Rescued In Belgian Fire

Firemen hand an elderly woman off their ladder to waiting hands of other rescue workers early today at fire rages through a home for the aged at Ifterbeek, near Brussels, Belgium. Fire officials report as many as a score of the home's nearly 100 residents may have perished in the flames. (AP WIRE- PHOTO by cable from Brussels)

Cong Gunners Kill Dozen Vietnamese

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Viet Cong gunners made a daring mortar attack on the nerve center of the U.S. military command in downtown Saigon today. The headquarters wasn't hit, 12 Vietnamese were killed and 40 were wounded, and an explosion blew up the house from which the attack came.

Allied ground operations resumed Sunday a few minutes after the end of the four-day lunar new year truce proclaimed by the South Vietnamese government. But U.S. planes today apparently spared targets in North Vietnam for the sixth straight day as Washington appeared to be giving the Hanoi regime more time to cool down the fighting.

ATTACKS RESUME — Only light, scattered ground action was reported in South Vietnam. U.S. and South Vietnamese air attacks also resumed in the South.

The headquarters of Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, was the target of the mortar attack in Saigon, but the closest round fell in a street about 75 yards from the compound and no Americans were hurt.

AMMO EXPLODES — That round hit a truck in a Vietnamese army convoy, exploding ammunition in the vehicle, and nine soldiers were killed and nine were wounded.

Deportation Appeal Nixed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today to interfere with government orders that Paul de Lucia, described by Justice Department and immigration officials as "one of the Chicago underworld," be deported to Italy. De Lucia, 69, has been fighting deportation to his native country for several years. He claims he is a sick man and deportation would be "cruel and unusual punishment," prohibited by the Eighth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

The Justice Department asked the court not to hear his appeal. The department said he entered the United States under a false passport in 1920, had been convicted in Italy of homicide and was fleeing from prosecution in a second murder.

COLOR MAP OF VIETNAM

Because there has been an unusual new demand, The Herald again is offering a large, detailed, four-color map of Vietnam. However, the supply is limited.

This map is helpful in following all phases of the Vietnam conflict. It is a high quality item, made by the Hammond Company, with much detail of Southeast Asia.

The Herald offers the map for only 35¢ plus 1¢ sales tax, or 36¢. If you wish to order by mail, add 10¢ for handling.

Maxwell Barr's Steer Wins Top Honors At San Antonio

Maxwell Barr's 960 pound Hereford, who amiably answers to the name of Beau, is the grand champion steer of the celebrated San Antonio Fat Stock Show.

The big calf from the J. C. Sales herd took top honors and high praise from the judge, at the championship judging Monday morning.

Young Barr, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Barr of Vincent, will sell his animal at the auction Friday.

Mike Suthers, the judge, apparently had little difficulty in selecting Maxwell's entry as the top animal of all the winners at the San Antonio show.

"This steer," he told James Shelton, Howard County assistant county farm agent, "has just about everything you would want for the perfect Hereford."

Maxwell had won the junior show Saturday and the right to compete in the open competition for the top prize of all.

He won over an Iowa boy today who had posted the junior reserve Hereford in the Saturday judging.

On hand to see Maxwell's victory were his parents, his older brother, Mark, an uncle and an aunt, and numerous Howard County friends.

The steer had placed as reserve champion at the Fort Worth show two weeks ago. Present to extend her congratulations was Dolores Lankford, another Howard County 4-H Clubber, who last year won the grand championship of the Fort Worth show.

Another victory today scored by the Howard Countians was the Breeder's Special — three steers shown by Howard County youngsters and 11 from the

U.S. Begins Bombing Red Vietnam Targets

Wilson Foresees Peaceful Solution

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson said today he believes a peaceful solution to the Vietnam war "could now be reached" despite the lack of the immediate success in his week of talks with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin.

Wilson was reporting to the House of Commons on his talks with Kosygin only hours after the Soviet leader left for Moscow.

The gap between the two sides in the Vietnam war, Wilson said, "is not unbridgeable, given a realistic appreciation of political and military factors involved, and above all, given a belief on each side that the other desires a negotiated settlement." Then he added: "I believe that a solution could now be reached."

ROAD OPEN — He went on: "If the present opportunity is missed, we must not give up hope. The road to solution remains open."

But only three hours earlier a joint communique showed clearly that the two leaders had been unable to find a way to start the peacemaking process despite long hours of patient probing and discussion. They pledged, nevertheless, to keep plugging for a peaceful settlement.

REMAIN LOYAL — Wilson told the legislators experts of the two governments were already at work on a treaty of friendship between Britain and the Soviet Union. This was proposed by Kosygin last Thursday in a speech to both houses of Parliament.

Wilson added that throughout his talks with Kosygin he had made plain to his Russian guest "that we remain loyal to all our alliances and obligations."

CLOSE STUDY — A communique issued at the end of Kosygin's week-long visit to Britain reaffirmed their adherence to the principles of the Geneva agreements which ended the French war in Indochina. It added that the two governments "set forth their respective views on the ways to bring about peace in Vietnam."

The two governments will continue to make a close study of the situation and will make every possible effort with a view to achieving a settlement of the Vietnam problem and will maintain contact to this end."

It was clear no agreement had been reached on ways to achieve the goal which they said they shared — "the earliest possible end of the Vietnam war."

While the two premiers were conducting prolonged exchanges over Vietnam, Wilson was in regular telephone contact with President Johnson. Some British authorities reported a major reason for the failure of Kosygin and Wilson to agree on joint action setting early peace talks was the hardening attitude of the Johnson administration toward North Vietnam's terms.

Card Burning Look Refused

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today by a vote of 8 to 1 to review a 1965 law that prohibits draft card burning.

Its constitutionality was challenged by David J. Miller, a 24-year-old self-described Roman Catholic pacifist. The first person indicted under the law, Miller was convicted in February, 1965 of burning his card at a protest rally against the Vietnam war and military conscription.

Only Justice William O. Douglas favored giving Miller a hearing.

The approval of four justices is required to get a case before the Supreme Court.

Backed by the New York Civil Liberties Union, Miller claimed the law unconstitutionally abridges free speech rights and that its purpose is to suppress dissent.

Birth Rate Still Dips — U.S. Solicitor General Thurgood Marshall defended the law as "an appropriate regulatory measure designed to preserve a document which plays an important role in the administration of the Selective Service system."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Public Health Service statistics indicate both the live birth rate and the number of babies born in this country continued to decline during 1966.

Though figures for the whole year 1966 are not yet available, there were 3,322,000 births during the first 11 months of last year, 131,000 fewer than the 1,453,000 in the corresponding 1965 months.

The birth rate decreased by 5 per cent, from 19.5 to 18.5 for each 1,000 population, during the same period.

temperatures ranging from 26 to 30 below zero combined with high winds Sunday to force the cancellation of a U.S. Eastern Ski Association meet at Saddleback Mountain near Rangeley, Maine.

Snow was expected to push into most of the zero belt later in the day.

Chicagoans Sweep Up Snow Blanket

By The Associated Press
Winter hung on stubbornly in the nation's northeastern quarter today as Chicago swept up a new layer of snow and the east shivered in subzero temperatures.

But it was bermuda shorts weather in most of the South, west and vacationing exiles from snow-clogged northern cities worked on sun tans on the beaches of Florida and Southern California.

Two inches of new snow fell on Chicago and Milwaukee Sunday, adding to the frustrations of commuters. The snow belt ranged from Minnesota through Michigan and moved East.

To the east of the snow temperatures plunged — as low as —27 at Massena in Upstate New York.

Temperatures slipped under the zero mark throughout Pennsylvania, all across New England and deep into the South. Montpelier, Vt. registered —23 early today.

The estimate, from Mayor Richard Daley, came in an unusual manner — in answer to a question put by Willy Brandt, West Germany's foreign minister.

Early morning temperatures across the nation ranged from —27 at Massena, N.Y. to 75 at Key West, Fla.

Over 900 vessels had been observed heading along North Vietnam's coast toward the south in the first 30 hours of the cease-fire.

Pentagon sources indicated that details of the renewed attacks would be released from Saigon.

LEJ'S DECISION — Prompt resumption of the bombing had been foreseen by U.S. officials unless the North Vietnamese began reducing military operations or otherwise move toward peace.

President Johnson had the situation under almost constant review. Johnson himself made the decision for the extended bombing pause following the four-day holiday truce throughout Vietnam. The President reportedly acted at the last minute on Saturday when the 96-hour cease-fire was coming to an end.

MESSAGES EXCHANGED — According to authoritative information, Johnson acted after an exchange of messages — presumably including telephone calls — with Wilson.

Wilson and Kosygin concluded their scheduled conferences Sunday. But they met early today for an additional 65 minutes at Kosygin's hotel hours before his scheduled return to Moscow.

Some of the drugs even help to detect early primary skin cancers. When drugs are applied to the skin, the unseen cancer spots become red and visible, and react to the drugs.

SUNTAN STATUS — Klein reported best results, a cure rate of 95 to 98 per cent, in superficial basal and squamous-cell cancers, and in solar keratoses — dark, precancerous spots on the skin caused by exposure to sunlight. Basal-cell cancers arise from an underlayer of the skin, and squamous from the top layer.

Skin cancers are the most curable form of cancer, with 98 per cent cure rates through surgery or radiation or both, if they are detected early.

Some five million Americans are estimated to have solar keratoses that could become cancers, and many of these result from "the opinion that a good suntan is a status symbol."

GOOD NEWS TODAY

Drugs Control Skin Cancers

NEW YORK (AP) — The goal of curing cancer with drugs is being achieved in skin cancers, a researcher reported today.

Various drugs are curing 90 to 98 per cent of some types of skin cancer, said Dr. Edmund Klein, dermatologist at Roswell Park Memorial Institute, Buffalo, N.Y.

"Healing occurs with slight or no recognizable scarring," as may occur from surgical or X-ray treatment, he added.

In cancer terms, "cure" means no return of the cancer for at least five years. This is being achieved, Klein told the New York State Medical Society in describing research with more than 300 patients begun more than five years ago.

ADDS TO HOPES — The techniques are being used and studied at 22 other medical institutions with similar results, Klein said.

The drugs — half a dozen of them used far less effectively in treating other kinds of cancer — are applied directly to the skin in ointment or other forms.

The significance of the research extends beyond the abolition of skin cancer in many cases, Klein said.

It adds to the hopes that effective drugs may be found to overcome other, internal forms of cancer. A true chemical cure of cancer so far has generally been credited only in a very rare type of cancer of the uterus or womb — choriocarcinoma — with the drug methotrexate.

RED SPOT — Further, one drug, nicknamed TEIB, apparently helps to mobilize body defenses to overcome skin cancers by inducing a hypersensitivity or allergic type of reaction. Perhaps similar or yet-unknown defense mechanisms might be induced to combat other types of cancer, Klein suggested.

Some of the drugs even help to detect early primary skin cancers. When drugs are applied to the skin, the unseen cancer spots become red and visible, and react to the drugs.

SUNTAN STATUS — Klein reported best results, a cure rate of 95 to 98 per cent, in superficial basal and squamous-cell cancers, and in solar keratoses — dark, precancerous spots on the skin caused by exposure to sunlight. Basal-cell cancers arise from an underlayer of the skin, and squamous from the top layer.

Peace Talks Flop

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon announced today the resumption of the U.S. air war against North Vietnam.

The brief announcement said only that the bombing pause had been continued after the end of the lunar new year "in order to avoid any possibility that earlier resumption would be misconstrued in relation to (Soviet Premier Alexei N.) Kosygin's visit to London."

The Pentagon did not say when the bombing had been resumed and declined to go beyond its two-sentence announcement. There also was no explanation on the type or location of targets being hit.

The announcement began:

NO COMMENT

"Combat operations against military targets in North Vietnam have now been resumed." The bombings were halted as part of the allied agreement for a four-day truce beginning last Wednesday, in observance of the lunar new year.

George Christian, President Johnson's press secretary, said there would be no White House comment on the Pentagon announcement. He also said there would be no comment on any recent developments affecting the Vietnam situation.

PEACE TERMS

Sources said earlier the bombing suspension was being continued beyond the four-day truce to check out diplomatic efforts for an end to the fighting.

Shortly before the Pentagon announcement, U.N. Secretary-General U Thant predicted that peace talks would follow in a few weeks if the United States continued the bombing pause.

But President Ho Chi Minh of North Vietnam said earlier today peace could not be restored in Vietnam unless his country's peace terms are fulfilled.

WILSON FAILS

Kosygin and British Prime Minister Harold Wilson announced earlier today they had failed to set up a joint peacemaking program for Vietnam.

Sources said American forces have been poised to resume the bombing with perhaps unprecedented ferocity.

One source said that "nothing of this magnitude" had been conducted in the way of bombing in the past, but he was unable to state how many planes or tons of bombs were being used.

SUPPLY TARGETS

The prime targets were reported to be great amounts of supplies which had been rushed southward by hundreds of Communist trucks and boats during the cease-fire period.

At one point over 800 trucks were observed on North Vietnam's highways above the former demilitarized zone separating the Vietnamese.

Over 900 vessels had been observed heading along North Vietnam's coast toward the south in the first 30 hours of the cease-fire.

Pentagon sources indicated that details of the renewed attacks would be released from Saigon.

LEJ'S DECISION — Prompt resumption of the bombing had been foreseen by U.S. officials unless the North Vietnamese began reducing military operations or otherwise move toward peace.

NCC Speaker Claims Educator Bewildered

DALLAS (AP)—The religious educator is bewildered and has a right to be, says the Rev. Dr. Martin E. Marty, professor of modern church history at the University of Chicago.

Along with the general public and the church-going public, said Dr. Marty, the educator is aware of the discussion of new morality and new theology.

He made his remarks before the directors section of the annual meeting of the division of Christian education, National Council of Churches. The meeting continues through Friday.

Earlier in the day, James McCracken, head of the NCC's overseas relief committee, said much of the world's population is threatened by death through starvation.

"It is natural," said Dr. Marty in his prepared address, "that some educators would be defensive and reactive against the changes."

"They are threatened by the new and are involved with religion because it has insulated them against shock. Some of these fears may be legitimate, but they are not our first concern."

Such an ordered approach is lacking, the speaker continued, because the new morality and the new theology "violate our comfortable and familiar sense of life in the recent past."

He added: "We have to face the fact that the new moralist and the new theologian have given the educator little to work with, little to pick up, few clues to enlarge."

McCracken said the world's food supply is on its way to becoming a global problem of monstrous dimensions and was destined to make the plagues of medieval Europe seem small by comparison.

Church World Service, which McCracken heads, last year sent 88.5 million pounds of food to India in addition to all the commodities sent by the United States and other countries and their voluntary agencies.

"They wait to pick up clues. My impression is that they have had precious little to pick up, for all their openness and good will."

Some of the jargon of the post-honest-to-God theology has worked its way into the educational literature. But no new construction, no new systema-

Mrs. Rabb Dies Sunday

COLORADO CITY (SC)—Mrs. Edna E. Rabb, 65, of Westbrook, died at the Root Memorial Hospital Sunday morning after a week's illness.

Funeral was held Monday at 9:30 a.m. from the Westbrook Baptist Church, with Rev. L. B. Edwards, pastor, officiating. Burial was to be in the Mount Olivet Cemetery in Fort Worth Monday at 4 p.m. under the direction of the Kiker and Son Funeral Home of Colorado City.

Mrs. Rabb was born Oct. 22, 1901 in Minnesota and came to Texas when eight years old. She married Charles R. Rabb in Fort Worth in June, 1924. He died in 1946.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. C. E. Ranne, Westbrook, Mrs. Doris Britain, Fort Worth; two sons, Raymond L. Rabb, Fort Worth, and Walter A. Rabb, Snyder; one brother, John Sexton, Fort Worth; two sisters, Mrs. Jessie Rhodes and Mrs. Hugh Hickman, both of Fort Worth; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Powell's Pal Nailed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The special House committee investigating the Adam Clayton Powell scandal said Sunday that Powell had tracked down his secretary in the Bahamas and subpoenaed her to testify Tuesday.

William A. Geoghegan, the committee's counsel, said it was his understanding the subpoena is valid although the islands are British territory.

"I haven't researched this," Geoghegan said Sunday night when he reported that Corinne Huff, the secretary, had been located, "but I am advised that we can serve an American citizen in the Bahamas."

The subpoena was delivered by a process server hired by the State Department, he said.

EX-WIFE HUNT Geoghegan said he didn't know what progress had been made in serving another witness who the committee wants to question Tuesday, Yvette Flores Powell, the Harlem Democrat's estranged wife.

The committee is investigating Powell's qualifications to be seated in the House.

Asked whether the subpoenas were any guarantee the two women would appear, Geoghegan said: "I really couldn't say."

TRAVEL COMPANION When Mrs. Powell was subpoenaed in December by another committee she failed to appear. She said afterward she had been given insufficient time to arrange the trip from her home in Puerto Rico.

According to records of the House Education and Labor Committee, Miss Huff, 25, was Powell's traveling companion a number of times on trips charged to the committee.

At the time Powell was chairman of the committee. He was removed from the post last month by House Democrats.

SEEDS SOWN A member of the investigating committee said today there could be a crisis in relations between the judicial and legislative branches of government if Powell were expelled and then challenged the action in federal court on constitutional grounds.

"Should any U.S. court or judge undertake to determine whether the House can consider the qualifications and conduct of a member," said Rep. Clark MacGregor, "the seeds would be sown for destruction of Congress as a co-equal branch of the federal government."

The Minnesota Republican said during an interview that if a judge agreed to hear such a case, it would not surprise him if a move were made in the House to impeach the judge.

"I knew I would be asked that question. I even left my cane upstairs purposely," he said.

Then Dirksen quoted Thomas Jefferson's remark about politicians: "Few of them die and none resign."

'Joe College' Is Pert Girl

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP)—"Joe College," as everyone knows, is the clean-cut, healthy, average male on an American university campus.

Not so at Northern Arizona University of Flagstaff.

In this case, the Jo (for Joanne) College here isn't male. She's a pert, red-haired junior majoring in physical education.

Miss College, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton College of Tempe, Ariz., says when strangers are told her name they reply with such things as "Sure, and I'm Dick Tracy."

Correspondent Marmor Expires

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP)—Milton Marmor, 50, who as a foreign correspondent for The Associated Press covered politics and international upheavals in Europe, Asia and around the world, died Sunday at Nairobi Airport. He was on his way to London from an African vacation.

OIL REPORT

New Producer In Ackerly Field

David Fasken of Midland has potential No. 1-25 Durward Schmidt as a new producer in the Ackerly (Dean) pool of Martin County, six miles south-west of Ackerly.

It pumped at the rate of 185 barrels of 42-gravity oil daily plus 20 barrels of water from perforations between 8,525 and 8,670 feet. The zone was fractured with 200,000 gallons of fluid mixed with 300,000 pounds of sand. Gas-oil ratio registered 714-1.

The well is 660 feet from north and 2,080 feet from east lines of section 28, block 35, T-3-N, T&P survey.

Two other area fields have gained locations. Standard Oil Co. of Texas will dig the No. 2-29 L. S. McDowell as a McDowell (San Andres) field location 14 miles south of Big Spring in Glasscock County to a depth of 2,900 feet. Drilling site is 2,100 feet from north and 1,900 feet from east lines, section 29-34-2s, T&P survey.

L. E. Foster of Midland will drill the No. 1 Glass as a Her-rell, East (Queen) field site to a depth of 1,600 feet in Sterling County. Drilling site is 15 miles west of Sterling City and 467 feet from north and 800 feet from west lines, section 1-32-5s, T&P survey.

Police Get Theft Reports

Several burglaries and thefts were reported during the week-end.

Six small windows at Airport school were broken in the back door, but no entry was made. Mrs. Jay Switcher, 1807 S. Monticello, reported boys in the alley throwing rocks at her house. Officers turned the boys over to their parents.

Jack Irons reported the soft drink machine in the West-Texas Commissary had been forced but the loss was undetermined. Jimmy Hopper, 1707 Gollard, reported the theft of 16 stereo tapes from his car, while it was parked at the Bowl-A-Rama. The right rear window had been forced to gain entry.

C. L. Cline, Orla, Texas, reported his hub caps had been stolen while he was in town.

George Adair, 406 N. Bell, reported two shot guns had been stolen when someone entered his home through the rear door and found them behind a dresser.

Cline Johnson, 601 N. Lancaster, reported that someone had poured sugar into her gas tank.

The houses of Mrs. B. J. Nobles, 1800 Grafa, and Mrs. Joe Wheeler, 2600 E. 16th, received egg showers Saturday from a carload of teenagers.

More Gifts For Garrisons

A number of other Big Spring residents and businesses rallied today to assist the family of Airman I.C. Carl Garrison, which a week ago lost its two daughters in a traffic mishap.

The $100.25 reported Monday morning boosted to $942 the amount raised through donations from concerned people. This is nearly half of the $2,000 estimated expenses falling upon the Garrisons when the two girls were injured fatally while waiting for a school bus. Some of the gifts, incidentally, included those from children who ride the buses.

The Rev. Roy Honea, pastor of the Grace Baptist Church, (Box 1507) which is serving as the receiving agent for the Garrison Fund, said that his congregation would have an offering for the family Wednesday evening. Some individuals also may be making personal contacts. He is hopeful that the needs can be met this week before the Garrisons return from Marion, S. C. where they buried the two girls.

Among the latest donors are: School Bus No. 33 with $22.10; School Bus No. 36 with $4.15; Clyde McMahon Concrete Co., $25; Bertha Mullins, $20; J. E. Sorrells, Mrs. R. Richardson, Mrs. E. A. Turner, W. A. Allen, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pollock, $5 each; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Underwood, $2; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Prather, Claud Carpenter, Joe Stroup and Billy King, a shoeshine, $1 each. Others are invited to take or mail their gifts to the Grace Baptist Church.

Survivors include six daughters, Mrs. J. L. Qualls, and Mrs. Earl Kee, both of Lamesa; Mrs. M. J. Kee, Andrews; Mrs. Roy Lee Boss, Lovington; N. M.; Mrs. S. T. Boss, Willard; N. M.; and Mrs. Doyle Coker, Alvin; one son, Floyd Greer, Lovington; N. M.; two sisters, Mrs. Florence Johnson, Tennessee; and Mrs. Lilly Porch, Austin; one brother, Festus Greer, Novis; 21 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

Quick Money Bill Passage Predicted

AUSTIN (AP) — The House should pass its general appropriations bill within four to six weeks, Speaker Ben Barnes said today.

Barnes also told a news conference that relations between the House and Senate, which could affect the shape of the big money bill, are good.

"The House and Senate are working as good this session as in the past," he said. "I see no real friction between the House and Senate."

"SEE NO REASON" Barnes said the House Appropriations Committee will complete its hearings on the spending bill this week, then take two to three weeks to draft its version of the legislation.

"I'd like to see it laid out a week to 10 days before we vote," Barnes said.

The speaker said he could "see no reason" why the final version of the appropriation bill should not be approved by both houses in about 100 days.

Barnes' new House rules and proposed joint rules provide that no spending bills, except those submitted by the governor as emergency matters, may be considered in the first 120 days of the session unless the general appropriation bill has been finally passed.

PAY HIKE HALTED Barnes repeated his feeling that state employees probably will lose out in the end if an immediate pay raise for them is passed. He is holding up action on the Senate-passed quickie $5.2 million pay raise because, he says, his House rules prohibit it action on it.

On other matters, Barnes said: —He expects to have introduced this week a resolution establishing a study committee to find ways to modernize the legislature.

—He hopes the Senate acts soon on his proposed joint rules, and he especially wants approval of the 10-day ban on consideration of special, non-emergency appropriation bills.

State National Bid Accepted On A Split Vote

State National Bank will be the official depository for county funds in the ensuing year. It took a vote of Lee Porter, county judge to break a tie and award the contract to the State National Bank, which replaces Security State Bank. The latter bank has served as depository for the past four years.

First National Bank's offer was one per cent under the offer of the Security and State National banks, which eliminated it from any serious consideration. The latter two banks are offered maximum legal interest on deposits of $100,000 or more where the First National's offer was one per cent lower.

Joe Hayden moved that the State National Bank be named as depository. His motion was seconded by Simon Terrazas. R. C. Nichols moved that Security State National Bank be given a renewed contract. Billy Tene seconded this motion.

One charge of negligent homicide has been filed against a 60-year-old Odessa woman, and a second probably will be filed Wednesday in connection with the traffic deaths two weeks ago of two young junior high school girls.

Dee Jon Davis, county attorney, said the first charge filed against Mrs. Lela Maye Littleton was in connection with the death of Betty Sue Garrison, 12, Betty Sue and her 13-year-old sister, Vickie, daughters of Airman and Mrs. Carl Garrison, 1408 Oriole, were fatally injured early Feb. 4 when they were struck by a car as they stood waiting arrival of a school bus.

Davis said that John Burgess, attorney for Mrs. Littleton, had informed him that the woman is at the home of a daughter here and confined to bed. She was taken to a hospital immediately after the accident in a state of shock and was released from the hospital only a few days ago.

Burgess told Davis his client would probably be able to come to the courthouse Wednesday. At that time, Davis said he plans to file the second negligent homicide charge. At the same time, Mrs. Littleton will be advised of her legal rights and bond will be set in the case. Davis said that negligent homicide in Texas is a misdemeanor to be tried in county court. The maximum penalty is a fine of $1,000 or one year in the county jail.

76ers Yell 'Foul' But Celtics Win

BOSTON (AP) — The Philadelphia 76ers yelled foul and hoped for a replay while looking over their shoulders at the Boston Celtics today in the National Basketball Association's tightest Eastern Division race.

Philadelphia coach Alex Hannum planned to file a formal protest with NBA Commissioner Walter Kennedy in the wake of the 76ers' 113-112 loss to the Celtics Sunday at the Garden.

The Celtics laughed at Hannum's complaint after winning their fourth game in seven meetings with the 76ers and closing to within 5½ games, only four in the vital loss column, of Wilt Chamberlain & Co. Hannum announced he was playing the game under protest after referees Mendy Rudolph and John Vanak didn't call a technical foul when Boston had six players on the floor with the Celtics in front 100-97 in the fourth period.

SIX PLAYERS Vanak signalled Boston's Don Nelson into the game to replace Tom Sanders while Philadelphia had the ball to pass in from out of bounds. Play resumed amid confusion, and Sanders finally walked to his bench. "They had six players out there for four to six seconds before Sanders sneaked off," Hannum said. "I yelled to the officials, but they didn't hear me. An injustice was done, and it should be rectified by the commissioner. I have high hopes the entire game will have to be replayed."

Rudolph and Vanak later said they did not see six Boston players on the court. Kennedy, who was among the packed crowd of 13,909, said only: "When I get the officials' report, I will make an evaluation."

LOSE AT LINE The 76ers actually lost the meeting with the Celtics at the free throw line, cashing only 24 of 48 attempts. Chamberlain had 30 points, but made only eight of 22 free throw attempts. While the Celtics were tightening up the East, the St. Louis Hawks continued a surge in the West that has brought them within 6½ games of crippled leader San Francisco.

The Hawks held off a desperate Cincinnati rally for a 118-115 victory in St. Louis as the Warriors were losing to the Pistons 134-127 in Detroit. The Hawks have won three straight, and the Warriors have lost four in a row.

Zelmo Beaty's 12 points and nine by Len Wilkens in the third period provided the Hawks with a 91-74 cushion entering the final quarter, but Oscar Robertson brought the Royals within 114-113 with 11 seconds left. However, two free throws each by Beaty and Wilkens ended the threat.

RALLY San Francisco, struggling without injured Nate Thurmond, made up a 21-point first-half deficit for a 91-90 lead as Rick Barry and Jeff Mullins combined for 31 points in the third period. But Detroit pulled away again in the final period.

Barry finished with 49 points, and Mullins hit a career high of 33. Dave DeBusschere paced the Pistons with 27 and reserve Wayne Hightower added 24. Los Angeles overcame a 42-point burst by Don Kojis and whipped Chicago 129-121. The Lakers, led by Jerry West's 33 points and 26 by Elgin Baylor, pulled away from a half-time tie in Los Angeles and led throughout the final half.

BUILD UP STRENGTH

Matson's Coach Predicts He'll Heave Shot 72 Feet

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—Randy Matson, the Texas A&M giant who threw the shot past 70 feet the second time in three years, said today he was going to work toward building up his strength.

"That is the only way I can improve and hope to better what I've already done," said the star of Saturday night's Dallas indoor track meet in which he pitched the 16-pound ball 70 feet 7½ inches, a quarter-inch better than he got in 1965 when he set the world's record.

But he admitted that he was in the best shape he ever had been, was virtually free of injury, was his strongest and biggest and that he had done better than he ever had hoped for so early in the season.

His coach, Charley Thomas, asked that his throw Saturday night be considered for a world's record although it came indoors, where there are no official records, and was done with the outdoor shot.

However, officials of the Dal-as meet said they would not submit the throw for any kind of record because it was indoors on dirt instead of the boards and also because the area where the throw was made wasn't level. The latter would obviate any idea of a world's record even if it had been made with the indoor shot.

Thomas said Matson would have an early opportunity to break the record outdoors because A&M and Baylor stage a dual meet Feb. 24 and "I think he'll get 72 feet this year and might do it in that first outdoor meet of the season."

Matson will appear in a triangular meet with Texas and Rice at Austin March 4 and then will enter his first big meet of the outdoor season—the Border Olympics at Laredo, Tex., March 10-11.

CLARKE HOT Elsewhere in indoor track Saturday, Ron Clarke ran away with the two-mile at the Los Angeles Times Games, winning in 8:41.8 and beating out Bill Balle, his challenger there last

Challengers To Face Hard Row In Southwest

By The Associated Press

The last challengers for Southern Methodist's Southwest Conference basketball lead face a tough row this week, and the Methodists could climb into a commanding position by winning a couple of games.

Texas and Texas Christian are tied for second place, two games back of once-beaten SMU.

Texas plays a fast improving Rice at Houston Tuesday and then takes on dangerous Baylor at Austin Saturday.

Texas Christian faces Baylor at Waco—an unenviable task for the team that was leading the league a couple of weeks ago—and then plays Southern Methodist at Fort Worth Saturday afternoon.

The SMU-TCU game once looked like it might be most decisive, but that was before Southern Methodist beat the Horned Frogs 83-53 and threw them into a slump that begins to appear disastrous.

CRUCIAL GAME The Frogs can be depended on, however, to give arch rival Southern Methodist an interesting afternoon. At least they are playing at home and that could help. TCU lost the first time to SMU at Dallas.

Texas seems to be in better position than Texas Christian. In the first place, the Longhorns are the only team able to beat the Methodists and can stay in there fairly tight unless they lose a game or two before clashing with SMU again. TCU is willing to concede that Texas is in better position to contend for the title.

Southern Methodist trampled Baylor 94-88 in its only game last week and Texas was the only other team to do more than break even. The Longhorns cracked Rice 81-3 and then whipped Arkansas 67-61.

Southern Methodist starts off the week's work Tuesday night when it is host to Texas Tech. There is little reason to believe the Methodists will lose to the Red Raiders, who have won only two games, but one of them was quite surprising—a 77-72 decision over Texas Christian last week.

Baylor scoring twins Jimmy Turner and Darrell Hardy lead the league. Turner has 380 points, Hardy 371. Bill Doty of Rice is third with 322.

CASSIUS GETS TITLE, SNUB

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The World Boxing Association finally has come over to Cassius Clay's corner—only to back away again.

The WBA announced Sunday it has formally recognized Clay as the world heavyweight king but snubbed the controversial champion in declining to name anyone Boxer of the Year.

Clay earned undisputed possession of the heavy weight crown by outpointing big Ernie Terrell, the WBA king, last Monday night at Houston. The WBA had stripped Clay of its title for agreeing to a return bout with Sonny Liston in 1965.

Van Brocklin Calls It Quits

ST. PAUL - MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Stormy Norm Van Brocklin, the volatile Dutchman who built the Minnesota Vikings from a ragtag collection of kids and castoffs into a respectable National Football League team, has called it quits for good.

Van Brocklin, tormented for two years by his admitted inability to get the Vikings over the hump and unable to reconcile the widening split between himself and quarterback Fran Tarkenton, stunned the Vikings by resigning Saturday, a day after Tarkenton said he would not play with Minnesota any more.

The double-barrelled terminations left General Manager Jim Finks and the five Vikings owners dumbfounded, even though they obviously knew of the simmering rift between Van Brocklin and Tarkenton. And they knew the Van Brocklin temperament.

"This is a real blow," Finks said. "This is a very dark day for the Vikings... there's no reason to try to fool anybody."

It was Van Brocklin's second resignation from the Vikings, but this time it will stick. The Board of Directors immediately accepted it, after Van Brocklin had told them of his plans on Friday and then was told to think it over for 24 hours.

Van Brocklin indicated no future plans. Tarkenton said he was shocked by Van Brocklin's resignation, but that it would in no way alter his decision to return to the Vikings.

Everybody Tries To Be No. 2 Club

By The Associated Press

Everybody is trying so hard to be only No. 2 in college basketball, the Top Ten is getting more and more Nos. 3, 4, 5, etc.

The latest likely to join those who tried and failed is North Carolina, which jeopardized its No. 2 ranking by losing to unranked Georgia Tech 82-80 Saturday.

Two other former No. 2s, Houston and Texas Western, also slipped as half of the Top Ten teams in the country took a turn for the worse.

Houston, No. 5, fell before oft-beaten Notre Dame 87-78 and Texas Western, No. 8, stumbled at Seattle 66-56, while ninth-ranked Providence lost to Niagara 77-76 and No. 10 Boston College was surprised by Fordham 85-81.

"It gets to you mentally," said Coach Bill Van Breda Kolff, whose fourth-ranked Princeton Tigers barely avoided upset by nipping Brown 57-54. "It's not a matter of wanting to win; rather, you get the feeling you have to win and something happens to you."

UCLA AT TOP But nothing ever seems to happen to No. 1, UCLA. The Bruins continued their way alone, pushing aside Oregon State 76-44 Friday and then Oregon 100-66 Saturday for a 19-0 record in their march toward the elusive unbeaten season.

The rest of the ranking teams survived. Third-ranked Louisville, 26-2 another former No. 2 and a likely choice to get another try at holding the spot, downed Wichita 99-68. Western Kentucky, No. 6, ran its mark to 18-1 by tripping Eastern Tennessee 65-56.

Kansas, No. 7, outlasted Kansas State 60-55. Two other highly-rated teams also had trouble as St. Louis hindered Tulsa's hopes of catching Louisville in the Missouri Valley Conference by beating the Hurricane 76-62, while Lehigh stunned Rutgers 45-43.

NC STREAK SNAPS North Carolina, 16-2, had a seven-game winning streak shattered after overcoming a 72-58 deficit at Atlanta. Bob Brundage's layup with six seconds left did the damage as the Engineers, 14-7, won for the ninth time in 10 outings.

Sophomore Ron Armen cut up Houston with 37 points at South Bend, Ind., while Seattle worked behind Tom Workman and Steve Looney, who each scored 17 points. Seattle, the only team to beat the defending NCAA champion Texas Western last season, built a 23-9 lead and protected it.

Providence lost its chance when Jim Walker, who scored 28 points, stumbled going in for a layup in the last five seconds at Niagara and missed a winning basket.

At the Michigan State Relays in East Lansing, Mich., Jim Rynn of Kansas, world record holder at the mile, won in 4:03.7, a meet and fieldhouse record.

RYUN AGAIN At the Michigan State Relays ahead of the field as his chief potential challengers, Sam Bair of Kent State and Conrad Nightingale of Kansas State, were not in the race because their coach wanted them in relay events.

Boros Breaks Drouth, Wins Phoenix Open By A Stroke

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Julius Boros headed home today for a month's rest $14,000 richer after winning the $70,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament, the 14th tourney win of his career.

"I've been away from home for a month now, and my wife wants me to get home with her and the kids," the 46-year-old Boros said after he edged out Ken Still by one stroke for the title Sunday.

The winner carded a 272 total to 273 for Still.

Boros, who has seven children, the youngest six months, commented, "I guess I'm a late starter more than in just golf."

The tour veteran from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., began Sunday's final round three strokes behind Rod Funseth, the 1965 Phoenix Open winner who first threatened to run away from the field and then faltered.

Boros went into the final 18 holes with an eight under par 205, and knowing that Still had fired a spectacular 30-33-63 for the 1967 tour's best round, went to work on the third hole.

After a bogey on the second hole, he birdied five holes, the most important an 18-incher on the 18th hole which gave him a final round 67 and the victory, his first since he captured the 1964 Greensboro Open.

Still, Spokane, Wash., tour veteran, celebrated his 32nd birthday Sunday by shooting the best round of his six-year pro career and by taking home $8,400 second place money.

But even with the charges of have been different if it hadn't been for the spectacular collapse of Funseth on the final nine holes.

The 33-year-old tour regular, putting well but scrambling on his other shots, actually began his downfall on the final of the third round with a double-bogey seven after he hit out of bounds.

He carried a one-stroke lead into the final 18-holes over little Dean Refram, pendulum-putting veteran from Boca Raton, Fla., and then started to pull away.

Funseth widened the lead to four strokes with three straight birds, starting on the second Yarborough of Charlotte equaled the old mark. A dozen others qualified for a pair of 100-mile races Feb. 24 which will determine the Daytona 500 starting lineup behind the front pair of Turner and Petty.

The 42-year-old Turner showed the youngsters his exhaust Sunday when he took a nonfactory Chevelle twice around the high banked 2.5-mile trioval at an average of 180.831 miles an hour.

He wiped out the 178.660 m.p.h. Speedway record Lee Roy Yarborough of Columbia, S.C., set last July, and walked off with $5,000 first money and the pole position for the $200,000 Daytona 500 Feb. 26.

Only a few days earlier, when mechanic Smokey Yunick was fretting about getting competitive speed out of the black and gold No. 13, Turner said he "will run that car if I have to run it barefoot. There's $5,000 at stake. I can remember when we ran the feature and the winner passed the hat to collect $3 or $10."

Richard Petty of Randleman, N.C., collected second place money of $1,000 and the other front row place for the Daytona 500. He averaged 179.068 m.p.h. in a 1967 Plymouth.

That and the third best speed of 178.695 by David Pearson of Spartanburg, S.C., in a Dodge Charger also broke the old record.

Hammond And Lozano Win

Bob Waters was medalist and the team of Farris Hammond and Pancho Lozano won first place in the Big Spring Municipal Golf tournament Sunday.

The event drew 19 teams, paired with one player of a 10 and under handicap and with another carrying 11 to 18.

Waters fired a 74 for medalist honors.

Hammond and Lozano came in with a 59 to capture top honors. Jerry Barron and Jimmy Welch had a 63 for second place and Jerry Dudley and J. C. Robinson were third with 64.

Six teams tied for fourth and fifth, posting 65's. They were Ted Gross and Bill Rogers; Jimmy Smartt and Armando Torres; Earnest Barbee and Russell Tidwell; Richard Pachall and Bill Condra; Jimmy Newsum and R. V. Cobb; and Jackie Thomas and Chubby Moser.

TEXANS AT WAR

San Saba Sparks Operation Angel

By The Associated Press
They called it Operation Angel and, says Louis Rochat Jr., a Texan at war, it spread from a Vietnamese village into a Texas military base, then engulfed a Texas city.

The civic action program produced the customary candy, toys and clothing but, more importantly, it provided eyeglasses and even lip surgery for Vietnamese youngsters.

HUBBY'S HOMETOWN
"It started back in September of 1965," recalled Maj. Rochat, 39, now commanding a headquarters company at the Army's Primary Helicopter Center at Ft. Wolters in Mineral Wells.

Rochat spent four of 12 months in Viet Nam at Vinh

Long, devoting as much time as possible to Operation Angel, started by Capt. Al Brough, Army chaplain of the year in 1965.

Working first from troop contributions, the project picked up steam with a letter from Rochat to his wife, Jonnie, at Ft. Wolters. Mrs. Rochat carried the message on to her husband's hometown of San Saba.

SURGERY ON LIPS
Soon Operation Angel, on a Christmas theme, was distributing goods at three orphanages and isolated perimeter outposts in the Vinh Long Province.

"... It certainly got the money, food, soap, toys and what-have-you right down to the people who could use them," Rochat said.

Dear Abby

MATTER OF CLUB PRIVILEGE

DEAR ABBY: I have been legally separated from my husband for two years. He is a good father to our children and he meets all his obligations — financial and otherwise.

Everyone knows he wants a divorce so he can marry again. The reason I will not give him a divorce is because we have a membership to the country club, and as his wife I am permitted to use the club. If I divorce him, I would not be able to use the club. My social life revolves around the club, and in order to eventually find another husband, the club privileges are important to me. Now wouldn't I be a fool to give it up? NO FOOL

DEAR NO: If you put it that way, yes. But unless there are some eligible bachelors around your club, you're wasting your time because even if you bagged some other woman's husband, she'd never give him his freedom to marry you on account of losing HER club privileges.

DEAR ABBY: Shortly before our 16-year-old daughter was to receive her driver's license, I made the statement that if she were involved in an accident that was her fault, or was arrested for a traffic violation, I would take her license away for one year. Everyone in the family heard me make this statement.

Last week my daughter was driving and my wife was with her. My daughter was trying to look at a road map as she drove. Her mother told her to stop the car if she was going to look at the map, but she didn't stop — until she hit a highway post about five seconds later.

Now my wife feels that the one-year penalty was too strict to begin with. I believe it will not only teach the girl a lesson, but will serve as an example to the younger children. If you say the one-year penalty is too harsh, I may reconsider. DAD
DEAR DAD: Yup. It's too harsh. A year is practically a lifetime for a 16-year-old. Personally, I'll bet the highway post taught your daughter more about safe driving than the reprisals of her pa. If it happens AGAIN, lower the boom. For the time being, lower the penalty.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the man who stopped dating a very nice girl because every time he saw her she was wearing a different outfit, and he didn't think he could afford to keep her in clothes.

I'll let you in on a little secret. The girl with the most EXTENSIVE wardrobe may be the one who spends the LEAST on clothes. All she needs is a sewing machine, a few yards of material, a little ambition, and a lot of imagination, and she can look like a million dollars.

Good Fishing Weather Stays

By The Associated Press
"Some more good fishing weather," said one of the official forecasters today as dawn arrived with skies virtually cloudless throughout Texas.

Temperatures were still a bit brisk overnight—the last trace of a weekend cool front.

Readings before daylight ranged down to 24 degrees at Dalhart, 28 at Amarillo, El Paso, Lufkin and Van Horn, 29 at San Antonio, 30 at Presidio, 32 at Longview, 33 at Fort Worth, 36 at Brownsville, 37 at Dallas and 48 at Galveston.

Forecasts promised marks in the 70s for all parts of the state by late afternoon and further warming in most sections Tuesday. Skies were expected to remain mostly clear.

Head-On Smash Kills Three Men

VERNON, Tex. (AP) — A head-on collision of two cars killed three young men a mile west of here on a US 257 overpass about 1:40 a.m. today.

Officers identified as Thomas Glen Sibley, 25, of Rt. 3, Vernon; James Freeman, 30, of Memphis; and Ronnie Carroll Wynn, 28, believed also from Memphis.

State police said Sibley, alone in his automobile, was traveling west in the highway's eastbound lane. Freeman was driving the other vehicle with Wynn as a companion.

Horoscope Forecast

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You have a good impression on one who has all kinds of power and influence. He is a natural part of your putting too much reliance in a foreigner. Charm others with your good looks.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to April 19) You can make progress now by teaming with one who is powerful and can open up new avenues of success to you. Gain your aims but don't impend present security. Keep your feet on the ground at all times.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Don't feel resentment toward one who has much control over you. Through whatever is expected of you, willingly. Later all works out just fine. Buy some thoughtful gift for one you love in p.m. Increase happiness.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You have many charming friends who can be relied upon for backing or recreation, but steer clear of one who is out to take you for pretty much whatever you're worth. Be out socially. Be a more popular person.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 22) Avoid whole lot of trouble and distress and follow ideas given you by a bigwig. Your own judgment is not what it should be today. So take no chances. Trust to more seasoned persons in your line of endeavor.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 23) You are torn between getting into new outlets carrying through with old ones. Schedule your time properly and you can do some of both. Evening will then give you time to study brochures, etc.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) Much as you are tending to go for fun when you should be handling some responsibility, you had better get it straight. Plan your time intelligently. During evening there is plenty of time for worthwhile fun.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) Avoid that bigwig you want to do you big favors since he, or she, is a rather contented mood right now. Be more cooperative with struggling associates. Make friends with those who have been opposing you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21) Anything that requires real enthusiasm is right now, but don't travel far off places that are alien to you. Find some new source for research. You are able to gather the information you need more readily.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Stop being so impersonal and be more amenable to the suggestions of loved ones. Have more happiness by a more friendly attitude toward everyone. Be less extravagant where recreation is concerned.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Listen to clever ideas of since can help you tremendously. Don't listen to what an associate who is jealous, has to say. Find a better method for getting rid of whatever is of little value to you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Use your own good judgment instead of depending so much on some associate who is altogether too forceful, even emotional. Have more happiness by a more friendly attitude toward everyone. Be less extravagant where recreation is concerned.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Some business expert could be just the person you need to give you advice to handle problems wisely before you dash out for pleasure. You are basically a perfectionist. Make this the rule today.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN tomorrow he, or she, will be one of those interesting people who will have a blunt and honest manner and will be adept at solving problems of all kinds through own brain power. Send to a college where New Era methods are taught, since this is the key to success here. Teach early to be very practical in all ways, since there is a tendency to become quite emotional at the drop of a hat, the merest unkind word.

UAW Schedules New Strike Vote

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Members of United Auto Workers Local 276 voted Sunday to void last week's decision to strike and called for a new vote.

The new strike vote will be held from 9 a.m. Wednesday to 9 a.m. Thursday.

"If general motors management isn't ready for a strike at the Arlington plant, they had better start negotiating realistically," said Joe Algood, negotiator for the local.

"We are confident that this week's vote will be at least 99 per cent for the strike."

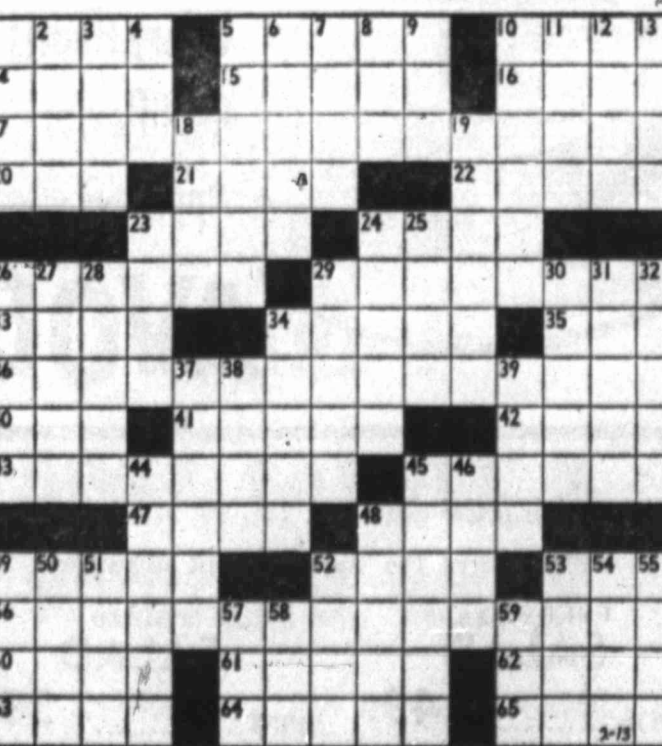

The local contends there is a manpower shortage at the Arlington plant.

General Motors officials have disputed the contention, saying there is no work overload on the plant personnel.

Texas Counts 27 Violent Deaths

By The Associated Press

Texas counted 27 violent deaths during the weekend.

The toll, recorded between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday, included 14 killed in traffic accidents, nine fatal shootings, two drownings and two fatalities in fires.

A justice of the peace returned a verdict of suicide and murder after Mrs. Hope Cruz Garza, 37, of Rosenberg tied her baby son, Pete, to her Sunday and walked into the Brazos River until they disappeared. The bodies were recovered an hour later in 10 feet of water.

FOUND DEAD
S. C. Bowden, 43, was found dead with a pistol at his side after a gunshot roused his wife and five children early Sunday in Houston. He was due to go on trial today on a murder charge in a barroom shooting last October.

J. E. Tubbs, 77, of Fort Worth died Sunday in a collision of his car and one driven by Eugene D. Sullivan, 23, of Grapevine at the Fort Worth-Haltom City line. Sullivan and two companions escaped serious injury.

FATAL CROSSING
A car struck and killed Bergman Scruggs, 46, of Houston as he was crossing US 59 about 2 1/2 miles north of Shepherd, which is 60 miles north of Houston. State police said he stepped in front of a car driven by Ivy B. Graham, also of Houston.

Larry Thompson, 18, died in a Dallas hospital Sunday night from injuries suffered earlier in the day when the car he was riding in struck a utility pole. He was thrown through the windshield.

Other deaths included in the toll occurred earlier in the weekend.

Boosters Meet
The Big Spring Choir Boosters will meet in the High School Vocational Building at 7:30 p.m. today. All persons interested in the school choir are invited to the Fort Worth-Haltom City line. Sullivan and two companions escaped serious injury.

A LOVELIER YOU

Psychiatrists Agree On Yen For Beauty

By MARY SUE MILLER
Is there a girl — is there a woman without a loveliness problem? No one's looks or personality is flawless. But somehow a charmer manages to create a totally attractive picture of herself.

Psychiatrists agree that the desire for attractiveness is normal and healthy. For, when you make the most of yourself, the demand for your company increases. And with it, your pleasure in life!

A 10-part series on the ways to make the most of your face, figure, fashions and personality begins today. Our first concern is the figure, the pedestal of beauty and vitality. And our first figure project is your weight. What should it be — ideally? Here's how to calculate:

1. Measure your height without shoes and judge the size of your bone structure — is it small, average or large?

2. Locate your height on the illustrated chart and note weights given alongside. The lower number is your ideal weight, if your bones are small. If large — boned, the higher number is your ideal. For average bone structure, weight ideally lies midway between the numbers given.

How did you come out? Never fear, this series will make short work of discrepancies.

YOUR IDEAL WEIGHT

HEIGHT	WEIGHT
5' 0"	95-105
5' 1"	100-110
5' 2"	105-115
5' 3"	110-118
5' 4"	115-121
5' 5"	119-124
5' 6"	120-128
5' 7"	124-132
5' 8"	130-140

Important note for teens: Until a girl reaches her full growth, she seldom attains her ideal weight. But nothing on record says you will outgrow baby fat unless you keep trying.

A Devotional For The Day

Put off . . . the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; . . . and . . . put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. (Ephesians 4:22-24)

PRAYER: O God, give us strength not to yield to sin's deceptions. Make us true, honest, clean, reverent, and brotherly; through Christ, our Savior, whom Thou didst send to redeem us from sin. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

For Safety On FM 700

In the wake of the highway tragedy which took the lives of two little girls, we suggest that some recommendations which came in a letter to the editor are well worth looking into.

1st Lt. David L. Van Bruene, who lives in the vicinity and should know whereof he speaks, wrote what we regard as a well-tempered and reasonable outline for safety.

FM 700 carries a tremendous load of traffic. A quirk of the routing makes it practically a thoroughfare as it circles Scenic Mountain, then suddenly it becomes a residential street. It is true that the former area has a 30-mile speed zone, but it takes the most prudent motorist to pull down from 45 mph to that speed, where the marking could be more prominent.

1st Lt. Van Bruene's idea for a flashing light is a good one. So is his suggestion that something be done in the way of providing at least walk-ways in Avion Village.

And we heartily concur that a small bus-stop shelter would fill a great need, for the protection of children's health as well as their physical safety.

In point of fact, these bus stops could be erected a number of points on the school bus routes, and serve an admirable purpose. If some forward-looking organization is looking for a worthwhile project, here it is.

Meanwhile, we hope the Traffic Commission will take a hard look at the situation on FM 700 in the Avion Village area, and come up with some firm recommendations. We cannot erase one deep tragedy, but we ought to try to prevent any more.

Simplifying The Ballot

This session of the Texas Legislature should scrap a vestigial tradition, embrace common sense, and do what the League of Women Voters has been urging for a decade. It should replace the paper "scratch" ballots with "check" ballots in nonmachine (mostly rural and small-town) voting areas.

This often-stalled bill appears to have a good chance this time. It is sponsored by Rep. Gene Fondren, chairman of the House Committee on Privileges, Suffrage and Elections. It provides that the voter must check the candidate of his choice—though he could still scratch all opponents, the required practice now, if that gave him any pleasure. He could vote the straight ticket by checking a single party box in general elections.

This is not a light issue, though some legislators usually treat it so. In major statewide elections—as Rep. Fondren pointed out, tens of thousands of paper ballots will be invalidated by failure of voters to scratch all opponents in a multi-candidate race. His bill would make hand-marked paper ballots and machine ballots alike, for a uniform system of voting that would minimize confusion.

In a close election "scratch" ballot mistakes can easily reverse the outcome, thwarting the will of the popular majority.

There are many things that could be done to make more efficient this state's election procedures, but the Fondren bill is the least that can be done and it deserves the legislature's serious attention.

A Setback In The Moon Race

WASHINGTON — At about 7:30 on the evening of Friday, Jan. 27, some half-dozen men, called the Apollo Committee (administrators and top scientists of the NASA moon race program), were chatting as they waited to sit down to dinner at the International Club of this city. James E. Webb, NASA administrator, was called to the phone from which he quickly returned and quieted the room. Webb then announced that Astronauts Grissom, White and Chaffee were dead as a result of a fire at 6:31 in the Apollo capsule at the Cape Kennedy launch site.

ONE OF THOSE present described Webb's manner as "serious, calm without emotion." No instructions of secrecy were given in the room. Webb went back to the phone to call President Johnson. Dr. Edward C. Welsh, executive secretary of the Aeronautics and Space Council, went to another phone and called Vice President Humphrey, who is the Space Council chairman.

Billy Graham

I am an active church member and attend services regularly, but I just can't believe in heaven. I think that when you are dead you are dead.

It is very hard for me to give you an on-the-spot answer to such a question. Most likely you mean that you don't believe in the kind of heaven some people are talking about. I can't say that I agree with all of the views of people that I have heard describing heaven. On the other hand, because you do not agree with them, does not mean that when you are dead you are dead. Man has been fashioned for eternity. It is this capacity to think of himself as living forever that distinguishes him from the animal world.

What you are doing is not in one sense a sin. But in some mysterious way you have been misled or deceived. You are losing much of the joy and the anticipation that properly belongs to those who have accepted the words of the Savior who once said, "I go to prepare a place for you; and if I go, I will come again and receive you unto myself, that where I am, there ye may be also" (John 14:2). This is the heaven of the believer.

'ANY PEACE OVERTURES FROM FULBRIGHT?'

James Marlow

Johnson Deserves Sympathy

WASHINGTON (AP) — In his lonely job, President Johnson has to be the long-distance runner.

If he had failed to send troops into the Dominican Republic in 1965, and if the Communists had taken over, he never would have lived it down.

But the Communists didn't prevail and Johnson was criticized. Now that peace has been restored in the republic, criticism of Johnson has died down.

SINCE 1954 the United States, under Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy, had its hands in South Vietnam, wanting to keep it away from the Communists.

By the time Johnson took over in 1963 the Reds were getting closer to domination and by 1965 they looked only inches away.

If he had turned his back on the South Vietnamese then, he would have abandoned all previous efforts under Eisenhower and Kennedy to save the country.

And, if the Reds did take over, Johnson never would have lived that down, either. And his failure might have ruined his presidency.

FURTHER, the other Southeast Asia nations which had looked to this country for help against Communist attempts to swamp them—particularly since Red China dominated the continent—undoubtedly would have lost heart.

Johnson not only didn't withdraw American help from South Vietnam, but did the opposite. And the criticism of him for this never has stopped. But criticism from other groups, if he had withdrawn, wouldn't be over now, either.

HE ORDERED the bombing of North Vietnam and now he gets it from both sides at home. Those who claim to be appalled by the bombing and those who say he isn't bombing hard enough.

But if the North Vietnamese agree to quit fighting, if the other Southeast Asia nations are heartened by the American resistance to communism, if com-munistism then is indefinitely discouraged from new adventures, and if peace is restored to the whole area, Johnson eventually will be praised.

Thus he is in the spot of a man who knows he will be criticized no matter what he does, and all he can do is what he thinks best, believing in the end history will justify him.

IT'S A lonely process. It takes a long time. Meanwhile, he shows no signs of chickening out of his responsibilities as he sees them no matter which side at home tries to climb up his back.

But in the process he is plagued by a problem which has no parallel in American history. He not only has to think about the enemy in this case, North Vietnam, but about the Soviet Union and Red China, which are not directly involved.

Folks Should Hibernate?

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Science has raised the possibility that if people can learn to hibernate the average human lifespan might be increased from 70 years to 1,400 years. The reason: Some hibernating animals now live 20 times longer than other creatures that weigh the same but don't hibernate.

Do you know what fruit product is used most often in the American home? Well, it's coffee.

Here's potentially bad news for victims of rheumatism. Some meteorologists believe increased solar activity has made the earth's climate progressively warmer and drier since 1915. Now they feel an impending reduction of solar activity will make the weather colder and wetter for the next 30 to 45 years. So, better buy your heat pad now.

QUOTABLE notables: "The whole conviction of my life now rests upon the belief that loneliness, far from being a rare and curious phenomenon, peculiar to myself and to a few other solitary men, is the central and inevitable fact of human existence."—Thomas Wolfe.

How long can you live without eating? In Britain 13 obese patients took part in a total fasting experiment under medical supervision. One, a 54-year-old woman weighing 264 pounds, went without food for 249 days and lost 75 pounds. During the entire period she was fed only noncaloric liquids and vitamins. Another endured total starvation for 236 days. Both patients remained active healthy—and hungry.

SPEAKING of food, a wild male tiger can gulp down from 40 to 70 pounds of meat a night, but in a zoo he is usually rationed to about 14 to 16 pounds a day. The world's most voracious eater, however, is the ferocious shrew. This tiny animal must eat his own weight in food every few hours or be burned to death by the furnace of his own metabolism.

Worth remembering: "If at first you don't succeed, you're running about average." Fourteen U.S. presidents never saw military service. But can you name six presidents who served in two or more wars? There were George Washington, Andrew Jackson, William Henry Harrison, Zachary Taylor, U.S. Grant, and Dwight D. Eisenhower.

FIJI Islanders have figured out an easy way to catch fish. They tie a piece of narcotic weed to their line and dangle it in the water. When the fish nibble the weed they get so drowsy they can be plucked out of the water by hand.

It was Kin Hubbard who observed, "A true lady or gentleman remains at home with a grouse same as if they had pneumonia."

To Your Good Health

Is A Hat Necessary In Winter?

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
Dear Dr. Molner: We are two boys, aged 14 and 16, and our question concerns the necessity of wearing hats in colder weather. We are both healthy, eat well, are quite athletic and neither of us has had more than a cold for five years. We have average-length hair.

It is our contention that hats are not necessary for walking or driving in temperatures from 10 to 40 degrees. We do see the necessity for earmuffs, so we don't object to all headgear.—D. L. and M. L.

Do I sense a familiar family argument? Mother says, "Wear your hat or you'll get sick," and you say the opposite.

Mothers come by it naturally. They get the habit while making sure babies are warm enough. It's hard to shuck the habit 10 or 15 years later.

However, whether to wear a hat is mainly a matter of custom and comfort. You should like healthy, vigorous fellows, and if you don't mind the chill wind or a few snowflakes, there is no reason to wear a hat—if you're comfortable.

Ear muffs are a different matter, because frostbite is common and ears are the most vulnerable. In very cold weather, head covering helps conserve the total heat in your body. But when such protection is needed, it's cold enough so you won't have to be told to wear a hat or hood. You'll want it.

Dear Dr. Molner: My husband has gouty arthritis due to uric acid and we're told that his body cannot use it up, and crystals of it in the joints cause the pain. How can we cope with it?—MRS. A. S. F.

That's a pretty good thumb-nail explanation of why gout is painful. Modern drugs (called uricosuric agents) are proving very effective in helping the body to discharge excess uric acid. For a fuller explanation of how such drugs are used, I suggest reading my booklet, "Gout, The Modern Way to Treat It." Send 20 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to me in care of The Herald for a copy.

Dear Dr. Molner: Will you discuss nicotine poisoning? What are the symptoms? Is it dangerous to health? I have been very tired and nervous, have a fullness in my nose and ears and tightness in throat and upper chest.—D. S. W.

Nicotine poisoning could be related to your symptoms. It can cause quite a variety, among them fast heart, dizziness, sweating, nausea, vomiting, diarrhea, visual disturbances.

It occurs primarily in heavy smokers, particularly those sensitive to nicotine. It can, obviously, be harmful to health. The only cure is to stop using nicotine (tobacco).

Shingles can be a painful disease! To receive a copy of my booklet, "The Facts About Shingles," write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 10 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Around The Rim Step-Child Of The Parks System

Quite probably, the state's biggest untapped area for Indian and Spanish lore is Big Spring's own State Park.

The area, located atop Scenic Mountain in the southwest part of the city, has tens of thousands of visitors annually, yet the Texas State Parks Commission has never seen fit to appropriate a dime of money toward improving it as a tourist lure.

Because it offers a panoramic view of hundreds of square miles in all directions, it is a place unique in West Texas. There's nothing like it within a hundred miles and perhaps in Texas.

ON A RECENT Sunday, when there was nothing special to attract them there, more than 1,600 visitors to the place were counted. Were a recreational spot like Six Flags Over Texas, for instance, located on top of the mountain, it would, no doubt, draw visitors from all over the Southwest.

It's hard to understand the reasoning of the State Parks Board in refusing to invest money to improve the facility. The committee, for instance, spent several hundred thousand dollars not too long ago in creating a park near Zapata, a remote part of the state. The annual visitor count there amounted to something like 8,000 persons or less. The Big Spring park has that many visitors in a month.

TO BE FRANK, the State Parks Board hasn't done very well by West Texas when it comes to developing park sites. Perhaps that is partly due to the lack of representation the area has had on the vital committees which recommend funds for the various boards.

Where are the old Indian and Spanish markings in the Big Spring State Park, you ask?

Not many people, it seems, have seen them or even know they're there. One who has devoted much of his time toward seeking them out and can show you is Burl Cramer, hard-working manager of the park.

THE INDIANS of three and four centuries ago used the rock that is found in abundance on the mountain to mark the way to the original Big Spring. So did the Spanish, who were involved in a death struggle with the Mexicans more than two hundred years ago.

There is a magnificent eagle carved into the stone near Cramer's house. Regrettably, part of it was destroyed by vandals but it is still plainly identifiable.

CRAMER, not long ago, uncovered the grave of an Indian atop Scenic who obviously had been buried there many, many years ago. There may be others in the area. The Spanish surveyors used what is now the State Park as a focal point for laying out the boundary lines of what are now numerous West Texas counties—surveys that are still used and respected.

The park area has been with us so long we are all inclined to take it for granted. There is great potential there if only the citizenry would take advantage of it.

Our 'Psychological' Mistake

WASHINGTON—It's tough to be an American military commander these days, especially in Vietnam. No matter what the enemy does in attacking by mortar fire or bombs the villages and towns where American soldiers and civilians are stationed, news reports tell our armed forces that prominent persons in America are saying the United States shouldn't retaliate by bombing the enemy's strongholds, as this might be a "psychological" mistake.

Edwin O. Reischauer, who recently resigned as American ambassador to Japan, testified before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee recently. He said of the bombing of North Vietnam:

"HERE IS a psychological blunder on our part: The notion that blurring them to the negotiating table by making it painful enough. This is just a complete psychological misunderstanding."

On the same day, however, that Mr. Reischauer was testifying here, the premier of South Korea, which has sent troops to Vietnam, said in a public statement that the United States should continue its present bombing operations, as he believes this will hasten the start of peace negotiations.

MR. REISCHAUER, now a professor at Harvard, is chairman of the State Department's new panel of advisers on East Asia and Pacific affairs. He has had an opportunity to study the currents of opinion in Asia and says that he agrees in general with the American objectives but differs somewhat in how they should be attained.

No government around the world, of course, likes to have a foreign army come to its continent and become involved there in any country's affairs. International law, however, does say that, whenever an existing government seeks assistance of another power and asks that military force be sent to help repel aggression, it is proper for such aid to be given.

THE FORCES of the United States are in Vietnam to help a small nation which requested our intervention. But it is a realistic fact, too often overlooked, that both Red China and the Soviet Union have from the very beginning been furnishing military supplies to support the guerrilla war against South Vietnam.

Nothing was said by Mr. Reischauer about the "psychological blunder" of the Soviets or the Red Chinese. He was thinking solely in terms of the criticisms he must have heard in Asia while ambassador to Japan—namely, that the United States is at least a quasi-imperialistic power seeking domination and military advantage.

Mr. Reischauer presents a paradox when he says:

"WE SHOULD not sponsor political, social, or economic change in Asian countries, though we should be responsive to requests from them for aid in carrying out such changes, whenever we judge that these changes would help in the healthy development of these countries and that our aid could usefully contribute to this end."

Mr. Reischauer says the United States "should not seek to play the role of leader in Asia, rallying allies to our policies, but should attempt to withdraw to the role of a friendly outside supporter of individual or collective Asian initiatives."

THIS IS precisely what President Johnson has tried to do. Nothing would please the American government more than to have the Asians take care of their own affairs. But as long as there are dictators and autocracies possessed of nuclear power in Asia and Europe, the United States cannot desert the small nations of the world and fail to provide assistance for them.

'Goldflow' A Big Problem

NEW YORK (AP) — Solid gold really doesn't flow, of course, but the "goldflow" will be one of the nation's most persistent and serious problems this year.

The apparent contradiction isn't the only one that relates to the brilliant, malleable and scarce metal that is almost universally accepted as payment for purchases and debt.

You must question man's judgment about the value and power of gold, for instance, when you view it stacked in subterranean vaults, seldom admired, seemingly never used for anything constructive and seldom made into anything but 28-pound bricks.

THE GOLDFLOW — the movement of gold to and from the nation's vaults — will nevertheless, be one of the big stories of the year. "The United States supply is diminishing and therefore our prestige is at stake. Gold is power."

Here, greatly simplified, is the background on this continuing story: Before the 1920s the United States literally was on the gold standard. A person could really trade in his paper money for gold. The paper, therefore was good as gold—and much lighter and easier to handle.

There were several disadvantages. One of these was that commerce could expand only as fast as gold could be found and mined. This was absurd, for the gold supply depended on mining rather than on the demands of trade.

MOST COUNTRIES abandoned the gold standard, including the United States in 1934. We called in our gold coins and certificates. We stopped redeeming paper money in gold.

Instead, we settled on a formula: We would maintain only a percentage of gold for the money we printed. The gold then became more symbolic. To limit the money presses, we established a legal ceiling. Trust not reposed in the Treasury.

Because we could print much more money than could be redeemed in gold we could now vary the amount of paper in circulation so as to meet our needs. We didn't have to wait until it was mined.

GOLD, however, continued in international trade. Any foreign nation still could cash in $35 for an ounce of gold. Since we guaranteed this, most nations continued to use the dollar bill. They had just as much confidence in it.

Some nations developed a surplus beyond their needs, however. They converted. We paid in gold. In fact, if any nation thought it couldn't convert—if it lost confidence in the dollar—international trade would be a mess.

How did foreigners get this surplus? Ironically, the great wealth of the United States had something to do with it. Since we have plenty of money we spend a lot, much of it abroad. We leave our dollars there and take home goods.

TOURISTS traveling in Europe contribute to this outflow. American corporations building plants abroad are partly responsible. Foreign aid, of all things, contributes. Our military commitments make a huge impact.

In other words, when we spend more abroad than we receive from abroad we incur a balance of payments deficit. Dollars accumulate abroad. They can be cashed. Right now we have more dollars abroad than gold in our vaults.

How do we lessen the problem?

FIRST, by selling more abroad than foreigners sell to us. Then by decreasing our payments abroad, maybe by cutting military spending or by asking companies to raise money overseas rather than shipping it from the United States. And finally by attracting more foreign investments.

Simple in theory, difficult in practice. The problems are tough and the consequences are big. Too many dollars abroad might mean that the dollar will decline in value relative to other currencies and to gold. If we don't maintain our promise of $35 an ounce our prestige diminishes.

BY CHARLES H. GOREN

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

AK83 QK5 J107 AKQ743

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

Pass Pass 1 Pass

2 Pass ?

What is your response?

A—Two no trump. A bid of three clubs would be poor strategy. If the hand is to be played at no trump, which is not unlikely, you should be declarer to protect your two kings against attack on the opening lead.

Q. 2—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:

Q432 QK986 AKQ10973

Your partner opens with two no trump. What is your response?

A—Six clubs. You may have a grand slam if partner holds the right cards, but there is no way to find out scientifically. Furthermore, a series of probing bids might give the opposition a valuable clue in defending the hand.

Q. 3—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

AJ2 QAJ5 Q1063 AKJ109

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1 Pass 2 Pass

2 Pass 2 NT Pass

3 Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A—Three spades. Your hand is not quite strong enough to persist with the no trump in face of partner's warning. Although your personal preference is for hearts, the best partnership trump holding is spades, for presumably partner has six spades and four hearts. Remember, he could spade before showing hearts.

Q. 4—Neither vulnerable, partner opens with one heart, and you hold:

AKQ93 QAJ5 Q432 475

What do you bid?

A—Two hearts. There is a distinct objection to responding with one spade. If partner happens to rebid two hearts, you will then feel obliged to raise to three, which would be doing too much bidding on the values held.

Where you are not strong enough to do both, the raise of partner's major suit should be made.

Q. 5—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:

AK5 Q976 QK643 AK754

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1 Pass 1 NT Pass

2 Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A—Three hearts, or, with a conservative partner, four hearts. The important consideration is not to persist with no trump because you have stoppers in the other suits. Partner is marked with at least five hearts and four spades and must be short in the other directions.

Q. 6—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:

AK1075 Q2 K1076 AK54

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

Pass Pass 1 Pass

2 Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A—It would be improper to respond with two diamonds, because partner may have opened light to try for a part score and, since you have previously passed, he may leave you in two diamonds. The slight overbid of three spades is recommended. If partner has opened a mild hand, he will recall your previous pass and refuse to go on.

Q. 7—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:

AK64 QAT3 QAJ1072 495

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1 Pass 1 NT Pass

2 Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A—Pass. Game is hopeless, since you have only 15 points in high cards. Partner has a maximum point count of 10.

Q. 8—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:

AK64 QAT3 QAJ1072 495

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1 Pass 1 Pass

2 Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A—Pass. You have already done your noble duty by the hand.

Mrs. Fitzhugh Dies Today

New Route Approved For Highway Around Lake

The Texas Highway Department has announced an agreement on rerouting State Highway 158 around the south end of the new dam across the Colorado River above Robert Lee.

J. A. Snell, San Angelo, District 7 highway engineer, and members of his staff met last weekend at the site with O. H. Ivie, general manager of the Colorado River Municipal Water District and the consulting engineers for the dam project, and settled on a route for the diverted road from Sterling City to Robert Lee.

The new route will leave the existing SH 158 about five miles west of Robert Lee. It will swing to the southeast and across the emergency spillway near the crest, then pull back to a junction of SH 158 and SH 208 in Robert Lee. The district had suggested a route across the spillway but accepted changes suggested by the highway department.

Snell said that right-of-way surveying would be started at once and would be completed within about two months. The road is due to be rebuilt well in advance of the closing of the CRMW's new dam, which will impound a 488,000-acre-foot lake.

Only one other road problem remains in connection with the new lake. It involves the construction of a higher bridge across the river (and upper end of the lake) west of Silver, but this may be done even after the dam is closed.

It's Going To Be Costly To Clean Air

HOUSTON (AP)—The chairman of a House subcommittee studying air and water pollution said today that science and industry are behind in their efforts to meet the problem, and catching up is going to cost "tens of billions of dollars."

Rep. Emilio Q. Daddario, D-Conn., said in remarks prepared for delivery at a Rice University seminar on pollution that the problem will end only after pollution control is day-to-day commercial and government policy.

Daddario said that his subcommittee spent weeks last year taking testimony from representatives of government, industry and research organizations.

He said the hearings showed that the problem "has not yet attracted sufficient attention from the scientific and engineering community," which must provide standards by which to enforce anti-pollution laws.

He said the "obvious and obnoxious cases of pollution" such as dust and smoke in the air and floating waste and oil slicks in the water "all can be taken care of today."

"Pittsburgh is an example of cleaned air. The goals of the Ohio River Sanitation Commission specify freedom from flots and suspended material," he said.

From there, Daddario said, it will be possible to turn to production of electric power with no threat to metropolitan areas and to research into automobile engines which will run more efficiently, lowering the pollutants they now produce.

Beyond, Daddario said, are problems of gauging "subtle biological effects" and judging esthetic matters such as the color of water or the way the air smells.

World-Famed Jazz Clarinetist Dies

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Edmond Hall, 65, world-famed jazz clarinetist who was featured with many of the top Dixieland bands of his day, died Saturday of a heart attack.

HemisFair Filibuster Due Again

AUSTIN (AP)—Construction has started on the 622-foot tower of the Americas in San Antonio, but Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas was expected today to huff and puff and try again to blow it down.

Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall, pushing for approval of Gov. John Connally's $6.38 million emergency appropriations bill, which includes $5.5 million for San Antonio's 1968 HemisFair, said he would bring the bill up for the third time today.

Last week he had a little trouble from Parkhouse and Sen. H. J. Blanchard of Lubbock.

Blanchard and Parkhouse started a filibuster Wednesday against the bill and Parkhouse continued it Thursday with talk about Abraham Lincoln.

The Senate saw that nothing more would be done Thursday, so it adjourned after only 23 minutes of Parkhouse's discourse—until today.

The House also met only briefly Thursday.

Rep. Dewitt Hale of Corpus Christi said he probably would bring up the presidential disability amendment to the U.S. Constitution today.

The amendment was ratified Friday afternoon when Nevada's Legislature became the 38th to approve it.

Nevada and Minnesota were neck and neck in the race to cast the 38th vote. Texas never was in the running because, for one thing, its legislature didn't meet Friday.

The House Counties Committee was expected to approve the airport authority bill today, and Rep. Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth said he expected it to win tentative approval in the House Tuesday. The bill permits organization of an airport authority in two or more counties.

The one per cent city sales tax is scheduled to come up for hearing Tuesday before the House Tax Committee and the Senate Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns.

Here's 21 Major Income Tax Tips

Editor's Note: Sometimes, taxpayers leave out the simplest things on their income tax returns, causing considerable difficulty on occasion. This article, first in a series of five, sums up the basic facts for a tax return.

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Writer

Twenty-one major points on filing your 1966 income tax return:

1. The deadline is midnight Monday, April 17. By then the return must be in the hands of the Internal Revenue Service or in the mails.

2. Report only taxable income, like salary and bank interest. Some income is nontaxable, like Social Security payments, and should not be reported.

3. List your Social Security number on your return—there's a place for it—because there is a penalty for failing to do so.

4. If a wife had income under $600 and therefore is not required to file a return, the husband can claim no exemption for her unless she files jointly with him.

5. Generally, husbands and wives save by filing a joint return, whether or not the wife had income. If in doubt, try it both ways to decide.

6. You can get a refund—if too much tax was withheld from you—but only by filing a return.

7. You must file a return if you were under 65—this includes children—and had income of $600 or more, whether or not you owe any tax on it. Parents are responsible for filing returns for their children if they are unable to do so.

8. If you were 65 or older, no return is needed unless your income subject to tax was $1,200 or more. The same goes for your wife. You were considered 65 for all of 1966 if your 65th birthday was as late as Jan. 1, 1967.

9. Everyone filing a return gets a $600 exemption—meaning that much knocked off his income if he's under 65—$1,200 if he's 65 or older.

You get a $600 exemption for your wife if she is under 65—$1,200 if she is 65 or older—provided she files jointly with you or, being without income, fails to file jointly, and is not claimed as the dependent of someone else.

10. If a wife had income under $600 and therefore is not required to file a return, the husband can claim no exemption for her unless she files jointly with him.

11. If a wife must file a return, because her income was $600 or over, she can file jointly with her husband, in which case each claims a $600 exemption on the one return. If the wife files separately, she takes her exemption on her return, the husband claims his exemption on his return.

12. If you were self-employed you must file a return, regardless of age, if you had self-employment income of $400 or more. You'd use Form 1040 and Schedule C.

13. Anyone under or over 65, even though receiving Social Security payments, must pay a Social Security tax on any taxable earned income. There's a limit on how much income he can earn and still draw Social Security payments. If in doubt, consult your Social Security office.

14. Everyone filing a return is allowed deductions for personal expenses. But how you take them depends on your personal case.

15. There are two ways to find the tax: in a tax table or by figuring it yourself. But this is a limited operation. Only people with under $5,000 income can use the tax table, and only some of them can.

16. There are two main forms for making a return: 1040 and 1040A. The latter, a punchboard, is simpler. But not everyone can use this, either. Anyone can use 1040. Anyone with $10,000 or more income, or who itemizes deductions, must use 1040.

17. There are special rules for military people who served in the Vietnam area. The pay of an enlisted man doesn't have to be reported and is free of tax for any month, a part of which he served in Vietnam and its adjacent waters or was hospitalized anywhere as a result of wounds, disease or injury incurred in Vietnam or those adjacent waters.

18. The IRS sends taxpayers an instruction pamphlet. Be sure to read it. If you don't have it, get it, since it contains tax forms, schedules, tables, the arrangement for figuring the Social Security self-employment tax, state sales tax tables and state gasoline taxes which are deductible if you are itemizing your deductions.

19. For a lot of people one of the best helps they can get is to buy the government's book of instructions on filing a return—"Your Federal Income Tax"—which has 160 pages and costs 50 cents. It's available from the Government Printing Office in Washington and at IRS offices. It goes into far more details than any one person will need or than can be covered in a series like this.

20. Some examples of taxable income which must be reported: Wages, salaries, tips, fees, bonuses, salaries, commissions, interest on U.S. saving bond, commissions, profits from business, rents, royalties, prizes and awards when you did something to win them.

21. Some examples of nontaxable income which does not have to be reported in making your return: Insurance proceeds, damages paid and so on for injury or death; life insurance payments on death; dividends on veterans' insurances; disability retirement payments and other benefits paid by the Veterans Administration; gifts; inheritances; bequests; Railroad Retirement Act benefits.

Direct Election Debate Scheduled

HOUSTON (AP)—The proposal that the Electoral College be scrapped in favor of direct election of the president and vice-president of the United States was ready for debate today before the policy-making body of the American Bar Association.

At the association's mid-year meeting, its 286-member House of Delegates also faced argument of a controversial tax statement proposed as the official stand of the 123,000-member group.

The Electoral College proposal would urge a constitutional election of the president and vice president. The winning candidate would have to receive at least 40 per cent of the popular vote. If none of the candidates received the plurality, a runoff would be held between the top two.

The election reform statement headed by the delegates with the blessing of the ABA's board of governors, but their approval was withheld from the tax proposal.

Written without companion legislation, the tax proposal would place the ABA in a position of asking Congress to prescribe limitations upon state and local taxation of enterprises in interstate commerce. In addition, it would seek limitations on requiring such firms to collect the taxes for state and local governments.

The awards were made Saturday night in Hollywood.

HOUSTON (AP)—Two men in ski masks and black clothing held a construction executive and his wife in bed at gunpoint Sunday while they looted the couple's plush west side home of nearly $30,000 in jewelry.

The victims were Mr. and Mrs. Foster Parker. He is vice president and treasurer of Brown & Root, Inc.

Mrs. Parker went to investigate a noise and was backed into the bedroom by the intruders. They told her to get in bed and pull the covers over her head. "And nothing will happen to you."

Parker told one man the location of valuables and he went after them while the other stood guard. The men took $46 in cash and $29,920 in jewels.

The Parkers told police the two thugs addressed each other as "Stud" and "Number 1." They described "Stud" as about 25, 5-10 and weighing about 170 pounds. "Number 1" was 25 to 30, stood six feet tall and weighed about 180.
