NEGOTIATORS SIT DOWN

Truce Negotiators Working On Final Details Of Armistice

PANMUNJON (AP)—Staff officers worked today on final details of a Korean armistice as hundreds of thousands of South Koreans demonstrated violently against the impending truce that will leave their nation divided.

Even as Koreans surged wildly through the streets of Seoul, Allied and Communist teams met in the tiny truce hut at Panmunjom for 12 minutes amid increasing signs that an armistice may be signed within the week.

Although an Allied spokesman gave no hint of what took place in the hut, the briefings of the meeting indicated that only finishing touches remained before a cease-fire agreement was reached.

Lower level officers assembled after the plenary session—possibly to iron out the wording of the document that would call a halt to the bloody three-year-old war.

The Reds asked the recess in the plenary session and another meeting was set for 11 a.m. Wednesday (9 p.m. Tuesday EST).

In Seoul, meanwhile, crowds estimated by some authorities as large as 500,000 stormed through the streets of the war-devastated South Korean capital.

While the demonstrations raged, defiant South Korean President Syngman Rhee assembled with his generals behind closed doors.

The meeting followed one with Gen. Maxwell Taylor, U. S. Eighth Army commander and the South Korean Cabinet.

A spokesman said the Cabinet and national assemblymen who attended the session reaffirmed their decision to ignore an armistice based on the May 25 U. N. proposal, continue the war, and fight Indian troops if they land in Korea.

The South Korean National Assembly was to hear a recommendaton that it declare war on Indian troops if they come into Korea to guard prisoners after an armistice.

India, under the prisoner exchange agreement signed Monday, will provide troops — probably about 5,000—to handle the POWs.

Yoon Chi Yung, vice chairman of the Assembly's crisis committee, said he will offer the recommendation late Tuesday afternoon.

Revision of the cease-fire line to follow the present battle line probably was one matter discussed by negotiators and staff officers. The original line was drawn up in November, 1951. Since then it has changed only slightly.

Observers anticipated no serious delay in reaching agreement on a new cease-fire line.

The big obstacle was swept aside Monday with the signing of the agreement providing for voluntary prisoner exchange.

Wildcat Near Fluvanna Set To Start Hole

T. T. Brahaney of Midland has filed application with the Railroad Commission requesting permission to drill his No. 1 R. H. Jordan as a 3,500-foot Permian lime wildcat in Northwest Scurry County.

It will be five miles northeast of Fluvanna and outside production in the Fluvanna field, 330 feet from south and west lines of the southeast quarter of section 667-97-H&TC.

Using rotary tools, it will begin operations at once.

A 9,000-foot wildcat has been set in Central-East Dawson County by Seaboard Oil Co. of Delaware as the No. 1 Herman Pettaway.

It will explore production possibilities in the Pennsylvanian lime. It will begin at once.

It is 15 miles east and slightly south of Lamesa, 1,980 feet from south and 1,500 feet from west lines of section 40-34-5n-T&P

DIAMOND M

R. E. Smith of Houston has completed his No. 11 Marvin Key in the Diamond M Canyon field of Southwest Scurry County for a daily pumping potential of 192.77 barrels of 44.1-gravity oil plus 50 per cent water.

It is two and one-half miles northwest of Knapp, 1,230 feet from south and 1,340 feet from west lines of section 145-25-H&TC.

Gas-oil ratio was 766-1. Five and one-half inch casing was cemented on bottom at 6,746 feet. Perforations at 6,727-743 feet were treated with 2,000 gallons of acid.

OTHER LOCATIONS

Tidewater Associated Oil Co. has located its No. 5 L. S. Sentell in the North Snyder Strawn C field 467 feet from north and east lines of the northeast quarter of section 221-J. P. Smith, five miles north of Snyder.

It will begin at once to drill to about 7,500 feet to test the Strawn.

Located in the PHD field of Northeast Garza County is Rocket Petroleum Co.'s No. 1 Hagler, 330 feet from south and east lines of the northwest quarter of section 1,421-TTRR, five and one-half miles south of Southland. It will begin at once to drill to 3,750 feet to test the San Andres lime.

In the Cogdell San Andres field of South Kent, Chapman & McFarlin has staked location for its No. 20-B D. M. Cogdell, 467 feet from south and 1,460 feet from east lines of section 1-97-J. W. Dunn, Abstract No. 1,587, 22 miles northeast of Snyder. It will begin at once with rotary tools to drill to 2,000 feet.

H. M. Prior of Abilene has located his No. 1 Shell Oil Co.-Fee in the Sharon Ridge 1700 field 330 feet from north and west lines of the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 102-97-H&TC, four miles south of Ira. It will use cable tools to dig to 1,900 feet, beginning at once.

DRILLING REPORT

Superior & Intex No. 3-518 Jordan in the Fluvanna field of Northeast Borden took a one-hour drillstem test of the Strawn at 7,770-810 feet. Gas surfaced in eight minutes. There was no gauge or estimate on the amount of gas. Recovery was 10 feet of free oil and 450 feet of heavily oil and gas cut mud. There was no sign of water. Open flowing bottomhole pressure was 320, and 15-minute shutin pressure was 380. It is now drilling at 7,860 feet in Pennsylvanian lime.

Aug. 2 Is Date On Air Service

Snyder will probably have air service at Winston Field by Aug. 2, according to a part of the Civil Aeronautics Board decision for service here which was not previously noticed.

The CAB order, which designates Pioneer as the carrier for Snyder to serve Winston Field on two round trips daily between Abilene and Lubbock, said that Pioneer shall provide the service beginning Aug. 2 unless the CAB orders otherwise or unless Pioneer files a petition asking for a change.

Pioneer indicated last week through Harding Lawrence, a vice-president, that it will probably file a peition. The petition of which Lawrence spoke would not be one taking exception to the CAB order but asking that Snyder be included on the Midland route instead of the route designated.

Winston Field is equipped with a 4,800-foot paved north-south runway, which is adequate for a DC-3 but not for a Martin 202 plane, which Pioneer is now using. Pioneer, however, has indicated that it may revert to use of the DC3. County Judge Edgar Taylor said last week that the county now has an application pending with the Civil Aeronautics Administration for addition to the runway if it is needed.

Noah Chamber Vice President

Stanley Noah, manager of the Central Tire Service, was elected first vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce last night in a meeting of the board of directors.

Noah replaces Clyde Willbern, attorney who recently moved to Houston. Other chamber officials include Herbert Feather, president; J. T. Hughes, second vice-president; and Russell Yorgesen, treasurer.

In its meeting last night, the board took care of routine business and briefly discussed the recent Civil Aeronautics Board order granting air service to Snyder.

Several members of the chamber group plan to attend a meeting soon in Dallas in which representatives of 56 cities will discuss better air service in the Southwest.

Small, Bitter Battles Fought On Front Lines

SEOUL (AP)—Allied and Communist troops fought small but bitter skirmishes across the Korean battlefront today as truce negotiators handed over to staff officers the final details of an armistice.

South Korean infantrymen counterattacked again in an effort to drive dug-in Reds from a strategic Eastern Front outpost near Luke the Gook's Castle, where fighting has raged more than a week.

The battle was still under way at last report.

On the Western and Central Fronts American troops clashed briefly with Chinese Reds.

An Eighth Army briefing officer reported five Red probing attacks and 12 patrol skirmishes aside from the Luke's Castle battle.

Rain soaked the front again in the night.

Heavy overcast cleared briefly for the first time in three days before dawn. B26 bombers reported 38 Red supply trucks destroyed in night flights over North Korea.

South Korean police still refused to talk about the nine-plane raid on Seoul Monday night. However, it was learned that precinct stations had reported at least two persons killed, 14 injured including five seriously, four homes destroyed and two buildings damaged.

Ten bombs were dropped on the South Korean capital by the slow propeller-driven planes. One fell near President Syngman Rhee's home.

New Trial Is Denied Spies

NEW YORK (AP)—Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman refused again yesterday to grant a new trial to condemned atom spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg.

The judge also refused to grant a stay of execution pending appeal of the denial of a new trial.

The latest in a long series of moves by defense counsel involved four hours of argument before the New York City couple to death more than two years ago.

U. S. Atty. J. Edward Lumbard opposed the defense moves.

The Rosenbergs are scheduled to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, N. Y., on the night of June 18 for conspiracy to transmit atomic secrets to Russia.

Defense Counsel Emanuel H. Bloch asked yesterday for a new trial on the ground of what he called "newly discovered evidence."

104 Degrees Monday

The temperature reached 104 yesterday making the second hottest day this year.

The hottest was May 23, when the thermometer reached 110. Yesterday was the tenth time this year that the mercury has risen to 100 or more. Low last night was 76, and reading at 7:30 o'clock this morning was 80, according to Mrs. David Strayhorn.

OVER 100 KILLED IN MICH. TORNADO

Ohio Is Hit; At Least 18 Dead Counted

BOWLING GREEN, O. (AP)—Ohio counted at least 18 dead today from vicious tornadoes which whirled throughout Northwest Ohio and Michigan last night.

The mighty winds wiped out five members of one family near tiny Cygnet, crushed buildings, and tossed livestock helter-skelter "as if a giant had hurled them by their tails."

In Cleveland a 27-minute tornado slashed a 10-mile, skipping path across the city causing at least seven deaths, injuries hospitalizing 55 other persons and damage the police chief estimated at $3 million.

Two couples and a child were found dead in a collapsed frame house several hours after daybreak and about 10 hours after the twister hit.

Police identified the five as Louis Campbell, 32; his wife, Marie, 30; Mr. and Mrs. John Riley, both 32, and their 2½-year-old son.

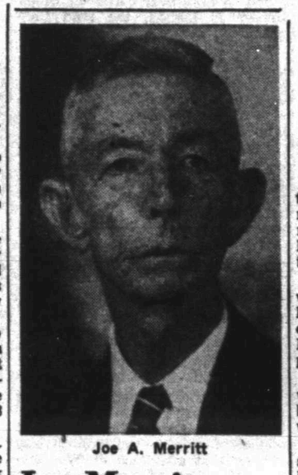

Three other persons were dead near Cygnet and one died at Elyria and Ceylon in Erie County.

The winds hit Cleveland at 7.45 p.m. (CST), after they had traveled eastward from Michigan. It was one of four or five tornadoes that brought death to more than 100 in that state.

The tornado that skipped along towns near Lake Erie apparently started in Southern Michigan near the Ohio border.

That was the first of four or five tornadoes in Michigan, where the death toll neared 100—most of them residents of the Flint area.

The other Ohio tornado was the most vicious, slapping the Cygnet area. Homes disappeared. Heavy trucks were blown off the highway. Old trees were uprooted. Branches and leaves were blown off others, so the area looked as grotesque as a battleground after a heavy artillery barrage.

Joe A. Merritt

Joe Merritt, 80, Dies This Morning Here

Joe A. Merritt, Sr., 80, died at 1:30 o'clock this morning at his home about five miles south of here on the Colorado City highway, where he had lived 48 years.

Mr. Merritt was born at Magnolia, Ark., March 22, 1873. He moved to Scurry County from Mansfield in Tarrant County in 1905.

Funeral services are to be held at the North Side Baptist Church at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon with the Rev. Charlie Leslie officiating and the Rev. Jack Dean assisting. Mr. Merritt was a Baptist 59 years and was a charter member of the North Side Baptist Church, assisting in its organization 12 years ago.

Burial is to be at the Snyder Cemetery under direction of Bell Funeral Home with Masonic rites.

Mr. Merritt is survived by his wife and seven children. His five sons are D. V. Merritt, J. A. Merritt, Jr., both of Snyder; Edwin Merritt, Lubbock; Woodrow W. Merritt, Pecos; and B. W. (Bill) Merritt, Merkel. Daughters are Mrs. J. A. Rosson, Snyder, and Mrs .W. G. Deel, Hamlin.

Although principally engaged as a farmer and stock farmer, "Uncle Joe" taught music and singing here 25 years, wrote more than 20 songs which were published, served as county tax assessor-collector here from 1913 through 1916, and served two terms in the Texas House of Representatives in the 1920s and 1930s. He was president of the Snyder National Farm Loan Assocation for 25 years until the time of his death.

JUNE 9 FREEZE HERE IN 1877

There appears to be little chance this year of cold weather hitting Snyder before next fall, but that was not always true.

Seventy-six years ago today, it was cold in Snyder. Aubrey Clark, nephew of the late Miss Anna Nunn, said that he found a penned notation among Miss Nunn's papers that there was ice in Scurry County which killed leaves on the trees on June 9, 1877.

The thermometer was up to 80 degrees as early as 7:30 o'clock this morning, endicating that it will go over 100 today.

Industrial Center In Biggest Storm

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—Six tornadoes, their black-clouded funnels dealing multi - million dollar destruction, ripped through Michigan and Ohio last night, killing 138 and injuring 750.

The most deadly of the shrieking windstorms flung full force against Flint, a heavily industrialized city of 163,000 about 70 miles north of Detroit. In Flint alone at least 113 persons were killed.

Forty houses in one Flint street were flattened. Many mangled bodies were found today in the wreckage of homes.

The tornadoes shot the nation's spring twister toll to 358 dead. Alabama, Texas and Oklahoma have been hit hard recently.

The new tornado struck Michigan while the state was still cleaning up the May 21 twister that whirled through Port Huron, Mich., and jumped the St. Clair River and tore through Sarnia, Ont.

The first tornado lashed Erie, Mich., just over the Michigan-Ohio line from Toledo, O., at 6:25 p.m. At 8:10 a twister hedge - hopped through Washtenaw County, 35 miles to the north and swept into Milford, Oakland County, 15 miles to the northeast. Tawas City, midway up the eastern coast of Michigan on Lake Huron, was hit at 8:25 p.m. and Flint at 8:45 p.m.

The tornado area extended from Tawas City down across the Ohio-Michigan border to Bowling Green—a path of 350 miles.

Eight persons died in the twister that struck the Cygnet, O., area; six died in the Cleveland area; and one each at Elyria and Ceylon.

Michigan fatalities, in addition to those at Flint, included four dead at Erie; four dead at Tawas City; one at Ann Arbor; and one in Brown City, near Lapeer.

Flint hospitals were filled with injured, many crowded into corridors still stunned by the swift destruction that hit their homes.

National Guard troops, state police and police from numerous Michigan cities converged on the Flint area to aid in the rescue work. Gov. Mennen Williams took personal command but did not declare a state of martial law.

The National Guard Armory here was converted into a makeshift central morgue. At last count 98 bodies had been brought in. Priests and other clergymen administered last rites there.

Pleas were radioed out of here for doctors and nurses. State police rushed blood to Flint from the state health laboratory at Lansing. Calls went out for antitetanus drugs.

Maj. Gen. Lester J. Maitland, state civil defense director, ordered doctors and medical supplies brought here from Pontiac, Saginaw, Ann Arbor and Detroit. State police and the National Guard ordered big crews of rescue workers into this area.

Hurley Hospital, which had more than a score of bodies at one time last night, transferred the bodies to the armory so that its space could be used for treating the many injured.

Center of destruction was Coldwater Road, just outside of town. The twister leveled 40 houses in double row in a residential area for auto factory workers. One family of four was wiped out there.

The Red Cross set up relief shelters at Flint and Port Huron, the latter for the Lakeport area injured.

A Navy plane was ordered into the air at Glenview (Ill.), Naval Air Station to fly 600 pounds of blood plasma and penicillin to the stricken area.

Up until last night there had been 227 persons killed in 128 tornadoes this year. Property damage had been estimated at 146 million dollars. Of the death toll, 141 were reported in 15 Texas tornadoes. A destructive series of twisters had swept through Nebraska only Sunday night.

One incident in the Erie tornado testified to its tremendous force. A 30-foot truck-trailer was picked off U. S. 24, blown across the highway and dumped on its side into a ditch. The driver had jumped out and escaped death.

At least 15 were injured in the Erie twister, three of them critically. That tornado blew on out over Lake Erie toward Canada.

In the Central Michigan Thumb area, police said the only victim was Loran Irish, 38-year-old farmer living near Brown City. His wife and their four children were injured as their home collapsed. Two others were hurt in the area.

Alvin Hausessler, 30, died as a twister swept across his father's farm at Pleasant Lake, 18 miles southwest of Ann Arbor in Washtenaw County. It picked up the trailer in which Alvin lived and dashed it to the ground.

Mrs. Baze Dies Here In Night

Mrs. Jim Baze, 69, of 1411 Avenue S, died at 8 o'clock last night at Battenfield Hospital, where she had been critically ill several days.

Funeral services were to be at the First Methodist Church at 4 o'clock this afternoon with the pastor, the Rev. W. W. Adcock, officiating, assisted by the Rev. M. W. Clark. Burial will be at the Snyder Cemetery under direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Mrs. Baze was born at Mansfield, Tex., July 15, 1883. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Darby.

Mrs. Baze was a member of the First Methodist Church here 55 years. She and her husband, Jim I. Baze, were married here in July, 1906.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a son, Victor Baze, Snyder, and two sisters, Mrs. C. B. Tims of Mansfield and Mrs. Zack Evans, Snyder.

Chosen as pallbearers were L. A. Berry, Ficas Bell, Tom Farrier, Don Williams, John Gilbert, and Lon B. Faver.

Honorary pallbearers are Lee Stinson, Hugh Boren, J. M. Hunnicutt, S. W. Trevey, S. E. Swanson. H. J. Brice, Buford Browning, J. D. Patterson, J. M. Patterson, V. L. Patterson, Garland Wolf, Dol Williams and J. R. Robertson.

Assembly Set To Fight Alone

PUSAN, Korea (AP) — The South Korean National Assembly called today for "all necessary measures" at the front lines "to prevent another Communist aggression and be prepared for a northward advance."

The Assembly also voted unanimously—129 to 0—to reject any armistice unless it provides for the withdrawal of Chinese Communist forces and dissolution of the North Korean Army.

The lawmakers shouted their approval of a four-point resolution reaffirming South Korea's opposition to an impending truce and threatening to fight on alone.

"In order to prevent another Communist aggression and be prepared for a northward advance, all necessary measures must be taken quickly at the front lines as well as in the rear area," the resolution said.

This was not further explained immediately, but observers said the Assembly apparently was recommending that the South Korean Army prepare to fight on.

Guardsman's Leg Amputated

Physicians amputated a leg of Sfc. Johnny J. Pitner, 24, of Snyder at Fort Hood yesterday afternoon, friends here said this morning.

Pitner's leg was amputated just below the knee, where doctors could not force the blood to resume circulation.

The Snyder National Guardsman's leg was injured more than a week ago when the 50-caliber machinegun he was firing exploded. He was in training with the Snyder unit at Fort Hood.

Paul Keaton, Pitner's employer at Snyder Truck & Tractor Co., said he had received word of Pitner's condition this morning. He was said in good condition following the operation. Pitner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pitner, East Thirty-seventh Street.

Ike's Trade Pact Extension Is Given Committee Approval

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee approved today a one year extension of the reciprocal trade act beyond June 12 as urged by President Eisenhower.

The vote was 23 to 2 for a compromise version of the trade act which represents a victory for the administration.

The bill extends for one year Eisenhower's authority to lower tariffs on foreign goods coming into the U. S. in return for trade concessions by other nations.

The President called for the extension two months ago, but the measure had been stalled for weeks in the committee by Republicans seeking to increase trade restrictions rather than lessen them.

The bill as approved would create a special 17-man commission to study tariff and trade problems for one year, and also would add a seventh member to the tariff commission, in effect giving Republicans a 4-3 majority.

The administration says it plans no new trade agreements. But Eisenhower urged an extension of the authority, as a symbol of his foreign policy goal of promoting free world trade. The administration said U. S. allies abroad would consider failure to renew the act as a return to isolationism.

The President's request ran squarely into a drive by some key House Republicans, led by Ways and Means Chairman Daniel Reed (R-NY) and Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa), to tighten rather than ease trade restrictions.

Simpson originally sponsored an extension of the present act which also included a series of broad new provisions to increase protection for American industry, through higher tariffs and import quotas, against competition from cheaper foreign imports.

Under the compromise, Simpson agreed to sponsor an extension of the present act and put the more restrictive provisions of his bill in a separate act. House leaders planned to push the extension, while probably sidetracking the other proposals.

Demonstration In Korea Against Truce

SEOUL (AP) — Hundreds of thousands of chanting South Koreans surged through Seoul and other cities today in angry demonstrations against an impending armistice.

Some rocks were hurled by one mob of more than 100,000 which stormed a barricade of bayonet-wielding U. S. military policemen and Korean police outside the Eighth Army headquarters compound here.

Fire hoses played on the street ahead of the advancing mob halted its forward momentum. As the crowd milled around, 50 Korean policemen waded boldly in, shouting and shoving. A few minutes later the crowd began breaking up.

No U. S. military personnel were reported injured, but many Koreans in the unruly mob were trampled.

One American MP was grabbed by the mob, but a Korean policeman rescued him uninjured.

Other thousands of South Koreans staged protest demonstrations in Pusan, Taegu and Suwan in response to government pleas for an all-out show of resentment against an armistice which would leave the country divided and Chinese Reds in the North.

President Syngman Rhee conferred with a group of South Korean Army officers late Tuesday after earlier meetings with Lt. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Eighth Army commander, and his Cabinet and a National Assembly crisis committee.

After the Cabinet meeting, Assembly Vice Chairman Yoon Chi Yung said the joint session reaffirmed decisions to continue the war, refuse to recognize an armistice based on the May 25 U. N. proposal and to fight Indian troops if they enter Korea.

In Pusan, the National Assembly was scheduled to hear the crisis committee's recommendation that it declare war on Indian troops if they land in Korea to guard Allied-held prisoners.

RHEE AGAINST TRUCE

Syngman Rhee, 78-year-old strong man of the Republic of Korea (L) says his people "will pay no attention" to the imminent armistice. He is shown here with Maj. Gen. Bruce C. Clarke (R), 1st Corps commander, at a ceremony honoring the 1st Corps' 1,000th day in Korea. Mrs. Rhee, the President's Austrian wife, is seen in background, center.

WEST TEXAS: Clear to partly cloudy through Wednesday. Widely scattered afternoon and evening thunderstorms in the South Plains and East of the Pecos Valley. Not much change in temperatures.

Wilson Defends Proposed Cut In Air Force Budget Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson told senators today the new Pentagon command intends to build up the Air Power but is against asking for new funds that can't be spent prudently and properly.

He said the expectation of 120 wings for the Air Force by the end of 1955 doesn't mean the new administration has "set aside the 143-wing basis."

The Truman administration's Air Force goal was 143 wings, ranging in size from 30 bombers to 75 fighters each.

Wilson was before a Senate appropriations subcommittee for the second day defending his five billion dollar slash in the Air Force budget drawn up by the Truman administration for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Insisting his figures were in line with prospective actual production accomplishments, Wilson said:

"You can't get planes in half the time by appropriating twice the money."

The white-haired former president of General Motors insisted that adequate air power and national defense had been put ahead of desire to slash funds and balance the budget.

"I'm sure you can vote for this budget with a clear conscience," Wilson told Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) during one long exchange.

McClellan has urged Wilson to "forget about balancing the budget" and tell Congress just how many billions were needed to build toward a 143-wing air force.

A considerable group in congress has been challenging the advisability of Wilson's five-billion-dollar slash.

Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich), chairman of the appropriations subcommittee, said a cease-fire in Korea would likely take some of the force out of their arguments.

But at the same time, Ferguson cautioned that the nation "must not be lulled into a sense of false security" by a cease-fire, which seems likely within a few days. Basic long-range defense planning, he said in an interview, must not be changed.

In advance of further testimony today on the Air Force budget by Secretary of Defense Wilson, Ferguson said he foresaw possible savings of between 1½ and 2 billion dollars for such Korean War items as ammunition, troop rotation and the cost of combat flights.

Ferguson is chairman of a Senate appropriations subcommittee now in the midst of public hearings over the controversial five billion dollar cutback and a reduced 120-wing Air Force goal by 1955.

He said senators, most of them Democrats, who are insisting on reinstatement of the 143-wing goal by 1955 proposed by the Truman administration are in a "very much weaker position" now that a Korean cease-fire seems imminent.

Texans In Washington Seeking Way To Ease Farmers' Plight

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Texas congressmen, growing more alarmed at falling cattle prices and the Southwestern drought, outlined today several possible lines of federal relief.

Much of the West Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico range is reported so badly hit that "two years of good rains" may be necessary before the lands can support even "an average run."

At least one big Texas rancher has told his representative he will be able to hold out for about a month more. If no aid is developed by then, he said, he'll have to sell out.

Prices for calves have dropped from $35 a hundred to as low as $10 in 18 months, Rep. Poage said.

BAD TO WORSE

Poage, a member of the House Agriculture Committee, said an already serious situation is likely to worsen unless the government comes to the rescue.

He said the Farmers Home Administration should be authorized to insure as much as 30 per cent of loans that hard-pressed livestock men take out at their local banks.

The borrower and the bank each would pay one per cent of the amount guaranteed. This would protect the government against total loss, the Waco congressman said.

Poage said relief also is possible through disposal by the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) of cotton seed cake and meal which it has acquired under the price support program. The CCC is selling cotton seed meal at $52 a ton dockside for shipment abroad, but fixes the price to domestic cattlemen at $57 per ton.

After July 1 an agreement between CCC and domestic mills will expire, Poage added, and the secretary of agriculture can then reduce the price to American cattlemen if he wishes.

BENSON URGED TO ACT

Poage would not predict what will happen but said he had urged Secretary Benson to take such action.

Poage said the average rancher is not able to buy feed to hold on to livestock which no longer can eke out an existence on parched rangelands.

"Most small banks over the cattle country can't afford to assume the full risk involved and let the hard-hit ranchers have enough money to tide them over," Poage added.

"Many banks already have extended their credit to the limit. They don't want to foreclose and take over livestock put up as security, because that would only further depress the market."

Rep. Ikard said the drought is acute over a wide section of the West Texas and adjacent areas of New Mexico and Oklahoma.

GOVERNMENT CORN

Ikard said a possible solution to the problem is to sell government-owned surplus stores of corn to the cattle growers at a discount.

Another proposal, opposed by the Midwestern corn growers, is to remove price supports on the grain so it will go on the market at a lower figure.

The situation is described by Charles Morrison, manager of the Farm and Ranch Department of the City National Bank of Wichita Falls in a letter to Ikard.

"The widespread drought of the last two years," he wrote, "has placed the rancher of the Southwest in a position that he must reduce his herds to a very minimum.

"Much of the ranch country is so badly managed that it will take two years of good rains to bring the ranges back to where they will support an average run of stock.

"The average cattleman does not want nor expect the federal government to expend large sums of money to dole him out of this situation. He only asks for a reasonable market where he can dispose of his feeder type cattle at a price which will at least absorb a reasonable portion of the loss which he has sustained."

Rep. Thornberry told the house many cattle raisers in his South Central Texas district were in desperate straits and were looking to Washington for action.

FALLING PRICES

Describing falling prices as "the most important domestic problem" facing the lawmakers, Thornberry placed in today's congressional record a letter he received from John Reat, president of the Lee County Farm Bureau, and Quintus Lehman, president of the Lee County's Cattlemen's Association.

Referring to the "drastic fall in cattle prices," and speaking for their organizations, the men said:

"Bankers have in many instances and will continue to obligated to take over cattle on which money is loaned, the land they graze on. x x x

"The recommendation of a cattlemen's group last fall that the government keep hands off, either way, was by no means the expression of the majority of the people who raise cattle.

"We believe it is imperative that we either support cattle along with price supported commodities or take the price from all agricultural products."

THE SANDMAN

Oh, ho, ho, ho, I am the Sandman.
When the sun shines, I hideaway,
But when the stars come out at night
I can run and play.

You've had so very much to do
And now the day is through.
Put on your pajamas and hop into bed,
There's a trip to dreamland for you.

Oh, ho, ho, ho, I am the Sandman.
I have a bag of magic tricks.
Let's go visit the three little pigs,
Safe in their house of bricks.

We'll even go to wonderland.
See Tinker Bell and Peter Pan.
Captain Spike will try to catch us,
No he never can never can.

Oh, ho, ho, ho, I am the Sandman.
Here's the fairy with your dime.
Leave a tooth underneath your pillow
She'll be there everytime.

Twinkle, Twinkle, spill your stardust
And walk upon a moonbean.
There's room for many a boy and girl,
Just close your eyes and dream.

Oh, ho, ho, ho, I am the Sandman.
Say your prayer and close your eyes.
I'll be waiting just for you,
High up in the skies.

Air Force Is Sending Team Into Snyder

Members of an Air Force cadet selection team will be in the chamber of commerce office from 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning to 4:30 o'clock that afternoon to interview men who wish to apply for cadet training.

M-Sgt. A. L. Shipman, head of the team, said the group will talk to men 19 through 26 years old who are single, have two or more years of college credit, and are in good physical condition.

Aviation cadets, who will go through a three-month pre-flight school at Lackland Air Force Base, will later be sent to school to become pilots or aircraft observers, which includes bombardment, navigation, radar, or aircraft performance engineeing.

At the end of the cadet school, graduates will recieve commissions as second lieutenants.

Sentence In Drunk Driving Case Is Given

John B. Tarleton, Jr., 21 was sentenced yesterday to six months imprisonment in the county jail when he pleaded guilty to a county court charge of driving while intoxicated.

Tarleton was the driver of a 1940 Ford coupe which overturned at the Y of U. S. Highways 84 and 180 near the east edge of town May 13, seriously injuring Wanda Stanley, 15.

The Stanley girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stanley, suffered three back fractures as she was thrown from the automobile. She was discharged from the hospital about two weeks ago but remains in a cast.

A charge of drunken driving was filed against Tarleton the day after the accident. With him and the Stanley girl at the time of the wreck was Dale Beckham, 17. Neither he nor Tarleton was seriously hurt.

Tarleton pleaded innocent to the charge when it was filed and has remained in the county jail since that time in lieu of making bond. Bond was set for him at $1,000.

Edgar Taylor, county judge, and Wayland Holt, county attorney, said Tarleton, who sent word by the sheriff's office that he wanted to change his plea to guilty, was sentenced retroactive to the date he was jailed. That leaves him about five months to serve.

Binion, Wife Plead Innocent To Charges

AUSTIN (AP)—Benny Binion, owner of a swank Las Vegas, Nev., gambling casino, pleaded innocent yesterday to indictments charging he and his wife owe the government $497,420 in back income taxes.

Bond was set at 25,000 which Rice Jr., he was not guilty on each of eight counts covering 1945 through 1948.

Bond was set at $25,00 which he posted promptly. Binion was then released to await trial, the date of which was not set. He said he would return to Nevada.

The government charges Binion and his wife, Teddy Jane, had incomes totalling $885,00 for the four years, but paid taxes on only $225,000 of it.

Innocent Plea In Liquor Case

Pete Davis, 30, Negro, was released on bond of $1,000 yesterday afternoon when he pleaded innocent to a charge of possessing liquor for purpose of illegal sale.

Davis, one of three members of a Snyder family who are well-known for numerous bootlegging convictions here, was arrested after a raid Saturday night on his residence. Raiding officers of the sheriff's department confiscated 28 pints of wine, 15 halfpints of whisky, and six cans of beer.

Davis made and signed a voluntary statement given to the county attorney, Wayland Holt, yesterday, that the liquor belonged only to the defendant and that no one else had any interest in it.

The charge filed yesterday against Davis alleges two previous convictions for purpose of the state's seeking enhanced punishment, calling for up to four times the maximum punishment allowed for a single offense. Records of court actions here show Davis has previously been convicted five times for bootlegging.

Sureties on the bond for Davis were two white men, T. C. Goss and Mayo (Doc) Davis.

Engineers To Test Lake Water Later

Tests contemplated by the city water department on samples taken from Lake Thomas has been called. Instead Freese & Nichols, water engineers, will make tests when the water reaches the city through the pipeline from the lake, Roy Dunlap, city engineer, said.

Dunlap said that all the red coloring caused by sand in the water settled out and the water completely cleared within 24 hours.

He said that all water coming to Snyder from the lake will have that much time to settle before being distributed.

Opera Honoring Queen Pretty Much Of Flop

LONDON (AP)—Elizabeth II was a smash hit at the opera last night but Benjamin Britten's version of her namesake didn't make out nearly as well with London's music critics today.

The occasion was the gala premiere of Britten's coronation opera "Gloriana," based on the story of Elizabeth I and the Earl of Essex and dedicated to the newly crowned sovereign. Today's Elizabeth and the bulk of the royal adults headed the most glittering audience that has packed Covent Garden for generations.

"All the ingredients of a proper royal celebration were at hand except a suitable opera or even a good opera," commented critic Cecil Smith of the Daily Express.

Most of the other critics agreed.

Man Held In Jail For Two Days Charged With Disturbing The Peace

Raymond Ridley, 24, who was arrested by city police early Sunday morning following an automobile accident in which the car he was driving was involved, was released from city jail today on $200 bond, Walter Suttle, police chief, said.

A misdemeanor charge was placed against Ridley. Suttle said that time for his trial in corporation court has been set for Saturday morning.

He was charged with disturbing the peace.

Borden County 4-H Girl In Dress Contest Winner

By SUE HOLMES

Mrs. EDITH HUGHES, home demonstration agent from nieghboring Borden County, brings us word that one of her talented charges, Miss BARBARA REEDER, 15-year-old 4-H Club girl, placed in the red ribbon section of the dress review at the district 2 meeting in Lubbock two weeks ago.

Miss Reeder competed with girls from 20 counties in the district.

She had earlier won first place in the Borden County dress review competing with 35 girls from 4-H Clubs in the county.

She is the daughter of Mr .and Mrs. ROY REEDER of Fluvanna.

To win the Borden County review and place in the Lubbock show, she wore a plaid tissue gingham dress with a black pima broadcloth bolero which she made as a club project during the spring. Her hat and bag were of the same material as the bolero and were made by her mother.

Mrs. Hughes said that the accessories were not included in the club projects.

A high school freshman at Fluvanna last school term, Miss Reeder has been in 4-H Club for three years.

Other recent activities of the Borden County 4-H Club included attending the district 2 camp at Lubbock last week. Six girls accompanied Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. GARLAND DOYLE, an adult leader to the camp which was held Tuesday through Thursday. About 175 girls from the 20 counties in the district attended.

Election and installation of officers for the district for the coming year was held the last day of the camp.

"But no Borden County girls were elected to offices," Mrs. Hughes said, "out club is too new to carry much political weight in the district."

The girls attending the camp from Borden County were: LUCY FULLER, EFFIE STUART ,DONNA SWANSON, SIDNEY REEDER, JUDY DOYLE, and NANCY TELCHIK.

Some flying insects are around our house. How can I be sure whether they are ants or termites? W. E.

Both insects live in colonies, but both have different characteristics. Note the waist. Ants have small waists while termites have thick, almost straight bodies. Both ants and termites have two sets of wings, but if one set is shorter than the other, it's an ant. If the two sets of wings are almost the same length, it's a termite.

Could you find a deviled egg salad recipe for me?

Chill six hard-cooked eggs. Shell, cut in halves lengthwise. Carefully remove yolks. Set whites aside. Mash yolks with fork until very fine and crumbly, or press through a sieve. Add two tablespoons melted margarine, three tablespoons mayonnaise and three-fourth teaspoon prepared mustard, one-fourth teaspoon salt, dash of pepper and one-fourth teaspoon onion salt. Mix until smooth and fluffy. Fill yolk mixture generously into hollows in egg whites, making rounded tops. Ripe olives may be used as a garnish, along with radish roses .

• • •

How can I tell if fruit juice is low enough in acid to make jelly? R. T.

Mix together one teaspoon lemon juice with eight teaspoons water and one-half teaspoon sugar. Compare the taste of this mixture with the fruit juice. If the juice is less sour, then it is not tart enough to make good jelly.

For a shower for a baby I am supposed to bring a number of toys. Have you any suggestions as to what kind they should be? I. L.

A baby needs brightly colored, lightweight toys of varied textures. They should be washable, too big for him to swallow, and free of sharp corners or rough edges. He likes bright balloons to look at and reach for. Balls and push and pull toys will be of interest as he begins to crawl.

Blocks and strings of beads which he can bite and shake will be welcomed. Both toys of rubber, plastic or wood will be popular. Rattles and chimes are always in demand. Picture books about animals and children will have appeal later on.

Club Women Learn Food Preservation

THE ADVENTURES OF PATSY

Turpin And Humez Are In Bout Tonight

LONDON (AP)—Randy Turpin, golden boy of British boxing, fights Charles Humez, ex-coal mining Lion of Picardy, tonight to decide who wins Britain's version of the world's middleweight title and who gets an autumn shot at the full-scale world's title.

Their fight, before a sellout of $4,000 at London's open-air White City Stadium, should be followed within a week or two by an offer of a trip to New York in September.

Harry Markson, managing director of New York's International Boxing Club, is in London for the fight and almost definitely will offer the winner a September date against the winner of the Paddy Young-Bobo Olson American area elimination fight. Young and Olson meet in New York June 19.

Even though odds and most British sentiment were against him, the compact French middleweight who looks more like a welterweight, was far from discouraged. Humez said he thought he would win because, he said, "I'm the hungry fighter. Randy Turpin is rich now. I'm the hungry man. I need the victory and the money."

Humez arrived in London from his Boulogne-sur-Mer training camp later yesterday about the time Turpin arrived in Warwick from his Gwrych Castle camp in Northern Wales. Turpin planned to spend the night in Warwick and drove to London this morning in time for weighing in ceremonies.

Strange stories have leaked out of Wales about Turpin's training program—how he has been eating 20 grapefruit daily; his "mean" state of mind in which he pounded hard on sparring partners just as he did in July, 1951, before he upset Sugar Ray Robinson and won the world's middleweight title; the personnel shuffle among his trainers; and his inability to find worthy sparring partners.

Almost equally grim stories have come from Boulogne and the Humez camp. Reportedly he still goes heavy on the French wine, of which he is a connoisseur; he has battled through an astonishing 300 sparring rounds; he also had trouble finding sparring opponents; he has done hundreds of miles of roadwork and spent the remainder of his time fishing the streams near the Chateau de Menage.

Whoever wins tonight, the 26-year-old Frenchman, or Turpin, who celebrates his 25th birthday Sunday, the victor will get only a sliver of the world's title. Hardly anybody besides Turpin, promoter Jack Solomons, the British Boxing Board of Control and the British people consider the fight as a world title affair. Not even the French say it's for the title and Humez himself dodged the touchy subject late yesterday.

Little Change In Standings

No team's standings changed much last night in the city softball league.

Sun Oil, which was tied for eighth place in the league, took that place alone by downing DeMolays 17-6.

Hermleigh stayed in the same place but got another win to its credit when Pan American Pipeline forfeited.

Both Bob Hicks, winning pitcher for Sun, and Frankie Minton, loser for DeMolays, allowed five hits. Hicks fanned five DeMolays, while Monton struck out one man and W. A. Mayfield, his relief, fanned two.

After Pan Am forfeited, Hermleigh met a team made up from the Sun and DeMolays squads in a practice game and shut the team out 8-0.

Charlie White was winning hurler in that game, giving up two hits and striking out seven men in five innings. Smith, the loser, allowed four hits and struck out three.

Two of the top teams in the league will be in play tonight. At 7:30 o'clock, Standard of Texas, second place squad, will meet Magnolia, which is holding sixth. At 9 o'clock, third place Texaco will to on the field against National Guard, tenth place team.

LEAGUE STANDINGS

Humble	8-1
Standard	6-1
Texaco	6-2
Sunray	6-3
Lion	4-3
Magnolia	4-4
Hermleigh	4-5
Sun	3-5
Pan Am	2-6
National Guard	1-6
DeMolays	1-9

Cubs Shutout Indians 13-0

The Lions Cubs shut out the Holder Indians 13-0 in the Little League last night and remained in third place in the league, in addition to putting themselves in position to mow to the top.

The Cubs are now only half a game behind the Kiwanis Braves, who hold second place, and will be on the field at 9 o'clock tonight to meet the Optimist Cardinals. At 7 o'clock, the Legion Yankees, first place team, will play the Indians, who are in last place.

Dwayne Jones, winning hurler, allowed six hits, while Neil Boyd, loser, gave up nine. The Cubs committed only one error, and the Indians had five.

The Quarterback Giants edged the Braves last night 12-11 in a game that was tied up 11-11 at the end of the fifth inning.

Mickey McGrew, Giant hurler, hit his fifth home run of the league in the first inning, scoring one other player. Barry Walker also slammed a homer for the Giants.

The Giants were leading 7-0 at the end of the second, but the Braves began scoring in the third, bringing in five runs to the Giants' one. In the fourth, the Braves tallied four runs and the Giants made two. The Braves turned in two runs to the Giants' one. The Giants tallied one run in the final inning to win the game.

McGrew was winning pitcher, giving up six hits. The Giants got 10 hits off Billy Foree and Chuck Warren, Braves' pitcher. The winners had seven errors to the losers' three.

LEAGUE STANDINGS

Yankees	4-1
Braves	4-2
Cubs	3-2
Giants	3-3
Cardinals	2-3
Indians	0-5

Longhorn Loop Only 7 Teams

MIDLAND, Tex., (AP)—The Longhorn League, after losing the Winters-Ballinger team last Friday, will operate as a seven team league for the rest of the season.

League directors voted yesterday to continue with seven clubs since none of the clubs offered to drop out. There were no big offers from another city to adopt the orphan club owned by Hal Webb.

The only alternative, continuing with the club as a road team, was not popular with any directors.

The league will now have three games each night and the seventh club, the team originally scheduled be idle. This means no schedule revision was necessary.

The last-place Winters-Ballinger Eagles came into existence May 31 after Lamesa folded.

Three home games were played by the Eagle—all losing efforts—and after an opening night crowd of 1800 only 1600 fans looked in on the second and third games. Webb then said he was giving up the club.

Webb has five ball players still under contract and must dispose of them within 15 days.

League directors fixed a price of $1 plus tax as the admission for the July 30 all-star game here. They decided to feature the New Mexico members against the four Texas clubs in the league.

DeMolays Take Two Games At Midland

The DeMolay softball squad will go to Lubbock this month to participate in the state DeMolay baseball meet.

The meet will be held four days, June 18-21.

The squad went to Midland during the week end for a district tryout meet and downed two teams. Frankie Minton, hurler for the squad, pitched a shutout game against Odessa, 13-0, and the Snyder team downed Midland 14-5.

Cincinnate Showing Life As Brooklyn Downed, Braves Lead

(By The Associated Press)

Rogers Hornsby, reportedly on the skids as manager of Cincinnati as recently as a week ago, was riding high today with a five-game winning streak and the sluggingest club in the majors.

With the advent of June the hit-happy Redlegs have busted out all over. They've pulverized opposition pitching for 65 hits in their last five games, producing 46 runs in their longest victory string of the season.

The word was spread late last month that the Cincinnati players were fed up with Hornsby and his iron hand rule. The club was down, both mentally and in the standings.

But on their current road trip the Redlegs are playing at a .750 clip, winning six of eight, including an 8-5 verdict last night over the Brooklyn Dodgers, who were trying for five in a row of their own.

Starring in the revival are sluggers Gus Bell and Ted Kluszewski and relief ace Frank Smith. Bell has driven in 10 runs in the last five games. His 11 hits over that span include six for extra bases. Big Klue hammered his 16th home run last night, moving within one of the league lead.

Smith has the National League's best pitching average. He won his fifth straight game as he took over from wobbly Howie Judson at Brooklyn in the fourth and protected the Redlegs' lead.

Cincinnati's most recent success was a bitter pill for the Dodgers, who slipped a full game behind the Milwaukee Braves. The Braves plastered the New York Giants, 12-8, in an afternoon contest.

The St. Louis Cardinals, who had lost five straight, battled 12 innings against the Pittsburgh Pirates, winless in their last four starts, before picking up a 5-3 triumph. Philadelphia defeated Chicago, 7-3, in the other National League game.

In the only American League contest the Detroit Tigers finally won a game after 13 setbacks interspersed with two extra-inning ties. The Tigers scored four runs in the seventh inning to whip Boston, 6-3, for their first success since May 22.

A single by Walt Dropo brought home one run and two more scored on a triple by Matt Batts in the seventh-inning rally.

Cincinnati got ahead in a hurry at Brooklyn, scoring twice in the first inning on Bell's two-run homer and then adding five more in the fourth on five singles, including a two-run blow by Bell, and a pair of walks.

The Giants and Cubs both suffered fielding collapses that would have looked pretty bad in a class D league.

At the Polo Grounds the New Yorkers, ahead 2-1, presented Milwaukee with four unearned runs in the sixth inning on three errors and one lonely hit. With the gates opened, the Braves poured in seven more runs in the next two frames to move ahead 12-2 before the Giants quite recovered.

Max Surkont registered victory No 7 for Milwaukee against one loss with Sal Maglie taking the defeat, his first at the hands of the Braves in two seasons.

At Connie Mack Stadium the Cubs committed four errors in the second inning which permitted the Phillies to score four runs—their eventual margin of victory.

Steve Ridzik, who took over from Bob Miller in the fifth inning, was the Philadelphia winner over Paul Minner.

Steve Bilko doubled home Red Schoendienst with the tie-breaking St. Louis run in the top of the 12th at Pittsburgh and rode in on a single by Rip Repulski. The rally climaxed a pitcher's battle in which Paul Lepaim, knuckleballing southpaw of the Pirates, struck out 11 and walked only three in 11 innings. He was lifted for a pinch-hitter and the winning runs came off Johnny Hetki.

Four hurlers toiled for the Cardinals with Al Brazle, the third man, getting the decision.

Lesbia Lobo Defends Her Golf Championship

HOUSTON (AP)—Lesbia Lobo, San Antonio's 19-year-old defending champion of the Texas Women's Public Links Golf tourney took medalist honors with a par 75 yesterday in the qualifying round of the annual tournament.

Miss Lobo finished four strokes in front of Dianne Garrett, Houston, 15-year-old runner-up in last year's tournament at Austin.

Mrs. L. B. Hoseck, the 1951 champion from Dallas, finished third with an 81, and Mrs. C. J. Gernand, Corpus Christi, was fourth with 83. First round play was set today.

A 13-over par 98 was needed to qualify for the championship fight of 32 players.

Long Tourney Starts Today At Oakmont

OAKMONT, Pa. (AP)—The longest open golf championship of all—the National Open Tournament—began today with at least some of the contestants arguing that it should be longer.

Play started this morning in the 36-hole qualifying round on two courses—the 6,916-yard Oakmont Country Club and the 6,775-yard Pittsburgh Field Club. After two days in which every player in the field of 299 will shoot both courses, the low-scoring 149 and ties for 149th will start all over.

They will be joined by Defending Champion Julius Boros in the 72-hole main event over Oakmont's fear-inspiring acres. That means those who go clear through will play 108 holes this week on top of the 36 most of them had to play in the sectional qualifying rounds to get this far.

The on-the-site qualifying is an innovation this year and it provoked a lot of discussion in the locker room grousing sessions yesterday.

It was Cary Middlecoff, the 1949 Open champion, who made the suggestion that the whole 144 holes should be lumped into one tournament to make it a fairer test of golfing ability. He said:

"I'd like to see them make it something like the Women's Cross-Country Tournament with three or four tournaments at different locations and the championship decided on the aggregate scores for all of them. "If the USGA won't do that, they should throw out this qualifying and make the tournament longer for everybody."

Several of the listening pros agreed with him, possibly because such an endurance test might eliminate the Ben Hogan menace.

Hogan, who has won more money in four tournaments this year than most pros have all season, is No. 1 on the list of players to beat. But he doesn't think his strength is up to marathon events and probably wouldn't enter a 144-hole Open.

The lithe little Texan has entered only four major events this year and won three—the Masters, the Pan-American Open and the Ft. Worth Colonial Invitation. The long, expansive but heavily trapped Oakmont course is suited to his game and unless the extra 36 holes tires him, there doesn't seem to be anything to stop him.

Some of the other favorites include Boros, who hasn't finished first in a tournament since he won the Open and Tam O'Shanter world championship last summer; Lloyd Mangrum, the leading money winner of the year; Lew Worsham, the home-club pro and 1947 Open champion; South Africa's Bobby Locke, who holds the British Open title; Sam Snead, a perennial ace-ran, rotund Ed Oliver, the 1952 runner-up, and lanky Johnny Bulla, who finished fourth at Dallas last year and who is quite familiar with the Oakmont layout.

Non-Professionals In August 14 Tournament

WICHITA, Kans. (AP)—A record number of Texas non-professional baseball clubs for players of unlimited age will be represented in 1953 sanctioned tournament play to qualify for a berth in the nation championship finals in Wichita starting Aug. 14.

Teams will be entered and processed at once into divisional state tournaments being established throughout Texas to be staged in July. The divisional state tournament winners will then meet for the Texas title and the right to represent this state in the national tournament.

Team entries are now being accepted by Jerry Feille of Dallas, NBC state commissioner.

Cadillac

He's Done Something for Himself!

Only a few short minutes ago, the man you see in the picture above was handed the golden keys to his 1953 Cadillac—and now he's off on that first delightful journey behind the wheel.

And as he leans back against the deep, soft cushion, and looks out over that proud hood into the roadway beyond . . . well, he knows that he's done something for himself!

He knows it just from the way he feels there in the driver's seat—rested, relaxed, and at peace with the world . . . completely confident that he has made the wisest possible choice of a motor car.

He senses it in the marvelous way the car handles and drives and rides . . . so effortless and smooth—so quiet that it's a joy and an inspiration just to hold the wheel in his hands.

And he knows it, too, from the feeling of pride and satisfaction he enjoys as he looks forward to the delight of his family and the approval of his acquaintances and friends.

And how the miles and the years will bear him out in his conviction!

Let him arrive at a distinguished hotel . . . or an exclusive club . . . and he will find that his Cadillac constitutes the perfect "letter of introduction."

In fact, let him travel wherever he will in this broad land of ours . . . and he will find his Cadillac a trustworthy and unfailing companion, an inspiration to own and drive, a valued contributor to a magnificent way of life.

Yes, you're looking at a man who's done something wonderful for himself [illegible] beyond even his fondest dreams.

And if you think it's time you did something for yourself, then we suggest you come in and see us.

Let's make it "Cadillac time" for you!

DE GASPERI CASTS BALLOT

Premier Alcide De Gasperi, head of Italy's incumbent Christian Democrat party, casts his ballot Sunday as the country's important general election started. De Gasperi's coalition government, which has cooperated with the western powers, hangs in the balance in the election.

Italy's Government Is Held In Danger

ROME (AP)—A close, see-saw vote count put Italy's pro-American government in peril today of losing the legislative majority it needs to insure ratification of the European army plan and continue its record of postwar stability.

Premier Alcide de Gasperi's NATO-allied center coalition appeared certain to emerge as Italy's strongest faction, but steady Communist strength and the sky-rocketing extreme right wing of Monarchists and Fascists threatened to leave the parliamentary balance of power with a half-dozen minor and splinter parties lined up with neither the government nor the opposition.

With senatorial votes being counted ahead of those for the more important Chamber of Deputies, the final outcome appeared likely to remain in doubt until sometime tomorrow. The senatorial tally was watched closely as an indication of how the government would fare finally.

The total of 28,386,610 votes cast was enormous, almost 94 per cent of the electorate. It was probably the heaviest percentage turnout in the history of modern democratic elections.

These were the results this morning on 16,667,238 of the 26,280,000 votes cast in the senatorial contests (more than two million others voted for the lower chamber because the age requirement, 21, was four years lower than for senatorial ballots):

Government center bloc: total 8,099,516, with the Premier's Christian Democrats getting 6,656,284, the Moderate Socialists 821,174, Liberals 470,924 and Republicans 151,134.

Communist and left-wing opposition: total 5,791,455, with Communists 3,903,563, pro-Red Socialists 1,887,892.

Right-wing opposition: total 2,191,226, with Monarchists 1,160,640, Fascist MSI (Italian Social Movement) 1,030,586.

Minor parties: 585,041.

A percentage breakdown of the early vote count showed:

Center bloc, 48.6 per cent as compared with 61.9 in 1948.

Extreme left wing, 34.7 compared with 31.

Extreme right wing, 13 per cent compared with 4.8.

Others, 3.7.

Under Italy's new election law, any party or block winning one vote over 50 per cent of the total gets bonus seats giving it 64.5 per cent of the Chamber of Deputies. De Gasperi said such a majority was necessary to assure a stable government.

If he fails to get it, his whole program of alliance with the West might be upset. The left-wingers seek outright ties with Moscow. The Monarchist - Fascist right, highly nationalistic, wants a middle way separate from either East or West.

Terrorists In Israel Found

JERUSALEM (AP)—Police arrested 16 men last night on charges of membership in an underground terrorist organization. Atty. Gen. Haim Cohen asserted the group had been linked with a series of recent outrages against institutions and buildings throughout Israel.

Cohen said the organization was uncovered after several men were arrested in an attempt to blow up the Ministry of Education as a demonstration against a proposed unified education scheme.

The attorney general declined to reply, however, when asked whether the group was responsible for the February bombing of the Soviet legation in Tel Aviv. Shortly after the blast, Moscow broke diplomatic relations with Israel.

Cohen said police had discovered documents proving the existence of the underground organization and several small caches of illegal arms. He declared the documents indicated the plotters were "anti-everything," including communism, the sale of pork, military service for women and Russian books.

Witness Tells About Surviving Tornado

By FENTON LUDTKE

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—"It was horrible. It was the most terrible thing I ever saw."

That's the way John J. Turbin of Coldwater Road described the tornado that spread death and devastation over his neighborhood.

Turbin and his wife and two relatives escaped unhurt, while neighbors were left in pain and death, their homes leveled by the twisting wind that hit the area about 8:45 p.m. last night.

"I don't know why it didn't get us," Turbin, a retired Chevrolet worker, said in bewilderment.

His son Carl whispered, "Thank God, thank God."

Carl and his wife came in search of the Turbins when they heard of the tornado. When they saw the sagging Turbin home, Mrs. Carl Turbin said: "I just knew they were dead."

Instead of finding death, they found Carl's father, despite his terrifying experience, out helping rescue workers.

Carl and his 6-year-old son Dennis had just left the elder Turbins' home minutes before the twister struck. They were storing some of Carl's belongings in the barn, which was blown away after they left it.

With John Turbin and his wife were Chris Carlson, Turbin's brother-in-law, and Mrs. Elsie Booth, Turbin's sister, who lives in Mulligan, Mich.

"I looked out the dining room window," Turbin recalled, "and saw an 18-inch-wide maple tree twirled and twisted right out of the ground. There was a terrific noise and I felt something strike the house with awful force.

"A giant hand seemed to push me suddenly and I flew through the doorway into the kitchen against the stove. My wife and sister were sitting at the kitchen table. Chris was in the dining room.

"Lets get out of here," Turbin warned them. Then he grabbed a two-by-four that had fallen from the ceiling and smashed a front dining room window and all four were safe from the savage wind.

Outside, Turbin found his barn was gone. His garage and breezeway attached to his home were gone. His home was slapped off its foundation, and part of a room was in a nearby field.

Turbin found the body of a neighbor on his lawn. The corpse had been wind-tossed at least 400 feet from a home across the road.

Texas City Is Asking Court To Reconsider

HOUSTON (AP)—The U. S. Supreme Court will be asked to reconsider its ruling favoring the government in the Texas City explosion damage cases.

The court ruled yesterday the government was not responsible for the disaster touched off by the explosion of a French merchant ship in the Texas City harbor in April, 1947. The explosions caused more than 500 deaths. The government was sued for about 200 million dollars in a mass action.

John Brown said the plaintiffs will make "a vigorous and immediate application" for a rehearing.

The plaintiffs held the government was to blame for lack of safety precautions in handling ammonium nitrate fertilizer on the ship.

Representative plaintiffs in the suit were Elizabeth and Henry Dalehite Jr. of Galveston who sought damages in the death of their husband and father, Capt. Henry Dalehite. He was killed in the first waterfront explosion. He was a Galveston resident in Texas City on business.

The suits included those of 510 persons who sued on death claims, 58 on personal injury claims and 5,987 for property damage. Suits ranged from a few hundred dollars to about 50 million dollars asked by Monsanto Chemical Company.

The Italian government has tried to popularize metal coins, but the people prefer paper money and the coins are returned to the banks.
