Solon Accused Of 'Smearing' AEC Program

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 30—Boiling mad, David E. Lilienthal today accused Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) of conducting an un-American "smear" campaign against the work of the Atomic Energy commission, of which Lilienthal is chairman.

Taking the gloves off at a news conference, Lilienthal declared Hickenlooper's charges were couched in language "calculated to arouse fear, uneasiness, fright and ultimately panic."

"Here are charges that are so grave . . . as to undermine the confidence of this country and the people of western Europe in the principal security enterprise of this country—the atomic energy program," he said.

To Demand Hearing

Lilienthal said at one point that some people, whom he did not identify, believe the inquiry will "break my health." He added that the commission "will get its work done and my health will take care of itself."

Hickenlooper, member of the Senate-House Atomic Energy committee, has called for Lilienthal's ouster on grounds of "incredible mismanagement." He has charged waste and "misplaced" emphasis in the commission's work, has pointed to the loss of a quantity of uranium-235 at a Chicago AEC laboratory and the award of an AEC scholarship to a Communist student.

Hickenlooper plans to go before the joint congressional committee tomorrow to demand that he be permitted to confront Lilienthal with what he says is proof of the charges.

Work Defended

Lilienthal likened the manner in which Hickenlooper made the charges May 22 to being found guilty before a trial or an indictment and called it "probably the most wholesale aspersion on 60,000 persons."

Going into the background of civilian control of the atomic establishment, authorized in 1946, Lilienthal said the five commissioners found:

1. The atomic weapon situation "tragic and dangerous to this country."
2. Production threatened.
3. Raw materials shaky and un-

Demo Labor Bill Still Deadlocked

WASHINGTON, May 30 (AP)—Democrats on the House Labor committee remained deadlocked today over one knotty provision of a new bill they intend to offer as a substitute for the Taft-Hartley labor act.

Some of them said they hope a compromise can be reached in the next few days. Others said prospects for an agreement are dim.

The issue is how to deal with labor disputes which threaten the national health or safety—the so-called national emergency strikes.

Chairman Lesinski (D-Mich.) has called a meeting of the committee's 15 Democrats for Wednesday to tackle the subject again. Two such sessions—both fruitless—have been held since the House rejected early this month a labor bill backed by Republicans and southern Democrats.

Changes Supported

New support showed up in the Senate, meanwhile, for changes in the Truman administration labor bill, which is designed to repeal the Taft-Hartley act and reinstate the New Deal Wagner act with some alterations.

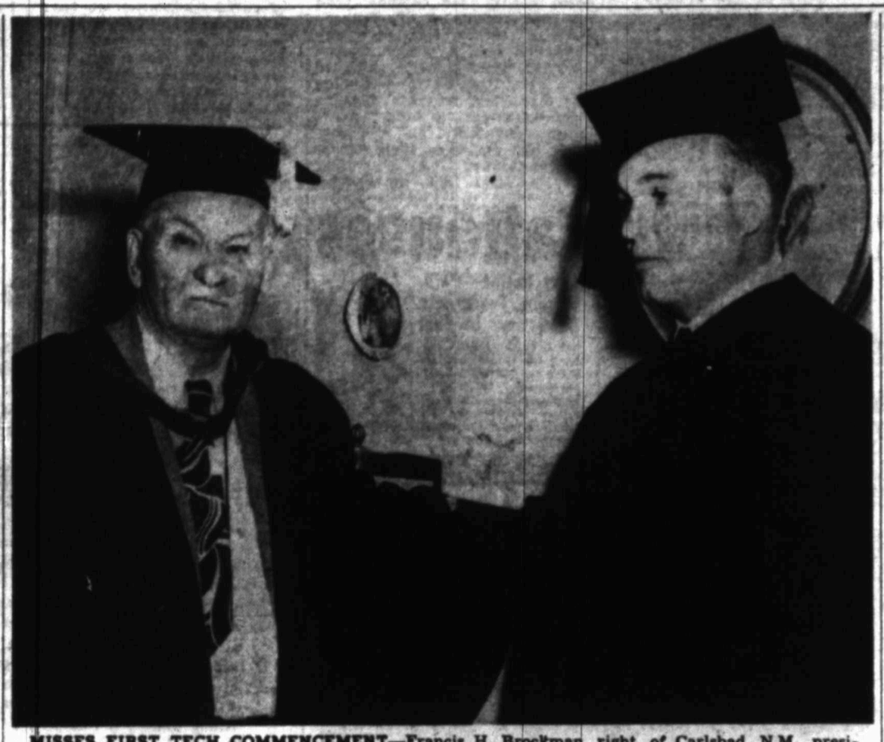

Senator Withers (D-Ky.), who once opposed any changes in the administration bill, came out for a series of amendments. One of these would give the President limited authority to seize struck plants in national emergencies. Withers acknowledged that even if his amendments are adopted the administration bill will have "tough sailing" in the Senate.

Although the State department has been urging early action on the North Atlantic treaty, indications were that the Senate may get around to starting debate on the labor bill later this week.

Opponents of the administration bill claim powerful support for a substitute offered by Senator Taft (R-Ohio) and two of his colleagues which would make 28 changes in the Taft-Hartley act but retain much more of it than the administration favors.

Brockman, right, of Carlsbad, N.M., president of the 1949 Texas Tech senior class, is shown above as he extends his regrets and those of the 1949 graduates last night to Dean Emeritus James M. Gordon, who, because of ill health, was unable to attend the commencement exercises at Jones Stadium. It was the first commencement exercise at the college at which Dean Gordon, who came to the school in 1925, has been unable to attend. Although he has made thousands of talks to high school graduates over the South Plains and other sections of the state, Dean Gordon always was able to return in time for graduation activities at Tech. He has served as dean of men, dean of the Arts and Sciences division and at present is a professor of foreign languages as well as dean emeritus of Arts and Sciences. FORMER STUDENT SCORES ALARMIST PHILOSOPHY

1,233 Receive Degrees

By OPAL DIXON
Avalanche Staff Writer

"THE VERY existence of prosperity seems to have swung some of us back to a "boom or bust' philosophy," Bates Thornton, Texas Technological college former student who has made his own success story since leaving the campus, told the 23rd graduating class and an audience of more than 6,000 persons Monday night in Jones starium.

Following Thornton's talk, degrees were presented to a total of 1,233 graduates, largest graduating class in the history of the college.

The youthful speaker, who rose to a colonel in a few months during World War II, who is vice president and assistant general manager of Hughes Aircraft company and who has distinguished himself in other positions in industry and government, deplored the "alarmist" philosophy and sounded a warning against expressed doubts in the American system. Such doubts, he said, provide fertile ground for the seeds of Communism.

Hits Pessimistic Attitude

"Today we face a condition where the same ones who sold America short in the '30's are saying again. 'The only way is down,'" he said. "It is their belief that we are unable, as a nation, to cope with the problems of our economy.

"The end of waiting lines, shortages, rising costs and spiral prices," he stated, "signify to the alarmist that we are on the threshhold of depression.

Tech Board Approves Budget Of $2,511,000 For 1949-50 Session

By C. W. RATLIFF
Avalanche Staff Writer

TEXAS TECH'S board of directors, in session here Monday in their annual commencement meeting, approved a budget of $2,511,000 for the 1949-50 session of the college, authorized the creation of a new position of comptroller and an expanded music department and set June 11 in Fort Worth as date for the sale of $2,800,000 in bonds under the college building amendment program.

The board also directed the drawing up of a contract with Wyatt C. Hedrick, Fort Worth architect, for the designing of two wings to the administration building, the contract to be ratified by the board at the June 11 meeting. The wings will cost an estimated $700,000 and will be the first step in a proposed $4,000,000 building program on the campus, now in the planning stage.

To Call In Bonds

In addition to planning the sale of the new bonds, the board moved to call in $500,000 worth of bonds on the new dormitories to save interest costs. Funds for the purchase of the bonds will come from the surplus built up by the college during the past several years.

The budget for next year compares with $2,059,000 for the 1948-49 session.

Marshall L. Pennington, 36, since 1936 business manager of Texas College of Mines, now Texas Western college, was appointed to the new post of comptroller and Gene L. Hemmle, 35, professor of music and chairman of the music department at the El Paso school since 1946, was named to head the expanded music department.

Pennington will have supervision of all business of the college. His appointment was made at the request of W. T. Gaston, busi-

Painter Urges Texas U. Grads To 'Protect' University Fund

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, May 30 — The largest graduating class in the history of the University of Texas was urged tonight to help fight off an attempt to split up the university's permanent fund.

Dr. T. S. Painter, university president, asked each of the approximately 2,000 degree candidates "to appreciate the importance of this matter and carry into the several communities in which you will live a better understanding of its importance to this institution."

Associate Justice James P. Hart of the Supreme court reminded the class that "the voice of Texas is loud and influential in Washington" and "whether we like it or not," we must furnish our share of intelligent leadership or suffer the consequences."

Alumni Fought Battles

Dr. Painter said that the university "has passed through several crises and irreparable harm might have been done if loyal alumni had not come to its aid and given unselfishly in time and energy to fight our battles."

Dr. Painter said that the en-

Man Sought In Clothing Theft

Lubbock and South Plains officers were alerted last night for a suspect in the theft of $500 worth of men's clothing in two suitcases at Muleshoe.

The Bailey county sheriff's department said the suspect, a white man, was believed hitchhiking to Oklahoma City. He was described as weighing about 145 pounds, 5 feet 7 inches tall, with wavy, black hair.

The clothing was in two natural-colored rawhide suitcases, the sheriff's department reported, with the initials "C.L.F." on them. Name of the owner was not known here last night.

Breakin At Ball Park

Numerous minor thefts and other minor law violations continued to occupy police and sheriff's authorities here Monday.

A breakin at Jumbo Webster softball field was reported by Leon Lingle, who resides at 2705 North Fifth. Investigators found that entrance had been made into the concession stand at the ball park, and merchandise totaling about $5 in value was taken.

Included were three cartons of cigarettes, several cigars and candy bars. In addition, about 36 pennies were taken.

Vagrancy Charges Filed

W. C. Long, 35, of Lubbock pleaded guilty of drunk driving and was fined $75 and county court costs, officials said. His driver's license was revoked for six months.

Flow Of Wheat To Fort Worth Reaches Total Of 356 Carloads

FORT WORTH, May 30. (AP)—The flow of wheat to Fort Worth totaled 356 carloads today—the beginning of a near-record flood of grain from West and Northwest Texas.

The 356 included 275 cars of government wheat. Robert B. Crocker, AAA administrator for the Wichita Falls, area, said 1 million bushels of wheat are bound for Fort Worth, where elevator storage space has been arranged by the government to relieve crowded storage conditions in the Wichita Falls area.

Farmer Near Brownfield Cuts First Wheat In Terry County

(Special To The Avalanche)

BROWNFIELD, May 30—The first wheat to be harvested this year in Terry county, and possibly on the whole South Plains, was brought in today by Paul Cobb, farmer who resides several miles west of Brownfield.

The wheat, of the Wichita variety, was graded No. 1. It was sold to the Goodpasture Grain and Milling company of Brownfield for $2 per bushel. In addition, the grain firm gave Cobb its customary premium of $50 for having brought in the first wheat of the year.

Cobb delivered about 500 bushels of wheat in the two loads which was sold to the grain firm. The first load weighed approximately 14,200 pounds; the second some 17,000 pounds. Approximate weight per bushel was 62 pounds.

The wheat was gathered from a half-section tract of wheatland belonging to Cobb. However, the grain was threshed from only a part of the tract of land. Jerry Dumas and J. D. Akridge combined the wheat. Yield is about 35 bushels per acre.

Grady Goodpasture, owner of the local grain and milling company, said today he expects combining of wheat in the Terry county area to begin in earnest within the coming week. He said he had heard of no wheat anywhere on the South Plains brought in earlier than Cobb's this year.

MERCURY HITS 97 IN CITY

SUMMER weather hit the South Plains a temperature raising blow Monday as the broiling sun coupled with a strong southwesterly wind to drive the mercury to a 97-degree high, and a new record for the year for the second straight day.

Sunday the mercury climbed to 95 degrees for a new mark, as a predicted march of thunderstorms failed to materialize. The hot weather covered most of Texas Monday, but it provided the first "run" of summer weather on the South Plains which had been plagued through most of May with tornadoes, windstorms, heavy rainstorms, hail and even dust.

Showers Foreseen Wednesday

Continued warm, meaning temperatures in the 95 to 97 degree range, is forecast for today by the Lubbock Weather station despite a thin cover of high clouds expected to blanket the area most of the day. Readings in the upper 90's are also predicted for Wednesday.

Little chance is seen for showers this afternoon, but the forecaster said that southerly winds this afternoon possibly would bring scattered showers to the area tomorrow.

Meanwhile, the rest of the state also broiled under a hot sun, The Associated Press reported, with the mercury shooting above or near the 100 mark.

Mercury Hits 101

Temperatures hit 101 at Laredo and 99 at Waco, hottest spot in Central Texas, The Associated Press said.

The north and middle portions of the state had their nearest touch of summer. Temperatures elsewhere generally were in the high eighties and low nineties.

The Trinity river neared a crest in Houston county, where floods from Fort Worth and Dallas rains two weeks ago, were predicted to reach a 44 foot crest. Levees near Crockett are built to hold that amount.

Upstream, rains of last week had the Trinity at Dallas between 33 and 34 feet and rising late Monday. A crest was expected before morning and no danger was in sight. Flood stage at Dallas is 28 feet.

Trinity river landowners near Crockett, moved cattle to high grounds last night awaiting a 44 foot flood crest expected tomorrow.

Tribute Is Paid To Nation's War Dead In Memorial Rites

(By International News Service)

The eyes of America Monday turned to row upon row of white crosses in cemeteries all over the world—crosses which mark the final bivouac of the nation's fallen fighting men.

From Washington to Anzio beachhead to the far-flung islands of the Pacific, full honors were paid to the dead of all wars in an impressive series of Memorial Day services.

In the nation's capital, President Truman urged that all Americans "appeal to Almighty God for help in turning the steps of the world to the paths of permanent peace."

The President spent the Memorial Day weekend cruising with a few close friends on the presidential yacht. He planned to be back at his desk this morning.

The usual toll of violent deaths marred the holiday observance.

Halsey Praises Carriers

Secretary of Defense Johnson asserted that the United States must enforce world peace by remaining so strong that no enemy would dare unleash another war.

Admiral William F. Halsey, retired naval hero of the Pacific, also speaking in Washington, agreed — and incidentally hailed the aircraft carrier as "the most potential preserver of peace in our bag of tricks."

Army Chief of Staff Omar Bradley called the nation's attention to the war-crippled as well as the war dead, declaring many thousands of fighting men today find a hospital bed their "home"

Committee Studies Proposals To Change City Street Names

By H. L. KIEFER
Avalanche Staff Writer

MEMBERS of a special committee named by the city commission discussed, but made no recommendations, proposals to change the names of many city streets at their first meeting in the city hall Monday afternoon.

They agreed to meet again at 2 p. m. next Tuesday after they have had more time to study the problem and when more members are expected to attend. Several members were out of the city Monday because of the Memorial day holiday and were not available for the meeting then.

The brief discussions at the initial session centered around an alphabetical naming plan recommended by the City Planning commission. Under this plan, numeral streets (First, Second, Third, etc.) and alphabet avenues (A, B, C, etc.) would remain unchaged; avenues west of College avenue, now named for presidents, would be re-named alphabetically for cities east of the Mississippi river; those east of Avenue A, (East Avenue A, B, C, etc.) would be re-named alphabetically for trees, and those north of First,

West's Plan Turned Down By Vishinsky

By WES GALLAGHER
Associated Press Staff Writer

PARIS, May 30.—Soviet Russia tonight blasted hopes of agreement at this council of foreign ministers on merging East and West Germany under one government.

Andrei Vishinsky, foreign minister, turned down as a "dictate" the proposals of the three western powers for a federal democratic government under the Bonn constitution.

An American source said Vishinsky attacked the proposals in principle and in detail and refused even to consider them as a basis for discussion.

The American, British and French ministers in their replies made it plain they considered the Vishinsky charges so sweeping as to leave no room for compromise.

More Talks Set

His attack followed the same pattern which led to the futile and deadlocked endings of the councils of March and December, 1947.

Talk will go on tomorrow and possibly for another day on the political questions of unifying Germany. But most observers felt that the only hope of any agreement here now was some working arrangement for reviving East-West German trade and solving the Berlin dilemma. These questions are to be taken up next.

Saturday the three western ministers made a series of proposals calling for a federal government under the West German Bonn constitution to which East Germany could accede under democratic guarantees. They also proposed a four-power occupation statute limiting authority of the powers and conferring self-government on the Germans; limitations on Russia's industrial and reparations policies in eastern Germany; and abolition of the veto in a new four-power high commission which would replace the military governors.

Allies Accused

Vishinsky saved his most acid comments for the item on a federal German state.

He said the Germans did not want a federal state but a centralized state. He asserted a federal government was against the principles agreed upon by the

Charter Adopted For Soviet Zone

BERLIN, May 30. (AP)—The People's Congress ratified today a Soviet-style constitution which it hopes will serve all Germany and chose Communist fugitive Gerhart Eisler as a member of the government.

Western officials in Paris where the foreign ministers council is meeting said the action apparently was Russia's reply to western proposals to join East and West Germany in a federal democratic government under the Bonn constitution.

The 2,000 delegates chose a 22-man delegation to the Paris conference. It will support Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky in the Paris talks, though Communist speakers admitted it was doubtful if the Big Four would recognize the delegates.

Western Plan Denounced

Ratification of the constitution, like other actions by the hand-picked congress, was by a show of hands and without debate. Only one delegate, a man from Goettingen in the British zone, refused to vote for ratification.

For nearly an hour beforehand Otto Grotewohl, East Germany's No. 2 Communist, denounced the

Speaker Urges Wayland College Graduates To Work For Future

PLAINVIEW, May 30. (Special)—O. K. Armstrong of Reader's Digest today told Wayland college's first four-year graduates that they had learned to think, to work and to appreciate and should then go out to serve.

He expressed the hope that some might go into politics but warned that "it is a dog's life," and went on to say: "You will be criticized, whether you do well or ill. You will not receive the gratitude due to one who devoted himself to the public weal." Armstrong also pointed out, however, the rewards in this and other types of altruistic service.

Wayland's seniors were presented by the new dean, Dr. Raymond E. Mendenhall, who comes from Daniel Baker college at Brownwood. Diplomas were awarded by President J. W. Marshall.

Armstrong, who has his headquarters in Springfield, Mo., advised the seniors never to be afraid of the truth. "Never hold to dogma merely because it has been pronounced, whether long ago or recently," he said. "Test every idea in the white light of God's revelations, in both religion and science. Do not be afraid to endure the agony of a suspended judgment. And keep ever the inquiring mind and open heart."

The speaker said it might seem trite to stress the importance of industry. "But we are living in an age," he said, "when some of the old fashioned virtues need to be dusted off and held up again for public view; and believe me, work is one of them."

Armstrong, a former member of the Missouri legislature, deplored the fact that "something for nothing" seems to be the present watchword and a "welfare state" the order of the day.

"During recent sessions of our Congress and state legislature more proposals were made for handouts, bonuses and governmental pap than ever before," he declared.

Armstrong's commencement address rounded out exercises which included a baccalaureate sermon by Dr. H. Cornell Goerner of the Southern Seminary in Louisville, Ky., and presentations to the college of portraits of President Marshall and Dr. J. H. Wayland, founder of the college.

Wayland's summer school will begin June 6 The first term ends July 16; the second term extends from July 18 to August 27.

Salesman's Wife Gets Order

"When my husband returned from visiting his sister," writes Mrs. T. K. Hinchey, 1415 E. Marquette Rd., Chicago, "he practically ordered me to wash his shirts in New Perk. And am I glad! Perk gets all our white shirts positively snowy and the children's colored clothes look bright as new again. Just a little Perk does so much work, it really saves me money!" Mrs. Hinchey's experience confirms what 1218 washing tests proved: Perk washes clothes wonderfully white—saves one-third on soap. Put Perk to work yourself.

City Chamber Of Commerce Presented Award Certificate

Lubbock Chamber of Commerce Monday received a participation award certificate for the 1948 Inter-Chamber National Fire Waste contest.

The certificate is signed by the president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, Ed Shreve, and by Arch N. Booth, manager of the U. S. chamber.

Several thousand chambers of commerce throughout the nation participated in the contest, and only a relatively few received the certificate award, chamber officials said.

Those participating in the fire prevention contest locally were members of the chamber of commerce, members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, members of the fire insurance underwriters board, and W. E. Twitty, fire chief, and Bradley Black, fire marshal.

Marion Sanford was chairman of the 1948 chamber of commerce fire prevention committee.

The certificate presents the participation award "in recognition of community service in fire prevention and conservation activities during the year 1948."

Vacationing Residents Urged To 'List' Homes With City Police

Now that vacation time is here again, police have extended their usual invitation that "persons who plan being out of the city should let us know so we can keep an eye on their premises."

It was suggested also that "other precautions" be taken, as well, so as not to "tip off" would-be burglars that the family is away.

Three Texas Towns Drop Rent Controls

Housing Expediter Tighe E. Woods has issued amendments to the rent regulations removing rent control from the cities of Sweetwater, Marshall and Corsicana, all in Texas, effective immediately. The action was based on decontrol resolutions adopted by the governing bodies of those cities. Mr. Woods removed controls from the remainder of Nolan County, since Sweetwater comprises the major portion of that defense-rental area.

In advising the cities of Sweetwater, Marshall and Corsicana of his action, the housing expediter noted that they had complied with the requirements of the Housing and Rent act for local decontrol. They had held a public hearing after 10 days' notice, which in each case resulted in a finding that a shortage in rental housing accommodations no longer exists in the community, and the governor had approved their decontrol resolutions.

At the same time, the housing expediter advised the governing body of Lockhart, that he was unable to act on its decontrol resolution because it failed to comply with the requirements of the act in that no public hearing was held and the approval of the governor was not obtained.

DEBATES SCHEDULED TODAY

Solons Study New Compromise On Gilmer-Aikin School Proposal

By BO BYERS
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, May 30.—The Gilmer-Aikin plan to modernize the public school system neared fulfillment today.

A conference compromise on the third and final bill was released for study by House and Senate members.

A revision of the school bus aid schedule was the major change made in Senator Otto Lock's minimum foundation school program bill, said Senator Jim Taylor of Kerens, committee chairman. He said the most sparsely settled areas of the state would benefit the most.

House and Senate will debate the compromise tomorrow. While there was virtually no doubt of its adoption, opponents are expected to have their say again.

In addition to revising school bus aid allowances, the committee granted slight pay increases to principals.

Districts which have counted parochial students in determining their allowable number of public school teachers in the past were allowed to continue that practice for the next school year, but they will not be able to do so thereafter.

The committee also worked out economic indexes on which school districts will figure the amount of local financing, and authorized the state auditor to administer the school program until the new state commissioner of education is appointed. The auditor provision was expected to draw heavy fire.

Trying to reach a middle ground between House and Senate figures on school transportation aid, the suggested schedule would grant money on the following basis: $31.50 per public school pupil, generally, for nine months transportation: $45 in counties with an average of two or more, but less than three, students per square mile; $49.50 in counties with one or more, but less than two pupils per square mile; and $63 in counties having less than one student per square mile.

Figures in the original Senate bill provide a scale ranging from $31.50 to $54 per student. The House amended it to allow $35 to $64.

The economic index for each county will be used the next two school years. It is based on three factors: 1. County assessed valuations. 2. County scholastic population. 3. Income of the county as measured by value added by manufacture, minerals produced, agricultural products, and payrolls for retail, wholesale, and service establishments.

Lamesa Residents Map Disaster Plan

LAMESA, May 30. (Special)—Residents of this city, duly thankful that the recent epidemic of tornadoes in the West Texas area has by-passed Lamesa, aren't going to be caught napping if and when the "big blow" comes.

Civic leaders have named a standing disaster committee and a local disaster plan is being mapped. A warning system will be set up so that residents may be warned of an approaching twister by means of the fire siren or some other signal.

City manager J. D. Willson presided at the special meeting attended by city and county officials, law enforcement officers, Red Cross executives, Fire Chief John Hildreth and utility company managers.

Howard Maddox was named chairman of the standing disaster committee. Mac Wassell was named assistant to Maddox, Leslie Pratt and Bob Crawley to head first aid, Willson to provide emergency lighting facilities, Kermit Ashby, Edwin Engledow and Hubert Nelson to provide emergency communications; Sheriff Roy King and Chief of Police A. N. Randle to co-ordinate law enforcement and National Guard work; Mrs. Matt McCall to arrange for emergency housing or shelter; County Judge R. W. Herndon to provide emergency food and water; assisted by Mrs. Bradford, health unit nurse.

Family In DP Camp Looks To Day Of New Freedom

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last on a series of articles on a DP camp near Linz, Austria, written by The Avalanche-Journal woman's editor, who inspected the Lagar in mid-April.)

By MARGARET TURNER

AS Mrs. Apolonea Klapp uses her ration book of meager rations, bought with the small sum earned by her son and daughter, her main thoughts are of keeping the family well and holding to the belief that some day they will go to a new country, free to come and go, to once more lead decent lives.

Mrs. Klapp, her daughter, Hildegard, and her son, John, live in DP Lagar 60; another daughter, Theresa, comes home when she can from the Army dependent area, where she is employed as a maid.

Once the Klapps were a respected and happy family who lived in a small town near Belgrade, Yugoslavia. The father did "paper work," as Theresa explained it; they owned a lovely home and she had snapshots to prove it. In fact the fading pictures were the only souvenirs the family had of that once happy life, because when the Russians came in and routed them, they fled without any belongings.

WHEN the Germans arrived, many of the Slavs formed guerilla bands; others went to the fields, some working the soil while others watched. It was to his married daughter's farm that Theresa's father escaped, although he had never worked on a farm. One day the guerillas came and demanded that the men join them or be killed. Her father was machine-gunned that day along with 11 others.

Later when the Russians entered the country, the Klapps (being of Volksduth descent) were ordered to leave or be killed. They left, along with many others. Theresa, the spokesman for the family, said they were herded in box cars, much like animals would have been treated, and for several days they did not know where they were being sent. Finally the train stopped in Vienna, Austria, where the weather was so fierce, the DPs walked in the sunshine in the streets to keep from freezing. From Vienna they were sent to Linz.

On the one wall that means home to this family, in the vile smelling lagar, there is tacked a picture of a handsome youth. He was Hendrix, whose disappearance was similar to many other young men. Of him his sister says, "he is not here and he will not be back."

THERESA is a beautiful girl; resembling Latin Americans so much that the first time we saw her we thought she was Spanish. Her voice is low and she had a nice figure. Althought she wants to bob her long black hair, she had not been given permission. Sometimes she braids it around her head; sometimes she wears it loosely. But it is her eyes that are arresting. They are not the eyes of a 16-year-old girl; they are the eyes of an adult who has seen the true horrors of war and its aftermath. Dark, brooding eyes are Theresa's.

Hildegard is "going to be eight from Oct. 26," as her sister told us. She goes to the school at the DP camp and her family wishes she could go to a better school, because "she learns good." Hilda has yellow hair and blue eyes and the day we saw her she was the picture of a little Swiss girl.

* * *

"If John could get a job and find a place for us to live, we could go to him," Theresa said. "We wouldn't ask anything better than that our family could be together again—for always."

Town Talk

DEAN AND MRS. JAMES G. ALLEN, 3110 Twenty-first, will leave today for Dallas, where they will attend a reunion of the Southern Methodist university class of 1924. The couple will return Wednesday from the class's 25th reunion, and will then plan a mountain vacation.

Mrs. Retha Martin's admonition to her daughter, Callie, to "drive home carefully and take your time" has resulted in Callie's taking a tour of the country on her way home from Lynchburg, Va., where she has been attending Randolph Macon college.

Accompanied by several of her college girlfriends, the young Lubbockite will leave the Virginia town this afternoon and drive on to Virginia Beach, Charleston, S.C., several points in Florida, New Orleans and Del Rio, (where incidentally, one of the girls lives).

The Martins are expecting their blonde daughter to arrive home Wednesday or Thursday of next week, and she will be accompanied by JoAnn Denman, who will be a guest in the Martin home, 2701 Nineteenth.

Cigars with wrappers labeled "It's a Boy" were enclosed with the birth announcements sent by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morris of Houston telling of the birth of Paul Gideon Morris, jr., on May 20. The baby weighed 5 pounds, 14 ounces.

The clever little announcements showed a drawing of the proud father smoking a cigar labeled "It's a Junior." Mr. and Mrs. Morris formerly lived in Lubbock.

James R. Record, managing editor of the Fort Worth Star Telegram, and Mrs. Record, along with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brown of Throckmorton, and Mrs. E. T. Morris of Austin, will leave Lubbock today after being here to attend the graduation exercises at Texas Tech, in which their nephew, Charles E. Clowe, jr., of Ardmore, Okla., and Throckmorton, received a B.S. degree in Agriculture, with a major in animal husbandry. He was graduated with honors.

Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Clowe of Ardmore. His parents were unable to attend his graduation exercises because of illness.

Some unusual printed announcements going out in the mail read: "Mrs. Worth A. Zachary is formally announcing (with pleasure and relief) the graduation of her husband from Texas Tech college on May 30, 1949."

The couple lives at 2700 North Seventh, and she is employed by Southwestern Bell Telephone company. He is an ex-Marine and majored in accounting.

L. B. Blackwell, 2432 Twenty-seventh, was one of ten persons to receive masters degrees in the 57th annual commencement services at Hardin-Simmons university Monday.

He is an instructor in marketing and secretarial studies at Texas Tech.

Robert Bowerman Jones, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Jones, 3204 Twenty-seventh, was awarded a degree of bachelor of business administration in commencement exercises at Texas A&I college recently.

He was a 1944 graduate of Kingsville High school, attended Baylor university in 1944 and Texas A&M in 1945 before going to Texas A&I. At the latter college he has been a member of the BBA club, Veterans' association and BSU.

Hoyt Scitern, Church of Christ minister, read a single ring ceremony. The bride wore a royal blue two piece suit with a corsage of white roses. Wedding guests were parents of the bridegroom and Miss Fonda Brecheen. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are at home at Camp Queen.

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

When you buy Barcentrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet or for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barcentrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe for weight reduction.

Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 56 pounds

Here is what Mrs. L. J. Bryant, P. O. Box 66, Whitewright, Texas, wrote us: "I want to tell you what Barcentrate has done for me. I weighed 269 pounds when I started taking it. I now weigh 212.

"I have taken my dress size down from size 50 to 44 and never felt better in my life and everybody tells me how much nicer I look than I did.

"I am still taking Barcentrate as I want to get my weight down to 165 or 170 pounds."

Haskins Homers To Lead Attack

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 30. (AP)—First Baseman Chris Haskins' homer in the first with one on gave Lubbock an edge never touched tonight as they won over Albuquerque 7 to 1 in the West Texas-New Mexico League.

Lubbock added three more in the third as Lubbock batsmen drove Virgil Butler off the mound. The runs came on three hits—two of them triples, by Haskins and Mike Dooley.

Pitchers Lead Assault

Tom Bresinger came to the mound in that frame. He struck out nine men the rest of the tilt and allowed only four hits.

The lone Albuquerque score came in the third on three singles—all by Albuquerque pitchers who were in the lineup because of injuries to other men. They were Don Ferrarese, Breisinger and Walt Raimondi.

Double Plays Help

Grafton, Lubbock hurler, then weakened. In the same frame, he had the bases loaded when Cliff McClain hit into a double play. The Dukes threatened again in the sixth when McClain singled, but Ray Maul hit into a double play. Manager Hershel Martin then tripled, but to no good.

Lubbock scored twice in the eighth—the first time on a four base error by Frank Orkie which scored Manager Jackie Sullivan—and the second on a walk and a triple by Nelson Davis.

Cards Take Two; Cubs, Bucs Divide

PHILADELPHIA, May 30 (INS)—The embattled Boston Braves came through with four runs in the ninth inning of their second Memorial Day game today to tie the score, only to see the Phillies win, 6-5 in the tenth.

The Braves won the opener, 7-3, behind the pitching of Bill Voiselle and homers by Clint Conatser and Jim Russell.

Johnny Antonelli, young Boston lefthander, lasted less than an inning in the second game, the Phillies scoring four times before relief Pitcher Bob Hall could retire the side. The home club went into the ninth leading, 5-1 when the Braves suddenly came to life against Blix Donnelly.

They drove Donnelly out of the box to score the tying runs, but got no further against relieters Curt Simmons and Russ Meyer through the last two innings.

The Phillies scored the winning run against Bob Hogue in the 10th.

INEFFECTIVE AS REDS LOSE

ST. LOUIS, May 30 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals took full advantage of ineffective work by Cincinnati pitchers to sweep a Memorial Day doubleheader, 8 to 6 and 9 to 2, before a crowd of 29,000. Howie Pollet stopped the Reds with five hits in the second game after the Cards had rallied to wipe out a five-run deficit in the opener.

Two One-Hit Games Seen At Boys Club

Yankee pitchers in the Pygmy Baseball league at Lubbock Boys club allowed the Red Sox one hit Monday to win their game, 16-8, but in the Pee Wee game the winning Red Sox team made only one safe hit in winning over the Yankees, 9-8.

Leading the Yankee attack in the Pygmy game were Billy Bowden with a home run and a single in three trips to the plate and Fred Chauncey with a triple and a single in three times at bat. The only Red Sox hit was a single by Buddy Shirley which drove in two runs.

Roy Rucker singled to drive in one run for the Pee Wee Red Sox. The Yankees came up with two hits. Ray Hawkins lead off the second inning with a four-ply wallop, and Alton Ryan singled.

Tuesday the Dodgers and Indians tangle in both games at Boys club.

Only 48 boys signed up for the Junior Baseball league which starts league play Thursday. The league is for boys 12-13 years old, and anyone living in the south of Nineteenth, East of Avenue Q, and South of Broadway may register. Four teams will be picked Wednesday.

Boxing Is Set Tonight

Henderson Tries Alonzo In Final

LEVELLAND, May 30 (Special)—Bill Henderson, local lightweight boxer and Texas Tech student in Lubbock, will be seeking his sixteenth victory as a professional fighter here tonight when he meets Chino Alonzo, Douglas, Arizona, in the 10 round final event of the Jaycee sponsored boxing card at the rodeo arena.

Reserved seats at $3.60 and general admission tickets at $1.50 may still be bought for the 28 rounds of boxing which start at 8:30 p.m. Tickets may be bought at Couch's Jewelry, First National bank, and Upshaw's Drug store during the day and at the gate after 6 p. m.

Alonzo has dropped only five decisions in 60 bouts while a professional, and he is reported to be able to take plenty of leather, not having been knocked out in any of the fights.

Only two setbacks have been encountered by Henderson, and he has won 15 fights. Jean Mougin, former French lightweight champion, defeated him both times they fought. Henderson should be better matched against Alonzo.

In the semi-final heavyweight bout, a six-rounder, are Gene James, Lubbock, and Dickie Brown of Amarillo. Both boys are eager and have plenty of stamina. Brown has more experience than James who has had only two fights as a professional.

Supporting the two longer events are three preliminary bouts of three rounds each. Allen Williams, Lubbock, and Willie Brown, El Paso, meet in a heavyweight bout to precede the semi-final event. The other two bouts match Sammie Galvan, featherweight of El Paso, against Trini Perez, Mexico City. In the opener are Bobby Garcia, Juarez, and Jesus Aquilar, Chihuahua, both featherweights with lots of speed and aggressiveness.

Westerners To Play Lamesa On Friday

The Lubbock Westerners will be tuning up for the Texas Interscholastic league state championship baseball playoff this week, and at 3:30 p. m. Friday the team will play Lamesa at Chapman field diamond.

Coach Fred Taylor said Monday that the Westerner nine would start practice at 2 p. m. today in preparation for the forthcoming Lamesa tilt and that all three Lubbock pitchers would see service in the game.

Lubbock advanced to the state finals by winning District 1-AA in a three-game playoff with Amarillo, and then stopping Wichita Falls, 2-AA winners, in the first two games of a scheduled three-game series. The schoolboy finals will be held in Austin June 6-7-8 for the first time in the history of the TIL.

Lamesa won the District 3-AA title and then bowed out to Bowie of El Paso in the bi-district playoff, dropping the first two games.

Marshall, Trout And Holton Place

Clovis Golfers Win ENM-WT Tourney

CLOVIS, May 30 (AP)—Wilson P. Swinney, former amateur champion of the Clovis Country club, is the new champ of the Eastern New Mexico-West Texas tournament revived here this year for the first time since 1941.

In the finals this afternoon, Swinney trimmed Zade Watkins, also of Clovis, 4 and 3. This morning in semi-finals, Swinney trimmed Jack Garrett of Plainview, Tex., 3 and 2, while Watkins edged Raymond Marshall of Lubbock, Tex., 2 and 1.

In the consolation bracket of the championship flight, Chick Trout, sr., of Lubbock was the winner over his fellow townsman, Dave Lawson, 1-up.

In the first flight, Paul Cherry edged Roy Cooper; in the second it was George Hammond over G. H. Simms; in the third Haywood Snipes beat Remard McCrary; and in the fourth flight Joe Ford of Portales won from Noel Woodley.

Winners and runnersup in all flight, including the consolation, received trophies, as did Dale Holton of Lubbock, who received a special sportsmanship award. Holton had been declared winner of his first round match by a forfeit when his opponent failed to arrive in time. However, when the man did show up, Holton played him and was defeated.

Pioneers Blast Pampans, 15-9

CLOVIS, May 30 (AP) — The Clovis Pioneers jumped on Lefty Roy Parker for six runs in the eighth inning here tonight to outlast the Pampa Oilers 15-9 in a fight for the West Texas-New Mexico League cellar.

Parker had the situation well in hand from the second inning on until doubles by Pat Lorenzo and Wilcy Moore tied the score 9-9 in the seventh. Then the Pampa pitcher started his own downfall by passing the third Pioneer hurler of the game, George Matthews, opening the eighth.

Pampa Errors Hurt

Two Pampa errors added momentum to the Pioneer rally and before Parker could retire the side, Clovis pushed six runs across, Moore's three-run homer climaxing the assault. Moore's roundtripper was his fifth hit of the contest. He also connected for two doubles and two singles and batted in six runs for a perfect night.

Parker pitched good ball from the time he took over from starter Charley Bodine, who was struck in the hand by Moore's line drive in the second inning and had to leave the contest. The Pampa southpaw struck out six and gave up only two hits until the seventh when the Pioneers knotted the count 9-9.

A newcomer to the Pioneer mound corps, James Cooper, brother of Walker and Mort Cooper, started for Clovis, but lasted only until the fifth when he came out in favor of Ray Drake.

YANKS LOSE GROUND WHEN HELD TO SPLIT BY NATS

WASHINGTON, May 30. (AP)—The New York Yankees blasted four Washington pitchers for 20 hits and a 13-3 victory today in the second game of a double-header to earn a split with the Senators. Washington won the first game 6-2, before an overflow throng of 33,081, largest crowd to attend a baseball game here since 1941.

Seagraves Loses To Denver City

Seagraves suffered its second loss of the current campaign in the Oil Belt Baseball league Sunday, and Denver City did a neat job of whitewashing the leaders, 16-0, behind the pitching of Epperson. Faulkner was the loser.

Oft beaten Brownfield took another licking. This time the loss was to Slaton, 14-8. Getting credit for the win was Wilson, and Drane was the loser.

Tahoka squeezed by Sundown, 11-10, in a close, high-scoring contest. Getting credit for the one-run victory was Holcomb, and Medford dropped the decision.

In the highest-scoring game of the day Levelland had too much power in overwhelming Post, 25-4, with Carroll on the hill for the winners and Lloyd suffering the loss.

DETROIT TIGERS FAIL TO GAIN GROUND, SPLIT PAIR

CHICAGO, May 30. (AP)—Two unearned runs on veteran Shortstop Luke Appling's ninth inning error let Detroit take the opener of a holiday doubleheader, 3 to 2. But the Chicago White Sox tapped Hal Newhouser for a 2 to 1 victory in the nightcap behind the six-hit hurling of Lefty Bill Wight.

FISH CHAMPIONSHIPS SET

PORT ISABEL, May 30. (AP)—The Texas International Fishing championship will be held here August 18-21. The contest is recognized as official by the International Game Fish Association.

Palmer, Snead In PGA Golf Finals

RICHMOND, Va., May 30 (AP)—A 200-foot wedge shot for an eagle by Sammy Snead and a national tournament record by Johnny Palmer today made golf history and brought the two into the PGA finals.

Palmer, a grim professional from Badin, N. C., gave Lloyd Mangrum one of the worst beatings the great Niles, Ill., star ever had. Mangrum was never ahead during the 31 holes of their semi-final match in the 31st PGA tournament and Palmer won, 6 and 5.

Ferrier-Snead Closer

The Jim Ferrier-Snead match, which ended in a 3 and 2 victory for Snead, was the opposite. Ferrier, a giant Australian with a 360-degree swing, led through most of the match and made the hearts of Richmond tremble. Virginia loves Snead just a little less than Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson.

The finals tomorrow—Snead vs. Palmer—will be over 36 holes at the 6,677-yards of fairways at Richmond's old Hermitage course. The winner will get a $3,500 check.

One Shot Wins

Snead's perfect wedge shot for an eagle two on the 358-yard third hole was hit from 200 feet away. The measured distance was covered in an extremely high arc, three bounces and a true trickle to the cup which still held the flag.

Just 97 strokes were needed by Palmer to cover 27 holes, an average of 3.95 strokes a hole. His card by nine holes was 32-34-31—97 which left him ten strokes under par. Regulation figures for Hermitage are 36-35—71.

Local Gun Club Has Best Crowd Of Year

The best crowd of the year turned out Sunday for skeet and trap shooting at the ranges of Lubbock Gun club at North Air base.

Topping the list of skeet marksmen was Tom French, and he shot 25x25 and 24x25 for 49x50. Clyde Tatum had two 24x25 scores for a 48x50 average, and Tye Williamson from Morton broke all but one clay pigeon for a 24x25 record.

E. T. Daniels tied with Si Gooden in trap shooting with scores of 24x25. Clint Kieth, Rowland Ponce, R. J. Cramer, and Mike Cramer also shot trap.

Lady shooters for the day were Miss Enola Bradford, Mrs. S. H. Bradford, and Mrs. Fred Baldwin, and all had good scores.

Visitors from Brownfield were K. B. Saddler, C. G. Griffith, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baldwin. Tom Arnns, jr., and Williamson came in from Morton for the day.

ROSE FORCED OUT AFTER 480 MILES

Holland Sets Track Record In Winning Speedway Classic

INDIANAPOLIS, May 30 (AP)—Fortune rode alongside jubilant Billy Holland in the 500-mile automobile race today.

Holland, 41-year-old driver of Reading, Pa., scorched the bricks of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway with record-breaking speed to win in 4 hours, 7 minutes, 15.97 seconds. He averaged 121.377 miles an hour, fastest time in the 33-year history of the event.

Tops Track Record

This performance blotted out the track record of 119.813 miles an hour established by Mauri Rose, South Bend, Ind., a three-time winner, in winning the 1948 race.

Holland won with five miles to spare.

Closest to Holland, winner of about $45,000 in prize money, was Johnny Parsons, Burbank, Calif., with George Connor, Los Angeles, third. Myron Fohr, of Milwaukee, a first time driver in the event, finished fourth. Fifth was Joie Chitwood, Cherokee Indian from Reading, Pa.

Holland who finished second to Rose in the 1947 and 1948 races, took two years to hit the jack-pot. The ill-luck that cost Holland the victory in the 1947 race when he misjudged a signal from his pit crew fell today to his team mate, Rose, who was forced to quit 20 miles from the finish when his engine stalled on the southwest turn. The car had to be dragged off the track.

Rose, seeking nis third consecutive triumph, was in second place at the time.

While the ultimate plaudits of the holiday crowd of around 150,000 went to Holland, the real thrills of the race were supplied in the first 100 miles when three drivers were involved in smashups.

The most seriously injured was Duke Nalon of Los Angeles, who set a record-breaking pace for the first 50 miles. His car plowed into an outside retaining wall on the northeast turn and burst into flames. Nalon quickly jumped from the blazing car, but suffered painful second degree burns about the arms and face.

Crashes Into Wall

The other two drivers miraculously escaped without serious injuries. The race had not gone five miles before the car driven by George Lynch of Detroit spun off the track at the dangerous south turn and crashed. Lynch suffered a broken ankle.

Charles Van Aker, veteran driver from South Bend, Ind., escaped without injury when his car crashed into a retaining wall as he was starting down the home stretch, on his 27th mile.

Westerners To Meet Austin Maroons In First State Game

AUSTIN, May 30. (AP)—Beaumont and Waco will meet here June 6 in the opening game of the state high school baseball tournament.

Other opening day games will be Stephenville against Bowie of El Paso, Marshall against Denison and Lubbock opposite Austin.

The state meet, the first staged by the Interscholastic League, will be a single-elimination tournament with all games seven innings, except the championship battle.

Four games are scheduled June 6, two on June 7, and two more on June 8.

OAKBROOK POLOISTS WIN

HINSDALE, Ill., May 30. (AP)—The Oakbrook Polo club of Hinsdale, National Indoor Polo champions, defeated an all-star team from Oakbrook, 10 to 4, before 2,500 fans today.

Women's Golf Tourney Set

Plans are being completed here for the Women's West Texas Golf tournament to be held at Lubbock Country club June 14-19, and Mrs. Sam O'Neal of Odessa will return to defend the championship won in 1947 and repeated 1948.

The tournament will begin with mixed foursome play Tuesday, June 14. Qualifying rounds are scheduled the next day, and on Thursday the first round matches will begin. Finals will be held Sunday, June 19.

A large number of local golfers are expected to participate in the tournament. Making arrangements for the tourney are Mrs. Fenner Tubbs and Mrs. T. E. Patterson, and various committees have been set up to insure an excellent social program for the six days of golfing. Heading the social committee are Mrs. C. L. Dean and Mrs. Guy L. McAfee. The full program will be announced next Sunday.

Strong Field Expected

With Mrs. O'Neal in the entries, plus the coming of Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite, River Crest Country club of Fort Worth, a strong field is expected. Mrs. Goldthwaite won the first tournament, back in 1935, over this same Lubbock Country club course.

From Meadowbrook Golf club, Lubbock, some 20 entries are expected among whom are Mrs. C. M. Hitchcock, Mrs. Oscar Taylor, Mrs. Tom Gilbert, Mrs. Mary Simms, Mrs. D. P. Trammel and Mrs. Bill Bell. President Mrs. E. B. Herriage of the South Plains Women's Golf association, comprising seven clubs neighboring Lubbock, is expecting Meadowbrook women to participate in all events.

troyed individual freedom and provided one of the lowest standards of living in the world today, a state which, in the past 10 years, has made 197 solemn diplomatic promises and has not kept one of them—stands ready, at the first signs of economic weakness, to launch an even greater offensive against all free institutions throughout the world."

Leveling Off Seen

He suggested that responsible citizens ask themselves, "What is the condition of our economy today; where are we heading; what are some of the danger signals that lie ahead?"

He proceeded to give a summary of economic conditions, predicting that "It is unlikely that we will ever see pre-war prices again." The war-created national debt, he said, "has pumped over $250 billion of credit into our economy. This is largely frozen. As a result, we are on a new cost plateau which will probably stabilize during 1950 at an average of 10 to 15 percent below the '48 levels."

No Cause For Alarm

Although it is true that employment is off in some lines and the total number of unemployed may increase to as much as five million by the end of this year, that figure will not be abnormal compared to the total working force. Although the gross national product declined to an annual rate of $256 billion during the first three months of this year and that rate was $9 billion below the previous quarter, it still is $1 billion above the average of 1948, and $11 billion above the same three months of last year, he said.

"We still have a cushion of approximately $415 billion of current national income and liquid savings which will enter the market as prices swing into a more normal relationship with supply and demand. There is still a backlog of unsatisfied consumer demands and it has always been true that our wants multiply faster than our ability to satisfy them."

Must Adjust Thinking

Discussing "intricate and complex problems that lie in our path," he said, "Wherever we look, be it government, business, or labor, we find strong evidences of the need of an adjustment in our thinking—a strengthening of the qualities of initiative and self-reliance. We must not lose sight of the fact that the welfare of the individual and the welfare of the economic community must go hand-in-hand."

He pointed out that the war years cut out the regular influx of new blood into industry and a greater number of retirements may be expected in the years ahead.

"That is where you come in—all of you who are graduating tonight regardless of the profession which you have chosen. The successful business today offers tremendous opportunities for individual growth. It requires more vision and imagination, physical energy and a willingness to tackle the difficult and the unknown."

Thornton's Record Praised

Dr. D. M. Wiggins, Texas Tech president, praised the record of the speaker. "He has served his country faithfully and well," he said.

Dr. Wiggins conferred degrees on the 1,233 graduating students—the largest class in history. The candidates for graduation were presented by deans of the divisions. Dean James G. Allen presided for the service.

Francis Brockman, president of the graduating class, presented the college with the traditional parting gift from the class. A check has been turned over to Lubbock Chamber of Commerce for the building of a lighted softball diamond on the campus. Charles C. Thompson, chairman of the board of directors, received the gift on behalf of the college.

Dallas Man Speaks Sunday

The college concert band played the processional, "Pomp and Circumstance" (Elgar) and the recessional, "University Grand March" (Goldman) and one selection during the service, "If Thou Be Near" (Bach).

Rev. William F. Blakeslee, pastor of St. Elizabeth's Catholic church gave the invocation. Dr. J. O. Haymes, Lubbock district superintendent of the Methodist church, gave the benediction.

In the baccalaureate service Sunday night in the stadium, Dr. John Bannister, pastor of the Sears and Summit Church of Christ in Dallas, told the graduating students that, "The purpose of education is not to make life easier, but rather to make life more useful." More than 6,000 persons also attended Sunday night's program.

The Tech band, directed by D. O. Wiley, played the processional.

Following the processional, Dr. M. Norvel Young, pastor of the Lubbock Broadway Church of Christ, asked the invocation. The audience then stood for the playing of the doxology. A number "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," by Bach, was then offered by the concert band.

President Wiggins introduced the speaker.

Dr. Bannister, who is a native Texan, first read from the Bible and then told students they must know what they were seeking in life. He said, "you must have a vision for this hour." The minister, who is also very active in the field of education, went ahead to say many people fail because they have no goals and no ideals to seek.

"The whole world may beat a path to your door, but if you live without God in your lives, you have been a dismal failure," he said. He told of how too many people of this modern age were prone to forget God and try to live without Him. He urged students to be humble enough to realize their limitations but not to degrade themselves to the point where they had no self-confidence.

Dr. Bannister closed with the words, "it is not what we make, but what we give. It's not how much we know, but how we live that counts."

NEWS BRIEFS

Wiggins of Texas Technological college, will leave Thursday night for New Orleans, where he will be on two weeks' active duty with the public information office of the Commandant, Eighth Naval district. with their only "hope' a pathway of pain leading to an uncertain future."

FDR Eulogized

On the banks of the Hudson, at Hyde Park, N. Y., special tribute was paid to the memory of Franklin D. Roosevelt, commander-in-chief of World War II.

General Mark Clark keynoted the services abroad in an address at Anzio cemetery—resting place of Allied troops killed in one of the cruelest battles of World War II. Flanked by Gens. Maxwell Taylor, former superintendent of the U. S. military academy, and Geoffrey Keyes, U. S. high commander of Austria, Clark pledged U. S. co-operation to Italy.

In Germany, Lt. Gen. Clarence R. Huebner called on occupation troops to "advance the cause of freedom and justice."

GAR Doesn't March

Wherever Americans are stationed, in Britain, Belgium, Holland, France, Luxembourg and Trieste, Memorial Day was observed.

In the Pacific, from Hawaii to Japan, services were held over the men who died to keep that great ocean free.

The Grand Army of the Republic did not march today for the first time. The 28 surviving members of the Civil War's Union army are all over 100 and they will formally disband this fall.

Elsewhere across the country from New York to California, huge parades attracted, large, though solemn crowds.

Baseball parks were jammed. At Indianapolis, thousands watched the death-defying 500-mile auto speedway classic. Countless others were on golf courses, picknicking and engaged in a variety of recreations.

Three Prisoners Cut Through Floor To Escape Arkansas Jail

TEXARKANA, Ark., May 30. (AP) —Three prisoners escaped ingeniously from the Miller county jail early today.

Road blocks were set up in Southwest Arkansas and East Texas, but no sign of the trio had been seen six hours after the break.

Sheriff W. E. Davis identified the escapers as Sherman Godwin, 38, of Shreveport, held on federal charges of transporting a stolen automobile across a state line; Lorne William Funnell, 22-year-old Canadian similarly charged, and Donald Keper, of Murfreesboro, Ark., held on state charges of burglary and grand larceny.

The sheriff explained the three men's novel getaway, which he said occurred between midnight and 2 a. m.

They dug through the floor of a plumbing closet in the jail, on the fourth floor of the county courthouse. Crawling through the hole, they squeezed through the space between the floor of the fourth story and the ceiling of the third story and then dug through the ceiling of another plumbing closet located on the third story.

From the third floor closet they walked down a corridor and a stairway to the second floor and entered the county Red Cross office. They fashioned a ladder from ropes torn off venetian blinds and used it to reach the courthouse lawn.

Nurse Of Dallas Hospital's Polio Ward Dies After Illness

DALLAS, May 30. (AP) — For twenty years Mrs. Alta Epps, a middle-aged Parkland hospital nurse, had cared for victims of polio, mostly children.

Juanita Block of Roanoke, Denton county, was a typical case. She came to the polio ward in September, 1948. She met Mrs. Epps and they became fast friends. Since their meeting, Mrs. Epps had not taken a day off from work, encouraging the 12-year-old and wheeling her into the sunshine on good days.

The children grew restless when she failed to visit them yesterday.

Today they will be told why she did not come to them.

Mrs. Epps became ill Saturday night. She died last night.

SHREVEPORT, La., May 30. (AP)—S. Perry Brown of Beaumont, National American Legion commander, was awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree by Centenary college last night. Honorary degrees also were awarded to the Rev. J. J. Rasmussen, pastor of the First Baptist church of Lake Charles, and John Gray, president of Lamar college at Beaumont.

VFW Plans Fund To Fight Liquor Charges

VFW members Monday night voted to build a fund to fight charges of liquor law violation filed Saturday against W. Earl Creel, commander, and Eldridge Raybun, clubhouse manager.

Approximately 800 members engaged in an open discussion, then voted unanimously to aid in efforts to fight the charges. Plans were made to build by donations from members, whatever funds might be necessary to fight the case.

Creel, Raybun, and Steve Wells, 52, of Westbrook, were charged Saturday in connection with a beer raid Friday night on the VFW premises. Wells allegedly delivered 180 cases of beer to the property where it was seizd by liquor board agents. W. G. Poplin, district liquor board supervisor, filed charges after entering VFW property, with the consent of VFW officials, and allegedly finding 26 cases of beer there.

Creel and Raybun entered into personal recognizance with the county court, in which they will demand a jury trial. Wells, who allegedly delivered beer, posted $800 bond.

powers at Potsdam in 1945, and would dismember Germany.

He charged the Bonn constitution had been written under "open pressure" from the western powers.

He said it merely was an attempt to extend to eastern Germany a regime which had been evolved without the participation or consent of either the German people or Russia.

He declared Russia had a responsibility to the population of the eastern zone and that this population is "well represented by the people's Congress."

West's Ministers Reply

This congress, elected mostly in the eastern zone from a single hand-picked slate, ratified a Soviet-style constitution in Berlin today.

In reply, Britain's Ernest Bevin said the Bonn constitution represented a compromise among Germans on the question of federal versus centralized government. He declared the West had no idea of setting up another centralized structure such as could be converted into a police state.

France's Robert Schuman declared the Bonn constitution had not been drawn in secret. He said it took eight months to write, and that much of the debate was before the press and the public. He said the Potsdam agreement provided for a decentralized regime.

U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson said he gathered that Vishinsky rejected the western proposal in Toto and that he was "baffled" by some of the reasons given.

He said the proposals put more power in the hands of the Germans, which the Russians say they favor. But the Russians reject the proposals and suggest putting more controls on the Germans, Acheson added.

Jester Is Speaker At Negro University Graduation Rites

HOUSTON, May 30 (AP)—Governor Beauford Jester said today "the people of Texas are too big and noble to tolerate restriction in the growth of the individual because of race, creed or previous servitude."

The governor spoke at the second annual commencement exercises at the Texas State University for Negroes. Degrees were conferred on 107 candidates.

He said custom makes 95 percent of Texas white and negro citizens prefer separate but equal educational facilities.

"In years to come this custom can change," the governor said. "Heaven is not reached in a single bound.

"One of the duties of our society is to provide education for all people. It is needless to remind you of the need of education in Texas, both on the elementary and higher levels.

"We propose to develop at the Texas State University for Negroes one of the leading institutions of its type in the nation.

"Even though other southern states boast of their liberalism, according to my information this is the only institution of its kind with more than one negro on its board of directors or regents."

As the ceremonies were held the cornerstone was laid for a new $1,639,000 administration - classroom-auditorium building.

Elderly Denver Woman Falls To Death In Colorado Canyon

CIMARRON, Colo., May 30 (INS) —An elderly Denver widow plunged 50 feet to her death in the treacherous waters of the Gunnison river near Cimarron today.

The tragedy marred the final passenger trip on the narrow gauge railway through the scenic Black canyon prior to scheduled abandonment.

The body of the woman, identified as Mrs. Anna E. Love, about 65, of Denver, had not been recovered.

She was among a group of about 200 sightseers making the last trip aboard the historic narrow guage line of the Denver & Rio Grande Western railroad. Mrs. Love was a member of the Rocky Mountain Railroad club which sponsored the excursion.

The train had halted several miles east of Cimarron and witnesses said Mrs. Love was taking pictures when she stepped over the embankment.

ness manager since 1929, who will retain his title. Creation of the post was recommended recently by the state auditor.

Approval of an appropriation of $7,115 for emergency repairs to buildings at Pantex Ordnance plant in order to take care of wheat storage in the project and leasing of railroad trackage in the plant to the Santa Fe railroad was approved in the morning session.

G. R. Buchanan, general manager of the Santa Fe's western lines; and H. C. Vincent, traffic manager, both of Amarillo, appeared before the board regarding the leasing of the trackage.

The board also accepted with regret the resignation of Miss Mozelle Craddock, since 1934 director of dormitories, who resigned, effective Sept. 1, to accept a position with a local firm. A resolution, expressing the board's appreciation to Miss Craddock for her faithful service to the college was authorized. No successor has been selected for the post.

Appointment of Pennington, closely associated with Dr. Wiggins at El Paso for more than a decade, is effective Aug. 1. Pennington, who attended today's meeting, is a graduate of the school of business administration of the University of Texas. He has been business manager of the El Paso school since 1936 with the exception of the past year when he served as assistant to the president. He served three years in the Navy during the war. He is married and has no children.

Red Troops From Shanghai Are Reported Marching On Canton

CANTON, China, May 30 (AP)—Nationalist Chinese military sources said tonight some of the Communist troops who took Shanghai are already marching southwest in what may be resumption of the drive on this provisional capital.

The southern campaign has been almost at a standstill for the past fortnight.

The Reds were said to be headed towards Changsha, a key point on the Canton-Hankow railway 400 miles north of Canton.

Gen. Pai Chung-Hsi, who pulled his 200,000 Nationalist troops out of Hankow without a fight, is reported to have a headquarters at Changsha.

Nationalists who early fled the Shanghai sector are reported to have straggled into Pai's lines recently, disturbing his troops by their rag-tag appearance and poor morale.

More Hostages Held By Bolivian Strikers

LA PAZ, Bolivia, May 30. (AP)—More mine officials were seized as hostages today by striking miners as labor troubles spread in Bolivia's strife torn tin producing area high in the Andes.

The acting president of Bolivia charged the strike was aimed at the overthrow of the government. Two more mines and a railroad were reported closed.

All are in the Catavi area, near the scene of bloody rioting during the weekend in which at least 27 persons including two American mining engineers were killed.

Acting President Mamerto Urriolagoitia issued a statement declaring the government has proof of a plot for a general strike throughout Bolivia to create civil war and overthrow the government.

The new strikes appeared to be following the pattern of the first, in which strikers at the Siglo Veinte (twentieth century) mine of the Patino group, Bolivia's biggest tin combine, seized management officials as hostages.

A quick flood in the Palo Duro canyon park near Amarillo caught 50 to 75 cars of picknickers and kept them marooned Sunday night. Food was taken in by horse back. Tractors pulled the cars out.

The U. S. Weather bureau at Dallas said San Antonio and San Angelo reported 97 degrees at 4:30 p. m. Monday. Dallas, Fort Worth, Mineral Wells and Bryan had 96. Austin, Abilene, Big Spring and Midland had 95. Houston had 94. Cool breezes fanned the heat down to 85 at Galveston.

Texarkana with 84 was the coolest spot. Corpus Christi had 88, Brownsville 90, Alice 93, El Paso 90 and Palacios 85.

Clouds prevailed generally along the Gulf coast and in the Rio Grande valley. High, thin clouds drifted over the Panhandle. The rest of the state was mostly clear.

Weapons Program Pushed

Lilienthal said that he did not mean this in criticism of the Army or the Manhattan district because during the period of August 1945 to December 1946 the whole program has been left in a state of "suspended animation."

What, he asked the newsmen, was the commission to do. He said it could have become concerned in all of the details, or it could do what it did.

"We realized," he said, "that the thing to do was to get weapons rolling. That was the best thing for security . . ."

He said that now that the weapons program is on "firm ground," it will be easier to make other necessary changes.

All of this, Lilienthal maintained, is known to Hickenlooper.

On the eve of the committee session at which Hickenlooper says he will press for a thorough investigation, Lilienthal received new support from the Federation of American Scientists. This organization includes many of the men who helped develop the atomic bomb.

Air Training Group Accuses Navy Of Resisting Unification

DALLAS, May 30. (AP)—The national convention of the Areonautical Training society lashed the U. S. Navy's "brass" today for resisting "true unification" of the nation's military forces.

Oliver Parks of St. Louis, president of Parks airlines, said an ATS member had "inside information" that the Navy inspired a soon-to-appear magazine article recommending outlawing of the atomic bomb.

The article, Parks reported, will appear in a national magazine and he charged it was "ghostwritten" by Navy personnel and was based on the Navy's jealousy.

The ATS commended President Truman's decision to use the atomic bomb to bring an early end to World War II "and save millions of lives." It also said that the United States, with the backing of the United Nations, should not hesitate to put the bomb to use again to prevent any future threatened war of aggression.

On the subject of military unification, the convention said "those admirals and their supporters who avoid true unification . . . should feel the just indignation of an aroused public."

FORD WORK RESUMED

DETROIT, May 30. (AP)—After more than three weeks of strike idleness, maintenance workers returned to two Detroit area Ford plants this holiday to prepare for a resumption of limited production. The more than 100,000 production workers idled directly or indirectly by the 24-day strike will start trickling back tomorrow in plants across the nation.

now bearing a confusion of names, would be re-named in alphabetical order for colleges and universities. Short thoroughfares between numeral streets, now bearing various names, would be given "½" designations, becoming 1½, 2½, etc, streets.

Discussions at the initial session were of round-table nature, producing several suggestions for study. The consensus was that something should be done to make addresses in many portions of Lubbock easier to locate. But the first meeting did not produce any ideas of definite nature.

Other Plans Discussed

Several committee members questioned the advisability of naming any streets for cities, suggesting that such a plan might lead to confusion in the postoffice. For example, uneasiness was expressed that a letter addressed to a proposed "Atlanta street" in Lubbock might go to Atlanta, Ga.

Various suggestions were that a better plan would be to re-name the "president" avenues—if they are to be renamed—for names of girls, for counties of Texas or that, starting immediately west of College avenue, the thoroughfares should be designated as West ave. A, West Ave. B and so on through the alphabet. Under this proposal, alphabet avenues prefixed by "East" would remain as they are.

The consensus of those present was in sympathy with residents of short streets who have objected to a "½" naming. Suggested as a possible way to overcome this objection was the proposal to designate such thoroughfares as "drives." Thus, Edna street between First and Second, would be named "First drive." The word, "drive," would be the key to the fact that any thoroughfare so designated lay between two of the regularly numbered streets.

Oppose Number Changes

Those present agreed unanimously that any naming plan adopted should avoid changing the present numbers of individual addresses. They agreed also that name changes should be as few as possible and that any plan adopted should operate automatically to provide for the systematic naming of new streets as the city grows.

It was pointed out that the system proposed by the planning commission would not require the changes of any street numbers and would operate automatically to take care of future needs.

Present at the meeting were City Manager Steve Matthews; R. L. Oldham, city director of public works; Police Chief Lewis Kittrell; Fire Chief W. E. Twitty; C. J. Griggs, of the city engineering department; G. R. Kennedy and Louis Murfee, jr., representing real estate men; Ray Farmer, for taxicab companies, and W. W. Rix, for ambulance operators.

Absent were K. N. Clapp, chairman of the planning commission and also of the special committee; C. I. Wall, of West Texas Gas co.; Hubert L. Allen, Southwestern Public Service co.; C. H. Cale, Southwestern Bell Telephone co., and Postmaster Amos Howard.

Gas Fumes Kill Two Seamen Aboard Fuel Tanker At Houston

HOUSTON, May 30. (AP) — Two seamen died of asphyxiation aboard a fuel tanker at Port Houston last night and orders have been given that no details be released on the deaths.

Justice of the Peace Thomas I. Decker identified the victims as Tolbert W. Drew, 38, Liverpool, Pa., and Albert H. Wingate, 28, Atlanta, Ga., both pumper men on the U.S.N.T. Muir Woods.

Bob Herlinger, funeral home employe at Galena Park, said Capt. M. P. Wheeler, skipper of the tanker, gave strict orders that no information be released to newspapers.

Decker, however, said he understood from crew members of the vessel the two pumper men had been challenging each other to see which could stay longer in fumes which were below deck.

Wheeler was not available for comment but Deputy Sheriffs John Fitch and Bill Isbell told dispatcher George Nichols the captain had said report of the deaths will be made by the U. S. Navy department.

Decker said the vessel was under a Navy contract for transporting high octane fuel. He said fellow crewmen found bodies of the two men in a pumping room companionway.

H. G. Shaw of the Harris County Emergency corps which answered the call from the ship, said the only information he received aboard ship was the captain's name and the names of the two victims.

New Clothing Factory To Open In Lamesa

LAMESA, May 30. (Special) — Formal opening of Delta Manufacturing company, a new garment factory here, has been set for July 23 and 24, the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce has announced.

The factory, which will make men's work clothes and will eventually employ upward of 250 local workers, will begin actual operations about June 15. It is located in a new brick building at 1002 N. Fourth street.

Formal invitations will be mailed to wholesale and retail outlets throughout the state, and to newspapers and chambers of commerce in the West Texas area to attend the opening. People in the Lamesa trade territory will be invited through the local press and radio station.

Printed souvenir programs will be distributed to visitors during the two-day open house, and a brief program will be held during the evening of the 23rd.

Girls from various Dawson county communities and members of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority here will model clothes made by the company at the opening.

downment of the university was a feature which makes it unique among American state universities.

"It is quite understandable that there is a tendency in certain quarters to have other state supported institutions benefit from this endowment, but if this were done it would take away from your university an asset without which we cannot attain preeminence," he said.

Judge Hart advised the graduates to avoid uniformity and mediocrity. "We will not, I hope, hesitate to be different when we are convinced that we are right," he said.

western-sponsored Bonn constitution which he called "one of the most deplorable chapters in German history." He said it was "tearing Germany apart."

He admitted the eastern constitution, which Communists and their Russian advisors drafted in close consultation, lacked some guarantees of freedom.

Constitution Defended

"But we need a democracy able to deal with its enemies," he said. "Public opinion will be free but not so free as under the Weimar republic which granted unrestrained freedom to criminal political elements (Nazis)."

Obviously hinting that Vishinsky may demand that the eastern constitution be adopted by the Big Four at Paris for all Germany, Grotewohl said, "I do not know why this constitution could not be the basis for an understanding with the West."

The People's Congress was chosen two weeks ago in an election in the eastern zone at which about a third of the voters cast "no" ballots. However, about a fourth of the delegates had been named by Communist organizations in Western Germany to give color to the party's claim to represent all Germany.

Tool Box Found

Lena Johnson, a negro woman of the Carver Heights addition to Lubbock, said someone entered her house when she was "outside hanging out clothes," and stole $19 from her purse. The case was classified as a burglary.

Kay Hale of Hamilton Roofing company, 2430 Ave. H, informed police he had found tools and a tool box and was holding them for identification by their owner.

Reggie Taylor, Tech student who resides in Sneed hall, last night reported to police that a 670-15 tire had been stolen from his automobile which was parked on the Tech campus. Value was assessed at $25.

Loss of a billfold containing personal papers and between $65 and $70 in cash was reported Monday evening to police by Leslie McKinney of 1906 Tenth.

Local officers last night had had no word on Shirley R. Belt, 24, of Sweetwater, who escaped Nolan county jail Sunday. Belt, who was awaiting trial on a burglary charge, had been sentenced recently to five years on a car theft charge here.

It was understood that the man picked a cell lock to escape. Officers throughout the state have been alerted to arrest Belt.

Floydada Man To Be Sentenced Today

Judge Dan Blair will go to Crosbyton this morning to pronounce the death sentence of W. Fred Jones, 40-year-old Floydada man whose second murder conviction in the Sept. 27, 1946, shotgun slaying of H. C. Love, jr., in Floydada recently was affirmed.

COST TO BE SCALED TO INCOME

Republican Group To Offer New Voluntary Health Insurance Plan

WASHINGTON, May 30 (AP)—Nine members of Congress today proposed a new, voluntary health insurance plan designed to provide the same care to the poor and well-to-do, at a cost scaled to each person's income.

The bill, intended as a substitute for President Truman's compulsory insurance plan, will be introduced tomorrow by two senators and seven representatives, all Republicans.

Plan Is Voluntary

The sponsors, who said the bill would avoid "the errors of state socialism," are:

Senators Ives (NY) and Flanders (VT) and Reps. Clifford P. Case (NJ), Fulton (Pa), Hale (Me), Herter (Mass), Javits (NY), Morton (Ky), and Nixon (Calif).

They said the plan is "designed to bring within everybody's reach all the care that the nation's medical facilities can provide."

The whole plan would be voluntary. People could subscribe or not as they choose. Doctors, hospitals and states could join or stay out.

A subscriber would pay in three percent of his income, up to $5,000. The sponsors figure most of the cost would be met by the subscriptions—which would average $114 per year per family.

Deficits would be made up by federal and state governments. The maximus cost for the federal government is estimated at $300,000,000 the first year and about $850,000,000 four years later.

Other Plans Proposed

The Truman plan, on the other hand, is estimated by its backers to cost about $6,000,000,000 a year. To provide medical, hospital and other services for some 120,000,000 Americans the administration plan calls for payroll taxes and contributions out of general tax receipts. The payroll levies would be three percent, split between worker and employer, on income up to $4,800 a year.

Several other plans have been proposed. One, offered by Senator Taft (R-Ohio), stresses the use of federal and state funds to care for low income persons.

The new Republican substitute made public today would be built around local, voluntary plans something like those in which around 35,000,000 people already are enrolled—plans like those of the Blue Cross, unions, cooperatives.

"Local Level" Operation

But the backers say they would get away from the disadvantage of flat-rate premiums that put present plans out of the reach of millions of people.

"This legislation," they said in a statement, "contemplates hundreds of such non-profit voluntary plans, each locally organized and operated. It will use existing plans, enable them to expand, and open the way for new plans throughout the country."

Each state would have to pass a law authorizing its participation. A state health council would split the state into regions under control of local people.

The regional authorities would figure out the normal cost of a "yardstick" program covering such things as doctor services, and offices, preventive medical care and hospitalization. Any plan operating in the region and providing yardstick benefits would get from the state, with federal help, the difference between the payments by subscribers and the estimated cost.

A local plan could cover more or less than the yardstick. In that event, subscribers would pay more or less than three percent of incomes up to $5,000.

The state council would have to approve the maximum coverage any plan could provide. This would take into account the services that are available or that could readily be obtained. There could be revisions.

Federal Training Proposed

"This bill," the authors say, "links the extension of prepaid services with the local capacity to supply service."

The bill also provides for the use of federal funds to train more doctors and nurses, and to build more hospitals and health service centers.

Senator Ives and Flanders said in a separate statement that the measure is "diametrically different from the compulsory health insurance bill offered by the administration."

"It would place and preserve primary responsibility for the development of adequate health services in the states and local communities where the needs are most accurately known and best can be met, rather than at the remote federal level," they said.

They added that their pattern of medical service is designed to give "the maximum in assistance, without regard to an individual's income, and with the minimum of government direction, control and centralization."

Case and Javits said the bill "meets the challenge to Republicans who are progressives."

Several Major Bills Approved

By MARTHA COLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, May 30. — The House tackled a voter registration law today, and other major legislation came closer to becoming the law.

The final version of the one remaining bill needed to put the Gilmer-Aikin school reorganization plan into effect came out of a conference committee and was laid on legislators' desks.

The House passed a Senate bill permitting veterans to buy public land at low interest rates and sent it on to the governor.

Both the Senate and the House adopted a conference committee report on a bill providing a more secret ballot, thus sending the measure to the governor.

State Board Increased

The House approved a measure increasing the six-man Game, Fish and Oyster commission to nine members and putting their appointment on a geographical basis.

The voter registration law would go into effect only if a proposed constitutional amendment doing away with the poll tax as a requirement for voting were adopted. That proposal has passed the House but is tied up in the Senate.

Voters simply would register with the county clerk and say to what party they belonged.

The House almost took the party affiliation rule out.

Rep. Bill Fly of Victoria said it would disfranchise a lot of people.

Amendment Killed

"If a man registers as a Republican or independent, he can't vote in the primary elections we have in this state — they're all Democratic primaries," Fly said. "And we all know most local, county, district and state officers are elected in the primaries."

The House killed his amendment by a 58-57 vote.

Two of the three Gilmer-Aikin bills reorganizing the state public school system are awaiting the governor's signature.

The third, setting up a minimum foundation program, will be offered for debate tomorrow.

The veterans land bill is the first piece of veterans legislation to be approved by both houses and sent to the governor this session. It would set up a state veterans land board to sell public land in value up to $7,500 to veterans. A three percent interest rate, with 40 years to pay, would be charged. The bill carries out the provisions of a constitutional amendment approved by the people in 1946.

Deadlock May Force Record Session

Legislative Closing Hinges On Finances

By MAC ROY RASOR
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, May 30 — The end of the 51st legislative session today was apparently hanging in a deadlock of minds over finances.

Unless leaders can reach an early agreement, the longest session of this century may be sweating through Austin's August heat, one senator predicted.

The deadlock is over the manner in which to handle a deficit of some 46 million dollars facing the state for the next two years.

Lieut. Gov. Allan Shivers has a plan. House Speaker Durwood Manford has another plan. Neither plan, so far, has mustered much support. Alternate plans from other sources have met little enthusiasm.

Short-Term Tax Urged

Meanwhile, no generally accepted way out has yet even started on the long road to legislative enactment.

Senator James Taylor of Kerens has estimated that a tax bill—if that is to be the answer to the muddle—can reasonably take six weeks.

Only 32 calendar days separate this session from matching the record-breaking 171 days of the 47th legislature eight years ago.

If a tax is the only way, Manford wants it to be a short-term omnibus affair—a small tax on a lot of things—to cover specifically the state's proposed eleemosynary building program. Such a tax bill would have to originate in the House. It has not yet been drawn.

One-Year Plan Favored

Shivers favors either a one-year appropriation plan or a bond issue by constitutional amendment to finance the buildings with the state using its credit on any amount the bonds or other anticipated revenue might not cover. Such an amendment requires two-thirds approval of both House and Senate and a vote at the polls.

But both Shivers' plans leave Manford cold.

Gov. Beauford H. Jester has said that if a tax is necessary he also favors the omnibus type. He has never commented on the Shivers plan—obviousness of which has led to speculation of his possible disfavor.

Rites Held For Lamesa Flier

PLAINVIEW, May 30 (Special)—Funeral services for Don Fritz, 29, former Pioneer airlines manager here who died in a plane crash near Plainview Sunday, were held at 3 p. m. today in Lamesa Church of Christ.

Paul McClung, Church of Christ minister, officiated. Burial was in Lamesa cemetery under direction of Higginbotham Funeral home.

Fritz was flying a J-3 Cub, crop dusting, when the plane crashed, apparently after stalling in a left bank. The pilot's left foot was caught in a control pedal and he was reportedly burned beyond recognition. Experienced airmen who visited the scene expressed the belief that Fritz died in the flames, rather than in the crash. Indications were he attempted to escape the flames but was unable to dislodge his foot.

Last month he left Pioneer airlines and became associated with another firm, Pioneer crop dusting and advertising service.

Fritz, a veteran of World War II, served two years in the European theater as a flight officer, and was awarded the Aid Medal for the invasion of Sicily, and 13 campaign stars.

Prior to coming here, when Pioneer airlines opened service in 1948, he lived in Lamesa. He and Mrs. Fritz, the former Marjorie Latrice Loe, of Lamesa, were married during the war. After the war he returned to Lamesa and was engaged in business there until moving here.

Pallbearers for the service were Douglas Craig and Roy McAllister, of Plainview, Van Greene, Joe Greene, Lewis Prather, and Roy Irton, all of Lamesa.

Survivors include the wife; three children, Donna, Kenny and Stevie; his mother, Mrs. Doris Newmann of San Angelo; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gentry of San Angelo.

Complete Equality For Negro In U.S. Seen By UN Mediator

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 30. (AP)—Nothing is impossible for the negro in America, the United Nations mediator for Palestine said today.

In an address prepared for delivery at Fisk university commencement, Dr. Ralph H. Bunche predicted that the negro will eventually attain complete equality in America.

"While nothing is easy for the negro in America, he said, "neither is anything impossible. The barriers of race are formidable, but they can be surmounted. Indeed, the entire history of the negro in this country has been a history of continuous, relentless progress over these barriers."

Wet Weather Delays Texas Wheat Harvest

AMARILLO, May 30 (U.P.)—Wheat was ready to harvest in some 20 Texas counties today, with the weather seen as the only drawback.

Wayne C. Grant, wheat co-ordinator for Texas, said rain which would hold up harvesting operations had fallen in almost all the 20 counties. However, some of the fields were drying rapidly, and plenty of equipment was on hand, and in some places a surplus of labor existed.

Fields were reported drying rapidly in Coleman and Reynolds counties, and the harvest was expected to begin today. Heavy rains in Wichita, Archer and Clay counties Saturday were expected to hold up the harvest three to five days.

The harvest got off to a good start in Wilbarger and Foard counties Saturday but was rained out Saturday evening. Adequate equipment and a surplus of labor was on hand.

Harvesting was halted by rains in Baylor and Young counties. In Hardeman county, wheat was reported a little behind that of other areas and was not expected to be ready for cutting for a week or 10 days, regardless of weather conditions.

CROP WORK IS DELAYED BY RAINS

Livestock And Ranges In Texas Reported In Excellent Condition

DALLAS, May 30. (AP) — The federal reserve bank of Dallas will report tomorrow that livestock and ranges in Texas and the Southwest are in excellent condition.

Prospects are for a near record wheat crop, rapid development of other grains and ample supplies of moisture, the report says.

On the other hand, the bank's monthly review of business conditions will say excessive rains in large areas have delayed crop cultivation, retarded planting of row crops and caused extensive cotton replanting because of overflows, grassing fields and poor germination.

Employment Rise Noted

The bank said non-farm employment is moderately higher than last year.

Construction contracts awarded in April dropped 16 percent from March but exceeded April, 1948 slightly.

The daily average crude oil production in April was nine percent below March and 22 percent under April of last year. The drops were caused by cuts in production allowables. Refinery operations declined five percent from March and seven percent from April of last year.

Department store sales increase three percent from March to April. This was smaller than usual for the season. The decline from April 1948 was five percent, slightly smaller than the average decrease during the first four months of this year.

Furniture store sales in April were seven percent above March but 11 percent smaller than April 1948.

Bank loans declined $14,000,000 between April 13 and May 11. Investments increased $46,000,000 during the same period. Total deposits declined $46,000,000 during the same four weeks. Member banks of the 11th Federal Reserve district drew upon their balances with the federal reserve bank and correspondent banks to increase their investments.

TWO WHITE MEN SEIZE YOUTH

Young Negro Prisoner Is Taken From Georgia Jail Cell, Lynched

IRWINTON, Ga., May 30. (AP)—A young negro was taken from a jail cell in the sheriff's residence early today and shot and beaten to death.

The negro, Calif Hill, jr., 28, was arrested after a disturbance about midnight at a negro roadhouse. Sheriff George Hatcher said Hill had seized his gun and fired at him when he arrested him.

The sheriff said Hill had "the worst reputation I'd ever heard of" and that he had arrested the negro several times before.

After placing Hill in jail, the sheriff called state troopers and went back to the roadhouse to get his pistol, which had been taken from him in the scuffle. Two unmasked white men then slipped into the jail on the second floor of his home and took Hill, Hatcher said.

Hatcher had left his keys on the table in the dining room of his home. His wife and daughter were asleep in downstairs rooms.

Another negro prisoner in the jail, Tom Carswell, said he saw the two men enter. Carswell could not identify them.

Mrs. Hatcher said she heard a car drive up to the jail and a door slam, but thought it was her husband returning.

Body Found Near Creek

Hill's body, badly beaten and with bullet holes in the heart and neck, was found about 7 a.m., by a creek near Irwinton. It was the nation's first lynching of 1949.

Hatcher said he went to the nightclub alone when he received a report Hill had stabbed another negro.

As he was putting handcuffs on Hill in the club, in which there were about 100 others, someone grabbed his gun, the sheriff related.

"Hill tackled me and the next thing I knew, he had my gun and fired at me. It looked like my days were numbered.

Negro Offers Gun

"I yelled for help and another negro handed me his gun. I then turned it on Hill and marched him out to my car. I didn't stop to get my gun."

The sheriff said "the first thing I knew about his being killed was when I was called to identify a body this morning.

"When I first heard about it I thought of the Ku Klux Klan, but no one remembers seeing anyone hooded around town."

Hill, the sheriff said, previously had been arrested for shooting a small white boy.

Irwinton is a town of 500 in middle Georgia, about 20 miles east of Macon. It is the county seat of Wilkinson county, a sparsely settled rural area.

Veterans Groups Pay Tribute To War Dead

Three volleys into the setting sun, and the solemn strains of Taps echoing through Memorial park climaxed Lubbock's tribute to war dead in memorial services Monday.

Lubbock's three veterans' organizations, the DAV, the VFW, and the American Legion, jointly paid tribute to fallen comrades in a service at the grave of Jed Forgey symbolizing the valor of all those who died in service of country.

Invocation, by Tommy Harrell, was followed by remarks by Fred Young, VA attorney, master of ceremonies, and an address by Roy Bass, Lubbock attorney. Floral tributes were placed on the grave by representatives of the veterans' organizations and auxiliaries.

The notables quartet, composed of J. Ray Dickey, Dick Richards, Jim Black, and Tiney Jones, sang a medley.

Benediction, after the firing of the salute and Taps, was by Mrs. Thelma Pugh, DAV commander.

In addition to the services, flags were placed on the graves of all veterans in the three Lubbock cemeteries.

Burial will be in Floydada cemetery, under direction of Rix Funeral home.

Mrs. Landtroop, a South Plains resident 26 years, had been in ill health the last five months.

Survivors include the husband; a son, Lonnie Joe Fowler of Floydada; two sisters, Mrs. J. N. Downing of Hugo, Okla., and Mrs. Lizzie Bachman of Norman, Okla.; and a brother, W. H. Seale of Floydada.

Pallbearers will be Warren Embree, Charlie Martin, W. W. West, Monroe Harrison, W. R. Billington and Riley Holmes.

The Association of American Railroads has figured out that to make the steam which blows a locomotive whistle costs about two-thirds of a cent per toot, or twice as much as it used to.

Father And Son Team Present Program At Jaycee Meeting

Three musical selections by the father-son team of A. D. Leonard, pianist, and Robert Leonard, vocalist, highlighted Monday's weekly Jaycee luncheon in the Hilton hotel.

The two were introduced by C. A. Rodgers, program chairman.

Gordon Sanders, co-chairman of the extension committee, announced that a trip of Lubbock club members to Seagraves for the purpose of stimulating interest in organization of a Junior Chamber of Commerce there will be made Friday night. Originally, the trip had been scheduled last Friday.

Two out-of-town guests, Roy Key and Jess Key, both of Childress, were introduced.

Horace Gearhart presided, with invocation by Bill Tinney.

OIL PROSPECTS:

On The Brighter Side

SEVERAL news dispatches recently have tended to brighten considerably the oil and gasoline outlook for American motorists. Taken together, the reports strengthen confidence that the already remote dangers of petroleum exhaustion have been pushed further into the future.

The most recent item told of oil explorations off the coast of Mexico, with qualified opinion confident that production in large quantities will be found. Not long before that, discoveries of major importance, and probably of huge extent, were reported in Canada. And explorations have been continuous in the interior of Mexico for several years with confidence prevailing, even in conservative quarters, that some almost certainly will locate new producing areas.

To be weighed with these occurring events are the facts that very negligible portions of Canada, little of Mexico and practically none of Alaska have been explored for oil possibilities.

The unexplored areas aggregate almost 5,000,000 square miles—two-thirds larger than continental United States. It is not reasonably conceivable that petroleum in enormous quantities won't be found in those areas eventually, if the search continues for it.

True, oil in Canada, Mexico and/or Alaska would not be as convenient as production in the U. S. Transportation might run costs up a little, but with pipelines, this should be, over-all, a negligible factor.

The important consideration is that American motors aren't going to run dry if oil is produced anywhere on this continent. And the most conservative authorities are practically unanimous in their confidence that it is far more reasonable to expect great new discoveries than to assume that vast reserves do not exist.

Unofficial Envoys

MANY European nations reportedly are preparing hopefully for the largest invasion of American tourists this Summer since the war. Their hopes appear well founded. Indications are that tourist travel will be the heaviest in years to Europe, Latin America and even Australia.

Such travel could mean much, for good or bad, in the relations between the United States and the nations visited. It is questionable whether American tourist travel of the prewar periods—particularly that prior to World War I—did as much good as harm.

Too many of the tourists were the smart-aleck type, whose conduct tended to confirm the already prevalent European impression that most Americans weren't much more than half civilized. Too many Europeans offended tourists by their superior attitude and avariciousness. Visitors and visited often were glad to be rid of each other.

This situation has been altered considerably since the heydey of American tourist travel prior to 1930. The war, its aftermath, the radio, airplane and other factors have resulted in intimate contacts which have removed much of the strangeness and novelty from the associations of people of different nationalities. In large degree, all have learned to conduct themselves in a manner which avoids offense to the others.

It is reasonable to expect, therefore, that one by-product, if the anticipated tourist rush materializes, will be a better understanding between associated peoples which might become a wholesome factor in shaping the international policies of governments.

Down Memory Lane

(Taken from the files of The Lubbock Morning Avalanche. May 31, 1939.)

What A Revolting Development This Is!

Island Of Escape

By HUGH LAWRENCE NELSON
Disributed By NEA Service, Inc.

(THE STORY: Bea Cosgrove is not satisfied that the death of Lilly Warren on Henry Gough Harding's Speare Island was suicide, but she finds little to point out any of the other seven inhabitants of the island as the murderer. Then, when Bea is watching Harding's sheep she is visited by Miguel Oak, the captain of the Simpatico, the fishing boat which brought Bea, Lilly, Agnes Firth and Mabel Jones to the place. Oak tells Bea that his brother was one of four workmen killed by accident on the island when Harding was fixing it up. Oak also admits playing little "jokes" on Harding to torment him. The conversation is interrupted when someone approaches from the house.)

"THE boss wants to see you right away," Bascombe said. He sat down beside Bea and stared gloomily at the sheep. "Silly things," he commented. "They remind me of people."

"What does Harding want?"

"Harding? Who said anything about Harding? I was talking about my boss, Mr Fred Sillwell."

"What's the matter with you today?"

Bascombe grinned sourly. "Nothing like a nice suicide to cheer people up Not," he added hastily, "that I have any personal feeling about her death."

"Nothing personal? But there's something personal bothering you. I have it. Your little deal with Sillwell about the whiskey has backfired?"

George glanced at her, averted his eyes quickly. "No. That's the one bright spot Little George Bascombe at his best. No, Fred's still buying. What he gets from Harding only makes him thirsty."

"He's young for a confirmed alcoholic."

"Fred never was young Fred is impolite when he's kept waiting. It may not matter to you but it does to me."

Bea got up, started the sheep down the trail. "I don't see why you're so afraid of Sillwell."

"No, you don't do you?" George grunted. "Say have you missed any sheep lately?"

"I've never counted them. Why?"

George kicked a pebble in the trail. "Any wild animals on the island? Big enough to kill sheep I mean."

"The cave! You've heard the gasping in the cave."

"Yeah I heard it." He did not sound much impressed. "I thought the sound effects would help. Monster guards gold—and my whiskey too."

Bea kept her voice casual. "How did you know about the supposed treasure of the cave?"

"Lilly told me She had some idea of hunting for it."

MISS COSGROVE remembered the group of women at the tower room door when she had been reading aloud from the History of Speare Island. "She tell anyone else?"

"I don't know" George hesitated, recovered quickly. "The next day the whiskey was still there."

She knew what he had started to say. Lilly hadn't had much time to tell anyone else.

"You remember the day we hid the whiskey?" George asked abruptly "Did you smell anything funny then?"

"No. Why?"

"The cave smells now. Maybe it's because of the blood."

Oh there was some sheep wool there too And blood splattered on the whiskey cases."

"Sheep blood? Or Lilly Warren's?"

George Bascombe pushed fingers under the brim of his borrowed hat, tilted it back on his head. "How could she have killed herself there and been found in the car?"

"There was whiskey in the cave," Bea reminded him.

"And I suppose you mean I could have found her and moved her to save my cache. Don't forget the alibis."

"What alibis? I want to see the cave, George."

"Go ahead I cleaned up though. I'm a tidy housekeeper. You won't find anything."

"Then why tell me about it?"

"I thought you'd know how many sheep there are."

"I'll find out," Bea promised. She counted silently. "There're 17 now."

"Can't we hurry these sheep a little?"

"Why not tell them Fred Sillwell is waiting?" Bea asked drily. "That ought to scare them into running."

FRED SILLWELL waited for them at the door of the small building which served as quarters for the two men.

"So you finally got here!" He glared at Bea. "You come on in," he snapped. "Beat it, George."

Bascombe grinned meaningly at Bea Cosgrove as she went inside.

The single room, in spite of Nona McGuire's efforts, was dirty. The two unmade cots showed tousled covers stained with streaks of grease and dust. Everywhere was a litter of salvage from the Gullwing for the most part cameras and photographic equipment to be overhauled

Fred Sillwell dug around under one of the cots and produced a half-filled bottle "Sit down," he suggested. "I'm glad you're not a drinker. The stuff's too scarce these days."

Bea sat down on one cot. Sillwell looked at her a moment, smiled, sat down beside her. "You're too good looking to be on this dinky island."

Miss Cosgrove shrugged off his arm with a mechanical gesture. "You don't have to go into that routine."

"All right," Fred said. "But you never can tell until you try. Some women do."

"I'm sure you're very hot stuff," Bea said She got up.

"Hold it," Sillwell ordered. "We'll leave out that angle. There's something you can do for me though."

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

A few nights ago I met a lovely woman.

She was about fifty. She was still beautiful. She was witty. She was lively. She was cultured. She was everything that a man would want his wife to be.

BRANDEIS

But there was something wistful about her and something just a bit cynical.

At the end of evening I asked our hostess, "Did you introduce her as 'Miss'?"

Yes, she was a 'Miss', the hostess told us. In spite of the fact that a hundred men would have been happy to marry her and that she had had many proposals, she turned them all down and remained single.

"Why?" I asked the hostess.

So she told me the story.

More than thirty years ago, when she was a beautiful young girl in college, she fell desperately in love with a scamp who was only after her money of which she had plenty—and after her physical beauty.

He never got any of her money, that would have meant marriage.

But he got everything else an unsophisticated girl had to give—and the affair had the usual ending.

So she turned against all men.

And now, after more than thirty years, she still remembered, and she still hated men.

We read so much about memory courses and about the value of a good memory.

Sometimes I wonder whether it would not be a good idea to have courses in forgetting.

A good memory may be a great asset.

It comes in particularly handy if you want to go on the stage as one of those "mental marvels" that can remember whole rows of figures and the population of every village and town in the United States.

Thus an unusual memory may help you to make a darn nice living.

PERSONALLY I have a miserable memory.

I can't even remember what I had for dinner last night.

However, I have found that with a good shelf full of reference books I don't need a good memory. Reference books have a much better memory than the average human being could ever have.

The trouble is that most of us remember the wrong things.

We remember hatreds and grudges. We remember griefs and disappointments.

Memories may be wonderful, but they may also be a cancer.

We all know men and women who eat their hearts out in remembering things that are done with and can't ever be remedied.

Just because one man has done you wrong does not mean that all men are bad. Exceptions will always be exceptions.

The death of a dear one; a disappointment in love; to be cheat-

LEFTISTS ARE BLAMED

UAW Chief On Spot

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Youngish Walter Reuther is now experiencing the squirming anguish of a politician whose hard-boiled, "gimme" constituents will not let him fulfill his ambition to become a statesman. The head of the powerful Automobile Workers Union of the CIO explained his intra-union difficulties to labor friends during a recent visit to the Capitol.

Mr. Reuther's secret ambition is to emulate John L. Lewis, and to win for his 500,000 members the social gains which the president of the United Mine Workers has rolled up for hard and soft coal miners. He was especially eager to negotiate the same sort of old-age pension and accident retirement program which Mr. Lewis regards as his greatest victory.

TUCKER

CIO President Philip Murray was entirely sympathetic to Mr. Reuther's plan. There have been hints that the head of the automobile union might pull out of the CIO, and make an alliance with Mr. Murray's enemy. And unless the mass CIO organizations can match John L's achievements in the pension and welfare field, Phil's throne might totter at the October convention.

NEGOTIATIONS: Mr. Reuther planned to make his first big pension-and-welfare demand on Henry Ford when their contract expired on July 15. He was almost assured of success in these negotiations, until some of his hot-headed followers pulled the present strike.

In 1947 the Ford company agreed to pay eight cents an hour for a pension scheme. Mr. Reuther was willing to accept the offer, but his union turned it down, preferring immediate cash in the form of increased pay. So, the AWU head expected to begin negotiations with that advantage.

Moreover, he figured that Ford could not afford a strike in midsummer, when young Henry would be in the midst of his battle with General Motors to regain supremacy over Chevrolet in the low-price field. Indeed, it was a step up in the production line which precipitated the present walkout, and the acceleration resulted directly from this clash for supremacy.

RESENTFUL: Once Mr. Reuther had succeeded in installing the penion-and-welfare system in the Ford plant, he anticipated no difficulty in persuading General Motors and Chrysler to fall in line later in the summer. Like Ford, they could not see their assembly lines idle in the first really boom year of the postwar era for automobiles.

But several minor union leaders, including individuals regarded as extreme left-wingers, resented the speedup on the assembly line. They did not want Mr. Reuther, a rightist, to win a pension-and-welfare triumph for fear it would strengthen him with the rank and file.

So, they forced the present strike over his protest. But once it was called, he had to join the parade or face defeat for reelection.

HOPES: Now it is doubtful if he can achieve his real aims in present or future negotiations, although he still has hopes. The company officials will not feel kindly toward those demands. The workers may be in no mood for another payless period a few months from now, and may not vote to strike on the pension issue.

This background explains why President Murray has undertaken a purge of CIO Communists after many years of tolerating them. He realizes belatedly that the Reds aim to disrupt rather than to strengthen the union labor movement in the United States.

"TENEGRITY": Treasury Secretary John W. Snyder is telling audiences all across the country that he doesn't stay awake nights in worrying over the tremendous public debt of $252-billion. His nonchalance over the heaviest mortgage ever placed on any nation staggers his listeners.

The exuberant Missourian frequently amuses business, financial and industrial groups by boasting that "you and you and you (pointing to nearby tables) will pay off this debt." In view of the fact that most of his audiences have been fairly middle-aged, they thought that Mr. Snyder was slightly optimistic. They think he should have referred to their great-grandchildren as eventual liquidators of the present indebtedness.

In a recent address at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York, the nation's chief financial officer blossomed out as a literary pioneer. In testifying to the "tenacity and integrity" of a corporation head who pulled his company through the depression with the aid of the RFC, Mr. Snyder combined those two words, and described those qualities as "tenegrity."

DREAD: Senator J. Howard McGrath had to embrace Franklin D. Roosevelt jr. after his rout of Tammany Hall in the special Congressional election in New York City, and welcome the young man into the party. That is the way of politics and the manner of politicians.

Nevertheless, White House friends and organization politicos dread the coming of the late President's son to the House. Although Junior has behaved modestly, they fear that his presence will add to the Administration's troubles on Capitol Hill.

There are now three fairly well-defined factions in House and Senate—Truman Democrats, "Dixiecrats" and "liberals" associated with the Rooseveltian Americans for Democratic Action. The last group has had no real spokesmen at this session, although Senator Humphrey of Minnesota has tried to handle the assignment.

NEWCOMER: But in the newcomer the so-called "liberals," who are not entirely satisfied with President Truman's performance (as against his verbal pledges), will have an appealing personality with a glorious name. They will undoubtedly try to make him their mouthpiece, their gadfly and their man on horseback. They will use him to prod and needle the White House and the relatively conservative, Democratic leadership on Capitol Hill—that is, if he will let them.

As members of both major parties know from experience, the Roosevelts have always been political trouble-makers!

When Willie, giant kangaroo in the Wellington, New Zealand, zoo, refused to hop, even after urging, investigation showed a rheumatic condition of the back muscles similar to fibrositis and it took a course of massage with liniment to get him hopping again.

Because some crew members who "jumped" ship to become residents of New Zealand have proved undesirable citizens, the penalty for deserting there has been increased sixfold, to a maximum jail term of six months.

After A. D. B. Atherton, a traveler bound for Persia from London airport, had missed his plane by going into the bar for a drink, he saw the plane returning four minutes later to adjust radio trouble and got aboard.

Public Should Hear AEC's Story

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—It is fortunate that the way finally seems open to tell the American people something about their possession, atomic energy, for it can at one and the same time be the source of untold potential evil or blessing and have unpredictable effects upon our democratic way of life.

David E. Lilienthal, chairman of the Atomic Energy commission, has asked that the whole record of the AEC's stewardship and the manifold activities that it directs be explored, with the public to be told as much as is compatible with necessary secrecy in public hearings before the Joint Atomic Energy committee of Congress.

STOKES

It is hoped this can now be done. Senator McMahon (D-Conn), joint committee chairman, long has urged the need of more enlightenment for the public. Chairman Lilienthal, likewise has sought to find ways by which this could be done.

Lilienthal Takes Offensive

Dramatically, the AEC chairman took the offensive in the campaign against him, in which political and military influences are now clearly discernible, by telling the committee that the charges against his administration of AEC are "so grave" that the facts should be laid before the public.

He submitted to the Joint Atomic committee a long list of witnesses, including some of the most prominent industrialists, scientists, engineers and public figures in the country who have been connected with the atomic energy program, whom he suggested be called to testify about various phases of the giant enterprise, which is custodian of a momentous force of nature and employs 60,000 people and operates three cities.

Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), who charged Mr. Lilienthal with "incredible mismanagement" and demanded his resignation, now narrows his case to "the administrative policies which the commission under Mr. Lilienthal's guidance and influence has followed and continue to follow," which he said he believed "to be harmful and not in the best interests of the continuing development of the basic program outlined by Congress." He re-emphasized that he has not impugned the AEC chairman's personal honesty or personal patriotism and said that "from the standpoint of actual production, the atomic energy program has gone forward due to the zeal and loyalty of the scientific and technical personnel in charge of the various projects."

It was obvious to those present at the opening public session of the Joint Atomic Energy committee, at which Mr. Lilienthal appeared, that the Iowa Republican sought to soften the sensational impression his original broadside created. The senator did not come forward, as had been expected, with any specific complaints.

The burden of proof, however, clearly rests upon him, and the Senate committee should not rest until it gives the public all the information it can. This should include, among other things, the influences that are operating behind the scenes against Mr. Lilienthal in this case.

Change Proposed

It is significant, for example, that Senator Cain (R-Wash) has introduced a bill to abolish the AEC and turn the whole atomic energy project over to military control. Military influences were most active for military control during the fight over legislation which eventually established civilian control in the first instance.

Atomic energy, with all it involves, would seem too important to the public to become a plaything of party politics.

Chairman Lilienthal has thought it most important for the public to know as much as possible about the nature and potentials of the atomic project because of decisions in which the public should have a part, as for example, in the extent to which experimentation, which is so costly, should go into various fields of potential use.

He also stated very clearly the issues involved for our democratic procedures in the necessary secrecy about many phases of atomic energy. The biggest question of all, he said, is how the American people can know about this project without jeopardizing security, and this he wants the Senate committee to explore carefully.

"We believe," he said, "that the world can be shown that American self-government can function despite the need of secrecy."

With a large gold reserve, Switzerland will shortly min' a gold coin valued at $12, and will then become the only country in the world to have gold currency.

Michigan Man Kills Three, Shoots Self

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 30 (AP)—An automobile salesman, threatened with divorce, shot to death his heiress wife and a couple who tried to protect her early today. Then he killed himself with the shotgun.

The berserk husband was Richard R. Peppler, 47.

His victims, besides himself, were his wife, Frances, an attractive, tall, 30-year-old brunet; Richard Sieswerda, 32, who has preparing for a law career, and his wife, Stella, 30.

Police said Peppler, estranged from his wife for a month, broke into their fashionable home in East Grand Rapids at 2:45 a. m., smashing a rear door to gain entrance.

Wife Shot In Back

Mrs. Sieswerda was attending Mrs. Peppler as a social worker from a local hospital. Police said Sieswerda apparently was staying at the Peppler home to protect the two women. Peppler was under court order not to molest his wife. They said Mrs. Peppler had asked police protection.

Sieswerda, wielding a .22 caliber pistol, apparently grappled with Peppler after Mrs. Sieswerda was shot as she lay in bed. His gun, still loaded and cocked, was found at the top of a stairway.

After killing Sieswerda, officers said, Peppler followed his fleeing wife outdoors and shot her in the back. Her body, clad in nightclothes, was found in the driveway. The body of Peppler, shot in the chest, was nearby.

Mrs. Peppler, twice-married, shared with a brother the $500,000 estate left a decade ago by their father, James Duffy, a hardware magnate. The brother, James, jr., was killed in World War II.

The Pepplers' 18-month-old daughter slept through the shootings and was not harmed.

Mrs. Peppler had two children by a previous marriage to attorney Robert Johnson. They are in his custody.

Coroner Paul Bloxsom ruled the four deaths murder and suicide.

Final Rites To Be Held For Mrs. H. M. Davis Here Today

Funeral services for Mrs. H. M. Davis, 54, who died at 6 p. m. Sunday in her home at 505 Ave. C, will be held at 3:30 p. m. today in Congregational Methodist church.

Burial will be in Lubbock Memorial park, under direction of Rix Funeral home.

Mrs. Davis, a resident of Lubbock since 1936, had been in ill health some time prior to her death.

Survivors include the husband; three sons, J. F. Moncreif, David Rush and Lester Paul, all of Lubbock; and three grandchildren.

The Senate passed and sent to the governor a bill to revise the state's election regulations.

Under the bill, election officials must report returns within 24 hours after the polls close and turn in their ballots and ballot boxes as soon as the ballots are counted. At present they are allowed 72 hours to count votes and 10 days to turn in ballots.

Election Date Moved

Every county would be required to hold a runoff primary. Regardless of whether any local elections were involved.

Date for electors to ballot presidential and vice presidential candidates would be moved from January to December.

Also passed and sent to the governor were bills granting remission of general fund property taxes estimated at $20,000 to Cass county and $100,000 to Dallas county Flood Control district.

Passed and returned to the House with amendments were bills requiring designation of one district court in each district to handle juvenile matters, permitting political subdivisions to invest sinking funds in building and loan associations, permitting the cutting and selling of trees in Huntsville State park to finance repairs to a dam there, and setting up a compact commission for the Canadian, Sabine and Red rivers.
