriff, curve snugly about the bosom, and often are belted around the hipline. But there's nothing either shapeless or flat-chested about them.

Couple At Home In Hermleigh

HERMLEIGH — Mr. and Mrs. Rex Glass are at home in Hermleigh following their recent marriage here.

Mrs. Glass is the former Juanita Simmons, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Simmons of Pyron. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Link Glass of Hermleigh.

The Rev. Bob Creswell performed the double-ring ceremony in the parsonage of the First Baptist Church. Bert Stahl and Patricia Davis attended the couple. The bride wore a light brown suit trimmed in black with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Several friends and relatives of the couple attended the ceremony.

Mrs. Glass is a senior in Hermleigh High School. Mr. Glass, a 1954 graduate of the school, is employed by Howell Electric in Snyder.

WMU District Meet Slated In Midland

The annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of district eight of the Baptist Convention will be held Wednesday at the First Baptist Church in Midland. Mrs. Saxon B. Swearingen of Denver City, president, will preside at both the morning and afternoon sessions. Featured speakers will be Eula Mae Henderson, executive secretary of the WMU of Texas, and Mrs. John Parker, a missionary to Chile now home on furlough.

Club Reports Need Of Children's Clothing

Clothing for children, especially coats and jeans, is needed at the used clothing center being operated by the Atheneum Study Club.

The clothing is being stored and distributed in a building in the 2300 block of Avenue S. The center is open from 2 to 5 p.m. each Thursday. Clothing may be left there at that time, or will be picked up if the donors will notify club members by calling 3-5834 or 3-5818. Families who need clothing may make application at the center.

Here's a new twist for pastry: add ¼ teaspoon ground nutmeg and teaspoon ground cloves to a package of piecrust mix; make up and rollout as usual. Use this spicy pastry with a fresh apple or fresh pear filling, sweetening the apples or pears with sugar and pointing up their flavor with a little grated lemon rind and lemon juice.

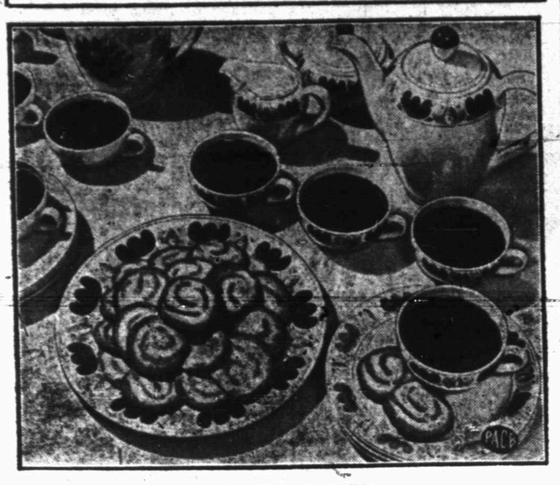
A Snack to Serve with Coffee After Church



PINWHEEL COOKIES
. . . A perfect party snack.

Helps For Homemakers

Send your questions to "Helps for Homemakers," Snyder Daily News, or call 3-5486.

Here's a recipe for easy-to-make Pinwheel Cookies that are so fitting with a cup of steaming hot coffee. They are spicy to taste and very pretty. You can make the dough on the day before you plan to serve the cookies, then roll it up and put it in the refrigerator. Next day, you slice it and bake it, then your party cookies are ready to serve.

PINWHEEL COOKIES

1 package cookie mix
2 tablespoons instant coffee
½ teaspoon cinnamon
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg
⅛ teaspoon allspice

Prepare cookie mix, following directions for rolled cookies. Divide dough in half. Combine instant coffee and spices. Knead into half of the dough until thoroughly mixed. Roll plain and spiced doughs separately into oblongs ⅛-inch thick and place one on top of the other. Now roll firmly like jelly roll, starting at narrow end, shaping into cylinder about 1½ inches in diameter and about 10 inches long. Wrap in waxed paper or foil. Chill. Slice crosswise into ¼-inch slices. Bake as directed on package. Makes about 40 cookies.

DRESS AND BOLERO

A party - time charmer, this smooth princess-cut dress with easy-to-sew panel-front styling, is topped by a brief little bolero.

No. 2079 is cut in sizes 10, 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. Size 16: Dress and bolero, 5 yds. 39-in. Dress alone 3-⅞ yds. 39-in.

25 YEARS AGO

(Taken from THE SCURRY COUNTY TIMES for Nov. 7, 1929.)

"Cease Firing!"

All along the immense front held by the Allied Armies on November 11, at 11 o'clock in the morning, the bugles sounded the notes, "Cease Firing!" confirming a telephone message sent down from the Rethondes.

That hour, one of the most solemn in the history of mankind, was not rung from the clock of any steeple. There was no clock left at the front — no steeple. . .

The all-important fact is that with the signing of the Armistice, just 11 years ago, the nations of the world heard the bugles sound "Cease Firing," and our economic and agricultural world has again settled down peacefully to the daily routine.

Cantrell Field at Colorado will be the scene of the Amristice Day football battle when the Snyder Tigers meet the Colorado Wolves Monday.

The game in all probability will determine the second place winners in this section of District 9, Class B, as both the Wolves and the Tigers have lost only one game, both dropping a game to the Roscoe Plowboys, who now have a neat cinch on the district championship. . .

In a game replete with all the thrills that attend a first-class football game, Simmons University "Frosth" defeated the Snyder Tigers last Thursday afternoon 7 to 0 on a lucky break in the second quarter. Right End Hudman for the visitors caught a fumble in the air that followed a forward pass signal and raced without hesitation to a touchdown. . .

The Press Club of the Snyder High School published the first edition of "The Tigers Tale" last week.

Mary Doe acted as editor-in-chief of this issue, but had tendered her resignation by the time the paper was out. Her place is to be filled this week when the student body will elect an editor.

The question as to whether or not Snyder High would publish an annual this year was settled last week. In all of the meetings called for the annual, "it died." . . The annual published last year was unusually good for a high school annual, but after every available opportunity for reductions had been seized it cost about $1,200. This cost every student from $2.50 to $4.50. In view of these facts and others, it was considered best to put fourth efforts in another direction for this year.

Dior's Only U.S. Show Scheduled In Dallas

DALLAS, Nov. 6 (AP)—The only showing of Christian Dior's Paris collection of women's fashions in the United States will be given in Dallas Nov. 18, with Dior's models from Paris wearing them.

The collection includes 50 daytime, afternoon and evening ensembles.

The collection will be shown at Neiman-Marcus here. Proceeds from the presentation will go to the Dallas Council for Retarded Children.

Classroom Teachers Set Executive Meet

An executive meeting of the Snyder Classroom Teachers' Association is to be held at 4 p.m. Tuesday in the office of the Junior High School.

Business to be discussed at the meeting includes plans for this year's program and cooperation in the United Fund campaign. Plans for the TSTA meeting in Fort Worth November 25-27 will also be heard, Ethel Roberts, association president, said.

Acacia Club Meets

The Rev. Edward Chrisman was guest speaker at the Acacia Study Club meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bill Eiland, 2503 Thirty-second Street. Lamoyne Harrell was hostess to the club. "More Effective Living Through the Church" was the topic of his address.

Mrs. Jim George, program leader, introduced Mr. Chrisman. Refreshments were served to 20 members and three guests. Guests were Mrs. E. E. Aldridge, Mrs. Elmo Weyel and Betty Sanders.

DO IT YOURSELF

Do you have young children in your family? If so you'll get a thrill out of giving a Christmas present that you were able to make yourself. First there is an unusual horse head that will turn a tricycle into a galloping pony. Then there is a rolling duck, that bobs its tail up and down as he moves when pulled along with a string. The third toy is a smart wagon, which can also be pulled and which has a special coupling to let the youngster attach other rolling toys. To build the toy trio you need Bill Baker's pattern No. 130, with instructions for assembling included in each pattern package. To get your toy trio pattern package, send your name and address, clearly printed, together with one dollar to Bill Baker, Snyder Daily News, Box 1111, Los Angeles 53, Calif. Remember to ask for pattern No. 130.

Faye Harrell Captures Top Award At Flower Show Here

By ANITA HALL

Faye Harrell won the sweepstakes award at the annual Fall Flower Show sponsored by the Snyder Garden Club Friday afternoon in the exhibit building at Towle Memorial Park. Tri-color honors went to Mrs. S. L. Terry, Mrs. Frank Miller, Fluvanna, and Mrs. John Keller.

The entries were grouped into three divisions — table settings, horticulture (pot plants and cut flowers) and arrangements. Mrs. Keller won first with her formal Christmas Buffet Luncheon and Mrs. Robert Wasson won second with her setting for a formal Fall Buffet. In informal settings, Mrs. J. T. Hughes' Breakfast for Two received honorable mention for her Informal Luncheon setting. Mrs. Wade Winston won second and Mrs. W. A. McGlaun won third on their dinner settings.

There were 49 entries in the horticulture division. Plants and winners in this division were: Hybrid Tea Rose — Mrs. Bill Davidson first and Faye Harrell second; Hybrid Tea Buds, Mrs. Terry first, Mrs. A. B. Casstevens, second; Floribunda Rose, Mrs. Hughes first, Mrs. Scott Casey, second; Chrysanthemums, Mrs. Hughes, first and Faye Harrell second. Mrs. Terry won the tri-color in the mum division with her Spider Mum. Dahlias, Myrtle Harrell first, Faye Harrell second; Iris, Mrs. Miller, first and Faye Harrell second. In the Annuals and Perennials divisions Mrs. Jack Gore won a first and second, Faye Harrell, Myrtle Harrell and Naomi Strayhorn each won a first. In Ornamental Grasses, Myrtle Harrell won first and Mrs. Gore won second. Mrs. Wayne Boren won first and Mrs. F. G. Sears second on their Pycantha Shrub entries. In the Pot Plant division Mrs. Miller won the tri-color with her African Violet entry and another first, Mrs. M. L. Broman won second.

The six classes of the Arrangements Division and their winners were: fruit and vegetable arrangements, Mrs. Wasson won first, Mrs. Gore second; dried arrangements, Mrs. Broman first, Mrs. R. H. Melton second; coffee table arrangements, Mrs. Miller first, Mrs. Hughes second; miniature arrangements not over three inches high, Mrs. Miller first, Mrs. Gore second; miniature arrangements not over eight inches high, Mrs. Gore first, Myrtle Harrell second; mass line division, Mrs. Miller won tri-color award, Mrs. Bill Davidson won second.

Winners in the entries made by non-club members were Mrs. H. C. Wren first, Mrs. J. E. LeMond won a second, Joe Nachlinger of Hermleigh won two seconds, Mrs. Ben Layton won third.

There were four educational exhibits on grasses supplied by J. Hodge of the Soil Conservation Service. City Floral and Bell's Flower Shop had several displays on exhibit.

Judges for the event were Mrs. J. A. Koegler, Mrs. Dick Hodges and Mrs. James Ikard of Midland.

Approximately 250 persons attended the show.

Sweepstakes winner of the flower show Friday was Faye Harrell, 3609 Avenue V. Her entries won 10 points in the horticultural and arrangement divisions giving her the top score of the show. She is sitting beside the second section of the perennial exhibition. About 250 people attended the show sponsored by the Snyder Garden Club. (Lee Watson photograph)

Mary Jo Harrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Harrell, Lamesa highway, was elected a member of the Y.W.C.A. Board and president of the Bridge Club in student elections held this week at Southern Seminary and Junior College, Buena Vista, Va. Bogart Back In Same Old Movie Role

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The movie whirl—

Humphrey Bogart is back at his old stand with a gun in his hand.

Back in 1936 he made his debut as a tough guy in "Petrified Forest" (he had appeared in films earlier, but as a juvenile). He played the desperado Duke Mantee, who took over and terrorized the inhabitants of a roadside cafe.

Today he's playing an escaped convict who bullies a suburban family in "The Desperate Hours." Some progress, huh? I told him I didn't think so.

This brought out the Duke Mantee in him. He has a knack of adopting the character he is playing at the time. When he was doing "Sabrina," he was every bit the witty, dapper business executive he was playing. Now he was a stubble-faced, scarred convict and he acted the part.

"Now isn't that a bright remark," he remonstrated. "You reporters are all alike—always go for the obvious."

After he played a scene of menacing one of the children in the family, he returned with this observation: "Say a guy starts out from New York, goes around the world and comes back to New York. You'd say he was back in the same place."

"Well, I'm like that guy who went around the world. I may be back in the same place. But I've been somewhere."

He said there was a slight difference between the two jobs. He was paid $500 a week for "Petrified Forest." Today he earns $250,000 per picture.

Over at RKO they're making a picture with the improbable title of "Bow Tamely to Me." Now you know that title has got to go.

Especially at RKO. There they change titles at the drop of a Howard Hughes' whim. Recently they shot a picture called "Where the Wind Dies." It is now in release as "Passion." A film with the reasonable title of "The Big Rainbow" is being tagged "Underwater." The "..." is part of the title, mind you.

I asked Barbara Stanwyck about "Bow Tamely to Me," in which she stars. "It makes sense," she remarked. "The picture is about elephants in Burma, and that's a command they give elephants.

"But of course we can't educate the American public to that. We're looking for a new title.

"Yes, I think titles are important to selling a picture. A case in point is 'Roman Holiday.' It was a delightful film, but the public shied away because they thought it was a travelogue or a religious film."

Note: At press time, they landed a new title—"Escape to Burma."

Substitutions Made In Queen Mother's Tour

WASHINGTON (AP)—Visits to the Congressional Library and perhaps other Washington tourist attractions were substituted on English Queen Mother Elizabeth's schedule today for a tentatively planned trip to President Eisenhower's Gettysburg farm home.

The White House said bad weather caused cancellation of the earlier plans for the Queen Mother and Mrs. Eisenhower to go to Gettysburg and to the presidential mountain retreat, Camp David, in the Catoctin Mountains.

Easy Friday Night Supper: Dip shelled cleaned shrimps in a barbecue sauce and broil. Open a can of potato sticks and heat while the shrimp are broiling; make a big salad and have plenty of rolls on hand. For dessert? A bowl of fruit and cookies made from a mix.

Lorene Roemisch, crowned Hermleigh Football Queen at Friday night's homecoming game, is shown seated on the decorated throne she occupied during the second half of the game. A senior student, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Roemisch. Attending the queen were, left to right, Jonelle Light, Sue Ann Mayo and Sandra Sturdivant, members of the pep squad formed a double line through which the queen and her attendants were escorted by football team members for the coronation. Hermleigh, Pyron Ex-Students Gather For Homecoming Event

By ALINE PARKS

HERMLEIGH — More than 200 former students of Hermleigh and Pyron schools registered for a full night of Homecoming activity here Friday.

An informal supper in the school cafeteria got the evening's program underway. It was followed by a gathering of the Ex-Student Association. Lorene Roemisch was crowned football queen at half-time in the homecoming football game, dedicated to the fathers of Hermleigh football players. Ex-students met at the school again after the game for coffee and cake before calling the Homecoming complete.

Mrs. Geral Greene, president of the Ex-Student Association, served as mistress of ceremonies for the pre-game association meeting. A. C. Bishop of Sweetwater, a former school principal and superintendent in Hermleigh, was guest speaker. Leon Hale, a graduate of Hermleigh High School and now a resident and college student in Abilene, gave the invocation.

Mrs. Olivia Caffey Johnson from Hyattesville, Md., was presented a corsage in recognition of being the ex-student who traveled the farthest to attend. Several other members of the Caffey family were also present, and Bishop called for a count of the Caffey, Nachlinger and Pieper families to see which had the largest representation.

In a brief business session, Mrs. Dale Hess was elected president of the Ex-Student Association. Mrs. James Davidson was named first vice president, Foster Watson second vice president and Mrs. Herman Richburg third vice president. W. C. Rea was re-elected secretary and Mrs. Dub Wright was re-elected treasurer. All elections were by acclamation. A suggestion that next year's homecoming date be set at the meeting was bypassed when a member of the association pointed out that the football schedule was not yet known. The date was tentatively set to correspond with the final home football game.

Friendship is the real basis for school homecomings, Bishop said, and learning to make friends is one of the most important things any student learns in school. Bishop complimented the ex-students on the support they had given Hermleigh schools as is manifested in their backing of the football team, their interest in improving the facilities and program of the school, and many other ways.

Bishop, who was the coach for Hermleigh High School's first football team, recalled that his team won its first game from Fluvanna 32 to 0. More trying days for the football squad came during the war years. The team had only two substitutes for one game with Loraine, Bishop said. "We scored 32 points in the first half and Loraine made 28 in the second half," he said. "We just outlasted them."

Bishop also recalled the organization of the first band in the school, and the annuals which the students made by hand. The Hermleigh girls' volleyball team had won county championships for 14 consecutive years at one time, he said, and two Hermleigh girls were named to the all-state basketball team one year when the team came near winning a state title.

It is still a pleasure to meet former Hermleigh students and to remember days of association with the school, Bishop said, reiterating that friendships begun in school are the true basis for such successful homecomings as this.

Representatives of classes from the first graduating class in 1913 through 1954 were asked to stand and be recognized following Bishop's address. One student who attended the school in 1909 when no high school diploma was offered, the former Pearl Clift, asked that students who had attended the school when it was Wheat, stand. Five persons from the Wheat school were present.

Registration slips showed ex-students attending from Hermleigh, Snyder, Pyron, Odessa, Sweetwater, Roscoe, Lubbock, Loraine, Hale Center, Ropes, Altus, Okla., and some other area towns. Assisting with registration were Mrs. Dale Hess, chairman, Orville Hess, Billisue Groves, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schattel, Lowell Light, Walter Ammons, Fred Bowen, Nita Faye Kight and Clara Mae Myers.

Fathers of Hermleigh football players seated along the sideline during the game were T. J. Hillis, Glenn Tate, Dean Smith, Buford Light, Hugh Robinson, Carl Tarter, Frank Roemisch, Frank Nachlinger, W. B. Etheredge, O. W. Goodman, John Vernon, James Davidson, Lonnie Bruce, Raymond May, J. M. Wilcox, W. E. McMillan, H. N. Hindman, Bill Jordan, J. C. Stahl and Sam Houston. Geral Greene was an honorary member of the group.

Infant Decides Sherman Right

WASHINGTON (AP)—So far as six-week-old Charles Harris is concerned, war is what Sherman said it is.

Charlie couldn't take it last night in the freezing open countryside of nearby Maryland, where more than 30 students and faculty members of Washington Missionary College shivered through the night in an unusual test of survival from simulated A-bomb attack.

"Operation Survival" is an experiment staged by the Seventh Day Adventist church in cooperation with civil defense agencies to devise ways of meeting national emergencies, such as atomic attack.

Charlie is the infant son of biology Prof. Lester Harris of the church's missionary college. He was taken along with his mother and father, his 20-month-old sister, Debby, and 3-year-old brother, "Jay Jay."

The weather was too much for Charlie and Debby. In the cold pre-dawn darkness, their father packed them up and drove them home.

"When they started turning blue, I feared it was time to take them back," Harris said.

The rest of the band, however, stuck it out in the damp creek bottom near Spencerville, Md. They are spending the weekend there with no shelter but bed rolls under conditions which presumably would prevail if Washington were attacked.

Chain Plans More Stores

DALLAS, Nov. 6 (AP)—The largest food chain in Texas in number of outlets—7-Eleven Stores of Texas, Inc.—today announced a major reorganization of its chain of command to facilitate expansion to 500 stores by 1960.

The system now has 150 stores in 15 Texas cities.

It will be split into the northern division with jurisdiction over 99 stores in the Dallas and Fort Worth areas and the southern division with jurisdiction over 51 stores in the Houston, Austin and Waco-Temple areas.

Thomas L. Brooks of Dallas will head the southern division and Vaughn Heady, Fort Worth district manager, will head the northern division.

The changes are effective Monday.

Clifford Wheeler, president of 7-Eleven Stores, said "our aim in the northern division is to concentrate on new methods of service to our customers while in the south we shall concentrate on expansion. With only half as many stores in the southern half of Texas we feel there is a great opportunity for growth there."

Wheeler said 7-Eleven has opened 25 new stores since the first of the year and indicated that new stores are planned for more cities and towns, particularly along the Gulf Coast, early next year.

Forrest Stout, now Central Texas district manager, will become the new merchandise and promotion manager with offices in Dallas. E. Kay Lance of Dallas will replace Stout in Waco.

Mrs. C. W. Hogan, seated, and daughter, Lera Anne, moved to Snyder early in the week with Mr. Hogan. He is the new golf pro at the Country Club. They moved here from Stamford where he held a similar position at the Stamford Country Club. (Lee Watson photograph)

New Governors Have Background Contrasts

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—A Medal of Honor winner and a native of Sweden are among the new governors elected last Tuesday. Here are thumbnail profiles of some of the new statehouse leaders:

SOUTH DAKOTA — Joe Foss, 39, Republican, is a newcomer as governor but not to the headlines. He was one of the nation's top heroes as a Marine pilot in World War II, shooting down 26 Japanese planes on Guadalcanal and winning the Medal of Honor. At 39, he is the youngest governor in South Dakota's history, but has been aiming at the seat since his election to the state Legislature seven years ago. He barely missed the governorship in 1950.

CONNECTICUT—Abraham Ribicoff, 44, Democrat, is the son of Russian-Jewish immigrants. He views his election as proof of the "American dream" — that a boy may achieve success no matter what his economic, social or religious background. He worked as a newsboy, store clerk, errand boy and construction laborer before becoming a lawyer, a state legislator, and serving two terms in the U.S. House.

MINNESOTA—Orville Freeman, 36, Democrat, scored an upset over Gov. C. Elmer Anderson. Freeman was wounded in the Pacific in World War II as a Marine lieutenant. The young Minneapolis lawyer was beaten for attorney general in 1950 and for governor in 1952. Sen. Hubert Humphrey's big margin helped pull him through this time.

VERMONT — Joseph B. Johnson, 61, a white-haired businessman, maintains a century of Republican supremacy here. A native of Sweden who came to America as an infant, he went in the machine tool business, worked his way to the top, retired to enter state politics. Served in state house and senate, had two terms as lieutenant governor.

WYOMING — Milward Simpson, Republican, a wealthy lawyer and businessman, is a descendant of pioneer Indian fighters. He was a football, baseball, basketball star at Wyoming University in the 20s, an Army lieutenant in World War I. Served as state legislator, and was an unsuccessful GOP candidate for senator in 1940, he was an early Eisenhower-for-president leader. He will be 57 next Friday.

NEW MEXICO — John F. Simms Jr., Democrat, will become New Mexico's youngest governor at 38. He is a member of a politically and socially prominent New Mexico family. An Albuquerque attorney, he was speaker of state house in 1949, started tireless campaign for governorship years ago. He stressed face-to-face greetings rather than formal statements.

IDAHO—Robert E. Smylie, 40, Republican, entered state politics with an appointment as attorney general in 1947 and was elected to a four-year term in 1950. A native of Iowa, he played football while working his way through College of Idaho, practiced law for a while in the District of Columbia. Stocky, dark-haired, he has two small sons. He led Eisenhower-for-President campaign in the Mountain states.

IOWA—Leo A. Hoegh, 46, Republican, started as a platoon leader in World War II and won battlefield promotions to lieutenant colonel. Served in state legislature and appointed attorney general in 1953. Lean and lanky, he wears dutch haircut, stubby mustache. An aggressive worker, he won GOP nominant field of six.

NEW HAMPSHIRE—Lane Dwinell, 48, Republican, clothing manufacturer, served as state house speaker and president of state senate. He was an Eisenhower delegate to the Republican national convention. He campaigned on plank of no state sales or income taxes. New Hampshire is one of few states having neither tax now.

NEBRASKA—Victor E. Anderson, 52, Republican, Lincoln hardware man and banker, served as state legislator and mayor of Lincoln. Tried unsuccessfully for GOP governorship nomination in 1952-but won this time over six opponents, with an intensive statewide meet-the-people campaign.

OKLAHOMA — Raymond Gray, Democrat, 46, is a Prohibitionist and Baptist Sunday School superintendent and deacon. He served 14 hard-working years in state senate, was chairman of appropriations committee and president pro tempore. He has a 420-acre farm near Madill and is co-owner of a wholesale and retail oil firm.

KANSAS—Fred Hall, 37, Republican, an energetic Dodge City Attorney, won in a bitter intraparty fight with retiring Gov. Edward F. Arn. He survived an attempt to purge him for re-election as lieutenant governor two years ago. He was an early Eisenhower supporter.

PENNSYLVANIA — George Michael Leader, 36, Democrat, was a relatively obscure state senator, given little chance to become the first Democratic governor in 20 years. He will be the youngest statehouse chief since 1882. He is tall, lean, bespectacled, genial-natured, of Pennsylvania Dutch stock and a devout Lutheran. A cattle and chicken raiser, he likes to relax on his picturesque farm.

GEORGIA—Marvin Griffin, Democrat, a veteran of Georgia politics, is now lieutenant-governor. He campaigned on a pledge to keep Negroes out of Georgia's schools for white children. He was adjutant general under former Gov. Ellis Arnall, but switched to the forces of retiring Gov. Herman Talmadge in the famed 1947 dispute in which both Arnall and Talmadge claimed the governorship at the same time.

GOP Vote In Texas Totals 90,000

DALLAS, Nov. 6 (AP)—Republicans polled less than 90,000 votes out of more than half a million coast in last Tuesday's general election.

A final tabulation today by the Texas Election Bureau showed all proposed amendments to the State Constitution carried by good majorities and Democratic candidates for major offices rolled up overwhelming margins of victory.

The small turnout of Republican voters means the state GOP won't have to hold primary elections in 1956. It will nominate its candidates by convention, as it did before 1952 when its candidate for governor polled 200,000 votes. In that election, Gov. Allan Shivers was cross-filed as a Republican and Democrat.

Shivers Tuesday won his third elective term by 521,373 votes to 61,007 for Republican Tod Adams.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson won a second term by 491,228 to 85,079 for Republican Carlos Watson of Brownsville and Constitution Party candidate Fred T. Spangler.

The Election Bureau, an unofficial vote counting agency sponsored by newspapers and radio stations, said its last count covered 247 of Texas' 254 counties, 202 complete.

Counties not heard from included Duval, Kendall, Kent, King, Refugio, Upton, Wheeler. There were an estimated 10,000 votes in these counties.

The vote on the amendments:

1. Require women to serve on juries—292,594 for; 208,149 against.
2. Allow use of surplus money in the Confederate Pension Fund for constructing a new state office building in Austin—380,954 for; 112,207 against.
3. Raise the pay of legislators to $25 a day for 120 days from $10 a day now—295,663 for; 187,050 against.
4. Boost the ceiling on state spending for public welfare from the present 35 million dollars a year to 42 million—366,081 for; 137,358 against.
5. Allow transfer of prior service credits in the state employes' and teachers' retirement funds—317,323 for; 178,558 against.
6. Allow certain city employes to qualify for social security benefits—314,695 for; 153,843 against.
7. Prohibit pledging the state's credit to support toll roads—286,298 for; 189,709 against.
8. Allow 4-year terms for precinct, county and district elective officials who have 2-year terms—264,840 for; 223,356 against.
9. Allow joint city-county hospital operations in Harris, Dallas, Tarrant, Galveston, Bexar, El Paso or Jefferson counties—283,664 for; 183,259 against.
10. Allow military personnel from Texas to vote if they had established residence in Texas a year before entering service—363,280 for; 106,943 against.
11. Allow counties of 10,000 population or less to vote on whether they want a tax assessor-collector —332,625 for; 110,896 against.

Auto Collision Fatal To Uvalde Rancher

ROCK SPRINGS, Tex., Nov. 6 (AP)—David M. Pryor Jr., 46, member of a prominent Uvalde ranching family, died here yesterday in an auto accident.

The car Pryor was driving and one driven by a Rock Springs resident collided in the downtown section. Pryor's car was thrown against a telephone pole.

His grandfather, the late Col. Ike Pryor, founded the town of La Pryor, about 20 miles south of Uvalde.

The victim's father, David M. Pryor Sr., is a fishing companion of former U.S. Vice President John Nance Garner.

Pryor was a veteran of World War II.

Funeral services were to be held this afternoon in Uvalde.

Elect Bank President

LAMPASAS, Tex., Nov. 6 (AP)—Clyde Northington, civic leader and banker here since 1920, has been elected president of the First National Bank. Northington succeeds W. B. McGee, who becomes chairman of the board. McGee has been associated with the bank for 50 years.

Scout Leader Resigns

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 6 (AP)—Carl Manning, executive of the Concho Valley Boy Scout Council, has resigned, effective Nov. 15. He is to go to Oklahoma City, where he is to be area executive. Manning has been head of the 23½ county area council here since 1949. His successor has not been appointed.

New Judge On Duty

GARDEN CITY, Tex., Nov. 6 (AP)—Dick Mitchell, who was elected county judge last summer, has assumed his new duties. Mitchell was appointed to serve the unexpired term of David L. Smith, who resigned Oct. 31. Mitchell defeated Smith 283 to 194 in last summer's primary election.

SCOUTS PREPARE FOR TREE SALE

Scouts of Troop 34 and their troop leaders are shown above preparing for a Christmas tree certificate sale which will be started tomorrow. The scouts will sell cards which will be worth $1 toward the purchase of a Christmas tree when the Optimist Club begins tree sales in about three weeks. The troop and club will divide proceeds from the certificate sales. Shown from left above are: Leon Byrd, troop-master, Gene Sue, Phillip Johnson, Dick Martin, assistant troop master, Billy Foree, and Joe Fowler. (Lee Watson photograph)

POLICE VIGIL FOILS SHOOTING

San Francisco police officers with shotguns take cover behind one of their cars as others surround a home in the fashionable Ingleside district in an effort to smoke out Herbert H. Eling, 46. Police Cihef of Inspectors James English said Eling had become involved in an argument with his mother-in-law and threatened to shoot her and turn the gun on himself. After some tear gas and persuasion Eling surrendered and was taken to a hospital for observation.

Memorial To Honor Fallen Leathernecks

By HERB ALTSCHULL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—The first official military forces of the United States—two battalions of Marines—were put into uniform by an act of the Continental Congress on a November day in 1775.

Now, in November 1954, a memorial is to be dedicated to all Marines who died while writing their proud history of valor from Bunker Hill to Chengju Reservoir.

The memorial to fallen Leathernecks is the biggest bronze statue ever created, a replica of the famous Iwa Jima flag raising of World War II. President Eisenhower will dedicate it Wednesday, Nov. 10, the 179th anniversary of the birth of the U.S. Marines.

Patterned after the celebrated photograph made by Joe Rosenthal of The Associated Press, the bronze was created by Felix de Weldon, a 47-year-old ex-sailor and native of Austria.

It towers 75 feet above the banks of the Potomac River, a few hundred feet from Arlington National Cemetery. Across the Potomac stands the stately Lincoln Memorial.

The over-all cost of the memorial is $850,000, paid for by individual Marines. Corps officials say the contributions all were voluntary. After one year the memorial and its surrounding tract of land will revert to the Interior Department for upkeep.

Since Rosenthal took his famous picture, The Associated Press has received about $15,000 for reproduction rights. All money has been turned over to the Navy Relief Society.

The technicalities involved in creation of the memorial are enough to stagger the imagination but De Weldon took them all in his nervous, animated stride. While being interviewed he bustled restlessly about his studio with short, quick steps.

He was working as a Navy artist back in 1945 when Rosenthal's picture was flashed across the world by AP Wirephoto. Instantly struck with the possibilities, De Weldon went to work on a sculpture of the picture.

He made more than a score of models from the photograph. One now stands at the gates to the Quantico Marine Base in Virginia. The three survivors of the flag-raising team posed for him. Other Marines stood in for the three flag raisers who died in the fight for Iwo Jima.

The faces and hands were modeled in clay, but the remainder of the statue was done in plaster. The six figures first were done in the nude, with uniforms added later on.

"That's the only way to get the muscle structure," De Weldon explained.

"These men had just come out of the water in the Iwa Jima landing. They were sweating and full of volcanic ash. The wind was whipping around them, and in the photograph you could see their muscles rippling beneath their uniforms."

When the figures of the Iwo Jima memorial were completed in clay and plaster they were cut into sections and sent off to New York to be reassembled and cast in bronze.

The cast figures again were cut into sections and moved back to Washington for reassembly. They now stand above a base of black Swedish granite on which are inscribed the words: "Uncommon valor was a common virtue."

Those were the words of Fleet Adm. Chester Nimitz in saluting the Marine heroes of World War II.

No Clear Issues For '56 Drive Emerge From Recent Election

By DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—Last Tuesday's spectacularly close election left a broad political hint today that the issues likely to decide the 1956 presidential race have yet to emerge in clear form.

A survey of the issues and factors that were involved in close contests and upset victories across the nation underlines this seeming fact.

Local factors for the most part dominated Tuesday's election and neither party came up with a sure-fire campaign formula, slogan, or set of issues certain to give them an advantage two years from now.

The voting surge gave the Democrats control of Congress and such politically potent states as New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut and Michigan — but it also placed them in a position to be blamed for events which have been a GOP responsibility since 1952.

Indications are that Democratic Gov.-Elect Edmund S. Muskie of Maine may have been right when he said the close election "suggests that both parties will have to be on their best behavior if they hope to win in the country as a whole in 1956."

A cross-country assessment of the issues and factors involved in Tuesday's elections in those states where there were upsets or hair-line decisions give substance to these conclusions:

1. Local issues and personalities played a greater part in the voters' decisions than national issues.

2. The one theme used most effectively by the Democrats in all areas was the pocketbook issue—that the Republicans were to blame for lower farm prices, unemployment, and less take-home pay for workers. Also there was the implied promise the Democrats would bring about an upturn in prosperity.

3. The Communist issue in almost every case was considered unimportant or else it backfired against those Republicans who tried to inject it into the campaign.

4. Contrary to Democratic predictions, the farm vote showed no widespread pattern of discontent with the Eisenhower administration's flexible price support program. In some states, the vote could be interpreted as one of approval while in other states as one of disapproval.

5. President Eisenhower's personal popularity is holding up well and his last-minute campaigning was credited with giving a boost to some hard-pressed GOP candidates although his support apparently had little effect on other races. Some Democratic candidates ran on a promise they would support Eisenhower.

6. The voters set no age limits on their favorites and elected all except one of the five 75-years-or-older Democratic candidates running for Senate seats. The one exception was Sen. Guy Gillette, 75, (D-Iowa) and age wasn't an issue in his race.

7. Voter concern over the Eisenhower administration public power policy ran deeper in the Northwest region than the politicians had expected.

Political experts will be looking for days to find a definitive pattern to the voting which turned up such peculiarities as the Democrats winning the Pennsylvania governorship for the second time in 70 years; "unbeatable" Sen. Gillette being unseated by his Republican opponent; and Colorado electing a Democratic governor while choosing a Republican senator.

Reports indicate that the one important thread linking all the Democratic arguments was that of unemployment and the fear of further job losses. The economic situation was cited as having a strong influence in electing Democrats in Michigan, Pennsylvania and Wyoming, and to a lesser degree in New York.

Dissatisfaction with farm prices was said to have adversely affected the Republicans particularly in Michigan, Minnesota and Kentucky.

And yet in such farm states as Iowa, Colorado and Kansas the Republicans scored victories.

Communism—which was a potent issue in the 1952 election—played a secondary role in this year's voting.

Dallas Women Oppose Censure Of McCarthy

DALLAS, Nov. 6 (AP)—The Women's Chamber of Commerce of Dallas has mailed to all U.S. senators copies of a resolution urging them to vote against censure of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy.

Copies also were sent to President Eisenhower and to Gov. Allan Shivers. The resolution, approved by the chamber's 275 members, is signed by the group's president, Mrs. Clyde Odeneal, and other officials.

The resolution asserts that the censure recommendation for the Wisconsin Republican senator "has been highly approved . . . by the leftist elements of our country . . ." It adds that censure by the Senate of one of its own members "will lend aid and comfort to both present and potential enemies of the United States."

Gasoline Prices In Dallas Are Lowered

DALLAS, Nov. 6 (AP)—Gasoline prices in Dallas were slightly lower today as wholesale distributors announced price cuts up to 1.9 cents a gallon "to meet competition."

Retail service station operators in most parts of the city were passing the reductions on to their customers.

Prices of 23.9 cents a gallon for regular gasoline and 25.9 cents for premium grades were being posted on major brands.

Recently gasoline prices in some parts of the state have dropped to as low as 14.9 cents a gallon on major brands.

Bennett On Program

Harold Bennett will present a program for the West Elementary Parent-Teacher Association when it meets at 7:30 Monday night in the school cafeteria. Distribution of membership cards is among other business planned for the meeting.

A 75,000-watt light bulb has been built — 171,400 times brighter than Edison's first commercially practical lamp.

RECORD COLD

Harriet (right) and Lynn Hewitt, sisters, found these icicles on a tree on their way to Landon High School at Jacksonville, Fla. The Weather Bureau said the 28.8 degrees was the lowest ever recorded this early in November.

REMINDER OF THE ARCTIC

Four native Eskimos, visiting San Francisco as Alaska's first representatives to the annual American Travel Agents convention, sample a traditional American delight—ice cream. Eleven hours by air from their Arctic homes they are, left to right: Abraham Lincoln, Forrest Solomon, Mrs. Blanche Lincoln, and Mrs. Alice Solomon. The Lincolns live at Kotzebue and the Solomons are from Point Barrow, fartherest north inhabited point. All but Solomon are making their first visits to the states. P.S. Yes, they liked ice cream.

Nudist Pool In Paris Not Very Exciting

By CARL HARTMAN

PARIS, Nov. 6 (AP)—If you're looking for Paris in the raw, you'll find it at the nudist swimming pools.

If it's sin you're after, however, you'll be disappointed. After the first few minutes the proceedings seem about as spine-tingling as a church supper.

I went down and tried one of the three Paris swimming pools that cater to nudists—or naturists, as they prefer to be called in France. It was a chilly evening and I spent the best part of two hours sitting on a damp towel, shivering, and paging through an American magazine someone had discarded, waiting for more business to show up.

There was nothing I'd rather have seen than a nice woolly bathrobe.

The Piscine de l'Etoile, about 200 yards from the Arch of Triumph, is rented to nudist clubs three nights a week. To get in you should have a card issued by the French Federation of Naturists, but that isn't expected of a foreigner. Admission: 100 francs (about 30 cents).

Of course, I had to take off my own clothes too.

Except for the lack of bathing suits, the Piscine de l'Etoile looked pretty much like any other indoor swimming pool, which is just what it is on other nights of the week.

Guy Thevenot, president of the "Sport and Nature Club," explained that most of the members were away on vacations. France has about 95 open-air nudist camps. The score of members and nonmembers who showed up were mostly friends of his.

The nudists spent the evening doing what most people do at swimming pools. They went in and took a shower. There were showers labeled "men" and "women" but to the nudists it didn't make any difference. Men and women went into either one. After swimming, they sat on the tiles at the edge of the pool and dangled their feet in the water. Occasionally someone went to the bar for a beer.

The men outnumbered the women about 10 to 1. The men were of all types and ages, the women nice looking but mousy — especially when they put their clothes back on.

Naturism is a family movement in France, one enthusiast explained. He is strong on the advantage it offers to children. He claims there is little religious opposition.

Judging from my one visit, it's no wonder.

Court Assessments For Month $942.50

Fines assessed in county court last month totaled $942.50, including a total of $390.50 in court costs assessed persons tried in the court.

The fines alone totaled $765. Total credit allowed for time served in jail was $1,155.50.

Expenses of the court, assessed against persons fined by the court, included $16.25 in cost of serving citations, $2.40 for mileage on county vehicles, and $21.26 in miscellaneous expenses, making the total receipts of the court $982.41 for October.

Morrow Lists Platform For Senate Race

ROTAN, Nov. 6 — Juston M. Morrow, prominent Rotan farmer and businessman, has officially announced his candidacy for state senator of the 24th district. The position was vacated last month by the death of Senator Harley Sadler, and an election is expected to be called for early December.

Morrow is immediate past state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He holds one of the most important positions with the national organization as co-chairman of the Committee on American Sovereignty. The 39-year-old candidate has also served two terms on the Rotan City Council.

In making his announcement, Morrow declared:

"My experiences with the legislative processes, municipal government, and service organization leadership, make me confident that I can be of great service to the people of my district by representing them with regard to the many problems and issues facing the legislature."

Morrow pointed out that during his term as Texas VFW commander he appeared before a Senate committee to urge passage of a communist control bill. He also petitioned every member of the Legislature to obtain support for the measure.

"After communists were outlawed in Texas," Morrow asserted. "Governor Allan Shivers lauded the efforts of the VFW and stated that the VFW leadership was the first group to start the fight for a communist control law.

"As a former city councilman, I know the need for legislation to provide more sources of revenue for our cities and the required services for increasing populations.

"We need action on water conservation plans for both farms and industry, and better support for highways and farm - to - market roads; I have studied these problems from points of view of both farmer and businessman, and as a concerned citizen I know that better roads would reduce the great death toll on our highways.

"Finally, as a leader in a large service organization, I know the moral necessity of representing all the people of my district, regardless of station in life or occupation."

Morrow listed his platform as follows:

1. Action on water conservation plans.
2. Improved highways and farm-to-market roads.
3. Constructive and fair drought aid in needed areas.
4. Better revenue sources for cities.
5. A Senator for all the people of my district.

Morrow attended school at Rotan and John Tarleton College at Stephenville. He is married and the father of two children, Saundra Jean, 16, and Juston, Jr., 13. He is the son of Mrs. Lee Morrow and the late Mr. Morrow, who was a prominent landowner, oilman and realtor.

During World War II, Morrow served with the 335th Infantry Regiment of the 84th Infantry Division in the European Theater of operations.

DAVID RATLIFF

Ratliff Starts Campaign For State Senate

David W. Ratliff, 42-year-old member of the Texas Legislature for two terms and elected to a third term, has authorized the announcement of his entry in the race for State Senator for the 24th Senatorial District. The Stamford lawmaker has never had an opponent in the three times he has been elected to represent his district.

Ratliff presently represents Jones, King, Stonewall and Dickens Counties in the House of Representatives. The 24th Senatorial District, for which he is running, is composed of Howard, Mitchell, Nolan, Taylor, Shackelford, Jones, Fisher, Scurry, Borden, Garza, Dickens, Kent, and Stonewall counties.

Ratliff has served on numerous important committees in the House, and is at present a member of the Texas Water Resources Committee. This committee was set up to try to solve the states complex water problems. He is the senior member of the House from the 24th Senatorial District.

Ratliff, owner of Radio Station KDWT in Stamford, is married and has four children. His oldest son, David, is now in the Navy and stationed at Norfolk, Virginia, and the other three, John, Lynnora, and Janie are at home. Mrs. Ratliff actively helps run the radio station.

Ratliff stated that his friends in the 24th District have urged him to run for this promotion to the Senate, since he is the senior member in the District.

"I believe that I know the problems facing us, and it is my pledge to face the issues squarely and try to solve them for the good of all."
