Nineteen Year Old Charged With Ponder Murder

The shooting death of 60 year old Cameron R. Ponder of Lone Star community has resulted in charges of first degree murder being filed on nineteen year old Patrick Harland Pearson of Detroit. John Conway Mason, age 27, also of Detroit, has been charged with theft from a corpse, a third degree felony, in connection with the same murder.

Ponder who often cut wood for sale from his property on FM 410 south of Detroit, was found dead by his daughter, Elisabeth Lyon, and son-in-law Jan Lyon when he failed to return home from the woods the evening of Tuesday January 5.

Ponder had been shot five times with a .22 caliber rifle, which has been identified, according to Red River County Sheriff's office.

He was pronounced dead at the scene by Justice of the Peace J.P. Holley. An autopsy was performed later.

The initial investigation indicated that Mason was to be charged with the murder, but further investigation has resulted in the charges of murder being filed on Pearson and the theft charges on Mason. Both men have confessed, according to the Red River County Sheriff's office.

Pearson, a white male, was a ward of the state of Oklahoma since the age of three, and has been in the area for only a short time.

The Red River County Sheriff's office stated that regular investigative procedures plus the cooperation of area residents had resulted in the arrest being made on Friday January 8.

Robbery was the apparent motive for the killing. The victim's billfold has not been located at present. The chainsaw and wood cutting equipment were left at the scene.

Services for Cameron R. Ponder were held Thursday at 2:30 p.m. in Clarksville Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Curtiss Hoover officiating.

Burial was in Lone Star Cemetery.

Ponder was born in Hopkins County on Dec. 1, 1921, a son of Leslie and Jewel Stinson Ponder. He married Betty Hart on June 4, 1952 in Dallas.

Rebs, Rebelettes Sweep Basketball Contests

By Britt Morgan
Total destruction is close...but annihilation is closer to what the Rivercrest Rebels and Rebelettes did to the James Bowie Pirates at Simms last Friday night.

The squads left no stone unturned enroute to the commanding victories they posted in District 20AA play.

Frank Stubblefield's young Rebelettes team started off the pounding with a 69-47 victory over the Bowie girls.

The Rebelettes jumped out to 24-7 lead in the first quarter with a different defense-a full-court man to man or rather person to person press.

The Rebelettes increased their lead to 19 points at the half, before adding five more points to the spread by the end of the game.

Senior Veronica Howerton led scoring with 25 points, and Jean Ann Norman added 17 more.

Coach Stubblefield was very impressed with the performance of his Rebelettes. "They really hustled" Stubblefield said "they fouled a lot, but that goes with the hustle. I am very enthusiastic about the girl's performance."

The win boosted the Rebelettes record to 14-2 on the year and 2-0 in District play.

In the nightcap the Rebels opened their district season by blasting James Bowie 95-32.

The Rebel's excellent execution of a full court press put them up 23-2 with just minutes gone from the first quarter, and left the Bowie cagers wondering what was happening for the rest of the night.

The Rebs had a total team effort and five players scored in double figures.

The Rebs only senior, David Wisinger led the scoring with 22 points. Bradley Moore followed with 17 points, John Hines with 15, and David Rozell and Stan Wood each added 10 to the cause.

Each of the starters played only half the game.

The victory pushed the Rebel season record to 13-5 and started out district play with a good standing.

Last Tuesday evening the Rivercrest Rebels played host to Saltillo and sent them home with a pair of losses to add to their records.

The Rebelettes followed the lead of six foot five center Veronica Howerton's 42 points to post a 60 to 44 victory.

The next leading scorer was senior Jean Ann Norman with 8 points.

The Rebels job was a little harder as they overcame a 30 to 24 deficit at half time to take a 55-52 victory.

The Rebs rallied during the third quarter to even the score at 36-36 going into the fourth period.

John Hines put the icing on the cake with five seconds left in the game by making two free throws and putting the game out of reach for Saltillo.

Hines had his best game of the season so far with 19 points and high score honors.

Stan Wood and David Rozell each put in 10 points for the Rebs.

The Rivercrest teams were to put their perfect district records on the line Tuesday Jan. 12, against Maud, but the games were cancelled because of the bad weather. The games with

Monies Allocated For Alcohol Programs

In an effort to deal with the problems associated with the misuse of alcohol amongst youth, the Texas Commission on Alcoholism is prepared to spend an initial $192,000 of State money to fund primary prevention programs for schools and colleges. An additional $300,000 will be allocated over the next year for programs geared toward children of alcoholics. Those projects funded by the Commission will begin operation in June under awards not to exceed $50,000.

In its notice, issued on December 31, 1981, the Commission revealed the severity of alcohol abuse among young people in Texas. Alcohol use among adolescents is linked to problem behaviors, such as poor academic performance in school, delinquent behavior in the classroom, and withdrawal from normal youth activities. Approximately 42 percent of those arrested in Texas for liquor law violations were juveniles. Alcohol and driving among youth contributed to death in over 50 percent of traffic fatality cases among young people. An estimated 1,000,000 Texas children and adolescents are adversely affected by the drinking problems of their parents.

Anyone wishing to submit a proposal before the February 26, 1982 deadline is encouraged to contact the Ark-Tex Council of Governments, John Davidson at 501-774-3481.

Voters To Decide On Bingo

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Thursday that voters in at least 12 Texas counties and five cities will decide January 16 whether non-profit groups can legally operate bingo games in their communities.

"This is going to end the confusion about bingo in Texas. From now on, bingo is going to be approved by the voters and licensed by the state or it's going to be illegal," Bullock said.

Cities, counties and justice precincts that approve bingo can also levy a two percent gross receipts tax on the games. The Comptroller's office will handle licensing of the games, collect the tax and return it to the communities where the games are held.

Where voters approve bingo, non-profit groups must get licenses from the Comptroller's Bingo Regulation Division and can't legally operate games until 10 days after the local option election, according to Division Director George Garland.

"We are urging non-profit groups in these counties and cities to apply in advance for their licenses by contacting us right away," Garland said.

Organizations should contact the division by writing to 111 E. 17th Austin, TX 78774 or calling 1-800-252-5555.

According to the new bingo law, cities, counties and justice precincts that don't vote to approve bingo in January must wait until the next constitutional election date of April 3.

To call a bingo election, a local governing body must receive a petition with the signatures of 10 percent of the number of voters who cast ballots in the last governor's election.

The Comptroller's first enforcement priority following the January voting will be to protect those groups who have obtained licenses.

"Especially where the local government has levied the two percent tax," Garland said, "we will be checking to make sure every bingo game is licensed. Those that don't have licenses will be urged to get them. If they don't become licensed and keep playing bingo, we will file complaints with local authorities and the Attorney General."

Counties due to vote first on the bingo question include Guadalupe, Comal, Kerr, Maverick, Klebert, Victoria, Fayette, Milam, Wharton,

Grass Fires Keep Firemen Busy

Dry, cold, windy wind kept the Talco volunteer Fire Dept. busier than usual this past week. On Friday the department was called to a wood fire at the Pete McGee place where fire burned off half an acre before being put out. At four p.m. Sunday they answered a call at the Hargroves place where an acre of grass land burned after an electric panel box shorted out. At 9 p.m. the department rolled on a call to the Dawson lease where three acres burned off after a power line shorted out. Monday a call was made to the Fishback place east of Talco. Then at 6 p.m. they answered a call to two separate fires in the Edwards bottom where one acre was burned over.

People are asked to use caution while burning trash during the dry season.

Reasons To Plant Trees

Tree planting time is at hand, and there are plenty of reasons for carefully selecting and planting your favorite tree.

For one, trees fight pollution. Trees take carbon dioxide out of the air and give off oxygen to breathe.
They also help rid the air of dangerous metallic particles and other pollutants.

Trees are valuable shields.
Plant trees that are tolerant of air pollution as screens to protect areas from manufacturing districts or in greenbelts along highways.
On highway medians, they make driving safer at night by cutting down on the glare of on-coming headlights.

Trees increase property values. A well-landscaped lot can increase the value of a bare lot with a house up to 47 percent. A tree costing $50 can be worth $500 in less than five years with loving care.

Trees air condition. They cool in the summer and heat in the winter. Strategically placed evergreen trees around the home will materially cut the cost for cooling and heating depending on the time of year.

Trees provide food for people, birds and animals.

Trees create beauty for you, your family and friends.
They give pleasure to every living thing now and for generations to come.

Why not do yourself and your community a favor by planting a native or adapted tree on Texas Arbor Day,
January 15, 1982.

Several Courses Set At PJC

Several courses will be offered at Paris Junior College in the near future. A course for stress and anxiety reduction through the use of biofeedback instrument training will be scheduled on an individual basis, but the initial class meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday, January 20 in the Mike Rheudasil Learning Center. Tuition fee will be $15 for the non-credit continuing education course, or students may add the course to their schedule for credit. Reservations should be made by paying the fee in advance in the continuing education office, Alford Center, or seeing Lynn Rhodes to register for the credit course. Beginning Thursday, January 21, another course in cabinet making will be offered. Joe Angler, instructor of construction technology, will teach the course from 6 to 9 p.m. for twelve consecutive Thursdays in the Applied Sciences Annex I at the college. The course is designed to teach participants how to build furniture and cabinets using small power tools, which are relatively inexpensive and easy to operate at home. Fee for the course is $75, which should be paid in advance to the continuing education office. Tools needed for the course will be discussed during the first class meeting. The course will be limited to 10 students, and class members will complete projects in the course. A course in the techniques of cardio-pulmonary resuscitation will be offered for employees of area industries on Monday, January 25. The course will be taught from 6 to 10 p.m. in the Alford Center and sponsors will be the college continuing education division and the American Heart Association. Upon successful completion of the course, Heartsaver cards from the Heart Association will be presented to participants.

Fee for the four-hour course is $5, and reservations should be made by paying the fee in the continuing education office, Alford Center. Conditioning for Women will be offered beginning Tuesday, January 19. Clare Vaughan will teach the class from 7 to 8 p.m. in the PJC Gymnasium. Classes will be held on Tuesday nights for six weeks and the tuition fee will be $10. Reservations should be made by paying the fee in advance in the PJC continuing education office, Alford Center. Included will be exercises for toning, firming, stretching and body continuing. The exercises will assist women in losing inches and getting in shape. Ms. Vaughan, who holds a B.S. degree in physical education from East Texas State University, taught physical education in the Clarksville school systems and is teaching dance and gymnastics for PJC this year.

More information about these and other courses may be obtained by calling the college, 785-7661, extension 145.

THE GAS PUMP

CONSTANT SPEED

Whether driving on the highway or in the city, keep your speed constant. Less gas is used by going at a steady speed than by intermittently slowing and accelerating. Varying speed on the highway by as little as 5 mph can reduce economy by 1.3 mpg.

SENIOR CITIZEN'S CORNER

HELPFUL IDEAS FOR SUCCESSFUL RETIREMENT

GROWING OLD

On his 100th birthday, a wise old gentleman was complimented on the fact that he had grown old very gracefully and with great dignity. "How did you accomplish this feat?" he was asked. Without hesitation the centenarian replied, "One day at a time."

The gentleman was being sincere, rather than flippant. He had recognized that yesterday is prologue; tomorrow is yet to come and today is the most important day of all. If we live today to the best of our ability, it will be a happy day and we are certain to profit through some manner of achievement. When one learns to live each day for all that it is worth, it is easier to shed the grief, the sorrows and the disappointments that were so much a part of yesterday. We cannot properly use this day if we surround ourselves with idle and unpleasant thoughts. And, sometimes we can set them aside only by the act of doing whatever it is that needs to be done, that can be done, today.

The key word is "activity." People who age gracefully do not do so in a wheelchair. They don't sit around waiting for something to happen; they make it happen. What one chooses to do may be as simple as bowling, golfing, or just taking a walk. Or as complicated as keeping up with the stock market. Whatever it requires initiative, requires some action. And that is what makes it worthwhile.
