SECRETARIES' CHOICE AND CHOICE SECRETARY — Turn about is fair play, and the National Secretaries Association goes in for it in a big way. First, the NSA convention in Hollywood, Calif., picked orchestra leader Frank DeVol, the man whose lap is supporting delegate Betty Bigelow at left, as "The Man We'd Most Like to Take Dictation From." Then they named June Dry, right, 19, of Reading, Pa., as "Miss Secretary of 1948." June promptly quit her job and was offered screen contracts.

HIS HELICOPTER TO LAND TODAY

Johnson To Bring Campaign To Area

Cong. Lyndon B. Johnson and his Senate-campaigning "windmill" airplane are on the South Plains today for a series of stops on a two-day swing in the area, and the candidate is to be guest of friends and supporters at a reception at Hotel Lubbock tonight.

Candidate for the United States Senate, Johnson is to arrive in his helicopter at 5:30 o'clock after four previous stops in a day of aerial campaigning.

To Speak At Lamesa

Arriving at Lamesa at 10:45 o'clock this morning after a hop from Big Spring, Johnson was to set the curious aircraft down for his first stop of the day. He was to make a 30-minute talk to Dawson county people and then take to the air again.

In rapid-fire order, he was to drop down for appearances at Brownfield at noon, Levelland at 3 o'clock and Littlefield at 4:30 o'clock before arriving in Lubbock at 5:30 p. m. The young senatorial candidate was to make speeches at each of the five places.

Johnson is making a swing over the entire state in the helicopter in his first primary campaigning and everywhere he has landed he has been met with large crowds.

During the past ten days on a swing through East Texas and Central Texas, he talked to 65,000 people who came out to see the queer-looking craft and to hear him speak on his program for Texas and the nation. The crowds grew bigger from one day to the next, his headquarters reports.

To Land On Vacant Lot

The helicopter will drop down on a vacant lot adjoining Sam Rosenthal baseball park this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. Immediately loudspeakers will be set up and the Congressman will make a 30-minute campaign speech.

He will be introduced by Lloyd Croslin, district attorney and long-time friend of Johnson, who is serving as area manager for Johnson in the 19th congressional district.

Following his talk at the ball park, Johnson will be greeted in a reception at Hotel Lubbock from 7 to 8:30 o'clock.

Friday morning he will continue his aerial swing, landing at Crosbyton at 9 o'clock and dropping down at Spur at 10:15 a. m. From there he will go to Aspermont and Stamford and spend the night at Abilene.

On a later trip, he will visit the northern Plains area, his headquarters has announced.

On each of his stops at South Plains towns, landing places have been provided by Johnson supporters and arrangements made for his speeches Johnson-for-Senator organizations have already been set up in 16 of the

Steelman Declines Place In Cabinet

WASHINGTON, July 1. (AP)—President Truman said today that John R. Steelman, his assistant, has declined an offer of appointment as Secretary of Labor.

Mr. Truman told a news conference that Steelman agreed with him that he is more valuable in his present spot than he would be in the cabinet post.

Truman Signs Housing Bill

WASHINGTON, July 1. (AP)—President Truman today signed a Republican-modified housing bill but said the 80th Congress "failed miserably" to meet long-range housing needs.

The President told a news conference the legislation is "practically nothing" at all as a housing bill.

He called it a "batch of political patchwork."

"It was passed by the Congress in the final hours of the session, after the Republican leadership refused to permit the House of Representatives to vote upon the Taft - Ellender - Wagner housing bill," Mr. Truman said in a formal statement.

Public Housing Removed

Public housing provisions of the T-E-W bill, calling for slum clearance, construction of low-cost homes and other features, were ripped out by the Republican majority.

Under the bill signed by Mr. Truman, the Reconstruction Finance corporation is given authority to buy GI home loan mortgages of up to $10,000 each.

It permits banks and other lending institutions to sell the RFC's Federal National Mortgage association as much as 25 per cent of the GI mortgages they hold.

Rocket Set To Honor Saint Burns Village

CHAVES, Portugal, June 28 (by air mail). (AP)—The entire village of Quintas burned when a rocket fired by village peasants in honor of their patron saint set fire to a thatched roof.

Scores of peasants were in a hillside church honoring the saint, Ladislaw of Hungary. The church bell started pealing a fire alarm. The worshippers rushed out and saw their houses afire. A strong wind spread the fire swiftly.

Quick Action Is Predicted By Observers

Confusion Aroused By Tito's Refusal To Offer Apology

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 1—It was Moscow's move today on the checkerboard of Balkan politics, where an erstwhile pawn has suddenly turned into a defiant and dangerous player.

Washington observers expect quick action by the Russians.

The Soviets are confronted with not one, but two, gestures of defiance from Yugoslavia's burly little dictator, Marshal Tito. He has declined to accept the censure of the Communist information bureau. And, in a fiery reply, his government revived the proposal for a Balkan federation, which the Russians had previously slapped down in unmistakable terms.

First To Talk Back

It is the first known instance where a satellite of the Soviets has stood on his feet and talked back.

The unique situation—which frankly baffles diplomatic experts here—arose when the Cominform issued a communique criticizing Tito. It accused him of flirting with western powers, and of pursuing a policy "hateful to Russia."

Usually, when a Communist is spanked in public, he hastens to recant in public.

Others, such as the three Soviet composers, and the Bulgarian Georgi Dmitrov, were so treated. The musicians thanked their critics, and promised to try to do better. Dmitrov apologized for suggesting a Balkan federation. All were forgiven.

Tito Refuses

But Tito, to the surprise of the world, refused to follow that course.

Instead, his government replied that the charges against him were "absurd and slanderous." That was the first gesture of defiance to Moscow. The second came in the renewal of the very proposal—for a union of Balkan states—for which Dmitrov drew the wrath of the Kremlin.

In the opinion of observers following the situation here, three salient facts have emerged:

Stalin Miscalculates

1. Tito must be completely sure of his position, otherwise he never would have dared take such a step.

2. His strength probably derives from approval of the majority of

Mild Weather Will Continue

Generally fair weather prevailed over Texas today with the exception of the coastal area where showers have occurred intermittently during the last 24 hours.

Rainfall totals included 1.77 inches at Houston, 1.31 at Brownsville, .25 at Beaumont, .16 at Corpus Christi, .08 at Galveston and .01 at San Antonio.

Temperatures Are Mild

Mild temperatures continued today, after the mercury failed to go above 97 degrees in Texas yesterday. The warmest spot again was Presidio. Lowest maximum reading yesterday was San Antonio with 85.

Overnight minimums ranged from 61 at Amarillo to 74 at Brownsville, Crystal City, Del Rio, Galveston and Alice.

The forecast called for little change in temperatures today and tomorrow. Thunder showers were expected in the south portion of East Texas and in West Texas from the Pecos valley eastward today and tomorrow.

President Gallegos To Arrive In U. S.

WASHINGTON, July 1. (U.P.)—President Romula Gallegos of Venezuela arrives here today to begin an 11-day official visit in the United States.

President and Mrs. Truman, cabinet officers and other high-ranking government officials will be on hand to meet the Venezuelan president and his party at the national airport. He will arrive aboard Mr. Truman's private plane, the "Independence."

The airport reception will include a 21-gun salute.

Gallegos, first Venezuelan president to visit the United States, will be accompanied by his wife, three cabinet members, military and naval aides. The "Independence," piloted by Mr. Truman's air aide, Col. Robert Landry, will fly non-stop from Caracas.

GOODBYE TAMMANY

NEW YORK, July 1. (U.P.)—Mayor William O'Dwyer announced today he was working to set up a new Democratic organization in the nation's largest city that would "leave Tammany hall down in the gutter where it belongs."

Slaughter Of Cattle In Mexico Is Probed

MEXICO CITY, July 1. (U.P.)—Authorities today were investigating reports that an armed band of "Yanquis" (Americans) had crossed into Mexico and slaughtered a Mexican farmer's cattle.

The farmer, Rafael Lopez, told officials in Tampico that the men killed his cattle last Wednesday, saying the cattle were infected with hoof and mouth disease and "had" to be destroyed.

Lopez said the men, believed to be Americans, not only killed his animals but also burned their carcasses "to destroy all traces of their crime."

"Poor" Old Texas U.

They Begrudge A Pittance To Tech!

AUSTIN, July 1. (U.P.)—Land Commissioner Bascom Giles expected today that the University of Texas and Texas A&M permanent fund may reach $100,000,000 by 1950.

He said that papers on 186 leases covering 41,309 acres in the June 19 mineral lease auction sale which netted the fund $5,900,800 in bonus money were being placed in the mails today.

The sale, Giles reported, boosted the permanent fund to an all-time high of $82,087,496.

On royalties alone from oil and gas on university lands, he added, the fund is being increased at a clip of some $640,000 a month, or $7,680,000 a year. Most of the lands are in West Texas.

Workers Plan "Cold Strike"

NEW YORK, July 1. (AP)—Preparing for a possible nation-wide walkout of 30,000 workers, the Association of Communication Equipment workers (CIO) plans a "cold strike" and placard campaign at telephone exchanges in almost every state.

The union announced last night that a nationwide poll of the members had authorized the bargaining committee to call a strike against the Western Electric company.

Strike Is Authorized

Union President Ernest Weaver said the bargaining committee had been authorized by a four-to-one vote to order a strike "should such be necessary" to enforce demands for a wage increase of 31 cents an hour.

The "cold strike" goes into effect today, Weaver said, with union members carrying placards proclaiming their grievances to the public at "every prominent telephone exchange in the country where our members are employed."

The union members install and service communication equipment for Western Electric, manufacturing subsidiary of the American Telephone and Telegraph company.

The placard carriers will not be a picket line and will not attempt to influence workers or others not to enter telephone buildings, Weaver said.

Under its contract with Western Electric, the union is free to strike today, he added.

Weaver said the average hourly wage of ACEW members is $1.15 and that more than half receive less than $1.

There was no comment by the company.

Weaver said his union's contract, which runs until June 30, 1949, was reopened last May 1, with the union asking the increase. Negotiations were broken off May 22.

Tax Notice Boycott Declared By Postmen

TOULON, France, July 1. (U.P.)—Postmen here declared a boycott against the government today, but the public wasn't complaining.

Toulon mail carriers announced that letters and parcels would be delivered as usual. But until the government recognized their demands for higher wages, they said they would deliver no more tax notices.

Food Flights Stepped Up In Berlin Crisis

Superfort Force Is Increased As Allies Cooperate

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, July—The United States and Britain stepped up their flow of planes to Berlin today in a bid to break the Soviet food blockade.

On the diplomatic front, the U. S., Britain and France considered joining forces in a new effort to open up the western sectors of the city, where some 2,000,000 Berliners face slow starvation.

Greatest Air Ferry

Britain and the U. S. funnelled in more than 200 planes yesterday in the greatest air ferrying operation in peacetime history. The Americans had sent 125 transports to the city by late afternoon and more were en route. The British flew in 100 cargo craft and promised to double the number by the end of the week.

In Washington, U. S. Secretary of State George C. Marshall said "we intend to stay" in Berlin regardless of the Russian blockage. His announcement coincided with a Washington announcement that the number of B-29 superfortresses in Germany is being increased from 10 to 30.

In London, Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said the western powers are determined to continue flying food to Berlin despite the risk of trouble with the Russians.

May Approach Kremlin

Bevin told the House of Commons the western powers are considering a direct approach to the Kremlin in an attempt to settle the Berlin crisis.

In Paris, foreign ministry sources said France has proposed joint American, British and French action to break the blockade. The informants said U. S. officials had expressed verbal approval.

In Frankfurt, where the American, French and British military commanders are meeting, Germans are being told today to start forming their own government for all western Germany.

Russians Isolated

This fusion of the three western zones will leave the Russian occupied sector in almost complete political and economic isolation.

Royal Air Force officials said the British will fly their transports into Berlin at night, as the Americans are doing, and carry enough gasoline to avoid refueling delays in the city.

Maj. Gen. E. C. Herbert, British commandant in Berlin, voiced confidence that the air shuttle operation would build up supplies "to last a long time."

American and British officials said 30 trains are waiting to run supplies to Berlin if the Russians open the Heldmstedt-Berlin railway line, which they closed 11 days ago to repair "technical difficulties."

A British transport official charged yesterday the Russians had refused to permit the use of an alternate line to Berlin, while keeping the Helmstedt line closed.

He said the Russians allowed a west-bound German train to travel the alternate Stendal-Oberselde route last weekend, but banned it to Berlin-bound traffic.

"This," he said, "puts a pretty serious crimp in Marshal Sokolovsky's claim that traffic is being held up only because of technical repairs on the Helmstedt line."

Short Would Have Army Go Easy On Draft

"Pentagon Patrol" Is Lashed For Its Widespread Idleness

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, July 1. — Rep. Dewey Short, R., Mo., said today the Army should go easy in drafting men until it gets the desk soldiers in the "Pentagon patrol off the seat of their pants."

Short, who stands to head the House armed services committee if the Republicans retain control of Congress, said he had visited the Army headquarters building recently and was "amazed at the number of officers sitting around with nothing to do."

"The Army says it needs manpower," he said. "Why don't they give these fellows something to do?"

Short opposed the draft while it was before Congress. He said he was going to keep a close check on the Army's efforts to recruit men voluntarily to satisfy himself that no more men are drafted than is absolutely necessary.

"If they're not in there trying, if they're seeking to junk the voluntary enlistment procedure, I'll yell to the heights

Third Girl Is In Serious Condition

Two Young Sisters Killed As Train Traps Them On Trestle

BOSTON, July 1. (AP)—Two sisters were killed and a third was injured seriously when two freight trains moving in opposite directions trapped four youngsters on a trestle over Neponset river last night.

The dead were identified as Virginia Lyons, 12, and her sister, Patricia, 14, of Boston.

The third sister, Joan, 17, was in serious condition at City hospital. Her name was on the danger list.

Clifford Briggs, 18, also of Boston, who was walking with them on the 30-yard long New Haven railroad trestle, was not seriously hurt.

Briggs said he and Joan were walking slightly ahead of the two younger girls when they noticed a train approaching in the direction of Boston.

As they moved over to the other track, the second train closed in from the opposite direction.

Briggs said he shouted to the younger girls as he shoved Joan to a catwalk between tracks, but they apparently did not hear him.

"Apparently Joan was brushed by the Boston-bound train," he said, "while the other two sisters were struck by the outbound train."

RAIL DISPUTE IS BACK IN COURT

Permanent Strike Ban Asked By U. S.

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 1—The deadlocked railroad labor dispute moved back into Judge T. Alan Goldsborough's court today.

Government attorney asked the judge to make permanent his temporary injunction against the threatened nationwide strike by three rail unions.

The railroads have been under Army direction since May 10, when President Truman seized them and got the first court order against a strike.

Secretary of the Army Kenneth Royall and Col. Luke W. Finlay, chief of the Army's rail transport division, were to testify before Goldsborough in support of the government's plea for a permanent strike ban.

Presidents Alvanley Johnston of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, David Robertson of the firemen, and Arthur Glover of the switchmen were to give opposition testimony.

White House efforts to settle the row between the three unions and the railroads seemed at a dead-end. The unions, representing approximately 190,000 rail workers, recently upped their demands to a 31½-cent hourly wage boost.

One Offer Rejected

They had rejected the 15½-cent pay increase plus certain working rule changes accepted by other rail unions. This was the 1947 "wage pattern" fixed for railroads by government arbitration and fact-finding boards.

The three unions insisted they are entitled to more because of living cost rises since 1947.

They are reported to have offered—in White House negotiations conducted by presidential assistant John R. Steelman—to take the 15½-cent increase if it is coupled with a 16-cent increase for a 1948 wage settlement.

Other rail unions having settled for the 15½-cent figure now are in the process of negotiating a 1948 settlement on wages and other working conditions.

Steelman delayed further talks with the unions and carriers pending the outcome of today's court proceedings.

CIO Workers End Walkout

CHICAGO, July 1. —The International Harvester company and the CIO United Farm Equipment workers settled a lengthy wage dispute last night, 48 hours after a strike by some 35,000 union memoers in nine of the company's plants.

The new contract, providing for a wage increase of 11 cents an hour and retention of provisions in the old contract, will be submitted for approval today at the union headquarters in Chicago.

Return To Work Expected

An early return to work was expected. The union described the settlement with the company as "satisfactory." It said records indicated the two-day walkout was the shortest "successful strike this year."

The union members quit their jobs at 12:01 a.m. Tuesday, upon the expiration of the old contract, which previously had been extended for 30 days.

The company had agreed to the 11 cents an hour pay boost, but disagreed with the union over the retroactivity clause. The settlement was for the increase to be retroactive to June 28, although the union had asked it to be made retroactive to June 14.

Truck Driver Dies In Arkansas Wreck

The truck left the highway for 200 feet, smashing down a mail box and taking limbs off two pine trees before overturning on the opposite side of the road.

The truckers and an unidentified motorist attempted to free Thompson from the cab wreckage. Witnesses said he was wedged in the cab and flames drove back the rescuers.

Completion Of New Well Is Announced

BARTLESVILLE, Okla., July 1 (AP)—The Cities Service Oil company has announced completion of the No. 1 Proctor in section 355, block G of CCSD&RGNG survey, five and one half miles west of the Seminole field in West Texas.

The company said it marked opening of a new oil field in West Texas. The well is owned by Cities Service and Atlantic Refining company.

It was completed for 410 barrels of oil a day through a 30/64th inch choke on tubing, the company said.

The wildcat was drilled to 5,620 feet to get salt water with a show of oil and water. It plugged back to the San Andres lime at 5,144-98 feet, the present total depth. After acidizing the well was tested through various chokes. It had about 6,000,000 cubic feet of gas a day.

Nine Die In Plane Crash Near Brussels

BRUSSELS, July 1. (U.P.)—Nine persons were killed when an Italian transport plane crashed in a blinding rainstorm shortly after noon today near here.

The plane, said to belong to the A. L. I. line, went down only half a mile from the Keerbergen Airdrome, near Brussels.

The Keerbergen aviation control tower first reported eight persons dead and four injured. A second report a few minutes later said one of the injured had died.

Truman Says He Will Lick GOP's Ticket

President Claims Woman Acceptable As Running Mate

By ERNEST (TONY) VACCARO
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July 1—President Truman predicted today his own first-ballot nomination by the Democratic national convention. He foretold too victory in November over the Dewey-Warren Republican ticket.

Mr. Truman said it was up to the convention to pick his vice presidential running mate. He was asked specifically whether Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower would be acceptable.

SHE'S NOT INTERESTED

HYDE PARK, N. Y., July 1. (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said today through a spokesman that she has "no intention of running for public office at any time whatsoever."

Smiles With Reply

To the Mrs. Roosevelt question, the President smiled and replied: Of course, of course. What would you expect me to say to that?

As for Eisenhower, whom some southern Democrats favor drafting for the presidential nomination, Mr. Truman replied with the suggestion that the question be put to the general.

Mr. Truman described as foolish question number one a reporter's inquiry as to whether he would withdraw from the race.

On First Ballot

The President then replied he would get the Democratic presidential nomination on the first ballot at the national convention meeting in Philadelphia July 12.

Mr. Truman told a rapid-fire news conference that he was not worried by talk of a southern revolt against him.

The political questioning began when someone remarked that Senator J. Howard McGrath, Democratic national committee chairman, had asserted Mr. Truman would be nominated on the first ballot.

The President said McGrath was correct.

Selection of a vice presidential candidate, he said, is up to the national convention.

This reporter observed that former Rep. Clare Boothe Luce (R-Conn) had suggested that the Democrats' only hope was to nominate Mrs. Roosevelt as the President's

Third Suspect In Theft Held

Arrest of the last of three Mexicans who had been charged recently in connection with the June 18 theft of clothing from Russell Hardin Tailors, at 2018 Fourth, and recovery of two more suits were announced this morning by the sheriff's department.

He, Ramon Salazar, 25, surrendered Wednesday night at the sheriff's office.

Two Were Returned

That afternoon, said Dep. Sheriff Earl Horton, complaining witness to charges, Salazar and Victor Armenta, another of those charged, had returned two suits to the tailor shop—making a total of six recovered since the investigation was commenced.

It was believed there were only six suits taken. Three Mexicans had gone to the place to ask for their suits and when an attendant went into the back of the shop the Mexicans left, officials were informed. Subsequently six new suits from stock were missed. Four of them were quickly recovered.

Two Post Bond

Armenta and Alfonso Urtado posted bond of $1,500 each in connection with theft charges. Salazar was remanded to jail in lieu of $1,000 bond, officials said.

C. E. Luce, deputy U. S. marshal, left this morning with a federal prisoner, 20-year-old Thomas Edward Robinson of Gallatia, Ill., for Lake county, Ind.

Robinson had been held in county jail since June 15, in lieu of $5,000 bail as a material witness in the case of the Government against Michael Wrzisinski, charged with

Four Senators Are Given The Inside Track In Talk Of Possible Vice Presidential Candidate

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
(Associated Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Four senators who helped Harry Truman move from the Senate to the White House by way of the vice presidency are wondering today whether he will remember them.

The four will go to the Democratic convention in Philadelphia July 12 determined to give another hand to their former lawmaking crony in his fight to capture the presidential nomination Then their respective friends will boom them for the No. 2 spot on the tisket.

In Order of Seniority

They are in order of seniority:

1. Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky who will keynote the convention as he did in 1932 and 1936 He has been listed as a vice presidential possibility os many times that he tells jokes about it.

2. Joseph C. O'Mahoney of Wyoming who rlaims wide support among westerners, organized labor and small business. His delegation is instructed to toss his name into the vice presidential contest.

3. Millard E. Tydings of Maryland who also carries home state support from an instructed delegation. The Maryland slogan is "T 'N' T—That's Dynamite."

4. Scott W. Lucas of Illinois who represents one of the many big industrial centers that experts say the Democrats must hold or recapture if they are to win.

All Gave Supoit

All four threw their support behind Mr. Truman at Chicago four years ago after President Roosevelt came up with the Missouri senator's name as his personal choice to share the ticket with him.

While each is slated for attention at Philadelphia in his own right, there appears to be little doubt that if the President cops the first prize he will have a big say about his running mate.

Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath, leaving a White House conference yesterday, said the vice presidential question is still "wide open."

Of the four senators being boomed for the nod, Barkley has the longest record of party service. He entered the Senate in 1927 and since then has sounded the convention keynote in 1932 and 1936 served as permanent chairman in 1940 and made the Roosevelt nominating speech in 1944.

Age Is Handicap

As far back as 1928 when the late Al Smith of New York was the presidential nominee some Democrats were posting convention signs for "Al and Al."

Barkley's age—he'll be 71 in November—probably is a handicap, although a stirring keynote speech week after next might offset that somewhat.

O'Mahoney will be 64 in November. He has been speaking frequently in all parts of the nation in recent months as a staunch defender of Mr. Truman's legislative program.

Long a champion of vast water and power projects for the west, the Wyoming senator is being pushed by his friends as one who could offset any geographical advantage the Republicans gained by nominating Gov. Earl Warren of California for the No. 2 job.

O'Mahoney, however, is a Roman Catholic — a factor some southern Democrats regard as a political liability in their area.

Tydings Potent Campaigner

Tydings is generally regarded as one of the most potent political campaigners in his party. He beat of the Roosevelt purge attempt of 1938 and now, at 58, is a veteran of Senate and party councils.

He enjoys the confidence of many southern Democrats who have been bitter about Mr. Truman's civil rights proposals.

Lucas at 54 is the youngest of the quartet and the only one who did not outrank Mr. Truman in Senate service. As Democratic whip, or assistant minority leader this year, he kept up a steady campaign of sniping at the Republican majority.

So many Democrats wrote Lucas urging him to run for vice president that a few weeks ago he announced he was not a candidate.

But Governor Warren said the same thing about the No. 2 place on the GOP ticket less than a week before he accepted.

All four senators have one advantage over Mr. Truman. Any one of them could make the race for the presidency and lose and still have a job. None is up for reelection this year.

Son Away On Visit But Mother Forgets

CHICAGO, July 1 (INS)—Mrs. Nora Flynn of Chicago, awoke to find her bed and bedroom in flames.

She rushed to the streets, screaming:

"Fireman, save my child."

Ten husky fireman mounted ladders to the burning third-floor apartment to save the child, came back empty-handed to meet a chagrined Mrs. Flynn who told them she just remember her son was visiting his grandmother in a suburban town.'

Locust Invasion Halted In Mexico

MEXICO CITY, July 1 (AP) — The locust invasion from Guatemala has been 80 per cent wiped out, the Department of Agriculture reported

A number of waves of the pests, moving up through Central America crossed the Mexico Guatemala border over this week Detachments of specially trained troops went to work on them with smoke, fire and insecticides sprayed from planes and vehicles.

The department said it expects to complete extermination of the locusts tomorrow, but troops will stand by in the event of further invasions.

Georgia Demos To Open Meet

MACON, Ga., July 1 (AP) — Georgia Democrats who have clamored loudest for "white supremacy" convene tomorrow to open the state's primary ballot to negroes.

Leaders expected the Georgia Democratic convention to be a fast-moving affair, capped by a howling, old-fashioned demonstration for young Herman Talmadge, political heir of the late Eugene Talmadge.

To Be Candidate

More than 5,000 followers were slated to join the fun, a rousing prelude to Herman's expected announcement and formal qualification Saturday as a candidate for governor in the September 8 Democratic primary.

Followers of Herman and red-gallused "Old Gene," fiery opponent of negro voting, must alter party rules in the face of repeated court decisions that the south cannot bar negroes from Democratic primaries.

Party chieftains said today they accepted the move as inevitable and planned no subterfuge.

The 1946 Talmadge-dominated Georgia Democratic convention tried to establish the party as a private club which could limit its membership to white persons.

Ticklish national issues were tossed aside in pre-convention planning today. Leaders said they foresaw no move toward naming Georgia's Democratic presidential electors.

Nor did leaders care to tackle the problem of instructing Georgia delegates to the Democratic national convention. The state delegation, avowedly opposed to President Truman, has been named by the party executive committee The committee probably will name the electors after the presidential nominee has been selected.

Fort Worth Group Faces Rent Charges

FORT WORTH, July 1. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Glenn, J. J. Cole and the Co-Efficient foundation are charged here with the alleged "selling" of apartments at weekly rates in excess of the maximum legal rent rate.

They are scheduled to appear at 10 a. m. Monday to answer the charges. It marks the second time the Glenns have faced federal contempt charges here.

In the latest suit, the Glenns, Cole and the foundation are alleged to have caused the eviction of Shelia Garson, and Mrs. Betty Bob Blevins and her mother Mrs Lucille Wright, because they would sign "contracts for sale" for their apartments.

Film Official Quits Howard Hughes Firm

HOLLYWOOD, July 1. (AP)—Film executive Dore Schary, one of the top wage earners in Hollywood, has quit as production head at R. K. O., the studio where millionaire Howard Hughes recently bought controlling interest.

Schary, whose earnings approximated $500,000 a year, announced that he was resigning immediately. For a year and a half, he had held the post of vice president in charge of production.

Recently the studio announced that three proposed pictures, to be produced by Schary, had been cancelled.

Hughes acquired his interest in R.K.O. from Floyd Odlum of Atlas corporation. It was reported that Hughes himself may take an active part in producing the studio's pictures.

A successor for Schary may be decided when board directors of R.K.O. open meetings here tomorrow.

Chimney Dismantled To Free Small Boy

NEWTON, Mass., July 1. (AP)—Five-year-old Johnny Maloy's mother couldn't pull him up and she couldn't push him down—so she called the fire department.

Firemen took a look at Johnny stuck in the chimney of a backyard fireplace—and decided they would have to dismantle the flu brick by brick.

That they did to get the sooty Johnny out five hours after he became stuck to his armpits in the chimney yesterday.

Take Off Ugly Fat With Grape Fruit Juice Recipe

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy — no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of Liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then, take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears — how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Married Man, Woman Fall In Love But Feel Duty Bound To Stay In Traces; What Is The Answer?

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am 39, have been married 17 years and have two children, now 15 and five, respectively; and I have stayed with my marriage only because of them.

My husband's widowed mother, a wealthy woman, didn't want him to marry anyone, and as his wife I soon learned I was to play second fiddle to her. He couldn't really love any other woman, I suffered many humiliations at her hands, and if I complained to Tom, he angrily championed her.

She was the most unscrupulous woman I ever knew, and had I left Tom, she would have used all her wealth and influence to give him custody of my baby, so I just stayed on in a ruined relationship. She is dead now; my children are happy in their home and rather close to their father, and I see no point in disrupting their lives at this late date just because I am starved for love and companionship.

However, a year ago I met the man I should have married. I have known from the hour we met that I love him and was meant to love him. He feels the same and is much troubled about it all.

SHE THINKS MAN'S WIFE IS UNWORTHY

JOHN has never said a word against his wife, except that he just doesn't love her, but I heard their story through his sister years ago, before I met him. It seems Mary pursued him doggedly, threw herself at his head and deliberately (so his family thought) got herself pregnant so he would have to marry her.

Now he is a devoted father, the parent to whom his children turn for understanding, and one of the children is having a difficult adolescence, hence John feels that if he were to break with Mary now it would ruin that child.

Also Mary wouldn't let him go without a struggle, as he is phenomenally successful and makes a huge income (and she is reputed to be coldly selfish); and certainly she never would give him the children, as they are her strongest hold on him.

In such circumstances, apparently hopeless on both sides, another man would have talked me into an affair long ago; but not John, who seems to feel it would be unfair to me. I admit I can't think clearly any more. Once I thought all affairs were sordid, but when I think of an affair between John and me, it seems the only solution, and quite wonderful. Am I being very foolish?

Signed—E. V.

PUTS FINE FACE ON SELFISHNESS

DEAR E. V.: Feeling yourself to be a victim of Fate in the disappointing marriage you made, and informed via grapevine that John's soul was similarly tried, you were prepared to believe you had a lot in common with him when the hour of first meeting dawned.

Then, finding him personable, with pores open to sympathy, and possibly with a special eye for you—maybe owing to grapevine information via his sister about your fretted status, too — you were seized with a sudden craving and determination to make something special of the encounter, to vary the monotony of your resentful dependency on Tom's bounty.

This craving and determination were at variance, of course, with your pious conviction of injured goodness in the "ruined relationship" with Tom; and so your senses told your conscience that John was your soulmate, as if that gave intrigue a hallowed right to develop.

CLEAR UP BLIND SPOT IN YOURSELF

IN THE SAME self-extenuating vein you've been reading your long dead mother-in-law into the picture, telling yourself (and me, at length, in your recital here much condensed) what a horrid person she was and how badly she treated you — as if her misbehavior somehow justified your unseemly designs on John.

You repeat this same twisted thinking regard to Mary, painting her black as the Ace of Spades, too, as though "what's wrong" with her makes it all right for you to throw yourself at her husband.

In brief, you are blaming two other women for your unscrupulosity in this instance, which suggests that you've never dealt rationally with your own selfishness. Your marriage might have been a success story, if it weren't for this blind spot in your character.

John is flattered by your infatuated attitude, but vaguely content with his marital status, hence unwilling to jeopardize it by getting entangled with you, so you are being foolish in building air castles about an affinity, and my advice is (1) to quit the role of temptress and (2) read Dr. Edmund Bergler's book, "Divorce Won't Help," (Harper & Brothers) to get a saving slant on yourself.—M. H.

The act authorizes expenditure of a total of $450,000,000 a year in federal funds on primary, secondary, and urban highways for each of the two years beginning with July 1, 1949.

Texas is one of 13 states which will be eligible for more than $10,000,000 a year under the bill. The largest allocation—$50,081,000—will go to New York.

Draftees Will Have Rights To Old Job

AUSTIN, July 1. (AP)—The new draft law provides re-employment rights for draftees, E. R. Speer, Field Representative of the Veterans Re-employment Rights Division of the U. S. Department of Labor, pointed out here today.

Speer said that if the draftee leaves permanent employment he has a right to obtain his old job back providing he applies for it within 90 days after completing military duty. Then he can not be discharged without cause for a full year returning to work.

"Miracle" Wheat Crop Foreseen With Yield Much Over Estimate

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 1. (U.P.) — A "miracle wheat crop" in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas will yield nearly 30,000,000 bushels above the government's June estimate, Charles W. Lane, Santa Fe railroad agricultural experts, predicted today.

Lane said wheat had made "a sensational comeback" in the three south-western breadbasket states.

Harvest Forecast

He forecast a harvest of 175,000,000 bushels in Kansas, 90,000,000 in Oklahoma and 60,000,000 in Texas. The U. S. Department of Agriculture's June report forecast yields of 160,004,000 bushels in Kansas, 81,492,000 in Oklahoma and 55,278,000 in Texas.

"The crop gave little promise in April, made considerable improvement in May, and in June surpassed all expectations to become known as the 'miracle crop'," Lane asserted in a monthly survey.

"Just what happened, no one seems to know. Timely moisture and 'filing' weather may be the answer, or perhaps, it is merely a case of Mother Nature outdoing herself."

Yields Run Double

In some cases, Lane said, yields were running double the exceptations of a few weeks ago.

The 1948 winter wheat crop will produce 20 per cent more of the important bread grain in the southwest than the 10 year average from 1937 through 1946, Lane asserted, and will attain 70 per cent of the great harvest of 1947.

Lane said the harvest was nearing completion in Texas and Oklahoma. In Kansas today bright sunshine and warming southerly winds were drying out fields wet by a long stretch of rainy days with harvest operations steadily mounting.

"Straw is short but heads are long and heavy," Lane said.

In place of normal growth of two grains to the mesh, the harvest in many places showed "three or four plump, coffee-berry shaped, fairly high quality grains."

Examinations For Jobs Are Planned

Open competitive examinations for positions in several fields will be held Aug. 7 in the Senior High school here, and those interested must apply before July 17, according to an announcement issued today by the Merit System Council in Texas, serving the Texas Employment commission and the State Department of Public Welfare.

Application blanks may be obtained at Texas Employment commission and State Department of Public Welfare offices or by writing: Chas. S. Gardiner, director, Merit System Council, 808 Tribune Bldg., August 21, Texas.

Tests will be administered for the following positions: field worker (DPW), salary range $196-$221.37; child welfare worker (DPW), $184-$208.72; senior child welfare worker (DPW), $212-$241.50; interviewer III (TEC), $180-$225; interviewer II (TEC), $205-$260; stenographer I (TEC), $160-$200; junior stenographer (DPW), $132-$145.32; stenographer II (TEC), $145-$180; clerk-typist (TEC), $130-$150, (DPW), $132-$145.32; apprentice clerk, (TEC), $130-$150, (DPW), $132-$145.32; clerk IV (TEC), $145-$180.

An application must be submitted for each examination applied for. Applications submitted for previous examinations will not be considered.

All non-disabled honorably discharged veterans who secure a passing score on an examination will have five points added to their score. All disabled honorably discharged veterans who get a passing mark will have 10 points added to their score.

The State Department of Public Welfare requires four years of residence in the state immediately prior to appointment; the Texas Employment Commission requires five years.

Five Negroes Escape Blast In Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, July 1 (U.P.)—Five negroes narrowly escaped death today in an early-morning explosion in south Fort Worth. The blast was the second to rock the neighborhood in little more than a month.

Neighborhood feeling over a negro moving into a white residential area was blamed for the blast, which apparently was intended to demolish the home of Robert Macklin, 27 negro taxicab driver. Macklin, his wife, sister, brother and brother-in-law reside at the address.

A similar explosion damaged two rooms at the Macklin home at midnight last May 25. He said he tossed the smoking explosives away from the house today only seconds before the blast.

He said he fired three shots at a man he described as white, just before he grabbed the bundle of explosives, believed to be dynamite, from under a bedroom and threw it away from the house.

Recruiting Office Enlists 37 In June

Thirty-seven men enlisted in the Navy through the Lubbock Navy recruiting office during the month of June, that office has announced.

Of the total number, four were ex-Navy men who have reenlisted, and nine have joined under the high school graduate training program, whereby they will attend the trade school of their choice upon completion of recruit training at San Diego.

The June total is considerably larger than totals of enlistments for either of the two months previous. There were 12 enlistments in May and 26 in April. May was described by recruiting officers as a poor month, and April as being about average.

June Is Good Month

June, they said, was a good month from the enlistment standpoint all the way through, although the draft bill caused a pickup in recruiting during the latter half of the month. The bill caused many men who were "on the fence" to enlist without further delay.

The unlimited quota basis for enlistment under the high school graduate training program, which has prevailed during June, has also aided Navy enlistments, the officers said. High school graduates were allowed to join under this program without quota restrictions and pick the training school of their choice.

Weekly Average Given

In most months, enlistments average about five or six per week, but the June weekly average was around 9. This was partly because of the draft measure and partly because of the programs offered by the Navy.

Recruiting personnel at the local office expect July to be about equal to June in enlistments, especially from the standpoint of men who can qualify under the high school graduate training program. The unlimited quota basis will apply this month as it did in June, they said, but will go off the first of August.

Reburial Rites Set For Pfc Reasonover

Graveside services will be held in Tech Memorial Park cemetery at 5 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, with the Veterans of Foreign Wars in charge of military services. Rix Funeral home will direct arrangements.

Survivors include his father, six sisters, Mrs. T. S. Cranford and Mrs. H. R. Taylor of Lubbock, Mrs. Bessie McMillan of Whittier, Calif., Mrs. Edna Williams of Sulphur Springs, Mrs. Emery Huggins of Plainview, and Mrs. John Whiteside of Amarillo; four brothers, Clifford and Ray Reasonover of Lubbock, Roger of Galveston, and Johnnie Reasonover of Denver City.

MACHINES ISSUE RECEIPTS—Persons depositing money at First National bank are receiving receipts issued from machines, which went into use today. Bert A. Mackey, teller, is shown operating one of the tellers' machines and Mrs. Gladys Workman, secretary of Lubbock Retail Merchants association, is the customer at the window. The machines are expected to speed up services at tellers' windows as much as 25 per cent and to eliminate use of passbooks by checking account customers. —(Staff Photo.)

Five Killed In Plane Mishap

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., July 1. (U.P.)—Five naval reservists, including war hero Allen W. (Snuffy) Smith, were killed late yesterday when their plane crashed in the woods five miles north of here.

A millhand working near the scene said the right wing appeared to buckle, sending the twin-engine plane into a nosedive. Bodies of the victims and pieces of wreckage were scattered over a 100-yard area.

The plane was enroute from Washington, D. C., to Atlanta, Ga., where the men were stationed. Smith, 34, and Machinist Julius Vassalotti, 44, were on active duty with the Navy. The other three fliers were taking their annual two-week training period. None was from Texas.

Won Several Medals

Smith, a lieutenant commander, won the Navy Cross, the Silver Star, the Air Medal and the Purple Heart for his service in World war II. He was credited with shooting down a Japanese heavy bomber, and sinking a light cruiser and a heavy cruiser.

During his tour of duty in the Pacific, he figured in the invasion of Peleliu island, Leyte the second battle of the Philippine sea, Mindora and Luzon.

His exploits as a Navy pilot flying from the Yorktown, the Ranger and other carriers formed the basis of the war story, "Plug Those Ratholes."

Irving Shaken By Explosion In Cafe

IRVING, July 1. (U.P.)—An explosion in the Talk-Of-The-Town cafe rocked a large section of Irving today, and a fire which followed completely destroyed the cafe and an adjoining building.

Fire Marshal George Smith said the blast at 12.20 a. m. shook the windows in his house six blocks away and blew pieces of sheet metal roofing as far as 15 to 20 feet away from the building.

The main force of the blast, he said, was concentrated about the center of the cafe. The building burst into flames, and the fire spread quickly to a building in the rear which housed unclaimed freight.

MAJOR BATTLE RAGES

NANKING, July 1. (U.P.)—A major battle between Chinese Nationalist and Communist forces is now in progress in eastern Honan province, involving more than 100,000 men of a 20-mile front, government reports said today.

North Dakota Vote Counted

FARGO, N. D., July 1 (AP)—Charles R. Robertson, one of North Dakota's two Republican congressman apparently failed in his bid for renomination to a fourth term, returns from the primary election indicated early today.

With votes counted from 1,931 of 2,267 precincts, Rep. William H. Lemke led with 81,313. Usher L. Burdick, former congressman seeking a comeback polled 79,042 votes and Robertson had 69,404. Mrs. Agnes Geelan with 50,748 conceded defeat last night. Robertson was not available for comment.

Governor Wins

Gov. Fred G. Aandahl, counting 83,239 ballots from 1872 precincts, received congratulations from his opponent, Ervin Schumacher, Dravton farmer, who conceded defeat with a 69,660 total.

The initiated measure which would bar public school teachers from wearing religious costumes had a favorable vote of 88,125 and 84,331 opposed in 1857 election districts. It was submitted to the electorate after nuns had been employed in several Catholic communities and Protestant ministers objected.

Parking Meters Banned

In the same 1857 precincts, a proposal to bar parking meters was narrowly favored, 81,393 to 80,998, and measures to pay a state soldiers' bonus, regulate launions and bar the closed shop were winning by about two to one.

Voters, however, were turning down, 83,380 to 54,845, an act setting up a four-mill tax levy for a state institutional building program. Also losing, 95,231 to 78,663, was the proposal for repeal of a state law barring the sale of food in liquor establishments.

BATHING BUSTLE — The name of this creation of Paris designer Jacques Heim is Tra-La-la. It's a big bustle, of checked cotton, which the ladies attach to their brief trunks and top off with a halter bra. Of course, when swimming, Tra-La-la is removed, leaving just Ooh, La La!

Check On Tax Receipt Urged

L. C. Ellis, county Democratic committee chairman, suggested Wednesday that persons who have poll taxes should examine them to "be sure that the voting precinct number on the tax receipt corresponds with the individual voter's precinct of residence."

In case it does not, Ellis suggested that the voter "drop by the tax assessor-collector's office and have the correction made."

Polling Places Named

Ellis also cautioned that persons who have moved from one precinct to another since issuance of poll tax receipts should go to the assessor-collector's office and have the receipt formally transferred, not less than three days before the July 24 first Democratic primary.

For convenience of voters in determining whether poll taxes list the correct voting precinct number, Ellis listed polling places thus:

No. 1 southwest corner of the courthouse; No. 2, southeast corner courthouse; No 3, northeast corner courthouse; No. 4, northwest corner courthouse; No. 5, Dupree school; No 5-a, Roscoe Wilson school; No. 5-b, George R. Bean school; No. 6, Junior High school; No. 6-a, Senior High school; No. 7 K. Carter school; and No. 7-a, Arnett-Benson addition.

Help Is Sought

Ellis also pointed out that "a lot of help" will be needed in connection with conducting the election, and that "any qualified voter desiring to help hold it should get in touch with the presiding judge of his precinct or call me, at phone 7761."

Pay for such service is $6, plus 60 cents an hour for overtime.

Absentee voting in the election will commence July 6.

Ellis, asked to estimate the first primary vote, said he "wouldn't be surprised if the figure is 15,000—and if 'may run 16,000. We have a potential voting strength of more than 20,000."

Bolivar Scrubs Fences And Sweeps Square

Missouri Town Is Preparing For Visit Of Two Presidents

BY CHARLES NETHAWAY
United Press Staff Writer

BOLIVAR, Mo., July 1. — Bolivar scrubbed the last picket in the fence today and swept the town square again in preparation for its biggest fourth of July in history.

The Missouri community of 3,000 population will be host to the great of two Americas during the holiday weekend when President Romulo Gallegos gives and President Truman accepts a statue of Simon Bolivar "The George Washington of South America."

Band Concert Is Feature

Bolivar's great day will come July 5. Independence day, itself, will feature chiefly an afternoon concert by the 92-piece air force band, to move in from Washington, D. C.

There will be a greased pole contest, too, first prize, $5. But like the sack race, a terrapin derby, and Bolivar's attempt to dance the Venezuelan Indian Jeropa, the greased pole is on the July 3 fiesta calendar.

Mayor Doyle C. McCraw, a physician, said there would be enough turkey for everybody at the 1,000-place invitation dinner for the presidents.

Plane Sent For Gallegos

President Truman sent his private plane, the DC-6 Independence, to Venezuela to pick up President Gallegos and his party.

The Presidents will arrive here by train at 9:30 a. m. July. They will leave here by train at 9:30 a. m. July 5. They will leave the same day, Mr. Truman by train for Washington and President Gallegos by plane for Chicago.

The seven-foot statue of Bolivar for Donnegan park arrived from Milan, Italy, where it was cast in bronze after a statue by Tenerani. (The original stands in Bogota, Colombia).

Base Creates Dilemma

Its 11-foot granite base came from Caracas and created a dilemma when it arrived with two of its 72 pieces broken. But a Carthage, Mo., marble craftsman fixed that.

And a Springfield, Mo., contractor put the $100,000 statute together without blueprints, which were lost en route.

Bolivar is one of seven cities in the nation named after the national hero of Venezuela. It put up $6,500 for the presentation and the state of Missouri added another $15,000.

U. S. War Dead Due Tuesday In New York

NEW YORK, July 1. (AP)—The army transport Carroll Victory is due here Tuesday with the remains of 4,800 American war dead, the first to be returned from Italian battlefields of World War II.

The port of embarkation said yesterday that most of the 4,800, including many who fell on the Anzio beachhead, originally were buried in the U. S. military cemetery at Nettuno.

Grasshoppers Invade Corn And Cotton Fields In Southeastern Mississippi

BASSFIELD, Miss., July 1. (AP)—A mass of crunching, crawling grasshoppers—eating everything in its path but the bitterweeds—continued to inch its way through corn and cotton fields surrounding this southeastern Mississippi farm town today.

The invasion, now two days old, is being fought with a poisonous mixture of white arsenic, wheat bran and sawdust strewn in the path of the slow moving hordes.

Bill Dorris, a farmer whose fields are among those being devastated, says effectiveness of the counter-attack will be known within 36 hours.

A Memphis firm offered to spray the grasshoppers from the air with an insecticide at a cost of $2.20 an acre.

"Few Bassfield farmers would pay that price even if it saved their crops," Dorris said. "But we've got to stop them. The small farmers will be ruined unless we do."

Several new outbreaks were reported yesterday within a seven mile radius of Bassfield. The poison was applied immediately in each instance. At least 10 localities have been laid waste so far but there has been no estimate of damage.

Some New Fall Hats Require Tail Piece

False Bun Will Protect Neck Of Woman With Short Hair-Do

By BARBARA BUNDSCHU
United Press Fashion Writer

NEW YORK, July 1.—The women who've cut off their hair for fashion will be out next fall buying buns for their bare necks, Sally Victor predicted today.

It's the hats that'll make 'em do it.

Mrs. Victor doesn't think the short hair-do is going out of fashion. She's crazy about her own. But some of those hats she's made require a tail piece.

Falsies Are Solution

The hair falsies, she demonstrated on her models, are the perfect solution. They're better than hair that grows there because they're more manageable. And you can always take them off to wear another kind of hat.

The Victor hats that need the hair behind are mostly neatly shaped, forward looking structures, bloused like berets and framed around the face like bonnets. A few of them carry their own rear balance with a cluster of ostrich feathers. But most of them have a tiny horseshoe cut-out to frame a bun.

Short Hair Okay For Some

More than half of the hats look fine on short hair with no additions.

There's a tiny, high riding cloche, for instance, with a brief brim, that comes in daytime to dancing models. For town it may be white felt with a deep bumper band of charcoal suede above the brim and a narrow twist of cocoa veiling in between. For evening it comes in shining hatter's plush—like the stuff of a man's top hat—pink embroidered with pink crystal and pearls, or white with frosted silver.

Prize Is Roulette Series

Prize beret of the collection is a "roulette" series — "big chips," "little chips" and "baby chips" as the size may be. It's really two berets, stacked off center and adaptable to one or two-color treatment.

One to dream on was navy felt with mink. Another was charcoal and white. And its a grand suit hat in all gray.

There's more fabric interest than trimming in the Victor collection.

The hatter's plush is used frequently. In a bright blu-ree, it's aptly named "gaslight." In soft, shining beige it makes a squared off, slightly undercut beret that sits straight on the head behind the hairline and looks like a perfect day-long hat.

Gas Show In Scurry Test

Prospects for Sun Oil Company developing a new petroleum discovery at its No. 1 Emil Schattell, Southwest Scurry County prospector, continue to brighten.

This project, seven miles southwest of Snyder and 1,980 feet from south and west lines of section 186, block 97, H & TC survey, took a drillstem test at 6,823-52 feet in the Canyon lime of the Pennsylvanian.

The tester was open two hours. Gas showed at the surface in 20 minutes. It was not gauged or estimated.

No Formation Water

Recovery was 1,770 feet of clean oil and 60 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud. There was no formation water.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was between 500 pounds and 750 pounds. Shutin bottom hole pressure was 3,000 pounds, after 15 minutes.

Operator was circulating, while deciding whether to run casing and make production tests, or to make more hole before putting the pipe in the hole.

This development topped the lime pay section about 6,816 feet. The formation from there to the present bottom has been well saturated with oil.

Informed sources think a commercial oil well will be completed at this project, even should no better signs of oil be found.

On the latest drillstem test, some of the 1,770 feet of oil was unloaded while the drill pipe was being pulled.

Court Ponders Krupp Verdict

NUERNBERG, Germany, July 1 (AP)—An American war crimes court went into seclusion today to write a verdict in the case of the gunmakers of the House of Krupp. The ruling is expected in about four weeks.

Twelve major officials of the great munitions combine, Germany's top gunmakers for 150 years, have been on trial since last Dec. 8. H. C. Anderson of Jackson, Tenn., heads the court which tried them.

Head Makes Appeal

Alfried Krupp Von Bohlen Und Halbach, titular head of the sprawling weapons empire, made a final appeal to the court yesterday. Speaking for himself and the 11 other defendants, he said the House of Krupp only "did its duty in the war and we are conscious of no violations of the laws of humanity."

The court last April acquitted the 12 defendants on two counts in the indictment against them—one charging them with crimes against the peace, the other accusing them of participating in a conspiracy against peace.

Two counts remain. One charges them with plunder and spoilation of conquered nations. The other accuses them of deporting, exploiting and abusing slave labor.

Steel Magnate Convicted

In Baden Baden yesterday a French - dominated international court convicted Hermann Roechling, 75, a German steel magnate of waging aggressive war the first industrialist to be found guilty of such a charge. He was sentenced to seven years imprisonment. Roechling was boss of the Saar through two world wars. His attorney was Otto Kranzbuehler, who also defended the Krupps.

Friederich Flick and Bernhard Weiss are the only other two German industrialists thus far convicted in war crimes proceedings. They were not accused of crimes against the peace.

TOURISTS TO RETURN

ST. PAUL, July 1. (AP)—Northwest Airlines reported today that for the first time since the war tourists would be allowed in Japan, effective July 15.

Olivia DeHavilland Will Have To Wait For Shakespeare Role

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, July 1.—Olivia DeHavilland's hopes of playing Shakespeare's Juliet on the stage will have to wait for her film career.

"I think I should have one picture in release and two finished before I take off time for the stage," she tells me. That means she'll do another film after "The Heiress" before embarking on "Romeo and Juliet." She made the unreleased "Snakepit" last year.

The actress hasn't had a new picture before the public since she won the Academy award more than a year ago. She doesn't want another long absence from the screen.

Jolson Uncertain

Al Jolson says he "doesn't know" whether he'll portray himself in the "Jolson Story" sequel. That's the first time he has admitted there is a possibility. My guess is that he'll heed the call of greasepaint and play the Larry Parks role. (And don't tell me he's not the type.)

Howard Duff has a strenuous weekend schedule. On Saturday night he flags a train near the Kanab, Utah, location of "Black Velvet," comes to Hollywood where he works all Sunday on his Sam Spade air show. Then he flies back on a chartered plane at five Monday morning.

Robert Taylor, informed that MGM plans the dashing "Quo Vadis" role for him, replies: "They'd better hurry up; I'm getting too old for those athletic roles. I've grown tired of that routine of lifting barbells to get in shape."

Laughton Wants Theater

Charles Laughton, who is playing a bum in "The Bride," has high hopes that his Shakesperian reading group will evolve into a Hollywood repertory theater. "This is the only place in the world where a great repertory theater is possible," he says. "If an actor is good enough in New York or London, he eventually comes here."

Today's feature: 30 years ago in the movies.

Douglas Fairbanks sold $5,000,000,000 worth of war bonds in New York . . . Doug, jr., age 8, said he couldn't decide whether to follow his famous father's footsteps or be a fireman or aviator . . . Doris Kenyon was adopted by an army regiment as an honorary lieutenant . . . .

D. W. Griffith's statement about acting: "It's not what you do with your face or hands; it's the light within" . . . Billie Burke was dividing her time between the stage and screen . . . Sessue Hayakawa was starring in "Bonds of Honor," about a "Japanese army officer pursuing Teutonic conspirators in Siberia" . . .

Caruso Makes Picture

George M. Cohan filmed his stage hit, "Seven Keys to Baldpate" . . . "Laughin' Bill Hyde" introduced "a new face and a homely one" to the screen—Will Rogers . . . Caruso made his first picture "My Cousin". . . .

A film journal boasted that the movies paved the way for prohibition, reasoning that the saloon was the poor man's club. "Now he can go to the movies—and he is re-united with his family" . . . The same publication proclaimed that the motion picture had reached (in 1918) maturity: "Hollywood realizes that boastful advertising, staggering salaries and enormous combinations are not the secret of a successful photoplay production." Old Men Sit On Benches And Watch Ships Put Out To Sea At Sailors' Snug Harbor

By HAL BOYLE

STATEN ISLAND, N.Y., July 1. (AP)—The ships stand out to sea, and the old men sit on benches on a broad green lawn and watch them go.

Elderly men like these, done with the sea, have been doing this for 115 years on a tree-shaded 100-acre estate bordering New York harbor.

1915 Was Peak Year

"In 1915, our peak year, we had 925 men here," said the home's governor, Capt. Henry R. Patterson, a retired naval officer. "Now we have less than 400."

The harbor is a multi-million dollar investment. The home has fifty buildings, including eight main dormitories and mess-halls, its own hospital and medical staff and a dairy with sixty milk cows.

The men get free food, quarters, clothing and a pound of tobacco—either chawing or smoking—a month.

It is one of the world's most unusual charities. It was created by Captain Robert Richard Randall, a privateer, who died in 1801 and left $7,500 and a 20-acre farm in Manhattan to found a home for "aged, decrepit and wornout sailors."

Charity Has Increased

It expanded steadily on the vast income from the property, which borders lower Fifth avenue and has grown to great value.

Favorite recreations are shooting pool, playing checkers, swapping lies, or just sitting on the benches watches the ships plow seaward.

There is a library of 6,000 volumes, but 70-year-old Capt. Fred Healy, the librarian, said only a few old sailors asked for "good books."

"They don't read sea stories much either," he said, shaking his head. "All they want is westerns—cowboy stories."

The three greatest commercial fishing grounds in the world are near the coasts of northwestern Europe, northeastern North America and northeastern Asia.

U. S. Rubber Hikes Prices On Tires

NEW YORK, July 1. (AP)—United States Rubber Co., today raised its tire and tube prices from 5 to 7½ per cent.

The company, first to announce a tire increase, said passenger car tires would be up about 6 per cent, truck tires up 5 per cent and farm tractor tires up 6 to 7½ per cent depending on size. Inner tubes will be 6 per cent higher.

The announcement said the increase reflects rising costs of labor, raw materials, transportation and other factors.

Letter Threatens U. S. Ambassador

NANKING, July 1. (AP)—U. S. Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart received an anonymous letter threatening him on his recent visit to Peiping.

The letter, an embassy spokesman said today, did not threaten the 72-year-old envoy's life but did threaten bodily harm.

Stuart has been an outspoken critic of Chinese student agitation against U. S. policy in Japan.

Cancer Death Toll Climbing In Texas

AUSTIN, July 1 (U.P.) — Texas' cancer death toll has risen more than 18 per cent in the past five years, State Health Officer George W. Cox reported today.

He said that 6,770 Texans died of cancer in 1947, while the 1943 mortality figure was 5,557.

Dr. Cox said that most of "this tremendous increase" could be attributed to "needless delay in seeking treatment."

Reason For Increase Given

The cancer death rate, Dr. Cox believed, also has been increased by "advertising of patent medicines and so-called cancer quacks" who place "dangerous and misleading information before the public."

He added that the "only means by which the disease can be treated" are in three methods: surgery to remove the cancerous tissue, X-ray or radium treatment.

Hubbers Take Sixth Straight Win As Dukes Defeat Lamesa

Between . . . The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

The Hubbers came home in glory last night, winning their third shutout of the year at Rosenthal Field, their sixth straight victory and their 11th in their last 13 games. It was a beautiful start and we hope that nine days from today it ends with a beautiful finish. But you can't take away that five-hitter Red Ramsey spun, nor Dan Moore's grand slam home run, nor Jackie Sullivan's great defensive work, nor the same by Virgil Richardson.

The local nine is pounding the ball hard and last night was a pretty good demonstration of Hubber power. George Matthews had a lot of stuff on the ball, yet they pounded him for 12 hits. George Herter didn't have nearly as much and they pounded him even harder in the short span that he was around. The Hubbers are a happy, confident gang now. They are hustling even more than they did earlier in the season. They are playing good defensive ball. They give the impression of being a team that knows where it wants to go and is trying to get there—fast. And 1,768 fans last night seemed to realize it.

But the Hubber fireworks were paled in comparison with the barrage that Lamesa and Albuquerque unveiled last night at the home of the Loboes. There they really blew the lid off the ball park. The two teams got 41 hits good for 80 bases, including seven doubles and 13 home runs. Not a triple was hit, although this particular blow didn't seem to be missed in the general melee. Lamesa belatedly got into the home run picture when Eddie Skrabacz drove one out of the park and his blow helped to set one of three records established.

Curiously, there was no wind blowing at Lamesa last night when the new home run records were set, as there was when Lubbock visited the park and set the old record. The Hubbers blasted nine and Lamesa had three that night, which established a new mark. But last night the Dukes hit 12 for a new league record for one team and when Skrabacz hit his circuit clout, it broke the Hubber-Lobo record of 12 in one game. Leonard Attyd individually wiped out a long-standing and often-tied record—that of three homers by one man in a single game—when he hit four home runs. That's a lot of hitting.

If Attyd had gotten one more hit he possibly would have set a new mark for the most runs batted in by one man in a game. As it was, he tied the old mark of 12 set in May 29, 1947, by Jack Riley, then of Clovis. Frank Okrie tied a mark that was set by Alfred Duarte of Amarillo in 1946 and equaled by three players last year. Okrie went to the plate officially eight times last night. And the Dukes went to work on another record, that of the most total bases in one game set by Pampa on Aug. 15 last year. The old record was 57; the Dukes topped it with 68 on 12 singles, four doubles and 12 homers. All in all, it was quite a night of slugging at Lamesa.

We note with interest that Jersey Joe Walcott does not like the idea of an elimination tourney to decide who will fight for the vacated heavyweight crown. Jersey Joe seems to think that since he fought Joe Louis twice, he is heir-apprent, or "crown prince" of the 175-pound, or heavier, class. We must admit that Walcott did fight Louis twice. So did several other persons, all to their great and unmitigated unhappiness. In fact, we wouldn't be surprised to see Billy Conn, with his most persuasive Irish grin, lay claim to as much right as Walcott. And there are several others who might have as much basis for claiming the vacant title as Walcott.

On the rare occasions when a champion lays aside his crown, the boxing world always is startled and somewhat at a loss to know what to do. There is some basis for an elimination tourney among the heavies, that same thing com-

Not all the fireworks in the West Texas-New Mexico League took place in Lubbock last night, even though the Hubbers exploded for an 11-0 victory over the Clovis Pioneers.

Most of the pyrotechnics occurred at Lamesa, where the Lobos were victims of another lopsided defeat this time a 31-10 licking at the hands of the league-leading Albuquerque Dukes. Several new league records were set, one by an individual and two by teams.

Pampa lost ground both to Albuquerque and to Lubbock and Amarillo by splitting a twin bill with Borger, 4-1 and 8-4. And Amarillo kept pace with the Hubbers and the Dukes by licking Abilene 7-4.

Four Homers

Leonard Attyd, the little dynamo for the Dukes, blasted four balls out of the Lamesa park last night to establish a record for home runs by one man in a single game. Previously the mark was three home runs in one game, a mark held by several players in the past and oft-equalled this season.

Then the Duke nine, seemingly sparked by Attyd, came to life and aided the cause by smacking eight homers These came off the bats of Dixon, Bowen and Mulcahy, each with two, and Shone and Pill That made a total of 12 and wiped out the new record of nine established only this year by Lubbock in a game against Lamesa

The Loboes, not to be entirely outdone, came up with a single circuit clout, this by Eddie Skrabacz. His blow made a total of 13 roundtrippers smashed in one game by two teams and erased the mark established in that same Lubbock-Lamesa game, when the two teams hit 12.

Ramsey Brilliant

But a whitewash job in Lubbock by Robert "Red" Ramsey gained equal recognition. Ramsey was brilliant on the mound last night, giving up five scattered hits and allowing only one man to reach third base. Jess Jacinto doubled to open the game and moved to third, where he died. And that was as close as the Pioneers came.

The Hubbers lost no time in jumping into a commanding lead, Don Moore's grand slam homer being the big blow of the inning. It came after Charley Scarborough had doubled home Jackie Wilcox, safe on an error to open the inning, Manager Jackie Sullivan had singled and Virgil Richardson had walked. It was the first and only four-run homer to be hit at Rosenthal Field this year.

Sixth Straight For Hubbers

Backed by a six-run first inning, Ramsey settled down and pitched himself a whale of a game, although the Hubbers came up with equally brilliant defensive work. Sullivan started a fast double play and made a great stop on a smash over second, getting his man, and Richardson turned in two sparkling plays, one on a foul ball and another on a liner right down the first base line.

It was the sixth straight for the Hubbers, their 11th victory in 13 starts and their 12th in the last 15 games Although they failed to gain on Albuquerque and Amarillo, in first and fourth respectively, the Hubbers did cut half a game off Pampa's second-place margin and they upped their lead over Borger to three games.

Russell To Mound

Tonight Cotton Russell will go to the mound for the Hubbers to oppose the Pioneers, who were cooled off last night. Manager John Bottarini, who has benched himself, may send either Hal Smith cf Mel Kramer against the Hubbers. Smith has beaten the Hubbers here twice, 4-3 in the six-inning season's opener and 10-6 on their second visit, in May Kramer never has worked against the Hubbers here this year.

Bill Weidner Cops Wrestling Honors

Speedy Boston Bill Weidner copped top honors of the regular Wednesday night wrestling card at Sled Allen's arena by defeating tough Frankie Murdoch in the two of three falls main event.

Weidner grabbed the first fall in 18 minutes with a full nelson, but Murdoch rebounded to cop the second decision in seven minutes. Weidner then clinched the match victory with a flying head scissors in 11 minutes of the third setto.

Sammy Kohen wasted little time in gaining a two of three falls win over Billy Hickson in the semifinal event, copping the first fall with a surfboard in 18 minutes, and taking the second fall in 10 minutes with a repeat performance.

Burly Gil Knutson and Olan Boynton, the Amarillo referee-grappler, battled to a 20-minute draw in the preliminary.

ing when Gene Tunney retired undefeated. Out of that melee came a series of relatively lucrative fights—for the promoters, mainly Uncle Mike Jacobs—and a new champion. If we are to go through the same thing again, Walcott certainly is a leading contender, as is Ezzard Charles, one of the more promising heavies now fighting as a light heavyweight.

But the man we would like to see given every bit as much of an opportunity is Gus Lesnevich. Granted that Gus is getting no younger, he still packs a terrific wallop, keeps in perfect condition and is a ring master. We're selfish, of course, for we realize it would be a tremendous break for J. D. Kirkpatrick and Bill Henderson and would enhance their chances of succes. At the same time, Gus has earned his crack at the heavyweight title, if he wants it, and according to stories from Europe, he does. We'd be pulling for him and, if what they say is true, don't sell him short.

JACK McCABE TO OPEN ON MOUND

Spur Meets Legion "A" Team In Chapman Field Game Today

Spur's powerful American Legion junior baseball nine will invade Chapman field at 3 o'clock this afternoon for a return District 2 conference tilt with the Lubbock "A" team, leader of the south half of the loop race with three consecutive triumphs.

The game was originally scheduled Tuesday, but a conflict in schedules forced postponement of the crucial tussle until this afternoon.

Jack McCabe, young southpaw twirler, is expected to start on the mound for the Hub city nine, although Coach Fred Taylor has indicated that either Hulen Fowler or Lefty Jackie Martyn may see action.

In district games Wednesday, the surging Lubbock "B" nine blasted out 12 hits and 14 runs to defeat Brownfield, 14-6.

The Lubbock team coasted to the win—the sixth in district competition this season—behind the hurling of Morris Turner and David Clark and, except for a short-lived Brownfield rally in the sixth frame, was never in danger.

Hub city sluggers pounded Brownfield starter Glenn Herring for 10 safeties and 11 runs in five innings, then collected two addition hits and three tallies off Reliefer Kenneth Grauander. Turner aided his own mound efforts with two doubles and a single in four trips to the plate, while Bobby Sexton and Mack Taylor each slammed out a two-for-three.

The Lubbock nine took a one-run lead in the first stanza, when Dan Adkisson received a free pass to first and was sacrificed to second and third by Mackie Lawrence and Johnny Tatum, then came in on Tom Brown's single.

Two more Lubbock runners crossed the plate in the second frame as Turner singled. Tommy Yelvington doubled and Adkisson dropped in a Texas league bingle. The home nine tallied two runs each in the fourth and fifth innings, then broke loose for a six-run offensive in the sixth to clinch the triumph.

Brownfield was shut out with one hit for the first four frames, with the dependable "Moe" Turner on the mound, but when Turner shifted to third and David Clark took over the twirling chores the visitors started to find the range. The Brownfield boys chalked up one run in the fifth on singles by Herring and Billy Anderson, then pushed across four more in the wild sixth.

Legion B Nine Is Likely To Engage Littlefield Soon

Lubbock American Legion officials indicated Wednesday night that the Lubbock Legion "B" nine will probably go to Littlefield July 8 for a District 2 junior baseball tilt, although Littlefield continues to use a negro pitcher.

The Lubbock nine forfeited a tilt to the Littlefield squad last Friday, as a result of opposition by parents of several of the Lubbock players to their sons playing against a "mixed" team, but the local officials are reportedly now asking the boys to get their parents' permission to play against the negro—if necessary.

H. J. McCabe, Lubbock team manager, said last night that he "didn't know anything about such a move," but reported that he was planning to play the game with Littlefield.

Huston Hoover, Littlefield team official, said Wednesday night that Littlefield would continue to use the negro pitcher.

Hollmig Plays First Ball Game Tonight

WILMINGTON, Del., July 1. (AP) —Stan Hollmig, who signed a contract with Philadelphia of the National league for $25,000 in salary and bonus, plays his first professional baseball game tonight

The former Texas A. and M. college football and baseball star arrived here yesterday to report to the Wilmington club of the interstate class B league. Wilmington is a Philadelphia farm.

Wilmington meets Trenton, N. J., in a double-header and Hollmig will start in the outfield for the Blue Rocks.

Hollmig was assigned to Wilmington, then reassigned to Terre Haute, another Philly farm, but was changed back to Wilmington.

COACH "CAN'T BLAME HIM" FOR TAKING BIG MONEY

COLLEGE STATION, July 1. (AP) —Harry Stiteler, head football coach at Texas A. and M., said today he regretted very much to lose Stan Hollmig, his ace punter and passer, but declared "we hardly can blame him if he got the reported $25,000.

The Aggie coach added that "that much green stuff makes a pretty big bale, which can't be called hay."

Stiteler said, "we certainly hate to lose Hollmig. He is a great football and baseball player. But we know he has thought about signing for a long time."

Hollmig had entered largely into Stiteler's backfield plans for the 1948 football campaign.

Fort Worth Is Leading Again

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The Fort Worth Cats have regained the Texas league lead with the hottest winning streak of the year.

They did it over a period of 10 days, taking 11 games out of 12 and gaining a tie in the other.

Last night they made the final step by lacing Tulsa 9-2 while Houston was dropping into second place by losing to San Antonio 5-3.

Have Three Managers

Three managers have been with the Cats over the 10-day period. Les Burge was fired June 21 after winning a game. George Dockins served temporarily while the club captured eight and tied one. Bobby Bragan took over Wednesday night. Question: Which manager should be credited with building the fire under the Cats?

Anyway, it poses a problem to the league over the all-star game scheduled to be played July 13. The club leading the league after July 4 is the host. It will play an all-star squad picked by the sports writers. But the league can't start the all-stars selection until the host club is known.

One Game Margin

There's a game margin between Fort Worth and Houston. It may require the July 4 double-headers to establish the leader.

Fort Worth took the home run route to strap Tulsa with Walt Fiala hitting one with two aboard in the sixth and Homer Matney clouting another with one on base in the ninth.

Andy Sierra won his sixth straight on the mound as he elbowed San Antonio to its victory over Houston. He was rapped for 11 hits but kept them fairly-well scattered and fanned a dozen batters.

Rebels Dose Out

Oklahoma City licked Dallas 4-2 and Beaumont eked out a 14-inning 4-3 decision over Shreveport in the other two games of the night.

Dallas took the lead at Oklahoma City with a run in the first but Oklahoma City got two unearned tallies in the fourth and the Rebels never could catch up. Len Gilmore got the pitching decision with an eight-hitter,

An error gave Beaumont its winning run in the fourteenth frame over Shreveport. Chuck Sweeney singled, was moved along on a sacrifice and scored on Verb Petty's error in taking a throw at third.

The clubs wind up their present series tonight with Dallas at Oklahoma City, Fort Worth at Tulsa, Houston at San Antonio and Beaumont at Shreveport.

Leaders Unstable In Lone Star League

(By The Associated Press)

The most unstable league of them all is the Lone Star—that is, so far as the leadership is concerned.

Kilgore and Longview have been playing peek-a-boo for weeks.

Today Kilgore is on top but it may not last longer than a few hours.

Last night Kilgore beat Longview 13-4 to replace the latter at the top. Leroy Jones pitched an eight-hitter to hang up his fourteenth victory of the campaign.

Tyler stayed fairly close to the leaders by edging Lufkin 3-2. Dewey Jacobs went the route and allowed Lufkin only four hits. Lufkin was making its start under a new manager—Fred Millican, who came to the Forresters from Hollywood of the Pacific Coast league.

Bryan tripped Gladewater 6-3, featured by Fran Drexler's two-run homer in the seventh that broke a 3-3 tie. Mel Tappe pitched a five-hitter as Henderson beat Marshall 8-2.

Mrs. Stiles Winner In Third Round Of Ladies Round Robin

Third round of the Ladies' Round Robin golf tournament was conducted Wednesday at Lubbock County club, with Mrs. J. H. Stiles defeating Mrs. T. E. Patterson by a plus three tally and Mrs. George Soash winning over Mary Jarrott plus eight, in feature matches.

Other championship flight results included: Mrs. E. H. Holcomb defeated Mrs. T. L. Sampson, plus three; Mrs. O. D. McCoy defeated Mrs. Fenner Tubbs, plus three; and Mrs. John Markham won over Mrs. Herb Schroeder, plus six.

In the nine-hole first flight Mrs. Tom Duggan defeated Mrs. E. S. Hall, plus one; Mrs. David Haymes defeated Mrs. W. T. Bradbury, plus three; and Mrs. Culver Hill defeated Mrs. Kenneth Leslie, plus four.

Second flight matches resulted in a victory for Mrs. M. H. Cope over Mrs. Bill Honey, plus three; Mrs. E. M. Hennersdorf defeated Mrs. J. B. McCauley, plus five; and Mrs. C. O. Campbell defeated Mrs. Roy Autry, plus three.

In the beginners' flight Mrs. O. G. Wilson defeated Mrs. Ben Williams, plus one, and Mrs. C. A. Rosebrough won over Mrs. E. F. St. Clair, plus three.

White Sox Victors In Pee-Wee Game

Ronald Hall and Jimmie Harris blasted extra-base blows to lead the White Sox to a narrow 9-8 victory over the Dodgers in a Pee Wee league tilt Wednesday afternoon at Lubbock Boys club. George Harris paced the losers with a homer and a double.

In the Junior loop the Optimists of the North division edged out the Exchange club, 5-3, behind the slugging of Charles Hodges. Hodges collected a single and a double in three trips to the plate.

Three games are scheduled today at the club diamond, with the Pee Wee loop All-Stars battling at 2 o'clock, the Tigers meeting the Yankees at 4 and American Business club clashing with the Methodist Men at 5:30.

Sunbeam Takes South Plains Championship

A three-way scrap for second slot in the South Plains Softball league is scheduled at Jumbo Webster park tonight on the heels of Sunbeam Laundry's Wednesday night drubbing of Baldridge Bakery, 6-1, to clinch championship of the league.

Baldridge will play the Golden Light team at 7:15, Cloverlake will meet Golden Light at 8:30 and Sunbeam Laundry will vie with Thomas Jewelers at 9:30 in the competition for second place. Baldridge, Thomas and Cloverlake are neck-in-neck.

Jackie Neel limited the Bakerymen to five scattered safeties to notch the seventeenth victory of the season for the Sunbeamers, while the Sunbeam sluggers were connecting for six hits—including Willis James' homer.

Ballinger Defeats Midland In Longhorn

(By The Associated Press)

Midland lost ground in its battle for the top in the Longhorn league last night.

The Indians took a 9-7 trimming from Ballinger while leading Big Spring laced Vernon 8-1.

The feature of play in the league last night however, was a no-hit, no-run game tossed by Derwood Cox for San Angelo against Sweetwater. Cox faced only 29 men. He walked two and hit one with a pitched ball. San Angelo won 5-0.

Odessa whitewashed Del Rio 2-0.

Bob Lemon Hurling Masterpiece Makes Prophet Of Indian Owner

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Lemon's no run-no hit masterpiece last night made a successful prophet of Cleveland owner Bill Veeck.

The 27-year-old Indian right-hander, who tried his hand at pitching after failing to make the big league grade as an infielder or outfielder, rewarded his boss' faith by shutting out the Detroit Tigers, 2-0, without allowing a single safety.

Mainstay Of Indians

The victory, Lemon's 11th of the season and his fifth shutout, did more than increase the tribe's first place American league margin over the Philadelphia Athletics to a game and a half. It further solidified his position as the mainstay of the Indians' staff, which includes the great Bob Feller.

It was in September of 1946 that Veeck told his writer that Lemon "some day will become the best pitcher in the American league."

That was tremendous praise for a lad who had yet to pitch his first complete game in organized baseball, let alone the majors.

Although yesterday's effort was by far his best, Lemon has turned in other brilliant performances this season. He has permitted only four hits in each of his four previous shutouts. He has pitched 12 complete games, the most of any pitcher, and struck out 11 and 10 men in two previous games.

Threatened Twice

Only on two occasions was his no-hitter threatened. The first scare came in the fourth inning when leftfielder Dale Mitchell made an amazing one-handed leaping catch of George Kell's long drive that looked like a certain extra base hit. The other came in the fifth when Ken Keltner went deep behind third base to nip Hoot Evers on a slow hopped.

Both Cleveland runs came in the first and were unearned.

Only three Detroit runners reached base, all on walks. It was the first major-league no-hitter of the '48 season.

Jack Kramer posted his seventh win in pitching the Boston Red Sox to a 7-3 triumph over the New York Yankees. Junior Stephens drove in five runs with two hits, including his 14th homer. Ted Williams got a single in five times at bat to extend his consecutive hitting streak through 16 games.

Braves Move Up

At St. Louis, the Browns nipped the Chicago White Sox 2-1. A home run by Paul Lehner spelled the difference.

The Boston Braves moved a game and a half ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals in the National league race by downing the New York Giants, 3-1, as the Cardinals were whipped again by the Chicago Cubs, 9-1. Bill Voiselle, Ex-Giant, held his former mates to seven hits.

Pounding four Brooklyn pitchers for 12 hits and getting 12 walks, the Philadelphia Phillies walloped the Dodgers 13-4, at Ebbets field. The victory cost the Phils the services of Pitcher Dutch Leonard who was struck on the head by a pitched ball by Harry Taylor and was carried from the field. X-rays disclosed no fracture.

The scheduled game between the Senators and Athletics was postponed by rain. Pittsburgh and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

Ben Hogan Leading Field Of 120 Golf Experts In Tourney

DETROIT, July 1. (AP)—The biggest little man in golf today, methodical Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., who wears both the National Open and PGA crowns, led a field of 120 of the Nation's top-ranking linksmen into the opening round of the first Motor City Open championship today at Meadowbrook country club.

Hogan, top money man of the summer tour, loomed squarely as the man to beat as 92 pros and 28 low handicap amateurs set out on the initial 18-hole round of the 72-hole stroke play scramble over par 35-36—71 layout.

At stake in the four-day test, eighteen holes each day, is $15,000 in prizes—$2,600 to the winner, but the most coveted prize of the tournament already is firmly in the hands of slender Marty Furgol 30-year-old North Hollywood, Calif., pro playing out of Albuquerque, N. M.

Furgol teamed with M. T Patterson, Detroit amateur, yesterday to win a best-ball pro-amateur feature with an eight under par 33-30—63. He pocketed the keys to a bright yellow (Lincoln) convertible, priced at $3,600.

The prize was put up by the Detroit Automobile Dealers association whose members constituted the amateur contingent in team play with 48 of the top pros.

Hawk-Eyed Boston Red Sox Hitter Admits He Can Better His .406 Record This Year

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 1—Theodore Francis Williams, a sinewy young man with the eyes of a hawk, wasn't predicting how well he would wind up hitting this season but the Boston Red Sox thumper admitted today that he felt "even better" than when he batted a nifty .406 in 1941.

Standing at one of his favorite sports—the bat rack—the kid fondled the bludgeons as he allowed that he finally had caught up with the pitchers.

"Pretty Well"

"That's one of the big secrets of hitting," he said, swishing a bat through the air with keen enjoyment. "It takes you a while to get used to the pitchers. Now I feel that I know them so I've been going pretty well. Yep, pretty well."

Currently hitting a plush .407, Williams can say that again.

"It took me several years to get them all labeled and then I hit .406," he added. "The next year we were all thinking more about the war than we did about baseball, so I dropped off."

Poor guy. All he hit that 1942 season was a classy .356 which was a pitchers' nightmare.

Consistent Record

"I was away three seasons," Williams continued, "so when I came home I didn't go too well the past two seasons. ("only" .342 and .343 which is almost a photo finish in consistency.)

"But now, after two years of studying the pitchers again, I feel that I'm on to them," Ted grinned. "I'm in good shape, too, outside of a stiff neck I picked up in St. Louis. That ball club has started coming up there big—and I mean big. So boom.

"Of course," he laughed, "the pitchers get to know you, too. But I feel that a good hitter has the edge over the pitcher."

The big guy of the Boston team went up then to take his licks in the batting cage, the spot he loves best of all.

Cheers And Boos

When the thumper stepped into the cage the crowd greeted him with a mixture of cheers and boos. Williams tugged at his cap, jiggled up and down on his toes and waved the bat with his restless energy. But there was a slight smile on his face.

Those catcalls which once brought a frown to his face don't bother him now.

The kid is hitting and, as far as he is concerned, all is right with the world. Under those conditions he can't even get sore at the boos from the bleachers. He should have a great year.

Cats cannot see in absolute darkness. Their vision, however, is unusually acute in the dusk.

American Women Have Close Match For Wimbledon Cup

LONDON, July 1. (AP)—Four Americans got down to the private business today of determining the 1948 women's Wimbledon tennis champion.

These were the candidates:

Doris Hart of Miami, Fla., a favorite of the English.

Mrs. Margaret Osborne DuPont, Wilmington, Del., the defending champion.

Louise Brough, Beverly Hills, Calif., the current American champion.

Mrs. Pat Canning Todd, La Jolla, Calif., a strong competitor.

Miss Hart met Mrs. DuPont and Miss Brough opposed Mrs. Todd.

The results were regarded a toss-up. Each of the Americans is capable of whipping any of the other three.

The women held the spotlight while the two men singles finalists—Bob Falkenburg of Hollywood, Calif., and Jack Bromwich of Australia—prepared for their title match tomorrow.

On the basis of their semifinal exhibitions yesterday Falkenburg and Bromwich can use the rest.

Clubs Move Up On Sherman-Denison

(By The Associated Press)

All the first division clubs moved up on Sherman-Denison today in the Big State league race.

Sherman - Denison dropped a double-header to fourth place Waco last night while second-place Austin was sweeping two from Greenville, and third-place Wichita Falls was trimming Paris 8-4.

Waco beat Sherman-Denison by one run in both games, taking the first 5-4 and the nightcap 6-5 through some top pitching by Tom Hodges and Red Dial. Hodges allowed seven hits and Dial eight.

Austin whipped Greenville 5-3 and 6-1. Wildness of Majors pitchers helped the Austin cause along. Clem Cola homered twice in the first game. Jim Godfrey gave up only four hits until he had to retire in the seventh inning of the second game because of a sore finger on his pitching hand. In this contest three Majors hurlers gave up 11 bases on balls.

Ed Cole scattered seven hits in leading Wichita falls to its victory over Paris. He thus won his ninth game of the season. Cole received excellent support.

Johnny Herr pitched and batted Texarkana to a 4-3 win over Gainsville in a 10-inning game. Herr allowed only six hits and got two himself.

Current Commodity Prices Are Still Going Up, Speaker Says

There is a definite upward trend in prices for most commodities, due in part to foreign aid and the rearmament program in the United States, the Kiwanis club luncheon at Hotel Lubbock was told by Dr. Aaron H. Chute, retailing specialist with the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas.

Dr. Chute, who was to speak at more length and detail at a meeting of business and professional men and women this afternoon, outlined briefly what he called main developments in the retailing field in recent years.

Like Hose On Nozzle

He described retailing as for a long time "an economic waste basket," likening it to the nozzle on a water hose as the final phase of commodity distribution that can be either highly destructive or beneficial, depending on methods used by the individual or group.

He cited developments in the retain field as:

1. A new high level of production.
2. Attainment of a record volume of disporable incomes.
3. Increase of 14 per cent in consumers' personal expenses
4. Sales of all retail stores over the nation up 17 per cent, with the increase 11 per cent in Texas.
5. Merchandise inventories 15 per cent higher in 1947 than in 1946.
6. Prices are largely holding firm.
7. Consumers are restricting volume of purchases, with unit sales definitely lower, although dollar volume is up.
8. Increase in number of customers who are short of dollars despite record income figures on national basis, with costs crowding family budgets.

Decline Said Postponed

Dr. Chute believes that the threatened decline in business has been definitely postponed due largely to government expenditures on foreign aid and the rearmament program.

He exhibited a chart showing price increases in commodity lines. Jewelry (luxury) items hit a top of 450 per cent above the 1935-39 base of 100 per cent, but during the past two years have trended downward.

Retail sales as a whole hit a high of 340 per cent of the base, and the food index was up less than general retail. Appeal was up to 400, and building materials topped all commodities, with an increase up to 640 per cent of the 1935-39 base.

Introduced By Leifeste

The speaker was introduced by Sam Leifeste, program chairman.

Mrs. Bill Agee made an appeal for donors to the Lubbock county Red Cross chapter's blood bank, saying the office will be open from 5 to 7 p. m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week, but that the Red Cross office should be called for definite appointment by prospective donors.

Club President L. E. (Jack) Davis was in the chair, with invocation by Dr. M. Norval Young.

Would Mrs. Roosevelt be acceptable to the President as vice presidential candidate?

Mr. Truman replied: Of course, Tony, of course.

Then Mr. Truman asked what the reporter would expect him (the President) to say to that.

As to whether he would welcome Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as a running mate, the President suggested that the question be put to Eisenhower.

Mr. Truman made it plain that he would make the record of the Republican-dominated 80th Congress an issue in the campaign.

He said the Republicans left many jobs undone when they quit June 20 for their Republican national convention.

"Will you call a special session?" a newsman asked.

Mr. Truman said he would not comment on that at this time. He did say that he would tell the people in the coming campaign what he thinks as he did on his recent cross-country trip—of what Congress did to them, not for them.

Nothing Against Dewey

The President was asked about his comment on a trainside audience in California that he liked Gov. Earl Warren, now the Republican vice presidential candidate.

As a matter of fact, the chief executive said, he didn't have anything against Gov. Dewey, except that he said he is going to beat them both in the coming campaign. Thomas E. Dewey heads the Republican ticket.

"Then you definitely won't retire from the campaign?" another reported said.

Mr. Truman said certainly not. He termed the query foolish question number one.

(At Hyde Park, Miss Malvina Thompson, secretary to Mrs. Roosevelt, said Mrs. Roosevelt was visiting friends and was not immediately available for comment on Mr. Truman's declaration he was agreeable to having her on the ticket. Miss Thompson added she did not think Mrs. Roosevelt would have anything to say at this time.)

GAINS ARE CLIPPED

NEW YORK, July 1. (AP)—Oil stocks made a hard try for higher price ground but late selling clipped earlier gains in today's market.

Closing prices for the oils showed small declines in some cases and for others the day's best marks were trimmed.

The balance of the market didn't do much of anything. Modest advances and declines were thoroughly mixed.

Volume picked up a bit when buying of oils started but the day's total of around 800,000 shares rated the session as one of the slowest in recent months.

Ending higher were Union Oil of California, Richfield Oil, Sun Oil, Shamrock Oil, Charles Pfizer, Grand Union, Caterpillar Tractor, Firestone Tire (minus a dividend) Owens-Illinois, and Eastern Airlines.

Lower were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Santa Fe, Great Northern preferred, Illinois Central, Frisco, American Telephone, General Motors, Chrysler, Montgomery Ward, Westinghouse Electric, and Publicker.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, July 1. (AP)—Corn managed to move ahead in an otherwise stagnant grain market today. Commission houses were the main buyers of the yelow cereal.

Removal of restrictions on brewers' use of grains, small supplies at terminal markets and a more favorable corn-hog feeding ratio combined to give support to corn.

In contrast, wheat showed no response to action of the government in offering to buy wheat in store at Kansas City. The July oats contract was weak most of the session, influenced by excellent new crop prospects.

Wheat closed unchanged to ½ higher, July 2.32½, corn was ⅛-½ higher, July $2.22⅝-½, oats were 1¼ lower to ¼ higher, July 91¼, and soybeans were ½-3½ lower, July $4.13½.

ODIHAM AERODROME, Eng., July 1. (AP)—Six jet-powered Vampire fighter planes of the Royal Air force took off today on a flight to Montreal and New York.

The sleek, twin-boomed craft will be the first jets ever to fly the Atlantic. The RAF said the flight is "a serious tactical exercise."

Texas Guard Seeks 2,000

AUSTIN, July 1. (U.P.)—National Guard officials said today that Texas needs about 2,000 more recruits to fill its quota.

At the same time, they said that the emphasis on recruiting will be to place units on an M-day status, equal to that of the regular army, as fast as possible.

Executives Present

Here for a conference with Texas officials were Col. Edward P. Machlin, executive officer of the National Guard bureau; Col. W. A. R. Robertson, chief of aviation of the National Guard bureau; and Col. Tyre Horn chief of the logistics bureau.

They reported that the 49th armored division has been placed on an M-day status equal to that of the regular Army in priority for equipment and other items.

They added that other units will be placed on a similar schedule as fast as possible.

Ceiling 13,059

Texas has 11,367 guardsmen on the rolls now, with a 13,059 ceiling, said guard officials. Col. W. C. Wilks, information and education officer of the Texas Guard, predicted that Texas' quota may be raised from 3,000 to 4,000.

The visiting Washington officials foresaw a prospect that the Guard, in the event of another war, would not go through a period of training similar to that in World War II, but would be made available immediately for service.

3. Premier Stalin, for the first time, has miscalculated. He permitted a move, the attack on Tito, without being certain in advance that it would be a successful move.

Stronger Ties Asked

Confusion has been multiplied by the conflicting statements of governments and the Communist parties in different nations.

While refusing to accept the Cominform accusations, the Yugoslav statement said the situation calls for deeper and stronger ties with Russia.

The official Bulgarian press department then issued an announcement that Bulgaria's relations with Yugoslavia are unimpaired by the Tito incident.

But the Bulgarian Communist party (National Council of the Fatherland Front) announced its approval of the Cominform attack on Tito.

and sock 'em at every turn," he said.

Meanwhile, the search for "friends and neighbors" to serve on draft boards was under way again.

Selective service officials reported that preliminary steps are being taken to recruit draft board members even though President Truman hasn't yet issued the official order setting the newly-authorized selective service machinery in motion.

There have been reports from at least one state that private citizens are balking at taking the payless draft board jobs. The argument these citizens advance is that they stand to lose friends and in some cases cash customers by serving on draft boards

"Stay Off Highway" Derby Entries Told

Overly-enthusiastic soap box derby entrants who have been using the highways for practice runs were warned by the Texas Highway patrol and other highway department officials today to cease the practice due to the great hazard.

A few of the youthful aspirants in the derby, particularly those east of the canyon strip that is to be used for the races, have been throwing themselves liable to death or injury, and officials urged they not use this or any other highway for practice runs.

New Entry Received In Jaycee Contest

Still another girl has thrown her hat in the ring for Miss Lubbock honors.

Miss Martha Bucy, of 2219 Seventeenth popped up at preliminary rehearsals held Wednesday night at the Lubbock Supper Club and announced that she would like to take a chance on being chosen Miss Lubbock—a title which will bring a Lubbock county girl an all-expense-paid trip to Port Arthur on July 9 to compete in the Miss Texas Pageant.

Winner in the contest will be named Monday night when a talent-packed floor show revue is scheduled at the Lubbock Supper Club under Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsorship. Advance ticket sales were good this morning at Wylie's Drug store, 1106 Texas, and additional tickets were to go on sale this afternoon at Woody Tire company, 1656 Broadway.

Tickets, which include the revue and "dancing till," are $1.80, tax included, and those desiring to attend the revue may make table reservations when buying tickets.

Fifteen girls have entered thus far, according to Dr. P. K. Palmer, local Jaycee who is heading committee arrangements.

TO STUDY SEA BOTTOM

AMHERST, Mass. (U.P.) — Foraminifera, tiny animals which populate the sea in countless numbers, will be studied this summer in an effort to learn more about the history of the Atlantic Ocean. The shells of the animal form part of the ocean floor. Dr. Fred B. Phleger, who will carry on the studies, said he hopes to interpret conditions under which ancient marine rock was formed.

Doctored Meat Sales Revealed

BAYTOWN, July 1. (U.P.)—Widespread sales of "doctored" meat here were revealed today in a report from state health department laboratories in Austin.

J. F. Lakey, director of the food and drugs bureau of the department, and who has recently taken part in the grand jury proceedings investigating horsemeat sales in Houston, said meat samples from Baytown showed "definite traces" of sulfite.

Carries Heavy Fine

The chemical, Lakey said, "can give rotten meat the appearance of fresh meat." The use of sulfite carries a $25 to $500 fine.

Lakey, whose temporary offices have been set up in Houston, said other samples of meat had been taken from Baytown this week.

"We've got a situation (in Baytown) we're going to clean up," he added.

Meantime, the Harris county grand jury continued its deliberations on an alleged horsemeat racket in Houston. The latest estimate on the handing out of indictments, advanced by Jury Foreman Gus Dittmar, was "sometime late next week."

Johnson Visit

25 counties in this district.

Before leaving Lubbock Friday morning, Johnson is to make a radio talk at 6:45 a. m. over a special state network hookup originating in KFYO.

"DO-NOTHING" GROUP BLAMED FOR WAR

SAN ANGELO, July 1. (AP)—A "do-nothing" government caused the depression and led the U.S. World war II, senatorial candidate Lyndon Johnson charged here today.

"By investing 10 to 20 billions in becoming so strong that no international bully would have dared attack us," Johnson said, "we could have saved 200 billions and many lives whose value can not be measured in dollars."

Lack Of Vision

He charged that Texas "for more than five years had a governor who imitated the backward farmer and the backward business man" who let their properties run down by lack of vision and failure to appreciate the value of sound investment.

"Using the war as an excuse," Johnson said, "that governor didn't spend money to build farm-to-market roads, to provide housing and classrooms for returning veterans, to pay decent salaries to teachers.

"He boasts of the surplus left in the treasury—a surplus built up by doing nothing."

Two Kinds Of Economy

Johnson noted that there are two different kinds of economy—"false as well as wise."

He asked what kind of expenditures it was that his opponents in the senatorial race (who have been advocating economy in government) would stop.

"Would they refuse to vote for preparedness? Would they scrap our Air Force, Army and Navy and leave us at the mercy of the Communist dictator? Would they refuse appropriation for the Marshall plan, leaving our friends in Europe helpless, and thus destroy our first line of defense?

"Call on my opponents to be specific," Johnson advised.

Brother Of Lubbock Woman Dies In Waco

Word was received here today that James Klenton Jenkins, 55, brother of Mrs. R. A. Ballard of 105 Uvalde, died about 6 o'clock this morning in Waco. Other information was not available, funeral home officials said.

Survivors include one son, Lt. Col. W. T. Jenkins, Army Air Force, stationed in Newfoundland; four brothers, G. C. of Seagraves, Joe of Lorenzo, W. C. of Los Angeles, and Bob Jenkins of Lubbock; and two sisters, Mrs. C. C. Reynolds of Morton and Mrs. Ballard.

Services have been tentatively scheduled for 4 p.m. Friday, Rix Funeral home reported.

Invasion Plan Is Uncovered

SEOUL, July 1. (U.P.)—The U. S. Army reported today that Communist documents captured in southwestern Korea sketched plans for an invasion of the American zone this month by a "people's army" striking down from the north.

A high American source here said the Army was not unduly concerned. U. S. officials had not heard of the group which signed the papers, the "committee of the party in Wanju Gun" or the Wanju area in South Korea. Similar papers have been picked up before, informants said.

Start Early In July

"Fighting will be started early in July, at which time all Russian troops will be withdrawn from North Korea," the "plans" section of the documents said. "The people's army will then come down to South Korea and unite with the (Communist) South Korean labor party.

"Weapons will be brought in. Guerrilla groups will continue their fighting until a unified government is realized. Guerilla groups will break up the separate government."

The "separate government" is the American-sponsored assembly established in South Korea after the May 10 elections.

The papers said that instructions for fighting would be received by June 27 or 28. They did not say where the instructions would come from.

Fraud Is Suspected In New Mexico Vote

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., July 1. (AP)—Voicing a "grave suspicion of fraud," Dist. Atty. M. Ralph Brown said last night that a grand jury will be asked to investigate the handling of the June 8 New Mexico primary election in Bernalillo county (Albuquerque)

His announcement followed these developments:

A recount by county commissioners today reversed the lead and changed vote totals of two candidates for Democratic nomination for district pudge.

A veteran state senator instituted court action challenging the outcome of a contest in which his defeat by a former state representative had been certified by official canvass.

And an unsuccessful candidate for Democratic nomination to another district judgeship said he was weighing a possible request for a recount.

Commissioners conducted today's recount at the request of D. A. MacPherson, jr., who had been certified loser by 211 votes in a bid to unseat Dist. Judge R. F. Arledge. Both live in Albuquerque. Arledge, an appointive incumbent and former secretary to Senator Chavez (D-NM), is seeking his first elective term.

DALLAS, July 1. (AP)—Grover Seitz, manager of the Pampa club, has been voted to manage the south division team in the all-star West Texas-New Mexico league game at Abilene Saturday night, Milton Price, president of the league, announced today.

Price said voting on a manager for the north division team resulted in a tie between Buck Fausett of Amarillo and Hershel Martin of Albuquerque. He said a run-off election was being held and the result was expected some time today.

Players chosen for the game select their respective managers.

At the time of his death, he was perfecting a system to map geological conditions, which associates said, was expected to double the nation's oil reserves.

Note Reveals He Had Multiple Schlerosis

Unknown Man Registers At Hotel, Spends Cash Freely At Night Club, Shoots Self

CHICAGO, July 1. (U.P.) — The man, registered at Chicago's largest hotel, had a swell time spending his money.

Robust-appearing, six feet tall, he registered at the Stevens yesterday as Bertram Halleck, Greenport, Long Island. His luggage bore labels of the Navy Air Force, Oklahoma A & M, University of Texas, and various cities, indicating that he had traveled extensively.

He laughed easily, spent his money freely and tipped lavishly. After registering he started out for a good time.

He dined at one of the most expensive restaurants, then went night clubbing. He became acquainted with some pretty girls. He was the life of the party.

After it was over he returned to his hotel room. He carefully removed all identification marks from his clothing. Next he wrote a note, stating that his registration as Bertram Halleck was false.

"I had a swell time with the help of the girls and spent 400 bucks," he wrote. "But I have been suffering for some time from multiple schlerosis (a disease of the spinal cord or brain). I wish my body to be dissected for scientific purposes."

Then he put one cartridge in a brand new .22 caliber rifle and shot himself through the head. Police said he probably died instantly and that they had not been able to identify him.

Man Tells Of Slaying Pair

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., July 1 (INS)—A 25-year-old college student confessed today that he shot and killed the wealthy Bowling Green, Ky., parents of the man who married the girl he loved.

Warren County Attorney William H. Natcher identified the youth as Harry Edward Kilgore, 25, of Glascow, Ky. He was described as a student last term at Western Kentucky State college at Bowling Green.

Victims of the slaying, whose bodies were found in their palatial home, were Dr. C. B. Martin, 80, and his 70-year-old wife.

Son On Honeymoon

Their son, Stonewell Martin, was married 10 days ago. Young Martin and his bride were reported to be in Siloam Springs, Ark., on their honeymoon.

Natcher said Kilgore signed a written statement that he shot Dr. Martin and his wife sometime after midnight.

Natcher quoted the youth as saying he had been in love with the girl who married the Martins' son.

Dr. Martin was a wealthy, retired physician and farmer. His body and that of his wife were found by a painter and a tenant farmer when they reported for work on the farm this morning.

The bodies were in a downstairs bedroom. Coroner Chester Basham said the physician had been shot twice in the right temple and that Mrs. Martin was killed by a single bullet fired into her head.

Pioneer Minister Dies In Tennessee

Friends in Lubbock today received word of the death of the Rev. A. L. Estes, 78, pioneer days' Baptist minister on the South Plains, in Chattanooga, Tenn., on June 25.

Born in Clayton county, Ga., Feb. 16, 1870, Mr. Estes moved to Comanche county, Texas, in 1893 and was ordained a minister of the Missionary Baptist church there. The family moved to Brownfield in 1906 and later settled on a four-section tract in Yoakum county. Tokio now occupies a portion of the land.

Became Missionary In 1907

Mr. Estes became a missionary of the South Plains association in 1907. Traveling by horse and buggy, he often recalled that his ministry frequently required absences of many weeks from his home. He continued preaching until failing health forced his retirement a few years ago. Mrs. Estes died about three years ago.

Surviving are seven children, Edd Estes, of Lamesa; Mrs. Clara McCrary, of Brownfield; W. C. Estes, of Abilene; Mrs. Ada Leavitt, of Lingo, N. M.; Owen Estes, of Oxnard, Calif.; Mrs. Velma Copeland, of Rossville, Ga., and Earl Estes, of Chattanooga. He also leaves 14 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

A survey of deaths by an insurance company shows that one of every five white persons eventually dies of heart disease.

Students Make Cash Swapping Neckties

CLEVELAND, July 1. (U.P.) — Two Western Reserve University students are turning a net profit by operating a tie-swapping business.

Bert Nolan and Calvin Tayerle, both 24, say a "survey of the racks" proves that college men wear a few ties threadbare while a dozen unloved models go unused.

Nolan and Tayerle printed handbills inviting men to send them six tired, unwanted ties in exchange for six freshly-cleaned, hand-pressed "new" ties for $1.

They now have a stock of 400 ties, with new bundles arriving every day. The swappers, they say, all seem pleased.

Mississippi River Boats Are Scrapped, But Memories Stay

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 1 (U.P.) —Most of the famous old Mississippi river boats have been scrapped, but to old-timers their memories linger on.

Each boat was a personality to the men who followed the river or just loafed along its shore.

Probably the most distinguishing thing about each craft was its whistle. In the golden years of steamboating, no owner would think of sending a new packet to ply the Ohio or the Big Muddy without a beautifully-toned blaster.

Gone From Scene

Now, like the steamboats they once graced, the whistles and bells are gone from the scene though many still are close to the river. They can be heard at cotton gins, lumber mills and steam powered plants, or calling hands to work on the big plantations.

Every man, woman and boy had a favorite whistle and for Roscoe Coker of Caruthersville, Mo., it was the blaster on the old packet, the Peters Lee.

In a letter to Capt. Joe Curtis, veteran riverman and river columnist for the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Coker said.

Called "Hobo Pete"

"We youngsters and many of the negroes working on the plantation at my old home dubbed her 'Hobo Pete.' I first heard the big stern-wheeler called that one morning during cotton-picking time.

"One morning I happened to hear the Peters Lee whistling down in a bend below the plantation. Half a dozen pickers also heard it, straightened up from their work to let out a sort of moaning yell. Most of those joining in were rousters who had come to enoy a few days picking cotton.

"Then, I heard a big fellow sing out in a sort of tune he just made up, 'Jes' keep singin' to me, Mistah Pete. When ah gits dis cotton pick', ah's gwine back to yo' an' stomp yo deck ag'in. Yo' is a hobo, Mistah Pete, an' a workhouse, but ah likes yo'."

CHICAGO, July 1 (INS)—A black and white cat gave up three of its nine lives today in a $200 fire in the basement of a Chicago restaurant.

Confederate Tax Rate Question Is Answered

AUSTIN, July 1. (AP)—If there is any reduction in the Confederate pension tax rate, the legislature will have to do it.

That was the ruling of Attorney General Price Daniel in answer to a request from Comptroller George Sheppard. Sheppard asked whether the Automatic Tax board could reduce the rate—now two cents on the $100 valuation—in view of the pension fund's big surplus.

Daniel said the board had no power to make the reduction.

The Confederate pension fund has a current surplus of more than three million dollars. There are 1,000 pensioners—only ten of them actual veterans of the war; between the states. The others are widows of veterans.

Rain Falling In Quake Area

FUKUI, Japan, July 1 (AP)—Rain pelted funeral pyres in quake and fire ridden Fukui today, adding to the misery of the thousands of homeless.

Concern was felt for refugees roaming the area as more heavy rains were forecast. River levees were smashed by the temblor of Monday. Danger of death dealing floods was acute.

New Shocks Felt

Fresh earth shocks were felt, too, but they were of a minor nature. Two men searching the ruins for bodies were injured slightly by debris knocked from buildings in the new temblor.

(The Japanese national police in Tokyo announced the "official" earthquake casualties in Fukui and Ishikawa provinces stood at 3,254 dead and 7,521 injured. These figures varied but little from tolls reported by U S Eighth Army from police and relief workers lists.)

Bodies of 325 victims, including 22 children, were recovered this morning.

Houses Burned

So great was the destruction that some saddened families began burning their flattened houses in Buddhist funeral rites without knowing how many corpses lay beneath.

It appeared unlikely any completely accurate total of the dead would be known. Families are scattered and fire consumed many bodies after the earthquake laid waste the town of 80,000.

Sabu To Make Film In Indian Jungles

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, July 1. (AP)—After a 14-year absence from his homeland, Sabu is returning to India to film his own production.

Sabu, who left India at nine, has big plans for a jungle picture on his own hook. He'll take a location troupe from here and shoot wild animal scenes north of New Delhi. "We will adapt the script to the screen we shoot," he reports.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornell Wilde are currently emoting in "The Lovers," and we can hope that it won't do serious damage to their marriage. Cornel happily admits his wife's role is better than his, so that's a good sign. She was set for the picture first, then he was added when Columbia couldn't find another film for his final commitment there.

Fairbanks Hunts New Picture

Douglas Fairbanks, jr., is searching for a modern-dress vehicle to follow "The O'Flynn." He hasn't done a non-costumer for 10 years.

Jimmy Stewart has two pictures of Ann Blyth in his "You Gotta Stay Happy" dressing room. He hasn't even met her—just an admirer from afar. I doubt if she'll be the one to make Jimmy settle down to a home life. He thinks she's too young for him.

Pedro Armendariz returns to Mexico after "Tulsa" to produce and start in "Dearly Beloved" with Dolores Del Rio. The Mexican government is reportedly helping to finance the film as well as some others, in an effort to revive the sagging film industry.

Vessels Was Expert At "Moonlight Scrounging" For Press

Ex-Press Relations Officer Now On Staff Of Austin Paper Was Beloved By Correspondents

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

This is the fantastic record of a slim, 50-year-old veteran of two world wars, a man war correspondents proclaim as the greatest press relations officer the U. S. Army ever had.

Jay Vessels is now a Texan. He stopped in Austin for dinner one night last February and is still there. He works on the Austin-American and has a two acre plot which sports the sign: "Dead cow ranch—breeder of pure-bred, white-faced scorpions."

Story Is Told

Native of Kentucky and long-time newspaperman, Major Vessels headed the press camp of the 12th tactical fighter command. Wick Fowler, Dallas Morning News feature writer, was with him in Africa, Italy, Southern France and Germany. And this is the story Fowler told us last night:

Vessels (Fowler began) was the most unorthodox officer in the Army, a fast-talking bird with a little black moustache, pink cheeks, and brown eyes. If there was a rule he didn't violate, we never found out what it was. He ran his press camp for newspapermen, not for the Army. He called the newspapermen his clients and for them he never failed to supply the best of food, drink, housing, transportation and ready access to news.

Correspondents Liked Him

A war correspondent could go see the fighting in one of Vessel's planes or cars or he could just sit at the bar Vessels provided and Jay would bring the war to him. It was a beautiful setup, and all the correspondents, men such as Ernie Pyle, Hal Boyle, Noland Norgaard and Kenneth Dixon were nuts about Jay and didn't want to be in any other press camp.

Vessels was the finest scrounger the Lord ever made—this means that he miraculously produced an air fleet, automobiles, wonderful chow and the finest liquors without ever signing his name to anything and without saying how he did it. A month before Rome fell Vessels was wiring and telephoning for hotel reservations there. And all of us believe that as long as a year before Hitler surrendered, Jay's air fleet was flying cognac and champagne out of Berlin for his "clients."

Obtained Hotel

When we took Naples, Jay quickly obtained a seven-story apartment hotel, one of the most exclusive in the city. We moved in and named it 'Vessels Violent Villa.' It was high on a hill, surrounded by ack ack guns and directly in the bomb run of German planes. During the air raids, while people with judgment sought safety, Jay would stand on the roof and go into ecstacies over the beauty of the ack ack. He had an utter disregard for danger. In those days he often flew piggy-back on P-38 fighter missions. His own son was a bombardier. Jay was a man who could have stayed at home.

We credited him with a radar nose—He could stand on a porch of his apartment house, watch the ships creep into Naples bay and actually sense which ones carried fresh pork chops. That evening he would disappear for a while, and for days afterward the ice box would be heavily stocked with pork chops. We called it 'moonlight requisitioning.'

Interviews with fighter pilots were always good, and 30 minutes after the hot pilots landed, they would be sitting in Jay's big bar, with correspondents around them. Vessels was supposed to be plugging the Air Force, but he brought in ground force heroes as well. And his planes ran regular runs to Anzio beachhead for any writer who wanted to spot the ground action there.

Wonderful Dinners

I'll never forget those wonderful dinners in the Naples apartment. There was an absolute rule that rank was to be left outside the door. It was funny to see a private at one end of the table, shouting an argument with some general at the other. Officers who pulled rank weren't asked out—they were thrown out.

Jay had one period of worry. Washington got wind of the goings on at his Violent Villa and sent an inspector clear from the U. S. Vessels met him at the airport, feeling very shaky, but when the visitor asked about 'the crews' of barrage balloons Jay knew he had him. At once, Jay began his confusing brand of double talk. Then the correspondents gave the inspector the same treatment. He left, after a week, thoroughly confused and, as far as we ever learned, he never turned in any report.

Vessel's had one rule—that a war correspondent's stories should be gotten out at all cost—by radio, by plane, by car—but gotten out. After the invasion of Southern France, it was Jay who smuggled out stories, not only for his own clients but for the men of other press camps. And he shielded and sheltered many newspapermen of other press camps who came to him begging for aid.

When the war was over and Jay reached a separation center, he had no papers to show he ever was in the Army and the Army could find no record of his service. He blew his top. That was the only thing that ever hurt him—four years in the service and the Army never knew he was there.

CAA Okay Awaited Before Bids Are Called On New Lubbock Airport Terminal

Final confirmations of tentative approvals already given by the Civil Aeronautics administration are being awaited by city officials before issuing a call for construction of the new Municipal Airport Terminal building pictured in the accompanying architect's drawing.

The structure, as proposed, will be a three-wing affair. Two identical wings will form an extremely wide-mouthed horseshoe, their ends curving toward the Plainview highway. The other wing will open upon the landing apron of the airfield projecting from the center of the outer curve of the other two. A metal fence will separate the building from the aprons.

Surmounting the center of the curving wings will be a square tower rising to a height of about 60 feet—approximately that of a tall five-story building—including the beacon as shown.

A second floor, circular in design, will rise above the third wing, which will serve as a waiting room. The use to which the second floor will be put has not been decided definitely, but it probably will be leased as a food and refreshment concession.

The principal use of the curving wings will be for service counters for airlines serving Lubbock. These wings can be extended as needed and, according to designers, can be made adequate for the needs of an air traffic volume many times that now handled at the airport. Offices, radar equipment, weather observatory apparatus will be housed in the tower.

The building will be situated a short distance northeast of present terminal facilities and about 600 feet further from the highway. One-way pavement from the highway will border the inside rim of the curving wings. Motor traffic will be discharged and picked up from roofed platforms. Present terminal facilities will be converted to other uses. The change of location and the new building's greater distance from the highway will insure an abundance of parking space.

Estimates are that the building, as designed, will cost somewhat more than $300,000, with the city and the CAA contributing on a 50-50 basis.

Basic design for the structure was obtained from the Mexico City airport terminal, city officials said. The architects are O. R. Walker and James Atcheson, who were associated when commissioned to design the structure. Atcheson since has opened his own office.

Local Building Record Is Set For Half Year

Building in Lubbock shoved off to an $800,000 start today for the second half of 1948 after having broken all records during the first six months of this year.

Applications pending with City Building Inspector Lloyd Ross includes four for apartment houses costing an aggregate of $742,100 to be built on Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth streets near Avenue U. George Field is the contractor and Plaza Apartments, inc., the owner. Several days will be required for a final checks of the specifications before the actual issuance of the permits, officials said.

Others Are Pending

Other pending permits included three for residences costing a total of $39,000. The owners locations and cost estimates are: Vernon Thompson, 3204 Twenty-seventh, $17,000; R. C. Mullins, 3602 Twenty-seventh, $12,000, and Homer Franklin, 3316 Twenty-eighths, $10,000.

Permits for construction costing $6,539,763 were issued during the six months, exceeding the previous record, which was set during the first half of 1947, by $634,331, or nearly 11 per cent. The total for the first half of 1947 was $5,905,432.

In third place among the half years was the last six months of 1947, with $5,225,428, increasing the total for that entire year to $11,130,866 to break all previous records.

Construction Is Steady

The record for the first half of 1948 surpasses that of any other entire year in history except 1946, when $8,946,191 in new construction was authorized.

Construction in Lubbock during the past two and one-half years thus has aggregated a grand total of $26,613,820—a sustained average not far short of a million dollars a month for 30 months.

The accelerated building pace this year, as compared with last

MAYOR AND RED CROSS LEADER TO BE FIRST DONORS

Lubbock County Blood Bank Will Be Opened Here Today

The Lubbock County Blood bank, representing months of planning and effort, will open at 5 o'clock this afternoon at Lubbock county Red Cross headquarters at 1513 Ave. K.

Mayor W. H. Rodgers and W. C. O'Mara, retiring chairman of the Lubbock county chapter of the Red Cross after five years service, will be the first donors of blood.

A doctor, nurses, nurses aides, canteen workers, motor corps workers and staff assistants will be present, each to do his or her part in duties connected with the obtaining of blood and the care of donors and other multifarious tasks related to proper operation of a blood bank.

Ten Donors Expected

Ten persons are expected to give blood during the two-hour period the bank will be open. Hereafter, the bank will be open on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 5 to 7 p. m.

Appointments are being made for donors to give blood Friday. Anyone wishing to give blood was asked to telephone 8534, Red Cross headquarters.

The bank is ready to go into permanent operation, furnishing a steady supply of blood for patients in member hospitals of the American Hospital association in the county, when request is made by a physician.

Maximum Charge Set

Announcement was made Wednesday afternoon that member hospitals had agreed upon a maximum charge of $5 to be made for administering blood to a patient.

The blood bank, operating under the slogan "From the Community to the Community," will make no charge for obtaining the blood or making it available for use. A patient in participating hospitals may eliminate those major costs when a transfusion is necessary, unless the patient chooses to obtain blood from a professional donor rather than the blood bank.

Participating hospitals are West Texas, Lubbock Memorial and St. Mary's hospitals.

A system is to be worked out later whereby negroes may give blood for transfusions for their own race, blood bank officials announced Wednesday.

Director On Duty

Dr. S. C. Arnett, jr., medical director for the blood bank, will be on duty during blood bank hours today.

Mrs. W. B. Agee, blood bank chairman, will be present and announced the following others will be on duty today: Nurses aides, Mrs. O. R. Hand and Mrs. Lee E. Hale; staff assistants, Mrs. Val Williams, Mrs. M. D. Watkins, Mrs. G. W. McCraw and Mrs. Payne Wood; canteen workers, Mrs. F. B. Malone and Mrs. C. B. Qualia; motor corps, Mrs. L. E. Davis and Mrs. Arthur Jenkins, technicians, Miss Betty Bachman and Gerald Jarvis; registered nurses, Mrs. I. B. Wright and Mrs. Grady Harrist.

Announcement was made that two additional appointments have been made to visit business firms for purpose of typing blood of employes who are willing to give blood to the blood bank. The first

Texan Opens Mouth And Out Pops Ring

LINCOLN, Neb., July 1. (U.P.)—William Schreiner, 46, San Antonio, Tex., began a two-year prison sentence today because he tried to keep his mouth shut, but couldn't.

Detective Frank Robbins, assigned to find the man who stole a $241 diamond ring from a jewelry store, spotted Schreiner entering a movie theater Tuesday night.

Dressed In Cowboy Clothes

Schreiner, dressed in cowboy clothes, dashed through the lobby with Robbins in pursuit. He sidestepped an usher and took the stairs three at a time to the balcony.

Robbins cornered him, amid indignant "shhhhh's" from the audience. But Schreiner wasn't making any noise. He wasn't opening his mouth. Robbins knew why too.

LEAP YEAR FAILS TO CLICK

DERBY CARS TO BE ASSEMBLED

Entrants Get Set For Starting Flag

Lubbock's first Soap Box Derby will have at least 249 cars ready for the starting flag, Derby officials announced Wednesday after a check of entry records and inspections.

A total of 209 boys sent their cars through the inspection line at Kuykendall Chevrolet company's parking lot Monday and Tuesday and calls to other entrants revealed that 40 more boys were finishing their cars this week and would be ready for the race Monday.

Derby Director Roy Finley issued another appeal for "heat prizes" for the youngsters, declaring that an effort will be made to award every winner of the race's 60 or more heats some sort of prize of at least $5 value.

Finley said announcement of all prizes would be made in Sunday's Avalanche-Journal.

Take Cars To Kuykendall

He corrected an error in Wednesday's paper regarding Saturday's assembly of racers for the Derby. Instead of Dickinson Motor company's truck plant on East Broadway, the cars can be brought to the Kuykendall lot and from there they will be transported to the Dickinson plant, where final inspection will be made.

Those boys who do not bring their cars to the Kuykendall lot by Saturday afternoon must have them at the Dickinson Motor company plant by 8 a.m. Monday, race day.

Finley and Lubbock Exchange club members, co-sponsors with the Avalanche-Journal and Kuykendall Chevrolet in staging the Derby, will complete final plans for handling the large crowd in meetings Thursday and Friday. All officials of the race are to gather in a meeting Friday to map out final details for handling the contestants.

Advice Is Given

"We're going to have a lot of rough spots to be ironed out before the race starts and we'll likely run into more trouble as we get under way, but every effort will be made to run the race off as quickly as possible," Finley said.

Finley reminded boys that they must bring their lunch or money for their lunch on race day.

"One thing we want," he added, "is for a boy to be ready to take his car down the hill when his

Jester Starts His Swing In Vote Search

(By The United Press)

Gov. Beauford H. Jester took his campaign onto the road today for his first extended swing through the state since he announced for re-election.

The governor's itinerary indicated that he planned to follow his announced plans for a "quiet campaign." His six-day jaunt includes numerous speaking appearances, but they are not "political" ones in the strict sense.

In Houstn Today

He kicked off the trip at Conroe last night, addressing the joint meeting of luncheon clubs at the annual Lions club ladies night dinner on his favorite subject—"Texans Are a Race of People."

He was in Houston today, for the opening session of the Texas Bar association's annual convention. Tomorrow, he'll be home in Corsicana, for the Navarro county centennial celebration. Jester will be the front man in a parade and will deliver the principal address at a barbecue.

Jester's plans for Saturday call for an appearance at the Stamford cowboy reunion in West Texas, and he'll show up in Port Arthur, on the Gulf coast, for religious ceremonies opening the diamond jubilee celebration Sunday night.

"No Man Can Tell"

Jester left his office after telling reporters that the Texas delegation to the national Democratic convention will caucus in Philadelphia on July 11 on whether to place in nomination the name of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for President.

"No man can fortell what the action of the delegation will be," said Jester, who will serve as its chairman. He said, however, a lot of the delegates are known to be for Eisenhower. All of them are known to be against President Truman, but the Texas party will support him, barring a major upset, when and if he wins the presidential nomination.

Speaks At Angelo

Johnson delivered a radio speech at San Angelo this morning. He said he was opposed to extravagance in government, but warned against false economy.

Politicians Said To Need New Technique For Political Conventions, With Fewer Speeches

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July. 1 — It's about time politicians got a new technique for their political conventions.

It would be a lot easier on the human beings who go to them if the speeches were fewer and shorter.

Describes Convention

It describes the Republican convention in Philadelphia on the night of Wednesday, June 23, the night of the nominating speeches.

What happened then may have impressed somebody listening over a radio. It didn't win any votes for anyone.

Starting at 9 p. m. and ending around 4 o'clock in the morning, the names of the would-be candidates for President were placed in nomination.

That meant seven hours of speech-making and demonstrating, far beyond the time when everyone there wished he were in bed.

Each person who got up in the jammed convention hall was allowed 15 minutes to make the speech nominating his candidate.

Little New In Speeches

Everyone who got up after him to second the nomination was allowed five minutes. And there were relays of seconding speakers although only one was needed.

To make matters worse, almost every speaker used up every minute allowed him.

There was hardly anything new in the speeches, anything which the delegates, who were going to vote for the candidates, didn't already know.

Most of them were full of the old-time, highblown oratory, trying to make the candidate being mentioned look like the glistening savior of America.

The speechmaking would have been tough enough and tiresome enough if that was all that had happened.

Demonstrations Between

But there were the demonstrations in between. They lasted anywhere from four or five minutes to more than a half-hour of screaming, jumping, parading through the aisles, waving banners.

If you were home, listening to it over your radio, you might have thought each parade after a nomination was a spontaneous outburst of joy, all very sudden, for the candidate just placed in nomination. It wasn't.

For example: A swarm of people waited for hours in the basement so they could go upstairs at the right time and put on, or join in, the demonstration for Harold E. Stassen when his name was placed in nomination.

Gave Color

All that happened on Wednesday night and early Thursday morning. But nobody at that time could be swept up in emotion to cast a single ballot for anyone. The reason:

The voting itself did not, and everyone there knew would not, start until Thursday afternoon. But it's been customary for years to put on demonstrations like that, so they were put on.

All this must have been a bit amusing to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and the political generals running his campaign.

Dewey Knew

They knew on Wednesday night, amid all the excitement, that Dewey was the best bet to get the nomination when the voting started the next day.

There's a moral in all this:

1. The long speeches, nominating and seconding, could be improved by cutting them down, while saving everyone's time and patience.
2. The big demonstrations on nominating night are noise, but not much more. They're a hangover from times past.

Come to think of it, the convention would be improved if the speeches on the other convention days were shorter and fewer.

Queen Elizabeth Is Combed From Stem To Stern After Report Of Hidden Time Bomb

NEW YORK, July 1. (AP)—The giant liner Queen Elizabeth, searched from stem to stern on a report that a time bomb had been placed aboard, sailed for Europe at 1 a.m. (EST) today.

Newspaper offices received telephone calls yesterday that a bomb would explode 20 hours after the liner left port.

The Cunard White Star liner carried 2,234 passengers bound for Cherbourg and Southampton.

Presidential adviser Bernard M. Baruch sailed for a six-week vacation and "observation trip." He said he plans to spend two weeks in England, and will visit Winston Churchill and "some of my friends in the new government." After that, he will visit his brother, Herman B. Baruch, U.S. ambassador to the Netherlands.

Yugoslavia Claims Blasted By Austria

VIENNA, July 1 (AP)—Austria's Communist party took full advantage today of the Tito-Cominform dispute to blast Yugoslavia's territorial claims on Carinthia, in southern Austria.

These claims, backed by the Soviet Union have been among the chief stumbling blocks in the way of completing a peace treaty for Austria.

The Communist newspaper in Vienna, Volksstimme, called the Yugoslav claims "nationalistic," but made no mention of the fact that Russia has supported them.

Foremost Job Of New Telescope Will Be In Measuring Universe

By RENNIE TAYLOR
Associated Press Science Writer

PALOMAR MOUNTAIN, Calif., July 1.—The foremost job of the 200-inch telescope will be to complete a highly accurate yardstick for measuring the universe.

This yardstick is partly ready now. It consists of an imaginary line 60 million million million miles long and equally imaginary marks on it like inches on a foot ruler. But out toward the end of the yardstick the marks are not now accurately spaced.

Complex Job

The problem is like that of a man at the starting end of the stick trying to establish marks out to the other end by sighting along the straight line. The farther out he sees the more difficult it is to peg the places on it where the marks should be.

To do this will require some highly complex observations of known stars and galaxies and a final venture into using the peculiar behavior of light from far distant island universes, Dr. Walter Baade, of Mt. Wilson observatory, told the American Astronomical society today.

In the shadow of the "big eye," now known as the Hale telescope, Dr. Baade outlined the working program for the $6,600,000 instrument upon which scientists are relying heavily in their drive to find the outward fringe of creation.

Redetermine Known Stars

The first step, Dr. Baade said, will be to redetermine the brightness of some known, relatively nearby stars whose distances already have been pretty well calculated.

These stars are called cepheid variables. Their brilliance goes up and down at regular periods, usually hours or days. The longer the periods, the brighter these stars are. Since their distance is known, astronomers by observing their variations in brilliance can get an accurate measure of their intrinsic or actual brightness.

By comparing this brightness with the light of other cepheid variables in faraway galaxies whose exact distances are not known, the astronomers can pick those distances pretty accurately and in turn can compute the distances of those galaxies.

The 100-inch telescope on Mt. Wilson, with the aid of a wartime instrument for magnifying starlight, already has determined the distances of these stars in 14 galaxies.

To Add Data

Since the Hale telescope can reach out effectively to twice the distance of the 100-inch, it will add data from 14 galaxies farther out, to a distance of about 10,000,000 light years, Dr. Baade said. That distance is 60 million million million miles.

This will complete the primary marks on the yardstick. The astronomers, then knowing something accurately about the distance of all these galaxies, will tackle the bright stars on constant brilliance in those same groups. The yardstick applied to these stars will tell something about their size, the distance between them and the dimensions of their galaxies.

As the big telescope reaches beyond 10,000,000 light years and becomes unable to single out individual stars for observation, the astronomers will use their measurements of the brilliance of the bright stars as standards for measurement of the light of whole galaxies. This light computation again will tell something about their distance.

AMAZING RESULTS WITH MERTOX TONIC

Mrs. Ben Grossman of Houston writes us as follows:

"For a long time I have had occasional billious spells. My head would hurt and I would vomit my food. My last spell was very severe And I just thought I would die. My appetite was poor and I couldn't sleep at night. I was so troubled with my limbs stiffening just before I would have a spell of gas and bloat. I would be dizzy and I would have a severe headache. My food soured and it just seemed as if everything was wrong with me. To anyone suffering like I was, I recommend Mertox highly."

This splendid medicine, containing 25 ingredients, works fast to eliminate poisonous matter from your system. Helps to build rich, red blood. Relieves constipation within a few hours and helps to create a more rhythmic bowel action. Get Mertox Compound today from any Texas druggist at the new REDUCED price. Adv.

PRIESTS ARRESTED

BUDAPEST, Hungary, July 1. (AP)—The interior ministry announced today that political police have arrested four Roman Catholic priests, including the secretary of Catholic Action, for "inciting against democracy."

More than 1,000,000 Americans work in mineral production.

Lake In New York Is Given New Name

WASHINGTON, July 1. (AP)—The lake that was too big and too cold to live up to its name has become Highlands Forge lake.

The board on geographical names made the change in the case of Warm Pond, a mile-long lake in the Adirondack mountains of Essex county, N. Y.

Residents of nearby Willsboro asked recently that the misnamed warm pond be called Highlights lake.

An Associated Press story that the board was considering the proposal brought a letter pointing out that there already is a Highland lake in southern New York.

As a result, the board ruled against Highlands but accepted Highlands Forge, in recognition of an historic smithy shop and iron-working factory.

Air Guard Receives First Jet Aircraft

WASHINGTON, July 1. (AP)—The first 42 of 107 jet fighters assigned to the Air National guard are being delivered to units in five states.

The air force said the high speed F-80C fighters are being turned over to guard units in California, Florida, Maine, Georgia and Nebraska.

Maine Unit Gets 10

The 132nd Squadron at Dow Base, Maine, is getting 10 of the first allotment; the 173rd Squadron, Lincoln, Neb., 10; 158th Squadron, Chatham Base, Ga., 10; 196th Squadron, San Bernardino, Calif., 6; 159th Squadron, Jacksonville, Fla., 6.

The "C" series of the F-80s are in the 600-mile-an-hour class, about 50 miles an hour faster than the earlier "B" models. They are armed with six .50 caliber guns in the nose and can carry two 1,000 pound bombs on shackles under the wings.

The bureau of mines in the U. S. department of interior was set up in 1910.

Battleship Texas Fights Losing Battle With Souvenir Hunters

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

The battleship Texas is fighting a losing battle with souvenir hunters, eager thievers who carry away anything they can lift.

Sundays, 5,000 visitors—and up—swarm over the great grey ship, now a monument in San Jacinto battleground near Houston. You can play with the helm, eat your picnic lunch on the main deck, lounge around in the admiral's quarters. You can ask questions of J. M. Strickling, the moonfaced man of 61 now in charge of the big T.

Some Take Anything

Strickling, raised in Houston, was in the Navy from 1908 to 1945. He made the builders run on the Texas in 1914 and served on the ship four years. Now a retired chief machinists mate, he says:

"It seems a shame that people would be so low as to take things from a ship with as much honor as the Texas has won—but I have found that some people will take anything they can lift.

"They take the nuts off the port holes, they steal the magnets out of the receivers of the ship's telephones. In many cases the receivers themselves have been yanked away.

Even Take Flag

"Someone even got away with the Texas flag.

"One day I walked out of my quarters and left the door unlocked. When I returned, five people were in the cabin and one woman was opening drawers and going through my belongings.

"I asked them to leave. Four of them did, at once, but the woman stayed. 'Madame, I would thank you to leave,' I said. 'Not before I get a souvenir,' she replied. I then told her that souvenir hunting is nothing less than thievery. She left, and I thought I had taught her a lesson. A few minutes after she had gone, I discovered my flashlight was missing."

Strickling since has moved to the captain's quarters, secure behind a big sign which directs sightseers to stay out. The quarters are big, comfortable, shipshape and smell of leather. The chief caretaker is assisted by a couple of other oldtime seamen, John McKeown, retired chief machinists mate and E. E. Levy, a retired chief bosuns mate. The three have a total service time of 91 years

Strickling told us he worries a lot about people who ignore the barricades and climb the masts.

"Had to put two fellows off the ship Sunday," he said. "One climbed the main mast and the other got near the top of the foremast and hid. It's gotten so I can't take my eyes off those masts."

People also try to sneak aboard at night but generally find Strickling or his assistants waiting.

Most visitors behave very well, the caretaker says. "Whole bus loads of children come aboard and never do anything out of the way."

Four Work Continuously

The kids love to crank the guns and we saw a couple of old ladies aiming at an imaginary enemy plane. During the day, Strickling booms greetings to the guests over more than 100 microphones. He also cautions children to "walk, don't run."

A maintenance crew of four works continuously at keeping the 35,000 ton retired battlewagon in shape, but it's never shipshape enough to meet the critical brown eyes of that old Navy man, Strickling.

"Look at those decks," he moaned, eyeing the faded wood. "When I sailed on the Texas, those decks was white, and I mean white!"

Fielder Trio To Give Tech Concert Friday

The Fielder Trio, composed of flute, cello, and piano, will present several arrangements of both classical and popular music at 8:30 p. m. Friday on the Administration building green, Texas Technological college. The concert is the third to be presented on the Texas Tech artist course program for the summer.

Alex Fielder, flutist with the group, is the twin brother of Arthur Fielder, cellist, and the pianist is Jean Fielder, who is Mrs. Arthur Fielder, non-professional. Both Alex and Arthur Fielder are affliated with the Dallas Symphony and the Kansas City Philharmonic orchestra as soloists. Of Mrs. Fielder's performance last January with the Trio, the Kansas City Star said: "Mrs. Fielder's rendition of the piano score was at once brilliant and finely proportioned to the string parts, exemplary of the unique use the composer made of the piano in numerous sonatas and trios."

Admission to the concert will be season artist courst tickets for students, and $1 to townspeople who wish to attend

Without Painful Backache

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Arabs And Jews Are Preparing Replies To UN Peace Proposals

By MAX BOYD
Associated Press Staff Writer

CAIRO, July 1—Arab and Jewish leaders separately prepared their answers today to United Nations proposals for a permanent Holy Land peace. There have been strong hints the proposals will be rejected.

In Cairo, Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, Secretary General of the Arab League, said last night the league's political committee had gone over the proposals and appointed a sub-committee to draft a reply to Count Folke Bernadotte, U. N. Palestine mediator.

In Tel Aviv, an Israeli minister said he thought his government would have an answer ready in "a couple of days."

Leaders Asked To Rhodes

U. N. headquarters at Lake Success said Bernadotte disclosed he had invited Jewish and Arab leaders to Rhodes for separate peace talks but said he had no immediate plans for a joint round table discussion. His peace proposals have not been officially released for publication and he imposed secrecy on both parties.

Azzam said the League devoted most of last night's meeting to military questions relating to the positions of the Arab armies in Palestine.

The Arab sub-committee which will draft the reply to Bernadotte consists of the prime ministers of Syria and Trans-Jordan, and Abdel Moneim Mustapha Bey, head of the political section of the League's secretariat.

Azzam Pasha also said the Arab governments had received Britain's reply to their protests against British evacuation of Haifa before the Aug. 1 target date. He said Britain stated it was handing over Haifa to U. N. control.

The League secretary said the Arabs are demanding that Haifa harbor remain neutral, even after the expiration of the U. N. four-week truce on July 9.

The last of Britain's Palestine troops pulled out of Haifa yesterday and Israel's Star of David replaced the Union Jack over the harbor, thus ending a 31-year military occupation by the British.

Jewish officials in Tel Aviv said it had been reported that the army of Fawzi Pasha Al Kaukji has again broken the U. N. truce by firing on Jewish positions in Sejera, Lower Galilee.

U. N. Approaches Arabs

A U. N. representative recently approached the Arab governments in an attempt to find out which state is responsible for Fawzi Pasha's army.

In Karachi, the Pakistan parliamentary committee on aid to Palestine decided yesterday to raise a trained corps to fight with the Arabs.

Azzam Pasha said Syrian officials were mistaken when they accused an American warship of shelling Arab positions along Palestine's northern coast.

Informants in Montreaux, Switzerland, said Dr. Chaim Weizmann, president of Israel, will keep in close touch with the political commission of the World Jewish Congress meeting there. Weizmann arrived in Montreaux from Paris yesterday.

To Attend Meeting

A. B. Reese, president of the Classroom Teachers council of Lubbock Public schools, will leave Friday for Cleveland, O., to attend the 86th annual convention of the National Education association Monday through Friday, July 9.

High spots on the program are to include presentation of the issues facing American voters in the November election. The Republican platform is to be presented by Sen. "Operation Vittles" Keeps Yanks Busy

Uncle Sam's Air Force Dots The Skies With Planes On Way To Feed Berliners

WESTOVER AIR FORCE BASE, Mass., July 1 (AP)—The U. S. Air Force dotted the skies today with C-54—"Operation Vittles" — transports assigned to help smash the Soviet food blockade of Berlin.

While eleven of the big craft were enroute to Frankfurt, Germany, via St. Stephensville, Nfld., and Lagens, in the Azores, 18 other Skymasters swept into this base from Hawaii, Alaska and Austin, Texas, yesterday.

A dozen more are flying from Hawaii's Hickam field. They are expected to arrive at Westover today. Another group of six is heading in here from Elmendorf Air Force base, Alaska.

Six craft are scheduled to clear Westover today for Germany, running to 17 the number already enroute to food-blockaded Berlin.

One of a flight that arrived here yesterday from Hickam field made the 5,700 mile trip in 32 hours, with a stop at San Francisco.

The operation was designed after the Russians blocked land transportation of food into the German capital.

The planes will pick up cargoes in Frankfurt. They are making the overseas hop light, except for double crews.

turn comes, so that there won't be any delay. This, we must have. We can't hold up three boys from racing just because the fourth in the heat isn't ready to go. It simply will be his hard luck if he isn't ready to race when his time comes around."

Early Monday morning detours will be set on Highway 82 east of Lubbock and traffic will be routed via Avenue A and the old Idalou road running to Purina Mills.

Exchange club members will man the detours and see that traffic is routed over the temporary route.

This year the new construction has maintained an astonishingly even pace. The range in building permit values by months has been from a low of $719,792 during January, when much bad weather made construction work impossible, to $1,360,172 during June.

City building permit totals by months during the first halves of 1948 and 1947 follow:

Month	1948	1947
January	$ 719,792	$ 405,915
February	1,259,097	454,260
March	1,148,248	2,254,513
April	1,091,739	583,555
May	960,715	1,154,487
June	1,360,172	1,052,702
Totals	6,539,763	5,905,432

Resident Building Boosted

The record set during the first six months of 1947 was due chiefly to permits approximating $1,600,000 for two junior high school buildings and the Texas Technological stadium, all issued in March.

More than half of this year's building has been residences. The remainder has been divided among miscellaneous types of construction—business, industrial, schools, churches, municipal and the like.

Helping materially toward the imposing six months' total were $243,160 in construction for which permit were issued Wednesday. Included in this total, however, were several projects which had been authorized and upon which work actually has been started. Applicants simply were too rushed to pick up their permits earlier.

One of these was for the $75,000 physical education and gymnasium building for Senior High school, for which a site has been prepared on nearby Chapman field.

Three were issued to R. H. Edler as contractor for projects costing a total of $76,965 on the Texas Tech campus. They include a plant industry shop, $32,875; a garage and lumber storage building, $28,710, and repairs to the gymnasium, $15,380. Edler also got a permit as contractor for alterations costing $5,000 to the Howard Hunt residence at 1904 Seventeenth street.

Carl Hensley obtained permits to build a two-story residence costing $26,000 for himself at 3304 Twenty-fourth and as contractor for a pumice tile dwelling costing $13,700 for Gaylord Hankins at 3412 Twenty-sixth.

Other permits reported during the day included:

M. H. Day, contractor, and L. G. Pierce, jr., owner, residence at 2825 Twenty-fourth, $12,000; C. H. Tisdel, contractor, alterations and remodeling at 1101 Broadway for the Sweetbriar shop, $10,000; Henry Drake, pumice tile residence at 3603 Twenty-sixth, $9,000; J. C. Griffin, frame residence at 2909 Allen, $6,000, and Mary A. Hatcher, pumice tile business building at 707 Broadway, $5,000.

Modern Scientific Devices Aid In Restoring Objects Of Art

By ALAN WADE
United Press Staff Writer

WORCESTER, Mass. July 1.—Ultra-violet light, X-rays and spectographs are helping preserve and restore the world's great paintings, says George L. Stout, director of the Worcester art museum.

Stout, an internationally-known expert on restoration of old paintings, was called to help settle a dispute as to whether restoring work was "ruining" paintings at England's National Gallery.

"Technicians have taken off layer after layer of old brown preservative varnish. That made the paintings lighter in color and some people just didn't like the change," Stout said.

"Actually," he said, "the paintings, as Rubens' 'Rape of the Sabines,' merely were put back into their original shape."

Paintings Deteriorate

Canvas back of paintings get old and dried out, the former Fogg Museum official said. The wood frames become loose. Varnish put on to preserve the paintings gets too thick and cracks. And there is always dirt around as well as moist weather to attack the priceless pictures.

Conservation of the masterpieces has become a science, Stout said.

"The only trouble is that there still are not enough scientists to go around," he added.

Cleaning work on a masterpiece involves recording of condition by use of X-rays, photography under ultra-violet and infra-red and other kinds of light. The experts also use the timtometer, a gadget that measures changes in color.

Varnish solvents are spot-tested to make sure there is no danger of removing paint along with varnish.

Work Is Thorough

"Sometimes," Stout said, "a sort of orographic map is made up, showing in a highly-magnified way the condition of every inch of the painting.

"When they start going over a picture, of course, they take into consideration its history — just what has been done to it before. Some of those English paintings had not been touched in decades."

Stout said that generally American paintings are in much better condition than those abroad.

"That is largely because our collections are much newer," he added. "When paintings are transferred to a new collection they generally are put in good shape."

Nevertheless, he said, there are always about 50 per cent of the pictures in any gallery that need minor attention of some sort.

our debt and cut down the carrying charges."

He said, "I would rather invest dollars to prevent war than spend precious lives fighting for our liberties and our very existence."

Peddy spoke at Tyler last night, demanding that voters throw out of office the "politicians who see to it that recklessly-spent taxpayers money is spent in those places where it will do them the most good."

Peddy moved in Mineola, Quitman, Greenville and Sulphur Springs in his quest for votes today.

Stevenson spent yesterday in Galveston. He stuck to his announced plan—"make no promises"—and reiterated the major points of his platform—stop wild government spending, resist federal encroachment on states rights, and give control of the oil-rich tidelands to the states.

Nearly-Severed Leg Of Child Saved By Sympathetic Surgeon

BUFFALO, N.Y., July 1. (AP)—The story of how a sympathetic surgeon saved the almost completely severed legs of a little girl has come to light at Our Lady of Victory Hospital in nearby Lackawanna.

The child, Eleanor Eaton, is now five years old, and she runs and plays like any other child her age. But the first time Eleanor met the late Dr. Michael A. Sullivan several years ago, it was different.

Playing on her family's farm near Buffalo, Eleanor became pinned beneath her father's tractor. She was taken to the hospital with her mangled legs dangling.

One leg was severed except for a section of muscle. The other leg was badly fractured. Doctors and nurses prepared for immediate amputation as Dr. Sullivan, then the hospital's chief of staff, studied the injuries.

Doctor Hesitates

"It's an awful thing to lose a leg," Dr. Sullivan said. "Let's let this little girl rest until tomorrow."

A special pillow was made for the severed leg and the wound was sprinkled with sulpha powder to prevent infection. After 24 hours during which nurses watched over Eleanor constantly, the operating room again was prepared for the amputation.

Dr. Sullivan still hesitated. And, although other physicians urged him to amputate, he decided to wait a while longer.

Instead of putting a cast on the leg, Dr. Sullivan ordered a loose bandage to guard against infection. Finally, as Eleanor's condition improved, he ordered a cast. But the chance of complete recovery was a long one. Even if the flesh healed without infection, the bone ends and nerves might not knit.

Months later the cast was removed. In a room filled with nurses, doctors and technicians, the plaster was taken off. Gentle hands masaged the stiff muscles. Everyone waited to learn the effects of Dr. Sullivan's efforts.

Wiggles Her Toes

"Wiggle your toes, Honey," one of the hospital sisters said to Eleanor.

Eleanor wiggled her toes, and all five of them moved. The first stage of the program was a success. But would the child be able to walk?

After weeks of exercise and massage, Eleanor was assisted from the bed. With helping hands nearby to aid her, she was asked to stand. Then she took a few steps. Dr. Sullivan had saved her leg.

"There is no known record of any other case where a leg had been virtually amputated, including the bone, and healed together again," Sister M. Theophane, hospital superintendent, said. The case, she added, was not publicized during Dr. Sullivan's lifetime at his own request.

Amarillo Man Faces Charge

AMARILLO, July 1 (AP) — Twenty-two year old Louis Conley of Amarillo was under federal charges here today growing out of family difficulties in Massachusetts a year ago.

Conley, who is living with his mother here, was ordered arrested by Federal Judge Charles Sweeney. His bond was set at $10,000.

Sweeney ordered Conley's arrest after he was notified that a federal grand jury in Boston had indicted Conley on charges of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution and two counts of assault with a dangerous weapon.

The weapon was specified as "brass knuckles."

Was Already Charged

Conley was already under indictment of a Plymouth county grand jury in Massachusetts on two counts of kidnaping and two counts of assault with a dangerous weapon.

He was arrested here on those charges and was freed on $2,500 bond provided by the mayor of Amarillo and a business man who took exception to a Massachusetts judge's description of Conley as a "southern wife beater."

The charges arose from an altercation last year at Brockton, Mass., after which Conley took possession of his daughter Lynette, now three-and-a-half years old. He is charged with assaulting his wife, Lucille, and her mother, Mrs. Bertha S. Lacroix.

Norman Wiley Makes Good Use Of 60 Days' Leave From Marines

Brothers Spending Busy Summer Studying At Texas Tech And Instructing In Band School

Two brothers 1st Lt. Norman C. Wiley and Charles Wiley, are spending a busy summer studying at Texas Tech and teaching in the summer band school.

Norman C. Wiley is making use of 60 days leave he accumulated while serving with the Marine Night Fighters during the war and since accrued. He is enrolled for eight semester hours' college work during the first summer term at Texas Tech and also is French horn instructor in the band school.

NORMAN

Charles Wiley is teaching oboe during band school and will attend both summer terms in the college. He expects to receive a degree in mathematics in August. He returned to Lubbock from the University of Kansas after close of the spring term and will go back there this fall to continue music study and to be an instructor in music next scholastic year. He expects to receive a bachelor's degree in music next year at the University of Kansas.

Father Is Band Director

They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Wiley of 2810 Jefferson. Their father is band director at Texas Tech.

First Lieutenant Wiley pointed out that many men accumulated leave during the war, because of inability, especially when overseas, to take their leave.

He went on active duty as a naval cadet in 1943 and later was commissioned a Marine corps lieutenant. He landed on Okinawa about the time the war ended in 1945 and served there until October of that year, when he was a member of the first squadron to land in Peiping, China, for purpose of occupation.

Protected From Bandits

By an ironical turn of events, an armed guard of Japanese accompanied the squadron of American fliers about 10 miles from the air field into Peiping, to protect them from bandits.

Allied troops had not been present in sufficient number to disarm the Japanese, although the war was over. The Chinese command was there, but because of number of bandits left the Japanese troops in Peiping armed in order to help maintain order. A few days after the squadron of which Wiley was a member arrived, enough American troops were present to disarm the Japanese and send them back to Japan.

The Night Fighters were especially capable of fighting at night during the war, because the planes were equipped with radar which could be used for purpose of "homing in" and also to get close enough to shoot enemy planes down.

Wiley is to report back to the air station near Santa Ana about Aug. 1

Quake Hits Supply Port

By L. S. CHAKALES
Associated Press Staff Writer

Athens, July 1.—An earthquake has damaged a supply port for Greek forces fighting guerrillas about 100 miles away, but the government claims to have broken the guerrillas' grip on an intervening road.

The port of Preveza on the west coast, suffered damage yesterday from a tremblor that killed three persons, injured more than 100 and destroyed nine out of 10 buildings in nearby Levkas.

But Minister of War George Stratos said last night government troops had restored traffic on the road from Preveza to Ioannina, 50 miles north, by driving the Communist-led rebels away from adjoining heights.

Guerrillas Stop Supplies

In occupying the heights, the Guerrillas had stopped the flow of supplies to three Greek divisions engaged against other rebel bands in the Grammos mountains some 50 miles beyond Ioannina. A dispatch said American road workers fled before them.

Stratos said the loyalist counter-attack had air and naval support and cost the guerrillas heavily. News stories placed the battle 11 miles south of Ioannina.

Other reports said three guerrilla battlions, on a sector not specified, were seeking to surrender the army officers had gone to negotiate with them.

CIO Union To Obey Taft-Hartley Law

CHICAGO, July 1. (AP)—The CIO United Packinghouse Workers of America representing some 200,000 workers, says it will comply with all provisions of the Taft-Hartley law.

"Immediate" removal from office will be the penalty to any union officer who fails to comply, the union voted at its fifth constitutional convention yesterday.

The Taft-Hartley law requires all major union officials to sign non-Communist affadivits. Recently Meyer Stern of New York, a district director, resigned rather than follow the UPW's executive board's recommendation that the union comply with the Taft-Hartley law.

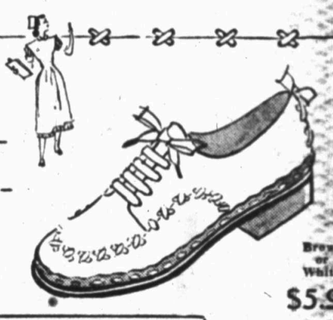

Stern Is Re-Elected

However, Stern, whose district six includes New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia and Delaware, was re-elected yesterday. His acceptance of re-election may indicate that he now is willing to sign a non-Communist affidavit.

Under the plan adopted, vacancies occurring from removal of officers for failing to comply with the law would be filled by the international executive board in the case of international officers and by special convention in the case of district officers.

Politics was simpler in the old days. All a candidate had to do was cuss Wall Street.

WHEN conditions become more settled, more Americans should travel abroad — or, at least, more Americans willing and anxious to learn from others should travel abroad.

Too often, we Americans fall into the error of thinking that we do everything better in every way than the people of any other nation. That is not true.

The American people do lead in many ways — in more ways than the people of any other nation But our leadership is not total. We trail, in some respects, behind other nations.

Irving Jones, soon to become president of the Lubbock Rotary club, went to Rio de Janeiro recently as the local club's representative to the convention of Rotary International. Under the conditions —with all Brazil doing everything it could for its guests— Mr. Jones had a fine opportunity to see everytning worthwhile in the great South American metropolis.

He saw many interesting things, of course. But the thing which astonished Mr. Jones most was the modernity of Rio. From a standpoint of modern architecture and construction, Mr. Jones says, Rio has any American city beat to death.

In fact, he puts it this way: "In all honesty and frankness, I believe the United States is 50 years behind Rio de Janeiro in the matter of architecture and building design."

IN Germany, Austria, Italy and France last Winter, we, like Mr. Jones, were surprised to note that in some ways the Europeans are ahead of us.

Never having been overseas before — our travel limited to the U. S., Mexico and Canada — we had muddled along, blissfully believing that everything we have in this country was vastly superior to anything found elsewhere.

We discovered, among other things, that the Germans, for instance, have us beat to death in the matter of plumbing fixtures; that some of their furniture is superior to ours; that their construction, while ponderous, outlasts ours; that they employ space in the homes to great advantage instead of placing emphasis on "cramming things together;" that their door handles are much better than our door knobs, and that their combination elevator-escalator is something we would do well to ape.

In Paris, we noted a boulevard system unparalleled in any American city. We saw stage settings and lighting vastly superior to that in New York's best theaters and clubs. We saw that Paris had made of the Seine a veritable background for urban grace and beauty and offers a backdrop of architecture not to be found between the Atlantic and Pacific and the Canadian and Mexican borders.

Although we saw Vienna under adverse conditions, we can imagine the norm there to equal in grace and culture anything we have to offer and surpass most of it. The same was true of Trieste, and the relatively small city of Gorezia had a charm and an exterior cleanliness well above our average in cities of 20,000 to 40,000 — comparable size.

EVEN the whooper-duper, extra special Super-Chief, our best railroad train doesn't measure up to a German train on which we lived and traveled for the better part of a week in the British zone of Germany. And when it comes to private gardens, albeit they aren't kept up now, the Deutschers can teach us plenty—as they can with objects d'art, chandeliers and interior woodwork.

We saw no new model automobiles in Europe, if, indeed, there were any. But Americans who saw European cars in the early part of the war told us that the British, the Italians and the Germans all manufactured pre-war big cars which were superior to the best we made in the same period.

The trouble with us Americans has been that when we traveled in the past we went for fun, or to look at a lot of picturesque ruins, and we kept our eyes closed to everything else.

Instead of making an effort to find out what other people have, and to honestly compare what they have with what we have, our policy has been to go smugly on, kicking up our heels or soaking up culture, yet paying little or no mind to opportunities for comparison and learning.

EVEN if we lead in 90 per cent of the various segments of living, we still have 10 per cent on which to improve ourselves. If we lead in no more than 50 or 60 per cent, our opportunities for self-improvement are even greater.

No man has ever been so wise that he couldn't learn any more. No nation has ever been so far in the lead that it could not learn from other nations.

It is dangerous for the individual to rest on his laurels — especially if the laurels aren't quite as impressive as he may believe. By the same token, it is dangerous for a nation to do so.

Let's get wise to ourselves, and as we go around and about the world attempt to pick up ideas and methods which might, after all, be superior in some ways to those in vogue here.

BY DREW PEARSON: FRENCH VETERANS ARE SENDING FRIENDSHIP TRAIN TO U. S. A.

Officials Finally Begin To Probe Dallas Housing

WASHINGTON — Three weeks ago, this columnist reported that about 150 cases of housing frauds against veterans had been referred to the U. S. district attorney in Dallas, Texas, but that not one indictment had been brought. Several prominent citizens, including members of the Dallas Home Builders association, were involved.

PEARSON

The U. S. district attorney, Frank Potter, immediately hurled the charge of "liar." Nonetheless, Attorney General Tom Clark has now sent a special assistant, Philip W. Yager, to Dallas, together with deputy housing Expediter Morris S Verner, jr., and a special grand jury has been called to probe these frauds. In addition, the Veterans administration admitted publicly that some 150 fraud cases were hanging fire.

However, here is something else which the Veterans administration has not yet made public. In its files are some revealing letters written by its representative, R. F. Andrews, chief of the Veterans Loan Guaranty service in Dallas. Here are some excerpts from them:

On Feb. 18, Andrews reported to Washington: "Mr. Godfrey of the Dallas Home Builders in telephonic conversation with Mr. Baker, loan guaranty officer, Dallas, today stated that the side-payment cases now in the hands of the U. S. attorney in Dallas are progressing to his, Mr. Godfrey's satisfaction. The innuendo is obvious."

The "side-payment" cases refer to the practice of charging veterans a fee above the limit permitted by the G. I. bill of rights. This fee is paid on the side and concealed from the Veterans administration. This columnist previously reported that fraud cases involving members of the Dallas Home Builders had been referred to the U. S. attorney in Dallas, but no action taken.

"Prominent Citizens" Involved

On June 4, Andrews again reported to the Veterans administration in Washington:

"It would appear that Washington (the Justice department) has directed vigorous prosecution . . . but procrastination is the thief of time.

"In instances where so-called 'prominent citizens as termed by the U. S. attorney's staff, are involved, it is most convenient to find excuses to postpone from one grand jury to another.

"A member of the Dallas Loan Guaranty division was in the U. S. attorney's office while interrogations were being made concerning overpayments, and an operator admitted receiving $2,500 overpayment as 'That was my sales price,' and curtly inquired: 'What do you intend to do about it?'

"The answer was negative, as the operator was a 'prominent citizen.'"

Again on June 10, Andrews made the following report regarding U. S. Attorney Frank Potter whom this columnist charged with dragging his feet.

"In view of the indication in these letters that the U. S. attorney's office may not be properly cooperating in the prosecution of the persons and corporations involved, it thought that perhaps you may decide to bring the matter specifically to the attorney general."

ANDREWS also reported to the Veterans administration that the side-payment complaints referred to Potter totalled more than $100,000.

Regarding near-by Ft. Worth, the Veterans administration official reported:

"In Ft. Worth one operator, Whitehall and Williams, has been reported as collecting overpayment on all transactions. Cases were presented to the district attorney 18 months or more ago with no action whatsoever to date, other than shuttling them back to the regional chief attorney 'for more information.'"

That is the record of the U.S. district attorney who hurls the charge of "liar" so readily.

Here is the inside story of the "train of gratitude," the French reply to the Friendship train.

The idea began with the French Railway Workers Veterans association who hauled the Friendship train through France and who knew about the great job the American railroads — both executives and the brotherhoods—did in handling the train in the U.S.A. Simultaneously, Commandant Guy De La Vasselais, former chief liason of the 3rd Army and a friend of the late General Patton's, conceived a similar idea. Both took the project to President Auriol of France, who brought them together.

Subsequently the plan was broadened to include all French veterans associations, 34 in number, with a membership of six million.

It was the French Railway veterans who first proposed sending 48 of the old railway cars used by American troops in World War I (40 men-8 horses). They suggested sending one car to each of the 48 states as a permanent souvenir.

Accordingly permission has been given by the French National Railways to send the cars, and the French line has agreed to ship them to the United States without charge.

The French veterans also propose loading these cars with gifts for the American people, but have ruled out any food, drink or luxury item. Also they do not want to send anything to Americans made out of raw materials received under the Marshall plan. Therefore they plan to send typically French, nonluxury items such as Sevres pottery, Limoges porcelain, Baccaret crystals, engraved woodwork, Annecy church bells, Brittany bonnets, peasant costumes, plus history documents of mutual interest to the two countries.

THE "Train of Gratitude" will travel through France, just as the Friendship train traveled through the U.S.A., picking up gifts from local organizations. Upon arrival in the United States it is planned to send three or four sectional trains to different parts of the country, dropping off one car in each state.

The distribution of the gifts in the U.S.A. will be left entirely to each state. The historic boxcars will be given to the forty-and-eight veterans or to whichever veterans group is designed by the different states.

It is also planned to combine the Train of Gratitude with a letter-writing project called "Merci Des Enfants," ("thanks of the children.") Each boxcar will contain various letters from the children of France to the children of America thanking them for the Friendship train.

When Congress learned about the French Train of Gratitude, only 36 hours of the session remained. However, it rushed through a special bill exempting the French gifts from customs duties. It was Senators Taft and Millikan, ex-Speaker Sam Rayburn and Congressman Aime Forand of Rhode Island who pushed this bill through ir such record time.

Yeah, But, Gee Whiz, Let's Be Practical

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

TWO New York psychiatrists have come right out and charged that one big reason why childless marriages are increasing is because Americans are "obsessed with cleanliness and want to be protected from the smells and dirt that are part of normal healthy childhood."

MILLETT

They are right, of course. But the great pity isn't that an increasing number of such fastidious people aren't having any children at all. The real pity is that so many of them have a child or two and keep right on trying to protect themselves from all the dirt and untidiness that is part of normal, healthy childhood.

MAKES CHILD UNHAPPY

THEN it is the child who is unhappy. Mama never relaxes. She is too busy fighting dirt. She always has her child in clean clothes and is always cautioning him, "Now don't get dirty."

She tries to keep her home looking exactly as it would if she didn't have a child. She can do it, too, if she nags at the child enough, if she makes him play out of doors most of the time and won't let him bring his playmates in the house, and if she never lets the housework slide while she shares an event with her child.

It's regrettable that a woman can be so obsessed with cleanliness that she chooses not to have any children. But it's downright tragic when a woman who is obsessed with cleanliness has a child and tries to fit him into the picture.

"Try And Stop Me"

GEORGE JEAN NATHAN tells of a law case where opposing counsel found only one juror upon whom both could agree. Hopelessly deadlocked, they finally agreed, with the court's permission, to dispense with the other eleven and leave the verdict to the tender mercy of their single selection. When the trial was finished, the lone juror gravely retired to mediate. After some hours he returned to the jury box

The judge asked, "Have you arrived at a verdict?" The juror answered, "I have Your Honor." The judge said, "Well, is it guilty or not guilty?" The juror announced, "I disagree."

"I know I haven't any whiskers —I'm shaving d[illegible]"

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

It Now Appears Certain That Truman Will Be Renominated

WASHINGTON.—With the Democratic convention two weeks away, it now seems as certain as anything in politics can be that President Truman will be renominated to oppose Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

This is not because the labor-liberal wing of the Democratic party has given up the hope of sidetracking Mr. Truman. Leaders of this action are still casting about for methods and a man.

CHILDS

But the plain fact is that their hope is very nearly foreclosed. The situation in Philadelphia will have its parallels with that prevailing during the Republican conclave just ended. No one will be enthusiastic for Truman, as candidate, but he will be the only answer for a party that contains so many widely separated elements.

Something that happened behind the scenes at Philadelphia last week throws a light on the dilemma of the Democrats who want another choice. In their desperation, the extremists in the stop-Dewey coalition brought up the name of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

They went further than that. They tried repeatedly to get in touch with the general who is now president of Columbia university, in the hope that he would at least not say a final no.

All their efforts, both by telephone and by personal emissary, were in vain. They could not break through the determined wall of Eisenhower's silence.

Eisenhower Not Interested

It is not hard to understand why the stop-Dewey cabal clutched at this straw of hope. A Roper poll taken only a week before showed that Eisenhower could defeat any Republican or any Democrat by a wide margin. In other words, he is the favorite of a large majority of all voters. But Eisenhower is not in the least interested in rescuing any political faction for reasons of politics. Along with millions of independent voters, he might have preferred a Vandenberg-Stassen ticket to the choice of the GOP last week.

The important fact, however, is that the Republicans rejected the Taber-Martin-Bricker wing of the party and chose a ticket that most independents will feel is at least adequate. A victory by the nationalist wing would have put a grave responsibility up to the general.

Eisenhower, it is my belief, cannot be drafted by the Democrats. A forced draft, carried without consultation with Eisenhower, would subject the party to humiliating embarrassment.

This leaves as the only hope of the labor-liberal faction supreme court Justice William O. Douglas. In spite of his rather tepid public denials, Douglas is available.

FOR the same reason, however that Senator Vandenberg could not be nominated by the Republicans, it would be all but impossible for the Democrats to nominate Douglas. The split in the Democratic party on domestic policy is nearly as wide as the split in the Republican party on foreign policy.

Douglas is a New Dealer who has consistently upheld the Roosevelt policies. It is impossible, for example, to imagine him compromising the civil rights issue.

This is written, of course, in the belief that President Truman has every intention of becoming the nominee of his party. That determination has become increasingly evident in recent weeks.

Today his friends represent him as being greatly encouraged by two things. One is the reception accorded him on the west coast and the other is the nomination of Dewey, whom Truman will try to tag as a conservative.

The Democratic strategy in the coming contest is obvious. It is to represent Mr. Truman as a true liberal deserving the support of the great mass of independent voters who have no real party allegiance. This is the line Mr. Truman took in his tour through the west.

But the President will be under a handicap that has nothing to do with his qualifications or lack of them. He will be the candidate of a party in power for 16 years.

NOT A LASTING JOB

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — When Mrs. M. T. Weems returned to her automobile after a ball game she found a sign on the windshield saying, "your car needs painting." Mrs. Weems looked at the name of the firm advertising. It was the one that had painted her car less than 30 days before.

LOOK OUT FOR PROPAGANDA!

Nearly all Americans will share the hope that reports of dire happenings to Marshall Tito, of Yugoslavia, at the hands of the Communists have not been exaggerated.

If misfortune has befallen him and he has the chance, he is pretty sure to try to shift his pretended allegiance to the democracies. If that happens, a propaganda campaign to make him acceptable as a "partner" is strongly possible. Attempts are likely to be made to persuade Americans to forget that Tito sent at least five American airmen to death in airplanes shot down by his henchmen, as well as the other crimes he has committed. This same attempt has been made, with some success, on behalf of monsters almost as vicious as Tito. Such efforts have been undertaken in the name of "diplomatic expediency."

If something of that kind should be tried in behalf of Tito, it remains to be seen how the American people will react. At the moment, it seems incredible that this nation could approve such a partnership at any time or under any condition.

Next Move Is Up To Moscow As Democracies Stiffen In Crisis

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

The Moscovite hierarchy clearly has made a mighty bad tactical blunder in sicking its Cominform police-dog on Marshal Tito and the Yugoslav Communist captains.

The Cominform has received a kick in the teeth which has done more to convince the western Democracies of the Bolshevist dictatorship's vulnerability than any event since the war. Moscow had played the school-yard bully with so little resistance for so long that it had built up a tradition of success. Now in one bad move it has thrown away much of its ill-gained advantage.

Democracies Stiffened

True, some very cautious quarters in Washington have been speculating that the Yugoslav maneuver might be phony. They figure it could be a ruse to arouse western antagonism and then capitalize on it, or to open up Yugoslavia as a channel through which Marshall plan help could pass into the Soviet zone. Be that as may, if it was intended as a trick, it has failed.

Coincident to, or as the result of, the Moscow-Tito mixup both Britain and America show further signs of getting tough in dealing with the efforts of the Reds to starve the population of western Germany by a food blockade. Blockade Foreign Secretary Bevin charged in the House of Commons yesterday that the Russians were resorting to a war of nerves.

No Sign Of Snapping

"The House is aware," he said, "that all these irritations have gone on for a long time. I think that there has been an attempt to see how long our nerves would last. There is no sign of snapping yet . . . If the Russians intend ruthless starvation of 2,500,000 people in order to produce chaos, I presume, and revolt . . . The British government cannot submit to that. I am assured that our American and French allies take a similar view."

And in Washington Secretary of State Marshall said the United States would deal promptly with basic questions raised by the Russian blockade (though he didn't say how). He added:

"We are in Berlin as a result of agreements between the governments of the areas of occupation in Germany and we intend to stay."

Plans Completed

Furthermore the three Democracies virtually completed their plans for the formation of a German government out of the American - British - French zones. Russia can pool her zone with the rest for a new Germany—or stay out. The western allies have become fed up with waiting on the whims of the Bolshevists.

Meantime the Democracies have been analyzing the effects of the revolt by Tito. It recognized there is a possibility that the Russian satellite empire in eastern Europe may be threatened with collapse. The units of that empire have been kept in subjection by police force, and have been consolidated by Moscow's domination.

Yugoslav Stands Pat

Yugoslavia continues to stand pat in her defiance of Moscow and hints of willingness to deal with west as well as east. Not only that, but she boldly proposes a Balkan bloc with Bulgaria and Albania and Bulgaria, which long has been closer to Russia than any other Balkan state, promptly climbed on the fence between Moscow and Yugoslavia. That must be hard for the Muscovites to swallow.

To cap the climax the gorgeously uniformed and much be-medaled Marshal Tito is reported by the Belgrade radio to have reappeared in the capital. He was as usual theatrical, for he is said to have visited some building sites—about the last thing one would have expected him to do in the midst of the tense crisis. And all this time his own life wouldn't be worth a plugged nickel if his political enemies could get within gunshot of him. Tito is a swaggering dictator in his own right—but he has his points, one of which is nerve.

The next move would seem to be up to Moscow.

Dime Becomes Fare In New York Subway

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—The dime replaced the nickel as the price of a subway or elevated ride today.

The change-over marked the end of a 44-year-old tradition.

Ever since the first Manhattan subway train rumbled from Brooklyn bridge to Harlem in 1904, New Yorkers had paid five cents a ride for their main means of transportation
