Culture Group Sets Art Show

Culture in the form of art will be offered to Colorado City March 18. Sponsored by the cultural committee of the Chamber of Commerce, an art show will be on display March 18 in the

C. C. Thompson Room of City National Bank from 1-5 p.m.

The public is invited to attend the art show which will be open without charge.

Members of the Colorado City Brush and Palette Club will have works on display.

Highlighting the art show will be a demonstration by Carolyn K. Walker, well-known Colorado City artist. Mrs. Walker will be doing an oil painting of an Indian pottery.

Mrs. Walker, born and raised in West Texas, has had an art studio in Colorado City since 1964. Presently her studio is located at 250 Walnut.

She received a Bachelor degree from McMurry College where she majored in physical education and minored in art and history.

"My art education really came from workshops I attended and professional people I worked with," said Mrs. Walker. She has studied with Frederick Taubes, Jan Herring, Ken Gore, Bud Biggs and several

County Races See Opposition

The filing date for area elections to be held on April 7 has passed and it appears that the most competitive race will be that of the City Council of Colorado City.

Eight people have filed for the four expiring terms. Incumbent Rick Perkin filed last week and joined the other incumbent, J. O. Dockrey, who filed in February.

These two will be joined in the race by Ray Dillard, owner of Colorado Machine & Tool; Macca Findley, a foreman for Mabee Petroleum Corporation; Nancy Hamner, a housewife; Elmer Martin, a farmer; Sam Parham, a building contractor and A. R. Straub, a trucker.

In the Colorado City School Board race, the two incumbents—Gene Blassingame and Eddie Mitchell—who had filed earlier, will have one challenger, Dr. Billy Bridgford, a local dentist.

The Loraine School Board race will have one challenger, Edward Beatty, in the race in addition to the two incumbents—Eugene Smith and George Martin.

Five people have entered the Loraine City Council race. There are four terms expiring and besides the three incumbents—Mayor Vance Dickenson, Everett Henderson and Mike Stutts—challengers Rev. Fred Witta and Jasper Doyle have also filed. The fourth incumbent, C. H. Hamilton, chose not to run again.

Rev. Witta noted that he decided to run for a place on the council because "I want to do whatever I am able to do for the town. I feel that I can best do this by becoming involved in the local government as a councilman."

Rev. Witta added, "My wife Adeline and I will appreciate your vote and support and in return I will use what talents I have for the betterment of Loraine in the days to come."

There will be three people running for the two places in the Westbrook School Board race, Jerry Webb, James Dorn and Wayne Pierce. Webb and Dorn are incumbents.

The Mitchell County Hospital Board race is uncontested with only the four incumbents—Bobby Lemons, Herbert Mearse, Willie Landau and Preston Morris having filed.

MARCI MARINO (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Marino, became the 1979 Mitchell County spelling bee champion Thursday. The seventh grade Colorado Middle School student won the competition by spelling the word "oceanic" and then spelling "insurance." She will compete March 31 in Lubbock in another spelling bee. Second place in the contest went to Melanie Rees, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rees. She is a fifth grade student at Hutchinson Elementary. Some 43 contestants competed in the spelling bee.

This 'N That

I recently received two letters from someone identifying herself as "Aunt Fannie." She mentioned how everybody had been talking about how bad this winter had been. She also told about the winter of 1949, of how it snowed Christmas Eve and didn't thaw out until mid January. We thought we had it bad!

It seems that spring is beginning early again this year. The temperature Thursday at 3:30 p.m. was 84. Hope this pretty weather doesn't cause us to lose our fruit again this year.

"Aunt Fannie" also mentioned that 1949 was the year that the Hutchinson School burned. Some of the people of Colorado City probably don't know that it was once two stories. The fire department did a good job saving any of the buildings. Ask Leonard Henderson or Wilfred Oyler about it.

She spoke about the Senior Follies, the annual talent show at Colorado High School, and compared it to Howl Night. She told how cheerleaders, Doris Reid, Era Jane Anderson, Barbara Smith, Wanda Vowell, Jo Anne Seward, Retha Porter and Ethlyn Smith did the Charleston, decked out in their gay 90's dress. Quoting "Aunt Fannie," "Not so distant from 1949 then, as our 1979 cheerleaders doing their 50's thing at this Howl night. History does repeat itself."

"Aunt Fannie" sends bouquets to our young band members who attended the UIL meet in Abilene recently. Eighteen of the high school students earned the right to continue on to regional band and around 17 Middle School solo and ensemble contestants received first place medals.

"Aunt Fannie" sends a hearty thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Kent Holder and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Newman as she salutes a fine bunch of kids who have done a lot in the music field. Quoting "Aunt Fannie," "We know Colorado City is lacking in recreational facilities and admit organized activities are not available as in larger cities. But in this area as in others the true test is 'what you do with what you got'."

I want to thank "Aunt Fannie" for writing and hope to hear from her again soon.

A lot of new renovations are going on downtown. People are expanding and redecorating.

There is one thing I wish the city and some businesses would do though. We need ramps on the curbs downtown for the people in wheel chairs or for the ones who have trouble stepping up to the curb. We have very nice sidewalks and curbs but not all of them are accessible to the handicapped.

Williams Tells Of Last Moments With Ex-Wife

By GARRY PEEBLES

At about 4:20 p.m. Friday, Judge Weldon Kirk called for a recess in the courtroom until 9 a.m. Monday and with that action, the trial of Aubrey Williams completed its second week.

Williams, who had been on the witness stand for two full days at the time the recess was called, is on trial for the stabbing death last summer of his ex-wife, Girlie Ann.

District Attorney Frank Ginzel rested the state's case Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning, Williams' present wife, Sally, whom he married on April 22, 1978, took the stand. She spent a full day on the stand under the examination of Defense Attorney Travis Shelton and cross-examination of Ginzel.

Before Mrs. Williams took the stand Wednesday morning, however, Shelton made one of several such motions he has made to try to bring the trial to an immediate halt. He asked Kirk for an instructed verdict of not guilty because of alleged errors in the conduct of the trial and in the introduction of testimony.

Kirk denied this motion. Shelton then asked that the jury not consider the testimony of Charles Petty, chief medical examiner of Dallas County, who had performed an autopsy on Girlie Ann Williams. Shelton said that the proper predicate hadn't been laid for his testimony.

Kirk again denied Shelton's motion.

Sally Williams then took the stand and under the questioning of Shelton, told her side of the story from the time she had first met Williams in the Sundown Club in Snyder in June, 1977. She stated that at the time she assumed that he was single.

She told in detail of her first meeting with Girlie Ann in August, 1977.

Mrs. Williams stated that she and Williams were sitting in the office of the fuel injection plant near Snyder where he works and were just talking. Girlie Ann came in with a gun in her hand which she pointed at Williams. He took it away from her but in doing so, two shots were fired, neither of which hit anyone.

Mrs. Williams went on to relate that immediately after this incident after Williams had left briefly, she had had a talk with Girlie Ann and had asked her if she was really married to Williams. Girlie had stated, "I've been married to him for five years," and further added, "You can't be comfortable around his family."

Sally Williams told of several times in which Girlie Ann had come to her house in Snyder. One such instance was discussed in considerable detail.

At about 3:30 one morning in the fall of 1977 Sally Williams said that Girlie Ann drove up and began banging on the front door with some kind of tool and at the same time asking for Williams to let her in the house.

After causing some damage to the door and getting no response she let the air out of the tires of Williams' pickup which was parked in front of the house.

According to Sally Williams, she then left but apparently returned some time later that same morning because it was later found that a number of tools and buckets in the back of Williams' pickup had been thrown into the yard and the ignition wires of the vehicle had been pulled out.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Garcia, who live across the street from Sally Williams, also testified that they had seen Girlie Ann in the yard morning.

Mrs. Williams also said that there were numerous times when Girlie Ann had called her in the early part of 1978. One time she said that Girlie Ann had said, "I'm going to get you one way or another, you'd better be watching over your shoulder."

Sally Williams testimony then shifted to the afternoon and night of July 10, 1978. She stated that she got off work at about 5:30 p.m. and came straight home.

Shelton asked her if she had had any contact with Girlie Ann that afternoon and she replied that she had no direct contact but that about 11 p.m. she was sitting on her porch outside her house when a car passed by which she

Bridgford Announces Candidacy

Dr. Billy B. Bridgford has announced his candidacy for the Colorado Independent School District board of trustees election.

A native of Colorado City, Dr. Bridgford, 41, was a 1955 graduate of Colorado High. He received a Bachelor of Science degree from Oklahoma State University. In 1962, he received a Doctor of Dentistry Science degree from Baylor Dental College.

After serving two years in the U.S. Air Force, Dr. Bridgford began to practice dentistry in Colorado City.

Dr. Bridgford and his wife, Judy, have three daughters—Brittany, 7, Bridgett, 5, and Bethany, 2.

Dr. Bridgford is a member of national and state dental associations and has served as president of the West Texas Dental Association. Three years ago he received an honorary degree from the Fellowship American College of Dentistry.

Active in local organizations, Dr. Bridgford has served as president of the Noon Lions and the Colorado City Jaycees. His dental practice is a member of the Chamber of Commerce.

Providing "the best education with the money available" is what Dr. Bridgford notes would be his aim if he is elected to the school board.

"The standard of education is deteriorating," said Dr. Bridgford. "Hopefully we can reverse that trend."

Although Dr. Bridgford said that the school board has done an excellent job with the school system, he noted that a "fresh approach" might be an asset.

"We've got to try to look at new ideas and to look to the future," Dr. Bridgford said. "With a lot of effort, we can have a bright effort."

Council To Study Budget...Again

Budget workshop session number four and the financial report for the month of February will be the primary items on the agenda at the regular monthly meeting of the City Council of Colorado City Monday night.

In the three previous budget workshops, the council has gone over almost every aspect of the city's general fund and water and sewer fund and after having faced the seemingly endless problem the shortage of money has proposed a number of rate increases for local citizens, one of which is a three per cent ad valorem tax increase.

Other increases tentatively settled upon include the city's water, sewer and sanitation rates which will raise a local user's minimum monthly bill from the present $10.50 to $14.

There have also been a number of other water and sewer rate increases. The cost of a sewer tap will increase from $2 to $75 plus cost and the

Martin Files For Council

Elmer Martin became the eighth candidate to file for the City Council of Colorado City Wednesday.

Martin is a native of Mitchell County and is a farmer and livestock raiser.

He has spent 12 years as Mitchell County Judge and following that spent six years in the Texas State Legislature as State Representative.

Martin stated that the reason he was running for the city council was because "with my experience in county and state government I feel I can be helpful to this city."

Martin further said that he believed in operating a city on a "pay as you go basis." He said that he would make no promises if he were elected, only that he would do his best.

Lodge To Have Meeting

Loraine Lodge 1307 will have a stated meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Loraine Lodge. The meeting will be for a visit of the 79th District Grand Master. All members and guests are welcome.

Proclamation

There are 45 million Americans 55 years of age or older. They have worked hard to get where they are today and to get us as a community and a nation where we are. During their years of work they have learned a great deal, have gained invaluable experience, and have come to appreciate a good job and to be proud of doing a good job.

Many of these people, though, are having difficulty finding work for no reason other than that there is a prejudice against older workers. The Federal Government is working to eliminate this unfounded discrimination against older workers.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Marion Bassham do hereby endorse the efforts of our Federal Government on behalf of the older workers and designate March 11-17, 1979 as OLDER WORKER WEEK here in Colorado City Community. I am urging all employers of this area to give special consideration to the skills and qualifications of those men and women 55 years of age and older.

I am also asking those public officials who are responsible for job placement counseling, training and retraining services to intensify, throughout the entire year, their efforts to help older workers find suitable jobs and training opportunities.

This is a community wide effort that should engage the active support of all our institutions.

DATE: March 6, 1979
SIGNED: Marion Bassham
Mayor of Colorado City, Texas

other well known artists.

Mrs. Walker began her teaching career at Colorado High School where she was a girls' coach. In 1966, she began working on developing an art department at Colorado High.

During the time she was teaching in public school, she also taught private art lessons, sometimes working with as many as 70 students each week.

Mrs. Walker's art students did not only come from Mitchell County. Students were enrolled from Snyder, Sweetwater, Roscoe and Big Spring.

Mrs. Walker no longer teaches private lessons in her Colorado City studio. Instead, she concentrates her efforts on presenting workshops and art shows.

She has taught workshops in various Texas cities—including Houston, Midland, Odessa, Andrews, San Angelo and Eastland—and in New Mexico and Nebraska.

During the summer, Mrs. Walker teaches in Cloudcroft, N.M.

"For some 30 or 35 years Cloudcroft has been an art colony in the summer," said Mrs. Walker.

For seven years, Mrs. Walker spent time during the summer studying in Cloudcroft. Now she assists Jan Herring by teaching drawing and painting classes.

Mrs. Walker's two sons, Scott, age 6, and Mark, 9, accompany her on her trips to Cloudcroft.

Her husband, Charles, is a court reporter.

"It's a family effort to get it all together," said Mrs. Walker about the classes she teaches in Cloudcroft. "We all have to pull together."

Skilled in oils, water color, acrylics, pen and ink, pastels, and charcoal and pencil. Mrs. Walker's paintings are collected by individuals and various businesses.

Her favorite medium is oils, which she notes is "very demanding." Oil painting demands great concentration and "pulls a great deal out of you," she said.

Thus, after Mrs. Walker has spent some time painting with oil, she will often switch to water color which is "light and loose," thereby offering balance to her work endeavors.

The type of median Mrs. Walker chooses depends on the subject.

Much of the work she does involves drawing and painting from a slide or a photograph.

The time involved in completing a painting depends on which median is used and the size and detail of the picture. One painting may take a couple of hours to complete while another may take weeks of work.

Mrs. Walker has won many awards for her paintings, including best-of-show awards.

Letter To The Editor

(Editor's Note: The following letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Free of Colorado City. They wanted to share it with the people of Colorado City.)

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Free: I am the aunt of Lynette and Duke Williams and their children whom you so kindly took into your home during the December ice storm that stranded so many people. About three weeks ago I received a copy of the letter that Lynette wrote to her mother (my sister) relating all their misadventures trying to make it back to San Antonio from Northern Utah!

I supervise the Graduate Admissions Office at Stanford University and due to weekend and overtime work have not had a chance until now to write you to express my thanks. We are a close family and those children are like my own. How thoughtful of you to know that the children needed a homey place to quiet their fears and to be reassured that all was going to be well. I think their parents needed the same assurance!

Lynette related in her letter how many people came to their assistance in their long series of mishaps with that van of theirs! It seems that whenever they were in need of help the good Lord provided it and all of the people who assisted them were so thoughtful and willing to do what they could.

She told of the Baptist Church minister and members who opened the facilities of the church to those who were stranded and provided them with hot food, bedding and everything that was needed. She was thrilled to be invited to your home with the little ones and to have the warmth of your hospitality and the physical warmth of your home and its conveniences in caring for their family.

As members of the family who are anxious for anyone who is away from us, we thank you and your fellow townsfolk for all that you did to help.

Lynette said in her letter quoting her husband, "Being stranded is a hassle but if I ever have to be stranded again I hope it is in Colorado City!" We all hope it won't happen to them again of course!

Most sincerely,
Lynette Hall

Kim Hartman

Hartman Wins First In Houston Livestock Show

Kim Hartman, a Loraine exhibitor, showed for the blue ribbon in the Lightweight Chester White Hog category in the 1979 Houston Livestock Show.

The winning hog weighed 208 pounds and belongs to nine-year-old Cody Hartman of Loraine.

Even though the hog belonged to Cody, it was shown by her older sister, Kim, because of a "deal" they had made. Kim Hartman explained that she and her sister had traded out showing at the different stock shows and the Houston Livestock Show was "her" show.

So the twelve year old exhibitor brought the hog, which had never been shown before, to the Houston show and walked away with the first place win for lightweights. It was the first time in the day long competition that a girl had placed first in the junior barrow show judging.

Miss Hartman is a sixth grader at Loraine where she is active in 4-H, sewing and food projects. She has shown pigs the last two years. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hartman of Loraine.

Other Loraine FFA students who exhibited hogs in the Houston show were: James Meadows, middleweight Hamp; Henry Mitchell, heavyweight Duroc; Greg Oliver, lightweight Duroc and Rodney Taylor, lightweight Cross.

Coldewey, Jordan Exchange Vows In Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Sharon Lynne Coldewey became the bride of James Dwight Jordan Saturday, February 24 at 2 p.m. in the chapel of the First United Methodist Church. Rev. William Hatter of Big Spring officiated during the double ring vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Edd Coldewey of Colorado City and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hugh Jordan of Colorado City.

The chapel was decorated with double seven branch candelabras entwined with greenery and pink and burgundy carnations. Double baskets of pink gladioli and pink and burgundy carnations completed the floral decorations.

Wedding music was presented by soloist James Coldewey of Portales, New Mexico, cousin of the bride. He sang "The Wedding Song" and "The Wedding Prayer," he was accompanied by Mrs. Addie V. Payne.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length heirloom styled gown, fashioned with ivory lace bodice and a portrait collar, accented with ivory satin ribbon. She wore ivory satin ribbon and baby's breath in her hair design, created by Mrs. Betty Fuller.

She carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis, centered with a cymbidium orchid. Her dress served as something new, while her something old was the handkerchief carried by the bride's mother at her wedding. Her something blue, was the blue garter worn by her sister in her wedding in addition to her own ivory satin and lace garter. She carried pennies with the birth years of the couple. For something borrowed she wore a diamond pendant belonging to her maid of honor.

Maid of honor was Miss Lisa Bolin of Abilene. She wore a gown of dusty rose, fashioned almost identical to that of the bride. She carried a nosegay of dusty rose and burgundy silk roses and wore a similar miniature arrangement in her hair.

The mother of the bride wore an ensemble of celadon green, complimented by a yellow cymbidium orchid. The groom's mother was attired in blue and wore a white cymbidium orchid.

Serving as best man was Mike Jordan of Stephenville, brother of the groom.

Ushering guests was Bill Jordan of Colorado City, brother of the groom. The groom wore an ivory tuxedo and his brothers were attired in ivory and brown tuxedos.

A reception honoring the couple was in the fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony.

The reception table was covered with a double flounced ivory chintilly lace cloth and was centered with a tiered arrangement of votive candles encircled with pink and burgundy carnations and baby's breath. This was completed with the silver punch service and the wedding cake.

Members of the house-party were Beverly Fuller and Anne Marcom of Colorado City, Leslie Moore of Lubbock and Shirlee Chupp of Abilene.

Guests at the wedding and reception were registered by Mrs. William Jones of Fairfield, sister of the bride. Registry table was an antique marble topped table, having belonged to the maternal grandmother of the bride, the late Mrs. Jesse L. Bradley.

For a honeymoon trip to San Angelo, the bride wore a coordinated ivory sweater with mauve slacks. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Colorado High and attended Stenograph Institute of Texas in Abilene. The groom is also a graduate of Colorado High and attended Ranger Junior College.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at their home.

knew to be Girlie Ann's 1961 Chevrolet.

Sally Williams went on to say that her husband was due to get off work at midnight and that he was usually home by 12:15 or 12:30 a.m. but that morning he didn't get home until around 2 a.m. She said that she was already in bed but that she saw him take something from the refrigerator and then leave.

She went on to relate that she wasn't sure exactly when he returned but she got up about dawn and he was sitting on the back porch. She said that she sat down beside him and they stayed there awhile without saying anything.

On his cross-examination of Mrs. Williams, Ginzler asked her several times if she had noticed anything different or strange about Williams' actions that morning and the rest of that day. She replied, "He just didn't have much to say."

Sally Williams finally stated that she had no knowledge that Girlie Ann was dead until the afternoon of Wednesday, July 12 when the officers had come looking for her husband.

At the opening of court at 9 a.m. Thursday Shelton made another motion to attempt to bring the trial to a close.

Church Of Christ Takes Tourney Title

The Church of Christ (Dallas) completed a perfect 10-0 season Friday night by defeating runner-up First Methodist "B" 57-32 and winning the Mitchell County Church Basketball League post season tournament.

Church of Christ (Dallas) also took first place in league play with a 8-0 record. Robert Bender and Cornell Ausble led the Church of Christ Friday night with 12 and 11 points respectively. Richard Arthur had 10 for the Methodists.

In other games Friday night, Westbrook Baptist took third place in the tournament by defeating Calvary 48-31 and First Baptist took the consolation title in the tournament with a 65-41 win over St. Ann's Catholic Church.

He referred to a statement by Ginzler the day before in which Ginzler had pointed the finger at Williams for up to that point failing to take the witness stand in his behalf.

Shelton said that Ginzler's statement was a violation of Williams' constitutional rights and that therefore Kirk should declare a mistrial.

Kirk denied this motion and at 9:30 a.m. Williams took the witness stand to testify in his defense.

Shelton began his examination of the defendant's life from the time he graduated from high school in 1959.

Upon graduation from high school, he married Mary Catherine Dupont in October, 1960. This marriage lasted until 1971 and he and his first wife had three children.

In 1967, Williams moved to Colorado City and leased the Dairy Frost Drive-In. He ran this business until December 1970.

From 1970 until 1973 he managed Dairy Queens in Colorado City, Alpine and Stanton.

Williams stated that he first met Girlie Ann in 1969 when she went to work for him at the Dairy Frost.

Upon his divorce from his first wife, Williams married Girlie Ann in 1972. They had one child, Misty Michelle. Williams stated that he went to work for his present company in 1974 and was first sent to Fort Stockton and from there to Midland.

He went on to say that he was transferred to the company's plant in Snyder in 1974 but that Girlie stayed in Colorado City where she had already been living because she didn't want to move.

The defendant said that his marital problems with Girlie Ann had begun sometime earlier but in November 1976 she told him that she definitely wasn't leaving Colorado City and that if he wanted to keep the family together he would have to move here. He did so.

In May, 1977, however, he moved out of his home in Colorado City and in July, 1977 he filed a petition for divorce.

Upon further examination by Shelton, Williams also related the August 1977 incident at the plant that involved he and Sally and Girlie Ann.

He said that Girlie stuck the gun in his stomach and that he had managed to point it away from him and that in doing so, it went off twice.

Most of Williams' testimony was in line with that given by earlier witnesses but in two specific instances there were some differences.

In a 1977 incident in Colorado City and also in an incident taking place on the night of May 6-7, 1978, Williams' stepdaughters had earlier testified that he had pointed a pistol at Girlie Ann.

Williams admitted being in the house on those two occasions, but he denied having a gun in his immediate possession either time.

After a lengthy examination, Shelton began quizzing Williams on the events of July 10-11, 1978.

The defendant stated that Girlie Ann had called him at work at about 5 p.m. that day but that he had been busy and hadn't had time to talk to her.

He went on to say that he had gotten off work at midnight and had gotten home about 1 a.m. He had taken two bottles of beer from the refrigerator and had left again.

After driving around for some time he had decided to come to Colorado City to see about his children.

Williams related that he had gotten to the Buford Gin and had noticed some blinking lights on a car behind him. The vehicle was Girlie Ann's Chevrolet. They both pulled their cars into the Buford Gin yard. Williams said that he couldn't say for sure how long.

The defendant said that he and his ex-wife talked and argued for some time and finally she threw a blanket on the ground and tried to pull him down.

He said that he walked to his car and was half in and half out of the vehicle and his ex-wife was punching and poking at him and the next thing he remembered was coming out of the car and pushing and shoving at her.

Williams said he then remembered kneeling over Girlie Ann who was now lying on the ground and shaking her, trying to get her to wake up. At this point in the testimony, Shelton asked Williams directly, "Did you kill Girlie Ann?"

In a very soft tone, the defendant answered, "I guess I stabbed her." Williams said that the next thing he remembered was running down the highway crying and the next he remembered after that was being at home.

We'll Be Happy To Explain Value and Economy For Your Tire Dollar

Every Michelin 'X' tire is backed by a 40,000 mile warranty for tread wear on domestic cars. That's just about twice the mileage you'd expect from a conventional tire under the same driving conditions. Also, because of its radial design the Michelin 'X' rolls with less road resistance than conventional tires, and that means you can save up to 10% on your present gas consumption (pretty good considering today's fuel crisis.) Plus, every Michelin 'X' tire gives you all the distinctive radial tire advantages over conventional bias-ply tires; smoother ride, easier handling, better traction and firmer road holding. And, they add up to a lot of comfort and safety. Invest in better driving. Stop in and have a set of Michelin 'X' radials installed today.

$140 Taken From Local Business

The Colorado City Police Department is investigating an incident in Fuller Foods around 11:30 a.m. Wednesday in which about $140 was taken.

Officer Billy Williamson answered the call and found that a wooden cabinet in the store had been pried open and the money had been taken, apparently without anyone's knowledge.

Assistant Police Chief Jerry Cowin said that the department has no suspects in the case at the present time.
