LOCAL RED CROSS CHAPTER IS SHOWING MUCH ACTIVITY

MANY CASES COMING BEFORE THE ORGANIZATION AND ALL RECEIVE PROMPT ATTENTION

LOCAL NEED FOR CLOTHES IS INCREASING

With the Approaching of Cold Weather the Need of Good Warm Clothing Will Increase and You Can Be of Great Help to the Organization by Supplying These Things.

The report of the first months work of the new Red Cross Secretary, Miss Ellis, as given to the Chairman of the Local Chapter Wednesday, brings before the average mind better than many pages or argument just what the Peace Time Programe of the American Red Cross is and how it effects the city of Lubbock. A summary of the report is as follows:

Under Ex-Service activity, two original claims for compensation have been filed; two claims filed for Vocational Training; transportation secured for one Ex-Service man to the governmental hospital at Houston—this man was left on our city, sick, helpless, with a wife and one child and would have cost someone more than $350 to have cared for him thru the winter; secured additional affidavits for medical men in support of compensation claims for three ex-service men entitled to governmental assistance; found regular employment for one ex-service man; visited the family of one service man now in a government hospital; wrote forty letters regarding ex-service men and various claims they have against the government; held fifteen special office interviews with ex-service men and assisted two Spanish-American War Veterans to file claims for pensions.

Under civilian activity the Secretary made fifteen visits to needy homes in the city; found employment for two girls and two boys; provided clothing for one orphan boy; provided clothing for a sick woman and child who were without friends in the city; provided medicine for a sick child and food for its parents for a few days until assistance could be secured from their people; held twenty-five office interviews with persons applying for assistance or relief; and refused five cases sent to office by business men because they refused to answer questions about themselves, where they were from and what they had been doing in the past weeks. In short, cut off five imposters who were attempting to take advantage of the generosity of the citizenship of the city.

Three other persons applied for money or help but when they found they were being investigated immediately left town. One woman applied for financial assistance, gave a good account of herself but left town the same day before the Red Cross received a telegram from her people that they would take care of her. They want every kind of assistance, but they don't want to be investigated to determine whether or not they are worthy cases. It is easier to move on to another town that does not centralize their charity work thru one organization. It is easier to get money in such towns and fewer questions are asked. Let them move on if that is the way they feel about it.

The Secretary has on file (Phone 428) the names of three women, two girls, three boys and two men who must have work. If you have anything about the place that they can do call the Secretary and in this way give them an opportunity to help themselves and maintain their self-respect rather than become an object of charity on the Red Cross generosity. It is better for them, better for the town and just as cheap to you in the long run. Call the Secretary for such help as you may need at anytime. She is practically in touch with people who need the work at all times.

There are two outstanding needs of the local Chapter. The first of these is the need of clothing. Until this date there has been little suffering from lack of clothing but with the first cold spell there is going to come a great demand for warm clothing from many families in this city. Already, as a result of many of the visits of the Secretary, these needs have been listed and this is to request that if any family in town has old clothing that may be made wearable, regardless of size or kind, to includes men's clothing, outer and bring it to the Red Cross office. This under garments of all sizes and kinds for children, bed clothing, quilts, and ladies clothing, shoes, hats, etc. etc. It is hard to believe that there is need for such work on our city but meet the Secretary, go with her into homes in this city and learn the actual conditions to be found here—and then kick in with the membership that you were able to miss by being out of town or "Not at Home" when they called upon you.

Of almost as much importance is a closer corporation on the part of every citizen in the town to centralize the charity work at the Red Cross office. If a beggar, or needy person of any kind with any kind of tale applies to you for help send or bring them to the Red Cross. These hat artists on the street—and them over to the Red Cross—they won't come for they can't stand investigation—but they will move out of town if they hold an empty hat for a half day. They are working this territory just as systamatically as a shoe salesman—and getting more money. Centralize all of this in the Red Cross—and support it.

Organization Being Perfected For the West Texas League

Abilene, Tex, Nov. 29.—At Sweetwater yesterday the directors of the West Texas baseball League elected G. W. Northern of Fort Worth as president. Amarillo, Plainview, Ranger, Lubbock and one or two other towns may come in later, increasing the membership to eight clubs.

The salary limit was raised from $1,800 to $2,000. Another meeting will be held some time in early December at Stamford to work out final details of the League's program. Abilene, San Angelo, Ballinger and Sweetwater finished the season last year, and these clubs will form the nucleus of the 1922 organization, with Stamford certain of a berth among them.

Sweetwater, Tex., Nov. 28.—Club owners of the West Texas League met here today in an effort to make the circuit an eight team organization, San Angelo, Ballinger, Sweetwater and Abilene finished last season.

Four additional teams were expected to be selected today from Amarillo, Plainview, Lubbock, Stamford, Brownwood, Coleman and Big Spring.

Chamber of Com. Sec'y. at Amarillo Resigned Position

W. B. Estes, who for the past two years has been associated with the Amarillo Board of City Development (Chamber of Commerce) as Executive Secretary, has tendered his resignation, effective December 1st. At a called meeting of the Directors of the Amarillo Board of City Development Mr. Estes resignation was formally accepted and a resolution was passed expressing the regrets of the Board and extending congratulations to the community to which Mr. Estes goes from Amarillo.

Secretary Estes served Amarillo through two of the most important years of the city formulative period, and his constructive work will ever stand as a monument to his credit. His record is an enviable one, and his departure from Amarillo will be keenly felt. After Mr. Estes resignation was accepted he announced that he had accepted the Secretaryship of the Las Vegas, New Mexico Commercial Club, and that he would assume his new duties shortly after December first.

Las Vegas is a famous Summer Resort, and is beginning to rival in no small way, the famous Colorado Springs. The scenery in and around Las Vegas is gaining wide-spread recognition; the Mountains and Trout streams have already won the favor of many sportsmen and lovers of nature.

Secretary Estes says that his new field offers a great opportunity, and that he is proud to take an active part in its growth and development.

MRS. SALLIE M. McCULLOM DIED HERE MONDAY P. M.

Mrs. Sallie M. McCullom, died suddenly at her home in the northwest part of the city last Monday afternoon, when she was stricken with a stroke of paralysis. The funeral services were held at the home by Rev. C. N. N. Ferguson, pastor of the First Methodist church. Mr. McCullom, the husband of the deceased is having a nice home built in the northwest part of town. They have been here only a short time, and the family was not very well known. Deceased was a member of the Methodist church. The Avalanche extends condolence to the bereaved family. The remains were laid to rest in the Lubbock cemetery.

MAN BADLY BURNED IN POST HOTEL FIRE

Post, Texas, Nov. 28.—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the Harper Hotel, a large boarding and rooming house here, late yesterday. The building and contents are a total loss. In an effort to save his clothing, D. Masters of Scurry, Texas, employe of the Plainters Gin Co., here, was probably fatally burned. He is in a local sanitarium in a critical condition.

LUBBOCK BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION MAY INCREASE CAPITAL STOCK NEXT MEETING

At a regular meeting of the directors of the Lubbock Building and Loan Association Monday evening, the probability of calling a special meeting of the stock holders after the first of January to increase the capital stock to one million dollars was discussed.

The present capital stock of the company is two hundred thousand dollars, about one hundred and sixty thousand of which has been sold.

The association is in its infancy, having been organized last April, and is headed and directed by some of Lubbock's biggest and livest business men, and was organized with the purpose of helping Lubbock meet the demands of the homeseekers in view, and is proving its worth as at this meeting it was reported that the Association expects to make J. A. Jordan, the fourth man to buy stock when it was first placed on the market, a loan to build a modern six room home on his lots on Broadway. This being the fourth loan made in these few months.

It is hoped that these plans to increase the capital stock will be completed, as that will be a progressive move which will help greatly in the near future, and there are many people here interested in the Association who would welcome its taking its place among the bigger business enterprises of the Plains. This association, however big it may grow, was organized for the benefit of the Lubbock community, and its activity will be confined to this immediate vacinity.

City Officials Are After Gamblers Made Big Haul

Monday night, Chief Hufstedler and City Marshal, Tom McKinley, made a raid on a negro club house and arrested twenty-eight blacks engaged in a card game.

Suspicion had aroused the attention of the police for some time, and a raid on this place several days ago found no direct evidence on the negroes, and they were not arrested, but by a little trickery they were caught in the game Monday night, as Chief Hufstedler made a detour of the house to find that over the west door, had a curtain had been drawn over the glass, and it was apparently the habit of the negroes that when this door was knocked on one of the bunch peeped through the curtain and if it was a "customer" he was let in, and if the "law" the game was broken up with no signs of gaming in evidence, which made arresting them very difficult, but after looking about a while the chief made no formal entrance, but kicked open the door and caught the last one of the gamers. They were turned over to city court. The police force is doing all in its power in our estimation to check the gaming and other law violating elements in Lubbock, and it is to be hoped that before many such crowds of offenders are brought to trial that sentences will be imposed on them to such an extent that it will serve as a warning to those whose inclinations lead to such unlawful dealings.

Another raid was made Tuesday night by the police force in another section of town and five white men were caught gambling. They were thrown in jail awaiting the action of city court.

DRY LEADERS SAY THE PRO PARTY A GONER

Chicago, Nov. 29.—The fate of the prohibition party was debated here all day at a conference of party leaders. Tomorrow the national prohibition committee will take it up.

It developed in the day's discussion, that there was more sentiment in the party's rank and file, that its work was done, and that its machinery had disintegrated in a number of states, that some of its strongest contributors saw no further need of lending their support.

Sentiment for re-organizing the party and giving it a new name failed to meet with general assent.

At tonight's conference Dr. Chas. Scanton of Pittsburg spoke on prohibition work in foreign countries declaring that the progress was much greater than was generally believed.

E. C. MOBLEY IS CALLED TO INDIANA CHURCH

Rev. E. C. Mobley will go to Huntington, Ind., as pastor of the Central Christian Church on Jan. 1, according to a letter received here yesterday by Tom Currie. It was stated recently that he had accepted the work at Taxarkana, Ark., but it has been learned that this report was an error.

Before accepting this call, Rev. Mobley had received calls to Texarkana, St. Louis, Salina, Kan., and Colorado Springs. The letter from Rev. Mobley, who is former pastor of the First Christian Church, was written at Kansas City, where he has been holding a revival. He wrote that he recently held a revival at Plano.—Amarillo News.

HAPPY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HAVE BANQUET

Happy, Texas, Nov. 29.—Sventy-five guests from Happy, Randall County and Amarillo, attended the banquet given here last night by Happy Chamber of Commerce at the City Cafe.

President J. E. Moore, of the Happy Chamber of Commerce, introduced R. M. Fisher, Secretary of the Tulia Chamber of Commerce, who told of the work Tulia is doing in promoting interests of the town and Swisher County.

J. C. Srygley, of Abilene, traveling salesman for Arbuckles Brothers was here Wednesday and Thursday. Business has been very good in this territory, he said.

Train Load of Turkeys Shipped From West Texas

San Angelo, Texas, Dec. 1.—Estimates furnished by local dealers to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce indicate that more than forty carloads of turkeys have been shipped from West Texas to New York and eastern markets. The Dublin, Packing Company of Dublin, Texas, last week shipped a solid carload of turkeys direct to New York City. It was the first car shipped by Dublin dealers for this season. At Algerita last week eastern turkey buyers attended an auction sale of 500 turkeys. These birds come in from the farm and ranches. The peak of prices reached 36 cents.

From Kerrville-Cuero territory fifteen carloads have already been shipped. The Lamesa-Tahoka-South Plains region has shipped a number of carloads.

C. C. French, Field Expert for the Fort Worth Stockyards Co., in charge of increased beef and poultry production propaganda in West Texas, states that in a few years more West Texas will be furnishing four to five times as much turkey and poultry shipments as at present.

Thieves Remove Tires and Tubes From Officer's Car

John McCulloch, special police, lost two tires and 3 inner tubes from his car Tuesday night. The officer was disabled Monday when a horse driven by an expressman stepped on his right foot, and was unable to be out, which is believed to be the reason for the bold theft. The car was in the garage, and contained a new inner tube, which was taken together with two tires.

The chief of police is working on the case, and is sure that he knows who got the tires, and is going to make a complete investigation before any arrests are made, which will take several days to complete. That the parties are embittered by the officers attempt to do his duty is certain, which has resulted from his arresting several gamblers and bootleggers who persist in plying their trades here in spite of warning from officers that they will be dealt with to the full extent of the law if caught.

It is regretable that characters of such tendencies are in this section, and we hope that the alert officer will be able to be with the force in apprehending these criminals before long.

MIDLAND RAILROAD CLAIMS PRESENTED

El Paso, Nov. 28.—With A. W. Norcop of the El Paso bar as special Master in Chancery, claimants against the defunct Midland Northwestern railroad appeared in Federal Court today to present evidence in substantiation of their accounts against the line.

The hearing, attended by nearly a score of persons from Midland, Texas, is for the purpose of establishing priority of claims. It was said that the accounts against the road total about $600,000 with the assets totaling considerable less.

ABILENE MAN TO ENTER SHOE BUSINESS HERE

We have from reliable sources that a merchant of Abilene who is well-known in that city was in Lubbock this week looking into the situation for the establishment of a first class shoe store. While we have no information as to the location of the proposed building, we are informed that either a building was leased or a contract made for the erection of a building for the new business.

CONFEDERATE PRISONERS WILL RECEIVE WARRANTS

Austin, Texas, Nov. 26.—Confederate pension warrants for the quarter ending November 30, were mailed out today by Comptroller Lon A. Smith. Those pensioners not inmates of the confederate home and confederate woman's home, receive $24.00 and those in the homes $12.

ABERNATHY NO. 1 REPORTED MAKING FIVE TO SEVEN BBLS.

THIS MAY BE THE OPENER OF AN EXTENSIVE OIL FIELD FOR THIS SECTION

INDICATIONS GOOD SINCE DRILLING BEGAN

Oil Men From Other States Will Probably Become Interested As They Have Been Watching Developments of This Well and Have Confidence in Surrounding Territory.

The Avalanche received a telephone message from S. J. Redman, Editor of the Abernathy Review, Thursday morning, stating that the Bledsoe No. 1, four miles northwest of Abernathy, had come in with a daily production estimated at about five to seven barrels.

The Avalanche has been publishing reports from the well from time to time, and all have linked favorably with the characteristics of all producers, as it has been in line with some of the biggest wells in so far as indications of being a good one is concerned. Eminent geologists and oil operators from producing and world-known fields have visited the well and it was from their reports that most all our articles have been published, with a reliable representative in Abernathy to watch the well being careful to note all the sands, clay and other elements encountered in drilling.

The Abernathy No. 1 bids fair to become the opener of one of the best fields anywhere, as for many years geologists have watched the Great South Plains, often challenging drillers with startling reports, and it is not thoroughly understood by the writer why so many years have elapsed since their first reports were made without test wells being drilled in this territory. The people of that section are to be congratulated for having among their ranks a pioneer in the oil business and with this production at fourteen hundred feet, there is to be no estimate placed on the possibilities of this well.

Substantial evidence has been given of the interest of outside capitalists and operators in the territory adjoinjng the Bledsoe acreage, which looks mighty encouraging to us as it appears that with this production as evidence of their being a chance to make a big field there, these men are given an opportunity to place their money in proven territory, and with the natural advantages of the Plains and an adequate water supply, which is hindering progress in many of the fields, they will surely see these possibilities and act accordingly.

LATEST REPORT FROM ABERNATHY WELL

At three twenty o'clock yesterday the Avalanche phoned Mr. Hix, Cashier of the Abernathy State Bank, and one of Abernathy's most reliable and conservative citizens, who informed us that without any doubt there is a showing of oil in the Bledsoe No. 1, and that there were about one hundred and fifty out of town cars at the place, and we are sure that the string of cars continued to pour into Abernathy as a large number of Lubbock people went to the well after we called Mr. Hix.

The fact that the water and slush is not being measured to ascertain the amount of oil produced keeps the estimated production at different places, but from all rumors and reports we learn that from three to seven barrels are the estimate placed on it. Mr. Hix, too, substantiated the report that there is no doubt from three to seven barrels, but said he could not tell exactly owing to the slush and water. Seventeen hundred feet is the goal sought by Mr. Bledsoe.

Governor Neff Is To Issue More Pardons Xmas.

Austin, Texas, Nov. 28.—Governor Neff is going to add to his pardon list at Christmas, he said today, adding that he had already promised several pardons for that date. This is the result of his recent tour of the prison farms, and he has already granted clemency to fifty-eight convicts, thirty-eight on Thanksgiving and twenty on his birthday Saturday.

One convict who is to be pardoned literally played his way into the Governor's good graces, the man being a violinist and pianist who has played before rulers of countries. He was sentenced from El Paso on conviction of theft. The Mexican colony of El Paso asked for the pardon, as did the Governor of the Mexican State of Chihuahua. The man was born in Chile twenty-five years ago. He had an old dilapidated violin in prison but when he learned the Governor was coming he sent to El Paso and obtained a finer instrument. The Governor said there was not a dry eye in the audience when the man played "Home, Sweet Home," with a feeling that was sublime.

Another Christmas pardon will go to a negro who has been in prison seven years. A clean record and an unselfish attitude won him mercy. An old negro who had served fourteen years and the man who had been in seven years were before the Governor being questioned. Both had good prison records.

Addressing the younger man Governor Neff said: "This other man has been here fourteen years, don't you think I ought to give him a pardon in preference to you?"

Without batting an eye or hesitating a second the man answered emphatically, "Yes, Sah."

"All right. That was a fine, manly answer," the Governor said. "I will pardon him and pardon you at Christmas."

O. LYKES WILL BUILD TWO TENANT HOUSES

O. Lykes, who has been making his home at Snyder for some time is here, accompanied by his wife, and they will make Lubbock their home again. Mr. Lykes has recently disposed of his property in the Snyder community, and is investing more in Lubbock. He tells us that he is having two tenant houses built on his section of land south of Lubbock and that he expects to put five hundred acres of this land in cultivation before planting time next year. Mr. Lykes says that a man cannot afford to have that much land in Lubbock county and not put it in cultivation, as there is no money in leasing for grazing purposes only. He will no doubt realize handsomely from his investments in these improvements.

FARMER MAKES FORTY BUSHELS CORN PER ACRE

H. H. Guin was here from his farm near Shallowater Wednesday. He has made a good cotton crop this year, and his corn averaged forty bushels per acre. He has a protective system of holding feed until the next crop is so near matured that something can be known about how much it will make in order to have plenty on hand at all times without having to buy, and will not market this crop until next year. We are in hopes that by that time he will receive a better price for it than is now offered. Mr. Guin is a Plains booster, and has a great deal of confidence in the future of this country.

Traveling Engineer Owens, and A. F. Bauer, General Inspector of Transportation, of the Santa Fe, were here Thursday enroute to Seagraves.

Miss Cecil Sims has returned from visiting with her grandparents in Grady, N. M., and reports a most enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jordan have returned home after several months spent in San Antonio and other Texas cities.

T. E. Jones and Q. J. Coleman were here Wednesday from the Coleman farm, two miles northwest of town.

H. W. Laster, a real estate dealer, of Idalou, was here Wednesday looking after business.

Col. Mullican was in Post City Monday and Tuesday attending the court there.

SANTA FE AND CITY ARE MAKING DRAINAGE DITCH

The Santa Fe railroad and city commissioners of Lubbock are going fifty-fifty on the expense of enlarging the drainage ditch along the south side of the railroad, which is a much needed improvement by both the road and the city.

There are five new culberts under construction at this time, being made of heavy and substantial material, which are large enough to take care of the drainage, and make more satisfactory crossings for vehicles.

There seems to be a better spirit of cooperation between the management of the city and the road at this time than has been shown for some time, which we are sure will result in a great deal o food work for the interest of all concerned.

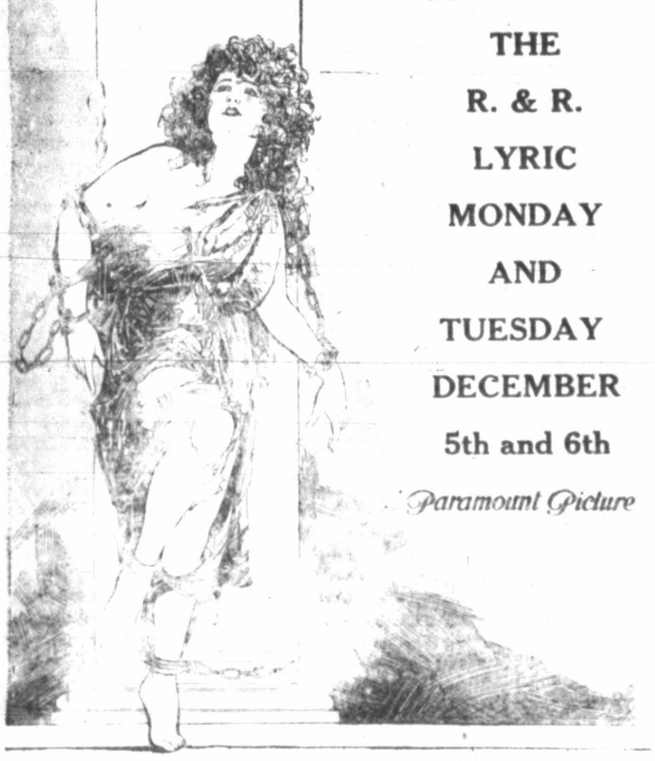

TEXAS UTILITIES MEN MEET CITY OFFICIALS

At a meeting at the court house Wednesday evening of Superintendent Wurdack and Attorney Kelso of the Texas Utilities Company with the Mayor and City Commissioners, plans were discussed for establishing a water line into the section of the city where the company's plant was burned recently.

A very satisfactory meeting is reported, and it is agreed that if sufficient cooperation is received from other business concerns, operating in that section the ripe line will be laid soon, as the Utilities people have agreed to finance their quota of the project.

Yoakum Banker Says Better Times In Near Future

Austin, Nov. 24.—The financial situation in Texas is fast returning to normal and money is becoming easier throughout the State, declared M. C. Driscoll, banker of Yoakum, and chairman of the State banks section of the Texas State Bankers' Association, who spent yesterday here conferring with State officials.

As chairman of the State banks section of the association, Driscoll said he has been keeping in close touch with financial conditions in Texas and was gratified to say that the worst is over and that there will be no necessity for any future closing of banks. Especially is this the case in the oil regions of Texas, where several banks were forced to close on account of the depression in the price of oil and also imprudent loans.

"I believe we have cleared up the situation in the oil fields," said Driscoll, "and there is not any indications there will be any future necessity for banks to close in the oil fields. It was, however, a hard problem to deal with, but now the worst is over."

WITH LUBBOCK BUSINESS MEN

Raleigh Martin, manager of Martin Wolcott, says that he will feature coffee and teas in the future. To what extent Mr. Martin believes in this end of his business can be measured by the fact that he has recently spent several hundred dollars in purchasing a coffee roasting machine. Being adequate in the judging of quality coffee, Mr. Martin believes that he can blend and roast the finest coffees in his store to be found.

This new business will not effect his agency for Chase and Sanborn's coffee, a line that he has handled and featured for more than twenty years.

J. W. Patterson, manager of the Lubbock Uradia Station who spent Sunday in Plainview, visiting with his family states that they will move to Lubbock in the near future to make their permanent home. Mr. Patterson also says that J. C. Owens and family, of Plainview, are moving to Lubbock right away, to make their home. Mr. Owens being connected with the Lubbock Uradio Station.

Santa Claus is beginning to use his power as can be seen from the advertisements in this issue of the Avalanche. A Christmas edition will be printed at least five or ten days before Christmas, at which time the merchants of Lubbock will likely tell in full, what their various stores have as inducements for headquarters for Santa Claus.

The Commission firm of Barr, Snyder and Middleton, of this city, is what we suppose people call "optomists." They say that they intend and expect to sell not less than one hundred thousand head of cattle between this date and the coming month of June. Basing their future record by their record of the past few days we give much credence to their predictions. Here are the sales made within that length of time:

To Dr. J. H. Dean, of Dallas, fifteen hundred head of yearling steers from Messrs Snyder and Tom Clayton.

To M. B. Armstrong, of Oklahoma, City, sixteen hundred head of calves and yearlings, from Messrs Mullican, Copeland, Singleton, Malone, et al.

To Furneaugh Brothers, of Dallas, nine hundred calves and yearlings, from Messrs Mulican, W. K. Dickinson, Sr., Furgus, et al.

To E. E. Lowe, of Denver, Colo, two hundred head of steer calves from J. C. Landon.

So, there is a record of four thousand, two hundred head sold within the past ten days—a pretty good record we say.

Blended coffee—roasted right before your eyes, that deep ambered, invigorating and delicious drink in it's virgin state—as health giving as the pure mountain air, pure as the dew, yet upon the rose—and so on, is a reality in Lubbock right today. Hodges Brothers have secured the services of L. A. Pearson, a coffee expert, formerly of Sulphur Springs, Tex., and has installed the necessary equipment for blending and roasting coffee in their store. Another up town convenience for Lubbock.

The big, crack-proof panels of Upson Board will give you walls and ceilings of enduring charm. You will never again have to bother with brittle, cracking plaster.

Upson Board is different!

It is not only stronger, which makes it hold to the nails where soft, weak boards would pull away, but is also harder and stiffer. Yet is not brittle, nor absorbent like plaster-board.

Upson Board has always sold for at least ½c more per square foot than ordinary wall boards. But it is cheaper in the end as it costs from $5 to $15 less per room to finish than soft, absorbent boards, which soak up expensive paint.

ORGANIZATION MEETING CALLED TO LOG, MARK AND ADVERTISE THE PLAINS AIR LINE HIGHWAY FOR DEC. 5

An Organization Meeting has been called for December 5th at Spur, by Secretary Keen of the local Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of getting the towns between Albany and Roswell, New Mexico, together with a view to logging, marketing and properly advertising a Plains Air Line Highway between Fort Worth and the West by the shortest possible distance.

At the present time in order to get into Fort Worth, from this section, a tourist must either go via Sweetwater, Abilene or across by Wichita Falls. The proposed route will attract a large volume of the Bankhead Highway travel between Fort Worth and the West at present going thru El Paso and divert it thru the South Plains section and at the same time provide a shorter distance thru to Colorado and the West.

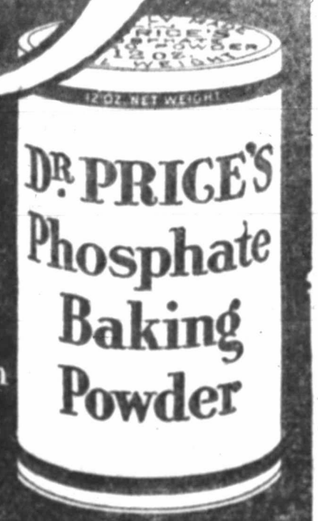

Lubbock has always been particularly fortunate in the securing of cardinal highway designations. In the past not enough attention has been paid to the development of this asset of the city, but with the establishment of the Tourists Park at the Fair Grounds last summer, that incidently continued to have an average of five cars per night put up there, the highway possibilities of this section are being seriously considered by the Chamber of Commerce. All of the Cardinal Highways passing thru the city are to be plainly marked throughout the County and road signs placed even into other counties to a distance of a thousand miles in every direction from this city. This is the highest grade of city advertising and Lubbock is always first in securing constructive advertising of every kind.

Homer D. Wade of Stamford, Clifford Jones of Spur, A. B. Spencer of Crosbyton, and others along the highway have already written the Secretary heartily, endorsing the proposed highway and pledging their full support. Lubbock plans to take a large delegation to Spur on the 5th to represent this city and get acquainted with the leaders from all of the other cities.

Incidently, in view of the growing railroad talk of a line West out of Fort Worth to connect with the South Plains—the same men to meet at Spur on the highway matter will be the men who will take the lead in the development of the railroad idea a few months from now. There were more than 200 inches of publicity in the Fort Worth papers this month on that proposed railroad connection, and the possibilities for the near future are very evident.

CALOMEL GOOD BUT AWFUL TREACHEROUS

Next Dose may Salivate, Shock Liver or Attack Your Bones.

You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate. 10-20

Texas Teachers Would Bar the Users of Cigarettes

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 26.—Texas school teachers have gone on record as being opposed to the use of cigarettes.

The Texas State Teachers Association, in convention here adopted a resolution recommending a law to prohibit the sale of cigarettes or cigarette papers.

The cigarette resolution, rural education and the high school flapper held the center of the stage today.

Probably the most interesting discussion was over the bobbed hair and rolled stockings of the modern high school girl. She has an ardent supporter in Miss Edith L. Clark, of the North Texas Normal School at Denton.

"There is much good even in the most Flippant Flapper, Miss Clark declared, "much of the prattle and frivolity, is mere bubble and after the effervesent silly giggling stage the girl grows into a young woman of whom we are justly proud."

Declaring that rural communities are the breeding places of radicalism and not the cities as generally supposed, Dr. C. A. Drosser of Minneapolis attacked rural schools and the methods used in them.

"The great need of the country is rural leadership and this leadership must come from the school teachers," he said.

Col. T. N. Jones, of Tyler, in a sweeping denunciation, charged that big financial and business interests of Texas were purposely opposing educational advancement in order to keep the people uneducated. Colonel Jones declared that the Legislature appropriated $271,050 to administer the state live stock laws while the appropriation for the Department of Education was only $71,500.

A resolution was also adopted recommending that no teacher be employed in the public schools who did not hold a first grade teachers certificate. This was to become effective Sept. 1, 1924. The resolution also provided that after Sept. 1, 1927, all teachers must have two years normal school training or its equivalent.

APPROPRIATION COMMITTEE GETS DEFICIENCY BILL

Washington, Nov. 21.—A deficiency appropriation bill carrying approximately $104,000,000 or $86,000,000 less than the $190,000,000 requested by various Government departments, was reported today by the House Appropriations Committee.

The Navy asked for $27,00,000 and was granted nothing, while the Veterans' Bureau, which requested $121,000,000, was alloted $65,000,000.

SOCIETY NOTES

Wednesday Needle Club

On Wednesday of last week the Wednesday Needle Club met in the home of Mrs. Bowen with Mrs. Ballinger joint hostess.

Beautiful bouquets of massive white chrysanthemums adorned the reception suite. After a delightful afternoon was spent, refreshments of fruit salad, nut bread, tea and cheese squares were served to the following: Mesdames Hilbourn, Cole, Wilson, Maddox, Sensabaugh, Klett, Thomas, Robbins, Davidson, McKee, Robertson, Ballinger and Bowen. Mrs. Cornelia Ballinger was the guest of the afternoon.

The Elementary Department of the First Presbyterian Sunday School was given a party by the teachers of that department on Friday of last week.

The following ladies are the teachers now in this department:

Miss Trippett, Mesdames Starnes, McKee and Robertson.

Promptly at two-thirty the children assembled at the church and after an impromptu programme was given, games of various kinds were indulged in, after which apples and pop-corn balls were served.

The Auction Bridge Club

The Auction Bridge Club will meet the first Tuesday in December with Mrs. O. L. Slaton as hostess. The annual election of officers will be held.

Bride-Elect

Miss Carey Abney was complimented with a lovely kitchen shower on Wednesday, Nov. 16th, with Mrs. Kid Powell as hostess.

Twenty-five guests were received and invited into the dining room, where the seven colors of the rainbow of tulle, were draped from the chandelier to seven different chairs around the table, where seven ladies served delicious tea.

The honoree was seated in the living room and from her chair (decorated in a beautiful bow) the rainbow colors led into different rooms.

The hostess placed a pretty cap and apron on the honor guest and gave the following appropriate lines:

"Carey I this cap and apron first present,
I know very well you won't resent,
For all housekeepers surely know full well,
How useful these things are, they will surely tell.
But now look around and a ribbon you'll see—
And like unto a rainbow it will be,
'A pot of gold,' may not so,
But something useful as we all know
And when you have finished just look again,
And another rainbow with another end,
And under this end you will find,
So many things of different kinds,
Then keep on hunting till all the rainbows ends have been found,
We know you'll enjoy, just keep looking around."

At the end of each rainbow a huge package was found and after finding the seven they were placed on a table and as the recipient unwrapped them she found them to contain all the useful cooking utensils in aluminum and pyrex for a complete kitchen.

Merry Bidders Entertain.

The Merry Bidders were delightfully entertained last Friday afternoon by Mrs. R. B. Hutchinson and Mrs. S. Lester Guinn in the lovely home of Mrs. Guinn on 310 L Ave.

Eight tables of players enjoyed Forty-two, after which a delicious salad course was served to the following ladies:

Mesdames Lemond, Myrick, Trinkle, Hicks, Cooper, Ellis, Dutton, Bloom, Cardwell, Barnes, Miller, Read, Bradlu, Penny, McLarty, Brown, Spikes, Middleton, Sears, Hunt, Smith, Lindsey, Smith, Pierce, Smith, Germany.

Miss Vinnie Bates and the hostesses, Hutchinson and Mrs. Guinn.

A short business meeting was called by the president, Mrs. Middleton and four new members elected into membership viz: Mrs. Sam Denman, Mrs. Canderefl, Mrs. Bass Arnett and Mrs. Sam Cole.

CANYON SCHOOL ITEMS

Our school was very sorry to hear of Miss Nettie C. Hopper's resignation. The reason for her leaving was that she grew homesick, and when her parents came out here she decided to return with them.

Mr. Bryan Sides is teaching in her place until another teacher can be secured.

The two societies have had two basket ball games between the boys The Olympians were successful in both, but we are still hopeful.

The girls have ordered their ball and they are expecting it today. We hope to be able in a short time to play a match game.

There will be a pie supper given at Canyon School, Friday the second. Everyone is invited to come, the girls bring a pie and the boys bring plenty of money.

Mrs. Green's music recital will be given before the pie supper, on Friday night, the program is as following:

Two selections by Band.
Piano Solo—Truey Thompson.
Reading—T. L. J. Crim.
Piano Solo—Lucile Wagoner.

CHURCH NOTES.

First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Burwell will preach at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and night. Everyone will appreciate hearing him.

First Baptist Church

The revival meeting which recently closed at the Baptist Church was perhaps the most successful one ever held by the church. 54 were received by baptism and 31 by letter.

So well pleased was the church with the autumn meeting that it voted unanimously to hold another one the third Sunday in October of next year.

The morning service next Sunday will be in charge of the laymen. Those who attended our last laymen's service will not want to miss this service. You will be more than repaid by coming.

The evening service will be in charge of our young people, and they never fail us. A special program is being prepared, so that the entire service will be filled with good things.

You have a cordial invitation to these and all other services.

All Night Prayer Meeting

Saturday night, Dec. 3rd, there will be an all night prayer meeting at the Church of the Nazarene. Our General Superintendents have called this meeting in all our churches in the United States in the interest of Foreign Missions and our world-wide Missionary Movement and also in the interest of the world-wide Revival in every church of the Nazarene throughtout the world, beginning on January 1st, 1922. All people of every creed, color, nation, kindred tongue or clime are invited to help in this world-wide movement. All are invited to come to the all-night prayer service, Saturday night.

Yours in His Service,
W. B. PINSON, Pastor.

NEW BRANCH HOUSE FOR LUBBOCK ASSURED

J. D. Briggs of Wichita Falls, was here Thursday in the interest of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, of which he is supervising agent of the Dallas branch.

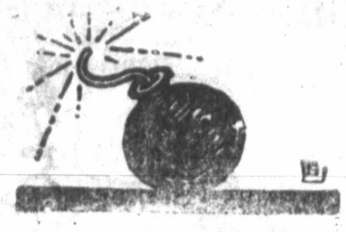

He has been making Lubbock in the interest of that business for the past ten years, and has decided to establish another district office here, naming as head of the new business L. H. Shelton, local agent for the machines named.

The new office will employ two office salesladies, and two traveling salesmen, who will make the territory adjacent to Lubbock, and the manager, Mr. Shelton, together with salesmen in different parts of the territory which will comprise about twenty-two counties.

Mr. Beggs told the Avalanche force that his good impression of Lubbock is not at all new, as for the ten years he has been in this territory he realized that someday this would be a good trade center, but expressed a surprise at its immediate growth. The fact that the railroad facilities are completely adequate to meet the demands of the business, that Lubbock is surrounded by a good trade territory, and above all, that Lubbock is one of the livest and best towns on the plains, have been the outstanding features that have convinced him of the advantages of this town as the best headquarters location to be found in West Texas.

We are proud of the consideration given this town by Mr. Briggs and hope that he will be well pleased with the new office here.

The new business will be in operation soon after the first of January.

Secretary of the Post Interests Here From Chicago Says the South Plains is On Top of the World

H. C. Hawk, with the Post interests, of Chicago, J. F. Hartford and S. D. Bardwell, managers of the Double U and Post interests, of Post City, were here Wednesday looking after business, and incidentally paying a visit to this part of the Great South Plains.

Mr. Hawk said the people of the plains are the most optomistic and progressive looking people he has seen in many months. "The farmers of this territory are absolutely on top of the world, so far as financial conditions are concerned," he said, emphasizing the fact that our lands here will produce a variety of crops, which the higher priced lands of the north are adapted only to raising a few crops, and as some of it was planted to wheat this year there will not be enough made of it to pay the labor used in cultivating the crop, much less the interest on the money invested in the lands. "In some places I have visited recently the price of lands have decreased one hundred per cent," he said "and I am especially well pleased to see the lands of this country in demand at about the same price it was at the time things were at their highest."

The plains is to become one of the greatest fattening and finishing districts anywhere, which will save thousands of dollars in transfering the cattle from the ranches here to northern fattening pens, is the opinion of Mr. Hawk, substantiated by experiences made by Mr. Hartford on a farm near Post City, some cattle he fed and finished there making a record which gave the farm wide publicity, which was spoken of with favor by big cattle men and packers from all over the state.

In speaking of the general conditions of Post, these men were all of the opinion that in no place could conditions be any better than there, as the cotton mills are running day and high, and the farmers have gathered good crops. We learn from them that the farmers on the lands sold by their company ginned about twelve thousand bales of cotton this year.

It is very encouraging to have men like Mr. Hawk recognize the advantages of the plains, and we are in hopes that when he is in this section again he will make Lubbock another such visit.

FARMERS WILL FEED GRAIN TO STOCK THIS WINTER

Dalhart, Texas, Nov. 30.—The indications are that a large percentage of farmers in the North Plains country will this year feed both their milo maize and Indian corn crops to hogs and thus save the expense of shipping out the raw agricultural products and shipping in pork. One farmer, W. J. Murdock of Sherman County, near Stratford, is planning to feed his entire feed crop to hogs this year. Ford has been sent to C. C. French, Industrial Manager of the Fort Worth Stockyards Co., and who is a participant in the joint Livestock-Dairy-Poultry Campaign of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, inviting him to visit this territory in connection with plans for additional importations of swine.

FOUR BILLION NEEDED TO RUN GOVERNMENT IN 1922

Washington, Nov. 28.—When Congress meets Dec. 5 it will be asked to appropriate approximately $4,000,000,000 for operation of the Government during the fiscal year, which begins July, 1, 1922.

This sum is, roughly, about $1,000,000,000 less than will be spent during the current year. But it is four times as great as the outlay in pre-waf years.

Interest on the war debt alone, coupled with sinking fund requirements, accounts for $1,000,000,000 of the increase. Hundreds of millions are necessary for soldier relief, the military establishments require greater sums, and other hundreds of millions will go for "cleaning up" war obligations.

Tired

"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't ever hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

. . . I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

West Texas Poultry Industry Is Not Well Developed as Yet

Stamford, Texas, Nov. 30.—According to F. W. Kazmeier, Poultry Expert A. & M. College, West Texas is not reaping as great a profit as the region should from the poultry industry. Mr. Kazmeier recently conducted 31 day's poultry school in San Angelo and promoted a turkey pool recently loaded out of San Angelo. Mr. Krazmeier advises the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Committee, having in charge the Agricultural-Livestock Dairy Campaign, that he has now arranged to hold a number of chicken demonstrations before gatherings of farmers in West Texas. While West Texas is one of the largest poultry shipping regions in the United States the Expert from College Station states that there is great neglect in culling stock, in the selection of good laying stock and in selecting late moulters. Since egg bring more money in the fall and winter it is his view that the farmer profits most who has the late moulters since they are good layers while the early moulters are poor layers. Among the yellow legged tribe the dull shanked ones produce and pay their way while those with the brither yellow shanks are just ordinary marketable chickens. At these different schools the principal things to be stressed will be the tests of chickens prepared for it and elimination of scrubs. At each school it is urged that the farmers attending bring a few chickens with them in order to get practical demonstration. A school has already been held at Wall, Texas, and a school was also conducted at Brownwood on November 11 and 12.

That better conditions prevail in West Texas for the poultry industry than in the famous petalina region in California where chicken produce is sent out by careloads instead of being expressed out in small lots, is the opinion of Mr. Kazmeier. He makes the statement that this is now admitted by California experts themselves. They point out that the best chicken feed on the known world is raised in West Texas. Referece is had to Kaffir, Milo and Feterita. The petalina growers buy their feed direct from West Texas and then ship eggs and chickens right through West Texas to eastern markets.

One of the great difficulties in the sale of turkeys in West Texas is the great range in price. Last year on the same day in different parts of West Texas turkeys sold all the way from 18 to 41c per pound.

TAKING DESPERATE CHANCES.

It is true that many contract severe colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding attack and paves the way for the more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds may be had for a trifle?

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS chill TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

THIN, FLAT HAIR GROWS LONG, THICK AND ABUNDANT

"Danderine" costs only 35 cents a bottle. One application ends all dandruff, stops itching and falling hair, and, in a few moments, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will appear a mass, so soft, lustrous, and easy to do up. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks use, when you see new hair—fine and downy, at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. "Danderine" is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. This delightful, stimulating tonic helps thin, lifeless, faded hair to grow long, thick, heavy and luxuriant. 10-20

JAPAN IS UNWILLING TO COMPLY WITH AMERICA'S PROPOSALS OF NAVAL CUT

Washington, Nov. 26.—America and Japan were deadlocked tonight on limitation of naval armaments.

The chief item in the Hughes program was tied up in a committee of experts who, it was revealed today, are now arguing over the interpretation of certain facts relative to capital ships.

The Japanese have indicated a willingness to make a partial concession on their demand for a navy 70 per cent as great as that of the United States and Great Britain but the United States is standing firm for the 60 per cent ratio, insisting that the facts prove the 60 per cent ratio is more than fair.

"Who will yield and when, and at what price?" was the question upon which interest of the delegates was centered.

The extent of the deadlock was revealed in guarded statements from official and semi-official search to the effect.

1—That the committee of naval experts at work on the proposal for a 5-5-3 naval program for the United States, Great Britain and Japan has finished gathering data, which the American experts hold proves the justice and generosity of the five-five-three plan, which the Japanese hold it proves they should have a bigger navy.

2—That the experts are now "conducting conversations" regarding the correct interpretation to be put on the computation.

3—That there is no good reason, so far as the United States can see why the American program as originally stated by Secretary Hughes, should not be accepted at once.

4—That Japan has raised numerous knotty technical points in addition to her demand for a 70 per cent ratio of tonnage instead of 60 per cent.

5—That the deadlock is over the capital ships alone, submarines, and other matters, having been definitely excluded from consideration.

No official would hazard a prediction as to how long the existing deadlock would last, or what means would be taken to end it. The utmost reticence was maintained regarding the question, even the usual expression that "we are satisfied with the progress being made" being omitted today for the first time from official utterances.

HUNT'S GROCERY

Invites You to Trade Here During December

To those who have been thinking of making a change, and to those who have no regular grocery store we ask your consideration for the month of December.

December is the best month in the year to test a good grocery. There are the days when feasts will be spread, and just how successful they will be depends upon where you buy your groceries; whether the ingredients you use are of the highest standard, fresh and clean, also depend upon where they come from.

WE PROMISE YOU MORE SATISFACTION—

MOTHER! MOVE CHILD'S BOWELS WITH CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP

Hurry mother! Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup" and it never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. If constipated, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic, or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good cleansing of the little bowels is often all that is necessary.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup. 11-4

LUBBOCKWARD

There was a meeting of the directors of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce held recently in their regular meeting place. At that meeting was Hamilton "Ham" Wright, staff correspondent of the Fort Worth Record. There is likely to be great interest taken in just what the meeting had for its purpose. A man who represents the sentiment of the portion of Fort Worth who realizes that their future destiny is linked with "the breadth and length of the Great Plains country to their West." The directing board of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, a source of influence and power and synomous with co-operation listened to what Mr. Wright had in mind.

Fort Worth citizens are beginning to look forward to a direct rail connection with the Plains country. Lubbock has believed this inevitable and almost a necessity. Mr. Wright was agitating that very thing! In addition, he told the directors of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce some very interesting things relative to Fort Worth's possible source of financing such a project. He told of the willingness of the Swenson interests to give over their short line railroad running from Stamford to Spur. He wanted to know a little about how the people of Lubbock felt. He learned!

Not only would Lubbock, Fort Worth and the territories between be extremely benefitted by such a rail line, but to the West of Lubbock, the Great Plains of Eastern New Mexico, Roswell the shipping center of Eastern New Mexico as well as financial, would receive benefit of untold dimensions. The fact of the matter is: Roswell people have believed in such a project; that it would open up that part of their trade territory between them and Carrizzo. Such an outlet is badly needed West of Roswell and could follow the present stage line from Roswell to Carrizzo very advantageously. To their East, they are facing the proposition of hvaing farmers haul their products a hundred miles or more, and sometimes coming to Texas markets. Roswell is well enough established as the commercial center of that section of the State that she need not fear a rival.

There is a whole lot of territory producing much wealth and a territory that will continue to increase this production, between Roswell, N. M., via Lubbock to Fort Worth. It is such agitation as was carried forward in the little meeting of a few days ago from which spring great projects. Who knows but this will be the case again.

OFFICIAL CO-OPERATION

The Avalanche has been watching. We have been listening. We have been thinking. We have reached a conclusion, and this is it: We have concluded that one reason the laws are not better enforced is because the peace officers are not working in harmony. There is too much jealousy, and lack of co-operation among the officials. There should be the closest co-operation among the peace officers and they should be able to work together in every way to effect the best results in the enforcement of the laws. As we see it there is such a great breech between the city and the county and State officials that one department will not assist the other and even go so far as to almost handicap the other in the apprehension of some of the violations of the law. This certainly is far from what it should be, and the law abiding citizens are awaking to the condition, and there will be a demand for a change in the policies of some officers or a change in the officers themselves. There is a growing sentiment in favor of cleaning up the morals of this city, and we are glad that the people are at last awakening to the awful situation, and we are hopeful that we will be able to note improvement in the old town soon. The Avalanche has no grievance against any officer in Lubbock, if they are doing their full duty, and we want to co-operate with them, give them all the backing we can in the enforcement of the laws, but we believe that we are correct in our conclusions in this matter and it should be changed. Let every peace officer in the county, whether sheriff, constable, chief of police or night watchman work together, then let the judges in every department rule fearlessly and justly, and every juror perform his duty as he has sworn he would, and this will be no haven of rest for the violator of the law, and they, like the wild geese will seek other quarters, where the atmosphere is more congenial.

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE

Rain is needed not only in West Texas, but in many other sections of this and other States. Kansas, for instance has the lowest wheat condition in its history, due to the prolonged drouth. Some towns in east Texas are, or were, hauling in water. The continued absence of rain is a serious problem for any section any time.—Abilene Reporter.

When the East is dry the state papers very seldom ever mention it except by accident, but when it becomes a little dusty on the plains or in West Texas, there is a great lament. The fellows in the East are scared to death they will have to send us relief out here. The West is no drier today than the East, yet nearly all of the dry dope is noticed "in the West."

With the rapid settling up of the Great South Plains country brings the responsibilities of taking care of the education and morals of the young folks who come with the develpoment of the land. Lubbock is the central point of this great territory, and should be the educational center as well. We believe that we should have the best school in the West, and we have now, with the equipment we have, but this should be greatly improved, and must be enlarged before the beginning of another school term. The increase in the number of pupils will necessitate this and our citizenship must not stand back on making every preparation this is necessary for this additional equipment.

GETTING DOWN TO BUSINESS

In the Avalanche of last Tuesday a notice was carried by the Justice of the Peace in which he makes a statement of his policies toward the violators of the gambling laws of the country. He states that he will not grant any extension of fines or in other words, when a fellow is fined for gambling, he does not propose to turn them loose and depend upon them paying their fines at some future date. It must be cash over the counter. That is right and proper for the J. P. Next he says he proposes and is determined that he is going to after the first of December (we do not know why he put it off that long) he is going to fine them for the first offense the minimum (and it should be the maximum) plus $5.00 and costs and for each offense thereafter the fine will be doubled. This will have a tendency to take the taste for card playing out of the mouth of the boys especially those who have not been very lucky, and cannot get enough coin together to pay their fine, and will have to live it up in the county jail. We are sure that if the officers will do their dead level best and use every means to give those engaged in these violations to understand that they do not in any way approve of their actions and will go to the extreme limit of their power to break it up; with a full co-operation of the officials in every department of law enforcement there would be much better results.

A MUNICIPAL CHRISTMAS TREE

There is a movement on foot at the present time for Lubbock to have a municipal Christmas tree. If this plan materializes it will be the first of its kind ever attempted in Lubbock. We believe however, that Lubbock has reached the point where this is the most feasible thing to do, and we believe that the majority of the people of Lubbock will be in favor of the movement and will support it. It is the best way for the entire town to participate in a Christmas tree and all the children, regardless of church affiliation, or anything else to enjoy the Christmas tree pleasures. This movement is being fostered by the Rotary Club, joined by other clubs of the city, and committees will be appointed from the various organizations and plans mapped out and preparations for the event begin right soon. Further developments will be given publicity through the Avalanche, and we believe the matter will be put over in good shape in the Lubbock style.

There are many new enterprises that should receive the encouragement of the people of this city, that are going unattended because of what the people call "close times." Lubbock is greatly in need of more hotel accommodations. The hotels we have are good ones. We would not say that they could be bettered, but they need either to be increased or additional hotel equipment added. Lubbock people could well afford to invest some money in a proposition of this kind. Lubbock needs a good strong building Association and a few hundred dollars in that would mean a wonderful advancement for the town. Lubbock needs some more good business houses, and a few hundred dollars invested in this way would be a great help to the town. Some fellows say they havent the money, but these same fellows will spend many times this amount of money on things of much less importance. Lets get busy and back up some of these really important enterprises.

Early in the coming year will be the time for electing city officials. Lubbock has a splendid working force at the present time and the people should see to it that a good business set of men be elected to fill the places of those whose office term expires at the end of this term. If the old ones cannot be persuaded to serve another term, then we want good business folks, to carry on the work that these men have so well in hand. Lubbock must 'carry on,' she must continue to advance along all lines. There is nothing to do but continue to keep the way clear for a continued growth. This is one reason for the importance of having men who are capable of handling big propositions to fill these offices, for indeed it is one of the biggest business propositions of the age, city building.

Now is about the best time a person could find to build if they are planning to build any time in the near future. Materials are reasonable and workmen are plentiful, and many are in need of the employment. Build your new residence now. Build that new store building now. Paint that house now. Do everything you can that you are contemplating doing in the near future, to stimulate business and tide the people over the close times and at the same time be a great help to you and the community in which you live.

From all reports the great South Plains is probably in the best condition financially of any part of the State. People who have visited other sections are bringing back dreadful reports of the conditions. We are not saying this boastfully. but there are people who have knocked this country, from every angle that they can think of and this is mentioned merely to show that this part of the state is taking care of itself in a real substancial way. Come to the South Plains.

Get it out of your system that the country man is trying to beat you Mr. Merchant, and also Mr. Farmer remember that most of the merchants are farmers come to town. In other words cooperate.

The city of Lubbock should extend some of her water, sewer and light lines, in order to take care of the many property owners in territory that is extended to it. A bond issue should take care of this.

We believe the marketing of farm products is one of the vital things to be considered in this city. Lubbock should be a city where there could be found a market for every article raised on the farm.

Hog, hominy and good old Jersey butter made right here on the South Plains. Talk about living at home, oh boy!

PUBLIC OPINION

Good Advice But Wrongly Applied.

In the Avalanche of 25, I see "President Harding says the quickest way to put the world right is to get them (the public), to saving their money."

Good advice, but wrongly applied. Mr Harding, the quickest way is for the big official administrative and legislative army at Washington, D. C., payed to represent and to work for the people and their interests, to quit wasting the money collected from the people. How can the people save their money when the tax collector and profiteers take it from them as fast as they can make it? Get a good broom, Mr. Harding and clean up at home, (Washington, D. C.,) and then the people will be able to take care of themselves. You are the reckless spenders that need to economize and give us poor tax and profiteer payers a chance to live and to save.

Though, right you are, Mr. Harding, on your disarmament proposition, if it is real, actually works for peace and is made strong enough. Why not the world disband armies and turn war vessels and murder machines to useful purposes? Out of each dollar now collected off the people by our government, ninety-two cents goes to war purposes. That enormous expense could be saved to the tax payers or turned to useful purposes, and anybody ought to know that the dangers of another war would not be 1-10 as great as now. If two men fall out and both are unarmed, wouldn't they be as equally matched as if both were armed to their teeth? All the difference is in the expense of arming—in the quick and devilish work they can do, and in the big profits to the makers of armaments. Is the taking of life desirable? Is murder commendable? Is wars, armaments and war materials, as such, beneficial, necessary or helpful to the public—to peace, progress, prosperity, happiness, good will morality or christianity? I affirm that they are not. It is not right—it is not best—it is neither God's will or the will of the people of the nations. It is the evil work of selfish and designing men. The enormous expense is worse than wasted. The awful destruction, sorrow, suffering and death, can easily be averted by the proper exercise of reason, co-operation and good and just judgment by people and nations, especially by the leaders and heads of governments.

FIZ AND FRANCOIS

By Annelle T. Greene

The sun was high above the mountain top when Fiz and Francois awoke the next morning from their bed underneath the great rock. The wind blew cold, for not far from them lay huge banks of snow that had covered the mountain peaks for many years. But the children felt snug and warm, for they were still between the great eagles and their soft, warm wings were still folded over them. The eagles had woke early and longed for their breakfast. They had meant to feed upon the children when they carried them to the mountain top, but now they remembered how they had fed and watered them the evening before, and had them to the sheltering rock, and for this kindness they loved them too much to do them any harm. They lay quite still and patient until the children awoke.

Fiz and Francois were so glad to find the eagles did not offer to harm them, they placed their arms around their strong, feathery necks, and stroked and kissed their bald heads. Then they all stood up and stretched themselves and wondered what to do next. The children soon began to shiver from the cold, but they knew they had gained the friendship of the eagles by being kind to them and that they would have to keep it in the same way. They led them again to the dead goat and left them there to eat, while they went to the boiling lake to warm themselves and to cook a portion of the meat for their own breakfast. They meant to return to the eagles before the birds had finished, but they were too late, for evidently they had tired of goat meat and the children saw them rushing down the mountain side and out of sight.

Fiz and Francois were frantic with fear when they found they were alone on top of the cold and lonely mountain. How they longed to be on the eagles' backs as they flew so easily and safely over the beast inhabited forest below, and down to the pretty valley, where stood their dear little home. Fiz felt like crying, but when he saw Francois was already doing so he forgot his fears and tried to comfort her. "Never mind," said he, "what if a mad wolf would come by and grab us up and run thru the forest so fast nothing could catch him, and just when he got thru it, Dad would be there with a gun and shoot him, and then get us and take us home."

Francois was laughing with delight at the thought of such a probability, when suddenly the two eagles dropped to the ground beside them. Each carried a small pig which they laid at the feet of the children. Soon they had all refreshed themselves, from the tender flesh of the pigs and the children playfully got astride the eagles' backs, when to their surprise, the birds spread their great wings and arose from the ground and began flying toward the other side of the mountain.

PARENT-TEACHERS CLUB HOLD INTERESTING MEET

The Parent-Teachers Club held its last session at the Grammar School with a splendid attendance.

The committee on placing drinking fountains at the Primary School was not ready to make a full report, but thought this work would probably be finished by Christmas.

Mr. Dupre reported that the 20th Century Club had agreed to present the High School with window shades so the committee that had been appointed to do this work was very thankful to be relieved of a part of the burden.

The Club decided to adopt a course of study and Mesdames Haynes, Wolf forth, and Hutchinson were oppointed to select a suitable course.

The time of meeting was changed to the first and third Thursday in each month. This change was made because Friday is usually the teachers busiest day.

LITTLE DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. BRABHAM DEAD

Nell, the twenty-two months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brabham, of Seagraves, died at the home of her grandparents in east Texas and was brought here Monday, accompanied by her parents, enroute to Seagraves to be buried there. A large number of friends and relatives of the family met the berieved parents here, and did everything possible to make them comfortable on the long trip to Seagraves. Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church at that place by Rev. Ferguson, of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Brabham have been in the Idalou and Seagraves communities for many years, and have many friends there. He has been in the banking business there, and was preparing to make a change when it was decided that Mrs. Brabham take the baby for a visit to its grandparents. They had not been there but two or three days when the child became ill, and died after several days.

Lubbock Should Have Surenough Packing House

Lubbock and Lubbock county needs a packing-house. It would make a home market for our surplus cattle, hogs, sheep, poultry and other stuff handled by packers, and it would stimulate and increase such production. It would be a great saving in transportation, shipping out the live stock and shipping back the prepared products. It would keep the money in circulation here at home instead of sending it away. It would give employment to several of Lubbock citizens; it would be a great help and a great boost for Lubbock and the South Plains; it certainly would pay the stock men of the South Plains to put in a packing house at Lubbock.

We need a cheese factory for the same reasons, enumerated above.

We need a broom factory to work up here at home the great crops of broom corn that this great Lubbock country is capable of producing if we had a home market for it; and it would stimulate and increase our agriculture and be a great help in the way of diversification; and have other above reasons apply also.

We need a peanut factory to work up the immense peanut crops that could be raised in this South Plains country, and that would add another great industry and help out diversification.

We need a canning factory to take care of fruits, vegetables and other stuff suitable for canning, and to make a market for the greatly increased crops of such that we could raise if we had sufficient market for it. There are several other industries that Lubbock and the South Plains needs and there is much more to say on the five here mentioned, but this is sufficient to present to your minds the great advantages and great possibilities to be derived from the establishment of said industrial plants in our midst.

BUCKNER'S ORPHAN HOME IS PLEDGED $22,000

More than $22,000 was given to Buckner Orphan's Home by representatives of the Texas Baptist Women's Missionary Unions at the Buckner Orphan's Home evening of the annual convention, which was held at Central Christian Church Monday. In addition to this amount a carload of fruit and vegetables in one lot and numerous gifts of vegetables, chickens, newly made garments, 150 pounds of home-made candy and other goods were pledged.

The presentation of the gifts followed an address by Dr. Hal F. Buckner, son of the founder of the home and at present pastor of the church there. He told of the needs in food, clothing and housing facilities. Dr. Buckner declared that food for the home costs $300 a day and the other expenses will total $15,000 a month. Approximately $198,000 a year is needed to properly feed the children, not considering the cost of repairs and maintenance of the buildings and grounds.

COTTON PICKING IS RAPIDLY COMING TO CLOSE

Stamford, Texas, Nov. 28.—Floyd County's cotton crop is practically all out of the fields and the gins have announced their plans to close for the season on December 1st., according to word received by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. This will be about sixty days earlier than the gins have ever closed before, since cotton has been a crop in the county.

Estimates for this years cotton crop were set at 1500 bales when the season opened, did not miss the mark very much. The total ginnings to November 22nd, were 1362 bales. The unusually good season for maturing cotton this year has held the grade up greatly and over three-fourths of the crop has been middling. The value of the crop marketed locally has been in the neighborhood of $150,000.

A. A. Garner was here Wednesday and called in to renew his subscription to the Avalanche. He made a good row crop this year, and gathered five bales from twelve acres of cotton.

Rev. C. N. N. Ferguson, pastor of the Methodist church in this city, went to Seagraves Monday, to attend the funeral of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brabham. A number of other Lubbock people attended the funeral, and there was quite a large crowd present at the services at Seagraves.

Clifton Barrier Receives Prize for Window Trimming

Mr. Clifton Barrier, of Barrier Bros. store, this city, has just been awarded a valuable prize for the excellence of the window trim which he designed for the store during Dr. Scholl's National Demonstration Week, Oct. 22nd, to 29th.

This was a contest in which thousands of window trimmers of the leading shoe stores in the United States and Canada participated and it is, indeed, an achievement to have gained one of the prizes. The display in question was notable both for artistic conception and striking arrangement and was ideed a credit to Mr. Barrier.

The occasion of this window display was Dr. Scholl's National Demonstration Week, an annual event in the shoe trade. Every year thousands of dealers everywhere devote this particular week to the education of the public along lines of foot comfort through the use of mechanical foot appliances as well as to the necessity of having proper footwear properly fitted.

The Barrier Bros. store makes a specialty of this kind of foot service and has a specially trained practipedist always in the store to fit the right type of shoe as well as explain and fit these foot comfort appliances which have benefitted so many millions of people in all parts of the world.

This expert is a graduate of the American School of Practipedics and has a thorough knowledge of the anatomy of the foot and the causes and characteristics of the various ailments to which the foot is subject.

"A Shine in Every Drop"

NEWS ITEMS OF THE PAST WEEK FROM MOODY COM.

Another day set apart as a day of thanksgiving by our President and by our State Governor, has just come and gone. I am wondering how many really stopped and summed up the many things they had to be thankful for since the last thanksgiving day?

Our Sunday School is growing in interest. We had the greatest number present Sunday that we have had since organizing.

Another airship passed over Moody early Monday morning. They are getting so common that some of the Moody people say they even stand out in the yard, without a hat on, and watch them fly over. They are not so afraid of them falling on their heads now, you see.

Ulis King and Harry Palmer made a business trip to Lubbock Tuesday.

The land agent tells us that there are four families moving into our community between now and Christmas.

Mr. Clay Walker recently of Frederick, Okla., is now working for Jno. Swofford.

Mr. Jim Thorp and family, a nephew of our citizen, J. L. Thorp, has just moved here from Bell county.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frazier took Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. King.

Bill Chism returned Monday from Crosbyton, where he had been to attend court.

Euel and Buel Hall, who have been working for Messrs Murray and Palmer, left today for their home at Cooper, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Evans, of Ropes, were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Swofford, the latter part of the week.

There is a family just moving on the Abernathy ranch, from Comanche Co., we failed to learn their names.

Mr. Ray Cline and family of near Frederick, Okla., are spending a month with Mrs. Cline's father, Bob Swofford.

Tom Van Zandt, of Post, who has been visiting the family of Mr. Nickell left for home Sunday . He was through the Moody country last April and he said he thought it the most desolate place he ever saw. But now, he thinks it an ideal place since there has been such rapid development. He is going home and making arrangements to come back permanently.

The Mail Route overseer was over the route Friday, and he recommends for the present, a route out from Ropes via. Moody and on to Leveland. But, beginning with June, the Route will start out from Lubbock via Leveland, Moody, Ropes and on to Slide and then into Lubbock.

On the eve of Thanksgiving day all the people went to the school house where they were intertained by two basket ball games, and a Goat roping contest. In the goat roping contest, Walter Frazier won first money by tying the goat down in fifteen seconds and Ulis King won second money with a hind foot catch.

John Swofford has contracted to truck some car loads of cake to the Slaughter ranch.

Our program and play Thanksgiving night was a decided success. Everyone who took part, did credit to themselves. The following is the program as rendered:

Miscellaneous piano music, while the crowd assembled, by Mrs. Palmer.

Opening address, by Prof Teague.

America, sung by the Congregation

Reading, "Thanksgiving," Annie Lou Thorp.

Vocal Solo, "Farewell Cabin Mine" Mrs. King.

Piano Duet, Mesdames Murray and King.

Monologue, "Betsy Bowler's Awakening," Wilsie Teague.

Vocal Solo, "When Love is Done," Mrs. Murray.

Reading, Dean Cheeney.

Vocal Duet, "In the hush of the Twilight-hour, by Mesdames King and Murray.

Play "Won by a Wager," given by eight characters, Violin music by Earl Nickell, accompanied on the drum by Harry Palmer and on the piano by Mesdames Teague and Murray.

Negro Sermon, by Walter Frazier, assisted in song service by Bill Murray.

We noted quite a number of Leveland and Ropes people at our play Thursday night.

Wilsie Teague met with quite a painful accident Wednesday, while playing basket ball. She sprained her ankle so badly she could not walk for a day or two, and it was with very painful difficulty that she played her parts in the program.

Dick Buck attended the goat roping contest and program Thursday, and also attended Sunday School. We are glad to have him back.

Miss Johnny Busby, from near the Yovalla Camp, attended our program and Sunday School, too.

Prof. Teague and family made a business trip to Brownfield Saturday in search of a good milk cow they heard was for sale, but didn't find any. So you will oblige him by letting him know yours is for sale.

We are planning to have a box supper next Saturday night, Dec. 3. We invite the surrounding communities. Would be glad if all the ladies would bring a box and all the gentlemen a pocket full of money.

Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared Ben F. Dorsey, who, having been duly sworn according to law, says that he is the Editor of The Lubbock Avalanche, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, as amended by the Act of March 3, 1933, embodied in section 537, Postal Laws and Regulations, to wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are: Publisher, Lubbock Avalanche Publishing Co., Lubbock, Texas; Editor, Ben F. Dorsey, Lubbock, Texas; Managing Editor, None; Business Manager, None.

2. That the owner is: (If owned by a corporation, its name and address must be stated and also immediately thereunder the names and addresses of stockholders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of the total amount of stock. If not owned by a corporation, the names and addresses of the individual owners must be given. If owned by a firm, company, or other unincorporated concern, its name and address, as well as those of each individual member, must be given.) Lubbock Avalanche Publishing Co., Lubbock, Texas; Ben F. Dorsey, Lubbock, Texas.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: (If there are none, so state.) None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

5. That the average number of copies of each issue of this publication sold or distributed, through the mails or otherwise, to paid subscribers during the six months preceding the date shown above is (This information is required from daily publications only.)

Ben F. Dorsey, Editor.

Suggestion Offered On the Subject of Marketing Produce

In the editorial of last Friday, the Editor asked this question. We will endeavor to give a few ideas on his line, hoping that a more able method may be planned from some better writer.

I will first mention an experience that a farmer's wife had, that we know of. She carried a 50 lb. can of nice country lard to town to sell, after trying several grocery stores, she went to the hotel and Cafe's. The groceryman's plea was he could not handle it, because it was not put up in lard buckets. The Cafe man said (his) customers wanted their eats cooked with compounds. The baker said he bought in bulk and had 1000 lbs. on hand now. The meat-market man said he would take it if she would give it to him, or in other words, his price was so low, that practically was the size of his price for the lard. What is the farmer going to do with their surplus of farm products? We make the suggestion that the merchants and farmers have a trade and exchange day once or twice a month. On these days the farmers could bring in their produce from the farms and exchange with one another or with the city man.

Say farmer Jones has a surplus of peanuts, sweet potatoes. He could exchange with farmer Smith for a can of syrup or pigs, or maize or corn. This is an old time custom that the farmers used before railroads were built. The farmers wives could exchange poultry or butter for other things in the city. Could there be a building rented near the square where it would be convenient for everyone to look over the list, or see the produce that was for exchange or sale, one man should be prompted to keep a list and show to would-be customers or buyers. By this plan the farmers help themselves. There ought to be some plan worked out to help both, farmer and merchant. It is very discouraging for a farmer to haul a load to town, then after driving the streets all day have to carry it back home at the end of the day. Most city housewives would prefer to buy fresh from the farm, regularly, such as fresh eggs, butter or poultry. The farmer could make an exchange of farm and garden seed, which would make greater yields after becoming adapted to this climate, and locality. Better results would be obtained than ordering seed from far away states or counties.

Rufus Rush is helping L. E. Hunt & Company out during their sale, and will likely continue with this firm during the holidays. Rufus is one of Lubbock's boys, in every sense of the word, having been raised in Lubbock county and has a host of friends who will be glad to have him wait on them at this popular store.

Some Interesting Figures On the Question of Co-Operative Marketing Of Eggs and Other Farm Produce

In a recent discussion with the County Agent, Mr. Jennings, in regard to his plans for the coming year the matter of the Corporative Marketing of Eggs was one matter that he stressed. An idea of how this plan is worked out and the success it can attain if properly handled and supported can be had from the following report published in the Extension Service Farm News of the work of the Baylor County Co-operative Egg Assn.

According to this story the organization shipped more than 7800 dozens of eggs at a clear profit to the members of 10 cents per dozen, or a total of $780. The story in part is as follows:

The Association began its second year's work January 8, 1921, and up to the present time, August 27, 1921, 7,505 dozen eggs have been shipped. The Association has handled a little more than $3,000 in this time, the total net sum paid to customers being $2,719.37. The lowest price paid during this time was 14 cents, the highest price paid was 56 cents per dozen, the average being about 36 cents. The price between the local market and the price received through shipping has varied from 2 to 23 cents.

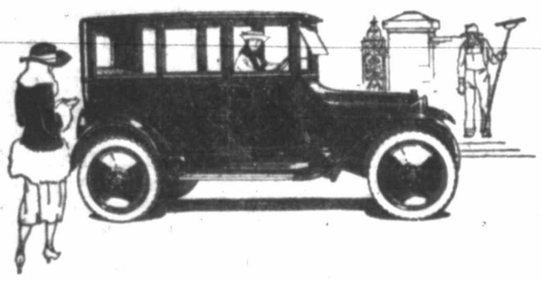

All eggs are brought into the office of the Home Demonstration Agent in the Baylor County Court House. Here a boy candles, grades, packs and ships the eggs. He is paid 2 cents per dozen for his work and is the only member of the Association who receives one cent of compensation. At first eggs were all shipped by express to Wichita Falls. This method was only more or less satisfactory for the reason that it was difficult to keep up with the crates, which were supposed to be returned when empty, and the checks did not come in as promptly when sent by mail.

During 1921 under the direction of Mrs. Wm. M. Bowen, secretary, arrangements were made to ship all eggs by truck, the truck calling at the Court House for the eggs each Saturday and Tuesday, and bringing empty cases when they were available, the man also bringing the check the day he delivered the eggs. The express on filled and empty cases is less than 2 cents per dozen, so that the total expense of handling the eggs is less than 4 cents per dozen.

Any person agreeding to live up to the constitution and by-laws of the Association may ship eggs. The annual dues are 50 cents, and in addition each member must have a stamp which he is required to use during the infertile egg season which is May 1st to October 1st.

Under the searching study being given the marketing question particularly as applied to Agricultural products some radical changes and improvements are due to be worked out within the next few years. The successful activity of the California Fruit Growers Association is the example most often cited but even more recent than this and more applicable to our own section is the remarkable showing being made by the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Marketing Association. A full report of the activity in this line will be made at a meeting of the Bureau called for Saturday.

Uradia LIQUID ELECTROLYTE

Prolongs Life of All Batteries

NOT AN EXPERIMENT

URADIA has long passed the experimental stage. It has been put through the most strenuous tests we could devise with all makes of lead plate batteries. Without exception it has given universal satisfaction.

HAS OVERCOME OPPOSITION

URADIA, like all things "new" has met considerable opposition; this it has overcome by sheer merit alone and in so doing has won for itself an enviable position in the automotive field. It has never failed to deliver the goods at all times and under all circumstances.

HAS SAVED THOUSANDS OF BATTERIES

URADIA has put thousands of batteries back into service that had been declared worthless. It has saved the public thousands of dollars in rental alone. Its advantages in cleanliness, certainty, and rapidity of action and economy of cost have won the universal commendation of the discriminating motorist.

COUNTY AGENT AND FARM BUREAU DEPARTMENT

J. W. JENNINGS, Agent

The Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association has to date sold 25,000 bales of cotton of which 15,000 bales has been delivered, and which has averaged better than 20 cents per pound, and has averaged in grade about strict middling, one inch staple. None of the better staple has been sold as indications are that the premiums for long staple cotton will increase, and the demand for the short staple will decrease, and conditions today justify the opinion. No exact comparison is obtainable as between prices received by the Association and prices obtained on the streets for any given date, but the Association has received from 1 to 3 cents per pound more for ordinary cotton, and in some cases men have saved themselves from $25 to $30 per bale on good staple. No cotton has been sold since the heavy decline as it is contrary to the policy of the organization to sacrifice cotton on a slack market when cotton is being dumped in the country. According to reliable information coming from all important market centers a much higher market may be expected by spring or sooner. All cotton is being moved from interior points to port warehouses where it will be stored with cheaper rates of insurance and storage and where it will be ready for export or shipment to American mills. The Association is in close touch with all market centers and is watching conditions from all angles, and is in a position to take advantage of all good spots in the market by having all cotton classed out in even running grade and staple, and by having the cotton stored in port warehouses. (The above letter from W. L. Troutt, salesman and manager of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association).

The Farm Bureau Wool and Mohair Growers Cooperative Marketing Association is handing this season more than three-quarters of a million pounds of wool and mohair which was twice as much as the management thought would be received. Of this amount about 400,000 pounds have been sold at prices ranging from 12c to 29c per pound. 100 bags of wool was sold at 63c per pound, scoured basis. One clip from the Panhandle of Texas scoured 70 per cent, which at 63c per pound would represent 45c per pound in the grease. (The above letter was received from B. D. Black, Assistant Secretary and Manager of the Southwestern Farm Bureau Wool and Mohair Growers Cooperative Association, with offices in Houston.) (NOTE. The highest prices received by anyone from this country in the open market were 16c and 12 1-2c, the largest clip in the Panhandle bringing the latter price.)

Equity Co-op. Exchange (Minn.,) $15,000,000.

Of all the cooperative associations the Equity of Minnesota is the heaviest borrower, and it is in this state that the Farm Bureau organizations are the strongest.

The United States census report shows that in 1919, out of 6,448,343 farms in the country 511,383 or 7.9 per cent sold products cooperatively to the value of $721,983,639, or an average of $1412 per farm. 5.1 per cent of all farms or 329,449, purchased cooperatively, the amount of such purchases being $84,615,669, or an average of $257 per farm.

The American Farm Bureau Federation announces that there are 27,093,466 pounds of wool pooled in the United States in 1921 as against 14,750,000 pounds in 1920, the largest pools being Ohio, 6,000,000, and Michigan, 4,006,850, Montana, 3,500,000, Texas, 800,000.

Dry-farmed crops root deep. The dry-farmer uses several times as much soil as the farmer in the humid sections.

A large proportion of the soil in a dry farming country is uniformly fertile to a depth of many feet. This is one essential for successful dry farming.

Less seed is required in dry farming that in humid or irrigation farming. Too much seed is often responsible for failure.

The quality of dry-farming grains is the highest of any in the world.

A Model Livestock Farm.

The writer made a visit last week to the Dixie Hog Farm, three miles south of Slaton, managed by Mr. H. G. Whitaker and assisted by his father and brother, and was very much gratified to note the extent to which those men are practising diversification in the production of livestock and farm products. On this farm are to be found a goodly number of Holstein cows, red hogs, and white chickens, the three classes of livestock that are so necessary on any farm. These are not just the ordinary kind, but with the exception of the Holsteins, they are as good as can be found in the country. The Holsteins, with the exception of one each registered bull and cow, are only grades, but are of the class that can deliver the goods.

These cows play a major part in the financing of this farm as is evidenced from the monthly income from the sale of milk and cream which is amounting now, in the season of lowest production, to $350.00 per month. They are at present milking 17 cows from which they are getting 55 gallons of milk per day, and several of these are strippers. The milk and cream goes to supply the local demand and is bringing only moderate prices. In addition to what is disposed of on the market there is left about thirty-five gallons of skim milk per day worth 5 cents per gallon or $22 per month. This is being fed to pigs and chickens. The total income from the cows amounts to about $372.00 per month, and in addition a number of good calves are being raised on whole milk. Mr. Whitaker, who is a good business man and one that is a close observer of the cost of the various operations with which he is connected states that it is costing him approximately 15 cents per day to feed these cows.

Another very interesting and important operation on this farm is the feeding of 105 head of coming two year old steers that have been bought up from the neighbors. These steers are being fed a ration consisting of 1-3 bundle feed, 1-3 ear corn, and 1-3 milo heads all of which is run through a feed mill which is pulled by a small tractor. This mill first cuts the feed into silage lengths and then it is passed through a set, of burrs that grinds the feed into meal. This mixture is kept before the steers at all times, being fed through self feeders. These steers have been on feed for about three weeks and are making very satisfactory gains, estimated to be about 2 1-2 pounds per day. There is a set of scales in the lot and a few representative steers are being weighed each week, the same ones being weighed each time, in order to determine just what progress is being made.

Following these steers are ninety head of good hogs that are receiving nothing but waste around the feed lot. They, too, are making good gains on feed that would otherwise be wasted.

This is a combination that cannot be beaten for farming operations, and our county must fall in line and pursue the same course, if our farming population as a whole is to prosper. A single crop system of farming never has been a paying proposition and never will be. Neither can our feed crops be disposed of for real worth, unless they are marketed "on the hoof." Every community should have a good feed grinder and sufficient power to pull it, where as many farmers as wish to can grind all the feed they use and thus utilize the most from every pound of feed consumed. That is the only method by which roughness can be fed with absolutely no waste.

With the present freight rates it costs about 30 per cent of the value of any bulky feed to get it to market, whereas, it only costs about 6 per cent of the value of livestock to get them to market, the feed when fed into livestock is reduced in volume, 87 1-2c, and a large portion of the value of the feed remains on the farm to increase or restore the soil fertility.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THE MOTHER'S FAVORITE

The soothing and healing properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures have made it a favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of young children for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief and is free from opium and other harmful drugs.

Children's Home Society Will Make State Wide Appeal

Fort Worth, Nov. 29.—The reorganized board of directors of the Texas Children's Home and Aid Society, with central office in Fort Worth, has announced its plans for extending an opportunity to all the citizens of the State to contribute to the support of this Society's effort to deal with the problem of the dependent and neglected children of the commonwealth.

The State has been divided into districts for administrative purposes, and trained workers have been stationed at the capitals of these districts. The Panhandle District consists of 42 counties with its district office in Amarillo. The Children's work in the Panhandle District is in charge of Miss Norma Cunningham of that city.

In each district a board of representative citizens have charge of the local work and carries out the policy and program of the State Executive Board. The Chairman of the Panhandle District is W. H. Galbraith, prominent lumber dealer and member of the Galbraith-Foxworth Lumber Company.

District offices are also maintained in Wichita Falls, San Antonio and Houston. J. C. Hunt of the J. C. Hunt Grain Company, is chairman of the Wichita Falls District; Yale Hicks, a leading attorney of San Antonio is chairman of that district, and T. J. Donoghue, vice president of the Texas Company, is chairman of the Houston District.

Each of the foregoing chairmen are now engaged in enlisting county chairmen who in turn will enlist their own committees for the purpose of raising county quotas of the State Budget of the Society.

The annual budget for the next year has been pared down by the reorganization Executive Board to the comparatively small sum of $58,600, of which $4,600 is the budget for the Panhandle.

H. Wirt Steele, who was sent to Texas during the War by Herbert Hoover, then United States Food Administrator, for the purpose of organizing the Federal Food Administration in Texas, is in charge of the finance and publicity work of the Children's Home and Aid Society. Mr. Steele has pointed out that if every citizen, including those who live in the country as well as those who live in the cities, would contribute a two-cent postage stamp the budget for the society for the next year would be met and there would be a balance enabling the Society to make certain needed extensions.

NEWS ITEMS FROM THE ROPESVILLE COMMUNITY

Mr. Chandler visited his sister, Mrs. Ed. Thorp Thursday.

Solon Cowan has sold his place to George Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Cline recently came here from Oklahoma visited Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Evans several days last week. Mrs. Cline and Mrs. Evans are sisters. They all had Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Swoffard in the Moody Neighborhood Thursday.

Rev. T. B. Sowell and family drove out from Lubbock Sunday evening and attended services. He preached an excellent sermon at night to a large and attentive audience.

Brother Ribble from Badger Lake preached here Sunday morning. He is a forceful speaker and everyone enjoyed his sermon. There were several visitors here from Meadow who accompanied him here.

Professor Humphries and family, trading and attending to business matters in Lubbock Saturday.

Judge J. R. Evans was in Lubbock Monday. Mr. Evans accompanied him taking treatment from the Chiropractor doctor while in town.

Mrs. George Barton came home Sunday, accompanied by her baby girl. She has been in Lubbock two Months.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mixion have a new arrival in their home. It is a boy and his name is Thomas Jefferson, born Nov. 19th.

Mr. Bain Price from the Priee Ranch near Brownfield took dinner at Lee Cowan' Sunday.

Proffessor Humphries and family, Mrs. McDonald and Miss Frances were dinner guests at Mr. and Mrs. George Carters Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Sowell and little son Lee Roy took supper with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cowans Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Ater, Mr. Ardis and Dinky Ardis were dinner guests in Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Timmons home Sunday.

Mr. B. Stanbaugh from Abernathy was visiting his son Lewis here Saturday and Sunday.

The ladies from the surrounding community served dinner to a large crowd on Thanksgiving day at the school building. Brother Ardis gave thanks in his natural Thanksgiving spirit. While Prof. Humphries said so many funny things in a joking way it took one hour and a half to do full justice to the feast. Prof. Humphries took a vote and it was unanimous to hold this Thanksgiving feast every year at Ropesville. Everyone had a good day and outside visitors have a standing invitation to be with us next year.

Brother Morrison preached two good sermons Saturday night and Sunday. He went to Lubbock Sunday evening to take the train to attend the convention at Dallas which convenes there several days this week.

SOME NEWS ITEMS FROM ROPESVILLE COMMUNITY

Well, Mr. Editor, I have my pipe filled, and feeling fine I will try to give you some of the local happenings from the best part of the world.

Everybody is happy as they have most of their crops gathered.

The Ropes School gave us a very interesting program on Thanksgiving day.

We had two interesting games of basket ball. The girls played the boys. The score stood six to 12 in favor of the girls. Hurrah for the girls! We also had some foot races but did not learn who the winners were, but we did learn that Judge Evans got beat.

Brother Ribble preached a very interesting sermon Sunday afternoon. He will preach here again the fourth Sunday in January. Rev. Sowell preached Sunday night.

Prof. Humphries and family visited G. W. Carter Sunday, also Mrs. Mallard and Miss Maggie Mallard and Mrs. McElroy from Lubbock visited at the Carter home Sunday. We guess they heard the turkey holler.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Mixson are the happy parents of a 10-pound boy. He arrived last Wednesday night.

Mr. Faurrid has moved over on Mr. Duggain's place. He is going to grub about 200 acres of land for Mr. Robins to put in cotton another year.

Millard and Alvin Graves have a contract to grub 100 acres of land for Ed Thorp. They also plan to grub some for Mr. Carter.

There were a lot of Meadow people come to Ropes Sunday to hear Brother Ribble preach. Glad to see them. Come again.

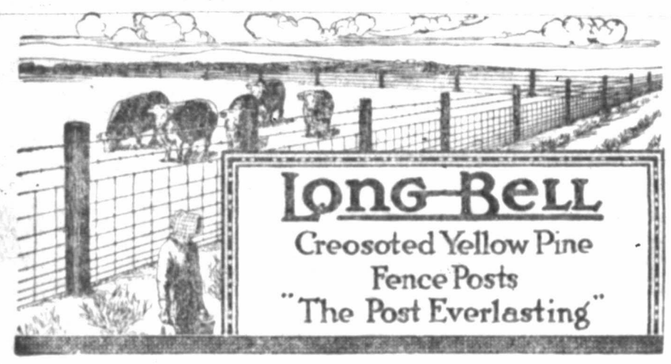

IDALOU GIRL IS ELECTED LEADER OF BAYLOR B. Y. P. U.

Special to the Avalanche.

Belton, Texas, Nec. 1.—Miss Pearl Clements of Idalou, has recently been elected leader of the Junior Baptist Young People's Union in Baylor College for Women, Belton. This B. Y. P. U. is made up of the younger girls of the college, or those between the ages of fourteen and sixteen.

Miss Clements is now a member of the freshman class, but will become a sophomore at the beginning of the spring term. She did her first term of freshman work in West Texas State Normal College at Canyon last summer. She was graduated from the Crosbyton High School in June. During her senior year there she was the president of the Wilson Literary Society and the class poet.

Besides being leader of the B. Y. P. U., Miss Clements is a member of the Panhandle Club.

You Want Good Fences

Of course, you want fences that last and assure protection to your livestock. Come in and see our line of Long-Bell Creosoted Yellow Pine Posts. These posts and creosoted yellow pine fencing boards make the best barnyard and corral fences. These posts and fencing board are treated with Creosote (Dead Oil of Coal Tar), by the pressure-vacuum process. This enables them to resist decay, fire and weather. They are creaper, too, because replacements or repairs are seldom necessary.

Our stock of building materials is unusually large this season. Our prices are reasonable. Come in any time and let us supply your wants.

NEWS ITEMS OF THE WEEK FROM MONROE

Thanksgiving passed very quietly here, but was fully appreciated. The school closed for the day.

B. C. Clutter and son were dinner guests in the Jack Merrell home on Thanksgiving day.

O. W. Curry, one of the carpenters working on the B. C. Clutter's residence are boarding with Grandma Stephenson.

Ben Ditto and family will move to the Carlyle community for next year. They take five scholastic pupils to that school.

Little Miss Leah Cox is able to be in school this week after a few days indisposition.

Roy McNeeley and wife lost their home by fire last week, and have the sincere sympathy of the entire community, which was visibly manifested in generous gifts from all their friends. We hope he will rebuild and live among us as before.

The Barber home is almost complete and the family will occupy it next week. This will add two pupils to our good school.

Our efficient teachers, Mr. Russell and Miss Tannyhill have been very busy giving examinations and preparing report cards last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tannyhill visited in Abernathy one day last week.

Threshing at Lelingers last Monday and the good work continuing while the weather is ideal for all farm work.

Miss Minnie Williams entertained on last Sunday with a dinner and a car ride, Misses Delia and Mary Lee Stephenson.

Character is a dream cut in stone taken from human querries.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Guy Pierce.)

Last Friday was Armistice Day, and the school was given a holiday. The Seniors were to march in a parade from the Court House to the Baptist church, where commenoration service was held.

This week the students are preparing for examinations, which will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Usually there is some idleness going on in the school, but this week everything is strictly business, and everyone is working hard.

Mr. Dupre calls for a report of the standing of the different classes in the piano fund contest. At present the Freshman B division is ahead but the Juniors and Seniors closely follow them. There has been some trouble in raising money to pay for our piano, but it is probable that we will get it paid for this week.

Tuesday we had Rev. Evans with us, who gave a very forcible talk on the ill effects of cigarettes. He said these effects were more harmful to boys than to grown men. Everyone enjoyed his talk very much.

Wednesday is the regular day for Choral Club practice, but this Wednesday the time was taken up by promoters of the Red Cross drive. Mr. Martin, Mr. Briggs and Mrs. Oliver gave some interesting facts and happenings of the local Red Cross.

Mr. Lewis of the State Boy's Y. M. C. A. was with us Thursday and he made a brief talk in support of Texas Hi Y. Clubs. He was here to stimulate interest in a Hi Y. Club. This is what we need, and if enough interest can be aroused, we will have a first-class Hi Y. Club in our school. A club of the character of all Y. M. C. A. clubs, would be of real service to our school and to the community.

Friday our football boys played Slaton. The little burg that some people call Slaton challenged our first team to a game. So Friday evening at 4:00 o'clock we played them.

The Seniors have got started on their annual, and everything is being held up to give them a chance to make it one that Lubbock High School will be proud of.

FOOT BALL GRIDS

Electra, Nov. 26.—Abilene High will represent the four conference districts of West and Northwest Texas and the Panhandle in the contest for state football honors as a result of her defeat of Electra here this afternoon, 28 to 14. The Abilene boys outplayed and out generaled the locals.

Jep Stell, of Garza county, was hurt while roping a calf on a ranch there, and came to the Lubbock Sanitarium Monday to be under the treatment of a specialist here for a few days. Mr. Stell is a nephew of Mrs. J. E. Henderson, of Lubbock.

COUNTY COURT

In the case of The State of Texas vs. Ted Smith, who lives west of Slaton, in the court here Wednesday, the jury was unable to agree, three being for acquital and three for conviction. The defendant was accused of having stolen a three dollar automobile pump.

LUBBOCK NOT REPRESENTED AT BASE BALL MEETING

Although there was talk for some time of the probability that Lubbock would be become a member of the West Texas League, but according to all reports Lubbock was not represented at the recent meeting to present any information on the subject to the proper parties and therefore will not likely be in this organization the coming season. Amarillo, Plainview and Lubbock were invited to become members.

J. P. Mills was here Wednesday and subscribed for the Avalanche. He made a crop on the S. H. Page farm near Lorenzo this year, from which he has gathered thirty-one bales and expects to get two or three more, an average of more than one-half bale to the acre, and his other crop is better than any raised in that vecinity his neighbors say. He has a sister, Mrs. Anna Hacker, living near Posey, and wants to locate near Lubbock for another year. Men like Mr. Mills will make Lubbock county known as a producer and we are in hopes that he is successful in finding a place and will locate near here for another year.

D. B. McLarry was here from his farm five miles northwest of town Wednesday. He reports he made a good row crop this year and his cotton averaged about one-third bale to the acre, which accounts for his optimistic attitude toward the Plains country as a real producer. "This country just can't be equaled as a farming section," he said.

Mrs. Fred Brown, of Childress, is here for a ten days visit with her mother, Mrs. Jane Holcomb, who has been very low for several days, but is now gradually improving.

Snyder and Middleton, local commission men, sold one-thousand cattle to S. E. Ross, of San Angelo Saturday by Frank Corn, of Fort Worth.

BOY IN HOSPITAL FROM WOUNDS RECEIVED

Hall Hardy pleaded guilty to the Sheriff of having struck a Dean boy, seventeen years old, his brother-in-law, over the eye with a hammer in a family fuss at their home southeast of town Tuesday night. A brother of the injured boy brought him to the Lubbock Sanitarium, where six stitches were made in the wound.

He will be confined to bed for several days. Hall Hardy paid a fine for the offense voluntarily and promised to pay the doctor's bill and all other expense for which he is responsible.

Rev. A. A. Collins and family left today for Dawson, where he will begin his work as pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, at that place. He has been with the church here and has many friends who regret to have him leave. He is an able pastor, and the people of Dawson will find him a splendid citizen and a tireless worker for the church. Rev. Baker will arrive before Sunday from his home at Bowie and will take up the work of the church here.

Miss Veda Marr, a teacher in the primary department of the Lubbock school, was carried to the Lubbock Sanitarium Tuesday evening, where an operation for appendicitis was performed Wednesday morning. The young lady is doing well at this time and expects to resume work in the near future. Her absence from the school is keenly felt, and the young pupils are eager for her return.

Rev. Tom Brabham, was here Monday. He was enroute to Seagraves, where he officiated at the funeral services of his little niece, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brabham, who died at Bryant's Mill while her parents were there on a visit. Rev. Brabham is now serving a church in Abilene.

J. P. Maddox, foreman on the Barrimore ranch in Nolan county, is here visiting his sister, Mrs. J. E. Henderson, and a brother, F. M. Maddox.

Ed Brown and wife are here from Childress visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Jane Holcomb.

Dr. A. B. Waldman, of Amarillo, was here Thursday, enroute to Tahoka and other points on a business trip.

F. H. Sawyer made a business trip to Post and Slaton Wednesday.

Lowell Page, a farmer of the Lorenzo community was here Wednesday on business.

D. Price, of Abilene, has been here the past few days inspecting cattle for the Agricultural Livestock Finance Corporation. His dealings with the people in this section have been absolutely satisfactory. He has been a resident of West Texas the past twenty-five years and has many nice things to say of the Lubbock country.
