Highway Contract To Be Let August 28th.

Contracts will be let Monday, August 28 at Austin for the drainage and grading of the north half of Highway No. 9, from Lamesa to the Llan county line. The work is to start within the next thirty days.

The State Engineer was in Lamesa Tuesday and stated that contracts would probably be let in the very near future for the paving of the lower half of No. 9 to the Howard county line. He was very much in favor of this work being done and said he would recommend that this contract be the next on the list.

Surveyors have already arrived and started to work on the right-of-way for Highway No. 83, running from Lamesa through Gaines county. The right of ways have already been assured and it is thought that contracts will be let without any delay.

The contractors of this work will obtain their employments through the local Government re-employment office. The minimum wage paid to all skilled labor employed on this contract will be forty-five cents per hour while the minimum wage to be paid all unskilled labor employed on this contract will be thirty five cents per hour.

Shook Tire Company Receives Car Load Of New Tires

Shook Tire Company received this morning (Thursday) another car load of Seibering tires direct from the factory at Akron, Ohio. This is the second car load of tires to be shipped to this store within the past three months, another car being received on June 20.

G. V. Fulton, manager of the tire store, located at 525 North First, states that he has enjoyed a wonderful tire business since the opening of the store here last September.

Senator Duggan In Lamesa Tuesday

Arthur P. Duggan, State Senator, spent Tuesday afternoon in Lamesa working with committees seeking various reliefs for farmers of this section. Among the many plans studied in the committee meetings were: relief through feed and seed loans; relief through liquidating loan projects, relief through liquidating loan values on homes and farms; relief through Red Cross, relief through RFC direct grants, relief through submission of pink boll worm claims to call session of legislature, relief through direct grant for lateral road building, relief through state and federal highway work.

Mr. Duggan stated that he expected to spend quite a bit of his time next few months working on all of these matters with the hope of getting some aid from them all and material aid from a few of these agencies.

In commenting on the need for such work at this time Mr. Duggan said, "The homes of this country need saving. We must save them first if we prosper. They are the backbone of our civilization. The way things are going something will have to be done if we save them and so far as I am concerned I am ready to do a patriotic duty not to help save the situation. It is no time to politic and soft soap the people when they need bread. It is time to roll up our sleeves and at least try to get something done. To this end I am dedicating the next few months of my personal work."

Lowrie Urges Support Of State Bond Issue

In a recent statement, J. E. Lowrie, county chairman of Dawson county bond issue, said in part:

"Please remember that the passage of this bond issue is an important part of the President's National Recovery program and that its defeat will definitely halt the plan of the National Administration to aid in the rehabilitation and relief of the million destitute people in Texas. Also if the bond issue fails the burden will still have to be borne by Texans, without Federal assistance, and it requires no wise prophet or political pundit to predict that Dawson County will have an emergency which we are wholly unprepared to meet. To avoid this contingency, please support the bonds."

TO ATTEND MEETING

TRADES DAY, next first Monday, September 4,—and what a day. Already hundreds of people who have not been coming to Trades Day have said they will be on hand.

One hundred and forty-four balloons will be filled with gas and on the LUCKY balloons will be the name of a merchant in Lamesa. The balloons will be turned loose from the top of the court house and let float out into the elements. But by and bye they will come down. Then the fun starts. A scramble for the lucky balloons will follow. All the balloons on which a merchant's name is attached and which has the proper indorsement and mark, when presented to this merchant, a piece of merchandise will be given to the person who presents the name by said merchant, absolutely FREE. Of course no one will want to miss this treat.

Gail Rodeo Attracts Huge Crowd Saturday

Local people who attended the old-time cow-boy reunion and rodeo held at Gail Saturday have been most enthusiastic in their reports of the affair. Indications are that it will become an annual event.

The reunion was formally—or informally opened Friday evening with a cowboy dance, and the main rodeo events followed Saturday. Some of the contests were postponed over until Sunday afternoon, and many of the visitors remained over for that day as well. An estimated attendance of more than two thousand persons has been reported.

Gail was for many years one of the most important frontier towns in West Texas, and its history reads like a real western thriller.

After the contracts are let for the highway work next Monday, August 28th, men accepted will be put to work within the next thirty days, and will be paid 35 cents per hour, and will work 30 hours each week.

W. H. Thruston stated this week that no information had been received for the working of teams and tools, but this information will be furnished soon after the road contracts are let.

Swenson Wins County Baseball Tournament

In a grand climax to the Dawson County Baseball Tournament Monday afternoon, the Lamesa Legionnaires and the Swenson team played one of the best games ever to have been played in Dawson county with the Swenson team taking the championship back to Stonewall county with them by a score of 1-0 in a twelve inning game.

Berry, pitching for the locals, and Pittman pitching for the Swenson team, showed the fans how a baseball game should be pitched. Brilliant fielding on the part of both teams and especially by Banta for Lamesa and Owens for Swenson nipped several promising rallies.

Although the Lamesa team out hit the Swenson team 13 hits to 5, they were unable to score or to get a hit at the crucial time. In the 12th inning three of Swenson's five hits were bunched scoring the deciding runs.

Federal Government Has Spent $24,190 In Dawson County

Austin, Aug. 23.—In many counties in Texas the Federal government is now spending more money every month for relief work than those counties would have to pay back in a year in paying off the relief bonds, according to William Strauss, chairman of the committee campaigning for adoption of the proposed relief bond amendment.

"It is primarily a matter of bread and meat for the hungry," said Mr. Strauss. "It is unthinkable that Texas will let its women and children go hungry. But some people may want to know what Texas will get for authorizing a bond issue that may go up to $20,000,000 if the legislature finds that much is needed."

"In the first place, there is hardly a county in Texas that can care for its own destitute through local taxation. If they could the burden of taxes would fall on homes and farms and be tremendously heavy. By issuing state bonds the burden is off homes and farms, for the taxes to fund these bonds cannot be raised on real or personal property. If all the bonds are issued the tax per capita will not average over 41 cents a year for 10 years. Actually it probably will be some special tax that will fall heavier on city people and be lighter than on rural citizens."

"In Dawson county the Federal government in the past ten months has spent for relief work $24,190. The county has asked for $6,800 to carry on the work during August for the benefit of 3310 persons on its relief rolls."

Many New Books At Public Library

Three new arrivals at the public library are "American Beauty", by Edna Ferber, "Captive Wife", by Warwick Deeping, and "State Fair" by Phil Strong.

"American Beauty" is a glowing tale of a magnificent American family whose way of life, even in poverty, was splendid and proud. Across the span of more than two hundred years moves this story of a vast oak rafted New England mansion in which a magnificent family rises to power and splendor and falls to proud decay. It is a story that catches all the romance and splendor of two centuries of American life.

In "Captive Wife", by Warwick Deeping, we see a fierce passionate untamed heroine whose splendid, barbaric beauty dominates all who surround her and a gentle, chivalrous scholarly hero whose only desire is for peace, solitude and reflection. They are man and wife in name only for Rachel Charney comes to Orchard, the ancestral home of Sir Richard Falconer, against her will and under the shadow of scandal. Here is an intensely romantic story of a man's conquest of a woman's love.

For the Frake family "The State Fair" was a joyful interlude from labor and the serious occupation of farming, a long looked for dip into pleasure and for Margy and Wayne, into even a bit of sin. They all found what they were seeking and more too in one week at the fair. To the father and mother, Abel and Melissa Frake, comes fame and success in winning the prizes with their farm products and to Margy and Wayne comes romance beyond their fondest dreams. They have their cake and eat it too.

For the kiddies we have two new Billy Whiskers books, "Billy Whiskers Travels" and "Billy Whiskers at the Circus". For the girls the library has two new Janice Day books, "The Testing of Janice Day", and "The Mission of Janice Day".

The following list of fiction was also added to the library shelves: "The Perennial Bachelor" by Anne Parrish.

"Pollyanna" by Porter.

"Magie for Marigold" by Montgomery.

"When Patty Went to College" by Jean Webster.

"Rhinestones" by Margaret Wildemer.

"Ride Him, Cowboy" by Perkins.

"The Pacer" by Paradise.

"The Dream Man" by Pamela Wayne.

The Lamesa Library was fortunate in having presented to it a collection of books from the Rev. D. G. Wells library. This collection consists of fifty books including fiction, poetry, psychology, education and other subjects. We wish to express our gratitude to those who made this splendid gift.

Saturday, August 26 Election Day In Texas

Business Men Meet To Outline Program

At a meeting of some two hundred business men in the District Court room Monday morning of this week plans were outlined whereby a stay, or modification of the national recovery act codes affecting the various groups of businesses operating in Lamesa.

Letters and telegrams were read from the administration advising the course to pursue to request a modification of the codes for this area on account of the drought which makes it work a hardship to add more help and pay more wages when business will not justify them so doing.

The local chamber of commerce is authorized by the national headquarters at Washington to work with any group of business, within the bounds of reason, to offer a revised code which will be suitable to Lamesa businesses considering the results of the drought here.

Already, according to reports from the chamber of commerce office, the retail dry goods, retail grocers, barber shop and beauty parlor operators, retail hardware dealers, filling station operators, and lumbermen have held meeting and have either worked out a code or are working on a code to be submitted by the local chamber. Other groups are expected to file petitions this week, as all petitions for stays must be in Washington by September first if considered.

Merchants of Lamesa want it understood that they are not requesting exemptions, but revised codes, that they may be able to keep their blue eagles and still operate during the drought times we are going thru. They expect to put on as many people to work and pay as much salary as their business will justify.

S. L. Forrest, chairman of the merchants division of the Lamesa chamber of commerce presided at the meeting.

Local Man Dies Of Heart Attack

Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock for W. D. Buck, 76 years of age, who died from a heart attack on Tuesday morning while talking with friends in front of the court house.

Mr. Buck had been in ill health for some time, but was still able to do his work. He had been in this county for about one year.

Services were held at the grave side by Rev. W. H. Wallace, pastor of the First Methodist church.

Plans For Lubbock Fair Going Forward

Lubbock, Aug. 23.—Definite plans for the twentieth annual Panhandle South Plains Fair, to be held here October 2 to 7, inclusive, are going forward rapidly since the election of new officers for the year with R. C. "Dick" Smith at the helm as the new president.

Smith succeeds W. G. McMillan as president and will have as co-workers Geo. A. Simmons and S. E. Core, vice-presidents, Tom Gaston, treasurer, and A. B. Davis, manager. Three new directors elected for a term of three years on the fair board are: Parker Prouty, Tom Gaston and Alex McDonald. Besides the officers and new directors, other directors are: E. L. Klett, Don L. Jones and L. E. Barr.

The John T. Wortham Shows with 12 riding devices, 40 stellar attractions, 25 railroad cars and 350 people will play the midway. Other attractions are being booked for the amusement end of the exposition.

"Bigger and Better" the fair's theme from year to year, will again be the driving motive back of the exposition. Many improvements have been made each succeeding year since the first little showing was grouped together in a vacant shack twenty years ago.

Exhibits from all over the Plains and additional territory are invited by the directors who wish to make the exposition truly the "Show Window of the Plains."

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Perry of Lubbock spent the week end here with their daughter, Mrs. Walter Collins, and Mr. Collins.

Mrs. Erlene Hillmann left Monday for Sudan where she has a position in the bank.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Adeock and sons, D. L. Jr., and Daulton, and Mrs. Herbert Green of Woody returned Tuesday from a visit to Fort Worth, Haskell, Knox City, and Clairmont.

Saturday is the day proclaimed by the Governor of Texas as the day when legal voters may have the opportunity of going to the polls and casting their votes; for or against many important issues.

Dawson county voters will cast three ballots: a long ballot on proposed repeal of the eighteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, a shorter ballot in folder form on four proposed amendments to the constitution of Texas, and the third ballot will be to repeal the local option on the sale of beer in the county.

Again we explain the proposed amendments to the state constitution: (1) Authority for the adoption of a home rule charter by the voters in counties having a population of 62,000 or more (2) issuance of bonds of the state, not to exceed $20,000,000, for unemployment relief; (3) sale of vinous or malt liquors of not more than 3.2 per cent alcoholic content by weight; (4) exemption of $3,000 of the assessed taxable value of all residence homesteads from state taxes.

The last of the four is in effect to change a provision of the homestead exemption law adopted in the general election of last November. Under the 1932 measure, the homestead law would not apply to counties and political subdivisions that have received tax remissions, until the expiration of the time fixed by the Legislature. The new provision would allow the homestead exemption to apply whenever the governing body of a county or political subdivision asked to have the tax remission removed.

The constitutional amendment ballot carries names of 62 candidates for delegates and 62 for alternates—for and against ratification of an amendment to repeal the eighteenth amendment. Each voter is entitled to vote for any number of candidates, not to exceed 31 delegates and 31 alternates.

Rev. Cole's Brother To Preach At The Baptist Church

In the absence of Rev. E. F. Cole, pastor of the First Baptist Church, his brother from Shreveport, La., will preach both morning and evening sermons at the church, August 27.

This Brother Cole is an outstanding speaker and everyone will do well to hear both of these services.

Luncheon Club Has Ladies Night Program

The Lamesa Luncheon Club entertained their wives in a special ladies night program, Tuesday evening at the Williams Hotel. Eighty men and their wives attended the meeting.

Carl Rountree was program chairman and acted as toastmaster. Mrs. Matt A. McCall arranged a beautiful program of entertainment consisting of two numbers by a girls quartet composed of Misses Elizabeth Arnett, Edith Mae Collins, Ruth Merrick and Marguerite Flanken.

Mrs. W. J. Beckham and Mrs. Carl Rountree gave two entertaining and much appreciated duets one of the songs in Spanish.

The principal speaker of the evening was Clark M. Mulliken, district judge of Lubbock. His subject was "The New Deal" and he dealt with it in a masterly way holding his audience spell bound. He was introduced by Louis B. Reed, local attorney, and a member of the Luncheon Club.

A chicken barbecue was served on the cool and spacious grass lawn of the Williams Hotel.

As members and their wives departed they expressed themselves as having "a nice and wonderful time."

The program next Tuesday will be in charge of V. Z. Rogers, local school superintendent and the subject will be "Our Schools."

County School Board Discusses New Laws

At a meeting of the county school board on Saturday afternoon at the court house the transportation law for high school students was discussed. It was decided that the only method of transporting high school pupils appearing practical in this county is being worked out by the district trustees and parents of the pupils seeking transportation. That is if there are not enough pupils in the districts coming to the town school to justify a truck to go for them, it would be more practical to pay the pupils the two dollars for coming in their own cars.

Mrs. Hardy Parker and Mrs. John Tarter and daughter were in Lubbock Monday.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK SHOW, NOVEMBER 18-25

Kansas City, Aug. 23.—Plans for the 35th annual American Royal Livestock and Horse Show to be held in Kansas City, November 18 to 25, have just been approved by the management. There will be no lessening of efforts, despite economic conditions, to make this year's Live Stock and Horse Show the equal of any preceding event.

They include all classifications for purebred Beef Cattle, Dairy Cattle, Swine, Sheep, and Draft Horses, also Mules, Poultry, Pleasure Horses, and ponies of all kinds, Carlots Fat and Feeder Cattle and Hogs, Junior activities as have been customary, Auction Sales, Industrial Exhibits, Splendid Music and all other settings which have made the American Royal so popular in the past, and some additional features will be introduced that will make the next annual event even more attractive than ever.

The premium list for the Live Stock Show will be ready for the printer in a short time and will again include very liberal premium offerings.

The railroads have indicated that passenger fares will be more liberal than ever this year. Details will be announced as soon as confirmations have been received.

Break Ground for Silica Plant

Workmen began setting stakes Wednesday morning for the construction of a silica refinery at the silica pits on the V. S. Castle farm six miles south of Tahoka.

It probably will require thirty days or more to complete the structure, Mr. Castle says. The operation of the machinery will probably require the services of possibly ten or twelve men.

The refined article will be worth many times as much as the raw material, and it has many uses. It is the principal ingredient of cleansing compounds, and is used in the manufacture of soap, tooth paste, cosmetics, paints, and other commercial products. It is also used in building material and, in highway construction. There will be a ready market for the silica after being refined, and the mining and refining of the vast quantities of silica in the Castle Lake will create quite a new and important industry for Tahoka.

The Texas Production Company will be the name of the corporation that will build and operate this plant.

These silica beds were discovered by J. B. Nance six or seven years ago, and for two or three years he worked earnestly to get capital interested in the development of the mineral. In fact, he has never ceased to be interested in the matter though the land passed out of his possession three or four years ago. These beds are said to be the richest of the kind that have been discovered anywhere in the Southwest. For the past several months, Mr. Castle and others have been mining and manufacturing the raw material but on account of long hauls and high freight rates this has not proved to be a very profitable business. For the refined product however, the freight and other transportation charges will be negligible, and for this reason Mr. Castle sought to interest capital in the building of a refinery here—and he has succeeded.

The deposit, known locally as silica, is volcanic ash, and likely settled over this country following the eruption of some now extinct New Mexico volcano in the past ages.—Lynn County News.

Farm Exhibits to Show New Progress

Dallas, Aug. 23.—Two county exhibits which will be shown as features of the 1933 state fair of Texas, will note progress made in diversification of farming during the past 14 years, it has been announced by W. T. Davis, director in charge of agriculture. The two exhibits will be from Dallas county. One will be a duplication of the 1919 Dallas county exhibit at the State Fair and the other will be the 1933 exhibit.

Dallas county was chosen for the two exhibits because J. A. Moore, who is now superintendent of agriculture at the State Fair of Texas was at that time assistant county agent here and gathered the 1919 exhibit. A. B. Jolley, present Dallas County Agent will arrange the 1933 exhibit.

The two years were chosen because in 1919, all agencies were beginning to push the agitation to diversify, while 1933 will show the greatest rotation of farm crops since that time. The 1919 exhibit will show a picture of the "five month farm" while the display this year will picture a "twelve month farm"

Troop 22 Re-registers; Elects Officers

The Allen-Houston Post No. 330, American Legion, Boy Scout Troop No. 22 recently re-registered twenty two scouts at National headquarters, New York, for another year of scouting and plans for another year of scouting and plans for troop activities throughout the year are being formulated. The troop committee is composed of G. E. Esmond, chairman Bland Taylor and Louis B. Reed.

Troop officers elected last Friday night at the meeting in the basement of the courthouse are as follows: Jack Keisling, senior Patrol leader; Dwight Morris, Scribe; and Judge Roberts, taibuster. Patrol leaders for the four patrols of the troop will be chosen next Friday night.

A week end camp is being anticipated for the near future. Lamesa's next court of honor will be held Friday night, September 1st, and it is hoped a number of the boys will go before it for advancement. New boys registering with the troop for the first time are Jack Sanders, Edwin and Hardin Easterwood.

Marriage Law Goes Into Effect August 31

County Clerk S. M. Mitchell authorizes us to announce that on or after August 31 he can issue marriage licenses upon application, as the provision requiring the filing of application three days before the license is issued was repealed by the last legislature. It is generally understood and interpreted, however, that the man must still procure a certificate of health.

Quoting a contemporary, "The effect of the present law has been to drive most of the young people desiring to wed over the line into New Mexico to procure the marriage license."

If your elephant wants to ride on top IT'S ALL RIGHT WITH A CHEVROLET

CHEVROLET We didn't actually plan on elephants when we chose the bodies for the new Chevrolet. But we did choose bodies rigid enough, and strong enough, to support six tons of elephant or anything else you can name. Fisher bodies . . . steel bodies plus a hardwood frame . . . exactly the same type of bodies used on all 12 and 16-cylinder cars. Steel alone is not enough to make you as safe and secure as we want you to be in a Chevrolet. A steel body, welded into a solid wall of protection plus resilient hardwood reinforcing to take up stress, absorb shocks and prevent the steel from following its natural tendency to buckle under pressure makes the sturdiest body of all—the kind used on the Chevrolet, and on no other low-priced car. Remember that when you buy a car. Be sure to get all you pay for . . . the super-safety of a steel-plus-wood Fisher body. CHEVROLET MOTOR COMPANY, DETROIT, MICH.
