

Macmillan, JFK Expect New Crises

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan reportedly fear the development of a series of crises between the Western powers and the Soviet Union this year.

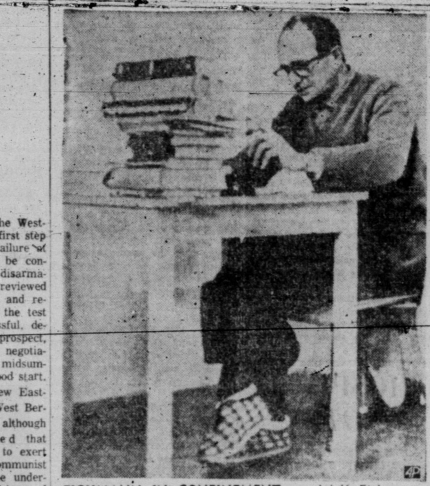

These views are reported to prevail in spite of encouraging progress recently made toward agreement on a cease-fire in the civil war in Laos.

A generally somber outlook for East-West relations emerges from information made available by the discussions of the two allied leaders during the past two days.

Macmillan and Kennedy agreed that the Western powers could never rely on an inspection system which was subject to a Soviet veto.

EICHMANN IN CONFINEMENT — Adolf Eichmann, former Nazi, is shown at a table stacked with books in his cell at an undisclosed place of confinement. Eichmann Case Topic Of Debate In Israel

By RELMAN MOHIN JERUSALEM (AP) Spread across six columns of discussion in the Israeli newspaper Jerusalem Post is the caption "Trying Eichmann—triumph or tragedy?"

Adolf Eichmann, chief of the Jewish affairs section of the Nazi Gestapo, goes to trial here Tuesday.

He is charged formally with "crimes against the Jewish people and crimes against humanity."

Two distinguished Zionists, both associated with this movement for over 30 years, disagree about the trial's effects.

Meir Gossman says in the Jerusalem Post: "This is going to prove a great mistake. It will introduce strife and quarrels into the Jewish camp and will lead to vituperation and vilification of the Jews."

Committee Report Critical Of Wilson

AUSTIN (AP) — The 1959-60 House Investigating Committee report today found "a disturbing laxity" by the attorney general in acting on reports of vice in the Beaumont-Port Arthur area.

The committee's hefty report on its public hearings on alleged vice and law enforcement collapse in Jefferson County was presented to the House today.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson responded to the report's findings. He said "I categorically deny that I failed to respond to any request to cooperate with the Department of Public Safety."

Rep. D. Roy Harrington of Port Arthur rose in the House to state his feelings. "It is unfortunate that in order to get the rest of the state straightened out we had to be tried in the press every where," he said.

The committee said that after its hearings closed, Atty. Gen. Will Wilson made a statement that he was dependent on the Department of Public Safety and that the department had chosen to work with the committee rather than with Wilson.

The chairman of the Texas Safety Commission, Mr. C. T. McLaughlin, responded to this by making public the statement he had requested the attorney general in May of 1960 to cooperate with the Department of Public Safety in curbing the violations in Jefferson County.

The committee's report also recognized and commended work done following the group's public hearings by the Attorney General's Department generally and in particular the activities of Asst. Atty. Gen. Gordon Cass and Joe Carroll.

French Police Make Sweep On Terrorists

PARIS (AP) — French police made a nationwide sweep against suspected Algerian and French terrorists today as killers and bombings increased after the collapse of hopes for immediate negotiations to end the Algerian rebellion.

Paris police hunted an Algerian execution squad that carried the hit-and-run war between rival rebel factions into a suburban hospital Thursday, killing 2 persons and wounding 12.

In Algiers, the U.S. consulate was bombed after it closed for the day and an attempt was made to burn the American cultural center. Both attacks were attributed to French rightists retaliating for U.S. moves to get peace talks started between the French and the Algerian rebels.

Police rounded up known French extremists in Paris and the French provinces also for questioning. The police said no well known persons were picked up, and it was not immediately known if any of those questioned were detained.

Negotiations between the rebels and the French were to have started today in Evian-les-Bains. But the chief rebel group, the National Liberation Front (FLN), refused to meet after the French announced they would get talks started with the National Liberation Movement (MNA).

There appeared to be little chance either side would make a serious move before Tuesday to get peace talks started. French President Charles de Gaulle has scheduled a news conference for today.

Panhandle Gets More Snow Today

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Snow fell Friday in parts of the Texas Panhandle and around Lubbock on the South Plains.

Snow at Dalhart in the Panhandle was described as "moderate," and the snow and a fog cut visibility to a quarter of a mile there. The temperature during the fall was 32 degrees.

Light snow flurried down around Lubbock for the second straight day. Light rain fell over most of the Panhandle where snow did not occur.

Clouds covered Northwest Texas and the west part of North-Central Texas. Skies were generally clear elsewhere over the state. Early morning temperatures varied from 36 degrees at Dalhart and Amarillo and Junction to 57 at Brownsville.

A graduate of North Texas State College, Miller has been employed in the credit department of the Buick Oldsmobile Pontiac Division of General Motors.

Reds Drop More Loatian Rebels

By JOHN RODERICK VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Four Soviet planes have dropped more rebel soldiers and material near the royal army headquarters at Vang Vieng.

The announcement contradicted earlier reports that the Communist Pathet Lao had given up an attempt to seize the headquarters, 80 miles from Vientiane.

The official said the information on the new drop came from Gen. Kouavath Abhay, commander in the area, who was expected to be able to handle the situation.

The general reported Thursday his forces were pushing north from Vang Vieng with a mile-long column of rebels in retreat before them.

Mrs. S. Terry Speaker For The Altrurian Club

The Altrurian Club met recently at the Martha Ann Woman's Club with Mrs. H. P. Brown hostess.

At roll call response each member brought a table arrangement. A plant to exchange was brought by each member also.

Mrs. Hugh Taylor the president, held a brief business session. She then introduced Mrs. S. L. Terry, who showed colored slides of famous gardens. Of the Butchart Gardens at Victoria, Canada she said: "It is a 25 acre fairyland of flowers. What was once a bleak limestone quarry is now a fabulous ever-changing as the seasons come and go. Magnificent by day, the gardens are even more beautiful under the magic of night lighting and should be a must for anyone on even a short visit to Victoria."

Mrs. Terry told of how the Bellingrath Gardens at Mobile, Ala. was started. "In 1917 Mrs. Bessie Morse Bellingrath first began by planting azaleas around their fishing lodge, so successful were her efforts that she and her husband, Walter Bellingrath soon became enthusiastic over the possibilities of creating a wonderful garden from the forest around them.

"In 1927 with the aid of George B. Rogers internationally known landscape designer and architect, the major aspects of the transformation were begun. The gardens were first opened to the public in 1932.

"In 1950 the Bellingrath - Morse Foundation was formed providing that the income from the gardens be devoted to the intellectual and religious upbuilding of young men and women. In 1955 Mr. Bellingrath died leaving the bulk of his estate to the foundation.

"With the establishment of the Bellingrath - Morse Foundation, Southwestern College at Memphis, Huntingdon College at Montgomery, and Stillman College (for Negroes) at Tuscaloosa became beneficiaries along with the Central Presbyterian Church of Mobile, (as a perpetual memorial to his parents and the St. Francis Street Methodist Church of Mobile as a perpetual memorial to his wife's parents). Thus through the foundation Mr. Bellingrath is carrying out a long fostered and cherished plan of perpetuating world famous Bellingrath Gardens, and, at the same time, providing long term benefits to the colleges which carry on the Christian tradition."

In closing she told of the Gardens of Glorieta Baptist Assembly, located in the rolling foothills of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains near Santa Fe, N. M.

"In the gardens, students, gathering each summer for the 12-week leadership training session, will find a ample opportunity to study the manifestations of God's love in the beautiful plants and trees about them. Each building is enhanced by its own individual jewel-like settings of flower gardens."

"On entering the Gardens of Glorieta, 18 acres of eight terraced levels forming a natural amphitheatre, immediately meets the eye. On the topmost terrace, called God's Garden, a peaceful Prayer Garden was built and dedicated by the 1955 summer students. The vision of the overall development of the gardens is that of Mrs. Cecil Pragnell.

"His horticultural career began at the age of 12 when he was apprenticed to an orchid grower in Belgium, by his father. The Gardens of Glorieta are not designed to be lavish show-places, but are truly God's Gardens, revealing through their beauty God's wonderful creative power for all who will but see and understand.

Glove Care

Spring is in the air and this year fashion experts predict that the color for the season will be pink. American Institute of Laundering experts predict that the color for traditional white gloves will be grey unless they are carefully laundered.

Gloves of soft material such as cotton, rayon or nylon, either knitted or woven should be washed off the hands in lukewarm water. Thick suede from a gentle-acting soap make the best agent. Gloves should be rinsed thoroughly in lukewarm water. Placing a few drops of cologne in the clear rinse water will give the fabric a new and fragrant loveliness. After rinsing, gloves should be rolled gently in a towel, eased back to shape, and set to dry slowly away from heat, sun and wind. Storing gloves in a plastic freezer bag will keep them clean, fresh and ready for use either in a drawer or in your purse.

Airport Taxes Are Creeping Curse Of European Travel

BY INEZ ROBB
NOTES RESCUED FROM A FLIGHT BAG:

We Americans are now beginning a campaign to get our share of the tourists' jungle, jungle, jungle. The government, apparently, is contriving ways to sugar the alien trap in order to fatten the national kitty. Vases, customs inspections and hotel clerks are to be softened up for the visitors, in hope of turning gold into a two-way stretch.

So far, so good. It is high time that the wretched indignities involved in getting an American visa are abolished, that hotel clerks are humanized and that customs inspections for visitors are eased to a minimum.

But I hope that we never need money so badly in this country that we slap a tax on departing visitors who have paid us the compliment of a visit and spent good money in the bargain. Too often in Europe that exit-exit, exit-exit tax is called an airport usage tax.

On your way into a country you can use the airport facilities until they fall apart, and there still is no tax. It is only as you leave, in that last hour before plane time, when, suddenly, the host country realizes that you have been sitting in the airport lounge or eating in its restaurants or, maybe, rocking your face in the ladies' (dames, frauleins, signoras, señoras) room.

Or maybe your host country cunningly suspects that you still have a bit of small change that you have selfishly failed to spend at the airport's souvenir counters. Anyway, when you get to the airport, you are set to leave, mine host asks for the ransom money. And you better get it up, if you want to make your plane. At least, I suspect that you had better get it up. I always have. But I have been kicking myself that I didn't make a tax case of it at Orly a day or so ago when I left Paris.

My husband and I flew in from Athens just in time to spend the night in Paris before catching a jet across the Atlantic.

However, we spent a night in Paris and a whole day at Orly, while the jet was being glued together for the flight to New York. Granted that Paris has been badly in need of a first-class airport since World War II and granted that the huge, brand-new building at Orly is pretty classy, still and all, I felt the $3 exit tax imposed on its behalf was exactly $3 more than the privilege was worth.

Letters All People Would Like To Get

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Excerpts from letters people would like to get...

"Well, dear brother-in-law, I guess I won't have to be borrowing from you and Sis anymore. I finally have found a job. I have been selected to be the first mah shur to the moon. While the job may be only temporary..."

"It is our pleasure to inform you that as holder of ticket No. Z-164859214 you have a grand lottery prize of $142,000. We respectfully inquire whether you would like this sum in bills or by check?"

"Our reconsideration we realize it was ridiculous to offer you a trade-in value of only $500 on your old car. We are upping the figure to $1,800 and hope..."

"Our laboratory tests show that the formula developed by your small son 4 1/2 his home chemistry set is worthless as a dandruff cure because of its inefficiency to destroy the scalp. However, we are greatly excited over its potential as a crabgrass remover, and if you and the boy would drop in to talk over terms we are sure that..."

"Daddykins, Jim and I figured a big wedding would cost you about $3,000, which is a terrible amount of money, and besides who wants all that fuss and bother? So we are going to get married quietly, and if you want to send us $100 toward our honeymoon trip that will be just dandy."

"Remember Joe Poindester, that handsome Phi Gam who beat your wife with that little Chi Omega gal you were so stirred up about during our last year in college? I saw him the other day, and you wouldn't recognize him. He's 50 pounds overweight, lost most of his teeth, and says if his feet don't quit bothering him he may have to give up his job at the post-office."

"Frankly, this time the bank is in error, and we regret any inconvenience to you or your husband. Our checkbook shows that instead of being overdrawn $30.48, your joint account actually has a balance of $367.28. If you wish, we will be glad to write another letter to your husband explaining the mistake is entirely our fault, and you are blameless."

"It was awfully sweet of you to pay me $25 a week alimony out of your $125 salary these last 20 years, George, but you don't have to any longer. I met a well-to-do retired businessman on a trip to Florida last month who simply insisted that we—well I suppose you can guess the rest. Since your last alimony check arrived after the ceremony, I am returning it unscathed."

"I would have made a fight for by three hooks at Orly, but my husband is a peace-at-any-price man on tour. 'Pay the man the three dollars,' he hissed at me, marching well ahead so he could pretend he had never seen me before in his life. If I decided to fight French bureaucracy..."

Those exit or airport taxes are the creeping curse of European travel. There is scarcely a nation left in which you can spend his money without being clipped for that pleasure at take-off time. Such taxes are miggling and silly, and sure-fire to raise the blood pressure and ill will simultaneously.

Among other notes rescued from my flight or fight bag is one that recommends turning our country's poets, authors, musicians and artists loose on the world. They make more friends and influence more potential allies than all the rest of us put together. I witnessed the triumph of Robert Frost in both Israel and Greece, where his audiences were enraptured.

I was also in Israel when Arthur Fiedler, conductor of the pops concerts of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, received tremendous ovations at the two pops concerts in which he conducted the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra, so long-haired it could pass for Samson's boys. Fiedler won the orchestra and then went on to enrapture the stiff-necked audience with a rousing arrangement of "Stars and Stripes Forever" and finally laid 'em in the dust with "Mack the Knife."

patient Receives 189 Pints of Blood

RAYNE, La. (AP) — Clamas Dugua, 38, a laborer suffering from an undiagnosed ailment, has received 189 pints of blood in the past 11 days—about nine times the amount in a normal human system.

Doctors at the Rayne-Branch Hospital said as far as they could determine, at least on a statewide basis, this represents a record for transfusions over such a period.

Dugua, who lives in adjoining Acadia Parish County, has had two exploratory operations, but surgeons have been unable to determine his specific ailment.

District Track Meet Slated Tomorrow

Snyder Favored To Retain Title

By Jerry Jackson
News Sports Editor

The District 3-3A track and field meet will be staged tomorrow in Mustang Bowl at Sweetwater, where Snyder's Flying Tigers are rated the odds-on choice to grab off the lion's share of the laurels in the annual running.

Snyder, under the tutelage of Coach Dutch Stehley, has become the mecca of track and field play, and the Tigers look to have another powerful aggregate on hand on this, the eve of the meet. The Bengalmen walked off with the title last year and went on to win the regional crown in a startling upset over heavily favored Andrews.

The current season has seen the Snyder thinclads consistently placing high up in the standings of the meets as entered to date, as they have roared to second place finishes in Fort Stockton's Comanche Relays (they were moved up from third place due to Midland's fielding an ineligible pole vaulter in that meet), in Laredo's Border Olympics, and in the San Angelo Relays of the past weekend, where they tied Del Rio for the runner-up spot.

In addition they have garnered the third place "show" spot in the Permian Basin Relays at Kermit and the Canyon Reef Relays at Ruidoso in Snyder, and finished "down the line" in only one meet—Odessa's West Texas Relays.

A large amount of the success of the team may be attributed to speedster Jesse (The Jet) Crawford, who has set meet records on three occasions in the low hurdles and on still another in the 100-yard dash.

Figuring on the 1-4-3-2-1 point system for individual placings and double that for relays, he has personally accounted for a whopping 66 1/2 points in the six meets as entered. Sprinter John Weaver is next in line behind him with 24 1/2 to his credit.

Other Tigers gaining points include Bobby Brown (21 1/2-30), Bax Callaway (18 1/2), Mike Morris (40 1/2), Ronnie Overby (6), Mike Bailey, Ronnie Maroney, and Malcolm Bolger (3 each), and Perry Culwell (1 1/2).

A complete listing of the placings as registered to date may be found elsewhere on the page, with ties being designated with a "T".

In addition to the regular senior division of competition, there will be a junior division offered, and will be made up primarily of freshman athletes from the competing district schools. In order to be eligible for participation in the junior division, an entrant must have been 15 years of age or younger as of the past September 1.

Lamar Junior High coach Roy Carter has indicated that he will enter a well-stocked delegation in the meet, which will include Harley Byrum, Benny Minor, Johnny Wilson, Craig Stokes, Eddie Kirby, Sterling Kessler, Jimmy Featley, Gale Potter, Rob Hall, Edward Schulz, Danny Aycock, Stanley Baize, Mac Hanson, Bob Hart, Butch Jones, Johnny Best, and Joe Smart.

Bill Hartsfield, mentor at Travis Junior High will field a team composed of Rex Akin, Ygnacio Benitez, Lonnie Craig, Douglas Fuller, Craig Merritt, Donald Fulk, Roy Rice, Billy Siewart, Jackie Stewart, Robert Thomas, and John Finke.

The junior division events will immediately precede the senior runnings in most instances.

Coach Stehley plans to enter the following boys tomorrow:

400 yard relay—Callaway, Morris, J. Weaver, Crawford.
800 yard run—Mike May, Johnny Mitchell, Carl Bailey.
High hurdles—Pooch Hatter, Jimmy Taylor, Billy Weaver.
100 yard dash—Crawford, Morris, Callaway.
40 yard dash Bolger, Bubba B. Fleming.
Low hurdles—Crawford, Brown, Taylor.
200 yard dash—J. Weaver, Ronnie Maroney, Morris.
1 mile run—Bobby Wilson, Louis Herndon, Rusty Rieger.
Middle relay—Mike Bailey, Margrove, Bolger, J. Weaver.
High jump—Callaway, Hatter, Herndon.
Broad jump—Brown, Crawford.
Pole vault—Brown, Culwell, Overby.
Shot put—Bill Weaver.
Discus—B. Weaver, Taylor, Willson.

NAMED TO TEAM—Joe Paty, power-packed Bernheim High halfback, was this morning named to the North squad of the Texas High School Association all-star game to be held in San Antonio August 10, and is one of some 20 boys gaining spots on the squad. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Paty, and was instrumental in helping to lead his team through an undefeated season.

Net Tournney Slated Today

Lincoln High School of Snyder will play host today to the First Annual Invitation Tennis Tournament as sponsored by the school, with the Towle Park courts being the site of the day's action beginning at 2:30.

In addition to the Lincoln Trojan netters four other schools will field teams in the tournney including Lake View (Big Spring), Booker T. Washington (Sweetwater), Wallis (Colorado City), and Carver (Levelland).

For Lincoln, Louise Archie and Gwendolyn Newsome will be vying in the girls singles and Lisa Archie and Barbara Durst in the Doubles.

Trojan boys competing for honors are John Choyce and Linwood Durst, who will represent the school in both singles and doubles.

Lincoln High is also hosting the district literary meet this weekend, while the district championship track team from the school is currently preparing for the state meet at Prairie View April 22.

Olympic Wars Waged Here

The youngsters turned out in hordes here yesterday, as they competed against each other in the 8th annual holding of the Little Olympics as held at Tiger Stadium.

Participation was based on an individual rather than school affiliation level, and entrants from all six local elementary schools took part and placed in the various events as offered.

Three age groupings were adhered to, with the 13-year and older performers being placed in Group C, the 12-year olds in Group B, those 11 years and under in Group A.

Andrew Ramirez, Northeast's Jack-of-all-trades dandy, came through to mark up four "firsts" in the Group C competition to lead the pack for the day's action. David Cadena of Central was a three-time victor in Group B to pace that grouping, and West's Mitchell Rabin a double winner in Group A to excel in his category.

None of the girl entrants were able to post more than a single victory during the day's firing.

AUSTIN (AP)—A star swimmer from Houston's Bellaire High School plans to enter the University of Texas. Andy Smith, a member of Bellaire's record-breaking 200-yard freestyle relay team in 1959, set state high school records in the 100-yard breast stroke in 1959 and 1960, and the 100-yard individual medley in 1960.

IN TWIN BILL AT ABILENE

Tiger Nine To Engage Cooper

The two ace-in-the-hole hurlers of the Snyder Tigers—southpaw Bennie Greenfield and righthander Freddy Miller—have received starting nods from Coach Speedy Moffett to go up against Abilene Cooper in Abilene tomorrow in a baseball double bill.

Miller pretty well had things "his way" against the same team here Tuesday, as he set them down on a three hits in going the distance to post a 12-0 win, his sixth victory as stacked up against only two losses.

Greenfield is 3-1 for the year and sports the team's most lucrative earned run average, a sparkling 1.38 mean.

A blow to the mound corps was received yesterday, when the loss of senior righthander Charlie Gladson to the pitching staff was confirmed as per doctor's orders. Gladson has been plagued with a pulled muscle in his back since last season, and will not be permitted to pitch any more during the current campaign, although he will continue to play outfield as usual.

Another loss, fortunately of a temporary nature, has been dealt the team, as second sacker Jerry Franks is in the hospital with a case of strep throat and will not be able to take part in tomorrow's action. Franks was called in from utility outfield post two weeks ago to sub at second for injured Bubba Fleming.

Tom Marcum has been given the starting assignment, his initial key role of the year.

Surgus Weller Ware, the Tiger's outfielder-first baseman, has bolted into the team batting lead, having wrested it from teammate Spencer Dyer for the first time this year. Ware is hitting at a healthy .383 clip, while recent player woes have dropped Dyer below .400 for the first time, with his average now reeling .378.

The first game of tomorrow will begin at 1 p. m., and the Tigers will be seeking to add still more luster to a 12-8 record as compiled to date.

Moffett's announced starting lineup includes the following: Dyer, third base (.378), Steve Free, shortstop (.238), Mike Moffett, center field (.322), Ware, first base (.383), Gladson, left field (.331), Marcum, second base (.000), Joe Fowler, right field (.333), Ronnie Wylie, catcher (.158), and Greenfield (.268) and Miller (.217), pitchers.

Moffett is currently leading the Tiger batsmen in both runs batted in (15) and runs scored (18). Wylie leads in home runs with two landed, while Ware paces the team in three-baggers with a like number and Gladson reigns in doubles with five.

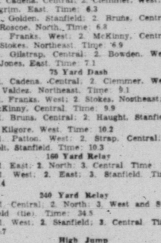

Pony Golfers Nab District Links Lead

SWEETWATER — The Mustang golfers of Sweetwater High, spurred on by a pair of mid-70s rounds by aces Lloyd Turner and Joe Gerald, bolted into the 3-3A district links lead here yesterday, as its 4-man team posted a 233 aggregate to runner-up Lamesa's 347.

Snyder is running third at the halfway point with a total of 384, while Colorado City is a distant fourth with 446. The final firing of today, which was to have had a cutoff time of 1 o'clock, will determine the top two teams and two low individuals who will advance into the regional meet.

Yesterday's individual totals follow:

- SWEETWATER — Lloyd Turner 24, Joe Gerald 75, Mickey Horn 87, Charles Arbaugh 97.
LAMESA — Don Bethel 74, Graham Addison 86, Jay White 86, Rex Cotton 101.
SNYDER — John Pickering 84, Mike Reed 89, Eddie Phy 101, Roger McMennamy 110.
COLORADO CITY — Jerry McKay 97, Tommy Humphreys 110, Don Thomas 114, Roger Richards 125.

Jazz Setting For Mass Has Some Of Oldest And Newest

By BILL W. DEAN
OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—They chide Frank Tirro about writing the instrumental parts for "five hungry friends."

It would have been six, he says. "If there had been a good swing flute. But I'm a realist. I used what was available."

So Tirro's jazz setting for the mass is written for trumpet, two saxophones, bass and drums, plus chorus. It brings together something of the oldest and newest in music—Gregorian chant and sophisticated jazz.

The mass will get its first professional performance here April 17 by the Omaha symphony orchestra and symphonic chorus.

The Rev. Otto Sotnik, associate pastor of Woodlawn Emanuel Lutheran Church in Chicago, says his choir also is considering doing the Tirro mass at the University of Chicago.

The younger generation apparently has real interest in church music with a beat. For instance, though a lot of churches and musicians dislike it, a "90th Century Folk Mass" continues to draw attention and breed controversy nearly a decade after it was written by the Rev. Geoffrey Beaumont, vicar of St. George's in South London.

After hearing its beguine and shuffle rhythms in a Norwalk, Conn., church a couple of years ago, a group of U.S. church officials summed up their opinion in a word: "corny."

The Beaumont mass is the rickety-licky, honky-tonk school of jazz," says Joseph Levine, the former Ballet Theatre and Broadway conductor who now conducts the Omaha symphony. "But Tirro's is as good as the other jazz mass is bad."

Tirro's mass is based on an 11th Century Gregorian chant, "O Pater Exeque." It can be sung in Latin, though the premiere will be in English.

Frank Tirro, 25, is a graduate student in music at Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill. When he has time, he plays clarinet and sax in Peter Palmer's band which travels out of Chicago playing mostly college dates.

While Tirro was studying at the University of Nebraska a year ago, the Beaumont mass was attracting attention in the area. There was even talk of giving it at St. Barnabas Episcopal Church in Omaha where Frank was choir-master.

Apparently prompted by this interest, the Episcopal Chapel and Disciples Student Fellowship at the university commissioned Tirro to write a mass of his own.

"I'm not exactly a reformer," says Frank Tirro, "but I think church music should be more functional and less on a pedestal. If it is good jazz, why is it unfit for church?"

Neither Tirro nor Levine are predicting what the reaction will be to the new jazz mass. But, says the conductor, "It's a startling work and it's going to stand Omaha on its ear."

Propoise Demonstration May Change Design Of Torpedoes

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
WASHINGTON (AP)—A plump porpoise named "Knotty" has given Navy scientists ideas that could change their concepts of torpedo design, underwater sound detection, and antisubmarine warfare.

"If present theories on the porpoise's secret of speed are correct, future subs and torpedoes may have heated skins that can ripple," said an article in the current issue of Naval Research Reviews.

This is an official Navy publication reporting highlights of technical progress in research by Navy laboratories and contractors.

The article discussed observations on the 6-foot, 180-pound female porpoise as conducted by scientists of the Naval Ordnance Test Station, China Lake, Calif. Knotty, described as a "superbly intelligent animal," draws its name from the first letters of the station's title.

Last spring, the station commissioned Marneland of the Pacific at Palos Verdes, Calif., to catch and train a porpoise—and Knotty was the mammal it caught.

"One theory of the porpoise's speed is its control of its skin to reduce drag," the report said.

Around its nose, where there is a smooth water flow, the skin is nearly bloodless. But toward the tail, where turbulence and drag normally build up, the animal has a progressively increasing amount of blood vessels.

Integration In Dallas Is Likely By Fall

DALLAS (AP)—Desegregation of Dallas public schools appears certain to start next fall.

The deadline for further steps in a 54-year legal battle by school trustees to maintain racially separated classes expired Thursday night.

Federal court orders call for a next week as school board procedure last Nov. 30 but struck out pupil transfer provisions by the Dallas School Board calculated to control the extent of desegregation.

The U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans approved this so-called "waitstep" procedure last Nov. 30 but struck out pupil transfer provisions by the Dallas School Board calculated to control the extent of desegregation.

A motion for rehearing by the board was denied Jan. 6. The New Orleans court allowed 90 days, however, for the trustees to ask a writ of certiorari from the U.S. Supreme Court—the last legal avenue still open.

School board attorney Henry Straubinger had advised against further appeal, expressing the view that such a move would be fruitless.

Franklin Spafford, who will represent the trustees as school board president, said trustees followed this course because "there were no new decisions or new developments in the past 90 days."

Spafford declined, however, to predict what will take place in September.

"The matter is still in the jurisdiction of the federal courts and is now subject to the district court," he said, "and I'd not want to anticipate what they'll do."

David M. Oglesby To Be Ordained

Rev. Oglesby and his family are due in Snyder on Wednesday. They will be en route to St. Joseph, Mo., where he has accepted a call to the First Baptist Church as music and education director.

Planning

Most of us understand the importance of good materials, proper location of heating units and well arranged rooms, when we are to build a house. But a life? Doesn't that just plan itself? Is not a man's life determined in the stars? Is he not the victim of fate? Or do we have something to say about it? The poet challenged himself, "Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul." Am I in some measure the "master of my fate"? To ask such questions is to answer them. Our inquiry proves our sense of freedom and our sense of responsibility. Then, how early should I start my plans? The answer is now! Of course, we should plan for today, tomorrow and for eternity. We must determine what to aim for. Whether we are young or old, with the help of the church and God, we may live forever.
