Say, what about those Stratford Elks knocking off the Lynx last weekend, that was really sumpin' and we were so happy for the Elks in the big team effort.

We were all happy for Coach David Bornstein and all the Elks for their play on Friday. The Lynx were rated way up there in Class AA in the state and were 21 points better than the Elks, according to the experts.

We wish them all well during the remainder of the 1975 season.

This weekend is the Jamboree in Stratford.

We hope y'all will all bring the family for all the fun this coming weekend.

School gets out early on Friday, we were supposed to remind folks of this fact, then a number of events will be taking place at the Barns on that afternoon.

Friday night the Elks travel to Guymon to take on the Tigers then on Saturday, the big day begins early.

We hope you will come on out for the Parade, Barbeque, Old Timers Reunion, Roping, Community Races and the Dances.... whew!, just typing this makes us tired.

We always look forward to the Jamboree, but our dogs really do some kind of barking before it is all over with.

Congratulations to R.K. Everett Sr. and Pearle Mullins for being selected as this year's Old Timer King & Queen.

We always enjoy that portion of the Jamboree, and we would remind you the Old Timers Program is open to the general public. This is a good time to come and visit with your friends, and those who come from out of town once a year for the event.

We look forward to seeing you all at the Jamboree this weekend.

We just cannot go another week without popping off on a subject that makes us mad just to think of it...we refer to George Meany and his ranting and raving about exporting wheat and other agricultural commodities.

Before we go further, we must say that as a youngster we were raised in a "railroad town." We had the idea that a union wasn't something like what you find on the underside of a cowchip that has been out for sometime.

Well, we would go on and say that labor unions have had their place, but when the leaders of these unions use their power to cause hardship on others, then it is time they were replaced.

We have had our own ideas about George Meany for several years, and have not said anything figuring that out here on the Plains we didn't have much to do with labor unions anyway.

Well, George has changed all that!

We cannot believe the man is aware of what he means when he asks for the boycott of the longshoremen in loading wheat to be sold abroad.

Sure, we didn't have any big bonanza of wheat around here this year, but we saw nothing but wheat from her on through Montana this summer, and a bunch of it was making bumper crops.

We believe that if the wheat isn't sold abroad, our farmers will be looking at prices like they were a couple of years ago for wheat, next to nothing.

Heckfire, it is next to impossible to break even with today's prices, let alone back down to 1.32 per bushel or less!

Now, Mr. Meany, let's get down to cases...your labor unions are costing the rest of us no telling how much in the price of autos, pickups, tractors and all other products.

We figure these folks gotta live too, but dang it, let the farmer alone. He is feeding you

LEGISLATURE, INFLATION BLAMED

School Board Approves Tax Hike Of 29 Percent

An increase in school taxes highlighted the meeting of the board of trustees of the Stratford Independent School District held recently.

The board approved an increase in school district taxes of about 29 percent over last year.

The big boost is due in most part to the change made in the state monies which the district had received in the past. The salary boost of teachers and other employees made this year is another reason for the increase plus inflation over the past several years.

The SISD tax rate was approved at a rate of $1.37 for permanent improvements and 18 cents for bonds for a total of $1.55 per $100 valuation based on 45 percent of actual value.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16 12 noon Star Home Demo Club meets with Ava Keener 8 p.m. Ladies Fire Dept. Auxiliary meets at Fire Hall

Last year the tax rate was $1.20 per $100.

"We held off a tax rate increase last year thinking the values of natural gas at the well head would be changed," said Board President E.R. Bell. "However, this did not materialize so the big increase this year is due to the many changes in the past two years," he added.

In other action at the meeting, the board approved amendments for the 1974-75 budget to correct final expenditures and receipts; named Steve Haynes as math coordinator for the SISD, and voted to accept bids on a new station wagon at their next meeting.

The board also entered into an agreement with the Educational Service Center in Amarillo to provide crime prevention and drug education training programs for the district.

The board also entered into an agreement with the Stratford Hospital District to pay for services of the school tax office. The school tax and hospital district taxes will continue to be collected through the school tax office as has been the practice in past years.

RIBBON CUTTING--The highlight of the monthly County Commissioners Court proceedings included a surprise ribbon cutting and dedication ceremony for the newly remodeled ladies rest room at the courthouse. Opening remarks by Marilyn Albert expressed the general interest and appreciation for the project and made the official dedication as "Marcelle Sutton having been employed in the courthouse for the past twenty years, best recognized the need for the remodeled facility." Judge W.S. Frizzell responded with appropriate remarks following which Judge Frizzell and Mrs. Sutton officially cut the ribbon. About twenty five persons viewed the facility which included a newly hung original oil painting. Cake and coffee were served and a "fun time" was enjoyed by all. Seriously, all courthouse employees appreciate the newly remodeled courthouse and invite everyone to come by and look it over.

NET

One of the definitions for a net is a trap or a snare. A net is used to catch a fish. There are times in every man's life when, like Job, he feels that God has trapped him in a net. Job 19:6 reads, "Know now that God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net."

But our troubles and afflictions are never caused by our God. Moreover, His Word says He is ever faithful to deliver His people. The Psalmist asserts: "Mine eyes are ever toward the Lord; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net." How wonderful are His promises. These promises are proclaimed from the pulpit by your pastor each week for the blessing and edifying of God's people. Won't you attend church this week and partake of this blessing?

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

MRS. CHARLES STEVEN BASKIN

Sandra Allen Becomes Bride of Steve Baskin

Miss Sandra Caryl Allen and Charles Steven Baskin exchanged wedding vows at 10 a.m. on August 16, 1975 in the First Baptist Church Chapel of Dalhart, Tx.

The Rev. Mel Hardin, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony before two tiers of candelabra enhanced with blue candles and greenery. Large baskets of white gladiolas and white mums flanked the candelabra. The pews were marked with white satin bows for the parents and grandparents.

Traditional wedding music was provided by organist Mrs. Ola Phillips.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Gene C. Allen of Dalhart and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Frank Baskin III of Stratford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal A-line gown with a chapel train of satin crepe that was fashioned by the bride. The bodice of the gown featured a square neckline with pin tucks in both the front and back. The neckline and each pin tuck was enhanced by seed pearls. Seed pearls outlined the bottom of the flared skirt. The full length sleeves were gathered onto cuffs that were also outlined in pearls.

The bride wore a chapel length veil of bridal illusion attached to a lace headpiece. Her bridal bouquet was a nosegay of white roses and baby's breath.

Teresa Gay Allen, sister of the bride from Dalhart, served as maid of honor in a blue checked gingham gown of formal length. The gown was trimmed in white eyelet lace. She wore a hat fashioned to match her gown and carried three long-stemmed red roses with blue and green satin streamers. Two of the roses were handed to the bride after the ceremony and the bride gave one to both the groom's mother and her mother.

Don Anderson of Blossom, Tx. served as best man while Danny Allen, Dalhart, brother of the bride, and Mike Baskin, Stratford, brother of the groom, were the ushers.

Beth Allen, sister-in-law of the bride, Dalhart, was the candlelighter in a green gingham gown styled identically to the maid of honors. Her hat matched the gown.

The mother of the bride chose for the wedding, a blue knit formal length gown with a floral jacket. Her corsage was of blue and green carnations.

The groom's mother wore a formal-length dress of yellow knit style with a floral jacket and a corsage of blue and green carnations.

MR. AND MRS. TOMMY HARBOUR

Stork, Harbour Vows Recited In Stratford

Miss Janet Earlene Stork and Tommy Mac Harbour exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony performed by Father Richard Nyer in St. Joseph's Catholic Church on August 29, 1975.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Stork of Gruver and Mrs. Aaron Harbour of Lometa, Tx. and the late Aaron Harbour.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride chose a formal gown of white silk organza over bridal taffeta designed with a fitted empire bodice. Her shadow neckline was adorned by venise lace. The sleeves were of sheer organza in a full bishop design ending with wide cuffs. The entire bodice was enhanced by venise lace appliques in a flower and motif pattern. The A-line gown fell to a venise lace band with a double organza ruffle which swept to back fullness and cascaded to a full chapel length train.

The bride's headpiece was a matching camelot cap in mantilla style, covered in lace. The bridal illusion fell to a fingertip length and was edged in venise lace. Appliques of lace adorned the entire veil.

Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of yellow roses and asparagus fern greenery.

In keeping with tradition the bride wore earrings for something old; the bridal gown was something new; her necklace was borrowed and she wore a blue garter.

Mrs. MariHoward Engelbrecht, organist, provided traditional wedding music.

DEFENSIVE PLOTTING--Elk Coaches Bill Briscoe [with headphones], David Bornstein and Karl French talk over defensive moves with Linebacker Leonard Duncan during a time out Friday night.

ALBERT ON THE MOVE--Joe Albert [11] makes good yardage down the sideline heading toward the Lynx goal line in the game Friday night. Moving in to get Albert is Lynx defender Mark Fox [22].

Stratford's Elks played spoiler to the dedication of the Spearman Lynx new stadium in the opening game for both teams this season as the underdog Elks, who hadn't apparently taken heed of the press notices concerning the Lynx, shut out the state-ranked Lynx aggregation 13-0.

The Elks proved the spoiler for the second year in a row for the Spearman Lynx as the blue and white knocked off Greg Sherwood's Class AA team last year 20-14 for the only regular season loss of the Lynx. Spearman went on to win their way to the Class AA finals last year and were a three touchdown favorite over Stratford this Friday night.

David Bornstein's blue crew turned in a heart-warming team effort to knock off the Lynx and shut down the Lynx vaunted offensive attack.

Spearman attempted five passes through the contest and completed four of them, all four to Stratford's defenders.

The blunted aerial attack shut down two scoring threats but Dame Fortune provided the equalizers as Stratford fumbled away the ball on three occasions, one of which was on the Lynx 3-yard line and went into the end zone where Spearman recovered to regain possession and stopped another Elk scoring threat.

Senior Quarterback Darrell Doshier kept Lynx defenders guessing as the Elk's Veer attack knocked holes in the Spearman forward wall.

Utilizing pitchouts to Leonard Duncan, Joe Albert and Jeff Witcher during the night, Doshier scored both Stratford touchdowns when defenders went for the potential pitchout man and the quarterback kept to speed around the corner for scoring runs.

Stratford's first score came late in the second stanza as Doshier scampered around his right end, faked a pitch, kept the ball and danced across the double-stripe from seven yards out. Doshier held while Will Allen provided the boot to make it 7-0 with 1:09 left in the first half.

The second blue and white score, and the game icer, came with 2:19 left in the game. The Elks had punted and quick downfield cover by the Elk's punting crew put pressure on the Lynx receiver who fumbled the ball and it was recovered by Johnny Slover at the Spearman 35. Jeff Witcher pushed down to the Spearman 27 on two plays then with third down Doshier faked a pitch to Duncan up the middle, kept the ball and sped around his left end eluding one defensive back and sped across for the score with 2:19 left on the clock. The PAT was no good as Doshier tired to pass for two points but was hauled in for no gain and the score stood 13-0.

The two teams took measure of each other through the first quarter with neither able to get in any sort of scoring position.

Late in the second the Lynx seemed to get moving as they took over on their own 17 and moved in 12 plays to the Stratford 45 where Quarterback David Steele attempted to hit End Jeff Beedy downfield with an aerial. Doshier played the spoiler and took over possession on the interception and returned it back to the Lynx 46. The Lynx held on downs after the Elks got one first down and Albert punted to the Lynx 9 yard line.

Once again the Lynx got all geared up and came roaring downfield. Fullback Zane Newton got loose on one run of 27 yards in a series that saw the Lynx move from their own 9 to the Elk 18 before the blue and white forward wall stiffened. At the Stratford 18 Quarterback Steele was blasted loose from the ball by an Elk tackler and Jimmy Powers fell on the ball. Following his recovery, the Elks moved 80 yards in 10 plays with Doshier scoring from the Lynx 7-yard line.

Doshier got loose for runs of 20 and 17 yards in this series then hit Allen for a 28-yard passing play to set up the score. Elk blockers provided running room for the backs and protection for Doshier on the pass.

The Lynx took over Johnny Powers' kickoff on their own 33 and after three passes went wide of their mark, the Lynx punted to the Elk 28 where the ball was fumbled away and Spearman recovered.

With only 16 seconds left on the clock, Spearman took to the air in a vain effort to tie up the game before the half. Again Steele tried to hit Beedy and Doshier gathered in the ball on the Elk 5-yard line and nearly got loose on the interception going all the way to the Lynx 38 before he was hauled in from behind as time ran out in the first half of play.

Opening the second half, the teams exchanged punts on the first possessions then the Elks took over at their own 44. With Allen operating at quarterback, the Elks offensive machine began to move as Allen hit Johnny Slover for a 15 yard pass to set up shop at the Lynx 36. Witcher got 5 yards then Allen pitched out to Albert who got loose and was finally caught at the Lynx 3-yard line and fumbled the ball into the end zone where it was recovered by Spearman. After two more punt exchanges and moving into the fourth quarter, the Lynx were held on downs, punted and the ball was fumbled and recovered at the Elk 32.

Two plays later Spearman returned the favor, fumbling the ball away with Doshier recovering at the Stratford 23.

The Elks were held on downs, Albert boomed the ball downfield where the Spearman safetyman was hit hard, fumbled the ball and it was recovered by Slover at the Lynx 35.

Three plays later Doshier got loose for the final Elk score of the night.

After the resulting kickoff, Spearman took over on their own 23, went to the air and Allen intercepted. The Elks were held and on fourth Albert was attempting to punt but a low pass from center forced him to try to run and he was caught at the Stratford 45.

Spearman took over at the Elk 45 and Steele's would-be aerial was picked off by Albert at the Stratford 15. Two plays later the game ended with the Elks out in front 13-0, contributing their part to the dedication of the Lynx new stadium.

Cook of Week

COOK OF THE WEEK-Mrs. Pearle Mullins is being honored during the 1975 Sherman County Fair and Stratford Jamboree as Old Timer Queen. Pearle has lived in Stratford since 1921 and is active in the Methodist Church, SCOT and Eastern Star.

Old Timer Queen

Mrs. Pearle Mullins is being honored this week as Old Timer Queen in conjunction with the Stratford Jamboree and County Fair. We are honored to have Pearle as our cook for this week.

Pearle, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.S. Hall, was born in Oklahoma and came to Stratford in 1921. She was one of six teachers in Stratford at the time, teaching first and second grades.

She married Forrest Mullins in 1922 during the time he served as Sherman County as Tax Assessor. They had two daughters, Dale and Selma.

Dale is now married to Jack Veazey of Oklahoma City and they have three children Cindy, Bonnie and Fred. Selma married Bill Pendleton and they have three sons, Bob, Tom and Lee and one daughter, Ann.

Pearle is a member of the First United Methodist Church and a group leader of UMW. She and her late husband were the first Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron of Chapter 960, Eastern Star. Pearle still works diligently for the good of the order. She is also a member of Garden Club, SCOT, Chamber of Commerce and the Bicentennial Committee.

Gardening is one of her hobbies, as a person may observe simply by passing by her home and seeing the lovely flowers.

Our cook's recipes include Chow Chow, Spiced Tea Mix and Date Refrigerator Pinwheels, which this writer sampled and can testify are mighty tasty.

CHOW CHOW [uncooked]

- 3 pints light colored cider vinegar
- 4 c. sugar
- Juice of 4 lemons
- 4 T. prepared mustard
- 1 t. celery seed
- 2 t. turmeric
- 1 t. whole spices

Boil all of above and let cool.

GRIND:

- 1 gallon green tomatoes
 - 1 small head cabbage
 - 8 medium size onions
 - 3 hot or 6 sweet peppers [some red for color]
- Put 1/2 c. salt over this and let stand an hour or more. Drain well and add to cold vinegar mixture which has been strained. Put in jars and seal. Keeps indefinitely.

SPICED TEA MIX

- 2 c. tang
- 1 1/2 c. sugar [more if desired]
- 1/2 c. instant tea
- 1 small pkg. pre-sweetened lemonade mix or 1/4 c.
- 1 t. cinnamon
- 1/4 t. cloves

Use 1 rounded T. of mixture of 1 c. of hot water

DATE REFRIGERATOR

PINWHEELS

- 2 1/4 c. pitted dates, cut up
- 1 c. sugar
- 1 c. water
- 1 c. chopped nuts
- 1 c. shortening
- 2 c. brown sugar, firmly packed
- 3 eggs, well beaten
- 4 c. sifted flour
- 1/2 t. salt
- 1/2 t. soda

Combine the dates, granulated sugar and water in a saucepan and cook over low heat until thick, about 10 min. Add the nuts and cool. Cream shortening and brown sugar, adding sugar gradually. Add the well beaten eggs and mix well. Add remaining ingredients, sifted together, and beat well. Cover and chill thoroughly. Divide the mixture into two parts and roll each out separately into a rectangle a little less than 1/4 inch thick. Spread each with the date filling and roll up as for a jelly roll. Wrap in waxed paper and chill thoroughly, overnight if you can. Cut with a sharp knife into slices about 1/4 inch thick. Arrange on greased cookie sheet and bake at 400 degrees for 8-10 minutes. Makes 5-6 dozen cookies.

TOWN TALK

Don and Vera Brady of Sinking Springs, Pennsylvania were overnight guests of Frank and Marcelle Sutton, Monday night. They became friends while visiting Yellowstone Park two years ago. The Brady's had been on vacation to Grand Canyon, and stopped to renew the acquaintance.

Sentiments are for the most part traditional; we feel them because they were felt by those who preceded us.

PUBLIC NOTICE

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS (S.J.R. NO. 11) SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 4, 1975

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the separation of powers, legislative and executive provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article II, Separation of Powers, is amended to:

Provide that the powers of government of the State of Texas are divided among three distinct branches: legislative, executive, and judicial. Except as otherwise authorized by the constitution, members of one branch may not exercise any power properly attached to either of the others.

Article III, The Legislature, is amended to:

Continue the present structure of the legislature consisting of a senate with 31 members and a house of representatives with 150 members. The present organization and procedure of the legislature are continued except that the provision allowing closed executive sessions of the senate is omitted. Provisions on the conflict of interest of members of the legislature are continued, as is the governor's power to veto bills or line items in appropriation bills. The article provides for single-member senatorial, representative, and congressional districts. A compensation commission is created to recommend the compensation and allowances to be received by members of the legislature. The legislative compensation, set by law, may not exceed this recommendation and does not take effect until after an intervening general election. The article provides for annual sessions of 140 days in odd-numbered years and 90 days in even-numbered years, and a veto session of 15 days upon request of three-fifths of the membership of each house. The legislature may meet in organizational sessions prior to the convening of the legislature in regular sessions.

Article IV, The Executive, is amended to:

Continue the present status of the governor and all other statewide officers, and include the commissioner of agriculture as an executive department officer. The governor is limited to two consecutive terms. The governor is authorized to designate chairmen of state boards, and to remove gubernatorial appointees to state agencies for cause unless the removal is vetoed by the senate. The article mandates the legislature to provide a new governor-elect an appropriation so the governor-elect may organize an office prior to inauguration, and permits the legislature to grant powers of fiscal control to the governor. All governmental agencies, with several exceptions, have a life of not more than ten years unless extended by the legislature, and, at the regular session held in odd-numbered years, the governor shall submit to the legislature a report on the organization and efficiency of the executive branch.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the SEPARATION OF POWERS, LEGISLATIVE, AND EXECUTIVE PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective January 1, 1976, except Article III, Section 5, which becomes effective January 1, 1981.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the judiciary provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article V, The Judiciary is amended to:

Establish a unified judicial system consisting of the supreme court, court of appeals, district courts, and circuit courts. Existing county courts and county judges are continued until otherwise provided by law. All judges (except municipal judges), district attorneys and district clerks must be elected by the people. The supreme court and the court of criminal appeals are merged into a single court of last resort, and this supreme court is authorized to provide for efficient administration of the judicial system and to balance case loads. Individual rights for a trial by jury and appeal by the accused are continued. The state is granted the right to appeal in criminal cases in limited circumstances, and the legislature is permitted to establish methods of appeal to the courts from decisions of state agencies.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the JUDICIARY PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the voting and election provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VI, Voter Qualifications and Elections, is amended to:

Provide for registration and qualifications for voting including voter residency requirements to be established by law. A citizen of the United States who is at least 18 years of age and who meets the registration and residence requirements provided by law is a qualified voter unless the person has been convicted of a felony and for that felony is incarcerated, on parole, or on probation, or unless the person is mentally incompetent as determined by a court. Voting by the people in all elections must be by secret ballot, and the legislature shall provide by law for residence, registration, and absentee voting requirements, for the administration of elections, and for the protection of the electoral process. The general election for state and county officers is to be held in even-numbered years on a date prescribed by law.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the VOTING AND ELECTION PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the education provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VII, Education, is amended to:

Provide that the Permanent and Available School Funds and the county public school funds are continued for the support of the free public schools. The State Board of Education is retained and the Permanent and Available University Funds are continued for the benefit of The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. A new Higher Education Fund for Texas is established for the benefit of colleges and universities outside The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. The state ad valorem tax of ten cents on $100 valuation is continued as the source of revenue for the fund. The ten cent higher education tax may be changed by law within the ten cent maximum. The legislature may allocate by law a portion of the Higher Education Fund to certain state vocational and technical institutes. The article provides that the public education system must furnish each individual an equal educational opportunity, but a school district may provide local enrichment of educational programs exceeding the level provided by the state consistent with general law. Authority to issue Permanent University Bonds is continued but the bonds may not exceed 30% of the Permanent University Fund.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the EDUCATION PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976, except Article VII, Section 9, which becomes effective January 1, 1979.

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the finance provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VIII, Finance, is amended to:

Provide that state taxes may be levied and collected only by general law and to prohibit any state ad valorem tax on real property or tangible personal property except the ten cent tax provided for in Article VII and a tax of two cents on the $100 assessed valuation to provide funds for the State Building Fund. Provides that all real property and tangible personal property must be taxed equally and uniformly in proportion to market value. Existing exemptions from ad valorem taxation are continued. The present dedication of motor fuel taxes for highway purposes and the Available School Fund is retained. The "pay-as-you-go" principle for the operation of state government is retained. The legislature shall establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of open-space land devoted to farm or ranch purposes and may establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of forest land devoted to timber production. The $3000 exemption from state ad valorem taxation for residential homesteads is continued and the legislature by law may increase this amount. A separate $3000 exemption from ad valorem taxation by political subdivisions is provided for the residential homestead of persons at least 65 years of age and the political subdivision may increase this amount. The legislature by law may exempt from ad valorem taxation certain property owned by veterans' organizations, non-profit water corporations, and persons in need because of age or disability, and economic circumstance. The legislature may also exempt property to preserve historical, cultural or natural history resources. Taxpayers are provided a new method of correcting inequitable tax assessments by paying ad valorem taxes under protest and suing for a refund in a district court. State debt may be authorized by law only if approved by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the state voting on the question. Public funds and public credit may be used only for public purposes and no public funds or public credit may be used to influence the election of a public officer. The article prohibits a retail sales tax on agricultural machinery or parts, fertilizer, feeds or seeds, prescription drugs or medicine, or food, except food sold by restaurants for immediate consumption. An assessment voted by marine food or agricultural producers on their product sales is not a tax if provision is made for the individual producer to receive a refund of the assessment when the producer does not desire to be assessed.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the LOCAL GOVERNMENT PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the general provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article X, General Provisions, is amended to:

Provide the basic requirements relating to public officeholders such as the official oath and residency requirements. The provision defining the separate and community property of spouses is retained, and the protection of a homestead from forced sale is continued. The legislature is required to protect certain personal property from forced sale. Current wages for personal service are not subject to garnishment. A private corporation may not be chartered except under general law, and no bank may engage in business at more than one place in this state. The legislature must provide for the regulation of bank holding companies. The present system of local-option elections for the prohibition or sale of alcoholic beverages is continued. The legislature is required to prohibit lotteries and gift enterprises but may permit certain bingo games and raffles. The presently existing provisions for retirement benefits of teachers and other public employees are modified to allow the state to contribute more than 10%. A policy that the quality of the environment of the State of Texas is to be protected is established, and the legislature is required to implement and enforce this policy. No state funds may be used to remove surface water from the river basin of origin if the surface water is necessary to supply the reasonably foreseeable water requirements of the basin for the ensuing 50 years, unless the removal of water is sufficiently replaced to the point of removal from outside the state or is on a temporary, interim basis. The seaward beaches of the Gulf of Mexico and coastal submerged lands belonging to the state are held by the state in perpetual trust for the people, and subject to reasonable limitations prescribed by law, the public has the free and unrestricted right of use and benefit of the beaches. The provision is continued that, except as otherwise provided by law, a rate of interest in excess of ten percent a year is usurious, and that if a contract does not specify a rate of interest, the rate under the contract may not exceed six percent a year. Discrimination against handicapped persons is prohibited, and a goal of the state is established to provide every resident access to adequate, comprehensive health care.

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the local government provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article IX, Local Government, is amended to:

Provide that the counties of the state are those that exist on the date of adoption of the local government article and that county boundaries may be changed if approved by a majority of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. Counties may be merged or county seats relocated if approved by two-thirds of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. The present elected constitutional county offices are retained and four year terms of office are provided. The voters of a county may create additional offices, eliminate offices, or combine the duties and functions of offices. The voters may also grant ordinance making power to the governing body of the county. Cities and towns having more than 1,500 inhabitants may become home-rule cities. Tax limitations are established for operating purposes for cities and counties and the legislature is required to fix debt limits for cities, towns, counties, and school and community junior college districts.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the LOCAL GOVERNMENT PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

A theater's green room was the off-stage sitting room used by the actors, and gets its name from the fact that its walls were often painted green to rest the eyes exposed to bright stage lights.

OFFICE

While an American politician runs for his office, an English politician merely stands for his.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

AUSTIN--These days you frequently see someone wearing an expensive-looking squash blossom necklace or a heavy turquoise and silver bracelet or ring.

The upsurge of interest in buying such American Indian jewelry has been great, but unfortunately the number of persons who have any knowledge upon which to judge the value of such works is small.

Our Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division lawyers noted more than a year ago that this lack of expertise in evaluating authentic, handcrafted Indian jewelry meant there was a chance for misrepresentation by unscrupulous sellers.

Now, reports from several federal agencies indicate that a number of consumers feel they have been defrauded in their purchase of turquoise and silver jewelry.

Our Consumer Protection attorneys say the best safeguard inexperienced Indian jewelry purchasers can have is to deal with a knowledgeable, reputable dealer, one who has an established place of business in case you need to contact him later about any problem.

Some such dealers buy directly from Indian tribes who produce fine jewelry. Many belong to the Indian Arts & Crafts Association, which guarantees that merchandise will be as represented to purchasers. There are also museum shops that sell fine American Indian jewelry, as well as shops in national parks.

If high quality, craftsmanship, and resale value are important to you, or if you intend to collect Indian jewelry, you probably will want to pay more for an item handmade by American Indians, in which sterling silver and fine turquoises are used.

But if you only want a pleasing design, or a piece to wear a few years, then you may be just as happy with a machine-made item, perhaps of "Indian-inspired" design, but not necessarily made by Indians.

One thing to remember is that fine, antique handmade Indian jewelry is extremely scarce, and as a result, quite expensive. However, many Indian artisans are creating authentic new jewelry, some of it in the old designs, some in modern ones.

Experts say the fine, deep sky blue turquoises used in Indian jewelry are hard to obtain now too. The most valuable—and scarce—turquoises are Persian ones. American turquoise is lighter by nature than the Persian stones, but even fine American turquoise is becoming scarce.

Many of the dark blue turquoises found in modern Indian and "Indian-style" jewelry are lower-grade stones that have been treated with oil or wax to darken and intensify color, improve sheen, and add strength.

Treated turquoise, while inferior, should not necessarily be avoided, though. As long as treated stones are identified as such, and there is no attempt to deceive the purchaser, they can be a satisfactory answer to the shortage of high-grade turquoise.

The main thing is to find a dealer or jeweler who will be frank about a piece of American Indian jewelry. Then you can decide for yourself what you want and can afford to pay. Often only an expert can assess the details that make the difference between a magnificent example of Indian craftsmanship and merely a pretty necklace.

If you want to know more about Indian jewelry, contact the Indian Arts & Crafts Board in the Interior Department, Washington D.C. If you have a consumer complaint about misrepresentation in the sale of American Indian jewelry, contact the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division.

Blanche's Blabs

by Blanche Soules

With more homemakers canning food at home now, "spoilage knowledge" is necessary.

Three common causes of spoilage of home canned foods are inaccurate pressure canners, incorrect processing temperature and improper cooling of jars.

Check the pressure canner one a year to be sure it is accurate. Your County Extension Agent has a pressure canner thermometer.

Ways to be sure foods are processed at the correct temperature in the pressure canner are; test pressure gauge so that the temperature is at 240 degrees F. at 10 pounds of pressure.

Exhaust pressure canner 10 minutes after flow of steam from the petcock.

Keep Pressure accurate. Less than 10 pounds of pressure won't kill bacteria in vegetables and meats.

Make adjustment for high altitude in areas above 2,000 feet above sea level.

Homemakers using a water-bath canner ought to have water boiling when jars are placed in the canner. Water should be one inch or more above the top of all jars throughout entire processing time, and it must be kept at a rolling boil.

Check time table carefully for whatever product is being canned, and be sure to add recommended time for high altitude areas.

It's important to cool jars properly after processing is finished. Jars should come out of canner when gauge registers 0 degrees F, or when processing time is completed. They should be placed at least one inch apart and left uncovered until cool.

Do not set jars in a cold draft or breeze because of the possibility of glass breakage.

Q. It seems as if fewer stores in my area are giving trading stamps. I, for one, miss them. Are they going out of business?

A. Not at all, S&H Green Stamps, the biggest company in the business, says that stamp distribution has declined recently because of the energy crisis and the pressure on supermarket costs. But stamps remain strong in many parts of the country and stamp companies say they are looking for a comeback elsewhere.

You aren't alone, incidentally, in missing stamps. In a 1974 national survey, people were asked whether they agreed or disagreed with the statement "I wish more stores in my area gave trading stamps." Fifty-nine per cent of all people agreed with that statement and, if just women are counted, 74 per cent agreed.
