

GOP Trying To Force Out Ike's Rights Bill

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — With both parties jockeying for political advantage, Republicans sought today to force President Eisenhower's civil rights program out of the Democratic-controlled Senate Judiciary Committee.

This move, captured by Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.), was clearly marked for failure. But it promised to call at least fleeting attention to GOP support for the passage of legislation to protect the rights of minorities.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas stole the show Monday with a characteristically neat Parliamentary maneuver that caught the Senate by surprise.

Johnson got unanimous approval today for a harmless looking bill to authorize the Stella, Mo., country school to use quarters in Ft. Crowder rent free.

Then he announced this unrelated measure would become the vehicle for civil rights amendments — a procedure necessary to raise the civil rights issue because the Judiciary Committee has not acted on a bill.

Advantage speculation had centered on another House-passed bill as the vehicle. The surprise switch deprived Southern opponents of a chance to filibuster any motion to bring up a bill. Then the battle was on.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.), leading the Southern opposition, said he was surprised and chagrined at Johnson's choice.

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.), a civil rights supporter, said the maneuver smacked of subterfuge. He contended civil rights should be considered in a separate measure.

But Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, supporting Johnson's move, said civil rights is an issue "with which we have to come to grips."

In the haste that ensued Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-Sc.) called Keating to account for not making a motion within the Senate Judiciary committee to report out, a civil rights bill. He said Keating was always talking about the subject but did nothing.

Keating retorted that he couldn't get recognition from Chairman James O. Eastland (Miss.), a civil rights opponent, to move to send such a bill to the Senate.

Keating promptly announced plans to move in committee to report out the Eisenhower program. The key provision of this would authorize federal courts appointed referees to supervise registration, voting and vote counting in areas where they appeared to be systematic denial of Negro rights.

But even if Keating got recognition, his motion was debatable. And Southern members of the committee were ready to talk at length, just as they were in the Senate issue.

Morse announced he was preparing motions by which the Senate could force civil rights measures out of its Judiciary and Rules Committees.

Ike Asks Solons For $4 Billion In New Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower asked Congress today for $4.175,000,000 in new foreign aid funds to safeguard the free world against the "enormous power bloc of Communist imperialism."

The mutual security program is essential to world progress in freedom, he said in a special message to Congress.

The sum, nearly a billion dollars more than Congress voted last year, would be split up in this way: Two billion dollars for weapons aid to allies and $2.175,000,000 for economic and technical assistance.

In appealing to the legislators to avoid drastic cuts in the program, Eisenhower mentioned his 11-nation December goodwill tour to Asia, the Middle East and Europe.

My recent travels impressed upon me even more strongly the fact that free men everywhere look to us, not with envy or malice but with hope and confidence that we will be in the vanguard of those who believe in and will defend the right of the individual to enjoy the fruits of his labor in peace and in freedom," he said.

Eisenhower said that without the billions in foreign aid voted by Congress in the past 14 years, "the map of the world would be vastly different today because of communism's continuing threat."

The Soviet Union expressed an interest in measures to reduce the dangers of war during the past year, Eisenhower said.

While its recent department and pronouncements suggest the possible opening of a somewhat less strained period in our relationship, the menace of Communist imperialism nevertheless still remains," he added.

The military power of the Soviet Union continues to grow. It is increasingly important to free world interests is the rate of growth of both military and economic power in Communist China.

"Evidence that this enormous bloc remains dedicated to the extension of Communist control over all people everywhere is found in Tibet, the Taiwan Straits, in Laos and along the Indian border."

Eisenhower's foreign message came earlier than usual this year. The shift represents an administration effort to get the program through Congress before it is caught in the pre-session jam just before summer adjournment.

The figures had already come out in the President's budget message last month.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter will lead a parade of administration leaders who will testify for the bill. His appearance is scheduled for Wednesday morning before the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Eisenhower's foreign aid request, governing the year beginning July 1, included these three new features:

1. More economic and technical assistance for South Asia, including India and Pakistan.
2. An unspecified amount as the American contribution to a big fund the World Bank and other free countries are setting up to promote a settlement of the India-Pakistan quarrel over the waters of the Indus River basin.
3. A new special assistance fund of 20 million dollars to finance an education and training program for African areas south of the Sahara.

In the military aid field, Eisenhower's two-billion-dollar proposal sum included 400 million dollars recommended by his advisers for added military weapons deliveries to Atlantic Pact allies.

Fire Threat To Channel

HOUSTON (AP)—A spectacular gasoline barge fire threatened the industrial-line Houston ship channel today but was brought under control before spreading to nearby storage tanks holding 220,000 barrels of oil.

A tugboat crewman was injured and another was missing.

One barge holding 9,500 barrels of gasoline was wrecked and a tugboat was damaged severely. Another gasoline barge and two other loaded with sand did not catch fire.

The missing man was Walter Schmidt, 32, of Bacliff, a crewman on the tugboat Debbie Kay out of Galveston. Hospitalized with burns was tugboat Capt. Tommy Coyle, 32, of Crosby.

The tug and barge caught fire at the Gulf Oil Corp. terminal two miles above stream from the site of the Nov. 8 Amoco Virginia disaster when eight men died after the four million dollar tanker caught fire.

The Gulf terminal with numerous storage tanks holding crude oil and petroleum products is on the north side of the 50-mile ship channel and about 10 miles from downtown Houston. Opposite the terminal on the south side of the channel is the huge Sinclair oil refinery, where an empty tanker, the Sheldon Clark, also escaped damage.

Lt. Cmdr. R. J. Evans, Port Houston Coast Guard captain, said the fire broke out as the Debbie Kay, pushing two loaded sand barges, passed the gasoline barges Tyler and Harvey that were tied up at the terminal.

Evans said witnesses told him the quickly spreading fire covered the 150-yard channel from LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II, awaiting the birth of her third child, must wait a while longer. Three of her doctors visited her today and found the royal situation unchanged.

The physicians — Lord Evans, Sir John Weir, and obstetrician John H. Peel — slipped into Buckingham Palace through a back door to get the exarationist, Dr. 33-year-old patient. Just as silently, they slipped out.

When the time comes for action they will take with them a fourth, Dr. Vernon Hall, anesthetist. Guessing is that this will be any time from Wednesday to Saturday.

More than 100 distinguished citizens turned up in top hats and frock coats for the investiture in the palace's white and gold state ballroom. The father-to-be, Prince Philip, smilingly dubbed several knights and handed orders and medals to the royal family.

Burma Greet Khrushchev

By RENE-GEORGES INAGAKI
RANGOON (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev arrived in neutralist Burma today on the second stop of his four-nation Asian tour.

President U Win Maung and Premier Ne Win greeted the stocky Soviet leader as he descended from the giant Ilyushin turboprop airplane that brought him from India.

Maung welcomed Khrushchev "not as a stranger but as a friend who has come again for the purpose of strengthening the existing ties of friendship which you helped to forge during your first visit in 1956."

Khrushchev in reply expressed regret that his stay would be short but said he and the Burmese officials would discuss "some of the important problems of our time which deeply agitate the peoples of the Soviet Union and Burma."

The most burning problem facing all nations and governments at present is the attainment of universal and stable peace," he added.

About 1,000 persons were at the airport to greet Khrushchev, and only small groups were along the route from the airport to the Presidential Palace, where the Soviet leader had lunch with Maung.

Following a 36-hour stay, Khrushchev moves on to Indonesia, then Afghanistan.

The Premier's departure from Calcutta ended a five-day Indian visit that many observers felt did not measure up to expectations.

A columnist for one of Calcutta's most influential newspapers, Amrita Bazar Patrika, noted the public turnout for Khrushchev was far less than the wildly cheering crowds which greeted President Eisenhower last December.

The major Khrushchev news the last two days of his visit was that Western economic aid which is destined to hold India in "imperialist, economic slavery."

Public Growing Skeptical As Argentine Sub Chase Fizzles

By BRIAN BELL
BUENOS AIRES (AP) — The Argentine navy insisted today it still chasing a submarine in the Golfo Nuevo. A skeptical public came up with a multitude of theories in the absence of a capture and there was growing belief the sub had escaped.

Speculation varied widely as to the identity of the phantom visitor pursued in the 40-by-20-mile gulf on the south Argentine coast for 18 days. Here are a few guesses voiced by the man in the street:

1. A Soviet sub scouting Argentine naval bases in case of war with the United States and a need to invade South America.
2. A U.S. sub trying to impress Argentina she is defenseless against underwater attack and should sign a mutual defense pact with the United States.
3. A smuggling ring's craft transporting American cigarettes, whiskey and ball point pens.
4. The sub is carrying high Nazis—perhaps Adolf Hitler and Eva Braun—who have been hiding on a desert island since World War II.
5. A Soviet sub landing agents to assassinate President Eisenhower on his coming trip to Argentina.
6. A flying saucer that blundered into the gulf and went underwater.
7. A government stunt to divert public attention from rising living costs.
8. A whale.
9. Lacking few solid facts from the closed-mouthed navy, Argentina's press has put forth a colorful variety of rumors.
10. One story said a dead frogman complete with oxygen tank was washed up on a beach in the gulf. The navy denied this one.
11. A spy with an English accent was reported arrested.

What To Do About Styes On The Eye

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.

A STYE is an infection around an eyelash. It is really just a pimple. Like any pimple it usually comes to a head, breaks and then heals up. Because of its location a stye is likely to be more painful than a pimple elsewhere. Once started most styes have to go through their cycle; there is no good safe way of stopping the stye from developing. Warm wet compresses will hurry the process somewhat. The stye will get well regardless of treatment, but the a little quicker.

Once the stye has come to a head it usually breaks by itself, but if it is slow in breaking it may be opened. Usually the best way to do this is by pulling out the eyelash which is in the center of the stye. It is usually best to have your doctor do this.

Cause of Styes

Styes are caused by the same kind of germs that cause other pimples. One stye often leads to another because the germs spread about the eye and lodge in other hair follicles. Styes hurt and are bothersome, so there is a great tendency to rub the eye. Needless to say this is about the worst thing you can do.

Another safe crossing

When a telephone man drives, safety comes first

Two little girls dart into the street, unaware of an approaching telephone truck. The driver, on his way to install a phone for a new family in the neighborhood, slows to a stop as they cross. Not until the youngsters are safely on the other side does he drive on.

This quiet drama of safe driving doesn't make front-page headlines the way a major accident does. Yet it is the biggest story of all—the kids who aren't hurt crossing the street, the accidents that don't happen... because good safety habits prevent them from happening.

Driving safely is everyone's duty. But for telephone men it is more than that. It is a way of life. It is part of that special sense of responsibility that goes with telephone work: what we call the Spirit of Service.

A newspaper editor recently paid tribute to telephone drivers when he wrote:

"We salute the drivers of telephone company trucks. They never drive fast or recklessly; time and again we've seen them yield the right-of-way. They seem to apply the rule that the other driver is always right.

"It is nothing short of inspiring to see an entire corps of drivers display the courtesy and friendliness that are habitual with telephone company drivers."

Tearful Carole Denies Count

By DIAL TORGERSON
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Pretty Carole Tregoff burst into tears her first day on the witness stand at her murder trial with Dr. R. Bernard Finch.

The 23-year-old ex-model was being cross-examined about the night Finch's wife was shot to death. Carole testified she and the doctor were in the Finch home about a divorce.

Mrs. Finch refused to answer the prosecutor's rapid-fire questioning.

"What happened next?"

"The next thing that happened, she had a gun."

"How long after she said she didn't want to talk to you was it before you saw the gun?"

"Just in time for her to turn around, take the gun out of the car and turn around," she replied.

Then Miss Tregoff cried. Prosecutor Clifford Crall snapped: "I have no intention to examine this witness under these conditions."

The state has charged she and Dr. Finch plotted to kill the doctor's socialite wife, Barbara Jean Finch, 36, so they could marry without losing part of the doctor's wealth in a divorce court.

Atty. Robert A. Neeb Jr. asked Miss Tregoff: "Did you, on or about July 15, 1959, kill Mrs. Barbara Jean Finch?"

The defendant answered, her voice low: "Absolutely not."

Print Name On Returns

Failure to type or print your information on that Federal income tax return for 1959 could cost you a lot of money.

This word came today from Arthur E. Fogla of the Internal Revenue Service office in Abilene.

"Right here in this area hundreds of taxpayers had to be located last year so that Uncle Sam could pay them refunds amounting to several thousand dollars. This business happens every year," said Fogla, "because people either don't write legibly, or they move to new addresses and neglect to leave forwarding addresses with their postmasters."

Fogla said the IRS is using more electronic devices than ever before this year to speed work, but hurriedly scrawled numbers such as 1 and 7 and carelessly closed loops in letters E, L and F often short circuit the entire IRS production line.

Soviets Send Photos To Young Scientist

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C. (AP)—Space is the hobby of Arthur Saul, 19, of New Westminster, so he wrote to the Soviet Union for pictures of the far side of the moon. He also wrote to the Mount Palomar, Calif., Observatory for photographs of other astronomical bodies.

Within a month he received from the Soviets three photos of the moon's other side, a letter from the astronomical council of the U.S.S.R., Academy of Sciences and a book of information on the moon.

Then an envelope came from California.

It contained a catalogue giving the prices of various pictures and information.

Head Injury Brings On Two Law Suits

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A head injury actor Roger Smith says he received in a fall at his home last June has resulted in suits for and against the TV sleuth.

Smith, who co-stars as one of the private investigators in "Sunset Strip," sued Dr. Frederick Amerongen and two other physicians for $250,000 Monday. He charged they negligently diagnosed major injuries as minor.

In another action, Dr. Amerongen sued Smith, Smith's wife, actress Victoria Shaw, Look magazine and others for $1,950,000. The physician alleged that a Look article about the injury defamed him and invaded his privacy.

Minimum Marriage Age Is Increased

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The days when a 16-year-old boy could marry a 14-year-old girl are over in Kentucky.

Gov. Bert Combs signed a bill Monday raising the minimum marriage age for males from 16 to 18 and females from 14 to 16.

Spears Still Under Probe

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Robert Vernon Spears, 58, the heavily insured ex-convict once believed killed in a mysterious airplane crash, is going back to prison.

But the portly Dallas naturopath, who Monday received a five-year sentence for interstate transportation of a stolen car, won't be forgoing.

Spears had taken his seat on the plane, U.S. Dist. Judge Dave W. King said, when the National Airlines plane plunged into the Gulf of Mexico last Nov. 18, killing all 42 aboard. He is wanted in Los Angeles on two counts of abortion.

Spears was listed as a passenger on the ill-fated flight from Tampa, Fla., to New Orleans and was carrying $100,000 in travel insurance.

Following Spears' arrest in Phoenix Jan. 20, his wife quoted him as saying a fellow ex-convict, William Allen Taylor, of Tampa, had taken his seat on the plane.

U.S. Dist. Judge Dave W. King said Taylor "may be" the man who drove Taylor's car from Tampa to Phoenix without the owner's permission.

Youth Sentenced

BALTIMORE (AP) — James Galloway, 19, has the next 10 years in the state penitentiary to brood over a crime which brought him maximum penalty Monday.

The youth was sentenced for stealing a car from a hospital porch.

Actress Is Unable To Attend Hearing

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Actress Holly Lamarr Lee, 33 with influenza at her Beverly Hills, Calif., home, missed a court appearance and a climb up five flights of stairs.

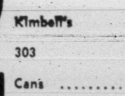

Her physician wired Monday that she was unable to travel to Houston for a pretrial hearing scheduled as a divorce action filed against her by oilman W. Howard Lee.

Lee and his lawyers did climb the five flights. The one elevator in the building was stuck.

Domestic Relations Court Judge Ben Woodall postponed the hearing until Miss Lamarr is able to appear.

The actress has filed a counter-suit to Lee's action. A District Court awarded her $3,000 monthly support last April.

Other Candidates' Wives Due Equal Time With Pat Nixon

By INEZ ROBB

My monograph has been reporting deep disturbances in the political field for several days. These are now authoritatively interpreted as the rumbling demands of the wives of assorted Presidential candidates for equal time and space in a national magazine that recently published a full-length, posed picture of Mrs. Richard Nixon pressing her husband's pants, east and west.

"Dick scolds me," Mrs. Nixon is quoted as saying as she presses on. "he says it's too much in my busy life. But I've always done it and I like it."

Well, this is the sort of challenge that the Mesdames Nelson Rockefeller (Oh, yes, a lot of people refuse to count her husband out of the race!), Symington, Johnson, Humphrey, Kennedy, et al aren't going to take lying down: Who among these ladies can afford to lie down when Mrs. Nixon is up, pressing her husbands' pants?

As one gifted with second sight, I can just see a great series of pictures, posed by these ladies that make the pants act seem both childish and restful.

The first picture I see is that of Mrs. Rockefeller, breaking the ice in the Hudson River near Albany, as she gets down on her knees and starts pounding the family wash on the native rocks.

"I just love to wash Nelson's clothes by beating them on the rocks the way my great-great-great-great-great grandmother did. That's what made her great. I always say," Mrs. Rockefeller explains, in the caption, "Nelson doesn't approve, and it is always threatening to buy me one of those new-fangled washboards. But I tell him that any candidate's wife is just as willing to wash her share of 'ruffled linen'."

The next picture is that of Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson on the gallery of a house built in that new mode of architecture known as "Western Ranchhouse South." Mrs. Johnson, on hands and knees, is scrubbing the gallery floor with holy-stone and saying:

"Mah! Ah love to scrub floor! Lyndon says Ah ought to use a mop. But Ah tell Lyndon that an election year is no time to trifle with the push-button age! Why, Ah can hardly wait to get down on mah hands and 'knees in the East Room!"

It is now Mrs. Jack Kennedy's turn. She is in a back yard, where a smoldering fire burns under a big, blackened iron kettle. She circles the cauldron, stirring.

"I dearly love to make my own soap," she says in the caption. "Doesn't everyone? For soap that will take the dirt out of everything and the hide off your hands, give me homemade soap, everytime!"

In an election year, any true-blue wife ought to be willing to make enough soft soap to see her husband through the emergency."

Mrs. Stuart Symington's picture now appears. She is posed with an old-fashioned churn whose handle she is briskly pumping.

"Stu tells me you can buy store-bought butter or just as good as homemade," the caption reads. "But I tell Stu that for real, successful buttering-up in an election year, there's no butter like that a body makes himself!"

Finally, there is a picture of Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey Jr., dressed in sackcloth with a soup-can of ashes as becomes the wife of the self-proclaimed people's candidate.

Mrs. Humphrey is shown laboriously transforming flour sacks into a pair of shorts for her husband. "Next to his skin, Humphrey may like silk best," the caption says, "but I love to make his shorts for him, especially when I get free sacks printed with Hubert's own special motto: 'Eventually, why not now?'"

When you see these picture, or reasonable facsimiles, friends, remember you read about them first in this column.

Zoom Begins To Slip From Boom

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The big debate in business circles isn't whether Jack Paar did right or was wrong, or whether this missile or that is our best bet. It's whether some of the zoom isn't going out of the boom.

Only very few optimists thought the big spurt of industrial activity after the settlement of the steel labor dispute could go on forever at that pace. But many are disturbed that its life seems to be proving so short.

"There's no real slowdown yet. But the activity seems quieter than a few weeks back."

Government officials say that if this is just more than seasonal, it will prove a good thing. They always get nervous when activity seems to be moving at too fast a clip. An orderly advance is more to their liking. There's less of a letdown later.

The stock market gave the public the first inkling of what was going on. Many think that stock prices dropped because a lot of folk decided prices were too high in relation to earnings. Good as some of these have been. But others think that the traders sensed a turnaround later this year in the general economy if the former pace was maintained. And now seems to see that.

Business is still humming. Steel is pouring out of the mills. Retail trade is higher than usual for this time of year. Inventories are still being built up. Companies are still talking about expansion spending.

Some companies appear to have rebuilt their stocks in big time after the steel mills reopened.

Consumers are still buying large quantities of goods at the store. They are taking on huge totals of the risk to take on time payments isn't what it used to be some weeks back.

Spring could change the picture. It could make people want to buy new cars, new appliances. It could put a portion of the zoom back into the boom.

More Jobs Brought On By Machines

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

The harder machines work, the more jobs there are in the world.

With machines now doing 94 per cent of the work, there are more jobs available per 1,000 population than there were in 1850, when machines did but 6 per cent of the work.

American women now spend over one billion dollars annually in beauty parlors.

Sir Winston Churchill is one leader who places a high value on experience. "The farther backward you can look," he once said, "the farther forward are you likely to see."

What next? Models at the Grace Downs School here are sporting a new fad—multicolored eyelashes. They give a girl that "rainbow look."

Gag of the week: "A sailor," says singer Sheila Reynolds, "is just a wolf in ship's clothing."

At what age did you marry? Until recently, a girl could wed at 12 in Northern Ireland. She still can in Rhodesia and the Fiji Islands.

Household hint: It's smart to coat all door knobs and hinges lightly with petroleum jelly before painting a room. Then if paint drops on them, it can be easily wiped away.

A recent survey found the average woman washes only 30 dishes daily. My wife, when informed of this, asked in disbelief: "What does she do with the others — just throw them out the window?"

No wonder it's so difficult to achieve peace and real understanding on earth. The world still has more than 700 million adults who can neither read nor write.

If starlings are a nuisance in your city, you can blame Eugene Schieffelin, a 19th Century bird fancier. He imported 40 pairs of starlings from England in 1890 and turned them loose in Central Park in Manhattan. And they spread across the land like a feathered plague.

Time on your hands: Ever wonder how long it takes to grow a full fingernail? About 150 days.

Labor Plugs For Racial Equality

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—AFL-CIO leaders today stepped up a drive to promote racial equality among workers.

AFL-CIO leaders broadened a campaign to drop union membership color restrictions after accusing a government anti-discrimination committee headed by Vice President Richard M. Nixon of being too soft on employers.

Nixon is chairman of President Eisenhower's Government Contracts Committee assigned to enforce standard clauses in all government contracts banning job discrimination because of race, color, creed or national origin.

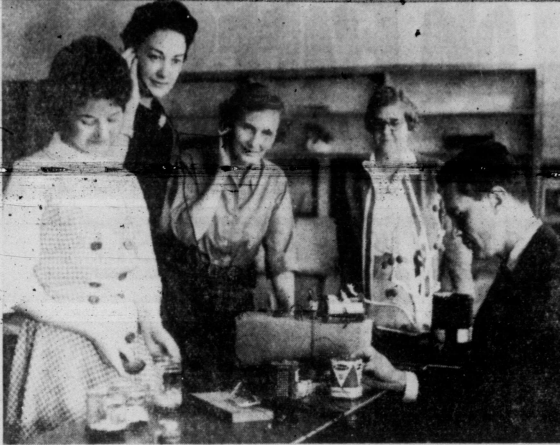

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, said the committee has cracked down hard on labor unions for "Jim Crow" restrictions. But he said the Nixon-led committee took little action to get employers to comply with their contract commitments for equal hiring, promotion and pay practices regardless of race.

Meany said he wasn't trying to expose the "racial attitudes" of employers. He said the 14-million-member AFL-CIO is working hard to curb it. But he said employers have a legal obligation to the government.

Meany's comments had political overtones because many AFL-CIO leaders say Nixon has won support among the federation's 1 million Negroes by strong public pronouncements against racial bias.

Meany, himself a member of the Nixon group, advocated tougher government policing of the contract requirements—to the point of canceling the contracts of violating employers.

Federation leaders arranged a new racial equality compliance system of assigning members of the Federation Executive Council, composed of top union leaders, to work on segregation problems as they arise.

AND THEY WORK, TOO!—First grade teachers try out some of the first grade projects in science at a meeting at the North Elementary School Monday evening. Mrs. Neoma "Harrier" left a newspaper of Central, looks over some of the salt gardens "grown" by the Stanfield classes. Stanfield's Mrs. Barbara Bigham, chairman of the group, and Vestal Manor of North shore earphones of a crystal set that North Elementary constructed with the help of Bob Womack, principal (on right). Mrs. Janie Sullivan, new teacher at North, looks on. These teachers met to share their ideas of how to best present the wonders of science to "the first grade level." Some of these lessons now being taught compare with the first science class taught in high schools a decade ago.

Chessman's Latest Battle Shifts To Washington, D. C.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Carol Chessman's fight for life shifted today to Washington, D. C., and the U.S. Supreme Court.

With Chessman scheduled to die at 10 P.M. Friday, Sacramento attorney-Rosalie Asher was in the nation's capital seeking a Supreme Court justice to ask for a writ of review and permission to file an original writ of habeas corpus. Both would carry requests for a stay of execution, said Chessman's other attorney, George T. Davis. The high court is expected to meet Monday.

Davis is remaining here to handle a clemency appeal by Gov. Edmund G. Brown if Chessman is turned down in his 15th approach to the Supreme Court.

The 38-year-old convict-author, convicted in Los Angeles in 1948 of robbery and kidnap charges involving forcing two women into unnatural sex acts, has had seven stays of execution in his 11½ year-old battle waged from death row.

He lost another appeal Monday when a three-man panel of the U.S. 9th Circuit Court of Appeals refused him a stay of execution and upheld its chief justice's earlier ruling refusing him a certificate of probable cause for appeal.

If Chessman wins no stay from the 9th Circuit, his appeal to the U.S. Supreme court would appear to be Gov. Brown's. Chessman himself refuses to appeal for clemency, maintaining he is innocent, but attorney Davis is expected to seek a commutation to life imprisonment anyway.

In cases like Chessman's, where previous felonious convictions are involved, the governor's clemency is conditioned upon concurrence by the State Supreme Court. Brown has refused clemency once before, but has said his mind is still open.

Bell System Hits High In Earnings

NEW YORK (AP)—The annual report of the Bell Telephone System, the nation's largest corporation, shows it reached new highs in gross revenue, net earnings and total assets in 1959.

The report, issued Monday by Frederick Kappel, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., said Bell System net income rose to $1,148,769,000 last year from $861,463,000 in 1958.

General Motors Corp. is the only other U.S. company ever to report a year's earnings of more than one billion dollars. Its net income in 1955 was $1,189,477,000. GM has not reached that level since.

The 1959 report covering the Bell System includes AT&T, its principal telephone subsidiaries consolidated, together with the proportionate interest in net earnings of the Western Electric Co. and other subsidiaries.

Among the 1959 Bell System achievements reported were these:

Record total assets of $39,897,001,000—the highest ever shown by any company. The previous high was $19,493,851,000 at the end of 1958.

A record number of shareholders—1,737,000—more than any company ever had.

At the end of 1959 there were 57,944,404 telephones in operation, compared with 54,684,342 a year earlier.

New construction outlays of $2,250,000,000 in 1959. The Bell System's capital expenditures topped two billion dollars for the fourth consecutive year. This was the first time that any American company ever spent so much in that length of time.

Bell's total operating revenues rose to $7,392,997,000 from $6,771,463,000 in 1958. Operating expenses rose to $4,479,495,000 from $4,231,868,000 in 1958.

Kappel said "Telephone excise taxes are unjust and discriminatory and should be eliminated completely."

Pick Jury For Trial Of Motherwell

DOWNTOWN, Calif. (AP)—The jury which will determine if Larry Lord Motherwell, 43, murdered wealthy Pearl Putney, 72, of Washington, D. C., is scheduled to be completed today.

The defense had only 14 peremptory challenges left as the remaining veniremen took nearly all the available seats in the tiny courtroom at the start of today's trial session. The prosecution had 16 challenges left.

Superior Court Judge Warren Steel of Yuba County Monday limited questions directed at prospective jurors in the interest of speed.

The defense attorneys, John T. Reges of Washington, D. C., and Robert A. Fugazi, Kings Beach, Lake Tahoe, Calif., questioned veniremen on whether they are concerned over the financial burden of the trial on Sierra County which has a sparse 3,000 population.

Dist. Atty. Gordon I. Smith of Sierra County and co-prosecutor, Lynn Buck Compton, Los Angeles deputy district attorney, directed their questions to opinions about the death penalty.

Only one juror was excused for cause.

"We're not displeased with the first day's activities," Reges said. "I believe we have shown some prejudice to the court."

In this county seat of 350 people, there was little discussion of the trial and very few spectators except for veniremen.

Ex-Resident Dies Monday

Mrs. Max Brengard, former Snyder resident, died Monday shortly before noon in a Memphis, Tenn., hospital.

Mrs. Brengard was the former Dorothy Aliene Tate, daughter of Mrs. Blanche Tate. At the time of her death, Mrs. Brengard lived in Paragould, Ark.

In addition to Mrs. Tate, survivors include the husband, two sons, Richard Joseph, 8, and Ronald Tate Brengard, 5; a brother, Rev. Calvin Tate of Tyrone, Ark.; five sisters, Mrs. J. W. Piker of Abilene, Mrs. Leslie Barr of Coshoma, Mrs. Wayne Eubank, Mrs. Charlice Roberson and Mrs. Fickas Bell, all of Snyder.

Schools Of Dance Boom In Britain

By ROBERT TUCKMAN LONDON (AP)—How much money is there in teaching Britons how to wait and do the cha cha?

Quite a bit, apparently, for dance schools have grown into the second largest branch of the entertainment business in Britain. The movies are first.

The Financial Times took time out from reporting the stock markets and other high finance for a look at the dance school situation.

It reported there are 1,500 dance schools in Britain, and some take in about 4,200 per week before expenses.

The number of students is increasing, and many old movie houses and restaurants are being made over into ballrooms and dance studios.

Most of the schools are individually owned, or operated as small chains of three or four, but there are two large chains.

The Rank organization, Britain's big movie making and theater company, operates the 23 Victor Silvester dance studios. Present enrollment is 50,000 and growing.

Since opening the first studio three years ago, Rank reports, it has given lessons to 750,000 people. All of its studios once were movie houses or cafes.

The other large group, the Court schools, also operates 23 studios with another one due to open shortly. It has 85,000 members and reports the number is on the increase.

The schools charge an average of 30 cents per person in group classes. Half-hour private lessons range from 75 cents to four dollars.

Teacher Who Made Survey Is Cleared

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The teacher who took a survey among his students has been given duties outside the classroom.

Cecil M. Cook, who had his Van Nuys High School students fill out a questionnaire pertaining to their sex life, was cleared last week by the State Board of Education of any implication of immoral conduct.

His informal leave from the school system started last June. School Supt. Ellis A. Jarvis said Cook's duties will be outside the classroom for the present while an implication of immoral conduct.

Junior Editors Quiz on KNIGHTHOOD

QUESTION: Was King Arthur a real person?

ANSWER: During the Middle Ages, many legends and stories were told about King Arthur. The king was supposed to have ruled the Britons during the Sixth Century. He and his wife, Guinevere, lived at Caerleon-on-Usk in Wales and had a castle at Tintagel in Cornwall. He was assisted by a magician named Merlin and at his court, his knights sat with him around the Round Table. According to the legends, King Arthur brought peace to the British Isles. Eventually, he was killed while fighting against a group of robbers led by his nephew, Mordred. It isn't known whether Arthur really lived, though many have been a real leader around whom the stories grew up. A later English king, Henry II, claimed that he was a descendant of King Arthur but there is no proof of it. The stories about King Arthur were collected in 1485 by Sir Thomas Malory who put them in a book he called "Morte of Arthur".

FOR YOU TO DO: There are many books about King Arthur and his knights of the Round Table. See if you can find one at the library. You will find it interesting reading.
