Spanish Insurgents Celebrate Bloody Victory At Irun

Government Leaders Are Facing Crisis

New Extremist-Socialist Rule Is Called For In Madrid As Rebels Make Advances In Unified Front On City

Italy Sends Ships

More Italian War Vessels Are Sent To Area; 100,000 In Paris March In Demonstration For Spanish Cause

(By The Associated Press)

SPANISH rebels celebrated a bloody victory in capturing flaming Irun last night, while alarmed Madrid leaders set up a new extremist-socialist cabinet containing communists to "gain maximum weight with the working classes."

It was reported Italy had dispatched additional war vessels to Barcelona to "protect" her nationals. French authorities decided to send refugee Spanish government militiamen across France so they might rejoin the ranks of their comrades at Barcelona.

Officials said they did not deem this a violation of neutrality. In Paris 100,000 marchers demanded "guns and planes for Spain" despite the French arms embargo.

Great Britain, meanwhile, sought to get Germany into the neutrality pact by assuring the Nazis that the proposed international neutrality body would not permit intrusion of politics.

President Manuel Azana of the Madrid forces called the Extremist-Socialist Leader Francisco Largo Caballero to form a new cabinet. Communists were included for the first time.

The anxiety of the Madrid government was increased hourly with reports of the rebel advance on the strategic coastal seaport San Sebastian capture of which would give the rebels an unified front to make the rear post of armies marching on Madrid itself.

Hoover To Stump For Gov. Landon

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4. (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover, leaving on an eastern trip, said tonight he would make some campaign speeches in behalf of Governor Alf M. Landon, the Republican presidential nominee.

Mr. Hoover said he had talked yesterday with Governor Landon in a telephone conversation at his Palo Alto home.

The former chief executive would not discuss details of the conversation other than to say:

"Governor Landon is mobilizing his forces."

As to his own part in the campaign, Mr. Hoover said he had accepted engagements for two addresses this month in behalf of the Kansas governor, one in New York and one in Denver. He said the Denver address was tentatively set for Sept. 28, but he was not certain of the New York date.

Mr. Hoover said he also would make "other talks" but that locations and date were unsettled.

"I entered the fight a month ago," he said, "and I am going to be in it until the end."

Louise Thaden Bendix Trophy Race Winner

Woman Defeats Field In Fastest Time Ever Flown From Ocean To Ocean By Lady Flier; Two Planes Crash

By LOYD B. DILBECK
Associated Press Staff Writer

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 4. — With one of the contestants seriously injured in the crash of his plane in New Mexico, Mrs. Louise Thaden today won the $15,000 Bendix trophy race from New York to the National Air races here.

She defeated a field of opponents that included the noted Amelia Earhart and Laura Ingalls. Miss Ingalls was second and William Gulick of New York was third.

Crashes In New Mexico

Ben O. Howard of Chicago, the other contestant, crashes in a forced landing 40 miles north of Crown Point, N. M., about noon today. Both Howard and his wife, who accompanied him on the race, suffered compound fractures of both legs.

Mrs. Thaden was accompanied by Miss Blanche Noyes of Los Angeles on the hazardous man-killing flight from ocean to ocean. Their time was 14 hours and 54 minutes.

Best Time For Woman

This is three hours and 24 minutes more than the east-west record of 11 hours, 30 minutes which Col. Roscoe Turner set in 1933, but is the best transcontinental time ever made by a woman.

Miss Ingalls' time was 18 hours, 39 minutes. Gulick's was 18 hours, 45 minutes.

Besides winning first place money of $4,500, or 45 per cent of $10,000, Mrs. Thaden also won $2,500 offered for the woman who made the best time in the race unaccompanied by a man pilot or mechanic.

The remaining $2,500 of the $15,000 was offered to anyone in the race exceeding Colonel Turner's record.

The spectacular air show, in which $70,000 in prizes have been posted, opened on a tragic note when L. C. Paulkner, San Diego parachute

Centenarian, Who Attributed His 108 Years To Daily 'Nip' Dies Peacefully In Arizona

PRESCOTT, Ariz., Sept. 4. (AP) — Edward McGinley, who claimed to be 108 years old and attributed his longevity to his daily "nip" of hard liquor, died peacefully today at the Arizona pioneers home.

He was known as the oldest living white man in Arizona.

An hour and a half before death, McGinley pulled on his clothes and went for a little walk, a daily habit. When he returned to his bed, he calmly announced to those about him:

"Well, I'm going."

A few minutes later he was dead.

U. S. Labor Is Divided Into Bitter Camps

Suspension From Federation Of Labor Is Accepted By John L. Lewis Of United Mine Workers Friday

Question Raised

Formation Of New Movement By Lewis Group Indicated; Question Of Industrialization Of Unions Is Cause

By JOSEPH L. MILLER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4. — The American labor movement was split into two bitter factions tonight when suspension from the American Federation of Labor was calmly accepted by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, on behalf of his own and nine other "rebel" unions.

The suspension, for "insurrection" and "rebellion" was ordered to take effect tomorrow. Lewis, however, signalized the break this afternoon by saying he assumed it came down "at the close of business tonight."

Question Is Presented

Whether suspension will lead to formation of a new labor movement, rival to the A. F. of L. was a question on the tongues of labor men throughout the county.

Lewis said:

"If a group of citizens are driven out of a city, and the gates are locked, it is logical to assume that they will band together to protect themselves from the wild beasts of the forest."

Sought One Big Union

The "insurrection" and "rebellion" for which the 10 unions were ordered suspended consisted of formation of the committee for industrial organization to try to bring all the workers in each big industry into one union.

The federation is controlled by a majority faction which thinks highly skilled workers should be organized into craft unions, which

Fall Upturn Is Marked Early

Dun & Bradstreet's Report Reveals Consumer Buying As Turning From Summer To Fall Goods Early

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—The fall upturn started in a number of trade branches during the week instead of waiting for Labor day, Dun & Bradstreet said today in the weekly review of business.

"Consumer buying turned decisively from summer goods," the agency said, "as the weather became cooler and rains brightened the outlook in drouth areas.

Wholesale Volume Bolstered

"Although few buyers were in the leading markets, wholesale volume was bolstered by records, which reflected the generous response to new merchandise offerings.

"Industrial operations, with few exceptions, were set to a higher gear, as stronger pressure was exerted on deliveries and the backlog of orders grew heavier."

Nearly all cities reported a gain in retail sales for the week, the review stated, with the estimated average of sales ranging from 12 to 18 per cent higher than for the 1935 comparative.

Man Falls Four Floors Down Elevator Shaft; Not Bad Hurt

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 4. (AP)—Oswald E. Barnes, 21, fell four stories in an elevator shaft today and was taken to St. Anthony's hospital, where attendants said he apparently was not seriously injured.

Barnes said he looked into the shaft of the new county courthouse to see if an elevator was coming up when he was struck by a descending one and plunged down the shaft.

English Woman Is On Flight To U. S.

Mrs. Beryl Markham Trying East-West Ocean Crossing

Copyright 1936 by Associated Press

ABINGDON AIRDROME, Berkshire, Eng., Sept. 4 — Mrs. Beryl Markham, 33-year-old mother, tonight flew over the squally Atlantic ocean in her attempt to be the first woman to fly from England to New York.

The blonde, attractive society woman left her seven-year-old son at home and took off from the Royal Airforce airdrome here at 6:30 p. m. 12:30 p. m. eastern standard time) in the face of forecasts of a gusty ocean.

Faced Bad Weather

She said she hoped to be in New York within 20 or 24 hours. She faced bad weather almost from the outset.

Latest weather reports from Ireland predicted showers and Murky light during the long summer twilight which ordinarily would have aided her.

Her turquoise-blue plane, a stock model, carried 260 gallons of gas and no radio equipment.

Must Come From Ships

Thus, the only news of her progress over the ocean must come from ships at sea which might sight her plane marked "VP-KOO."

Her take-off was unostentatious, with only a few friends on the field to bid her adieu on her hazardous venture in her comparatively light ship named "The Messenger."

She wore a light grey jumper, Grey flannel trousers, and on her head perched a jaunty white hat. Calmly she stepped into the ship, took off, and disappeared into the cloud-heavy dusk.

In the ship's cabin were a jug of black coffee, a package of fruit and nuts—her only food and drink.

Richman, Merrill May Start Return Hop To U.S. Today

CROYDON AIRDROME, England, Sept. 4. (AP)—Harry Richman and Dick Merrill, with a record of the fastest west-east Atlantic crossing established, awaited favorable weather tonight for a return flight to New York.

The fliers, retired early after deciding to consider the possibility of starting the return flight at noon tomorrow if weather reports locally and from America are favorable.

With Merrill, a veteran pilot at the controls, the pair landed in a South Wales cow pasture yesterday less than 18 hours after they took off from New York. They were out of gasoline.

Their time and speed passed the mark set by Mattern and Griffin July 5 and 6, 1933, when they flew from Harbor Grace, N. F., to Berlin, 3,000 miles, in 18 hours and 40 minutes.

Richman and Merrill took off their plane, "The Lady Peace," after refueling and landed this afternoon at Croydon.

Train Struck By Automobile

Four Persons Are Treated As Result Of Accident; Fort Worth And Denver Train Is Hit At Crossing

One person was admitted to West Texas hospital for treatment and three others were treated Friday night, after an automobile containing six San Perlita persons struck a Fort Worth and Denver passenger train at a crossing approximately nine miles east of Lubbock at 9:43 o'clock.

The train was not moving.

Injured were:

Mrs. A. C. Bristol, 40; bad scalp laceration, comminuted fracture of the left knee cap, lacerated face.

Her husband, 41, a bus driver of the San Perlita schools, deep cut over right eye, probably two broken ribs.

A daughter Nadine, 14; mild concussion.

A daughter Almarene, 11; severe lacerated cheek, one tooth knocked out.

Others Believed Uninjured

At midnight, a son of the Bristols, Gerald Bristol, 22, a butcher had not arrived at the hospital to be examined. It was not believed he or R. G. Price, 20, a laborer, were injured. Price had borne Mrs. Bristol to the baggage coach of the train, which brought the injured to Lubbock, after the mishap.

Bristol said his son was driving the machine, which was proceeding at a velocity of approximately 40 or 45 miles an hour. He said the son did not see the train until he was directly approaching it, that brakes

A physician said her death was caused by a heart attack induced by shock.

President Tells Listeners In Springfield, Ill., That U. S. Credit Is On "Sounder" Basis Than Any Other Era

Special Inspection Tour Of Drouth Area To Be Closed With Conference Today At Indianapolis

BY DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Associated Press Staff Writer

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 4. — A cheering throng in Illinois' capital heard an assertion by President Roosevelt today that federal credit was on a "sounder basis" than at any other time in the nation's history.

The brief statement, made from the rear platform of the presidential special, came just before Mr. Roosevelt plunged into the semi-final conference of his inspection tour of 5,000 miles of sun-despoiled crop lands.

Remarked About Conversation

Stepping to the platform of his private car for the third time during the day, he remarked that he had just talked by telephone with Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau at Washington.

"Modern science makes it easier for the president to be away from Washington," he said. "I have just been talking with the secretary of the treasury about federal financing.

"I might add that the obligations of the government of the United States are on a sounder basis of credit than ever before in all history."

Visits Lincoln's Tomb

The drouth conference — with Governor Horner of Illinois, federal and state officials—got underway at the governor's mansion after the president had visited the tomb and home of Abraham Lincoln and lunched in the mansion.

The crowd which met the presidential train at the station wedged so tightly around Mr. Roosevelt's official car that Horner had to pick up a microphone and exhort them to clear a space.

Throng At Bridge Dedication

Another throng had greeted Mr. Roosevelt earlier in the day at Hannibal, Mo., where he dedicated the $750,000 Mark Twain memorial bridge over the Mississippi river.

An hour later at Jacksonville, Ill., Mr. Roosevelt asserted he was sure

Oscar Sumner Is Given Two Years On Cattle Theft Charge

TAHOKA, Sept. 4. (Special) — Oscar Sumner, cattleman, was assessed two years in the penitentiary after a jury in 106th district court at Brownfield reported at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon, said District Attorney Truett Smith. The charge was cattle theft.

Sumner faces other trials based on cattle theft indictments in Terry and Lynn counties, as well as a Lynn county indictment alleging disposition of mortgaged property.

Court will be resumed Monday at Brownfield with the trial of A. Yates, indicted for rape of a 12-year-old girl, the district attorney said. A full docket for the remaining two weeks of court at Brownfield will necessitate the trial of cattle theft cases against Buck Brewer and Henry Reed during a court session here, he stated.

NEWTON, Sept. 4. (AP) — Albert Williams was given a five-year suspended sentence today for the gruesome backwoods slaying of Richard Ridgeway in a Scrappin' Valley moonshining dispute six years ago.

More Than Inch Received In Less Than One Hour

Streets "Run" Like Rivers For Minutes After Downpour Hits Friday Afternoon; Hundreds Of Cars Stalled On Highways 7 And 9 Due To Flooded Area; Section Gets Good Falls

WHIPPED into spume by winds which alternated from south to north, more than an inch of rainfall was estimated to have fallen over some sections of Lubbock Friday afternoon, and streets "ran" like rivers.

Clouds broiled, turned mottled, then darkened quickly. Thunder warned briefly. Rain and wind struck at 3 o'clock.

In less than one hour hundreds of automobiles, trucks and a bus were jamming highways 7 and 9 on south Avenue H, because of water from a large section of the southeast portion of the city backing along the road and over the curb onto lawns and into business establishments.

Water Several Feet Deep

Long lines of automobiles waited both north and south of the railroad tracks for water, several feet deep, to recede.

A group of teachers who had gone there for a meeting, were marooned in K. Carter school building, in 600-block on Avenue Q.

Water of near flood proportions covered most of the campus there and flowed over the front wheels of approximately 20 automobiles parked at curbs around the campus.

Streets Turned Into Rivers

Fourth, Seventh, Tenth and Eighteenth streets were turned into rivers, and unpaved streets north and south held running water several hours.

Stop signs at street intersections were not heeded. They, or many of them, were covered by rushing water. Motorists moved gingerly, since motors were drowned out if slow progress were interrupted.

Water stood deep enough on Avenue Q from Sixteenth to Nineteenth streets to enable many children to float, rather than wade. Hundreds of children donned bathing suits and splashed in the flood.

Property Threatened

Nor was the fall without more serious aspects. Several persons telephoned City hall complaining that high water threatened property. Some lawns were threatened by the swirling waters and proprietors of several business establishments reported encroachment on their premises was imminent.

Serious damage to the roof and possible loss from water seepage was averted narrowly at the Montgomery-Ward building at Broadway and Texas avenue when drain pipes from the roof were cleared of debris which had impounded rapidly rising water.

Dozens Of Cars Stalled

Dozens of cars were stalled in the 600-block of Main street as drivers attempted to thread their way to the Santa Fe station to meet an afternoon train.

Water entered Lubbock Hardware and Supply company, in the same block.

The fall, despite its briskness, was spotted in the Lubbock and the South Plains sectors.

.79 At Experiment Station

The gauge at Texas Technological college read .3 inch, which made the total there since Wednesday 1.28 inch.

The state experiment sub-station east of Lubbock was engulfed in a 35-minute downpour that gauged .79 inch. The fall there began at 2:45 o'clock and had been expended at 3:20.

Motorists on the Idalou-Lubbock road said blowing spray forced them to pull to the side of the road and wait until the rain was over. Visibility, they said, was cut to a few feet and they feared accidents in the heavy precipitation.

Ralls Gets Good Rain

Three-quarters inch at Ralls was more than matched in some sections of the Ralls territory, Percy B. Ralls said a two-inch flood struck Fairview community and a "big rain" at League Four. The fall extended from Ralls almost to Idalou. None was reported at Idalou or at Lorenzo.

DOWNPOUR IN AMARILLO

AMARILLO, Sept. 4. (AP)—A two-hour shower this afternoon brought Amarillo more rain than the city has had all summer.

Two and a half inches fell, the heaviest rain since May 28, and more moisture than has been received since that date.

The rain was local, extending only a few miles around the city. Other parts of the Panhandle-Plains, however, have had good moisture during the past several days.

Russia Warns Japan Against Border Events

Incidents Said To Be Endangering Cause Of Peace In Far East; Protest To Be Made On New Violations

(By The Associated Press)

MOSCOW, Sept. 4. — Amidst suddenly-increased tension over the far eastern situation, Russia tonight warned Japan that border incidents were endangering the cause of peace.

The Russian government followed this up by instructing its Tokyo embassy to protest immediately new alleged violations of the Soviet frontier by Japanese-Manchurians.

The situation on the frontier, Russia sternly warned was becoming "intolerable."

The reasons for the sudden outcropping of the new border "incidents" remained unexplained in Moscow. Since early last April the border tension had been more or less eased.

Japan Makes, Receives Protests On Incidents

TOKYO, Sept. 4. (AP)—Japan tonight made and received protests over incidents reported on its borders.

It drafted an eight-point demand to the Chinese government for settlement of the Chengtu incident and for control of anti-Japanese acts in China.

Its charge d'affaires at Moscow received a stern warning from the Soviet that Japanese-Manchurian soldiers were dangering peace by alleged border violations.

The Chengtu incident involved the reported killings of two Japanese Aug. 24 by a Chinese mob protesting reopening of a Japanese consulate at Chengtu, in Szechuan province.

Violet Hilton's Romance Is Said Ended; Plan Annulment

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 4. (AP) — The New Orleans States said today the romance of Violet Hilton, one of the "Siamese twin" Hilton sisters, and her dancer-husband, Jimmie Moore, was at an end.

The states said "It was learned from an unimpeachable source" that Moore was consulting a New Orleans lawyer on a proposal to file a suit for annullment and that legal consultations also were being held by Violet and her sister, Daisy.

Violet and Jimmy were married several weeks ago at the Texas Centennial exposition.

The sisters have maintained separate residence from Moore here.

Election Campaign "Is Settled," "Sage Of Potato Hill" Informs Gov. Landon

(By The Associated Press)

ATCHISON, Kas., Sept. 4.—Ed Howe, famed "Sage of Potato Hill," told Gov. Alf M. Landon today the election campaign "is settled" in his favor and the Republican presidential nominee, smiling, replied "That certainly is good news."

"I have no suggestions," said Howe when the two were seated in his quiet, high-ceilinged living room.

"My opinion is you've been overworked by advisers. You're doing fine the way it is," he went on. "H. L. Mencken says Alf knows more than his advisers and he's right. It's all settled."

Landon spent a half hour chatting with the 83-year-old editor and writer.

Howe and Landon posed for photographers, who asked that they be seated before the fireplace.

"That's pretty good," said the perspiring governor, "sitting before a fireplace in Kansas in September!"

Sleep On Hard Bed With Metal Pillow And Wriggle Like A Goldfish And You'll Live To Be 240, Japanese Says

(By The Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4. — Dr. Katyuso Nishi, head of a Japanese physical culture cult, disembarked here today and informed interviewers one may live to be 240 years of age by following a few simple rules.

The rules include the practice of sleeping on a hard bed with a metal pillow, and wriggling like a goldfish.

He did not elaborate.

As he perfected his health system only nine years ago, Dr. Nishi said he does not expect to live to be 240. He thinks 180 years will be the extent of his life. He is 52.

Dr. Nishi came here to start a lecture tour of three months; he disputes the Harvey theory of blood circulation, contending the heart merely is a tank of energy upon which the rest of the body draws.

LABOR DAY

Once again, throughout the nation, a day is set aside to honor labor. To a sound bank such a day is of necessity an important one.

It is a day that causes us to reflect on the close relationship between labor and the banks that serve it. Without the credit of our banking system there could be no industrial organization as we know it today, no transportation comparable with that we enjoy today, no warehousing facilities which make possible modern methods of production and distribution.

The Banks of Lubbock will be closed all day Monday Sept. 7th. Please arrange your business accordingly.

Popular Collegians And Chicago Bears Polish Off For Texas 'Dream Game'

All-Stars Are Set To Prance "Texas Style"

Bell And Meyer Plan Snappy Passing Attack To Use In Monday Night Game Against Chicago Professionals

DALLAS, Sept. 4. (AP)—The professional Chicago Bears and the Texas Centennial All-Stars, huskies whose names were in the college football headlines a year ago, worked out briskly today in preparation for what Centennial publicity agents are pleased to call a "dream game."

The squad of 29 Bears, led by Coach and President George Halas, arrived today by rail from Chicago, along with four of the All-Star group. Others of the college stars of last season came by auto from the windy city to join a large squad which has been in intensive training during the past ten days for Monday night's contest.

Teams Drill Hard

Matty Bell and Leo (Dutch) Meyer, coaches of the All-Stars, ran their charges through a stiff session at Ownby Stadium, home of the Southern Methodist university Mustangs. The Bears arranged a practice period on Terrill Preparatory school's gridiron when Centennial officials decided the turf at the Cotton Bowl, Centennial stadium where the game will be played, needed more conditioning.

Halas planned considerable work for his machine, although the Bears have been training in Wisconsin and are believed to be in shape. Bell's chief source of worry is taking his group which has been training here, mix it with the new arrivals and pull out of the pot an eleven which will stand up under the pounding of the hard-running professionals.

The All-Star coaches intend to formulate a whirlwind offense, with the Southwest's familiar fancy passing an important part. The Bears, it is believed, will stick to their ground gaining tactics built around Bronko Nagurski and Beattie Feathers, backs whose drives are difficult to halt.

May Spring Surprise

The professionals, however, who are classed as one of the most adept teams in the country at deceptive handling of the pigskin, may flash a passing offense which will equal or surpass that of the All-Stars.

The presence of such Southwestern stars as Bobby Wilson, of S. M. U.; Darrell Lester and Taldon Manton, T. C. U., and John McCauley of Rice, has given a sectional aspect to the game which has sent ticket sales to a satisfactory mark.

Also credited with arousing interest in the contest is the 7-7 tie game between the Detroit Lions and an All-Star team in Chicago Wednesday, and a chance to see Stan Pincura back from Ohio State; Larry Lutz, California tackle; Ettone Antonine, Indiana end, and other out-of-state stars in action.

O'Donnell Eleven Beats Draw, 2-0; First Full Game

O'DONNELL, Sept. 4. (Special) — Teams of O'Donnell and Draw stole a march on Texas high school football today when they played what is believed to have been the first complete grid game of the 1936 season.

A safety scored in the first quarter gave O'Donnell a 2 to 0 victory in the closely contested game, played on a dry field.

Anton and Ropesville teams were scheduled to play the first game of the season on the Plains, but the game last Friday was rained out in the fourth quarter. The same teams were to resume hostilities tonight, but the afternoon game here today probably is the first complete contest of the season.

Carroll Scores Safety

Carroll, playing a good game at end for O'Donnell, tackled Florens, Draw fullback, behind the goal line for the safety and the only scoring of the game.

Outstanding players for O'Donnell were, besides Carroll, Stokes, center; Cune, halfback, and Angel, fullback.

For Draw, Florens, fullback; Cortes, Giles, guards, Tyler, end, and Willingham, halfback, were outstanding performers.

Story-Telling Big Feature Of Coaching School

By PAUL MICKELSON

NEW YORK, Sept. 4. (AP)—Down the sports trail and into the football coaches' classroom:

WIZARD OF KICK . . . An all-star staff teaches some 400 high school and college gridiron master minds how to manufacture touchdowns in the big New York Herald Tribune coaching school, but the most interesting character of them all is a New ork lawyer who probably knows more about the kicking the pig hide than any man in the world.

Can Still Kick

Leroy Mills is somewhere in his fifties. His actual playing experience was limited to one season on the Princeton freshman team, yet he is as accurate with his kicking foot as Carl Hubbell and Dizzy Dean are with the horsehide. He can do as many tricks with a football a. Willie Hoppe can with a billiard ball.

With an inevitable, huge pipe stuck in his face, Mills amazes the coaches year after year. He can boot the oval out of bounds from 55 yards away—and call almost the exact yard that it will bounce out.

SESSIONS . . . College football coaches tell some of the grandest and funniest stories in sport. As the student coaches take copious notes of the lectures, the teachers often interrupt to roll 'em in the aisles with funny stories.

Such As

In a football game down south so a coach's story goes, a team was plowing steadily toward a touchdown. Suddenly, to his dismay, the captain on the offensive team noted he had 12 men on his side. He called his playrs into a huddle.

"If anyone notices that we have 21 men," he whispered, "we'll lose our chance and get plastered with an awful penalty. Now we'll run this next play toward our bench. As we do so, one of you guys drop out."

Lee Brandt Cops Junior Golf Cup

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 4. (AP)—Lee Brandt, jr., 19 year old San Antonio iceman, defeated Arthur Luce of Austin, the defending champion, 5 and 3, here today to win th Texas junior golf championship.

Going two under par for the 33 holes of the match, Brandt, the medalist, built up a five-up lead as the result of a 70 in the morning. He was three up as 27 holes, but came back to end the match at the thirty-third when Luce found trouble and conceded the hole and the match. Brandt was one under par for the afternoon session.

Luce, 16-year-old former San Antonian, failed in an attempt to become the first state junior champ ever to repeat.

Summer Building Activity Has Restored Quake-Rocked Helena

HELENA, Mont., Sept. 4. (AP) — Record-breaking summer building activity has restored about half the $4,000,000 damage Helena suffered in last October's disastrous earthquakes, unofficial estimates indicated today.

More than a hundred new dwellings have gone up to help alleviate the city's housing shortage; new buildings costing several hundred thousand dollars have been completed, and rehabilitation of damaged structures is being speeded.

Since Helena was damaged by the first heavy quake last October 18, the weather bureau here has recorded a total of 2,099 shocks. The last one was August 30.

Upset And Hot Matches Mark Net Nationals

Sarah Palfred Fabyan Loses To Newcomer; Perry, Budge Win But Most Matches Are Close At Forest Hills

By SCOTTY RESTON

FOREST HILLS, Sept. 4. (AP) — Dorothy May Sutton Bundy, fair-haired 20-year-old daughter of May Sutton who won the title in 1917, today eliminated Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan, of Cambridge, Mass., second ranking player in the country, from the national women's tennis singles championship, as most favorites squeaked through with close victories.

Fred Perry of England and Don Budge of Oakland, Calif., favorites in the men's championship, both survived, but they are well aware tonight that they'll be playing for keeps from now on.

Perry conquered Ernest Sutter, intercollegiate champion from New Orleans, 8-6, 6-2, 6-1, and Budge nudged Gardnar Mulloy of Miami, 4-6, 6-2, 6-0, 6-1. Both Sutter and Mulloy put up a brave fight in the first set and played just well enough to summon the best Perry and Budge give.

Perry Too Fast

In the last two sets, Perry simply flashed around the court, and for all of Sutter's shrewd anticipation, Perry was too mercilessly fast for him.

But the darling of the day was the flaxen-haired daughter of famed May Sutton. A short, chunky little girl playing in her first major championship, she had supreme command of the situation from the middle of the first set on.

Mrs. Fabyan won the first three games of the match, then lost two, and won three more to lead by a set, but the youngster started the second set by winning the first game and from then on held the advantage. Hitting the ball with a clean, free stroke, she was especially effective with her forehand, which she drove past the erring Mrs. Fabyan time and again.

With the score tied at one set apiece, Miss Bundy took the first three games of the last set and managed to keep winning on her service. The score was 2-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Miss Bundy was modest about her victory, saying, "I think I was pretty lucky. I caught Sarah on an off-day. I doubt if I could do it again."

Bryan Grant, Atlanta, John McDiarmid, Princeton, John Van Ryn, Philadelphia, Alice Marble of San Francisco advanced with easy victories, but Jacques Brugnon, France, Sidney Wood, jr., of New York, Gene Mako and Bobby Riggs, both of Los Angeles, had a hard time.

Miss Marble, returning to competition in the nationals after a two year lapse, had no trouble in beating Patsy Hiller of Berkeley, 6-1, 6-0.

J. Hal Surface, jr., Kansas City, 4th ranking player in the country, who was seeded in this tournament, was beaten today in a long and hard battle by Gene Mako, Los Angeles, 3-6, 6-2, 6-4, 6-8, 7-5. Both players were nearly exhausted at the finish.

Mrs. Tokuko M. Nakano, the Japanese women's champion, lost to Mrs. Dorothy B. Andus, New York, 6-2, 6-4, and Mrs. Fabyan, whose defeat is one of the greatest upsets in the recent history of the event, was the third seeded player eliminated.

Clyde Backenstoss Is Named Reporter

Appointment of Clyde Backenstoss of Lamesa as official court reporter for the 72nd district court of Judge Homer L. Pharr was announced Friday afternoon. He succeeds R. Everett Alexander, who has been named to a similar capacity in the 99th judicial district. Baskenstoss is a former resident here and has been reporter for the 106th judicial district under Judge Gordon B. McGuire. He and his wife are moving to Lubbock this week-end.

The position he is leaving is being taken by John Edmisson, who was with Judge Clark M. Mullican, resigned from 99th court Sept. 1.

Battle Of Lefthanders Due Tomorrow When Wilson And Lubbock Nines Play

California To Make Trouble

Stub Allison Boasts Finest Backfield Material In Many Years At Berkeley; Job Is To Select The Best

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

BERKELEY, Calif., Sept. 4. (AP)—University of California will make its bid for Pacific Coast and Intersectional football recognition this season with a team, boasting the finest backfield material assembled here in many years. The pigskin toters will operate behind a line composed of players of one or more years varsity experience.

In his first full season as head coach, Leonard (Stub) Allison led the Bears into a tie for the 1935 Pacific Coast conference championship with Stanford and the University of California at Los Angeles.

Veterans All Around

Allison's chief problem is to sift from a huge list of candidates additional strength for the end and tackle positions. At these spots, men with experience are only one deep. Henry Sparks and Jud Callaghan have the call at the flank positions and Gene M. Ateer and Ray Nordstrom are the only tackles with considerable varsity seasoning.

Other line berths offer no worries. Bob Gilbert and Vard Stockton head the guards and Bob Herwig, one of the leading centers last year, is back for duty.

Criminal Trials To Be Set Monday

Settings of criminal cases to be tried the week of Sept. 14 in 99th district court, which will be convened by Judge E. L. Pitts for the September term Monday, had been posted Friday by the district attorney's office.

Four murder cases were included: Jesus Ibarra, Jesus Riojas, Fannie Burnett, and Grover C. Coleman being those charged.

Herman (Bub) Robinson faces trial on assault to murder.

Cora Matillar, negro woman in whose partly destroyed home was found a dead negro man, will go on trial for arson.

Four are charged with driving an automobile when intoxicated: J. C. Ray, W. C. Torrence, Coleman, and W. W. Jones.

Charlie Triggs faces a count of receiving stolen property. H. H. Roberts of disposing of mortgaged property. Bruce Underwood of attempted burglary, and O. G. Chance and W. A. Jennings of theft over $50.

Any of the above cases not tried the week of Sept. 14 will be called for trial Oct. 5. On the latter date cases resulting from grand jury indictments of this term also will be called.

Judge Pitts will call the jury and the civil jury dockets Monday, and will charge the grand jury, it is indicated.

John Henry Lewis To Risk Boxing Crown In London Go

NEW YORK, Sept. 4. (AP)—Negotiations were closed today for a world light heavyweight match between John Henry Lewis, Pittsburgh, Pa., the champion, and Len Harvey, holder of the British title, to be held in Wembley Stadium, London, November 3.

The champion Harvey said, will receive a guarantee of approximately $20,000 with a privilege of 33 1-3 per cent of the gate receipts.

Beans Pair Opposes Lefty Blanchard In Feature Go

A battle of lefthanders, and a hot battle at that, is in prospect for sectional baseball fans here Sunday when the well-dressed, hard-playing Wilson Blues tangle with the equally well dressed and ambitious Lubbock Hubbers.

Lefty Jerry Blanchard, brought here by Sponsor Sammy Rosenthal to pitch for the Hubmen through the tournament and retained since then, is a young chunker who can get most of the boys around here out. He has a fast ball, a curve and a change of pace that fools 'em badly, and his strikeout record is something to be considered when baseball bugs get together.

Blanchard Ready Again

Blanchard, who pitched for Estelline in the Red River Valley league this season, probably will toss 'em to his old battery mate, the hard hitting Coppage, in one of Sunday's two games.

To oppose Blanchard, Manager Doc Cook of Wilson plans to use Lefty Beans Pair, one of the leading pitchers in these parts before Blanchard made his presence known and still one of the best.

Just which of the two games Pair and Blanchard will work hasn't been determined, and probably won't be until the lineups are given at the field. For the other contest, Lubbock probably will use a righthander, maybe Doggie Monroe, an able chunker who hasn't been used lately. A. Marcey, the gangling Ropesville youth considered one of the best righthanded pitching prospects in this section, has been with Lubbock recently and probably will be ready for relief, or starting duty today.

Wilson After Revenge

Wilson is coming over with revenge on its mind. The team, crippled sadly by temporary loss of at least four regulars when Lubbock and Wilson met last time, will be at top strength, and the Blues will be hard to take out. Cook entered a challenge to the Hubbers soon after the last meeting two weeks ago.

Lubbock won that game handily enough, as scores go, by making six tallies off an inexperienced pitcher in the first inning. But after that, it was a hoss race, each club scoring three runs as left handed pitchers went after each other.

The Hubbers also will be stronger Sunday than they were when Wilson visited before. As in the case of absent Wilson players, several from the Hubber lineup were missing that day. They'll be back in the fold and ready to go.

The first game of the double header gets underway at 2 o'clock.

Loyola university at Los Angeles will play its entire regular football season in its home stadium.

Larry French Shuts Out Bucs In Seven-Hit Performance While Cubs Wallop 2 Buc Hurlers For 14 Hits

Four Veterans In Lamesa Grid Camp

LAMESA, Sept. 2. (Special) — Thirty-five candidates for the 1936 Lamesa Golden Tornado Football team reported to Coaches McCollum and Gregg here yesterday for the initial work-out. Only four of the number reporting are regulars from last year's team. This means that this year's team must be built from green material.

"The boys," said Coach McCollum, "are green but ambitious, which gives me hopes that we may win a few games this year."

The returning regulars are: Lambeth, guard; Boyd, guard; Finley, end, and Sandel, end. The entire back of 1935 was lost by graduation.

The Golden Tornadoes have an enviable record to uphold, having lost only two games in three seasons.

YOUTH IS DOWNED

HASKELL, Sept. 4. (AP)—Foster L. Thornberry, 10, drowned in the Clear Fork river at Leuders late yesterday.

He was swimming with Sunday school classmates during a picnic. A pulmotor brought from Abilene failed to resusciate the boy.

Funeral services were held this afternoon.

Lamesa, Running Water Polo Teams To Meet On Local Field Sunday, 2:30

Lubbock will play host to two visiting polo teams and their followers Sunday when Gus White's strong Lamesa four meets the Running Water team at the local field north of town.

The game will start at 2:30 o'clock, weather permitting. The field is located a mile and a half north, off the Plainview highway, near the site of the old ball park.

Gus White, considered one of the best polo players in West Texas, and his Lamesans will rule slight favorites over the Running Water club from Hale county. Both teams were in the recent tournament held at Plainview.

Local polo enthusiasts plan to stage a game here soon between Lamesa and Oklahoma City. Lamesa recently defeated Wichita Falls in two straight games, and has been challenged by the Oklahoma City quartet.

Lubbock, it is pointed out, can be made a polo center for teams of this section due to its central location. Lamesa, Roswell, Wichita Falls, Plainview, Lockney, Running Water, Pampa, Clovis and Texline all boast polo teams.

Slaton To Start Against Anton 11

SLATON, Sept. 4. (Special) — Slaton high school's Tigers blast the football lid Friday, September 11, when the gridsters of Anton come to Slaton.

Last Friday Anton defeated the Ropesville footballers 13-0, and probably would have plastered a worse defeat but for the interference of Jupiter Pluvius, who came into the game in the third quarter and stopped the contest. The ball was in Anton's possession on Ropes' 5 yard line when the game was called.

Anton is picked to win their conference with little opposition this year. The team is said to be big and powerful, while the Tigers have the lightest team this year they have had in ten years. J. W. Saint, 172 pound tackle, is the heavyweight this year. Red Ralston, 161 is the other big boy on the team. Two more boys weigh above 150, and after that the boys get little.

Credit To Both Candidates

THE historic—so they say—meeting of President Roosevelt and Governor Landon at the Des Moines drouth conference is over.

Candidates of the two major parties are again on separate trails, each looking after his own political affairs and the duties of his own high office. Those who thought the meeting would turn out to be a political sensation of the first water were disappointed, but that disappointment will wear off.

Anti-Rooseveltians who claimed the President hit upon the idea of the drouth conference to focus the public gaze upon himself and Governor Landon at the same time, with the end in view of showing the nation how he over-towers the GOP nominee, will have to admit now that Mr. Roosevelt made little if any effort to bring about any comparison between himself and his rival. Those who expected Mr. Landon to "bow his neck" and refuse to co-operate with his opponent found out they were wrong, too. The meeting was merely that of two big men of serious purpose and was carried on on the highest plane.

Both President Roosevelt and Governor Landon, we believe, are to be congratulated upon the way they held up their ends of the conference.

There is no doubt that each felt he was "on the spot" and probably both men were, underneath, somewhat wary and discomfited.

But an important public problem was confronting them and to reach a solution both realized it would be better to put personal feeling aside and talk the matter over, face to face.

It is a healthy state of affairs, we think, when leaders of the nation, regardless of politics, sit across a desk and delve into problems which effect the state of the nation. To both Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Landon should go an affectionate pat on the back from Americans of both major political leanings.

JUST WHAT IS COUGHLIN?

Charles E. Coughlin, Detroit's politically-minded priest, says "President Roosevelt thinks he is a dictator."

The statement naturally brings to mind the question: "What does Mr. Coughlin think he is?"

The Morning Avalanche often has wondered.

If the Detroiter is a priest, he should stick to his preaching. If he is a politician he should shed the garb of the ministry and not gallop around the country posing as a man of the cloth.

It is a certainty that Mr. Coughlin can't have much time to spend on his church duties. He isn't at home enough to look after the affairs of his church and his political efforts are sure to take so much of his time that he can't give much thought to the job he is supposed to be holding.

Mr. Roosevelt may "think he is a dictator", as the social justice union organizer claims, but no one has any concrete idea of what Mr. Coughlin thinks he is. In fact, we wonder if Coughlin himself has ever given the matter any attention.

WITH OUR CONTEMPORARIES

"Old Andy Jack Striklin of the Terry County Herald couldn't stand it any longer," mourns his editorial adversary, E. I. Hill, in the Lynn County News. "He has gone back to the rock-ribbed hills of old Tennessee, to visit the uncles and aunts and nieces and nephews and maybe the sweethearts of other days."

"'Lamb county has been redivided' is news that will meet with the approval of most everybody concerned," Forrest Weimhold says in the Sudan News. "We believe the commissioners did a great piece of work and cured an old sore which had been irritated unnecessarily."

"A preacher some place up north advocated closing the church for two years," J. W. Smith, sr., says in the Lamesa Reporter. "So far as some churches are concerned, it would seem they had as well be closed. But then, what? Do away with the church and in 50 years or less time we would kill and eat each other.

"Haul in your sign, Canada, for a Missouri mother had sextuplets about three weeks ago, according to word that but recently leaked out, somewhat in the manner that some merchants let the arrival of new goods leak out," W. J. Hale says in the Shin-Oak column of the Yoakum County Review.

TODAY IS OURS

by NARD JONES

BEGIN HERE TODAY

JUDITH HOWARD, engaged to STEPHEN FOWLER for four years, breaks the engagement because Stephen is unwilling to marry her and let her continue with her job. Judith is encouraged in this move by her friend, VIRGINIA BENT.

Lonely and unhappy, Judith goes for a walk and steps in front of an approaching automobile. To avoid hitting her, the driver swerves and strikes a fire hydrant. He is injured and taken to a hospital. Judith, feeling responsible, goes also.

At the hospital young DR. EDEN HARRIS tells her the motorist's injuries are not serious. Later Dr. Harris drives Judith home.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER VII

"It's safest to assume he takes me for a fool," Judith warned herself. Aloud she gave him the address of her apartment.

"Good!" exclaimed the young physician. "I was afraid it would be nearer the hospital than that!" He released his foot from the accelerator, and Judith watched the speedometer needle hover between 20 and 25. "I'm a very careful driver," Harris added with a smile. "I don't believe in speeding—especially with a girl like you in the car."

Suddenly his manner changed. His voice lost its bantering lightness. "Look here, Miss Howard. You said you caused this accident because you weren't looking where you were going."

"That's right."

"It puzzles me that a pretty young woman should be out walking alone—hatless—with her head down, even when she crossed the street. Something was troubling you. Would you want to tell me about it?"

Judith tried to evade the question with a laugh. "You're something more than a doctor, aren't you?"

"But you were troubled, weren't you?"

"Y-yes . . ."

"Anything wrong at home?"

Judith shook her head. "I live alone in the apartment."

"Then it has to be a love affair." He turned to her with a grin. "That's elementary, my dear Miss Howard."

She wondered why she felt not the slighest resentment at his probing. There was no question but what this personable young doctor had the "bedside manner." Judith realized, too, that down in her heart she was ready enough to tell her story to someone. Someone beside Virginia Bent.

"You were right," she told Harris quickly, "I was thinking about something else when I started to cross the street."

"And that 'something else' was a man, of course. I hope nothing serious has gone wrong."

"Well . . . it's serious," Judith had to admit. He turned to her quickly, and she added with a little laugh, "At least it's final."

"Oh . . . You're not going to see him any more. Is that it?"

Judith was astonished. "How did you guess that?"

"It wasn't much of a guess. I knew very well that no man would be deciding not to see you any more." Carefully he threaded the car in and out among the thinning night traffic. "How did you happen to make this momentous decision?"

"He—he didn't want to marry me."

This startled Eden Harris for a moment, but when he had taken another look at Judith's face he seemed relieved. "I get it. You're a young woman who plans to take full advantage of the fact that this is a leap year."

"No. . . . You see, Steve and I had known each other for a long time. More than four years, to be exact. I—I thought that was a little extended for an engagement.

"I should think so! But what made this Steve so backward. I'd like to know."

Judith hesitated, then found herself continuing. "He didn't think he was making enough money to marry. I was willing to keep my job—wanted to, in fact. But Steve couldn't agree."

"Proud, eh?"

"Yes, and to me it seemed foolish pride."

Harris did not answer for a moment. They drove with only the hum of the motor between them. Then: "When did all this happen?"

"I told him yesterday."

"Yesterday?" repeated the doctor in astonishment. "You were speaking of it in the past tense, and I had an idea that—"

"It should be in the past tense," Judith told him. "But that's what Steve can't believe. He tried to see me tonight. I went to a movie to get away from him. Then when I came home he was waiting in the doorway. I'd turned down the street again when this accident happened." She studied his profile, hoping that he would make some comment on what she'd told him. And when he offered none she could not refrain from asking, "Do you—well, do you think I was right, Doctor Harris?"

He thought a moment. "Yes, I'm sure you were. The conditions the past few years haven't been very conducive to young marriages. But when two people have been in love as long as you and this man it makes things—difficult, to say the least. Yes, I think you were right in wanting Steve to meet conditions as they are. Personally, I see no harm in a wife working if she's healthy and competent. Of course, later on, she'll want a home and children. But by that time the husband is likely to be making enough to support her."

Judith sighed with relief. "You don't know how good it is to hear you say that."

"Well," Harris laughed. "That's just a general statement, and I don't pretend to be an expert." He looked down at her. "You're really quite ready to stand by your decision?"

"What makes you doubt it?"

"Because you're afraid to see him."

Judith nodded. "I'm—I'm afraid he'll convince me that we should just keep on going together, and postpone marriage a little while longer. He's done that so often. I suppose you think I'm weak."

"Not weak. It's just that you still love him," said Harris quietly.

"Yes . . ." she admitted. "I still do."

Harris lapsed into silence, drove several blocks again. And when he did release himself he had resumed his former manner. Reaching into his pocket, he drew out a pack of cigarets. "Smoke?"

"Thanks." She accepted the light from his pocket torch, then raised her eyes to his, trying to match his mood. "Tell me, doctor, do you think time will cure me?"

"I don't know," he replied in mock professional manner. "Love is a curious disease. Time is the only treatment to which it responds—and you can't depend absolutely on that."

"But what was it Shakespeare said? 'Men have died . . . but not for love.' It's never fatal." Nevertheless Judith's borrowed cynicism refused to ring true.

"I wouldn't say never fatal. Rarely fatal is more accurate. You're very young and—as I think I've said before—very pretty. Other men are going to fall in love with you. A great many, I should think, now that you've given Steve the gate and the field is open. It's hard for you to believe now, but I think the chances are good that you'll run into someone you like better even than you liked Steve."

Yes, Judith agreed silently, it was hard to believe. So difficult in fact, that she did not believe it at all. Steve was the man she had loved first, and now she felt sure that he would be the only one, always and forever. Perhaps in time the hurt would quiet a little, and the wound would heal. She would be like the soldier whose wound straightens him often, but whose memory does not recall the pain, the field of battle, or the sword against the earth.

Suddenly her unhappy thoughts were interrupted by Eden Harris' jovial, "Well, I think this is your place, isn't it?

Judith nodded. "Yes . . . and thanks so much for all your kindness."

"Now that you're safely home I'll admit that I could have reached here by a much shorter route. But I just had a hunch that you had somethings on your chest, and that you'd feel beter if you could get them off."

"You're a nice person," Judith smiled sincerely. "Thanks again, and there's no need for you to get out. But I would like to know the name of the man who drove the car tonight. I'll want to see how he's getting along."

"Francis Jarvis is his name. But you needn't worry about him. He'll be in his office tomorrow, as right as rain." As Judith opened the car door, Harris put out a restraining hand. "Not a word about whether you hope you'll see me again?"

Judith laughed. "I was never one to look up the rules. But doesn't Mrs. Post require that the lady be silent on that subject?"

"That may be. But there's nothing to prevent her showing it in her eyes."

Judith widened her eyes. "Well, what do they say?" she laughed.

"I can't tell. Those are enigmatic eyes, Judith Howard. But I hope we'll see each other again."

"So do I, really, Doctor Harris."

"And the way to manage it is for me to come and call on you. May I?"

"Of course. Good night . . ."

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

THERE may be no connection between New Deal spending and New Deal primary victories, but Democratic contestants are making out a good case for the G.O.P. claim that there is a tempting tieup.

Democratic senators and representatives campaign for renomination in almost every instance on the issue that they obtained huge grants, loans and relief payments for their states and districts. They have promised that the golden stream will continue to flow if they are returned to Washington. The voters apparently put faith in these pledges, for this argument proved convincing almost without exception.

In southern and western states administration playmates went a little too far to suit the high command. They contrasted the government's generous advances with the scant amount of taxes which these states had paid to Uncle Sam. G.O.P. publicists are converting this argument to their own use in states where present and future taxes will expand the handouts—New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey.

BREAKDOWN: The major beneficiaries of this kind of "gimme" campaign have been Mr. Roosevelt's three senate leaders—Messrs. Harrison of Mississippi, Robinson of Arkansas and Byrnes of South Carolina. All were supposed to encounter primary trouble, but they crashed through in grand style.

Those three states received $815,910,899.09 from the federal government as against local taxes totalling only $94,449,895.96. The ratio in favor of the trio's constituents is about 12 1-2 to 1. Arkansas, for instance, received $208,780,948.89 as against federal taxes of only $9,684,986.96. These three men were in a position to use the argument most effectively. Mr. Harrison heads the Senate Finance committee, which frames all tax measures. Mr. Byrnes is White House spokesman on the Appropriations committee, which originates spending policies. Majority Leader Robinson speeds tax and appropriation bills through the upper chamber.

A breakdown of federal expenditures discloses other intriguing facts. The only states which got more than $1,000,000,000 each in federal loans and donations are those with the largest electoral votes (and populations) — New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Michigan, California.

ORATORY: Political ghost writing has fallen into some disfavor as a result of unfortunate experiences which several synthetic orators recently suffered on the stump or before the microphone. Democratic orators are writing their own instead of accepting Charley Michelson's prolific, practiced attempts.

The latest to suffer twinges of vanity was Governor Paul McNutt of Indiana. When he delivered a vicious attack on William Randolph Hearst, several Hoosier correspondents reported that he had used a Michelsonian hand-me-down. The handsome Hoosierite was deeply insulted and used smoky, unparliamentary language in refuting the insinuation at a state House press conference.

Majority Leader Robinson let himself in for Jouett Shouse's jushing when he misread and stumbled through a Michelson-made reply to Al Smith's Liberty League philippic. It may be that the Democrats' Ace Publicist, who developed ghosting to an art with his 1930 "Smear Hoover" campaign, will kill the oratory that placed the New Deal in power.

CALL: Big business men—both pro and anti-New Deal—have launched a drive for the prompt appointment of a controller general.

Industrial and commercial interests advance good reasons for demanding a show down now. The next controller general will exercise great influence in the practical administration of New laws affecting business and industry, including the Walsh-Healy and 10 per cent navy profits statutes. Though Mr. Roosevelt may leave the place open till after election, reserving it for some comrade killed in the political wars, it appears that the pressure for selection of a non-political figure may produce results.

NEW YORK
By James McMullin

THE general impression conveyed by current news reports is that G.O.P. candidate Alf Landon and national chairman John Hamilton have relegated the Old Guard to the ashcan. Landon shuns intimate contact with such typical old school leaders as Charles D. Hilles in New York and Joe Grundy in Pennsylvania. Inspired intimations are freely circulated that the national party chiefs—while of course they wouldn't dream of meddling in the internal affairs of a state organization—would really like to see the party leadership in New York completely renovated.

You might reasonably expect the Old Guardsmen and their friends to feel a trifle depressed at being shoved aside so rudely. But not so. Veteran leaders indicate in private conversations that they expect to have as much to say in party affairs as ever if Landon wins.

They have the inside track to purses needed to keep the party going under normal circumstances, which they feel is adequate insurance against being given the bum's rush in earnest. Meanwhile they do not mind being the recipients of icy stares from Landon and Hamilton if that will help the cause along.

SIGNAL: Recent developments have given rise to fresh talk in financial circles about the imminence of franc devaluation. The visits to Germany and Holland by Emile Labeyrie—new governor of the Bank of France—together with his remarks about the need of a new "alignment" of world currencies are taken by many observers as paving the way to a retreat by the Blum government from its "defense of the franc."

But, according to the best informed sources there is as yet no reason to suspect that this is not another of the innumerable false alarms about devaluation. Admittedly Blum's financial problems are becoming more pressing, but they have not yet reached the critical stage.

"Keep an eye on the pound and the dollar," says one New York authority on money. "If you see either of them going up five, 10, 15 points a day for no apparent reason, it will be an important danger signal for the franc, indicating a last minute rush of French capital to get safe in some other currency before it's too late."

SIDELIGHTS: Republican backstagers privately comment Maine victory won't mean a thing nationally unless Landon gets at least 55 per cent of popular vote. . . . Governor Philip LaFollette of Wisconsin reported sore at New Deal—ready to dicker with Landonites. . . . New York anti-New Deal chiefs are pleased with Knox's job of knocking. "Thank the Lord nobody expects a vice-presidential nominee to be constructive."

TARZAN AND THE LEOPARD MEN, No. 36

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

"Leopard Men ! Leopard Men!" That fearful cry echoed through the safari camp. Sleeping porters leaped up and fled. Armed Askaris, who would have faced any other enemy, abandoned their rifles and raced away in panic, so great was their terror of the Leopard Men.

One thrust his head into the girl's tent. "Run, Kali Gwana," he called; "the Leopard Men are after us. They spare no one." The girl had never heard of the Leopard Men, but whoever they were, she did not propose to let them take her without a struggle.

Gripping her revolver, she dashed from the tent. Almost immediately she was surrounded by hideous creatures who seemed half men and half beasts. Her revolver flashed upward to fire, but before she could pull the trigger, a great claw struck her wrist.

The gun clattered to the ground. The girl was helpless. Another claw shot out at her throat. She jumped back just in time. Then the leader of the Leopard Band commanded: "Take the white girl alive. Lulimi, the high priest, will be pleased with her!"

Let's Make The Most Of The Rain We Get!

Lubbock will become a metropolis when all the moisture is saved and used to produce crops in this region. It will become a desert city if we keep on wasting the rainfall that Nature so abundantly gives us. Terrace this region this fall and stop the sandstorms. Use a Texas terracer.

Stocks

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 4. (AP)—Heavy industrials took over the play in today's stock market with numerous issues adding fractions to 2 or more points to their quoted values.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks held a gain of 4 of a point at 68.2, and transfers totaled 2,174,610 shares against 1,647,760 yesterday.

The communications sector benefitted from a sharp increase in August telephone installations announced by the Bell system.

Rallying grains at Chicago bolstered farm implement stocks. Corn shot up 3⅝ to 5½ cents a bushel and wheat advanced 1 to 1¼. Cotton moved up 40 to 60 cents a bale.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 4. (AP)—The cotton market staged a small upswing today in the form of rains in Oklahoma, ending from 7 to 9 points higher after a quiet day of dealings.

While showers in this section have been awaited for several months, the opinion in the trade was that the rains in the northwestern area came too late for any material benefit to the crop.

Final prices were within a point or so of the best levels for the day's range. December 11.48, Jan. 11.42, March at 11.60 and May at 11.39. Spot middling gained 10 points at New Orleans to 10 cents even.

The trade generally is looking for forecasts of a figure well under 12,000,000 bales, and the advance was said to be a partial discounting of this fact.

Spot sales again today totaled more than 40,000 bales.

Liverpool continued optimistic over the long spell prospects for cotton.

The improvement of goods markets continued, with coarse yarn cloths and several other constructions reporting goods sales.

The weather forecast was for continued cloudiness and showers in the northwest with cooler temperatures promised for the eastern area.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 4. (AP)—Cotton was higher today on pre-bureau covering and trade buying influenced by reports of increased activity in the domestic cloth markets and the trend towards reduced crop estimates. December contracts closed at 11.55.

The opening was steady up 2 to 3 points in response to relatively steady Liverpool cables, foreign buying and a moderate demand from the trade. Buyers were supplied by hedging and scattering liquidation.

Reports of rains in Oklahoma and northwest Texas failed to bring in substantial selling.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 4. (AP)—The average price of middling cotton today at ten southern spot markets was 11.80 cents a pound.

BOND NOT MADE

Otis Harvey, charged with burglary of a private residence, had not made bond of $1,000 set by J. T. Trigg, justice of the peace, late Friday, said the sheriff's department.

Harvey, charged in a blanket complaint with another man, waived examining trial. The other had not been arrested.

The complaint, sworn to by Sam W. Fort, police identifications officer, was prepared by Madison S. Rayburn, assistant county attorney.

The complaint alleged Harvey had entered the home of J. M. Norman and taken a watch four nights ago.

spread through many industries.

"Dual Organization" Charged

The issue between the craft and industrial unionists came to a head last winter, when Lewis and 11 other union officials formed the committee. The craft unionists shouted that it was a "dual organization," a rival to the federation. Lewis maintained its only purpose was to organize the unorganized into A. F. of L. unions.

Several weeks ago, the federation's executive council, controlled by the craft union faction, summoned 10 of the committee members to trial.

Declined To Appear

Lewis and his associates declined to appear. The council went on with the trial, found the 10 officials and their unions guilty, and ordered them to leave the Lewis committee on or before September 5 or be suspended.

Two of the 10 unions replied they would not leave the committee. The others ignored the suspension order.

Lewis said the committee had not decided whether to appeal the suspension order to the A. F. of L.'s next convention in Tampa, Fla., November 16. He personally was not inclined to "waste the time," he said.

Grains

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Sept. 4. (AP)—Frenzied buying of September corn that shot up the price 5½ cents to $1.11½ a bushel, the sharpest advance scored by any grain future since the wild bull market of July, 1933, gave all grains a strong tone today.

Pit brokers credited "shorts" with frantic buying of the September corn contract on which delivery must be made this month.

Other corn deliveries advanced about 3 cents while wheat, oats, rye and barley gained more than a cent.

Corn closed at the day's highs, 2 to 5½ above the previous finish. Sept. 1.11½@1.11½, Dec. 96⅛@96⅜, May 91¾@92. Wheat was 1 to 1½ up. Sept 1.11¼@1.11¼, Dec. 1.09⅜@1.10, May 1.08⅞. oats gained 1⅛ to 1⅜, Dec 42⅜@42⅞, rye 1½ to 1⅝; barley 1½, and provisions 10 to 15 cents.

Besides being influenced by strength in corn, the wheat market formed largely as a result of higher Winnipeg prices despite heavy marketings by Canadian farmers. Part of the buying at Winnipeg was regarded as originating abroad. Export business in Canadian grain was estimated at 1,250,000 bushels. Liverpool prices also were higher with milling demand reported good.

Oats and rye sympathized with strength in other markets while provisions reflected the action of grains rather than hogs.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Sept. 4. (AP) Demand was seen here today for all grains except wheat, which was in fair demand.

Wheat No. 1 hard 1.35½@1.36½. Barley No. 2 nom. 82@83.

Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs nom. 1.70@1.78. No. 2 white kafir nom. 1.72@1.80.

jumper, fell to his death during a demonstration in front of the main grandstand. A strong wind kept his parachute from opening fully.

Contestant Loses Plane

One of the Bendix contestants, Joe Jacobsen, 31, of Kansas City, lost his airplane but parachuted to safety near Stafford, Kan. Jacobsen said that his fleet craft appeared to explode in midair.

Emerging from a mass of some 60 war birds of Uncle Sam's air force assembled on the field, 18 ships from San Diego's marine base staged a mock bombing drill and fleet maneuvers.

Thrills Furnished

Inverted flying by Milo Burchman and aerial comedy antics by Capt. Dick Granere of Canada thrilled the throngs, and Harold Johnson took a three-ton transport ship to perform loops, side slips and other hazardous feats.

Roger Don Rae, Lansing, Mich., won the spot parachute jumping contest which brought death to Faulkner. He landed 11 feet, 10 inches from the center mark. The first prize, which Faulkner sought, was $90.

Capt. Alexander Papana of Rumania added his contribution of chills in stunt flying, climaxing an outside loop demonstration by picking an American flag off the ground with the left wing tip of his tiny plane.

of receiving the same sort of cooperation from Illinois officials in combatting drouth ravages as he had obtained throughout his first-hand survey of parched agricultural areas.

Tomorrow, at Indianapolis, the president will wind up his series of discussions of drouth problems and their remedies in conversations with the governors of Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and Michigan.

Then he will turn toward Washington, where from the White House Sunday night he will broadcast impressions of what he has seen on his lengthly train and motor tour.

City Deluged By Rainfall

More Than An Inch Received In Less Than Hour's Time Friday Afternoon; Streets "Run" Like Rivers

wind at Lubbock apparently did no damage, and no other section reported ice.

"Rained Everywhere"

"It rained everywhere our drivers were," said Bill Watson of Union Terminal Bus station. Watson said that, with exception of Amarillo, where a two and one half inch cloudburst struck, Lubbock apparently had the greatest fall of any section.

Motorists said rain was encountered all the way from Post to Lubbock, with the fall being hardest atop the Cap Rock.

Santa Fe dispatchers said occasional light showers were received over that line's division, with no rain reported at Crosbyton, Bledsoe, Seagraves, and toward Texico.

Manholes Stopped Up

Rubbish and leaves stopped manholes in various sections of the city, cases in point being Avenue Q at Thirteenth and Fourteenth, and Broadway at Tenth. The water stretched across Avenue Q at Thirteenth more than an hour.

Water filled gutters and slopped over curbing at Texas and Main, Main and Avenue G saw traffic hampered.

Main line station of West Texas Gas company reported a rain of approximately an inch. The fall started at 2:30 o'clock was over in approximately a quarter hour.

Temperatures slid the scale after the rain. The day's high was 89 degrees, low 70. The reading at 10 o'clock was 76 degrees, same as for 3:30 o'clock that afternoon.

Prospects for continued rain in some areas were found in the forecast: "West Texas—Probably thunder showers; partly cloudy."

Good Rains Reported

Official measurements recorded Childress' rain at 2.54 and Memphis' at 2.24 inches.

Miami reported 1.62, Quanah 1.12 and Spur 1.02 inches. Big Spring and Crosbyton had .62-inch falls and Lamesa .92 of an inch.

Precipitation at Vernon was 1.09 inches.

Crowell Lake Full

The city lake at Crowell caught five-weeks' supply of water during a 1.55-inch rain last night. The lake had been dry since July 1, and citizens of this community had been forced to haul in water.

Farmers said rain would allow wheat planting but was too late to be of any benefit to cotton in the county.

From Matador came reports of a good general rain over Motley county, the first precipitation of consequence in 60 days. The total at Matador, following showers earlier in the week, was 1.27 inches.

Rains Splash Across Wide Area In Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 4. (AP) Rains splashed across wide areas in the western part of Oklahoma today and dealt telling blows against the protracted drouth.

Rainfall measured from a trace at Chickasha to a 3.83 inch soaking in Hollis in Harmon county, ending the drouth there.

Panhandle farmers were cheered by rainfall, measuring from sprinkles at Boise City and Texhoma to .9 inches at Guymon. In that area, Tyrone reported .75 inches; Hooker .41; Optima .41; Perryton, Tex., 2.04; Spearman, Tex., 1.44, and Liberal, Kas., .91; in western Oklahoma, Clinton reported 2 inches; Sayre 3.58; Mangum 2.1, and a good rainfall was reported at Weatherford.

KANSAS AREA SOAKED

GREAT BEND, Kas., Sept. 4. (AP) Slow, soaking rains measuring up to 1.55 inches fell overnight in western Kansas and were continuing today, reviving pastures and putting fields in condition for wheat seeding.

Train Is Struck

were applied and the car swerved to the right, in an attempt to miss the train.

The train crew said the passenger was stopped at gates there and that the train was lighted throughout.

Sanders ambulance was waiting when the train pulled into the station here.

Mrs. Bristol was the only one of the four to be kept in the hospital. Her husband will undergo x-ray examination this morning.

Farmers To Get Checks From Regional AAA Offices In Place Of Receiving Them From Washington

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4. — Payments to farmers under the $470,000,000 soil conservation-production control program this year will be made directly from regional offices in three of the five national divisions instead of from Washington.

Officials said today that AAA leaders approved this step for western, north central and southern regions, although auditing of benefit claims as well as payments will continue to be done in Washington for the east central and northeast regions.

Proposed locations for the regional AAA offices under the decentralization plan, include:

Southern region — Baton Rouge, La.; Little Rock, Ark.; College Station, Texas, and Stillwater, Okla.

BLACK-DRAUGHT

For Clean System Helps To Prevent Sickness

One of the advantages of Black-Draught is that, if it is taken at the first disagreeable feeling of constipation, one or two doses usually bring relief. Prompt relief, such as that, is well worth while. Constipation is too dangerous to be neglected.

"A clean system for health" plan has saved thousands of people much useless sickness. They keep a package of Black-Draught in the family medicine cabinet and take this purely vegetable laxative at the first sign of constipation. They say the relief it brings is mighty hard to beat.

Find out, by trying it, why so many people prefer Black-Draught when it comes to buying a laxative. Adv.
