Local Youth Is Grad at Boys Ranch

A Colorado City boy, Joe Flippin, is one of 14 young men graduating from high school this week at Cal Farley's famous Boys Ranch near Amarillo.

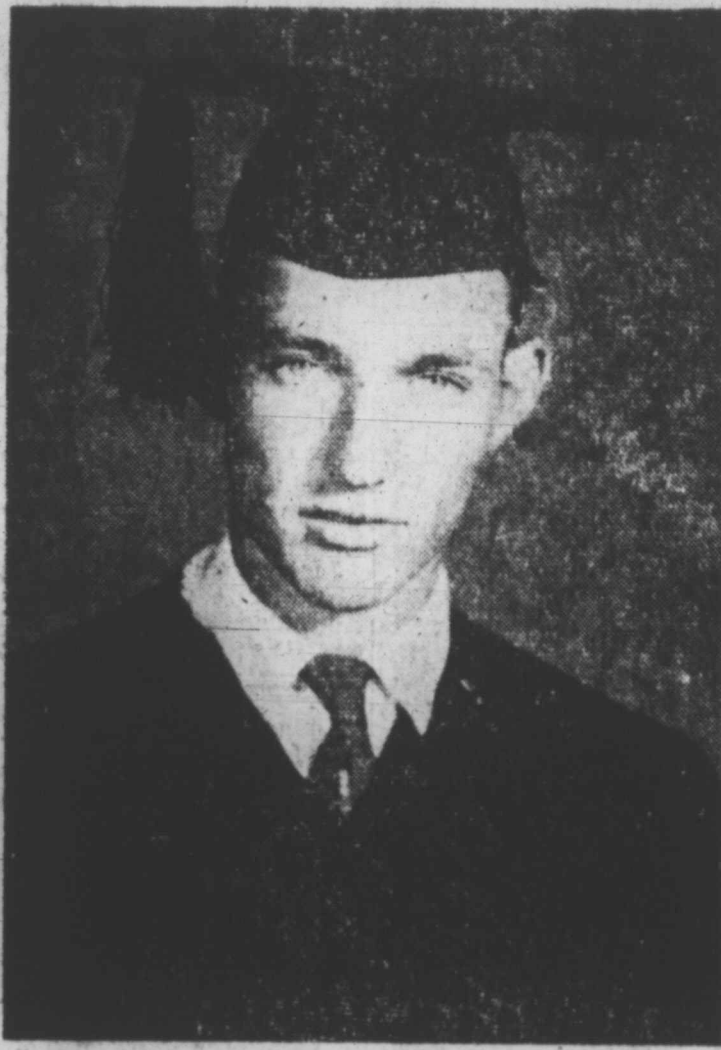

Joe has made his home at Boys Ranch for nearly 11 years. During the last four years he has specialized in vocational agriculture.

In connection with his work in agriculture, Joe was made District Sentinel for this district and also class reporter for this chapter of the Future Farmers of America this year. His chapter includes nine counties.

He was a member of the Boys Ranch mounted honor patrol whose members are chosen from top rodeo performers.

And because he lettered in both rodeo and baseball, he was elected to membership in the exclusive Boys Ranch "B" club.

Joe is planning to work this summer and attend Texas Tech at Lubbock in the fall so that he can get a degree in agriculture.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON

Do the Best in Worst Times, Seniors Urged

The lives of Colorado City High's 1959 graduating class were totaled up before them in years Sunday night.

And they were asked what they were going to do with them. Make the best of their adversities, or dodge into weakness?

Framing the decisive question was Rev. Don Mecoy, minister of First Christian Church and preacher of the class baccalaureate sermon.

Mecoy, speaking in First Baptist Church, counted the life expectancy of the class, which amounts to approximately 4,000 years.

"Your combined years of living are longer in time than our world's recorded history," the minister emphasized.

"And the $200,000 you can expect to earn in a lifetime in individual family units will amount to more than eight million dollars."

"But what will you do with this time — longer history — and these millions of dollars?"

Boy Injured at Lake Leaves Hospital

Dale Porter, 12-year-old Odesa boy, left Root Memorial Hospital Wednesday after being hospitalized seven days with an injury received at Lake Colorado City.

The youth received a severely cut leg May 21 when he jumped from a boat into water at the lake. Surgery was necessary in treatment of the wound.

Porter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lampard of Odesa.

AFTER THOMAS BROS. BREAK-IN

Police Arrest 15-Year-Old Boy With Habit for Burglary

A 15-year-old Colorado City youth returned several months ago from State Training School for Boys in Gatesville.

He'd been sent there as a juvenile delinquent after participating in a burglary here and in Sweetwater.

Back at home, he "straightened up" and went to school, police said.

But a few weeks ago he dropped out of school.

And Wednesday he was awaiting another juvenile hearing after admitting to the Tuesday night burglary of Thomas Bros. Service Station, 290 Walnut.

The youth, who soon will be 16, was picked up by police approximately 90 minutes after the burglary was reported.

Facing charges in connection with the boy's trouble is Alberto Lujan, 28, against Mecoy said that graduation is the first opening into the narrowness of life.

"A great door and effectual is opened unto me," he quoted from First Corinthians, "and there are many adversaries."

The adversaries, the narrowness of life, can be periods of change, stress or danger and these can create emotional, psychological and moral trouble.

"Whether you like it or not," the minister said, "you are, in these three or four days, passing into the rapidity of graduation from high school."

"In some ways this is one of the most radical transitions you will ever make."

"You cannot go on pretending."

75 Men Expected To Talk Industry

Between 75 and 100 business men are expected Thursday (today) to get acquainted with a community's approach to industrial development.

They will hear and see latest data at a Chamber of Commerce membership luncheon at 12 noon in Civic House.

Details will come from two industrial specialists from Texas Electric Service Company headquarters in Fort Worth — John Wheeler and Howard Maddox.

Sponsoring the luncheon program and the pair's visit to Colorado City is the chamber's industrial development committee.

Wheeler is head of TESCO's area development department and Maddox is an industrial specialist in the department.

Chamber officials Wednesday estimated the audience of between 75 and 100 business men on the basis of advance reservations for the luncheon.

Master of ceremonies for the program will be Glenn R. (Bob) Robinson, chairman of the industrial development committee.

Wheeler and Maddox — after an open forum type of program with the luncheon participants — will meet in the afternoon with the chamber directorate and industrial committee.

The conference with the TESCO officials will be followed up Tuesday at 8 p. m. with a special planning meeting by the industrial committee.

Meeting of the chamber board, originally set for Thursday, June 4, has been postponed until Thursday, June 11, according to Chamber Manager Ernie Larmer.

HE GETS THE BIRD FOR HIS FISH YARN

By JOHNNY GRUBBS, Record Sports Writer

Cummins Wood reports the prize fish yarn of the year. Or just about any year, for that matter.

While fishing Friday at Lake Colorado City, the young barber caught a quarter-pound bob white quail. He did it with a hand grapple.

Wood reports the quail was swimming beneath the surface of the water when the bird was nabbed.

Later, while Wood was proudly displaying his prize catch, the bird flew the coop, so to speak.

"But it's just as well," said the barber-philosophical. "For I would have had to throw him back anyway because quail season doesn't open until next fall."

Development To Total $650,212

Colorado City's Housing Authority has asked for federal approval for construction of 50 low rent, public housing units here.

At the same time the authority has requested approval of contributions contract for total development of the project at an estimated cost of $650,212.

The project requests are being submitted through the Public Housing Administration regional offices in Fort Worth.

Resolution seeking the public housing development for Colorado City were adopted unanimously by the housing authority — composed of Leonard Henderson, D. M. (Jake) Merritt, J. Compton Pritchett, Jack Jordan and Joe Bell.

As outlined in the development program the proposed project here would include 20 units for Negroes, 12 for Latin-Americans and 18 for whites.

The housing authority, reorganized by City Council a year ago to move ahead with a low rent, public housing program for the city, has been working on the project study for months.

In the project summary, it is stated that the housing authority "feels there is a greater need for low rent housing units within the city than afforded by the 50 units allocated to date."

The summary points that census surveys have revealed as many as 394 renter occupied sub-standard dwelling units within corporate limits of Colorado City.

Sites for the public housing developments have not been secured by the city, but the authority has looked at locations in various areas of the community.

Public housing units have been reserved for Colorado City, by the Public Housing Authority in Washington.

But the request for annual contributions contract is a move toward actual approval of the project for construction and obtaining FHA loan for financing the development.

Contract would call for repayment of the development cost out of rental income from the units over a long period of years.

Total area of a 50-unit project — as outlined in the proposed program — would be 378,000 square feet. This would include all the land for housing units, yards, streets and other facilities.

Actual project, when completed, would be 330,000 square feet or 7.6 acres.

The proposed program would provide rental units in sizes ranging from one bedroom to four bedrooms.

Construction of the dwelling units would be brick veneer with slab foundation and asphalt tile floors.

Miss Foster was one of 334 ACC graduates to receive degrees in the commencement. She was graduated summa cum laude with a B. A. major in speech.

JUNE 16 AT REC CENTER

Colorado City Garden Club To Host 'Tasting Tea' Fete

During a special called meeting of the Colorado City Garden Club at the Recreation Center last Thursday morning club projects were discussed and committees named for 1959-60 club year.

As one of the club's main projects the group voted to sponsor a 'Tasting Tea' planned for Tuesday, June 16, at the Rec Center. Part of the proceeds from this club project will go to help finance a building in Fort Worth which will house State Headquarters of the Texas Garden Club.

According to Mrs. Ruth Airhart, president, the tasting tea will be one of the first of its kind in C-City and is a clever idea, where best cooks can shine. Club members will prepare a wide variety of foods—hors d'oeuvres, salads, main course dishes, breads, desserts, etc.—even candies. Garden Club members will extend invitations to guests for the fete. Tea will be served and guests will taste the various dishes offered at the affair. Copies of receipts for each dish at the tasting tea will be available to guests attending for a small fee.

Tickets for the tasting tea may be secured from garden club members. They are 50 cents.

During the business session the group also discussed information concerning a 45 minute television program with J. Gregory Conway, nationally known flower arranger, planned for their meeting Sept. 9.

UNITED FUND PROJECT

4 Youths Selected for Week Of Fun at Camp Hoblitzelle

From cities, towns and rural communities all over Texas, 150 boys will take leave of Mom and Dad and their youthful playmates, some for the first time in their young lives, as they leave their homes by bus, private car or train at the weekend to spend a full week at The Salvation Army Camp Hoblitzelle near Dallas.

In the group will be Leon, and Garret, Jimmie Ray Garret, Joe Anderson and Don Anderson from Colorado City.

The boys will travel by automobile to the camp, where they will be housed in attractive high and modern cabins and will be furnished meals in the large airy dining room prepared by expert chefs to meet the physical needs of healthy growing youngsters.

The camp chairman for Mitchell County, has been busy for several weeks selecting the best boys, those who otherwise would not have an opportunity to spend a full week in camp where there is fun, recreation, companionship, relaxation, crafts, organized sports, all under the guiding hands of men whose lives have been dedicated to the task of helping others.

Boys who spend a week at Camp Hoblitzelle this season will find a new attraction, the first fair, given at the camp that was imported from California and presented to Camp Hoblitzelle as companionship and playmate for the children who spend their vacations there.

Camp Hoblitzelle, located on a beautiful wooded tract of 340 acres, seven miles south of Midlothian and eight miles west of Waxahachie, within less than one hour's automobile ride from Dallas, has well arranged playgrounds for all boys' sports, with modern playground equipment; swimming pool, lake for boating and fishing; organized sports under direction of experienced coaches; everything that can bring happiness and a realization of the dreams and hopes of growing boys.

Camp Hoblitzelle has been provided by The Salvation Army for the boys of Texas, through the generous gifts of more than one hundred liberal men and women of the state, who provided money for purchase of the land and for the buildings and other improvements that have been made there. The camp is operated by The Salvation Army for the benefit of the boys who find good food, pleasant experiences, and happiness there.

In Mitchell County, The Salvation Army is supported by the Mitchell County United Fund, which raises money in this community for support of The Salvation Army and other youth, health, and welfare agencies.

A message from Henry Bilberry, "Your Pharmacist"

THIS YEAR'S GRADUATING CLASSES will soon be receiving their valued diplomas. Their valedictorians will bravely tell how they all face the future unafraid, prepared for whatever may come.

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS WILL ADDRESS the graduates, remind them that they are the custodians of our nation's future and express complete confidence in their ability. And, — they will be right.

BUT, — LET US NOT FORGET THE TEACHERS who have made all this possible. Their work is certainly a "Labor Of Love" for their financial reward is far from adequate.

WE KNOW EVERY STUDENT AGREES WITH US that graduation day is also a day dedicated to remembering that our teachers have completed an important epoch in the lives of their pupils.

CONGRATULATIONS TEACHERS on another successful graduation day. May you all enjoy many more of them.

The narrowness of life, with their adversities, come quickly, McCoy explained, with immediate change, college, graduation into business or industry, marriage and home-making, parenthood, illness and death to loved ones, financial setbacks, the critical period and rapid change of the times in which you now live.

"Yet, in spite of this fact," the minister stated, "a great door and effectual is opened . . . a genuine opportunity awaits us, if only we learn to take the intervening difficulties in our stride.

"The best of you can actually pioneer in one or another of the sciences at the place where the bow of the ship cuts into uncharted waters.

"Some of us," he continued, "may be drafted by church or state for the difficult and onerous tasks of reconstruction in war-stricken lands.

"There are open doors enough and necessary work to be done if only we will look beyond and, thus, overlook the intervening difficulties."

McCoy told the graduating class that it will be a reasonably easy thing for them from now on, to live an undistinguished life.

"Whatever distinction you achieve and whatever praise you are to deserve will follow the fact that you will have done the best things in the worst times . . . and hoped them . . . in the most calamitous."

The show, sponsored by the Abilene Range Rider, is approved by the American Quarter Horse Assn. and the Palomino Horse Breeders of America and the Lone Star Palomino Exhibitors Assn.

J. A. Meek of Lovington, N. M., will judge the Quarter Horses and D. L. Harrauldson of San Angelo will judge Palominos.

All halter classes in both divisions will be judged in the arena at the Taylor County Exposition Center, east of Abilene on state Highway 36. All performance classes will be judged in the Abilene Range Riders arena, south of Abilene and east of U.S. Highway 83-84.

Quarter Horse judging will be held Saturday, June 6, beginning at 10 a. m. for halter classes and 7 p. m. for performance classes. Palomino judging will be held Sunday, June 7, beginning at 10 a. m. for halter classes and 2 p. m. for performance classes.

Quarter Horse entries are due in the Abilene Range Rider's office by 1 p. m. Friday, June 5. Post entries will be accepted in the Palomino division but early entries are solicited. Entries may be mailed to the Abilene Range Riders, P. O. Box 381, Abilene.

Guests of Claxtons

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Thompson and son, Rocky, of Jal. N. M., and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schauwecker of Midland spent the weekend in Loraine with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Claxton.

Swimming, bridge, and other entertainment for the ladies and guests will continue throughout the three-day tournament.

A long driving contest will be held Friday. All players entered in the tournament or any non-player who buys an entertainment ticket may participate in this contest.

Entry fee for the contestant will be $12.50. This fee entitles the player and his wife to participate in all entertainment activities during the tournament.

Entertainment tickets will be sold for $5 each to non-players. This entitles the ticket holder to participate in a driving contest, a putting contest, a barbecue dinner, a dance, a player auction, swimming, bridge, and refreshments.

The putting contest will begin Saturday evening after all first and second round matches have been completed. Prizes will be given the two best putters for 18 holes medal play.

Local golfers playing practice rounds over the weekend were Ben Sparks, Bob Furr, A. G. Furlow, Steve Pond, H. E. Goodwin, Pete Ainsworth, Ray Mize, H. H. Simons, Don Wallace, Raymond Fuller, Bill Craig, Stan Weathers, Dan Pope, Ben Wilkinson, Danny Majors, Bill Sidel, Lonnie Cross, J. G. Cherryholmes, J. H. Guelker and others.

Several topnotch golfers from West Texas have indicated they would be present for the Colorado City tournament this year.

Attested qualifying scores may be mailed to the Colorado

City Country Club if the contestant is unable to qualify on the local course.

Pairings for all flights will be posted at the Country Club late Friday evening.

The presentation of awards will be made Sunday evening following the final rounds of play in all flights.

Could Be

Warren Spahn, left, and Lew Burdette, right, hope to combine their talents and make 50 wins for the Milwaukee Braves, this season. Last year, the combo won 42, lost 21. Spahn, who recently hurled himself to a lifetime 250-win mark, might well become the top-winning left-hander in National League history before the pennants fly this fall.

Plans Ready for Little League Day

Final preparations are under way for Colorado City's Little League Day, which will be observed Monday.

A full evening activity is being planned for this special occasion by Little League officials and the Colorado City Jaycees.

A parade, featuring 350 youngsters, in full dress baseball uniforms, will begin at 3 p. m. in front of the Mitchell County Courthouse and end at American Legion Hall.

June 1 will be officially proclaimed Little League day in Colorado City by Mayor Trevor Crawford.

Little League Memorial Park will be dedicated in memory of two Colorado City Jaycees, the late Robert Kirschbaum and Goodwin Simpson.

The Jaycees will present the new field to Little League officials to lead off the evening program at 7:30 p. m.

All citizens are urged to attend the programs in support of Colorado City Little League baseball season. Jaycees said.

A special attraction beginning at 8 p. m. will be a donkey baseball game sponsored by the Colorado City Jaycees.

School boys from Wallace High and Colorado City High will be the contestants on the donkeys during the contest.

Admission to the game will be 75 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Proceeds from the game, and also the concessions, will go to the Jaycees to help pay indebtedness on the new little league field.

All kids taking part in the Little League, Pony League, Farm Leagues, and Teen-age League will be recognized during the evening program.

GOLFER DON WALLACE

Scores Hole-in-1

While playing golf Sunday on the Colorado City Country Club course, Don Wallace scored a hole-in-one.

The perfect shot was made on the 140 yard, par 3, fifth hole. Don used an eight iron for the distance.

Witnessing Ace were four other local golfers H. H. Simons, Raymond Fuller, Bill Craig and Johnny Grubbs. This was one of three aces scored recently by local players.

Ben Wilkinson, and Bob Furr joined the ranks of hole-in-one artists earlier this month. Both of their aces were made on the ninth hole of the Country Club course.

T&P Revenue Hike Leads Railroads

Texas and Pacific Railway Company, which serves Colorado City, topped the nation's railroads in percentage of increase in passenger revenue for the first three months of 1959 as compared with the same period in 1958, according to figures compiled by the Association of American Railroads.

T&P's passenger service revenue for the first quarter of 1959 was 23.9% greater than for this same period of 1958. T&P Passenger Traffic Manager W. G. Harris reports that the increased business on T&P passenger trains is attributed to a number of factors.

"The Texas and Pacific provides the only through Pullman service from Texas to New York City and Washington," he said. "We continue to have heavy group and party movements. We'll receive, too, has been our plan of honoring coach tickets in conventional sleepers."

Importantly, T&P has the quick, direct line to many gateways for Southwestern travelers, such as El Paso, New Orleans, Memphis and St. Louis.

Baird Named Lubrication Sales Head

Lowell Baird, has been named manager of lubrication sales for Cosden Petroleum Corporation.

The appointment, according to R. M. Johnson, vice president in charge of sales, fills a vacancy created by the recent retirement of former lubrication sales manager Dave Evans.

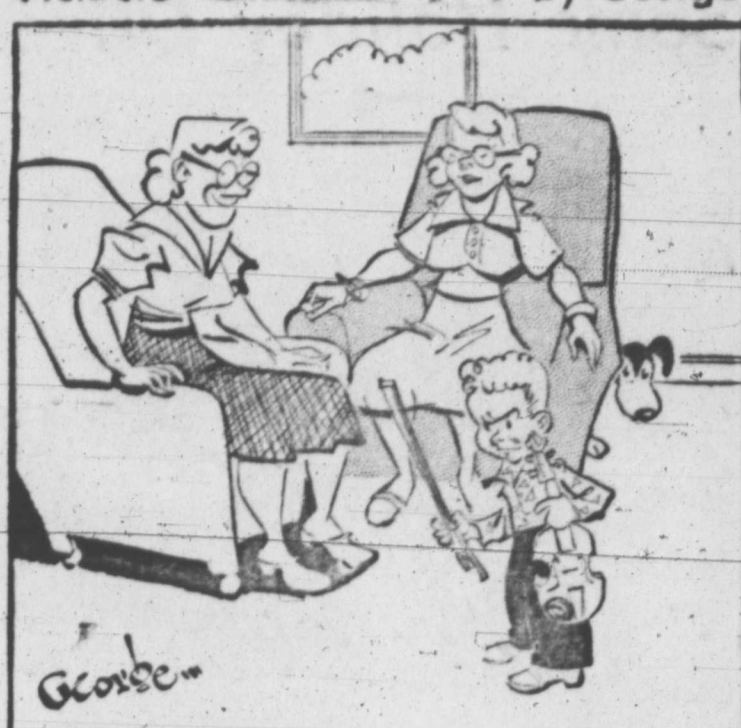

Baird has been with Cosden since February 17, 1930. He was laboratory foreman until 1939. When the company opened its first products terminal at Sweetwater, Baird was overseer during its installation and first two years of operation. He had similar duties in the opening of two of Cosden's present terminals at Abilene and Arlington.

Beginning in 1949, Baird helped initiate Cosden's asphalt division. For the past three years, he has been in the lubrication department. In his new position he will supervise the marketing of Cosden's complete line of automotive and industrial lubricants, oils, and greases.

Baird and his wife, Allene, make their home in Big Spring.

Chemicals Prove Worth In Farming

U. S. cotton growers would pay an annual toll to cotton insects amounting to almost 1 pound of seed-cotton for every 3 pounds they produce without modern insecticides to combat them, the U. S. Department of Agriculture says.

More than 20 years of research by entomologists of U. S. D. A.'s Agricultural Research Service, in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, show that although the percentage of production increase varies somewhat with the use of insecticides, more cotton has always been produced on treated plots.

Field trials at the ARS Cotton Insects Research Laboratory, Waco, show an average annual seed-cotton yield of 1,049 pounds per acre from treated plots. This is 309 pounds, or 42 per cent, more cotton than the average annual total produced on untreated plots.

The experiments show that, since the advent of modern organic insecticides to control cotton pests, yield gains have averaged 53 per cent. Before 1945, when growers depended upon organic insecticides such as arsenicals and sulphur, yield increases amounted to about 34 per cent annually.

Highest production on treated plots and the greatest increase over untreated plots occurred in 1955 when treated plots produced 1,461 pounds of seed-cotton per acre as compared with only 778 pounds on untreated plots.

Since 1939, when the Cotton Insects Laboratory was established at Waco, tests have been conducted to compare production on plots treated with new insecticides, with standard insecticides, and plots receiving no pest control treatment.

Only a few irrigated plots were involved in the study and those were analyzed during the last three years.

This fact, tests on dry land acreage, means that the statistics are not to be shrugged off here in Mitchell County.

This year, too, with lessening acreage allotment and uncertain soil and weather conditions, awareness and prompt action in face of insect threats are all the more important to our cotton producers in dollars and cents.

Mr. Businessman

The Record has been saying it editorially all along. And now the voice is coming more and more from other sources.

Infact, in the last few months all manner of organizations across the nation—not exactly in Colorado City—have been urging businessmen to take an active interest in politics, on behalf of candidates, parties and programs they believe in.

This has been given the blessing of the top political strategists.

Chairman Paul M. Butler of the Democratic National Committee observes: "I say, with the strongest possible conviction, that businessmen belong in politics."

Chairman Truston B. Morton of the Republican National Committee sees the matter the same way: "Men and women of the business community should, not only in their own self-interest, but in the interest of their country, participate more fully in party organization work at all levels."

Stars in Their Eyes

SHINNERY PHILOSOPHER

He Neglects Farm For Children's TV

Editor's note: The Shinnery Flats Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bone Hollow Creek discusses children's television programs this week. He probably should stick to farming.

Dear editor: According to an article I read in a newspaper last night which I brought home from town earlier in the day because it was wrapped around a pair of shoes I had half-soled, the national P.T.A. is up in arms over the type of television programs the children of this country are watching.

"It's high time we stopped talking about the 13-year-old mentality of the average American," a leader complained, saying television is making a mistake in assuming its programs have to be planned on that level.

She added that the way to improve the programs is to have parents select their kids' shows. Make one stop looking at the bad ones.

Now I'm no expert on television programs, but it's not clear to me how a parent is going to decide a program is all right until it's too late. I mean, unless you know in advance a program is bad for children, then half way through the thing, right when the bullets are flying, is no time to shut it off.

Maybe some parents can walk into a room in the middle of a blood-thirsty T.V. show watched spell-bound by a bunch of kids and shut it off and get by with it, but I don't know very many.

Understand, I don't have the answer. It's true most television programs I've watched are about as interesting as watching the clothes swirl around behind the glass door in an automatic washing machine, but I may have tuned in at the wrong time. When you're using a neighbor's T.V. set, you can't sit glued to it all the time.

Still, I believe if I was in the television business, I'd hate to have the P.T.A. after me.

On the whole, though, I have a notion that children will triumph over television. Instead of the other way around. Some television programs may be bad for them, but so are some grown-ups.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

WASHINGTON REPORT

Free Nations Plan 'Arsenal' of Food

Top government farm officials from five Free World nations met recently in Washington for two days, then left with no more than a brief note in the press that they had been here.

Those who know what was discussed think that what they began here could very well have a greater bearing on the future peace of the world than anything to be accomplished at the Summit Conference in Geneva.

A start was made toward use of the tremendous Free World reserve of food to counter Russian propaganda among the uncommitted nations of the world. The countries participating in the meeting were the U. S., France, Canada, Australia and Argentina.

The conference was the first step in the "food for peace" proposal advanced early this year by President Eisenhower in a special message to Congress. Officials described it as "largely exploratory."

Agreement was reached, tentatively, on a program for sharing the surpluses of wheat held by the five nations with the more than half a billion people in the world who go to bed hungry every night.

The five agricultural ministers took home, for approvals, that could make available almost immediately some two billion bushels of wheat for distribution to nations in short supply of food.

It was agreed to encourage underdeveloped nations to

House Ready to Shove Money Problem to Senate Shoulders

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

There's a "get on with it" mood among House members during this special session.

House was the target of some criticism after the regular session for having made almost no progress in money-raising.

This session the House began processing money bills at a fast clip. Initial action indicated there was less opposition in the House to Gov. Price Daniel's tax program than during the regular session.

Many in the lower house seemed to be in a mood to get as much as possible over to the Senate and "let them worry with it a while." Then, if the finance problem still isn't solved at the end of this session, they hope people won't be saying that the House "sat on its hands again."

Senate attitude toward the various money-raising approaches is largely an unknown quantity. No money-raising bill ever came to a vote in the Senate—either in committee or on the floor—during the regular session.

DEBT-PAYING—Three bills recommended by Governor Daniel to wipe out the $65,000,000 state deficit received first legislative attention. These measures are:

1. "Bookkeeping bill" designed to lop $28,000,000 off the Aug. 31 deficit by crediting certain money to this year instead of next year.

2. One-year increase in the corporation franchise tax to bring in $17,000,000. Sponsor Rep. Joe Ed Winfree of Houston called it "a donation by Texas business" toward bailing out state government.

3. Abandoned property act, to transfer to the State Treasury, funds unclaimed for seven years. Estimates vary as to how much it would bring in; sponsors say about $20,000,000 the first year, $25,000,000 a year thereafter.

It was re-written after its defeat last session, but bankers still aren't happy.

First two of these bills received quick House approval.

PERMANENT PROGRAM—To cover new money needs for the next two years, the governor is pushing a separate tax program, a "package bill" known as H. B. 7.

It would raise a estimated $161,000,000 in two years. Affected by the bill would be:

(1) natural gas, with a reduction from 7 to 5 per cent in production tax and addition of 5 per cent "severance beneficiary" tax, (2) interstate corporations, with a new and complex taxation formula, (3) utility companies, with an increase in the gross receipts tax, (4) cigarettes, one cent per pack—age more, (5) other tobacco products, except snuff, to be added to sales tax fold, (6) liquor, increase from $1.408 (correct) to $2.50 a gallon sales tax, (7) automobiles, with sales tax increase from 1.1 to 1.5 per cent.

Rep. George Hinson of Mineola is sponsoring the bill.

In the past weeks the governor has been making a vigorous round of conferences, and talks, rounding up support for his program. He launched it before the Legislature with a speech pouring fire and brimstone on the heads of lobbyists. He accused the "third house" of causing expensive delays.

OTHER TAX BILLS—As in the regular session, there is no lack of ideas for raising money.

Besides the governor's bills, these have been proposed:

(1) One per cent tax on all manufactured goods, by Rep. Jerry Sadler of Pecos. To bring in an estimated $200,000,000 annually. Businesses grossing less than $25,000 annually would be exempt.

(2) One per cent tax on retail sales, one per cent on personal income and three per cent on corporate income, by Rep. Louis Anderson of Midland.

(3) Five per cent tax on corporation net profits, by Rep. Dean Johnson of Houston.

(4) Five per cent tax on trading stamps, by Rep. Chapman of Sulphur Springs.

(5) Graduated oil tax, by Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston.

Circulars Can be Really Expensive

By ROY V. FOX
Record Co-Publisher

We have no quarrel with the merchant who uses circular advertising. Many small newspapers help meet their payroll printing circulars.

In some cases, circulars may be used effectively to supplement a newspaper advertisement. However, logic may be lost to the retailer who attempts to use circulars as a substitute for newspaper advertising.

Ordinarily, it is more expensive to print a circular the size of a newspaper page than it is to buy equal circulation in a full page newspaper advertisement. Cost of distribution makes the cost differential even greater.

But the great difference is in quality of circulation. Advertising research shows that circulars rarely reach 75 per cent of the persons they are intended to reach. They fill gutters, streets,

RE-RUN ON APPROPRIATIONS—Re-approving the appropriation bills passed during the regular session was no great stumbling block for either House or Senate.

As before, both houses passed bills calling for 1960-61 spending totaling about $2,400,000. House bill would require some $333,000,000 from the general revenue fund; the Senate bill, about $20,000,000 less.

Only change on either side was a House amendment to cut-off aid to dependent children payments for illegitimate children after the first one in a family. By having more children, said Rep. H. J. Blanton from the state, House members get more money chard of Lubbock, unwed mothers agreed the payments encouraged illegitimacy.

Hard part on getting out an appropriation bill will be settling the House and Senate differences committee. No conference group was appointed in the regular session. Some predicted there would be no effort to come to final agreement on spending this session until ways to pay for it had been agreed upon.

TOO MUCH OIL—Texas oil allowable for June will be 282,738 barrels a day less than for May.

Texas Railroad Commission set the statewide flow at 2,904,414 barrels a day on a 10-day producing pattern.

It is the lowest allowable since last July. Both independent producers and major buyers asked the Commission for a sharp cut. They said there is a surplus of petroleum and the threat of a glut on the market.

BIBLE COMMENT

Christian 'Gold' In Luke's Report

If Saint Luke had written only the gospel, that bears his name, with its account of the parables and other, vivid details of the life and ministry of Jesus, he would have left to the Christian world a glorious heritage.

But he followed his gospel with the Book of Acts, the story of Christian beginning and the spread of Christianity.

In Luke's writings, what stands out is the reality of the message of salvation through the love and grace of God.

Outstanding, of course, is the parable of the prodigal son. It is enforced by the parables of lost things; the lost sheep, and the woman's lost piece of silver.

There is little, if anything, about controversial issues, which have so large a place in the Pauline epistles.

Concerning Luke, himself, we know little that is a matter of record. We know he was a physician, and a Gentle. Various New Testament references make those facts plain.

That he may have studied medicine in Tarsus, Paul's home; that he may have been a slave (at that time, physicians were often slaves in great households)—those things and many others are conjectural.

But what we do know, without doubt, is that Luke told for us in parable the simplest, most direct and concrete facts of the loving father of God.
