LATEST EQUIPMENT acquired by the Knox City EMS is the Rescue Set displayed here by EMTs John Turner, at left, and Roland Marlon. The extrication unit contains three powerful hydraulic rams and provides professional capability to open doors, lift objects, brace walls, and perform usual rescue operations. It also includes the large SA-10 Spred Ram for lifting fallen objects, prying doors, bars, and damaged sections. Money from the auctions, drawing, and chill supper, as well as personal donations and memorials to the KC Ambulance Fund has made the purchase of equipment possible for the EMS.

Bloodmobile Set April 29

A goal of 82 units of blood has been set for the Red River Regional Red Cross Bloodmobile which will be in Knox City on Tuesday, April 29. The bloodmobile will be set up in the Fellowship Hall of The First United Methodist Church from 2:00 to 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Doris Crownover and Mrs. Ginger Johnston, Knox City Red Cross Blood Services co-chairmen, are urging Knox City and area residents to help meet the goal. Reaching that goal is very important so that the overall blood needs of the patients in the Red River Region can be met.

On any given day, any of the 40 hospitals served by the Blood Center will use from 50 to 100 units of blood to save lives. Because blood can only be stored for 21 days, an even, continuous and predictable number of donations must be made throughout the region. "Each county or community has its fair share. If Knox City doesn't make its goal, another area will have to make up the difference," stated the chairmen.

"There is no substitute for blood, only the human body manufactures it and without the volunteer donors, the blood and blood products needed by patients in our hospitals and the other hospitals in the region will not be available."

Mrs. Crownover and Mrs. Johnston urge residents between 18 and 65 (17 with written parental permission) who are in good health, weigh at least 110 pounds and have not donated within the past 56 days to contact them for an appointment.

The actual process of giving blood only takes from seven to ten minutes but with time for registration, the medical history and refreshments, the donor should expect to spend about an hour at the Bloodmobile.

Persons, for their own convenience, who need to set up an appointment for donating blood may do so by calling Mrs. Crownover at 658-3442 or drop by the church April 29 between the designated hours.

"One hour is not a lot of time to give when it could save someone's life. Blood cannot be made anywhere except in the human body and must be given voluntarily. It is truly the gift of life," Mrs. Crownover said.

Remember, the Bloodmobile will be at The First United Methodist Church on Tuesday, April 29 from 2:00 until 6:30 p.m.

O'Brien Happenings

By CHARLENE BROTHERS

Can you believe yesterday (Monday)? I was coming from Haskell and between O'Brien and Rochester you could hardly see the front end of your vehicle. I had about decided that guy from Dallas or wherever he was had hit it on the head and I was the only one left. It was an eerie feeling not being able to see anything but the hood of the pickup and that was just in front of the windshield.

The volleyball tournament held at O'Brien was a big success, I guess. There were a number of teams entered. The money will go to the fire department. And I know they can use it, they still need some equipment for the truck. The winners of the women's division was a team called the Killer Watts, which is made up of women from two or three different towns; second went to the First Baptist team from Rule and third was won by the team from Aspermont called the Stonewall Team. The men's division winners were the Outlaws, a team from Rule; second went to the Munday team and third to the Gorce team. O'Brien had a women's team entered, we did not get very far, lost the first two games and that naturally puts you out. Anyway we enjoyed playing and did not do so bad, since we did not practice any, just went out there Tuesday evening and started playing. And some of the people that go to these tournaments all the time told us we had drawn the two best teams entered. So for one nearly 50 and the others not having played in a long time, and not even together, I guess we did not do so badly. I did find out that I have nearly as much get up and go as some of the younger ones.

The fire department thanks everyone that helped in any way with the tournament. I think we should all give a big, big thanks to James and Pearce, since they worked up the brackets and did a lot of the work before hand and during the games. There are others that helped a great bit and since I would probably miss some of the names, I will just say, if you helped in any way during the tournament, we all thank you and really appreciate the things you did.

Remember, the school and city elections coming up this Saturday. The O'Brien voters can vote at the gin office, as usual. The polls will open at 7:00 a.m. and close at 7:00 p.m. Be sure and come and vote for the candidate of your choice. There are two trustees to be elected and Henry Jones, Jimmy Tankersley and J.B. Rutherford are the three running for these two places. In the O'Brien city election there are to be three councilmen to be elected and only three are running, so if you do not want to vote for these you can write in a candidate. Just come out and vote.

HERE AND THERE

Mrs. James Manning was in Abilene Monday afternoon to be with her brother, John, who had surgery.

Marvin Manning visited several days last week in Springtown with the Derwin Lancasters, the Larry Gibson family and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brothers, Jeremy, Tommy and Misty Harrison of Azle visited during the weekend with the J.O. Brothers and the Humberto Gutierrez family. Jeremy, Tommy and Misty stayed for a few days visit since they were out of school for the spring holidays. Misty will leave from the Dallas-Fort Worth Airport, Saturday morning for Florida where she will join her mother, Linda, who is stationed with the Air Force.

Greg Covey visited in Odessa with Shipper Jackson during the weekend.

Sunday was Youth Day at the First Baptist Church here in O'Brien and the young people had charge of most of the services morning and evening. John Mark Trice of Paint Creek was the speaker for both services and the others were the young people in our church. (I know that John Mark was here this time, because I was there to hear him, and a good speaker he is. The last time they had youth day, he was sick and could not come, and we were ginning and I just went to Sunday School and no one told me he was not there and I wrote a little about it in the column and he was not there as the speaker, but this time I can say I am correct.)

April Proclaimed Cancer Control Month

Governor William P. Clements has proclaimed April Cancer Control Month in Texas. Governor Clements met at the capitol with Dr. Jim C. Terrell, Jr. of Stephenville, state president of the Texas Division, American Cancer Society and Dr. James R. Walker, an ACS cancer research scientist from the University of Texas at Austin.

In an executive statement the Governor urged all Texans to heed the lifesaving messages of the American Cancer Society and to provide generous support for its 1980 Crusade.

Dr. Walker is one of 40 American Cancer Society researchers doing work in Texas. Over $4.4 million of ACS research grants are currently in effect at 11 Texas institutions. In accepting the Proclamation Dr. Terrell announced that the chairman of the Division Crusade Committee, Mrs. James (Juan-delle) Lacy of Midland, had recently made a $27,500 contribution toward one of those research projects; a new anti-tumor substance known as Interferon. Mr. and Mrs. Lacy have also announced a special statewide campaign to raise an additional $2 million for research on the promising drug. According to Dr. Terrell the National Society has already committed over $5.4 million toward Interferon research; some of which is being carried out at

M.D. Anderson Hospital in Houston.

Funds given to the American Cancer Society are used to support its three-part program of Research, Service to cancer patients and Education. 29,536 patients were given assistance such as sickroom equipment loans, transportation, blood, rehabilitation and counseling last year. 2.8 million Texans attended ACS Public Education programs; including 580,000 who participated in "Actions" programs, such as Stop Smoking programs, free cancer screening clinics and personal instruction in breast self examination. The fund raising goal of the Texas Division for 1979-80 is $7,000,000.

Spring Gardeners Warned of Poison Ivy

Poison ivy season is here again.

You may have handled poison ivy last year and escaped without an itch, but don't push your luck. No one is permanently immune to poison ivy, oak or sumac.

The American Medical Association points out that the next meeting with this pesky plant could take place in your own yard, as well as in the woods and fields. Poison ivy has appeared in city gardens. Sometimes that lovely vine climbing the side of your house is laced with the offending poison ivy.

Know how to detect poison plants and avoid them. Poison ivy and its close kin, poison oak, are three-leaved plants which may grow as low bushes or climbing vines. They may be mixed with honeysuckle and other climbers. Poison sumac, an eastern swamp plant with seven to thirteen leaflets and small white berries, usually grows as a shrub.

If you have been exposed, carefully remove your clothes and thoroughly wash all affected areas with warm water and soap. Then sponge with an alcohol solution. Using rubber gloves, clean your clothes in an oil solvent and soapy water. Dry them in the sun.

Ivy, oak and sumac poisoning start with itching and redness within a few hours to several days after exposure. Then watery pimples appear. There is no cure for the big itch. Wet dressings of boric acid or Epsom salts solution bring some relief. Calamine lotion also reduces itching. Call your physician if inflammation is excessive.

If you know that you will be near poison plants or working with them, have your druggist make a 10 per cent sodium borate ointment and apply on exposed skin. After contact with the plant, wash off ointment and scrub all clothing, even shoelaces.

TRIAL WORK PERIOD

"Many who are drawing social security disability benefits can return to work on a trial basis without affecting their benefit payments," James Harper, branch manager of the Vernon Social Security Office, said recently.

The law provides for a nine month trial work period for those drawing disability whose medical condition is not expected to improve. This allows the disabled person to test his ability to work for a total of nine months without affecting his social security check.

Any month in which a disabled person earns $75 or works more than 15 hours in self-employment counts as one of the nine months.

When the disabled person has worked a total of nine months, the work will be evaluated if he continues working. If the work is substantial, benefits will continue.

"The trial work period does not apply to all who are drawing disability," he cautioned. "The only way to be sure is to contact your social security office."

"Persons drawing disability benefits need to notify social security immediately if they start or stop work," Harper concluded.

Seniors of the Week

NINA ALSIDES

Nina Alsidis' story begins when time was speeding and the doctor was not being there when needed. Therefore Manuel D. Alsidis delivered a very healthy little girl on the 11th day of May who weighed seven pounds and one ounce. And of what proud parents she had. She was named Enderina Marie Alsidis but known as Nina. She was born a very happy and cheerful person, her world was a dream world full of flowers and blue skies. But a lot of those things didn't exactly fall into that dream world of hers, she was soon to find things were different, very different. She was born with four brothers and three sisters already in her new family, soon afterward came two brothers and one small baby sister. Nina was a member of the O'Brien Carney Independent School for nine years and loved what she represented. She likes all kinds of sports; basketball, football, soccer, volleyball, tennis and swimming. She is a very hard person to please and one thing she hates the most is to set a goal and fail at it.

Nina is a music lover. Her favorite singer is Bob Dylan and other groups and singers she enjoys are Eagles, Stephen Mills, Journey, Willie Nelson and Waylon Jennings. Her favorite actor is Robert DeNiro and her favorite actress/singer is Bette Midler. Her future plans are really not as clear as she thought. One impossible goal of hers is to keep and learn to appreciate her parents.

OLGA MAGANA

Olga Magana, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Margarito S. Magana, was born on April 9, 1961, in Haskell Memorial Hospital. Olga, the first born of the family, was later joined by two little brothers, Mack and Chuco. Mack died when he was eleven years old.
She went to school in O'Brien Carney Independent School for the first nine years. After Knox City and O'Brien consolidated, she has finished her last four years in Knox City. She has enjoyed playing basketball for three years, track for two years and volleyball for two years. Now as a senior, Olga is not involved in any sports. She was in PASF for two years, in FHA for three years and FTA for one year.
Olga's plans for the future are undecided as of yet.

SUPPORT LARRY EVANS For District Attorney Of Baylor, Cottle, King, and Knox Counties

Larry Evans believes that the apprehension and arrest of criminals is not the final solution to good law enforcement, but only half of the battle. He believes that good, sound law enforcement can only be achieved by the vigorous prosecution of those persons charged with offenses against the criminal laws of this State.

If elected District Attorney, Larry Evans has pledged:

- * To work with all local law officers in the investigation of crimes within the jurisdiction of his office.
- * To make himself available as needed throughout the four counties of the District;
- * To adequately prepare for trial and dispose of the criminal cases on the dockets of the courts of this district;
- * To deal fairly and honestly with all persons and vigorously prosecute all persons charged with offenses within the jurisdiction of his office; and
- * To work hard and do his best to carry out the duties of the office.

Larry Evans wants to make good law enforcement his business. Elect him your next District Attorney on May 3.

Greet Springtime With Hot Cross Buns

Delight your family this Easter season with an extra special breakfast centered around moist and delicious Hot Cross Buns. In this glamorous version of the centuries-old Easter treat, the traditional citron and currents are combined with canned crushed pineapple in a light, mace-flavored dough. These buns are too good to serve only at Easter. Make them often when you want to pamper your family just a bit.

- PINEAPPLE HOT CROSS BUNS
- 1 (1 pound 4 ounce) can crushed pineapple
 - 2 packages active dry yeast
 - 1/2 cup lukewarm water
 - 1/4 cup lukewarm pineapple syrup
 - 3 eggs, lightly beaten
 - 1/2 cup sugar
 - 1/2 cup melted shortening
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon mace
 - 5 cups sifted all-purpose flour
 - 1/2 cup currants
 - 1/2 cup finely chopped citron
- Melted butter
Pineapple Glaze

Drain pineapple well, pressing out and reserving syrup. Set aside 1/2 cup drained pineapple for glaze. Soften yeast in lukewarm water and 1/2 cup pineapple syrup. Combine eggs, sugar, melted shortening, salt and mace. Stir in 1/2 cup flour, then add yeast mixture and beat well. Stir in currants, citron and remaining drained pineapple. Beat in remaining flour, reserving about 1/2 cup for kneading, to form a moderately soft dough. Turn dough out onto lightly floured board. Use remaining 1/2 cup flour and knead 3 to 5 minutes, until dough smooths out and rounds up. Place in greased bowl, cover, and let rise in warm place until doubled (about 1 1/2 hours). Punch down, then divide evenly into 24 pieces. Shape into buns and place about 2 inches apart on greased baking sheets. Brush with melted butter and let rise until almost doubled (45 minutes to 1 hour). With sharp razor blade or scissors, cut a 1/4-inch deep cross in top of each bun. Bake in center of moderate oven (350 degrees F) about 20 minutes. When cool, frost buns with Pineapple Glaze. Makes 2 dozen buns.

Pineapple Glaze: Combine 1/2 cup reserved drained crushed pineapple with 1 1/2 cups sifted powdered sugar in small bowl. Makes 3/4 cup.

Olney Savings Crosses $200 Million Mark

Olney -- Olney Savings Association, a northwest Texas savings and loan association with offices in twelve cities, reached a milestone today when its assets surpassed $200,000,000, according to President D.D. McClatchy.

McClatchy commented, "We are where we are today because of our very special customers. With strong agrarian ties, our customers believe in a day's work for a day's pay. They believe in meeting their obligations exactly as their promise binds them. They cast cautious and selective eyes at ever-present opportunity. And their well-thought out, then charge-ahead action will become increasingly evident in future years for the entire Southwest."

STREAMS IN DESERT PLACES

By OZELLE STEPHENS

"Jesus answered and said unto them, ye do err, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God." (Matthew 22:29.)

Throughout the teachings of Jesus we find Him telling us why we have failed in so many ways: why we have so much sorrow, heartache, misunderstandings, why we are filled with fear, and have such little faith. He said, "My people are destroyed for the lack of knowledge of My Word. They are willingly ignorant. The way of peace, they know not and there is no judgment in their goings, they have made them crooked paths, whosoever goeth there in shall not know peace. Surely these are poor spiritually, for they know not the way of the Lord, nor the judgment of their God. But they know not the thoughts of the Lord, neither understand they his counsel." For they, being ignorant of God's righteousness and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. Having the understanding darkened, they are being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them because of the blindness of their hearts. Remember Jesus said, "You do err, not knowing the scriptures."

Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness through His Word, and all good things will be yours.

"They enjoy the challenge of serving the customer better. And they are constantly reminded that the strength of this area will grow in direct proportion to the quantity and quality of housing which will be provided by Olney Savings. And they very much want to provide the means by which all of us can live decently, prosperously and happily." For immediate release... Olney Savings reaches $200 million...

"Even with the conservative approach of our management philosophy, Olney Savings' total assets have doubled during each five year period since 1965. This is even more significant when viewed with the situation of the last twelve months, when the United States has been experiencing the lowest percentage of people saving their money in the entire history of our country," he said.

"These times are uncertain. And we don't have a clear idea of what's ahead. But we are encouraged by our customers' continued vision in understanding the importance of saving their money. Our job is to keep that money safe, earning the highest rate of interest allowed by law. And to provide the newest services available to ensure a high-return on every dollar and customer convenience. And you can be sure we're going to do just that," he continued.

continued. "We have done a lot of growing in the last 50 years and we've got a lot more to do. And we are confident and optimistic about the future. Everything's going to be alright," McClatchy stated.

Olney Savings' home office is located in Olney, Texas, with branch offices in Seymour, Jacksboro, Bridgeport, Nocona, Weatherford and Azle. Electra (Electra Savings), Ranger (Ranger Savings) and Eastland (Eastland Savings), all divisions of Olney Savings. And new offices are on their way in Archer City and Graham.

VRJC Sets Oil Personnel Course

Vernon Regional Junior College is scheduling a course designed for oil field personnel entitled "Practical Application of Engineering Principles." The course is scheduled to meet on Tuesday and Thursday from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. beginning April 15 and ending June 5 providing 32 hours of instruction. The topics to be covered include reservoir analysis, oil production, records applied to improving production, treating production, basic logging, and well sitting. All of the topics will be integrated with API workbooks, and a concerted effort will be made toward good production practices and an innovation of new ideas. The objective of this course is to provide a practical application of engineering principles to everyday operations resulting in less downtime, lower lifting costs, and more production.

The instructor for the course will be Jack Helzlsouer, Area Engineer for Texaco, Inc. Helzlsouer is a graduate of Tulsa University with a degree in petroleum engineering. He has 26 years' experience in the oil business. Registration for this first class will be limited to 25 persons, but the class will be repeated if there is sufficient interest. VRJC is also planning other courses that might be beneficial for oil field personnel.

For further information, amount of fee, or registration forms, readers may contact the office of Continuing Education at (817) 552-6291. Early registration for the course is recommended as class size will be limited.

ENERGY NEWS

EARTH HEAT FOR GASOHOL

The first known experiment using geothermal energy to distill alcohol for use as a fuel was reported recently by EG&G, Inc., in support of a Federal energy resources program.

Researchers used the natural hot water from beneath the earth to distill sugar beet syrup into alcohol which can be added to gasoline to make gasohol. Gasohol is usually 10 percent alcohol and 90 percent gasoline.

Conducted successfully at the U.S. Energy Department's Raft River geothermal site in south central Idaho, the experiment was given full support by an EG&G subsidiary, EG&G Idaho, as site management contractor to the Energy Department's Idaho National Engineering Laboratory.

The low-cost experiment used a moderate temperature of 240°F., proving that geothermal water is a potential source of heat energy for distillation and that it can also augment the fermenting liquid, thus conserving water as well as nonrenewable fossil fuels.

Researchers are now evaluating geothermal applications for distilling alcohol from other cheaply supplied, easily renewable products. Colorado State University is participating in the study which includes forest slash, wheat straw, pine chips and surplus farm crops.

BENJAMIN 4-H NEWS

The local 4-Hers were quite busy last week getting pledges for their Skate-A-Thon to be April 26. The Skate-A-Thon will be at Skate Whirl in Wichita Falls. So when one of these kiddoes asks you for a pledge, help them out as it will go toward a trip to the 4-H Camp in Brownwood this summer.

Also the youngsters sold chances on a cake and a pie. Misty Pierce drew Gloria West's name as winner of the pie, which was baked and donated by Mitzi and Kay Lindsey.

The carrot cake baked and donated by Kemp and Susan Jones was won by Pearl Ryder. Mitzi Lindsey drew that winning name.

Kiddoes participating in these projects were Chad and Beverly Tolson, Kemp Jones, Shane Spinks, Oscar, Sue and Lana Gideon, Mitzi Lindsey, Misty Pierce, Kim Cash, Stacia Ryder, Lori Ralston, Shari Parker and Debbie Bufkin.

Also, Steve Wilson has begun a 4-H Rifle Safety and Marksmanship project. Steve has worked with this type program before and his interest and support is most appreciated by 4-Hers and their parents.

Anyone interested in the program may contact Steve at 454-2743 and he will give you any information you may need concerning this project.

TRIP TO LUBBOCK

Thursday morning at 6:00, a "bunch" of folks boarded a bus at Rhineland for a trip to Lubbock. It is reported that the trip was both educational and recreational as they visited the Ranch Heritage Museum and solar homes in the area. Making the trip from Benjamin were Gay Spinks, Susan Jones, Kathy Mazurkiewicz, Janet Conner, Connie Boone, Kathy Carroll, Sheryll Simmons, Judy Conner, Debbie Stamps, Sharon Book, Pearl Ryder, Louella Tolson, Grace Snailum and Mae Tucker.

ONE-ACT PLAY COMPETITION

Benjamin High School entered the one-act play contest at Rochester last Tuesday. The name of the play was "Requiem" and the cast included Debbie Lindsey, Craig Hertel, Jessie Estrada, Mary Barrientez, George Ann Abbott, Eddie Romo, Micky Smith, John Mark Kinnibrough, Lauren Reed, Toni Benson, Randy Engbrock, Twylah Pierce and Alan Baty. Though our school didn't place in the competition, I hear we did well and I think we should all be proud. The stage crew was Wendy Pollock, Kim Conner and Lewis Estrada. Director was Debbie Sosolik.

Craig Hertel was named to the All-Star Cast. Receiving honorable mention were Jessie Estrada, Lauren Reed and Debbie Lindsey.

DISTRICT UIL

In the District UIL Competition Friday at Hardin-Simmons in Abilene, Debbie Lindsey won first in poetry reading, Susan Welch won first in prose reading, Lisa Welch won second and Rhonda Redwine won fourth. In ninth grade oral reading, Wendy Pollock won first, Lauren Reed won second and Toni Benson was third.

Kim Conner was second in spelling. There are only two debate teams in the district, both being from Benjamin. They are Eddie Romo and Kim Conner and Craig Hertel and Jessie Estrada. They will be debating each other to see who goes to regional. All other first, second and third place winners will go to the regional meet April 18 and 19 at McMurry College in Abilene.

HOUSING TOUR IS SUCCESSFUL

Approximately 30 Knox County Extension Homemakers departed from Rhineland before sunrise last Thursday. This energetic group of women began their day by touring First Manufactured Homes of Lubbock at 9:00 a.m. The women toured the warehouse where the houses are built on large movable cars. After one stage is completed, they are moved to the next stage. It was interesting to see how the walls are built and then lifted and attached to the base floor. The tour guide explained energy conservation methods used in building the homes. It was through the warehouse and then on to a model solar home. The demonstration home was completely furnished and certainly impressive.

The next stop was the underground church, St. John Neumann. The worship center and administration center utilize geostucture-earth covering in order to maximize energy conservation. The church is partially underground and virtually earth-covered, allowing for an almost constant 70 degree temperature regardless of outside temperatures.

The homemakers also toured the Texas Tech Museum. The museum features unusual exhibits in many areas including geology, food and fiber, cultural arts, and historic cultures. It takes an average of eight hours to tour the museum but the Knox County homemakers were only able to devote one and a half hours there.

After stopping to catch their breath and to eat lunch, it was back to the Texas Tech Ranch Heritage Center. The center features approximately 20 homes dated from the early 1800s to the early 1900s. These structures have been restored to their original appearance and are completely furnished. Structures include bunk houses, line-camp houses, one-room school houses, dug-out homes, stables and other types of buildings.

Before returning to Knox County, homemakers visited the Solar Power Plant in Crosbyton. This plant has the largest solar prototype collector in the world - it is sixty-five feet in diameter. This collector is being tested as a collector of solar energy to be used as a supplementary source of fuel. The solar dish is constructed from 430 39" specially shaped mirrors. This project cost was estimated at 2.5 million dollars.

The last stop was the solar home owned by Mrs. Georgia Mae Ericson near Crosbyton. The homemakers were a little surprised to learn that the bus would not clear the entrance gate, but the long walk to the house was well-worth the effort. The home is completely operated by the solar collector panels in front of the home. These panels collect and store energy used for heating the indoor swimming pool, the whirlpool bath, and other types of household energy consumption.

Those attending the tour will agree that it was a busy schedule but certainly lots of fun and very educational. Attending were Janet Conner, Bessie Winchester, Effie Hatfield, Grace Snailum, Louella Tolson, Susan Jones, Connie Boone, May Tucker, Ruth Russell, June Navratil, Thelma Coulston, Mary Bratcher, Lometa Doss, Geneva Navratil, Lloyd Clark, Aurelia McElroy, Idoma Chowning, Pearl Ryder, Vivian Brown, June Trainham, Kathy Carroll, Clara Owens, Judy Conner, Sheryll Simmons, Debbie Stamps, Kathy Mazurkiewicz, Gay Spinks, and Sharon Book, Assistant County Extension Agent.
