The effluent from Wellington's sewage disposal system is about comparable in purity to river water, Mayor John Coleman reported after a check was made Tuesday, May 26.

The test was carried out by James Wilson, representative of the Texas Water Quality Board stationed in Amarillo.

Due to recently enacted legislation, it will be necessary for the City of Wellington to test the effluent each month.

The city council is presently studying alternate plans of installing testing equipment or having the work done by a commercial laboratory, Mayor Coleman said.

The equipment necessary to do the testing will cost from $700 to $800, he estimated. The charge by a laboratory would be about $20 per month.

Mr. Wilson found the city's new sewage disposal system entirely satisfactory, he added.

Candidate for State Senate

Abraham Holds First Of Coffee Series

The coming senatorial campaign in the 31st District of Texas could determine the balance of power in the upper house in Austin, Rep. Malouf Abraham of Canadian told a group of friends and supporters at a coffee in Wellington May 26.

Rep. Abraham said that in recent years the Senate in Austin has been divided 16 to 15 and 17 to 14 between conservatives and liberals and that the outcome of one district could be the deciding factor in determining whether the Senate would be conservative or liberal in the next session.

Abraham was in Wellington for the first of a series of coffees that will carry him to every county in the 31st District which consists of 20 counties with the tier of counties of Collingsworth, Donley, Armstrong, Randall and Deaf Smith being the southern boundary. He was accompanied by his charming wife, Iris, who was a capable campaigner in his first race for representative and has proven to be an effective public relations person for him since he has been in office.

This is Malouf's second term in the House of Representatives. He was elected the first time against a strong Democratic opponent, Seibert Worley of Shamrock, and in his bid for a second term was the first Republican candidate for a seat in the House of Representatives to run without an opponent.

Notes from Your County Home Demonstration Agent

By Mrs. Leta Hill

Fresh Sweet Corn

Fresh sweet corn has to "keep its cool".

Almost immediately after harvest the fresh ears get an ice-cold shower of air and water. Even after the corn is packed for shipment, it's blanketed with a shower of snow-ice.

This cool, moist atmosphere keeps the corn fresh and sweet. And you'll find it wise to continue the treatment right up until cooking time. As soon as possible after buying corn, wrap the ears in a damp towel and refrigerate.

When buying corn, look for fresh, succulent husks with good green color, silk ends that are free from decay or worm injury and stem ends that are not too discolored or dried. Select ears that are well covered with plump, not-to-mature kernels.

Fresh corn is great for cook-outs. When carrying corn to a cookout spot away from home, have the ears ready for cooking—either in the husks or sealed in heavyweight aluminum foil. Wrap in a damp towel and place in a food chest, bucket or other container with blocks of ice. Be sure to keep the corn out of the melting ice.

For simple preparation, husk each ear and remove the silk. Brush with melted butter and tightly wrap in heavyweight aluminum foil. Grill over hot coals, turning occasionally, for 15 to 20 minutes or until tender.

For Surprise Corn

Peel the husks as you would peel a banana, without deaching the husks from the cob, and remove the silk. Soak the ears in water for 30 minutes, then drain. Brush with melted butter, sprinkle with salt and pepper and wrap with bacon strips. Roll the husks back over the kernels, smoothing down the ends, and wrap each ear in heavyweight aluminum foil. Cook on the hot coals, turning once, for 10 to 15 minutes—until tender.

Seasonings add a lot to your corn servings. Try spicing melted butter to serve on corn with cayenne, cinnamon, chili powder, paprika, onion salt, or anchovy paste. For crunchy butter, add grated onion, parsley flakes, salt and cheese cracker crumbs.

A favorite of youngsters is corn-on-the-cob spread with peanut butter. Either crunchy or cream style will do.

Leftover corn never should be a problem. Just cut the corn from the cob, using a sharp knife and cutting downward. You can add the corn to a quick bread batter, baked corn pudding or corn relish.

Chicken-Corn Salad

Chicken-corn salad offers a perky use for corn. Combine corn cut from the cob, cubed cooked chicken or turkey and chopped red and green peppers. Season with chili powder, salt and pepper. Add enough mayonnaise to hold ingredients together. Serve atop crisp, fresh salad greens.

New Egg

A new imitation whole egg powder will enable those on fat- and cholesterol-controlled diets to include egg-like foods in their meals.

The powder, called Chono, was developed by a major food company.

Chono, when prepared in scrambled or omelet form, has a taste and appearance similar to whole eggs. It can replace whole eggs in baked custard and eggnog, cakes, pancakes, French toast, breading dips and many other preparations.

Chono combines natural dried egg albumin with an artificial yolk formulated from safflower oil, rich in polyunsaturated fatty acids.

Census Clock

The Census Bureau in Washington can graphically present what's happening to our population by seconds. This "Census Clock" recently showed some interesting figures:

- 1 birth every 9 seconds
- 1 death every 16 1/2 seconds
- 1 immigrant arrives every 60 seconds
- 1 emigrant leaves every 23 seconds

The net gain in all this coming and going is:

- 1 person every 15 1/2 seconds
- 5,574 persons every day
- 2,035,510 persons every year

One food company will market a ready-to-drink iced tea in easy open aluminum lid six-pack containers. The canned tea will be in price competition with soft drinks.

Parent Group Honors Seniors

Oney, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Adams, Mrs. Willie West, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lee Watts and Mr. and Mrs. Hezze Jones.

More than forty members of the class attended.

Financial Facts

By Jeff Wilson

NO PAPER MONEY FOR EARLY AMERICA

Did you know that there wasn't genuine paper money in this country until 1861b

Many people confuse various forms of early currency and notes as paper money like we know it today. This isn't the case.

After the Declaration of Independence paper currency was issued by the Continental Congress to help finance the war. This money was not issued by the United States government as formed by the Constitution.

Between the time our government was formed in 1861, there was no actual national paper money issued, only coins. During times of financial crisis and war, however, the government has issued Treasury Notes to meet the drain on our finances. These notes were not paper money as such, but only promissory notes that bore interest and were redeemed by the Treasury as quickly as possible.

In the absence of the teacher, Mrs. Clement was in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Coy Vaughan gave the devotional from the 15th chapter of Proverbs. After that, prayer was offered for those who were ill in the class and in the other classes.

A matching pearly lace hat-let held a tiered fingertip veil of candlelight imported illusion. Her bouquet was of white roses.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Ted Barrow of Denton and Mrs. Ronnie Hartman, sister-in-law of the bride.

Their dresses were of mint-green Irish linen. The sleeveless bodices were made with high stand collars, and the floor-length A-line skirts were trimmed with Venice lace. Their mint green petal-type headpieces held short veils, and they carried bouquets of yellow roses.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hartman were hosts at a reception in their home to honor the couple.

The bride's table was laid with white net over white satin. The bride's bouquet and candles were arranged into the centerpiece and silver and crystal appointments were used.

Miss Barbara Woods of Baytown and Mrs. Andy Bell II served the guests, and Mrs. J. C. Saunders of Lubbock registered them from a table that matched in decor the reception table.

Both the bride and bridegroom are students in Texas Tech University during the regular term. She also attended Texas Women's University two years and is majoring in home economics education and clothing. The bridegroom, who is majoring in agricultural education, also studied two years at West Texas State University.

The couple will be at home in Wellington this summer, returning to Lubbock for the fall semester. The bride will be employed at Bridal Arts Center and he is associated with the Texas Tech Meats Laboratory.

Arched candelabras and a sunburst arrangement of yellow gladiolas, roses and daisies were at the center of the altar decorations. Seven-branched candelabras were at each side, and candles in tall holders marked the pews of the bridal aisle.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Cherry Lewis, pianist, who also accompanied Miss Cheryl Colclaser of Lubbock as she sang.

Mr. Hartman gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride chose a formal gown of candlelight silk peau de soie and hand-clipped Chantilly lace reembroidered with seed pearls. The bodice of the Empire gown was overlaid with the pearly lace and featured a high cameo neckline and full bishop sleeves with wide cuffs. The full chapel train of peau de soie was enhanced with pearly lace motifs and attached high on the back bodice beneath the lace motifs. The A-line skirt was also adorned with the pearly lace appliques to complete the decor of the gown.

Here character is molded, and the pattern for the future lives of our children is set, so it behooves each of us to try to control situations and attitudes that arise, instead of letting them control us.

Landscaping Is Long Term Investment for Home Owner

By Everett E. Janne
Extension Landscape Horticulturist, Texas A&M University

Are you interested in realizing a return of $1000 on a $200 investment within ten years? You can do it by using trees and shrubs adapted to the area in a correctly planned home landscape.

To make sure shrubs and trees are properly placed, it is essential that a landscape plan be developed before planting. If you are building a new home it's best to design the landscaping before the house is constructed. Funds for landscaping should be allocated in the budget.

It is not too late to develop a plan even after the house is several years old. Renovation of the entire existing plan can be done anytime the need arises. Consider the various uses areas of the yard. Are these areas being used to the fullest potential?

The approach or public area is usually considered first as it provides the setting for the home. Don't hide the house by planting a forest in the front yard. Remember a tree or a shrub must have room to grow and develop in order to attain its full potential in beauty and usefulness. Simplicity should be the keynote of your design.

The major emphasis should be on the development of the outdoor living area. When designing this area, keep in mind the special needs and interests of the various members of the family. It should be designed so that the homeowner will have time for relaxation and enjoyment instead of using all his spare time for maintenance.

Generally, the outdoor living area will be in the back yard and screened with a fence, wall or shrubs to provide privacy. For convenience, it should be readily accessible to the living or family room so a feeling of unity between the two areas can be achieved.

An outdoor work area is also a necessity for most homes. It should be convenient to the work area of the house, that is, near the kitchen, utility room and garage. It is usually screened from public view. Depending upon the requirements of the owners, it may include space for a garbage can rack, tool storage facilities and compost box.

For maximum returns on your investment, it is best to consult a professional landscape architect. If this is inconvenient or you enjoy doing the planning and planting, there are many excellent references on home landscaping available in the garden section of your favorite book store or library.

Five Miles of Flags Will Greet Patrons of "Texas" This Summer

Five miles of flags will line the streets of Canyon this summer whenever the "Texas" musical drama is playing. They will lead travelers to the door of the box office which is in Canyon, and then will salute them on the drive from the city to the Amphitheatre in the nearby Palo Duro Canyon State Park, there, the great lights reveal the "Texas" musical drama which plays nightly except Sundays from June 26 through Aug. 31.

These flags will herald the fifth season of Paul Green's musical drama "Texas". This is a spectacular blend of music and dance, drama and sound played by a cast of 75 people. Their stage is at the base of a 600 foot cliff. Their story is the strains and celebrations of the settling of this area and their songs are the calls of the early western days.

Each night the bugle rivets the attention of the audience on the lone rider who bears his flag to the top of the high cliff.

Each night the thunder and lightning of a great storm crackle through the audience. And each night the actors tell of the land and its grip on them until people go away and say "so that's the way it was!"

The directors of the production, William and Margaret Moore of West Texas State University have announced that rehearsals will begin on May 31 this year. Members of the cast work eight hours a day before the opening for almost a month. They not only must learn the show but must condition themselves since they work in such a large area in the canyon.

The theatre seats 1500. Barbecue dinner, free parking, souvenirs and drinks are available.

And the drive to the theatre is a breath-taking experience. "Texas" is one of six great historical outdoor shows written by Paul Green and playing this summer. The new one is "Trumpet in the Land," a story of the Moravians which opens for the first time this summer in Dover, Ohio. Another is the "Cross and Sword" in St. Augustine, Florida, that is entering its sixth season.

The "Stephen Foster Story" in Bardstown, Kentucky, is opening for the 11th time. The "Common Glory" in Williamsburg, Virginia, is telling the story of Jamestown for the 23rd summer, and the original "Lost Colony" is entering its 30th season.

It is wise to make reservations in advance, especially for week ends. Write to "Texas," Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015 or telephone 806-655-2182

Collingsworth County FARM NEWS

By Don Reeves
County Agricultural Agent

Control Bagworms Now

Bagworms are making the scene again. These insect pests damage evergreens and occasionally broadleaf plants and can be a real "thorn in the side" for homeowners. Examine evergreens closely and take control measures if small bagworms are found.

Control measures are most effective when the worms are small and before they cause serious damage.

Spray applications of malathion, carbaryl (Sevin), lead arsenate or toxaphene are effective controlling bagworms. These materials are available under several trade names from nurseries, garden supply stores and supermarkets.

The worms will be difficult to see because of the bag which they construct around themselves to which foliage is attached. As the bagworm feeds and grows larger, so does the bag.

Chlorosis in Lawns and Gardens

Gardeners and home owners in Collingsworth County may be noting the yellowing of the leaves on some of their fruit trees, ornamentals and lawn grasses during this season.

This condition is known as chlorosis and results from iron deficiency.

Chlorosis is caused by the inability of plants to take up sufficient iron which is essential for the development of chlorophyll, the green pigment in leaves.

Primary causes of the disorder are high lime content of the soil and excessive use of phosphate fertilizer.

In addition to fruit trees, oaks and maples, ornamentals such as roses, pyracantha, abelia, hollies and photinia are also susceptible.

Regardless of the type of shrub or tree, chlorosis can be easily spotted. Leaves will yellow between the veins early in the growing season. Veins usually remain green but, in extreme cases, the entire leaf yellows and may be almost white in appearance.

Grass tends to turn yellow in spots and close observation may reveal a stripping of the leaf with green veins and yellowing in between.

Chlorosis can be controlled by spraying the foliage until wet with a solution of sulfate (copperas). For trees and shrubs, use one level tablespoon of copperas per two gallons of water and include about one and one-half teaspoon of liquid house detergent to insure even coverage. For grasses, increase the amount of copperas to three level tablespoons in the same mixture.

Texas Cattfish Farmers Organize

COLLEGE STATION.—Commercial fish farming, described as America's newest and fastest growing agricultural enterprise, is now represented in the Lone Star State by the Cattfish Farmers of Texas.

Wallace Klusmann, Extension Service wildlife specialist, said national fish production has nearly doubled every year for the past four years. Texas output, now ranking fourth in the U.S., is growing faster than that of any of the producing states.

Mrs. Velva Biggs, May 22.
Mrs. Pearl Aaron, May 23.
Mrs. C. W. Caison, May 25.

Three or four applications at weekly intervals may be required for effective control.

In addition to foliar spray, soil applications of copperas for lawn grasses is also recommended. One pound of copperas per 100 square feet of area broadcast and watered in is adequate.

Chelated iron compounds are also effective for controlling chlorosis when applied as directed by the manufacturer.

Copperas will stain masonry and any other material or equipment if left in contact. Remove solutions by raising and sweep walks clean of dry material immediately after application.

Mr. Wooters will head a staff carrying out consumer and technical research and market development activities for cotton. CPI is financed through grower payments of $1 per bale.

Beach Hazards Can Be Avoided

Several varieties of poisonous aquatic animals are waiting in Texas' beach areas to give negligent swimmers and fishermen painful mementos of their visit to the coast this spring and summer.

The man-of-war and jelly fishes are a frequent problem for the average swimmer, while the pesky gafftopsail and hardhead catfish probably account for the most numerous minor injuries to fishermen.

Time to Watch for Screwworms

Brief periods of mild humid temperatures in the state have caused officials of the Screwworm Eradication Program to warn livestock producers to be on the alert. All animal wounds should be watched carefully and if larvae are found, a sample should be collected and mailed to the Mission Laboratory for positive identification. "We must know where the cases are before we can treat the area with sterile flies," said Dr. S. C. Gartman.

Principles of Academic Freedom

Riotous behavior on college campuses is beginning to obscure the true reason for the existence of any institution of higher learning. The president of Grinnell College in Iowa expresses it in a way that shows the ties between institutions of higher learning and enlightened civilization. "All of us here at Grinnell want an environment in which students and faculty feel free to criticize the policies of the College or the society outside. The process of examining, or questioning, of asking why or why not, of free inquiry generally, is crucial to the kind of education Grinnell is supposed to stand for . . . The name that educational institutions most frequently give to this process of free inquiry and the right of students, faculty, and visitors to the campus to express different points of view is 'academic freedom.' In its application, the words usually mean the right of professors to teach what they believe is pertinent to their subject, of scholars to engage in the inquiry and investigation that serves to advance knowledge, and of students to learn and express their views, free from pressures or interference from outside."

Violent dissenters, who depart from these principles of academic freedom, should not be tolerated on campuses or anywhere else. In the name of civilization, they should be refused admittance to the meetings and deliberations of the intellectually honest.

Springtime Here

There is nothing more beautiful than this Panhandle country in the Spring, as the fields of wheat grow green and wave in the wind, pastures are covered with new spring grass and wildflowers abound along the road.

Still, the coming of Spring in these parts brings another less desirable thing—violent weather.

Tornadoes visit this area in the Spring, and already we have seen evidence of nature's destruction in the violent storm that swept through our neighbors to the south.

It hasn't been too many years ago since a similar storm swept through Ochiltree county, destroying a number of farmsteads and injuring people.

The time and place of a storm remain beyond man's control. Even with modern radar equipment, the expert weather watchers are unable to pinpoint where a tornado will hit. All the weathermen can do is to predict the possibility of violent weather and warn residents to be on guard.

A storm cellar is still the best protection against a tornado; second is a basement equipped with a heavy table under which a family may hover until the storm is over. In homes where neither of these exist, the safest spots are in the center of the house near heavy furniture.

Mobile homes have been found to be extremely vulnerable, as the owners of mobile homes at Sherwood Shores found out. Trailer park residents should spot some type of shelter and be prepared to get to it when the tornado warning comes.

In Perryton, people should remember that a long continuous blast on the big sirens surrounding town are the signals to take cover. Remember this, and it may some day save your life.

MAN ON A TIGER ON AN ELEPHANT—The most astonishing animal performance in circus history . . . Germany's fantastic Gunther Gebel-Williams is a featured star of the super-spectacular 1970 Edition of Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus. The Greatest Show On Earth comes to the Amarillo Civic Center for 9 big shows beginning Thursday afternoon, June 4, through Sunday evening, June 7.

AUSTIN.—Big turnover in state jobs is costing taxpayers $19 million a year.

Henry Rothel, associate administrator of Texas Employment Commission, said the turnover of 26.48% is due to "competitiveness" of industrial salaries.

"The state is acting as a training agency for private industry at a cost too expensive to follow," the veteran employment executive reported.

Despite difficulties in retaining skilled personnel, state employees have received substantial pay raises from the last two legislative sessions. Unemployment rate for the state as a whole continues well below the national average.

Employees in convention here were urged to continue working with legislative bodies to help solve the problems.

Draft Quota Set

Texas draft call for June is down again—from 834 in May to 801, and no man will be inducted with a random sequence number higher than 170.

State quota for pre-induction physical and mental examination in June is 2,320, less than half the May figure of 5,828.

Those with random sequence numbers 1-215 will be the only ones sent for these exams. No men with random sequence numbers above 215 will be forwarded for examination until further notice.

Men born in 1951, who have no random sequence numbers will not be called for this purpose. A drawing will be held later this year to establish the numbers for the 1951 group. All volunteers at the draft boards must be inducted ahead of the non-volunteers selected and ordered to report for induction by random sequence number.

Texas' induction quota is the state's share of June's national call of 15,000 men, all for the Army.

Flood Coverage Started

Areas of Baytown and Dickinson Bayou in Harris and Galveston counties are the first two Texas communities to establish eligibility for emergency flood insurance.

Insurance at federally-subsidized premium rates may be obtained up to $17,500 for single-family homes and up to $30,000 for two- to four-family dwellings. Small business coverage also is available. Home rates range from 40 to 50 cents per $100. Contents may be insured up to $5,000.

Twenty-three other Texas political subdivisions have filed for certification of eligibility for the coverage, and 69 others have expressed some interest. Only 37 communities in the nation now are eligible.

Courts Speak

State Supreme Court reversed the intermediate court in holding that Methodist Church property used as the residence of a district superintendent in the San Antonio district is exempt from city taxation.

High Court heard arguments that the Liquor Control Board's controversial guest card rule for private clubs is needed to enforce its ban on open saloons. Third Court of Civil Appeals threw out the rule as vague and issued without finding of fact.

Supreme Court overturned Freestone County and Travis County lower courts decisions in condemnation cases on questions involving admissibility of evidence concerning comparable property values.

Court of Criminal Appeals agreed to review an earlier finding upholding the extradition of Charles Watson to California in the Sharon Tate murder case.

School Site Picked

Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation accepted a 200-acre site a mile south of Brenham and named architects for the $3 million "first phase" of new Brenham State School. Survey showed 1,262 Washington County citizens are willing to work as volunteers to assist the mentally retarded at the facility.

Board also accepted $102,020 in federal and state grants for services to the mentally ill and retarded. Richmond State School received $73,995 for the second of a three-year physical development research grant for

CROSSROADS REPORT

I see where numerous senators, so-called representatives, and petty bureaucrats have been giving President Nixon a hard time here lately.

Which proves they are very short-sighted and reckless and don't know when they are well-off. This is a fairly common ailment, but especially risky for the parasite crowd.

It would seem that good sense, where available, would prevail in this case and the Nixon-harassers be wise enough to consider that if he gets fed up and resigns, they will then have a real hard-spoken President Agnew to deal with.

semi-ambulatory retardates.

These state schools received U.S. Health, Education and Welfare Department grants for student work experience and training: Abilene, $4,700; Austin, $4,800; Mexia, $4,800; and Travis, $4,700.

Texas Research Institute for Mental Sciences, Houston, got a $9,025 Texas Foundation for Mental Health and Mental Retardation grant for research on alcoholism.

Atty. Gen. Rules

Judges may retire when eligible on any date they choose and create a vacancy in their office, and a vacancy is also created when a judge is removed for cause. So ruled Attorney General Crawford Martin.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

—Political party precinct committeemen are not entitled to compensation or expense allowances for attending a county executive committee meeting.

—Mental health - mental retardation commissioner may remove his deputy for constitutional cause without MH-MR board approval.

—Former Brownwood fireman who was rehired is eligible to participate in the city retirement fund though he now is over 35; however, to get credit for previous service, he would have to refund contributions earlier made and withdrawn.

—State Board of Morticians has authority to request disinterment of a body by a county medical examiner, and the examiner may order disinterment if facts show need for inquest.

Screwworm Rule Out

Texas Animal Health Commission unanimously voted to knock out a screwworm quarantine rule bitterly opposed by Mexico.

Regulation required a two-week quarantine of lots of imported Mexican livestock exposed to animals infected with the screwworm parasite.

Mexican director general of animal health argued that the rule was not justified because Mexico treats its own animals for screwworm before sending them across the Rio Grande. Quarantine, official said, resulted in unreasonable heavy losses to Mexican cattlemen.

Rates Up

Higher fire, extended coverage and homeowners insurance rates are due to go into effect July 1, if the State Board of Insurance follows its staff's recommendations.

However, the Board knows of no company request yet in the making for higher auto policy premiums.

Board staff said new building coverage will vary in price according to construction, location and use.

Homeowners' policies may go up as much as 18% statewide, but fire coverage will increase only about 1.7% and extended coverage 6.9%, under staff recommendations pending before the board.

Short Snorts

• West Texas feedlot owners are asking the State Water Quality Board to exempt them from water pollution regulations because their lots are in dry areas where the run off won't flow into a stream or river.

• Tommy Townsend of Paris now is acting sergeant-at-arms of the Texas Senate, succeeding Jeff Davis of Austin, who resigned.

• Finding out who owes how much in delinquent ad valorem taxes on what kind of property to which of the 3,300 taxing authorities in the state is the job of the Delinquent Ad Valorem Tax Study Commission hopes to finish before the next session of the Legislature.

Norwood Seniors Return from Class Trip to Colorado Points

Samnorwood seniors left immediately after commencement Friday night, May 22, on their class trip to Colorado Springs and Denver.

They visited points of interest, including the Air Force Academy, in the Colorado Springs area, until Monday, when they went on to Denver.

A side trip was their visit to Central City, a once near-abandoned mining town northwest of Denver, that has been restored to its original 1880 appearance.

On their return trip, Wednesday, they stopped at Lake Isabel near Canon City.

Seniors going were Kim Janes, Ruth Dwight, Janet Christner, Tressie Kirkland, Rita Lackey, Cecilia Snead, Ray Dwyer, Johnny Breeding and Robert Huntley.

Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Janes, Mr. and Mrs. John Christner, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Breeding and Kenneth Martindale.

Former Residents Here Wednesday

Mrs. L. H. Dickerson of Bethany, Okla., and her daughter, Miss Maurine Dickerson of Olathe, Kan., were in Wellington Wednesday, May 20, to visit with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Harris.

Miss Dickerson also visited Miss Larlu Hays, with whom she worked at LeDerer Hardware.

The late Rev. Dickerson was pastor of the Church of the Nazarene several years prior to 1944, when they moved to Bethany.

Miss Dickerson is now librarian at Mid-America Nazarene College, the newest college to be established by the denomination.

Sellars Joins Area SCS as Range Specialist

Douglas V. Sellars, range specialist with the Soil Conservation Service, has recently been assigned to the Pampa Area Staff, reports Douglas E. Cunningham, Area Conservationist, SCS, Pampa. Sellars was transferred to the Pampa Area from Goldthwaite. He was the district conservationist at the Goldthwaite work unit.

While there he supervised the overall technical program in conservation ranch and farm planning.

Other programs which Sellars administered were a special brush control project on big leaf shinnery, a special re-seeding vegetative improvement project in the upper Brown-Mullin Watershed, and guidance and technical assistance in the Mills County ACP program.

Prior to his work at Goldthwaite, Sellars also served as Range Conservationist in the Abilene and Quanah work units.

Sellars will provide technical assistance to landowners and Soil Conservation Service work unit staff members in conservation planning and the study of range problems on about 3,870,000 acres of rangeland in the 11-county Pampa area, including Sherman, Hansford, Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Hutchinson, Roberts, Hemphill, Gray, Wheeler, Donley, and Collingsworth counties.

A native of Idaho, Sellars has a ranch and farm background. Following three years with the U.S. Army, he obtained a B.S. degree in Agronomy and Range Management Option from Oklahoma State University at Stillwater, Okla. During his schooling at OSU, Sellars worked as a research assistant

Five Men To Be Inducted, 24 Get Physicals on June 10

Texas Local Board No. 2 has called for five men for induction and 24 men for armed forces physical on June 10.

The June draft call for Texas is 801, and no man will be selected and ordered for induction with a random sequence number higher than 179, Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said Tuesday.

The June quota is down from 834 in May, which is being filled with men having random sequence numbers no higher than 145.

The state quota for pre-induction physical and mental examinations in June is 2,320, down from 5,828 in May. Men sent for these examinations will be limited to those with random sequence numbers 1 through 215.

Deferred or exempt men, such as teachers, college students, and vocational or trade school students, with random sequence numbers 1 through 215, may be forwarded for these examinations if they are likely to lose their deferred or exempt status during the next six months, Col. Schwartz said.

No men with random sequence numbers above 215 will be forwarded for examination until further notice. Men born in 1951, who have no random sequence numbers, will not be called for this purpose. A drawing will be held later this year to establish the numbers for the 1951 group.

All volunteers at the draft boards must be inducted ahead of the non-volunteers selected and ordered to report for induction by random sequence number.

The Texas induction quota of 801 for June is the state's share of a national call for 15,000 men, all for the army.

Hemphill: 5 accidents, 1 killed, 3 injured, $4,050 property damage.

The Amarillo Area Diabetes Lay Society plans a family picnic for members on Tuesday evening, June 2 at Area 24 and the Pavilion at Memorial Park at 6:30 p.m. All members and their families are invited. Each family is to bring its own supper basket.

This will be the last meeting of the Society until September. New officers for the 1970-71 season are: president, Roy Pendergraft; vice president, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Johnson; second vice president, Emerson Campbell, secretary, Mrs. Weldon Carter of Pampa; and treasurer, Rob Rigler.

Regular meetings are held on the first Tuesday of the month at the Polk Street Methodist Church, unless otherwise indicated.

All who have diabetes, or relatives with diabetes are invited, and anyone who is interested is welcome to attend its meetings.

Gollihugh Promoted in Army Finance Section in Korea

Something of the life of a soldier in Korea is revealed by Pvt. E-4 Paul Gollihugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gollihugh of Quail.

He is stationed near Seoul, in the finance section of his unit. Gollihugh has been in Korea 13 months and his parents expect him home for a vacation soon.

"We just barely made pay day this month. That pay raise really slowed us down. We really had to put in some overtime. It was worth about fifty more bucks a month, so I am sure it was worth all the work. Anyway I know we deserved the extra money," he wrote in a recent letter to his parents.

"I guess the mail strike really messed up the mail system," he said in noting he had not received a letter from a relative. "I don't think they would have done that if they realized how much people appreciate hearing from home over here, especially the guys that are married and don't hear from their wives in two or three weeks.

"I guess people don't look at things that way, though."

"I am now in charge of the computations section. I officially took over the 25th of last month. The guy that was in charge went home. He had been here 24 months and hadn't taken a leave. He also was one of the guys that married one of the Korean girls.

"I have four other guys working under me. Another good thing about it is that I don't have to pull any more duty like CQ. I sure do like that, because that was a tiresome job."

Admiral Richard Bird made his south pole flight Nov. 28, 1929.

CROSSROADS REPORT

I see where some Senators are among those who complain that the Vietnam fracas is an "undeclared war" and therefore more or less illegal.

But the Senate ratified the SEATO collective defense treaty which is a standing declaration of war against anybody who jumps on one of his neighbors in Southeast Asia.

In fact it looks like this war, and most of our other troubles, sprout from the 20-year Congressional compulsion to commit the U.S. fighting and/or working citizen to defend, wet-nurse and diaper-change the whole caboodle of foreign and domestic incompetents.

.. will protect your local district schools!

From interview in THE MOORE COUNTY NEWS, Dumas, on Feb. 22, 1970:

"I attended a non-city school, and I see the financing threat that non-metropolitan schools in Texas faced a year ago as a major problem in the Panhandle district, and it is one on which I have strong convictions," he told a group here Friday in an outline of his campaign.

"It will come up again in the next legislature, and the district needs to be prepared. My position is that every school student in Texas, whether he lives in a small community, or in Houston or Dallas, has the same right to equal education. The large population areas of Texas dominate the legislature today, but this does not mean that they can shortchange school students in the smaller counties.

"I have studied this school problem with concern, and I am prepared to advocate strongly the position of the non-city schools, who will need a concerned and vigorous advocate. Their cause is right, and I will uphold it vigilantly, to the fullest of my ability, if I become your state senator," Sherman added.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

This year Collingsworth County will have the shortest second Democratic primary ballot in history. There will be only four names on the entire ballot. The names of Max Sherman and Jack Hazlewood will be on the ballot as candidates for state senator from the 31st District and Raymond Ward and W. R. (Buck) Breeding will be on the ballots as candidates for commissioner of Precinct 4. Only the people who vote in the Community Building and at Samnorwood and Dozier will find four names on their ballots. All the rest will find only the names of Sherman and Hazlewood on their ballots.

How to get to the polls when there is such a short ballot is a problem. On the spur of the moment I can't think of a method of luring them to the polls in numbers unless it is a barbecue or a free beer and the latter is illegal in Texas. I would go to the polls if only the names of Claude McKinney and Raymond Horton were on the ballot as candidates for Justice of the Peace.

Seibert Worley, the entrepreneur who owns the theatres, community antenna and other entertainment facilities in Shamrock, was in Wellington Tuesday to announce the opening of his Arnold Palmer putting golf course. He says they will have a good showing at the polls in Wheeler County since they have a heated race for county judge that has carried over to the second primary.

Malouf Abraham, the Republican candidate for state senator, was also in Wellington Tuesday morning. He selected Wellington as the first town in a series of meetings that will carry him to every county in the Panhandle in the next few days. He does not plan to start formal campaigning until after Labor Day; but the fact remains that he and his good wife, Iris, are campaigning with all their energy right now. All of their children are through college and they intend to devote their talents, which are many, to public service if the people of the Panhandle want them. I use the plural "they" advisedly for Mrs. Abraham is very much a part of the team.

Charlie Caldwell came by the office to let me know that I was not the only one who did not receive $100 a month for life from The Readers Digest. He also received a free book and some instructions on how to manage his money. I was telling Leon Hartman that my wife had won a free sewing machine and he said: "Yeah, and you pay so much a month for the attachments for the rest of your life."

Abraham Holds
In Wellington, Abraham showed a chart in which he had saved $13,522 from his legal expense allowance since the present law was passed. This was done by holding such expenses as travel, secretaries, stationery, and other allowable expenses down. He said that if each of the other 150 members of the House had held their expenses down proportionately that it would have saved the state over $2 million.

Abraham also discussed the increasing representation from large metropolitan areas and said that 75% of the representatives and senators came from 20 large metropolitan areas.

Sipes of Lubbock; John Williams of Fresno, Calif.; and Bill Williams of Blythe, Calif.; one brother and two sisters: Lloyd Williams of Steamboat Springs, Colo., Mrs. Eloise Wiley and Mrs. Ruth Magill of Denver, Colo. There are 15 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

Gala, Donations

$1,500 Added to Hospital Fund

The Hospital Gala and Barbecue, along with monetary gifts which it stimulated, have added approximately $1,500 to St. Joseph's Hospital heating and cooling system fund, Mrs. Wayne Cudd has revealed. The total is now approximately $3,500.

Barbecue ticket sales accounted for $900, said Mrs. Cudd, who is president of St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary which directed the Gala. The Art Auction added $400, with painting by Wellington artists going to a large number of area residents and business firms.

The Flea Market netted $168 and games brought in $20. Donations accounted for the remainder.

Major need of the hospital at this time is the new central

Charlotte Baker Receives Degree

Charlotte Allen Baker of Canyon was a member of the largest group of graduates in the history of West Texas State University. The commencement was held Saturday, May 23, at 4:30 p.m. in Amarillo Civic Center Coliseum. Dr. Clark D. Ahlberg, president of Wichita State University of Wichita, Kan., was the speaker.

Mrs. Baker received the Bachelor of Business Administration degree with a major in business education. She had a grade point average of 2.75 on a 3.0 system. Because of this, she was on the Dean's Honor Roll throughout college and a member of Alpha Chi, national honor society. She also belongs to Pi Omega Pi, national business education honor society.

Mrs. Baker completed her college work in three years. Her student teaching was at Tascosa High School in Amarillo and her subjects were office practice and typing. Born in Wellington, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen of Canyon and attended school here until she was in high school. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Starr. Her husband, Eddie Baker, is also a West Texas student.

Wilbarger County Gets Lake Grant

AUSTIN.—A $1,150 Federal grant has been approved for the construction of a two-acre fishing lake in Wilbarger County approximately four miles north of Vernon.

The funds will be matched on a 50-50 basis by Wilbarger County in a $2,300 project.

The total cost will be between $15,000 and $20,000. It was further emphasized that gifts to the fund may be made at any time.

Quail Tots Get Awards

Eight children who will enroll in the first grade at Quail next year were recognized and presented miniature certificates at the Baccalaureate Commencement Friday, May 22. These children, who earlier completed an orientation period with the first grade, were Johnny Blevins, Shane Farris, Robbie Guthrie, Timmy Harris, Lena Kennedy, Randy Langley, Mary Rose Sanchez and Pamela Sullivan.

Catholic hospital participation in community projects was discussed by Sister Mary Amelia, CCVI, executive director of St. Joseph's Mid-Houston Community Mental Health Center and assistant administrator of the department of psychiatry, St. Joseph's Hospital, in Houston.

Other speakers discussed operations within the hospital corporation.

In the sessions of the Texas Hospital Association which Sister Perpetua and Sister Mary Dominicus attended, a discussion of special interest was "Hospital Accreditation" by Dr. John D. Porterfield, director of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, Chicago.

St. Joseph's Hospital comes up for re-accreditation this year.

Other talks were related to hospital electronic safety, meeting financial needs of hospitals, and hospital and medical application of NASA space discoveries.

The joint convention was held in the Astrodome Complex, and one of the entertainment features was a tour of the Astrodome.

Quail Lions

Shamrock Club, and Ed Brown of the Samnorwood Club.

Governor Flood reviewed some of the recent projects of the district Lions. Best known is the Lions Eye Bank, but at Christmas the district Lions bought every girl at Girls Town a new coat and pair of shoes. They pioneered the organization of Leo Clubs for boys and girls, and they help to sponsor the Crippled Children's Camp at Kerrville.

In accepting the charter, Mr. Masten voiced the feeling of gratitude, responsibility and anticipation of the club—gratitude at being accepted into an organization steeped in the traditions of Lionism. It will be an active club, he said, and its members are anticipating the rewards they will receive from the service they perform.

Mr. Flood introduced members of his cabinet who were present, Mr. Riley, Leo chairman, Zone Chairman Floyd Sackett of Pampa and Robert Dwight of Samnorwood, who also was master of ceremonies, and Eye Bank board member J. Thompson McLean.
