Celebration Of 4th Claims 404 Lives In Nation

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 7.—This year's celebration of the Fourth was a triple-jointed affair—Friday, Saturday and Sunday; and the nation paid with 226 additional lives for the extra fun she had.
The three day holiday altogether cost 404 lives.
Fireworks and toy pistols killed 29. A small percentage of the total, yet regarded as large in view of the restrictions against fireworks in most parts of America. The automobile took 178 lives, 121 persons were drowned. Airplane accidents, heat, heart attacks induced by holiday excitement, lightning and other causes connected directly with the holiday resulted in 76 deaths.

SUCCUMBS TODAY

LONDON, July 7 (AP)—Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, 71, below, creator of "Sherlock Holmes" and widely known spiritualist, died at his home here today of heart disease. With him were Lady Doyle, two sons and a daughter.
The great novelist and exponent of the occult was stricken seriously ill about two months ago and his condition had become more aggravated recently although his death today had not been anticipated.

DOYLE TRAGIC IN LAST DAYS

SPIRITUALISM CLAIMED AUTHOR'S TIME AND MONEY

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, July 7.—Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, the latter part of his life presented a heroic and at the same time somewhat tragic figure. For the past few years he had devoted virtually all his time to the propagation of spiritualism, and was recognized as one of the great leaders of the world in this belief. Because of his association with this crusade which he himself characterized as an unpopular one, he gradually lost some of his old time literary friends who saw no virtue in spiritualism and who were inclined to look upon him as eccentric.

Was Idol In London
It is not many years ago that this broadshouldered Viking with his handsome head and shock of iron gray hair was the idol of London drawing rooms. As creator of Sherlock Holmes and other great works he was an outstanding figure in the realm of literature, and the world paid him homage.

After he embarked on his spiritualistic campaign, however, things changed and he was not so much sought after.

Sir Arthur grieved because his friends could not see eye to eye with him, but he never wavered in his pursuit of the cause in which he believed.

County Faces Suit In Court Tomorrow

The case of T. B. Phillips versus Lubbock county will be tried tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock in Lubbock county court, Judge Robert H. Bean announced today.
Mr. Phillips is seeking $1,500 for alleged damages to his farm, located 7 miles southeast of Lubbock, because of the opening of a road through his property. A jury of view had previously granted him $100 damages.

The case of Amarillo Furniture company versus A. M. Harrison, suit on contract, will be tried Wednesday.

S. S. Attendance Is On Decline Here

Vacation days and warmer weather are telling on Sunday school enrollment in various churches of the city. Yesterday's record gave an attendance of 3,141 persons, which is the lowest report in several weeks.
First Baptist church gave an attendance of 1,007; First Methodist, 746; Broadway Church of Christ, 473; First Christian, 220; First Presbyterian, 200; Asbury Methodist, 174; Calvary Baptist, 155; West End Baptist, 94.

Sessums Is Released On $2,500 Bond

GRAND JURY TO TAKE UP SLAYING HERE

SLAIN MAN MAY BE ROBERT WYNN OF BAIRD

W. T. Sessums, local dairy operator, was released yesterday morning at 10 o'clock on $2,500 bond and charged with murder, to await action of the grand jury, following a preliminary hearing in the office of Justice of Peace G. R. Scott, as an aftermath to the fatal shooting Saturday night at 9 o'clock of a 28-year-old youth who gave his name as Bob White.

Belief that the slain man is Robert Wynn of Baird, was expressed today by local officers, who announced that Wynn's parents are en route to this city and expected to arrive this afternoon in response to description of the youth. The young man had often spoken of his home at Baird, co-workers at the dairy, located 3 miles northwest of Lubbock, said. Officers at Baird told Lubbock authorities that they feel certain that the dead man is Robert Wynn and that he had been working here under an assumed name.

The body is in charge of Rix-Sanders funeral home.
The shooting occurred in Sessums' home. Immediately after the tragedy Sessums surrendered to local officers.

Examination of the body revealed four wounds, one through the center of the heart, another over the left eye, a third through the neck and the fourth in his left wrist.

According to statements of employees, as corroborated by testimony of Sessums, the youth, who had been employed for the last two months at the dairy, had frequently evaded his employer and the Sessums family. He is said to have had fist fights with employees of the dairy and had created unrest.

HOUSTON MAN AWAITS EXAMINING HEARING

HOUSTON, July 7.—Dave Sammons, 36, today awaited examining trial tomorrow before Justice Wise on charges of murder, in the fatal shooting Saturday night of P. B. Barnhill, 55, former oil field worker. The shooting occurred at Barnhill's camp near Humble, W. Saxon, rig builder, was wounded and was in a hospital in this condition. Sammons was at liberty under $2,000 bond.

WHEAT RECEIPTS SET NEW RECORD

PORT WORTH, July 7.—Setting a new record for the first three weeks of the wheat harvest, receipts at the Fort Worth grain market from June 16 to July 7, inclusive, reached a total of 6,475 cars.

Grain men estimated today that this wheat brought the growers $6,798,000 while Texas railroads serving the grain belt received an additional $1,930,000 in freight charges.
Total value of the grain at present prevailing is estimated at $8,748,000, all of which has moved into the channels of Texas trade to increase the state's buying power.

Grain men here are a unit in declaring that the present crop is the finest wheat ever marketed in the southwest.

Much of the wheat, a testing 63 to 64 pounds to the bushel with an average for the crop set around 61 pounds.

Clyde Jester Being Buried In Floydada

Funeral services are being held today afternoon at 2 o'clock at a local sanitarium, following an extended illness.
The body was carried overland last night by Rix-Sanders, of Lubbock.

"Roughneck" In Hobbs Oil Field Is Revealed As Young Persian Prince; Is Studying U. S. Oil Operations

(By SUTTON CHRISTIAN)
HOBBES, N. M., July 7.—One month ago an unassuming young man, polite and affable, dressed work clothes and started "roughnecking" in the Hobbs oil field.
In the ever-changing personnel of the oil field, he did not create any unusual attention—so successful was he in concealing identity—until today when the card of Prince Darab Mirza of the House of Kadjar was found in one of the uniform rooms at the camp of the Humble Oil company. Under the card was the photograph and credentials of this member of royalty, who is none other than "Don" of the Humble camp, sent by a European oil company to America to study methods of operation.

In 1925 the Persian dynasty was overthrown. The House of Kadjar scattered, under pressure of a revolution, to widely separated points of the globe, thus ending a family succession of 150 years of Persian kings.
Shortly after the Kadjar reign ended, Prince Darab Mirza,

GOODYEAR BAG FINALLY LANDS

BLAIR AND TROTTER MAY BE WINNERS OF RACE

(By Associated Press)
HOUSTON, July 7.—Roland Blair and Frank Trotter were pronounced today the unofficial champion balloonists of the United States.

The Goodyear-Zeppelin of Akron, Ohio, their entrant in the 20th annual national elimination race which started from here late Friday, came down "yesterday evening" at Greensburg, Ky., about 100 miles south of Louisville.

The Goodyear-Zeppelin, said Captain Fred S. Wilbur, secretary of the committee, had gone roughly 300 miles, and unquestionably was the winner of the race, although it cannot be officially so designated except by the National Aeronautic association at Washington, which must check the barographs of all the fifteen entrants in the race.

Behind the leaders was the navy balloon piloted by Lieut. T. W. G. Settle with Lieut. R. G. Mayer, as aide, which came down seven miles north of Dover, Tenn., approximately 695 miles northeast of here.

Lieut. W. Bushnell and J. A. Greenwald of the navy had landed at Piggott, Ark., about 100 miles west of Dover.

Thunderstorms had driven ten of the contestants down in a 75 mile area around Texarkana.

King of England To Be Heard On Radio

NEW YORK, July 7.—An attempt to rebroadcast in the United States the address of King George in London at the opening of the new India house at Aldwych will be made tomorrow morning at 7:10 (E. S. T.) by the National Broadcasting chain.

The British Broadcasting corporation will carry his address to long and short wave circuits for transmission around the globe. National Broadcasting will pick up the short wave signal from GSWW, Chelmsford, England, at the Radio Corporation of America trans-Atlantic receiving station at Riverhead, Long Island, thence it will be relayed by special circuits to NBC's headquarters for distribution over a WJZ network.

OBSERVERS IN QUANDARY AS TO FAVORITES

ONLY TWO OF ELEVEN TO ENTER SECOND PRIMARY

(By Associated Press)
Ordinarily dividing 11 into 800,000 would be a simple matter of arithmetic, but the task of splitting 800,000 votes among 11 candidates for the democratic gubernatorial nomination to be undertaken by the members of that party on July 28 has created a political conundrum. Impartial experts and prognosticators dared not attempt to solve in advance.

Although what has been in some ways one of the Lone Star State's most interesting campaigns today was within three weeks of the first primary, when all save two of the aspirants were to be eliminated, there wasn't anyone brave enough to volunteer any information as to how the votes would be divided.

While there wasn't any way of telling how many votes would be cast, considering the number of aspirants on the stump frantically arousing the electorate to a choice, and recalling that in 1926 there were 821,000 voters participating in the first primary, the smart ones believed 800,000 a conservative estimate for this event.

In 1926 there were six gubernatorial candidates in the democratic primary, and Dan Moody, then attorney general, received 409,000 votes or almost a clear majority. Mrs. Miriam Ferguson, then serving her first term as governor, going into the run-off by a narrow margin.

Next to the current campaign, 1924 furnished the greatest number.

MANTZ SETS LOOP RECORD

CALIFORNIA FLIER MAKES 46 OUTSIDE LOOPS SUNDAY

(By Associated Press)
SAN MATEO, Cal., July 7.—Paul Mantz, aviation instructor had 46 outside loops, a world's record, to his credit today, the result of a long distance aerial duel with Dale "Red" Jackson of endurance flight fame.

Mantz feasted upon by ten a record established by Jackson at Chicago a few hours before. The California flier took the air yesterday unaware that Jackson had bettered the record of 23 loops set a week ago by Gordon Mounce of Los Angeles.

He had completed his 24th loop when an airplane bearing a large figure "36" on its sides went aloft after the Associated Press had informed the airport of Jackson's record.

Mantz interpreted the meaning of the figures and dropped a note he would attempt 50 loops, but his gasoline failed when he was four short of his goal.

Aviation experts said Mantz feat was hazardous and difficult and that his achievement was possible only through aeronautical skill and courage. They explained the pilot is subject to tremendous centrifugal force.

Morrow's Expense Totaled $49,571.54

GETTING LOST IN MOUNTAINS NOT SO THRILLING AND ADVENTUROUS AS ONE MIGHT EXPECT, LOCAL COUPLE AVERS

Wandering aimlessly over a mountain and seeking to find shelter under a cliff when night overtakes you may seem thrilling enough in the movies or a western thriller but in reality it is far from that according to Miss Willie Mae Hawthorne and H. Y. Price, Jr., both of Lubbock, who had that experience during the week-end.

The couple together with nine other young people left Rudoso last Friday morning at 8 o'clock to climb "Old Baldy", one of the highest peaks in the White mountains of New Mexico. Rain coming up caused some of the group to seek shelter under the trees while others continued in their climb and in this way the couple became separated from the party.

Wanted To Go Higher
We were not worried because we felt that we would meet later," said Miss Hawthorne. "However after it became late and we heard that the others were higher and we could see nothing of them."

When Mr. Price did not return after sometime Miss Hawthorne gave a signal and he answered. Again and again she called and each time he answered her but they could not find each other.

A chill wind was blowing off the mountain and rain that had fallen during the day had covered each bush and tree and brushing against them covered them both, soaking them to the skin.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE IS READ SENATE

NAVAL QUESTION IS UP TO BODY AGAIN FOR ACTION

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Meeting especially to judge the London naval treaty, the senate heard it advocated today in a message from President Hoover.

"This is especially necessary," he wrote, "because of misinformation which has been widespread by those who in reality are opposed to all limitation and reduction in naval arms."

58 Members Present
The president's views commanded senate attention after a vote had shown 58 members, nine more than a quorum to be present.

"If we fall now," Mr. Hoover wrote, "the world will again be plunged backward from its present program toward peace."

Among those who heard were senators who have denounced the treaty as unfair to the United States. All of the known pact opponents except Senator Shipstead, farmer-labor, Minnesota, were present. Should they decide to break a quorum at any time it would almost be in their power. The opposition includes Senators Johnson, California; Hale, Maine; Moses, New Hampshire; Robinson, Indiana; and Odell, Nevada, all republicans, and McKellar, democrat, Tennessee.

The text of President Hoover's message follows in part:

"In requesting the senate to convene in session for the special purpose of dealing with the treaty for the limitation and reduction of naval armament signed at London April 22, 1930, it is desirable that I should present my views upon it.

"The senate naturally expects opposition from those groups who believe in unrestricted military strength as an objective of the American nation. Americans for it."

"Indeed, we find the same type of minds in Great Britain and Japan in unabated opposition to this treaty. Nevertheless, I am convinced that the overwhelming majority of the American people are opposed to the conception of these groups."

"Our people believe that military strength should be held in conformity with the sole purpose of national defense; they earnestly desire real progress in limitation and reduction of naval arms of the world, and

The flights were watched by observers from the National Aeronautic association and the Fédération Aéronautique Internationale.

Coming Marriage Of Miss Mary Edna Parker And Wilbur Cooper Is Announced

Wedding Procession Centers Table At Party Given By Miss Maurine Ratliff

Announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Mary Edna Parker and Wilbur Cooper, both of Lubbock, was made at an attractive party given by Miss Maurine Ratliff 1905 27th street, Saturday evening. A pink and green color scheme prevailed in the living room, where bridge and dancing were enjoyed and floor baskets filled with flowers and ferns were placed in every appropriate spot. Later in the evening, little Miss Betty Jane Wilson, presented the bride-to-be with a shower of gifts from the guests.

Centerpiece Is Lovely
At refreshment time, guests were invited into the dining room, where a miniature wedding procession and an altar formed a lovely centerpiece for the table.

Fluoridic ice and angel food squares were served to the following guests: Misses Mary Edna Parker, Lois Cooper, Gertrude Braden, Lois Mae Davidson, Ruby D. Parker, and Maurine Ratliff; Messrs. Wilbur Cooper, Virgil Roland, D. L. Parker, and Johnnie Mathis.

Date Not Announced
Although the exact date of the wedding has not been announced, it is to be sometime this month, according to Miss Lois Cooper, sister of the groom.

Miss Parker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Parker, near Lubbock, and is a former Tech student. Mr. Cooper, son of Mrs. J. R. B. Cooper, is connected with a wholesale grocery company here.

Manager

Miss Minnette Thompson, director of Camp Mystic for girls near Kerrville, has planned a program for the season which promises to keep the campers in a continuous whirl of activities throughout the summer, the past week being an unusually gay one.

Misses Elaine Henry, Annie Byrd and Evelyn Spaulding are attending the camp from Lubbock.

One night last week the counselors entertained the campers with a stunt party that featured entertainment ranging from tap dancing to burlesque sermons. The high spot in the program was a Flora-dora chorus. In gowns created from bedspreads, pompadours, and astonishingly accurate, certain counselors impersonated to perfection the Gibson Girl of the "Gay Nineties."

The outstanding day of the week, however, was July 4. On that day appeared the first issue of the camp paper, Mystic Murmurs, a sheet made up entirely of camp news, personals and jokes.

Water Pageant Held

The first water pageant of the season was held in the afternoon of that day. Every variety of swimming, diving and canoeing was exhibited under the direction of Edwina Barnes of San Antonio, chief swimming instructor, and Tooley Williamson, of Houston, instructor in canoeing.

The entertainment of the evening was in the form of a puppet play under the supervision of Dorothy Bethany. The manufacture of the puppets, the settings, the furnishings, and the construction of the miniature stage itself was in the hands of the campers. The girls, too, memorized the parts and manipulated the lifelike dolls.

In honor of the many visitors at Mystic on the holiday, a barbecue supper was served on the banks of the beautiful Quadelupe.

AUTOMATIC INTERLOCKING PLAN WILL BE INSTALLED ON LINES NEAR HERE

An automatic interlocking plan will soon be installed at the grade crossing where the Santa Fe and Fort Worth and Denver rail lines intersect, located two miles southeast of Lubbock, J. H. Aydelott, of Fort Worth, general manager of the Fort Worth and Denver City railway company, announced today while visiting in this city.

The automatic interlocker will be the first installed in Texas. It will be in operation within the next 60 days. Under such system of operation, the train first reaching the crossing will have the right-of-way without necessity of a tower watchman.

Mr. Aydelott also announced that about 10,000 feet of space is to be paved adjacent to the platform of the freight depot at the Denver in this city.

J. W. Mode, of Amarillo, superintendent of the Fort Worth and Denver City railway company, accompanied Mr. Aydelott to Lubbock.

About 3,000,000 bushels of the 1930 wheat crop of the Panhandle and South Plains have been shipped over the Fort Worth and Denver, the officials announced.

SENATORS AGAIN IN TIE FOR FIRST PLACE IN AMERICAN LOOP

TRADES AID CLUB IN RACE FOR POSITION

SHIRES COMES THROUGH FOR SENS; BOONE IS EFFECTIVE ALSO

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

A large part of the first half of the major league baseball season has been spent in strenuous efforts on the part of managers to strengthen their teams for the latter part of the year and the success of their efforts is quite evident in the current standings of the clubs.

Washington's big deals with the St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox turned out to be an important factor in making the American league campaign a duel between the Senators and Philadelphia Athletics. Acquisition of Hennie Mahan gave them some batting punch where it was needed while Al Crowder has turned out to be an effective pitcher in Washington. Art Shires and Dave Harris, formerly of Chicago, also have helped improve the Senators' batting average.

Sensors At Top With A's
The result is that the Senators and the Athletics today are tied for the league lead although the deadlock may not last long in the quick shifts of the standing brought about by the fact that Philadelphia has played more games. It was Shires who brought about the tie, coming through with a punch single with the bases full in the tenth inning Sunday to beat the New York Yankees, 3 to 2. Washington now has won 15 out of 16 games, showing the Yankees 1-2 games into third place by sweeping the series.

The Athletics kept their place in the sun by winning the third close decision in a row from the Boston Red Sox, 4 to 3. George Earnshaw scored his eleventh victory of the year, gaining a slight edge over Dan MacFayden.

Indians Improve
The fourth place Cleveland Indians, who have not out of the second division during their recent slump only because the rest of the league is so far behind the leaders, showed signs of improvement as they opened against their western rivals at home. Clint Brown pitched a good game and they shut out the St. Louis Browns, 7 to 0. Waite Hoyt also pitched well and led Detroit to a 5 to 2 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

The Brooklyn Robins, who chose to add strength to their team by obtaining the Boone from the Pacific Coast league, found good reason to be pleased with their new acquisition. Boone made his debut yesterday and played the principal role as the Robins regained first place in the National league by beating the Boston Braves, 10 to 4. He hit a home run and a single and made a great catch of a fly diving into the bleachers to grab the ball.

Cincinnati helped bring about this latest disturbance in the standing, which put Brooklyn ahead although tied with the Chicago Cubs in games. The Reds took both games of a double headed from Chicago, 5 to 4 and 8 to 7, breaking a losing streak of five games. Brooklyn's second game, which might have sent the Robins down again, was rained out in the third inning.

The third place struggle between the New York Giants and St. Louis Cardinals remained unchanged as both teams won double headers. The Giants trounced Philadelphia, 10 to 8 and 4 to 2. The Cards made it 12 victories in their last 16 games by winning a 2-1 decision over Pittsburgh in the first game although they made only two hits off Spencer and following it up with a 12 to 4 victory in a slugging match.

COGGESHALL WINS WESTERN NET PLAY

CHICAGO, July 7. (Special)—Harris Coggeshall of Des Moines, Ia., is the 1930 western singles tennis champion—due partly to his own steady play and partly to a tricky muscle in the left leg of Clifford Sutter of New Orleans.

Sutter, a Tulane university student, who last week won the intercollegiate singles title, was forced to default to Coggeshall in the finals of the Western championship yesterday when the trick muscle cramped with the score at five games all and 15 all in the fifth set. Sutter won the first set at 1-6, then eased off and lost the next two by scores of 6-2, 6-2. He won the fourth at 4-6 and with the score at 2-all in the deciding set suffered a cramp. He was given a rest and continued only to finally be forced to default.

Sutter and his partner, Maurice Bayon, also of Tulane, defaulted to Coggeshall and Bruce Barnes of Austin, Texas, in the finals of the men's doubles.

Catherine Wolf, 17 year old miss from Indianapolis, won the women's singles from Clara Louise Zinke, of Cincinnati, present number one western woman, by 3-6, 6-4, 6-1. Paired with Mrs. Barbara Duffy of Cleveland, Miss Wolf won the women's doubles from Miss Zinke and Ruth Oxman, the defending champions, 6-4, 2-6, 6-1.

JONES SHOWS HE CAN HAVE PAR DEFENSE

BOBBY MAKES SCORES OF 72 ON ROUNDS OVER INTERLACHEN

MINNEAPOLIS, July 7.—Bobby Jones introduced himself to Interlachen yesterday and demonstrated he could produce par golf, or better, as his defense for the National open championship.

The thirty-fourth annual gathering of the professionals and the amateurs opens Thursday but more than half of the hundred and a half entrants were already here for acclimating rounds.

Had Good Study
The Atlanta amateur studied Interlachen's difficulties on two rounds Sunday and produced a par 72 on each. Bobby was not concerned with scores, however, but with a study of the course's character and contours.

The defending champion observed that he was glad to confirm his own belief that "I am in good shape for another meet, ready to make the best defense I can." He said he was convinced the course holds plenty of tournament tribulations.

Three Others Score Par
Three others also had stepped out from among their fellows today by scoring par 72s Sunday during one trip over the links. Johnny Ferrell, who defeated Jones in a 36 hole play off at Olympia fields in 1928, turned the trick in his first round. Denmore Shute, Columbus, and Jack Collins, Los Angeles, playing with him kept pace. But most of the entries practicing are running into 75s and higher.

CAGLE APPROVED AS MISS MENTOR

GULFPORT, Miss., July 7. (Special)—Christian Cagle's employment as assistant football coach at Mississippi A. and M. college was approved by the board of trustees of the university and colleges meeting here Saturday with Governor Bilbo.

Opposition to employment of the former Army football star was voiced by several members of the southern association of colleges, but president-elect Hugh Critz said no definite charge was filed which warranted rejection of Cagle's connection with the Mississippi institution. Cagle resigned from the military academy recently after West Point authorities learned of his secret marriage.

Cagle will be connected with A. and M. college for three months each year during a period of three years, with a salary of $3,500 a year.

Mexican Players Victor Over Texans

SAN ANGELO, July 7. (Special)—Two victories today remained to credit of the Mexican army's picked polo team in the international series, as it awaited a third game tomorrow against the San Angelo Rainbows.

Led by General Jesus Quinones the Mexican team yesterday defeated the Bluejackets 10 to 2. It previously had won the initial game of the series Friday from another San Angelo group, 11 to 10. The Rainbows, due to meet the visitors tomorrow, won the Port Reno annual tournament last season and were runners-up in this year's southwestern circuit tournament at San Antonio.

MAN IS IDENTIFIED

SAN ANGELO, July 7. (Special)—The body of a man found hanging to a railroad trestle near Rankin was identified today by automobile numbers on his car as J. N. Simmons of Preempt, Texas. He was a war veteran and was said to have been in ill health.

REST ORDERED FOR GERMAN

SCHMELING MAY NOT FIGHT UNTIL IN 1931, REPORT

(By Associated Press)

BERLIN, July 7.—Max Schmeling, German heavyweight who won the world's championship from Jack Sharkey on a foul last month, today was ordered by physicians to rest two or three months before resuming training.

The report of the physician, submitted to the German boxing commission, stated that Schmeling was suffering from varicose of the right side as a result of the foul.

The report will be taken up by the commission tomorrow. According to the physician Schmeling's injury is of such a nature that sporting authorities who read the report interrupted it to mean there would be no participation by the German fighter in a championship contest possibly until 1931, if then.

Representatives of the Pennsylvania game commission are now working on new motion picture material dealing with wild animal life in the state.

FIFTH INNING RALLY FATAL FOR LUBBOCK

LAMESA WINNER OVER LEVELLAND; TERRY'S ENTRY LOSES

(Special to the Journal)
TAHOKA, July 7.—Tahoka's slugging aggregation kept its record in the South Plains league clear here Sunday afternoon by coming from behind to beat out a determined crew of Lubbock Hubbers, 15 to 12.

The defeat sent the Hub City entry down the ladder to fourth place in the circuit standings.

Waller Goes In

A nine-run rally in the fifth frame gave the locals a long lead the visitors were never able to overcome. In this round Hoyt was bombarded from the hillock and D. Waller, Lubbock slow ball artist, was sent in to check the spree. Waller hurried effectively for the remainder of the game.

Lefty Larkin started on the mound for Tahoka, but gave way to Squires in the latter part of the game. Tahoka out-hit Lubbock by a 19 to 14 margin.

Wednesday's games finds Lubbock at Levelland and Tahoka at Southland.

BROWNFIELD HELPLESS BEFORE SOUTHLAND

(Special to the Journal)

SOUTHLAND, July 7.—Brownfield was helpless before the hurling of Cummings here Sunday afternoon and the Southland nine walked away with the long end of a 12 to 1 score.

The local pitcher limited the Terry county club to five hits while his mates were pounding B. Herring almost at will for a total of 13 base hits.

At Lassman Dies As Canoe Overturns

HARRISON, Me., July 7. (Special)—Al Lassman, former star tackle of the New York University football team, was drowned in Long Lake yesterday. The body was recovered today after several hours of grappling.

Lassman, who was 34 years old, was a guest at a boy's camp where he had served as counselor two years ago. Yesterday afternoon he went out on the lake in a canoe alone, which is forbidden by camp rules.

A few hours later the canoe was brought to the camp by persons who had found it unoccupied—about a mile and a half below the camp.

A large group started grappling for the body and it was brought to the surface at 2 a. m. Lassman was an expert swimmer and a good boatman and friends at the camp expressed the belief he probably died of shock when he fell or was thrown into the water during the wind and rain storm which swept the lake yesterday. An autopsy was to be performed today.

REPEAT WIMBLEDON CHAMPIONSHIP

WIMBLEDON, England July 7. (Special)—John Van Ryn, below left, and Wilmer Allison, right, young American tennis stars, won the British men's doubles championship today for the second successive year, beating their countrymen, John Doeg and George Lott, in straight sets in the final. The scores were 6-3, 6-3, 6-2.

Van Ryn and Allison once more proved themselves well worthy of world championship honors and they added the finishing touches to an unprecedented American sweep of British titles. Bill Tilden and Mrs. Helen Wills Moody in singles; Mrs. Moody and Miss Elizabeth Ryan, in women's doubles, and Van Ryn and Allison, in men's doubles, Americans all, now have captured championships in their respective classes. In addition, Miss Ryan and Jack Crawford, of Australia, the lone non-American to share in the laurels, won the honors in mixed doubles.

On the way to their title, Van Ryn and Allison eliminated Britain's two best pairs, Henry Austin and J. S. Offit, and J. Collins.

India's Future

When Kipling made his famous remark that East is East and West is West with the interesting conclusion that they would never shake hands or smoke the pipe of peace together, he was speaking with prophetic wisdom that has found its proof in the situation that exists in India today.

India and Great Britain staged a meeting, entirely at the suggestion of Great Britain, a great many years ago. India hadn't issued an invitation to an at-home and she let Great Britain understand that she wasn't receiving. Nevertheless, India accepted the presents that her visitor brought.

The courts which established justice for even the lowliest, the food that was rushed into the country when starvation's gray shroud hovered over the peasant villages, the canals that aided irrigation of former arid lands; the railroads which established inter-communication... these were acceptable.

Then the old Kipling prophecy came into full play again. India wanted to be left alone, and she is doing her best to accomplish her purpose. Gandhi, who leads the Indian rebellion, contends that his people should completely divorce themselves from western civilization. Missionaries, child widows, Moslems, prayer rugs, specialized,
individualized labor—such things, he believes, will never mix.

India recognizes the gifts which Great Britain brought her. She does not overlook them. But she believes that she could manage better alone.

She insists that the total home rule and independence which she craves, would bring about a restoration of the days when she grew her own food and accomplished her labor in her homes and village shops.

True to that human nature which is the same the world over, although the East is East and West is West, India has forgotten the assistance and hunger of the days before Great Britain.
She believes that she used to live in a Golden Age. Just what would happen if she were left alone would be an interesting experiment.

Would India discover that when the old order has given place to the new it is not possible to live the past again? Or would she slip back to the former era since backward progress is always easier than forward? And would she be happier?
These are things which we do not know. The India-Great Britain controversy presents an interesting study for the rest of the world which watches a wizened, brown-skinned old man lead his followers on a backward crusade—or maybe a forward one for them.

The basis of the trouble very probably is found in neither country. Kipling explained it. "East is East and West is West and never the twain shall meet."

Rumania's King

Rumania's prodigal son has come home again. He spent a fortune to ridiculous living but his people killed the failed calf and put the purple robe around his shoulders when he came back. After all, if a king has a kingdom it is his place to stay at home and annex his signature to state papers when it is necessary.
Instead of getting himself talked about all over the world, they are thinking.

So King Carol II is back and little Prince Michael can play marbles and leapfrog instead of watching the older youngsters through the palace windows.

The way in which Rumania has welcomed back the errand profligate Carol is illustrative of the almost divine worship which the nation has for its rulers. The old divine right of kings, which stated that they were God-given, and hence could do no wrong, has not been entirely discarded. Carol's subjects, while they do not condone his imprudent adventures, can still forgive them enough to anoint him as their ruler.

THE PLAINSMAN

That Girl on Broadway says she saw some egg on a wash tie this morning, which reminds her that all which glitters isn't gold.

YOU folks will all be either glad or sorry, to hear that The Plainman escaped from the Ralls speaking on July Fourth without a single scratch. Yes sir. They're real ladies and gentlemen over that way and they didn't even interrupt The Plainman's speech—not even with applause!

Well, sir, a funny thing happened. While he was speaking, The Plainman noticed an oldish kind of man, with a little girl beside him, right on the front row. The old gentleman appeared intensely interested all the time the speaking was going on and after The Plainman got through he felt like he ought to shake hands with the listener.

Your humble servant climbed down from the rostrum, if that's the way you spell it, and extended his hand to the gentleman, who reached out his own palm.

"I sure do appreciate your interest in my speech," The Plainman told him, "and I'd like to know just what part of it interested you most."

The old gentleman was silent for several minutes and then the little girl at his side piped up.

"That's my daddy, mister," she said, "and he can't understand yuh.
For 20 years he's been deaf as a post!"

ANYWAY, even if it was rough on the folks that had to listen, The Plainman had a large time in Ralls. Those folks over there are hospitable and a sumptuous picnic on the public square, with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ralls and family, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Edd McLaughlin, was the big feature of the whole party as far as this writer was concerned. It even surpassed all the nice lies Lloyd Wicks told by way of introduction!

We notice with considerable pleasure that New York has welcomed Bobby Jones back to his native bunkers, which gives rise to a suggestion which should make victorious home-comings bigger and better. With the market where it is, Wall Street folks might just as well throw showers of stock instead of mere ticker tape.

WHAT every city on the South Plains, and in Northwest Texas generally, needs is for a few of the citizens to do some high, wide and handsome traveling. We'd all feel better as a result.

You see, it's this way. During the spring and summer, optimism is always at a low ebb in this section, on account of folks waiting to see if it's going to rain and if our crops are going to amount to anything.

Then this year, with "Hoover Prosperity" as an added feature, there is more or less howling about "hard times." Folks, we don't know what hard times are in this country this year.
Further than that, we haven't got a Chinaman's chance to ever know what the preferred variety is.

The South Plains and Northwest Texas are in better shape than any other section of the country. If you don't believe it, take a trip and talk to folks in other parts of the good old U. S. A. And if you can't take a trip on account of Aunt Emma's rheumatism, just talk to some of the fellows who have and who are taking them. You'll find out in short order that we haven't got any room to howl—and what we ought to do is call a community sing-song and all blame out together with "Fanny Duns." We're in luck, and we're not smart enough to realize it.

That Man on Avenue Q says since this is an off Presidential campaign year, if the Senate will lay off of placard Cannon, he'll have an opportunity to catch up on his bish-opery.

It's all right to keep a stiff upper lip but keeping a stiff neck is carrying things too far.

RIGHT here and now The Plain-man wants to take this opportunity of congratulating the city commission—or whoever in the city administration is responsible—for placing North Avenue H in the finest shape it has ever been in since Lubbock was a wide place in the road.

While it could—and should—have been made that way years ago, North Avenue H is really passable now and one's eye teeth don't even rattle while traversing it. The report should be forwarded to Ripley for his
"Believe It or Not"—except most people would lose faith in the Ripley feature if they were to see the announcement without investigating for themselves.

North Avenue H has been graded, graveled and oiled! Yes sir! It really has been improved! Times change and the world moves forward!

British Embargo On American Apples Now Appears To Be
First Foreign Reprisal For Tariff Law, Dutcher Avers

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The British embargo on American apples, which is causing such acute sorrow to our apple growers, is one of those trade barriers. There are several kinds
of trade barriers
and this particular
variety is known as the horticultural type of trade barrier which rises when one country can
some fruit, vegetable
or grain from another country is afflicted
with a disease
or insect which
hence may not be imported.

Those horticultural barriers always seem to raise suspicion of discrimination in the country which produces the affected fruit, vegetable or grain. Even now our State Department is casting a gimlet eye on the apple embargo. The apple fruit was supposed to be free of what the British were guarding against but it appeared that Canadian apples had not been free from the fly and that no embargo was being put up against Canadian apples. American apple growers were quick to charge that the apple embargo was really an act of reprisal following passage of the recent high Grundy tariff bill.

Is the Tariff Responsible?
If it really was a reprisal, some more may be expected. Thirty or 40 foreign nations protested about that tariff bill. A nation can raise duties on the specific products especially singled out by nationality. At least it isn't done.
But there are tricks to which they can resort if they like, such as the horticultural barrier, which is sometimes honestly meant, and sometimes is not. And such things as are imported almost exclusively from the United States, such as automobiles can be soaked with tariff duties, although the new duties will apply to any other country's automobiles.

Trade barriers, it may be explained because of the possibility that we will hear much more about them, are any artificial regulations or requirements which interfere with the passage of goods between nations. Import duties are the most important and most common trade barriers. Pure food laws and horticultural restrictions are another class. Some countries may require import license, permitting importation in stipulated quantities and controlling the importation of a given commodity at all times.

Then there are administrative barriers raised in the application of import duties through strange and unusual classifications. And minor nuisances such as requiring that all goods be marked with the name of the country of origin.

Trade barriers are not necessarily bad things, but there is always a difference of opinion among nations—take the general foreign opposition to our new tariff law, for instance. Spain is forbidden to export us any grapes because of the Mediterranean fruit fly and the Spanish growers are convinced that the prohibition was made effective only in order to encourage our own grape industry. We require imported goods to be marked with the name of the country of origin and importers feel that our customs ward! Here's real, concrete evidence of the fact.

Bruce Barton made a lot of money on his volumes "The Book Nobody Knows" and "The Man Nobody Knows." There are still left in the "nobody knows" class: 1., who a girl will marry; 2., how a jury will decide; and 3., who will be elected to office.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters M.D.
Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children"

GAIN WEIGHT, IS ADVICE TO MAN, IT WILL FILL OUT
THE LOOSE SKIN

"Dear Doctor: Can you suggest something I can do to remove wrinkles around the eyes? The skin over the eyelids hangs over in a fold. It is very annoying and nothing that I have tried helps. My whole face is unightly on account of sagging skin and wrinkles. I am not so old—45—but even a mere man must try to keep up and improve his physical appearance in this age of youth and the undeniable beauty of even older people."

have a good appetite, but my weight remains the same—147 pounds—and I am 5 feet, 11 inches tall. I would like your pamphlet on Bladder and Kidney Disorders, and am enclosing the coin required.

MR. A.:

At five feet, 11 inches in height in your working feet, you should weigh around 170 to 180. At 147 you are around 20 pounds underweight. Mr.
A, I imagine that if you gradually gain in weight the normal fat will fill in that loose skin. If it doesn't the only thing you can do is consult a plastic surgeon.

Yes, you are right. It is just as necessary for a man to keep looking his best as it is for a woman, and neither should be condemned for being old.

Regulations and red tape are unnecessary elaborate. Argentina has made numerous squawks about our food and horticultural "discrimination" against some of her agricultural exports.

Customs classifications may be so made as to shut out an exporter's goods completely because of the high duty on the classification under which his product is classed.
False teeth have been grouped with false glasses and microscopes in one country and with trunks in another. Peat the fuel, has been classified with truffles at one time and at another with art works and jewelry. Several years ago one European country wanted to favor Swiss cattle so it set up a low duty classification for "large dappled mountain cattle, reared at a spot at least 300 meters above sea level, and which had at least one month's grazing each year at
a spot at least 800 meters above sea level."

Sardines and Prunes
Our sardine exporters have had complaints against foreign countries which discriminated against them by measuring sardines and our prune packers who pack in cartons, have lost out to a country which got its prunes over frontiers in bulk at a much lower duty.

Quota restrictions against imports from America have also drawn our ire in times past, as in the case of motion picture exports to France. Austria today limits importation of our automobiles to 300 a year.

Although in recent years the practice has been decreasing, there isn't any nation which can't do tricks with its imports and exports if it likes. And if the British apple embargo should happen to be one of the first reprisals in this long-threatened general tariff war, this story may indicate what some of the subsequent moves will be like.

wanting to do that. We have to remember that our appearance belong to our friends. Wasn't it Wilson who coined the following linerick?

"For beauty, I am not a star.
There are others more handsome by far.
My face, I don't mind it.
For I am behind it.
It's those out in front that I jar."

You asked for the pamphlet on Kidney and Bladder Disorders. Mr.
A, and enclosed the coin, but you didn't send along the self-addressed stamped envelope, and you didn't give your full address, so write again please, and this time don't be so forgetful. Better enclose another 10c for the pamphlet on Reducing and Gaining.

Sophomore. To read or hear the ads of the concerns that sell food that have dried vegetables in them, you would think you couldn't possibly exist without using their products. They may be good; they probably are, but you have to pay an awful price, comparatively for them, and this time don't be so forgetful.
Better enclose another 10c
for the pamphlet on Reducing and Gaining.

Then, you don't want your vegetables powdered and dried; you want the full bulk of them for normal intestinal movement, and you want the vitamin C, the anti-scurvy vitamin, which is largely destroyed by drying and by prolonged open cooking.

Buy your vegetables in the usual form, and eat liberally of them.
Savory.

NEW YORK, July 7.—So, upon an afternoon when the outside world seemed just about the same as usual, we walked into this place which was not of a world that any of us knew or comprehended.

It was down in the Bowery "smoke" belt, where men have been toppling dead like rats that have eaten of the poison left in the woodshed. And men with faces and heads and the clothes of civilization were selling the poisonous "smoke" to other men who had faces and heads and arms and the tattered remnants of clothes. They were selling poison knowing that it would be drunk and that it would kill.

They were selling it for dimes and nickels. Unlike some ancient poison-monger of the Borgia days, they could not hope for either wealth or royal favor.

And standing there you wondered what contempt they had for their fellows, however far sunk that they should thus peddle poison for a few pennies.

Sometimes during the day and the night, an unkempt figure would slump and stagger and fall—and die! The blank-eyed, half-alive creature who had just brushed your sleeve would be rushed off to a hospital—too late for rescue.

So we walked outside again—and the world seemed just about the same as usual. There was no indication that some savage madness had seized it.

And we walked on. And we came to a place with an ironic name.
The name was the Something-or-other Home. And we went in. And there was a small bar. And in front of the bar there were rows of hard benches, such as one finds in the various revenue missions.

There was a single light overhead. And this light shed shadows on some faces and clearly outlined others. The ceiling was banked in black gloom. There was something of the world of nightmares about it, the sort of thing you dream on a wakeful night to rise up in bed, sweating and horrified.

But this was real. Just a mean looking bar—dark heaps of sawdust on the floor—several men stretched unconscious in corners and others sitting solemnly on the benches, as though suddenly turned to marble clay. Not one spoke to another and they all seemed to be staring straight ahead as though they expected something. But you knew they were looking at nothing and there was nothing to look at.

There must have been almost a hundred men in that room—derring to be sure, but nevertheless living organisms with faces and limbs and feet like yours and mine.
Sound dulled faces—hungry, lean men without hope, ambition or desire—men in some hypnotic state, men who do the dirty work of the world when they work—men in the lot work along the railroad tracks and greasy little jobs.

And as Mike Gold later set it down: "It was like a convention of corpses—sagging cadavers in bottles."

Smoke as you may know, is the distillation of the Bowery. Its base is wood alcohol. When mixed with gas it has a cloudy appearance, which gives it the name. It can be bought for 15 cents a bottle. The bottle is taped and mixed up in water and shared among a dozen men. There have been something like half a hundred deaths from it within the past few weeks.

It is the ethereal champagne of the derrick.

And here all up and down the Bowery were its victims.

So—a bit ill from what we had seen—we all walked out again. And it was late afternoon. And the world seemed just about the same as usual.

Most unpopular of all Swiss movements is the substitution of hot coffee for brandy in the riv-ing of hot Alpine climbers. Perhaps this is another tariff reprisal.

Michael, ex-boy king of Rumania, will soon join the army as a corporal. To be sure, he has lost some authority, but prospects are good he'll be made a top sergeant some day.

up to date, Glide, Kelly, glide!

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The silk worm men worked hard and long. Said Clowny, "Gee, they must be strong to climb around those great big trees for silk worms all day. Of course I've climbed in big trees, too, but all we ever used to do was scamper out on one long branch, just as a part of play."

"Of course they're strong," the Travel Man replied, "and I am sure you can do everything that they do if you keep yourself in trim. It's exercise that does the trick and keeps a person feeling sick. Now, see that great big fellow? I was once strong, just like him."

Soon Scouty said, "Well, come let's go. We've seen enough of this fine show. I'd like another ride upon our caravan. It's fun." "All right," replied the Travel Man. Away from all the trees they ran, all hoping they would reach some town before the day was done.

Back to the baskets queer they jumped and slowly long the road they bumped. It wasn't long till Carpy cried, "I see some water. Gee, why can't we stop and take a dip and that much more wed like this trip." The Travel Man then told them they were near the Caspian Sea.

Up to the shore they slowly rode. Once more the mules all lost their load. The Tinymites took off their shoes and waded for a while. Then Coppy spied a sight that he was very much surprised to see. Some women, near, were washing clothes. This made the whole bunch smile. The Travel Man explained the sight. Said he, "That stunt is quite all right. You see, today is

DAILY MARKETS

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, July 7. (AP)—Stock prices declined the early hours today as the bears resumed selling after the three day vacation. A few large blocks were offered at the opening at concessions of a point or two from the Thursday close, and prices continued to slide off, although trading became increasingly dull toward noon.

Losses of three points appeared in numerous leading utilities and industrials, including American Can, Gillette, Electric Power and Light, American Water Works, Westinghouse Electric, International Harvester and Vanadium Steel.

Call money renewed at 2 per cent.

Chicks Drub Bears

In Twin Bill Sunday

ATLANTA, Ga., July 7. (AP)—The lowly Mobile Bears were swamped in both ends of the double bill with the leading Memphis Chicks of the Southern Association Sunday, 11 to 8 and 7 to 3. Two big frames featured the first game as the Chicks made six runs in the initial session, and the Bears scored seven of their runs in the fourth.

By defeating Atlanta 6 to 4, the Chattanooga Lookouts regained 4th position in the league, only one game behind Birmingham, and forced the Crackers back into the second division. The Lookouts out-hit the Crackers 11 to 8 and Kenna got a homer.

After struggling through ten innings, Birmingham beat Nashville 9 to 7. It was the tenth straight loss to the Vols. Partidge got two homers and Anderson added another for the Vols while Sturdy hit for the circuit for the Champion Barons.

MARKETS CABBAGE CROP

FLOYDADA, July 7. (Special)—John Holums, of this city has begun harvesting his 1930 cabbage crop. He has five acres in vegetables this year, including cabbages, tomatoes, squash, beans and cucumbers. This is said to be the earliest cabbage harvest in this section.

Night baseball has proved a success for the Sacramento club in the Pacific Coast league.

Weak blood makes you tired...

When your blood is in poor condition, you quickly become tired, nervous, worn-out—and subject to chills, malaria and fever. But why suffer this way when you can help strengthen the system and restore vitality by taking GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC.
