HOUSTON MAN IS SPEAKER IN CITY

Ethics and general structure of the Texas Association of Real Estate boards were analyzed this morning when R. C. Burrows, of Houston, secretary of the State organization, met with 12 Lubbock real estate dealers in the office of Joe Hess, president of the local board.

"The real estate board is the only agency through which the code of ethics of the profession can be exemplified in united program," said Mr. Burrows. "It is an organization in which every real estate operator should be affiliated."

A campaign is now being made to increase membership of the local board.

In an interview this morning, Mr. Burrows related that the National Association of Real Estate boards will soon conduct a "Own Your Own Home" campaign of national magnitude and that about $250,000 to $500,000 would be expended for advertising. In this campaign the national board will be an agency of trade and building organizations.

FALLS SEVEN STORIES

LONDON, Feb. 21 (AP)—His mind harried by thoughts of the Pharaohs' curse and the recent death of his son, 78-year-old Lord Westbury today fell or threw himself to death from his bathroom window on the seventh floor of St. James's court.

His body crashed through a glass veranda ceiling 100 feet below, and knocked over a woman there.

'SHADOW BOXING', McBRIDE SAYS

CHICAGO, Feb. 21 (AP)—F. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the anti-saloon league, today described the prohibition hearing before the house judiciary committee as a "shadow boxing affair up to give some of the wets in congress a chance to make the front page."

The dry leader said not a single wet measure had a chance when it came to a congressional roll call, "and the wets know it." Since Jan. 1, McBride said, he has visited in 14 states and found nothing "that promises the wets that the next congress will be any more favorable to their liquor measures than the present one."

LITTLEFIELD IS BUILDING

C. J. DUGGAN REPORTS OVER $100,000 OF WORK ON NOW

Valuations of buildings now under construction at Littlefield total about $100,000, according to C. J. Duggan, of that city, and former resident of Lubbock, who visited here today.

Another unit of modern conveniences was added to the city's equipment today when gas for commercial and domestic use was piped into the city by the West Texas Gas company.

Following approval of plans by commissioners, construction work will soon start on a $50,000 city hall.

Discussion is now centered on proposals for a new three-story hotel, to be named in honor of A. P. Duggan, who, with his brother, C. J. Duggan, founded the city.

The building, to house the J. P. Bumpass laundry, which will cost about $15,000, is almost complete.

Building Under Way

A two-story business structure, for which about $12,500 is being expended by Homer Snowden, is under construction.

Mid Seale is financing a two-story apartment house, which will cost $20,000.

Members Of Taft's Family Called Home

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (AP)—Failure of William Howard Taft to gain ground during the last week today prompted those who are at his bedside to summon members of the family who are out of the city to come to Washington.

While there was nothing to indicate his condition had taken a sudden turn for the worse, it was said those caring for the former president and chief justice felt some apprehension over a lack of improvement.

FIRST WOMAN HANGED IN ARIZONA SMILES ON THE TRAP

(By Associated Press)

FLORENCE, Ariz., Feb. 21.—Mrs. Eva Dugan, first woman to be legally executed in Arizona, paid with her life on the gallows today for the slaying in 1927 of A. J. Mathis, Tucson rancher. The trap was sprung at 8:11 a. m.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (AP)—Execution of Mrs. Eva Dugan at Arizona state prison today brings to 27 the number of women who have been executed in the various states, since they were chartered as such.

Eight women have been executed in New York, nine in Pennsylvania and ten in other states. Mrs. Dugan was the first woman legally put to death in the western part of the United States.

As the trap clanged and she dropped more than six feet, the noose tightened, severing her head, and the body catapulted to the floor. Dr. L. A. Love, prison physician, pronounced her dead immediately.

Room Cleared Quickly

Warden Lorenzo Wright quickly cleared the room and turned the body over to the prison physician and an undertaker. Six women witnessed the execution.

Mrs. Dugan climbed the 17 steps to the gallows and smiled as the black hood was adjusted over her head. She said she had no statement to make.

Warden Wright clasped her hand and said, "God bless you, Eva."

MRS. LONG IS GIVEN 25 YEARS

JURY BRINGS DECISION IN POISON CASE

NEW TRIAL IS ASKED BY COUNSEL; MRS. LONG WEEPS

(By Associated Press)

COURTHOUSE, Kingsville, Feb. 21.—Mrs. Maude Long was convicted of poisoning her husband, Jim Long, by a jury here today, and her punishment was fixed at 25 years in the penitentiary.

The case was given to the jury last night and the jurors reported their verdict at opening of court today.

New Trial Asked

A motion for a new trial was filed, and a hearing on it was set for March 14.

Mrs. Long was outwardly calm when the verdict was read, but a few minutes afterwards she broke down and wept.

Long, a painter, died from poison placed in a harmless, effervescent drug last Sept. 7.

An intrigue with a 14-year-old boy, Pat Smith, which led her to wish to be rid of her husband caused Mrs. Long to place the poison in the drug, the state contended. The boy, a freckled faced red-headed youth who frequently drank home brew with Jim Long, confirmed the state's theory in so far as it related to his affair with the woman, who was 31 years old.

Poison Sale Shown

The state showed a poison was sold in Corpus Christi to a woman resembling Mrs. Long on Sept. 4, three days before Long's death, and the drug clerk who made the sale identified Mrs. Long as his customer, quoting her as saying she wished it to kill "an old dog."

The defense attacked the whole case as presented by the state derived the possibility of a love affair between Mrs. Long and the boy, pictured her as a loving wife who was prostrated at her husband's death, and unmistakably indicated.

The robber had a pistol, and he poked it into the Rudersdorf ribs. Dr. Rudersdorf handed over an $800 diamond ring.

"And now your money," said the ruffian, giving the pistol a significant push.

"I have quite a sum with me," said the doctor, slowly. "But I wish you would have a heart. There's just been an operation in my family, and I need every cent I've got to pay the bills."

"Gee, that's tough," said the bandit, with feeling. "I guess I know how doctor bills hit a guy. How much money have you got?"

"About one hundred dollars," said Rudersdorf.

"Well," suggested the robber, "just slip me some change."

When Rudersdorf handed him $10, the robber took it with a display of reluctance.

"I wouldn't take it, pard," he said, "only I ain't got much cash myself. Hope you don't get into a jam on those doctor's bills."

(By Associated Press)

WACO, Feb. 21—Alleged connivance to force a negro to work off a debt today had resulted in filing of federal peonage charges against four Normangee, Leon county, citizens, three of them officials and the fourth a tenant farmer on whose farm the negro worked.

DEATH CLAIMS AGED OFFICER

CORONER ELI MIX IS DEAD; UNRAVELLED MANY MYSTERIES

(By Associated Press)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Feb. 21—A life spent in unraveling the mysteries of crime ended Tuesday with the death of Coroner Eli Mix, who held that office probably longer than any similar official in the country. He was 80 years old.

Appointed in 1885, Mix, who said, "my life has been just one detective yarn after another," followed the trail of criminals by such slim clues as a red potato, scraps of burned paper, a torn piece of cloth and even a wisp of hair until two years ago, when he was confined in a hospital.

In the red potato case, Mix found a potato in the pockets of a supposed suicide, discovered a field in which they were grown, and arrested the owner, who later confessed.

The murder of a four-year-old girl, smothered to death in a rooming house, was one of the most baffling. She had been brought there by a woman who registered under a fictitious name. Search uncovered a cake pan in which were scraps of burned paper. Placing them under a glass, he pieced them together and made out the name of a South Norwalk installment house and an account number. Through this the mother, who had run away with an iceman, was found.

A black cloth used as a face mask was the single clue left by the murderer of two aged sisters in their lonely farm home. They had been robbed and beaten to death. Mix learned that on the same night an attempt had been made to assault a young woman in the neighborhood. She gave a good description of the man, which resulted in finding a man in Derby who answered that description. In the house were found a blackjack, a brace of guns and a black vest from which had been torn the piece of cloth left in the farmhouse. He went to prison for life.

RUPTURE
Expert Here

C. F. Redlich, Minneapolis, Minn., nationally famous Rupture Appliance Expert, will demonstrate without charge his unequalled method at Lubbock, Sunday and Monday, Feb. 23 and 24, at the Lubbock Hotel, from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Mr. C. F. Redlich says:

The "Perfect Retention Shields" hold the rupture perfectly, no matter what position the body assumes or how heavy a weight you lift. They give instant relief and contract the opening in a remarkably short time.

The secret of their success is in their simplicity. An expertly adjusted device seals the opening without discomfort or detention from work. It is practically everlasting, sanitary, comfortable and actually holds ruptures which heretofore were considered uncontrollable.

"IF YOU WANT TO HAVE IT DONE RIGHT—SEE REDLICH."

Doctor J. W. Seaver, for many years in charge of the Physical Education of the students of Yale College, has recorded 75 per cent cures with this system.

Mr. Redlich is internationally known and speaks English, German and Spanish.

HOOVER'S LITTLE MOUNTAIN SCHOOL TO OPEN DOORS NEXT MONDAY; WILL BE GREAT INNOVATION TO COMMUNITY

BY SUE McNAMARA,
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

MADISON, Va., Feb. 21—Deep in the Blue Ridge mountains where snow now siets through the wild oak branches, President Hoover's bright, trim little school for mountain children will open its doors to an education-starved people next Monday. The school was to have been opened today but bad weather made postponement necessary.

From the tangled wildness of the interior of the mountains, piled up in purple grandeur here, will come afoot and on horseback the 30 children who will be the first pupils of the school.

New Experience

Getting learning from books will be a new experience for these shy folk of Virginia wilds, and Miss Christine Vest, teacher of the school, will have to start with elementals.

There will be no grand celebration Monday. That will come in about a month, when Mrs. Hoover has announced she will visit the school. Mountain roads are virtually impassable now owing to winter snows and rains.

Haven't Seen Much

The first lady will find ample outlet for her well known humanitarian sympathies in the ragged little mountain children. Some of them are shy as wild rabbits. They have never ridden on trains. Some of them have never even seen one. The biggest excitement in their lives has been "hog-killin' time" at their mountain homes.

The last federal census showed 969 illiterates in Madison county where the school is located. There is a much lower percentage than in some of the other mountain counties. Amherst had 2351 and Franklin 2636. The coming census may find these figures somewhat reduced.

The straightforward personality of 12-year-old Ray Buracher, the mountain boy who visited President Hoover in his Rapidan camp last summer, is said to have been reflected in many of the children who will attend the school. Those who have taught in other mountain schools say that loyalty and honesty are marked characteristics of the Blue Ridge children. Boys who cheat in mountain schools are promptly banished by the other boys.

President Hoover personally is financing the new school, which is only a few miles from his summer camp. He made plans for it last summer after the visit of the Buracher boy, who told the president of the need of education among the mountain children.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Chairman O'Connor of the Shipping Board today requested President Hoover to replace him as head of that government agency, but said he would retain his membership on the board. O'Connor said his health made it necessary for him to be relieved of the chairmanship.

Dog And Master Both Teethless, Court Learns

CHICAGO, Feb. 21. (AP)—Every dog has his day, but a blush of humiliation took the edge from Carlo's moment of glory today.

The embarrassing revelation was made after Carlo's owner, John Guara, brought the dog into Judge Harry C. Stuttle's court in answer to a suit for $10,000 damages filed by Mrs. Nellie Tobin, 65. Mrs. Tobin charged Carlo had bitten her.

"It couldn't be, Judge," Guara declared, inducing Carlo to say ah-h-h. "You see, he has no teeth."

"He must have had them pulled then," protested the plaintiff.

The court asked: "How does it happen that Carlo has no teeth?"

"Lots of funny things happen, your honor," Guara replied reaching into his own mouth and and producing a false set of upper and lower teeth. "Here I am in the same fix. Now isn't it lucky we both like soup?"

The case was then taken under advisement.

"Anti-Smith Demos" Worry In Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK, Feb. 21 (AP)—Whether to ignore an open letter of Anti-Smith organization officials inquiring as to what, if anything, would be done to ask them back into the fold, was a question debated by members of the Democratic State Central committee as they met today at the call of their chairman, Brigadier General E. L. Compere.

The letter signed by Dr. A. C. Millar, chairman of the Anti-Smith group, carried an implied threat to organize a third party or support the republican party if the democrats ignored a demand to change their party rules to abolish the requirement that those voting in the primary must support the nominees.

Investigation Of Election Is Set

HOUSTON, Feb. 21 (AP) — The United States Marshal's office today was in readiness to serve subpoenas for witnesses in the inquiry expected to begin here Monday into the Hidalgo county election of 1928.

AMERICAN GUNS SILENCE BANDITS

SHANGHAI, Feb. 21 (AP)—American naval guards unlimbered their machine guns and silenced a group of bandits yesterday when the latter fired upon two steamers belonging to the Standard Oil company of New York. The encounter took place on the Yangtze river about 150 miles above Ichang.

News of the encounter, which reached here today, said the number of casualties was not known. The bandits opened fire on the steamers, and the naval guards, who had been placed aboard the ships, went into action.

The recent wave of banditry in Hunan, Kiangsi, Hupeh, Skechwan, Anhwei and Kiangsu provinces has been described as serious. Attempted pillaging of foreign ships on the upper Yangtze caused American authorities to place armed guards aboard the Standard Oil ships operating on the river.

Seizure by a pirate gang of twelve vessels chartered by the Standard Oil company was reported at Canton last Friday. The vessels, Chinese junks, were carrying $50,000 worth of oil, and the pirates were said to be holding them for ransom.

DEBATES UP IN HEARING

RAILROADS OPPOSING MOVE TO REDUCE FREIGHT RATES

(By Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 21—Debates arose between attorneys and witnesses in rebuttal in the hearing before the Interstate Commerce commission and the Texas Railway commission here today on an application to abolish the differential rates now charged in West and South Texas.

The Texas Industrial League, representing the shippers, maintained that the differential rate in addition to the mileage rate on shipments to and from South and West Texas was allowed the railroads because of the undeveloped nature of that territory many years ago, and that this differential charge is no longer warranted because the territory has developed to such a great extent in recent years.

Spinach Rate High

In support of this contention, A. P. Childers testified at the morning session that he had under cultivation 5,000 acres of spinach in Crystal City and that the high freight rate on that article in some cases forced him to leave the crop uncut.

On cross-examination, he admitted that the number of acres of spinach under cultivation in the Winter Garden district increased from 2,000 acres in 1914 to 28,000 acres in 1929. During the quizzing by defense attorneys he admitted that there is "too much spinach produced." Childers testified that he was not in favor of and would not enter into the present agreement of the other spinach growers to ship only three times a week instead of every day. He cultivates more than 20 per cent of the acreage in that territory, he stated.

Foresome tables covered with red, white, and blue and centered with red candles were arranged for a lovely turkey banquet when Mr. and Mrs. Sam Henry, superintendents of the intermediate Sunday school department of the First Baptist church, entertained teachers and officers of that department Thursday evening in their home, 1901 13th street. Rooms were decorated in flags and lighted with red candles.

Place cards were dainty silhouettes of George Washington, and tiny silk flags were used as plate favors. The banquet was served in three courses.

Later in the evening, guests were divided into six groups and each was required to compose a patriotic song. The songs then were sung by the various groups with Miss Mary Frances Akers at the piano. Other games and contests were enjoyed, and at the close of the evening Mancil Hall was presented a novelty prize for winning the largest number of contests.

Before leaving, the guests joined hands and sang "Blessed Be the Tie."

Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames D. Willeford, E. L. Klett, C. E. Burnett, Frazier McCrummen, J. D. Carnett, Lloyd Russell, Claude Burrus, E. M. Barnett, Lee Smith, A. S. Eads, G. T. McIlhaney; Misses Frances Akard, Opal Creighton, Lois Marie Daniel, Minnie Robert, Elsie Lawrence, and Elaine Henry; Messrs. W. J. Buis, Mancil Hall, Claude Gray and Sam Henry, jr.; Mesdames F. P. Smith, Olga Daniel, and Jack Mosely.

ROUGHAGE IN DIET NEEDED IN REDUCING

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Eliminates Danger

Are you one of those who are reducing by diet? If so, there is one important thing you should know—diets that do not include roughage cause constipation, often with serious consequences. Guard against it!

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN contains the roughage needed to insure regular elimination. It is guaranteed to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation or your money will be refunded. Two tablespoons daily—in serious cases, with each meal.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is not fattening. But it does add valuable iron to the blood which helps prevent anemia (another dieting danger) and bring a glowing, healthy color to the complexion.

You can enjoy Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in many delightful ways. As a ready-to-eat cereal with milk, honey, sprinkled over cereals and salads, in soups and soaked in fruit juices. It is appetizing in cooked food. Your grocer has Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

TWO IMPORTANT NEW ENGLANDERS SHOWN FILMLAND; COOLIDGES CENTER OF ATTRACTION IN VISIT TO STUDIOS

(By Associated Press)

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Feb. 21.—Two important visitors from New England saw Hollywood Wednesday, as do others who come here as sight seeing tourists.

The film town, however, almost stopped work for Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, who saw for the first time how talking pictures are made. Instead of the former president and first lady being merely lookers on into the mysteries of talking picture making, they were the center of attraction at every studio they visited.

Mary Pickford and Will Hays, president of the Motion Picture Producers Association, accompanied the Coolidges and explained the intricacies of the industry.

After visiting the Warner Brothers studio and seeing from ringside seats a scene in which nearly 200 players took part, the party took luncheon with Miss Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks in their dining room at the United Artists Studio.

Following the luncheon the party saw Fairbanks and three members of his staff play a game which is a new form of tennis Doug has hit upon. Fairbanks won.

Later the Coolidges drove through the Fox Studio and visited the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer lot in Culver City. In the afternoon Mr. Coolidge took keen interest in the filming of several pictures, and smiled broadly once during the recording of a rousing drinking song.

Positive case of hydrophobia has been found in a dog owned by Mrs. Wilda Stewart, 1818 Thirteenth street, and two persons who were exposed are now taking treatment, according to Dr. L. B. Hodges, Lubbock veterinarian.

The dog's head was sent Wednesday to Austin for examination and a report received late yesterday stated that positive evidence of rabies was discovered.

Mrs. Stewart and her mother, Mrs. Harris, who were exposed, are undergoing treatment.

"Dog owners should, by all means, have their dogs vaccinated to prevent spread of the disease," said Dr. Hodges.

SEVENTEEN CAGE TEAMS HERE FOR ANNUAL DISTRICT TOURNEY

PLAY STARTS TODAY; SPUR IS INELIGIBLE

FINALS SCHEDULED TO BE PLAYED TOMORROW EVENING

The annual battle for the basketball championship of District Two of the Interscholastic League is under way at the Texas Tech gymnasium today with seventeen South Plains teams engaged in the first round of the two-day tournament.

Preliminaries started at 10 o'clock this morning and will last on through until seven this evening. The second round starts Saturday morning at 9:30 and lasts through 1:30. Semi-finals start Saturday afternoon at 4 and close at 6.

Ends Saturday night

The final and championship game of the meet will be played Saturday night, beginning at 8:30.

The only change in the schedule of games as previously arranged puts Dickens City in the place of Spur as the Dickens county representative. A message from Roy B. Henderson, director of the Interscholastic League, to E. Y. Freeland, district chairman, officially ruled Spur out of the running through ineligibility.

Following are the teams entered: Berry Flat, Lubbock, Liberty, Morton, Lamesa, Buia, Dickens, Littlefield, Ralls, Wilson, Post, Ropesville, Lockney, Meadow, Slaton, Plainview and Seagraves.

Charlie White Tries Comeback Tonight

CHICAGO, Feb. 21 (AP)—After seven years of retirement, Charlie White, once contender for the world lightweight championship, will make a comeback attempt tonight.

In one of the feature bouts of Promoter Jack Dempsey's show at the coliseum, White will meet Henry Ferlick, one of the Kalamazoo, Mich. twins.

White, a native Chicagoan, will make his first ring appearance in his home town. In the days when he was bowling them over with his famous left hooks, boxing was not legal in Illinois, and his friends were obliged to do their cheering by remote control.

Yankees Start For Spring Camp Tonight

NEW YORK, Feb. 21 (AP)—The New York Yankees' annual spring migration to St. Petersburg, Fla., gets under way tonight. Three players will form the advance guard, Pitchers Foster Edwards and Freddie Heimach and Catcher Bill Karlon. They should arrive in St. Petersburg Sunday at about the same time that 22 other Yankees make their way to the same spot by other routes.

Uncle Billy Has Big Task This Season

AUSTIN, Feb. 21 (AP)—Facing the task of moulding the weakest baseball material he has ever had at the University of Texas into a team that must meet a hard schedule, Coach Billy Disch is putting his charges through hard practice sessions in an effort to get them in shape for the first encounter of the season for the New York Giants in Austin March 6.

Infield candidates are weak and the ability of the boys in the outfield to handle a bat to the best advantage is an unknown quantity. Only one veteran, Railton, remains to bolster the pitching staff and Disch is faced with a three-fold task of strengthening his hurling array, perfecting the defense of the infield and developing the batting power of the nine.

The heavy schedule includes games with the New York Giants and Yankees and colleges and universities from Texas and other states.

MATADORS DROP FINAL TO BUFFALOES

IN THE REALM OF SPORT

WITH ALLAN CARNEY
Journal Sports Editor

No football fan in Lubbock is more enthusiastic over the gridiron possibilities of Texas Tech than Pete Cawthon, newly elected director of athletics and head football coach of the institution. In his correspondence with this writer and other acquaintances of the city, Cawthon has repeatedly expressed hopes of accomplishing great things for the college here on the athletic field.

The new Matador commander told the Dallas News just this week that he saw no reason why a school with an enrollment of 2,500 students shouldn't be able to compete with Southwest conference institutions.

At the same time, Cawthon points out that he must be given time to get things going and that too much cannot be expected of his regime in the first season.

Here's how Cawthon puts it:

"Don't be unmindful of the fact that it's no easy problem to build up the system in a short time, nor of the fact that it will take time to build up the spirit of an institution where no games were won last year. It takes time to accomplish these things which we hope to put over. However, I know that it can be done, and I am very enthused over the opportunities presented at Tech. I see great possibilities of doing a fine piece of work, and I am going into it with all the energy that I have.

"I know that Lubbock is a wide-awake, hustling city, and one that will support us. I am going to work for the support of all, and I want to fit right in with Lubbock and to be very much a part of it all in an effort to get Tech and the city of Lubbock closer together. I am coming out there to co-operate and harmonize with all factions. Of course in any reorganization some are bound to be pinched, but I hope to soon get things going, and no one will be offended in any way."

Cawthon is coming here the first week in April to inaugurate spring football training. The work will last four weeks, or more, if it does not interfere with final examinations for the players. After the close of spring training, he will return to Dallas to make arrangements to move his family to Lubbock during the latter part of May. Beginning in June, the new Tech mentor will be on the job, making preparations for the fall football campaign.

"I won't be able to make any statements in regard to coaching assistants until I have had an opportunity to look over the situation and to make a study of the needs there," Cawthon writes. "Naturally I will use as far as practical men who understand my system of play."

Coach Cawthon speaks highly of the present coaching staff of the institution, but leaves no inkling as to whether or not any of them will be retained.

"All the present members of the staff are very close friends of mine, and I have known them over a long period of years, and I consider them capable coaches, and admire them as men."

Announcement from E. Y. Free-land that he has definitely closed his active coaching days brings to a close a long and successful career. The veteran mentor now turns to physical education, a work closely affiliated with the coaching game and one which he has always studied. It is not at all unlikely that Freeland will return to Tech to head the institution's physical training department when he completes his Master's degree on this subject.

Freeland left behind at Vander-bilt a varsity record that few can equal. A four letter man, he left the university with 13 letters. Ray Morrison, his team-mate through the four years spent at Vanderbilt, finished with 12 letters. The S. M. U. mentor never played basketball.

Joe Mathes, organizer of the pro-posed East-Central Texas Class D baseball loop, is convinced that the towns of that section are not yet ripe for professional baseball. As he sees it, it is only a matter of another season before the league will come into being.

"Everywhere I went and explained the plan, the fans and business men agreed that the organization of the new Class D league under the patronage of the Texas League was an ideal plan," declared Mathes. "We are merely postponing the formation of the league temporarily by dropping plans for the year. As the situation now stands, enough of these East Texas towns are not prepared to enter the league to make it advisable this season."

STABLE OF BOXERS IS MAINTAINED IN FLORIDA BY NEW YORK MILLIONAIRE

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Writer

PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 21 (AP)—Philanthrophy and the business of boxing are not generally considered on speaking terms, but the connection exists, nevertheless, in the exclusive society of this winter resort.

Edward F. Hutton, millionaire New York broker, has taken up the fistic sport "solely for the love of the game," established a stable of four boxers in winter quarters and furnished impetus to the boxing fad in this fashionable area.

The idea of doing something for the leather-pushers in so substantial a way is not original with Mr. Hutton. He became interested after the novelty was introduced by the Philadelphia sportsman and well-known amateur boxer, Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, jr., better known as "Tony" Biddle. Mr. Hutton, however, has continued to operate on a big scale, where Mr. Biddle has reduced his fistic holdings to an interest in the Belgian middleweight, Rene Devos.

"I like clean sport and decided to help some of the boys ambitious to get somewhere in the boxing game," explained Mr. Hutton, between rounds of the "boxing tea," staged yesterday at the Oasis Club, with Phil Scott and Tommy Loughran as attractions in the interests of baybeo for the Miami fight show, February 27.

Are for the Sport

"We operate on a business basis," he said. "I consider the training facilities and a trainer, Walter Monaghan. The boys work out under his direction. We try to develop their sportsmanship as well as their ability. They get chances to fight regularly. I get a percentage of any earnings, but this is put back into expenses of the stable. I am not looking for profit. I like the sport."

The quartet in the Hutton stable now are Roy Wallace of Indianapolis, promising light heavyweight, Bill Daring, former heavyweight champion of the Navy; Patsy McGraw, junior lightweight from Savannah, Ga., and Peter Mike, junior welterweight from Southampton, Long Island.

Need College Athlete

"What we would like to get and develop is a good all-round college athlete as a prospect for the heavyweight championship," said Monaghan, who has been through the profesional mill, helping to train Jess Willard for the Dempsey fight at Toledo in 1919.

"A boy like Harlow Rothert, the Stanford shot-putter, football and basketball star, is the sort we have in mind. He is a great natural athlete, but of course I just mention his name as an example.

"How do we select the boys for the stable here? Well, we have more applications than we have room for. There are at least 200 applications from various parts of the country on file now. We look them over and select the best prospects. We keep an interest in them so long as it is practical and help them to make the proper conenctions."

RAZORBACKS NEED ONLY TWO GAMES

PORKERS MEET AGGIES IN SERIES TONIGHT AND SATURDAY

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Feb. 21. (AP)—The Arkansas Razorbacks, not quite the basketball unit they have been for the last four years, but good enough to win seven of their first eight starts in the present Southwest conference chase, invaded College Station today for a pair of bouts with the Texas Aggies.

All the Porkers needed to sew up their fifth successive conference title was a brace of victories over the Farmer five tonight and tomorrow and a similar sweep against the Rice Owls on Monday and Tuesday at Houston. No defeat in their strenuous wind-up meant the Razorbacks would finish a full game ahead of Texas University, even if the Longhorns won their three remaining tilts.

In tackling the Aggies tonight the four-time champions went against the former pupils of their coach, "Chuck" Bassett. Until he took over the Arkansas job this year Bassett turned out some stubborn teams at Aggieland. Several stars of the present cadet five, including Captain Harry Keeton and Shiro Hoke, learned much of their basketball under him.

The Texas Longhorns, their only hope that Arkansas would drop a decision this week-end and put them back in the chase, engage the Texas Christian five Saturday night at Austin. The Orange loopers hold a 33-21 decision over the Frogs and will be favored to win.

Baylor's entry, led by the brilliant Raymond Alford, comes here Saturday night for a tussle with Southern Methodist. The Mustangs, by winning, could pretty well cinch third place. Baylor was victorious in a previous meeting, 32 to 24.

Conference standing:

Team	Won	Lost	Pct
Arkansas	7	1	.875
Texas	7	2	.777
S. M. U.	4	5	.444
Aggies	3	4	.429
Baylor	3	5	.375
Rice	3	6	.333
T. C. U.	3	7	.300

Decision On Game Is Awaited Today

WAXAHACHIE, Feb. 21 (AP)—Decision by Thomas B. Simms, president of the Texas conference, as to whether Simmons University and Southwestern University would have to replay their disputed basketball game of February 8 was awaited today. A decision was expected before the final game between the two teams at Abilene on March 3. President Simms made a trip to Georgetown this week to investigate the case and ordered both teams to make affidavits and present them to him.

Babe Ruth Is Lone Yankee Holdout Now

NEW YORK, Feb. 21 (AP)—The first official announcement of the roster of the New York Yankees lists only Babe Ruth as a holdout. Thirty-four others have been signed and will be taken south for spring training. Yankee officials said yesterday. Col. Jacob Ruppert will leave for St. Petersburg, Fla., March 4 to reopen negotiations with Ruth, who is holding out for a $19,000 increase in salary.

Niemic Said To Be New Rice Assistant

HOUSTON, Feb. 21 (AP)—The "St. Edwards" system will become more firmly established at Rice Institute if Johnny "Butch" Niemic, former Notre Dame all - American football star, affixes his signature to a contract as assistant to coach Jack Meagher. Niemic is said to have accepted the position.

Niemic was an all-around star under Meagher at St. Edward's University in 1921, 1922 and 1923. He was a guard on the Saints' basketball team, a shortstop in baseball and a brilliant halfback on the gridiron.

Freeland Quits Coaching Work

TECH MENTOR PLANS TO GO TO CALIFORNIA NEXT YEAR

Announcing his definite retirement from active coaching, Ewing Young Freeland, head of the Texas Tech athletic department since the school opened in 1925, yesterday told of plans to enter a major university this fall to complete work on his Master's degree in physical education.

After 17 successful years on the coaching lines, the veteran coach now points toward physical education work, giving his time "to hundreds of college boys who do not take part in varsity sports."

Proud of Career

"I am proud of my record but realize that my coaching days are over," said the man who has been at the Matador helm throughout the school's history. "My heart is with Tech and it will remain there. I plan to retain my connection with the institution if present plans are worked out."

If his present plans mature, Freeland will enter one of the major universities of the country next year to work on his M. A. degree in physical education.

Although definite arrangements have not been made, the veteran coach and former Vanderbilt university athlete is likely to enter either Stanford university or the University of Southern California when the 1930-31 school year opens.

"My plan is to get my master's degree in physical education," Coach Freeland told the Journal," but I may have to be content with a major in P. T. and get my degree in another subject. It will likely be some time before my plans will be settled."

To Be Given Leave.

Pres. P. W. Horn has announced that Freeland will be given a leave of absence by the college board in case he does leave next fall.

Pete W. Cawthon, former Austin college mentor, will succeed Freeland as director of athletics at the institution here. The new Matador commander has also been named head football coach. He will come to Lubbock early in April to conduct spring football training for the Matadors. Other members of the Tech coaching staff have not yet been named.

During the first four years of the history of Texas Tech, Freeland served in the capacity of head football coach and head of the department of physical education, holding the latter position for the past two years. While at the head of the Tech football forces, his teams won 21 games, lost 10 and tied six. Five of these losses were to Southwest conference clubs. Freeland's Matadors met the Texas Aggies during the season. Bible's crew captured the conference title. The next year, Tech held the champion Texas Longhorns to a two-touchdown margin on the Austin gridiron.

Oldest In Service.

The oldest football coach in the state of Texas in the point of service, Freeland is recognized throughout the Southwest as one of the leading builders of lines. While this was considered his long suit, the veteran mentor also has developed some powerful offensive machines during his coaching career.

Freeland started coaching 17 years ago, following graduation from Vanderbilt. He began his Texas career in 1912 and prior to the past football season, he had missed but one year in that time. At Austin college, Freeland won the T. I. A. A. A. and at Daniel Baker his team won seven out of nine games. Going to S. M. U. from Austin college, Freeland teamed with Ray Morrison in bringing the first conference championship to the Mustang institution. As line coach at S. M. U. "Big Un," as he is affectionately dubbed, put out a stalwart forward wall that was feared the state over.

Those who have been in close touch with the Tech athletic department credit this man with making this phase of the college activity what it is today. A gentleman and a scholar, Freeland has never been too busy to lend a helping hand to a needy student.

Two More Dodgers Sign Up Contracts

NEW YORK, Feg. 21 (AP)—Val Picinich, catcher, and Wally Gilbert, third baseman, for the Brooklyn Dodgers, have turned in their signed contracts. Most of the Robins either are on their way or will leave tonight for the spring training grounds at Clearwater, Fla.

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 21 (AP)—Arthur C. (Pinkey) Whitney, third baseman of the Philadelphia National league club announced here today he had returned unsigned a second contract sent him by the Phillies.

Whitney said the second contract was the same as the first which he returned several weeks ago. "I am not asking for a huge salary, but expect an increase in keeping with my performance during the 1929 season," he said.

Whitney was rated one of the best third basemen in the National league last year and batted well over the .300 mark.

BLAST SHAKES AREA

CALGARY, Alta., Feb. 21. (AP)—A premature blast of 1,000 quarts of nitro glycerine in well 23 of the Imperial Oil company today destroyed the derrick and shook the countryside for miles. No one was injured.

HANDY MAN

Dusty Boggess Has Only Three More Stops In Texas

BEAUMONT, Feb. 21 (AP)—Three more stops and Dusty Boggess, demon utility man, will have completed his round of Texas League baseball diamonds.

Given his outright release by the Beaumont Exporters this week, the versatile Dusty now needs to pastime only with Ft. Worth, Wichita Falls and Shreveport to fill out his hand. It is entirely possible he will catch with one of the three, for he is a handy young man to have about the premises.

While batting .288 for the Exporters last year, Boggess played 18 games in the outfield; played third base in 22; was shortstop 22 times; was second baseman in four games; a first baseman in six; and appeared behind the bat 13 times. He even offered to pitch.

Baseball men agree that Boggess can star at any position for four or five days. Then, for some reason or other, he needs a change.

In addition to his baseball talent, Boggess probably officiates in more basketball and football games than any man in the Southwest.

TECH CLOSES FAIR SEASON ON THURSDAY

CANYON CREW HOLDS LOCALS TO 25 TO 14 SCORE LAST NIGHT

(Special To The Journal)

CANYON, Feb. 21—The curtain dropped on the 1930 basketball season for Texas Tech and the West Texas State Teachers college here Thursday night as the Thundering Herd came back in the closing skirmish of the year to hand the Crimson basketeers from Lubbock a 25 to 14 beating before the largest gathering of cage fans seen here this season.

The crowd that jammed the Buffalo gymnasium witnessed a fast and furious exhibition with the Teachers showing the way through the major part of the contest.

Buffs Grab Lead

Canyon grabbed the lead early in the first stanza and continued to pull away from the visitors as the game wore on. Machine-like passing enabled the Herd to pile up an advantage of 14 to 3 at the half.

The Buffaloes turned in their fastest game in several seasons in turning back the scrapping Tech quintet. Fuller, Gerald and Newman led the assault for the Burtonmen in all departments. It was the defensive performance of Gerald that held Hodges, the Tech scoring ace, to one field goal.

Allowed Few Shots

Tech came in stronger in the closing period but was unable to break through the strong Canyon defense consistently. Long shots by Fisher and Tadlock featured the Matador rally. While the Teachers displayed a brand of basketball that stamps them as champions, the Matadors were allowed few shots at the netting.

Maxwell was high scorer for the losers with 5 points. The invaders were never within 10 points of the Bisons after the game was under way.

BOBBY JONES STILL CAN PLAY GOLF; SCORES SEVEN UNDER PAR IN FIRST ROUND IN SAVANNAH COURSE PLAY

(By Associated Press)

SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 21.—Clinging to a one stroke lead gained in the first round of the 72-hole open tournament over the difficult country club golf course, Bobby Jones of Atlanta, national open champion was ready for the second 18 holes today after scoring a sparkling 67, seven under par.

With the largest gallery of the day following in his wake, the Atlanta lawyer-golfer burned up the course on his outward nine, to score a 32, five under par, and came home in 35. He registered nine birdies on the round and missed an eagle by inches.

Adams, French Next

Jeff Adams, professional at the tournament club, here and Emmett French of Southern Pines, N. C., showed the way to the cash players. Both turned in 66's.

With the knowledge that only the 48 low scorers will be permitted to participate in the 36 holes of championship play tomorrow, the nation's leading wanderers of the fairways expected to cling close to par on their rounds today.

Two strokes behind the leader and tied for fourth place with 69's were Bobby Cruickshank of Purchase, N. Y., Clem Weichman of Portsmouth, O., and Fairley Clark of Savannah, while Bill Mehlhorn of Pensacola, who scored a hole in one on the third hole on the outward journey, had a 70.

PARTY FIGHT LOOMS EARLY

UNEMPLOYMENT LAYED TO ADMINISTRATION BY TENNESSEEAN

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21—A foretaste of the coming congressional campaigns was given the house today with a charge by Representative Byrns of Tennessee, chairman of the democratic congressional committee, that the Hoover administration had been indifferent to unemployment and existing economic conditions.

An immediate answer came from the republican side of the house. Representative Murphy of Ohio blamed economic conditions upon delay in the tariff bill by the democratic-republican independent coalition in the senate.

Conference Cited

He asserted Byrns was assailing President Hoover for calling a conference of industrial leaders to relieve unemployment "and to get some assurance that labor would continue to receive a living wage."

Byrns said men and women had found themselves out of jobs after Hoover had emphasized the "unparalleled progress" of the country.

"The republican party," he added, "cannot now disclaim responsibility for present conditions." He asserted that in the last presidential campaign the republicans had claimed the "entire credit for the prosperity of the country, even for the number of telephones in use."

Gladys Yule, owning more than $90,000,000, is said to be the richest woman in Great Britain.

SAP OF SPRING BEGINS TO FLOW

RISING TEMPERATURES RECORDED IN NATION AND SPRING CRASHES IN MONTH EARLY

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—The sap began to flow today from Point Loma to Plymouth Rock.

Spring crashed the gate a month ahead of her engagement, and midday temperatures prevailed from coast to coast.

The mercury that cringed several steps below zero in the northwestern states a week ago climbed from obscurity to the upper sixties and seventies today. The snows of yester-week were rivers today, and the early bird and even the worm found weather conditions satisfactory for their 1930 debut.

Only a few sections of the nation could report a freezing temperature overnight, notably northern Michigan and Wisconsin, the Carolina-West Virginia mountains, Maine, Western Kansas and Nebraska and the Rockies. In Wisconsin a balmy summer sun lifted the mercury from the teens to the forties and sixties.

The advent of a premature spring came at once to virtually the entire country. California vaunted valley temperatures as high as 86, and it was 80 at Los Angeles. Billings, Mont., wilted at 58 and Helena at 64. Thermometers at Denver registered 61, at Oklahoma City 72, at Dallas 66 and at Kansas City 75, while the warmest February day in history was reported by several Kansas points, with readings from 75 to 80.

COMPANY POSTED ON THE WEATHER

DALLAS, Feb. 21 (AP)—The Southern Division, American Airways, Inc., which operates a number of passenger and mail lines in the south, employs radio, telephone, telegraph, code and maps to keep constantly posted on weather conditions.

The company has its own radio system and keeps a full-time operator at each of the seven points at which radios are installed. They are El Paso, San Antonio, Waco, Houston, Fort Worth, Dallas and New Orleans. One will be set up soon at Big Spring, Texas. An average of 130 code messages is sent daily over this system.

Bureaus Give Reports

By telephone the airports get the daily report from the United States Weather bureaus. They also get a national weather map from that source each day, and, through experience, are able to trace the territory through which a low pressure area will move.

A special receiver is used to get the hourly radio report broadcast by the Department of Commerce airways weather stations. Each airport maintains a barometer, thermometer, rainfall gauge and wind gauge. Each station reports the visibility, ceiling, wind and condition of the field.

The company builds the radios which it uses in its "dot and dash" network.

CORN SHIPPED OUT.

BROWNSVILLE, Feb. 21. (AP)—For the first time since 1923 shipments of corn to Mexico are being made through this port. Eleven carloads were cleared in two days.

A shortage of grain in the interior is blamed for the importation. The grain sent through here is all for Monterrey and came from Kansas City.

BRIDGE TO BE OPENED

BEAUMONT, Feb. 21. (AP)—April 1 has been set for opening of a new Neches river bridge at Evadale, which will shorten the route from Beaumont to Jasper and other East Texas points about 12 miles.

SAFETY OF AIR MUST BE FIRST

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 21 (AP)—Aviation was put on the block today before the International Aircraft Exposition as having one appeal to the public, that of reliability.

"No compromise with safety will be tolerated," Roland Chilton, consulting engineer of the Wright Aeronautical Corporation said before a meeting of the society of automotive engineers, "because the airplane still suffers by being relatively new, and the popular mind shies from the unusual."

He placed the "do or die" issue for aviation with the airplane motor, and said: "The recent optimism as to the rate of increase in aircraft use will not be fulfilled unless developments in power plants result in increased reliability.

"Air travel is popularly regarded as doubtful and until the landing characteristics of airplanes now at about railroad train speed are drastically changed, engine failures on transport machines are incompatible with public confidence."

Man Readily Admits Having Liquor

TEXARKANA, Ark., Feb. 21 (AP)—Two prohibition officers were speechless with surprise here yesterday when informed by J. W. Wilson of Shreveport that he was carrying whiskey and "what of it?"

A man who gave his name as Wilson strolled across the lobby of a downtown hotel carrying a bottle wrapped in a paper sack. Accosted by two dry agents, he admitted it was liquor and showed another bottle in his pocket.

Wilson paid $100 and costs in municipal court for his nonchalance.

OIL CUT NOTICED IN ROYALTY TOTAL

AUSTIN, Feb. 21 (AP)—The recent drop in the price of oil caused a drop in January royalties paid into the land office, it was noted here today.

Oil leases on lands of the University of Texas produced $165,607.12 while for the preceding month the total was $182,091.66.

The January payment brings the total of the University of Texas fund to $11,986,435.44. The largest royalty, amounting to $56,400.44 was paid by the Big Lake Oil Company, while the Texon Oil Company paid $33,366.46.

An increase of $14,986.54 was noted in the amount paid by the Landreth Producing Company, this company paying $22,598.97, for January and only $7,612.43 in December. The drilling of a few high producing wells is said to have caused the increase.

Public school lands under lease brought in a total of $108,337.90 for January, the largest amount being paid by the Mid-Kansas Oil Company. This payment totaled $49,341.04 on thre tracts of land.

Leases on state lands, irrespective of leases on university and school lands, brought in an additional $10,000 for the general revenue fund.

LAYS QUEER EGG.

BEAUMONT, Feb. 21. (AP)—Although it might not have been much to cakle over, an egg resembling an Irish potato was laid by a Buff Orpington hen on the farm of E. Lance of Orangefield.

Soft-shelled and brown, the egg was smaller than the average hen egg.

CAMPAIGN FOR STATE BOND ISSUES AMENDMENT IS UNDER WAY

INITIAL STEPS IN WORK PLANNED BY FIVE GROUPS

(By Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Feb. 21—Initial steps in a campaign to secure in 1931 a constitutional amendment authorizing state bond issues were taken Wednesday here by the statewide highway committee.

The amendment would look to a $200,000,000 bond issue, to complete the state highway system by 1945. Details of the committee's plans were gone into and announced but will not be completely formulated until the body of 15 is rounded out by two appointments yet to be made and another meeting called.

Five Groups Represented

The statewide committee, representing five large organizations of Texas, has bee norganized with W. O. Huggins, Houston, as chairman, and Mrs. R. F. Lindsay, Mount Pleasant, president of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs, as secretary.

Three regional chambers of commerce, the Texas Federation of Women's clubs and the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, are represented. One member each is yet to be appointed from the South and West Texas chambers of commerce.

Presumes a bond issue of $200,000,000 of which $75,000,000 would be used to reimburse various counties for usable portions of their present roads and the remainder in new construction to work out as the committe plans, the constitutional amendment would be voted on in 1931, the bond issue specifically authorized early in 1931 and the money available by 1933.

BURIED TREASURE HUNT REQUESTED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (AP)—A bill to authorize J. B. Wofford, secretary to Representative Steagall, democrat, Alabama, "to explore and excavate for a buried treasure alleged to be in the Gran Quivira National Monument, New Mexico," was reported today by the house public lands committee.

The bill, introduced by Representative Romjue, democrat, Missouri, set forth that Wofford "holds a deed or other proof of title" to the buried treasure. Wofford refused to discuss the treasury, other than to say the time was not yet ripe for any disclosures.

The Gran Quivira National monument preserves old Spanish mission and Pueblo ruins of great antiquity.

The bill carried a proviso reserving the right of the United States to "all objects of antiquity of whatever nature."

The demonstration was undertaken to illustrate the stability of modern aircraft, the feasibility of transporting livestock by air and for scientific study of the cow's behavior.

OFFICIALS FACING BRIBERY CHARGES

CHICAGO, Feb. 21 (AP)—Bribery of public officials from a $1,000,000 fund of the U. S. A. company, electrical contractors, has been charged by the state's attorney's office in a petition filed in criminal court asking possession of the company's books.

Assistant State's Attorney John E. Northup informed the court he wished the records to use in his investigation of the Chicago sanitary district.

Withdrew Funds

In the petition, filed yesterday, George E. Chamberlain, president of the U. S. A. company, recently indicted by a federal grand jury on income tax evasion charges, is charged with withdrawing the $1,000,000 from the company funds by means of checks payable to himself.

With this money, Northup charges, Chamberlain purchased valuable gifts for public officials, including lavish silver service sets, indoor golf outfits costing $1,000, expensive pieces of furniture and movie cameras.

Branding Of Child Being Investigated

ATLANTA, Feb. 21 (AP)—Authorities today were investigating a report that a ten months old child was branded on the face with a poker, severely bruised and placed under a pile of coal in a fuel bin while members of its family were absent from home.

The child, Flora Belle Beebout, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Beebout, was left with a half sister, Mary Lou Beebout, 12, late yesterday. Mary Lou went out of the house for a short time to search for her 8-year-old brother. When she returned she said she heard the baby screaming and located in the coal box. She said the child apparently had been burned across the right side of the face with the poker and scratched with a pin found on the floor.

An unidentified man seen frequently in the neighborhood was sought for questioning.

DALLAS, Feb. 21. (AP)—Trade of two canary birds for a Spitz dog was a fair exchange until the dog took sick, Mrs. Ellen Tramwell alleged in a suit for $2,925 damages filed in district court today.

Mrs. Tramwell set forth that the trade was made in an oral contract with James J. Hamiter in which Hamiter promised to care for the dog if it became ill. The dog did and Hamiter did not, she said, asking $25 for breach of contract, $2,000 for mental and physical anguish, and $900 for caring for the sick Spitz.

OFFICIALS OF RAILROAD TO FACE CHARGES

COMPLAINT IS FILED BY EMPLOYES IN HOUSTON

(By Associated Press)

HOUSTON, Feb. 21.—Affidavit seeking the arrest of three of the highest officials of the Southern Pacific Railroad, in Texas and Louisiana, H. M. Lull, executive vice president, G. S. Waid, vice president and general manager, and J. O. Torian, his assistant, for alleged failure to purge themselves of contempt of court, was filed in federal court here Thursday for the Brotherhood of Railway and steamship clerks, freight handlers and express and station employees.

The affidavit alleges that the three officials have failed to comply with an order signed in October, 1927, by ederal Judge J. C. Hutcheson, jr., after the judge had found the three officials guilty of contempt of court in failing to observe an injunction issued in January, 1927 which restrained them from interfering in any way with the operations of the Brotherhood.

Disagree Over Wage

In his decree Judge Hutcheson ordered that the three officials purge themselves of contempt by completely disestablishing the association of railway clerks, an organization formed by the railroad company in 1927 after the Brotherhood of railway and steamship clerks and the railroad had disagreed over a wage increase sought by the union.

He further ordered that Lull, Waid and Torian cease to permit officials of the railroad to organize the company union at company expense, reinstate and restablish the Brotherhood of railway and steamship clerks as representative of company employees and restore R. W. Harper and John W. Walker, officials of the Brotherhood to the services of the company without prejudice.

R. W. Harper, general chairman of the Brotherhood signed the affidavit alleging failure to comply with these orders. MRS. DUGAN HANGS

She replied, "Good-bye, Daddy Wright." A few seconds later the steel trap was sprung.

Plot Is Discovered

Warden Wright a few minutes before the hanging revealed to newspaper men the discovery of what he believed was a plot by Mrs. Dugan to cheat the gallows by taking potion before she was removed to the death chamber.

Acting on a tip that the woman had procured poison, Wright said he transferred her from her prison cell to the condemned chamber about 1 a. m. A search of the abandoned cell, the warden said, led to the discovery beneath a mattress of a 2-ounce bottle of "deadly poison." The bottle, he said, bore the label of a Florence drug store.

Spent Hours With Friends

The 52-year-old housekeeper, who was convicted of the murder of Mathis, her employer, in order to possess his property, spent the hours preceding her execution in the company of the prison chaplain and a few friends.

Until after midnight she sat at a card table and played whist with two women friends and a woman prisoner, while outside her cell the death watch paced back and forth. Occasionally she reached out to caress a telegram which lay on the table—a farewell message from her daughter, Mrs. Cecil Loveless.

During the course of the game, Mrs. Dugan requested that her "guests" be served with orangeade. Several minutes passed before the drink was served, and the condemned woman called to a guard: "Please bring on the orangeade. I want it now. Tomorrow will be too late."

Smoked Cigarette

Since early evening the sky had been overcast, and a light rain was pattering on the gravelled pathway as the woman was led from her cell in the prison proper across an open space to the death cell. She smoked a cigarette and joked with guards as she marched along, and as they neared the gallows house she laughed shd sang, "I don't know where I'm going, but I'm on my way."

Mrs. Dugan kissed two of the guards who left her at the door of the death house and said: "I love everyone connected with the prison. You have all been good to me, and I can't blame you for what the law is going to do to me."

Guards Affected

The guards were more visibly affected than was the woman who stood in the shadow of the scaffold.

A telegram delivered to her in the condemned cell revealed a hitherto unknown chapter in her early life. The message, signed, "Ada Hostapple, Seattle, Wash.," read: "I sympathize with you and have the greatest admiration for your bravery and grit."

"Ada is an old friend of the Yukon days," Mrs. Dugan said. "Probably you didn't know it, but I was one of those who followed the gold rush into the Yukon."

Made Own Shroud

Mrs. Dugan will be buried in the prison graveyard, in a shroud of white silk which she made herself. Several weeks ago she purchased a casket and paid an undertaker to prepare her body for burial.

Her 82-year-old father, William McDaniels, of Ceres, Calif., was unable to grant her wish to be with her during the hours preceding her death. She refused to disclose the name of her son, and the name of her daughter was not revealed until the message came from her last night.

Would Not Take $100 For Single Bottle Orgatone

Wichita Woman Finds Relief After Seven Years Suffering

"It's worth many a dollar to feel like I do now, since taking just one bottle of Orgatone (Argotane). It has removed all of my troubles that caused me to suffer for seven years," said Mrs. W. T. London, of rural route 6, Wichita Falls, Texas. "When a woman suffers as I did, they get to feeling so despondent and really haven't any interest in anything," she continued. "Well, that was just the way I was, until I got a bottle of Orgatone (Argotane). I just paid $1.25 for a bottle of it, but I wouldn't take $100 for it.

"I couldn't carry on my work for spells of stomach trouble and nervousness. I suffered misery from kidney trouble, and would have such intense pains in my back and sides that I could hardly stand it. I would have billious spells and dizzy spells and would at times get so blind, I couldn't see to stand, but would have to hold to something to keep from falling. Everything I ate seemed to disagree with me, and I would have a puffed up, bloated feeling, and would suffer agony from severe headaches. I was extremely nervous at times I would feel as if I were going distracted. I had a bad case of constipation. No one will ever know how much I suffered with my condition.

"Orgatone (Argotane) was advertised so highly and everyone was telling how much it had helped them, so I got a bottle. That bottle of medicine was my health. I can eat anything I want and could just as soon as I had taken my first half bottle of it. I don't have those bloated, dizzy, billious spells, and sleep fine every night. I feel better than I have in years, and my nerves are just about to normal. Orgatone (Argotane) has built me up all over. And I want to give this statement in hope that it will be the cause of others being benefitted like Orgatone (Argotane) has for me."

Genuine Argotane may be purchased in Lubbock at the Bowen's Drug Store. Adv.

Arrest Ordered

When the house ran out of a quorum yesterday while trying to continue its hearing of charges proposing impeachment of Comptroller S. H. Terrell, those who were present voted to force attendance of absentees even if necessary to arrest them and have them brought in.

The house voted to stand at ease until 2 p. m., and the 68 members who had registered present were on their honor to return.

Rev. B. B. Crimm, evangelist holding a meeting here, made a brief talk. He said the house reminded him of a Baptist convention.

"You are doing a lot of arguing and talking, but getting nowhere," he said.

A. B. C. CLUB IS TOLD OF TEXTILES

Prof. Carl Brandt, of the textile engineering department at Texas Technological college, was the principal speaker before the regular weekly luncheon program of the American Business club, held today noon at Hotel Lubbock.

Prof. Brandt took as his subject "Textiles" and explained at some length the various fibres, their uses and the processes of milling. Ranks of fibres, as given by the speaker, in importance are cotton, wool, silk and rayon. "Few people realize the importance of this subject to the average man," said Mr. Brandt. "As a matter of curiosity there are approximately eight miles of cotton thread on the average man's shirt."

Plan Charter Night

With Bob Hester, president, in the chair several members of the club made short talks and announcement was made that plans are going steadily forward for the charter night program which will be given in the near future.

Following the luncheon two piano and accordion numbers were given before the gathering, each of them warmly applauded. Miss Willette Waters, accordion, and Mrs. Frank Barclay, piano, were principals of this entertainment.

Four new members were introduced at the meeting: Charlie Bartlett, M. Durward Carnett, Gordon M. Flenniken and Winfield D. Watkins.

ABSENTEE CENSUS WILL BE TAKEN

The Census Bureau is making a special provision for enumeration of families who plan to be away from home during the month of April, when taking of the census starts, Dr. I. E. Barr, of Lubbock, supervisor for this district, announced today.

"For cases where it is known in advance that the whole family will be away from home when enumeration will be taken, special provision has been made by the director of the census in the form of an absent family schedule which is to be filled out by some responsible member of the family in advance of the census date and transmitted to the local supervisor of the census," said Dr. Barr. "A copy o fthis schedule can be secured by application to my office.

HEALTHY LOT OF CHILDREN

Every Member of the Family Took Black-Draught When Out of Sorts.

Walnut Ridge, Ark.—"Until I was a grown girl, I did not know there was any other purgative but Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. J. C. Hathorne, of this place. "My father gave it to every member of his family.

"Whenever we got out of sorts, he got down the Black-Draught box, made a tea of Black-Draught, and gave it to us this way for indigestion and constipation.

"There were eight of us children in our family. We were a healthy lot. Black-Draught was about our only medicine.

"I have continued to use it off and on in my home as I have needed it since I have been married. I give it a good recommendation, for I know from my own use Black-Draught is a good medicine."

Thedford's Black-Draught is a purely vegetable cathartic or laxative medicine, composed of selected medicinal herbs and roots. Black-Draught is finely powdered, which enables the juices of the stomach to extract its medicinal properties in a natural way. NA-087

Thought For Today

Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak. —St. Mark 14:38.

* * *

The devil tempts us not; 'tis we tempt him, beckoning his skill with opportunity.—George Eliot.

Kinship

Nothing is more fascinating than the power that can linger in a man's name long after the man himself is dead and gone.

For a demonstration of this fact you are invited to go to Springfield, Ill., the home town of Abraham Lincoln.

Lincoln's name hangs in the atmosphere of that city. It colors the lives of all its citizens. It takes some men and women and sets them apart, puts them in a class above the average of their fellows—because, at one time or another, many years ago, they shook Abraham Lincoln by the hand, or stopped on the street to chat with him, or trudged into his law office when he had his lengthy Illinois legs cocked up on his table.

* * *

These people—the favored ones who have memories of that kind to sustain their pride—seem to live for nothing else. Some of them are well-to-do, surrounded by friends, and some of them are poor and lonely but all of them seem to feel that their lives have been very much worth while. They can remember actual contacts with the greatest American of their day.

These incidents, too, often grow with years. A man whom, as a barefooted toddler, was once patted on the head by Lincoln, will come to believe that he was really a confidant of the great emancipator. Without ever intending to deceive himself or anyone else, he will presently be loking on himself as one of the circle of Lincoln's intimates. He will speak of Lincoln with a proprietary air. He will repeat things that he has read in books as if they were his own conclusions.

All of this is quite harmless, and at times it is rather pathetic. But it testifies, in its own way, to that longing for contact with greatness that seems to be born in all of us.

We are never satisfied, either with ourselves or with the people around us. We have a lurking feeling that people ought to be a great deal wiser and kinder and nobler than they really are. So, if we discover that at some distant time in our lives we magnify the incident, take it to our hearts, make it almost our excuse for existence.

And yet, all the while, we shut our eyes to the people we rub elbows with. We don't realize their fineness, any more than we realize our own. It may be, some day, that you will be vastly proud of your acquaintance with neighbor Jim Jones. He may become great and famous. But the chances are you won't know it until you have nothing left but a memory.

We have an instinctive, imperative desire to mingle with people who are of finer fiber than ourselves. Yet—so common, after all, they are—we don't recognize them, when we find them; not until long afterward.

Memories For Hughes

If Charles Evans Hughes cares to do a bit of soliloquizing as he returns to the supreme judicial bench, he will find plenty of material in the things that have happened during his 14-year retirement from that high court.

When he resigned his justiceship, in 1916, Europe was at war and this nation was at peace—and expected to remain so. Herbert Hoover was feeding Belgians, Al Smith was a New York politician and Calvin Coolidge was climbing the ladder in Massachusetts. Prohibition looked like an impractical dream, ownership of an automobile meant that a man was fairly well-to-do and the British navy was as large as any two others combined.

It was, in short, an utterly different world when Hughes last sat in the supreme court—a world that seems as far removed, now, as the era of the Civil War. But it was only 14 years ago.

If Mr. Hughes' return to the bench sets his memory working, he will have plenty to think about.

THE PLAINSMAN Says:

That Girl on Broadway says in the spring a young girl's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love—and fur neck-pieces.

* * *

YESTERDAY, The Plainsman promised a comparison of natural gas rates, charged in Amarillo and in Lubbock by the West Texas Gas company. Below are again presented the rates in force here:

LUBBOCK GAS RATES

DOMESTIC—(For use in heating and cooking in homes)—Per 1,000 cubic feet, per month, 67 1-2 cents. Minimum bill per month, $1.50.

COMMERCIAL—(For use under boilers in heating office buildings, etc.)—First 50 thousand cubic feet, per month, 67 1-2 cents; next 50 thousand, 35 cents; next 100 thousand, 30 cents; next 300 thousand, 25 cents; next 500 thousand, 22 1-2 cents; next 2 million, 20 cents; next 3 million, 18 cents; next 4 million, 16 1-2 cents; all over 10 million, 15 cents; minimum bill per month, $1.50.

INDUSTRIAL—(For use in gas engines, under boilers in factories and industrial plants, for power purposes, etc.—First 50 thousand cubic feet, per month, 45 cents; next 50 thousand, 30 cents; next 100 thousand, 22 cents; next 300 thousand, 21 cents; next 500 thousand, 20 cents; next million, 18 cents; next million, 16 cents; next 3 million, 14 cents; next 4 million, 12 cents; next 20 million, 10 cents; all over 30 million, 8 cents. Minimum bill per month, $25.

* * *

Here are the rates in force in Amarillo, as announced for September 16th, 1929, after citizens of the North Plains metropolis had staged a successful campaign to lower the charges for the commodity:

AMARILLO GAS RATES

First 30,000 cubic feet, per month, 40 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, net; next 170,000, 22 1-2 cents; next two million, 20 cents; next five million, 15 cents; next 10 million, 12 1-2 cents; next 15 million, 10 cents; all above 32,200,000 cubic feet per month, 8 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, net. Minimum bill is $1 per month. Ten percent will be added on all gas billed at 40 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, and 22 1-2 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, if bills are not paid within 10 days of the date thereof.

* * *

In announcing the new rates, characterized as 'voluntary,' the Amarillo Gas company pointed out that a reduction of 11 and 1-9th percent to more than 95 percent of the domestic consumers had been made and that 'this reduction will give to the consumers a lower rate for natural gas than exists in any other city in the state of Texas.' The reduction, successfully sought by citizens, Amarillo newspapers or members of the city commission, cut the domestic rate from 45 cents per 1,000 cubic feet to the present 40 cents.

* * *

While frankly, it is unfair and unjust to assume that Lubbock should be furnished natural gas at an identical price with that charged in Amarillo, The Plainsman feels that a difference of 27 1-2 cents, on a rate which covers an overwhelming percentage of gas consumers, is too great to pass unnoticed.

* * *

SCAN these figures. As the pipelines are laid, Lubbock is somewhere between 150 and 160 miles from the gas fields, while Amarillo is about 100 miles nearer. Yet the lines are not laid direct to Lubbock and for Lubbock consumption alone. They are tapped in Canyon, Happy, Tulia, Kress, Plainview, Hale Center and Abernathy, in addition to taps to serve smaller stations between Amarillo and Lubbock, and, in addition, gas is being piped from Lubbock, as a central point, to other South Plains cities. Lubbock, therefore, should not be penalized for the entire distance it is from the gas fields.

* * *

During the year 1929 the average monthly bill of the approximately 3,300 customers of the gas company here was $4.83, as compared to an average bill of $4.55 during 1928. That means making allowance for commercial and industrial gas used here, that the average domestic consumer uses an average of 7,000 cubic feet of gas monthly, at the rate of 67 1-2 cents per 1,000 cubic feet. He pays an average monthly bill of $4.83 in Lubbock where if he resided in Amarillo he would pay an average of $2.80. In a year's time the Lubbock consumer pays $24.36 more for his gas than the average Amarilloan.

* * *

Further delving into figures, the Lubbock consumer is paying approximately 50 percent more for gas than is his Amarillo neighbor. And further, the 3,300 or so consumers here are annually paying approximately $100,350 per year more for the fuel and service than they would be called upon to pay were they residents of the Potter county capital.

* * *

As expressed before in this column, The Plainsman realizes that Lubbock should pay more for its gas than Amarillo pays, by virtue of the city's location in respect to the source of supply. But if the company could cut Amarillo's rate 11 and 1-9th percent, as it says it has, why can't it grant a cut in direct ratio in Lubbock? Referring to the figures in the paragraph just above, Lubbock gas consumers would save more than $21,000 annually were a similar cut granted here—and $21,000 will create a lot of business in a city of this size!

* * *

This column does not charge that the gas rates here are in excess of what they should be. The survey, which will be made over gas rates charged throughout the Southwest, is not far enough along yet to make any definite conclusion. But The Plainsman hopes to receive a letter tomorrow from R. P. Hinchey, of Amarillo, vice-president of the company and in charge of West Texas operations, which may help clear up the situation. It may at least explain why Lubbock is not entitled to a cut in ratio to that granted Amarillo—if a satisfactory explanation is available.

The Filipinos Are Steadily Approaching Their Dream Of Independence And Are Tickled To Death, Dutcher Claims

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21—It seldom happens that a man is put in prison and then trouble that his makes so much captors have to boot him out, but something of the sort seems to be happening to the Filipinos.

Thirty years or so ago our dreamers of Empire saw one of their visions realized when President McKinley took over the Philippine Islands for the good of the Filipinos. Today the Filipinos are squawking louder than ever about the disadvantages of American rule, and they are joined by various powerful American interests which complain that the Filipinos are detrimental to us 100 per cent Americans.

The Filipinos don't mind their unpopularity a bit, thinking that the more unpopular they are the sooner they are likely to be independent.

Tells How Cause Advances

The attitude and position of the Filipinos was outlined in an interview by Dr. Hilario Camino Moncado of Los Angeles, president of the Filipino Federation of America. The federation represents Filipinos in the United States, of whom there are about 65,000. Dr. Moncado came here to see President Hoover in the interests of Philippine independence.

"There are 35,000 Filipinos in California," he said in discussing the recent race-labor riots in that state, "and about 85 per cent of them are engaged in agriculture, living cheaply. These people never saw any American laborers in the islands and they didn't suppose they would be competing with any when they came here. There are 70,000 more in Hawaii and most of them hope to get to California eventually. All this has worried the labor organizations in the far west and so for several years we have had the American Federation of Labor agitating for independence.

"If we weren't part of the United States we could be kept outside by immigration laws. I'm sure that if independence were granted nearly all the Filipinos would go back, for they are strongly patriotic and know they can't be assimilated here. The Filipino legislature would pass an anti-emigration law because we will need men to work our resources.

"Then we have the unsolicited support of American, Cuban and Hawaiian sugar interests which are very anxious for us to be independent so that we can't ship in any more duty-free sugar. But that is all right with us, for if we get independence we will be more self-reliant. We will develop our brains and live simply and get along beautifully. We can live for 50 cents a day in the Philippines.

"We have the Ku Klux Klan on our side because it favors a purely white race of Americans. We are very proud of our race, but we will be glad if the klan will help make us free.

"The American and Cuban tobacco interests want us to be independent for the same reason which actuates the sugar men. The tobacco interests are supposed to be very powerful and I hope their influence is not exaggerated.

"In addition we have the true American spirit of liberty on our side, but somehow we never got anywhere on sympathy and idealism.

They Want It Now

"What we all want is immediate independence. I don't know of a Filipino anywhere in the world who doesn't want that. At our last convention when someone on the platform would mention independence the applause would last for an hour so the speakers had to stop mentioning independence and refer to it by innuendo."

There are two independence bills in Congress now, the King bill and the Vandenberg bill. Dr. Moncado favors the King bill because it would grant immediate independence. The Vandenberg bill would free the islands gradually, raising our tariff wall gradually against them over a 10-year period.

Talk To Them

NEW YORK. — Alfred E. Smith believes the way to gain a person's confidence is through use of plain English Addressing a convention of the trust company division of the American Bankers' association, he deplored the habit of talking "over the head of the man in the street." "The clearer you make it," he told the bankers, "the better he thinks you understand it yourself."

Showing Loss

LONDON.—A debate in the House of Commons has brought out that the buffet at St. Jame's Palace is so dry in deference to the American naval delegates that it has proved unremunerative to the caterers' firm maintaining it. One member thought the dry policy was hard on the other delegates, but nothing was done about it.

Rather High

NEW YORK. — Autographed first editions of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh's "We" are proving a profitable investment. One of the 1,000 autographed copies of the book brought $105 at auction at the American Art Association-Anderson Galleries, incorporated.

Hard Workers

NEW YORK.—Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, who represents Florida in the house, regrets that "congress is so often in the humorous columns of the newspapers." She told the league for political education she wished the public would see the long hours congressmen put in their offices looking after the affairs of their constituents.

The fortieth anniversary of the Eiffel Tower, in Paris, the highest building in the world, was celebrated in 1929. Nearly 14,000,000 persons have ascended the tower since its construction.

BARBS

It's almost time for spring housecleaning. Now you may find a couple of those things you have been missing since fall housecleaning.

On the front page of a Boston paper a speech of Count Karolyi's is reported, in which he says we are living in a state of socialism but we don't know it. In the next column is a story to the effect that 496 people in this country are paying taxes on incomes of more than $1,000,000. You may write your own observation.

Senator Robison of Kentucky says the sugar tariff question is of interest to people in "two or three hemispheres." We haven't had any reports from the fourth one yet, however.

The Census Bureau states a baby is born every 13 seconds. Maybe Mr. Barnum's figures ought to be revised now.

Long whiskers are becoming stylish again, according to advices from London. Well, they can't say our supreme court is old-fashioned, anyway.

Did it ever occur to you that many modern and ancient works of art are merely busts?

Scotland has 3253 schools with accommodations for 1,063,299 pupils.

Turf King Dies

LOUISVILLE—A king of the turf is dead. Bourbon King, world's champion five-gaited show horse, died at the North Middletown farm of A. J. Jones and Sons, aged 30 years. During the three years he was shown he never met defeat and was known to experienced horsemen as the greatest show horse of all time.

Gilbert Swan

In New York

With Swan

NEW YORK, Feb. 21—The more classical entertainment of Manhattan this winter has a decidedly Spanish flavor.

The invasion has been gradual, but certain.

If you follow the crowds to those concert rooms where the dance is at its most continental—you'll find L'Argentina.

If you follow another crowd to that spot where the guitar is strummed—you'll find Segovia. The pianistic rage of the moment is the great Spanish artist Iturbi and Carnegie Hall rings with huzzahs from time to time for the Aguilar Lute Quartet of Madrid. Tine Meller, sister of the equally Spanish Raquel, draws out the swanky crowds when the night is approaching the dawn.

There's no particular accounting for the coincidence of a half dozen assorted artists being here at the same time, unless it be that word has trickled back that the box offices are particularly appreciative.

* * *

Vogues of this sort come and go in Manhattan, although the good artists of almost any land are fairly certain of a reception. Just a couple of winters ago, the town couldn't get enough of the Russians.

They came as Russian dancers and they came as art theater exponents; they came as pianists and they came as singers; they came as Chauve Souris's and they came as Charlot Revue players.

And I don't recall a single outstanding Russian event in the current year.

* * *

Evelyn Laye, the gorgeous blond gal from London, who has been quickening the Broadway pulse since early winter, is perhaps the most modest star ever to visit our shores.

Whereas the loudest ham of the glittering gulch battles for a name in the bright lights, Miss Laye calmly declined to have her moniker emblazoned in front of the theater where she appears in "Bitter Sweet."

It was only after several weeks of appearance that a modest array of mazdaa spelled the letters of her name.

Unable to become accustomed to the unathletic ways of the Manhattan millions, she took an apartment in upper Fifth avenue, where she could swing over to Central Park for long walks in the early morning. There, if you're not a columnist—and hence go to bed nights—you'll find her at breakfast time making several swings around the park reservoir, well bundled in a natty leather sport coat. She attends few of the stay-up emporiums and accepts few social invitations from the giddy set.

* * *

Albert Stevens Crockett, who keeps an eye upon the very swanky folk who dance on the St. Regis roof, rises to report that the dear old swallow-tail coat is being seen more at the present moment than at any time in years. The "tux," particularly in informal cuts, had appeared to supplant the long-tails.

Furthermore, the report states that the cry for jazz is not so loud. People actually sit about and converse with each other during dinner.

U. S. Court To Get Cisco Litigation

FORT WORTH, Feb. 21 (AP)—The suit brought by bondholders of the City of Cisco seeking to recover unpaid interest on Cisco Municipal bonds today rested on the law docket in United States district court as a simple suit for debt, Federal Judge James C. Wilson yesterday dismissed the plea of two citizens of Cisco who sought, as taxpayers, to intervene in the suit asking an injunction to prevent Cisco city authorities from paying any interest or principal on the onds or to encumber Lake Cisco in any way to meet the obligations.

BRIDGE BILL HELD UP

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (AP) — Consideration of bills for construction of three free bridges across the Red River connecting Oklahoma and Texas was deferred today by the Senate Commerce committee for two weeks to await negotiations now in progress looking to a settlement of the dispute over this legislation.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters M.D.

CHILD WHO IS UNDERNOURISHED SHOULD HAVE PHYSICIAN'S CARE

Answers To Mothers

God could not be everywhere; therefore, He made mothers.
—Jewish Proverb.

"DEAR DOCTOR: My friend's little girl, aged two years, is never hungry, and when meal time comes she must be cajoled and fed like an infant, and it takes little or nothing to fill her up. To top this off, if another mouthful of food is given her, beyond that which she desires, she can vomit up everything from breakfast on, and then be as empty as a pikskin, feel a little sick, and then be perfectly fine in ten minutes. She is an only child, and is given excellent care. Her vegetables are all strained etc.
MISS S."

This is evidently a case of spoiled child, and that means that the treatment really should be applied to the mother. She should have some good books on child psychology and training.

The child probably needs less attention in some lines and more in other lines. Has she been taken to a children's specialist or clinic for a check-up, to see that there is no organic disorder operating? If there isn't, then, of course, it may be possible that with the meager diet she is taking, she is not getting enough vitamins so that her appetite is stimulated, and not enough protein or mineral elements for her growth and not enough carbobydrates and fats for her energy.

At two years of age, her vegetables should not be strained.

The right foods should be set down before her, with no coaxing or any remarks on eating to her; if she doesn't eat, she should be taken away from the table and not allowed to have anything until the next meal, when the same procedure should be followed. This almost fasting for a day or so won't hurt her and may be very salutary. Needless to say, the food should be attractively prepared and tasty.

The foods that are high in vitamin B, the appetite-stimulating vitamin, should be offered her, and then perhaps it would be well to give her some concentarted vitamin B by the addition of Vitavose, on her cereal. (The vitamin B is highest in tomatoes, beans, fresh cabbage, fresh spinach, yeast, yeast extracts, whole grain breads and cereals, orange juice, etc.

Of course, I'm only giving general instructions, which may not apply in any particular case, and I repeat the mother should take the child to a children's specialist. We have a list of modern books on the general care and feeding of children, which can be obtained by following column rules.

"Dear Doctor: My baby uses a pacifier and it is ruining the shape of his lower lip. I am going to break him of the habit. Can I correct the disfigured lip? Some one had suggested that the use of a pacifier with a very large button, which would press against the lower lip, would correct the trouble. Do you think so?
MRS. S."

You should take your baby to a baby specialist or clinic, Mrs. S. Your neighbor's suggestion might help the lower lip, but the continued sucking would cause greater deformity of the hard plate and encourage the enlargement of tonsil and adenoid tissue, so it wouldn't be good. And it wouldn't break the habit.

The thing to be done is to take the pacifier away entirely. Remember that you will have three or four days of bedlam. Warn your neighbors, for the baby will certainly protest vigorously. Too bad you ever forced the habit on him. The manufacture of pacifiers should be prohibited. I wish the women's clubs would take up this problem.

Editor's Note: Dr. Peters cannot diagnose nor give personal advice. Your questions, if of general interest, will be answered in the column in their turn. Requests for articles or pamphlets on hand must be accompanied by a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope, plus the following small charge to help cover cost of printing and handling: for each article wanted, two cents in coin; for each pamphlet, ten cents in coin. The pamphlets are Reducing and Gaining, Hygiene of Women, Kidney and Bladder Disorders. Address Dr. Peters, in care of this paper. Write legibly, and not over 200 words.

Who's Who and Timely Views

TYPES OF CONSERVATION DISCUSSED

BY GEORGE OTIS SMITH
Director, U. S. Geological Survey

(George Otis Smith was born at Hodgdon, Me., Feb. 22, 1871. He is a graduate of Colby college, later obtaining a Ph. D. at Johns Hopkins. From 1893 to 1906 he was engaged in geological work in several states. Since 1907 he has been director of the U. S. Geological Survey. He is a member of numerous scientific associations, and is the author of many geological reports, etc.)

Conservation has arrived. Twenty-odd years ago the word "conservation" was the then new name of a program of political reform; today it is the label for a policy of practical business. Both name and idea are accepted by practical men.

Geo. Otis Smith

This adoption in practice of what was once regarded as only theory has brought about changes in the status of those working for conservation.

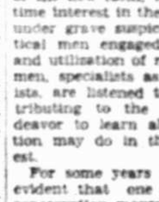
Once the scientist or engineer or economist who questioned any item in the reform program was cast out as unorthodox by the devotees of the new faith, while at the same time interest in the subject laid him under grave suspicion by the practical men engaged in development and utilization of resources. Now all men, specialists as well as capitalists, are listened to gladly as contributing to the wide-spread endeavor to learn all that conservation may do in the general interest.

For some years now it has been evident that one trouble with the conservation movement was that at the start there was a common misunderstanding of the idea and the reason for this was that the idea had two aspects. There were then and are now, two fairly distinct types of conservation—practical conservation and political conservation.

Those who have believed in practical conservation have thought in terms of engineering efficiency avoidance of waste, and wise use. The advocates of political conservation have thought in terms of social justice, avoidance of monopoly, and future protection of the public interest. The engineering mind seeks to discover and create wealth; the political mind desires to distribute that wealth.

Conservation of the practical type concerns itself with ways and means of using most efficiently both capital and labor in the utilization of natural resources. This is purely a problem in engineering, but its successful solution in the United States calls for the assistance of lawmakers and public executives.

The end sought has country-wide significance, and under our form of government the people's will must be enlisted in the people's interest. To this extent, conservation has its social and political side, but there is no warrant for making practical conservation in any sense a political or partisan issue. It is rather something to be worked out in practice by business men.



What this Doctor did for Humanity

As a young man the late Dr. R. V. Pierce, practiced medicine in Pennsylvania and was known far and near for his great success in alleviating disease. Finally he moved to Buffalo, N. Y., and put up in ready-to-use form, his GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY, the well-known tonic for the blood. This strength builder is made from a formula which Dr. Pierce found most effective when in private practice.

It aids digestion, acts as a tonic and enriches the blood—clears away pimples and annoying eruptions and tends to keep the complexion fresh and clear. All druggists. Tablets or liquid.

YOUR VERY BEST OPPORTUNITY

There are people in Lubbock who own their homes clear of debt, who want to sell them. Maybe they have to leave on account of health or business changes. Or maybe they want to change their investment. Yet they can not sell and perhaps can not for several years. Homes that are worth $5,000 and $6,000; houses that are worth $10,000 to $12,000 or $14,000 bringing $6,000, or $7,000 or $8,000. Raw lands are selling well, for they are still cheap and in demand. The folks who are coming now are nearly all farmers. The very easiest and quickest way for you to turn your property into money is to trade it for our clients' lands in Hockley county. It is worth $50 to $75 per acre and with fair crop and decent prices this year will go to $90 to $100. Has small debt of $12.50, long time at 6 per cent. Not leased, no weeds, fine school, fine water, talk it over.

STOCK MARKET SAGS AGAIN

LEADING SHARES GIVEN SUPPORT BUT OTHERS DROP SLIGHTLY

NEW YORK, Feb. 21 (AP)—Several leading shares met strong support at the opening of the stock market today, while the majority of active issues continued to sag. American Can and Eastman Kodak mounted about 3 points, American Telephone 2, Westinghouse Electric, opening with a block of 5,000 shares, 3-4, and U. S. Steel 1-2. Brooklyn Union Gas jumped 5 points. General Electric, however, opened with a block of 5,000 shares off 1-4, and other shares losing 1-4 to 1-2 included National Cash Register, Southern Railway, Mack Truck, Electric Auto Lite, and American International. American Machine & Foundry, Union Pacific, Auburn Auto and Safeway Stores lost about 2 points each.

Plenty of stock was supplied on the opening rally in the leading issues, and Johns Manville, Westinghouse Electric and several others quickly lost all or part of their early gains of 1 to nearly 3 points. On the other hand, Auburn Auto converted an initial loss of 2 points into a gain of 3 before the end of the first half hour.

CHICAGO WHEAT

CHICAGO, Feb. 21 (AP)—Wheat prices here took a decided upward swing early today, influenced by a brisk unexpected jump in quotations at Liverpool.

Opening 1 1-8 to 2 1-4 higher, Chicago wheat future deliveries afterward scored additional gains. Corn, oats and provisions rose also, with corn starting half to 1 cent up, and subsequently holding near the initial figures.

COTTON EASY ON OPENING

FIRST TRADES RECORD LOSSES BUT RALLIES ARE MADE LATER

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 21 (AP)—Cotton opened easier on rather lower cables than due. Initial trades showed losses of 5 to 6 points, and the market continued to ease off on some further March liquidation and owing to the recent favorable weather in the belt March traded down to 15.03, May to 15.31 and July to 15.54, or 7 to 9 points below yesterday's close.

Near the end of the first hour the market rallied on improvement in the wheat market and covering by shorts in advance of the holidays. March traded up to 15.12, May to 15.39 and July to 15.63, or 8 to 9 points above the lows.

The market later ruled steadier in sympathy with the firmer wheat market and on shorts covering in advance of the holiday tomorrow. March traded up to 15.17, May to 15.44, and July to 15.66, or 12 to 13 points up from the lows and 3 to 5 points above yesterday's close. Trading was very quiet, being held in check by the fact that Monday will be March notice day here and Tuesday notice day in New York.

DECLINE IS FROM 6 TO 8 POINTS IN N. Y.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (AP)—Cotton opened steady at a decline of 6 to 8 points under rather heavy selling of old crop months by trade interests and liquidation or scattered selling promoted by relatively easy cables.

March liquidation continued, but it was largely in the way of switching, and initial offerings were absorbed on the decline to 15.48 for May and 15.88 for October. Covering for over the week-end and a scattering demand probably promoted by the firmer opening of wheat was sufficient to steady the market at these figures and prices showed rallies later.

The market held steady later. There was enough trade buying and covering to cause rallies of several points from th eearly low level, but after selling up to 15.61 for May, or about 3 to 5 points net higher, the market became comparatively quiet. Prices eased back slightly under realizing, but at midday were holding fairly steady within a point or two either way of yesterday's closing quotations.

CHICAGO COMMITTEE STARTS RAISING $50,000,000 TO RELIEVE CITY OF ITS FINANCIAL STATUS; PAY DAYS CLOSER

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—Some 43,000 public employes today experienced that feeling which comes only on payday as Chicago began converting words into cash to relieve the city's financial embarrassment.

Silas H. Strawn, chairman of the citizens' rescue committee, said he expected to have $50,000,000 pledged by taxpayers by today noon. City and county officials added the cheerful word that checks would follow within 24 hours.

Bankers Skeptical

Some bankers of the citizens committee were skeptical of the promise, pointing out that the mechanics for organizing the ...l and collecting the money would be more than a one-day task. It appeared certain, however, that every public employe would be paid up to February 15 by Tuesday.

Subscription blanks, asking contributions to the pool, were distributed among large taxpayers today. They carried the promise that no money would be collected until the full $50,000,000 had been pledged.

Means Of Rescue

The pool as a means of rescuing the various governments of Cook county from the financial situation in which they have floundered since December grew out of a meeting of taxpayers yesterday. Many large taxpayers have money on deposit waiting for 1928 and 1929 tax bills which cannot be sent out until June.

The money will not be used to buy tax-anticipation warrants through the "Cook county tax payers' warrant fund," which will act as a holding company.

Unemployed Mob Mills In Chicago

CHICAGO, Feb. 21. (AP)—Several hundred men and women milled about the city hall today in protest against unemployment. Squads of mounted police charged the throng, using billie to keep the leaders from haranguing the mob that quickly gathered. Seven persons suffered bruised heads, and several were arrested.

The march on the city hall started after a mass meeting at Redhifer hall on north Wells street, called "to fight unemployment."

Representing one of the largest transactions in this section in recent months, Reuben Usher has sold a league of land, located in Bailey county, to M. C. Parrish, Austin banker, for a consideration of $132,840.

The land involves 4,428 acres, one-quarter of which is being broken up at this time for cultivation.

Mr. Parrish said at time of purchase that he chose it in that it was the largest single body of land to prove 98 per cent tillable and that it was of a tight-claw loam.

Sale of the land was made through G. E. Ewing.

PRESENT MAYOR AND CANDIDATE FOR POST APPROVE SURVEY ON GAS RATE, NOW UNDER WAY HERE BY COLUMNIST

Efforts of The Plainsman, Lubbock Daily Journal columnist, to ascertain whether gas rates in this city are fair and equitable, as compared with other cities, were endorsed today by Mayor Harley D. Woods and J. J. Clements, president of the Rotary club and a candidate for mayor in the municipal elections on April 1.

"A survey of gas rates in other cities would serve as an informational source to consumers in Lubbock," said Mayor Woods. "On the surface of matters it does not appear that rates here are too high, considering the extensive improvements made by the West Texas Gas company in laying lines and erecting buildings within the last few months. I believe that any company should be allowed a reasonable profit on its investment. When profits of the company have liquidated, in a large measure, the expenditures made in installing the system throughout the South Plains then we should expect a reduction in rates.

"Conducted as The Plainsman has signified, the survey should afford a topic for comparative study. I believe that newspapers should serve their patrons in such manner."

Mr. Clements says that he sees no reason why a fair and impartial investigation should not be made. "I think," he said, "that this city should not be penalized or be discriminated against by an unfair rate. For that reason I shall watch the survey closely, as every citizen of Lubbock should."

Rates Reproduced

Present rates in this city follow:

Corsicana Fans To Give Up Team Plan

CORSICANA, Feb. 21 (AP)—Baseball fans of Corsicana today had practically abandoned hope of entering the proposed Lone Star baseball league, after the city council yesterday refused the request of a committee that it provide a grandstand and playing field. Officials of the temporary league organization here expressed doubt they would be able to raise the 3,000 necessary to build a grandstand, if a field were available.

Livestock, Ranges Affected By Cold January Weather

Cattlemen Compelled To Feed; Condition Of Area Is Given As Seventy-One Percent Normal

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Feb. 21.—Texas livestock and ranges were in unusually poor condition the first of this month as a result of the bitter cold in January, the monthly report of E. D. Blood, statistician for the United States department of agriculture, disclosed.

The report stated that ranges were covered with snow and ice during much of January. Weeds, brush and range grasses were killed and cattlemen were compelled to feed liberally to avert heavy losses, it was said. Cattle, sheep and goats suffered where shelter and feed were not provided and many newborn calves and fall lambs were lost through exposure. The report said that cattle were in poor flesh in some areas, feed was becoming scarce and that the cattlemen feared heavy losses if February weather was unusually severe.

Condition 71 Per Cent

The condition of cattle ranges on February 1 was given as 71 per cent a decline of six points during January and the lowest February 1 condition in the last eight years, except in 1923. Vegetation in most localities was killed and only dead mesquite was available in some areas. A note of optimism was sounded in the report with the statement that soil moisture was plentiful in most areas and that warm weather would assure plenty of spring grass.

The cattle condition was 74 per cent, a drop of seven points in a month and eight points under the five-year average for February 1. Losses were heavy in some counties, especially in the coastal region, the report set out.

The condition of sheep likewise declined, showing a drop of 11 points under the average, and goats were 13 points below the average.

"Many ranchmen have had to feed sheep and goats to pull them through, especially where the ranges were overstocked," Blood said. Many sheep and goats are thin.

Hunger Striker

NEA Cleveland Bureau

Claiming he is the victim of a blackmail plot, Richard Stewart, 47 a druggist, has gone on a hunger strike in the county jail at Warren O., where he is serving a 139-day sentence rather than pay a $208 fine imposed on Jan. 15, when he was convicted of molesting a woman. Stewart is shown above in his cell. He drinks water but steadfastly refuses to accept food.

Wethers withstood the cold fairly well but other classes suffered. Sheep which were shown in the fall were badly drawn by the cold weather. Death losses were high among fall lambs. A few old ewes and does were lost by exposure. Cold weather caused a large loss of kids through premature birth."

The report stated that only a fair prospect existed for the 1930 lamb crop, as ewes generally were poor, although it said weather and range conditions between now and April would determine the size of the crop to a large extent.

ASKS FOR AID

LONGVIEW, Feb. 21. (AP)—Citizens of Gregg county have been asked by a county grand jury to assist officers in putting a stop to "Quasi-Saloon" business. The inquisitorial body alleged that several "so-called flavorings" were sold in the county and used for beverage purposes.

Former Lubbock Man Comes Back To City To Operate Modern Suburban Store; Announces Personnel

ONE of the most modern of suburban drug stores in this city is the Clark Drug store, which has been opened at the corner of Broadway and Avenue Q.

John G. Clark, the owner, came to Lubbock six years ago, and was formerly employed at Halsey Drug Store, 1209 Texas Avenue. He is a registered druggist.

Offers Curb Service.

Aside from a complete stock of drugs, toilet articles and numerous items handled by the modern drug store, Mr. Clark has installed an up-to-date soda fountain. Curb service is being offered.

"I have always wanted a business of my own," said Mr. Clark. "I am especially happy in this investment because of the faith which I have in the future of Lubbock."

A. B. Green, formerly of Olney, has been employed as general clerk. Ned Chapman, formerly of Bowen's drug store, will have charge of the soda fountain.

In addition to managerial duties, Mr. Clark will have charge of prescriptions.

SEEK LAW CHANGES

Mason County Land Owners Want Revised Rules

MASON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Land owners in Mason county are planning to petition legislation which will bring a change in the deer laws, J. W. White, banker here, says there is a great deal of sentiment in favor of making a six-point deer the minimum size. The limit of $4 a day for hunting rights should be raised to $5 and 25 cents an acre charge for the season should be elevated to 30 cents an acre, he believes. More disregard of the hunting laws this season than at any other time in history has been reported by county officials, Mr. White says.

Government Will Aid Texas Water And Flood Plans

Maximum Assurance Of Federal Co-Operation Is Given Conservation Program Of State At Meet

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Feb. 21.—Texas was given the maximum assurance of co-operation from the federal government in the solution of its water conservation and flood control problems at the conference on these subjects held in McCook, Nebr., Jan. 27, 28, by representatives of states west of the Mississippi river.

This assurance was given here by Rep. Leonard Tillotson, of Sealy, upon his return from the conference. Rep. Tillotson, because of his active participation in the creation of the Brazos river conservation and reclamation district, and Robert P. Hall of Electra, of the Pease and Red River district were appointed by Gov. Dan Moody to represent Texas at this conference.

Policy Successful

"Texas was successful in securing a broad declaration of policy to the effect that the importance to the general welfare of the participation in government is the conservation of soil fertility and the nation's water resources," said Rep Tillotson.

"With the accompanying regulation of stream flow and the prevention of destruction of property, interruption of productive enterprise and performance of essential public service, demands the adoption by Congress of a constructive national policy for the conservation of water resources and for flood prevention."

Features Outlined.

He summed up the outstanding features of the meeting as follows: (1) the declaration in behalf of the establishment by Congress of a national flood control and water conservation policy. (2) The declaration that the government recognized the posibilities of storage of flood waters in Mississippi river control. (3) An indorsement of the proposal that surveys be made of Mississippi river tributaries to demonstrate the extent of their influence upon the Mississippi, the possible methods of control, and the probable regional advantageous use of the flood waters."

"Milk For Health" Week Designated

AUSTIN, Feb. 21. (AP)—Governor Dan Moody has set aside the week of March 30, April 6 as "Milk for Health Week."

Statewide recognition of this event as a period during which the health qualities of milk and milk products and general amelioration of child health would be discussed, was asked by the governor following a general meeting Saturday called here by Dr. J. C. Anderson, state health officer. One hundred representatives of various child welfare and other associations attended the session.

Principal among the speakers, was Mrs. J. E. King of San Antonio who is a member of President Hoover's White House conference committee on child health and state chairman of the public health and state chairman of the public health bureau of the Federation of Women's Clubs. CAMPBELL—VAN CAMP

High Levels In Sheep Expected To Be In Force For Two Years; High Point In Expansion In U. S. Is Reached

(By Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Feb. 21.—It appears that the high point in the expansion of sheep numbers in the United States has about been reached. A new annual record slaughter of sheep and lambs is expected within the next two years and it seems improbable that prices for these increased supplies can be maintained at the high levels of the last 3 or 4 years.

The increase in the world wool production in recent years will probably not continue much farther and some reduction is expected by 1931. Production in 1030, however, will probably not be greatly different from the high production of the last two years. It is likely that demand conditions, which are unfavorable at present, will begin to improve in the last half of 1930, and will more favorably affect the marketing of the domestic clip of 1931 than that of 1930.

Outlook Is Better

The outlook for the sheep industry suggests that the readjustments which will take place as a result of reduced price levels should be effected gradually in order that the marked may not be unduly depressed by temporary seasonal gluts. In the past, periods of low prices, such as those now prevailing for wool and as seem probable for lambs, have been followed by higher prices a few years later.

Sheep numbers in the United States continued to increase during 1929 but the increase of 1,400,000 head was the smallest in the last 4 years. There were probably as many sheep (including lambs) on farms January 1, this year as on that date in at least 30 years. Of the 18,913,000 head as estimated on farms January 1, 1930, some 5,490,000 head were estimated on feed for market. This was the largest number estimated on feed in eight years and was probably almost as large as in any previous year.

Lamb Crop Smaller.

In spite of increased sheep numbers the estimated lamb crop last year (25,976,000) was about 1 per cent smaller than that of 1928. The native crop was larger but due primarily to unfavorable weather both at mating and lambing time, the western crop was considerably smaller. The western states with about 69 per cent of the sheep population reported a 1929 lamb crop of 16,645,000 head as compared with 9,331,00 head saved in the native states.

Lamb slaughter from the 1929 crop up to January 1, was about 450,000 head larger than the slaughter of 1928 lamb sfor the same period. In addition there were about 700,00 head more lambs on feed January 1 this year than last year. The total lamb slaughter from the 1929 lamb crop will thus probably exceed that from the 1928 crop by at least 1,000,000 head.

The average price of sheep and lambs slaughtered during the fed lamb season for the 1928 lamb crop, December 19328 to April 1929, inclusive, was $15.03, compared with $13.88 paid for the corresponding period a year earlier.

The average price paid for sheep and lambs slaughtered during the grazing season for the 1929 crop of lambs, May to November 1929, was $12.21, as compared with $13.31 paid in the same period of 1928, and $12.84 paid in that period of 1927.

Search Is Ended

Mother Fails To Find Lost Son

DEL RIO, Feb. 21. (AP)—Death has written the finishing chapter here to a mother's vain search of more than seven years for her son.

Mrs. Fannie Boyce Drowne, 72, died after coming to Del Rio the last point in a search which had extended all over the continent. Mrs. Drowne enlisted the aid of other persons and advertised in many periodicals but she did not locate the missing boy, C. A. Drowne.

Another son, R. C. Drowne, participated in some of the major engagements of the World War and is now in a veteran's hospital in the east. He is a former student of Colgate university.

Although the aged woman made all arrangements for the administration of her affairs after death, she persisted in the hope that she would live to find her lost son and see the other well again.

She left word for her body to be buried in Kerwin, Kansas. Mrs. Drowne came here from Florida and died within a wek.

Texas Is Becoming Airminded; Lines Networking State

New York Is Brought Within 24 Hours Of North And Central Texas By Line; Fares Reduced

(By Associated Press)

DALLAS, Feb. 21.—Proof that airplane travel is about to become as comomn as transportation in the "horseless carriage"—once thought of as extremely dangerous—is found in the network of airlines over Texas and constant improvement of service and equipment. Only recently New York was brought to within 24 hours of north Central Texas by air and rail travel. A business man may leave Dallas at 7:40 a. m., and, after a day in the air, board a fast train at Cleveland which will place him in New York the next morning in ample time for the business day.

Fares Reduced

Reduction of fares on practically all lines has brought air travel within the reach of the pocketbook of any one who has the cost of a railroad ticket. Instead of the flat ten-cent a mile rate charged when interstate lines were first established, most aviation companies have reduced their fares to a par with railroads, plus Pullman charges. Whether this move was made to find out if persons will take to the air if the cost is not prohibitive, or whether the economic principle of "lower prices—more business" was involved, is a moot question.

Cabin monoplanes, single single-motored and tri-motored, are used by the six companies with lines from Dallas. Most routes are to the north, including stops at Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Kansas City and St. Louis. Another line carries passengers to New Orleans and Alabama points. Daily air service to San Angelo and West Texas points was statrted in the fall. The southern route to the gulf has been well patronized. At San Antonio recently, 37 persons were unable to leave the ground because of lack of transport ships.

A new route, from Sweetwater to Los Angeles is being considered, and, if established, will give Texans air service in all directions.

Palo Duro Canyon May Become Unit Of New State Park

Scenic Attraction Texas' Closest Rival Of Grand Canyon In Colo.; Cave Hidden In Gorge

(By Associated Press)

AMARILLO, Feb. 21.—Palo Duro canyon, which may become a unit in the proopsed state park system, is Texas' closest rival of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado as a scenic attraction.

It is one of nature's masterpieces. Starting in Randall county it lies in a southeasterly direction, extending through Randall, Armstrong, Briscoe, Hall and Donley counties, a distance of more than 100 miles. It varies in width from one to ten miles, and in depth from several hundred feet to approximately one-fifth of a mile.

Has Deep Gorge

The plateau on either side of the gorge is about 3,400 feet above sea level. The floor has an altitude of from 3,200 to 2,800 above the sea on the upper reaches and still deeper near the mouth.

Throughout its entire length runs Prairie Dog branch of Red River, a turbulent stream with waterfalls, rapids and quiet pools along its course. It is fed by springs and during the rainy season the drainage of a wide area falls into its beds.

Nature Runs Riot

Nature runs riot with the canyon's rock and earth. There are shades of red and brown, purple, blue, yellow and gold and tan. As rays of the sun shift the colors change hue, each succeding hour of the day bringing a new tint.

Somewhere in the canyon is a cave, not fully explored. The location is kept secret by its discoveries.

Spanish conquistadors, probably in 1540, are believed to have been the first white men to see the canyon.

EXHIBITS ARE PLANNED

AMARILLO, Feb. 21. (AP)—Eight state fairs and three national expositions are included in the list of 16 fairs in which the Panhandle-Plains, Inc., will display exhibits this year.

Besides a display of agricultural products each exhibit will include four maps illustrating transpectation, educational facilities, agriculture and livestock and industries of the section.

Grapefruit Get Men in Trouble

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 21. (AP)—Squirtless grape fruit was on the market here today. But instead of being hailed as a boon to mankind and another evidence of the advance of modern science it only got its its owner into trouble.

Federal food inspectors announced condemnation proceedings would be started against a shipment of 50,000 grapefruit from Mission, Texas, which apparently had been frozen in transit. There wasn't a squire in a carload, they said.

To Spend Million For Discovery Of New Product Uses

Study Of Agricultural Products Expected To Aid Farmer More Than Farm Relief Program Of U. S.

DALLAS, Feb. 21. (AP)—One million dollars spent in the discovery of new uses for agricultural products would do more for the American farmer than a $500,000,000 Congressional appropriation for farm relief, in the opinion of Dr. George Washington Carver, noted negro scientist of Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Ala.

Dr. Carver believes that science has done more for industry than the protective tariff and that it can be made to do the same for agriculture. Stating that the nation wastes more food than it consumes, Dr. Carver advocates an intensive application of science, especially to plant chemistry, to agricultural products in order to extract from them every possible commercial by-products.

Dr. Carver recently toured Texas, speaking at Austin, San Antonio, Houston and here. His talks were sponsored by civic and agricultural organizations. He has produced more than 200 commercial by-products of the peanut, 120 products of the sweet potato and 80 of the pecan.

Protest Made On Open Gambling

EL PASO, Feb. 21. (AP)—Fear that gambling will be reopened in Juarez, across the border here, to the detriment of American trade in the Mexican city, the manager of the Juarez Chamber of Commerce has addressed a letter to President Ortiz Rubio protesting against issuance of gambling permits.

Urbano Zea, manager of the Juarez chamber, in writing the letter, said he did not believe Ortiz Rubio would allow any applications, as he is expected to follow the policy of his predecessor, Portes Gil, in regard to gambling.

Open gambling, he explained, might lead to closing of the international bridge here at an early hour each night. Business men of El Paso have indicated they would ask the federal government for the restriction in the event open gambling was restored, and Juarez business interests prefer present conditions without possible gambling profits to the possible shutting off of night trade.

WANT CHANGE MADE

Students Ask For Memorial Arch On South Side

AUSTIN, Feb. 21. (AP)—University of Texas students have expressed themselves in the controversy over a site for the Littlefield memorial arch to the South. They want it placed at the south entrance to the campus, where it was originally planned to put it.

They had petitioned the Board of Regents to rescind their former action in shifting the arch to a site on the east side of the campus.

The widow of the late George W. Littlefield, who bequeathed $400,000 for the arch as a monument to the confederacy, had announced that unless the regents agreed to place it at the south entrance the gift would be diverted to the City of Austin.

PLAN LIMITATION

S. M. U. To Limit Students Activities In Plan

DALLAS, Feb. 21. (AP)—The student council of Southern Methodist University is considering a suggestion to limit the number of activities in which each student is allowed to participate. The purpose of such limitation would be to divide student honors among a larger percentage of those enrolled in the school.

A survey will be conducted to determine if restriction is need.

Will Ferguson Get His Name On Party Ballot Question

Passing And Repeal Of Amnest Bill Presents Problem In Campaign; Race Is Rather Crowded

BY R. W. BARRY,
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, Feb. 21. (AP)—Former Governor James E. Ferguson, husband of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, Texas' first woman governor, is back in the fray. He is ambitious to be governor of Texas again and has announced his candidacy subject to the Democratic primaries next July.

There immediately pops up the question: Will he be able to get his name on the ballot?

Was Removed

It is recalled he was removed from office in 1917 and that under the constitution impeachment carried with it "disqualification from holding any office of honor, trust or profit."

But the 39th legislature passed what is known as the "amnesty bill," directing that the inhibition with reference to holding office again be removed from those who has heretofore been impeached, and the sponsors of that piece of legislation had former Governor Ferguson in mind when they proposed it.

Then along came the 40th legislature and Governor Moody. The "Amnesty law" was repealed. But friends of the former governor declared that once the legislative body had invoked its power of pardon in that respect another legislature could not undo it.

Courts May Get It

A pretty law question probably that will be threshed out by the appellate courts if there is any contention over the matter of giving "Farmer Jim," as he became known during his first term as chief executive, a place on the ballot.

That question came up in 1924, and to get around it Governor Ferguson filed both his name and Mrs. Ferguson's for a place on the ballot. They turned him down, but put Mrs. Ferguson on. He took to the hustings and Mrs. Ferguson was elected. She served one term, or until Attorney General Dan Moody stepped out and defeated her for re-election.

Is Indication

But, the Ferguson of today, if his latest announcement is to be taken as an indication, is not the aggressive Ferguson of yesterday, as one may judge by the tenor of this extract from his formal announcement:

"If there be those who may find satisfaction in personal abuse and vicious criticism of me or my record let them be at once advised that they will have the field all to themselves without murmur or protest from me. I have long since made by peace with God and I shall not now permit the heat of politics to engulf me in personal hatred."

Organizes Party.

Since his removal from office Ferguson has been a candidate for United States senator. Also, he had oragnized in Texas a party of his own, called the American party, and ran for President as its nominee.

Entry of Governor Ferguson into the already crowded gubernatorial race, has revived speculation as to political plans of Governor Moody. Some believe Ferguson's candidacy will force him out for a third term. Many had predicted that regardless of who should be candidates, Moody would seek another term in an effort to carry out his penitentiary centralization idea and to propose shifting of the tax burden from the land owners and home owners to a basis of "ability to pay," or changing the present system of exacting a tax from a citizen whether he is able to pay it or not rather than computing according to the earnings of those levied against.

It was reported that Attorney General R. L. Bobbitt, appointed to his present office by Governor Moody when Attorney General Claude Pollard resigned, had definitely decided to announce for election to his office. It was known that he had considered becoming a candidate for governor. Public announcement by him that he would seek the attorney generalship would be taken to mean that Gov. Moody had definitely made up his mind to ask for a third term. Moody and Bobbitt are close political friends. Bobbitt should have first call on the governor's office when Moody vacates and the attorney general's friends believe that he will put in a bid for it the minute his governor friend decides to relinquish it.

Zoning Case Up In San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 21. (AP)—Suit for an injunction which would restrain the city of San Antonio from interfering with the erection of a store in the heart of an exclusive residential section has been appealed to the Fourth Court of Civil Appeals here.

The would-be builder, Robert Thompson, has won the first battle of what promises to be a long legal fight. The city has been restrained from enforcing a new ordinance which restricts the area where the store is being built. Thompson in turn has been restrained from continuing work on the building pending final outcome of the suit.

T. D. Cobbs, Jr., city attorney, says that the case may be carried to the supreme court of the United States, as it involves the questions of "property rights," and a definition of "due process of law." The mayor of San Antonio, C. M. Chambers, revoked a building permit for the proposed store after citizens protested. The plaintiff alleges that the mayor deprived him of his property rights, inasmuch as no building restrictions existed when the permit was issued.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Feb. 21. (AP)—Governor Cooper today denied Dr. James H. Snook a stay of execution from his death sentence for the slaying of Theora Hix, former Ohio co-ed.

Huntsville Now In Hundredth Year

HUNTSVILLE, Feb. 21. (AP)—Huntsville, home of the state penitentiary and the Sam Houston State Teachers college is now in the one hundredth year of its existance.

In 1830, Pleasant Gray, with his wife, left their home in Huntsville, Ala., and pushed westward. While traversing what is now Texas, then belonging to Mexico, he became favorably impressed with the friendliness of the Bedias Indians and neighboring tribes. He immediately decided to remain among the Indians and trade with them.

Gray's next step was to find a suitable location for his post. Just 75 miles north of Houston, in what is now Walker county, Gray established his trading post, calling it Huntsville for his native town. The former trading post now boasts of a population of more than 6,000.

Huntsville is widely known as the former home of Gen. Sam Houston hero of Texas Independence. General Houston's old home and the grounds are maintained by the state as a shrine.

WOOL GROWERS MEET

SONORA, Feb. 21. (AP)—Wool growers of the Southwest today were considering a charge made by F. J.
