Schools were closed at Muleshoe, Farwell, Springlake, Friona, Dimmitt and Highland.

'NEITHER RAIN NOR SLEET' shall keep the postman from his appointed rounds, so the legend goes, and Snyder postmen have plowed through wind, sleet and rain the past two days to deliver letters and cards of Christmas cheer.

Freezing drizzle still fell at Lubbock and a freezing rain fell at Marfa. A light rain mixed with snow fell at Alpine. Rain and drizzle fell elsewhere over the state.

The temperature rose to 38 degrees in Sweetwater at mid-morning and the ice began to melt.

Changes Proposed In Juvenile Laws

By LEE JONES

AUSTIN (AP) — A series of law enforcement officials have proposed changes in the state's laws dealing with juvenile delinquency to a team of lawmakers changes in the statutes.

The Texas Legislative Council's committee on child care and juvenile delinquency heard testimony in an all-day session. The committee was directed to submit to the 57th Legislature a modification of Texas laws in its area of study.

Several of the officials before the committee proposed reducing the age at which a person may be tried as an adult from 17 to as low as 14. A state juvenile probation system also was suggested.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety, said juvenile crime during the first half of 1960 was up 10.3 per cent from the number of crimes committed by juveniles in the same period last year.

Texas Youth Council Director Dr. James Turman told the study group the average stay at the state's reform school at Gatesville is 74 months.

"You need some provision for the real tough ones. You need a place at Gatesville to keep boys for a long period of time," said Travis County District Judge J. Harris Gardner.

Grand juries should be authorized to determine whether a person under 17 who commits a felony would be referred to juvenile court or to criminal court, the district attorney of the judicial district which includes Gatesville said.

Dist. Atty. Truman Roberts also proposed "mugging" and fingerprinting boys sent to Gatesville. This, he said, would give a basis for deciding whether a person's sentence for his first crime after reaching 17 should be probation or not.

Judge Gardner supported a state "probation system" for juveniles. He opposed lowering the age at which a person can be tried in criminal court and sent to the penitentiary.

"You can get a boy into Gatesville a lot quicker than Huntsville," he said. Gardner explained that a jury is likely to be reluctant to send a 15-year-old offender to prison.

Beef Roasts Offered On Bargain List

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A variety of beef roasts are offered as bargain specials this weekend by supermarkets and neighborhood groceries.

They range from chuck-roast to premium items such as sirloin and porterhouse steaks or rib roasts. The continued emphasis on beef stems from a heavier slaughter of cattle during 1960.

U. S. Department of Agriculture experts figure that slaughter of grass cattle, source of less expensive cuts, probably will be significantly larger than last year, but marketings of fed cattle from whence come those expensive roasts and steaks may not show much gain over 1959.

Leg of lamb is the top item in some sections of the East and Midwest, but pork cuts are infrequently offered. Halibut is the most popular fish of the week.

Fruit and vegetable sections offer a fairly wide range of fresh items.

Heading the best buy list among vegetables are artichokes, broccoli-rabe, cabbage, cauliflower, celery, cucumbers, endive, escarole, medium yellow onions, potatoes (mostly Maine and Long Island varieties), all types of lettuce, radishes, spinach, nearby buttered or Hubbard squash, parsnips, turnips, rutabagas and sweet potatoes.

Fairly expensive are arise-toasted green peas and blanched carrots.

Cranberries, still pouring in from a crop that's 6 per cent higher than 1959 and 32 per cent over the 10-year average, also are an outstanding buy.

Empire grapes also are an outstanding buy, as are the lesser quality apples.

Suddenly the 3-year-old spotted her father's car coming down the road.

FOR HOLIDAY PARTIES
The Season For Looking Your Best

Steps For Stepping Out

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

You are all set to wear those first formal clothes, but do you know how?

Girls and boys look forward to shining in their holiday duds, but when it comes to carrying off the big occasions gracefully, ah, that is another matter. They do worry about it, however, in letters that say, "What do I do?"

Formal manners go with formal clothes. A girl who bounces around in an evening dress, might just as well be wearing dungarees.

She shouldn't straddle her legs as if she were at a soda fountain, lean over the table, elbows akimbo, or apply makeup and comb her hair at the dance table.

If you'd look the dreamy part you have envisioned, act it. Keep your voice modulated, and don't greet friends from a distance. Sit sedately in your escort's automobile, even if you are normally accustomed to curling up on the seat.

An escort is likely to forget a corsage, especially if it is his first big occasion, so don't pout if it happens. He'll appreciate you all the more for being a good sport about it. His embarrassment at the time pass will be punishment enough.

Boys have embarrassing moments making an appearance in the formal attire, even though they have eagerly swallowed the big event. They feel unreal in the rented suit or that first tuxedo they call their own. If the after-six suit is Dad's or an older brother's the problem is likely to be more acute as they recall advice to treat the suit kindly.

They hesitate to ask advice but the problem is there. How do you wear one of these things?

If worn properly the jacket collar should hug the neck, and show about one-half inch of shirt collar. Sleeves should be short enough to show about one-half cuffs.

Trouser legs should hang straight in back, break slightly in front. Socks should be high enough to conceal the calf. A pocket handkerchief should be placed neatly, not bulge out of the pocket.

A cummerbund makes a young man feel too dressed up. It seems too fancy. But after one evening in his evening suit, he'll forget about that. The style is to match the tie and cummerbund.

Soft white formal shirts ease the wearing of evening suits. Shoes and hose should be black. A wrist watch is not worn, although a pocket watch may be carried.

Girls, be considerate. Carry your paraphernalia in a little purse. Don't load up the boy's pockets with your compact, lip-stick and other odds and ends.

Prettying Tables

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

How do decorators and designers plan their own Christmas tables? Are they too high-styled for the average person?

As it turns out, members of the American Institute of Decorators and National Society of Interior Designers have the same thing in mind as the Main Street housewife: A simple pretty Yuletide setting that suits their own home.

Their ideas may be employed by anyone, borrowing color schemes, using different materials or objects more available to them.

Yale Burge likes silver, white and red on his Christmas table. He uses a red felt table cloth, white napkins, and likes tall thin plain white or red candles, "more elegant than the big fat superdupercandles," he says.

Pewter, silver and wood are best choices for a holiday table, in his estimation. He likes a gleaming white compute on either side of a silver candelabra filled with fruit or glass compotes filled with Christmas ornaments.

Zelma Brunschwig, fabric designer, will use one of her own French Provincial toils, a bright green and white winter scene as a table cloth. She'll use bright green napkins fringed in white, wooden candlesticks with bayberry candles and an arrangement of fresh holly and red berries around it.

A wicker basket filled with small brightly wrapped gifts will be Zelena's centerpiece. She'll use wood service plates, white china and cover her chairs with green cushions and white fringe. She'll trim her wrought iron chandelier with fresh holly and red berries.

Leona Kahn likes white linen and place mats on her table, and will use either a centerpiece of a large glass bowl filled with liquid, such as holiday punch, or a pyramid of packages wrapped in foil.

Frances Lee has a number of ideas in mind, but one she likes particularly is a table covered in glitter cloth, available in silver, gold or Christmas colors. The fabric is 36 inches wide, so she cuts six yards into three yard lengths and just folds the edges under. She decorates with her personally designed tiny Christmas tree in the center of a candelabra with 4 individual candlesticks.

She likes to decorate her large antique mirror with tinsel running down the seams, gold star medallions taped to every other square. Then she squirts snow over all and places bits of cotton around it, so that it looks like a large picture window.

Ellen Lehman McCluskey plans a formal Christmas supper party. She'll put four to a table. Each table will have a dark blue velvet table cloth and be set with blue opaline goblets and plates.

Snyder Boxing Team To Host Abilenians

The familiar thump of leather, along with a variety of right crosses, left hooks, and maybe an uppercut, or two will be the vogue here in the Towle Park County Barn tomorrow night beginning at 8, as the Snyder Boxing Team engages Abilene in a series of boxing matches.

The public is urged and invited to attend the bouts, which will be staged on a padded mat rather than in a standard ring due to the inability to secure a ring at present. There will be no admission, but donations will be accepted and appreciated, with the money gained being applied for use in the local boxing program.

The number of fights is still tentative. However, several bouts are "in the mill" and include the following, with Snyder gloves being named first:

Ruben Gonzales vs. Kenneth Good (featherweight).
Hollis Cox vs. Lon McMillan (lightweight).

Abe Gonzales vs. Larry Cunningham (welterweight).
Weldon Duke vs. Julian Lopez (middleweight).

Rudy Benitez vs. Bobby Brown (pewee).
Freddie Benitez vs. Kenneth Brown (pewee).

Coaching the local fistmen are Lacy Boles and Joe Brown. They have been working their boys out nightly at the team "headquarters" located at 2703 Avenue Y, and will be in their corners when they hit the mat against the visiting Abilene team of Coach Doyle Dobbs.

Sweetwater Site Of Lincoln Clashes

In Sweetwater tonight for a brace of games are Snyder's Lincoln High Trojans and Trojanettes. The girls game has a tipoff time of 7:30 and will be followed by the boys tilt matching the two schools.

The Trojans of Coach Calvin Edwards came out on the short end of an 85-59 score in their only outing to date, with the thumping being administered by Lubbock Dunbar.

The Trojanettes are also 0-1 after having lost to the Dunbar girls by a 51-45 score, despite a 42-point spurge on the part of Snyder's Louise Archie.

Mrs. Elizabeth Grandison coaches the Snyder girls.

Junior nigns In Lamesa, Sweetwater

There will be basketball aplenty on tap this evening and tonight for Snyder's junior high quintets, as all six teams are on the road for clashes against Lamesa and Sweetwater.

Travis is scheduled to take the westward trek to Lamesa for a three-game series which will be reeled off on two separate fields of battle.

The 8th graders will uncork the activity of the day at 4:30 in the Lamesa High School gymnasium. Then at 5 o'clock the 8th grade game will get underway in the junior high gym, and it will be followed by the 7th encounter at approximately 6:30 on the same site.

In Sweetwater for three clashes are the Lamar Texans. Those games will take place in the junior high gym there, with the 7th graders initiating play at 5 p.m., followed by the 8th at 6:30 and the 9th at 8.

Each local five has played one game to date, with the 8th and 9th teams from both schools emerging victorious and the 7th teams being defeated.

ALIGHT, DOVE OF PEACE!

LA Officially 'In'

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. LOUIS (AP)—The dove of peace hovered over the majors today following the American League's official move into Los Angeles with the blessing of Dodger owner Walter O'Malley and his fellow National Leaguers.

How long the bird will stay aloft no one knows. Only hours after the two warring leagues had buried the hatchet Wednesday, some American Leaguers began eyeing the Giants-occupied Oakland-San Francisco territory as the next objective in its expansion program.

The American, which will operate with 10 teams next year, has a blueprint calling for 12 teams in the near future. So has the National, which will continue to function with eight clubs in 1961 and add New York and Houston in 1962.

Informed persons confided during the three-day meetings that the National has been quietly sounding out Buffalo and the Dallas-Fort Worth area for possible 11th and 12th teams in 1964. Toronto is a 12th-team possibility in the American.

At a press conference, Frick outlined the conditions that must be fulfilled in the future if any club seeks to invade territories occupied by another.

A territory will be permitted to have two teams only if its population exceeds 2.4 million. The application must be made before Oct. 31 of the year previous to the intended operation. The new ownership must satisfy the commissioner of individual character and collective financial stability sufficient to guarantee at least five years operation.

Further, the new club's park must be situated at least five miles from the existing team's stadium, unless both agree otherwise. The existing team must be reimbursed $100,000, plus half of the amount it had cost in the form of indemnity to minor league teams. In the Dodgers' case, O'Malley received $25,000. It had cost him $450,000 to pioneer West Coast territory.

PERFECT RECORDS TO GO ON LINE

Ratliff Rates Clash Here The 'Big Game Of Week'

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Texas schoolboy football race cuts to its finals this week with some of the top-ranked teams hard pressed to make it.

Wichita Falls is expected to crush to the finals of Class AAAA but Jacksonville faces an uphill pull in Class AAA and Olney could have its hands full in Class AA.

Even Stinnett, the strongest championship favorite of them all, may find the going rough in its push toward its second Class A title in four years.

Wichita Falls meets Fort Worth Paschal, a team that lost three games inside the district and still got into the playoffs.

In the other Class AAAA semifinal it's Port Arthur, which has one state championship and a tie to its credit, against Corpus Christi Miller, which once won the title but under another name.

Wichita Falls is a heavy favorite but the Port Arthur-Miller game is a tossup. While Port Arthur was the pre-season title choice, it failed to live up to its rating and looks no better, if as good, as a Miller outfit that lost to Galveston.

Jacksonville has had trouble for two weeks and it could face more than ever as it meets an unshrinking Brownwood that didn't hit its stride until it got outside the district. Defeat for Jacksonville this week would be no surprise.

The second Class AAA semifinal matches Cleburne, a veteran, to state play, and Port Lavaca, reaching the big showdown for the first time. Cleburne doesn't have as good a record as Port Lavaca but it may have played a stronger schedule.

The big game of the week comes in Class AA where two unbeaten, untied teams—Denver City and Olney—battle it out. They are both high-scoring, seldom pressed outfits and their clash should be like a couple of fast trains running into each other.

One thing seems pretty well established—Olney, rated No. 1 all season, is in for the fight of its life.

Belville, the rampaging power of the South, takes on Devine in the other AA semi-final and Belville is a heavy favorite to win.

Stinnett runs into Albany, the only team to press mighty Olney. This one looks tougher for Stinnett than what it would face in the finals—if it got there.

White Oak and Crosby get together to determine the foe of the Stinnett-Albany winner in the finals. Crosby, loser of four games before getting into state play, is called the Cinderella team of the season. But along about 9:30 p.m. —at Liberty—the clock may strike twelve. A little early but finally good, as a Miller outfit that lost to Galveston.

Jacksonville has had trouble for two weeks and it could face more than ever as it meets an unshrinking Brownwood that didn't hit its stride until it got outside the district. Defeat for Jacksonville this week would be no surprise.

'Christmas Crack-Up' Now Recognized As An Illness

By INEZ ROBB
 Friends, are you in the grip of "reactive depression"? Are you on a non-alcoholic crying jag? Have you been unaccountably assailed by hives? Or have you, for the first time in your clothes-clad life, felt an all but irresistible urge to seek sanctuary in a nudist camp? You have!
 Be of cheer, friends. You are not alone. You and a host of other citizens are simply suffering from the awful strains and stresses of the season. You are the victims of Christmas Crack-Up.
 That malady is no invention of my own, but is a well-documented disease, probed and reported by a group of psychiatric social-workers (one of whom is Dr. Nayla J. Cole of the Department of Psychiatry of the University of Utah College of Medicine).
 The pressures of the modern Christmas celebration, largely preempted by merchants and 20th Century materialism, is the route to the snake pit for many hapless persons.
 Far from being made joyous and gladsome by what was once one of the most innocent and beautiful feasts of the year, many are made miserable. They are driven into depression and transformed into Terrible-Tempered Mr. Bass by the greedy pressures and the office parties that mar the ancient festival.
 Compulsive eating and mounting rage are other symptoms of Christmas Crack-Up, to be added to the list in the lead paragraph, that are encountered by the experts. While I have not yet been driven over the brink, I have been hanging on the cliff for dear life ever since I saw advertised under "New Gift Ideas" a set of ceramic decanters, in full colors, fashioned in the image of pirates of the Spanish Main.

 Ever since I glimpsed that advertisement I have had a hideous recurrent dream. I wake up in the middle of the night, covered with icy perspiration, convinced mine enemy has put a set of this junk under my yuletide tree.
 The truth is that experience should be my teacher, and I am a fool to mention these monstrousities. Twice in the past, when I cast the evil eye on such squallor

Briton Keeps His Dignity

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—British aplomb and dignity were ruffled not one whit as the Frigate, HMS Ulster, ran aground and perched atop a mudbank in the St. Petersburg Channel.
 Aboard the Ulster was Commodore Colin Shand, senior naval officer in the West Indies, who sent the following message to Frank Smitherton, the British consul in St. Petersburg:
 "Regret we shall be with you a little longer than planned. After the generosity and courtesy of St. Petersburg, I am not surprised the old lady does not want to leave."
 The ship was freed at high tide Wednesday after spending nearly six hours stuck fast in the mud. The Ulster had been berthed in St. Petersburg since Sunday on a visit.

as gold toothpicks and camel saddles, indignant distributors of both deluged me with them, hoping to convert me. Little did they know what a hardened character I am. Some other junk makes me break out in a cold perspiration, too. The possibility of receiving from Santa anything that plays a tune when lifted or the lid raised, or the snoot poised to pour 's me on the verge of lives, too.
 I have been a good girl in 1960, Santa. Honest! I can get affidavits. So don't tease my tottering Christmas reason with a "lovely desk ornament" consisting of a pen thrust into a velvet-covered base that revolves and plays a tune every time the pen is used.
 Remember, oh, powers that be, that I am in the forefront of the fight to save man his reason by freeing him, the captive audience, from piped-in music everywhere, whether in restaurants, airports or supermarkets. Grant us this Christmas a surcease of such music and a return to privacy, one of man's inalienable rights.
 I wish to be spared something else, too. Spare me all things, i.e., junk, that come under the general heading of "candle warmers." I don't want to set the world on fire, and I may if I get just one more candle warmer.
 And, for mercy's sake, don't send me any electric backscratches, advertised at $4.95 each. This is not only a perversion of electricity, but would lead to wholesale Christmas Crack-Up at Cher Robb. My husband would consider such an instrument unwarranted criticism. (Copyright, 1960, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Dear Santa, I know you are awfully busy now with all the kids and I hate to bother you. I wouldn't if I weren't just desperate this year. My list isn't long. In fact it contains just one item, but it's terribly important.
 Please, Santa, would you bring me a robe for Christmas—a plain, comfortable, old-shoe type of robe? I've been trying for five years now to get one through regular channels, but nothing from the broadest hints to outright clipping of advertisements has made any impression on my local Santa Claus.
 Oh, I've gotten robes as a gift, all right. As regularly as Christmas. But all fancy, fluffy, frothy things, which hang in gorgeous array in my closet. But Santa, please, I want just a plain old robe.
 My husband, bless his extravagant heart, thinks nothing is too good for me. But the fact is, everything is too good for me. Sure as anything, the first time I had one of those beauties on, I'd manage to overturn the coffee pot on it. Or at the least drop a little butter on my lap.
 Take that lovely silk robe my sweetie gave me last year. When I put that on in the morning I'm glamorous as anything, but what good does it do? My poor working boy doesn't get his eyes open till he's been at the office a couple of hours.
 I'm up to my usual hating this year, but the other day I got pretty discouraged.
 We were window shopping and my husband gave a low whistle, grabbed me by the arm and steered me toward a shop window. "Look," he said, "that robe is pretty snazzy on you." He was pointing at a gold brocade garment so slinky the wearer would have to jump while in it, rather than walk.
 So that, Santa, is why I am calling on you for help. I don't care what color the robe is. On second thought, I don't even care what size it is. Just make it warm, and easy to get into, and for heaven's sake, washable.
 Hopefully, Joy Stitley

Wives Use Their Tricks These Days

 NEW YORK (AP)—Wives are mighty tricky these days. Found a letter from mine the other day, addressed to another man. Sure I opened it, after all. Well, anyway, it said:

Purse Is Returned By 4-Year-Old Boy

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A 4-year-old boy has been credited with the return of a purse containing $329 lost by a blind woman.
 Police said the Negro boy, John Edward Smathers, found the purse at a bus stop where Miss Beatrice Sokol had lost it.
 Police Capt. Allison Wainwright said the boy's mother tried to contact Miss David but failed. She then called police and the purse and money were returned.
 "You're always hearing of bad things," Wainwright said, "and every now and then it's good to hear of something like this where such honesty is exhibited."

Varied Activities Provided By Scurry County Boys' Club

The Scurry County Boys' Club was organized in 1955 by a group of citizens interested in the welfare and guidance of the boys in Scurry County. From its meager beginnings it has grown into an institution of over 600 members and possesses equipment and facilities with a book value of over fifty thousand dollars.

The Boys' Club is governed by a board of directors made up of some of the outstanding citizens of Scurry County which meets each month to formulate policies and program. The President of the Board is Walter Hales.

Other officers include: first vice president, J. C. Massingill; second vice president, Fred Bullard; Secretary, Mrs. Bill Lee, and Treasurer, Joe Cargile.

Past presidents include Max West, John Boren, Tom Hartley and Bill Zimmerman.

The Club was chartered by the State of Texas on June 1955, and on Jan. 21, 1957, was admitted as member of Boys' Clubs of America which has its National Office in New York City. The Boys' Club is also a member of the Texas Area Council of Boys' Clubs made up of all of the Boys' Clubs within the State, the Library Clubs of America and the South Texas Association of the Amateur Athletic Union. The staff of the Boys' Club consists of one full time employee, the executive director, Michie M. Brous, and a part time Secretary, Mrs. Marvin Mayfield; Shop Instructor, James Wesson; Custodian, Alvis Lockhart. In addition there is in season a boxing coach, Lonnie Crosby, and basketball coach, Bill McLaughlin. Volunteers serve as coaches in the sports programs and leaders in many of the other special events.

The Club is open from 2:30 to 7 p.m. daily, Monday through Friday, and from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturdays. During the summer the club is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. Current membership is over 600 boys with a daily attendance of nearly 100 boys.

Some of the major programs of the Boys' Club are as follows:

WOODSHOP
The woodworking shop is under the direction of Bill McLaughlin. Operating hours of the Shop are from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturdays. The woodshop was made available to the Boys' Club through donations from the Acacia Study Club. Scrap lumber is donated by business firms in order. Boys of all ages have an opportunity to make small projects such as the racks, what-not shelves, wooden toys, etc. During the summer a "What-not" contest is held and judged according to age groups. Primary purpose of the shop is to develop the individual boy rather than perfection of the shop projects.

CRAFTS
The Boys' Club crafts room is open on Tuesday and Thursday of each week under the direction of Mrs. Mayfield. The boys have been working in plaster molding and have made nice wall plaques for such occasions as Mothers' Day, Fathers' Day, etc. At present the boys are working on Religious Plaques for Christmas gifts. During the summer a contest is held in each of the four divisions, midlets, junior, intermediate and senior.

BOXING
The Boys' Club boxing program is under the direction of Lonnie Crosby. Workouts are from 4:15 to 6:15 weekdays. This program is for boys of all ages—boys who are interested in learning the basic skill of boxing and also for boys who are preparing for competition. Each year the Boys' Club sends boys to participate in the Regional Golden Gloves in Abilene and Brownwood. They also enter the Cisco Boxing Tournament each year. The Boys' Club sponsors a "Midlet Boxing Tournament" each year for boys up to 15 years of age or from 40 lbs. to 105 lbs. Midlet teams from surrounding cities are invited to this tournament. Awards won by the club team this past season are:

They play Boys' Clubs in Odessa, Abilene, Lubbock and Roscoe on a home and home basis. Each year four teams go to Fort Worth to compete with the Panther Boys' Club. The Boys' Club again this year will host an Invitational Basketball Tournament for the intermediate and senior boys. The junior boys will play in a league with surrounding area schools. At the end of the season an All-Star Team is selected to represent the club in an All-Star Game played at Tiger Stadium. This program is financed by proceeds from the All-Star Game. This year over 100 boys went to Dallas to see the Dallas Texans play. Each boy was made a member of the Dallas Texans Huddle Club. The Local Optimist Club sponsored this trip.

TRACK

The Boys' Club track program is under the direction of Guy Sullivan and Bill McLaughlin and is for boys of all ages. In May of each year a Boys' Club Track Meet is held and boys qualifying in this meet represent the Snyder Boys' Club in the Texas Area Council Track Meet which the local Boys' Club plays host to each year. This state meet includes track teams from Boys' Clubs around the State. Awards received by the club in the Track Program the past year are as follows:

Commissioner Ired By Golfer's Attire

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — City Commissioner James W. Moore says he thinks it is indecent exposure when men get out on public golf courses without wearing a shirt.

"I think we will outlaw this on city golf courses," Moore said Wednesday.

Moore said he had no objection to undershirts—"as long as they are the tee-shirt type."

The commissioner's move dates from the time he drove by a course and "saw a big, fat man playing golf in nothing but a swim suit—didn't even have on shoes."

Sales Tax Tables Due

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal taxpayers who claim deductions for state sales tax payments may get special help next year from Uncle Sam.

If the Internal Revenue Service adopts a plan now being considered, it will issue tables telling how much may reasonably be deducted for sales taxes in each state which has them.

Sales taxes currently are levied in 34 states and the District of Columbia.

Most taxpayers do not keep records of sales tax payments and IRS agents often are asked how large a deduction will be allowed. While the agency long has had rules of thumb to determine whether a sales tax deduction seems out of line, it never has had a national policy of giving out guidelines.

Last year, each district IRS office was allowed to decide whether to issue local guidelines or tables. These were issued in about 20 states.

It was understood the tables now being considered probably would be issued in all affected states or in none.

Reasonable deductions would be listed in these tables according to various income levels and family sizes. The tables would not take local sales taxes into account.

Actress Is Now Parents' Landlady

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Tammy Maritugh, 7, is her parents' landlady now.

A judge Wednesday approved her purchase of a six-room house near the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio. The $16,000 house will be used by Tammy and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Maritugh. Tammy makes $500 to $700 a week at MGM.
