DS' PERFECT RECORD ON LINE

County Championship 'Up For Grabs' Friday

loyd County football — will be at stake Friday night when the Floydada Whirlwinds and the Lockney Longhorns square off at p.m.

Always a tough game for the 'Winds, the Lockney contest this year has some added spice because it's the Lockney High Homecoming game, and the 'Horns are still in the district race with a 2-1 conference mark.

Lockney's only district loss came last week when Tulia, the pre-season loop favorites, knocked them off 8-0. The Whirlwinds and Tulia are unbeaten through three district games.

"To a lot of people, this game means as much as a district championship," Whirlwind head coach L. G. Wilson said this week. "Whoever loses this one has to live with it for a year", he added.

So far, Wilson hasn't had to "live with it" — since he came here in 1968, his 'Winds have a 4-0 record against their "up-north" county rivals, winning 8-7 that year, 24-20 in the 1969 campaign, 42-8 in 1970, and 35-14 last year.

About Lockney, Wilson said, "They have a fine offensive team — Lockey always does a real fine job of execution on offense, and we expect a good defensive effort from them. All around — passing, running and kicking — the Longhorns are one of the best teams we've faced this year."

Offensive balance seems to be the Longhorns' strong point, and they've been able to move the ball against everybody they have played so far this year, according to Wilson, who described the Longhorns as "a dangerous ball club."

The Whirlwinds should be near full speed, for the first time in several weeks. Gary Sanders, out for two games, will be able to play some, Mike Hale will probably be healthy, West Whittle should be full speed again, and halfback Mark Vinson showed a little sign last week of an injury that sidelined him two weeks ago, as he scored two touchdowns and turned in a healthy-looking blocking performance in the 'Winds' 41-6 conquest of Idalou. Whirlwind running backs Jerry Hearon and Rex Rose, with Vinson and quarterback John Cagle, make up what has turned into a formidable offensive backfield. Hearon, with nine touchdowns this season, and Vinson, with eight TD's and six conversion points, share the 4-AA scoring lead with Abernathy's Dane Vickers.

Robert Delgado, Lockney's 5-8, 160-pound fullback, leads the 'Horns in scoring with four touchdowns this campaign. Delgado rushed for more than 200 yards, including a 97-yard touchdown run, when the Longhorns played Idalou in their district opener. Halfbacks John Clark (6-4, 190), Paul Moore (5-11, 160), Dart Carthel (5-11, 160) and John Mathis, have shared ball-toting duties with Delgado this year.

The Longhorn quarterback, Larry Cunyus, is a 5-11, 160-pound senior who likes to throw the "bomb" to ends Louie Bybee (5-8, 145) and Willie Phillips (5-11, 160).

Ricky Gross, a 200-pounder, and Ramiro Hernandez, at 240, anchor the Longhorn defensive line.

The starting lineup for the Whirlwinds, released Tuesday, looks like this:

OFFENSE

Ends — Mike Hale and Marc Smitherman
Tackles — West Whittle and Steve Hale
Guards — Steve Holmes and Ruben DeLeon
Center — Jay Jones
Quarterback — John Cagle
Halfbacks — Mark Vinson and Jerry Hearon

DEFENSE

Ends — Mike Hale and Steve Hale

Hinsley Wins 1st In Grid Contest

Each of the winners — there were four of them again this time — in The Hesperian football contest missed three games, and it was close on the tie-breaker, the first-place winner missing the correct total of the Floydada-Idalou game by only two points and the third-place winners (a tie again) by just six.

Michael Hinsley, 115 W. Houston, Floydada, claimed first place and $7.50 with three wrong picks and a tie-breaker estimate of 45 (actual total, of course, 47, as the 'Winds won 41-6).

Hinsley's misses were on Lubbock High's upset of Plainview, the surprising Littlefield-Morton tie, and the Panhandle-Phillips contest, won by Panhandle.

Jim Curtsinger, Box 285, Idalou, was only three points away from first place, with three misses and 42 for a tie-breaker guess. The Idalou contestant's entry earned him $5 second-place money.

Curtsinger went wrong on Lubbock-Plainview (like just about everybody else), Lorenzo-Petersburg (the Hornets upset the Buffs), and the big tie at Morton.

A pair of Floydadans, Gladys Jones and Glenda Wilson, tied for third and split $2.50. Mrs. Jones missed the Tahoka-Roosevelt game, won by the Bulldogs, as well as (yep) Lubbock-Plainview and Littlefield-Morton, and Mrs. Wilson's wrong picks were the same as Curtsinger's. Both had guesses of 41 for the tie-breaker.

Fifteen other contestants registered just three misses but were eliminated on the tie-breaker — Clarence Denton, Jack Fuqua (twice), Joy Allen, Jay Jones, Vickie Rainer, Claude Weathersbee, Dwayne Wilson, Royce Chadwick, Mike Estes and Bryant Higginbotham, all of Floydada; Mrs. Charles McDonough and Dan Noll, of Petersburg; Conley Bradford of Big Spring; Jerry Gentry, Crosbyton; and Charles Didway of Post made honorable mention but (alas) received no cash.

Tommy Cathey and 23 others missed four games.

Floydadans did well in the Lockney Beacon contest last week, as Rance Thompson took first, Leigh Weathersbee won second, and Sammy Hale came in third.

The football contests appear in the Sunday edition of The Hesperian/Beacon. Entry deadline is 5 p.m. Friday, and anybody except employees of The Hesperian and Beacon may enter.

Floyd Elects Nixon, Tower, Briscoe, James And Cates

A little over 3,000 Floyd County voters went to the polls Tuesday and joined the nation re-electing President Nixon, joined the state in electing Dolph Briscoe governor, John Tower U.S. Senator, and Jesse James as state treasurer.

Floyd voters also joined this state representative district in electing Phil Cates. The final count for the district was Cates 12,948 and Tom Christian 11,476.

This makes the third general election in the last four that Floyd voters have voted Republican for the President. In 1960 they voted for Nixon over Kennedy, in 1964 they voted for Johnson over Goldwater, in 1968 they voted for Nixon over Humphrey.

FM 2286 East Of 207

Paving Authorized In Floyd

The Texas Highway Commission today approved development of 4.0 miles of Farm to Market Roads in Floyd County as part of the 1972 Texas Farm to Market Program.

The construction will extend FM 2286 eastward four miles from its intersection with State Highway 207, one mile south of South Plains. Senior Resident Engineer Sam Fowler of Floydada is in charge of construction.

District Highway Engineer Oscar L. Crain of the Texas Highway Department said the estimated cost of the work is $122,000.00.

The work authorized for this county is part of a $20.4 million program for the development of 438 miles of secondary roads in the state.

The new program includes 335.7 miles of new construction. Of that total, 321.7 miles are new roads being added to the FM system. Other mileage was designated earlier and is being constructed in incremental stages.

Of the new roads being added to the system, 248.4 miles, or 77 percent, are for school bus routes; and 210.1 miles, or 65 percent, are for rural mail delivery routes.

Originally intended to get the Texas farmer or rancher out of the mud and to provide for movement of agricultural products to market, the FM system now also affords tourists and travelers access to hundreds of new lakes and recreational areas of the state.

In addition, the FM system supports the movement of goods and workers to the many new industries now operating in smaller cities and towns in Texas.

7th Grade Wins Last Grid Game

The Floydada Junior High School seventh-grade Breezers wiped out Hereford Tuesday evening, 14-0.

Guy Ledbetter, stocky, swift halfback, scored all 14 points for Floydada's Breezers.

Rusty Cagle's 30-yard pass to Quinn Coleman set up the second touchdown.

Outstanding line play by Jackie Carthel and Ricky Covington aided the Floydada defense.

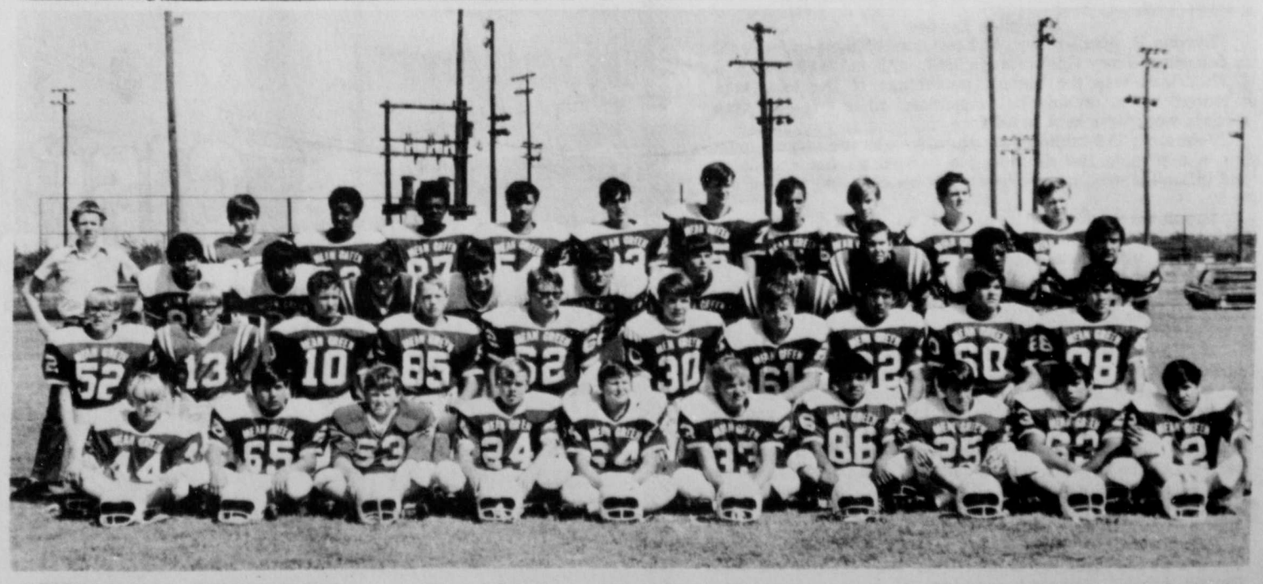

Ledbetter's second touchdown came on a 25-yard run with 27 seconds left on the clock in the third quarter.

Hard running by Ricky Covington gave Floydada several first downs.

The Breezers seventh-graders wound up the season with only a tie to mar a perfect record.

The eighth-grade Breezer team didn't fare so well Tuesday evening, losing to Hereford by a 58-0 count.

Legislators' Pay Boosts Denied

By MIKE COCHRAN
Associated Press Writer

Texas voters torpedoed pay raises for legislators and two top state officials but ruled that the bulky, antique state constitution needs sweeping revision.

They gave the green light to 11 of 14 proposed constitutional amendments, including tax exemptions for disabled veterans and senior citizens.

And while rejecting salary hikes for the lieutenant governor and Texas House speaker, they granted the governor and certain other elected state officials four-year terms.

Those were among the highlights of Tuesday's amendment decisions that saw approval for a women's rights proposal and a new salary procedure for compensating justices of the peace.

Raise Interest Ceiling

Voters scuttled the Lamar County Hospital District, approved more liberal submission of constitutional amendments and gave the go-ahead for a dual officeholding provision for state employes.

They likewise raised the ceiling on bond interest rates to six per cent and granted county commissioners access to their county permanent school funds.

The cliff hanger of the evening developed over Amendment No. 9. This proposal would exempt directors of soil and water conservation districts from the prohibitions against dual office-holding and dual compensation.

The Texas Election Bureau's final report before shutting down for the night showed the proposal failing by more than 40,000 votes.

Rewrite Document

Most importantly perhaps, voters issued a mandate for the Legislature to rewrite the Constitution, a patchwork 53,000-word document adopted in 1876 after a turbulent decade of carpetbag government.

The amendment provides for a constitutional revision commission which would report recommendations by Nov. 1, 1973. The 63rd Legislature would then meet early in 1974 to draft a document for submission to voters.

Newly elected Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby was among a powerful group supporting revision. Few questioned the need, but many objected to letting the legislative branch draft a new constitution.

Legislators, however, took it on the chin salary-wise, their proposal for a $300 monthly raise solidly rejected. It was a spinoff perhaps from the Sharpstown scandal which spread into Austin like the plague.

Four Year Terms

Voters viewed with even less favor a proposal that would have hiked the salaries of the lieutenant governor and speaker to $22,500 annually.

Voter approval of four-year terms for the state's top elected officials was somewhat unexpected. Former Gov. John Connally pushed for extended terms during his tenure but the electorate turned thumbs down.

The decision by the voters becomes effective with the 1974 election.

Texans left little doubt about their concern for veterans, the aged and women's rights, approving amendments favoring all three by whopping margins.

Exemptions Raised

The proposals provide property tax exemptions of $3,000 on the homesteads of those over age 65 and similar tax exemptions for disabled veterans.

The so-called women's rights amendment provides that equality under the law shall not be denied or abridged because of sex, race, color, creed or national origin.

Approval of Amendment No. 12 was of particular importance to what supporters contended were 350,000 disenfranchised Texans.

The change allows state employes or others paid from state funds, who are not state officers, to serve as members of the governing bodies of school districts, towns or other governmental units, but receiving no pay from the local governing body.

Nixon's Victory Rated Among Big Landslides

(By The Associated Press)

Only three times in the recent past has there been a presidential landslide approaching the magnitude chalked up by President Nixon over Democratic challenger George McGovern.

The usual definition of a presidential landslide is a victory with 60 per cent or more of the popular vote.

With more than 75 per cent of the nation"s voting units counted early today, Nixon had more than 60 per cent of the popular vote.

Landslide Lyndon

Lyndon B. Johnson won 61.1 per cent of the popular vote in defeating Barry Goldwater in 1964, with 43,126,506 votes to 27,176,799. It was the highest percentage of the total vote captured by a presidential candidate since popular vote records were first kept in 1824.

Johnson's 15.9-million vote plurality was the largest margin in a presidential election. He carried all but six states and officially won the presidency by an electoral vote of 486 to 52.

Franklin D. Roosevelt carried all but two states — Maine and Vermont — in his crushing defeat of Alf Landon in 1936. It was the nearest anyone has come to carrying every state in modern political history.

He had 27,751,612 votes to Landon's 16,681,913 and he won 522 to 8 in the Electoral College.

GOP Sweep

Warren G. Harding was the only other Republican swept into the White House in true landslide fashion. He captured 60.3 per cent of the vote in defeating James M. Cox in 1920. He won 404 electoral votes to 127 for Cox, with a popular vote of 16,152,200 to 9,147,353.

Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower was elected with 56.5 per cent of the popular vote in 1952 and 57.4 per cent in 1956.

George Washington set the standard for presidential landslides. The Electoral College unanimously chose him president in 1789 and 1792.

James Monroe was elected president in 1820 by a vote of 231 to 1 in the Electoral College. One vote was cast for John Quincy Adams, Monroe's secretary of state and a fellow member of a coalition then known as the Democratic Republican party.

Jesse James Squeaks By Opponent

James had 1,188,487 votes to 1,074,739 for Angly and 78,811 for Raza Unida candidate Ruben Solis. Tunnell had amassed 1,327,240 votes to 778,015 for Segrest.

Angly conceded defeat at 1:45 a.m., saying "James said he'd beat me by a million votes. I'd like to see him now. He didn't do it. But, that's not much help when you lose."

James' victory over Angly, 31, re-established his grip on the guardianship of the state's bankroll and indicated the voters of Texas hold him blameless in Texas stock scandal in which $10 million in state funds spent time in the Sharpstown State Bank in Houston at a low rate of interest.

Angly charged that James was the man who made the scandal possible. But James ignored the charges and conducted a low-key newspaper campaign stressing honesty and tenure.

He repeated the pledge he Jesse James, withstanding the strong challenge of Dirty 30 reformer Maurice Angly, has again claimed in a surprisingly close vote the state treasurer's post he has held since 1941.

James, 68, who has conducted 16 campaigns on an honesty theme, took an early lead over the Austin legislator, then ever slowly built his margin to 100,000-plus from the more than 2 million votes.

Graham's Carpet Cleaner

STEAM

Contract & Rentals

A jet spray is used to inject pressurized water, steam and a special cleaning chemical into all thickness of carpet and rugs.

The United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare has strongly suggested the use of steam cleaning. Aside from soil, grime, fumes, smog and residues causing damage to carpet fabrics, even to a point where cleaning is of no value, this same accumulation of dirt and filth causes a health hazard, especially to children playing on the floor.

Representatives of the carpet industry report that steam cleaning and extraction can cut down replacement of carpet by as much as 50 per cent. This is because steam cleaning pulls the carpet fiber gently up and extracts the dirt without damage to the fiber.

The old shampoo method, with rotary action, does just the opposite by packing a large percentage of dirt further into the carpet and packing fibers down. There is no rotary action with our method to erase the surface dirt only and wear away the nap and fiber.

For further information and estimate. You will be Surprised at the reasonable cost.

Impressive Ceremony Unites Miss Shurbet And Gary Pate

In an impressive ceremony read Thursday, November 2, Midd Dea Shawn Shurbet became the bride of Gary Lloyd Pate. Dr. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, performed the double-ring vows at 7:30 p.m. in the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. D. W. Fyffe

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shurbet of Floydada are parents of the bride and Mrs. Billy Landess of Page, Ariz., is mother of the groom.

The marriage was performed before draped windows highlighted by two branched candelabras with white tapers and brass floor baskets containing white mums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white crepe fashioned with an Empire bodice and low neck. The Victorian sleeves were complemented by a gold woven band and wide cuffs. A gold woven band also accented the midriff at the waist. The scalloped flared skirt was designed with tiny organdy pleats.

She carried a bouquet of small white mums centered by a yellow throated orchid, placed on a white Bible. The Bible was carried by her mother at her wedding.

The bride wore diamond earrings belonging to an aunt and a diamond pendant, gift from the groom.

For the reception held in the Fyffe home, aunts of the bride, Mrs. Don Shurbet, Floydada; Mrs. Allen McLain, Dimmitt and Mrs. Bonnie Cavin of Fort Worth, presided. At the guest register was Miss Julie Poage, Floydada, niece of the groom.

The serving table was laid with a white cloth over pink, accented by a pink net skirt. The wedding cake centered the table and nosegays were at each corner. Silver appointments were used.

For traveling to California Mrs. Pate changed to an orange pantsuit, topped with a jacket of beige, tan and orange plaid. The couple will be at home briefly at Ft. Ord, Calif., before going to Hawaii where the groom is expected to be stationed for the next year.

Mrs. Pate is a 1972 graduate of Floydada High School and prior to her marriage was an assistant lab technician at Caprock Hospital in Floydada. Her husband, a 1971 Floydada graduate, attended San Angelo State College before entering service in June of 1972.

cry from corn grown by the early settlers with a dead fish under each hill.

Cotton was first grown in flower beds, before they knew the fibers could be made into cloth. The difficulty at first was removing the seed by hand, which was a very slow process. Then Eli Whitney invented the cotton gin. He was a Yale graduate and had never seen cotton grow, but a farmer suggested he figure out a better way to remove the seed so he did. With his invention, 50 pounds a day could be separated from the seed. Many feared people would be out of work as a result of the wonderful invention. Wouldn't Eli be surprised if he visited a modern gin? As America grew, the cattle business grew and flourished. The method of raising and marketing has changed since the cattle were driven over the Chisolm Trail to market. We are all dependent upon the livestock producers for our meat — yet except for the western movies on TV, few would know about the sagebrush, the prairie dogs, the blizzards, and the hot sun as the big herds were moved across the Plains.

In New England, many secured their living from the sea and still do. Water covers 3/5 of the globe, yet we know very little about the bottom of the sea. Man has climbed the highest mountains, beaten his way through the jungles, explored the moon, yet the ocean floor for the most part is unknown Here is a new field of study, a Lockney man, Morris Ewing, is very prominent on oceanography. Because of this study, Americans are drawing a good harvest from the sea.

America has furnished wealth in the form of coal, iron, and oil. The early Indians used oil that seeped from the ground to ease swollen sprains, bruises, and toothaches. The invention of the combustion engine brought the drilling of oil wells. Not oil for toothache and bruises, but for paving, roofing, shoe material, synthetic rubber, paint, varnish, soap, wax, anti-freeze, and even super power gasoline. We have now come into this inheritance. Too our generation has been given the American earth, the richness of the forest, the wheat, the cotton, and corn fields, the wide prairie with all its rich resources.

When the first settlers stood on the Atlantic shores, they wondered what lay behind the trees. Would they have the courage to face the dangers that were in this strange place?

We don't belong to that generation of the past but the past belongs to us. We have inherited all that went before and into our land is given all her priceless heritage.

Many great men and women have been born in our country and others have come here to live. Our country has produced inventors, doctors, lawyers, authors, musicians, and teachers, whose work has enriched the world.

In New York City is a building called "The Hall of Fame" for great Americans. Every five years a committee selects some people to be honored in this way. Yet there were many who were not so well and are not in the "Hall of Fame."

The service they did for our country marks them as great. Many are not in history at all. They are the so-called common people. They are the farmers who dug out the rock on the New England farms so they could farm the land. Those who lived in dugouts on the Plains. Those who traveled by horseback and wagon trains to settle the West. They are all hard working, imaginative, honest, and fearless people who have been the background of our country.

I am thankful to live in a land that produced all these people. I'm bound to think that there is something in the American way of life that has encouraged each person to do his best and build the America we have today. Our forefatheers wanted to build a nation built on liberty, reason, and justice.

Today we are unrivaled in wealth and power. Yet we have racial strife and poverty in the midst of plenty. Our greatest need is for peace and eradication of poverty. The Saviour said "The poor you have with you always" so I doubt that poverty can ever be completely eradicated. But it is a shame for children to go to bed hungry.

We need justice for the American black people. However, nowhere in the world does the Negro maintain as good a standard of living as he does in America. 100,000 Negroes a year change from poverty to middle class. In the last 10 years, the number of black people earning $7,000 a year has doubled. A U. S. Negro is more likely to go to college than any citizen in Britain or West Germany.

Many are concerned about the creeping control of Federal Government. Government planning appeals to some. Planning is necessary, but we might question who does it — should we be forced to use the Master Plan by the politicians.

Some think we are not capable of planning so the government full of wisdom, should do it for us. So they tax away all the income except for the bare necessities. In this arrangement, no one pays for the education of his children — everybody pays for everybody's. This program produces the welfare state. This is a great fiction by which everyone tries to live at the expense of everyone else.

This is the outcome when effort is separated from reward. It is taken from those who earn more and given to those who earn less. When those who earn less than average have the deficiency turned over to them in handouts, the production of everyone declines. The able lose their incentive to produce more than average. The slothful lose their incentive to improve their condition. When you do anything for someone he could do for himself, yhou have not helped him — you have really hindered him, for you have suppressed his desire to do for himself.

Free paper is given to the migrants and I find paper wadded in the waste basket with only the date wrong. No need to erase, it's free. Someone pays, it may be you.

Ours is a complex society and if we are going to correct it, we are going to have to assume some personal responsibility. For most of us, life is reasonably comfortable. It is easy to suppose that we are safely insulated from the problems that beset thiis land, that they are someone else's problem, not ours. But they are the problems of this generation. These problems affect the lives of all of us. If this nation is to have a future, we must care a lot. The substance that holds a society together is the commitment of a large number of people to live and work together. These tasks are not done by unbelieving people but are done by people with American commitments.

We want a society in which every young person has the opportunity to reach his full stature and a soceity in which every older person can live out his life with a great civilization, but we must be honest and forego the joy of hating — especially those of other races, hold to our purposes through controversy and difficulties. Once there were rules of conduct, and honesty, mis-conduct and crime. The rules were not always obeyed but they were believed. Those who broke the rules knew they were wrong. Adlai Stevenson said of a politician of questionable character "If he were just bad, I wouldn't be afraid of him, but he has no principle — He doesn't know the diifference." Could it be that we are losing our ability to tell the difference? Is it all right if everyone does it? I saw on T.V. that there is a flourishing business on many college campuses where for a sum of $5,000 you can buy a term paper on any subject. Those interviewed saw no harm in signing their names to a paper someone else had written. My hope is that there will be some honest students who will take a stand against such practices. Passive disapproval is not enough. They need to openly speak out against it. We need to stand up and be counted. When they had the trouble at Barkeley, there were 34 teenagers who disapproved of the revolt. If they had been as determined as the three teacher participants they could have squelched it.

Billy Graham says too many men are afflicted with moral laryngitis. Stay all of. Don't get involved. Out nation was founded by bold men and brave men, who were not afraid to speak out or get involved. We who do not have moral courage — keep silent. But courage is contagious.

When someone takes a stand, the spines of other stiffen. When the Saviour said, "Let your light shine" I think that also was to give courage to the weak. Are we so afraid to take a stand against evil that no one can tell we are Christians? The world was changed by men like Martin Luther King and John Wesley.

Peggy's Meddlin's

BY PEGGY MEDLEY

THE Medleys enjoyed a trip to Austin over the weekend. Moisture seemed to be plentiful the both directions we traveled and returned. In and around Hamlin cotton stalks were loaded with white fluffs, but water was standing in rows. It will take a lot of sunshine to dry that area out before harvest. Lots of grain also remains to be harvested. The freeze which struck our area last week didn't go too far south as shrubs and flowers still had their summer look. Bare armed people at the jam packed stadium to see Texas and SMU play, came away with blistered limbs. The sun was really hot there Saturday, but an ideal time of the season to visit as it isn't as sultry as in the summer.

SINCE my little grandson is so far away, I had a chance while in Austin, to lavish my love on my sister's first grandchild. She sure is a silly ole grandmother. I'm glad I'm not that way! Si was wondering why I took two pieces of luggage with me for just an overnight trip. He found out when I opened one, I had it crammed with all our pictures of Brandon.

THE book reviewing art is fast becoming a game among super-sophisticated writers in which each try to outdo the other in the use of complex sentences, thought, depth studies and modern, claptrap theories about so-called new meanings. The latest theories of a small group of effete, protesting shockers in metropolitan centers, who have a language all their own (which isn't worth learning in most cases) are of little interest to most of America and the world. Yet the importance of these radicals' theories is constantly being exaggerated in much of the metropolitan press. Like children's fads, today's favorite language, phrases and cliches of the radicals will soon die out, with an exception here and there, and the world will go on. . .having missed nothing.

THOUGH baseball is over for '72, a comment on Vida Blue, paid $60,000 this year and given the Cy Young award last year. The sourest scene came from Blue when he sat pouting and griping about his salary, knocking his manager and team owner. He had no sense of appreciation, no loyalty, no team spirit and informed a news reporter that he pitched for himself and that he was going to make the owner come to him in next year's signing. In view that Oakland won with little help from Blue this year one finds it difficult to see any logic in his utterances.

HAVING just paid taxes I couldn't help but notice back in 1937 Floyd County's tax bill was the lowest in a decade. Values dropped below the eight million mark for the first time in more than 15 years. A utility sub-station was being built on the highway between Floydada and Lockney that year, which was the same year that two Floyd County men were wondering if coyotes grin as some people say they do. If so their intended game was up in the Caprock somewhere grinning over the strategy by which he escaped.

Some may remember an insurance writer, John Whiting, and J. O. Dudley, county wheat and stock farmer. The insurance man ended up with a broken collar bone and three broken ribs. Dudley was uninjured from the experiences of hunting coyotes. The two men were on the Dudley place, adjacent to the breaks, when a big coyote obligingly loped by. Taking to the car in chase, Dudley driving and Whiting on the running board shooting, they approached the ditches of an old road. Whiting was thrown from the car and before it could be stopped a wheel ran over him. Needless to say the two men didn't particularly like to talk about "the one that got away."

FLOYD County voting precinct chairmen and their assistants and others who worked in any way with the polling places Tuesday are to be commended for their fast and efficient work. When we called in the complete results to Amarillo they reported that we were the first county to report in with entire results. The same good word came to us from the Election Bureau in Dallas. That's good team work, they tell us.

We who have been afraid to take a stand for the Lord, might learn from Peter — You recall he cringed before the servant girl who accused him of being one of the Christ's disciples. Later, he was one of the few who turned the world upside down. A small majority with faith and courage can change things. The time has come for a few brave, courageous people with American commitments to recognize the nature of the problem and are challenged to shape the future into a caring world. It will take some 4 letter words to do this — words like "Work", "Hope", "Care," "Vote," "Give," "Live," and "Love."

It's easy to turn on the T.V. or pick up a newspaper and find what's wrong with America, but I like to think what's right also.

A salesman from Switzerland spent three months in America. He said the Europeans could learn from the American way of life. He says we are generous and hospitable in matters great and small. He said packages of food sent to the needy are but one proof, never to be forgotten. An Austrian family who was starving received a CARE package. They asked, "How is it possible that people in a faraway land could send such a helping hand?"

A distinguished French author said he was impressed by the number of museums and symphony orchestras and so many American schools that teach music. He found a distinct American culture and he cited the music of Gershwin and Bernstein.

Sam Fowler In Charge Of MAC Scheduling

In the Massie Activity Center board meeting Monday night it was decided to publicize rent charge on the building and also to inform everyone where to schedule events in the center.

Sam Fowler is in charge of the calendar and scheduling committee, and the following charges have been made for renting the building to adults:

Club meetings, $5.00; wedding receptions $15.00; family reunions $25 one day, $40 two days; banquets $25, youth dance $30; adult dance $45.

There is no charge for youth using the center, except when admission is charged on a dance or some other "commercial event."

In other business the MAC board discussed landscaping for the center and two board members . . . Bob Alldredge and Mrs. J. H. Barnard along with some former members of the garden club will work on the project.

A political editor of a London newspaper who often visits America is complimentary of our governmental system. He says, in 1789 when the constitution came into effect — France was a monarchy — Italy had an Emperor — Japan had a shot gun rule. He says in this system, a man can start from scratch and go to the top.

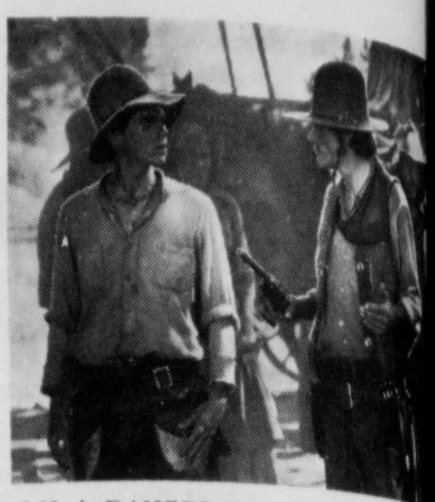

The British author, Charles Snow, says our colleges are the best. To prove that he thinks that, his daughter attends an American school.

AOUDAD SHEEP SEASON SOON

In just a few days the 1972 Aoudad sheep season will begin in the Palo Duro Basin. This year the hunting season will open on Saturday, November 11, and it will continue for a full week. At that time hunting enthusiasts from all over the nation will converge on the Quitaque area in quest of a WORLD RECORD SHEEP, for Parks and Wildlife officials maintain that somewhere along this rugged Caprock rim such a giant is lurking. The Aoudad sheep is the most talked about big game in Texas, and it has captured the imagination of hunters everywhere. Last year our local Aoudad expert Johnny Powell, guided for Bill McMillan of Dallas, and out north of Quitaque on the W. E. Hawkins ranch he bagged the largest Aoudad sheep ever killed in the United States. Its massive horns measured 32 inches in length and it weighed 194 pounds field dressed. Johnny says that he has seen several on his scouting expeditions in the hills this year that are comparable in size to this one, so it's entirely possible that some lucky hunter may wind up with a world record later this month.

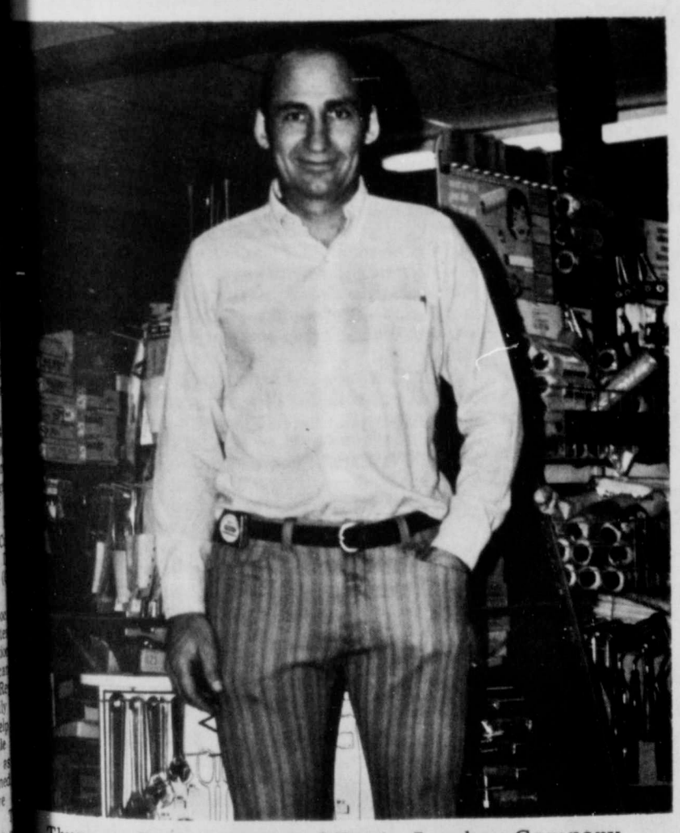

Almost every year there are some wild and wooly tales that come out of the Aoudad sheep season. This is understandable when you consider the extremely rugged terrain along the Caprock rim where the sheep usually stay, and the unpredictable weather. Combine this with the fact that many of the hunters are used to easy-going city life and you have a setting that produces PLENTY OF UNCERTAINTIES. For instance several of the hunting seasons have come off in bitter, biting cold, and hunters have literally shivered in their boots as they sat hour after hour searching with binoculars on a frozen Caprock rim. In 1970 (when the season was held in January) temperatures ranged from 5 degrees BELOW zero to 32 above, and every step was made through bone chilling winds. Nothing comes easy in Aoudad sheep hunting, even after a kill. One hunter hit a sheep that fell 300 feet from the top of a canyon ledge, and it lodged 150 feet from the bottom of a deep cut. It finally had to be brought out in quarters.

Hunters come from near and far in quest of the elusive sheep. They range from Alaska to Stamford, Connecticut to Coral Gables, Florida. They pay up to $350.00 a permit to ranchers for the chance of shooting and keeping one sheep. Despite the large number of sheep in the Basin, not all of the hunters bag one. One year a party of three men from Baton Rouge, Louisiana weathered the freezing temperatures every day of the week and still went back EMPTY HANDED. But the challenge and the intrigue was still there — and like almost all those who come, they, too, vowed their intentions to return again!

This week's devotionals have been great. The First Baptist Church ladies came Monday, and Bro. Wright of the Assembly of God came Tuesday. Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Wright came with Brother Wright. Wednesday we had the First United Methodist Church ladies coming. Brother and Mrs. Muncy have been coming for quite some time on Thursdays. Bro. Bobby Hise and Douglas Degge came Friday with the devotional.

As a special treat Saturday, we had Brother N. E. Rhodes from Lubbock sharing with us. Brother Rhodes was holding a meeting at the West Side Church of Christ of Lockney. Brother Robert Foster and his church members had our Sunday morning church. Brother Foster is the pastor of the Templo Bautista Salem of Lockney. Sunday afternoon the Methodists from Silverton came to share. We do appreciate these wonderful people for the time and messages they share with us.

We were thrilled to welcome Mrs. Mary Carwile back from the hospital. She certainly had been missed around here.

People have brought things for our crafts and we surely thank these people. Also would like to thank the people who have been bringing flowers.

All the staff and residents want to express their sympathy to the family of Authur Johnson, the family of Mrs. Senie Graves and the family of Mrs. Hallie Dillard.

MRS. GEORGIA PEREZ has been chosen the employee of the month at the Lockney Nursing Home. Mrs. Perez works in the dietary department at the Nursing Home. (Staff Photo)

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I hope that this letter will be accepted as [illegible] criticism, it is meant to be of some help. I would like [illegible] my viewpoints on the question "What is there for the Floydada to do?" Being one of these youth I can answ[illegible] saying that there is very little to do.

I am now attending college and can look back and really feel sorry for the youth still in Floydada. I al[illegible] that there was very little to do or enjoy in Floydada. can see that Floydada is really lacking in entertainment Parents and other adults wonder why most of the yo[illegible] the streets, racing, drinking, etc. instead of [illegible] respectable kids. This is probably because of the lack [illegible] better to do.

Due to Floydada's limited entertainment facilities seek to do the next best thing. The best thing is us[illegible] everyone else is doing at the time. Winter is especially for the youth. The only things they can do are attend [illegible] go to the recreation center (pool hall), which has n[illegible] desired. What kind of enjoyment is this? It can't classified as enjoyable. In the summer there is a LITTL[illegible] do. Youth can go swimming, play golf, tennis, and oth[illegible] sports, and attend one of the few dances that Floydada when there is a dance it is usually the same group e[illegible] Anyone can see that Floydada's facilities are very l[illegible] who is doing anything about it?

I know the Massie Activity Center was built to help problem but so far it has done very little. For it to be e[illegible] will have to have ping-pong tables, pool tables, etc., will have to be made available to the youth during spec[illegible] of the day and night. If this can be achieved it wi[illegible] situation a lot, but there is more that will have to be d[illegible] lot of the people in Floydada do care about the you[illegible] entertainment problem but there is still an even greate[illegible] that don't care about the youth and what they do for e[illegible] Some adults say they care, but then when it comes to [illegible] working toward solving the problem they back off and [illegible] things first.

Parents wonder why their kids don't like to come [illegible] they attend college. Well, this is the major reason don't. After they leave Floydada and go off to schoo[illegible] what they have been missing all this time. When the[illegible] back to Floydada it is usually for a short visit, and the[illegible] usually bored.

Unless something is done about this problem, Flo[illegible] continue to decline, because it has nothing to hold the [illegible] majority of the youth living in Floydada now have no[illegible] return and raise a family there because they don't [illegible] kids to go through the same thing.

I would really like to see the people of Floydada pic[illegible] something about this problem.

Make Church - Going a Habit

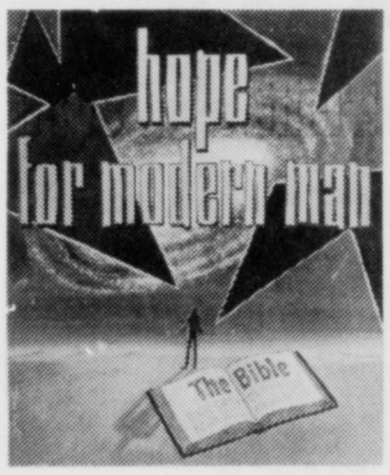

center of life

At our house bedtime reading ranges from the "just so stories" to the encyclopedia, from "Mary Poppins" to the Bible, depending upon Billy's interest.

And always there are the questions. "How high are the stars, Daddy?" "Where did the dinosaurs go?" "Daddy, did Adam love Eve?" "What makes electricity spark?"

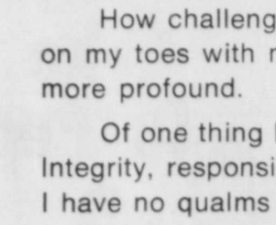

How challenging to watch the alert mind of a youngster mature! I know I'll have to keep on my toes with new ideas in every field, if I want answers for Billy as his questions grow more profound.

Of one thing I am confident, the age-old truths of my church and the Bible never change. Integrity, responsibility and the love of God are a source of strength now as in every age. I have no qualms about teaching my son that God's Church is the center of a man's life.

Several fields of cotton appear to be ready for stripping.

Homecoming at Lockney will be November 10.

The World Day of Prayer and Study Party was held at the First Baptist Church in Silverton Monday morning. Mrs. Kellum brought the welcome, and Mrs. T. S. Powell gave the World Day of Prayer program. Those who taught the Baptist Women member handbook from the Silverton Church were Mmes. Nursing Home Happenings

(By Faye Walters)

Monday, as I stood looking out the window at Mr. Handley's pretty flowers I was filled with awe. Never had I seen them look so beautiful, but I realized that within a few days their beauty would be gone.

It is so wonderful what God can do with the help of willing hands like those of Mr. Handley. He loved to work with flowers. Although he told me he knew when he planted them that someday a freeze would kill them, but the beauty they had portrayed was worth it. I'm sure next spring we will find Mr. Handley again working with his flowers.

Our devotions this week were all good and I know our residents feel closer to God because of them.

Ida Martin spent three days with her son and wife at roaring Springs last week, and Lillie Luttrell went out for lunch one day with her daughter. Della Finley's daughter-in-law and granddaughter visited her and Mattie Pool had a friend from Matador to visit her. John Newton had several relatives visiting him and they brought a cake to enjoy on his birthday. It is nice to see Ed Brown out in the lobby again.

Our games of Bingo were great Thursday and a new player, Della Finley, won two games but as usual Pearl Britton won more games than any others, a total of four. For a woman 91 years of age she is really sharp.

This week we have been making aprons and Christmas trees during activity and plan to make more next week.

None can love freedom heartily but good men; the rest love not freedom, but license.

-John Milton.

4-H'ers Create Own Space in Home Environment Program

4-H'ers in the 4-H home environment program create comfortable and pleasing living spaces. These 4-H'ers built a bookshelf and a mobile to improve the total environment of their rumpus room.

SPECIAL - What's in a name? Plenty, think leaders working with 4-H members in the area of home furnishings, equipment and housing.

The 4-H home improvement program has been renamed 4-H home environment in 1972. Sponsored by The S&H Foundation, Inc., new dimensions and activities have been added through the efforts of personnel of the Cooperative Extension Service and National 4-H Service Committee.

The contemporary 4-H home environment program provides numerous opportunities for creative expression. 4-H'ers in the program are encouraged to plan their home surroundings much as they would the total environment – for beauty, comfort, health, safety and adequate space. Using the principles of basic design -- form, scale, patterns and texture, color and light–the 178,000 young people in the 4-H home environment program create living spaces that are functional, comfortable and aesthetically pleasing.

Boys Can Take Part, Too

The revised program is also designed to get boys interested and involved in improving their homes. 4-H'ers from low income, minority and migrant families are also encouraged to participate and help create pleasing home environments.

Besides the satisfaction at helping to make one's home a more enjoyable and pleasing place to live, 4-H'ers in the home environment program can gain recognition in other ways.

The S&H Foundation, Inc. provides incentive and other recognition awards for county, state and national winners in the program.

Medals of honor are awarded county winners, while one winner in each state receives an expense-paid trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 26-30. At the 4-H event, six national winners receive $700 scholarships provided by The S&H Foundation, Inc.

For more information about the 4-H home environment program, contact the county extension office.

FLOYD PHILOSOPHER
Comes Up With The Crowning Blow

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm must have dug pretty deep for his subject matter this week.

Dear editar:

One trouble with the world today is that it's got too many statistics.

I always thought it was bad enough when a high school could say for example its valedictorian was two tenths of one percent smarter than its salutatorian, and when it comes to measuring every kid's I.Q. I've always had my misgivings, contending that for some people I know to be giving the intelligence tests is about like me trying to measure the Grand Canyon with a foot ruler.

But that was just the beginning. Now we've got statistics on everything, telling us for example it cost 4 tenths of one percent more to live in September than it did in August, that the rise in the crime rate is 3 tenths of one percent slower today than yesterday, that a candidate for office gained 3 points over the weekend, that the stock market rose 4 cents on the New York exchange and 2 on the American because Henry Kissinger stayed three days in Paris instead of two, and so on.

What started me on this was an article I read on tricycles in the United States last year. And furthermore, confronted with this grave statistic, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare has allotted $23,000 for a special study of the matter.

For half that I can tell H.E. W. what the trouble is and what the cure is.

In the first instance there are too many un-licensed tricycle riders in this country. And in the second instance the age limit for using the things ought to be raised.

But it's more than just a matter of law and order. Part of the blame belongs squarely in the home

I can't understand the wild permissiveness of parents who'll turn a 3-year-old loose in their living room with a tricycle that doesn't even have brakes. . .a kid that doesn't even know his right hand from his left and couldn't give a turn signal if he had a mind to.

If there were 100,000 tricycle accidents last year there must be at least 10 million tricycles roaring through the homes of this nation, based on the number of accidents per million their parents manage on the highways with automobiles.

And yet, I guess you notice neither the Democratic nor the Republican platforms have taken a stand on the matter.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

TGSPB Sponsors Movie To Promote Sorghum

"A film to promote grain sorghum is now underway," says TGSPB Executive Director Elbert Harp. This film, sponsored by TGSPB in cooperation with the Texas Department of Agriculture, emphasized the production and processing of grain sorghum to be used in the cattle and livestock feeding business.

The film is a color production, about 30 minutes long, to be translated into approximately six languages. Harp said the film is being made to "further the use of grain sorghum and to expand export markets to areas previously unfamiliar with this relatively new form of milo."

According to Harp, "Showing people the value of grain sorghum is essential to broadening our potential market. This film is just one phase of our educational program to acquaint foreign markets with the worth of grain sorghum."

Crews from the Texas Department of Agriculture have been in the High Plains area for two weeks filming different steps in the production and processing of grain sorghum. Filming will also be done in Arizona where Dr. W.H. (Bill) Hale of the University of Arizona will appear in the film. Hale is an internationally known nutritionist in the field of grain sorghum.

LEGAL NOTICES

THE STATE OF TEXAS
TO: Isidoro Muniz Gonzales
GREETING:

You are commanded to appear by filing a written answer to the plaintiff's First Amended Original petition at or before 10 o'clock A.M. of the first Monday after the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this Citation, the same being Monday the 11th day of December, A. D., 1972, at or before 10 o'clock A.M., before the Honorable District Court of Floyd County, at the Court House in Floydada, Texas.

Said plaintiff's petition was filed on the 23 day of October, 1972. The file number of said suit being No. 5798

The names of the parties in said suit are: Loyd Carl Hamilton as Plaintiff, and Isidoro Muniz Gonzales and Ambrocio Lazo as Defendants.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to wit: Plaintiff alleges that on or about August 23, 1971, he was operating a truck tractor on Farm Road 54 in Floyd County, Texas, when he approached two vehicles, operated by Defendants herein, which were parked on the roadway, and several pedestrians were in the middle of the road. Plaintiff applied his brakes in order to avoid colliding with the two vehicles and pedestrians and as he did so, his truck "jack knifed" and skidded off the road, causing personal injury and damage to Plaintiff in the amount of not less than Fifteen Thousand ($15,000.00) Dollars, and that such personal injury and damage was due to the carelessness and negligence of the Defendants. Plaintiff alleges Defendants, jointly and severally, were negligent (1) in failing to keep a proper lookout; (2) In failing to yield the right-of-way; (3) In stopping on the paved portion of a public highway in violation of the law; (4) In failing to pull off the paved portion of a public highway prior to the collision in question; (5) In failing to adequately warn Plaintiff of their presence on the highway.

If this Citation is not served within 90 days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

Issued this the 27th day of October A. D., 1972.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Floydada, Texas, this the 27th day of October A. D., 1972.
